After a fine parade which has been growing in participation in the last years, those in authority decided to switch the Memorial Day Service indoors due to the heavily overcast weather. Therefore, the services were held in the newly redecorated Hicksville High School auditorium.

Michael Hirsch, PCJWV led the pledge of allegiance to our flag which was followed by our National Anthem by the combined bands under the direction of David Abi with Mr. Belicki as the lead vocalist.

After the invocation which was given by Rabbi Julius Goldberg, Eugene Goidel, PC, JWV read the General Orders No. 11, issued by Commander in Chief John Logan in 1868, while Morty Ozur, PC, JWV greeted those present and made the introductions.

This was followed by "America the Beautiful" by the Hicksville School District combined Band and Chorus under the supervision of Richard Hogan.

Brigadier General Bernard Saul was the principal speaker. Another inspiring short speech was made by TOB Councilman Thomas Clark.

Two student speakers, both seniors at Hicksville High School, Class of '83, spoke on "What Memorial Day Means To Me". (Both speeches are carried in this newspaper, in their entirety.)

Father Rogers of St. Ignatius RC Church gave the benediction, following which the Gold Star Mothers and Mrs. Tecka Gunther and Mrs. Mary Manelski, placed a wreath forward on the auditorium stage (this would later be transferred outside). The closing prayer was delivered by Pastor Richard Smeltzer of the Hicksville United Methodist Church.

At the close of this impressive service, Taps were played by the Hicksville Senior and Junior High School bands.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

VENERABLE SKIP MONTEFORTE'S MESSAGE: Experience is a wonderful thing - it enables you to recognize a mistake when you make it twice.

In my last column, wherein I extolled the virtues of the members of the Ladies Auxiliary and the Galileo Lodge who toiled laboriously to make the May Dance a huge success, I inadvertently omitted a few names of members who were also instrumental in the achievement of that success, namely, Millie and Armand Del Cioppo, Millie Caputo, Jessie Clappett, Odella Ricca, Dolores Look, Dante Perrotti, Ist. Asst. Van. Pete Massiello, John Payne and Venerable Skip Monteforte. Add these names to the list I already mentioned last week and you get heart-warming picture of the magnitude of the help that was graciously offered to Chairlady Mary Monteforte, who, incidentally, once again sincerely wishes to express her thanks to all the male and female members who were responsible for the successful presentation of that May Dance.

The last fishing trip held by the Galileo Lodge on May 22nd was a success for many reasons. Firstly, the fishing was great and to prove this I might mention that a 5 lb. Blackfish was caught by Jerry Nicotia. Secondly, the food and beverages were delicious as well as plentiful, not to mention the camaraderie that was so well in evidence. Chairman Jim Posillico and his assistant John Keiper wish to thank all those who attended and gave a helping hand. Our next fishing trip is set for July 17th and wives will be included this time, so anyone interested can call Jim Posillico (334-6852) and John Keiper (931-3758) and record your names.

Talents are still needed for the 'Foolies Follies', scheduled for October 12th, a Friday, under the supervision of Sue Laurenti (931-0036) and assisted by Mary Monteforte (938-9536). The 'Foolies Follies' is a series of comedic acts and skits featuring dancing, singing, pantomime with a touch of clean burlesque bolstered by the talents of the male and female members of the Galileo Lodge and Ladies Auxiliary. If you are interested and have talents, which surely you have, please contact Sue and Mary at the above numbers. Rehearsals take place every Tuesday night at the Galileo Lodge, from 8 to 10 P.M. I see a two-fold purpose here, which is that you can lend your talents and enjoy doing so at the same time. More on this activity in later columns.

Don't forget the Blood Bank Day on Thursday, the 30th of June, at the Galileo Lodge, under the supervision of Jim Reiser. Other events to put your 'must-not-forget list' is the Galileo Lodge's Picnic at Eisenhower Park, set for Sunday, the 7th of August, the Football Wedding Dance set for Saturday, the 27th of August, which should be hilarious as well as entertaining. And the Member Appreciation night, to be held on Sunday, the 12th of June, at our Lodge, and here is where male and female members of the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary are offered food and refreshments and the camaraderie of the Lodge itself. The Galileo Lodge graciously 'picks up the tab' for this particular event. Come and enjoy yourselves.

LODGE TIDBITS: Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matassa as they will celebrate 40 years of wedded bliss on June 12th... And congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riccardi as they will celebrate 45 years of marriage on June 21st. Beautiful news about beautiful people and its a delight to report it... Some very interesting news about Kim Hecker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hecker of our Lodge who is making sensational swimming news. The report is that Kim participated in a Special Inter-

HHS Seniors Speak At Memorial Day Services

MEMORIAL DAY, '83
BY ERIK ROGERS

Memorial Day, observed on May 30th was first inaugurated in 1868 by General John A. Logan to honor those soldiers who died during the Civil War. Memorial Day has since become a day in which we commemorate those soldiers who died in the service of our country.

On Memorial Day we should remember those people who sacrificed themselves for our country. I feel that a mere acknowledgment of their sacrifice is insufficient. The best way to acknowledge their service is by sacrificing our time and effort in the service of our country, state and country. In this way we personally are doing something to honor those that died in service.

It is important to remember that, as acting citizens, we are responsible for the future of our country. We are responsible for its proper operation and appearance. People often state that they cannot single handedly do anything to help their community or country. However, if people act together to do something beneficial, it will be accomplished.

There should be no question of our responsibility to contribute our time in a cooperative effort to help our community. Financially and physically able people should be more than happy to contribute some of their time to worthwhile causes.

