PRESIDENT PETE MASSIELLO'S MESSAGE: 'Much happiness is overlooked because it does not cost anything,' Old Saying

The Galileo Lodge announces that its Blood Bank session was quite good. The medical technicians were great, the help from the male and female members was equally as good. Chairman Jim Posillico supervised superbly and the kitchen force performed admirably, they were Pete Ragone, Pat Gatto, Theresa Gatto, President Mary Monteforte, Frank Matassa, Al Martello and John Payne. Florence Perotti and Marion Dansoglio who assisted at the door, and Ernestine Surdo also gave her assistance. Joe Magliotta, the Grand Lodge Bood Chairman, and Jim Posillico, the Galileo Lodge Bood Chairman, also donated blood. Gloria Horscham, of the L.I. Blood Chapter also aided and abetted. A sincere thank you from President Pete Massiello to all these helpful and thoughtful people who also donated their time and effort for this worthy cause.

FORGET MENOTS: On July 8th, a Sunday, the Ladies Auxiliary are planning a trip to Hunter Mountain, which, incidentally, will have celebrities as Julius La Rosa, Jerry Vale, Lou Carey and Tony Simone performing. The fee is $20 per person, and this includes roundtrip bus fares, admission, tolls and parking. Children pay $17. Food tents will be available throughout the area where you can get anything from antipasto to coppucino, and, of course, other Italian delights such as pasta and other delicacies. An Italian Folk Mass will be held at 11 A.M. for those willing to attend. Contact Fran Ausiello (433-8783) for more details and questions.

And an announcement from Sue Laurenti (931-0036) that rehearsals for the 1984 'Foolies Follies' will take place every Tuesday night up until July 3rd, but none on July 10th and then again every Tuesday night from 8 to 10 P.M. up and until the 'Foolies Follies' actually takes place. Claire Fuoco (334-5329) will be the Asst. Director, ably assisting Sue. The 'Follies Follies' is more or less predicated on the talents, professional or otherwise, of the male and female members of the Galileo Lodge. The actual date of the 'Foolies Follies' is Friday, the 9th of November.

And another activity, the Italian Football Wedding Dance, which will be held on Saturday, the 25th of August, is nostalgic, humorous and a delight to watch. So watch for more information in later columns.

LODGE TIDBITS: Mr. and Mrs. Al Frigente of our

Lodge proudly announce that they have become grandparents again as they were blessed with the birth of little Brandon William Wadleigh, weighing 7 lbs. and 12 oz. And, of course, a hearty congratulations from the Galileo Lodge members...Next golf outing might take place in late July or early August. Stay tuned here for more news from Bert Molinelli, the Chairman of Golf Committee...Contact ex-President Skip Monteforte (938-9358) if you have a daughter, niece or cousin who might like to sign up for the Galileo Lodge Beauty Queen for 1984. Contestants must be 16 to 21...And don't forget our picnic which is being held at Eisenhower Park on Sunday, August 12th. The section is called the Pear-Apple area, so call Tony Sica (796-8789), the Chairman, for more details...Bowling starts on September 7th, which will be a mixed event, so ladies are not left out...Nice to report that Michael

LILCO's Shoreham Nuclear Power Station Report

Long Island Lighting Company issued a position paper on its Shoreham Nuclear Power Station on May 30, 1984. The paper was issued after months of careful consideration by LILCO's new management and its Board of Directors. It concluded that the assurance of adequate supplies of electricity at reasonable rates could be best achieved by licensing the Shoreham Plant. Since this conclusion is important to the future of Long Island's energy policy, its underlying reasons are worthy of review.

The paper recommends a 13-year phase-in of the capital investment of the Shoreham plant, which when combined with other rate mitigating measures would provide the residents of Long Island the benefits of Shoreham while minimizing increases in electrical rates. Under LILCO's plan, the average annual rate increase over the 13-year period would range between 5% and 6%. Discounted for inflation, the real price of electricity would decline, not increase over that time span. In fact, if the plan is enacted, the actual rate increase this year would be less than the proposed rate increase presently before the Public Service Commission.

Fundamental to the LILCO plan is the sale of LILCO's 18% interest in the Nine Mile Point 2 nuclear project in Scriba, New York, to the New York Power Authority or other state bonding agencies. The sale of this asset releases LILCO of $500 million of debt and the obligation to invest an additional $500 million over the next few years. New York Power Authority could raise funds for this project through tax exempt bonds and repay those bonds through the sale of the electrical power from the Nine Mile plant. The transaction is not a "bail-out" but the sale of an asset in exchange for an equitable return, financed through bonds—not through taxpayers' or ratepayers' money.

LILCO hovers on the brink of bankruptcy, not particularly because it requires high rate increases, but because the uncertainty surrounding the Shoreham plan precludes borrowing in the financial markets. The LILCO paper proposes a modest rate package and deferred revenues in return for assurances that the Company will survive. The plan is designed to benefit the ratepayer and to avoid bankruptcy of the utility.

