Giese Park Civic Assoc. To Meet August 4th

The Giese Park Civic Association will meet August 4th at 7 P.M. in the community room of the Hicksville library. The main topic will be an update on the Giese Park issue.

At the last meeting of the association on June 30th, plans for proposed development of the property by the Town of Oyster Bay were presented to the residents. These plans included 2 soccer fields, an off street parking facility, a children's play area and underground plumbing for a future restroom building. These plans were unanimously denounced by the residents who stated that the plans represented a sports complex rather than a park and that such a facility was not appropriate for a residential neighborhood in close proximity to private homes. Alternatives to these plans were discussed which included a more passive park, the return of the property to the tax rolls for the building of homes and the development of senior citizen housing. All of these ideas were acceptable to the residents whose utmost concern is maintaining the residential atmosphere of the neighborhood. A town attorney has been requested to attend the meeting to answer questions concerning the issue. Also at the meeting plans will be discussed for residents to go to Town Hall to express their views to all members of the Town Board.

A spokesperson for the association has stated that the town's plans for the property is estimated to cost the taxpayers approximately $700,000 and could very well be more. The spokesperson also stated that the quality of life of the neighborhood is at stake and urges all interested persons to attend.

Hicksville Annex Open For Tax Payments

Effective Monday, Aug. 4, through Friday, Aug. 8, the Town Clerk's Annex, located in the Town Parking Garage at Newbridge Road and Duffy Avenue in Hicksville, will be open to receive general tax payments, according to Town Clerk Ann R. Ocker.

"In order to provide this service to residents," Mrs. Ocker explained, "the office will remain open from 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. to receive tax payments.

Residents may also pay in person at the Tax Office, Oyster Bay Town Hall West, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay and at Town Hall South, 977 Hicksville Road, Massapequa, during the hours of 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., weekdays.

"When paying in person," Mrs. Ocker noted, "residents should bring the entire tax bill. Please do not write on, or deface, the stub as it can cause rejection of the payment by the computer."

Post Office
Insurance Tips

If you send merchandise or valued objects through the mail, you can buy postal insurance. The key is knowing the rules that apply. Hicksville Postmaster Roger Nienaber points out that while almost all packages and envelopes handled by the U.S. Postal Service reach their destination without incident, insurance is a safe and economical way to assure reimbursement in the event of accidental damage or loss.

Insurance is available up to $500 for fourth-class parcel and book-rate mail, third-class business mail and for merchandise mailed at the Priority Mail or First-Class rates. For articles insured for more than $25, a receipt of delivery is signed by the recipient and filed at the delivery post office.

The cost of the insurance ranges from a minimum of 50 cents to a maximum of $4.40. Express Mail is covered by limited insurance at no additional charge.

Postmaster Nienaber offers these tips: "First, send irreplaceable articles, regardless of value, and all items worth more than $50 by Registered Mail for greater security.

"Second, do not overinsure your articles. Payment for a lost item is limited to the actual value of the item, less depreciation.

"Third, insurance does not cover the spoilage of perishable items. Sentimental value isn't covered either.

"Fourth, if a mailed article you insured has been lost or damaged, you need to pick up the claim forms at your local post office where the required procedures for filing claims will be explained to you. The same forms also are used for claims on registered, COD or Express Mail."

Money orders offer another kind of insurance.

"The Postal Service does not want its customers to send cash through the mail," adds Postmaster Nienaber. "If they do, the cash can't be insured. The safe answer is to purchase domestic money orders, available at all post offices in amounts up to $100. If your money order is lost or stolen, present your customer receipt and it can be replaced.

Let's Keep These Brain Cells Active!

Members of our staff have been having a long discussion about Senior Citizens—do they desire to work part-time to augment their incomes and to keep their brain cells active—or are they happy after many years of working to relax and just enjoy???

The discussion came about after we received a letter from the officer of senior affairs asking for copies of our help wanted ads so that they could offer jobs to seniors who had indicated that they would like to work, at least part-time.

We answered, offering several jobs that need doing right here at our newspaper office—and we have advertised for retirees—but we have never received even one reply—hence the discussion.

What do our senior citizen readers have to say about this? We are sure that there are many on all sides of the question—but let us know—should we stop considering the senior citizen pool as a source of part-time employees?

Letters From Our Readers

I would first like to thank the kind citizens of Hicksville who have donated thus far to the Hicksville Veterans' Monument Fund. Also the United Veterans of Hicksville for their always needed support. The veterans organizations of Hicksville have always given their all to the community.

