A Proud Moment For Hicksville

Veterans Monuments Unveiled And Dedicated

They stood with umbrellas overhead, in raincoats or soaked jackets, and they saw monuments to long ago and controversial wars unveiled. It was Veterans Day, 1986 in Hicksville and the rapt crowd forgot the downpour to see the village's just-dedicated Korea War and Vietnam War memorials for the first time.

The unveiling ceremony was planned as a climactic moment in a formal memorial dedication program. They were supposed to have been veterans of both wars unveiling the black and gray six-foot monuments. Honor Society and Student Council officers from the Senior and Junior High Schools were to come forward and place wreaths at the unveiled monuments, to the beautiful recorded strains of "Amazing Grace" on the bagpipes and excerpts from Massenet's "Meditation on Thais" and Handel's "Largo." But the morning's rain balked such efforts at fitting solemnity.

The Monuments' Inscriptions

The rain-drenched crowd saw enough that was exalting on this Nov. 11th. Some recognized the teacher from the high school social studies department, himself a captain of light infantry in Vietnam, showing his young son the monument to his father's war. There were middle-aged one-time braves in the uniforms of Hicksville's veterans' posts looking at the Korean War monument with its inscriptions: "Hicksville Honors Its Sons and Daughters Who Served the Nation in the Korean War - 1950-1953" ... "They gave Communism its first defeat." Some, peering under visors dripping water, with dampening collars, saw George Lang being wheeled forward by Vietnam veterans in their combat fatigues. The gallant gentleman with his Congressional Medal of Honor around his neck, looked intently at the Vietnam memorial. One wondered what this well-known hero, who lost the use of his legs in 1969, in a furious assault on enemy bunkers, to extricate his squad, thought of it all. The amazing stone-replica's (the real monument just missed being delivered on time) inscription seemed to capture a bit of Lang and his Southeast Asian War comrades' legacy to our nation:

"Undefeated on the battlefield; loyal and patient in the tribulations of peace."

Traditional Veterans Day Services

To the Gold Star mothers and fathers who saw the brief traditional Veterans' Day service, after the memorials' unveiling, the stark rifle salute by the Hicksville combined-veterans posts firing party under its Commander Korean War veteran John Rizos and Color Guard Sergeant Howard Bergeron, may have been jarring. There is nothing romantic about the blast of rifles - even in salute - followed by the young buglers of the Hicksville High band, Brian Robey and Sonny Mirabelli. The boys shook the rain from their instruments, cleared mouth-pieces and made old General Butterfield's 'Taps' and its echo more haunting than usually heard.

Program Moved Indoors

The day began for a crowd of well over 200 Hicksvillians at 9:45 in the Junior High School auditorium, instead of out-of-doors as planned. The 61 year-old building on Jerusalem Avenue has known many community programs in its lifetime, but this was a special gathering—and rain, sleet or cold, as forecast, could not keep these folks abed. "You don't unveil and dedicate a war memorial every year," somebody said. Certainly, not two war monuments, one adds. Only Hicksville would carry off this sort of sentimental quest. "There is a deep strain of old-fashioned patriotism in this village, 42 of whose sons have died in the nation's cause," Master of Ceremonies and Program Chairman Richard Evers, reminded the attentive audience.

The program was in the formal tradition. There were well-recorded traditional airs and classic melodies prepared by Tony Johnson, audio-visual director for the Hicksville schools and interspersed with prayers and addresses. Among the distinguished guests introduced besides George Lang, were reelected Assemblyman Fred Parola, Town Councilman Thomas Clark and Councilman Angelo A. Delligatti, and Hempstead Town Supervisor Thomas Gulotta who has worked closely with Conrad Steers, President of the Nassau Chapter, Vietnam Veterans of America in assisting Vietnam veterans. Gulotta's office on this occasion presented the William Gouse Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars with a citation in appreciation of its fine contribution to the establishment of the War Memorial.

