Elks Club Honors Firefighters

The Hicksville Elks Club held its annual salute to firefighters on October 29th 1985. Six Hicksville firefighters were honored for their efforts at a rescue all in January of 1984 at the Hicksville Railroad Station platform. Upon arrival, the members found a woman in cardiac arrest. The crew administered aid and through their special knowledge revived the patient. However, word was received a month later that the patient passed away. The family expressed appreciation for the extra time they had to be with their mother.

and that she passed on surrounded by family rather than all alone on the snow covered platform.

The awards program was organized and carried out by Elks John Mulligan, Lenny Provanzo, Daniel Seip, Exalted Ruler Murry Appel. Mr. Appel, in his address to those present including Elks members, police officers and firefighters and family & friends, he noted the similarities between Elks members and the firefighters. — Both groups are volunteers and serve to help people.

Mr. Bennett offered thanks to district administrators whose efforts contributed to the programs mentioned in the award with particular thanks to Mr. Hall and Mr. Becker. Hicksville Chamber Salutes Sieg Widder

On Tuesday, Nov. 19 at Milleridge Inn, a well-attended luncheon meeting of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce was filled with accolades, festivities, discussing of future plans and activities relating to both the organization and the town it serves.

Guest speaker was Hicksville Postmaster Roger Niensbor, who spoke of plans for a new, full-service building contemplated by the post office administrators, due to the complete inadequacy of parking for postal services at the old post office. Mr. Niensbor also explained a longer zip code and its purposes for the heavy first-class mailer. A question

By Artie Rutz

Arline Howard and myself were fortunate enough to be in on the very first "HONOR A VETERAN" night which was staged by Ruth Silverman's 6th Grade class at Burns Avenue School. This was a wonderfully refreshing affair because for the first time here was a thought that was thanking the veteran for service to our country that did not come from a veterans' organization. Arline and I served as surrogate veterans for two students who had no veterans in their families.... That's how we became involved in, and imbued with, the class that evening...And the class worked hard and with enthusiasm if one can judge by the efforts put forth in the designing and making of the boutiniers which each veteran received upon arrival...Then there were the posters proclaiming the event of the evening and the display of all the memorabilia collected for the occasion by the students....It was called a "pot luck supper" but the food was great and after everyone had digested their share veterans were seated at the front of the cafeteria and in turn each student and veteran appeared on the small stage...Each student read their veteran's record and experiences aloud and at each conclusion would turn and shake the veteran's hand and say, "I am proud and happy to have you as my father (or whomever) and I thank you for serving our country....It was an evening where memories were awakened anew by the reading of each veteran's record, the branch of service and the many varied military occupations...Yes, indeed...Teacher Ruth Silverman should be highly commended for this exposure of veterans in a new and true light.... My personal feelings are that next year each 6th grade class in all Hicksville schools will conduct this program as part of their year's curriculum....It was an educational evening for ran alike and there should be more of them....The attendance at Hicksville's Veterans' Day service this year should have a significant increase by both the organizations and audience present.

On Veterans' Day I attended a luncheon in honor of the Nassau County American Legion in a private dining room at the Hofstra University student center by President James M. Shuart...Past Commander John Rizos will agree with me that the food was great and President Shuart really laid it on the line with his low key speech about the Legion's memorial library at Hofstra...I couldn't help but think of the very first of these annual Veterans' Day luncheons which was given the then president, Dr. Cranford Adams....There we were, about 20 of us interested Legionnaires, balancing a plate of food on the lap as Dr. Adams spoke....To me, he was the most fascinating speaker I ever heard....And I listened intently, and eating on....Again the same thing the following year....At the conclusion of the third year's speech by Dr. Adams I inquired as to what I had been eating each of these three years because my entire attention, including my taste buds, were focused on the good Dr....The answer came back "creamed salmon" and I almost flipped...I HATE fish....The library has come a long way since then, the times when founder Jim McClean hawked, promoted and pushed for any dollar for his library....Today, unpurchasable books are being donated in recognition of the #1 status his library now holds in the field of Long Island and New York State history. If you know of anyone who is looking for a hall for New Year's Eve please tell them that we have 2 halls available for booking and to call me at 935-1860....Hey, and you know what else??? I have tickets for the SUPERBOWL SUNDAY the Past Commanders Club is staging at the Post on January 26, 1986 and is a great bargain at only $10 each....Come see the game on the super large screen we have every year, enjoy the hot roast beef and cold beer plus the snacks and hot dogs.

On stage at the Burns Avenue School "Honor The Veteran" night were 6th grade student Rosirma Calderon and Commander Arthur Rutz.

Lee Ave. News

The boys and girls of Mr. Donohue's 6th grade class, at Lee Ave., have adopted the sailors of the U.S.S. Fox, currently serving in the Indian Ocean, as pen pals. A steady flow of mail has been coming and going from room 148, since school began in September. The class follows the travels of the U.S.S. Fox as it makes port calls in the various cities in the region. This marks the third year in which Mr. Donohue's class has been involved with the U.S. Navy serving abroad. Past adoptees have been the U.S.S. Peterson and the U.S.S. LaSalle which served in the Persian Gulf.

On Nov. 14 the 6th grade students at Lee Ave. School held their first pretzel sale. The proceeds from this sale help the children delay the cost of the year books.

HHS Report Cards Mailed

Parents of Hicksville High School students should be aware that report cards were mailed home this week from the school.

The Rev. Sean McMahon, a participant in the subject of the documentary, is shown here as he bids farewell to children from Belfast at New York's JFK Airport. The boys were part of a group of over 500 Catholic and Protestant youngsters who spent this summer with families in the Metropolitan area.