Food drives for the needy, blood for those who desperately need it to survive, clean-ups for our community, shoveling snow for the elderly, donating money for cancer... these are just a few examples of things we can do to help our community and country. Of course, there are many other things that can be done and there are many ways of doing them.

If you are looking for examples to follow... look around you, or read the newspapers. Scouting, for example, is founded upon service. It serves as a growing experience for many young men and women. For the highest rank in Boy Scouts... the Eagle Award, the young man must organize a service project that will benefit his community, state or country. To obtain the Eagle Scout Award I organized a Food Drive and conducted it throughout Hicksville. All together I collected close to 700 lbs. of food for the needy people of Nassau County. There are many other organizations that are based on service, such as the Red Cross, various environmental groups and the clubs and lodges right here in Hicksville.

There is no need to contribute your service single handedly. However, people like Terry Fox, who ran over 3,000 miles... more than half-way across Canada, with an artificial leg, to raise money for cancer research, should stay in one's mind as a person willing to sacrifice his life to be of service. All the soldiers that died for their country, are also examples of this same rare type of person. Our service, in group projects, when added together, will greatly aid our community, state and country... and, in the end... after the project is finished... we will have a feeling of overpowering pride that cannot possibly be described.

In conclusion, I feel that our community service is a fitting tribute, indeed it is a living memorial, to those men who died for our country.

MEMORIAL DAY, '83 BY MAUREN MEYER

Memorial Day is a day in which we honor the men and women who fought in the wars faced by the United States. As a high school student with no true understanding of what Memorial Day was, I viewed it as just another holiday, one that gave us a day off from school.

But I've come to realize that it is much more important.

Now that I've done some research about this grave day in the American people's lives, I am ashamed

A Letter From NY State Professional Engineers Society, Nassau County Chapter

REFERENCE: HOUSE SEWER CONNECTIONS

Dear Sir:
It has recently been brought to our attention that many homeowners who have contracted for sewer connection hookups have had sad experiences with the quality of the work. We offer the following guidelines for homeowners contemplating entering into contracts for this work:

1. Ask the Contractor to show proof that he is licensed in your municipality to do this work.
2. Ask for a list of references of previous jobs completed; check some of them out. If uncertain, contact the Better Business Bureau, Nassau County Consumer Affairs, or County Public Works Department for complaint record of the company.
3. Remember, the cheapest quotation is not always the best!

In addition, we have enclosed a list of points which should be discussed with the Contractor in advance, and preferably should be included in the Contract.

Very truly yours,
Donald Bass, P.E., President

Points To Discuss With Contractor

- a. The Contractor shall secure all necessary permits in advance of construction.
- b. The price has been quoted with cognizance of the total number of cesspools to be pumped out and filled.
- c. The Contractor should repair all damage to sidewalk, curb, and underground sprinkling systems and all other improvements from tunneling and equipment operations.
- d. Care shall be taken to limit damage to trees and shrubs. Any injuries shall be corrected by pruning and tree wound protection.
- e. Damage to lawn and paved areas shall be minimized by operating equipment on heavy plywood sheets.
- f. Stripped sod, topsoil, and other excavated materials shall be segregated and stored on covers.
- g. The top of cesspool(s) shall be removed and all liquid materials pumped out.
- h. The cesspool(s) shall be backfilled a portion at a time with clean sandy fill supplied by the Contractor. Each portion shall be flooded with water which should disappear from view before the next portion of fill is added.
- i. The new house connection pipe shall be cast iron where it passes over the cesspool.
- j. The backfill of the connection should be thoroughly compacted. If a tunnel is created under the sidewalk, the Contractor shall backfill and compact materials horizontally around the pipe.
- k. The topsoil shall be spread, raked and leveled after the cesspool and trench backfilling work is complete. The sod should then be carefully replaced.
- l. The work site shall be thoroughly cleaned of all debris attributable to this operation.
- m. The Contractor shall return as necessary to place topsoil under the sod in any areas which subsequently settle.
- n. You, the homeowner, shall be held blameless in the case of any injury suffered by employees of the Contractor or any other party, which may be attributable to this work.
- o. Obtain Certificates of Workman's Compensation Insurance and Public Liability Insurance.
- p. Read your Contract and add items which you feel are necessary.

Syosset Architect "Reincarnates" Old Buildings

A smashing Hi-Tech corporation headquarters created from two adjacent, empty, former ice rinks?

A fait accompli--and indicative of the ledger-main practiced by Syosset architect Peter Eokin, AIA. Eokin has demonstrated that nearly any old structurally sound building, dead so far as any current use is concerned, can be made to breathe again in a new life. "Reincarnation" is an expression not misapplied to this facet of Eokin's work (he designs original construction, too!) It is as though if the original designers and builders were good people and built well, and if structural maintenance has been honest and true, the building can be born again, with Eokin's help, to a new and perhaps better life.

The current product of Eokin's handiwork, a "new" headquarters for the NPD Research Company in Port Washington, is an excellent example. No visitor would imagine the building once functioned as two separate ice rinks.

NPD is a creative and innovative marketing research organization that numbers many of the Fortune 500 companies among its clients. The company grew, physically at least, like Topsy. It ended up in five separate buildings in Floral Park.

Eokin was called in for discussions by NPD management in December, 1981 and commenced work the following month. The new building, converted from the two ice skating rinks after massive creative problem-solving, was occupied a year later, in January 1983.

