This year's election, will be for the Library budget and the election of one Library trustee to fill the seat of Abraham Fishman. Any nomination for this position must be filed with the Clerk of the School District no later than March 18, 1985.

Each petition must have at least twenty five qualified voter's names and addresses or 2% of the number of voters who voted in the previous library election.

A copy of the estimated expenses of the budget may be obtained at the Library and each school house in the district on and after April 3 from 9 AM to 4 PM.

Reception For Local Artist At Gregory Museum

Hicksville's "artist in residence", Olga Hoebel, was the guest of honor at a reception marking the formal opening of an exhibition of her works dealing with Long Island subject, on Sunday, February 17. The upstairs hall of the Old Heitz Place Courthouse was the site for "Vistas of Paumanok", an exhibit of Mrs. Hoebel's 30-odd artistic interpretations of Long Island scenes of forty years ago.

Among the initial guests at the reception and the opening of the year-long exhibition were members of Long Island's Independent Art Society and the Penwomen of America, in which organizations Olga Hoebel served as President, and many friends from the Friendship Club of the United Methodist Church of Hicksville, as well as neighbors and family. Space facilities at the upper hall of the Historic Courthouse being somewhat limited, visitors and guests were coming and going all afternoon.

The exhibition was conceived and organized by Richard Evers and Velma Conover of the Gregory Museum's Historical Committee, as an event for inclusion in Nassau County's Office of Cultural Development's Island-wide 1985 Calendar of Happenings. Comprising the art works of Mrs. Hoebel's Long Island Period, the exhibit's theme of Vistas of Paumanok (an Algonquin name for our island) are: oil paintings, watercolors, mixed media scenic renderings and fine pencil sketches.

The artist, Olga Hoebel, has had an eventful and interesting life. Born in Moscow, under the Czar, where her father was a German pharmacist, she left Russia with her family on a fortunate visit to Germany, on the eve of the Great War, in 1914. She was in her early teens during the bleak homefront years of the titanic struggle. Emigrating to the United States, in the Twenties, Olga lived with an uncle of the well-known Lauman well drilling firm of L.I. until she married Louis Hoebel, a Hicksville farmer.

During her married life, the Hoebels often visited the Adirondack Mountains, whose natural wilderness and beauties became some of her favorite subjects, in an emerging artistic expression of versatility and sensitivity. Her talents had been recognized early by her parents, who saw that she received training under artist and teacher Van De Voorde. Over the years, she continued her art study under the late Bessie Williams and the late Chester Hagen of Hicksville, Oke Bordgren, and with Whit Brown, for water colors.

Olga Hoebel's works have been exhibited in numerous joint and several solo shows and have won prizes. Her Adirondack nature scenes were much praised. She has been a portrait artist on commission, and is very skilled in her sketches and use of mixed media.

Active in promoting artistic talents and public interest in art in the Mid-Island area, the artist, in the fifties, introduced the Art Course in the Hicksville Adult Education Program, under its far-sighted Director, Elyry Bean. In her later years, to add to her very modest resources as a widow, she taught students in her home and turned her talents to creating lovely miniatures.

A special part of Sunday's reception for Mrs. Hoebel was the presentation to her

"Vistas of Paumanok: the Long Island Art of Olga Hoebel" a year-long exhibition of paintings and drawings, opened officially at the Hicksville Gregory Museum this past Sunday. A good turn out of guests are shown, in part, viewing the multi-media display of works created by longtime resident and artist Olga Hoebel.

During last Sunday's art exhibition opening at the Hicksville Gregory Museum, artist Olga Hoebel (center) was presented with an Honorary Life Membership in the museum for services to its creation. Mrs. Myra Kennedy of Hicksville (left) and Velma Conover, of the Gregory Board of Advisors were among visitors to admire Mrs. Hoebel's numerous Long Island oils, watercolors and sketches.

Dear Friends...

