American Legion Auxiliary News

By Geraldine Seitz

The next regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary of the Charles Wagner Post-Unit #421 Hicksville, Department of New York will be held on Friday, December 7th at 8:30PM. Our County Officers will be making their usual visit. County Chairman is Julia Duffy from the Glenwood Landing Unit. Past County Chairmen have also been invited. This will be our Christmas meeting and a grab bag (value of $3.00) should be brought along by all who wish to participate. Let's make a good showing and make this a nice evening for our guests.

During this past month, our Child Welfare Chairman, Mae Sheppard, also Ruth Leger, Ethel Habenicht, Marie Gamble and Geraldine Seitz attended a Halloween party at the Long Island Developmental Center in Melville, for our adopted cottage #45 - There are now 18 girls there. The cottages are being completely done over and newly furnished. Our next visit will be on Saturday, December 15th and will be a Christmas Party.

Past Presidents Parley was held at the Malverne Unit on October 30th and eight members from Hicksville were present.

Our volunteers to Northport Va Hospital continue under Chairman Lillian Molinari. Gift Shop at Northport is on Wednesday, December 5th starting at 9AM and help is needed for this program.

Let us also remember our members on the sick list, Anna Bengel and Ellen Tietjen. Try to stop in to see them during this holiday season. I know they would appreciate it.

And Happy Birthday to our Gold Star Mother, Tecla Gunther who was 92 years old on November 15th.

Hope all had a Happy Thanksgiving.

Remember our next meeting on Friday, December 7th and try to attend.

At The Gregory Museum

"Mount St. Helens, Lady of Fire" is scheduled to erupt again this coming Sunday, Nov. 25th, at the Hicksville Gregory Museum. The latest in the museum's Sunday natural history films will review the history of the newsworthy Washington State mountain, called until recently "North America's Fujiyama," for the symmetrical and beauty of its snow-capped peak.

The defacement of the peak and the enormous explosion which rent the mountain, sending volcanic ash around the world in air currents, and creating great physical and much human loss in May, 1980, will be recalled in awesome motion pictures. A discussion of the film will follow, led by Museum Curator Thomas Daunt.

Showtime will be 2:30, and the public is invited to be present. The Hicksville Gregory Museum is located at Heitz Place, Hicksville. Please call (516) 822-7505 for further information.

Board of Education Meeting

The Hicksville Board of Education will hold its regularly scheduled meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 28. The meeting will begin at 8:15 P.M. in the conference room at the Administration Building.

Pictured are Nurse/Teacher, Kathleen Arena, parent Catherine Michaels, Laura Brierton of Phoenix House Drug Education and Nancy DeSorbe, Principal at Dutch Lane School.

The sixth grade children at Dutch Lane were recently the participants in a mini-drug education unit. The program, designed around values clarification techniques helped the children learn: honest information about drugs, how to make good decisions and how to deal with peer pressure.

The mini unit, run by Phoenix House, was sponsored by the Dutch Lane PTA. In addition to the classroom activities, Phoenix House ran an evening meeting for parents so that they would be better informed about drug use and become a part of our alcohol/drug education program.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

PRESIDENT PETE MASIELLO'S MESSAGE: "There is no more miserable human being than the one in whom nothing is habitual but indecision." William James Christmas is the time of the year when human beings spread good will and holiday cheer, when they rejoice and offer each other love and affection, when their hearts are gay and their spirits lighter. Christmas is the time of the year when the great Christian ethic, that it is better to give than to receive, becomes more pronounced. The very idea of giving to those less fortunate is one of the nicest of the human virtues.

Needless to mention that this feeling becomes very predominant when the Galileo Lodge announced once again that it is presenting its annual Christmas parties, one for the handicapped children of Queens and Nassau and the other one for the children of its membership, male and female, on Sunday, the 16th of December. The Galileo Lodge, of course, assumes financial responsibility for these parties, but it is also accepting donations from all those wishing to emphasize the true meaning and spirit of Christmas for these children. Please note that all donors should contact Jim Ingino by calling 931-9351 or 681-3153. More on this activity in later columns.

