Postal Presents Collected For Servicemen In Lebanon

This holiday season postal workers collected more than Christmas cards.

Over 45 cartons of goodies containing playing cards, fruitcakes, cookies, cigarettes and other items were gathered together for a Servicemen's Christmas Campaign coordinated by Hicksville postal employee Angelo Cifarelli, a former World War II Marine.

Angelo said, "I remember how much presents and letters meant to me when I was in the war zone."

He organized the drive among his fellow postal workers.

Donations were received from employees of Hicksville, Plainview and Levittown Post Offices.

All the gifts were wrapped by the committee and taken to the Marine Base in Garden City where arrangements were made to fly them to Lebanon to be distributed among the servicemen.

See Page 8 for HHS student activities of like nature.

All three work in the Post Office.

News From Lee Ave.

The RIF Assembly last week at Lee Avenue featured a famous people parade. Some of the older students, in costume, gave a brief speech about their character. Directed by Mr. Savalas, the program was to introduce all the children to some of the biographical books to be offered the next day.

Also at this assembly the students were treated to a show by cowboy Joe Phillips and his dog, Tuffy. Cowboy Joe delighted the children with many of the stunts he learned working in the movies and on television.

Mr. Donahue's 6th graders felt spending the holidays on a ship in the Persian Gulf must be very lonely, so they wrote "Dear Sailor" letters to these boys. Most of these letters have been answered and the children are happy to have shared their thoughts and good wishes with these men.

The second grade sale held on the 13th collected almost $200.00 and the children have decided to donate the money to Newsday's Adopt-A-Family general fund.

Coming in January the PTA of Lee will sponsor a discussion on self-defense. The evening will include a film and question and answer period by a representative of the Nassau County Police Department. Admission will be free and Hicksville residents are urged to attend. This will be held in the All-Purpose Room of Lee Avenue School, January 10th at 8 P.M.

We would also like to wish everyone at Lee a very happy and healthy New Year.

Our Armed Forces

Navy Airman Allan I. Needleman, son of Yolanda Needleman of Ninth St., HICKSVILLE, recently returned from a seven-month deployment to the Mediterranean.

He is a crewmember aboard the amphibious assault ship USS Iwo Jima, homeported in Norfolk, Va.

While in the Mediterranean, the Iwo Jima served as a flagship for the amphibious Naval task force stationed off the coast of Lebanon. It was also the primary medical facility for the American contingent of the Multi-National Peacekeeping Force. On the day the Battalion Landing Team headquarters was destroyed, more than 75 Sailors and Marines were treated aboard the Iwo Jima before being transferred to hospitals in West Germany, Italy and Cyprus.

While the Beirut International Airport was closed, the Iwo Jima served as an airport afloat for more than 19,000 passengers.

The Iwo Jima is 602 feet long, carries a crew of 609, and can accommodate an additional 1,746 combat ready troops.

Marine Pvt. John Houston, son of Flora T. Houston of Belmont Road, HICKSVILLE, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

The Board passed the measure, which allows an exemption for improvements to a residence for the purpose of facilitating the use and accessibility of the home to a disabled homeowner or family member. This exemption will take effect for the 1984-85 school tax roll.

The Board also authorized the purchase of services of Prof. Robert E. Molloy, who will serve as a consultant to the Board in evaluating operation and efficiency and in making recommendations regarding the role and performance of Board members in conducting district business.

Fork Lane School Meets The "One Man Circus"

What to do for the winter doldrums? Fork Lane School's Cultural Arts chairperson, Rose Ann Robey, had the right answer. Recently youngsters from kindergarten through fourth grade had an opportunity to see "the one man circus," Jean-Paul Jenack.

An area resident who is also a seasoned circus performer and has appeared extensively on cable television and public broadcasting, Mr. Jenack amazed children and teachers alike with his juggling, balancing and daring unicycle skills. He introduced a variety of feats from around the globe - China, Egypt, India and the U.S. to mention a few.