Distinguished Guests

Other distinguished guests included and seated on the dais included: Dr. Catherine Fenton, Superintendent of Schools; Dorothy Horton McGee, Oyster Bay Town's fine local historian, author and a lady who wears her patriotism as a "heart on her sleeve." School Board members present were Jay Schwartz, Carol Wolf. A special tribute was paid during the program to School Trustee Daniel MacBride, Chairman of the School Board's Advisory Committee School Facilities and the Community. This committee, with the steadfast, professional support of William Hall, Assistant Superintendent for Business Services and William Becker, Director of Facilities and Operations, encouraged in every way the monument project proposed by Connie Steers. The Vietnam monument replica and the entire refurbished Memorials Site are a tribute to the incredible resourcefulness of Bill Becker and his staff.

Connie Steers' Efforts

It was, in many respects, Connie Steers; day, as all present who saw and heard, and were glad. The indefatigable Vietnam veteran took wistful thoughts about a Vietnam memorial, accommodated Korean veterans (who have first claim to 'being forgotten soldiers') and went out and raised over $10,000, from hundreds of small donors and the contributions of several business people and organizations. Those who worked hard with Connie were obviously happy with so many leaders and residents of Hicksville present for the dedication and ceremonies. Sheila Noeth, editor of the Mid-Island

Galileo Lodge News

PRESIDENT JOE GIORDANO'S MESSAGE: "Some people run the gamut of their emotions from A to B." Dorothy Parker

Time has an unforeseen force of its own. Its unstoppable, can't be impeded, held back or altered. Since it is ephemeral, we accept it and cope with it. The Halloween Dance recently presented by the Galileo Lodge had its own time, just as the 'Foolies Follies' to be presented Friday, the 14th of November, will also have its own time. If time belongs to everything and everyone, time will then belong to the Galileo Lodge's Christmas Dance, to be held on Saturday, the 6th of December. Tickets will cost $14.00 per person, and in the offering will be a delicious dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music for your dancing and listening pleasure. Then add the wonderful spirit of Christmas engendered by the male and female members of the Galileo Lodge, Armand Del Cioppo is the General Chairman of this dance, aided and abetted beautifully by Joe Morace. Christmas is not Christmas unless you can share those beautiful feelings with friends, and the Galileo Lodge is certainly a friendly place to socialize, whether it is Christmas or any other dance or activity. Please note that a 'bring-your-own liquor' policy will be in effect that night.

Then on Sunday, the 7th of December, time will belong to the Galileo Lodge and to all those who enter its environs on that particular day. Naturally I am referring to the two Christmas parties to be held by the Galileo Lodge, one for the handicapped children of Queens and Long Island in the morning and the other one for the children of the membership in the afternoon. Yes, time will belong to all those children and adults, whether they be parents, guardians or attendants. These parties are touching, beautifully presented and accepted by all, and that they warm the human heart and touch the human spirit to a degree hardly imaginable, certainly needs very little emphasis here. The Galileo Lodge feels that nothing should be spared in order to make these parties fascinating and emotional to those children. Plenty of food and refreshments, 'Goodies' of all sorts, music for singing and dancing, and that wonderful appearance from Santa Claus as he unloads his special bag of toys. To elevate the human spirit, to truly punctuate that ecstatic mood of Christmas and to really lend credence to the idea of peace on earth and good will to men, Joe Giordano and Skip Monteforte will supervise these two enchanting parties, ably assisted by the full membership of the Lodge itself and the Ladies Auxiliary.

And then to close the year in beautiful style, the Galileo Lodge announces that its New Years Party and Dance will be held on Wednesday, the 31st of December. New Years is terrific and the spontaneity of its New Years activities must be seen to be (Continued on Page 8)

Dear Friends...

Monuments Dedicated On Veterans Day

There is so much we would like to share with all of you regarding this less-than 6 months' drive, with such an inspiring broad base of support from so many of you, that this week we will not have enough room. Those of you who were unable to be present at the Nov. 11th Unveiling and Dedication of these beautiful monuments, will be reading about it, starting on page one of our Hicksville edition. But there is so much more....

