Hearing Set on Special Use Permit For Hicksville Gas Auto Repair Sta.

The Oyster Bay Town Board has scheduled a public hearing for Tuesday, February 7, on an application for a special use permit to operate and maintain a garage and filling station in Hicksville.

"The applicants, Westons Texaco and Herbert and Barbara Bruwer, are seeking a special use permit to operate an automotive repair shop and gas station in a "G"

General Business District in Hicksville," Town Councilman Salvatore R. Mosca explained. "The land is located on the southeast corner of Old County Road and Frevert Place."

The hearing is scheduled for February 7, 1984, at 10:00 A.M. in the Hearing Room of Town Hall East, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

VFW Post Receives Award

VFW Post 3211, Hicksville, has been named to receive the organization's Bronze Award of Merit for special participation in community activities, according to VFW Commander-in-Chief Clifford G. Olson, Jr., of Pembroke, Mass.

The Post sponsored a Pledge of Allegiance coloring book contest earlier in the year for third and fourth graders in Hicksville area schools. The contest attracted over 1,000 students.

In announcing the award Olson said, "The project by Post 3211 contributed in a participatory way to acquaint young minds with the American way of life and is an excellent example of what the VFW can accomplish in a community."

TOBIDA Reaches Agreement With Blount, Inc. For Waste/Energy Facility

On Dec. 8 Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Joseph Colby announced that the Town's Industrial Development Agency (TOBIDA) has reached an agreement with Blount, Inc. of Montgomery, Alabama, for construction of a waste-to-energy facility for the management of the Town's municipal solid waste. Under the agreement, Blount will construct, own and operate the facility. It will be paid for with State Environmental Quality Bond Act monies, an equity investment from Blount, Inc., and revenue generated by the plant.

Colby said that "the Memorandum of Understanding, which has been signed today by the Chairman of TOBIDA and Blount, Inc., will lead to the execution of a construction contract for the proposed facility. Blount, Inc. is the license holder for the Swiss technology developed by the firm of Widmer+Ernst, whose systems have been in operation in Europe for nearly fifty years. Widmer+Ernst currently has thirty-two plants in operation throughout Europe and the far east.

"Development of a proven, environmentally sound method for the management of solid waste, that not only protects our groundwater and reduces dependence on landfilling, but one that is economically viable as well, has been a personal priority of mine since I was elected Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay," Colby stated.

The proposed facility will use a water wall, mass burning technology which utilizes the refuse as fuel for boilers that produce steam. The steam is then used to produce electricity which will be sold to the Long Island Lighting Company. Blount, Inc. will construct the facility to process 1650 tons per day of municipal solid waste. Contract provisions will be included for expansion by the addition of a fourth line for processing an additional 550 tpd.

should the need arise in future years.

"With the Town of Huntington joining the Town of Oyster Bay in bringing their municipal solid waste to the facility," Colby explained, "the economic benefits and the economy of scale which could be achieved in the construction project were immediately apparent. By constructing a facility to process more solid waste than had been originally planned by Oyster Bay alone, more electricity will be produced, generating more revenue from the sale of the electricity to LILCO. The additional revenue generated will more than offset the cost of the expanded construction. We anticipate that the electricity generated will produce 210 million kilowatt-hours or 35,000 hours of electricity. This is enough electricity to supply the needs of 1/3 of the single-family homes in Oyster Bay - and that's about 30,000 homes!" Colby added that LILCO would be saving the equivalent of 750,000 barrels of oil per year.

The New York State Department of Environmental Conservation has agreed to take lead agency status on all of the necessary environmental hearings which will lead to the construction of the waste-to-energy project. Hearing and permitting processes are expected to take twelve months to complete. Construction on the project will take approximately 38 months.

Colby said that "with the continued support and cooperation from the State Department of Environmental Conservation and joined in this effort by the Town of Huntington, I have every expectation that the development of this technology for the management of solid waste will serve as a model for other towns to follow in planning for the future protection of Long Island's environment."

THE TOWN OF OYSTER BAY INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AGENCY (TOBIDA) has reached an agreement with Blount, Inc. for the construction of a waste-to-energy system facility (rendering of the facility pictured above) for the disposal of municipal solid waste which will service the Towns of Oyster Bay and Huntington. The Memorandum of Understanding will lead to the execution of a construction contract between TOBIDA and Blount, Inc., which firm will construct and operate the facility.

Construction of the facility is expected to begin after all environmental hearings and permitting processes have been completed and will take 36 to 38 months to complete.

VENERABLE SKIP MONTEFORTE'S MESSAGE

I wish to take this wonderful opportunity to wish a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all our members, male and female, friends and patrons associated with the Galileo Lodge.

The year 1983 will soon fade into the distance of time and, regrettably, so will my reign as Venerable of the Galileo Lodge. The year 1984 will offer a new Venerable. Officers and a new administration that will guide the Galileo Lodge to new heights of social and fiscal success.

My position as Venerable of the Galileo Lodge was as memorable as it was challenging for the past two years. The Galileo became a shining star on the Italian-American scene, and with the aid and assistance of a dynamic membership, male as well as female, we were able to make tremendous strides in the achievement of our goals, dreams and aspirations. And with their loyalty, determination and intrepid spirit, we were able to immerse ourselves deeply into community-related projects and charitable causes. The undaunted cooperation of our membership and the coordinated efforts of the Ladies Auxiliary and the loyalty of our patrons and friends were instrumental in the financial and social success associated with all our activities, parties, dances, picnics and many other events too numerous to mention here.

