Volcanic Action At Gregory Museum

Registration for this Saturday's first session of the Gregory Museum's "Make Your Own Working Volcano" craft workshop for youngsters is proceeding nicely. There are still openings for any 8 - 12 year old youngsters in the two-session program at the Museum, starting January 19.

The 'fun with nature' program is part of a series of Saturday afternoon handicraft activities for children at the Hicksville Earth Gregory Museum, this winter.

Registrations for the working volcano program may be made in person or by honing the museum at Heitz Place, telephone 822-7505. There is a program fee of $5. to cover materials' cost.

A DIFFERENT DRUMMER: While Oyster Bay Town Councilman Douglas J. Hynes (seated left) and Nicholas and Victoria Pelaton of MUTTONTOWN watch, Andrew Simonich of Hicksville gets a drum lesson from Murray Houliif. Houliif and trumpet player Patrick Dougherty were two of the performers in a special children's workshop on brass and percussion sponsored by the Cultural and Performing Arts (CAPA) Division of the Department of Community Services.

It was the second in the series of five children's programs, with future offerings to include a program on mime, a survey of the life and music of Mozart, and the interrelation of dance and music.

Hicksville's 20th Postmaster Installed

Roger Nienaber is now officially Hicksville's 20th Postmaster. On Friday, January 11th, as a gentle snow fell, he was officially sworn in as Hicksville Sectional Center Manager/Postmaster by Regional Postmaster General John G. Mulligan.

Mr. Nienaber thanked a group of large business mailers, local civic leaders, postal officials and employees of the Hicksville Post Office for joining him on the proudest day of his postal career. "I hope to build on the already fine productivity record of Hicksville by creating and sustaining a climate of increased communication, mutual trust and improved understanding. Improved mail service bears a direct relationship to the increase of postal worker involvement. My goal is to balance the needs of the community and those of our employees," says Mr. Nienaber.

"Together we can continue to improve and build on the strong foundation postal reorganization has provided the Postal Service." He also thanked Mr. Murello, his predecessor, for years of fine Postal Service and for leaving him such an excellent staff of postal employees.

Teri Nienaber, his wife, held the family Bible while Mr. Mulligan administered the Oath of Office. Their three children Rusty, Mark and Sara were also on hand to witness the swearing-in ceremony.

Master of Ceremonies, Peter P. Goodwin, Long Island District Manager, gave a brief history of the Hicksville Post Office. He said, "Hicksville has grown remarkably since it was opened in 1855 in the railroad depot. Today it is one of the largest post offices on Long Island."

In his remarks, Mr. Mulligan told the audience that Hicksville serves almost 2 million people within its 784 square mile service area, manages operations in 71 experience, can meet the challenge in the years ahead. His postal experiences help make him a most qualified candidate for the Hicksville assignment. I know that he will complement the future goals of the Hicksville area both in postal and civic roles."

Game at the American Legion Hall, East Nicholas St., Hicksville are $10.

Progress Being Made On Plans For Hicksville I.N.N.

The committee involved in the establishment of a Soup Kitchen in Hicksville took a giant step forward at its last meeting on January 7. The Hicksville Interfaith Nutrition Network (I.N.N.) will be started hopefully by March 1 in facilities being made available to the group by Holy Trinity Episcopal Church on the corner of Old Country Road and Jerusalem Avenue in Hicksville. The goal of the organization is to provide a mid-day meal Monday through Friday to the homeless and hungry of our area.

Volunteers will be needed for this worthwhile endeavor. If you can spare an hour or two, please give consideration to helping out. The next meeting of the group is set for January 21 at 11:30

A.M. (Monday) at Redeemer Lutheran Church at 17 New South Road, Hicksville. Since many of the people involved in this group are business people, they have been bringing along a sandwich for lunch, and working through their lunch hour. You are welcome to do likewise if you'd like. Donations to Hicksville I.N.N. at 17 New South

Road are tax-deductable and will be gratefully accepted.

