We cannot count on "the other guy" to speak for us or be present for us. We need everyone! Husbands, wives, adult children or live-in grandparents - we want you all there. You must be there if we are to preserve our suburban way of life. The time has come for us, the taxpayers, to decide what we need and what best serves our interests. We stand ready to work with the Town Board, business people and community leaders to develop a Master Plan for a Hicksville. A plan we can all be proud of.

Let us link arms, and speak as one, for the development of Hicksville with establishments that meet our needs. Please, please! On Tuesday night, March 26 forego programs on TV, games, sports etc. and join us in a massive drive on Town Hall. In strength there is victory!

Hicksville Fire Dept. Report

Sunday, March 10th

A fire at the General Instrument Co. Plant, 600 West John St., Hicksville caused an estimated $10,500.00 damage. The fire originated in a plating machine, used in the maintenance of printed circuit boards.

A security guard making rounds discovered the fire in the P.C. Laboratory and notified the Fire Department. The fire, believed to be electrical in origin enveloped the machine containing several 7 1/2 gallon containers of acids and plating materials. An automatic fire sprinkler activated, but did not send out an automatic fire signal to the Fire Department as designed.

Hicksville Vamps responded under Chief Owen Magee. 25 workers were evacuated as a precaution. The Fire Department's Hazardous Materials Response Team made the area safe and the State Environmental Dept. and Health Dept. were asked to respond as toxic smoke and water runoff were involved. The N.C. Fire Marshall's Haz-Mat Division was on the scene also. Two employees and two N.C. Police Officers underwent blood tests as a precaution due to being exposed to the smoke. No harmful effects were found. The alarm was reported at 10:40 AM. Chief Magee added that in this case the faulty alarm did not affect the outcome of the incident, as the security guard found the fire in its early stages. Fire units were on the scene until 3:30 PM. There was no damage to the environment. All run off water was contained in tanks.

Hicksville F.D. Haz Mat Unit and personnel responded, Sunday March 10th, to assist Westbury Vamps at the site of a pesticide spill at the Avis Co. Headquarters on Old Country Road. Members helped at the scene and at the N.C. Medical Center with decontamination procedures. Several members of the Westbury Department came in contact with the substance identified by markings on the drum as paraquat, a toxic substance. State Environmental officials and N.C. Health Dept. officials were on the scene. Several days later the substance leaking from the barrel was analyzed as paint thinner, water and paint, a relief to all that were exposed. An investigation is underway to determine why the barrel was marked wrong. The request for assistance was received at 8:10 PM. Team members, Chief Owen Magee and Asst. Chief O'Brien responded. All units were back at 9:09 PM.

House Fire

A fire at 26 Plover Lane, Hicksville on Feb. 19th caused considerable damage. The fire originated in a clothes dryer and extended up through pipe openings to the first and second floors. During the fire operation owners pleaded for Vamps to find their pet dog, trapped in the dwelling. Firefighters under Capt. Jack Huttie of Vol. Hose Co. 4 extinguished the fire in the basement and after a brief search found the dog and removed it outside.

Once outside Capt. Huttie, who used his air mask on the dog inside continued to work with others to revive the beloved pet. After a period of time the animal was revived and was taken to a local vet for followup treatment. Chief Owen Magee reported he has recommended Capt. Jack Huttie to the A.S.P.C.A. for an award.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

PRESIDENT PETE MASSIELLO'S MESSAGE: Deep in the heart of everyone, there is wide frontier, a vast expanse to overcome, beset with toil and fear. There is no smooth and easy path, each one must find his own way and prove their merit travelling on with Faith, from day to day. Spiritual Message

Last Saturday night, the 16th, close to 250 people, including members, patrons and friends, attended the Galileo Lodge's St. Joseph's Day Dance. The food was appetizing, the music pleasant and the atmosphere delightful. The entire night's proceedings was conducive to pleasure and enjoyment.

Chairman Joe LoPresti and his assistants, Joe Morace and Tony Sica performed admirably once again, as did the kitchen force, Dom Valente and Jim Posillico, who excellently prepared the food. Members of the Ladies Auxiliary and other members of our Lodge also lent their services in preparing the Galileo Lodge for this dance. The honorees, Bert Molinelli and Joe Crivelli, graciously accepted certificates of merit from President Pete Massiello, who highly praised them for their laborious contributions to our Lodge and, most importantly, for their positive attitudes for the well-being and welfare of the Galileo Lodge. In consideration and acknowledgement of the fine work done by all the members named here, President Pete Massiello extends his heartfelt thanks to them.

