Expert To Explain Middle School Concept At Three Sessions

The Hicksville Public Schools will establish a middle school program for grades seven and eight in September 1987. This restructuring of the district's secondary program was approved by the Board of Education at the August meeting based on a proposal submitted by Superintendent of Schools Dr. Catherine J. Fenton.

Dr. Fenton reported on the results of extensive research conducted by a Secondary Study Committee of teachers, parents, administrators, and community leaders assisted by expert consultants in the field. The middle school program is needed to provide greater interaction between students and teachers so that a student's academic and social development can be more closely monitored. At the same time it provides a bridge between the elementary school and the high school.

Dr. Conrad Toepfer, a nationally-known expert on the middle school, will be in Hicksville from September 30 to October 3. He will give three presentations which will explain what a middle school is, how it works, and how it will benefit the students. The dates and places of these presentations are:

Tuesday, September 30 7:45 P.M.	Burns Avenue School
Wednesday, October 1 7:45 P.M.	Junior High School
Thursday, October 2 7:45 P.M.	Dutch Lane School

All interested members of the community are invited to hear Dr. Toepfer at one of the scheduled sessions. Time for questions from the public will be allotted following the presentation.

"Great educational and social benefits will be provided to our students through this change in our secondary program," notes Board President William P. Bennett. "We urge all Hicksville citizens to learn about these changes aimed at improving the educational program in our district."

Town Sets Oct. 7 Hearing On Boarding and Rooming Houses

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Angelo A. Delligatti announced that the Town Board has scheduled a public hearing for October 7 to more clearly define the Code of Ordinances as it relates to boarding and rooming houses and to amend those sections dealing with land and building requirements as they pertain to these facilities.

Delligatti said, "under consideration are clear definitions as to what constitutes a boarding house or rooming house, which are only permissible in 'D' and 'E' Residence Districts, and minimum criteria for lot size and habitable area permitted."

The hearing will also take under advisement amending the present law to require annual inspections of boarding houses and rooming houses by the Planning and Development Department. Such uses would require the prior approval of the Zoning Board of Appeals.

In Other Matters...
In other action, the Town Board amended the definition of who may legally occupy a simple family home. The revised definition, resulting from court decisions, provides for any number of persons related by blood, marriage or adoption, living and cooking together as a single housekeeping unit or any number of persons, not exceeding two (2) not related by blood, marriage or adoption, and any ward of either unrelated person living and cooking together as a single housekeeping unit.

The hearing has been scheduled for Tuesday, October 7 beginning at 10 AM in the hearing room of Town Hall East, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

PRESIDENT JOE GIORDANO'S MESSAGE:
Irony is an insult conveyed in the form of a compliment. Old Saying

Positive attitudes, as opposed to negative ones, usually reap their own rewards. And this couldn't have been more in evidence as it was last Friday, the 12th of September. That was the night when the Galileo Lodge presented its Fourteenth Annual Anniversary and Fifth Annual Louise E. Massiello Memorial Scholarship Awards at Leonard's of Great Neck. It was a gala celebration and all those who attended (and they were considerable) enjoyed the finest in food, refreshments, unlimited liquor, terrific dance music and the homage that was bestowed upon our honoree, Joe Monticciola, Regional Administrator of U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Not to mention, of course, the hospitality and congeniality of the membership of the Galileo Lodge.

The Galileo Lodge Ad Journal surpassed all expectations, as did the social and financial aspects of this affair. President Joe Giordano and ex-President Pete Masiello performed superbly as supervisors of this gala dance, ably assisted by a fabulous committee that consisted of: Fred Ausiello, John Canizzara, Al Frigenti, Vito Grippi and Frank Matassa, all of whom comprised the Dance Committee; Journal Committee, Pat Gatto, James Posillico, Dom Russos, Tony Sica; Ticket Committee, Armand Del Cioppo, Robert Grimmer, Rocco Lombardo and Joe Morace; Dance Committee Chairman, Skip Monteforte; Journal Committee, James Rerisi. Success is predicted on hard work and determination with loyalty, and the members just named here have more than their share of everything that is needed to make an organization successful and its activities, of course.