As you know, last week, we reported on the Lee Avenue Children's donation of $442.00. This came as a result of the kind donation of a painting by their art teacher, Miss Eisen, which was raffled off... and the work of a group of dedicated parents at Lee Avenue. Some of these parents and teachers composed a letter which was taken home to all Lee Avenue Parents. Here is a copy of this letter, which helped to produce such beautiful results:

Love For Lee

Dear Parents of Lee Avenue:
The Hicksville veterans are honoring all men and women who served in the Vietnam and Korean Wars and are dedicating a monument to their brothers and sisters on Veterans Day. They still need funds.

Lee Avenue children would like to express their love and admiration for the veterans who fought and gallantly served in the Vietnam and Korean Wars. In order that they may help others achieve their goal, they need your assistance. They would like to be part of this noble effort by contributing funds our vets so desperately need for their monument.

In support of the children's effort, our school Art Teacher, Miss Eisen, has graciously offered an original painting to be raffled off for this cause. Each family who contributes to the "Children's Gift" may purchase raffle tickets for $1.00 each. You may buy as many raffle tickets as you wish.

While only one person will receive this beautiful painting, we will all share in the joy of the children being able to give to those who so unselfishly gave of themselves.

PLEASE HELP THE CHILDREN HELP THE VETS.

There will be two days that the raffle tickets will be sold, October 29th and October 30th the winner will be announced.

The Monument will be dedicated at the Hicksville Junior High School on November 11th at 9:45 A.M. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Thank you,

Concerned Parents and Children of Lee Avenue The Continuing List of Contributors

To add to the List we have been bringing you, are the following names of those whose donations were deposited early in Nov: Richard & Carol Schroeder of Johan Ave., R. Lawrence & Norma J. Dagna of High St., Terrence & Florence Morris of Belmont Pl., James & Ann McAllister of Brittle Lane, William & Eleanor Homuth of Tempe, Arizona, William & Rita Sharkey of Chestnut St., James & Dolores Drudy of Grape Lane, Benjamin & William Klecka of Valley Lane, Helen Schlauch of Ketcham Ave., Patrick & Virginia Looney of Johan Ave., Alton & Bernice Giese of Southampton, Margaret Voss of Fordham Ave., William & Blanche Christensen, of New South Rd., Marie T. Carroll of Glenbrook Rd., Paul Richards Plumbing & Heating of Primrose Ave., and the Rev. Domenic (and Annette) Ciannella of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church.

There will, however, be another, (probably final) list of deposits to this Hicksville Veterans Monument Fund as there are at least 20 more checks, plus a donation by the Junior High School of Hicksville, which was presented to Chairman Conrad Steers at the Dedication Ceremonies on Nov. 11th by President of the Board of Education Bill Bennett.

At this point we can only say to each and every one of you, "thanks for your support of this worthwhile cause. And... God bless you all."

Cops and Vamps Try In Vain To Save Suicide

Nassau County Police and Hicksville Firefighters worked together to save a Westbury teen who jumped in front of a westbound train at the Hicksville Railroad station. The incident occurred on Wed. Nov. 5 at 12:41 PM. The efforts of the 40 Firefighters and Police officers were in vain.

Shortly after the teen was treated and taken from the elevated tracks by tower ladder and rushed by police helicopter to the County Medical Center he was pronounced dead from multiple injuries. The teenager was an outpatient at the County Medical Center. A witness stated the youth hid under the platform and leaped in front of the train as it came through the station.

Haz-Mat Teams Assist At Propane Leak

Fire Department Hazardous Materials Team from Hicksville and East Meadow along with the N.C. Police Haz-Mat Team worked with the Levittown Fire Department to shut off the flow of propane leaking at a demolition site at 2920 Hempstead Turnpike, Levittown. The emergency, on Nov. 5 at 8:40 PM forced the evacuation of the public library and nearby homes. As Levittown Firefighters dispersed the gas fumes with hose streams Haz-Mat Team members worked to locate the tanks. The N.C. Fire Marshal's office Haz-Mat Unit provided building plans which gave the exact location of the buried tanks. Once located the valves were shut and the emergency was terminated. Officials were to investigate why demolition was permitted before the propane was removed from the site.