But, to make the Korean Veterans' and Vietnam Veterans' Monuments a reality we need the fine Hicksville community's help to beautify our town. What better way to beautify Hicksville than to honor our servicemen with a monument that will remind people of the service these men did for our great country.

If you want to make a donation you can send it to the Hicksville Veterans' Monument Fund, P.O. Box 412, Hicksville, N.Y. 11802. For further information you can call Chairman Conrad Steers at 822-5938. Let's be proud of our Veterans.

Conrad Steers,

Dear Friends,

Due to the desire to reach as many people as possible and because of the urgency of this message, I am depending upon the news media that is available. I apologize for not using more personal contact.

On behalf of the almost five hundred (500) veterans at Kings Park Hospital, I am appealing to you to please donate bicycles. The bicycles need not be new nor elaborate but desired to be in serviceable condition. At the hospital, there are female veterans as well as male, so bicycles for the ladies are needed.

The following statement gives me a great deal of pleasure. The "Charles Wagner American Legion Post -421, was the first organization to visit the veterans at Kings Park Hospital back in 1929 and has been visiting veterans there regularly along with our ladies from our Post Auxiliary. We will continue to do so."

Please feel free to call me at home (935-5251) or visit our Post on any Friday evening. I will be glad to answer any questions I am able to regarding this letter.

The majority of veteran/patients at Kings Park Hospital are ambulatory.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation, I remain,

Wes Tietjen

Dear Editor:

I have been receiving the Hicksville Illustrated News for the last three weeks, free. I find myself looking forward to each copy before it comes. The variety and the clarity is so impressive, I can't put it down until I've read it from front to back. In fact, I get annoyed if I'm interrupted before I've finished reading the whole thing. I have never read a sports page in my life, yet I find myself even reading the sports page. What is the mystic? Whatever it is, it's working. Long Live the Illustrated News.

Incidentally, I did not intend this letter to be critical but there was one little mistake in this week's issue that I happened to catch. I happen to like history, so naturally the pictures and the summary about Hicksville was great, only for one thing. Dr. Curtis' office was never above Huettner's store. It was always above the drug store on the northeast corner at the intersection of Broadway and Marie Street.

Lorraine DeGaidano, Hicksville

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Dear Lorraine:

Thank you so much for your kind reception to the "Hicksville Illustrated News."

It is with particular pleasure that we find so many Hicksville citizens interested in the historical maps and related history.

Concerning Dr. Curtis' office above Huettner's Emporium, our research indicates that the original Huettner store was on the northeast corner of Broadway and Mary (Marie Street).

As noted on the 1914 map, Huettner's did own the corner property on the southwest side of Broadway.

It was occupied by a hotel at that time. Mr. Unverhau opened his pharmacy on the original site when Huettner's secured ownership and built on that site.

However, we could be wrong. Confirmation research will be done again. It is great fun to share and exchange these Hicksville historical anecdotes with you.

Howard

Dear Editor:

I would like you to know how much we enjoy your publication. It helps me keep up with what's going on in my town and also helps me keep up with my neighbors—without being nosy.

Mrs. Harry Dubner, Hicksville

The film has English sub-titles and is about Boudou, The Tramp saved from drowning by a book shop owner. Alas, Boudou is not the tramp that middle-class morality would like him to be.

The "Frank Chlumsky Memorial Award" was established by the late Frank Chlumsky's family, and the related funds were turned over to the Hicksville Kiwanis Foundation to administer, with the instructions that a monetary grant be given annually to the Hicksville High School graduates who most closely emulated "Uncle" Frank's civic activity while they were H.H.S. students. The other awards and scholarships are funded by the Hicksville Kiwanis Foundation, Inc..

The Kiwanis Club

The July 16 meeting of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club was a most happy occasion. This year's Kiwanis Scholarship and Awards winners, along with their parents, were the guests of the club. The Kiwanis Club members enjoyed meeting this outstanding group of Hicksville young adults chosen by the Scholarship and Awards Committee to receive the seven awards given out to the High School graduates.

The awards given to these Hicksville residents were, again as identified in the photo: Kelly O'Brien received a "Frank Chlumsky Memorial Award"; Jeanne Hughes received the "Dr. Charles Masek Memorial Scholarship"; Joan Hollman received the "Henry C. Brengel Memorial Scholarship"; Patricia Riley received the "Saul Rothstein Memorial Citizenship Award"; Robert Senn received a "Frank Chlumsky Memorial Award"; Christine Cestari received the "Citizenship Award In Memory Of All Past Kiwanians"; Mr. Brian Munroe could not attend, but was awarded the "Leon Galloway Memorial Scholarship".

Miss Hughes graduated from Holy Trinity High School, Hicksville. The others are Hicksville High School graduates.