The public should understand why LILCO decided to proceed with the licensing of the Shoreham plant; the alternatives to licensing the plant it considered, and the reasons why LILCO discarded these options. These alternatives included: (1) the sale of the plant to the New York Power Authority from which there was no offer; (2) abandonment and disassembly of the plant; or (3) "mothballing" the plant, i.e. maintaining it in a ready-reserve status.

The LILCO board rejected the abandonment option for the following reasons: (1) LILCO services the only geographic region in the United States that is totally dependent on foreign oil to generate electricity; for Long Island consumers, Shoreham is the only alternative to oil-based power plants in the immediate future; (2) the ratepayers and taxpayers of Long Island would bear a severe economic penalty for not licensing the plant—estimated by four independent studies to aggregate between $12 billion and $16 billion over 30 years; (3) the loss of Shoreham would impose the construction of two substitute coal-fired plants at an additional capital investment of $3 billion to $4 billion, i.e. over and above the costs incurred for the Shoreham plant; (4) the reliability of the LILCO electric system would be degraded in the near term as Long Island faces an installed reserve deficiency next year without Shoreham.

The LILCO board could not justify the destruction of a $4.1 billion completed power plant capable of furnishing one third of the electrical energy requirement for Long Island—a region totally dependent on foreign oil for its energy supply, located in New York, a state that consumes 24% of all the oil used in the United States to generate electricity.

The board rejected the mothballing option for the following reasons: (1) the ratepayer of Long Island would bear a financial burden to maintain a plant in a condition without any economic benefit in return; (2) the likelihood of obtaining a commercial license in a mothballed state would diminish with the passage of time; (3) mothballing postpones an inevitable decision about the plant; eventually the cost of maintaining the plant in this state of readiness become prohibitive and the economic loss to the ratepayers would be at least as great as the abandonment option; (4) lacking consensus among federal, state and local government to mothball the plant for a specific period of time, the mothball option risks the future usefulness of the plant.

The board also considered the quality of the plant. The Shoreham plant has been favorably reviewed by the Atomic Safety and Licensing Board of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission. Nationally recognized design and engineering firms have also studied the plant's design documents; quality assurance programs and construction practices and found them to be satisfactory, indeed exemplary in many areas. Although the licensing of the back-up diesel generators will continue through 1984, the problems with the diesel have been addressed. As Dr. George Keyworth, science advisor to the President, recently declared, "The problems of faulty back-up diesel generators at the plant were easily solvable." Unlike other delayed nuclear stations, Shoreham is not a "troubled" plant; all studies concluded Shoreham is a quality plant.

The LILCO board thoroughly investigated the off-site emergency response plan—the major obstacle to licensing the plant. Federal regulations require a 10-mile evacuation plan for a nuclear plant; but the present leadership of Suffolk County claims that a 20-mile zone is needed for Shoreham. County officials say that the evacuation of a 20-mile zone is impossible and refuse to participate in the emergency planning process. The Executive branch of New York State government has joined the county in its opposition to the implementation of an emergency response plan.

Every other nuclear plant in New York State and the rest of the country for that matter, operates with a 10-mile emergency planning zone; in fact, the Shoreham evacuation times compare favorably with most other plants in the country. In New York alone, the Shoreham emergency zone can be evacuated more rapidly than both Indian Point and the Nine Mile site. The fact is that Shoreham is exceptionally well situated for evacuation planning; it has excellent roads, a large number of cars per capita, flat terrain, a high-quality police force and relatively stable winds. The Marburger Commission diplomatically observed, "The county position is a result of governmental, not purely scientific or technical processes. The evidence indicates the federally mandated emergency planning zone can be successfully evacuated."

A Nuclear Regulatory Commission Licensing Board is continuing to hear evidence on the LILCO emergency response plan for Shoreham. LILCO has called for a graded exercise under auspices of federal, state and local authorities in accordance with guidelines approved in advance by the State of New York to test the validity of an emergency response plan for Shoreham. In the absence of any evidence that an emergency response plan for a federally mandated 10-mile zone could not be implemented, LILCO has asked the state and the county to work with the utility to implement an emergency plan that safeguards the well-being of the community.

The Shoreham plant is completed. Whether or not it even generates electricity, it must be paid for. The issue is not whether LILCO should begin construction of a $4.1 billion nuclear facility. Rather, the question to be answered is why should not the people of Long Island receive the benefit from this completed plant? There is no valid reason for not pursuing a license to bring this plant into operation as quickly as possible. At this time, it is not clear whether Shoreham will open or not, and this uncertainty has caused financial instability for LILCO. Long Island's energy crisis requires prompt and responsible action by appropriate government officials.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:
The chronicles of Hicksville will show that the community grieved, indeed, this past week as a beloved pastor and two most active veterans-group leaders were taken by death. In the passing of Reverend Dr. Roland J. Perez, Pastor of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, and of Past Commanders John Sheppard of the American Legion and Daniel Hoison of the Amvets Posts, Hicksville was diminished. These were men who gave long years of service to God and community, contributing to the welfare of many in this village and the Island at large.