We all realize the solemnity and religious overtones of Christmas, however, it is also a time when human beings are desirous of a little fun and relaxation — and the Galileo Lodge has a delightful way in which we can do this. On Sunday, the 1st of December, it is presenting a Christmas Dance. Tickets are now on sale, and the cost is $12.50 per person, a very nominal fee that offers you a delicious hot dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and pleasant dance music from a leading disc jockey. Please note that this dance features a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy and that a Christmas Grab Bag will add to the proceedings. Gifts should not exceed $3.00 dollars. Joe Lo Presti will 'chair' this activity, ably assisted by Joe Morace and Frank Matassa. So for a real delightful pre-Christmas celebration, this dance should be a part of your Yuletide scene. Call Jo Lo Presti at 541-5163 for more details.

Last Thursday night, the 15th, a very special activity was in progress — it was the night when the Galileo Lodge held its Member Appreciation Night, and on this occasion the Galileo Lodge, in acknowledgement and recognition of the loyalty and devotion of its male members and those of its Ladies Auxiliary, gratuitously offered delicious food, refreshments and an open bar. Over 125 members and their families attended, and diligently and happily preparing the food were Jim Posillico, Pat Gatto, Al Mondello and Skip Montefiore. Serving the drinks were Bert Molinelli, Comradieric, good fellowship and pleasant socializing were well in evidence. And, of course, a beautiful thank you to President Pete Masiello for making such a beautiful night possible.

A NOTE TO THE MEMBERSHIP: All members, male and female, who are desirous of having their children and grandchildren attend the afternoon Christmas party, should contact Armand Del Cioppo about the number of children they will bring as well as their age and sex. This should be done as soon as possible. Call Armand del Cioppo at 938-5052 or 931-9351.

LODGE TIDBITS: Very happy to report that Mr. and Mrs. Pat Domenichello have recently celebrated 46 beautiful years of marriage, and a hearty congratulations from all of us here at the Lodge. But very sorry to hear that Pat was also recently hospitalized but is happily now recovering very well. A speedy recovery wish from all at the Lodge.

NY Tel Files For Rate Increase

On Nov. 19th New York Telephone filed with the Public Service Commission, for $775 million in higher rates to take effect late in 1985.

The rates if approved would increase the New York Telephone portion of the average home phone bill in the state 16.3 percent, from $25.52 to $29.67. If approved, average Nassau home rates would rise from $30.08 to $35.16, up to 16.9 percent. In Suffolk, proposed home rates would go from $33.42 to $38.63, up 15.6 percent.

The proposed changes include an increase in basic monthly service charges, some reductions in local and toll rates and a new life-type service designed for customers receiving public assistance.

In its first rate petition since the breakup of the Bell System, the company noted that public policy to encourage competition has eroded profitable services, such as equipment and much of the long distance business, which have subsidized basic service.

Company president William Ferguson said that traditionally the telephone company priced some services to subsidize basic service charges which were priced artificially low.

The total phone bill, including competitive services such as equipment and long distance, would increase 9.6 percent; from $43.20 to $47.35 on a statewide average.

New Computer School

Airco Educational Services Division, the career training arm of The BOC Group, Inc., announces the opening of its eleventh computer school, located at 900 Ellison Avenue, Westbury, Long Island. Airco Computer Learning Center, is licensed by the New York State Education Department, and accredited by the Association of Independent Colleges and Schools. Airco Educational Services Division has trained people nationally for fifteen years in the field of Data Processing. They have developed into one of the nation's largest systems of computer training schools.

Through extensive research Airco Computer Learning Center is up-to-date on current trends in the fields that are in the greatest demand today. The school network is the largest single source of programmers and operators trained exclusively on IBM equipment. They offer educational programs that prepare the student to meet the real-world standards of business and industry.

Students who have attended Computer Learning Centers nationally have obtained the following benefits: hands-on experience on an IBM 4331 mainframe computer, industry-oriented instructors, small class size, financial aid programs to eligible students, and lifetime national placement assistance for graduates.