With such monumental help during the past two years, the Galileo Lodge was permeated with a new spirit and a new wave of optimism—an optimism that was manifested with fervor and an exuberance exceeding anything that a Venerable could hope and wish for.

I am deeply honored by the rapport I received from everyone associated with the Galileo Lodge. Such devotion, interest and ceaseless efforts had a tremendous and inspiring effect on me.

Thus in this moment and with a feeling of sincere thanks and admiration do I extend my gratefulness and warmth to everyone connected with the Galileo Lodge, even our friends and patrons, who made my tenure as Venerable of the Galileo Lodge worthwhile."

Next Sunday morning, the 18th of December, the Galileo Lodge will be transformed into a Christmas scene of deep emotions, joy, happiness and the true spirit of the holiday season, for that is the day when our Lodge presents its two Christmas parties, one for the handicapped children of Long Island and other areas, in the morning, and the other one, in the afternoon, for the children of the membership. Pete Massiello will 'chair' these beautiful activities, aided by Joe Morace, Frank Matassa. Food and refreshments will enhance the proceedings, as well as a visit from Santa Claus with his bags of toys, and not to mention entertainment, singing Christmas carols and dancing. If this is the season for giving, then the Galileo Lodge is giving-giving in order to bring a greater measure of joy and merriment to all these beautiful youngsters.

Then on Saturday, the 31st of December, the Galileo Lodge will present its New Year's Party and Dance. Tickets will sell at $30 per person, and in the offering will be delicious cuisine with many added delicacies, unlimited liquor, dancing all night long, a continental breakfast, noisemakers, and the exuberant atmosphere of the Galileo Lodge which should assist you in ushering the New Year in grand fashion. Armand Del Cioppo will 'chair' this activity. Tickets are now available, so contact Armand by calling 931-9351. The closing date for tickets will be Tuesday, the 27th of December as there will be no tickets sold at the door. This Party starts at 9:00 P.M. More details on this event next week.

LODGE TIDBITS

The Galileo Lodge extends its deepest condolences to Al Barella on the passing away of his sister... And the Lodge also extends a get-well wish to Joe Giordano's wife Grace, who was recently hospitalized... Very sorry also to report that Frank Bove's brother also passed away recently, and again deepest condolences to the Bove family.

Bridge Tournament

Paul Shapiro, of Roxton Rd., in Plainville, and Ellen Begleiter of Tuxedo, were Master Point winners at the 1983 North American Fall Championships of the American Contract Bridge League here November 25-December 4.

They placed first in their section in a one session game in which 200 players competed.

The event was among seven North American championships, twelve lesser title races, and fifty other events which drew 6,000 players to the ten days of competition here. Card players of every skill compete in three major tournaments sponsored each year by the ACBL. Master points are based on the number of participants and caliber of competition of an event they are awarded to winners in all sections.

In recognition of his successful administration as president of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club during 1981-82 year, Mr. Charles I. Montana, Jr. was designated as a Distinguished President by Kiwanis International.

The symbolic Banner Patch, representing this distinction, was presented to Distinguished Past President Charlie on December 7 by President Bill Herberer at the Hicksville Kiwanis Club's monthly business meeting.

Come 1984, what do you do if your phone needs repair?

IF THE PROBLEM
IS IN THE SYSTEM,
WE'LL FIX IT.

IF THE PROBLEM
IS IN THE LEASED PHONE ITSELF,
OR THE WIRE ATTACHED,
CALL THE AT&T NUMBER ON YOUR BILL.

As you've probably heard, many changes will follow in the wake of the AT&T breakup on January 1, 1984. Repair service will be affected in several ways, with different companies shouldering different responsibilities.

As always, New York Telephone will be responsible for your access line, the wire that brings you your dial tone. Any problem traced to either our central office or to any of our transmission lines will be repaired by us, free of charge.

However, if the problem is traced to your actual phone set, responsibility rests elsewhere, depending on who owns the phone or sold it to you.

If you own your own phone, repair will be your responsibility.

If New York Telephone is still providing you with a phone, come January 1, that phone will be owned and serviced by AT&T, instead of us. We will no longer be responsible for phone set repair. If New York Telephone sends a repair technician to your home or small business, and the problem is in the set, the technician will not make repairs and you will be billed for the visit.

If your phone is leased, call the AT&T repair number that will be on your phone bill. If your phone was purchased from New York Telephone, and the warranty is still in effect after January 1, call the AT&T repair number.

For more information, let's talk. Call us toll free at 1 800 555-5000.

New York Telephone

For nearly a century, answering New York's call.

Dear Friends:

We cannot lose sight of the fact that every service that we need increased comes with a price tag on it. But, when it comes to adequate police protection and the necessary prison space required, we can hardly say we are against it. In these times, it would be ostrichlike. So, last month, when we heard both Nassau County P.B.A. second vice-president Gary Dela Raba and PBA Corresponding Secretary John Kouril speak at the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce meeting, we understood the need of more County police officers to adequately cover our suburban county. And, of course, we all know how crowded our prisons are. Solutions to these problems will also cost. But so will the alternatives, which are inadequate police protection and possibly the release of prisoners before the end of their sentences.

We'd like to be made aware of what the costs are to solve these two related problems. But we go on record here and now that they must be addressed. THE ALTERNATIVES ARE JUST NOT ACCEPTABLE.