We extend best wishes for continued success to all members of the William M. Gouse, Jr. Post No. 3211 who celebrated their Golden (50th) Anniversary at a gala dinner dance last Saturday evening at Antun's. This Organization which was honored last September as the 1984 Organization of the Year by the Hicksville Community Council, is known for its fine efforts not only on behalf of veterans but also for many local and national causes. They serve as an example and an inspiration to all who are concerned for their community and their fellow men.

Civic associations are becoming reactivated in several areas of Hicksville. As we mentioned last week, the Midland Civic Association which covers the northern part of Hicksville nearest Jericho will be holding its general membership meeting starting at 8 p.m. in the Willet Avenue School on Tuesday, Feb. 26. The Hicksville Gardens Civic Association will be holding its general membership meeting on Monday, February 25th starting at 8 p.m. in the East Street School. Along with several local civics who meet regularly, and the Hicksville Community Council which serves as an "umbrella" council for both local residents and organizations they are working towards viable solutions to the many problems which effect our areas, and helping each other to solve community-wide problems. We urge you to attend both your local civic association meeting and, if possible the eight meetings of the Hicksville Community Council which are held on the first Thursday of each month (except January/July, August and Sept) starting at 8 p.m. in the downstairs community room of the Hicksville Library on Jerusalem Avenue. Come on out and work together for a better Hicksville. Your community will be helped...and so will you.

Congressman Norman F. Lent who represents many of our areas, launched an art competition for high school students in the Fourth Congressional District. The winning entry will be displayed this coming summer, along with works of art from other congressional districts across the country, in a corridor of the U.S. Capitol - an area dedicated to the artistic skills of today's young artists.

According to Congressman Lent, the contest is part of an Artistic Discovery, the fourth annual competition implemented by Members of the U.S. House of Representatives to recognize the creative talents of young Americans. Between now and May 15, 1985, Members will conduct local competitions for high school students in order to select artwork to be displayed in the national exhibition.

"I am happy to sponsor this competition, which allows us to encourage our young artists whose creative energies are so vital to our rich cultural traditions," Congressman Lent said.

The competition, which is to be conducted at no expense to the federal government, is open to all high school students in the Fourth District. Artwork must be two dimensional and no larger than 30" X 30" (unframed). Eligible categories are paintings, drawings, collages and prints.

For further information, you may contact Competition Coordinator Emma Tolmach at (516) 223-1616.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well and remember the saying "It is better to light one candle than to curse the darkness."

Letter To the Editor

Dear Sheila:
As you noted in your editorial of February 15, the Midland Civic Association Inc. has been reactivated. There are many local matters of utmost importance which must be addressed and, hopefully, solved. A civic association is a means to educate a community of the issues, present and future, to keep its members abreast of all civic matters pertaining to the area in which they reside, their surrounding areas, their town and their state.

A populace must be alert to and aware of what is happening within it and around it. To be uninformed is a crime against oneself.

We extend an invitation to the families residing in the Hicksville section of the 15th Assembly District (North Hicksville) to attend the first general meeting of the Midland Civic Association. It will be held on Tuesday, February 26th at 8:00 P.M. in the Willet Ave. School.

For a Better Hicksville,
Ellie Draycott, Civic Chairman

Purcell Announces Candidacy

On Feb. 7, citing Nassau County's excellent fiscal and economic condition, County Executive Francis T. Purcell formally announced his candidacy for re-election to a third four-year term, and said he will run on his record.

"The policies that my administration has pursued for the past eight years have brought the county fiscal stability and economic vitality," Purcell said. "I want to continue those policies for the next four years in order to maintain the county's financial health while fostering further economic growth and development to bring more jobs into our county for county residents."

"There are also several projects I want to see through to fruition, including completion of the development of Mitchel Field, continued revitalization of both the city of Long Beach and the village of Hempstead, and the opening of the Cradle of Aviation Museum."

Purcell said that county property taxes have gone up only $156, or 29 percent, for the average homeowner during his 8 years in office, while the rate of inflation was rising 53 percent. He said that most of this increase was for police protection.