And now for some news concerning the November 14th presentation of what is aptly named the "Foolies Follies", which is actually a hilarious version of a musical variety show supervised by the Ladies Auxiliary, utilizing the abilities and talents the ladies themselves and the male members of the Galileo Lodge. Carmen Russo is the supervisor of this show, and she has a special message to the male members of the Galileo Lodge, which is that all male members of the Galileo Lodge who have had prior experience with the presentation of the "Foolies Follies" should contact her immediately as your talents, experience and knowledge are of vital importance to the successful conclusion of this show. Call Carmen at 931-1059. If you have not had prior "Follies" experience, why not also call as you might fit right in with the proceedings.

Tickets sell at $15 per person, a very nominal fee that also entitles you to a delicious hot dinner, coffee and cake, beer, soda, set-ups and music for your listening and dancing pleasure. Note please that this dance will have a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy.

Please keep one very important fact in mind, which is that the Ladies Auxiliary are always there to help the Galileo Lodge, now, which is certainly proper and fair, it's time for the male members to help them out. Kindness is a reciprocal act, and we all know that reciprocity plants the seeds of success. Carmen also states that rehearsals are still being held every Wednesday night at the Galileo Lodge. Also note that the cut-off date for tickets is November 6th, and that tickets will sell quickly.

Susan Schiano, Lori & Aimee Pitta of 66 Fox Pl. in Hicksville, are seen here poolside aboard the 27,000 ton "fun ship", TSS CARNIVALE, of Carnival Cruise Lines, just before sailing out of the Port of Miami on a weekend vacation cruise to Nassau, Capital City of The Bahamas.

So here's another appeal from Carmen Russo: come on all you members of the Galileo Lodge, we need your help, after all, the Galileo

Lodge is for all of us. HELP IS STILL NEEDED FOR OUR BINGO SESSIONS. Please come and help out!

LILCO Assists In RR Electrification

Long Island Lighting Company's efforts to assist with the Long Island Rail Road's main line electrification project are right on track, according to LILCO and LIRR officials, as ground is being broken to lay electrical cable from Hicksville to Ronkonkoma.

LILCO personnel have been working since January to relocate electric lines, gas mains, utility poles and transformers to accommodate the LIRR's plan to electrify 23½ miles of track by December, 1987. But one of the most interesting parts of the project began when LILCO subcontractors, Henkels & McCoy, Inc., started laying electrical cable with a device known as a railroad plow.

"The plow's on-track design makes the cable laying procedure in the hard to get at railroad right-of-way areas the most timely and cost effective method we know of," said Alfred Baker, Manager of LILCO's Project Management, Substation & Equipment Engineering Division.

The plow is attached on one end to a locomotive and on the other to an open freight car (called a gondola) on which reels of electric cable are mounted. In one motion, the plow digs a ditch alongside the track, lays the electrical cable, and then backfills the ditch as the locomotive pulls it along the track.

It was specially developed in 1967 by Henkels & McCoy to overcome the problems of installing underground cable along railroad rights-of-way where access is often limited and clearance along the tracks is minimal in many areas. The distances covered by the railroad plow are measured in miles per day as compared with the feet per day completed with traditional trenching and overhead line-stringing methods.

The cable laying procedure is expected to be completed in approximately two months. Other LILCO work on the project includes modifying existing equipment for construction of a planned transportation hub linking Islip MacArthur Airport and the Ronkonkoma station, and relocation work to support a new track signal system for the 23-plus mile stretch. In addition, the project requires that LILCO modify and construct equipment in ten substations along the route to provide 16 transmission lines (each carrying 13,800 volts) for the new electric train service.

According to LIRR spokesman Brian Dolan, "The electrification of our main line between Hicksville and Ronkonkoma is an extremely important aspect of the LIRR/MTA $1.1 billion capital improvement program, one that will significantly improve service for the thousands of people who use the line by providing faster trips directly into New York."

I'VE BEEN PLOWING ON THE RAILROAD. ...Workers watch as railroad plow buries power lines in track bed between Hicksville and Ronkonkoma for the LIRR main line electrification project. LILCO is providing the cable, the plow, and substation equipment modifications to accommodate the $167 million plan.

Surplus Cheese Available On Sat., Sept. 27

The Kiwanis Club of Hicksville is pleased to announce another Government Surplus cheese distribution as a service to needy residents in the Hicksville area.

The distribution will be made on Saturday, September 27, in the parking lot of the Carvel Store, 447 South Broadway, Hicksville. This is on the corner of Ludy Street and South Broadway, across from Mr. Electric Service Co. where last year's distribution was made. The time will be from 8:30 am on until the cheese is given out to those residents entitled to receive it.