Project Children of the Gaelic Cultural Society has been providing the six-week vacations for the children of war-torn Northern Ireland since 1975.

Hicksville Area Telephone Customers Can Select A Long Distance Company

New York Telephone is asking Hicksville-area telephone customers to select a long distance company by marking on a ballot the company they want to use and mailing it to the telephone company.

Based on a recent federal government order, customers, in certain areas who do not choose a participating long distance company will have one assigned to them during upcoming months. A selection should be made if customers wish to stay with the long distance company they now use or change to a different one.

New York Telephone will convert equipment at its Hicksville switching office to "equal access" on February 8, 1986. After the conversion, customers whose telephone numbers begin with 931, 933, 934, 935, 937 and 939 will have the opportunity to use the long distance company they have pre-selected without having to dial extra digits for codes and personal identification numbers. They simply dial the area code and telephone number of whoever they want to reach.

Nine long distance companies are participating in the carrier-selection process in Hicksville: SBS Skyline, U.S. Telecom, AT&T, ITT, TDS Systems Inc., Western Union, RCI Corp., GTE Sprint, MCI.

On November 8, New York Telephone mailed long distance company selection ballots and brochures on equal access to more than 17,000 Hicksville-area customers. The selection process for the Hicksville central office conversion will follow this schedule:

- Nov. 8: First ballots mailed during this week.
 - Dec. 8: Deadline for returning first ballot to New York Telephone.
 - Feb. 8: Hicksville switching office is converted to equal access. Customers who returned ballots are connected to the long distance company they selected.
 - March 24: A second ballot is mailed to customers who did not select a carrier. This ballot will name the Long distance company a customer will be assigned to if a selection is not made.
 - April 8: Deadline for returning second ballot to New York Telephone.
 - April 23: Customers who have not made a selection will be connected to the carrier indicated on the second ballot.
- Non-choosing customers in Hicksville will be allocated to long distance companies based on the percentage of customers in the community who selected the various participating carriers.

Eighth Precinct Police Report

By PO Kenneth A. Box

Lawrence Kilbride, 34 yrs. of 99 Loring Road, Levittown, was arrested in Hicksville 10 minutes after he had allegedly robbed the Northstar Bank located at 3240 Hempstead Turnpike, Levittown, of $2986.

Kilbride reportedly entered the bank at 12:40 P.M. where he approached teller Cynthia Prizza of Bethpage and demanded all her large bills. After he was given the money, he exited the bank, crossed the street, and got into a cab, telling the driver to take him to the Hicksville Railroad Station, Bank Manager Frank LaBorne notified Police, and a notification was broadcast for the car and suspect.

Police Officer Ronnie Harris of the Eighth Precinct observed the cab on Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville, where after pulling it over, he took Kilbride into custody with the assistance of P.O. Nick Ewen and AMT James Kelly. A full recovery of the stolen money was made. The defendant was arraigned on the charge of Robbery 3rd Degree at Fire District Court, Mincola.

Assorted jewelry was reported stolen from a house on Grohman's Lane, Plainview, between Nov. 9th and 11th. Entry was made through a pried open front door.

$500 in cash, assorted jewelry and a .38 cal. Browning Automatic were reported stolen from a house on Basket Lane, Hicksville on Nov. 13. Burglars entered through a rear window which was open.

7th Annual Pancake Breakfast

The Hickville Lions Club is having it's annual pancake breakfast on Sunday, December 1st 1985 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. Come and enjoy all the hotcakes, sausage, coffee and juice you can eat and drink. The atmosphere is friendly and the price is right! The cost for adults is $3.00 and children are $2.00. The lions use these proceeds for the numerous charities they support so that in addition to good food, it is for a worthy cause.

There will be free hypertension, glaucoma, chiropractic, and diabetes screening.

This hearty breakfast will be served at: Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, 130 Jerusalem Avenue, Hickville N.Y. (the northwest corner of Old Country Road and Jerusalem Ave.)

Please come! The Hickville Lions look forward to seeing you the morning of December 1, 1985.

Customers allocated to a long distance company will be able to make one change, free of charge, until 180 days after hook-up to the assigned company. A $5 charge will apply for changes made after the grace period.

Customers who have made one choice and now want to change carriers, can do so at no charge until April 23. A $5 charge applies after that date.

Customers can still call long distance companies directly to place their orders if they choose to. Questions about the ballot or how to make a long distance company selection will be answered weekdays 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. by New York Telephone representatives at the toll-free number 1-800-555-5000.

New York Telephone will continue to provide service to Hicksville customers for local calls and calls made within the company's Metropolitan New York regional calling area, which includes Long Island, New York City and the counties of Westchester, Rockland, Putnam, the southern portion of Orange County and a sliver of Connecticut.

Equal access long distance service is required by the federal court decision that separated New York Telephone and other former Bell System telephone companies from AT&T. The service is made possible locally by programming advanced electronic switching equipment at New York Telephone's computer-controlled switching office in Hicksville.

About half of New York Telephone's lines statewide will be converted to equal access by September 1986. Most customers served by electronic switching systems will have equal access available to them. After 1986, the remaining electro-mechanical central offices will be gradually converted to equal access on an ongoing, but long-term basis as electronic switching systems replace existing equipment.

Thanksgiving Greetings

By TOB Supervisor Joseph Colby

Well, another holiday season is almost upon us, those of us who have begun to count grey hairs are often accused of being overly sentimental as the holiday season approaches, but there is good reason to be so inclined. Family gatherings, reunions with greetings from old friends, all add to the air of reflectiveness and thankfulness which are part and parcel of the mood of the season.