Purcell explained that despite the pressures of increasing NY State mandants such as Medicaid and M.A. and IRR subsidies, the county taxes average less than 22 per cent of the homeowner's total property tax bill, whereas in 1979 this average was 24 per cent. He also explained that the county's 19.5 tax rate actually went down 1.8 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, but that, without the extension of the additional three-quarters of a penny in the sales tax, the property tax rate would have had to be raised to $2.34 per $100, and would have cost the average homeowner an extra $163 in property taxes. Mr. Purcell said that he believes a sales tax is a fairer way to raise needed revenues than the property tax.

Police Officers Needed
Purcell said the federal government is now blocking the county from hiring police officers. He said the police department lost 121 officers through attrition last year, now has a complement of 3,196 officers, and expects to lose another 200 through attrition this year. Even if officers were hired today, he said, it would be a year before they were out on the streets. He said he wants the federal government to accept the results of the recent test and permit the county to begin hiring police officers to replace the ones it is losing.

Have a Heart - Help Ethiopia

On Valentine's Day, the children of the Burns Avenue School sponsored by Miss Dawn Marr's and Mrs. Terry Wells' Fifth Graders, wound up their six-day "Have a Heart-Help Ethiopia" fund raiser. Their goal was to raise $1,000 to aid these starving people. The money was raised in a variety of ways; emptying piggy banks, going without ice cream, garage sales, giving up Valentine parties, etc. Each day, the drive's progress was charted on a giant thermometer in the school's front lobby.

This Valentine of love and sharing was raised by teachers as well as the students. It should be noted that Burns Avenue is a relatively small school with less than four hundred students.

The Fifth Graders more than realized their goal, as the total amount raised was $1,178.15. The entire school population rejoiced.

The Burns Avenue PTA sponsored a cupcake sale on Valentine Day to raise yet more money for the Ethiopian Children's Fund. The outpouring of love from all the parents who baked those scrumptious cupcakes could not be believed. The PTA raised $180.25. This truly was a Valentine Day filled with LOVE.

WHAT NOT TO SAY

Would-be comforters of the bereaved have often been known to say, with the very best intentions, many things that are inappropriate, if not downright cruel, under the circumstances. It can wound the bereaved, and severely embarrass the well-meaning sympathizer.

This is one major reason why we tend to shy away from friends who are grieving. We are unsure of what to say and terribly afraid we will say the wrong thing. None of us are perfect, and these social blunders happen occasionally even to the best of us. With a little forethought, however, we can certainly reduce the chances of this happening. To begin with, don't presume to know how the other person feels. This is impossible and, worse, insulting. Don't try to cheer the bereaved up by making light of the loss or "looking on the bright side." On the other hand, don't upstage the bereaved by dwelling on YOUR feelings of sadness and loss. A simple and sincere expression of sympathy is still the best policy.

AN UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIAL

Dear Sirs:

I feel something should be done to educate the public regarding chiropractic medicine. There are so many health programs on TV and numerous health articles in the newspaper and magazines and yet, little or nothing is said about chiropractors and their method of treatment. The public is very ignorant due to lack of information. People just don't realize that there are other alternatives to their skeletal problems. A chiropractor doesn't have to perform surgery, put the patient in traction or prescribe medication that may have side effects. Through spinal manipulation, the chiropractor can treat and cure the patient in his/her office.

In August of 1984, I developed severe back pain. Having heard or read very little about chiropractors, I never occurred to me to seek their help. Instead, I went to a medical doctor. He ran various tests which all came back negative. The pain became so severe that I was taken to a nearby hospital. There, xrays were taken. I was told that I had muscle spasms, instructed to stay off my feet, take the muscle relaxants which were prescribed and the pain should go away in a couple of days. The pills only numbed the pain, it did nothing to correct the situation. Once the medication wore off, the pain was not only still there, but it was more severe than it had been before. Using copies of the xrays taken at the hospital, my chiropractor was able to tell me exactly what was wrong. Muscle spasms were only a part of the problem. Had I been informed, I would have known to go there in the very beginning.

