Town Board Approves Zone Change In Hicksville But Imposes Nineteen Restrictive Convenants

The Oyster Bay Town Board has approved an appliction for a change of zone and special use permit to renovate a gas station in Hicksville, according to Town Councilman Angelo A. Delligatti.

Angelo A. Delligatti.
"The applicant, Jesco Company, was seeking a change of zone from 'H' industrial to 'G' general business and a special use permit to renovate and modernize an existing gas station located on the corner of West John Street and Burns Avenue," Delligatti stated, "The Board approved the

Avenue, Delligatti stated, "The Board approved the request, subject to certain restrictive covenants."

Hours of operation for the station are limited to 7 AM to 10 PM Monday through Friday, 7 AM to 9 PM Saturday and 9 AM to 6 PM Sunday. Automotive repairs may be conducted between the hours of 8 AM to 6 PM Monday through Saturday with only minor emergency repairs permitted on Sunday. To help cut down on noise, the Board stipulated that there could be no bell alarm system to alert attendants about customers at the gas pumps.

Delligatti said that the Town Board is requiring that all outdoor lighting be turned off when the station is closed. Lighting may be directed only at the subject premises and cannot spill over into adjacent residential areas. To help endown on traffic, the Board has prohibited the sale or distridown on traffic, the Board has prohibited the sale or distribution of food on the premises.

Other covenants included providing for proper disposal of waste oil and other toxic substances so that no seepage will penetrate into the ground and that the use of streamers or flags for decorative or advertising purposes is prohibited.

Delligatti noted that the special use permit is limited to three years, at which time the Town Board may extend it. Delligatti added that no building permit will be issued until a site plan has been submitted and approved by the Department of Planning and Development.

Gregory Museum Reopens

It was like old times in Hicksville this past Sunday. The community's best known cultural attraction, the Gregory Museum: Long Island Earth Science Center "came back to life" from the fire which closed the museum this summer, on June 1st.

To the delight of pas-serby who saw the familiar large "Open Today" sign on the museum front lawn and autos parked in the drive-way, the Gregory staff were on hand to greet a number of visitors in their customary attentive and congenial

It was obvious to visitors that the museum and its headquarters in the historic Heitz Place Courthouse are by no means recovered from the dangerous electrical fire which could have wiped out the Hicksville landmark building and its notable nature collections. Much professional rewiring, car-pentry and leaning remains to be done before things are back to normal for the com-ing Fall stream of school guided tours.

But the staff, led by the indomitable Hugh Conover, Museum Building Co-chairman; Tom Daunt, the Curator, and community volunteers under the direction of Marce Chairman. tion of Harry Chandler, Executive Director, had the premises somewhat cleaned up last week, in time for Sunday visitors.

It is the intention of the Gregory Museum's Board of Trustees under its Presidents Douglas Uzakewicz to restore service to the public, regardless of some delay in the museum's insurance settlement. As it is, the trustees have been increasingly con-cerned over the museum's inability to accomodate the many tourists and local visitors who usually visit the museum during the summer vacation months. The trustees are expected to announce shortly a regular schedule of hours for daily and weeked visitors, for the rest of the summer.

It was like old times at the Gregory Museum last Sunday! For the first time since a fire on June 1st, the popular geology museum was reopened for the public. Here the always attractive 'touch table' delights a mother and her sons. Efforts are being made to continue cleanup at the museum so regular hours for visitors may soon be reestablished. # Hicksville Kiwanis Club Awards

The Hicksville Kiwanis Club had a very distinguished group of guests at their July 17, luncheon meeting at the Milleridge Inn, namely, the recipients of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club awards to Hicksville residents among this year's graduates of Hicksville High School and Holy Trinity High School.

These six students and some of their families enjoyed a delightful lunch in the company of old and new

The students had pre-viously received their awards at their respective graduation ceremonies. Kiwanis Scholarship Chairman, Dr. Keith Pastuch presented each of the winners with a letter commending them for the accomplishments which led to their receiving the scho-arships or awards. Dr. Pasuch also told the assembage that this year's winners friends and members of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club. were an outstanding group of students who were selected from an unusually large and well qualified field of candidates.