Mr. Jenack spent the balance of the day holding an "on-hands workshop" where Fork Lane children could perform elementary skills seen at his performance.

While enjoying the thrill-a-minute act at Fork Lane was a special treat, the fifth and sixth graders also had an exciting day at the Hansel and Gretel operetta at Hicksville High School.

On The Campus

Alan Abrams of Dahill Rd., OLD BETHPAGE, is one of 18 Grinnell College students that will have a special field experience to follow up on a course he has taken in modern Russian society and culture.

Dear Friends ...

THE FIRST CHRISTMAS

And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed.

(And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David which is called Bethlehem: (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room in the inn.

And there were in the same country, shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.

And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly hosts praising God and saying,

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

The second Chapter of the Gospel according to St. Luke, verses 1 through 14

We wish you all the holiest Christmas, May He live in your heart, in your mind and in your actions every day.

And may the New Year shower God's blessing upon you.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor,

I wish to take this opportunity to thank all the residents of Hicksville who voted in the recent Fire Commissioner election.

I am grateful to all, especially our senior citizens, who came out in such inclement weather and gave me their overwhelming support. A special thank you to my committee, my friends and my family for their assistance during my campaign.

Now that the election is over, the real job is ahead: open communication can only come about by continuing the great response you displayed on December 13th.

I encourage you to write to me about your concerns over the various issues raised during the campaign and I shall do my best to keep you informed in the future. Only with dialogue are we able to reach the ultimate goal of a satisfied community, with total fire protection for all of Hicksville.

Sincerely yours,
William F. Donlon
Chief of the Department
Hicksville Fire Department
Fire Commissioner Elect
Hicksville Fire District

Dear Mrs. Noeth:

I read with interest the account by Terry Rogers (Herald, Dec. 16, 1983) of the 25th anniversary party of the St. Ignatius Girls

Cadet Corps--and the inaugural of the New Image.

It was unfortunate that for such an auspicious occasion the organizing committee did not think to invite nor mention any of the former staff members or instructors who had contributed so much of themselves for so many hours and years. From the founding days through the "trial and tears" times of the non-championship years, it took much work and unbelievable dedication on the part of many people to set the stage for the champions the Corps became.

People like Veronica Willant, Patricia Gomez, the late Frank Zimmerman, his brother, Howard, Larry

Wallace and Ray Guckenberger are a few of many who contributed so much in the early days to the base of the ultimately successful Corps as champions--only they would know (and the girls they helped and guided.)

I do wish them the best of luck and success in the future. In the drum corps world, the "girls" were unique and special. It will never be the same. I would hope that the new unit concept will not be delegated to an also-ran role.

Sincerely,
Philip H. Gietschier, (former business manager (7 yrs.)
and Treasurer (3 yrs.)

Scientists Ask Governor To Weigh Expert Views On Opening Of Shoreham

Scientist members of Citizens for an Orderly Energy Policy recently urged Governor Mario Cuomo to weigh carefully the views of the three most prominent members of his special commission in deciding state policy on the opening of the Shoreham Nuclear Power Station.

In a recent statement the organization which favors the opening of the beleaguered power reactor, said "We trust that the Governor, in his wisdom, will give special weight to the views of the three members of his commission who clearly were best equipped to advise him rather than the view which represented the opinions of diehard nuclear opponents lacking professional competence either on questions of safety or the importance of nuclear energy to energy independence.

"Three of the members of the commission, even before their appointment, were on public record as being avowed anti-Shoreham activists. Another of the commission's members, Dr. Herbert J. Kouts, is usually labelled by the news media as being "pro-nuclear," apparently because Dr. Kouts has worked on nuclear reactor safety for more than 30 years and is internationally recognized as one of the world's leading experts on nuclear safety.

"We hope that in studying this report you will recognize the difference in quality and character of the supplementary statement of these two diverse points of view. If major government decisions are not based on rational analyses, such as contained in the supplementary material of Dr. Kouts, Dr. William J. Ronan and Dr. Alfred E. Kahn, then our society is in serious trouble."