I sincerely hope, that in the future, there are more programs and articles offered to the public in order to enlighten them about the benefits of chiropractic medicine and treatment. It is time these fine doctors receive the credit they deserve. To Gregg M. Biegel, D.C., Pascal Chiropractic Office, Plainview, I say "God Bless You!", and thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Virginia Commarato

Treasures From The Willets Ave. School Rain Forest

As part of Willet Avenue's "Enrichment for All" program, third graders recently had the opportunity to see and handle some rare and fascinating natural science specimens brought back from the Rain Forest of Costa Rica.

Mrs. Joan Scancarelli, a naturalist and entomologist on the staff of the Hicksville Gregory Museum, visited Willet Ave. as part of the Museum's Outreach to the Hicksville Schools. In addition to magnificent nature slides taken on her numerous trips into the jungle, Mrs. Scancarelli delivered a lively commentary on the climate, the exotic appearance and habits of the animals and insects, and some of the inconveniences of jungle camping. She focused on the ecology of the Rain Forest, on developing an understanding of how animals and plants adapted to the environment. She also provided insight into the interrelationships of people with nature and with each other in trying to survive in the Rain Forest.

The accompanying display, much of it designed for hands-on inspection, included mounted insect specimens, unusual seeds and seed pods, and an extraordinary hanging bird's nest about two feet long, created to hold a single tiny egg. There were also examples of live potted orchids and epiphytes (plants growing as parasites on other vegetation).

This program was developed by Mrs. Scancarelli and Willet Ave. Media Specialist Rosemary Barrow, to correlate with the third grade study of Regions of the World, and is available to other elementary schools.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Scancarelli from the Gregory Museum, Willet Ave. third grader Christopher Connolly uses a hand lens to examine a growing epiphyte held by Suzanne D'Introno. (Photo by Rosemary Barrow).

A Burns Ave. Trip

Wow! Are we really going under the East River? This and other remarks were heard February 7th on the Long Island Railroad into Penn Station, New York City.

As we walked to the 8th Avenue subway, many different odors reminded us of various ethnic foods we had enjoyed. Some of our class had never been on a subway and at least one of our group had not been on a railroad train either.

At last, we reached 81 St. station and the conductor who had been our guide, left us at the Museum of Natural History. We had a marvelous day beginning with a guided introduction to the early and late dinosaurs and ending in the Hall of Fishes where the Great Blue Whale dominates the scene.

Mrs. Anthony, Brandisi, Corrado, Grecco and Molesky accompanied Mrs.

Wade's Fourth Grade Class from Burns Avenue School, to the museum and a great time was had by all.

If we had the funds, we could enjoy and benefit from a monthly visit to this fantastic museum.

Blood Pressure Course

High Blood Pressure adds to the workload of the heart and arteries. If high blood pressure continues for a long time, the heart and the arteries may not function as well as they should, and other body organs may also be affected.

Classes are now forming for March 4th, 11th and 18th, Daytime hours, 10:00 A.M. - 1:00 P.M. or evening hours, 7:30 P.M. - 10:30 P.M.

For further information call Ms. Pitter at 516-741-5522.

Children's Craft Workshop

Children are invited to learn the skills of origami, or Japanese paper folding at the Hicksville Gregory Museum on Saturday, Feb. 23. Registrations are now taking place for "Butterfly Magic", a youngsters' workshop for 10 to 12 year olds, the latest in the Museum's Saturday afternoon nature handicrafts programs.

The workshop will take place from 2:30 to 4:30 at the Gregory Museum on Heitz Place, Hicksville, a block south of the junction of Bay Avenue and Woodbury Road. The registration fee is $3.00. Please call 822-7505 for registration or you may register in person if there are still openings, Saturday.

THE HOUSES ON THE MARKET

American houses are bigger than they used to be. According to recent census data, the median-size home built in 1983 was 45 square feet bigger than one built the year before; the figures for 1984 are even higher. The new houses also have more amenities such as fireplaces, central air conditioning, and extra bathrooms.

If your home has few such features, or is bigger or smaller than the average, will buyers pass it by? Not if you get the right prospects.