Eligibility to receive Government Surplus food is based on a variety of factors including: unemployment, disability, food stamps, sickness in family, welfare, S.S.I., senior citizen, home energy assistance grants, etc.

The Kiwanis Club must account for all the surplus food given to them to distribute to the needy. Forms to list name and address, social security number, and category of eligibility of the recipients will be available. Kiwanis members will be on hand to help fill out the forms.

This scheduled cheese distribution is another example of how the Hicksville Kiwanis Club provides service to the community.

RE: Giese Park Property

On Friday, September 5th, I attended the general membership meeting of the Hicksville American Soccer Club which was held at the Hicksville High School. At this meeting the club president, Kevin Reardon, spoke to the members on the status of the Giese Park property. As stated by Mr. Reardon, "this property is a vacant piece of land which I feel the local residents want to stay that way. They don't even want a children's play area or senior citizen housing."

I hope, Mr. Reardon, that you made this statement because your are uninformed on the issue and not for any other reasons. I also hope the following will both clarify and update the issue for you and the members of the HASC as well as other interested parties.

On April 13th, residents of the Hicksville community met at Giese Park and widely accepted plans to develop a park. These plans included a soccer field, a children's play area, a leisure area and an off street parking facility. At this time it was completely feasible opposition from the community. It was only then the Town of Oyster Bay officials were adamant, for reasons unknown, about constructing an overdeveloped soccer complex that the residents united to protect their interests.

At subsequent civic association meetings, viable alternatives for the development of the property have been discussed and reported on in local newspapers. Among these alternatives is senior citizen housing. Be advised that at the current time I am awaiting contact from officials of the Rockville Centre Diocese to discuss a senior citizen housing project for the site.

In closing I would like to add that at your meeting was stated that the opposition to the kind of park you would like to see developed was coming from only about 30 people in the area and that because the membership of the HASC was higher that they should be able to get the kind of park that they wanted. Be advised that in no way can the membership of the Giese Park Civic Association match that of the HASC, which includes members from outside the Hicksville community. Currently the GPCA has a membership of over 30 families, families like your own and your members who only wish to create a better community and to peacefully coexist with our neighbors.

It just so happens, Mr. Reardon, that Giese Park is the neighbor to many families and as you can see it is our sincerest desire to see this property developed with the best interests of the Hicksville community.

Sincerely,
Thomas J. McGovern Jr.
President
Giese Park Civic Assn.

Dear Ms. Noeth:

After months of negotiations, the Senate and the Governor came close to agreement on a prescription drug plan for senior citizens. The Senate passed a bill that would set up the plan and would change the prescription form to promote the use of generic drugs. Yet, we have no law today!

Why isn't there a prescription drug plan ready to go into effect? Because the Assembly Democrat leadership would not allow a vote to be taken on the Senate bill. They wouldn't even allow vote to be taken on their own bill. In any case, the assembly bill is inadequate. It would help far too few New York senior citizens with high prescription drug costs. An unmarried senior citizen with an income of $12,001, would receive no help even if prescription costs ran into the thousands of dollars.

I think that is unfair. The Senate bill offers coverage to single senior citizens with incomes up to $16,000 and married couples with incomes up to $21,000, with special help for lower income seniors.

Your Assemblyman, Fred Parola, is a strong supporter of the Senate plan. He has been working very hard behind the scenes with his Republican colleagues to try to bring the senate bill up for a vote in the Assembly, but Assemblyman Parola's efforts and those of other proponents of a senior citizen prescription drug plan have been stymied by the Assembly Democrat leadership.

I am asking that you write to the Assembly Speaker, Stanley Fink, c/o the State Capitol, Albany, New York 12248, and urge that he let his members vote on the Senate bill, S.9574, to set up a senior citizen prescription drug plan, or at least resume negotiations to work for a law to help those truly in need. Please be assured that I will continue to keep you informed on any new developments.

Sincerely,
John R. Dunne
N.Y. State Senator

At The Town Board Meeting

By Sheila Noeth

The Town Board of Oyster Bay held a regular meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 16 at Town Hall in Oyster Bay, and considered the following hearings and resolutions local to HERALD areas:

Nine residents spoke in opposition to the petition of Peter E. and Josephine M. Kenney for a change of zone from Res. E to Bus. F on a vacant corner lot formed by the intersection of the southwest side of Newbridge Road and the north side of West Marie St., in Hicksville, on which they wish to build a flower shop. Their attorney, Anthony J. LaMara, Esq. presented their petition and plans. Those opposed did so on the grounds that they felt this would create an increase in traffic in this area and would exacerbate parking problems on West Marie Street.