The exercise was divided into two phases. The first phase concentrated on spe-cific training events desig-nated to integrate the forces of different nations, includ-ing a combined amphibious landing in Sardinia.

This was followed by a second phase, the tactical phase, which involved allied maritime forces and landbased air forces to test integrated air defense opera-tions and sea control in the Mediterranean area.

PETE PRESIDENT MASSIELLO'S MES-SAGE: "There is a difference between a member and a good member of an organ-ization. The member just pays his dues, is lackadaisi-cal, disinterested and unconcerned. His attitude is "let the other member do it." The good member is con-cerned, interested and his attitude is that he or she must pitch in, must join committees, take an active part in the organization and its activities. So ask yourself if you are just an ordinary member or a good member of our Lodge. If you are a good member, then the Gali-leo Lodge is sailing on a true and steady course.

Oh, those green fields of summer. Well, O.K., we can't offer you green fields but we can surely offer you a section: of Eisenhower Park (which is green also) as the site for the Galileo Lodge's pienic which is scheduled for Sunday, the 11th of August. Yes, a picnic to relax, find leisure, relaxation and enjoy all the staple commodities associated with summer picnies. Oh, yes, from the early hours of the morning to late evening, all for your edification and pleasure. The fee is $5.00 and $3.00 for children - but children under 6 years of age will be admit-ted free. Note that those who get to the picnic early will be treated to a bun and coffee breakfast by the Galileo Lodge. The Galileo Lodge will supply the food and refreshments, but you can bring your own food if you so desire. Barbecue facilities will be available, of course. Tickets are now available, so all you have to do is call 931-9351 and ask for Joe Morace, Bert Molinelli, Tony Sica and Joe Crifelli, Come and enjoy the fun and pleasant environment offered by the Galileo Lodge at such a reasonable price. Your families and loved ones are asked to join in the good times.

Are you interested in the unusual, in the unique and the slightly different, well, if you are, then come down to the Galileo Lodge on Saturday, the 3rd of August, for that is the night when the Galileo Lodge presents its Italian Wedding Dance. And for the nominal fee of $12.50 per person, you will be offered, besides the show, a delicious hot Italian dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, setups and lilting dance music for your listening and danc-ing 'pleasure'. Note also, please, that John Sarerra and Frank Matassa will be honored, that the Galileo Lodge's Beauty Queen will be present to greet you and that on this night a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy will be in effect. In case you're wondering what this affair is all about, well, simply explained, is that during the course of this dance, a spoof, rather good-naturedly, of course, of customs, moods, attitudes and traditions will attitudes and traditions will take place. Joe Giordano will 'chair' this activity, ably assisted by Rocco Lomb-sardo and Tony Sica. Tickets, of course, are now available, just dial 931-931, and ask for the members int and ask for the members just mentioned here. As I said previously, if you like to laugh, like to eat and dance, and if you like to just have a plain old good time, this dance is for you.

And as I have previously stated, its Beauty Queen time at the Galileo Lodge. If you are interested in becoming a Beauty Queen who will represent the Galileo Lodge at the Columbus Day Parade and at the Beauty Queen Pageant and Ball to be held in September, please note that applications are now available at the Galileo Lodge. Age limit is 16 to 21 years of age, must be related to a male and female member of the Galileo Lodge and Ladies Auxiliary and must be unmarried. A

Mrs. Francke's Flag You will all recall the story of the theft of Mrs. Ernest Francke's Flag (and flagpole) which she and her late hus-hand had displayed on patriotic occasions and holidays for the past 60 years. It was hoped that the person or persons responsible would have replaced this flag, which means so much to Mrs. Francke. This has not happened.

However, Mr. Kevin Doyle vice-president of Hicksville

Gardens Civic Association, upon reading this column, con-tacted us, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and you will be happy to hear that the VFW has voted to replace both the flag and the pole. When Mrs. Francke was told about this she was greatly moved: "I am so grateful for the thoughtful-ness and kindness of my friends and neighbors in the Civic Association and the VFW," she said, "And I thank the community for their concern...it is very heartwarming. Ernie would be happy, too," she concluded.

