Second Annual Postal Safety Fair A Success

Over 2,500 people came out, despite gloomy skies, to see the Second Annual Postal Safety Fair on Sunday, October 13, 1985. They visited over 50 safety and health related booths and got a "behind the scenes happenings" of our Postal Service.

Master of Ceremonies, Ray Heatherton, "The Merry Mailman" opened the day by introducing Life Scout Matthew Zeray and other Boy Scouts from Troop 3211 who presented an impressive flag ceremony.

Hicksville Sectional Center Manager/Postmaster Roger Nienaber presented Mr. Heatherton with a Certificate of Appreciation, a sheet of youth stamps, a commemorative first day of issue and the Golden Moments Commemorative Album of the 1984 Olympics. "I grew up in Ohio and even in Ohio, believe it or not, we had the Merry Mailman. It was a pleasure to meet Ray and a pleasure to have him again this year as our Master of Ceremonies. It is in recognition of your outstanding contributions to the Long Island community that we present you with these stamps and album," said Mr. Nienaber.

Mr. Nienaber went on to say, "I saw the videotapes of last year's fair and frankly, I was overwhelmed by all the people and excitement. It shows that the Postal Service is reaching out in directions to find new ways to provide the community with more than just mail service."

Over 700,000 men and women in the Postal Service make many contributions to their community. Tom Nelligan, Lindenhurst Letter Carrier was recognized for his alert actions. Recently, on his route, he noticed the build-up of mail in one of his elderly customers mailbox. He got help for the woman, who had been unconscious for many hours. For his quick thinking actions he was presented with a Special Achievement Award and $250.

Recently the Postal Service issued a block of four stamps honoring youth groups committed to prepping youth for adulthood. Their many volunteers offer their time to teach rewarding skills including first aid and safety. Representatives from these groups were presented a Certificate of Appreciation, sheet of stamps and a first day commemorative issue; from the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 3211 Scoutmaster Bob 1270; from the Big Brothers/Big Sisters President of the Board of Directors for Nassau County Tom DiNapoli and from the YMCA, Genevieve Haseyney, Public Relations Director.

For their continuing line service to the Long Island community, the Postal Service was presented special proclamations by John Hambel, Executive Assistant from Congressman Lent's Office; Town of Oyster Bay Councilmen Tom Clark and Kenneth Diamond; N.Y. State Assemblyman Fred Parola and by Clifford Riccio, Director of Nassau County Traffic Safety Board representing County Executive Frances Purcell.

Winners of the recent poster and essay contest, "How to Make Hicksville Safer" were presented certificates and commemorative stamp kits. In the 2nd grade and under category winners were Anne Marie Elenio from Fork Lane School for her poster and Michelle Ruemdonck from Lee Avenue School. In the category of 3rd grade and over were John Bailey from Holy Family School for his poster and Kerstin Magnuson from Holy Family School for her essay.

Ray Heatherton ended with his all familiar song, "I Am The Merry Mailman" to the delight of all the visitors.

There was something for everyone. Children enjoyed the robot fire hydrant provided by the Public Fire and Safety Service Academy and learning how to drop and roll, watching Police Officer Hill from the Nassau County Police Department (Continued on Page 12)

Galileo Lodge News

PRESIDENT PETE MASI'S MESSAGE:

"Pessimism is only the name that men of weak nerves give to wisdom."

Mark Twain

After writing many columns concerning the Galileo Lodge's Halloween

Dance, it has finally arrived, this Saturday, the 26th of October. Some tickets are still available, so why not call Tony Sica and Joe Morace at 931-9351, or even perhaps Armand Del Cio, the Chairman. Tickets sell at $12.50 per person, and in the offering will be a dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and some fine music for your listening and dancing pleasure. Note that a bring-your-own-liquor policy will be in effect that night.