For further information, you may speak to the Rev. Theodore S. Grant at 938-8693 or Effie Krogmann at 367-4835. This is an opportunity for involvement in a charitable work at a local level to help people from this area who definitely need a helping hand.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

PRESIDENT PETE MASSIELLO'S MESSAGE: "The smallest actual good is better than the most magnificent promises of impossibilities." Macaulay

Just as seasons follow seasons in our world, events follow events at the Galileo Lodge. Naturally the Galileo Lodge is not an inertial organization, on the contrary, it is active, mobile and agile, and this agility is well in evidence as we note the number of activities and happenings that are held by the Galileo Lodge throughout each year. There is no complacency here because the Galileo Lodge does not believe in resting on its laurels. The prevailing opinion, and it is one that remains steadfast, is that an organization is only as good as its last performance, its last function or event.

As proof, please note that on Saturday, the 16th of February, the Galileo Lodge will present its Valentine's Day Dance. Tickets sell at $12.50 per person, and in the offering will be a delicious hot dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and dance music for your pleasure. Skip Monteforte will 'chair' this dance, ably assisted by Joe Morace, Afmand Del Cioppo and Frank Matassa, who, incidentally, will also be selling tickets. Please note also that Jim Ingino of our Lodge will be honored that night, and other nice happening that night is that Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ingino will be the 'Valentine Sweethearts' that night also. Also note that this dance will feature a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy. If at all possible, the committee running this affair will appreciate your efforts to pay for your tickets before the dance. Only 250 people will be the limit, so please try and get your tickets early as this particular dance is usually a sell-out.

Valentine's Day is of special significance at the Galileo Lodge. It is synonymous with love and romance, and so it is a day when you should take your loved ones to the Galileo Lodge and become a part of the romantic atmosphere it engenders.

And now to report on an activity that is slightly premature but which is nevertheless exciting, enjoyable and leisure-packed. Yes, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of April, the 12th to the 14th, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Galileo Lodge will sponsor a three-day trip to the Villa Roma in upstate New York. The price will be about $150 plus bus fare. Buses will leave Friday night from the Galileo Lodge. Fran Ausicello (433-8783) will supervise this activity, so why not contact Fran so that she can gauge the receptiveness to this activity, and at the same time you can receive additional information concerning this activity.

As I have mentioned above, the progressive nature of the Galileo Lodge never escapes us, and it is quite prevalent as we view our activity after another either being held or planned. Well, right now in the planning stages are two activities that will be held for your edification and leisure. I am referring, of course, to the St. Joseph's Dance to be held in March, and which will be under the supervision of Joe Lo Presti. And then in April, under the supervision of Joe Giordano, the Galileo Lodge presents its Anniversary Dance. These are two activities, as you can well imagine, are the forerunners of other enchanting activities to be held by the Galileo Lodge. So please keep abreast of the news featured in this column as it will present additional information concerning these events as well as others to be presented by the Galileo Lodge.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

During the past few months, the media has called our attention to the tragic starvation and loss of life now taking place in Ethiopia and throughout most of the African continent. County Executive Francis T. Purcell has designated the month of January 1985 as "Reach Out to Ethiopia Month" and is urging all Nassau residents to open their hearts to ease the suffering and make this a better world for us all.

In addition to widespread community support for relief efforts, our own Nassau Community College is sponsoring a fund raising drive aimed at collecting $25,000.

If anyone is interested in contributing to this fund, please make checks out to UNICEF Ethiopian Fund and forward to the County Executive Office or to professor Marquita N. James, History and Political Science Department, Nassau Community College, Garden City, New York 11530.

Very truly yours,
Martin Eichinger
Special Assistant

Dear Editor:

I am a lover of history and I have a somewhat unusual hobby. I collect old tokens used by stores, barber shops, Indian Traders, saloons, forts, and other businesses years ago. The tokens were "good for" $1.00, 50c, 25c, 12½c or such in trade or merchandise or "good for" a loaf of bread, one drink, one shave, one ride or whatever. They were usually made of metal, and while having the general appearance of a coin, they were made in all shapes and sizes with some even picturing buildings, animals, etc.

I have reason to believe that some of these tokens were used in your area years ago and I would be most interested in obtaining some of them for my collection.

I am hoping that if you have a "letter to the Editor" section in your paper that you might mention my search. I know that this request is relatively unimportant but I do get a great deal of enjoyment from my hobby and I do believe that these concrete reminders of our great heritage are worth preserving.