Eokin's task, to create an environment in which a company such as NPD could function optimally, offered certain challenges. For one thing, he was asked to put 92,000 sq. ft. of existing offices into 55,000 sq. ft. then under roof in the two rinks. For another, the two buildings were totally dissimilar--one was a packaged Butler building and the other a more traditional masonry structure.

In addition, the owners were art lovers--indeed, one was a sculptor in his own right--and wished their new company headquarters itself to be a work of art.

Eokin searched for square feet for NPD's various departments and somehow found enough of them. No two departments have the same shape, and when it was decided that each should have its own private executive area, it was a matter of carving out lumps of space to create them. He used the area under a former outdoor canopy by enclosing it with a glass curtain wall. In the space of a former one-level snack shop, he created a multi-level cafeteria, with room left over for part of the data processing department. When there was absolutely no room for air conditioning equipment, he cantilevered it out into free space. He found unused areas above toilets for an air handling system.

Once the huge problems posed by lack of space and dissimilar appearance were solved, all appropriate additional architectural techniques could be applied and the interior designed, with the assistance of Eokin's design subsidiary, in a manner consistent with the architecture. The construction was expert, on time and economical under the able control of Kulka Construction Management Corp. of Hauppauge. The tropical atrium was outfitted with plantings from Steven Dubner Landscaping of Dix Hills. The structural engineer was George Zwipp and Energy Administration was in charge of heating and air conditioning.

At a time when structures like the two ice rinks are routinely razed to make way for the NPD headquarters stands as but one in a series of similar economical projects completed by this architect and his associates. Among them are the North Shore Atrium in Syosset, with 210,000 sq. ft. of office space metamorphosed from a white elephant hulk whose last use had been by Grumman Corporation to assemble the lunar landing module.

Eokin claims that renewing the lives of sound structures offers challenges equal to those of new building design--greater in some ways because one's options are fewer and discipline must be tighter. "You hone your skills on these projects," he says. "I believe you emerge a better architect."

TOB Recreational Facilities Are Great: Colby

Tobay and Centre Island beaches are open on week ends now. The official summer season starts June 25th when all beaches will be open from 9 AM to 6 PM. The cost of Town residents to use any or all of the beaches is a once-a-year parking fee of $12. Seasonal stickers may be purchased at any of the beach entrance gates or at the John J. Burns Park in Massapequa. Senior citizens (age 62 or over) and handicapped residents may obtain a lifetime beach pass at the Town Clerk's office, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay for a nominal one-time fee.

If salt water swimming is not your cup of tea, membership in a community park pool may be the way to help you and your family keep cool this summer.

Although the official opening for the pools is not until June 18th applications for pool membership will be accepted as of June 4th at each pool. Pool complexes will be open for processing membership applications from 10:30 AM to 5:30 PM on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays and from Noon to 7:30 PM on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Residents should bring proof of residency and their section, block and lot number (from their tax bill or deed) with a check or money order made out for the exact amount of the membership, plus a $2.25 photo fee for each family member to be covered by the permit. For further information please call the Parks Department at 433-8020.

The June issue of the Oyster Bay Town News will be in the mail this week and it is full of information about how you and your family can enjoy this summer in Oyster Bay. Keep the issue handy so that you don't miss out on the wealth of activities planned at pools, beaches and parks to keep everyone in your family happily occupied for the summer of '83!

Home-Sharing Opportunities For Seniors

Senator Norman J. Levy (R.C-Merrick) announced that the New York State Senate has passed a measure aimed at developing, through local offices of the aging, an informational data bank which would supply senior citizens with information on home-sharing opportunities with other senior citizens.

Levy explained that, "Through this legislative proposal co-operating County offices of the Aging would act as clearing centers-providing seniors with listings of available living space with other seniors as well as listings of seniors who are interested in becoming tenants. Such an informational system within local communities would make it easier for senior citizens to find living space with their peers," added the south-shore legislator.

Levy indicated that, faced with high property taxes and the rising costs of home maintenance, many seniors have expressed interest in sharing their homes with other seniors, not only for the conservation of financial resources, but for the companionship such living arrangements could provide.

Levy noted that the proposed measure would require the State Office of Aging to help develop this home-sharing informational system in co-operation with local offices of the Aging. Levy also pointed out that such home-sharing would have to comply with any local zoning ordinances.

"Enactment of this legislative proposal, which would provide interested seniors with easy access to home-sharing information, would be another important and necessary step toward helping improve the quality of life for senior citizens in

New York State, providing them a unique opportunity to live with others who have common interests and life styles," concluded Levy.

Dear Friends.....

AS WE GO TO PRESS we received a phone call to let us know that finally, the illegal cement hopper which has been operating on Railroad Lane in Hicksville, is being removed by order of the court. Neighbors, local organizations and Town of Oyster Bay officials joined together to see that this breach of the zoning laws was discontinued. We are sure that no one wished the hopper's owner to discontinue only to proceed with his business in an area that is appropriately zoned for this purpose. We all have to obey the law ... and it is good to hear that right has finally prevailed. More on this next week.

Those of us who are "somewhat along in years", usually agree to the fact that the years go by rapidly ... and this is true. But if one stops to consider the importance of day-by-day activities, whether they be common place (which they are at times), or outstanding ... it is this flow of the days that goes to make up life, for all of us, young or old. If it is at all possible, some concern and help in one's local community is most rewarding. Why not join up as a volunteer with a local group and be a part of today?

At The Kiwanis Club

The importance of the activities of the Underwriters Laboratories, Inc. for the benefit and safety of the general public was explained to the membership of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club at the May 25 meeting by Mr. S.S. (Joe) Bhatia, Associate Managing Engineer of the U.L. Electrical Department.