Let the merry bells keep ringing and may your every wish come true, oh, yes, these are the sentiments that we all will make heard very soon. And on Saturday, the 7th of December, this very same mood will be kept alive as the Galileo Lodge will present its Christmas Dance. Tickets will sell at $12.50 per person, and in the offering will be a delicious hot dinner, beer, coffee and cake, set-ups and delightful music for your listening and dancing pleasure. Tickets will be on sale shortly and they will be sold by the Chairmen, Armand Del Cio and Tony Sica. This dance will feature a bring-your-own-liquor policy also. Christmas is a special time of the year for all of us, and the Galileo Lodge feels that this dance will help you get into the mood and spirit of this holiday season.

Of course Christmas would not be Christmas without the presentation of those two Christmas parties held by the Galileo Lodge for the handicapped children of Queens and Long Island and the children of the membership. The date is Sunday, the 8th of December. Joe Giordano and Skip Montelorte will supervise these two activities and the membership of the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary will act as the committee. These parties are emotionally-packed and heart-rendering, being also as equally moving and fascinating as any activity held by the Galileo Lodge. The party in the morning is for the handicapped children and the party for children of the membership will take place in the afternoon. As I have often stated, these parties have to be witnessed personally to fully absorb

The Mid Island Conservative Club recently held a fund raiser at T. J. Courtneys in Hicksville. Numerous candidates that will be on Row C were in attendance. Included were the two conservative candidates for district court judge who were presented with a check from the Mid Island Conservative Club's Chairman, John Cattogara (center). On the left is Marc Mogil, candidate for the 1st district court and Martin Massell candidate for the 4th district court, on the right.

We are happy to report that the Ladies Auxiliary have something special and nice for the members, friends and patrons of its organization and that of the Galileo Lodge. Yes, the Ladies Auxiliary will sponsor a "Night At The Races" at Roosevelt Raceway on Monday night, starting at 6:30 P.M. Tickets will sell at $18 per person, and this nominal fee entitles you to a dinner at the Cloud Casino, where the cuisine is fine and delicious, and, of course, an excellent view of the races. Mary Sarrero (433-6289) will supervise this activity, ably assisted by Mary Bales-trino (SU 5-1462). Tickets will be available this Saturday and they also will be sold at the Galileo Lodge every Wednesday night around 8:00 P.M. on. The cut-off date for ticket payments will be the 19th of November. So, for a lun night, for some pleasant diversion, this activity should be the one for you.

Needless to mention that the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary are still mourning the death of Joe Iannotti. Joe Iannotti was a charter member of the Galileo Lodge. He was loyal, dedicated and a tremendous worker. He believed in the Galileo Lodge and what it stood for, never lost sight of the principles, goals and ambitions of an organization dedicated to the betterment of the Italian-American scene. Joe Iannotti was a great member and a great man.

A seisun [pronounced

A Community Workshop

On Nov. 12, at the United Methodist Church of Hicksville, Old Country Rd. and Nelson Ave., at 9 A.M., there will be an all day community workshop dealing with death and grief. This workshop is being offered to the community in order to help learn more about the grief process.

The workshop is to be presented by Dr. Alan D. Wolfelt, who is the Director of Behavioral Medicine Training at the Fort Collins, Colorado Family Practice Center. Dr. Wolfelt is particularly noted for his work in the grief experience of the child. He is also the author of the book "Helping Children Cope With Grief."

The workshop is being sponsored by Wagner Funeral Home and the Hicksville Youth Council.

Pre-registration is recommended by Oct. 29. The registration fee is $30. There will be a registration at 8:30AM on the day of the workshop.

Peter Grace, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, W.R. Grace & Co., Dr. Viscardi received the seventh annual $75,000 "Endow A Dream" Award which is presented annually to an individual who has overcome adversity and through a positive mental attitude has gone on to make a meaningful contribution to humanity. The award provides that it be contributed to a charity of the recipient's choice. It is to Human Resources Center that Henry Viscardi will donate his $75,000 award. Dr. Viscardi has requested that the Center obtain matching funds in this amount to continue its many excellent programs and services for disabled children and adults.

