Seventy-nine year old Charlotte R. Langmack of Hicksville has been named Nassau County Senior Citizen of the Year for 1985. A leading activist in organizations that work on behalf of senior citizens, Mrs. Langmack will be honored at the 11th Annual Luncheon-Conference sponsored by the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs on May 8 at the Marriott Hotel, Uniondale, when Nassau County Executive Francis T. Purcell will present her with a special award.

Mrs. Langmack, who joins a distinguished roster of past honorees, began volunteering in 1969 with the Nassau County Medical Center Auxiliary and was one of the first persons to have completed ten years of service as a "Pink Lady."

For over nine years, Mrs. Langmack contributed time as a volunteer with the Department's Retired Senior Volunteer Program, stationed at the Old Bethpage Village Restoration, at Master Crafters, Inc., Manhasset, and with the Friends of Nassau County Museum, Muttontown. Since, 1976, she has been a member of the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs Advisory Council which provides input to the Department in planning programs and services for Nassau County's older residents. In 1983 she was elected First Vice-Chairperson of the Council. In 1972, Mrs. Langmack, a personnel specialist with the federal government before retirement, organized the Central Nassau Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) #1592, Hicksville. She served as its first president and is currently treasurer.

Her organizational skills were put to good use within AARP. As an Assistant State Director from 1974 through 1978, Mrs. Langmack was responsible for organizing new chapters on Long Island and in developing community service activities relating to the elderly.

In 1978, Mrs. Langmack was appointed Nassau County Overall Coordinator for the AARP Tax Counseling for the Elderly program, which provides free assistance to older persons in preparing their income tax returns. She was responsible for recruiting volunteer counselors, arranging training with the Internal Revenue Service, establishing volunteer sites, and assigning volunteers. Under Mrs. Langmack, the program grew from 53 volunteer counselors at 24 sites to 145 counselors at 53 locations.

In January of this year, Mrs. Langmack was appointed AARP District Coordinator for the program, covering Nassau, Suffolk, Brooklyn, and Queens.

Her energy and "drive" are also evident in her role as an instructor for the past two years in AARP's 55/Alive Mature Driving Course Program, a nationwide comprehensive refresher course especially designed for older drivers. Last year, Mrs. Lang-mack was appointed AARP Representative on the Advisory Committee of the Veterans Administration Voluntary Service (VAVS) at Northport Veterans Administration Medical Center. She has represented the senior community in Nassau County on the Nassau-Suffolk Health Systems Agency, Inc., since July, 1974, serving on its capital planning, administration, and membership committees.

Mrs. Langmack was chosen Nassau County's "Senior Citizen of the Year" by a panel of judges composed of representatives of town offices of services to the aging and members of the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizens Affairs' advisory Council. Her selection qualifies her to be nominated for New York State's Senior Citizen of the Year Award.

In announcing the judges' decision, Commissioner Adelaide Attard commented: "Mrs. Langmack is an active individual who uses her organizational skills to effectively advocate on behalf of her peers. We are proud to have her join the distinguished roster of outstanding individuals who have earned the title 'Nassau County Senior Citizen of the Year'."

Miss Mary Gagliardo's second grade class at East Street School have been very busy this year.

The children have been learning about the past and the present.

They visited one of the children's grandparents' home, where they viewed antiques and saw two old cars. The children also started to correspond with patients at the Central Island Nursing Home. Each child was given a pen pal and they write letters and receive them back. On Valentine's Day the class took a trip to the Nursing Home where they met their pen pals and presented them with a small gift. All the children and their teacher have been invited back in May. The patients enjoyed them and it was a day not to be forgotten!

Silhouetted figures made their way to the tomb as the first sliver of light graced the darkened earth.

Jesus was dead. They still couldn't believe it. It was like a bad dream of grand proportions. The ring of hammer upon nail still echoed in their ears; the horrendous sight of crucified bodies was burned indelibly into their eye sockets.

With him had died the hopes of eleven broken men. The sun had set on their lives plunging them into darkness forever.

Men and women who loved Him, who believed in Him, had their hopes raised to heaven only to then have them dashed to the depths of hell.

Yet, a day of surprises was dawning, the day of all days was commencing, caring propelled the three women forward not knowing how they would even be able to enter the grave.

But God had opened the tomb. A rock however big, would not block the Christ whose faith was great enough to move mountains. Entering the tomb, black Friday becomes Good Friday, hope returns to the hopeless, death is replaced by life.

"Do not be amazed; you see Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen, he is not here; see the place where they laid him," the angel declared.

And down through the centuries Christians have trumpeted the good news of Easter to one another and to God's world.