We have a great deal to be thankful for. As I read the papers and listen to reports of human tragedy around the world. I know we have much to be thankful for, earthquakes, famines, war, erupting volcanos, causing untold loss of life and human suffering, gives me pause - and you too, I'm sure - to consider just how fortunate we are indeed.

One of the things I'm most thankful for is the quality of concern exemplified by residents in our Oyster Bay communities in response to those less fortunate than ourselves.

Not a day goes by that I am not made aware of a genuine outpouring of concern for the needs and suffering of others. I know of a north shore village where community response to a family whose home was totally destroyed by fire was immediate and so overwhelming, that food, clothing furniture and funds were donated literally overnight.

I know of schools and community organizations who join together nearly every week to collect food, clothing, or funds to help individuals, families and countries whose needs are so much greater than their own. During Hurricane Gloria, instances abound of neighbor helping neighbor; concern shown for the safety and welfare of handicapped residents living alone, assistance given to families with babies and ound children and smiles and hot coffee offered to clean-up crews at their jobs.

Yes, I get sentimental during the holiday season. I have good reason to be.

I'm thankful and I'm proud to know that in Oyster Bay, in times of need, there will always be somebody standing ready to offer help. Thank you, all of you. Happy Thanksgiving.

A Tribute To A Friend

Anyone who stops by the famous Hicksville Sweet Shop, one of our "landmarks" at late lunchtime, is sure to have met or seen "Mike" — a daily customer, who brightened everyone's day. Mike worked at McElreavy & Hauck, another Hicksville establishment, and he knew many people in town.

Mike died suddenly and without warning, of a heart attack on the evening of November 14. We had laughed together that very afternoon.

His ready wit, kind heart, and affable ways will be sorely missed by those who were fortunate enough to know him. His scraggly moustache and unkempt hair — almost always wearing non-descript work clothes were a camouflage for the beautiful person he was inside.

My own thoughts are best expressed in a few lines of prose I have written, and dedicate to his memory. I believe they express the feelings of all those who knew him and now grieve his passing.

BRIEF BEAUTIFUL ENCOUNTER

Almost every day — for one brief hour
We would meet, and share a portion of our time.
It never really began — and never ended,
This lovely friendship — this nurturing of kindred spirits.

To sit and share laughter... and kindness.
Understanding. Exploring lives unknown;
Worlds apart, and yet together for those times
Shorn of outward signs, ignorant of either mink or rumpled jeans.

The common meeting ground: to talk, to listen.
To laugh and cry and tease... and wait
For empty seats beside us to be filled;
To bring a joyous respite to our tensioned days.

How can we accept again the cleavage
This is thrust on us by death? To lose
Another who had come to fill a portion of our lives.
Who again can fill the empty seat?

Surprise at Fork Lane

By A. Eichenauer.

Mrs. Evelyn Grib's third grade class gave her a surprise birthday party on November 13th. The children in her class came up with the idea and got the permission from Mrs. Carol Bentsen, the schools principal to do this.

Mrs. Bentsen helped the children get the room ready for the surprise by calling Mrs. Grib into her office for a short conference.

Once the room was ready with the Happy Birthday sign's in place, all the children hid in the back of the room out of sight. When Mrs. Grib entered the room and turned on the lights, the children jumped out shouting surprise. Mrs. Grib was very surprised. She was escorted by her students to a table where a scrumptious birthday cake was placed along with a very large birthday card and two plipped in to buy for her.

Mrs. Grib thanked all the children for their thoughtfulness and said, the last time her class gave her a surprise party was 15 years ago.

When the children first came up with the idea for this party, a class mother asked how old Mrs. Grib would be, she was told by one student that this was her 16th birthday and another said no she'll be 21. Well we don't know how old Mrs. Grib really is and it doesn't matter at all.

Mrs. Grib, I would consider you a very lucky teacher, after talking to your students I've come to the conclusion that they really do love you and think you are the BEST teacher in all of Fork Lane.

Mrs. Grib with her 3rd grade class, (l to r) Vincent DePaoli, Scott Schubert, Jonathan Schwartz, Timothy Elorriaga, Brian Zelders, Lynn Romano, Kim Speigle, Mrs. Grib, Bryon Ferrer, Jennifer Eichenauer, Keith Carpenter, Michael McIerney and Merry Senn.

The cake was made by Madeline Senn and the large birthday card by Annette Eichenauer both class mothers.

Hicksville Bests Smithtown In 3-1 Soccer Game

By A. Blicker

In a tightly contested battle, played in the freezing rain at Smithtown, the Hicksville Shamrocks 1974 traveling soccer team, beat their hosts 3-1, after a season punctuated by numerous tied games. The first half was a lesson in defensive soccer at its best, ending in a 0-0 tie, which featured the outstanding goalkeeping of Eddie Jacobsen and the strong play of Eric Blicker, Brian Harkins and Chuck Oliver.

The Shamrocks opened the second half scoring on a beautiful cross from the right corner by wing, Chris Doyle, to wing, Jared Jacobs, who put in the goal. Smithtown came back with a tying goal off a corner kick. The Shamrocks went right back down the field, led by a brilliant juggling act by Eddie Jacobsen, who moved to the striker position, which allowed him to keep possession while wing Chris Doyle got free for the pass which led to a line drive, go-ahead goal. The Smithtown Tornadoes put tremendous pressure on the Hicksville team but Brian Pine, who was outstanding in goal, repelled almost every attack that came his way.