It is just such inspiring actions that reassures us, for we know that all around us, in this fine town of Hicksville, there a large majority of concerned and caring people.

Long Island Is The Best Place To Live by Supervisor Joe Colby

American Demographic magazine, a population trend publication, recently confirmed something I have always known - Long Island best place to live.

The magazine made its recommendations based on a variety of factors which included economic growth, housing values, recreation facilities and standards of education. Those are areas which are of great concern to me too, as your elected Supervisor. They are areas in which we, in the Town of Oyster Bay, have made tremendous strides.

On several occasions during the past year I have let you know about the low rate of unemployment here in the town. It is safe to say that nearly every Oyster Bay resident who is willing and able to work can find a job. In fact, there is hardly a day when, in the course of my travels, I don't see several 'Help Wanted' signs. Most of these jobs are entry level positions that serve as employment for youngsters. housewives seeking to reen-ter the job market or work a lew hours while their children are in school and for seniors who are supplementing their social security income. Daily newspapers have pages of help wanted ads with an ever increasing number in construction. service industries and indicator of economic growth and Oyster Bay continues to lead the resurgence in industrial, office and home construction. During 1984 the Town issued build ing permits for a record $126.6 million worth of construction. Industrial and commecial additions and new industrial construction amounted to more than $62 million, new one-family home construction was at $10 million and construction of condominiums totaled $22 million.

A major portion of the remaining $32 million was in the form of home additions - a sure sign that residents enjoy the life style available in the Town and would rather make alterations to their present home than move. This fact also accounts for the rise in housing values. During the last year the price of a home in Oyster Bay has risen approximately $2,000 each month with the average resale price in most cases being more than three times what the owner originally Hicksville residents, are you going to stand for this downgrading of our educational system? Please write to the Board of Education. s. Henry & Karin Frey

Editor's Note: Dr. Fen-ton, Hicksville's Supt of Schools, has explained that. several years ago, after Dr. Soucy, a professional educational consultant had evaluated the Hicksville District's K-12 Math program because the Board and the Administration were not satisfied with Math results. among his recommendations was a suggestion that classroom math programs, if strengthened, would pro-

"pull-out" remediation and enrichment programs which take the children out of the class. He stated that these programs would be more efficiently handled when taught by a trained classroom teacher and the result would be a strengthened math program, which the district was definitely in need of. Dr. Fenton, who made a presentation of these subjects this Wednesday, at the regular Board meeting, suggested that it would be good idea for interested and concerned parents to attend and participate in the meetings of the School Board Curriculum Committee, for there is much that is considered and much explained before any changes are made. Of course, this is an advisory committee to the Board, and training of teachers and evaluation of school programs are done by professionals in the field before any steps are taken.

For more details on this important committee call any member of the School Board, or Dr. Fenton's office. They will be glad to assist you.

Summer has arrived and with it comes the Fourth Annual Summer Yard Party Club. Once again. Ann and Ed Ocker have graciously offered the use of their backyard for the party (17 Gorhams Lane, Plainview). The date this year is August 18, from 3 PM to 7 PM.

Honorary Hostess this year is Ann McCaffrey, whose husband, State Court Justice Bernard McCaffrey will be campaigning this year for re-election.

Tickets for the yard party will be ready soon. If you send a note to the Plainview Republican Club, PO Box 1. Plainview, NY 11803 or call Robert Andrulli at 931-2611, you will receive as many tickets as you need. Committeemen and Members of the Board of Directors will also be selling tickets. The cost is $10 per ticket which includes an open bar and a wide variety of gourmet foods prepared by Club members. The rain date for the party is August BENEFIT GAME: Oyster Bay Town Councilman Kenneth S. Diamond presents a citation to Channel 2 anchorman Jim Jensen in appreciation of his work with the Channel 2 All-Stars, a charity softball team he founded and for which he serves as pitcher.

The Channel 2 All-Stars were at Plainview-Old Bethpage ommunity Park to play the Plainview Softball League All-Stars in a benefit game for the Seaford Auxiliary of United Cerebral Palsy.