Just as you would find in other organizations, activities at the Galileo Lodge come and go, many of which leave behind some very fond memories. But one activity that will also leave you the fond memories is the Galileo Lodge's 13th Annual Anniversary Dance, scheduled for Saturday, the 27th of April. This dance will be highlighted by some interesting features, such as the honoring of Joseph Montemarano, State President of the Order of the Sons of Italy in America, and, of course, the distribution of the Louise E. Massiello Memorial Scholarship Awards. Tickets will sell at $32.00 per person, and in the offering will be a cocktail hour starting at 8:30 and ending at 9:30, hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups, unlimited liquor and live music by the "Cousins". And please note that hors d'oeuvres will be served at the tables. Joe Giordano will "chair" this activity, assisted by co-Chairman Skip Monteforte. Ticket committee will consist of Rocco Lombardo (433-7284) and Robert Grimmer (795-2232). The dance committee will consist of Frank Matassa (931-2848), Joe Morace (931-2548) and James Posillico (334-6852). The Journal Committee will have Armand Del Cioppo (938-5052) and Pat Gatto (433-6708), and needless to mention that an Ad Journal will be an important feature of this dance, and that tickets are now on sale. The lanonne Restaurant of Front Street will cater this activity. All members, male and female, are asked to attend and participate in this activity as its importance is quite obvious to all those concerned.

On Thursday, the 28th of March, our social meeting night, the installation of the new officers of the Galileo Lodge will take place. Many of the leading dignitaries of the Grand Lodge of the Order of the Sons of Italy in America will officiate in many capacities and many of the leading figures from the Town of Oyster Bay will attend also. All members are asked to attend as collation will be offered after the ceremony. All officers are required to wear jackets and ties during the installation proceedings. The female officers of the Ladies Auxiliary will also be installed that night.

LODGE TIDBITS: Very happy to report that six new members were officially installed into the Galileo Lodge last Thursday night. Very glad to report that Jerry Look and Tony Moschera are both recovering well after recent illnesses. Very happy to report that Mr. and Mrs. Dante Perotti are in Spain on a very nice vacation and we hear that they are having an excellent time. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lo Presti also had a very beautiful time vacationing in Europe recently. Renovations are still going on in the Galileo Lodge recreational section as new bathrooms are being installed. Chairman Posillico of the Renovation Committee reports that every Monday night members are asked to report and help out. Very sorry to hear that Pat Gatto was recently hospitalized and we wish him a very speedy recovery. Next Golf Tournament will take place on Sunday, May 5th and the green fees are $8.50 and cart fees are $8.00. This party will be held at the Nassau County Club, with Bert Molinelli in charge. Time is 10:30 A.M. Call Bert at 931-9351 for more details. New Fishing trips are being planned.

The Vienna Choir Boys Come To Hicksville

For nearly five centuries the Vienna Choir Boys have enchanted millions with the charm and excellence of their music-making, and Hicksville residents will have a golden opportunity to share the enchantment at a special performance on Monday evening, April 1. The Hicksville Public Schools and the Hicksville Council of PTAs will present the Vienna Choir Boys in their last U.S. concert this season in the Mabel R. Farley Auditorium at Hicksville High School at 7:30 p.m. at a cost of $3.00 per person. The program will include hymns, a one-act comic opera, folk songs, and other light musical works.

The Vienna Choir Boys were founded by Imperial decree on July 7, 1498, by the humanist Emperor Maximilian I to fulfill his wish to have choristers in the Imperial Chapel. From its inception, this organization has attracted the finest musicians in the West: Christoph Willibald Gluck, the founder of the modern operatic form, spent his most creative years as Composer to the Court in 1787. Although Josef Haydn was not a member of the Imperial Chapel, he experienced the life of a choirboy to the full and many of his works are to be found in their repertoire. The greatest prodigy, and without a doubt the most famous choirboy, was Franz Schubert, who sang as a choirboy from 1808 to 1813. Anton Bruckner became organist of the Imperial Chapel in 1867 and added his influence to those of his equally illustrious precursors.