Matthew Pordum was virtually unstoppable at stopper, breaking up many Tornado plays, pushing the ball back upfield. Joe Flanagan displayed great agility and soccer savvy at half-back. Gregg Furst was at his offensive and defensive best at left half. Ted Knoop, who has been on a "roll" from right wing, saw his strong efforts pay off when he scored the game clincher, off a beautiful lead pass from fullback Blicker, which Knoop took in and then put past the opposition's goalie.

Brian Pine had an effective first half at striker and half-back prior to switching to goal. Jason Kingsley made his presence felt at stopper, half and striker. Domenick Perillo was effective at striker. Congratulations to coaches Patrick and Denise Harkins who, with assorted parents and team members, left the field a bit drenched and shivering but proud of the Shamrocks best game to date. On to the seasons finale this weekend!

Hicksville Residents Invited To Join In School Budget Program

The Board of Education's Finance Committee is embarking on preparations for the 1986-87 school budget, and Board President William P. Bennett has issued an invitation to community residents to join in the work of the committee. "This is an area where the parents and taxpayers of the community can apply direct input to the financial destiny of the school district for the coming year," Mr. Bennett noted. The work of the Finance Committee is detailed and intense, and committee members will be reviewing and evaluating input from the Business Office and the various departments and school buildings.

"This is a challenge for Hicksville residents to see how the district works to meet the educational needs of the children in our care," Mr. Bennett stated. "We are talking about a $40 million enterprise. This should engage the interest of our community residents for their participation in an educational experience for committee members which will benefit the taxpayers and parents of Hicksville."

The Finance Committee is chaired by Thomas F. Nagle, the senior member of the Board who is extremely knowledgeable about district finances, andurence A. Moor, who also has a background in finance. Mr. Nagle and Mr. Moor will represent the Board during the preliminary stages prior to full review and adoption of the budget.

Interested residents are invited to attend meetings of the committee scheduled for December 11 and January 22 at 8:15 pm in the Board's conference room in the Administration Building.

"Under the terms of the New York State Open Meeting Law, school boards must accomplish their business in public, and it is important that our residents participate in the process," said Mr. Bennett. "We hope that many Hicksville citizens will make an effort to join the Finance Committee and other Board committees as well." Residents are asked to consult the district calendar for the meeting dates of the Curriculum, Policy, Legislative, and District Facilities/Community Affairs Committees.

Suburban Art League Demonstration

On Tuesday, December 3, at 8 P.M. the Suburban Art League will offer a demonstration by Gail Opp in the ancient art of SUMI E, Japanese ink painting. The presentation will be held at the Syosset. Visitors are welcome. Admission is free.

Gail Opp has won prizes here and in Japan for her Japanese brush paintings. She conducts demonstrations, workshops, seminars and lectures on Long Island in addition to teaching SUMI E at Clark Gardens.

Albertson, a branch of the Brooklyn Botanic Garden. Gail studied with master teacher Takahiko Mikami who is a renowned artist, author and TV personality. In 1962 she received her art name from him: Taka Iku. Gail is a member of IACE, International Association of Cultural Exchange, SSAA, South Shore Arts Association, Japan-America Women's, Japan Society, Sumi-E East and the Sumi-E Society of America.

painting on silk or rice paper, traces its roots to ancient Chinese calligraphy and 13th century Zen philosophy. It is a paradoxical art: delicate but powerful, tranquil but charged with emotion, free and spontaneous in appearance yet requiring intense inner discipline and training to render properly. Lovely ink and color wash paintings can also be created using SUMI-E techniques. Subject matter includes figure, landscape and "Bud and Flower" themes.

WHAT'S IN STYLE?

What are buyers buying these days? You may be surprised to discover that log houses are coming back. In 1983 between 20,000 and 30,000 of these structures were built, and some manufacturers believe output will increase 10 times by 1990, so that 10 percent of all new houses built will be of logs.

Ranch houses, split levels, even the old-fashioned Colonial home had a heyday. Truth is, they all sell. Any house that looks as if it will hold a family comfortably has got a ready buyer if it's priced right and sold right.

That's where we come in. We've got the real estate marketing experience to know where to set a realistic selling price, how to write the ad that will attract prospective buyers, how to qualify the buyers who are right for a particular piece of property—and then lead them to buy.

The process isn't as easy as we make it look. That's why 9 out of 10 homeowners who try to sell their homes themselves give up and call in an expert.

Save yourself the hassle. Call in an expert now. List with:

Hicksville Tornados BU-13B

Coaches Len Greenspan & Joe Matz

By L. G. & J. M.

The last game of the season saw the Hicksville Tornados score a come from behind victory to beat the tough Brentwood Arrows by a score of 4-3.

In an excellently played game by both teams, the Tornados were in a must win situation. A win by the Tornados would force the first place M.A.C. Titans to also win, or they would lose first place and the division title to the Tornados.

The first half ended with the Tornados leading by a score of 2-1. Both goals being scored by Jason Kilmets with assists going to John Lozina and Mike Kent.

The second half continued at a fast pace with a strong Brentwood offense putting in two more goals to take a 3-2 lead. At this point Matt Greenspan went into goal for Drew Turano, who played super making numerous saves despite strong gusty winds.

Tornadoe character now rose to the occasion, and their never say quit attitude was not going to be denied. With approximately three minutes left in the game, center forward Jason Kilmets playing with determination, positioned himself perfectly in order to ultimately score the tying goal, and with under a minute left score the winning goal. Assisting on the goals were Drew Turano, Jarret Roth, Barry Mannion and Erik Matz.

