Elderly Bilked Of Life Savings

Nassau County District Attorney Denis Dillon announced the arrest of Kevin Farrell, 41, of 248 Landing Avenue in Smithtown is accused of stealing more than one half of a million dollars while employed as a security salesman for David Lerner Associates, Inc. in Syosset.

Dillon said, "Farrell was a registered representative of Lerner Associates from February of 1982 until July of 1985. Between December of last year and June of this year he stole in excess of $500,000 from Lerner Associates and customers who thought they were purchasing low risk securities. Instead, Farrell converted the money to his own use."

The District Attorney said, "For most of the victims this money was a substantial portion of their life savings. Most were elderly and were planning on using this money to support themselves for the rest of their lives. None of the money has been recovered."

An example took place in June of this year when Farrell was given a check for $160,000 from one of his clients. The money was to be used to pay Lerner Associates for earlier transactions. Pursuant to Mr. Farrell's instructions, the client endorsed the check in blank by signing her name on the reverse side of the $160,000 check. Lerner Associates never received the money.

HHS Hall Of Fame Dedicated

Honorees and their families, Board of Education members, and guests representing a variety of community groups gathered in the lobby of Hicksville High School on Sunday, November 24, to dedicate the Hicksville Hall of Fame. This project, designed to honor former students and graduates who have gone on to record achievements in their fields and make contributions to the community, has been in the planning stage for almost one year and the commemorative plaque inscribed with the names of the first group of 20 Hall of Famers is now on display. Five additional honorees will be added to the plaque each year.

The dedication program began with a welcome by Superintendent Dr. Catherine J. Fenton, followed by the official unveiling by Board Secretary Daniel C. MacBride, chairman of the District Facilities/Community Affairs Committee which supervised the project. Board President William P. Bennett introduced each honoree to the Superintendent and attending Board members with a brief biographical sketch. Honorees came from as far away as California and Maine to take part in this special event.

The program also included musical selections by Paul Niederauer, guitarist, class of '82.

Galileo Lodge News

PRESIDENT PETE MASSIELLO'S MESSAGE:
"If a little knowledge is dangerous, where is the man who has so much as to be out of danger." Thomas Huxley

The holiday season comes once a year, but when it does, oh, how we start to change. We think differently, we act and react differently, and we feel differently, of course. Oh, yes, obviously it's a special time of the year when we feel love and give love to our families, friends, relatives and even acquaintances.

Naturally this feeling prevails at the Galileo Lodge, and it becomes more pronounced as the spirit and mood of Christmas are firmly etched in its Christmas activities. For example, our Christmas Dance, scheduled for Saturday, the 7th of December, when Christmas becomes Christmas and the atmosphere becomes merry and joyous. Tickets sell at $12.50 per person, and in the offering will be a delicious hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and delightful dance music for your listening and dancing pleasure. And you can bet that many of the melodies will be of the Yuletide season. Tony Sica will chair this activity, assisted by Joe Morace and Arm- and Del Cioppo, who will be selling tickets every Wednesday night at the Galileo Lodge. A Christmas grab bag will be featured as well, and all gifts should not exceed $3.00 in value. So for an affair that certainly sets the mood for the holiday season, I am sure that this Galileo Lodge Yuletide dance will do it better than you think.

And if you want to love, if you to feel love and if you want to see it expressed in an admirable way, then the activity that will best reveal these conditions has to be the Galileo Lodge's two Christmas parties, one for the handicapped children of Queens and sections of Long Island itself, and the other for the children of the membership in the afternoon. Joe Giordano and Skip Monteforte will supervise these two delightful and pleasurable parties, with the entire membership of the Ladies Auxiliary and the Galileo Lodge acting as the committee. So can you just imagine the love, warmth and human kindness that will be bestowed upon these beautiful children. And can you imagine all these tiny hearts beating in unison, with eyes bright and faces shining like precious stones. And can you imagine everyone here at the Galileo Lodge, working feverishly at this very moment in order to ensure

The Community Is Invited

On Sunday, December 1 at 8 pm, members of the clergy and choir of St. Ignatius Church will gather to celebrate a traditional service of Lessons and Carols for the Advent and Christmas seasons.

The first Service of Lessons and Carols took place in the chapel of King's College, Cambridge. Since then, both the ecumenical flavour and the aesthetic appeal of this service have made it an annual tradition in many colleges, churches and cathedral churches throughout the world. Father Thomas Costa and Deacon William Mahoney will be the officiants at the service. The lessons (readings from scripture telling the Christmas story) will be read by various staff members, each representing a different outreach program into the larger community.

