Hicksville Sweeps Wantagh 76-43 To Join Formidable Four

By Howard Finnegan

Hicksville High dazzled Wantagh 76-43 to move into the final four of the Nassau County Class A Championships. In attaining its crowning status in 59 years of basketball history, Hicksville joined Hempstead, Long Beach and Uniondale in the tournament semi-finals.

Coach Wayne Bryan's charges sent a rugged Wantagh Club reeling from the outset.

Playing on the Roslyn High boards, the Orange and Black ran its season record to 20 wins, 2 losses.

Dave Smyth was an imposing force on defense. He combined with six steals in the opening quarter. Also assertive on defense, center Bill Cheslock scored directly on Mike Magee's passes.

Underscoring Coach Bryan's disciplined offense, Bob Russo came off the bench to sink four side buckets. Skarka had three in support Hicksville exploded to a 33-20 halftime lead.

Wantagh, which entered the quarter finals with a commendable win over regarded Hewlett, was shattered by an elite third period staged by Hicksville.

In the 27-6 spree Skarka finished with five baskets, Cheslock rejected two warrior shots. Smyth had four steals, and Magee nailed three passes by Troy Levy for layups.

The margin mounted to 62-26. In the final eight minutes, Bryan employed players who will comprise his 1984-85 team.

In a competitive quarter, Wantagh edged 17-16.

Success of the Hicksville Marching band can in great part be attributed to the many hours contributed by parents.

Splendid half-time presentations do not come about without organization and hard work. Production material has to be carted from stadium, set up, moved around and packed up again.

The support and muscle was provided by the Marching Band parents. The group deserves as much support as possible at their March fund raiser.

School Board Stands Pat On "Moment Of Silence" But June 13 Referendum OK'd

By Roslyn Wheeler

Last night's auditorium at Hicksville High School again was heavily crowded by an audience determined to try to convince Hicksville's School Board to reverse its decision against a "moment of silence" in the district's schools. Media from the major television networks, radio and the New York Times, New York Post and Newsday were there to record the event.

Last night was the final chance to persuade the School Board before it would finalize its vote. Try as the audience did for two hours by the majority of those that spoke at the microphone, the decision by the school board stood. Last night by a vote of 4-3 Hicksville School Board decided to do away with the "moment of silence" in the district's schools. The Pledge of Allegiance and the national anthem alone are to be the morning routine in the schools.

The audience booed at the council's decision; and people in the audience shouted to the Board that they did not care or listen to the audience's view.

Before the board's vote many people from the audience said they were in favor of continuing the High school senior and student representative Julie Dreslik said, "This is not a communist country, it's America and I'm in favor of." (Continued on Page 12)

Propane Torch Blast Destroys House

On Feb. 23, the quiet neighborhoods of northwest Hicksville were rocked by an explosion at 5:11 p.m. A leaking propane torch, whose fumes were ignited by the oil burner, blew out a wall 40 ft. into a neighbor's swimming pool and set the house ablaze. The blast, at 12 Jersey St., off Myers Ave., all but destroyed the split-level home, injuring one occupant. Four others escaped unharmed. Electrical power on the street was knocked out by the blaze.

Another 20 lb. propane tank was safely removed from the inferno without incident.

Hicksville firefighters extinguished the blaze in 15 minutes. The female victim was transported to Burns Ave. School where a waiting N.C.P.D. chopper took her to the Nassau County Medical Center, where she was treated for cuts on the head and released.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

VENERABLE SKIP MONTEFORTE'S MESSAGE: 'Ideas will not keep. Something must always be done about them.' Old Saying

Saturday, the 28th of April, is the night when the Galileo Lodge presents its 12th Anniversary and Third Annual Louise Massiello Memorial Scholarship Dinner and Dance. On this occasion the Galileo Lodge will also honor our Venerable, Carmine Monteforte, who served from March 1982 to March 1984. Tickets are available at $25 per person and the ceremony will include a cocktail hour, dinner, unlimited liquor, beer, soda, coffee and cake and dance music for your listening and dancing pleasure. Please note that payment of tickets must be made on or before April 18th. Joe Giordano will 'chair' this activity, ably assisted by co-Chairman Pete Massiello and a committee consisting of Joe Morace (938-5099), Rocco Lombardo (433-7284), Pete Sarandrea (796-5693), Armand Del Cioppo (938-5052), Frank Matassa (921-2843), Frank Governale (931-5234) and Robert Grimmer (795-2232). Additional tickets may be purchased by contacting any committee member mentioned above. As is the custom with this dance, a souvenir journal will also be featured.

Inertia is something that you don't find at the Galileo Lodge — there's always activity, constant motion, movement, with one activity following another, mixing the serious with the pleasurable. And other pleasurable activity to be held by the Galileo Lodge on Saturday, the 17th of March is the St. Joseph's Dance. Tickets sell at $12.50 per person, and in the offering will be a delicious hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music for your listening and dancing pleasure. A committee will be named shortly for this activity, and tickets can also be purchased by calling the Galileo Lodge (931-9351). Please note that a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy will be in effect that night and that 'zeppoli', a delicious pastry associated with St. Joseph's Day, will also be served that night. So for another night of pleasure and relaxation, why not attend this dance.

here at the Galileo Lodge.