In his presentation, Joe Bhatia showed how tests of a variety of devices in use in the home, recreation, and in industry, are tested for safety and dependability. A motion picture film showed a variety of test procedures which supplemented his discussion of the significance of the tests.

Mr. Bhatia has been with U.L. for 13 years and has used his degrees (B.S.E.E., M.S.E.E., M.B.A.) and his status of Registered Professional Engineer in New York and California to good advantage.

To the Editor:
Having recently returned from college, I was dismayed and disappointed at the voting down of Propositions 2 and 3. If such decisions are to engender what lies ahead for this district, then I fear that the future is a bleak one. Both Propositions 2 and 3 were desirable proposals, in my opinion, and their failure does not bode well for the quality of education in the future.

The Hicksville HS Counseling Center has come into its own under the tutorial wing of Dr. Zacharias Rosner, a recent and welcome addition to the Hicksville staff. The rejuvenated Center has won considerable acclaim for its professional attitude and accomplishments. From personal experience, the Counseling Center has, it would seem, attained levels of achievement previously unrivaled. There now exists an exemplary level of efficiency, but the Center has managed to attain this quality without sacrificing the personal attention so vital to the success of such a system. Gus Patsis, Selma Notov, and John Douglas have collectively contributed to this system their considerable diligence and, equally or more important, a commitment to personal interaction, which should serve as a model for others to follow and whose record speaks for itself. The imminent dismissal of these faculty members from the system to which they have dedicated themselves, with commendable results, is a move which I believe the Hicksville district will come to regret.

Our foreign language program, long a model for the subsequent programs of various schools nationwide, has been a constant source of pride and satisfaction for this district. I can state without hesitation that having received education in a foreign language (Spanish)

Letters To The Editor

From the first grade through 11th grade has distinguished me, both at Colgate as well as at various schools (many of them members of the Ivy League) which I have visited. It should be no secret that our program has been an exemplary one, unmatched by most schools, including the most prestigious private and preparatory schools. I have worn this experience as a badge of pride throughout my academic career, and I have been quite pleased and honored at such a distinction.

Most college students and educators, as well as professionals, would surely agree, too, that the knowledge of and fluency in a foreign language has become increasingly prized as a vital tool in the fields of business and economics. Indeed, it is not uncommon to encounter college students majoring in economics and a foreign language. I have met several such individuals at school thus far, and all were encouraged by their respective advisors to pursue instruction in a foreign language. Hence, our current foreign language program has been a source of both pride and practicality.

I believe that we, as a district, have a great deal to learn from the results of the recent election. We have the freedom, as many do not, to determine the future. The election process, which has become increasingly politicized, reflects our choices, our values as a community as well as individuals. Perhaps next time, we will consider more seriously our priorities for educational progress, and weigh more conscientiously the results of our decisions.

Sincerely,
Brian Drier

To the Editor:
I am deeply concerned about nuclear war. I hope more people than I think are concerned about it. Sometimes I wonder what it would be like to have my house hit by a nuclear bomb. In my Indepth Studies Group we talked about it and I even touched a piece of tile that was hit by the bomb. I wrote to the Premier of the U.S.S.R. Some day soon, I hope that everyone will be against nuclear war. Right now I hope everyone has an evacuation plan just in case. Some day, I hope to visit Shoreham and talk with the person in charge about it. I know it won't do any good, but it's worth a try. Wish me luck!

Sincerely yours,

To Our Community:

On behalf of Mrs. Ronnie F. Rosenberg, Administrator, Residents and Staff, I wish to thank our young volunteers for services rendered to Central Island Nursing Home, 825 Old Country Road, Plainview during the 1982-1983 school year.

Special praise and commendations are herewith extended to those who gave unstintingly of their time, talents, youthful vitality, enthusiasm and love to our two hundred two (202) residents.

The community, including parents, teachers, schools, churches, synagogues, service organizations and clubs should be proud and pleased with the caliber of their young people — THE LEADERS OF TOMORROW — With pleasure and gratitude, Hedda Pritzker Dir. of Leisure Time Activities

Dear Editor,
I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who supported me in this year's School Board election — those who encouraged me to run, those who supported me and worked on my campaign committee, and those who voted for me.

I lost the election but I gained much more. New friendships developed and old acquaintances were renewed. I met a lot of wonderful people who live and work in this community.

To the winners of this year's election, Mrs. Rudin and Mr. Wolfson, I congratulate you both and wish you the best of luck in your new positions. Anyone who runs for the School Board has to have the best interests of our children and our community at heart.

On the night of the election, many of you, my friends and neighbors, encouraged me to run next year. Please don't forget my name. I will remain active and run again.

Respectfully,
Pamela R. Kemmlein

To the Editor:

Since announcing my candidacy for the Hicksville School Board in the latter part of April, the broad based support from the community was most gratifying. To those of you (too many to name publicly) who worked on my behalf and to those who contributed to my successful campaign, I wish to say "THANK YOU". As one of your elected representatives, I am available personally or by telephone to discuss with you any thoughts or concerns which you may have regarding our educational system.

I am grateful for your confidence, and to my supporters, all residents of Hicksville and the School Community, I pledge to you that I shall endeavor during my three year tenure to work in the name of all our children and our community.

Sincerely,
Lawrence I. Wolfson

Hicksville Youth Unemployment Big Concern

"What are young people, who are sincere and ambitious, going to do with their time, not to mention their self-esteem?"

This concern, expressed recently by Emily Lewis, Employment Coordinator of the Hicksville Youth Council focused on our area's youth unemployment situation.

