Hicksville Fire Dept. Report

Hicksville Gregory Museum Hit By Fire

Historic Gregory Museum on Heitz Place sustained medium damage early Saturday morning June 31st. A fast moving severe electrical storm moving through the Mid-Island area is believed to have been the cause of the fire. Fire officials believe lightning struck power lines and a surge shorted out the main electrical panel and swept upwards to the first floor. Four Hicksville Fire units backed up by units from Jericho and Westbury responded to the 4:29 AM alarm. A neighbor is credited with saving the landmark building by sounding the alarm from a nearby alarm box. A delayed alarm would have spelled doom for the aged building. The building is equipped with a fire alarm but the electrical fire rendered it useless.

None of the valuable displays were harmed. Damage was confined to the northwall and interior walls. However the museum will be closed indefinitely until repairs can be made.

Asst. Chief Arthur Rhode of the Jericho F.D. assumed command of the fire scene. Assisted by Captain Fippinger of Hicksville Truck Co. #1. Damage was considerable, the total depending on the extent of damage to under ground electrical lines. The Westbury F.D. Engine and Chief stood by at Hicksville Headquarters. Fire Departments from the 6th and 9th battalions were moved in to various districts to cover due to the large amount of apparatus and manpower required at the Farmingdale Fire.

July 9 Hearing Date Set On Zone Change Request In Hicksville

A hearing has been scheduled for Tuesday, July 9, by the Oyster Bay Town Board on a request for a change of zone from "H" industrial district (light industry) to "G" general business in Hicksville according to Town Councilman John Venditto.

"The applicant, Delco Development Company, is seeking a change of zone for the purpose of permitting the construction and operation of retail stores." John Venditto explained. "The parcel is located on the northerly side of Hanover Place, approximately 78 feet east of the intersection of Broadway

(Rt. 107) and Hanover Place.

The hearing is scheduled for 10 AM on July 9, in the hearing room of Town Hall East, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

Fire Threatens Old Hicksville Court

By Richard Evers

Hicksville's Gregory Museum, the Long Island Earth Science Center located in the Old Heitz Place Courthouse-Jail was the site of an electrical fire early Saturday morning, following the severe storm and power failure in the area.

The fire was brought under control rapidly by a providential combination of factors. Working in the Gregory Museum's favor were the following: a neighbor, Robert Risoli's early call to the Hicksville Fire Department; the presence at the fire house of stand-by personnel from the Hicksville Fire Department who signaled the Jericho Dept. for mutual aid; the strong horizontal wall timbers of the historic courthouse, and the prompt arrival at the scene Museum staff members Paul DiTrola and Hugh Conover who guided firemen and thus were able to keep fire-fighting damage to a minimum.

No estimate of the dollar loss from the considerable damage has as yet been made. The historic landmark building which is owned by the Town of Oyster Bay was preserved, and the many fine collections at the Gregory Museum are largely intact.

The Museum Board of Trustees, in announcing that the museum will re-open as soon as possible, especially wishes to express its gratitude and thanks to good neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Robert Risoli of 32 Bay Avenue and to the Hicksville and Jericho volunteer firemen who responded quickly to the alarm calls and took care in handling valuable museum display articles. It was a very close call for the Gregory Museum and the stately wooden courthouse, so much a part of Hicksville yesterday and today

Expo III

An outstanding display of work of In-Depth Studies students of the Hicksville Public Schools will take place in the Community Room of the Library on June 11, 12, and 13, from 5:30 pm to 7:30 pm, and all Hicksville residents are invited to visit and see the results of this year's program.

Expo III will include displays, live demonstrations and performances, skits, and exhibits of student projects. The three-day event promises to be even larger and more significant than last year's Expo II, which was recognized with a Golden Achievement Award from the National School

Public Relations Association. Most of the exhibits will reflect the themes of Friendship, Mystery and Magic, and Stars.

On the evenings of June 11 and June 12, special presentations by Lee Avenue youngsters are scheduled for 7:45 pm at the Junior High School Auditorium. On Tuesday, June 11, students of the third and sixth grades will perform. Fourth graders will present "American History in Review" on the evening of June 12.