A super defense was led by Erik Matz, Timmy Carroll, Walter Villalta, Paul Villalta and stopper Timmy Blind, who continually repelled a physical Brentwood offense. Halfbacks Bobby Perks, Tony Oliva, Barry Mannion, Rey Rojas and Jarret Roth were outstanding in controlling mid-field play and contributing in each scoring opportunity.

Goalie Matt Greenspan continued his sensational goaltending by shutting out the Arrows for the remainder of the game. Both goalies Matt Greenspan and Drew Turano provided the Tornados with some of the best goaltending seen the entire season.

The Tornados should be very proud of their second place finish with a record of 7 wins, 2 losses. Tie and having scored 43 goals on their opponents. I'm especially proud of their continuing efforts to improve, learn and show that sportsmanship is alive and well in Hicksville.

A speedy recovery to Mike McCarron, we missed you.

Good luck and success in your upcoming season, and have a happy holiday..

“An open letter who work at Chase people who bank

If you take the trouble to ask around, I think you'll find most customers these days feel banks really don't care about their problems. That banks can't be bothered with their needs. And that customers are the least likely to benefit from all the resources banks boast about in their advertisements.

Which is all the more maddening when you consider people's banking needs have grown much more sophisticated and complex than ever before.

It wasn't too long ago when our customers could say they had a friend at Chase: somebody who took the time to understand the individual needs of customers sufficiently to guide them through whatever situations they had with the best financial tools the bank had to offer.

And, of all the banks in the city, no one epitomized that ideal better than we did.

Today, I'm not so sure people feel they have a friend at any bank.

That's why, at Chase, we have been making an extra effort to tackle this problem head-on.

With a renewed commitment to the kind of basic human values customers have traditionally expected from us. Things like understanding, individual attention, and courtesy.

To realize that goal, we've been training the finest banking team in the business. And recruiting more men and women like you,

New training programs are helping to make you better bankers for your customers, and are giving you greater potential to explore further opportunities at Chase as well.

What's more, we're backing you with the latest in product innovations and technology. We offer thousands of automatic teller machines nationwide. The best home banking service in the country. New high-yielding IRA and Keogh investments. And advanced branch automation systems to speed up customer service.

But all the innovation and technology in the world means nothing unless it's backed up by responsive, caring people like you.

We've come a long way. And we still have further to go.

But soon there will come a day when consumers will say one bank clearly stands above the rest.

And you'll be the people who put us there.

Low Cost Power Contracts Signed

On Nov. 14, as part of the overall efforts of Nassau County Executive Francis T. Purcell and Suffolk County Executive Peter F. Cohalan to stabilize electric rates on Long Island, Chief Deputy County Executives Henry Dwyer of Nassau, and John Gallagher of Suffolk, signed contracts that will bring low cost hydroelectric and nuclear power to the bi-county region.

The contracts, entered into by the Nassau County Public Utility Agency and the Suffolk County Electrical Agency, along with the Long Island Lighting Company and the New York State Power Authority, mean that low cost hydropower, which could become available as early as next week, will be provided to residential customers and industrial economic development consumers. Industrial economic consumers are defined as those firms creating new business or expanding existing enterprises on Long Island.

The agreement with the New York State Power Authority calls for the purchase of hydropower and nuclear power by both county agencies. The power will be distributed on a fifty-fifty basis between the two counties since each has approximately the same number of residential customers.

Under the terms of the contract with LILCO, the electrical agencies are leasing an interest in the lighting company's distribution network as a means of providing low cost power to consumers in Nassau and Suffolk. The exact amount and cost of the power will be determined between the New York State Power Authority and the two county agencies.

Through the agreements, both interruptible power and firm power will be provided to Long Island. Firm power is guaranteed power and will continually be available. Interruptible power will be provided when upstate generating capacities exceed upstate power needs.

Commenting on the contracts, County Executives Purcell and Cohalan said,

LOW COST POWER TO LONG ISLAND . . . Signing the contracts that will bring low cost hydroelectric and nuclear power to the bi-county region are, left to right, Chief Deputy Nassau County Executive Henry Dwyer; Adam Madsen, vice president for Corporate Planning for LILCO; and Suffolk's Deputy County Executive, John Gallagher. —

"While the amount of power being brought in through these contracts is not all we had hoped for, it is a start. We will continue to seek additional hydropower and the construction of the Marcy Smith transmission line to prevent Long Islanders from suffering from economic consequences associated with rate shock."

"Lilco is pleased that it can help pass along these savings directly to consumers," said Adam Madsen, vice president corporate planning, who signed the contracts for the company.

"The N.Y.P.A. power also will enable Long Islanders to continue to attract new industry and new jobs to the area."

Area Survey

Local representatives of the U.S. Census Bureau will revisit selected area households beginning December 2 to conduct its Survey of Income and Program Participation (SIPP). William F. Hill, Director of the bureau's New York City Regional Office, announced today.

SIPP is a major nationwide continuing survey introduced in the fall of 1983. It began with 20,000 households, now includes about 38,000, and will be among the nation's largest when its goal of about 55,000 households is reached in April 1986.

The Census Bureau publishes the periodic reports providing information from the survey.

FOR THE EIGHT CONSECUTIVE YEAR Assemblyman Fred Parola completed his walk through the 14th Assembly District to discuss local and state concerns with constituents.

He is pictured at the home of Ed and Edna Bacon of Michigan Drive, Hicksville. Their home was calculated to be the 247,001th residence the Assemblyman and his volunteers have visited since 1978!

The Assemblyman walks each year to personally share views and learn from his neighbors and constituents. He believes that walking demonstrates his availability to residents in the district.