In 1918, however, it seemed that the collapse of the Hapsburg dynasty and the dissolution of the Austro-Hungarian Empire would mean the end of the world-famous institution. Fortunately, Joseph Schnitt retained the chaplaincy of the Imperial Chapel and in 1924, encouraged by his many friends, he decided to re-found the boys choir.

It was felt that the boarding school method was the only practicable one of insuring the musical training necessary for the choristers, and, despite enormous economic difficulties, the attempt was made. Schnitt spared no personal expense and he alone is responsible for the salvation of this aspect of Austrian musical tradition. What he began as an experiment has grown to be an enormous success and the Vienna Choir Boys, as they were now called, began to embark on concert tours around the world.

Anyone who has seen the boys, either in rehearsal or in performance, soon realize the secret of their fascination: they have managed to combine the naivete of childhood with artistic maturity--something that can only be achieved through serious work. Those who wish to be considered for entry attend a special preparatory school where they receive a thorough education with special attention paid to the theory and practice of singing as well as instruction on one musical instrument. At the examination, which the candidates take at the age of nine, musical ability is the decisive factor, irrespective of creed or social standing.

More often than not two choirs are away on tour at the same time, with each tour lasting an average of three months. On such a tour the 24 choristers are accompanied by a choirmaster, a tutor and a nurse who are entrusted with their care and welfare. Since their first United States tour in 1932, the Vienna Choir Boys have visited America no fewer than 39 times, have completed nine Asian tours--traveling as far as Japan--and have performed an equal number of times in Australia. They also have appeared numerous times in both South America and South Africa. They have been received by innumerable heads of state, including audiences with Popes Pius XI, Pius XII and Paul VI. The time lost on concert tours is more than compensated for by an intensive program of teaching and study in classes that seldom exceed more than 10 students. In the private school, which conforms to the standards set by the Austrian Ministry of Education, there is a staff of 30 fully-qualified secondary school teachers.

Through their films, recording, television appearances and tours, the Vienna Choir Boys have delighted millions in every corner of the world with their programs of costumed sacred songs, secular and folk music, amply justifying their renown as the world's most beloved choir.

Ticket sales for this performance will be handled through the individual PTA units, and tickets will be available in the Main offices of all the schools. Contact Mona Liguori at 938-1158 or Alayne Schoenfeld at 933-6589 for more information. Don't miss this exciting opportunity. Get tickets today and bring your family to this very special event.

Students' Idea For New Law Passed By Senate

People who park illegally in handicapped parking zones may soon find themselves performing a community service for the handicapped instead of paying a parking fine under legislation passed unanimously in the State Senate last week.

Sound like a good idea for a new law? Senator John Dunne (R-Nassau), sponsor of the legislation, certainly thinks so. And he is proud to admit that the idea is not his own, but one suggested to him by a student from his Senate district.

"How many times have you driven by a parking space reserved for the handicapped and seen a car parked illegally by some inconsiderate driver," Senator Dunne explained. "Rather than fining these individuals, why not require that they work with handicapped persons in the community? That way, they might better understand the special needs of the handicapped, and, hopefully, think twice in the future about parking illegally in spaces reserved for the handicapped."

Senator Dunne said this sensible and practical alternative to the present fine for handicapped parking violations was suggested by Lisa Cook, a student from Levittown, who entered her idea for a new law in his annual "There Ought To Be A Law" contest.

The contest, for 6th grade students in Senator Dunne's district, serves as a means of introducing students to the legislative process and state government. Each year nearly 2,000 6th graders from schools across the Senator's district submit ideas for new laws. A winning entry is selected from each school and a Grand Prize is awarded to the student with the best idea for a new law.

Last year's Grand Prize was awarded to Levittown's Lisa Cook for her suggested changes in the handicapped parking law. As the Grand Prize winner, Lisa and her parents were treated to a day in Albany, which included a visit to the Senate chamber and tour of the State Capitol. Lisa was also honored by the entire Senate which passed a legislative resolution in recognition of her efforts and her special contribution.

Senator Dunne said that this year he is again sponsoring the "There Ought To Be A Law" contest. He said he hopes the recent Senate passage of last year's winning entry sparks additional interest in the contest and gives students more of an incentive to participate.

Dear Friends...

What Are We Waiting For Now?