To be present Monday night at St. Stephen's, Hicksville's historic "English" Lutheran Church—as older residents knew it—was to be with people of many faiths honoring the memory of Pastor Perez who died Friday. The large turnout of his congregation, friends and community representatives for the memorial service was a tribute to one who was active for 15 years in so many areas of service.

This writer's records and newspaper clippings tell of this fine man's deeds as a Christian churchman and citizen; his pastoral leadership and inspiration; his organization of programs for handicapped children, and his role as a proponent of interfaith understanding and cooperation. We will remember, too, that as a citizen, Pastor Perez did not shrink from a call to Democratic political candidacy, in the early seventies, when the impact of a blighted West Broadway aroused his Zola-like anger and eloquence.

Those present in the charming little Tudor church Monday evening for Dr. Perez's memorial service were a most ecumenical gathering. Among those Hicksville religious one glimpsed were Pastor Theodore Grant of Redeemer Lutheran Church who rendered a warm eulogy; Father Frederick Harter, Pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola R.C. Church; Father Dominick Ciannella, Pastor of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church and Pastor John Krahn of Trinity Lutheran.

This participant found the requiem service more exultant than sad and in a beautiful setting: the Pastor's casket before the altar he served, his religious colleagues in their beautiful robes once more in ecumenical company, and the church and basement hall ringing with the old hymns dear to all Christians and, especially, to the Pastor: "I know That My Redeemer Lives," "Praise to the Lord," "The Strife's O'er, The Battle Is Done," "Onward Christian Soldiers," and the recessional hymn "For All The Saints."

In eulogizing his deceased friend, Pastor Grant recalled Pastor Perez was a man of varied experience and talents, as one who had the opportunity and the ability to serve in larger churches, but who preferred to respond to the pastoral call of St. Stephen's and the Hicksville community. There are many in Hicksville who are thankful that he chose to spend his priestly years in our vineyards.

Sincerely,
Richard C. Evers

Dear Editor,
It is with deep sadness that we learned of the passing of Dan Hoison, a dedicated and active member of this community for many years in the service of Veteran affairs and activities.

Dan loved his country with a passion, and served it well in times of war and need—he gave his life to the service of his fellow VETS, right to the end, for he was a loyal and loving comrade.

We have no way of knowing how many hearts he touched with his out-pouring gift of giving, but we do know that he will be remembered here in Hicksville, for Dan Hoison has established his own legend in town, one that commands respect, love of duty, honor, and devotion to our Country. May God bless DAN HOISON, for he blessed Hicksville.

Sincerely
Bill Bennett

TOB's Glorious Fourth

By Supervisor Joseph Colby

The Town of Oyster Bay is preparing a glorious celebration for the 4th of July at Townsend Memorial Park!

Townsend Memorial Park?

Who was Townsend and why do we have a memorial park named for him?

Many people in the northern part of Oyster Bay are familiar with the Townsend family, particularly Robert Townsend and the part he played in the history of Oyster Bay.

In 1776, after the defeat of the American Army at the Battle of Long Island, British troops used Raynham Hall as their headquarters. Raynham Hall was the home of Samuel Townsend and his family, all of whom were loyal patriots. Even though Samuel Townsend was arrested early in the war for his anti-British activities, his son, Robert, remained active as a spy for General Washington using the code name "Culper, Jr."

Robert, with the help of his sister Sally obtained vital information which led to the exposure of Benedict Arnold's plot to turn West Point over to the British.

Now you know why we have a Townsend Memorial Park.

But on to the celebration! Miss Dorothy Horton McGee, Town Historian and Chairman of the Town's Bicentennial Historical Commission has organized an outstanding program. Beginning at 11 A.M. Town officials, colour guards, members of veterans organizations, fire departments, youth, civic, fraternal and historical organizations will be marching. The Oyster Bay Community Band has planned to entertain with authentic music from the 1800s, playing instruments used during that period. And not to be missed is a presentation by our own Abraham Lincoln look-alike.

Consider this a personal invitation from me to you and your family to join the festivities on Wednesday,

Outstanding Students

The Hicksville High School students have been selected as outstanding students of German in an annual competition sponsored by the Long Island Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of German. Twenty students from Long Island, which includes Nassau and Suffolk Counties as well as parts of New York City, were identified as the highest achievers in the study of the German language.

In order to participate in the competition, students took a written examination

July 4th at 11 A.M. Townsend Memorial Park. The park is located just in front of Town Hall West on Audrey Avenue in Oyster Bay hemlet.

While you're in the neighborhood why not visit historic Raynham Hall? To celebrate the 4th, there will be games from the 1800s and free refreshments in the Gardens of Raynham Hall. The museum section will be open from 11 AM to 5 PM. (There is a very nominal admission fee for visiting the museum.)

Take advantage of everything the Town has to offer and have a happy and safe 4th!