All performances and displays are open to the public and residents are invited to visit and enjoy the outstanding work of our Hicksville students.

Belmont Park And N.Y. Racing Plays Leading Role In L.I.'s Economy

While Belmont Park has always been a major contributor to "the improvement of the breed," it also plays a leading role towards a better quality of life for residents of Long Island.

Along with the pageantry and beauty of showcasing the finest thoroughbreds in the land, Belmont Park represents an enormous tangible contribution to Long Island's economic well-being.

Belmont Park, which is located on the Nassau County border in Elmont, pays $5 million per year in local real estate taxes to the Town of Hempstead, Nassau County, and local school districts.

Belmont's corporate parent, the New York Racing Association Inc., employs more than 2,000 persons, most of whom live in Nassau, Suffolk and Queens, and the 2,600 horses that live on Belmont's country-like backstretch generate another 2,500 jobs.

But that's only part of the story. The New York Racing Association, which operates Belmont Park, Aqueduct and Saratoga racetracks, provided approximately $180 million in 1984 from its betting activities (on-track and in various OTB jurisdictions) for state and local government tax support, and since its inception in 1955, the NYRA has contributed over $2 billion to the state in direct tax revenues.

In fact, New York State thoroughbred racing as a whole now provides more than 40,000 jobs and produces approximately $2.3 billion annually to the state's economy.

Aside from the daily racing action at the track, there are over 60 thoroughbred breeding farms now located on Long Island, generating a payroll of over $1.5 million to more than 1,000 Long Island residents, and the thoroughbred breeding industry in New York state is growing by leaps and bounds every year.

Nearly two million people attended the races at Belmont Park last year.

Belmont Park, which is celebrating its 80th anniversary this year, has a long history of timely assistance when a pressing need arises.

Groups Press For "Superfund" Cleanup Bill

Local leaders of the League of Women Voters of Nassau County, the Sierra Club and the New York Community Action Network (New York CAN) conducted a "Superfund Forum" in Hicksville on May 28 which attracted over 85 people.

Congressman Norman F. Lent appeared as an official panelist at the event, which was designed to build community support for a strong federal Superfund cleanup program to remediate environmental hazard sites.

Citizen panelists at the event held at the Trinity Lutheran Church included Hicksville resident Joan Jones of the League of Women Voters of Nassau County, Syosset resident Al Hauser of the Sierra Club, Bethpage resident William Steinmetz of New York CAN, North Massapequa resident Joan Vecchione of the Citizens for Pure Water group in the South Farmingdale Water District, and Steve Meger of the Bridgehampton-based Group for the South Fork.

Local New York CAN members Allan Lerner of Old Bethpage and Diane Otten of Hicksville made presentations before the audience. Mr. Lerner reported on Superfund Lobby Day activities in Washington in May and appealed to Mr. Lent to help pass a strong Superfund law. Mrs. Otten addressed the need for comprehensive action in the Hicksville-Bethpage-Old Bethpage-Syosset-Farmingdale area, where ten of Long Island's fifteen federal priority hazard sites are situated. Old Bethpage resident Ugo Perzan of Residents Against Garbage Expansion and Sue Irwin of the New York Public Interest Research Group also declared their organizations' support for the Superfund legislation.

The citizen panel called upon Representative Lent to become a co-sponsor of the bipartisan bill HR-2560, which would create a $10.1 billion cleanup fund with a mandatory cleanup timetable, cleanup standards, community right-to-know provisions and access to state courts for toxic exposure victims.

Rep. Lent reaffirmed his past support for mandatory cleanup timetables. He suggested establishment of a liability "window" as a means of preventing accused polluters from "hiding in the weeds." Rep. Lent stated that high legal costs could be reduced and more private cleanup money would become available if firms were given the opportunity to come forward and settle for a portion of cleanup expenses at sites involving more than one company. Rep. Lent vowed to work with HR-2560 sponsor Rep. James Florio of New Jersey to develop strong Superfund legislation.