Supervisor Joseph Colby suggested that they get together and see if these differences could be worked out. The Board reserved decision on this matter.

Six residents appeared in opposition to the petition of Michael Hatgis for a change of zone on a vacant house presently zoned Res. D, to an R-O Resident (residence-office) Zone in which he wishes to conduct and operate a school for the teaching and learning of karate, judo and the art of self-defense for both children and adults. This house is located on the northeast corner of the intersection of South Oyster Bay Road and Virginia Ave., in Plainview. The petitioner's attorney, Mr. Louis Soloway, Esq. presented the plans for this proposal. Those in opposition noted that this would not only increase traffic in the area but would present parking problems. The Board reserved decision on this petition.

Next the Town heard the petition of Volhav, Ltd. doing business as Chaplins and Gordon Hahn, for a special use permit for operating a bar and tavern in a Bus G district on the east side of South Broadway, north of Hanover Place in Hicksville. Their attorney, Mr. Richard Longworth, Esq., presented the plans for this proposal, which in essence requested that this business wishes to become strictly a bar and not serve meals.

Mr. Martin Udell, president of Delco appeared in opposition to this proposal. He stated that the patrons of this bar and grill use his parking field. Mr. James

American Legion Gathers Bikes For King Park Vets

Christmas can come early for some folks. Thirty-three disabled veterans at the King Park Psychiatric Center are currently attesting to this miracle. The veterans are already enjoying donated bicycles and physical therapy thanks to the members of the American Legion Post 1421 in Hicksville.

The unusual effort on behalf of veterans' care was the recent project of the Legionnaires of the Charles Wagner Post under the leadership of Past Commander Wesley Tietjen, currently serving as Nassau County Legion Third Division Veterans Rehabilitation Officer. The bicycles contributed to the project were largely in excellent to good condition and have years of wear in them. Receiving the bicycles on behalf of the Kings Park

Students Named To All - State Chorus

Three Hicksville High School music students have been named to the 1986 New York All-State Chorus. The students are Gina Aiello, John Hawkins and Catherine Heberer.

To be selected the students were required to prepare a piece of vocal music and perform that selection for a panel of adjudicators. Obviously, this was also done by thousands of high school students throughout New York. The competition is enormous and the chances for success small.

Super Saturday At Trinity

Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 W. Nicholas Street, Hicksville, held a "Super Saturday" Worship Day this past weekend. Workshops were held for Choirs, Acolytes, Servers, Ushers, Greeters, Altar Guild, and the Worshipping Assembly.

Mr. Paul Bouman, Director of Music Emeritus of Grace Lutheran Church, River Forest, Illinois, was their special guest.

"Our worship at Trinity will be greatly enhanced after this eventful and inspiring day," a spokesperson for the church explained.

"May we invite you to join us on Saturday evening at 7:30 on Sunday morning at 8:15, 9:45 or 11:15 and join us at worship!" he concluded.

To have three students named to this group is a credit to their teacher, Mr. Charles Arnold, who was responsible for preparing them.

In addition, two of the three students, Gina and John, have qualified for membership in the All-East Chorus. Only the top percentage of students who were selected to All-State Groups in each of the eastern states are eligible for this honor.

"As I told the students, regardless of the outcome, simply qualifying for the All-East is an honor," said Mr. William Gagnon, Supervisor of Hicksville Fine Arts Dept.

DONOVAN Report

Real Estate:
Karen Donovan

WHAT DO BUYERS WANT?

New-home buyers are a traditional lot. They feel more comfortable in houses that look familiar. One realty source estimated that 75 percent of the new houses for sale are now two-story Colonials. Far fewer are the contemporary homes, those with vaulted ceilings, lots of glass, and the "great rooms" that combine living, dining and cooking in one space. Cost has almost done away with the ranch house (it costs more to build out than to build up), and the split level has simply gone out of style. Whether you are remodeling or just making cosmetic improvements to make a house more salable, it's wise to remember what buyers like. Splashy modern silver-and-black wallpaper may turn off a prospect; a "sensible" floral print sells. Walls and carpet in a deep eggplant color are dramatic; but buyers feel safer in go-with-everything beige.