ARE ANY OF US GUILTY? A former Hicksville resident who revisited us not too long ago writes to say how surprised they were to note (and we quote) "Driver etiquette was lacking while we lived on the Island, but it is appalling now. Maybe it's because we've been away almost five years that it is more noticeable to us, yet the "locals" are also complaining. There's no courtesy on the road! Everyone is so impatient and it's a crime how people speed through intersections even through the traffic lights have turned red. I don't know how many times we stopped when the light changed to red only to have two or three cars go zooming past our car. The potential for serious accidents is very real and imminent. I realize the police are busy with other matters and cannot be everywhere at once, but it's time some attention was given to those who drive recklessly on our roads."

P.S. We may have moved away, but we still care about what happens at "home". I look forward to each Tuesday when The Herald arrives."

BEST WISHES FOR SUCCESS to the "New Image" Drum and Bugle Corps, which is co-ed and replaces our 9-time world champions the St. Ignatius Girls Drum and Bugle Corps. The story of their inauguration and some of their pictures of this recent event are on another page. They are champions and "New Image" will be champions too, we're sure. Not just because the members will display devotion and dedication and discipline... but because so many fine adults put in countless hours to head up this fine group. Best wishes to all.

THAT'S ALL for this week. Stay well and, while we hope that your Christmas shopping and activities are highly successful, we also hope that each and every one of you takes time out to worship the One whose birthday we are celebrating at this holy time of the religious year. God bless you all.

Express Mail Offers Hope For Last-Minute Shoppers, Mailers

You just learned that your long-lost aunt is sending you a Christmas present, and you want to reciprocate. The problem is that you're down to the last minute. What do you do?

Use the last-minute shoppers' and mailers' solution. It's called Express Mail Next Day Service, and it's available at the local post office.

Legionnaire's Log

BY ARTIE RUTZ

That was quite a Christmas Party that the Post & Auxiliary threw for the girls at Suffolk State Development Center last Saturday afternoon... Understand that the girls were immensely pleased with their gifts and were also on their best behavior... Attending for the Post were Commander Lou Braun, P.C. Henry Brengel, P.C. Dick Hochbrueckner and P.C. John Sheppard... Auxiliary members present were President Cynthia Hochbrueckner, Connie Braun, Mae Sheppard, Marie Gamble, Ethel Habenicht, Anna Brengel, and Ruth Leger... This Sunday, December 18th, we have the Children's Christmas Party sponsored by the Past Commanders' Club but the response has been anything less than great... If you are intending to bring your child or grandchild and you haven't yet called P.C. PALMER WALSH please call him immediately at 931-3299 and let him know the name, age and sex of the child so Santa's aide-de-camp can line things up... Please keep in mind that the age limit is 12 years and that the parent must supply the gift (not to exceed $5)... The movies, hot dogs, soda, cookies and something for the adults will all be supplied by SANTA CLAUS as he makes his annual visit unless lack of interest causes Santa to skip Charles Wagner Post this year... Call NOW before it's TOO late... Was told an interesting little story the other day by one of the Post's avid hunters and I'll pass it on to you... Seems that this particular tale featured a hunter who was caught out in the great forest primeval without his gucket... (that's Navy talk for umbrella) and of course it started to rain like it shouldn't... So, having no gucket, he ran like a deer for some sort of shelter and as such would have it, he found the perfect answer in a huge hollow log, at least, so he thought... So in he crawls and he is now snuz and warm against the fowl weather and as the weather gets fouler he gets snuggler and warmer and before you know it, he is fast asleep, and like a baby he sleeps on and on and on... Little does he realize that while sleeping that the log is becoming waterlogged and is closing down and around on our hero... With a start he awakens and realizes that he is pinned in and he struggles in vain to crawl out but no go, he's in for the duration of the life of the log or in other words, goodbye, tootsie... Now suddenly the events of his life start to flash before his eyes in rapid fire fashion... Just as suddenly this comes to a screeching halt as he remembers he had not yet paid his Legion Dues for 1983... This made him feel so SMALL that he was able to crawl out very easily. Letter to the Editor

Dear Editors: "The forms are too long," is what one doctor said. "They don't pay enough," is what another doctor said. I wonder how many other excuses there are for not taking Medicaid patients? I made a lot of phone calls. Not one doctor said they would accept

Medicaid. With all the money that doctors charge, why can't they each accept one or two Medicaid patients? How very depressing. I thought this was supposed to be the richest country in the world?

Sincerely yours,

It's Official: Long Island Has A New Image

By Terry Rogers

On Sunday, November 20th, I attended a very nicely run affair for which I received a rather impressive invitation which read: "The Saint Ignatius Girls Cadet Corps cordially invites you to its Silver Anniversary Celebration and Inauguration of the New Image Drum & Bugle Corps." Having more than a passing interest - and now, a daughter - in the famous St. Ignatius Girls Corps, I had looked forward with much anticipation to this event, which was designed to mark a quarter century of excellence, and to officially turn the historic page, which would give birth to NEW IMAGE.

New Image is a new, co-educational Drum & Bugle Corps which combines the talents of the St. Ignatius Girls with those of many newly acquired members; both male and female, in order to "Bear the Standard of Excellence for a second Generation of Long Island Youngsters" (quoting its recruitment flyer).

As we entered the Galileo Lodge (a traditional location for Corps parties), we were greeted at the door by several smiling Corps Staff Members. Director, Donald Graziose welcomed us, as Bingo Chairperson, Rachael Pohalski checked our names off the invitee list.

Diane Petrocelli, who chaired the event committee, gave us a silver anniversary commemorative pin, and Head Chaperone, Millie Melocoton, gave us a beautiful full color, 16 page booklet/magazine entitled "St.