In January and those who scored 90% or higher were selected to write essays. After the judging of the essays, students submitting exceptional works were designated as the winners.

Sabine Arnold took first place in the Level IV Native Speaker category. This group includes students who attempted the highest level of proficiency and who have some native language facility. Wendy Probst placed second in the Level II competition. This group includes students in the second year of German study.

Dear Friends

Please make note ... because of the Wednesday, Independence Day Holiday, Herald deadlines for ads and news copy this week must be Tuesday, July 3 at noon, at One Jonathan Avenue, corner of Old Country Road in Hicksville.

The "Concert Pops" of Long Island, under the baton of Dean Karahalos, will open its summer season at Eisenhower Park's Harry Chapin Lakeside Theatre on Friday, July 6 at 8 p.m.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS: congratulations to Laurie Jaeger, Math Bee Finalist representing Our Lady of Mercy School in Hicksville who was recently awarded $25 after competing with 17 other student finalists in the Citibank-sponsored Champion Math Bee Finals in Babylon. ... best wishes for continued success to Eugene Timotny Reilly who recently became an Eagle Scout, Boy Scouting's highest honor. Eugene, who is a member of Hicksville Troop No. 293 (whose leader is Wesley Villazon) also received a citation from the Town of Oyster Bay acknowledging his efforts toward this goal ... congratulations to Muriel Farley of Hicksville who recently received an engraved plaque for "extraordinary service" to the Nassau County Dept. of Volunteers program for over nine years service. Mrs. Farley contributed more than 300 hours of service last year alone!

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well and remember on Wednesday, that we are celebrating Independence Day, with much more freedom than its originators ever imagined. Also, that we have much to be thankful for here in a country, so great and so giving. Let's hope more and more of us are inspired to do our share ...

SHEILA NOETH

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wohl of Meadow Lane, Hicksville, happily announce the birth of their first child, Kevin Matthew, on Father's Day! Baby Kevin arrived at 6:21 a.m. and weighed 8 lbs. 7 oz. Mrs. Wohl is the former Cathie Clark. Proud grandparents are Alicemay and Earl Clark of Dartmouth Drive and Helen and Wesley Wohl of Willfred Boulevard.

• they reserved decision on the petition of Rockwell Realty Company for a change of zone from Res. D to Bus. F. in order to construct a three-story office building to be located on the north side of West John St. east of Myers Ave. in Hicksville.

• About thirty people appeared in opposition to this petition. They objected for several reasons.

At The Town Board Meeting

By Sheila Noeth

At its regular meeting held on June 26 in Oyster Bay, the Town Board acted as follows on these local matters:

- they reserved decision on the petition of C & B Realty Company No. 3 and B. Dalton Book Store for a modification of restrictive covenants recited in the declaration of restrictive covenants dated Aug. 18, 1953 by the Plainview Shopping Center, Inc. relating to curb cuts and interior lot lines, so as to allow the petitioner to construct a 3,000 square foot building on the southeast portion of the Plainview Shopping Center. No residents appeared in opposition to this petition. However, the Board itself questioned the footage set back from the curb and stated that they also felt that the proposed building's proximity to the road might interfere with the vision of motorists and thus present an obstacle to traffic in this area.

(1) that this is presently a Residence D area.

(2) that right now there is tremendous traffic congestion on John St.

(3) that cars of tenants of this proposed building would park on side streets which are narrow and some have no sidewalks, and that this would be dangerous to both children and adults alike.

(4) they suggested that further business development on John St. should be restricted to the south side where it would be less dangerous to residents.

(5) residents of homes located directly behind this proposed building felt that their privacy would be invaded by a three-story building, where tenants would be able to look down on them.

Attorney for the petitioner Bertram Corwin, Esq. stated that this building did meet all the standards laid down by the Town, such as 50 parking spaces, proper setbacks from sides, rear and front, appropriate shrubbery and fences as buffers. He also stated that he was sure that the property owners would concede architectural changes to placate the residents, such as not putting windows in the rear of the proposed building adjacent to the homes.

The residents felt that this property was much more suitable for the building of houses as the present zone permits.

The Board approved Resolution No. 608, 1984 relating to the sale of town-owned property on the west side of Broadway near Marginal Road in Hicksville.

They approved Resolution No. 617-1984, relating to the extension of times by the contractor to complete the capping and closure program at the Old Bethpage Solid Waste Disposal Complex. This was necessitated by adverse weather conditions and equipment failure. However, the capping must now be completed by August 31, and the final work by Oct. 31 of this year.

They approved Resolution No. 619-1984 permitting residents at 50 Dolor Court in Woodbury to build over an easement.

They approved Resolution No. 627-1984 directing the Town Clerk to advertise notice of a July 31 hearing to consider amendments to the plumbing code regarding lead solder.

They approved Resolution No. 629-1984 directing the Town Clerk to advertise a July 31 hearing to change purchasing procedures to that any bidding procedures in excess of $5,000.00 by the Dept of Public Works will be audited by the Dept of Public Works.