News is news, but sometimes news takes on an added significance, as when we report the aquatic accomplishments of Kim Hecker, the 14 yr. old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hecker of our Lodge. So besides Kim being a potential and future Olympic hopeful, the news now is that Kim recently attended a swim meet of the Connecticut Wahoos AA Swim Invitational, where and when she won two Gold Medals, one in the 200 Butterfly (213.49) and the other in the 100 Butterfly (101.51). She also received two bronze medals for the 200 Free Style and the 100 Free Style, and in the finals her 500 Free Style at (515.26) was very impressive indeed for a young girl who recently celebrated her 14th birthday on February 11th. Kim is not a very big girl, but her heart, determination and talents certainly are. Congratulations from all of us

LODGE TIDBITS: Many of us did not know that Mary Monteforte, wife of our Venerable, Skip Monteforte, had a few physical problems from which she has now recovered and is doing quite well. A stay well wish from all of us here at the Galileo Lodge... Nice to report that our basement recreation area is almost near completion. The major problems, like heat and air conditioning, have been resolved, and now, or in a short period of time, this recreation area will be available to the membership. A fine job by many hard-working members of the Galileo Lodge... Happy to report that Frank Bentivegna, a new addition to our Lodge, will celebrate his birthday on March 12th... Newly-elected officers of our Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary will be installed on Thursday, the 22nd of March, in an auspicious ceremony held at the Galileo Lodge.

Legionnaires' Log

By Artie Rutz

CHARLES WAGNER POST # 421
HICKSVILLE N.Y.

One of the nicer events added to Legion life in recent years is the annual POST COMMANDERS' NITE and this year's edition was held last Saturday night at the Massapequa Post... A full house enjoyed the evening and particularly the introduction of each Post Commander to the large audience... The taking of a picture of each Commander with County Commander BILL DUNN was a nice touch and will make a welcome remembrance of the time and event... I remember a dinner tendered to our then national commander some years ago at which each Post Commander was photographed with the quest of honor and that picture was in the hands of each local weekly editor within 24 hours... Charles Wagner's table consisted of COMMANDER LOU BRAUN his CONNIE; 3rd DIVISION COMMANDER DICK HOCHBRUECKNER & his CYNTHIA; P.C. RAY GAMBLE & his MARIE; P.C. JOHN RIZOS & his JOAN; VICE COMMANDER HARRY CHRISTO & DORIS and, ARTIE RUTZ... Let's jump ahead a few months and bring into focus the next ATLANTIC CITY bus trip hosted by the PAST COMMANDER'S CLUB, as usual... Spurred on by the ever increasing popularity of this fun date, P.C. LOU CESTA will again chair this MAY 20th trip to the land sand, slot machines and black jack tables... The time is now - call Lou at SU 5-6583 and make your reservations for seats on this trip to Atlantic City and though we haven't firmed up a price yet, it probably will be close to what was charged for our last trip which was a resounding success (and everyone on the two busses resolved to make the next trip)... You have plenty of time to get your own group together, or just make this pilgrimage alone, but whatever your game is, make sure you call LOU tonight or tomorrow, or if you are a gambler, you can even wait till next week and take your chances on reservations being available... The DARK HORSE at the last meeting was taken in hand by LOU CESTA and led right to his barn at the POST GENERAL FUND for which the Post THANKS LOU... Last week we made mention of a BLOOD INSURANCE that COULD BE AVAILABLE TO Post members at the small cost of only $10 per year... This policy would cover the cost of an UNLIMITED supply of blood... Ah, but here's the rub, we must have the minimum of 40 members signing up for this insurance in order for the Post to qualify for this coverage... If you want 'in' on this bargain of bargains, please call COMMANDER LOU BRAUN and tell him so, or better still, show up at the next meeting and sign up... Don't be bashful and hold back, if we do not get 40 because you dilly dallied about spending $10 for your own protection, we might only get 39 and means NO DEAL... Sign up NOW... You can call the Commander at 681-7850 and have him add your name to the list... The Post voted to have a book placed in the JAMES M. MCLEAN NASSAU COUNTY AMERICAN LEGION MEMORIAL LIBRARY at HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY in memory of FRED TURNER... Our next meeting is Monday, MARCH 5th... And the next night we host the 3rd Division Caucasates & alternates, be there on time) and our own DICK HOCHBRUECKNER has thrown his 'hat' into the ring for the position of MEMBERSHIP OFFICER on next year's County Staff... He has competition from a 2nd Division Legionnaire from Elmont... Thought you might be able to think of some way to help one of your fellow Legionnaires, AL DONALS (aged 78) who was burned out of his apartment (in a big Bethpage fire weeks ago) and has lost everything (and had no insurance)... If you can help in some way please CALL Commander Lou at 681-7850, and tell him what you had in mind... Our annual AWARDS & CEREMONIAL NITE is scheduled for MARCH 17th and ALL members and their wives are invited to be on hand have a ball after the short ceremonies of the evening are concluded... If you are receiving an award (and you should receive notice thereof) then the evening has a special meaning to you and you definitely should go out of your way to be there... I will... Would be a nice night for old members to renew friendships, and new members to make new friends... Come on, put the date in your mind, and on your calendar... The Memorial Day Committee, under the chairmanship of P.C. WES TIETJEN, has launched its 1984 MEMORIAL DAY HICKSVILLE PATRIOTIC OBSERVANCE program with an organizational member last Tuesday evening at our Post headquarters.