The music, performed by the St. Ignatius choir and guests, spans four centuries of history and explores many national traditions, highlighted by the opportunity to join in the communal singing of many beloved carols of the holiday season. The entire Hicksville community is invited to join with the St. Ignatius family for this occasion.

the happiness, joy and pleasure that these children deserve. The day is Sunday, the 8th of December, at the Galileo Lodge. Of course this is one time of the year when we all want to offer everyone our sentiments and merry thoughts, and the people here at the Galileo Lodge do it in a rather special way.

And for the celebration of the year, so to speak, the Galileo Lodge's New Years Party and Dance is right there at the top of the list. Some people say it's the event of the year, and we respect such opinions, of course. The date is Tuesday, the 31st of December, at the Galileo Lodge. Complete with noisemakers and other New Years paraphernalia, not to mention good food and unlimited liquor, not to mention a Continental breakfast, this New Years event sure sounds like the most appropriate way to usher in the New Year in raucous and happy style. This affair is high-spirited and the laughter and the merriment make this whole event as memorable as possible. More details on this event in later columns, such as price of admission, food, music and time. So why not come and celebrate with us here at the Galileo Lodge and greet the New Year in grand style.

Hicksville Author At Mid-Island Plaza

By Richard Evers

Alumni of the Hicksville High School are much in the news, this week of the dedication of the Hicksville Hall of Fame at the high school. Sharing the spotlight illuminating the deeds of the 20 notable grads honored this past Sunday will be author and journalist James M. Ehmann of the Hicksville High Class of 1966. Ehmann is the science Editor of the Syracuse, N.Y. Post Standard, a regular columnist and an author. He will be at Waldon's Bookstore, at the Plaza this Saturday afternoon, autographing copies of his latest book, "To Whom It May Concern: An Investigation of Elephant Art," form 1-3.

If the title is confusing, far-fetched, it is the name of a book describing the incredible ability of a pachyderm that draws, indeed, Jim Ehmann and co-author, David Guewa, an elephant trainer, have told and illustrated an amazing story of a female elephant, Siri, capable of sketching on oaktag in an East Indian style. The book was published by W.W. Norton Co. and reflects the Hicksville author's wide-ranging science and nature interests. A previous book, "Chattey's Island" was equally arousing, the story of an engineer's carefully designed plan to revitalize the great Port of New York and the Staten Island - Jersey seaways.

James Ehmann is the son of Mary and John "Jack" Ehmann, the long-time former co-proprietor of Hicksville Firestone. No stranger to honors, Jim was a winner of a prestigious Westinghouse Science Journalism Award in 1984 for a six-part series "Under the Weather," detailing the whys and wherefores of weather in Central New York.

Hicksville Lions "All You Can Eat" Pancake Breakfast

Everyone is invited to complete their Thanksgiving weekend by attending the Hicksville Lions annual pancake breakfast. The Lions members will be cooking and serving the delicious hotcakes and sausages from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The smell of fresh coffee will complement the appetizing breakfast that will end the holiday weekend on a high note. The Hicksville Lions Club is a service organization that raises money for various charitable causes as well as for the Hicksville community.

The date is Sunday, December 1st, 1985 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The atmosphere is friendly and the price is right! The cost for adults is $3.00 and children are $2.00.

There will be free hypertension, glaucoma, chiropractic, and diabetes screenings.

This hearty breakfast will be served at: Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, 130 Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville (the northwest corner of Old Country Road and Jerusalem Ave.).

Please come! The Hicksville Lions look forward to seeing you the morning of December 1.

To do this each of the grass roots units (Post) of the Legion must seek out all those veterans of all the wars from WW I thru Vietnam in their towns and sign them up... Can be done because there are too many veterans running loose who are gonna lose a lot of benefits if they left unrepresented by the largest and most able of all veterans' organizations, The American Legion... DONOVAN Report

THE AMERICAN WAY

We are a nation of homeowners—and Americans seem to want it that way. A recent survey of the Harvard-M.I.T. Joint Center for Urban Studies reported that 79 percent of the people who bought homes in 1983 and 1984 most probably would have made the purchase even if home ownership didn't offer tax advantages.

Interestingly, our neighbors to the north have similar feelings. Canada does not let homeowners deduct interest payments or real estate taxes from their federal income taxes, yet Canadians own their own homes at close to the same rate as those in the United States.