I would like to hear from anyone having one or more of these tokens or from anyone that might be able to help me.

Any help you can give me of any kind is greatly appreciated. I now live in South Dakota and my address is: P.O. Box 1573, Sioux Falls, SD 57101.

Thank you in advance and best wishes.
William H. Clapper

Form Task Force To Aid Seniors With Utility Bill Problems

Paul L. Gioia, Chairman of the New York State Public Service Commission, and Dr. Eugene Callender, Director of the State Office for the Aging, announced recently the establishment of a Senior Citizen Task Force Project to provide increased assistance to older New Yorkers with utility-related problems. The project, with the strong support of the State Office for the Aging, marks an increased effort by the Commission to assist older consumers who have problems with utility bills or service, and to provide them with information concerning their special protections and rights as utility consumers.

"This new program targets assistance to one of the most vulnerable sections of our population," said Eugene Callender, Director of the State Office for the Aging. "It is an example of the innovative manner in which New York State is responding to the special needs of this fastest growing age group."

"Utility services are vital to the health and well-being of consumers and of special importance to elderly consumers, and their interests must be given special attention," Chairman Gioia stated.

Among the elements of the Task Force Project are:

- "Priority Service" Complaint-handling for the Elderly: To insure that elderly utility consumers receive priority treatment on their complaints and inquiries to the Commission, specific Consumer Services Division staff have been designated in the Commission's New York City, Buffalo and Albany offices to handle all incoming mail and phone messages from senior citizens;

- PSC Protections and Programs for Senior Citizens: a comprehensive senior citizens' handbook - the Commission's first publication to be printed in large type - identifies the various PSC regulations, programs and services which have been developed to protect senior citizens from unfair utility practices;

- A Statewide Outreach Campaign: a series of seminars across the State to discuss the PSC's regulations, programs and services for the elderly, stressing the programs available to senior citizens to help them with their utility bills (community, regional, State and federal programs, electric usage monitoring, budget plans, meter reading to ensure accurate bills, complaint procedures, etc.); the effort will include the distribution of a special Task Force poster to senior citizen centers across the State to inform seniors about the Task Force Project and how they can obtain more information about it;

- "Intermediary" Training: a series of workshops to train community and local consumer leaders throughout the State in the Commission's various programs and protections for senior citizens so that they in turn can share that information with their clients;

- A Review of Utility Senior Citizen Programs: Consumer Service Division staff will be reviewing utility programs targeted for senior citizens and will be recommending initiatives to strengthen such programs, where appropriate.

The Commission's Consumer Services Division will be working with senior citizens groups throughout the State to implement the programs of its Senior Citizen Task Force Project. Among the groups supporting the new project are: American Association of Retired People, New York Statewide Senior Action Council, New York State Alliance of Community Action Programs, and the Albany County Council of Senior Citizen Clubs and Centers.

Dear Friends ...

TO BRING YOU UP TO DATE...both the petitions involving the one-story proposed building scheduled for Broadway business (G-1) district, and the parking variances requested by the Greek church located on Field Avenue, were denied by the TOB Board of Zoning Appeals. This is far from the conclusion of either one of these matters, as in all probability they will be appealed. More on this later.

COMMUNITY COOPERATION: the festive decorations seen on the windows of the Hicksville Post Office this past holiday season were created by five young community-spirited artists from Hicksville High School. Participating youngsters were Lisa Board, Suzanne Roman, Donna Greco, Paul Leone and Frank Leone, all students from Mrs. Doris Teiber's art class. It was truly a cooperative effort, with the Post Office supplying the paints, "canvas" and the volunteer artists providing the enthusiasm and creativity.

A very special event is scheduled for Sun., Feb. 2. Duane Sutter, veteran NY Islander right wing No. 12 and Honorary Easter Seal Sports Chairman, invites all Islander fans to attend the second Annual Islander Auction to be held from 1 to 6 p.m. at the Special Events Court in Roosevelt Field Shopping Mall. Bd. Cracks Down On Parking Violators at Medical Center

At its January 14 meeting, the Nassau County Board of Supervisors took an important step toward cracking down on motorists who abuse the parking facilities available at the Nassau County Medical Center. The Board, after conducting a public hearing on the matter, authorized medical center security personnel to write appearance tickets for parking infractions that take place on the grounds of the 680 bed facility in East Meadow.