One of a real estate agent's functions is to screen the prospective buyers who come into the office. What do they say they want? What does in-depth interviewing indicate they REALLY want? The expert real estate professional matches prospect to property and brings you the people who are really looking for a home like yours.

To bring serious prospects into your home, list with an expert who will pre-qualify them:

County OK's Plan For Cantiague Park

Hempstead Town President Supervisor Thomas S. Gulotta, majority leader of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors, and Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Joseph Colby have announced the approval of plans for the renovation of the Ice Rink Ceiling at Cantiague Park in Hicksville.

Approval for the $138,000 renovation project was given at the February 4th meeting of the Nassau County Board of Supervisors. The Board, led by Supervisor Colby, gave the County Department of Public Works permission to obtain bids for the renovation work at this County facility.

According to Supervisor Gulotta, "The County Board of Supervisors has given the go-ahead for the installation of a complete overhead suspended low energy lighting system which will not only result in substantial energy savings, it will also eliminate dangerous condensation from forming on the skating surface."

Supervisor Colby noted that the completion of this renovation project, "Will not only result in a substantial financial savings to the County, though reduced energy costs, it will also greatly enhance the appearance of the rink and the degree of illumination provided to skaters."

"I hope that area residents who utilize the Cantiague Park Ice Rink will approve of this renovation. This is just another step in our commitment to provide Nassau County residents with one of the finest Parks and Recreation systems in the world," Supervisor Gulotta concluded.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

PRESIDENT PETE MASSIELLO'S MESSAGE: "Every man is rich or poor according to the proportions between his desires and his enjoyment." Samuel Johnson

Yes, it's true that the Galileo Lodge does not resort to self-serving proclamations which are usually a part of an organization's commercial repertoire. The Galileo Lodge merely strives and aims for perfection in its own way — through meticulous attention to detail, courtesy, good food and courteous service. It wants to be No. 1. Witness last Saturday night's Valentine's Day Dance, an event in which over 250 people attended enjoying the finest in cuisine, good dance music and the irrepressible and romantic atmosphere of its environs. This dance was highlighted by the Galileo Lodge's designation of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ingino as the 'Valentine's Day Sweethearts' and then according to Jim Ingino an other accolade, making him the honoree of this dance. Skip Monteforte chaired this activity in his usual excellent fashion, as did Joe Morace, Frank Matassa and Armand Del Cioppo. Another moving feature of this dance was the announcement that Mr.

and Mrs. Jim Ingino celebrated 38 years of wedded bliss. All in all, it was a very heart-warming night, which prompted President Pete Massiello to extend his sincerest thanks to these members who worked so diligently to make this dance a social success, and he also included Bert Molinelli as the bartender and Dom Valente who prepared the delicious food served.

Then stepping out of February and find the unpredictable arms of March around us, we note that the Galileo Lodge is scheduling its annual St. Joseph's Dance for Saturday, the 16th of March. Tickets will sell at $12.50 per person, a nominal fee that entitles you to a delicious hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music for your listening and dancing pleasure. Joe Lopresti will 'chair' this activity in his usual good fashion, ably assisted by Joe Morace (931-2548) and Tony Sica (796-8789), who will be in charge of tickets starting next week. So what we have here is another enjoyable affair carefully planned for your enjoyment. Please note that this activity will also maintain a bring-your-own-liquor policy. Please note that Bert Molinelli and Joe Crivelli will be honored that night.

Since the Galileo Lodge has a very active Ladies Auxiliary, it follows that it also has a very active recreational program ready for the coming months. On Thursday, the 21st of March, the Ladies Auxiliary will present a Fashion Show-Dinner at the Galileo Lodge. Mary Ferrara will supervise this activity. Tickets are now ready, they sell at $10.50 per person and that includes a dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and the show itself. Call Mary at 433-6289 for additional information. Please note that a bring-your-liquor will be in effect that night and that men are also cordially invited to attend. This affair seems to be a nice way to usher in the season of spring