Each of us has had our bad Fridays when someone has crucified our hopes, when someone close to us has scorned our love, when our hearts have worn the black band of betrayal, when we have sold our integrity for thirty pieces of silver, when the shadows of life outdistance the rays of sunlight.

I do not think there is one person here today that doesn't want to believe in the resurrected and living Lord. There is not one person who does not need healing in some aspect of his or her life. Not one who can stand before the cross and say, "Jesus, like you, I have no sin."

All of us know the Easter story, but what God really desires is that we all encounter the living Christ. I want to say to all of you, I have seen the living Christ. I have been an eyewitness who has seen purpose enter into aimless lives. I have seen calmness overcome chaos. I have seen Him strengthen the weak, bring healing to the sick, and comfort to the bereaved. I have seen Him bestow joy and confidence to lives shattered by an angry and cruel world. I have experienced His presence in my life and in the lives of others.

I know that my Redeemer lives. If you know it too, praise God with your lives. Without the resurrection, death and taxes are the sum of life's certainties.

With Jesus Christ, the Resurrection and the Life, our lives cease being daily soap operas and become divine dramas to be lived to the fullest with the final chapter to be played before the throne of the almighty and resurrected Lord.

Alleluia! He lives! Alleluia!

Several policies were submitted for adoption, deletion, and revision. The Superintendent began her report with additional comments on the Junior High Science Fair in which 125 students participated. She noted that the gym, which had been used for classes during the day, was almost miraculously turned into an exhibition hall for the outstanding student projects in record time and with great skill.

The Board then turned to fiscal matters, accepting the transfer report for the period February 13 through March 13. This report lists transfers between budget line item accounts. Dear Friends ...

At this most holy time of the year it is our pleasure to wish much joy to all who are celebrating both the Jewish Passover season and Christian Holy Week with all its spiritual significance from Maundy Thursday through Good Friday's great sacrifice, culminating with the joy of the resurrection of Jesus Christ on Easter Sunday.

Our friends of the Jewish Faith hold most holy the remembrance of the Lord's instructions to mark their doors so that the destroyer would not strike their families. So, they observe this "for an ordinance forever", according to his holy instructions.

And we Christians realize each Easter the joy of knowing that, through Christ's Grace we are saved, and by His willing sacrifice we are redeemed. So, once more we join our choirs on Sunday in Christian fellowship with joyful hearts and sing "Alleluia...Alleluia. Christ Our Lord is Risen Today".

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

I would like to make the residents of Hicksville aware of the Early Retirement Bill which the State Legislature offered to the school districts in 1984. Adoption of the Early Retirement Bill would give school district employees who are at least 55 years of age and with ten years of service, three years of extra retirement credit if they'd retire within a 90 day period set by the school district. The Board must act upon this bill in 1985 but they don't have to set the 90 day enactment period until September 1986 if they wish. This time period would give the District ample time to hire, select and train new personnel to replace the retirees.

Dear Editor:

The Hicksville Kiwanis Club members wish to thank you for publicizing the government surplus cheese distributions conducted by Kiwanians for the benefit of residents in the Hicksville area eligible to receive government surplus food.

Your cooperation in publicizing this type of service to the community by Kiwanis was greatly appreciated, and helped us to better serve the needy.

Due to problems of refrigeration, we will have to wait for cooler weather in the Fall to continue this activity.

Thank you for helping us serve our community.

Sincerely,
Sieg Widder, Chairman
Kiwanis Public Relations

The State Retirement Plan consists of three Tiers. Tier I employees were all hired before July 1, 1973. Tier II from July 1, 1973 to July 1, 1976. Tier III after July 1, 1976. Needless to say, almost all of the retirees are members of Tier I and their replacements will be Tier III. This year the District was assessed 19% of the gross yearly payroll for Tier I members, 12.5% for Tier II and 9.4% for Tier III. One can see that a savings of at least 9.6% on the gross payroll can be saved but, of course, the big saving would come by replacing the retirees with younger people, all of who would be in Tier III. It is not possible for me to state figures on what would be saved on salaries but the average clerk, custodian or teacher starts his career at a much smaller salary than the one he retires at. All of these savings could be passed on to the taxpayer.

To date, the Library Staff which is part of the school district, has written to the School Board and attended two Board Meetings requesting passage of the Early Retirement Bill. The School Board is taking it under advisement but perhaps some urging from the residents is in order. A letter or card to the Hicksville School Board would suffice.

Sincerely,

The Hicksville Public Library Staff Assoc.

PRESIDENT PETE MASSIELLO'S MESSAGE: "This day began as many others overcome by stress and strain, then I turned to you, dear friend, and the sun shone through again."