Consumer's Corner

by Ron Roel

Fresh!

East side and west side, the talk at the Nassau Farmers Market in Bethpage is "fresh" - fresh fruits, fresh vegetables, all fresh, every Friday and Saturday.

"We go for 100 percent quality," says Casey Chiu, owner of the Farmers Market's east side produce stand Monday through Friday. Chiu spends the pre-dawn hours at Hunts Point Market in the Bronx, searching for quality.

"Every customer who buys my fruit - it's so sweet - he'll come again," says Chiu. Because he buys in quantity - Chiu also runs a stand in New York's Chinatown - he gets good prices at Hunts Point. "If anyone is cheaper than me, he can't be making money," Chiu says.

Casey Chiu's stand offers a wide assortment of freshness: snow peas, tangelos, yams, many types of apples and lettuce, leeks, onions, ginger, figs, finger hot peppers, Italian chestnuts, mushrooms, anises, kiwis, papayas. "Anything a customer wants, I want to have," he says.

In following consumer buying habits, Casey is battling 1000. Consumers buy more fresh fruits and vegetables - and more exotic types - every year, according to Debbie Stappell of the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association of Alexandria, Va. Part of this interest in "produce al dente" comes from a growing consumer concern for health, says Stappell. Most fresh fruits and vegetables are rich in vitamins and minerals. Leafy vegetables, in particular, supply us with anti-stress agents.

Furthermore, notes Stappell, consumers are discovering that it doesn't take any longer to prepare fresh vegetables than to cook frozen or canned ones.

At the west end of the Nassau Farmers Market, Pete Marchese, a 35-year produce veteran, also extolls "the joy of fresh." Like Chiu, Marchese spends his weeknights and early days staking quality over the 125 acre Hunts Point Market.

"We buy premium," says Marchese. He finds onions from Texas, grapes and nectarines from Chile, broccoli from Arizona, peppers from Mexico, cabbage from Canada. In the summer, he goes to Riverhead once a week to find the local finest.

Marchese learned the retail end of the business from his father; he learned the buying end himself - "the hard way." One of his sons works with him at the Farmers Market, another sells fruit at Hunts Point.

For Marchese, there is a lifetime of pride in produce. "Look at this," he says, opening up a box of newly-arrived squash. "It talks to you."

SPECIAL OFFER IN MARCH: Casey and Pete will give $1 worth of produce to anyone showing them this column.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:
Many concerned citizens of Hicksville are losing a lot of sleep. I am sure, and upsetting themselves greatly over something that, if they really study the situation carefully, may be presenting them with a wonderful opportunity to improve school attendance, scholarship, and the future welfare of all our present and future school children.

What do we tell our children to do when they find that there is something they want but simply cannot have? Do we not attempt to direct their desire to something else, or some other form of entertainment, pleasure, or whatever the category is? When they become parents, how are they going to attack situations that are not to their liking? The truly educated person does not "fly off the handle" when disappointed. He or she withdraws from the conflict to reflect to see whether the thing desired is necessary to his or her survival. Am I right?

School prayer, in my experience, had decided benefits, but I truly believe that this was so mainly because of Sunday School and church experiences. Had my family not been church-goers, I imagine the prayer would have fallen on somewhat deaf ears. I know that neglect of worship, regular religious instruction and religious practice or study is the underlying cause of the anomie of today's civilization. But school prayer alone cannot remedy this situation. It is necessary to adopt religion as a way of life for it to be effective.

Most churches are happy to help the unchurched to inaugurate religion as an integral part of their lives. There is absolutely no need for people to look to the school to do this, and it would be totally robbing time vitally needed to achieve the proper goals of the school, which do include, I believe, the building of character. Character building can be achieved by the schools, no doubt, if the preparation of the child at home is right. This is a proper field for the school to work in, or to investigate. Can school prayer alone do it? No.

Undoubtedly, the school can do much to prepare children to become knowledgeable citizens, good parents, trustworthy and capable workers, and to live happy, productive, and worthy lives. To this end, those who had the benefits of school prayer in their youth should now analyze exactly what the benefits were and search heart and mind to find other activities that also bring forth similar benefits. I have done this, and have come up with some suggestions as samples of what can be developed. These I shall offer to the School Board of Education. I truly believe that this presents an opportunity to address the task of character development, personal purpose in life, confidence in one's ability to accomplish, and satisfaction from all tasks and contentment.