Of course the advent of Spring offers us different moods, different thoughts and different desires. And needless to mention that the Galileo Lodge will also offer us a different activity, which is, namely, the 13 Annual Anniversary Dance, scheduled for Saturday, the 24th of April. Joe Giordano will 'chair' this activity, and who will be assisted by a committee to be named soon. Please note that on this particular night the Galileo Lodge will honor Joseph Montmarano, State President and also on this particular night the Louise E. Massiello Memorial Scholarship Awards will be handed out that night. Price of tickets will be announced shortly. This affair is one of the Galileo Lodge's most prestigious, so it is incumbent on all members to attend and become a part of this dance and night. Call Joe Giordano at 333-4555 for additional information, although news concerning this activity will be forthcoming in this column later on

As we head into the season of spring and summer, more events will occur as the Galileo Lodge seeks to offer its members, patrons, and friends the best leisure-packed and enjoyable activities for the months ahead. All such activities and events will be written about and discussed here, so keep attuned with us here. Activities such as picnics, more dances, various sports events, outings and so much more. So as you can see, the Galileo Lodge is planning ahead of time for your pleasure, enjoyment and edification.

Hicksville Triumphs Over Huntington Indoor Soccer

by Al Blicker

The Hicksville Shamrocks 1974 traveling soccer team steamrolled the HBC Cosmos 16-6 this past Sunday in a Shep Messing League indoor game. It was a total team effort, with the players getting the opportunity to display their skills offensively and defensively. The Shamrocks were led by Eddie Jacobsen, who had an outstanding first half in goal, allowing only one HBC score. The second half was a Jacobsen offensive show, as he put in five big goals. Gregg Grusso was at his offensive and defensive best, scoring a three goal hat trick from wing, plus two assists, while also playing a strong fullback.

Eric Blicker was a dynamo at fullback, digging into the boards to stop the opposition's charges and sending the ball upfield. Joe Flanagan played his usual quick-thinking game, directing his teammates through "talking" soccer, while taking turns at wing, striker and fullback. Brian Harkins was in the thick of play throughout, while alternating at fullback and wing. Jared Jacobs scored one goal, played a strong wing, and filled in capably in the defensive zone as fullback. Ted Knoop got the game's first goal from wing and also had an effective game at fullback. David Lovato constantly befuddled the opposition through aggressive play at wing, striker and fullback.

Todd Meringoff scored one goal and made his presence felt throughout the game by his stylish play at wing, striker and fullback. Brian Pine had a strong first half at fullback and wing, scoring one goal, and then played goalie in the second half. Matt Pordum put in two goals while playing all over the field with equal flair at striker, wing and fullback. Chris Doyle had his usual steady game, showing his ability at three different positions, contributing two goals within seconds of each other.

Congratulations, Shamrocks, and assistant coach Peter Knoop, who guided the team for this game, for another outstanding soccer victory.

Fighting Hunger is New York Islanders' Goal

On Saturday, February 23, the New York Islanders and John Gerald Jeweler will team up to battle two tough opponents, the Boston Bruins and hunger. This year will mark the Isles' Fourth Annual Impact on Hunger Day. The Islanders will collect nutritious, non-perishable foods from their fans prior to the game against the Bruins at the Nassau Coliseum. The beneficiaries will be some of the more than 200,000 people on Long Island who need emergency food assistance on a regular basis. Long Island Cares, a regional anti-hunger organization serving all of Nassau and Suffolk Counties, will distribute the food through its regional food bank.

Pam Gillies will lead a group of Islanders' wives who will collect the cans from fans as they enter the Coliseum. Last year, fans contributed 10,000 pounds of food and this year the Islanders' goal is 15,000 pounds.

From February 1 through February 23, John Gerald Jeweler will collect contributions of food at five John Gerald locations: Mid-Island Plaza, Green Acres Mall, Queens Center, Kings Plaza and Stamford Town Center.

Ken Morrow, the Islanders' star defenseman, says, "Impact on Hunger Days with hockey fans, which started 4 years ago at the Nassau Coliseum, are now being held with 5 teams in the National Hockey League. Within 2 or 3 years we hope to have a league-wide program that will provide tons of food and make aware that, together, we can overcome hunger."