NEATNESS COUNTS

Do you remember, when you handed in your second-grade homework, that how it LOOKED was just as important as getting the right answer to a math problem or spelling a word correctly?

"Neatness counts," your teacher said — and your real estate agent would agree.

The general appearance of your house is as important to the sale as the number of bedrooms, the age of the furnace, or whether there's a fireplace in the den.

There's no need to invest thousands in new construction. Put your effort into low-cost, high visibility improvements. Soap and water and fresh paint make a house sparkle. Get rid of excess furniture that crowds rooms. To make closets look larger, clear out the clothes you haven't worn lately. Take care of small repair chores now: a dripping faucet, a cracked windowpane or a broken light bulb suggest neglected repairs all over the house.

You fix up the house — we'll sell it. List with:

The Hicksville High School HIGHLIGHT

By Scott J. O'Callaghan

All too often, when one thinks about what any class in the High School is doing, the first thought to pop into mind is the Senior Class. That's where all the glory is, just smooth sailing while waiting for college invitations. Yet, in their shadow is the Junior Class, the Senior Class-to-be. For them, school is hard work. Standardized tests abound (PSAT, SAT, ACT, ACH, AP, just to name a few.) Their record of this year will be closely scrutinized by college admissions officers. In short, Junior Class life can be rough.

Yet, the Junior Class of Hicksville High is trying to alleviate the pressures of school life by organizing a variety of activities. The officers are: Debbie Kelly, President; Karrie Sheridan, Vice-President; Kim Stanley, Secretary; Dawn Trenka Treasurer. Their advisor is Miss Patricia Dieli. Their first major activity will be their Ring Dance. There, they will receive their class rings, and one lucky boy and one lucky girl will receive one free. And of course, there will be dancing, socializing and all around fun. Meanwhile, they hope to go on a class ski trip in February and on a Cruise to Nowhere, around Manhattan, in May or June. Also in the Spring will be their Junior Prom. To help support this busy calendar of events, they held a candy sale in school which raised over $700. But what do they need most at this point in time? "We can't do anything without the class. We're here for them," stated President Debbie Kelly.

Gold Star Parents Present
In a very real sense, by their inspired and faithful parentage the Gold Star parents present were truly distinguished guests. The Master of Ceremonies took time in introducing them by recalling their brave, faithful sons. Lt. Carl Kozma, United States Army, lost in Vietnam. His father's Silver Star ribbon on his coat lapel spoke volumes to those who recognized it. Spl. 4th Class Paul D. Walkowsky, US Army, had his father and family present. Mrs. Robert Carroll was there for her son P.F.C. Kevin Carroll, United States Marine Corps, killed in Vietnam, and Mrs. John P. Waters came proudly for the remembrance of her Lt. Colonel Joseph Waters, U.S. Air Force combat flyer, Vietnam, killed while a test pilot in a dangerous new aircraft

The audience heard that Hicksville losses in Vietnam, a long struggle, were 13 men. Mention of their loyalty and courage and of three brave predecessors in Korea fouched many in the audience. The beautiful words of 'America' in a recording by Mahalia Jackson seemed to epitomize the diversity of outlook, the freedom for which the honored living and dead men of Korea and Vietnam Wars gave so much.

Community Groups Represented
With many educators, principals and teachers present were leaders of Hicksville community organizations: Chamber of Commerce, Community Council, Scout and Camp Fire Girls; service and fraternal groups... the political club leaders; Gregory Museum; Youth Council civic groups and newspapers - most aspects of a community with long, proud traditions. Sheila Noeth, in her address, spoke feelingly of the broad community support for this memorials

Speakers
William Bennett, President of the Hicksville Board, a Korean War veteran, gave the principal address, recalling the service and the names of many units which fought in Korea to halt aggression. He spoke, too, of the later Southeast Asian conflicts and the enduring contribution of their veterans during and after the battles, under the most difficult conditions. Mr. Bennett closed his address by pausing, and making a presentation of a check for $536.10 raised by the Junior High School students, for the War Memorials development, to Conrad Steers and Richard Evers of the Memorials Committee.