An excerpt from our "Dear Friends..." column dated Nov. 6, 1979: "We suggested that the Town of Oyster Bay close the exits from the Mid Island Plaza on both Rotary and Jeannson Places...they have been creating great traffic problems for over two years now and the opening of Kleins is making this problem even more acute. It is our understanding that the Nassau County Police Dept. made a survey of this situation some time ago and recommended that these exit (or entrances, whatever they may be termed) be closed! What are we waiting for?"

There are Viable Alternatives

Regarding, not only these short exits from the Mid Island Plaza onto the residential Nevada St., next week we will bring you some workable alternatives which were suggested by Mr. Robert Fischer of 28 Nevada St., in 1977, by letters to our Town Board and Town Councilman...we repeat...in 1977!

NOW

We are presently faced with the necessity of taking issue with the State Dept of Transportation, who in a well-intentioned but misguided effort to alleviate the gridlock of traffic on Broadway, has, among other proposals a suggestion to widen some of the residential area of Nevada Street, which would mean that in so doing they would take 8 ft off the front yards of one side and 5 ft off the front yards of the other side of residences on this residential street.

UPDATE: We are pleased to report that both Assemblyman Fred Parola and Senator Ralph Marino will be conferring with representatives of the State DOT to work out this problem without widening Nevada Street.

As we have stated, there are workable alternatives, so, we hope that in the next two or three weeks they will have this problem solved to everyone's satisfaction. More on this as it occurs.

In completing a project which will be part of a local program this Sunday, it was necessary for us to check the micro-filmed copies of our newspapers for the years 1968 through 1980. This takes quite some time, but certain trends become apparent when one reviews the weekly news of a community over a long period of time.

High on this list is the fact that, unless community problems are reviewed constantly and action taken whenever indicated, the very same problems reappear, time and again. Problems such as parking, zoning and maintaining a rapport with our elected officials on a continuing basis show us that through the years, even in the areas of our community where we believe that these problems have been solved, eternal vigilance is necessary. Newly elected officials, new entrepreneurs, new community leaders and reactivated civic associations, frequently find it necessary to go over the same ground again and again. There is no end to the war with the winning of one battle, as it were. Since here on Long Island both residential and commercial development goes on without ceasing, one can readily understand how this can happen. No one is "to blame". It is simply a fact of life.

So, we must commend those civic leaders who, in all areas which affect the quality of our community life, keep active on our behalf through the years. Please don't stop! It is to be hoped of course, that you are joined in your continuing effort by newcomers in your area.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well.

Talent Night At Holy Family School

Recently the 7th and 8th graders of Holy Family School, under the dedicated direction of Mrs. Catera and the technical and production advisement of Noreen Ross and Sarina Pusinelli, staged a popular annual tradition, Talent Night.

"The kids get very involved" remarked Mrs. Catera. "It gives them something to do with their free time, and they enjoy the event as much as the spectators enjoy watching it. We held rehearsals a couple of times a week for over a month."

Performances included lip-sinking and vocal renditions of popular tunes, as well as original comedy skits, dance routines and playing of musical instruments.

Amidst the show there was a problem with the musical recording which was to accompany the dance per-the music came on. The evening came too soon to an end when the entire cast and crew marched onto the stage and sang the hit tune "Feed the World."

"Play It Safe" At Holy Family

On March 22, the first Nassau County Crime Prevention Day is being held. In connection with this event, the Holy Family Kindergarten children participated in the "Playing It Safe" program sponsored by L.I.A.S.O.N. present the program with the use of homemade puppets.

It is an excellent program and the children responded beautifully to the volunteer. Each child will be awarded a certificate of achievement for Crime Prevention on March 22.

The children learned ways to help stop crime at home and school and how to make Nassau County a safer place for all of us to live.

Shamrocks Victors In St. Pat's Day Soccer Game 11 - 6

by K. Blicker

The Hicksville Shamrocks 1974 traveling soccer team celebrated St. Patrick's Day with an 11-6 greening of the Huntington Boys Club Cosmos to run their Shep Messing Indoor Soccer League record to six wins, no losses.