New York State Department of Environmental Conservation Regional Director Harold Berger, George Pavlou of the Environmental Protection Agency, Joseph DiVincenzo of Rep. Robert Mrazek's office, Michael Fitzpatrick of Rep. William Carney's office, and Jess Velona of

Senator Daniel Moynihan's office were also official panelists. Representatives Raymond McGrath and Thomas Downey and Senator Alfonse D'Amato sent written statements to the event. All were asked to become supporters of the HR-2560 legislation as "the best way to protect the health of Long Islanders."

Each of the participating community organizations is participating in the National Campaign Against Toxic Hazards. The campaign is urging all community residents to contact their Representatives (US House of Representatives, Washington DC 20515) and Senators (US Senate, Washington DC 20510) in support of HR-2560. Fact sheets, sample letters and petitions may be obtained by contacting #691-5565. Persons wishing to participate in a Superfund petition outreach day on Saturday, June 15 are also invited to contact the campaign to offer their volunteer assistance.

RETIRED TEACHERS: Exchanging views on pending legislation with Senator John R. Dunne are Jean Hamilton (center) of Uniondale and Virginia Gridley of Hicksville, representing the Long Island Retired Teachers Association. Dunne shared his insights with the two regarding the prospects of L.I.R.T.A.'s 1985 legislative priorities.

Museum Workshops Continue

The Hicksville Gregory Museum's spring nature workshops for children continue on Saturday, June 15th with some special investigations into THE WAYS OF WATER. Youngsters, ages 9 to 12, are currently enrolling for a nature program exploring the many wonders of water, that vital substance upon which all plants and animals depend.

Joan Scancarelli of the Gregory staff will lead the workshop in some scientific experiments involving the precious fluid, and the boys and girls will learn about Bubble-ology.

The registration fee for the workshop is $5, and it may be mailed to or delivered in person to The Gregory Museum, Heitz Place, Hicksville 11801. Prior registrants by mail.

Due to the temporary closing of the Gregory Museum as a result of fire, the Ways of Water children's workshop on Saturday, June 15th, from 2:30 to 3:30 will be held in the Community Room of the Hicksville Public Library on Jerusalem Avenue.

Dear Friends. . .

Each community covered by this newspaper is made up of thousands of homes, stores, businesses, churches, other public buildings and forty to fifty organizations! It is our privilege to bring you as much news as possible concerning the above, within the space available... that is an editor's job and has been our weekly challenge for many years.

We'd like you to know that, if those of you who send us your news releases and "Letters To The Editor" regularly, keep a yearly record (possibly a scrapbook) of those releases and pictures you get in, you will be pleased to see that a very high percentage make it. However, you may not realize that every week we receive more news than what we have room for, and there is no way that we could make anyone a promise to get in 100% of their news. We wish we could. But the overall results are good and for this we are grateful. We almost never say this, but, if you would remember to mention to the local merchants with whom you do business that you are a HERALD subscriber, it is possible that we would be able to bring you more pages each week.

SECONDLY we'd like you to know that it is our policy to consider ALL news that is submitted each week and no one receives preferential treatment. You are all equal in our eyes... we are limited only by space and of course, we do consider the date on which the event you are publicising occurs, as well as how many local people it affects.

One more matter we'd like you to consider. Pictures submitted must be sharp. Clarity, not whether they are color or black and white, is what counts when our cameramen tell us if they are printable on newspaper or not. So, please remember this before you submit pictures for our consideration. And finally, it is not possible for us to return pictures.

Thank you for your understanding... stay well. By all means, keep sending us your news. We are sure that you will be pleased with the over-all results.

Hicksville Fire Dept. Report

Chemical Warehouse Fire Battled By 10 Departments

A bolt of lightning from a fierce electrical storm sparked a 2-day blaze which all but destroyed the Wagner Seed Co. at 81 Secatogue Ave. in Farmingdale N.Y. Fire Departments from Hicksville, Jericho, Plainview, Bethpage, Levittown, No Massapequa, Massapequa, So. Farmingdale, East Farmingdale assisted Farmingdale firefighters. The fire started at approximately 2:45 AM. All Fire Department activities were under the command of Farmingdale Chief Michael Kelly.