Jeff Fried, who spoke on behalf of the Hicksville student body, recalled the difficulties of the Vietnam serviceman's wartime experiences. His thoughtful words evoked images of those bitter, controversial years in our nation and among its troops in a cruel battle, often without proper public support. "... They are heroes in the true sense of the word ... having the attributes of courage and nobility. Not only did the soldiers possess these traits, but many others, making them true heroes. This is why we are gathered here today, to recognize them for the job they did, defending assisted in making Nov. 11, 1986 a day to remember, under difficult rainy circumstances, a word of special thanks should go to Mike Wallace, Vice President of the High School Student Council, who operated the voice and music equipment off-stage; the color guards who provided such a grand background, massed on the back of the stage; Millie and Al Egan of the Legion who helped redirect and greet arriving guests; Bob Hartenstein, US Navy veteran and Anne Evers who ushered and seated special guests

Drug Awareness Day At Burns Ave. School

Drug Awareness Day (Oct. 23rd) at Burns Avenue School started off our Growing Healthy Program with a unified effort on the part of the children, the teachers and the PTA. Every child in the school, grades 1-6 and Special Education classes, participated in a bumper sticker contest. The idea for the bumper sticker contest was conceived by our principal, Dr. Burke, and sponsored and supported by our PTA.

Based on correct societal trends and youth involvement in drugs, each child, through their thoughts, tried to influence others not to take drugs. The students were very enthusiastic and came up with remarkable slogans. One winner was picked from each class. The children were delighted to receive a gift certificate from Waldenbooks.

In conjunction, a bulletin board was put in the lobby of the school, with pictures that the children from K-6 and Special Ed., brought in of themselves, showing things they love to do. The theme of this bulletin board is "Smiles Don't Just Happen-What Makes You Smile." The purpose is to remind the children that smiles and happiness can be achieved while living a healthy drug free life.

Our Drug Awareness Day bumper sticker winners are:

Charles Wagner Post A.L. Members Attend POW/MIA Rally

On Sunday, November 2nd members of the Charles Wagner American Legion Post 421 attended a POW/MIA rally in Washington, D.C. Veterans organizations placed a wreath at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial and paraded to the White House where delegates met with Richard Childress, National Security Council Director for Asian Affairs. Commander Harry Christo, Past Commander Ray Gamble, Sergeant-at-Arms Greg Bennett and S.A.L. member Willis

Gamble were privileged to share the bus trip with Mary Matejov, an MIA/POW mother. Her son Joseph was an enlisted member of an Air Force aircrew shot down over Laos three days before the Paris Peace Accords were signed.

Legionnaires viewed displays set up by POW/MIA organizations. The National League of Families of American Prisoners and Missing In Southeast Asia warned citizens about disinformation and unfounded allegations that hurt the POW/MIA cause.

Release Foundation, P.O. Box 339, Islip Terrace, N.Y. 11752 handed out a study listing reasons why Hanoi is holding American POW's.

Another Vietnam Vet, Gino Casanova, of the Bamboo Connection, is in the 31st day of a hunger strike for our POW/MIA's.

All groups agree evidence concludes that Americans are still being held against their will in Southeast Asia.

The Charles Wagner American Legion Post supports the return of American POW's and the remains of MIA's from Southeast Asia. We urge all Americans to become involved and remain aware of the POW/MIA issue.

The Anglin home was filled with birthday joy as grandson, Matthew John Anglin, celebrated his 2nd birthday on November 7. Matthew is the son of Donald and Alicia. Ivan Anglin will be 8 years old on November 7. Congratulations to all.