Ignatius Presents - NEW IMAGE - A New Beginning". In attendance were the members of the 1983 St. Ignatius Corps, the member/recruits of the 1984 New Image Corps (these are called the "Image Makers"), their parents and representatives of several community civic organizations. Also attending were the Corps instructional staff, and some ex-drum majors and staffers. Corps Founder, Thomas R. Costa shared a table with Mr. Graziose and Chief Instructor Carman Cluna.

The food that the committee put out was absolutely sumptuous, and it in no way could be considered as "light refreshments". There was so much, and in such variety, that one guest remarked that she had been to weddings which hadn't treated the invitees so generously, and so well. "It's just the way we do things around here" said Dominic Valente who, with corps parents Maria Viola, Michael Petrocelli and Ida Krysz, had spent most of the day preparing the feast in the house kitchen. "We usually start out to build a Ford, and end up with a Lincoln." He then went on to say that the prevailing attitude in the entire organization is such that nothing is too good for their kids and their corps. "We teach the kids to reach for the brass ring in everything they do" said Graziose. "The example must, of course, be set by the adults who work with them".

During the proceedings, recognition awards were presented to Brass Instructor Hy Dreitzer for giving Of Your Heart; Not Only Of Your Talent" and to Fr. Frederic J. Harrer, Pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Parish in Hicksville for "Support of Wholesome Youth Activity Through the Years".

The atmosphere was charged with excitement and expectation for New Image and there was just a tinge of nostalgic melancholy for St. Ignatius Girls. At 9:00 p.m., Mr. Graziose approached the podium to officially bring to fruition the decision he had to make one year ago. Before he could proclaim the finale to St. Ignatius Girls and beginning of New Image, he was treated to a surprise last performance by the girls, who hastily scampered off on cue to get their instruments. It was an outpouring of emotion, and there was hardly a dry eye left in the house. When everyone's composure had been regained, Mr. Graziose called forth two members of the 1983 Corps who were dressed in the traditional St. Ignatius uniforms. To thunderous applause, they marched up carrying a St. Ignatius Competition Flag. Then they turned to face the guests. The room fell silent in expectation as Mr. Graziose called forth two members dressed in the New Image uniforms and colors, which were being unveiled to the public for the first time at that moment. In a beautifully ceremonial ges-

The Christmas Message: I Love You

Little in life can match the beauty of Christmas Eve - the holy night of celebration. Beauty in abundance surrounds us for a few fleeting hours. Each of us treasures these moments savoring every tradition. Somehow we love our children a little bit more this night. Our wife, how lovely she looks; our hearts feeling special love for her, for him. If we had the power to stop time's endless march - suspend it momentarily - most of us would do it Christmas Eve. For this is the night when peace pervades our hearts, as hands extend to greet friends and arms reach out to embrace family. How wonderfully good we all feel. We love and are loved. We forgive and are forgiven. We give only to receive in return.

Years ago, many years ago, there was a Christmas much unlike our own. The world didn't stop for the first Christmas - hardly anyone even noticed. The scent of fresh baked bread and chocolate chip cookies were not the smells of the first Christmas. Straw replaced tinsel and gaud. Live animals replaced Hand-geschnitzte Holzfiguren and Hummels. A virgin laboring at birth, a carpenter lending an unsteady hand. Animals annoyed at intruders. Angels preparing themselves to startle shepherds. God's wayward creation about to be invaded by the cosmic Christ. Coming into the humblest surroundings to a no-place city called Bethlehem. This was the first Christmas. How strange...how wonderfully and beautifully strange.

The first Christmas can only be described as unusual and surprising that the God of a million heavens and a million earths should grace a manger in Bethlehem. Swaddling cloths upon the back of a King, of a God - on the back of the one, true, and only God. Where was the finery one might expect? Nowhere, for it was to the poor He came, to those who were troubled, those who were not completely self-sufficient, those who knew they were not good enough to make heaven by themselves. He came for all mankind, not only that first holy night but for every night of every year and into the present - here, right now.

The Lord Jesus Christ is present with us. He speaks to us once again the message of Christmas as he says to each of us, "I love you. I want to be close to you every day of your lives, please be wise and invite me in. There is no one who is so perfect that they cannot welcome a fuller participation of my indwelling. There are some who have yet to welcome my powerful presence and, unfortunately, we are only occasional guests of one another and may be strangers in eternity. And to you I say, come, do not live another day without my abundant presence." Now may my Father bless and keep each one of you, and may your voices and lives continuously sing the angelic chorus, "Glory to God in the Highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

Different, But Kind of Nice

All nice surprises are that way. A little unexpected, but not unpleasant. We have a new plan that's like that.

We learned through experience that people are absolutely unprepared to do anything after a death in the family. And that includes making funeral arrangements. So we developed a way to make funeral arrangements in advance.

At first, it may seem strange, but think of how grateful your family will be to know they've done everything just the way you wanted. It's really a very nice gesture, and you could save money. For more information, clip and mail this coupon.

Long Island Ys Announce $20 Million Building Program

A $20 million program to build six major, full-service YM/YWHAs on Long Island by 1994 was announced today.

The economic impact of the program on Long Island, said Jerry Spiegel, chairman of Spiegel Associates and member of the board of the United Jewish Ys of Long Island, will be "to add more than $150 million to the Island's revenues, and approximately two thousand jobs a year."