Americans are also a nation of movers-around. Families pick up and move all over. Workers follow their jobs clear across the country. Most moves mean a house sold in the old location, and a new home in the new town. We real estate professionals help make it all possible. You depend on us to market your current property for its best possible price—AND introduce you to a broker in your new location who'll help you settle in there.

Put us to work for you. If you're set to move—across town or across the country—list with the leaders at:

Dear Friends...

As We Celebrate Thanksgiving

High on our personal "Thanksgiving List" we are most grateful that the good Lord has allowed us to bring the news of those who work together for a better community to you each week in THE HERALDS.

Each of our areas has a large group of residents and business people who really do care enough to give extra time so that through their varied services the community keeps growing in the right direction. Whether it is the school or library boards or the PTA or the Student Council or the Key Clubs, or all of our fine Patriotic Organizations, or Service Clubs, or all of our Fine Youth Groups such as the PBC or the Soccer Clubs or those who faithfully bring us sports and other news from our local schools, or whether it is the news of local individuals, it has been both a pleasure and a privilege to bring all this local news into your homes each week, for so many years.

We are proud of your never-ending efforts to work together for the good of all and we pray that you are able to continue your efforts in whatever area of community activity you choose, as the years roll by. We need each and every one of you. Keep up the good work.

With the entire staff of THE HERALDS, we wish you all a happy Thanksgiving.

Nassau Wins States With Aid Of Hicksville Swimmers

The All County Swim Team won the High School States Championships for the first time since 1976 at Syracuse this weekend, and the four swimmers from the Hicksville swim team scored 111 points out of the 288 total that clinched the Championship by two points.

The Medley Relay of Lorna Mund, Jeannine Sirey, Kristin Mund and Karen Karmann scored third with a new school and county record.

Lorna Mund won the backstroke with a time of 58.8 which broke her own State Record. She also won the Consolation Finals in the 200 freestyle with her best time of the season.

Jeannine Sirey's time of 2:09.5 in the 200 IM also won the event with State Record breaking time. Jeannine also won the Consolation Finals in the 100 breaststroke. Kristin Mund, who at thirteen was the youngest scorer at the meet, placed seventh in the 100 fly and won the Consolations in the 500 freestyle. Both Lorna and Jeannine achieved times that place them in contention for All American.

The State Championship was the culmination of a very successful season. The High School Team, under the coaching of Walter Olwesky, has a 6-4 dual meet record and placed fourth in the Counties.

Erin Pfeifer, Karen Mancuso and Don Endonino were honored by the East Street P.T.A. for their contribution to the New York State P.T.A. convention's Reflections Exhibition.

The P.T.A. theme was "From Liberty's View."

At The Town Board Meeting

By Geraldine Geannikis

The Town of Oyster Bay held a regular Town Board Meeting on Nov. 26 at Town Hall East, Audrey Ave., Oyster Bay. The following actions were taken at this meeting:

Night Hearing On Woodbury Hill Development

The Town Board held a night hearing, at the request of the Local residents and organizations who so petitioned. This hearing lasted until 11:45 p.m. at which time the Board reserved decision on the petition of the Woodbury Hill Development, Ltd., Vim Construction Corp. and the Roman Catholic Diocese of Rockville Centre for a change of zone from Res. A and Res. E Districts to E-Z, General Res. District for acreage located on the northside of Sunnyside Blvd Extension North Service Road of the LIE, northeast of the intersection of Froehlich Farm Blvd. in Woodbury. Between 35 and 40 people attended this hearing including a group from the R.C. Diocese of Rockville Centre headed by Father Thomas Hartman, several local residents and several residents representing various local civic associations as well as the petitioners attorney who brought with him a traffic expert-civil engineer, a real estate appraiser and an expert in the prediction population trends.

The gist of the petitioner's argument was that the only ingress and egress this parcel has in from the LIE Service Road (also called Sunnyside Blvd. Extension). They felt that building homes on one-acre parcels would not sell for the kind of money that they would have to sell them for. Their petition asks to build a "home-owner development" which differs slightly from the ordinary "condo concept" because each owner will also own a fraction of the common land. Their application called for 115, two and three bedroom units which they anticipate will sell for $350,000. They will have approved a clubhouse and tennis courts and they anticipate spending about four million dollars in landscaping on this 25 acre property.

When questioned the petitioner's attorney said that developing the land for one acre homes would make it necessary for these homes to sell for between $500,000 and $600,000. for the developer to make a profit.