Chris Doyle, the Shamrocks outstanding striker, led the scoring with four goals. Todd Meringoff, playing wing, had a three-goal hat trick including one on a penalty shot, plus one assist. Jared Jacobs, playing wing, had two goals and two assists. Brian Pine, playing wing, striker and fullback in the first half scored one goal and had a beautiful second half in goal. David Lovato was an aggressive force throughout the game from fullback and put in one goal unassisted. Matthew Fordum showed tremendous ball control skills at wing with many on-target passes. Jason Kingsley was a dynamo from fullback, with aggressive tackling, heads up passing, and strong body use. Gregg Gruosso played striker with flair and picked up one assist, while alertly falling back on defense whenever necessary. Brian Harkins was his usual aggressive self at fullback, using his savvy to cut off many of HBC's charges. Eddie Jacobsen had a strong first half in goal and then played an alert wing and fullback in the second half. Ted Knoop was a constant thorn in the opposition's side from wing, while picking up two big assists. Eric Blicker was a force to be reckoned with at fullback and aided the offensive cause with three big assists.

Congrats to the Shamrocks and assistant coach Peter Knoop for the impressive St. Pat's Day win! Get well wishes to Joe Flanagan.

The Indians At Roosevelt Field

A trip to Roosevelt Field generally brings thoughts of a wild shopping spree. Students in Mrs. Mitchell's and Mrs. Irwin's fourth grade classes at Fork Lane School discovered otherwise! Both groups, as part of an interdisciplinary unit, are studying the Indians of Long Island and how the topic can pertain to science, reading, social studies, etc. Recently, the youngsters attended a Roosevelt Field exhibit sponsored by the Encyclopedia Britannica. One million Native Americans reside in every state in the union, with California, Oklahoma and New Mexico having the largest groups. This is a bit of what Fork Laners saw and heard at the exhibit.

sion with Rosebud Yellow Robe, a descendant of South Dakota Indians. She told tales of how a turtle carries the world on his back, how the rabbit lost his tail and many more charming anecdotes. The students then saw a lovely pottery exhibit and learned sand painting techniques, as well. At this point, it was time to return to school but students, teachers and class mothers all left Roosevelt Field with lofty respect for the "first Americans"

Fork Laners See The Sites On Bus Tour Of Hicksville

Helping Hicksville children learn about their community and its places of interest and culture is an important annual program and services the Gregory Museum provides to the Hicksville schools. This year's bus tour of the community for two second grade classes at Fork Lane School was as full of new experiences as ever. The sightseeing and visits to historic places, governmental buildings and cultural sites by the classes of Mrs. Rita Schmidt and Mrs. Sue Zalon-Green was conducted as usual by Gregory Museum Historian Richard Evers.

Standing outside the beautiful Renaissance "golden doors", the near-unique Hicksville replica of Ghiberti's Florentine masterpiece, at the Trinity Lutheran Church, West Nicholas St., are some Fork Lane School youngsters. They were on a guided tour of their village's points of interest, provided by the Hicksville Gregory Museum.

Among the points of interest enjoyed by Fork Lane 2nd graders on a Gregory Museum bus "sight-seeing tour" recently was the High School Latin Club's Roman Eagle at the Hicksville Rail Road Station. The eagle once decorated the entrance to Grand Central Station in N.Y. City.

"Mom, I went to jail today!" Children from the 2nd grades of Mesdames Rita Schmidt and Sue Zalon-Green of Hicksville's Fork Lane School visited the old jail at Gregory Museum recently.

Seeing where "it all began" are Fork Lane 2nd graders on a recent sightseeing tour at the historic Cantiague Rd Hicksville. The children were visiting the site where Rol Williams bought the Hicksville-Jericho-Plainview area from the Matinecock Indians in May, 1648. Mrs. Sue Zalon-Green (left) and Mrs. Rita Schmidt are with the youngsters.

Long Island Swim Club Wins Sr. Mets

The Long Island Swim Club won both the Women's High Point and the Combined High Point Awards this week at the Senior Metropolitan Championships held at Columbia University. Five Hicksville swimmers scored in the meet which was enhanced by the entries of Olympic winners Rick and Dave Larsen.

Lorna Mund, a sophomore at Hicksville High, was second in the 100 back and placed third in the 200 backstroke. She also scored points in the 200 free and the 200 breaststroke. Twelve year old Kristin Mund was one of the youngest competitors at this opening meet. She won the seventh place medal in the 100 butterfly. She scored points with Regional times in the 1000 and 1650 freestyle events, and she also scored in the 400 IM, the 500 free and the 200 butterfly.

Jump-A-Thon

On Tuesday, March 11, Woodland Ave. School in Hicksville held its third annual Jump-Rope-A-Thon to benefit the American Heart Association.