At a legislative breakfast, attended by Thomas Gulotta, presiding supervisor of the Town of Hempstead; State Senators Carol Berman and James Lack; and Assembly representatives Fred Parola, Lewis Yevoli, Pat Halpin, and Toni Rettaliant, among others, Mr. Spiegel said that each Y is expected to have ten thousand full-time members, and to serve an additional six thousand men, women, and children through various programs. "We could easily be serving approximately 100,000

Long Islanders each year, making a significant contribution to the social and cultural climate on Long Island, as well as providing a vital service to meet a wide variety of community needs."

The UJYs of Long Island are now located in Commack, Merrick/Baldwin, Roslyn, the Five Towns, Plainview, and Long Beach. Together, they currently serve 50,000 people in Nassau and Suffolk Counties.

In announcing the building program, Alfred W. Levy, president of the UJYs of L.I. said, "Never before has a private, charitable Long Island organization mapped for itself a plan as comprehensive as our 'Decade of Development.' We undertake this challenge recognizing that to meet the needs of the future, Long Island Jewish community agencies must lay the foundations for additional growth today."

Also attending the meeting this morning was William Kahn, executive vice president of the New York City-based Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of NY, who noted that although the UJYs of Long Island is a sectarian organization, its service is provided on a non-sectarian basis, "to anyone in the community who wishes to avail himself or herself of the facilities we have to offer."

Christmas Program Via Satellite

The residents of Plainview are invited to a special Christmas program about the Savior to be held Sunday, December 18, at 7:00 P.M., at 160 Washington Avenue, Plainview, according to Bishop Sterling Eide of the Plainview congregation of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

"We'd like to celebrate the Christmas season with our friends and neighbors at this special time of the year and share our joy at the birth of the Savior," said Bishop Eide. "Everyone in Plainview is invited to this Christmas gathering, and we'd especially like to encourage families to come."

The devotional will be transmitted by satellite from the Tabernacle on Temple Square in Salt Lake City to over 550 meetinghouses across the United States.

The Mormon Tabernacle Choir will help spread the glad tidings of the Savior's birth through song at the gathering, and a Christmas message about the Savior will also be delivered.

"At this festive, joyous time of the year, we join with other Christians around the world to rejoice in the birth of Christ, and to pray that through following His teachings, the people of the world will find peace," said Bishop Eide.

Katherine Healy To Play Sugar Plum Fairy

Katherine Healy, winner of the gold medal at the prestigious 1983 International Ballet Competition in Varna, Bulgaria, has been engaged to play the role of the Sugar Plum Fairy in the Eglevsky Ballet's holiday production of The Nutcracker.

Miss Healy, a native of Bryn Mawr, Pa. made her movie debut last year in Six Weeks co-starring with Dudley Moore and Mary Tyler Moore.

She joins a growing list of ballet luminaries who have appeared in the Eglevsky's Nutcracker during its 20 year history.

The 20th Anniversary production of The Nutcracker plays C.W. Post Concert Theater for ten performances from December 26-30. For ticket information and group sales, call the Eglevsky Ballet Box Office at 746-1115. After November 23, tickets may be obtained from the Concert Theater Box Office (626-3100).

The Old Country Road School PTA hosted its first annual dinner dance, "Fall Frolic," at the Galileo Lodge in November.

Complete with a cocktail hour, hot buffet and a disc jockey who played every type of music imaginable, everyone agreed that chairpersons Joann Ferraro and Karen Giltmor did a marvelous job. Dozens of donations made it possible to offer beautiful raffle and door prizes, while parents and faculty danced until way past midnight. The PTA hopes to continue this tradition, partly due to its great success as a fundraiser for our students, but mostly for the wonderful time that is still being delightfully remembered.

This year Old Country Road School held its annual Balloon Launch for the first time in the fall rather than the spring. The children "tagged" their name and school address on their own balloon and a contest, with a cutoff date of December 31 will determine who's balloon travelled the furthest. Due to the unusual winds blowing southwest on launch day, we have only received three returns to date from South Amboy, New Jersey, Valley Stream and West Hempstead. Last year's winds carried the balloons mostly to New England, but the big surprise was that our principal, Mr. Penque's balloon was returned from South Korea. Kindergarten students left to right: Maryann Mirabelli, Edgar Cutvas, Matthew DePalma, Thomas Colangelo and Ryan Ferraro anxiously await the signal to release their balloons. (Picture by D. DePalma)

Dr. Gerard Catapano holds the Grumbacher Award he was presented with for the painting held by Louise La Gatta, President of the Independent Art Society. The occasion was the 8th Annual Juried Exhibition held at the Hicksville Library on Nov. 6. A "three month free" membership incentive is now being offered.

For the third consecutive year, Ms. Wyman's 4th grade class at Burns Ave. School in Hicksville entered into the true spirit of Thanksgiving by raising over $100.00. They did this by collecting various items from their homes and selling them on their lunch hour the entire thanksgiving week. The children and their parents also baked "goodies" and made "tons" of popcorn. The proceeds of this "Childrens Flea Market" went to St. Judes Children's Hospital for Cancer Research in Tennessee. This fund raising special project was both an enjoyable and rewarding experience for Ms. Wyman and her class.