Judy Jacobs, president of the South Woodbury Taxpayers Association spoke about the over abundance of condominiums presently in Woodbury (approximately 600). She differed with the opinion of the petitioner and felt that one acre, one family homes would be valuable and could sell at the prices mentioned, based on the fact that the sales in this area have risen dramatically and are sold immediately.

Among the other civic leaders who spoke along these lines were Andrew Linden, president of the Woodbury Estates Civic Association and Harry Gaffney of the North Woodbury Civic Association. Several local residents spoke, all of whom approved of one acre single family homes in this area. NY State Assemblyman Louis Yevoli also spoke along these lines.

Town Councilman Ken Diamond questioned the petitioner regarding studies they had done on traffic problems which covered the number of trips in and out of the site, and the possible and probable congestion at the Woodbury Road entrance. Town Councilman Doug Hynes also asked several questions regarding the density of the petitioner's proposal, and if there was a real need for more condos in this area.

The Board reserved decision on this matter.

A hearing for the petition of Foxwood Associates for a change of zone from B-A Res. District to E-2 General Residence at Jericho, N/S Jericho Tpke., W of Massapequa-Glen Cove Rd.-Cedar Swamp Rd. and bounded on the North by Meadowbrook Club, on the East by Henry Underhill property, on the South by Jericho Tpke., and on the West by Were Associates Co., and Meadowbrook Club was adjourned until 8PM on Tuesday, Dec. 3.

Decision was reserved at the hearing to consider the proposed local law relating to a request to change the speed limit from 40 to 35 MPH on Piquets Lane between Jericho Tpke., Woodbury and Woodbury Rd., Woodbury and South (Continued on Page 13)

Santa To Visit Post Office

The holiday season is upon us, so you're already started thinking about how to make this holiday really special for the people you love. And you're picking out cards and presents that you know will be just right.

"At the post office, we know just how important it is that your carefully chosen cards and letters arrive in time for Christmas, so we'd like to remind you to mail early this year," said Roger Nienaber, MSC Manager/Postmaster. "When you mail early you can be sure that all the care and thought you put into your cards and gifts will reach your favorite people in plenty of time for the holidays."

The Hicksville Post Office will have Santa Claus in the lobby from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m., Tuesday through Friday from December 3rd through December 6th. Santa will speak to the children and hand out candy canes and postal coloring books.

Santa will also encourage everyone to mail early and give postal customers tips on how to best prepare their holiday mail.

"Last year, our customers helped us tremendously. They mailed early in the season and early in the day," said Mr. Nienaber. "We hope they will choose to cooperate with us again this year, so we both will have an enjoyable holiday mailing season."

Kevin Liba (son of Mailhandler John Liba) helps the Postal Service spread the message to "Mail Early" for the holidays by mailings his letter to Santa. Santa (Hank Tesmacher, Mailhandler) made a surprise visit to assist Kevin in getting his holiday greetings in the mail early. Santa will be on hand in the lobby to give out gifts to the children and assist mailers with holiday tips for mailing.

"Caught in the Villain's Web," a hilarious old-fashioned melodrama, will be presented by Hicksville High School on Thursday, December 5, and Friday, December 6, at 8:00 P.M. in the high school auditorium.

This entertaining production is appropriate for viewers of all ages, and the audience will be invited to hiss the villain and to cheer the hero as he sets out to rescue the heroine.

An open letter to Chase Employees

"We never want our machines become dislike dealing w

As good as automatic teller machines are, a lot of people have been using them for the wrong reason. Because they dread dealing with bank people who often seem harried and impersonal.

It's a problem that affects all banks to one degree or another. The difference is, at Chase we've been doing something about it.

Together, we have renewed our commitment to some important values. To things like treating customers like human beings instead of numbers. To calling people by name. To greeting them with a smile and sending them on their way with a "Thank-you." To showing genuine concern about their problems; and to helping them select the kinds of accounts and services that get them what they need.

Of course, it's easy to talk about commitment. But the fact is, all of you who work in Chase branches are only as good as the support you get from the entire Community Bank organization. And you'll continue to get that support.

We've been doing a lot of very tangible things. We've instituted a system to cut down on red tape and streamline procedures, so you can devote more time to helping customers ant people using because they g with our people."

and less time to pushing paper. We've also made heavy investments in hiring and training more people like you. More tellers. More bank officers. All so that customers can spend less time standing in lines, and get the kind of service they deserve.