The main concern voiced this year were: property taxes, LILCO rates, quality of education, illegal housing uses, and zoning matters, water and air quality, resource recovery (garbage disposal) and crime.

Shepherd Hill Seniors

Our Shepherd Hill Seniors Annual Country Fair, held on Saturday, October 19, 1985, was an enormous success. The attractive and beautiful hand-made crafts; sewed, crocheted, knitted; the savory and delicious home-baked cakes and cookies; the exquisite home-grown plants, the jewelry, the clothes (both new and old) sold so quickly, we sales seniors were thrilled.

It is incredible the amount of work our Shepherd Hill Seniors accomplished. They are indeed multi-talented.

The women as crafts people, salesgirls, helpers, etc., dedicated themselves as usual to make this our best fair ever; they worked endlessly. We, however, do not forget our Shepherd Hill Senior men. What wondrous people they are. Ask for volunteers and they rise as a group. Our men are all fabulous and admirable. Of course a few are set apart, they devote themselves completely to the task at hand. We are in particular referring to Arnold Piellucci, our head Committee Man, Al Ciappa, Eugene Vecchio, Mike Romano, Gus Harrison, Jim Mato-rajo, Carl Diaz and numerous others. Awe-inspiring and prodigious men. Our deep and sincere thanks to all our seniors.

We wish also to thank all the generous merchants and other contributors who helped make the fair a success.

We had a delightful Halloween Party. All costumed seniors were indeed impressive and all received token prizes. We had a great time.

Looking forward to our Thanksgiving Luncheon at the center, Thursday, November 21. Food, music and dear, good friends together.

Then comes our fabulous Holiday Party at Huntington Town House. Tell you all about both affairs in January.

NFW: "Our Senior of Today" recipient (picked by the Publicity Dept.) is Vivian Callaci. Every so often you meet a delightful person, who makes you smile, is self-effacing, amusing, charming, entertaining and all-around good person. Thank you Vivian for making life more cheerful and enjoyable. Congratulations!

Santa's all ready... But instead of his sled he's taking off in Gary Pettit's 1923 T-Bucket Street Rod, one of the many Holiday Decorated Custom and Collectible Show Cars on Display at Long Island Cars Annual Nanan Coliseum Christmas Car Show and Swap Meet on December 6, 7 and 8th.

School Board Meeting

his work in the area of long-range planning. Following committee reports, fiscal matters led the action section of the agenda. The Board accepted warrant and transfer reports, the first quarterly report, and the cash flow report. Filiceen Canner was designated petty cash treasurer at East Street School and Mary Lou Cassidy was assigned those duties at Old Country Road.

Bids were awarded for audiovisual equipment ($17,103.27), industrial arts woodworking supplies ($9,034.78) and general shop supplies ($6,455.08), and audiovisual supplies ($7,239.35) for a total of $39,832.48.

The Board took action to approve recommendations from the Committee on the Handicapped generated at the meetings of October 23 and November 6.

The Comprehensive Assessment Report was the subject of the Superintendent's Report to the Board and the public, and Dr. Fenton asked Dr. Conillard, as Assistant Superintendent for Educational Services, to discuss the many aspects of the report and note corrections in the figures provided by the state. He presented the report in both statistical and graphic form which showed the very positive state of academic health throughout the district and he praised building principals for the educational leadership they exhibited as demonstrated by the test results. Each of the ten buildings noting particular programs or area of interest. Under new state mandates, the results of testing and other statistical information must be shared with the Board and the public by building so that progress and improvement can be monitored on that level.

Following the principals' presentations, Dr. Fenton recommended Board approval of several curriculum projects completed during the summer. Elementary interdisciplinary projects include Animals (grade 4), Immigration (grade 5), and Cities (grade 6). Gifted and talented curricula are It's the Law and That's Entertainment. Junior High level gifted and talented curricula include Images, Competition, Forms, and Time. These curriculum projects were presented as informational items and will be brought before the Board for formal approval at the next meeting.

Policies on the guidance program and on cocurricular and extracurricular programs were presented for information, and they will be returned to the Board table for hearing and adoption at subsequent meetings. The Board then instructed the Superintendent to distribute regulations regarding school observance of religious holidays to be used as guidelines for procedures during the coming holiday season.

A number of policies were presented for hearing. The subjects of these policies are student transportation; regulations for measuring distance; student transportation outside the district; summer student transportation outside the district; summer student transportation services; school bus equipment; student conduct on school buses; school bus assignments; school bus accidents; student rights and responsibilities; and removal, suspension and expulsion. These policies as modified or revised after hearing and discussion will be returned to the Board for adoption at the next meeting.

The Board accepted two resignations of members of the professional staff. School psychologist Richard Weiner will be moving to another state and SHS social studies teacher Gerald Schlapp will be retiring after 27 years of service to the district.

The Board also approved schedules of elementary intramural advisors and winter interscholastic athletic assignments.

Helen Murray was appointed senior typist clerk and Nancy DeBernardo was appointed stenographer in the Office of Special Education and Pupil Personnel Services. Janet Catalano received an appointment as senior clerk in the Transportation and Registration Office.

Other non-instructional appointments included school monitors Phyllis Bacchi and Mary Salvemini (Fork Lane) and Doris Webster (Lee Avenue); teacher aide Elizabeth

The children of Mrs. Voorhies 3rd grade class at East St. decorated the All-Purpose Room with a scene commemorating the First Thanksgiving. The children made the characters (Pilgrims and Indians) and the mural under the direction of East St's Art Teacher, Mrs. Phoebe Witte. The children's keen sense of detail made the scene the focal point of the All-Purpose Room. All the children of the school enjoyed seeing it and marveled at its "dollhouse" like quality.