Drs. Kouts, Ronan and Kahn were the three commission members who filed supplementary comments favoring permitting the new power station to operate. Dr. Ronan is former chairman of the Metropolitan Transit Authority; Dr. Kahn is a nationally known economist.

The plea to the Governor came one day after he held an emotional open hearing on the subject of Shoreham at which five scientists who work in nuclear safety research voiced their opinion that there is no safety reason why Shoreham should not be permitted to operate.

Several of the scientists live with their families in Shoreham.

The Board appointed William Hall to succeed Richard Weigang as the district's Business Manager. Mr. Hall was selected after a careful and thorough process which was conducted with the help of former Board member Daniel Arena. Mr. Weigang is retiring at the end of this month.

William A. Becker, Director of Facilities and Operations was congratulated upon his selection as this year's district honored guest for the 31st Annual PTA Founders Day Dinner to be held on February 16. Mr. Becker and honored guests from the various PTA units will be feted at a gala celebration at the Crest Hollow Country Club.

Board committee chairs announced the dates of meetings scheduled for January 1984. Community residents are invited to join in committee activities and attend the following meetings:

January 5 Long-Range Planning Committee 8:15 pm.

January 17 Budget Advisory Committee 8:15 pm.

January 24 Legislative Committee 7:30 pm.

All meetings will be held in the Conference Room of the Administration Building.

The next meeting of the Hicksville Board of Education will be held on Wednesday, January 11, at 8:15 pm in the Conference Room of the Administration Building on Division Avenue.

Legionnaire's Log

BY ARTIE RUTZ

Sorry to report that another Legionnaire has become a candidate for Post Everlasting... Services were held last Sunday evening for P.C. Joseph Slattery with Americanism Officer Richard Evers delivering the Eulogy.... Commander Louis Braun conducted the service with Arthur Rutz, P.C. acting as Chaplain.... Now on a happier note, we had a Christmas Party for the children that afternoon and the kids had a grand time as usual.... Santa Claus arrived on schedule and presented gifts to Matty, Willie & Steve Koopman; Timothy & Holly Zino; Jerry Gagle; Nicklaus Gamble; Denise & Stephanie Leger; Dawn & Cheryl Seitz; Steven Feibel; Dawn & Pamela Howard and Patricia & David Satterfield.... AN up-and-coming event to be held at our Post on January 18th will be the county competition of the Oratorical contest which is staged yearly as part of the vast preliminary contests required to narrow the nation's young orators down to the final round.... Honors and a college scholarship await the winner and presented gifts of the national contest, plus interesting awards for the runners-up.... If you have never heard young Americans orate, under controlled conditions, about the United States Constitution, then you have a rare treat coming, because you will learn many things about our nation's Constitution that you never heard of before.... Hey, I've been attending these contests for about 25 years and each year I learn something new as our young orators dig deeper and deeper as they research their material on this difficult subject.... Mind you that this is no sissy contest as all speeches are timed and off-the-cuff so to speak.... Once again, our own Dick Hochbrueckner is the New York State chairman of these oratorical contests.... Come on January 18th and see for yourself what I'm writing about and the first orator will have the stage at 7:30 P.M.... Now for some more bad news.... The New Year's Eve Party has been cancelled due to the lack of interest on the part of our membership who prefer other surroundings even if only on a waiting list.... Too bad... Too bad... Funny thing, our members never seem to take advantage of what is their rights as again was noticed after Monday's meeting (which was a social one) when hot food was provided by the Post and an open bar was declared until 11 P.M. in celebration of the Christmas holidays.... And dear members, you have other rights that you could have exercised that night and saved some money, but.... Come down tonight, (Friday) and you just might be interested in what Dick Hochbrueckner has on hand and you just might want, seeing the holidays and all are at hand.... Special mention must be made of the fact that little Melissa Zielinski (John Sheppard's granddaughter) made a personal donation of 18 dolls for the girls at Suffolk State Development Center at last week's Christmas Party and the girls really enjoyed them.... At Monday's meeting the Post endorsed Dick Hochbrueckner for Nassau County Membership Officer for the Legion year of 1984-85.... This will enable Dick to get his letter out by late January and in lots of time to advise all Posts of his candidacy before the 3rd Division Caucus, which will be held at our Post in March.... A book will be placed in the Hofstra library which houses the James N. MacLean Nassau County American Legion Memorial Library honoring Past Commander Joseph Slattery.... Keep in mind that the Post Commanders' Club will hold a Superbowl Sunday at the Post on January 22nd.... There will be a 6-foot screen, hot dogs, beer all for the nominal price of $5 and tickets are only obtainable thru any Post Commander.... Ladies invited to be sure.... Commander Lou Braun & his entire staff wish each and every member, their families, a very Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year.... And that goes double for me.