Viscardi, chosen by a prestigious award committee chaired by Art Linkletter, is one of the world's most highly respected figures in the field of rehabilitation and education of persons with disabilities. Dr. Viscardi who was born without legs, has devoted his life, through the Center he founded, to insuring that severely handicapped individuals have the opportunity to achieve their fullest potential as human beings.

From the Center, founded in 1952, more than 500 disabled students have received high school diplomas, 350 have gone on to college and more than 200 have received 4 year degrees. Over 8,500 adults have been educated, trained and rehabilitated at the Center with 7,000 of these disabled individuals now gainfully employed. The programs developed by Dr. Henry Viscardi are now being duplicated in over 60 other facilities throughout the world.

Henry Viscardi has been an advisor to every president beginning with Franklin D. Roosevelt on the affairs of our Nation's disabled population. He holds citations from leading international societies, universities and professional organizations. He has been awarded 19 honorary degrees and has authored 9 books. He is highly respected and recognized throughout the world for his commitment, vision and dedication to helping the disabled gain dignity and independence.

Attends Conference

On October 11-13 Runhild Wessell attended the Eighth Annual Conference of the Fulbright Alumni Association at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville. Senator Fulbright, now 80 years old, was present. His archives, consisting of over two million documents that he had donated to his alma mater, were opened and presented to the University President. Senator Fulbright had played on the football team of UAR and had also been its president. At his every appearance he was cheered and applauded by the enthusiastic Fulbrighters present. Miss Wessell had a Fulbright Scholarship to Germany in 1956. She retired from Hicksville Senior High School in 1973, after teaching 42 years of which 37 were in Hicksville. For the past ten years she has been working as a volunteer tutor in the Nassau County Jail. In 1983 she founded the New York Chapter of the Fulbright Alumni Association and was its first president.

Farmingdale SUNY Emerging As World Food Day Headquarters

"Farmingdale is becoming the center for World Food Day activities on Long Island. With this focus, we should begin to gather strength and do something about world hunger as well as hunger on Long Island," stated Sandy Chapin, president, Long Island Cares, Inc., who concluded the 1985 World Food Day program held on Wednesday, October 16, at SUNY/Farmingdale, Roosevelt Hall.

Several hundred participants, including students, faculty, staff, world hunger professionals, and concerned citizens, gathered to discuss the problems and suffering caused by hunger.

Opening remarks were presented by William Ayres, executive director, World Hunger Year (WHY), who summarized the importance of developing agriculture in Third World countries, making policy changes, and improving the distribution process of food.

The conference also featured a live National Town Meeting Teleconference which originated from Washington, D.C. and involved such panelists as Peter McPherson, administrator of the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) and Senator Paul Sarbanes of Maryland. This telecast, which lasted three hours, also entertained questions from participating universities located around the country which included Brown University, the University of Southern Mississippi, as well as Farmingdale.

High-Tech Communications for High-Tech Long Island

New York Telephone continues to expand its fiber optic network throughout Nassau and Suffolk. This fiber optic "expressway" around the bi-county area speeds telephone calls, computer data and video images over beams of light. The fiber optic cable now in place is considered the most advanced communications medium because of its many attributes. In addition to being able to transmit increased volumes of calls, the new technology also improves transmission quality and is more reliable because it is impervious to water and static electricity. There will be approximately 300 miles of fiber optic cable in place on Long Island by the end of the year. The local telephone system is also being modernized by the ongoing installation of digital switching equipment in our central offices which transmits conversations and information in digital form.

A New Calling Card Service

If you'd like your son or daughter, mother or father, special friend or customer to call you more often, give them the new SPIN Calling Card from New York Telephone. SPIN stands for Special Personal Identification Number and allows the person with the card to call only one number, yours and yours alone. The SPIN Card is ideal for children at college, relatives that live out of town or special customers. They'll always be able to call you without spending a cent. There is a surcharge (added to the direct-dial rate) for each SPIN call billed to your phone, but it's less than half the surcharge for a collect call or a call billed to a third number. If you'd like SPIN Calling Cards for calls to your home, call 1 800 942-1818, operator 82. For calls to your business, call 1 800 942-1212, ext. 355.