The Hicksville Fire Department was requested at 3:45 to send its hazardous material response team to the scene. Unit 9312 responded with Asst. Chief O'Brien. At 3:57 AM a request was received for an engine from Hicksville to respond to cover the Farmingdale Village Unit 937 responded with Chief Owen Magee. At 4:13 AM Hicksvilles Heavy Rescue/Floodlight Co. and Ambulance was requested. Unit 938 and 9316 responded with Asst. Chief Schuckmann.

Due to the danger of chemical fumes from unknown herbicides and pesticides evacuation of residential areas around the fire was ordered. The N.C. Police Dept. and units from Farmingdale Rescue Squad handled the evacuation. Over 1,000 persons were relocated in a nearby school and fire station.

The Hicksville F.D. Hazardous Material Response Team played a vital role in the toxic fire operations. The team co-ordinated with the County Fire Marshalls in notifications to the State Dept., Environmental Conservation, Federal E.P.A Dept., National Pesticides Response Center and the County Board of Health. The team, based on recommendations from pesticide industry experts advised local fire officials to let the toxic chemicals burn, rather than putting water on them. This would ease the ground water pollution problem.

After one and one half hours a chemist from Chemical Fire Consultants Inc. stated it was safe to use water. Against the advice of the Hicksville team, fire operations started again, however within ten minutes toxic smoke forced firefighters to retreat over 1,000 yards. The Hicksville team, again repeated its plea - to let it burn itself out. Within hours it did, except for small pockets of fire.

At approximately 8:55 PM some residents were allowed to return home. They were advised to clean outside surfaces and also inside. Outside swimming pools were to be drained and refilled.

Local Health and Environmental Officials stated the actions of the firefighters in leaving the fire burn was the best way to handle the difficult situation. All units from Hicksville were back home by 3:20 PM Saturday afternoon. 15 of the 29 members involved in the Farmingdale Fire were ordered to local hospitals at 7: PM for precautionary blood tests due to additional information received on the contents of the building. Damage was estimated at $2 million.

At The Town Board Meeting

By Geraldine Geannikis

The Town of Oyster Bay held a regular Town Board Meeting on June 4 at Town Hall, Audrey Ave., Oyster Bay, the following hearings and resolutions were acted upon:

• Decision was reserved on a hearing for the petition of Greenpoint Savings Bank for a special use permit to construct a drive-in window in a G-1 central business district at the intersection of Old Country Rd. and Broadway south of Carl St., Hicksville. There was no opposition to this petition.

• Decision was reserved at a hearing on the petition of S & S Concrete Corp. and Four Seasons Litho, Inc. for a special use permit in an Ind. H district to use and occupy a portion of existing building on the premises, approximately 17,020 square feet of floor area, as office and factory space for a printing plant at Fairchild Ct. and Fairchild Ave., Plainview. There was no opposition to this petition.

• Decision was reserved on the petition of GBD Construction Corp. for a change of zone from Bus. F to Res. E district to construct nine one family homes at the intersection of Jerusalem Ave. and Tobias St., Hicksville. Two off the street parking spaces for each home is required but not shown on the site plan. The applicant stated that the driveways were double to compensate for the spaces. There was no opposition.

• An adjournment was requested by the attorney representing the petition of Richard and Thomas Notey and Ethly Marketing Corp. for a change of zone from Resident D to Business F district at Old Country Rd. at the intersection of Plainview Rd. and Manetto Hill Rd., Plainview. The hearing was rescheduled for July 30th.

• Decision was reserved on the petition of Sun Refining and Marketing Co. and Charles G. Simpson for a change in zone from Ind. H to Business G district to install, alter, maintain and operate a gasoline service station with various appurtenances, etc. at Jericho Tpke., at the intersection of Brush Hollow Rd. and Jericho Tpke., Jericho. There was a day and evening hearing on this petition because the resident of the area requested it. At the day hearing two people spoke in opposition to this petition expressing that the gas station has been consistently in defiance of the Town's regulations, and they have received many summons due to this.

Only twelve residents appeared at the evening hearing in opposition to this petition. Fred Hauser, the past president of the West Birchwood Civic Association, read a prepared statement from Mr. Howard Wohl, the present president of the Civic. Mr. Wohl could not be in attendance. The statement said that there were countless violations of Town regulations and that the petitioner has applied for a special use permit in 1979 to make similar changes plus add a mini mart to the site. The issue at that time was dropped since a site plan was never submitted. The Civic Association feels that the station should be held to the covenants imposed by the town at that time.

