The National School Public Relations Association has honored the Hicksville Public Schools with Golden Achievement Awards for three of the district's programs.

One award recognized the annual Silver Tea Anniversary Reception which honors district staff members who have reached their twenty-fifth year of service to the schools. Staff members from every department are introduced to the Superintendent, Board members, and assembled guests by their colleagues with a few words about their experience and each is presented with an inscribed gift to commemorate the occasion. This event is held at the end of the school year.

A second award recognized is the observance of School Community Partnership Day in November. On this occasion, the district honors members of the community who have furthered the ideals of partnership between the schools and the business or civic organizations in the Hicksville area.

The third Golden Achievement Award was granted for the presentation of Expo II. This is an annual display and demonstration of the results of the In-Dept

Studies (IDS) program for the intermediate grades carried on during the year. Teachers and students stage a large exhibit of individual and group projects which includes skits, live demonstrations, and guided tours of the display by participating students. Teachers who took part in this major exposition last year are Betty Obremski, Kathy Scheck, and Ruth Hruska (Burns Avenue School); Phyllis Rubin, Henry Grib, and Doris Teiber (Dutch Lane); Carol Klieb, Libb-jane Goldman, and Penny Edwards (East Street); Rita Bernstein, Yolanda Grigg, and John Majorina (Fork Lane); Emily Eisen, Karen Nielson, and Larry Graziop (Lee Avenue); Ann Williams and Chris Townsend (Old Country Road); Joanne Crown, Rosemary Barrow, and Phoebe Witte (Willet Avenue); and Patricia Cooney and Marie Schneider (Woodland Avenue). IDS teacher teams worked with district program coordinators Elaine Kabakoff and Beverly Brown in implementing the program in each school and in preparing for the year-end exhibition.

IDS Expo III will be held this year at the Hicksville Public Library from June 11th to 13th. All members of the community are invited to attend and see the results of this exciting program.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

PRESIDENT PETE MASSIELLO'S MESSAGE: 'Great men are those who see that spiritual is stronger than any other material force, that thoughts rule the world.' Ralph Waldo Emerson

Time, as we experience it, has an elusive nature, and if you don't believe this, well, witness next Saturday, when the Galileo Lodge presents its 13th Annual Dinner-Dance. Yes, the time for this affair really sped rapidly by. Tickets are still available, and the cost $32.00 per person. In the offering will be a cocktail hour starting at 8:00 P.M., a full prime rib dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups, unlimited liquor and live dance music by 'The Cousins' Call Rocco Lombardo (433-7284)

Robert Grimmer (795-2232).

The Ladies Auxiliary announce they will present a Military Bridge Tournament on Friday, the 3rd of May, starting at 8:00 P.M. In essence, the Military Bridge Tournament consists of teams of two competing against each other for prizes. Tickets sell at $5.00 each, with refreshments to be served also. Maria Prudenti will supervise this activity and she will be assisted by Bonarri. Everyone is invited, and if you are enthusiastic about this kind of activity, why not call 931-9351 and ask for Maria or May, and, of course, ask for more details concerning this activity. For more ticket information call Maria at 822-2941 and May at 935-9153.

May is a nice month of the year, and aside from debutants making their debut at the Cotillion Ball and the Memorial Day holiday, May actually gives us the feeling that summer is just around the corner. And the Ladies Auxiliary of the Galileo Lodge are fully cognizant of this as they announce that on Saturday, the 25th of May, it will present a May Dance. Tickets will sell at $12.50 per person, and in the offering will be a hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music from a leading L.I. disc jockey. Mella Scibelli will be the Chairlady and Ann Palermo will be the co-Chairlady. Ann Palermo is also in charge of ticket sales, so please call her at 334-7107. Marion Danseglio and Carmen Russo will also act as co-Chairladies.

Please note that a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy will be in effect that night, and that tickets for this dance are now available. Please note also that Ann Palermo will be at the Galileo Lodge, from 8 to 10 P.M. selling tickets for your convenience. I might add here that the artistic abilities of the Ladies Auxiliary come into focus here as they usually dress up the Galileo in a Maytime motif.

All you golfing enthusiasts should not forget that on Sunday, the 5th of May, the Galileo Lodge presents its golfing session at the Netherwood Golf Club, starting at 10:30 A.M. Breakfast will be served at 7:30 A.M. at the Lodge. Call Bert Molinelli at 931-9351 for more details about this activity. Fee is $16.