They approved Resolution No. 631-1984 directing the Town Clerk to advertise notice of a July 31 hearing on the petition of Donald Monti, Dr. Ralph Parisi and the Plainview-Old Bethpage Central School District, for a change of zone from Res. D to Bus. G District and for a special use permit to erect and maintain a professional office on the Bus. G portion of the premises and for a special use permit to erect and maintain a senior citizens residence home on the Bus. F portion of the premises on the southside of Old Country Road, west of the intersection of Gerhard Road in PLAINVIEW.

They approved Resolution No. 632-1984 directing the Town Clerk to advertise notice of an August 7 hearing on the petition of Bencal Associates for a change of zone from Res. A to #2 General Residence District and for a waiver of the Town Board rule requiring a one-year waiting period for re-application for a change of zone on premises on the northside of North Service Road of the LIE, east of major portion of entrance ramp for westbound traffic from the North Service Road to the LIE at Exit No. 40, west of the property of WERE Associates Co., in JERICHO.

They approved Resolution No. 610-1984 relating to a short street dedicated to the Town on the map of Country Estates in Hicksville. It was given by the JFC Construction Corp.

HICKSVILLE BURGLARY-ARRESTS

Two youths have been arrested for burglarizing the Hicksville Junior High School Second Street and Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville by entering thru a broken side window sometime between 6:00 P.M. on June 16 and 8:00 A.M. on June 17. They went to the chemistry class and stole one pound of solid sodium metal, in can immersed in kerosene.

Arrested at 11:45 A.M. June 18 by Det. Peter McGilone at the school was a 16 year old.

Another subject, age 17, a former student, was arrested by Det. Frank Guidice at 1:00 P.M. at the Pathmark Supermarket, Hicksville, his place of employment.

The container was recovered in a sump on the north side of Burns Ave., Hicksville. The Nassau County Bomb Squad has it in their possession. Apparently, the youths had taken small amounts of the chemical and threw it in the water. No injuries were reported. No traces of the chemical were found at the scene.

Both subjects were arraigned on the burglary charge at First District Court, Mineola.

PLAINVIEW ROBBERY ARREST

The 8th squad reports the details of the arrest of a Norwich man for robbery and attempted assault 2nd on a police officer June 20 at 5:30 P.M.

The robber entered Pergram, 1117 Old Country Rd., Plainview and went to one of the registers with a flashlight. He handed a $5.00 bill to the cashier. When she opened the drawer, he reached for the money and she slammed the drawer.

The man then put an Olympic bag on the counter and stated that he had a gun and for her to hand over the money. She gave him $79.25. Before leaving the store he asked for a receipt for the flashlight then fled on foot.

Eighth precinct P.O. Robert Krywak, after hearing the radio notification, went to the Plainview Bowl, Old Bethpage Rd. and saw a man fitting the description although he had changed his clothes to hide his identity. The man was taken into custody and later identified by the victim.

While paperwork was being done at the 8th precinct, the defendant Richard Wood, age 36, of 23 Clifford Rd. picked up an ashtray and threw it at Det. Paul Daniel, who was standing nearby, narrowly missing his head.

A full recovery was made. Wood was arraigned at 1st District Court, Mineola.

A residence on Foxwood St., Old Bethpage, was burglarized on June 19. Entry was gained through an unlocked side window. Cash and jewelry were reported stolen.

At The Hicksville Library

The Hicksville Public Library Board of Trustees will hold a reorganization meeting at the library on July 2nd at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in the Board Room of the library and is open to the public.

Patrons of the Hicksville Public Library will be pleased to know that additional parking is now available on Second Street, east of Jerusalem Avenue. Through the cooperation of the Town of Oyster Bay and Hicksville Public Schools, two hour parking is now permitted on the south side of Second Street at all times. Hopefully, patrons will no longer have to cross Jerusalem Ave. to use the library, a convenience mothers with children will appreciate. May we suggest that you visit the library and pick up programs of events scheduled for the adults and children this summer?

The Hicksville Public Library will be closed on Wednesday, July 4th, in observance of Independence Day. The Board and Staff extend best wishes for a safe and happy holiday to all.

Three displays are available for viewing at the Hicksville Public Library during the month of July.

The Town of Oyster Bay, Rotating Art Exhibits, has provided Stencilling by Harriette Hoolan and Pen and Ink Drawings by Samuel Frazer. The Stencils may be seen during regular library hours in the Lobby Case. The Pen and Ink Drawings can be found in the Community Room where they may be seen from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. daily and Saturday.

In the Fiction Room Case there will be an exhibit provided by the Hicksville Gregory Museum. It will consist of prints of Washington and Lincoln plus works of Hicksville Junior High School students depicting great Americans. This exhibit is available during regular library hours.