Sandy Wright, a home owner who lives right behind the gas station complained of debris that came onto her property because of the station. At one time there were guard dogs on the premises and a food vendor causing noise and pollution. There have been many problems over the years with the gas station.

• Resolution No. 494 - Approved a hearing date of July 9 on the petition of Delco Development Co. of Hicksville for a change in zone from Ind. H to Business G district to permit the construction and operation of retail stores at the intersection of Hanover Place and Broadway, Hicksville.

• Resolution No. 495 - Approved a six month extension on the site plan approval on the application of Lamberti and Scotto of Plainview.

• Resolution No. 55 - Accepted the findings of the Town Environmental quality review commissions findings on the petition of Joseph Sorok for a special use permit to operate an auto repair and dealership at 15 Old Country Rd., Hicksville.

• Resolution No. 503 - Approved an increase in money in connection with Phase II at the Landfill extension at Old Bethpage. The increase was generated by the extra hearing and meeting and other legal proceedings required.

• Resolution No. 504 - Approved the authorization of the consultant to proceed with the bid phase of the contract for the removal of valuable clay which would be buried by the slope expansion. This clay removal does not generate added landfill space since it is outside the Phase I area.

• Resolution No. 512 - Approved the request of the Hicksville Post Office to use Town equipment in connection with their truck rodeo to be held on June 23. The request was for 72 paint cones.

• Resolution No. 513 - Approved the request of Redeemer Lutheran Church the use of a roll-off container on June 22.

• Resolution No. 517 - Accepted the Town Environmental quality review commissions findings on the petition of Tilles Investment

Co./Deis, for a change of zone in Jericho. A hearing date is to be announced.

• Resolution No. 518 - Approved the engineering services by consultant on the design and construction phases of the clay removal at the Old Bethpage Waste Disposal Complex.

• Resolution No. 520 - Approved a change order on the contract for the capping and closing program at the Old Bethpage Waste Disposal Complex. A savings of $7,300 was generated when the materials used on the traverse paths was changed.

• Resolution No. 521 - Approved the enhancement of the computer program used at the scale house at the O. Bethpage Solid Waste Disposal Complex. The additions will allow for faster weigh-ins and outs and daily and monthly reports from the scale house.

• Resolution No. 524 - Approved the petition of Donata Petosa, Burger King Corp., and JAB Food Systems, Inc. for a special use permit to erect a greenhouse and operate a drive-in window in Syosset.

• Resolution No. 525 - Denied the petition of John DeMonaco, Henry Praus, Grand Prix Performance, Ltd. and Joseph Friszell for a special use permit at Farm Lane and Broadway, Hicksville. The special use permit would have adverse effects on the residential area.

• Resolution No. 526 - Denied the special use permit requested by Old Country Rd. Burgers Co., Inc., Creative Foods Corp. and Fulton Associates for a special use permit to operate a drive-in window at South Oyster Bay Rd., and Old Country Rd., Plainview. The special use permit would generate traffic congestion and pedestrian hazards.

The next scheduled Board Meeting will take place on June 18th.

Hicksville Residents Honored

On Sunday, June 2, Hicksville Youth Council honored Pastor Theodore Grant and William M. Heberer, Jr. for their contributions to young people through their work on the Agency's Board of Directors. The reception was held at T.J. Courtney's in Hicksville and was the Youth Council's first fundraising event. It was very well attended and a good time was had by all.

PRESENTING the Hicksville Youth Council's plaques are (l to r) HYC's president of the Board of Directors Bill Wagner, to co-recipients Pastor Theodore Grant and Mr. Bill Heberer, while HYC executive director Barbara Nelson looks on approvingly.

Councilman Thomas Clarke presented a proclamation from the Town of Oyster Bay to Bill and to Pastor Grant. Bill Heberer joined the Youth Council's Board in 1977 and served as President in 1982 and 1983. During Bill's tenure as President, the Agency received the 1983 Community Service Award of the Hicksville Community Council and underwent a major expansion of the services offered to the community. Pastor Grant was the Board's first president and was on the original incorporation papers filed in 1972. As President until 1974, Pastor was instrumental in the Agency's beginning and rejoined the Board in 1984.