Ms. Lewis' work includes interviewing and assessing young people for job readiness and possible placement in Hicksville and nearby communities. Young persons through 21 years come to the Council for employment assistance.

The Employment Service, as with all Youth Council services, is free and also involves canvassing the local community for available jobs. The Employment Coordinator calls various businesses and makes in-person visits to find out where there is work for Hicksville youth. Also, community service organizations are addressed at their meetings and mailings to local and nearby businesses go out several times during the year.

For the last several years there has been growing concern for our youth and their need for employment. This year is even more critical. Federal funds that have been granted are aimed at the economically disadvantaged, and while their need may be greater, the Council believes every young person who wants to work should have that opportunity.

"Education is very important, and it is crucial to recognize that the educational process does not occur only within our schools. Work experience is invaluable to later success, and without it every young person is disadvantaged," said Ms. Lewis.

The Hicksville Youth Council is located at 181

West Old Country Road in Hicksville. For information about Council services, residents and businesses are encouraged to visit or call the Council at 822-7594. The Hicksville Youth Council is a non-profit, community organization supported by the Town of Oyster Bay, Nassau County Youth Board and the New York State Division for Youth.

Neighborhood Watch Program

Claiming that the Neighborhood Watch program is a most effective tool in combating neighborhood crime, Assemblyman Fred Parola of Wantagh explained the progress being made to implement it in this area.

"It is my firm belief," Parola said, "that in order to win the war on crime, individual citizens must take an active part in their own protection."

"Neighborhood groups have met with great success in many communities by using a cooperative approach to crime prevention. By individuals serving as the 'eyes & ears' of police and reporting suspicious vehicles and/or persons in your neighborhood you can help prevent crime from occurring to you or your neighbors," Parola explained.

"For the past several months I have been organizing a Neighborhood Watch program throughout my Assembly District which is a cooperative effort between local residents and police to prevent crime and improve protection and safety.

"In Hicksville, the Youth Council working in conjunction with the Hicksville Community Council and the Chamber of Commerce have done a tremendous job implementing Neighborhood Watch. By combining the efforts of the men and women of the area, we hope to reach every household in Hicksville and the rest of the assembly district.

"We have just held a series of community meetings on the Neighborhood Watch program," Parola noted, "and within a few weeks volunteer block watchers will be going door to door distributing brochures explaining the program and delivering decals which are to be displayed to give notice of individual and neighborhood involvement.

"Very simply Neighborhood Watch is an organized effort by concerned residents to look out for each other's safety. Working together, with the police, residents learn how to guard each other's homes and reduce the risk of crime," the assemblyman said.

"Suspicious persons or circumstances such as accumulating mail or newspapers at a neighbor's home will prompt intervention under Neighborhood Watch by concerned residents. Involvement will provide notice to criminals that our streets are patrolled.

"Neighborhood Watch doesn't mean residents must mount a single handed effort to stop criminals. As a member, your responsibility would be to call the police (911) and report what you have seen, not to take action yourself.

"For information and free material on the Neighborhood Watch program or to volunteer your services, please contact my district office at 731-3434. Your assistance will be greatly appreciated," Parola concluded.

Hicksville Republican Club

By Harriet Maher

This week's column features a guest writer from our Club, Frank Jopp: Seniors: I received a news release recently from the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizens Affairs which I know will be of interest to all seniors, particularly the women's segment.

Dated May 20th, the release features remarks made by Commissioner Adelaide Attard of the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizens Affairs at a special hearing conducted by the Task Force on the status of older women of the New York Assembly Standing Committee on Aging in Mineola.

Middle-aged and elderly women are the fastest growing segment of our population. The latest census figures show that American women have a life expectancy of 77.8 years, compared with 69.9 years for men—an eight-year difference. Today's women of 65 can live an average of another eighteen years. Over 85% of surviving spouses are female, said Commissioner Attard.

In her testimony the Commissioner presented some startling statistics about being old, alone and female: "1. 2.8 million women over 65 live in poverty, compared with less than 1 million men.

2. Four million women between 45 and 65 have no health insurance.

3. One-third of all American widows live below the poverty level.

4. Women retire on less than one-half of what men do.

5. One-half of all employed women are in jobs without a pension plan.

6. Over two-thirds of nursing home residents are female.

7. About 100,000 people over the age of 55 get divorced in the U.S. each year—yet only 11.5% of divorcees over the age of 50 remarry—thus creating a 20th Century phenomenon called the 'gray divorcee'."

Commissioner Attard described older women in our society as being the victims of "double discrimination"—ageism and sexism. She urged action to correct the inequities of the social security system, private pension plans, and health insurance coverage which threaten the financial and emotional security of older women. She also called for state and federal subsidies, as well as tax incentives for women who care at home for ailing spouses and aging parents.

"Being an older woman today is not all negative," said Attard. "Without mitigating the seriousness of their predicament, it is also necessary to recognize that older women have certain very important strengths. They are better educated, healthier and more assertive than were women of previous generations," she testified.

Cannonballs Advance To Semi-Finals

By Pete Fujimoto
On a cloudy Sunday, with the sun trying to peek through, the 1973 boys team put on a spectacular display of soccer. It was the quarter-final round of the Long Island Chase Cup against a Rockville Centre team.

The first two goals were scored by Brian McNamee, the center forward. The third goal was a result of team work. With Gino Ianucci, Jason Pinsky and Alexander Shevchenko controlling the middle line, the ball went to Tommy Baron. He passed to Larry Wojtusiak, who passed to Les Spence, who scored the goal.