Airco Computer Learning Center is an alternative mode of education whereas a student can specialize in a course of study that meets the academic needs of the individual as opposed to a broad-based educational environment.

In addition to education, The BOC Group is one of the world's largest producers of industrial gases, welding products, graphite electrodes and medical products and anesthetics.

The largest Christmas tree ever erected on Long Island -- an 80-foot Norway Spruce -- is set into place at the entrance to EAB Plaza at

Mitchel Field. The public is invited to a gala tree lighting ceremony replete with entertainment, refreshments, and surprises that will take place at 5:30 p.m. on Friday, November 30. Come, and "Help Us Light Up Long Island."

Something To Think About

VERN & BILL WAGNER
TWO GENERATIONS OF SERVICE

TRAINING OF A FUNERAL DIRECTOR

A funeral director does not just hang out a shingle and go into business. There's a lot more to it than that. First there are years of schooling and training. Today, there are approximately 30 vocational and college level programs accredited at the state level. The curriculum in these educational programs include instruction in counseling, management, as well as embalming and restorative arts. Virtually all states license embalmers and/or funeral directors. The candidate is required to complete a vocational training program in mortuary science followed by a period of apprenticeship under the guidance of a qualified and experienced practitioner. Only after all this, is the would-be funeral director permitted to take the state board examination. As you can see, the modern funeral director is a well-trained professional. He can offer you service and advice which meet a broad range of needs.

Dear Friends...

As all who attended the Nov. meeting of the Hicksville Community Council already know, Hicksville Fire District Commissioner William Donlon reported on his investigation of POSSIBLE sites for a new 3-bay firehouse in the southwest section of Hicksville. Comm. Donlon's report stated that:

Site No. 1, located north of the delicatessen on Levittown Parkway, had been the reason for a past meeting of The Fire District with a Town of Oyster Bay attorney. This property may be "excessed" by the Town at a minimum price of $85,000 which monies, if a sale goes through, will be used by the Town to help develop the two Hicksville park sites, now being planned.

Site No. 2, the property on Beech Lane next to the sump, which is school district property. He reported that the Fire District has met with Mr. Becker and Mr. Hall of the school district on this matter. However, at present no price has been set for this property, nor has it been considered by the Board of Education.

Site No. 3 is the Barter Lane property, formerly the old Dwyer farm, and the minimum price for this would be in the neighborhood of $250,000.

Site No. 4 is on Newbridge Road opposite Barter Lane. It is owned by the Water District and is not for sale.

At no time did Commissioner Donlon state that the Fire Commissioners have arrived at a decision as to which site would ultimately be selected. However, he will be attending as many Hicksville Community Council meetings as possible, to keep all of you up to date on progress on this much needed firehouse and other matters upon which the Fire District makes decisions. He is willing to answer any questions you may have on Fire District matters.

As you all know, the next meeting of the Hicksville Community Council is set for Thursday evening, Dec. 6th starting at 8 p.m. sharp. While there will be a brief "town meeting" after the meeting is opened, the speaker for this meeting will be Dr. William J. Catacosinos, Chairman and CEO of LILCO, whose topic will be "The Current State of LILCO."

We urge all local organizations who haven't already done so, to appoint their HCC delegate or delegates, and have them attend each Council meeting and report back to your general membership each month. There is much going on that affects the community of Hicksville. Keep abreast of these constantly changing conditions that will ultimately affect the value of each home in our area as well as our taxes. You have a strong voice in all that affects our community, especially when it is joined with others who have the same concerns. Representatives of the Town Board, the State Assembly, the Water and Fire Districts, the School and the Library Boards are available with their latest news, as well as answering any questions that you may have. The Hicksville Community Council, which has served for the past thirteen years, can be effective in helping all of us solve our local problems and plan together for "a better Hicksville," in direct relation to the amount of overall participation each organization and each individual gives. So, come on down, join your neighbors and participate in helping our community to grow in the right direction. Mark your calendar. Thursday, Dec. 6th starting at 8 p.m. sharp, in the Community Room of the Hicksville Public Library on Jerusalem Ave.