Our participation in wars at the beginning of this century, along with the invention and acquisition of labor-saving devices and "canned" entertainment, spelled a deterioration in popularity of church-related things. Eventually this false belief in the capacity of mechanical devices to fulfill all human aspiration led to the condition recently given the name "anomie"—a state of society in which normative standards of conduct and belief are weak or lacking; a similar condition in an individual commonly characterized by disorientation, anxiety, and isolation. Surely the school can address this in many ways, without touching on religion. Let's do that and bypass arguments that get nowhere.

Very sincerely yours,
s/Lillian Margot

Dear Mr. Schwartz,
My name is Joanne Genzale. I am writing to you to express my concern relating to this issue of prayer in our schools.

I am a wife, mother, working person and a practicing Roman Catholic who attends Mass daily. I take all my rolls in life and my religion very seriously.

My daughter attends the high school and is now a senior. My son graduated this past June.

I have been active in community, school and charitable organizations for many years. I'm known as a religious person and have never been accused of being radical in my thinking. In some areas, I'm probably considered conservative and traditional—qualities I'm very proud of.

However, it's time to address the issue at hand. In my opinion, public prayer doesn't have a place in the public school system.

Prayer belongs in the home and, of course, in any house of worship a person chooses to attend. This is not a religious issue, but a constitutional one.

To make up rules to fit this particular situation is ludicrous, in addition to being unconstitutional.

I realize we are granted religious freedom under the Constitution and we are free to practice whatever that religion may be. However, it should be within the appropriate setting—and school is not the place.

I must also take exception to the way this situation has been covered in certain newspapers. It seems as if the media is making this a Jewish versus Christian issue.

I happen to know better! The people opposed to prayer in our schools are comprised of many different religious segments of our community, but the names mentioned in the articles seem to be only of the Jewish faith. What are people being led to think?

Once again, as a fellow human being, Christian wife and mother who believes in the sanctity of the family unit and in God, I must go on record as being adamantly opposed to public prayer and/or silent meditation in Hicksville Public Schools.

Peace and Fellowship.
Joanne Genzale
(Mrs. Patrick Genzale)

Dear Sheila,
Mrs. Rudin was outraged by my letter to the Editor, because I took her and the Board majority to task for setting the budget date for June 13th. The fact remains, that they did it without the courtesy of consulting their fellow board members or the Superintendent before hand. The June 13th date WAS NOT PART OF THE OPTIONS OFFERED for consideration. The recommended date for the annual vote was May 9th, and that was established many months before, and it was for this reason that many budget meetings and committee meetings were scheduled before hand—but for their own secret reasons, Mrs. Rudin and Mr. Ayers, in particular rammed it through. (Just like they did with our Silent Meditation policy) And now they refuse to reconsider their action, even in the face of jeopardizing the districts carefully worked out educational plan.

Mrs. Rudin, attempted to scare the community with the $2.14 tax rate increase, but since she is new on the Board, did not realize that half of the increase is NOT due to the expenditure budget, but because of a reduced surplus for 1983/84. Our surplus last year was $3,000,000, this year it is projected at 1.7 million, a 1.3 million dollar difference. Our projected increase of expenditure are 1,381,000 or a 3.8% increase. Last year at this time, the preliminary budget was 3,587,000 over the previous year, with a 10.3% increase, so as you can see, our starting point this year is much more brighter than last year! Last years tax increase was $1.86, we may very well match it or go lower!

Our State Aid picture is not as glum as Mrs. Rudin pictures it, she is basing her hysteria on Governor Cuomo's initial budget presentation, our legislators are already forming an offensive to increase state aid to their districts, equaling or surpassing last years state aid.

Last year when the same people were panicking, we ended up with $54,626.00 more STATE AID THAN WE ANTICIPATED, and the previous year we received $385,878.00 more than we expected. So why the urgency to hold off until June 13th?

As far as the Regents Plan affecting our 1984-85 budget is concerned—it is not likely to happen. The Regents have already dropped two expensive plans for the coming years, the added school year for students, and the foreign language provision. Our neighboring districts are not worried, 9 out of 12 are holding their annual elections before May 9th, so why should Hicksville be worried? It does not justify delaying a budget vote.

I am not attempting to railroad the budget through, I am only following the procedure set up by the Superintendent, and her staff, as outlined by the Board many months ago. It was the Board Majority, (Continued on Page 11)

Dear Friends...

Details of Wednesday's School Board meeting are covered on another page. Suffice to say that this Board has voted to add the question of whether or not the Moment of Silence shall be retained as School District policy, to the June 13th vote at which time we will also be voting on three seats for the school board and on our school budget. More on all this later.

Town Board Denies Hicksville McDonald's Request

The Oyster Bay Town Board has denied a request to modify restrictive covenants regarding the hours of operations and an entrance/exit at the McDonald's in Hicksville, according to Town Councilman John Venditto.

"The applicants, Kidder-Hunt Management Corporation, McDonald's Corporation, Sanford Abrams and Sidney Bach, sought relief from restrictive covenants in order to construct an entrance/exit onto Princess Street (Princess Avenue) through an existing on-site parking field," Venditto said. The petitioners had also requested Town Board permission to increase the hours of operation to include Monday through Friday, 6 AM to 11 PM.