The Hicksville Public Library will show the film, "Oliver", on Friday, July 6th at 8:00 p.m. and Saturday, July 7th at 3:00 p.m. The musical version of the Dickens' classic won six Academy Awards including Best Picture and Direction. Fine period sets of the damp cobbled streets of Victorian London and particularly of Fagin's Den of Thieves give realistic flavor to this joyous entertainment. It stars Ron Moody and young Mark Lester as Oliver Twist. The movie is in color and runs about 2 1/2 hrs. There is no charge and everyone is invited. The Community Room is air conditioned for your comfort.

As of July 1st, the Hicksville Public Library will charge a nominal fee of 15¢ if a patron requests a book to be put on reserve. If you wish to reserve a book that is not in the library, simply write out a reserve slip which may be obtained at the Circulation Desk (no reserves are taken by phone) and when the book is back, the library will hold it for one week after notifying you by post card. This service is available to Hicksville residents only.

Something To Think About

BILL WAGNER DIRECTOR

TWO SEPARATE CHOICES

At we have so often stressed, the best time to plan for your funeral is while you are healthy. In that way, you can protect your loved ones from having to make a number of difficult decisions during a trying period.

You will have to consider both the DISPOSITION OF REMAINS and FUNERAL RITES. These are two separate matters calling for two or more decisions. The first is what to do with the actual body, burial or cremation. The second is what kind of religious or secular rite should accompany the disposition.

Many people frequently confuse and amalgamate the two. They may tend to think that expensive, ostentatious funerals go along with burial, and low cost simplicity, with cremation. This is not necessarily true.

For the funeral director it only means whether he drives to the cemetery or to the crematory for the disposition. The funeral rite is for the surviving family and those choices are many. Cremation doesn't limit a funeral it merely defines an ending.

Consumer's Corner

Summer Shopping Strategy
With the advent of summer, shopping takes on new dimensions as people begin outfitting their vacation homes and filling needs for outdoor equipment. Since much of this equipment winds up being replaced every year, this purchasing can be extremely costly.

In her recent book, Eileen Douglas's New York Inflation-Fighter's Guide (William Morrow & Co., 1983), the WINS Consumer Affairs reporter offers some tips on saving money on summertime shopping.

One strategy, she suggests, is to buy in bulk through "informal food co-ops." Douglas advises that you join with some neighbors or members of a community group and designate one person a week on a rotating schedule to buy bulk quantities of items and pro-rate the costs.

Another strategy she recommends is to visit the Nassau Farmers Market in Bethpage. This shopping bazaar houses more than 400 booths offering fresh fruits and vegetables, and all sorts of meats and ethnic specialties. It also sells paper goods, hardware, clothing, sporting equipment, knick-knacks, and much more.

"Nassau Market officials pride themselves on the deals they offer," she writes, "prices which they say attract shoppers from as far away as the Bronx." Douglas suggests, "Anyone driving to the Hamptons or Fire Island—where resort prices for a food prevail—can save with a food-buying detour to the Nassau Market. Stock up here the weekend you open your house for the summer."

The Nassau Farmers Market, which was built in 1954 and is now a landmark in Nassau County, is on Route 107 opposite the Gramatan plant, three miles south of the Long Island Expressway off Exit 41. It's open Fridays and Saturdays, 10 a.m.-10 p.m.

With bulk buying, and places like the Nassau Farmers Market, the cost of having some fun this summer won't make you lose your cool.

Ron Ross, a LI consumer specialist, is the author of How To Borrow Money (Simon & Schuster, 1981), and has written for Newsday and New York.

watching soaps, maybe you should know about some of the courses being taught at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Library.

If you enjoy sewing, why not take the sewing courses given at the Library. From 10 to 12 noon there is an intermediate and advanced sewing course. Ms. Lillian Myones, sewing instructor, says that you must know how to use a sewing machine and how to use a pattern.

Later in the afternoon, (1-3 pm), Ms. Myones will teach a separate course in pattern making. You'll learn to adjust your own pattern and how to make minor changes through collar, sleeves, and details.

There are 10 sessions given for each course. The first session starts on Tuesday, June 26, and continues every Tuesday through July and August with an addition of Monday, August 27. It's only $22 for these 10 sessions, but well worth the money.

Also at the Library is Danceercise. This new type of exercise includes various techniques including yoga, stretches, and isometrics. There are 6 sessions, given on either Mondays, Wednesdays or Fridays, to make it convenient for you. The cost of the 6 sessions is $12.

Another course that incorporates dancing is the Creative Dance course. Instructor Paula Klugman will show modern dance movement to bring out the dancer in everyone. Like the danceercise, this course is $12 for 6 sessions. It is given on Mondays through July and half of August from 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Expand your interests by taking one or more of the courses offered this summer by the library. Register for all three courses at the Circulation Desk. There are no refunds or cancellations.

The Library is located at 999 Old Country Road in Plainview, opposite the Morton Village Shopping Center (938-0077).

Postal Dogs Set Sights On Bites

Have you ever been attacked by a six foot dog? Have you ever seen a six foot dog? The postal service unveiled their new dog bite awareness program at the Parkway School, Manetto Hill Road, in Plainview on June 21.