The scoring surge continued with Larry Bag scoring two goals - the first from the wing off the goalies hands and the second straight in over the goalie's head. Les Spence scored again making the score 6-0. A freak play off a Hicksville player gave Rockville Centre their only score. We wish the Cannonballs continued success in the semi-finals.

The day before, the boys met a tough Island Trees team in a regular season game. The Hicksville boys struck early on a pass from Les Spence to Tommy Baron. Danny McGoey scored a beautiful goal just under a diving goalie. Tommy Baron scored in the second half raising the score to 3-0.

It was a superb defensive effort by David Knuth, Toomas Niemann, Brian Sierra and Gerrit Nijboer, allowing no offensive goals. Danny Fujimoto, the stopper, played a strong game. He made a terrific defensive move blocking a sure goal shot by Island Trees after the Hicksville goalie came out to block the play.

Hicksville Tornados Boys Under 10 B Team Coached by Steve Florio

On Saturday May 21st, the Hicksville Tornados travelled to Cow Harbor to meet the Thunderbolts. Hicksville took the early lead 1-0 on a goal by Todd Zellf assisted by Michael Pierson. However the Thunderbolts did not concede and scored to knot the game at half time.

The second half showed the team from Cow Harbor that Tornados are more dangerous than Thunderbolts. Kevin O'Hea scored the go ahead goal from assists by Jason Kilmets and Junior Furlin, but Hicksville did not stop there and goals by Eddie Assad and Todd Zellf's second goal stopped any comeback by Cow Harbor.

Goalie Matt Greenspan played another fine game in goal as did the rest of the Tornado players Timmy Carroll, Larry Neuberger, Brian Whitman, Erik Matz, Barry Manion, Brian Centrone, Michael Kent and Louis Battilous.

The team record is now 4 wins, 2 losses and 1 tie and improving every week under the coaching of Steve Florio and assistant Lenny Greenspan. Good luck the rest of the season Tornados.

POBRRC's Al End, who captained the Club's trophy winning team in Dix Hills, is all smiles over the results.

A five runner team from the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club came home with the 2nd place trophy in the 1st annual Dix Hills Running Club 10 K Run on Saturday morning May 21. The trophy winning team, which consisted of David Canner, Howie Greenberg, Bruce Canner, Michael Kaufman, and Team Captain Al End, was one of three teams entered by POBRRC in the Dix Hills Run. A total of 24 POBRRC members successfully completed the Run.

Highlighting the POBRRC performances in Dix Hills were David Canner (33:55), who finished in 4th place overall, Howie Greenberg (36:48), who was 13th overall, and Erica Gassen (49:37) who captured the 3rd place trophy in the women's 30-39 age group. Other POBRRC finishers in Dix Hills were Lonnie Rattner (38:44), Larry Green (39:12), Bruce Canner (39:19), Michael Kaufman (40:03), Al End (40:25), Phil Heft (41:39), Steve Attias

The Dix Hills Run was POBRRC's second trophy winning effort of the month. On May 7, a POBRRC team made up of Bert Jablon, Charlie Keller, Harry Irwin, Roger Loberto and Sheldon Horowitz, took the third place trophy in the 5 Kilometer "Dooley's Breakfast Run" in Eisenhower Park.

The next team competition in which POBRRC will be participating is the June 18 4 Mile "Syosset Community Run."

Another Championship For "Hicksville"

Joey Normandy's greyhound named "Hicksville" won the Sprint Championship on Sunday night, May 29, at Raynham Park, Mass.

An entourage of 10 people with shirts and jackets imprinted "Hicksville" made the trek to Raynham to cheer on their champion racing dog. Breaking from the 5 box, he entered the backstretch eight lengths behind the leading dog, but at the far turn he made up six lengths and was only two behind at the stretch. Then he showed what Hicksvillites are made of and put it into gear and won going away by two lengths. All of us were very proud not only for our family but for our town. Tony Salpietro, our trainer turned to Joe Normandy Sr. and said, "now you can tell the N.Y. Breeders and Owners Association that 'Hicksville' is the best dog here."

A little bit of humor came out of the trip to Raynham. Tony Salpietro Sr. (our trainer's father) was asked prior to the big race, "Hey, Tony, what's with all these kids running around here with Hicksville all over their shirts." Tony Sr., without batting an eye, turned and said, "Hicksville is such a good dog, that we named a baseball team after him." That, of course, drew a big laugh.

The N.Y. State Greyhound Owners and Breeders Association once a year go to New England and present a trophy to the winner of the feature race of the night. This year, they are going on June 11th and 12th. For $49.50 per person, you get the trip up and back plus your room and a cocktail hour, dinner and breakfast, admission to the track program and reserved seats—a real good package for the price, especially since there is a very good chance that our "Hicksville" will be running that night. Anyone wishing to go should contact Bud Rosch in Bethpage at PY 6-3757.

At East St. School

In the upper picture we see James Fredrickson keying in his program as Paul Aversano and Keith Merkler offer advice.

In the lower picture Lisa Dyckman and Christine DeFazio use a math drill/management program to sharpen their skills.

Computers are a way of life in the Math Resource Room at East Street School in Hicksville. Students who come in for extra help in math spend some time each day working independently on one of the Apple Computers. They use programs designed to reinforce their skills by use of games and color graphics. Many of the programs also permit the teacher to design unique drills for each individual child and keep a record of each one's progress. While this is going on other students who have made an appointment for a half hour block of time are entering and debugging their original programs which they developed independently or during their weekly Math Enrichment class.

According to Mr. Donald Fournier, the Math Resource Teacher, similar programs are going on in other elementary buildings throughout the District.