The Jump-Rope-A-Thon was coordinated by Miss Elizabeth Way, Woodland's Physical Education teacher. All fourth, fifth and sixth grade students were eligible to participate. The children were assigned to teams and received sponsor sheets to secure pledges. Each student earning in pledges of $25.00 will receive a T-shirt, $100.00 entitles a student to a tote-bag and T-shirt, and pledges of $250.00 or more earn a warm-up suit, tote-bag and T-shirt. These items display the Jump-Rope-for-Heart logo and are awarded by the Heart Association as a thank you for their time and effort in this worthwhile event.

Many Woodland Ave. parents and teachers took part in the event as well. Some worked with the teams as judges to be certain each team had a member jumping at all times during the three hour Jump-A-Thon. Other parents and teachers jumped, while still others, representing the P.T.A., supplied and served juice to the participants.

It was an afternoon filled with enthusiasm which resulted in a contribution of over $3,000 for the American Heart Association.

Woodland Ave. would like to thank all the children, teachers and parents who gave so much of their time and energy to make this event possible. We also extend our heart-felt thanks to Miss Way for her hours of paperwork and organization spent on this effort to help fight heart disease.

Students begin Woodland's third annual Jump-Rope-A-Thon.

GET INVOLVED!

Recently, we have seen many Civic Associations formed. Residents are becoming more and more concerned about what is going on in their neighborhoods.

It is important to know what is going on in our own backyards. For example, with vacant land now very scarce, we see more commercial construction taking place quite close to residences. If this raises a question in your mind as to potential problems and how it will affect property values, chances are it will concern potential buyers as well. By getting involved now, you will be able to have a say as to what is done in your neighborhood and ensure protection of your most important investment!

If you would like to know what your home is worth, call the people who 'get involved' at:

IT'S YOUR MONEY

Coping With The Loss Of The Breadwinner

by Ron Roel

■ Although seldom discussed, the subject of how to handle the family finances when the breadwinner dies can be a source of considerable problems—emotional as well as financial.

"I've seen people who've never had any interest in financial matters suddenly inherit a $300,000 estate and not have the foggiest notion of what to do with it. They become prey for all sorts of people and don't know where to turn," says financial planner William A. Levine of Melville and Valley Stream.

Mr. Levine, many of whose clients are senior citizens, says he advises the surviving spouse—usually the wife—to do nothing in haste. "Putting everything in a money market fund is the best first step," he says. "It takes time to adjust to the emotional shock of the loss before you can deal with the realities of the children's needs, the grandchildren's needs, and your own needs."

Mr. Levine says many family members are often shocked, or surprised by the deceased lack, or abundance of, such items as insurance, savings accounts, stocks and bonds, or other investments.

"Many couples simply don't talk to each other about financial matters," he says. "Once a husband dies, it's too late for his wife to tell him he really should have more insurance to keep his family living in the lifestyle they had worked so hard to achieve."

A free leaflet, "Losing the Breadwinner. First People To Contact. First Things To Do," is available from William A. Levine, Selective Concepts, 11 Sunrise Plaza, Valley Stream, N.Y. (516) 561-1975.

Ron Roel writes on financial and consumer matters and is the author of the book "How To Borrow Money (Simon & Schuster, 1983).

Scholarships Announced For Olympics Of the Mind Winners

Local universities offer awards to high-scoring teens.

Three Long Island universities - Adelphi, Hofstra and the New York Institute of Technology -- have announced that they will offer scholarships to winning senior high students in the upcoming Olympics of the Mind regional competition. The contest, scheduled for April 2 at SUNY Farmingdale, is sponsored by the Board of Cooperative Educational Services of Nassau County, Division of Occupational Education. It will bring together creative and gifted students from all over Long Island.

Members of winning regional teams and recipients of outstanding student awards will be eligible for the following four-year scholarships:

New York Institute of Technology, Old Westbury, Commack or Manhattan Campus; five 50% tuition-free, four-year scholarships. Adelphi University, Garden City; 20 one-third tuition-free, four-year scholarships.

Hofstra University, Hempstead; ten scholarships ranging from one to four thousand dollars per year for four years.