TWO GENERATIONS OF SERVICE

HELP FROM A HOSPICE

A painful, terminal illness can cause great distress to a family, to both the patient and those who care for him or her. It is in this area that a hospice may be of great value.

The hospice movement is growing rapidly all across the country in small and large communities. The purpose of the hospice is to provide personal care to the terminal patient and family as a unit, and to provide an environment and medication that allow the patient to be essentially pain-free. The family is given assistance with psychological and practical problems as well as the medical ones.

The result, in many cases, is that terminally ill persons are able to actually enjoy and live the last days of their lives, rather than anxiously watching the clock, anticipating the return of the pain and enduring the time until the next pain shot. Many times, patients are able to stay in their own homes, which often helps ease the tension.

Hicksville Swimmers Score At Invitational

The Hicksville girls placed fourth at the annual Long Island Coaches High School Invitational Meet held at Nassau Community College on October 12.

Points were scored by the Medley Relay of Lorna Mund, Jeannine Sirey, Kirstin Mund and Gina Cusumano who broke their own record. Lorna was the only double winner of the meet, clinching both the 200 free and the 100 back. Kirstin Mund won the 500 free breaking her own school record and was second in the fly. Jeannine finished a very close second in the 200 IM and her second place win the 100 breast also broke her own record. Points were also scored by Karen Karmann who gave her best performances in the 200 and 500 free, Karen Kratochvil, Linda Cusumano, Helen Wittik, Jennifer Brennan, Beth Walsh and Gina Cusumano.

Swim Team

As the season progressed, the Hicksville High School Swim Team had another week of one win and one loss.

The swimming against Farmingdale was excellent with the Medley Relay of Karen Kratochvil, Jeannine Sirey, Kristin Mund and Beth Walsh winning. Individual firsts were scored by Lorna Mund in the 100 back and the 200 IM, Jeannine Sirey in the 200 free and the 100 breast, Kristin in the 500 free and the 100 fly. The 400 free relay of Lorna Mund, Karen Karmann, Diane Buys and Gina Cusumano was second. Third place finishers were Karen Karmann in the 200 free and Gina Cusumano in the 10 free and the 50 free.

The meet against Uniondale, a decisive win, gave opportunities to the less experienced swimmers to score. Sheri Howell, who is swimming her first season with the team, was first in the 200 IM and the 100 back. Karen won both the 200 and 500 free. Tara Hooper, Cynthia Gaylord, and Polly Elkins, seventh graders, all placed third. Deanna Pitta was third in the 500 free, which she swam for the first time, and the 50 free, and Helen Wittek, won the 100 breast. In addition, firsts were scored by Lorna Mund in the 100 free, Jeannine Sirey in the 50 free, Kristin Mund in the 100 fly and Karen Karmann in the 200 free.

In upper photo: Grandparents and Other Special People Day, Grandparents and other special people came to visit Holy Family School on Oct. 7, 1985. Children & guests enjoyed a prayer service, sing along & refreshments. The kindergarten was proud to show their rooms and school to their guests.

In center photo: Pumpkin Farm - On a beautiful sunny day, 53 Kgn. children went on a class trip to Filasky's pumpkin farm. There they had a delightful but bumpy hay ride, a long and tiring search for the perfect pumpkin and a snack in the pumpkin patch. A good time was certainly had by all.

In lower photo: Too Smart for Strangers Program, The Children participated in a safety program concerning how children should respond to strangers. They watched a film, discussed the rules and Mrs. Holmes gave each one a balloon to remind them they are all "Too Smart for Strangers."

Holy Family's School News

The children of Holy Family school have donated almost $400 to help the people of Mexico City recover from their recent earthquake.