Saturday 7 AM to Midnight and Sunday from 7 AM to 11 PM.

Venditto indicated that the Town Board had denied the application because of the adverse impact on the neighboring residential community, and cited increased traffic, and on-street parking problems that would result, as well as traffic safety concerns because Princess Street where it intersects with Broadway is not controlled by a traffic light.

Residents of the area who attended the public hearing which was held on January 24, expressed opposition to the application because of concerns about noise and increased traffic, among others.

Hicksville Fire Report

Ten Departments Battle Warehouse Blaze

Hicksville firefighters, assisted by nine other Fire Departments, battled a warehouse fire for almost 12 hours on Tuesday, Feb. 21st.

The first alarm was sounded at 1:32 p.m. Vamps found upon arrival, at the Wasserman Bag Co., 70 Commerce Pl., that workers changing a propane tank on a fork lift, accidentally dropped the tank causing a flash fire that spread quickly to bales of burlap bags, paper bags and several other types of bags.

Firefighters managed to confine the smoldering fire to the northeast corner of the building. Bales of bags, 30 ft. high, hampered efforts to extinguish the fire. During the course of operations, Units from neighboring Fire Departments were called in to assist in breaking down walls and cutting open the roof to get at the burning bags. The Town of Oyster Bay provided a payload and crane to remove the burning bales from the building.

Operations continue through the night into the early morning hours. Fire Departments assisting Hicksville Vamps were Jericho, Syosset, Plainview, Bethpage, Levittown, Carle Place, Farmingdale, and Westbury. Hicksville Fire Dept. Ladies Auxiliary provided food at the scene and at Fire Headquarters, interrupting their anniversary celebration planned for that evening.

Fire operations were under Chief Owen Magee and Assistants Schuckmann, O'Brien and Farrell. 150 firefighters using 25 pieces of apparatus and over 3,000 ft. of hose, confined the blaze to the northeast corner enabling the warehouse to remain in operation. A damage estimate was not available, but estimates go as high as $750,000.00.

There were no injuries reported.

Cub Scouts Tour Post Office

Cub Scouts from Hicksville Pack 293 watch as Postal Supervisor Joe Feleppa shows them how their letters get cancelled.

Over twenty scouts and their leaders enjoyed a behind the scenes look at their mail.

"How does the mail get in those little boxes?" asked the scouts from Hicksville Pack 293 as they looked at the post office boxes in the post office lobby. They soon found out as they went behind the scenes to see how clerks and carriers sort their mail to the boxes or for home delivery.

The scouts watched a film on how their letter gets delivered. Then they watched letters being cancelled. At a letter carrier case they saw some of their home addresses where their mail is sorted every morning by their letter carrier.

Each scout received a stamp album, commemorative post card and booklets on stamp collecting. Any school group with children 7 or older interested in touring the Hicksville Post Office can write or call the Public Information Office 433-7300, extension 50.

Girl Scout News

By Gerry Geannakis

Last Fall, as an incentive to boost Girl Scout membership, Nassau Council of Girl Scouts offered a day at Old Bethpage Restoration Village troops that fulfilled certain requirements. This incentive, known as "ONE TWO THREE---FREE SPREE", was a major success especially for Hicksville girls. Two hundred and six troops in all of Nassau Council qualified. Hicksville Community very proudly had the greatest number of qualified troops of all the communities of Nassau Council. There were ten Brownie Troops and four Junior Troops.

Brownie Troops: #3023 Koreen Caserio and Dorothy Hyde, #3129 Nancy Hoosack and Fran Abarno, #3181 Joyce Wagner and Eileen Sarrie, #3548 Theresa DiConza and Laura Heyer, #3116 Donna

Probst and Wilma Hill, #3180 Catherine Pearsall and Joann Radice, #3368 Catherine Corrado and Martha Mueller, #3433 Carol Gross and Debbie Brown, #3611 Lola Myron and Toni Vaccolla, #3682 Janice DeFillippo and Grace Baruccheri.

Spending a day at Bethpage Restoration Village is a wonderful experience any time of year. Spending a day there in the middle of winter gives the visitor a view of what life in the 1850's was really about. The bitter cold discourages the usual summer crowds and punctuates the silence. This gives the winter visitor a sense of reality that is lost in other seasons. Girl Scouts that spent the day there got to see and feel a not-so idyllic life. The Village is a living museum which taught the girls not only a lesson in history but to appreciate their own life style even more.

The girls learned about school life in 1850. They saw how farm women spent their time and they saw the houses and furnishings of that period. They played games that children of 1850 played (not anything like video games of today).

Thank you to the troops that donated food to the Westbury Day Care Center. Their service was greatly appreciated. Junior Troop #3515 Fran Wojtyniak and Carleen Murphy, Brownie Troop #3129 Barbara Linnehan and Barbara Tufano, Junior Troop #3155 Gina Diana, Cadette Troop #3337 Ralph Diana.