We'll help you make your property more salable. List with the knowhow people at:

POB Road Runners Score In Mighty Hamptons Triathlon

The Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club was once again at the forefront of the 5th annual Mighty Hamptons Triathlon — both on the course and working on the sidelines.

This year's Mighty Hamptons, which was held on September 13, consists of a one mile swim (shortened from the usual 1½ miles this year because of the high winds and rough waters in Peconic Bay), a 25 mile bike ride, and a ten mile run. It is Long Island's premier triathlon, and attracts endurance athletes from all over the country.

Six POBRRCers successfully completed the course this year. Johathan Zeit of Syosset led the Club contingent, finishing in 11th place overall out of more than 600 entrants with a time of 2 hours, 52 minutes, 43 seconds. Marge Kroeger of Syosset (3:16:56) topped the Club's female entrants, easily capturing 1st place in the women's 50-54 age group. Tom Moylett (2:59:39), also a Syosset resident, took top honors among the 50-54 year old men. ANNETTE FRISCH

(3:24:35) of Bay Shore brought home a trophy in the women's 45-49 age group. Nancy Ackley (3:38:49) of Farmingdale turned in another strong performance, and Matt Winkler (4:06:50) of Plainview was the youngest competitor to finish this year's Mighty Hamptons.

POBRRC volunteer workers were all over the course — handling the entire bike transition area, taking care of the interim scoring at each transition point, directing traffic out on the roads and working at the water stops.

Sincere "Thank you's" are due to everyone who was a part of the POBRRC volunteer team at Mighty Hamptons: Roger Roberto, Chris Simonsen, Jim McDougall, Steve Attias, Jill Attias, Tom Cacace, Michael Davidson, Debbie Davison, Sue Polansky, Mike Polansky, Gina Gelman, Bob Sanelli, Liz Flahavan, Pam Grever, Ray Kellogg, Eileen Kellogg, Ruth Sturges, Frank D'Orta, Steve Winkler, Elaine Winkler, Nick Palazzo, Sue Cunningham, and Ellen Weber.

POBRRC's Tom Moylett leaves the Peconic Bay beach after the swim and heads for his bike.

The Hicksville High School HIGHLIGHTS

By Scott J. O'Callaghan

Life in Hicksville High School varies from student to student. Depending on individual likes and dislikes, students can create an identity based on certain courses selected and activities participated in. Thus, there is no one "model student" who represents what all students do.

Yet, so often it is easy for people to assume that certain patterns of behavior are followed: that all big guys are on the Football Team, or that all smart people go straight home to study, or that all girls must play volleyball. Many times people do not hear about the small club of dedicated artists or public speakers that meet in some corner of school; such organizations are virtually unknown to all but a few people. However, these groups have just as much right to be publicized as the next group. Without them, extra-curricular life in Hicksville High School would not be what it is now. Just as there is no "model club" which is representative of what all students like to do.

In order to let you, the Good Reader, know about these groups, this column, The Hicksville High School Highlight, will present different clubs, organizations and people that make extra-curricular life in this school what it is. By seeing all of these groups, and not just the ones that make the headlines with impressive victories, you can get a better view of how the school operates. When appropriate, news happenings in the school will also be featured, along with a small section each week with sports results.

Next week, we'll start our trip into high school life with a look at the Student Government Association.

To Help Leukemia Society Raise Funds

Northville Gasoline Corporation and New York Mets all-star catcher Gary Carter are teaming up at the gas pump during the month of October to help the Leukemia Society of America raise funds for their efforts to find the final cures for leukemia and related diseases.

Northville will donate one cent from each gallon of gasoline sold at their stations on Long Island and in Westchester in October to the Leukemia Society. Carter, who is the Society's national sports chairman and a spokesman for Northville's retail gasoline advertising campaign, will also take part in the promotion of Northville's efforts on behalf of the Society in October.

Carter's involvement with the Leukemia Society of America is spurred by the loss of his mother, Inge Charlotte Carter, to leukemia in 1966 when he was 13. Since he was named the Society's national sports chairman last year, Carter has raised over $75,000 for the agency through a variety of mostly self-initiated projects.