"For the good that needs assistance
For the bad that needs resistance
For the future in the distance
And the good that we can do."

This past Monday evening, Commuter Lodge conducted the rank of Esquire for eight new members. Past Chancellor Julie Kaitin, as usual gave an outstanding performance as did all the brothers that assisted him in taking part of this rank. Brother Irv Zwecker added some humor in his performance as the prosecutor and did a superb job.

To make the meeting even more exciting, Entertainment Chairman, Harvey Mass had the Master of Arms, Your's truly, gave all the members at the beginning of the meeting, a ticket with a number in return for the password. As the meeting progressed, Harvey had different members at various intervals, pick a number out of a bucket and read off the winning ticket. All the winners received money equivalent enough to purchase a 15 pound turkey. There were 10 turkeys given out and fortunately I was among the winners. The following Brothers were the lucky ones: Ed Abzug, Elliott Silverman, Andy Kaufman, Ike Kaufman, Mike Lesson, Stan Pasternak, Leo Strauss, Milton Anapol and Esquires Dave Glicker and Steve Warshauer. Congratulations to all of you and especially to Brother Harvey Mass who did an excellent job. Harvey has confided in me that he has some more super ideas of surprising the members to their advantage with no advance notice in future meetings. The only way you can be a winner, is to attend and remain for all meetings.

With Thanksgiving behind us now, let us all appreciate what we have. I certainly realize that many of the members are much better off than others, but you should also remember, that no-matter how unfortunate some of you are, there are also many people throughout the world that are much worse off than you. Remember, Thanksgiving is a holiday that reminds us not only to be thankful for what we have, but also to share with others who are less fortunate than you. We at Commuter Lodge offer our services to all in need. If any reader is in need of aid, please feel free to call or write to me and I will relay your request to the Lodge. If at all possible, we will offer a helping hand.

Our next meeting will be an executive board gathering in November 26 in the Legion Hall.

The Brothers of Knights of Pythias, Commuter Lodge offer their Birthday, wishes to Brothers Bernie Geller and John Kople in addition to Anniversary congratulations to Helene and Al Karo, Julie and Claire Kaitin and to Marti and Hal Krasner. I also want to express on behalf of all the members of Commuter Lodge 833, a special thank you to Past Chancellor Michael Kasendorf for the fantastic job he is doing in bringing the Commuter Bulletin to our members. If you think his job is easy, try running a newspaper! I have a hard enough time in just writing this article every week.

In the same frame of mind, I would like to mention a Brother who has received very little recognition for the enormous work and service he has been giving to our Lodge. I speak of Past Chancellor Sy Fuchs. Brother Fuchs is our nominations chairman who works in the background, preparing all new potential members for proper entrance to our Lodge. Sy is one of those rare people who seeks no attention, but continues to be a working arm of our Lodge. He not only gives his all, but is always 100% sincere. From

HAD's Year of Expansion

Help Aid Direction a counseling and community service agency celebrated fifteen years of service to the community with a Dinner Dance at the Huntington Towne House. The Dinner Dance was entitled A Year of Expansion. Help Aid Direction has left their roots as a small community agency and has grown into a multi-dimension, multi-service agency.

The 1984 Award Recipients typify and are an integral part of HAD's expansion year. Larry Schwartz, President of HAD from 1981 through 1983, guided the agency during a time where we needed strong leadership. Because of this effort Larry was presented the HAD 1984 Man of the Year Award. The Award was presented by Assemblyman Parola He and Mr. Schwartz have worked closely over the years not only on projects for HAD, but the Boy Scouts and Little League. It seemed fitting that Fred Parola should make the presentation.

The Professional Service Award was presented to Sondra Jordan A.C.S.W. Ms. Jordan is in charge of the Mental Health Unit of Nassau County Probation. She integrated the compassion of the Social Work Profession with the ability to conform to a rigorous structure in her relationship with HAD. Her professional ability and administrative sense were brought to bear upon HAD to keep the focus on the people we are trying to help.