Gorst-Galkowski

As his fellow members of the Hicksville Fire Department sounded the horns of the fire department trucks, and they raised an arch of crossed hooks and axes, James Michael Galkowski and Barbara Sue Gorst became husband and wife on Saturday, December 17, at the United Methodist Church.

It was a true Christmas wedding as Barbara was dressed in white satin and lace, and carried a bouquet of red roses, white carnations and holly.

Her sister, Christine Kani was matron of honor, and wore green velvet. Janet Wright, Barbara's other sister, Patricia Galkowski, Jim's sister, and Linda Wohl were the other honor attendants, and wore red velvet. They all carried long stemmed white roses with Christmas greens.

Edward Stenborg was the

best man, and the ushers were Walter Galkowski, Jim's brother, Brian Blochl, and Joe Albanese.

Bob and Carol Gorst were the happy and proud parents of Barbara, and Jim's folks are Walter and Irene Galkowski. All are from Hicksville.

We wish the new Mr. and Mrs. Jim Galkowski a long and happy life together.

News From The Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club

The December meeting of the Plainview - Old Bethpage Road Runners Club was the most successful in the Club's five year history, as more than 150 people were on hand to hear the presentation of Port Jefferson Cardiologist Dr. Lloyd Lense on Heart Disease: Detection and Prevention. The program was introduced by Exercise Physiologist Dr. Murray Low. Both Dr. Lense and Dr. Low fielded questions from the audience at the close of Dr. Lense's presentation.

Also highlighting the meeting was a discussion of plans for the 7th Annual Plainview PBC 10,000 Meter Run, scheduled for April 7, 1984. The POBRR Race Committee will be meeting on January 3, 1984 to finalize arrangements for the Run.

Several members of POBRR joined the festivities at the Salty Dog Pub in East Meadow for the 1st annual Holiday Party hosted by the Nassau

Students Cited By Hicksville Kiwanis Club

The Hicksville High School students who spearheaded the project of sending cookies, and brownies, and letters, to our Marines in Lebanon for Thanksgiving were the honored guests of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club on December 14.

Larry Sullivan suggested to Regina Ruf, the President of the Student Government, that something be done to let our Servicemen in Beirut know that the students of Hicksville High School were thinking of them. The suggestion started a chain reaction which involved many students and teachers. Numerous companies in Hicksville donated the necessary ingredients for the cookies and brownies which the students baked in Home Economics classes during and after school hours. In addition to the baked goodies, some students, under the leadership of Sabine Arnold, wrote letters to our Marines. Shipping the material to Lebanon was arranged for by Railway Express.

In recognition of their outstanding leadership with this project, Regina, Sabine, and Larry were presented with a special Certificate of Recognition for all of the students who took part in the project. The presentation was made by Kiwanis President Bill Heberer.

High School Principal Dr. William Rieck, Sabine Arnold, Letter Writing Chairman, and Larry Sullivan, Marine Project Chairman.

Leases New Hicksville Building

Mura Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Technicom International (Shelton, Conn.) has leased a 54,000 sq. ft. Hicksville building under construction by Lizza Industries on W. John St. Aggregate rental value of the transaction is $2.5 million.