Spring Concert

The annual Spring Concert of the Mid Island Singers, formerly known as the Hicksville Community Chorus, will take place on Tuesday, June 7, at 8 pm in the Community Room at the Hicksville Public Library. The public is cordially invited to attend, this free concert.

Mr. William Golecki, founder and director of the Mid Island Singers, will conduct the Faure "Requiem," a melodious and subtly dramatic work from the late nineteenth century, as well as a group of choral pieces all relating to love. These songs range in period from a satirical Renaissance piece about love and money through such favorites as "Deep Purple" to love as portrayed in contemporary vocal jazz. Soloists will be Lisa Kagan, Joan Gabriel, and Charles Arnold. Jim McAllister will act as host for the evening.

Also featured on the program will be the talented accompanist of the Mid Island Singers, Mary Elizabeth Latorre. She will perform Frederic Chopin's "Ballade No. 3 in A flat major."

The Mid Island Singers look forward to seeing their old and new friends at this special event. There will be a reception after the concert, and everyone is invited to stay and take part.

Loneliness--In The Church

Have you ever been to an airport? I am sure you have. Did you ever notice the people and their expressions? How did you feel when you got off the plane? My it was good to have someone there waiting for you that you knew, wasn't it? But just think of all those people who do not have someone there they know. You say, "Oh how terribly lonely they must feel."

love and unto good works. The only way for this to happen is to do it! Show some genuine concern for people. Quietly slip next to a person and give them a smile, shake their hand, tell them you are glad they come to your church, or just simply say, "I am glad you're here." Act towards others in church the way you would want Christ to act towards you.

hymn. A starchy atmosphere of, "Now it is time to be holy," prevails and everyone sits like a board with expressionless faces. When the last hymn is sung, we become ourselves again, and I am convinced this offends God and He sometimes gets lonely!

Yes, that is an empty feeling, but I am afraid it is all too evident sometimes even in our local churches. Have you ever walked into a church, sat alone on a pew, and felt out of place like a minister in a saloon? In many cases, I am speaking of the church attendee-member in our own churches.

This loneliness can be cured by a common factor--togetherness. We say our churches are friendly churches, but are they really? People can be friendly, but the service contain an atmosphere of stuffy awesomeness for a personal God. No wonder a great many folk do not attend church--the people cease to be themselves at the opening prelude of the opening

Be yourself in church, but do not be over-emotional in your expressions. Let visitors see you enjoy worshipping God and bestowing praise, glory and heart-felt worship toward Him.

More importantly, is God lonely for your daily love to Him? The only thing loneliness shares is silence. Make sure this week at church, and everywhere you share some of yourself. Joy becomes precious to you only after you have given it to someone else.

CHARLES WAGNER POST # 421
HICKSVILLE N.Y.

By Artie Rutz

Sorry to report that Al Cinnotti lost his wife, Al when she succumbed to a heart attack. Auxiliary services were held last Monday evening at Dalton's in Levittown. New figures not yet published by the VA show that there are a total of 23,268,000 war veterans living in the U.S. as of March 31, 1983. There are 11,110,000 WW2 veterans as opposed to 321,000 WW1 veterans; 5,321,000 Korean Conflict veterans and 8,227,000 Viet Nam veterans. As is only natural the Spanish American War veterans now number only 47 having lost 11 members since last September 30th. It seems that the national Oratorical finals were just concluded very recently and here is the approved dates for next year's contests. On April 9, 1984 there will be regional contests in Massachusetts, New York, Delaware, North Carolina, Georgia, Arkansas, Nebraska, Montana and California. On April 11, 1984 there will be sectional contests in New Hampshire, Alabama, Minnesota and Oregon and the survivors will meet in the National finals in Lansing, Michigan on April 13, 1984. Now, comrades, that is evidence of a committee working the way a committee should work and when things are properly laid out well in advance the result could never be called sub par. And these dates have been confirmed and approved by the Legion's National Executive Committee at its meetings on May 4-5 in Indianapolis. And what's more, all dates for the 1985 Oratorical contests have also been approved with the National Finals being held in Tuscaloosa, Ala. The President's Private Sector Survey on Cost Controls said on May 6 the Veterans Administration could save $3.1 billion over three years by tightening up the processing of disability claims, revising its GI mortgage guarantee operations and other steps. Corporate chairman J. Peter Grace, who heads the business panel created last year by President Reagan to "root out waste and inefficiency in the federal government" told a Washington press conference the panel's report did not contain any recommendation to eliminate the agency, nor did we ever contemplate any such recommendation. In another report released the same day on military and veterans hospitals, the group recommended a reorganization of the VA's office of construction; a halt to nursing home construction; and the phasing out of VA's medical supply depots and having the VA and the Defense Department buy medical supplies through national contracts. And installing a date processing system at the VA costing $190-250 million to permit central planning of local hospital operations. The VA Task Force said that the agency shows "an overall lack of effective utilization of existing personnel and urges that more rigorous work standards be developed in accordance with private sector practices. Saying the VA itself identifies more than $500,000,000 per year in overpayments, the task force proposed launching a systematic effort to identify errors in the claims processing system and revising debt-collection procedures to include credit bureau reporting and telephone communications. As for VA guaranteed mortgages, the task force recommended the halt to the VA practice of acquiring homes at foreclosure sales unless such action is necessary to avoid major disruptions in the market for VA mortgages. It is said that the VA loses nearly $7,000 per home on mortgage defaults because of sales commissions and property management expenses.

Our ANNUAL ELECTIONS AT THE NEXT MEETING, June 6th, come out and vote.