Few persons realize how much of their happiness, such as it is, is dependent upon their work, upon the fact that they are kept busy and not left to feed upon themselves.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...I've always admired people with excellent vocabularies—I really love multi-syllabled words... and I have a friend who has the best, most exotic vocabulary of anyone I know... We love to hear her talk and we find her very quotable... One day she was telling me about her difficulties with her vacuum cleaner and she said, "The recalcitrant beast simply will not perform"... another time I was in a department store dressing room in an adjoining cubicle where we were both trying bathing suits. Suddenly I heard her voice say in amazement, "Can those bulbous appendages be my legs?!!!"... My friend's mother was from Newfoundland and has bequeathed to her daughter some wonderful words that I never saw in any dictionary—words like "narky" which means difficult or maybe grouchy, such as, "Don't be narky about doing the dishes"... And then there's "dunch" which I really love—it means something between stupid and dopey and explains exactly the way I feel when I get up in the morning... The other night I had dinner with my erudite friend and she regaled us with a story about a luncheon she had recently attended where a woman had come in and said, "I hope you have all brought me the 'kewpons' that I'm collecting for the church"... "Well," said my friend, "how can we hear people say 'stupid' which is really 'stewpid' and then say 'kewpon' which is really 'koopon'"... And you can imagine how that led to an hilarious discussion of "stupid kewpons"

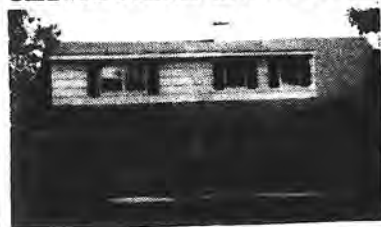

Yours, Lulabelle

ONE OF THE WARMEST DAYS in the recollection of Hicksville gatherings was the dedication of the Hicksville Senior Auditorium in 1979 in honor of principal Miss Mabel R. Farley. Shown here with her former student, Louis Millevotte, she taught 50 years in the Hicksville school system. Mr. Millevotte listened to her counsel 54 years after he graduated from the school. They are engaged at the afternoon reception following the dedication. On her right arm is the diamond wrist watch presented to her by an anonymous alumnus. Miss Farley was 97 at the time and flew by private renter aircraft from her home in Pennsylvania. A Sunday morning brunch for H.H.S. Alumni board members was held at the Maine Maid, Jericho, in her honor the next day. It was hosted by Dorothy and Henry Brenzel. Miss Farley died on her 99th birthday with her treasured mementos and cards from her many Hicksville friends surrounding her!

St. Ignatius Class of '35 Holds Reunion at K of C

Very seldom do we get the opportunity to visit with friends with whom we attended grammar school. Saturday night, July 26, twenty-five graduates of the Class of '35, St. Ignatius Loyola School, did just that.

About a year and a half ago, Frank DeGaidano, had the idea that time was passing too quickly so he decided to try to find all the friends he graduated with in 1935. After tracking down parents, sisters, brothers, and friends he found most of the 57 students. 25 people (along with some spouses) arrived at the Joseph Barry Knights of Columbus Hall in Hicksville for a buffet supper, dancing and entertainment last Saturday night.

Among those graduates attending were: Frank DeGaidano, Hicksville; Catherine Schlick, Hicksville; Dolores Knoell (Krumenacher) Levittown; Tom Noonan, East Northport; Marie Rottkamp (Burke), New Jersey; Gerald Burke, New Jersey; Mary (Rottkamp) Reilly, Farmingdale; Alma (Rottkamp) Krumenacher, Hicksville; Irene (McGunnigle) Miller, Oneonta, N.Y.; Rosalie (McGunnigle) Rottkamp, Plainview; Gladys (Muller) Muschka, Huntington; Sophie (Miezejewski) Fiano, Calverton; Hedwig (Szymanowski) Buckhardt, Plainview; Ruth (Allen) Donnelly, Hicksville; Gloria (Parmigiani) Scover, Hicksville; Madeline "Mackie" (Brand) Aversano, Hicksville; Ted Sokolauf, Hicksville; Mark Madden, Hicksville; Helen (Fox) Fisher, Hicksville; Joe Kramer, Hicksville; Grace (Wulfsen) Dodge, Levittown; Tony Schumacher, Bethpage; Medard Offenloch, Hicksville; Margaret (Froelich) Tindle, Wading River, and Tom Braun, Melville.