Prior to the Board's action it had been the responsibility of the Nassau County Police Department to monitor and enforce the parking regulations that pertain to the Medical Center grounds. Hempstead Town Presiding Supervisor Thomas S. Gulotta, Majority Leader of the Board of Supervisors, voted for the measure noting that "It is the responsibility of this Board to see to it that all those who come to and from the medical center on a daily basis are permitted free and easy access to the Center's facilities. Without beefed-up enforcement of parking regulations, the increasing volume (visitors that the Center is experiencing will soon create an unmanageable "bottleneck" of automobiles."

North Hempstead Town Supervisor John Kiernan, head of the Board's Subcommittee that oversees the Police Department, welcomed the measure as "One that relieves a considerable burden from the members of the Nassau County Police Department that patrol in the area. By giving ticketing authority to Medical Center security personnel we will be freeing the local patrolman to spend more of his time fighting crime in the area."

Supervisors Gulotta and Kiernan were joined in supporting the measure by the full Board of Supervisors, including: Hempstead Supervisor James D. Bennett, Oyster Bay Supervisor Joseph Colby, Glen Cove Mayor Vincent Suozzi and Long Beach Supervisor Hannah Komanoff.

The next meeting of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors will take place on Monday, February 4th beginning at 10 a.m. in the fifth floor meeting room of the County Executive Building, 1 West Street, Mineola, New York.

Boy Scouts To Salute Theodore Roosevelt

As part of its 75th Anniversary Celebration, the Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America is planning a cocktail party and reception Jan. 30, 6pm - 8pm at the Old Orchard at Sagamore Hill. The theme will be recognition of the achievements and spirit of Theodore Roosevelt. He was a lifelong resident of Oyster Bay, 26th President of the United States, and ardent supporter of the Nassau County Boy Scouts.

The reception will be hosted by William D. Johnson, President of the Theodore Roosevelt Association - a national non-profit historical society and public service organization. The reception will feature remarks by Johnson, followed by a special presentation to Theodore Roosevelt IV. Other Roosevelt family members will attend. A special proclamation from President Ronald Reagan marking the event will be read at the reception. The general public is invited. An invitation may be secured by calling 746-8282.

The cocktail party and reception is only one part of the 75th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America (February 8, 1910). The anniversary celebration will be highlighted at the Scout Show, scheduled from 10am - 6pm on Saturday, February 2nd at the Sunrise Mall, Green Acres Mall and Mid-Island Mall. Booths commemorating Roosevelt's achievements, manned by members of the Theodore Roosevelt Association, including artifacts from Mr. Roosevelt, will be at each mall. The Scout Show will also include booths manned by Scouts. It is an opportunity for parents and children alike to discover what Scouting stands for and to

Historical Background

Theodore Roosevelt's endorsement and support has long been recognized as an important factor of success of Scouting in Nassau County. The Boy Scouts of America was incorporated on February 8, 1910. The Nassau County Council was chartered on February 20, 1917, with the former President appointed as the first Council Commissioner - a post which he held from 1917 to his death on January 6, 1919. For many years the outstanding citizen of Nassau County, Theodore Roosevelt, exemplified all that Scouting stands for. He was an outdoorsman. He was a family man with several sons. He was a leader, who threw himself into whatever he did with great vigor. It was natural that when F. Howard Covey began organizing Nassau County Scouting, that he enlisted the support of Mr. Roosevelt, which meant much to the success of the movement. He had been "Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America while in the White House, and Committeeman of Group 39, Oyster Bay.

Roosevelt's early work in Scouting is still observed by annual pilgrimages to his gravesite at Young's Cemetery in Oyster Bay.

Enclosed photos show Roosevelt with his friend Jack Cooper and Nassau County Boy Scouts at Cooper's boxing camp. Local policeman also shown. Many other Theodore Roosevelt photos available upon request by calling Karen Considine at 746-8282.

Good News For Taxpayers An End To Bracket Creep

There's an old saying that nothing is certain in life but death and taxes. Taxes seem to be here to stay. But there is some good news. Beginning this year, Long Island taxpayers will see their federal income taxes reduced when the tax indexing provision goes into effect January 1985.