The two were honored at a cocktail party held by the Council. Also on hand were Grant's wife, Nancy (second from left) and Heberer's wife, Rita.

Barbara E. Nelson, Executive Director and William Wagner, the current President of the Board of Directors presented plaques from the Agency to Bill and Pastor Grant. Assemblyman Fred Parola and Mrs. Parola also attended to congratulate the honorees and support the Agency's efforts.

Barbara Nelson also announced that the Agency has received a grant from the New York State Office of Crime Prevention for their Hicksville neighborhood crime watch program. The funds will be used to expand the program throughout the community as well as to provide assistance and support to those groups currently functioning. For additional information about any of the Youth Council's Programs or its summer activities, call Barbara at 822-7688 or 822-7594.

As I have mentioned before, or should I say what I have asked before, what does it take to keep an organization successful and solvent. In our opinion, as of before, for an organization to excel, it has to have many characteristics. It has to have vision, foresight and the loyalty and dedication of its people. It has to have a certain temperament, mood and tempo all its own. An organization is neuter, but its people are not. They give it life as they nourish and sustain it. They give it the personality it needs to overcome the pitfalls of growth and sometimes those of progress itself. If I may use the old, hackneyed expression that an organization is only as good as its people, that, I'm sure, will get me to the point of this paragraph. Clumsily as I may have tried, nevertheless I did try to verbally draw an analogy as to what an organization should be and what the Galileo Lodge really is.

insurance than you really need. Estate planning, in general, is not something that you carve once in stone and leave forever. It can be worthwhile to spend a few minutes reevaluating the status of your estate. Any changes in law affecting estate or inheritance tax may necessitate an alteration in the structure of your estate plan.

From time to time, you should also take a look at your life insurance coverage. Is it still realistic based on the rate of inflation since purchase of the policies? On the other hand, your obligations may have diminished and you find you are buying more

NY 21 Drinking Age Could Cut DWI Deaths

Thirty-three states that have raised drinking age to 21 years, experienced sharp drops of 25% to 58% in DWI (Driving While Intoxicated) crash fatalities; the initial decrease for Long Island could be at least a one-third saving, according to Deborah Davidson (Oyster Bay Cove), spokesperson for LI MADD. Davidson urges residents to ask their state legislators to pass in 1985 the AGE-21 Bill defeated in 1984.

Of the 26,000 DWI deaths nationally each year, 8,000 are youth 16 to 24 years old. Although representing only 18% of all drivers, these youths are responsible for 30-35% of all DWI fatalities. Such crash deaths are the #1 cause of death in this age group, which is also the only age group with a shortened life expectancy.

For those youths who say, "If I'm old enough to vote" or to marry, to sign contracts, own cars, MADD points out that any mistakes made in such situations would not likely cause death or serious injury, as happens in DWI. Age limitations also are common in our country, such as one must be 35 yrs. old to be president, 25 to be a senator, and 23 to be an FBI agent.

LI MADD asks that residents send brief letters to their State senators and assemblymen to pass the Age 21 Bill in 1985. Names and addresses can be obtained by calling the Nassau Board of Elections at (516) 924-4300. DWI hotline is (516) 922-7800.

FATHER'S DAY SPECIAL

As a personal gift for Dad this year, help him get the house ready to put on the market.

Now's the time for fresh paint on the front door and shutters. Clean windows make the house look brighter on the outside, lighter inside. Go after fingerprints around doors and switches; it's almost as good as painting a room! Take care of all the little repair jobs that, neglected, make a house look shabby.

Would the front yard attract a buyer? Rake it up and seed the lawn. Plant cheery, colorful flowers; a few dollars' worth of seedlings goes a long way. Clean out the garage.

We'll do our part, too, to make this a happy Father's Day season. When the property is ready to show, we'll bring buyers who are looking for a home just like it. Prospects who want to spend NEXT Father's Day in homes of their own—maybe yours.