"We are deeply honored to be aiding Gary Carter's campaign for the Leukemia Society by contributing to the Society's program for the research and treatment of leukemia and related diseases," said Gene Bernstein, senior vice president of Northville Gasoline Corporation. "In the past twenty years, survival rates for leukemia and related diseases have increased dramatically, but we need to do so much more to bring us to that great day when these diseases will be a thing of the past."

Northville, based in Melville, New York, has 34 retail gasoline outlets located throughout Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester counties.

The Leukemia Society of America sponsors programs of research, patient assistance, public and professional education, and community service. The Long Island Chapter of the Society is located at 20 Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville, New York 11801. Telephone number (516) 938-1900.

As a runner-up in the "How to Keep Healthy" art contest sponsored by the Community Health Program, Mundeep Kainth, 7, is congratulated by her brother Sundeeep, 13, and Dr. Jack Resnick, director of this group model HMO. Affiliated with Long Island Jewish Medical Center, CHP is part of Empire (Blue Cross/Blue Shield) Healthnet and carries on a varied program of health education activities for young and old as part of its member services.

2 Million Books Available To Kids

The Nassau School Library System (NSLS) has begun creating a central catalog of 1,883,732 books in the school libraries of member districts, including Plainview-Old Bethpage. Accomplished using a computer, this title will be available to all system members, allowing for a sharing of resources among libraries.

"If a child in Hicksville, Plainview or Old Bethpage wants a book about electronics that's not available in his own district, his librarian can locate the book in another district and arrange to borrow it," explains NSLS coordinator Carol Kroll. "We have already set up a system of inter-lending through the Nassau BOCES delivery system for films."

Forty-three districts and eleven non-public schools are members of the state-funded Nassau School Library System, which is administered by Nassau BOCES. Organized last year, its collective holdings are the largest of the 46 school library system in the state, outside of New York City.

Kroll expects the process of consolidating school library catalogs to take several years, because of funding constraints. This year, all new holdings will be recorded; next year the system will begin to add books already in collections, starting with science books.

TRY A TRUST WALK

Several years ago while conducting a Senior Youth Retreat, I led the group in an activity called a "Trust Walk." Participants paired up and each took a turn leading the other blindfolded throughout the retreat facility. I also had a partner and took my turn. For approximately twenty minutes I was led by the hand around tables and chairs, up and down steps, throughout the building. Something remarkable happened to me when I trusted my life, so to speak, into the hands of my young partner. In those short twenty minutes, a beautiful feeling developed towards that person, a closeness, a need for her. Even when the blindfold came off I felt that I wanted to get better acquainted. I continued to feel positive feelings for my partner.

Throughout the Book of Psalms God encourages us to take a trust walk with him. Jesus says to all of us, trust in me, I love you so much. I want to help you. Wherever you are hurting, let me bring healing. Some of you are not sure and continue to believe that you must handle your own problems! In some cases you may have some success, but there is a better way. Doing it your way is not the better way. And don't be afraid of leaning. Lean on me, Jesus says. There is no concern too insignificant for my attention. And when you pray remember that my Father is there listening. Pray boldly, yes, asking the Father to meet your needs. Also pray trusting that his wisdom surpasses yours. He's not going to lead you into any walls or crashing down any steps.

When Sir Walter Raleigh, the famed explorer, was on the scaffold awaiting imminent death, he is said to have had a short talk with the axeman. The executioner told his prisoner that the block would be more comfortable if he turned his head the other way. "My friend," said Sir Walter Raleigh, "it matters little how the head lies so long as the heart is right." To accept the Lord Jesus as our personal Savior and to trust in him puts the heart right once and for all, for time and eternity. Problems, even imminent death, are handled more gracefully when we walk through life trusting in the Lord.

If you are not currently on a trust walk with the Lord, let me suggest that you begin one right now. Your partner is ready and waiting—his hand is reaching out for yours. There's but one simple thing to do...take it.

Eighth Precinct Police Report

By PO Kenneth A. Box

The Robbery Squad reported the arrest of a 20 year old Levittown man for Robbery 2nd Degree.

Paul Lapine, of Stirling Lane, Levittown, was arrested September 5, at 10:45 P.M. at his home. Lapine allegedly robbed the City Gas Station at 178 Old Country Road, Hicksville, on Dec. 25, 1985.

Hicksville at 2:45 A.M. Sept. 10, and charged with Felony Criminal Mischief.