Spiritual Message

Last Thursday night, the 28th of March, the newly-elected officers of the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary were sworn in, and as they donned their regalia and were led to their respective positions by the officiating dignitaries, it became obvious that the fate, hope, aspirations, goals and ambitions of these two organizations were in their very capable hands. They now would set the course and charter the routes to social and fiscal success of the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary.

The incoming officers are: President Peter Massiello; 1st Vice President Joseph Giordano; 2nd Vice President James Rerisi, Sr.; Ex-President Carmine Monteforte; Orator Rocco Lombardo; Recording Secretary Armand Del Cioppo; Financial Secretary John Keiper; Treasurer James Posillico; Corresponding Secretary Anthony Sica; Trustees Alfonso Frigenti, Pat Gatto, Frank Matassa, Anthony Moschera, John Romano and John Sarrero; Master of Ceremonies Frank Bove and Joseph Morace; Sentinels Joseph Crivelli and Dominic Russo.

The incoming officers of the Ladies Auxiliary are: President Mary Monteforte; Vice President Marion Danseglio; Past President Ann Palermo; Orator Millie Caputo; Recording Secretary Sue Laurenti; Financial Secretary Terry Gatto; Treasurer Dolores Look; Corresponding Secretary Millie Del Cioppo; Trustees Mary Barella, Grace Giordano and Rose Riccardi; Mistress of Ceremonies Mary Sarrero; Sentinel Rose Panzeka.

We all here at the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary take this wonderful moment to express to these loyal and dedicated members, an abundance of good luck in their new endeavors.

The chronological arrival of spring is relatively unimportant to us, because we usually use our senses and our feelings to determine its debut or arrival. But as the Galileo Lodge senses the coming of spring, it immediately announces that on Saturday, the 27th of April, it will present its 13th Annual Anniversary Dinner and Dance. Tickets, now on sale, obviously, cost $32.00 per person, and in the offering will be a cocktail hour starting at 8:30 P.M., a hot dinner (prime rib) with all the trimmings, coffee and cake, set-ups, beer, soda, unlimited liquor and live dance music by 'The Cousins.' Hors d'oeuvres will also be served at the tables. Joe Giordano will 'chair' this dance and Skip Monteforte is the co-Chairman. Rocco Lombardo (433-7284) and Robert Grimmer (795-2232) make up the Ticket Committee. The Dance Committee will consist of Frank Matassa (931-2848), Joe Morace (931-2548) and James Posillico (334-6852). The Journal Committee has Armand Del Cioppo (938-5052) and Pat Gatto (433-6708). Of course our Ad Journal is an important feature of this activity. Other important features are the honoring of Joe Montemarano State President of the Grand Lodge of the O.S.I.A., and the distribution of the Louise E. Massiello Memorial Scholarship Awards to the students chosen. The apparent importance of this dance, its purpose and meaning so obvious to all those associated with the Galileo Lodge, behooves all members, male and female to attend.

Lodge Tidbits: All of us here deeply regret the passing away of Jerry Look, a Trustee of our Lodge. And to Mrs. Dolores Look, also of our Ladies Auxiliary, we sorrowfully extend to her and her family our heartfelt condolences ... We wish to report that the Fashion Show-Dinner held by the Ladies Auxiliary and under the direction of Mary Sarrero, was socially and financially successful ... We gladly report that Ann Palermo has recently become a great-grandmother as her granddaughter Elena and her husband, William Kehoe, became proud parents of a beautiful baby boy. Congratulations to Ann and her family from the Galileo Lodge ... Nice to see Pat Dominichello back at the Lodge after a recent illness ... At the Installation Ceremony, Mary Monteforte, President of the Ladies Auxiliary, presented our President, Pete Massiello.

creative financing - has been an important part of the real estate picture in recent years especially when mortgage money was tight or rates extra-high. Small wonder that the Internal Revenue Service has gotten involved.

Under current regulations, sellers offering financing must charge buyers at least 9 percent interest, or the IRS will impute a 10 percent rate, and assume that the seller is making that much on his investment. Current rules are expected to stand pat at least until July 1, but changes are possible after that while these regulations hold. We don't know what will come later when tax laws are overhauled.

Dear Friends ...

At this most holy time of the year it is our pleasure to wish much joy to all who are celebrating both the Jewish Passover season and Christian Holy Week with all its spiritual significance from Maundy Thursday through Good Friday's great sacrifice, culminating with the joy of the resurrection of Jesus Christ on Easter Sunday.

Our friends of the Jewish Faith hold most holy the remembrance of the Lord's instructions to mark their doors so that the destroyer would not strike their families. So, they observe this "for an ordinance forever", according to his holy instructions.

And we Christians realize each Easter the joy of knowing that, through Christ's Grace we are saved, and by His willing sacrifice we are redeemed. So, once more we join our choirs on Sunday in Christian fellowship with joyful hearts and sing "Alleluia... Alleluia, Christ Our Lord is Risen Today".