Selective Service Nonregistrants Denied Appointment To Federal Employment

Under a new law signed by President Reagan, appointment to Federal jobs will be denied to men who have not registered with Selective Service. The new law, effective immediately, applies to students seeking temporary summer employment with a Federal agency or department.

Commenting on this new requirement, Selective Service Director, Thomas K. Turnage stated, "I am pleased and very reassured by the continuing Congressional support of the registration requirement. Not only does this law encourage compliance with the law among eligible young men, it also increases public awareness of the requirement. As always, our primary intent is to register men not prosecute them."

Offered by Senator Strom Thurmond (R-SC), and known as the Thurmond Amendment to the Defense Authorization Bill, the amendment was cosponsored by Senators Mattingly, Nickles, Denton, East, Gramm, Helms, Humphrey, Warner, Johnson, Wilson, Hollings, Symms and Murkowski. Rep. Sonny Montgomery (D-MS) had introduced similar language in the House of Representatives.

Men of registration age must be registered to receive Federal student aid and job training benefits. Additionally, registration is a requirement in some states for various employment opportunities, such as law enforcement agencies and permission to practice law.

Men born in 1960 and later years are required to register with Selective Service within 30 days of their 18th birthday. Registration takes only five minutes at any post office. Failure to register is a felony, punishable by a fine of up to $250,000 and/or up to 5 years imprisonment.

Wannen (Burns Avenue); and curricular materials aides Nancy Haines (Dutch Lane) and Julie Ample (JHS). Buildings and Grounds Department appointments were Michael Murphy, Brian Lowery, Douglas Nassisi, Randolph Prescott, Thomas Kinsella, and William P. McKee.

The Board also appointed a Board of Registration to serve as election personnel.

The next regular meeting of the Board will be held on Wednesday, December 18, at 8:15 pm in the Conference Room of the Administration Building on Division Avenue.

Bad Guys With White Hats

White hats have traditionally been reserved for good guys as they pursued the bad guys have somehow acquired white hats. What gives? Well, we all need to have a white hat in order to get into heaven. Obviously, we are not speaking literally but figuratively. We not only have to be good but perfect in order to make everlasting life. But nobody is perfect, maybe some of us come a little closer to the mark than others, but no one is perfect. Since we can't be good guys with white hats and a white hat, our symbol of goodness and perfection, is needed for salvation, God has given each of us bad guys the gift of a white hat. We are then, bad guys with white hats as the title suggests.

Through our faith in Jesus Christ we have received grace - God's riches at Christ's expense. Faith in Jesus Christ removes the sin from our soul, it cures our illness, and promises us an eternal life with God. We receive our white hats, not because we deserve them but because God is so loving and kind.

The church is the place where God dispenses his healing and his hats. Martin Luther did not believe one could be saved apart from an active participation in Christ's church. For in the church we meet the Lord and healing as we listen to the Word of God and receive his Sacraments. If believing means to have Christ present within us, then, Luther argues, faith cannot be isolated from worship, for the church service is the place where Christ meets us through the Word and Sacrament. For Luther, being absent from the Lord's Supper when it was offered was to despise the gift of Christ.

Our spiritual growth and health depends on spiritual practice. The person who turns away from God and the church, usually does so by a gradual process. Although the church they have been actively attending has always had faults, they will now zero in on one or more and let them become their excuse for not attending. They will begin coming less frequently and before long will become quite content in not coming at all. In nearly every case, they will not seek out another congregation which has not offended their sensitivities but will deprive themselves of the nurture and forgiveness received through God's Word and Sacrament. Such behavior can lead to spiritual sickness and even spiritual death.

With this message we have seen that the Church is God's institution on earth, however imperfect, where he puts white hats on us bad guys. The church isn't a country club for saints, but a hospital for sinners. We come every week to hear God's Word and receive his Sacrament and to praise and thank Him for His goodness.

County Fuel Programs

County Executive Francis T. Purcell described the county's 1985-86 programs to help low income residents cope with fuel-related heating problems.

The Nassau County Department of Social Services operates a 24-hour, around-the-clock HEAT line to provide information in fuel emergencies. The daytime number is 535-4826. The emergency number for evenings and weekends is 542-3143.

As in past years, County Executive Purcell stressed the importance of calling for information to help resolve an issue, before a problem erupts into a crisis. He urged residents to be aware of fuel conservation measures and to keep a constant check on fuel supplies.

"As we enter the long heating season on Long Island, Nassau County is prepared to respond to low income residents' needs," he said. "The earlier we know about a situation, the easier it is to find the appropriate means to solve the problem."

Nassau County has received its first advance of Federal HEAP (Home Energy Assistance Program) funds for the 1985-86 heating season to help low income persons who meet financial eligibility requirements. Nassau's HEAP allocation for '85-86 is $3.3 million dollars.

The HEAP program is supervised by New York State, but administered at the local level by the Department of Social Services. Non-public assistance families make application at local Unemployment Insurance Benefit offices.

The Department of Senior Citizen Affairs

accepts applications for HEAP from the elderly. Persons 60 years of age or older may call 431-8531 to obtain HEAP applications, which can be mailed to the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs, 167 East Park Avenue, Long Beach, New York 11561.

Last year, the Nassau County Department of Social Services authorized more than $3.3 million dollars through the federal HEAP program to help over 12,000 eligible Nassau households.

Purcell said the fuel assistance programs are primarily geared toward low-income and elderly residents.

A fact sheet describing programs to help resolve fuel-related problems is attached.