We have some delightful news for you fishing enthusiasts. Oh, yes, the Galileo Lodge will hold its next fishing outing on Sunday, the 30th of June. The boat is the Capt. Ritchie, the fee is $25, which includes food, beer, soda, bait, rod and reel. The boat holds about 80 people, is private and it leaves Freeport at 8:00 A.M. and arrives home at 3:00 P.M. Call John Keiper (931-3758) and Jim Posillico (334-6852) for more details as they are in charge of this activity. Incidentally, the fee for children twelve and under will be $15. The other fishing dates are set for July 28th and September 15th. Even if you are not a fisherman, this activity makes a terrific outing for a pleasant Sunday.

Please note that new members were sworn in on Thursday, the 25th of April. Also, volunteer workers are needed to complete the bathrooms in our newly-renovated recreation area. Time is all day Monday and in the evening. Call Jim Posillico at 931-9351 for more details concerning this project. Food will be served for the workers.

Letter Carriers Dramatize Dog Bite Awareness

With the arrival of warmer weather, Hicksville Manager/Postmaster Roger Nienaber has asked dog owners to help protect letter carriers, utility workers and other citizens from the dangers of dog bites.

"Two of our letter carriers have developed a unique skit for grades 1-3 instructing children on the importance of keeping their dog restrained," says the Postmaster. "The presentation takes approximately 30 minutes. The children enjoy seeing Zip our six-foot dog chase the letter carrier. The discussion by the letter carrier after the skit and the dog bite coloring book hand-outs make the children realize the seriousness of this problem."

Nationally, nearly 6,000 letter carriers alone were bitten last year.

Nienaber said that all dogs are territorial by nature and even the most gentle pet will bite if it feels its domain is threatened by the presence of a carrier or other person. "With a little care, a pet owner can not only protect our carriers, but his or her pocketbook, too," he said.

Postmaster Nienaber stressed that the Postal Service products its carriers from dog bite hazards. Among remedies in situations when a pet owner fails to restrain a dog is interruption of home delivery to the residence or, in some cases, to entire neighborhoods. The Postal Service will also seek to recover injury compensation damages and provides counseling to carriers who have been bitten and who wish to seek legal action against the dog owners.

"We suggest that pets be kept away from the mailbox and areas the letter carrier uses for access to the property," said the Postmaster. "If the pet cannot be kept behind a secure fence, the owner should restrain it with a secure leash or tether or at least keep the pet inside the house during the usual hours carriers are making their rounds."

"We rely on the support and cooperation of the community to help us end these painful and costly injuries. Our children Dog Bite Awareness School Program can play an important role in teaching children about this serious problem. Any school or teacher interested in a Dog Bite Presentation can contact our Public Affairs Office at 933-2406 to make the necessary arrangements."

WHAT'S INCLUDED?

A hundred years ago, a house might have come with a wash tub and clothesline. Today, one out of every 11 U.S. households has a professionally installed burglar alarm; by 1990, one house in 5 will probably be so equipped. A buyer's concept of what a home should include changes every year. And what is expected in one town may be far different from the norm in another. That's why we spell out in writing what is being offered with your house. Is that bookcase really built-in, or will you take it? The window air conditioners, the refrigerator - do they stay or go? Facts now ward off arguments later.

Some home features are bargaining chips: you may offer to leave the carpeting and draperies to sweeten the deal or raise the price. Once a prospect is really interested in your property, negotiations over what's included help shape the transaction to everyone's satisfaction.

Dear Friends ...

Papal honors which carry with them the title "monsignor" were conferred this week on 34 priests of the Catholic Diocese of Rockville Center. The honors include naming James E. Boesel, pastor of Our Lady of Mercy Church in Hicksville a prelate of honor. We congratulate the new Monsignor on his promotion.

As of this week Bill Bennett and Tom Nagle are the only ones who filed to run in the May 22nd school board election, which means that they will be running unopposed to succeed themselves. These two highly qualified school board members have received our approval in the past and we wish them well for as long as they chose to serve this school district as trustees. We are fortunate indeed that they are able to give of their time, knowledge and experience to serve in this capacity.

We all know what a great presentation Hicksville Supt. of Schools makes on the school budget so you'll be pleased to know that Dr. Catherine Fenton is scheduled to be the main speaker at next Thursday's (May 2) Community Council meeting. It starts at 8 p.m. in the Library Community Room.