Plainview letter carriers Tom Coppola and Frank Bonfiglio put on a unique skit to dramatize their problems with dogs. Bonfiglio played a dog in a costume which he designed.

Babylon letter carrier, Charles Wills demonstrated dog obedience techniques used by letter carriers to handle dogs on the route.

Last year over 7000 letters carriers suffered dog bite injuries. They were not alone... utility workers, delivery service person and small children also became dog bite victims, many suffering permanent disfigurement.

Summer is an especially dangerous season because more doors are left open and dogs are more often left outside where they can roam free and possibly bite those they perceive as intruders upon their territory.

"Dog bites can be disastrous," said Hicksville sectional center manager/postmaster Anthony M. Murello. "The postal service is assisting—and joining—its employees in actions to recover damages resulting from dog attacks."

Recently, in one of the largest dog-bite settlements in postal service history, a jury awarded $300,000 in damages to a Hollywood

DOG DAYS: Oyster Bay Town Clerk Ann R. Ocker presents a proclamation declaring June 21 "Dog Bite Prevention and Awareness Day" to Robert Piutti, Manager of Deliveries and Collections at the Hicksville Post Office. Mrs. Ocker was one of the speakers at a program sponsored by the Post Office at the Parkway School in Plainview to help increase awareness about the hazards faced by letter carriers who deliver mail to homes where dogs are not leashed or confined.

Plainview postal carrier Frank Bonfiglio dressed as a dog for a skit that was part of the program.

Mrs. Ocker was recently appointed by the Commissioner of the State Department of Agriculture and Markets to serve on the New York State Advisory Committee on the State Dog Law.

Pageantry In Brass #20 To Be Milestone Salute To Youth

The advent of summer brings with it the stirrings of many special events on Long Island. Not the least among these is the mid-summer classic known as "Pageantry In Brass", wherein various drum & bugle corps comprised of dedicated youngsters form all over the tri-state area converge on Hicksville to thrill and delight thousands of enthusiastic spectators.

This summer, the annual pageant is significant because it is the twentieth consecutive presentation, and the first to be hosted by New Image Drum & Bugle Corps, the new, co-educational version of the traditional host: The St. Ignatius Girls Drum and Bugle Corps. "Pageantry In Brass has many values" said New Image Director Don Graziose recently. "In addition to being a major fund raiser for our self-supporting corps, it also serves as a fine form of entertainment for a mid-summer evening, and it exemplifies to the community the comforting fact that our children are engaged in a wholesome youth activity which cultivates their development of discipline, loyalty, pride, dedication, and team spirit." Like aspiring olympians, New Image members train intensely all year round under the guidance of concerned instructors with the hope of turning in their personal best performance during the 8-week contest season each summer. Pageantry In Brass is the only local contest for junior drum & bugle corps, and it is held as part of a reciprocating plan which provides contests for member corps of the Garden State Jr. Drum & Bugle Corps Circuit. "It's a big job putting Pageantry In Brass together, but our kids are worth it" said Contest Coordinator Domenic Valente, who has been in overall charge of the preparations for Pageantry In Brass since 1981. "The preparations for the show and the accommodations for the visiting corps keeps an entire staff busy for months ahead of time", Carman Cluna, New Image Chief Instructor whom Graziose refers to as "our driving force" shares in the sentiments about Pageantry In Brass: "This contest serves as a once-a-year hometown showcase for our own New Image Corps. It fosters a feeling of community pride."

Pageantry in Brass will have nine corps from three states in competition, in addition to exhibitions by the Nassau County Police Drum & Bugle Corps and the host New Image Corps. The United States Marines will provide a color guard to open the ceremonies, which are scheduled to begin at 6:45 on Saturday, July 14 at Hicksville High School Athletic Field.

Hicksville Cannonballs League And Cup Champions

By F. McGoey

Although the Spring soccer season has come to an end, the feelings of a new beginning for the Hicksville Cannonballs have just begun. This season the team's record was 8-1-1. Their defense so strong that the opposition was allowed only 6 goals for the entire season, while the Cannonballs accumulated a total of 27 goals clinching 1st place in a competitive first division.

The team topped off the season by capturing the Chase Soccer cup, a single-elimination, major tournament with 31 teams in their age group participating. The semi-finals played on June 17th at C.W. Post College against the Cold Spring Harbor Radriers was won in a shoot-out, 4-3, by the efforts of all the boys, they went on to meet the Brentwood Thunderbolts on June 23rd. The team was down in the 1st half 1-0, but came back with a very aggressive, skillful 2nd half scoring 2 goals and ending the game with a forceful forward line which vied for more.