David Sanchez, unemployed, of 219-18, 74th Avenue was arrested by Eighth Precinct Police Officer Peter Engel, after Sanchez allegedly did in excess of $400 dollars worth of damage to a 1984 Mazda Truck, parked in a lot of Top Light Auto Sales, 598 Broadway, Hicksville, by kicking in the interior dash and door.

The suspect was arraigned on the charge at First District Court Mineola.

Long Island Man Arrested On Multiple Charges

On Sept. 9 Nassau County District Attorney Denis Dillon announced the arrest of Frank M. Manfredi, 38, of Houston Avenue, Mineola, for multiple counts of Grand Larceny, Criminal Possession of a Forged Instrument and Unauthorized Practice of law. The larceny and Criminal Possession of a Forged Instrument are each D Felonies punishable by up to 7 years in a state prison. Unauthorized practice of law is a misdemeanor punishable by one year in jail.

Dillon said "Mr. Manfredi, a former attorney in the practice of law, was disbarred by the New York State Supreme Court, Appellate Division, in August 1985. Since that time, investigation by the investigators from the District Attorney's Commercial Fraud Bureau has established that Mr. Manfredi has continued to hold himself out as a practicing attorney. As a result of the investigation by the Commercial Frauds Bureau, Manfredi was today charged with Grand Larceny in the Second Degree, Criminal Possession of a Forged Instrument in the Second Degree, and Unauthorized Practice of Law, in connection with his representation of two couples for the sale of a home. Manfredi received a check for $12,500, as a down payment for that home which he then diverted to reduce his own debts. Manfredi, in connection with this theft of funds from Mrs. Lisa Veras of Mineola also submitted the check with a false instrument on it."

The DA said, in a second separate incident, Manfredi is charged with Grand Larceny in the Second Degree (2 counts) and Criminal Possession of a Forged Instrument from S.S.T. Leasing Co. of New Hyde Park, by submitting to them a forged lease drawn in the name of Anthony Dattilo of Staten Island. After obtaining the vehicle, Manfredi then sold it to Mr. John R. Duddy, Jr. for $12,000. He is charged with a theft of the vehicle, a theft of the $12,000 and submission of the false contract. Each charge is a D Felony punishable by 7 years in state prison.

Finally, subsequent to his disbarment, Manfredi was a principal of Professional Collection Agency, Inc. of New Hyde Park and while employed in that capacity did divert funds that he collected for his own customers of the bill collection agency to his own use. The final charge of Grand Larceny in the Second Degree is based upon his activity in connection with that company. It is also a Felony.

Numerous other allegations involving Manfredi's activities and representations have been received by the Nassau County District Attorney's Commercial Fraud Bureau and the Nassau County Police Department Forgery Squad. Those incidents continue to be under investigation. He was arraigned on the charges in District Court, Mineola.

Town Board Meeting

Bradley, Esq. attorney for Delco also spoke in opposition for the same reason.

Mr. Longworth, Chaplin's attorney presented a written agreement with Hicksville Firestone for Chaplin's patrons to use Firestone's parking lot after Firestone business hours. He also said that the management and owners of Chaplins are constantly trying to encourage their patrons not to use Delco's parking lot, which is private property. The Town Board reserved decision on this petition for a special use permit. However, if it is finally granted, Chaplin's would still have to apply for a variance inasmuch as they would then have insufficient parking.

A night hearing took place on Sept. 16th to hear the petition of NOPA REALTY CORP. requesting a change of zone from Res. D to R-O Residence (residence-office) on two houses located at 20 Central Park Road and 65 Central Park Road, both in Plainview. About forty people appeared in opposition to this requested zone change.

The applicant's attorney, Irving Cohen, Esq. made the presentation. These two houses are currently occupied by the Central General Hospital, one for their bilding department and the other for their computer dept. The Hospital purchased these homes in 1982.

Those opposed did so on the grounds that traffic would be affected in this area which is presently totally a residential area and they considered this to be spot zoning which would then spread throughout the residential area. Some opposed stated that they felt that the Hospital should have acquired this variance before they started their operations in residentially-zoned areas.

Several residents also mentioned that there are many offices available nearby and they felt that these changes are not necessary. However, the attorney for NOPA said that office rentals would be much more expensive than what they are currently carrying, for the space they need.

The Town Board agreed to leave a full five weeks period open for any further correspondence from people on either side of this issue, before they make their decision. At present, the Board reserved decision on this petition.

The next Town Board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 7.