The proposed widening of Nevada St. by the State DOT, is being actively opposed by civic leaders throughout the community, who realized that there are viable, alternative suggestions, that would cost less tax money to accomplish, and would make it absolutely unnecessary to condemn 8 ft of the front yards of homes on one side of Nevada St. and 5 ft of the front yards of the homes on the other side of Nevada St. These suggestions will be fully covered at the Community Council meeting next Thursday, as well as many other local programs and problems which always come up during the "Town Meeting" which is a part of every Community Council meeting. Come on down and join your neighbors who are working together "for a better Hicksville". There is much to be done.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Friends:

I have filed my petition for re-election to the school board. Of all the seven years that I have served the community in my capacity as trustee, this past year as president of the board was most rewarding, for it gave me the opportunity to truly serve the students, employees and the community in a positive way.

There is so much on the agenda for education that one must apply his resources and energy to those things that are most rewarding for our students. This is the area in which I feel the greatest achievement and satisfaction. I will continue to uphold the integrity of the board and the school district and be compassionate and understanding in dealing with the many problems that may arise. I have made mistakes, but we learn by those mistakes. The ultimate goal that we wish to achieve is to serve you, the community and our school district with the best of our abilities and for the best of motives. We have a well-working board and an exceptional superintendent and for these reasons we can have, and will achieve, our aims for the benefit of all.

This is why I am seeking re-election to the Board of Education.

Sincerely,
Bill Bennett

Assessment Grievance Period May 1 to May 21

Nassau County property owners who wish to challenge their tentative 1986 tax assessments may file formal protests from Wednesday, May 1 to Tuesday, May 21 as provided by state law. Abe Seldin, Chairman of the Nassau County Board of Assessors announced today. In order to better accommodate taxpayers wishing to do this, the Department of Assessment is establishing special satellite offices in each of Nassau's three townships and two cities during the tax grievance period. Evening hours will also be scheduled for the convenience of those people who cannot come in during regular work hours.

"Every property owner should take advantage of this opportunity to examine his or her assessment and the method used to arrive at it," Seldin said.

Owner occupants of one, two and three-family homes are permitted to challenge their assessments in small claims court, but, to do so, they must first file a grievance with the Board of Assessment Review during this 21-day May grievance period. "The law is very clear," Seldin cautioned, "that if you don't file a grievance you cannot go to small claims court to try to get your assessment and property taxes lowered." Property owners wishing to file writs of certiorari in State Supreme Court must also file a grievance before proceeding to court.

In Nassau County, protests are filed with the Board of Assessors which forward them to the independent Board of Assessment Review for determination. In addition to filing the written grievance forms, property owners are entitled to request a hearing before the Board of Assessment Review at which they can present the facts on which their protests are based. The review board is empowered to order reductions in assessment where warranted, but not to raise an assessment as a result of the property owner filing an assessment grievance.

Copies of the new assessment rolls will be open for inspection and protests may be filed at each of the five locations throughout the county during the grievance period. Property owners may also examine their property record cards at the Assessment Department's offices at 240 Old Country Road, Mineola.

Tentative 1986 Nassau County Tax Rolls are available for inspection and protests may be filed at: for properties in the Town of Hempstead:

For properties in the Town of Oyster Bay:

Phone: (516) 935-3501.

All offices will be staffed by representatives of the Nassau County Department of Assessment from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday during the grievance period. They will also be opened Wednesday evenings, May 1, May 8 and May 15, from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. and on Tuesday evening, May 21, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

For additional information about the assessment grievance procedure, Seldin urged Nassau County property owners to call the Assessment Department's Taxpayer Information Bureau at (516) 535-2790 or the Department's Field Division at (516) 535-2311.

"Missing Children Should Be Top Priority"

County Executive Francis T. Purcell urged that the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services be turned into the state-wide equivalent of the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. He said the agency should be given authority to develop and provide training for investigation and prosecution of missing or exploited children cases, should be consulted by the New York State Legislature for advice and recommendations about formulating laws to deal with the problem, and should develop an informational network within the state to disseminate information about missing children.

Purcell's recommendations were contained in testimony submitted at a recent hearing by the New York State Assembly Republican Task Force on Missing Children at the Little Theatre in the East Meadow High School.

Purcell said that, until the national center was established, there was no centralized records system to pinpoint the number of missing children, but that estimates ranged from 700,000 to 1.5 million nationwide.