Recently, Mrs. Adele Niceforo's fifth grade students were honored to have Dr. Anthony R. Mercurio visit their classroom to teach a lesson on vertebrates. Dr. Mercurio is the dad of Randy, one of the class members at the Dutch Lane School, and he is a professor of anatomy at New York University School of Dentistry. The children were especially captivated when the professor encouraged them to examine a human skull, heart and leg bones. Mrs. Niceforo is grateful that a member of our community is so willing to share his expertise with the students of Hicksville.

property. From here, they seep into the ground water. Dillon said Three Dimensional Circuits is known to have discharged pollutants into the ground water since January of 1978. The criminal charges filed today begin in March of 1982 because it was at this time that the D.E.C. withdrew its consent for the plant to discharge pollutants into the ground water pending construction of a treatment system. The District Attorney said an investigation by the Environmental Unit indicates that the total quantity of contaminated waste water being discharged varied generally from 30,000 to 40,000 gallons per day. Within one mile of these discharges are three public water wells. Chemicals discharged by the Company, which far exceeded what the D.E.C. allows, includes Copper, Fluoride, Lead, Acids and Nitrogen. Neitlich, 57, of RD#3 in Lloyd Neck surrendered to the DA's Office on Dec. 6.

U-9 Hawks

Coaches: Phil Alagna
Bob Ladimar
By: Frank O'Hea

The Hawks had a full season of Soccer starting at the October Club Meeting when Mr. Rocco Amoroso, Head of the Sportsmanship Committee of the L.I.J.S.L. handed out the Sportsmanship patches to the boys and gave a very fine informative speech. To receive this award is a credit to the team, its coaches, and parents.

The next day the team went to the Brentwood Columbus Day Weekend Tournament. After three (3) full days of Soccer, the team tied for Second Place. All the boys played well.

The team continued to play exciting Soccer throughout the season: The Forward Line of Ronny Ladimir, Brett Neisensen, Danny Longo, Danny Alagna, and Larry Feinblum showed excellent passing and scoring ability. The Midfield Line of Michael Centrone, Chris Jendras, Spencer Sohmer, Jarhed Hohwald, and Kevan Koehn showed how well they could control the ball and bring it up to the Forwards time after time. The Defense Line of Stopper Michael Longo, Full-Backs Brian O'Hea, Brian Rooney, and Brian Ruina stopped the advance of other teams throughout the season. The excellent and exciting goal tending of Danny Bell helped the Hawks finish their first season in "A" Division in Second Place.

The team would like to welcome two (2) new players - Jarhed Hohwald and Brian Rooney.

Congratulation to Pat O'Hea and Steve Sohmer for winning First Place trophies for best costume at the Hicksville Halloween Dance. Fun was had by all.

A Tribute To A Very Special Plainview Resident

Democratic Leader Thomas V. Stivala Dies Suddenly

By Judy Jacobs

Thomas V. Stivala, 41, a Town of Oyster Bay Democratic Leader and a Planner with the Nassau County Planning Commission died of heart complications following a short illness at Long Island Jewish-Hillside Medical Center, Tuesday, Nov. 29, 1983. He was a resident of Plainview.

Friends, among whom this writer was privileged to be, feel a tremendous void with his untimely passing. Tommy, as he was affectionately known to all, although devoted to the Democratic Party, was a friend to everyone, despite their political affiliation. If he could give you the shirt off his back, he would. If you had a problem, he was there. He was truly a very special human being.

A graduate of Adelphi University, Stivala worked as a planning supervisor for the Nassau County Planning Commission for the past 18 years. In addition, he was an adjunct professor of public administration at C.W. Post College.

The Democratic Party of the Town of Oyster Bay has lost a very extraordinary individual, with Tommy's passing. A member of the Executive Committee of the Nassau County Democratic Party, and Plainview Zone Leader, he served as Campaign Coordinator for the Town of Oyster Bay races over the last ten years. He also coordinated various Assembly, Congressional, and Presidential races. His ability to analyze election districts and to organize and direct campaigns was admired and recognized by party and town leaders. The Democratic Party, as well as the entire Town of Oyster Bay, has lost a devoted human being.

He loved planning and would sit for hours discussing the merits and demerits of zoning throughout the County; Boating, fishing and the N.Y. Islanders were his favorite recreations.

A Foundation, in his name, is being established in the School of Public Administration at C.W. Post College by his family and friends.

Survivors include his mother, Ida Stivala of Plainview, and a sister and brother-in-law Carole Anne and Lawrence Richards of Centerport.

A Mass of Christian burial was held Friday, December 2 at St. Pius X Church, Plainview. Interment followed at Holy Rood Cemetery, Westbury.

News From Knights Of Pythias Commuter Lodge #833

By Elliott Silverman

The kind of work that Commuter Lodge does was once again exemplified by the Holiday party that was given for the children this past Saturday at the Plainview library. With a professional clown performing, ice cream, donuts and gifts for all the children that attended, that party has to be considered a huge success! As Brother Harvey Mass said at the last meeting: "even if we only brought happiness to one child, it was worthwhile." Of course, with over 45 children at the party this was not the case.

We would also like to welcome, brothers Erwin Salm, Paul Blonder, Carl Blonder, Philip Benedetti and Burt

Silverman as new subscribers to the Plainview Herald.

On Dec. 19th at 9 P.M. Commuter Lodge will have the great honor of hosting a "Rath-horn Bible Class." The Supreme Chancellor of the United States, Joseph Kalish will perform this Rank. This Ritual is a rare and beautiful one to watch. All members in good standing of the order of the Knights of Pythias are cordially invited to attend. Collation will follow.

The month of December of 1983 has brought special pride & happiness to Brother Paul Firestein and his wife. They will celebrate their daughter Linda's birthday on Dec. 14th and with great pride, will also celebrate their son Jason's birthday on Dec. 16th with the knowledge that he was just placed on the "Honor Roll" in his senior year at Plainview-Old Bethpage High School. Congratulations from all of Commuter Lodge.