In order to better understand how the Mexican children who lost everything, including their toys, felt, our youngsters gave up toys they liked, to be sold. At the "children only" toy sale and by donating money they earned, the children were able to raise the money and also feel the satisfaction that comes from helping others.

THE DIVINE CALL
"And the Lord came and stood forth, calling as at other times, 'Samuel!' And Samuel said, 'Speak for thy servant hears.'" (1 Sam. 3:10)

Our sermon title is, "The Divine Call." Most often we hear this expression used in connection with the calling of a pastor or a teacher. This is the specific, narrow use of the term. The Old Testament text above in one sense speaks of God's call to Samuel. This was surely a divine call. He called him to proclaim his message to Eli. He continued to call Samuel into ministry throughout his entire life.

Another divine call from a broader perspective can be seen in the Gospel lesson: "Then Peter spoke up. 'Lord,' he said, 'if it is really you, order me to come out on the water to you.' 'Come!' answered Jesus." (Matt. 14:28-29a)

This divine call was really a test of faith or a call to greater faith. But Peter let fear enter his heart and he began to sink. Jesus reached out and grabbed him and said, "How little faith you have! Why did you doubt?"

Sometimes we look smugly down our noses at Peter's faltering faith. I wonder if any of us would even have ever left the boat?

Another of God's divine calls is to our parents to bring us to Baptism and worship. God has called us all to be priests. My priesthood or ministry as a pastor is different from yours in that I have a special responsibility for the public proclamation of the Word and the proper administration of the Sacraments. But God has called us all on to His ministerial team. I am the equipper, the coach, the trainer, a playing coach in actuality, but we are all participants.

Too often Christians try to sneak off the playing field and remove themselves to the sidelines and relegate their active role to that of church commentator, critic, or spectator. We have enough critics and spectators...we can never have enough players.

We all, individually, have a call to active ministry...to run some plays, score some points, to be a part of God's team, his plan for victory over sin and the works of the devil. The call is divine...for it is from God. We either stay in the boat or we venture forth in faith.

Collectively, as a congregation in the universal church of Jesus Christ, we have a call to provide for the proclamation of the Word of God and the administration of the Sacraments.

We are called to reach out to the lost through evangelism.

We are called to provide and encourage Christian education for the young and all ages.

We are called to look after the elderly, to help the oppressed, to feed the poor, to clothe the naked, to seek justice where there is injustice.

We are called to enjoy Christian fellowship and to encourage and support one another in the faith.

Our specific directions for the present and future come as we immerse ourselves in the Word of God and prayer. For through these two activities God's Spirit provides the specific guidance needed for the future.

The divine call continues to come to those who listen for it. It may not be as dramatic as it was for Samuel or for Peter, but it is no less there for a faithful community. "Speak to us, Lord, and give us the faith and courage to follow your commands."

Hicksville Fire Dept. News

In Case of Fire

In case of fire we present herewith tips on Home Fire Escape Planning and Guidelines For Your Family.

Consider the Facts

Every day in the United States 1500 homes burn. Annually 6000 people die and 280,000 are injured in residential fires.

Home fire fatalities account for approximately 80% of all deaths by fire.

Heating devices are the leading cause of home fires. The majority of fire deaths occur at night, while everyone is asleep. Their senses are dulled so they are not even aware a fire has started.

Adequate smoke detectors are a necessity to provide sufficient early warning in the event of a fire. If you do not already have smoke detectors in your home, contact your local fire department for information on the types, locations and installation of these devices.

In the event of a fire, if you are not prepared, you would lose your life!!!

Smoke is a killer!! Eight out of ten fire fatalities are due to smoke inhalation.

Smoke and heat rise!! Therefore, the coolest and freshest air will be found near the floor. Stay low. Crawl on your hand and knees.

Legionnaires' Log

HICKSVILLE N.Y.