Indexing will bring an end to the annual automatic tax increase caused by "bracket creep." "Bracket creep" is the process in our tax system which forces unsuspecting taxpayers into higher tax brackets because of inflation. Most working Americans receive cost-of-living adjustments to help them keep up with rising inflation. But as they earn more, workers are pushed into higher tax brackets. The government takes a larger chunk out of their paychecks in federal income taxes, leaving them with less take-home income. Some families break even, but many actually lose money!

Finally, President Reagan and Congress decided to put a halt to "bracket creep." Congress strongly supported the tax indexing provision which Congress approved as part of the 1981 Economic Recovery Tax Act. Under indexing, tax rates are adjusted to inflation. That way, you pay additional taxes only when real income gains are made.

All wage earners will benefit, but tax indexing is especially helpful to low and middle income families. For example, a Long Island family earning $12,000 a year will see its taxes lowered by more than eight percent in 1985. A family earning more than $50,000 a year will save about three percent.

Last year, some legislators waged a tough battle in Congress to repeal or revise the indexing provision. Their reasons were plain enough. "Bracket creep" allowed the government to raise taxes without Congress ever casting a single vote. Now, these tax-and-spend liberals will have to change their free-spending ways and vote on the record if they want to raise taxes. I believe that indexing will force legislators to reduce the deficit by cutting excess government spending before they move in haste to raise taxes.

I fought long and hard to retain the indexing provision. It will help ease the tax burden on American families and it represents a big step in the direction of much-needed tax reform.

What About The Children?

What will happen to your children if you, their parents, were killed when traveling on vacation? Who will take care of them? Will the state take them?

Many of us with young children have put off asking these difficult questions. Perhaps it is because it requires us to confront the fact of our own mortality. In the course of my practice of law, I have found that an alarming number of our friends, relatives and clients do not have a will. A will is most important where young children are involved. The will can provide for the appointment of a guardian, chosen by the parents, to care for the children if tragedy strikes and the children are left without a parent.

Most of us are aware of the function of distributing property provided by a will. Yet, more important than any property is the care and well being of our children. Perhaps it takes courage to face mortality, but by making a Will now, we can protect our children and insure a loving home for them.

A simple will and guardianship clause is inexpensive. There is no valid excuse for failing to provide this protection for our children. Call us at DONOVAN & DONOVAN, ESQS. for an appointment. Weekend appointments are available.

NEEDED: ALL THE BRASS PLAYERS WE CAN GET

The Midianites were desert marauders who crossed the Jordan and encamped in the Valley of Jezreel—the most fruitful region in all Palestine to plunder. For 7 years the Midianites had plundered the land...they were like locusts, so many that they and their camels could not be conducted. They laid waste the land. The Israelites cried to God for help.

God selected Gideon as his vehicle to answer their prayer. Gideon reminded the Lord that he was from the weakest clan of the people of Israel. The Lord answered, "But I will be with you." Then Gideon, after requesting and receiving special signs from the Lord, opened himself to the Lord and his service and the spirit of the Lord became incarnate in Gideon. Gideon became an extension of the Lord. Gideon became a possessed man—possessed by the spirit of the Lord, therefore lifted into a new dimension of devotion and courage.

Gideon brought forth a huge army. Upon God's instructions he dismissed two-thirds of them, 22,000, because of lack of courage. God wanted Israel to know that his people, who had been worshipping Baal and other idols, were not delivering themselves from the Midianites. If Israel were to believe she conquered the Midianites by her own strength, the experience might carry her further from God rather than drawing her closer. The army had to be so small that no one could question God's involvement.

The army that moved against the Midianites under the leadership of Gideon was less than 1 percent of the original conscription. Just today we must realize that our walk through life should be 99 percent God or maybe even 100 percent God, and only 1 percent us. Gideon's army didn't have sophisticated weapons. They used clay jars, torches, and trumpets. God caused the Midianites to become confused upon hearing the racket caused by Gideon's army, and they began fighting and killing each other and routed themselves, literally destroying themselves.

The biblical account of Gideon proudly proclaims that there is no group or ministry in a church that is too small to be a powerful and effective force for good. Bands should be everywhere in a parish...and there is always room for more.