POBRRC In Near Sweep Of LI Interclub Feb. Relays!

Teams representing the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club took two first place trophies, a second place and fourth place in the February 18 Sunken Meadow State Park Long Island InterClub Relays sponsored by the Northport Running Club.

POBRRC's "Fast Feet" Women's Racing Team took first place by over a full minute in the women's competition, completing the 6 runner by 2 miles each course in a total 83 minutes, 10 seconds. Liz Flahavan turned in the top time of 13:07, but it was a team effort that did the trick, as teammates Nancy Grever, Theresa Gregory, Nancy Ackley, Jeanne Ofenloch and Doreen Pettus each turned in superb performances as well.

The POBRRC "Gold" and POBRRC "Green" Teams sped to first and second places respectively in the Mixed competition.

Each mixed team consists of four men and two women running the 2 mile course. POBRRC's "Gold" championship team of Howie Greenberg, Art Koppelman, Pat Mulrain, Andy Mulrain, Jeanne Ofenloch and Theresa Gregory finished the course in 76 minutes, 20 seconds, with Howie showing the way with a fine time of 10:59 for the two miles. POBRRC's second place "Green" Team of John Grever, Michael Davidson, Bert Jablon, Al End, Nancy Grever and Erica Gassen were close behind in 78 minutes, 45 seconds.

POBRRC's entry in the open competition (any six runners, regardless of age or sex) also performed creditably, with a fine fourth place finish. The Open Team consisted of Larry Davidson, Michael Davidson, Bob Sherman, George Ofenloch, Howie Greenberg and John Grever.

"This was a very big day

for our Club" noted POBRRC Club President Mike Polansky. "Our fine showing in the mixed competition shows what a well balanced Club we have, with male and female runners of all ages ready to participate. We're especially proud of the Fast Feet Women's Racing Team. This is their first official outing as a team, and both they and their Coach David Canner can certainly be proud of a job well done." This was the 5th annual running of the InterClub Relays, but the first time that it has featured a separate women's competition.

Holy Family Fifth Grade Wins CYO Championship

Holy Family's once-beaten talented fifth grade basketball team captured the CYO Westbury Region league championship Sunday by defeating St. Dominic of Oyster Bay, 31-16, in Hicksville.

The Eagles and Doms battled on even grounds in the first half with Holy Family, now 11-1, taking at 14-12 lead at the half as David Cohen tossed in 10 points and Paul Rom and John Coyle added two each.

Holy Family was not able to break the game open until the fourth period when Coach Jim Bradley switched his team from a man-to-man defense into a fullcourt 1-2-1 zone press. The strategy worked as the quicker Eagles forced the Doms into committing numerous turnovers.

Leading 19-14, Holy Family reeled off 12 straight points to ice the victory. Rom, Cohen, Danny Fujimoto, Victor Cornelius, and Ted Knoop all had baskets, and Paul Maresca added two foul shots in the decisive spurt.

Cohen, who connected on four field goals and seven of 12 foul attempts, led all scorers with 15 points. Rom and Coyle chipped in with four points each as seven players figured in the scoring for Holy Family.

Hicksville Youth Council Wants You!

Are you a local businessperson or homeowner with some work to be done? There are local Hicksville young people who are eagerly searching for a job.

Hicksville Youth Council offers an employment program that is designed to provide employers in the community with a free placement and referral service to fill their job vacancies. When a job is listed with the Youth Council, Cynthia Sosa the employment counselor reviews the specific requirements of the position, prescreens youth applicants and refers young people to the employer for an interview. The program although not new, was briefly inactive for a few months this fall but is back in full operation. In addition to job placement, Cindy is also visiting local business establishments to develop job listing and get to know the needs of the local merchants.

The Rent-A-Kid program is designed for those young people who are too young to work in a regular part time job and matches local youth with community residents who need odd jobs performed. These jobs may be chores around the house that are one time only as well as regular on going services such as babysitting. Young people are matched according to previous job experience and geographic location so that the problem of transportation is minimized. These programs are particularly unique in that for many young people, it is their first introduction to the world of work and what it means to have a job. All applicants are prescreened with the employer or local homeowner doing the actual hiring. The youth applicants are given an orientation to the responsibilities of working and having a job. Follow-up is done to ascertain the outcome of the interview as well as to mediate any problems that may arise during employment. Youth applicants are encouraged to give thought to what their future career goals might be as it is vitally important for young people to begin to focus on the reality of working as soon as possible. Whenever possible, young people will be placed in a position that reflects their future goals. To list a job, please call Cindy at 822-7594.

The Hicksville Youth Council also sponsors programs in recreation and leisure time as well as Family Life Supportive Services. A Chapter of Big Brothers/Sisters is run by the Youth Council as well. Volunteers from the community are always needed to serve on the agency's Board of Directors as well as to participate in the various programs.

For additional information about the Youth Council or to get a speaker for your group meeting, please call Barbara Nelson, Executive Director at 822-7688. The Speakers Bureau at the Youth Council will speak to any group large or small about young people today. Also available is Utopia, an adolescent theatre group who write and perform skits about vandalism, peer pressure and the many issues affecting young people today. The group has performed at schools and other local groups throughout the community. Give Barbara or Cindy a call and get involved with young people - they are a terrific resource and the building blocks for our future!