Being finished to Mura's specifications, the building will house executive offices and serve as a primary distribution center for the firm which is a major distributor of business and residential telephone systems and other consumer electronic products. Mura will more than double its space in this move from its present Hicksville headquarters.

Holy Family CYO Basketball

Holy Family's fifth grade CYO basketball team is off to an impressive start this season with four victories without a defeat.

Coach Jim Bradley's team has reeled off victories against St. Brigid, St. Bernard, St. James, and St. Raphael. Members of the team are Ted Knoop, Victor Cornelius, Paul Rom, Jarrett Roth, John Coyle, Peter Osback, Paul Maresca, David Cohen, Mike Murray, Danny Fujimoto, Anthony Laviola, and Barry Mannion.

Holy Family opened its season with a 40-6 victory over St. Brigid. The Eagles jumped out to a 23-2 lead in the first period as Cohen tossed in 10 points and Osback added nine. Cohen finished with 16 points to lead all scorers.

The Eagles had to come from behind to edge St. Bernard, 25-24. With Fujimoto and Rom controlling the boards in the second half, Holy Family rallied to win it on baskets by Knoop, Fujimoto, and Osback in the fourth period. Osback, who also converted two clutch foul shots in the final period, was high scorer with 11 points.

Holy Family got off to a 15-2 lead on its way to a 33-15 win against St. James. Cohen led a balanced attack with 13 points, while Rom

NOTHING SAYS MORE LOVING than something from the oven, in this case, the oven in the Hicksville High School Home Economics classroom as students prepare baked goods to be shipped to U.S. Marines stationed in Beirut, Lebanon. The idea for the project, which is being chaired by Larry Sullivan and Regina Ruf who hold up some of the before and after products, was the brainchild of the Student Government as a way to show their support for the Marines. Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas L. Clark (standing right) stopped by to see the students at work and was joined by Marine Staff Sgt. Thomas J. Kenney and Hicksville Schools Superintendent Dr. Catherine Fenton.

and Fujimoto added seven and six points each.

Eight players scored in the 36-20, victory against St. Raphael. Cohen and Rom combined for nine points in the first quarter when Holy Family took a 13-4 lead. Cohen netted 14 points, while Cohen added six and Rom and Fujimoto four each. Knoop, Osback, Cornelius, and Roth also scored.

Holy Family's next game will be on January 8th at home against St. Bernard at 12:30 p.m.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

VENERABLE SKIP MONTEFORTE'S MESSAGE: There is no easy path. Each one must find their way. And prove their merit traveling on with faith, from day to day.

It was Sunday, the 18th of December. The rays of a winter sun were slowly diminishing. But the air was crisp and cold, with the feeling of approaching snow. But inside the Galileo Lodge the atmosphere was warm, radiant with love and joys of many children. The mood was deeply associated with the Christmas season because this was the day when the Galileo Lodge presented its two Christmas parties, one for the handicapped children of Long Island and the other one for the children of its membership.

All total, over 200 children entered the portals of the Galileo Lodge to enjoy the beauty and the magic spell of Christmas. And what a sight to behold to see them eating a delicious Italian meal, drinking soda, dancing merrily to the organ music of Richie Lagnese, singing gleefully all those warm heartwarming songs of Christmas. And to watch them as they anticipate the appearance of Santa Claus and his bag of 'goodies', to witness their little bodies becoming animated and seeing all those warm and expressive eyes shining like huge beacons of light also provided their parents with the same kind of feelings and emotions. I can even say that the parents of all these children enjoyed these two parties, the food, the music and the congeniality and love of the Galileo Lodge membership, male as well as female.