Happy Father's Day from the real estate professionals at:

UNDEFEATED! The BANG-BANG BOYS have done it all, the ultimate goal of every athlete has been achieved—through very hard work, dedication and that special quality of EVERYONE pulling together. Talent is a major factor in any winning team, but the will to win, and be the best you can be, is what puts the winners above everyone else.

Our overall record was 16-0, with a league record of 10-0. Our final game against Farmingdale was a really great ball game. They were winning 7-4 after 5 innings but we came back to score 4 in the sixth and one in the seventh to pull it out. In the game before, against Farmingdale, Mike Rose shut them out 6-0 with 16 STRIKEOUTS. A super year for a super kid! Our inspiration, Brian Robey led the team with a .653 batting average and led with his Heart, Guts, and Brains as well. As I said, "It was a great team effort with everyone contributing."

I'd like to thank the parents and fans for their support. It means a lot to the boys. Most of all I'd like to thank the boys for a great and enjoyable year.

Pat Grecco, Paul Mannellino, Tom Gray, Pat Poretzky, Roger Chin, Joe Luparello, Scott D'Amico, Neil Esposito, Sean Tower, Nimesh Udesh, Bill Sullivan, and Scott Frain.

Paddy Rossbach & Linda Downs To Address Road Runners

The Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club is privileged to announce that the featured speakers at its June 18 open meeting will be Paddy Rossbach, the first woman leg amputee to successfully complete a full marathon, and Linda Downs, the first woman with cerebral palsy to successfully complete a full marathon.

The meeting will be held at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library, starting promptly at 8:00 PM.

Ms. Rossbach completed the 1984 New York City Marathon. Ms. Downs completed the 1983 and 1984 New York City Marathon and most recently set a personal record of 8 hours, 17 minutes in completing the 1985 London Marathon. Both of these young ladies have overcome their physical limitations to become active, competitive athletes. They have a lot to tell us about how each one of us can overcome our own personal problems and limitations in order to meet our own personal goals.

Ms. Rossbach and Ms. Downs will be introduced by David O. Balsley, a prominent local physical therapist who trained Ms. Rossbach for her 1984 marathon effort.

The general public is most cordially invited to attend the June 18 meeting. Call Club President Mike Polansky at (516) 433-0919 for more information.

Hicksville Republican Club

Joe Jablonsky
Executive Leader

by Jeanetta Magnuson

On Friday, June 14, at 8:40 pm, the Hicksville Republican Club will hold its monthly meeting at the VFW Hall, 320 South Broadway, Hicksville. Mr. Peter T. King, Nassau County Controller, will be our guest speaker.

King, 41, was elected to a four-year term as County Comptroller by a margin of 76,000 votes on Election Day of 1981, after being appointed to that office in August of that same year.

During his first term of office, King quickly earned a reputation as an "independent watchdog" by conducting audits and investigations which have resulted in millions of dollars in saving for Nassau residents.

But that's not all. His reputation as an "independent watchdog" has continued to grow as he has become an outspoken critic of the Metropolitan Transportation Authority, the Public Service Commission, The Federal government and even the Russian government.

Of his actions, King said, "In my creed of life, a waste of public money is an unpardonable sin. I know how hard it is to earn a dollar. I believe taxpayers should get the best value for the taxes they pay."

Peter King

King was critical of the MTA, claiming it had improperly billed Nassau County for millions of dollars for station maintenance.

When the State of New York attempted to "black-mail" Nassau County into paying the station maintenance cost by withholding more than $2 million in per capita aid for the care and support of the needy and the sick, King joined with County Executive Francis T. Purcell to sue the state for the aid. The courts are in the process of adjudicating the case.

King lives in Seaford with his wife, Rosemary, and their two children, Sean, age 15, and Erin, age 11. He is a graduate of St. Francis College, Brooklyn and the University of Notre Dame Law School.

Prior to being elected comptroller, King had extensive experience as a practicing attorney and as a government official. He is a former Deputy Nassau County Attorney, Special Assistant to the Chief Deputy Nassau County Executive and General Counsel to the Nassau Regional Off-Track Betting Corporation. He also served as Chief Deputy Nassau County Attorney and Acting County Attorney.