Haz Mat Team Assists Farmingdale

The Hicksville Fire Department's Hazardous Materials Response Team responded to assist Farmingdale firefighters early Saturday, Feb. 25th. Seven men, under Chief Magee and Team Leader F/F Robert Johnson, responded after leaking refrigeration gas caused several Vamps to be sick during a fire on Main St. that destroyed a delicatessen.

Freon gas, under fire, can be changed into phosgene gas. Team members requested adjoining apartment dwellers be evacuated while they shut off the gas supply and vented the walk-in refrigerator. The entire operation took one hour.

Hicksville Haz Mat Team leaders have been conducting awareness sessions and have visits to Freeport, Glen Cove, Plainview and Farmingdale scheduled in ongoing efforts to acquaint Vamps on Haz Mat problems and solutions. Team members and the Department will host a gasoline tanker rollover seminar on May 6th in Hicksville for area fire units. The school will be conducted by Safety Systems of Jacksonville, Fla.

High School Students Visit With NY Islanders

By Pamela Selman

Students from Mrs. Roberta Soroka's Resource Room at Hicksville High School went to Citiquest Park, on Friday, February 10, to watch the N.Y. Islanders practice session. They had an opportunity to interview rookie goalie Keely Hruddy. Senior Pamela Selman introduced the speakers and served as mistress of ceremonies for the video tape.

Senior Mike McKibbin asked Kelly how he was inspired to become a goalie. Kelly replied, "I started playing street hockey when I was 12 years old in Edmonton, Canada and I always ended up being the goalie." Joan Walsh inquired about Kelly being the third goalie on the Islanders. He said that it's a position that he has to be content with at this time even though he'd like to play every game. Eleventh grader Donna Smith found out that Kelly is happy to be on a championship team, but he knows it's harder to break in with them. Kelly told senior Joe Logoskiy that he would love to be able to play in the playoffs this year, but doubts that he will get that chance.

The cameramen for the video production were senior Walter Polan and junior Bill Blazo. Teacher Mrs. Soroka and her students had a very enjoyable experience watching the N.Y. Islanders at work... getting in shape for a possible fifth Stanley Cup victory.

that set up the time table unexpectedly on February 8th. The burden is on them to explain WHY? If it is because of the Prayer issue, then let them be honest enough to admit it! One thing for sure the community is not going to forget it come school board election time, June 13th or whatever.

Sincerely,
BILL BENNETT
Member of the School Board

Dear Councilman Clark,
During the public session of the February 15th Board of Education meeting, you spoke to the subject of silent meditation in Hicksville public schools. In your argument against the Board's decision, you carelessly made a false statement about PTA. You stated that PTA is pro-abortion. This is not true. PTA has never taken a stand on the abortion issue, as we have not taken a stand on the current meditation issue. The organization has always remained neutral on controversial issues such as this. A person of your standing in the community should gather his facts from more reliable sources and use more discretion before making detrimental remarks.

Sincerely
Susan Epstein

One-Man Show

Actor/Author Norman Dietz will bring his dramatic retelling of the life of Christ, "The Jesus of Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, and Norman," to Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 West Nicholas Street, Hicksville, on Ash Wednesday, March 7, at 7:45 P.M.

Mr. Dietz's presentation, in pungent contemporary language, but based on ancient New Testament narratives, recounts the story of Jesus in a manner similar to that in which it must first have been handed down by oral tradition two thousand years ago.

Beginning with Jesus's birth in poverty, the tale sweeps along through his life of healing and teaching, and his growing conflict with the authorities, to his capture and trial, his harsh death by Roman crucifixion, and thence to the cold, but unexpectedly empty tomb. Mr. Dietz has pieced it together from the words of the four Gospels themselves.

Norman Dietz is a writer, actor, and director. His plays are performed by theater companies and amateurs throughout the United States, Canada, and England. He and his wife, Sandra, have presented close to two thousand performances of his unique fables and theater pieces in New York, on college and university campuses, in theaters, churches, and convention centers all over North America.

"We invite you to join us on Wednesday evening, March 7, at 7:45 P.M. Trinity is located two blocks north of Old Country Road, between Broadway and Jerusalem Avenue in Hicksville," said a spokesperson.

At The Hicksville Library

The American Chamber Ensemble featuring Blance Abram at the piano, Naomi Drucker, clarinet, and Timothy Baker, violin, will present a program including works of Milhaud, Brahms, Weigl and Bartok at the Hicksville Public Library on Sunday, March 4th at 3:00 P.M. in the Community Room of the Library.

This concert is co-sponsored by the Hicksville Public Library and the Town of Oyster Bay, Cultural and Performing Arts Division, and is part of the 8th Annual Distinguished Artists Concerts Series.

Everyone is invited and the admission is FREE. The artists are exceptional and all should take this opportunity to listen and enjoy the best in musical performances.