Pete Massiello was the director of these two activities, ably assisted by his two co-Chairmen, Joe Morace and Frank Matassa. And it was also the untiring and ceaseless efforts of the Galileo Lodge membership, male as well as female, that gave these two inspiring and magnificent parties the genuineness of love and the beauty and warmth of Christmas. And thanks to Venerable Skip Monteforte, who was the chief coordinator, there was an extra-added measure of the true holiday spirit. And we must include the laborious tasks of the kitchen force, headed by Jim Posillico and his assistants, who once performed far beyond expectations to insure the ingratiating atmosphere that existed.

The handicapped children came from the Association for Help of Retarded Children, under the guidance of Mildred Farrel, and from the St. Bernard's parish, under the supervision of Jim

Fishing Club Awards

In a year-long fishing competition, Julia Jacobi of Hicksville, was awarded Second Prize, at IHB Services for the Blind Fishing Club's annual Christmas dinner. The Fishing Club for blind and deaf-blind men and women held its award dinner in Brooklyn, on Friday, December 16th.

The Fishing club has operated as one of IHB's recreational activities since 1949. The club made eight fishing trips into Long Island Sound last season. Mrs. Jacobi, a member of the club for two years, won the second prize based on the size and number of fish caught during the season.

Receives Masters

Frances L. Mackey, daughter of Louise Mackey of Salem Rd., HICKSVILLE, has received a Master's degree in Education from the University of Houston.

nor Dance Group, who also performed marvelously, received a plaque from the Galileo Lodge. And the welcomed addition of the Holy Family Trio who sang a medley of nostalgic songs from yesteryear. And how can we forget the gifts the children received, the candy, ice cream, cookies and home made baked cakes, which certainly added to the happiness and merriment that abounded.

The Christmas parties offered by the Galileo Lodge are representative and human evidence of the Galileo Lodge's emotionally-laden preoccupation of the giving of one group of individuals to another group — to spread joy and happiness to these beautiful children and their families, and thus once again proving the old adage that it is better to give than to receive.

Venerable Skip Monteforte, in deepest acknowledgment of the tremendous efforts of all the Galileo Lodge personnel who gave these parties extends his sincere thanks for another job well done.

And a reminder that the Galileo Lodge will hold its New Year's Party and Dance on Saturday, the 31st of December. Tickets sell at $30 per person, and in the offering will be a complete hot dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, unlimited liquor, a continental breakfast and dancing up to the wee hours of the morning. Armand Del Cioppo will chair this activity, and tickets are now on sale, contact Armand at 931-9351. If you are seeking a terrific way to usher in the New Year, why not do this at the Galileo Lodge at an affordable price?

Cabbage Patch Christmas

■ Every Saturday, 9-year-old Danielle visits the Nassau Farmers Market in Bethpage to see her newly "adopted baby," Meg Thea, the Cabbage Patch Kid who waits for her at Maureen's Huggable Loveables Doll Shop.

Each time, Danielle makes another payment toward the $120 "adoption fee." Come Christmas, she hopes to take her "baby" home.

This is the Craze of Christmas Present—a Cabbage Patch Kid phenomenon that has become the talk of the retail town.

Actually, there are two cabbage patches. The original one is in Cleveland, GA, where hand-made babies are "delivered" according to the folk art designs of Xavier Roberts, the Kids' creator.

The second "computer cabbage patch" was started by Coleco of West Hartford, CT. Coleco was licensed by Roberts to mass-produce the dolls—each with a unique design—to retail for about $20 each. This patch has some of its roots on LI: Coleco's kids were created by Judy and Arthur Albert of Oyster Bay.

Whether hand-made or computer-crafted, the kids are always adopted, never "bought." Each original at Maureen's comes with birth certificate, name, and a receiving blanket to take home.

"The babies aren't perfect," says Janet Galanek, owner of Maureen's, "so they tend to take on more human characteristics."

More than toys, the handmade kids are collector's items: the $60 first-born kids of 1978 now bring $2,000.

At present, Galanek says, her waiting list of "adoptive parents" has climbed to 175. The stork, himself borne of a happy marriage between marketing and production, will be "delivering" once again after the New Year. ■

Hicksville Republican Club News

TOWN GOVERNMENT - a Vignette

Lives are often influenced by forces which are assumed as acceptable ways of life; sometimes due to the absence of other alternative elements. If we venture into their evolution, however, we may find some special kind of interest, amusement and perhaps a hint of appreciation and pride.