Susie Bronson of Roosevelt was born on Christmas Day, 1870. When she was 100, the County Executive presented her with a bowling ball and shoes in recognition of the fact that she was "the oldest active bowler in the world." On Friday, June 3, the Advisory Network to the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs will honor her with a plaque to be presented by County Executive Francis T. Purcell at a breakfast/reception to be held from 9:00 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. at Macy's Market Place Cafe in Roosevelt Field.

On her 104th birthday, "Mother" Bronson was honored by the Black History Museum; and, at an open house celebrating her 112th birthday, she received a special citation from President Reagan. The Susie Bronson Senior Citizen Club in Roosevelt is named in her honor. She is the mother of 12 children, has 7 grandchildren, 21 great grandchildren and 3 great, great grandchildren. She still crochets, does arts and crafts and tries never to miss a meeting of her senior citizen club.

In addition to presenting the tribute to Susie Bronson, County Executive Purcell will present Citations to the Chairpersons of the Advisory Council to the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs and its three Technical Advisory Committees. This Advisory Network is composed of 156 volunteer consultants who provide advice and support for Department activities. Advisory Network members, the majority of whom are older persons, represent business, government, labor, religious, legal, low income, minority, health, welfare, education, and advocacy groups in the County. Members are appointed by the County Executive and the Board of Supervisors, upon the recommendation of the Department's Commissioner, and are dedicated to assisting the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs develop appropriate, realistic and constructive policies aimed at improving the quality of life for Nassau County's 214,000 residents age 60 and over.

In announcing the special tribute to Susie Bronson, Adelaide Attard, Commissioner of the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs said, "Mrs. Bronson's age is a triumph--not only of physiology--but of the spirit." The plaque to be presented by County Executive Purcell at 10:30 A.M. reads: "Susie Bronson--whose strength and love of life at age 112 symbolize 'Creative Aging'."

The breakfast/reception is the final event in a three-day "Salute to Nassau County Seniors" presented by the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs and Macy's Roosevelt Field. On Wednesday, June 1, from 10:30 A.M. to 11 A.M., there will be a fashion show for mature women and men on the store's main floor. Something To Think About

BILL WAGNER DIRECTOR

MENTION THE UNMENTIONABLE

There has been a recent trend, particularly among psychologists, in discussing and writing about death. Rather than being seen as a morbid development, the admission of death is actually considered rather healthy, AND practical.

any discomfort saved by leaving them in the dark. Naturally, if you are married you should consult with your spouse. The same applies if you are a single adult living with a friend. You might be startled to find out that he or she often thought about the subject but was afraid to mention it to you for fear of being thought insensitive.

On the personal level, one can remove death from the list of unmentionable topics by talking openly and frankly about funeral plans and making a Will. Including your family and loved ones in such a discussion will ultimately do more to prevent pain and anguish than

Student Anti-Bigotry Task Force

Noting that over 80% of desecration is committed by young people 14-19 years old, Senator Norman J. Levy (R, C-Merrick) opened the first public hearing conducted by the Student Advisory Council to the Special Senate Task Force on Vandalism, Religious Desecration and Other Acts of Bigotry which sought testimony on educational measures to combat acts of anti-religious vandalism and religious and anti-ethnic. The hearing was held at Calhoun High School in Merrick.

Levy stressed that such anti-social acts are caused by a small fraction of youths and that by far the greatest majority of teenagers are constructive dedicated and energetic as evidenced by the students serving on the Task Force's Student Advisory Board and those that presented testimony at the hearing.

Levy, Chairman of the Senate Task Force explaining that he created the seven person Student Advisory Council because, "Who, after all, can better judge the effectiveness of educational and preventative programs as well as other deterrents with young people, than their peers—students and teenagers themselves."

The Student Advisory Council, which conducted the hearing, heard testimony on a wide variety of school and County programs instituted to combat vandalism and religious desecration including:

- Nassau County Police Department's PAVE program which counsels first time youthful offenders and their parents;

- STOP—a cooperative police-teacher 2-3 day educational program in 7th grade classes aimed at teaching students that "Prejudice is no Prank" and that "Vandalism Hurts People";

- Human Relations courses and activities in schools to enhance students' understanding of different religious and ethnic backgrounds through class discussions and speakers;

- Human Relations Day, a full day of open student discussions on prejudice, peer group relationships, and communication between groups of different backgrounds;

- Human Relations Workshops, with students running seminars on prejudice, bigotry and vandalism including films and discussions.

HHS Seniors Speak At Memorial Day Services

that I never honored nor observed this day on which we remember the war dead that died to preserve our freedom.
 I discovered in my research how Memorial Day was started and I now appreciate the fact that without the men who fought in the Civil War on the side of the Union, this country would not be what it is today.
 The men and women who fought in all of the wars that the United States faced, deserve to be remembered and I'm glad that Memorial Day has taken on a greater significance for me. I know that even though I have no personal memories of war, the men and women that fought and died for patriotism and their love for this country should and will always be remembered in my mind as brave and honorable citizens who preserved this country throughout the decades of its existence. Any family that has had a member killed in a war knows, from firsthand experience, the grief that comes from losing one that you love...but they also know the feeling provided by the thought that thousands of unknown people mourn along with them on this special day. The feeling they receive is one that can be treasured as an accurate measure of the true spirit of America. The knowledge that the United States is in unity can give any person a feeling of peace and gratification. The knowledge that their relative's death is appreciated may help to provide this peace. They have made this ultimate sacrifice that has allowed this country to maintain its place as a bastion of freedom.