"The fact that there are so many children 'somewhere in limbo' is incredible and tragic," Purcell told the legislators. "...many of them will fall prey to abuse and exploitation. While a few survive on their own, most become victims of a world not of their making..."

Purcell said that the problem of missing children is given top priority in Nassau County, and should have top priority state- and nationwide. He said parents, children and school authorities should be educated about the problem, and communications and cooperation should be facilitated among social and law enforcement agencies in the state and nation.

Nassau's Successful Efforts

Purcell reported that Nassau's efforts to deal with the problem have been successful.

• He said the county initiated a voluntary fingerprinting program for youngsters in April 1983. To date, he said, 100,000 of the approximately 150,000 five-to-14-year olds in the county have been fingerprinted, and the program is continuing.

• Purcell said that the police department's Operation Safe Children, launched in November 1984 and conducted by the department's crime resistance unit, provides lectures, films, reading material and audio to youngsters, parents and school officials. More than half of the 80,000 children in grades one-through-six in the county have already taken the course, he said, and the department expects to reach the rest this year.

• Purcell urged parents and guardians who cannot account for their children's whereabouts at any time to call 911 immediately. He said police respond immediately to all missing persons' reports.

• Purcell said there were 1,532 persons under 18 reported missing in 1982, 1,507 in 1983 and 1,478 in 1984. All the cases from 1982 and 1983 have been closed and only one case from 1984 remains unresolved. Closing the case means that the child has returned home or that contact has been established between youngster and family.

 Many Long Islanders are concerned that the quality of our drinking water is being increasingly threatened by contamination from hazardous wastes. This issue is critical to area like Long Island which are solely dependent upon underground aquifers for water supplies. Rep. Norman F. Lent, 4th Congressional District, L.I., introduced legislation, HR 1650, which takes significant steps toward ensuring safer, cleaner drinking water supplies.

One section of the bill, entitled the "Save Drinking Water Act Amendments of 1985," deals specifically with the protection of sole source aquifers. The bill provides $35 million for FY 1986-89 to states and local governments to protect underground water supplies from contamination. Federal grants of up to 50% of the cost of preparing and implementing the water protection plans would be available.

"HR 1650 is sorely needed to reauthorize the current Safe Drinking Water Act (which expired September 1982) and to strengthen EPA safeguards against pollution of water sources. The bill requires the EPA to set minimum acceptable levels within a strict time frame for several contaminants which have already been identified as posing potential threats to public health," said Mr. Lent.

Shepherd Hill Senior News

By Elsie Alman

During the month of March we had several activities on the 6th we were visited by Mr. Harry J. Meyers, Superintendent of the Drug Abuse Control Agency in Nassau County, his lecture made us aware of the serious problems from drugs and alcohol and also the simple facts about with other drugs and alcohol, it was a very informative and educational session.

On March 14th we celebrated St. Patrick's Day at our club, with the traditional corn beef and cabbage & coffee and apple pie, music provided by John La Rosa who always make our parties very entertaining where everyone sings and dances.

For the past two years the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church has been serving the seniors every Wednesday for $2.50, a delicious, healthy and well balanced meals, so on the 20th of March we also had a St. Patrick's Day lunch of corn beef and cabbage, to keep the tradition. We thank the Lunch Bunch crew, Connie Schwanger, Gloria Uhl, Janet Cox and Betty Adofus for such labor of love toward the seniors.

On the 26th of March we held our annual Thrift Fashion Show of which all proceeds were donated by the club to the Southeast Center, Inc. clothes were modeled by the following seniors, Mary Sharks, Josie Burke, Marie Porter, Carmen Aviles, Terry Lanyon, Louise Guayneur, Lorraine Maiorano and Jean Cotton.

Every year we share our holiday spirit by preparing a couple of baskets of food for some needy families in the community; Shepherd Hill has always been very generous and when the need is there we all cooperate. Virginia and Gus Hanson were the coordinators with the expert help of Antonette Moetillaco, Josie Burke and Marie Porter.

On April 6th Ms. Shirley Frederick, a speaker for the Arthritis Foundation of Nassau County presented a lecture combined with a film narrated by the late Henry Fonda, on the heart-breaking pains, and suffering of the different types of arthritis, very educational, she let us know that all contributions goes toward fellowship and research, so maybe some day a cure will be found.