Time is beginning to close in on the holidays spotlight and if you know of anyone needing a place to have that 'big' New Year's eve party let us know as we have 2 halls available for that date..... Just call 931-9867..... Or call me in case you can't get thru to the Post number..... I'm at 935-1860..... We had a fine turnout at Monday's meeting so I know that the summer's over and the troops have returned from their summer bivouac in the boondocks..... Business of the Post must go on despite our willingness to sell our building..... We have programs that we are mandated to carry out and the next one is the M.I.A./P.O.W. bus trip to the rally in Washington, D.C. this Sunday, October 27th..... The bus leaves Massapequa Post at 5:45 A.M. and aboard (at their own expense) will be Dick Hochbrueckner, Ray Gamble and myself on behalf of our Post..... This is followed by the Kings Park Hospital visitation on the following Sunday, November 3rd..... We will be packaging the bags for this trip at the Post on Friday evening, November 1st at 8 P.M. so come down and lend a hand..... We will leave for Kings Park on Sunday, November 3rd at 11:15 A.M. and expect to be back at the Post by 2 P.M. or so for some hot food and cold drink..... Most of our members have not made the Kings Park pilgrimage in (Indian talk) too many suns, too many moons..... Tear yourselves away from the arms of self indulgence and donate some of your good health time to those comrades of ours who are less fortunate..... BE THERE!!!!..... As you know we have opened our hall bookings until March 31st so pass the word around that we have two halls available for public use..... Our membership renewals continue to come in at a steady pace and along with the transfers from the Albany catch-all Post our membership needs for the 1985/86 year could possibly be met by December 31st IF some of perennial late payers would discard their poor cooperation habits and join the TEAM..... Thanks to Airline Howard for stepping up and volunteering to handle the sale of STATUE OF LIBERTY PINS at $2 each..... This is Legion program and the money goes this way: $1 to the LIBERTY LADY (for makeup), $1 to cover pin cost; Credit to the state Legion for assembling funds to make a $100,000 donation, and credit to our Post for donating to this funding.... (This we need for the annual Banner Awards questionnaire)..... And to my delightful surprise, Airline also volunteered to be our ARTHRITIS FUND chairman which among other things has the responsibility of raising money for this worthy cause..... In this direction we are going to aid with a new program that is now being formulated by Tony Bellacera, Lou Braun, Dick Hochbrueckner, Lou Cesta and possibly a few others who have yet been notified..... But the bandwagon is rolling and I'm sure many more will want to hop on when the final plans are announced..... Say guys, why don't you come to our Post on Friday evenings for a few dinks or some pool shooting or for some card playing???? We have the cheapest drinks in town and there's always room at the bar for another congenial soul without pushing..... I had noticed at the Rochester convention parade last July of the appearance of female veterans in coed Legion Color Guards and I have to report that this is the new trend in the make up of Legion Color Guards..... The final basis of this trend was the winning Color Guard in the annual national convention competitions at New Orleans last month featured at least two female Legionnaires in its ranks..... This is a thought for our Color Guard which is sadly undermanned and seemingly cannot recruit new male members.... How about looking for help from the female Vietnam veterans of our quaint little village???? Ask them to join the Post and be Legionnaires and help the Color Guard rebuild to its former stature and enjoy new honors for our Post..... In case you don't know, the eligibility for Vietnam vets extends from December 22, 1961 to May 7, 1975..... How about it? Can you recruit someone?

Long Islanders To Cycle Against Birth Defects

Fork Lane's Halls of Education

I'm sure we've all heard the same old cry from our kid's when this question is asked, What did you do in school today? NOTHING!

Well they may say nothing but actually they have done alot since school re-opened in September.

The front lobby of Fork Lane has an art display of "WEAVING" created by the 5th grade class and the help of Mrs. Yolanda Grigg the Art Teacher. Along the hall way is an educational and learning walk way. Mrs. Calzetta's 1st grade class has pictures and stories about Johnny Apple Seed, and next to that display is Mrs. Schreck's 1st grade with there display of leaf people, across from that is Miss. Knopf's 6th grade and their display is entitled "WE ARE INTRODUCING THE WORLD."