Our off-Broadway Rank of Esquire production was acclaimed an outstanding success. Academy award performances were given by Carl Sutnick, Nat Letnick (who was tutored by Milton Berle), Mal Fertig, Hal Krasner, Harvey Ingber and Chacefflor Commander Mike Kasendorf who broke the silence with a great sense of humor at the end.

A sincere & warm welcome to all the new incoming members. Once again, anyone interested in finding out more about Commuter Lodge #833, call (516) 822-2687 and ask for Elliott Silverman.

Until next time; peace to all.

David Gershfield (L) of Jeremy Avenue, Plainview, and Barry Leibowitz (R) of Shelter Hill Road, Plainview, each received a Certificate of Recognition from Dr. Sung Moon (left), Professor and Chairman of the Department of Chemistry at Adelphi University, and from Dr. Howard Grob, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Both Gershfield and Leibowitz are Sophomores at Plainview-Old Bethpage were two of sixty students selected from Nassau, Suffolk and Queens to participate in a special seminar program on the frontiers of Chemistry. The seminars were offered by Professors of Chemistry from Adelphi, each a specialist in his field and the content was directed toward the new developments in the areas of inorganic, organic, physical, and biological chemistry. Emphasis was placed on recent developments in the context of the historical progress of chemistry as it affects technology, and the scientific progress of all fields.

Each of the participating students are eligible for application for a one-half tuition remission scholarship to major in Chemistry at Adelphi. The Department of Chemistry is one of the few in the metropolitan area whose program is certified by the American Chemical Society and the Department of Chemistry has an outstanding record of placement of its students in both graduate and medical and dental schools.

At Holy Family School

The annual Breakfast with Santa was held on Dec. 4, much to the delight of hundreds of children and parents. Santa was on hand to give out gifts and have pictures taken with his little friends. Everyone enjoyed the pancakes and festivities.

Indian Mission Night was held late November. Each year, the first, fourth and seventh grades participate in tribal dances, put on displays, raffles, etc. to benefit the Indian Mission. As usual, the evening was a huge success.

The Pre-K and Kindergartens both had their traditional Thanksgiving celebration. The children did much of the preparations themselves. Full dinners were prepared and the Pilgrims and Indians all joined in the gathering.

Don't sell... wait!

Dear Neighbors:
Please be advised that when a home owner suffers the loss of a spouse many times important decisions are made in haste. Too many times the surviving spouse will sell the house seeking to escape from it all. I urge those people under going this most tragic period to wait approximately one year before deciding on that final step of selling.

For those who may not be aware there are many programs to aid family survivors cope. We at Oscar Real Estate hope you will seek out those concerned groups, they do help.

Should you need help in finding where you can obtain counseling please call us.

Daniel Caroleo

Board of Directors - nominees are: Evelyn Arundel, Helen Beyers, Neil Arundel, Marion Gingell, Michael Bennardo, and Edward Ricca.

Members are urged to vote in this club election.

Thanks to the efforts of your club and many others in the Plainview/Old Bethpage area, the plan to turn buildings at the County Road into a jail annex has been blocked. There are almost 7,000 private homes within only miles of this location.

A program is being developed to improve commuter parking at the Hicksville Railroad Station. The Town of Oyster Bay is readying additional parking on West Barclay Street - hopefully to be ready this spring.

AGAIN, A VERY HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON TO ALL FROM THE PLAINVIEW/OLD BETHPAGE REPUBLICAN CLUB.

A big tax break now. A small fortune later.

When you open an Individual Retirement Account at Eastern Savings Bank, you'll save for your retirement and benefit from two different tax breaks: 1) every dollar you contribute up to the maximum is fully deductible from taxable income on your Federal Income Tax return; and 2) the interest your IRA accumulates is tax deferred until you retire (when you're likely to be in a lower tax bracket).

That means your savings really add up. Eastern's come up with several IRA plans that could really make a difference. Don't forget: starting Dec. 1, you can take full advantage of changing money market interest rates by investing IRA funds in an FDIC-insured Eastern Money Manager AccountSM.

Call toll-free in New York State: 1-800-522-5492 or stop by the Eastern Savings Bank in your neighborhood and find out how an IRA or other Eastern investment figures into your plans for a richer life... today and tomorrow.

*Premature withdrawal from your IRA will subject you to substantial tax and interest penalties. You may begin withdrawals from your IRA as early as age 59½ but no later than age 70½. Information on any account available at any Eastern office. Minimum IRA deposit for Eastern Money Manager Account: $2,000.

You'll like banking Eastern style!

New Image

(Continued from Page 5) ture, the competition flag was passed from outgoing Color Guard Captain Jo Anne Riley to New Captain Cindy Melocoton. The flag was then inverted to reveal a New Image silk and colors. Flash bulbs popped and applause rang out at the emotion-charged ceremony unfolded, and the old officially gave way to the new. Also taking part in the ceremony were Catherine Kelley, a 12 year veteran who was the last girl to "age-out" of St. Ignatius, and James Anglin, a brand new male member of New Image.

After the ceremony, the 1983 Corps spontaneously formed a huge circle, joined hands, and sang their battle hymn: "We are the Champions" for the last time, as twenty-five years of working and playing, and shining victories and bitter defeats, and shared laughter and shared tears for the world renown All-Girl Championship Corps came to an end. The weight of the moment was almost unbearable.