The Volunteer of the Year Award went to Gloria Guzman. There were weeks during the past year that Gloria was in the agency for forty hours helping keep the paper moving. This dedication to keeping the agency functioning properly and on target is greatly appreciated. Gloria's efforts carried the agency over a time when her skills were most needed.

Many people are asked to volunteer, but few do it as well or with such loyalty as did Gloria.

Every year Help Aid Direction gives the Friends of HAD Award. This year the recipients were Lawrence Eisenberg, Charity Begins at Home, and the Vietnam Veterans of

America, Nassau Chapter. Mr. Eisenberg is the Director of the Newbridge Consultation Center in Westbury. He donated his time to help HAD develop this Employees Assistance Program. Charity Begins at Home is singer-song writer Billy Joel's charity. They donated $5,000 toward the establishing of the Vietnam Veterans Resource Center. The Center was opened on April 7, 1984. They were prime movers behind the Vietnam Veterans Resource Center. The VVA also donated substantial money to keep the program running.

Our primary services are conducted at 23A Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville, New York 11801 (516) 935-6858. At this location we conduct individual, group and family counseling. In addition to our main location, we have workers stationed in Hicksville Junior High School, Holy Trinity High School and St. Brigid's Rectory. We have workers visiting the jail and running recreation at the local schools. We have contact with local lawyers, the Probation Department and Family Court. We do work for DWI programs and Treatment Alternatives to Street Crime (TASC). We provide training for social work students from Adelphi University and counseling students from Hofstra, C.W. Post and Queens College. HAD provides services for the visually impaired and the blind. We have a working relationship with the Veterans Administration. We are involved in the counseling and health needs of local industry. We are in negotiations with the Nassau County Department of Drug and Alcohol and New York State Division of Alcoholism and Alcohol Abuse to start a full scale alcohol program in Hicksville.

As you can see, this has truly been an expansion year. We thank all those who have helped us with their support both technical and financial.

Our fifteenth year has been successful and the Dinner Dance was its center piece.

Future Farmers Need Roosts On Long Island

Next May, nearly 500 teenagers will be coming to Long Island from Buffalo and Painted Post, Utica and Eden. They're members of the New York State Future Farmers of America. Their convention will be held on Long Island for the first time in its 60-year history. And they're depending on the generosity of local residents for lodging May 1 through May 4, 1985.

Staying in private homes is traditional for this group. In the past, Nassau County FFA members have stayed with residents of such upstate sites as Springville and Goshen. There is no minimum or maximum number of students per household. If you are interested in hosting students you may specify how many you feel comfortable in accommodating and you will be paid an honorarium of $5.00 a night per student for bed and breakfast. Each local chapter is currently conducting fund-raising activities such as plant sales in order to pay transportation and other costs associated with their trip to Nassau County.

A convention, which is being hosted by BOCES Nassau Tech, will include ceremonies and meetings conducted at W. Tresper Clarke High School in Westbury and competitions in horse handling, horticulture, dog grooming and other agriculture-related skills held at BOCES Nassau Tech in Old Westbury.

Long Islanders interested in housing one or more future farmers in their homes from Wednesday through Saturday, May 1-4, should call Norma Johannessen at BOCES Nassau Tech, 516-997-5410, Ext. 173.