Congratulations to grandparents, Nick and Demi D'Antuono. Little Stephanie Demetra, their eighth grandchild, arrived "singing" at 4:04 P.M. on Saturday, November 8. She weighed six pounds. The proud parents are Joe and Toni (D'Antuono) Vanella of West Hempstead. Baby Stephanie's brother, Joseph, will celebrate his 5th birthday on November 24, with "big" sister, Nicole, 14½ months old, celebrating both events. Cousins, Jacqueline, Matthew, and Michael DePalma of Hicksville and Lauren and Danielle D'Antuono of Plainview are anxiously awaiting their first visit. "Poppo and Grandma" better start their Christmas shopping right away!

November seems to be a busy month for the D'Antuono family. Grandma Demi will be celebrating her "49th" birthday (again) on November 26, and granddaughter, Lauren D'Antuono of Plainview, will be 4 years old on November 30.

November 5th was Dennis Newman's special day. Dennis celebrated his 21st

On October 30, Willet Avenue School was the site of the First Annual Convention of Pumpkin Scientists. The Convention was attended by the students in first and sixth grades, and their teachers, Sophie Milburn, Nancy Stewart, Carl Schulz and Sandra Salat.

It was the task of the student scientists to discover the answers to many questions about pumpkins. The younger children worked in groups with the older ones to discover the answers to many questions. Do pumpkins float? Can you count the creases without using your eyes? Are there more creases on bigger pumpkins? Are pumpkins mostly full or mostly empty? Are the seeds arranged in patterns? Do bigger pumpkins have more seeds?

The Convention ended with the participants frying and eating the pumpkin seeds. Then one of the teachers used the flesh to make pumpkin soup which many of the children had never tasted. All the scientists agreed that the Convention was worthwhile on many levels, and should be repeated next fall.

The Bregels Celebrate Their 40th Wedding Anniversary

A popular Hicksville couple, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bregel, Jr. celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary last Saturday evening, Nov. 8th, at a gala dinner-dance held at the Indian Hills Country Club in Fort Salonga.

Approximately 200 invited friends and relatives were present to help Dorothy and Henry celebrate this festive occasion.

The Bregels are former owners of Empire Moving and Storage Company, which was owned by the late Mr. Henry Bregel, Sr., and started many years ago by his father.

At a Kiwanis Club luncheon held several years ago to honor the late Frank Chlumsky, among the many memories of old-time Hicksville was the fact, told to those present by Mr. Chlumsky himself, was that it cost him $20.00 to have Empire Moving and Storage Co. move him from the City to Hicksville! Mr. Clumsky and Mr. Bregel, Sr. were close friends for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Bregel, Jr. were recently honored for their school and community involvement by the Hicksville High School Alumni Association at their Oct. 1986 Homecoming Dinner Dance. They are both graduates of Hicksville High School.

Former NY Ranger Speaks To Hicksville Students

Former New York Ranger Mark Heaslip spoke on behalf of Governor Cuomo's "Athletes Against Drunk Driving" program

November 12 at Our Lady of Mercy School, located at 520 S. Oyster Bay Rd. in Hicksville.

Heaslip spoke before the entire student body at 9 a.m. The program was in conjunction with the Nassau County STOP-DWI program.

Heaslip played the position of winger with the Rangers.

Governor Cuomo created the athletes program two years ago, to educate students about the dangers of combining drinking and driving. More than 130,000 students to date have heard the athletes' presentations.

When you look for a mortgage or a co-op loan, you should look past the Annual Interest Rate—your "bottom line" is really the Annual Percentage Rate (APR). That's because the APR reflects your loan's true cost—which includes points, and, if it's an adjustable rate loan, the index used in calculating future payments. Because Eastern uses the most favorable index available, our APRs are usually lower than those of other lenders!

Let us show you how Eastern's "bottom line" can save you hundreds of dollars over the term of your loan! Act now—all rates and terms are set upon receipt of your completed application and remain in effect for ninety days.