On Saturday, February 23, the Islanders and their fans will continue their fight against hunger on Long Island.

Long Island Brass Guild to Perform in Hicksville

The Long Island Brass Guild will give a free concert at the Hicksville Public Library on Sunday, March 10, as another in the continuing series of "Distinguished Artists Concerts," according to Oyster Bay Town Councilman Howard T. Hogan, Jr.

The concert, which is being sponsored by the Cultural and Performing Arts (CAPA) Division of the Department of Community Services, will be held at the Library, 169 Jerusalem Avenue, beginning at 3 P.M. For information, contact CAPA at 795-1000.

The Long Island Brass Guild was formed in 1975 and has performed more than 100 concerts in museums, libraries, colleges and recital halls," Hogan stated. "Programs by the Guild include a wide variety of music from Renaissance to Contemporary, winning the group acclaim for its versatility as well as its virtuosity."

For this performance, selections will include Gollwogg's Cake Walk by Debussy, Sonata No. 2 in C by Bertali and Quintet for Brass by Washburn.

Hogan noted that the concert is being supported by grants from Cablevision and National Westminster Bank USA.

Purcell To Run

Garbage Disposal Purcell said the most urgent problem facing the county is garbage disposal. He said garbage disposal is legally a town and city responsibility in which the county has no role, but that he has been discussing county involvement with local officials. If it becomes clear that the solution is beyond the towns' individual resources, he said he will seek a regional solution.

LILCO and Other Matters Purcell said he continues to support opening the Shoreham nuclear power plant to assure Long Island's future energy needs. But he said some mechanism must be found to stabilize LILCO's rates, which are among the highest in the nation.

Tax Proposal Opposed Purcell said that the U.S. Treasury Department's proposal to eliminate the federal income tax deduction for state and local taxes would severely penalize homeowners throughout the nation, but especially in Nassau County. He said he intends to fight this proposal every way that he can.

"As You Do It To The Least-Of These"

Jesus existed! Let us start with that. To say in the Christian community, He is their saviour. To the Jewish community he was someone else...but our common ground—for Jews, Christians and most others—is that Jesus existed.

In scripture, Jesus told the story in many forms. We read the words of God in the Old Testament and in the New Testament. And one of the things Jesus said in this scripture is this: "As you do to the least of these, you do so unto me." Who are "the least of these"? They are the hungry and the homeless in our community. They are the ones we are reaching out to, because we have been blessed, and they need our help.

On Monday, February 22, 11:30 A.M., there will be another meeting of caring people. On February 11, there were 45 in attendance.

There is work to be done—cooking, serving, transporting, telephoning, cleaning up...there's something for everybody. An hour or a day, Hicksville I.N.N. needs time, talent and money. Anything you can do will even make you feel better, come and hear the I.N.N. story — or call the Rev. Theodore Grant at Redeemer Lutheran Church, 17 New South Road, Hicksville — 938-8693 or Effie Krogmann at 367-4835.

DEVOTIONS by The Rev. Kevin J. Rawlins First Baptist Church of Hicksville

"YOUR BIBLE AND YOU"

Most homes in the United States have at least two Bibles. Most people have read major portions of the New Testament. Generally everyone has read some part of the Bible. Very few have consumed the entire Bible once in the year by simple reading. Yet still fewer have read God's precious Word through more than once.

Not only do few people read it, but a majority of those who do, never memorize the most precious words ever penned by man.

Many lands only have radio. Some have just one page of God's word due to persecution, some do not have either. Most individuals can quote what their horoscope says; they can give the names and number of representatives from each state; they can give the latest standings of the horse races; they can give the lineup of the baseball teams for this coming year. However, these same people are sadly, ashamedly unable to quote the books of the Bible in order, much less quote them at all or know what they are about!

So let us ask ourselves, today, how much does God's Word really mean to me, or does it mean anything at all? Our answer will be determined by how much time we spend in it as opposed to other literature. Have you spent time with God today in His word, or will you spend time with Him at all today? How much is your Bible really worth to you??

JUST FILL IN THE COUPON AND I'LL DO THE REST!