Residential Burglary Prevention Tips

By D.A. Denis Dillon

- Install and use good locks, bolts and chains on all doors and windows, garage doors and gates.
- Keep all doors locked, even if you are at home.
- Do not hide a key outside.
- Do not have your name and address on your key chain.
- Be able to separate house key from car key.
- Install and use NOISY burglar alarm.
- Outside lights should be on in the evening whether you are at home or not.
- At least one or two inside lights in various parts of the house should be on whether you are home or not.
- Pull curtains and drapes when you turn on lights.
- Trim hedges and bushes around doorways.
- Do not open door to anyone without first looking out to verify the identity of repairman, messenger or acquaintance.
- If a stranger asks to use your phone, don't let him in — offer to make the call for him.
- Don't have valuables (silver, collectables, etc.) visible through windows.
- Do not leave notes on your door indicating that you are away from home.
- Do not leave purse, wallet, keys, etc., on a table or chair near an entrance.
- When calling for in-home services or delivery (furnace repair, cleaning, etc.) always call a reputable firm. Do not say, "We're only home after five or on weekends." Instead, "We're in and out all the time, so let's set a specific time."
- Do not put empty T.V., stereo, game, sports equipment boxes out on curb or alley, for trash collection — you're advertising to burglars where they can "shop".
- When away from home, leave a radio playing (to give tech "sound" appearance that you are at home.)
- Do not give any personal information to strangers over the phone.
- Take special precautions when attending well-publicized events — club parties, sporting events, church occasions, funerals — consider a house sitter.
- Do not leave a repairman alone in your home. Take directly to the area to be serviced and stay with him.

DO BE AWARE OF AND REPORT TO AUTHORITIES:

- People loitering in the neighborhood.
- People loading household furniture into a vehicle.
- Vehicles (especially unmarked vans, trucks) driving back and forth in a particular area.
- People looking in cars along the street or in parking lots.
- People coming to your door looking for "Mr. Jones" or many wrong number phone calls — burglars are looking for unoccupied residences.

BE OBSERVANT:

- Take note of license plate number, make and model of vehicle.
- Physical description of suspicious people; clothing, coloring, size (compare to your height).

Hicksville Resident Studies Clowning At Circus Clown College

A resident of Hicksville is currently studying to join the ranks of one of the world's oldest professions at the Winter Quarters home of The Greatest Show On Earth.

Cheryl Feldt, 26, is one of 41 aspiring mirthmakers attending the 17th session of Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Clown College. Now in their sixth week of classes, Cheryl and her classmates were chosen to attend the annual ten and one-half week session from thousands of applicants nationwide.

Under the tutelage of College Dean Ron Severini and a 25-member faculty including Master Clowns Lou Jacobs and Frosty Little, students spend more than eight hours each day taking courses such as makeup, juggling, stiltwalking, pantomime, costume design, unicycling, improvisation and prop building. After the first few weeks of structured classes, the focus shifts to individual sessions with the student/instructor ratio being no more than two to one.

Throughout the session, students perfect their skills, developing and fine-tuning their individual clown characters. This year's session culminates on Saturday, November 17 when the fledgling clowns present their newly acquired talents in an elaborate, comedic stage presentation. It is from their coursework and their final display of abilities during the gala performance that many students will be selected to become apprentice clowns with Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Founded in 1968 by Circus impresario Irvin Feldt, Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Clown College is the only college dedicated to the perpetuation of the time-honored profession of clowning and was instrumental in preserving an art which was becoming extinct. At the time of the College's opening, only 14 clowns remained on the Circus' famed Clown Alley. Now, with an alumni of more than 900, the number of clowns on Clown Alley has increased to 56 and the continuation of the profession is ensured for future generations.

Whether Cheryl goes on to join The Greatest Show On Earth's cadre of funny-men or not, she will leave Clown College with a special knowledge of the honorable traditions of clowning and as an apprentice member of that sacred fraternity who dedicate their lives to bringing joy to others.

me to you, Brother Sy Fuchs, on behalf of the 600 hundred members of Commuter Lodge, we appreciate your service and value it very much. Thank You.

Remember to keep Dec. 22 open to enable you to bring your children to Commuter Lodges annual Holiday party. It will be held in the Plainview Library, at 11:30 A.M. There will be refreshments and a professional childrens entertainment program. Carl Blonder is chairing this event and anyone who knows Carl, can attest to the effort he puts in to anything he does. Besides, a person that loves children as much as Brother Blonder does, has to put on a great Children's Holiday Party.

Speaking of children, no-matter how old your child is, I urge you to make sure your son or daughter use a light or reflector when bicycling at night. Recently, I have been encountering more and more children of all ages, endangering their lives by riding their bikes at night without any light sort of illumination. Please help

Nassau Recreation and Parks Commissioner Abram C. Williams said children may be registered for either a morning session, 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., or a later class from 1 to 3 p.m. But, he added, a child may attend a workshop on only one of three Saturdays.