Harriet Maher

Joe Jablonsky
Executive Leader

By Jeanette Magnuson

Senator Ralph J. Marino (R, Syosset) is introducing a bill this week to require a test for Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) by each applicant for a marriage license in New York State.

Under the Marino bill, couples wishing to marry would be given a standard serological test (blood Test) or other examination, as the Department of Health may deem necessary, for the discovery of AIDS. Such testing would take place within 30 days of the time of application to a town or city clerk for a valid marriage license. The license would then be issued upon the finding of a physician that each applicant is not infected with AIDS in a communicable stage.

"Up until this year, a blood test was standard procedure as a precondition for issuance of a marriage license in New York State," Marino said. "In 1985, a law was passed to do away with such testing in the belief that venereal diseases could best be discovered by other means.

"Since elimination of blood testing was first proposed, however, we have seen an alarming upsurge in AIDS among heterosexual couples and in the transmission of the disease to infants. Blood tests now appear the best and perhaps the only way to discover the presence of the disease and reinstatement of this requirement would again serve a vitally important public health purpose."

The Marino bill would further require the results of pre-marital AIDS testing to be kept confidential and not open for public inspection, whether the results proved positive or negative. When results are positive, however, a copy of the laboratory report would be transmitted to the appropriate city or county health department or to the district state health officer. Reports would remain confidential unless required by a judge's order as relevant evidence at a trial or other court proceeding.

"The restoration of pre-marital blood testing will give New York State a highly effective means of detecting and curbing the spread of AIDS," Marino concluded. "It is a simple but essential precaution and one we should take without delay."

The month of November has been a very busy one for the Hicksville Republican club. First we had Rally Night where candidates stopped by and joined our covered dish dinner. The next day was election day. Hicksville helped to keep our Republican elected officials in office. On Friday of the same week was our Chinese Auction. There were both new and gently used items up for bid. Plus raffles for items on our special table.

Now we can catch our breath until our Christmas Party on December 13, 1985. Have a good week!

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

PRESIDENT PETE MASIELLO'S MESSAGE:

"Good resolutions are simply checks that men draw on a bank where they have no account." Oscar Wilde

Some dream of a white Christmas, others just dream of Christmas, showing an irrelevancy to elemental factors. Yes, Christmas is Christ's birthday a very special time of the year to be happy, merry and joyous - and to wish all these sentiments to others. Naturally the Galileo Lodge feels the same way, and this is evidenced by its announcement that on Saturday, the 7th of December, it will present its annual Christmas Dance for your edification - the edification of its members, patrons and friends. Tickets sell at $12.50 per person, and in the offering will be a delicious hot dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music for your listening and dancing pleasure. Tony Sica will chair this activity, ably assisted by Armand Del Cioppo and Joe Morace. These committee members will be selling tickets every Monday and Wednesday nights at the Galileo Lodge, or call 931-9351 for more details. A grab bag will be featured as part of the festivities, and gifts must not exceed $3.00 in value. Two loyal and dedicated members of the Galileo Lodge, namely, Joe Giordano and Skip Monteforte, will be honored. Why not make this Christmas Dance a part of your holiday festiities, and I'm sure this is a good way to start the holiday season.

It is often said, well, at least in a religious vein, that it is better to give than to receive. And this is a Christian ideal we all adhere to at the Galileo Lodge. Oh, yes, what a beautiful, selfless and heartwarming feeling one derives from this ethic. So the Galileo Lodge, totally immersed in the true Christmas spirit, has announced that it will hold two Christmas parties, one for the handicapped children of Queens and Long Island and the other one for the children of the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary. The date is Sunday, the 8th of December, with the party for the handicapped children starting in the morning and the other one starting in the afternoon for the children of the membership. Joe Giordano and Skip Monteforte will supervise these two parties, with the whole membership of the Galileo Lodge and Ladies Auxiliary acting as the committee. No activity or event (or events) can replace the human warmth that these two parties offer. It has to be witnessed, and as I have also said, that mere words or adjectives are not adequate enough to describe the joy and happiness that prevail within the confines of the Galileo Lodge on this day.

Something different!
Something exciting! Something entertaining! Oh, yes, I'm writing about the Ladies Auxiliary's presentation of a 'Night at the Races', scheduled for Monday, the 25th of November, at the Roosevelt Raceway. Tickets sell at $18 per person, a very reasonable fee that also offers you a delicious dinner at the Cloud Casino and an extraordinary view of the racetrack itself and the beautiful horses that prance around it. Mary Sarrera (433-6289) will chair this activity, ably assisted by Mary Balestrino (SU 5-1462), both of whom will be selling tickets every Wednesday night at the Galileo Lodge from around 7:00 P.M. or so. Why not take advantage of our Indian Summer weather and get yourself out to the Raceway on Monday, the 25th, and as they say, you'll be glad you did.

You don't have to do a lot to be a good member. Just do a little something. Just give a little of your time and efforts to offer something to the Galileo Lodge. This also can make you a good member. The idea that you're willing to share the burdens and the workload qualifies you as a good member. Every little effort helps, every little bit of loyalty, interest and consideration makes you a man as well as a good member. Your Lodge can only be as good as you are. Only as good as your loyalty and determination.

SNOW CONTROL: Oyster Bay Town Councilman Douglas J. Hynes (left) discusses the Town's snow control plan with Robert Andruzzi, Superintendent of the Highway Division. A discussion of how the Town prepares its men and equipment for a snow emergency is the topic of the next segment of "This is Oyster Bay," which will air on Cablevision Channel 22 on Wednesday, November 27th, at 9:30 PM and on Tuesday, December 10th, at 9:30 PM.