The overwhelming impression that was left with those guests who were not intimately familiar with the corps was one of amazement. "These people - these terrific kids and these adults who guide them - they're so intense - so close - I can't believe anything like this still exists! I tell you - they deserve all the credit in the world" said one guest as we prepared to leave. He just kept shaking his head in disbelief as we said goodbye to Mr. Graziore and the staff. "It's - the DISCIPLINE! THAT'S what it is," he finally said in a flash of revelation.

"Yes, discipline is dispensed by Mr. Cluna and his instructors in no small measure, and it has been a major ingredient in that which distinguishes this organization from "ordinary" ones. But it is that and

Just How Big Is Big Government?

By U. S. Senator Al D'Amato

As we approach 1984 - the year of the "Big Brother" style of government envisioned by author George Orwell - it's a good time to reflect on the size and scope of our own national government.

How big is the U.S. government? Well, according to a special Presidential commission, its very BIG. Did you know, for instance, the Federal Government spends more than $91 billion an hour, 24 hours a day, and handles more than $1,700 billion in receipts and outlays annually? Or how about the fact it employs more than 2.8 million people and purchases more than $130 billion annually in goods and services?

And further, did you realize the Federal Government owns one-third of the U.S. land mass and occupies enough office space to fill all the buildings in the 10 largest cities in America times four? Uncle Sam also provides more than 95 million subsidized meals a day and delivers medical care to 47 million Americans.

These are but a few facts uncovered by the President's Private Sector Survey on Cost Control, established to examine ways to make our government run more effectively and efficiently. According to the panel, Uncle Sam lacks a comprehensive and integrated strategy to make government run better.

Improving the performance of the Federal Government has been a top priority for President Reagan since coming to office. Like any big business, the Federal Government needs to be well-managed and well-organized if it is going to operate at its best. President Reagan knows this, and has taken steps to cut back on needless bureaucratic paperwork and wasteful government spending which eats up taxpayers dollars. He is working to streamline many federal programs to make them run more productively and efficiently.

This is a tremendous task, to cut back on what for many has become a huge, sprawling bureaucracy known as the Federal Government. What the President is attempting to do is make our government more responsive by making it more responsible. Time and example have shown we cannot afford to return to the days of spend, spend, spend and tax, tax, tax and expect our economy to thrive. Runaway government growth and spending have only led to double-digit inflation, skyrocketing interest rates, economic stagnation and declining productivity.

Controlling the size and cost of government is essential if we are to ensure the "Big Brother" government envisioned by Orwell never comes about. The responsibility lies not only with the President, but also with Congress. No penny is spent by the federal government unless it is first authorized and appropriated by Congress. 1984 may be upon us, but if the necessary decisions are made to control runaway government spending, it does not have to be Orwell's 1984.

more, for here, discipline is accompanied by a discernable caring, a genuine concern, and a true striving for musicianship, citizenship, correctness, and excellence," said Mr. Costa. "It is this legacy that we hope to pass on to the future molders of our society" said Mr. Graziore. A legacy, indeed, Mr. Graziore. GOOD LUCK TO NEW IMAGE!

ly...Now the moral of the story is, if you want to be a hunter, don't pay your dues...But, if you want to remain a Legionnaire, pay your Dues and look BIG in the eyes of your paid up comrades...This will be the last time that I will tell you about our NEW YEAR'S EVE PARTY which has a closing date of December 20th and believe me, this is FIRM...There will be no sales at the door and unless you get your reservation money on the line by December 20th, you will have missed the best priced affair in town...Think about it...For $45 a couple you get a fully catered roast beef dinner, funny hats, noise-makers, dance music and drinks from 9 til 2...Call either HARRY CHRISTO at 249-5605 or JOHN RIZOS at 433-7429 and tell the man how many in your party...Say, don't forget that Harry Christo is chairman for 'Stamps For Vets' program and he is still collecting all the used postage stamps he can get for this program...This is the time to tear off those used stamps from the Christmas mail and bring them into Harry or place them in the container so marked on our lower bar...Come to our next meeting which will be on December 19th and let's have a little CHRISTMAS CHEER...Will you lead it????

Student leaders from John F. Kennedy and Plainview-Old Bethpage High Schools gathered to plan their Project Outreach activities. Project Outreach is funded by a $10,000 grant provided by the New York State Office of Crime Prevention. The students were alerted to the grant by Assemblyman Lewis Evoll last spring. Discussing their Project Outreach plans are:

Project Outreach will use student volunteers from the John F. Kennedy High School Student Government and the Plainview-Old Bethpage High School Student Association to arrange Neighborhood Watch meetings, with the police, for Plainview-Old Bethpage residents. The community has been divided into 7 geographic sectors for this purpose (4 for JFKHS and 3 for POBHS). In addition, Kennedy students will conduct a Senior Citizen Safety Seminar and, working with the District's PTA, will arrange for the fingerprinting of children, grades K-6. Student volunteers will also coordinate Plainview-Old Bethpage Discovery Day (a conference on March 11th) and Plainview Old Bethpage Celebration Day (a parade on April 29th) to enhance residents' identification with the community.

I, ANN R. OCKER Town Clerk of the Town of Oyster Bay, and custodian of the Records of said Town, DO HEREBY CERTIFY that I have compared the annexed with the original AMENDMENTS TO THE CODE OF ORDINANCES (MOTOR VEHICLES AND TRAFFIC) adopted by the Town Board on December 6, 1983 filed in