On April 18th we celebrated our third Anniversary with a luncheon at Muscaro's, where we enjoyed a delicious meal and the entertainment was provided by John La Rosa whose music and songs makes any party a terrific success, with dancing and singing.

Congratulations, Wedding Anniv. celebrated by the following members April 18th Mr. & Mrs. Sal Angrisano, April 24th Mr. & Mrs. Peter S. Winn, April 26th Mr. & Mrs. Joseph D'Agostino. May you all enjoy many more years of wedded bliss.

Happy birthday to all members who are celebrating birthdays in April.

40TH ANNIVERSARY: Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark presents a citation to Father Frederic J. Harter, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola R.C. Church in Hicksville, at a reception marking his 40th anniversary in the priesthood. Martin Klein, president of the parish council, looks on.

Father Harter was ordained on April 3, 1945, and served at St. James Pro-Cathedral in Brooklyn, St. Monica's in Jamaica, St. Patrick's in Bay Shore, St. Dominic's in Oyster Bay, Our Lady of Peace in Lynbrook and Holy Spirit in New Hyde Park before becoming pastor at St. Ignatius in January, 1969.

Town of Negotiations With DEC on Landfill Reach Stalemate

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Joseph Colby has regretfully declared that negotiations with the State Department of Environmental Conservation on the height of the Old Bethpage Landfill have reached a stalemate because the Town has refused to accept the non-solution of shipping as a viable alternative for disposing residents' refuse.

In a statement made at a Press Conference on Thursday, April 18th, Colby said "for the past six weeks, representatives from the Town has been engaged in intensive negotiations with the DEC in an effort to reach an agreement that would permit the Town to continue to dispose of refuse generated by Town residents at the Old Bethpage site, pending an expeditious decision on the Town's 1982 request for a temporary landfill extension. With the extension, the Town could avoid the unreliable, environmentally undesirable, economically unfeasible alternative of shipping garbage to another community off Long Island."

Colby said that "although the Town has always contended, and the DEC has yet to deny, that solid waste deposited at a landfill settles and compacts naturally—thereby reducing the height—the Town agreed to keep all operations below the final elevation limit until we received a court determination in support of our position. "During the last six weeks," Colby said the Town has made every conceivable effort to comply with the DEC's requests, knowing that many of their consent order requirements were unnecessary because natural settlement and decomposition would occur within time."

Colby indicated that the Town would have agreed to sign a consent order with the State that included:

- * Utilizing areas within the landfill that had settled below the 240' (120' above ground level) final permitted elevation;

- * Utilizing mechanical methods to compact refuse to reduce the height of the area as requested by the State, despite the fact that the action was necessary, since natural settlement would occur...at a cost of $40,000;

- * Implement a program to relocate 25,000 cubic yards of stored clay, which will be used in the capping and closure program to another area of the site, to accelerate settlement. The clay has already caused substantially compaction in the area where it has been previously stored...at a cost of $100,000;

- * Town agreement to incur the expense of hiring a licensed surveyor to take monthly and quarterly surveys of the operation and provide findings to the DEC; despite the fact that this is clearly a State responsibility...at a cost of approximately $5,000;

- * Assurances to the State in the consent order, that the Town would complete its planned capping and closure program in the area, once settlement had been completed. Cost of the program...estimated at $1,000,000.

"Up to this point in time," Colby said, "the Town would have signed a consent order agreeing to all of the above points, despite the knowledge that the Town is not in violation of its operating permit."

"Now," Colby continued, "after six weeks of negotiations, the State has demanded that the Town express a willingness to ship the refuse generated in this Town to distant landfills in other communities as a long-term solution to the Town's disposal needs. This we cannot agree to."

"The State is apparently under the delusion that shipping garbage to other communities upstate or out of the State of New York is a viable, environmentally sound, reliable and economically feasible solution to Long Island's refuse disposal problems. "I know that this reasoning is totally incorrect," Colby said.

"Shipping garbage is not a solution. It is not environmentally proper. It is not financially feasible. If this non-solution is forced on this Town and its taxpayers, it will cost Oyster Bay residents $20 million the first year alone. In fact," Colby said, "the sky is the limit because we would become totally dependent on the private landfill operators who can charge us whatever they choose. The State's position in this matter is indefensible."