Our defense, goalie, David Knuth, sweeper, Toomas Niemann, fullbacks, Jason Pinsky and Brian Sierra, and stopper, Brett Fahrback, were im-netrable. The mid-fielders, Larry Bay, Kevin O'Hea, Michael Pierson and Lex Spence continuously intercepted Brentwood's forwards and reversed the play. The forwards, Brian McNamee, Garret Nijboer, Alexander Shevchenko and (Continued on Page 11)

Since the attack, Zambory has been hospitalized three times for treatment of her severely injured leg. She still faces additional reconstructive surgery.

Murello reports that approximately 50 carriers from the MSC Hicksville were bitten last year and 15 so far this year. He hoped this latest dog bite awareness campaign will alert the public to the seriousness of the problem.

Any community group interested in a dog bite presentation can call the Hicksville Post Office at 433-7300 Ext. 50.

In Memoriam Daniel Hoison - John Sheppard

Hicksville's veterans organization ranks were notably thinned this month with the deaths of two leaders who were prominent in community and servicemen's affairs, Past Commander Daniel Hoison of the Robert O. Ulmer Post of the Amvets and Past Commander John Sheppard of the Charles Wagner Post of the American Legion.

Dan Hoison, who died on June 19, represented that type of veterans and civic leader whose club activities and personal contacts are legion; there are few in Hicksville leadership circles who did not know Dan, particularly in the unceasing activity of his retirement years.

A veteran of active service with the U.S. Navy in World

Daniel Hoison

War II, Mr. Hoison came to Hicksville some 35 years ago, after spending his earlier life in Indiana, Texas and Florida. Employed for many years by the Oyster Bay Town Highway Department, he was a most active person in his free hours. His many vigorous activities belied his age which was 75, at the time of his death.

He was a Committeeman of the Hicksville Republican Club and served on the Board of Hicksville's H.A.D. (Health-Aid-Direction) organization.

But, Daniel Hoison is best remembered for his contributions to the programs of Hicksville war veterans; he served as Post Commander for the Amvets, and was active in many functions involving The United Veterans Organizations of Hicksville, such as the planning and execution of the community's annual Memorial Day Parade and Service.

Active with Amvets color guards during the American Revolution Bicentennial Years and since in the Town of Oyster Bay Bicentennial and Historical Commission's patriotic programs

All awards were presented by the Councilman of the Town of Oyster Bay, Honorable Kenneth Diamond. marking the Fourth of July and the Annual Pilgrimages to the Grave of President Theodore Roosevelt. Dan was a marching vet until the last year or two.

Outspoken on issues of bungling government, America's honor, veterans welfare and our men missing in Vietnam, Dan Hoson will long be remembered.

John Sheppard

Past Commander Sheppard of the Charles Wagner Post 421 American Legion, who died this past Sunday, in his quiet, determined way left a legacy of sterling service to his post and the Hicksville community of which he was a part for over 30 years. Few American Legion leaders have shaped the development and destiny of their post as did John Sheppard, who served as Commander in 1971-1972 and held most other vital post chairmanships at one time or another.

John Sheppard came later to Legion membership than many veterans. Once a part of the Hicksville Legion, this veteran of U.S. Army service in Hawaii during World War II, utilized skillfully the talents which carried him to chief teller's position in his 40 years with the New York Citibank system.

He will be remembered for his most effective chairmanship of the Post 421 Bingo Committee which, in less than ten years, paid off the Charles Wagner Post building expansion mortgage of $100,000. John Sheppard not only raised funds for his post, he saw to the wise and generous use of that portion of Bingo game proceeds which, by law, must be utilized for charitable causes.

His support of the Hicksville American Legion's child welfare, youth and school programs was unstinting. This writer may attest to Commander Sheppard's ready expenditure of bingo funds for the Legion's Boys State Program; the high school Oratorical Competitions which, in the eloquent late Barry Lebowitz, took Hicksville to the State Finals, and the Annual School Award Programs for school service and excellence in American History.

With Mae, his enthusiastic wife and help-mate, John was equally faithful in maintaining the Charles Wagner Post's program of visitation and entertainment to the handicapped children at the Sullolk State Home. Almost every American Legion program in Hicksville, these last 15 years, bears the influence of this dominant but devoted veterans leader.

He was not well these last years, but John Sheppard never lost his interest in his post and community's welfare. His place in Charles Wagner Post's annals and Hicksville's history will be significant and memorable.

SWEETENERS

What's included in your offering when you sell your house? The refrigerator? The living room draperies? The chandelier over the dining room table? It may be traditional, in one area or another, to take the washer or leave the stove, but it is all really negotiable.

What is important is that you spell out, at the beginning, what you are including in your initial offering. Perhaps it is more reasonable for you to leave the carpeting than pick it up and move it across the country. Or maybe that chandelier has been in the family for generations. Each homeowner must determine what items MUST stay with the family, which aren't wanted and which are negotiable. Surprisingly, negotiations over THINGS can sometimes be more heated than negotiations over price. When price is fairly firm, the extras grow in importance. If buyer and seller are just a couple of thousand dollars apart, sometimes the addition of an "extra" or two can sweeten the deal and make it work. It's good to have an expert negotiating for you.