At The First Baptist Church

Beginning this Sunday, March 4, the First Baptist Church of Hicksville located at the corner of Liszt and Pollok Streets will be holding revival meetings. These meetings will continue through Wednesday night, March 7. The services begin at 11:00 A.M. Sunday morning, 7:00 P.M. Sunday evening, and at 7:00 P.M. Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings. All religions and denominations are welcome to attend these services. Our guest speaker will be Evangelist David Bixler from Williamsport, Pennsylvania.

pel ministry by the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Williamsport, Pennsylvania on June 30, 1978. He is a graduate of Tennessee Temple University, Chattanooga, Tennessee - 1980.

In February of 1973 he began working full-time for the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, where he visited on the eight bus routes. It was his privilege in June of 1973 to become the Youth Director, where he served for five and one-half years. Also, during this time he served as assistant pastor to his father, who is the Pastor of the Emmanuel Baptist Church.

During the last three years while in evangelist work, he has had the privilege to speak in Georgia, New Jersey, Delaware, Indiana, Virginia, Alabama, and throughout Pennsylvania.

Make your plans to attend these services in which a spiritual blessing you will receive. For further information call Pastor Kevin Rawlins at 938-7134.

School Board Stands Pat On "Moment Of Silence"

a moment of silent meditation."

Frank Grimer, a graduate of Hicksville High School and a former Board member said to the Board, "if you can't make up your mind give it to the people, put it on the ballot and you'll see what will happen in Hicksville, it'll stay in Hicksville."

Nancy Danowski, a concerned parent said that she and another parent Marcia McCrann had collected 654 signatures on a petition favoring a moment of silence and the petition would be given to the Board.

But despite all the speeches that the School Board heard, board members Honey Singer, Arlene Rudin, John Ayres, and Lawrence Wolfson remained firm on their decision.

Wolfson tried to make the board's view clear to the audience.

"We are not expelling God from the schools," said Wolfson. "None of us are irreligious. This is not an issue of religion, no one on the board is against prayer but students should not be mandated to do so." That is what the school board members are against Wolfson explained.

School Board president

Jay Schwartz and vice president William Bennett tried to propose several compromises that would make the moment of silence voluntary, or referred to as contemplation but those proposals lost twice in a vote by 4-3. Bennett also suggested tabling a decision till the Supreme Court made a decision. The majority of the board was against that also.

However, they did accept a final suggestion by Bennett to present the issue as a referendum on the June 13th ballot that would include the district's school budget. This would allow the board to see district residents' opinion on the moment of silence but it has no power to force a change in the board's decision. That would be up to the board members serving after the election of three candidates who will be running for re-election on June 13.

Something To Think About

BILL WAGNER DIRECTOR

DISCUSSIONS OF DEATH

Psychology Today once asked its readers to fill out a questionnaire on the subject of death. One surprise was the volume of the responses. More than thirty thousand readers returned the research questionnaires. That was fifty percent more than the number who had filled out a similar questionnaire about sex!

Let's not jump to conclusions. It doesn't mean that more people are interested in one subject over the other, or even that this is true for the readers of Psychology Today. However, it does indicate — as supported by reader's comments — the desire/need to discuss the subject of death openly.

At the same time that people feel an urgent need to talk about death, it is a topic which most persons do not know how to discuss. An important conclusion is that we should learn how to share our feelings/fears about death without embarrassment, evasion, or pretense. It is a natural part of life to be faced not feared and should be dealt with as a reality.

Registration Deadline For Oympic Torch Relay Extended

In response to demand from Long Island schools, many of which were closed the week of February 12 to 18, the Nassau Farmers Market in Bethpage has extended the registration deadline for the 1984 Olympic Torch Relay. Almost 400 youngsters have signed up for this special program to select the "Youth Legacy Kilometer Torchbearer" to represent Long Island in the nationwide, cross-country Olympic Torch Relay from New York to Los Angeles.

The Nassau Farmers Market will hold a drawing to choose one youngster, age 8 to 17, to run one kilometer in the relay. To qualify, participants must run one kilometer under seven minutes. Registration to participate in time trials and torchbearer selection has been extended to Friday, March 2 and 9, and Saturday, March 3 and 10, at the "Olympic Booth" (Number 313, Aisle B) at the Nassau Farmers Market on Route 107 (opposite Grumman) in Bethpage. The booth is open from 11:00 A.M. to 8:00 P.M. There is a one dollar registration fee, and parents must sign the registration form.

Participants will be assigned a number and a time to report for qualifying runs, which will be held on Sunday, March 4 and 11 on a one-kilometer course around the Farmers Market. The names of all youngsters who complete the run within seven minutes will be entered in the drawing to select the official torchbearer at 4:30 P.M. on March 11.

The name of the winning youngster will be drawn by Bruce MacDonald, former manager of the US Olympic Track and Field Team (1972, 1976), and a competitor in the 20 km walk (1956) and the 50 km walk (1960, 1964).

For further information on the Olympic Torch Relay, call the Nassau Farmers Market at (516) 931-8400.