Now, if all this attention to things like "service" and "understanding" seems to set a new direction in the world of banking, you're right.

Because that's the kind of commitment to old values many banks seem to have forgotten.

But it's the kind of commitment we believe will make people enjoy going to the bank. Instead of dreading it.

Fork Lane Kids Get Fingerprinted

By A. Eichenauer

November 22nd from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. was fingerprinting day at Fork Lane School. The rain kept a lot of people away and some people just forgot about it. The turnout was o.k. but could have been a lot better.

The children who came to be fingerprinted had to be accompanied by a parent or guardian. The parent or guardian signed a permission form and a police department fingerprint form stating the child's name, address and date of birth. Once the prints were taken, they are given back to the parent/guardian to be put away in a safe place.

We at Fork Lane suggest you take a current picture of your child and attach it to the card, then on the back of the card write down any visible scars, and scars that would be covered by clothing.

Fork Lane P.T.A. would like to thank the Nassau County Police Department for the use of the fingerprint boards, ink and fingerprint cards.

Let's hope we NEVER have to use these fingerprint cards.

The Three Comings Of Christ

Watches and clocks are important to all of us...especially as New Yorkers who seem to cram so much as possible into a lifetime. Now there are many good personal reasons for knowing what time it is. Knowing the hour makes the difference between cereal or hamburgers, work or sleep, school or Christmas shopping. To live life successfully, we all have to be clock watchers in the good sense of the term.

In Mark 13:33ff, Jesus encourages us to be alert and ready for the end of time when he will come again to usher in a new age of timeless eternity. He tells a short parable of a man away on a journey who instructs the door-keeper to await his return in order to let him in. The doorkeeper is not to be found asleep at the job and must be always alert for the unexpected return of his master.

During Advent we should begin to refocus our attention on the three comings of our Lord. First, the son of God becoming enmeshed at Bethlehem that first Christmas. Second, on his spiritual coming into lives through Baptism and faith. Third, we are reminded to be watchful, for He will come again in heavenly splendor at which time we must be spiritually ready to receive him. This coming will either take place in our lifetime or at our death. When we die, Christ's return will seem to us as quick as the blink of an eye, or the snap of a finger, from the moment we die until that moment we are awakened by his second coming.

"Prepare ye the way to the Lord," was the way the prophet Isaiah put it. Preparation, spiritual or otherwise, takes time and effort on our part. We must take time to prepare for the Lord. In preparing choose to come to church to be spiritually fed. Thank God for his generosity towards you the 168 hours of the week that passed. Acknowledge that God is important to you, that you love him. In this way, you demonstrate that you truly desire to be with him in eternity, for you desire to come into his presence even now.

We can go through life so complacent about our sins, knowing sin to be terrible but happily and comfortably living with it. Therefore we are challenged during Advent to focus in our own most grievous faults. Our eyes becoming fixed on our watches knowing that in but a short time the master will be returning again.

As we prepare for Christmas, we could do no better than to prepare our lives to become in line with his will. We need to come often to the weekly table of forgiveness by the master of us all for us all. To come and eat and drink remembering that he came in love for us 2000 years ago, that he continues to meet us daily in his Word and Sacrament, and that he will in but a short time be coming again.

Advent marks the new church year. Will you take up that challenge? What specific resolutions are you making for the new church year? Perhaps you will decide to share the good news of Christ's nativity by inviting an unchurched friend or neighbor to join at worship this Christmas. You might also be able to commit yourself to weekly and regular Bible Study. You may use this season of preparation for introspection, getting your own act together so that you are always prepared to meet the Lord.

Museum Fetes Its Founders, The Gregorlys

The Trustees, staff and volunteers of the Hicksville Gregory Museum enjoyed the company of the museum's founders, Dr. Gardiner and Anne Gregory this past Tuesday. Making an annual Thanksgiving visit to kinfolk, the Gregorlys drove down from their retirement home in Castine, Maine to be with long-time museum colleagues at an evening social gathering at the museum home, the Heitz Place Courthouse.

The well remembered Gregorlys, leaders and participants in many Hicksville affairs of ten years ago, toured the museum during the afternoon, after being greeted by the Museum's new Director, Joan Scancarrelli. Their fine collection of minerals has been much expanded in recent years with the splendid Leonard Zarin Mineral Collection and a number of striking new fossil specimens. The museum founders were relieved to see that the courthouse building has just about recovered from its fire on May 31st.