The Olympics of the Mind is a national program designed to challenge bright and creative school children from kindergarten through 12th grade. The competitions consist of presenting solutions to one of six set problems. This year, these range from "Ecology Dozer," in which the problem is to design and drive a vehicle powered by one or two hydraulic jacks to "The Big Top," a circus performance. To add an element of fun, teams reveal their solutions as part of a skit presented in costume.

Ninety-eight teams representing 20 school districts and 2 private schools will be participating in this year's tournament. Among them are 17 teams in Division III, which includes 9th through 12th graders.

Local Podiatrist Attends Conference

Dr. Robert Wollman of Levittown, recently attended the 89th Annual Clinical Conference of the Podiatry Society of the State of New York — a three-day meeting concerned with a wide range of topics relating to foot health.

The meeting, attended by more than 1,200 foot specialists from throughout the nation, was held at the New York Hilton Hotel in Manhattan.

The Clinical Conference is the Society's major educational program of the year and consists of scientific workshops, seminars and lectures ranging from the review of basic podiatric techniques to a preview of the latest concepts in the field and from the most sophisticated podiatric surgery to methods of dealing with surgical complications.

The event was highlighted by a luncheon addressed by New York State Assemblyman Mark Alan Siegel, chairman of the Assembly Committee on Higher Education.

The faculty for the Clinical Conference included prominent podiatrists from all parts of the country and experts in a number of fields that relate to foot health.

The Podiatry Society of the State of New York is the nation's largest regional organization of foot specialists.

Accredited Trade Schools: Becoming Quite An Attraction

Today's postsecondary trade schools, often called vocational or proprietary schools, have undergone many transformations in the past 20 years. These schools now serve a very diverse student population and are quickly becoming a valuable resource to business, industry, and the government.

According to the National Association of Trade and Technical Schools in Washington, DC, postsecondary vocational schools have been serving the training needs of students and employers for several decades. High school graduates pursuing entry-level employment, adults who want career training, persons looking for special programs, individuals seeking job-advancement training, and people changing careers represent just some of the people that are now attending postsecondary trade and technical schools throughout the country.

These schools are also serving more women who seek to enter or re-enter the workforce, minorities in search of job mobility, displaced workers that need to be retrained for new occupations, and many former college students who want to learn a marketable skill.

According to many training experts, trade and technical schools have experienced success over the years by responding to changing demands for training and being particularly sensitive to the specific needs of business and industry. For many people, these schools represent a career training alternative to college or the military and provide "hands-on" training in the shortest possible time for the best possible job. In addition to familiar trades such as auto mechanics, diesel mechanics, plumbing, welding, and truck driving, students attending today's trade and technical schools can train for careers in acting, nursing, illustration, tailoring, photography, painting, television, and diving.

Like any business, today's postsecondary trade and technical schools are market-oriented and must constantly improve programs, products, and services. Employers play an important role and are instrumental in helping many schools to measure effectiveness. Some schools consult employers before developing their training programs and other schools work continuously with employers; to stay abreast of trends or new developments in the job market; to modify or tailor programs; and to successfully place graduates in the job market.

This relationship or link is the key ingredient which has made today's trade and technical schools an excellent resource for training and an excellent resource for training manpower. As the significance of learning a skill is becoming crucial, the option of attending a postsecondary trade and technical school is rapidly becoming a more attractive career training alternative.

Two reasons it's easier to do business in Nassau County.

They're Francis Purcell and Joseph Colby—two reasons the Town of Oyster Bay is good for business.

Francis Purcell, County Executive, and Joseph Colby, Supervisor, working with the Nassau County Industrial Development Agency, have scored some impressive gains for Oyster Bay in the past 5 years, gains that have come about for one simple reason: they make it easy to do business in Nassau County.

By any yardstick, it's a terrific story. In commercial, industrial and retail space, IDA added 1,273,945 sq. ft. in Oyster Bay in 5 years. In dollar value, IDA projects topped $73 million. We also retained a total of 24,530 jobs, and added 1,363 new ones—jobs that would never have come to Oyster Bay without a lot of hard work from IDA. These jobs translate into $219.9 million in retained payroll dollars, $34.8 million in new payroll. It also means $1,910,917 less in property taxes paid by the citizens of Oyster Bay.

It's a good story, and IDA is going to make it an even better one in the coming years. After all, when it comes to business for Oyster Bay, there's no business like good business. And what's good for business is good for you, for us and everyone in Oyster Bay.