Colby stated that "the proper solution to Long Island's disposal problems is the one provided by the Long Island Landfill Law. The State legislature has provided that when the current capacity of a landfill operated by a municipality that is pursuing resource recovery is reached, under the 1990 Landfill Law, that municipality is entitled to a temporary landfill extension to dispose of refuse until the resource recovery plant is operating. Oyster Bay applied for a temporary extension in 1982. Hearings on that application were not begun until October, 1984 and have yet to be officially closed. The State knows that the only responsible solution and the one provided by State Law, is granting the Town the permit for this temporary extension, as expeditiously as possible, so that our Town taxpayers will not be forced to spend ridiculous amounts of money on the unreliable, non-solution of trying to ship their refuse off Long Island."

The Independent Art Society is extremely grateful to our old friend and accomplished artist, Charles Fillizola who did a marvelous pen and ink demonstration at our April 1 meeting.

Mr. Fillizola is a candidate for an Art Education

LIAISON Receives Grant To Fight Neighborhood Crime

State Senator Michael J. Tully, Jr. has announced that he has secured $184,700 in state funds to support the ongoing efforts of the Long Island Association to Increase Security in Our Neighborhoods (LIAISON) to fight neighborhood crime.

"According to Tully, the special state appropriation will go toward the support of two important LIAISON programs: "Playing it Safe" and "Victims are Survivors."

Paula Broxmeyer, founder and president of LIAISON explained that the funding will help her organization expand its Playing it Safe Program whereby volunteers provide in-school counseling to youngsters on the dangers of sex abuse-related crime. "I know of no other volunteer organization that, through its actions, has done more to focus attention on the problems of neighborhood crime," Tully stated in announcing the grant.

For more information on the organization, which has helped numerous communities and civic associations set up Neighborhood Crime Patrols, Broxmeyer invites the public to call LIAISON at (516) 741-0620.

"Based on an extensive marketing survey of business leaders in the New York area, we found that office automation was the number one subject executives wanted to know more about. This seminar will give executives of growing businesses the chance to hear and talk with Peter McWilliams, a well-known expert on personal computers. Peter's unique talent lies in his ability to cut through the sales pitches and all the computerese to explain—in a humorous and simple way—how a PC works, what business functions it can perform, and how to buy one," said Lutz.

Seminar topics will include the practical uses of PCs in business, drawbacks of PCs, how to select the right PC for your business, and a shopping list of brand-name PCs' software, printers, and other peripherals.

McWilliams will also answer questions such as: Is a PC a worthwhile investment for your business? Does the initial cost of a PC outweigh the benefits? Should you buy a PC now or wait? What parts of your business should you automate first? Which PCs are the best on the market?

This free seminar includes a buffet breakfast and seminar materials. Seating is limited and advance registration is required. Registration is based on a first-come, first-served basis.

To register for this seminar, call (212) 808-8343.

Hicksville, Syosset League of Mercy Hospital News

Golf club swingers are wanted by the Hicksville, Syosset/Glen Cove League of Mercy Hospital for their recently formed golf league. The league will meet at the Cantiague Golf course in Hicksville on the first and third Wednesday of the month starting May 1st and they intend to play golf into October!!

The registration fee is $30.00 which includes the end of the season luncheon, trophies, prizes and many unbelievable golf stories.

If you are interested in joining this newly formed group of golfing ladies, call Joan at 433-9868 or Phyllis at 938-0759 for registration and additional information.

The president of the Hicksville, Syosset/Glen Cove League of Mercy Hospital, Lucille Delles was very pleased to announce that the $22,011 pledge this league took out in September for a fetal monitor and an infant isolette has been paid.

Stepping right along, the league took out a new pledge this month in the amount of $10,000 for diagnostic machines to be used in the Infant APNEA Center.

The Infant APNEA Center at Mercy Hospital in

Rockville Centre is proud to announce the introduction of "A Parent's Guide - Caring for a Monitored Infant at Home," the most recent publication regarding infant APNEA and electronic home monitoring. This manual was made possible by the fund-raising efforts of the Glen Cove, Hicksville/Syosset League of Mercy Hospital who, over the years, has contributed substantially to benefit the 400 bed, not for profit community hospital. Health care professionals in the field of infant APNEA recently gathered to express appreciation for the league's continued community service and generous financial support to the center.

These pledges are paid through the untiring efforts and hard work of the members. Weekly bingo games, monthly bus trips, Scotch Bowling, fashion shows and theatre parties are a few of the money raising functions.