I hope you can join us at our June 14th meeting to meet with our distinguished guest, Mr. Peter King. Looking forward to seeing you then. Have a good week!

County To Distribute SADD Key Rings

For the second year in a row, the county will present key rings from Students Against Driving Drunk (SADD) to every high school graduate. County Executive Francis T. Purcell announced on May 30.

In a letter to school superintendents offering the key chains, Purcell said: "Nassau County's high school students are leading the battle against drinking and driving... The key rings serve as a thank you from county government for the effort of students to combat drunk driving - and as reminder to graduates to maintain their commitment to preventing drunk driving."

Noting that there is a SADD chapter in every public high school in the county, as well as in several private and parochial schools and colleges, Purcell asked the superintendents to permit a representative of each school's SADD chapter to present the rings to graduates before or during graduation ceremonies.

Purcell said that last year the county distributed 21,000 key chains to graduating seniors in public, private and parochial high schools in the county. This year, he estimated the county will distribute 18,000.

Attends Seminar

Juergen Weferling of Plainview recently attended a planning seminar in Long Island to discuss topics for the fall meeting of the Long Island Federation of Aid Association for Lutherans (AAL), set Oct. 10, 1985 at the Holiday Inn, Plainview.

AAL members who will attend the Federation meeting in fall are joined in branches where they are given the organizational and financial resources to accomplish humanitarian, education, service and social projects to help others in their communities. The participants in federation conventions generally are branch officers who attend these conventions to learn how to be more effective volunteer leaders.

Several informational programs which will be offered to convention attendees were discussed by those who attended the planning seminar.

There are more than 39,000 AAL members in New York. Last year these volunteers conducted 96 fraternal projects which raised more than $246,000. College scholarships worth $111,500 were distributed to 53 AAL members in the state, while 316 persons participated in AAL's marriage enrichment and pre-retirement planning programs.

AAL is the nation's largest fraternal benefit society, enabling 1.3 million Lutherans and their families and other fraternal benefits. AAL's home office is in Appleton, Wisconsin.

DEVOTIONS

The Reverend Dr. John H. Krahn
40 W. Nicholas Street
Hicksville, NY 11801

I believe it was the Mills Brothers who made popular the song, "You Always Hurt the One You Love." Fighting is one of the realities of married life. Unfortunately, most of us do not handle it well. Fighting is a negative way of communicating some very strong feelings. If we accept the premise that the point of all communication is to get closer to each other, then we might seek more constructive and positive ways of communicating our strong feelings rather than destructive fighting. Although space doesn't permit us to consider all the suggestions for what I call "good fighting," let me mention just a few. Discover what you are really fighting about. What's really underneath it all, then stick to the subject, don't bring up past history. No name calling. Remember you are fighting with the one you love—hurt her and you are hurting yourself and your marriage.

Back to the Mills Brothers ... if we are able to hurt the one we love more than anyone else, then we, as a spouse, have the greatest ability to bring healing to our relationship. If we really want to heal the other person, we can. Healing not only after fights but throughout life. Healing comes through a gentle touch or by saying "I'm sorry" and really meaning it. Healing also comes through forgiving one another and accepting each other's limitations.

Jesus Christ is the greatest facilitator of healing in marriage. He gives us the power to forgive our spouse—not because they deserve it but because they need it. We forgive not only for his sake but for our sake and for our marriage's sake. For marriage is something that we are in together, and when one or the other is hurting, both of us are hurting, and our marriage is hurting.

Those who are wise, work hard at their marriages. Those who are wiser work hard too, but they also invite God's help in loving each other. If God wants your marriage to work, and he certainly does, then he is anxious to give you whatever you need to make it work. Both of you must keep strong in the Lord. There is a little Christian saying that goes, "When I try, I fail. When I trust, He succeeds." The best thing we can do in our marriage is not try so hard but trust even harder.

As people, there will be those moments when we can not help but express negative feelings to our spouse. Be careful not to try to hurt them, but rather attempt to express how their actions are hurting you. Tell it like it is. Don't hold back. But let the Lord help you share your strong communication in a living manner. When you have a fight, have a good one.