In John 15:16, Jesus said to his disciples, "You have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, that you should go and bring forth fruit."

Hydroponic Farm At Dutch Lane School

The children in Denise Stamp Yannon's fifth-sixth grade at the Dutch Lane School are growing tomatoes without using soil! They are studying the science of "hydroponics," which is the practice of growing plants in a solution of water and nutrients instead of soil. "Hydroponics" is a Greek term meaning "water-working," and was coined by Dr. W.F. Gericke at the university of California in 1936. Dr. Gericke grew plants on a large scale in a solution of water and mineral salts. Since Dr. Gericke didn't have the use of a hydroponic greenhouse like the one at Dutch Lane, he had to use his bathtub!

Over 4600 years ago, the Aztecs of Central America used hydroponics by growing their crops atop rafts, with the roots dangling into fresh, mineral-rich water. The hanging gardens of Babylon are also said to have been grown in a way similar to hydroponics over 3,000 years ago!

The implication for hydroponic farming are significant in our world where arable land is fast diminishing. Modern hydroponic greenhouses can help feed people in parts of the world where the land is too arid, or where there is not enough room for fields. Hydroponics can also help in parts of the world where drought is common, such as Ethiopia.

Scientists are currently testing the use of hydroponic farming in space. As our world's population continues to grow and as we venture into the frontier of outer space, hydroponic farming will help feed us all. The students are eagerly awaiting the harvest of their tomato plants. Each day they observe the growth and development of the plants, making sure enough light, water, nutrients and tender loving care are available. One of the students suggested the class make tomato sauce and have a pasta party. Another boy said, "Let's just eat them as they are, fresh and ripe right off the vine!"

At The Hicksville Library

The Hicksville Library will be OPEN on Monday, January 21, from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. There will be no evening hours on that day.

Tuesday, January 22nd, at 8:00 p.m. in the Community Room of the Hicksville Public Library, a representative from SCORE, Mr. Charles Caputo, will present a program designed to help someone start or improve a small business operation.

SCORE (Service Corps of Retired Executives) is an organization of retired executives who work with the Nassau County Small Business Administration voluntarily. They are available for appointments at their office in Mineola and sometimes they provide programs like this one to offer help and suggestions to those attending. Anyone planning to start a small business or already in one, will find this program very informative. Everyone is invited and there is no charge.

The Hicksville Public Library will show the film, "Racing With The Moon" on Friday, January 18th at 8:00 p.m. in the Community room of the library. "Racing With The Moon" is a film about friendship, love and the pain of growing up in a world at war. It is the poignant story of high school chums, Hopper (Sean Penn) and Nicky (Nicholas Cage), whose lives are altered forever during a six-week period in 1942. The two boys await their entry in the Marines, and prepare to leave their peaceful hometown - perhaps forever. Hopper falls in love with shy, sensitive Caddie (Elizabeth McGovern) and the idyllic courtship that follows is both sweetly serious and almost impossibly gentle. Reckless Nicky is not so fortunate. His girlfriend (Suzanne Adkinson) gets pregnant. The intelligent screenplay moves effortlessly between comedy and pathos suggesting sadness and the possibility of loss in even the most blissful love scenes. Rated PG, this film is in color and runs about 1 1/2 hours. There is never any charge for library programs and everyone is invited. Children must be accompanied by a parent.

Plainview Actor Returns To Star On Local Stage

By Doris Meadows

Joel Leffert, who grew up in Plainview, stars in the Nassau Repertory Theater's upcoming production of Harold Pinter's The Caretaker. A graduate of John F. Kennedy High School, Mr. Leffert went on to obtain a degree from Brown University in 1969 before embarking on what has become a varied and successful career on the stage.