Prior to the evening social with Museum Trustees, members of the Board of Advisors, staff members, volunteers and old Hicksville friends, Anne and Gardiner were guest for dinner at the home of Museum Historian Richard Evers and his wife, Anne.

DOWN MEMORY LANE: Here we see the local PBC of many years ago, in action on the courts. Who is their smiling coach...and, for that matter, who are all the handsome young men participating in a favorite sport then, just as they do today?

Reading Is Fundamental

1986 marks the 20th Anniversary of RIF (Reading Is Fundamental) and to commemorate this occasion the students at Lee Ave. were asked to enter a contest by creating a unique poster illustrating the joy of reading.

Hicksville Community Council To Hear Augie Casella on "The Gift Of Life Program"

On Thursday, Dec. 3, the Hicksville Community Council will hold its regular meeting in the downstairs community room of the Hicksville Library on Jerusalem Avenue.

As well as a discussion of the strategy to be used in the present problem affecting Nevada St. traffic by the fact that the Plaza's last-minute decision to contest the Town of Oyster Bay's plans to make Jeanson Place "egress only," in the courts, which has now been deliberately delayed by two adjournments, several other civic matters will be coming up for discussion and action.

The formal program will be a presentation by Mr. Augie Casella of the Hicksville Rotary Club, on the now-famous "Gift Of Life Program."

Council president Anthony Previte wants to invite you all to attend this important community meeting, which is set to begin at 8 p.m. sharp.

The winning poster was made by Matthew Russo, a 5th grader, whose theme was "Reading Is Fun — Reading Is A New Adventure." His poster will be sent to the National RIF offices for judging. An expert panel of judges will choose the National winner plus 4 runners-up.

The National winner will win a trip to Washington, D.C.

Runners-up will receive a $100 Savings bond and a commemorative certificate will be awarded to the entry judged best from each state.

The PTA, teachers and students at Lee Ave. School wish Matthew Russo "Good Luck" with this venture.

CHARLES WAGNER POST # 421
HICKSVILLE N.Y.

By Artie Futz

Happy to report that our membership renewals are coming in this year at a great rate except that there's the same fly in the ointment again...As it has happened time and again since national took over with its computers and did our membership mailing for us, second notices are being sent to many of our paidup members...Please fellows, the fault does not lie with our Membership Officer Harry Christo but rather with the system...Or those humans who are responsible for the inputs...The way it works is that after you pay your dues, the money and cards are turned over to the county membership chairman and he is responsible to sending the cards and money, after taking out the county per capita, to Department, where once again a per capita deduction is made and finally the national per capita and cards are on their way to Indianapolis...Finally, when national has received their per capita, that triggers off the changes in the renewal mailing list...Now, if anyone along this Rube Goldberg trail fails to act with the promptness that computers desire, either on county, department or national levels, then sure as all you-know-what, second notices are sure to be in the mail...Happily most of our members are aware of this possibility and react accordingly when those unnecessary extra renewal notices show up...Then again, we have more than several members who forgot they paid their dues and tried to pay a second time...This was caught by our eagle eyed Membership Officer Harry and he promptly returned the checks to the members with the note of explanation...While the mood of this column is reflecting membership, let me pass along to one and all that the time honored November 11th date for early bird membership awards has gone by the boards...So what we have now is the following: Dues that are paid before October 20 are considered in the early bird class... After October 20 until December 31, right on time...After January 1 the member is classed delinquent...If the dues are not paid by February 1, then the member is suspended, but nevertheless a member without any privilege except that of reinstatement by vote of Post and payment of dues... If, by any chance, the member has still not paid his dues by June 30 he is then dropped from the roll of the world's largest veterans' organization by constitutional mandate and the membership is completely forfeited...So do not get caught in this situation by reaching for your check book right now and send smiling Harry your eagerly awaited dues renewal...Spread the word that our 2 halls are available for booking for almost any kind of affair, just call the Legion at 931-9867...Most everyone is familiar with the layout in Washington, D.C. in the area of the Washington Monument with its circle of American flags...During our MIA/POW foray in that vicinity last month I chanced to observe the beauty the flags added to the area...The thought came to me that why were there not flags adorning the adjoining Lagoon in the same manner and of course the same treatment for the Lincoln Memorial...The government should be happy to spend some money on flags to beautify our national capitol so Americans can justly be proud...Why this was not done when the flags around the Washington Monument were installed is a puzzler as the obvious is the obvious... Come to the next meeting on (Continued on Page 3)