Grumman Speedster Sets New Course Record

In Plainview PBC 10K Run

March 30 was a day for breaking records in Plainview.

Mike Timmons of the Grumman Running Team set a new course record of 31 minutes, 27 seconds as he lapped a late surge by Paul Capolino to win the 8th annual Plainview PBC 10,000 Meter Run. Timmons shaved three seconds off the old record that was set in 1981. Lou Calvano of the Sea Cliff outsprinted 1982 winner Bob Giambalvo to take third place.

The total turnout of 654 runners was also a new record, as one of Long Island's oldest road races is now also becoming one of Long Island's biggest road races.

Diane Magnani of the Atlanta Running Team didn't set any records in the women's competition, but her winning time of 38:17 placed her a solid 29 seconds ahead of second place finisher Margaret Tartaro. Debi Daugherty of the POBRRC Fast Feet Racing Team won the Women's Team competition.

Timmons' strong performance led the Grumman Team to victory in the men's team competition, and the POBRRC Fast Feet Racing Team won the Women's Team competition. Another impressive performance was turned in by Jeanne Ofenloch, whose 44:04 finish gave her first place in the 55 to 59 age group by more than 10 full minutes over her nearest rival, and would have been good enough to win the 50 to 54 and 45 to 49 age groups as well! The POBRRC Fast Feet Team once again showed that they are Long Island's strongest women's team, taking home eight first place age group trophies.

Herb Kahl turned in another strong performance to win the men's 40 to 44 age group, and Geza Feld continued his domination of the 50 to 54 set. John Dowd's 45:48 made him a big winner in the men's 60 and over age group.

The Run was directed by the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club once again this year. Local sponsors included BANK LEUMI, WOODBURY SUPER STAR SNEAKERS AND SPORTS, and ROBERT AUTO LEASING AND RENTAL.

All in all, it was an impressive day for local running, and everyone is looking ahead to an even bigger and better ninth annual PBC Run in 1986!

Shamrocks Sweep Indoor Soccer Division

by A. Blicker

The Hicksville Shamrocks 1974 travelling soccer team completed an eight game sweep of the Shep Messing Indoor Soccer league with a hard fought 5-2 victory over the Syosset Cyclones recently to bring home the first place trophies.

The Shamrocks were led by the brilliant goaltending of Eddie Jacobsen who turned away numerous Syosset shots with his acrobatic play. Ted Knoop was the game's offensive force from right wing with the Shamrocks first goal and then the game winner, plus an assist on the final goal of the game. Gregg Grouso, was at his offensive best from wing, contributing the game's second goal, plus the assist on the game winner. Eric Blicker had an outstanding turn at fullback and then moved up to wing with equal results, getting an assist on Grouso's goal and then putting one in himself to close out the Shamrocks scoring. Jared Jacobs played a strong wing, picking up one goal on an assist from Jason Kingsley, who played an aggressive game at wing.

The defense was anchored by the consistent play of Joe Flanagan at fullback. Chris Doyle, who started at striker, picked up one assist on the first goal and then moved to fullback with strong results. Brian Harkins has his steady outstanding game at full. David Lovato consistently made his presence felt from fullback. Brian Pine took some aggressive turns at wing and then played a gutsy fullback. Matt Pordum was a force throughout the game from striker, with beautiful back dropping to the defensive zone.

Congratulations to the Shamrocks and assistant coach Peter Knoop, who ran the team for the last seven games during this indoor league play. On March 30, the Shamrocks suffered a heart-breaking 3-2 loss at the hands of the Island Trees Rebels in the opening game of the L.I. Junior Soccer League Season.

The hard-fought battle saw Joe Flanagan playing an extremely strong first half in goal. Matt Pordum at striker tied up the game 1-1 just prior to half-time on a David Lovato pass. In the second half, the Shamrocks took the lead on an Eric Blicker goal from a Jason Kingsley pass. Eddie Jacobsen kept the opposition off balance throughout the second half from goal but the Rebels were not to be denied their day. They tied the game with just several minutes to go and put in the game winner shortly thereafter. The Shamrocks never gave up and look forward to the next game in two weeks.

Recently, Norman Lent (Rep.-4 Congressional District) had the distinct pleasure of speaking before Model Congresses at several of the local area high schools in the fourth Congressional District. The Model Congress program is designed to help students better understand Congress and the way it operates. Mr. Lent said, "I was gratified at the large number of students who took part — over 500 young people from the Northeastern United States."

"The American political system of government has worked remarkably well for 200 years. I believe we have succeeded because of the active interest of American citizens in our government. The more people participating in politics and government at all levels — village, town, county, state, or national — the stronger our government will be."