The actor's first stage "credit" was the role of the Pied Piper in a 5th grade production at the Central Park Road School in Plainview. He credits the local school system for "really encouraging" him to pursue a career in the arts. Mr. Leffert cited a high school trip to Stratford, CT as one of the school activities that really got him interested in theater; as a professional actor he has since returned to work at the famous Shakespearean theater. In addition to his many Shakespearean roles, Mr. Leffert has also played the title roles in Dracula and Don Juan in Hell, Tony Cavendish in Royal Family and Tony Wendice in Dial M For Murder. It was his love for Shakespeare however that prompted Mr. Leffert's interest in staged historical combat. Now an accomplished swordsman and fight choreographer, Mr. Leffert told a Plainview-Old Bethpage Herald reporter: "I started to learn fencing so I'd be prepared if I ever got to play Hamlet." While he's not yet played the Dane, Mr. Leffert has become recognized as an expert in ancient weaponry; his Manhattan apartment houses an enviable collection of armor and weapons amassed on buying trips throughout the world.

The actor's parents, Beatrice and Seymour Leffert, reside in Plainview. Seymour Leffert runs his own accounting firm in New York City. Beatrice Leffert, who holds the professional title of Dr., heads up the reading program for the Jericho school district. The Nassau Repertory Theater, Long Island's only professional Equity theater group, opens(ed) its production of The Caretaker on January 18th. It runs through February 3rd. Performances are at the modern, comfortable Hays Theater, Molloy College (Rockville Centre). For ticket information call (516) 546-4600.

The Program Of An HHS Award Winner

Lawrence Fiegelman, Hicksville High School Class of 1983 and first recipient of the Special Education Department Award for Excellence, is recording high achievements at Nassau Community College where he is studying marketing.

He has raised his grade point average from 3.0 to 3.5, and has passed a required statistics course with the help of a tutor, overcoming a long-standing difficulty in mathematics.

Lawrence plans to attend C.W. Post next semester to complete his junior and senior years and was eligible to compete for an Advanced Studies Tuition Grant worth $1,500.00 per semester. Raising his grade point average to 3.5 qualifies him to compete for a $2,000.00 grant. These grants are awarded to 15 incoming students each year.

Congratulations are in order for Lawrence on his fine scholastic achievement.

Information Assistance Available

On Nov. 29 County Executive Francis T. Purcell announced the county HEATline numbers for persons needing information and assistance to solve fuel-related heating problems. The daytime number is 535-4826. The emergency number for evenings and weekends is 542-3143.

Purcell stressed the importance of calling for information before there is an emergency or crisis.

Mrs. Sparr's and Mrs. Nelson's first grade classes of East St. School, enjoyed a healthy breakfast together. The children made their own placemats, covered with pictures they collected of breakfast foods. Many mothers helped prepare the nutritionally balanced breakfast. Everyone had a great time.

Something To Think About

VERN & BILL WAGNER
TWO GENERATIONS OF SERVICE

THE TASKS OF GRIEF

Today we understand that grief is more than a period of sadness after sustaining a loss. It is a complex process with specific tasks that have to be worked through for the emotional, mental, and physical health of the survivor.

There are two major psychological tasks to be accomplished by the bereaved. The first is so simple and obvious that we might assume it would not take any effort - that is to accept the fact of the death intellectually and emotionally. It is, however, a difficult task for many bereaved persons. The whole funeral process can help in this respect.

The second task is to reinvest the energy once devoted to the deceased to other persons, ideas, and activities. In this light, the grief process has been likened to dying and being reborn. When we grieve, we do in a sense share the death of the person who was close to us. We must then be reborn as the person we will become in our new existence.

Modern Music Masters is sponsored by the Music Educators National Conference, a professional association of public and private school teachers of all levels of education. Chapter No. 503 of Hicksville High School is an active group which presents recitals throughout the school year. Mr. Thomas Buttice, advisor to the Chapter, stated that "...students are considered for membership through faculty recommendation. To be nominated," he continued, "the student must not only be an active member of one of the school's performing organizations but have reached a level of performance ability of grade five/six literature as an instrumentalist and grade four as a vocalist". He explained that all literature is graded by the New York

State School Music Association according to difficulty in grade levels of one through six with six being the most difficult. In addition, each candidate must audition for Mr. Buttice. The Induction Ceremony is followed by a student recital given in honor of the new members.

Commenting on the Chapter, Supervisor of Fine Arts William L. Gagnon stated that he is "...very pleased to see such an active group at Hicksville High School. This type of honorary society is very important. It gives academic recognition to students in the arts and we should take great pride in the present members and those to be inducted."