Registration, on a first-come, first-served basis, may be accomplished by calling 542-4480.

The Special Activities Center at Eisenhower Park is located adjacent to parking field #8.

Adoption??
National Adoption Week is the week of Thanksgiving. Many children in New York State could have a lot more to be thankful for NEXT Thanksgiving if caring individuals began adoption proceedings NOW on behalf of the more than 1,000 boys and girls who are waiting to become the adopted sons and daughters of loving parents.

"To take the first step in initiating the adoption process, you need go no farther than your local library," explained Kenneth Barnes, director of the Hicksville Public Library. In cooperation with the New York State Department of Social Services and the Nassau County Department of Social Services, the Hicksville Public Library is among several on Long Island who have in their reference collection the "Adoption Blue Books" — officially entitled New York State's Waiting Children. Updated regularly, these blue, loose-leaf binders contain photographic listings and brief biographies of children who are eligible for adoption.

After an individual or a family decides upon a child, that person or family may then telephone the listed number, state an interest in the child, and indicate the child's Blue Book number to the staff person. If the child is still available for adoption, the caller will be advised how to proceed.

The "Adoption Blue Books" may be seen at the Hicksville Public Library during regular library hours: Monday through Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.; Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sunday, 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Bookmobile

The Hicksville Public Library has inaugurated a new stop for its Bookmobile. Every Friday from 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. the Hicksville Public Library Bookmobile will be in the King Kullen Shopping Center parking lot for your convenience. You can't miss it! While shopping for bargains, you won't want to miss the best bargain in town — your FREE public library. Come on board the bus and ask Mildred McLaughlin what the Bookmobile has to offer. She will be happy to give you all the details.

The Bookmobile carries a very comprehensive collection of books — the latest novels on the Best Seller lists and other popular fiction; a timely selection of non-fiction (if you don't find what you need, books can be requested and obtained from the collection at the library and be available for you to pick up on the Bookmobile); Mysteries; current copies of popular magazines; large type books for the visually impaired and an excellent collection of books for children and young adults.

A schedule is available at the library and on the Bookmobile. The Hicksville Public Library is continually trying to serve you better and this additional Bookmobile stop is provided with that goal in mind.

Lee Avenue School News

On Tuesday November 7th Lee Avenue PTA sponsored a "Lee On Wheels Night" at the Levittown Roller Rink. There was a good turn out with teachers, students and families having a wonderful time.

Winners of the drawings were: Nicole Brown, Laura De Angelis, Barkara Lewis, Charissa Maisonet, Kevin McGinnis, Mary Russell, Lisa Smith and Sylvia Theiss.

On Thursday the 9th, students viewed the play "Star Blast" performed by the producers association theatre company. The PTA and school district co-sponsored the show which was designed to make students aware of outer space and computers in a musical fantasy setting. It was both entertaining and educational for the children.

Lee Avenue was represented at the 87th convention of the New York State PTA in Syracuse by Mrs. Joan Lane and Mrs. Kerry Miles. They attended workshops, legislative sessions and conferences exchanging ideas with many people from all over the state. Guest speaker at the convention was John Walsh, real father of "Adam" of the TV movie, who delivered a powerful speech in support of

DONOVAN Report

Real Estate:
Karen Donovan

A GOOD PRICE

The Indians who sold Manhattan Island for $24 worth of trade goods in the 1600s didn't do all that badly, according to one real estate consultant. If they'd invested that $24—even at 5 percent compounded—it would be worth $27.6 billion today. The current assessed value of taxable real estate in Manhattan is only $23.4 billion.

Do you know the actual value of your property right now? If you put your house on the market, how would you price it? The professional evaluating a house relies on a knowledge of comparable properties sold recently, a consideration of current interest rates and how they affect sales, and enough experience in negotiation to know how much of a cushion to add for bargaining. Few homeowners have this expertise; that's why most folks call in a knowledgeable real estate agent.