Local government, and in particular for our present sketch, Town government, as we know it today, has had a unique and logical evolution. It has become part of our structured society; acceptable to some degrees and to some extent, but always there to help or to condemn it, especially if a friend was not elected. Of course, it is also hated at times, especially when garbage is not picked up on time or snow not magically removed; and yet, we know that our government is there doing its job and ready, willing and able to serve the common good. It's like an old shoe that fits so well, but a pebble sometimes intrudes our comfort.

Someone once said that governments "are not made, nor patched; they grow. Grow slow through centuries of pain." Do we remember with rightful pride the history of this wonderful country - the pain that forged its greatness - from the early Pilgrims, Indians, Revolutionary War, Civil War, etc. etc.? The fiber which weaved our society to its great stature is the intrinsic and basic credo that government is - "of the people, by the people, for the people..." That is the core of local government which the government of the States, as well as the Federal Government have rightfully inherited.

Here on Long Island, the chief unit of local government is the Town. Hon. Frank C. Moore in his "Early History of Town Government in New York State" revealed that our form of Town government followed the so-called New England system wherein the dominant unit of authority was the town in contrast to the Southern system in which the county was the all-important unit. The New England system evolved in the minds and hearts and in the discussion and debates of the adventurous voyagers on the Mayflower as they journeyed to their destiny.

Those forefathers of ours had already agreed to settle in small enclosures to secure themselves from the unknown dangers of the new land and to better defend themselves from hostile Indians. It may be interesting to note that the word "town" is a derivative of the German word "tun" meaning enclosures formulated by early Germanic tribes. On the other hand, where the climate was more favorable and the Indians more friendly, there was no need for confinement. Settlers were able to spread over larger areas of land and thereby develop a county form of government as the basic local authority.

Those of us raised in New York City are familiar with City government comprised of counties or boroughs. There, government was rooted in the Dutch influence. Here in Nassau and Suffolk, the basic unit of government is the Town, following the New England system. This sprang from the early pioneer-spirited adventurers from Massachusetts and Connecticut who crossed Long Island Sound and sought their future on our shores. Town government was their kind of shoe and they made it fit their new, new world on Long Island. I hope the pebbles continue to be few.

Season's greetings from the Hicksville Republican Club to everyone!

Meters At Mall? Siegel Says Parking Fees Will Cut Costs

A nationwide trend to install parking meters at shopping malls will "seriously cut into sales and profits of every single retailer in the mall," says Jerry Siegel, chairman of Siegel Associates, a leading Long Island builder and property manager.

"In the past five years," Mr. Siegel says, "more than fifty malls have put in parking meters. Next year, Kings Plaza in Brooklyn plans to charge 50 cents a car for parking in its indoor garage."

Mr. Siegel, who has owned the Nassau Farmers Market in Bethpage since 1954, says the market has never imposed a fee for parking in its 1,000-vehicle-capacity lot, and never will.

"It runs counter to the whole concept of an authentic farmers market," he said. "Could you imagine a tough old Lancaster County farmer pulling into his local market and finding out he had to pay 50 cents for parking? He'd probably park his car right on top of the flattened meter!"

Mr. Siegel said the effect of parking fees in malls would be to drive motorists onto local streets and to encourage them to quickly "shop the bargains" and leave.

"When families come to a shopping mall, they want to stay and browse," Mr. Siegel says. "We've found the average family of three stays anywhere from two to four hours. Every retailer in the mall also wants the consumer to stay and browse. What nobody wants is to have people looking at their watch every fifteen minutes."

Commenting on a statement by Kiny Systems, which operates parking facilities, that "pay parking at shopping centers is the wave of the future," Mr. Siegel said, "It's a wave that would sink many of the retailers in the malls."