The entire school is decorated in works from grades K-6. All the children are really working hard and it shows. At Fork Lane the teachers try to make learning fun, and as a parent I think they are doing a darn good job of it.

Mrs. Schrecks 1st grade has a display of leaf people. (upper picture).

Miss Knopf's 6th grade's display is entitled "WE ARE INTRODUCING THE WORLD" (lower picture).

At The School Board Meeting

The Hicksville Board of Education met on Wednesday, October 23.

Following the customary business of accepting Board minutes and hearing committee reports, Mr. Bennett took the opportunity to commend the girls' swim team who won all five events at the recent Long Island Swim Coaches Association Pentathlon, taking first place and scoring 300 points more than the second place team. Mr. Wolfson commented that he was impressed by the atmosphere throughout the district having attended several Open House events and the guidance meetings at the junior and senior high schools. He was joined by Mr. Bennett in commending district administrators and staff members.

The first item in the action section as the designation of the voting delegate to the New York State School Boards Association Convention to be held this weekend in Niagara Falls. The Board designated Mr. Wolfson as the voting delegate and named Mr. Schwartz as the alternate.

The resolution opposing the loss of state and local tax deductions was brought before the Board for a third time due to a tie vote at the last two meetings. The original resolution explained the impact of the loss of deductibility and stated that although the Board favored tax code simplification, it opposed the loss of deductibility and urged that members of Congress representing the district also oppose the elimination. An amended resolution was passed which commended President Reagan for his tax reform initiatives and stated that the Board takes exception to the provision regarding deductibility in the tax proposal.

The Board passed a resolution authorizing the district to participate in a cooperative bid for IBM computers and related programs. This was an extension of the program first implemented during the 1984-85 school year through which the district realized savings of approximately 30% of the cost of items purchased.

Curriculum revisions presented at the Curriculum Committee meeting of October 2 were approved by the Board. These changes include the restoring of tenth grade honors level English and social studies courses, the introduction of an eighth grade conversational Spanish course, and two new courses in the senior high physical education department—a leadership program and a sports medicine program. Courses in technology and home careers at the junior high will replace industrial arts and home economics.

The position of Supervisor of Enrichment Education was established to coordinate all programs K-12 offering enrichment to gifted and talented students. These would include the classroom activities at the elementary level, the ninth period program at the junior high and the several programs at the high school.

The Board then dealt with matters of finance, accepting the independent auditing report for 1984-85 and transfers and warrants from the period beginning September 5 and ending October 9, 1985. Bids were awarded for asphalt paving ($7,488.00), magazines and periodicals ($6009.23), and transportation ($12,960.00) for a total of $26,457.23.

In further actions, the Board approved the job description for Teacher Aide, the revised listing of members for the Committee on the Handicapped, and the recommendations of the Committee on the Handicapped generated at the meetings of September 20, October 2, and October 9.

The Superintendent reported that the Chamber of Commerce is distributing pamphlets urging community residents to help in cleaning up and beautifying Hicksville. Dr. Fenton signed a pledge on behalf of the district promising to assist in this worthy effort. Dr. Fenton announced that for the second year in a row, the literary magazine published by the Hicksville Junior High School, "Sights and Sounds,"

Ms. Yannone has recently appeared in her first dramatic role as "Miss Caswell" in Agatha Christie's play, "The Mousetrap" with the St. Pius Players under the direction of Charles M. Dr. Fenton complemented the high school on a very successful Homecoming celebration. Excellent supervision of all the activities resulted in a safe, efficient, and enjoyable event.

Dr. Fenton concluded her report with an explanation of the management letter received by the Board from the district's auditors. In addition to examining the financial records for the report to Albany, they conducted a critique of the function of the Business Office during the 1984-85 school year. Comments by the auditors and recommendations made by Mr. Hall have resulted in changes in the operation to create a better check and balance system. The positions of Treasurer and Internal Auditor were created to implement these changes.