Those unable to attend were: Vincent Lauck, Riverhead; Madeline Meyer (Wesnofske) Eastern L.I.; Frank Calandrillo, (Ronkonkoma); Tom Pastore, (deceased); Dick Fitzgerald, Hicksville; Doris Rottkamp, New Jersey; Lillian Rottkamp (Wishart), New Jersey; Catherine DeRiso (Krupnick), Bethpage; Vera Lanzer, New Jersey; Marie Barry (Stellato), Hicksville; Gloria Gabarino (Rennie), North Carolina; Robert Hannigan, (E. Northport); Mary Duffy (Suggs), Tennessee; Alice Stolz (Sullivan) Manhasset; Henrietta Braun (Syman), Lindenhurst; Rita Rettberg (Hannigan) Hicksville; Catherine Braja, Ray Cogan, Richard Brassington, Francis Bedell, John Dombroski, Bob Dwyer, Wading River; Joe Hoeffner, Florida; John Kershow; Helen Halabowitz; Edwin Thorman; Raymond Rose (deceased); Helen Pelkowski (deceased); Eleanor Rose (deceased); John Haughey (deceased); Marcel Reinhardt (deceased) and Anthony Drasby (deceased).

After an evening of reminiscing and laughter they were entertained by Marcia Miller, Cathy Milano and Paul. Marcia and Cathy are daughters of Lorraine and Frank DeGaidano. Marcia is a professional dance instructor and Cathy and Paul are students of hers. They graciously donated their time and talent to make this affair a great success.

"This reunion will be repeated annually," said Frank DeGaidano. If anyone had not been contacted, please call Frank at 931-6099 or write him: Frank DeGaidano, 63 Spruce Street, Hicksville, NY 11801 as he is already planning next year's reunion.

WHAT MORTGAGE RATES MEAN TO YOU.

Even if you've long since paid off your own home mortgage, the current lowered lending rates should be important to you. First, because they increase the market: more people qualify to borrow today than when rates were nearing 20 percent. Second, because lower rates may increase the value of your property: when money doesn't cost so much, a buyer may have more to offer you.

Lowered mortgage rates are just one of the factors we consider to set a market price for a property. We constantly keep an eye on current sales; we know what comparable properties have sold, and what they sold FOR. We know what buyers want and how closely your property fits their ideal.

A good real estate agent is your link to the marketplace. We follow local and natural sales trends, so you don't have to. We do the number crunching to set the price, and the negotiating to help you get that price.

THE GASTRIC BUBBLE

A Device That Makes Dieters Feel Full

WHILE IT IS UNCLEAR EXACTLY HOW THE BUBBLE REDUCES HUNGER in its recipients, some researchers think the polyurethane sac—which inflates to the size of a small juice can—stimulates receptors that line the stomach, thereby causing a sensation of satiety.

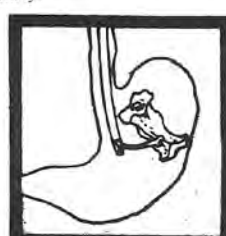

1. Deflated Bubble is inserted into the stomach via a plastic tube

2. The Bubble is inflated and the tube is removed

3. The now free-floating Bubble helps to satisfy the feeling of hunger.

4. After four months, the Bubble is deflated and removed, using a tube with a viewing scope

BY PROMOTING A SENSE OF fullness and by limiting food intake the gastric bubble can help improve eating habits. It allows the adoption of an effective dietary program that provides appropriate caloric restriction and adequate nutritional intake.

A proper weight reduction program with the Garren-Edwards Gastric Bubble requires nutritional counseling and psychological support to deal with the issues that promote overeating and obesity.

It is recommended that the gastric bubble be placed in individuals whose problems with obesity pose a potential medical threat.

The National Institutes of Health have determined that obesity in excess of 20% of an individual's ideal body weight increases the risk of high blood pressure, heart disease, diabetes and stroke.

Substantial medical data indicates that weight loss can reduce the risk of these conditions.

Skate Long Island At Hicksville

Skate Long Island, a major local figure skating competition, is coming to the Cantiague Park Rink, on West John Street in Hicksville. Co-sponsored by the Cantiague and Long Island Figure Skating Clubs, events will begin at 8:00 a.m. and conclude at 9:30 p.m. on Sunday, August 3.

Among the competitors are skaters from this area: Jennifer O'Rourke (Port Washington), Linda Land (Manhasset), Claudia Seranti (Manhasset), Vanessa De Domenico (Old Westbury), and Erica Kaori, and Mayumi Yamada (Westbury).

Over 100 figure skaters, from beginners through Senior competitors eyeing national competition, will vie for top placements in figure and thrilling freestyle events. Among those who have accepted the Skate Long Island challenge may be a future National and World Champion like Debi Thomas. Results of some events will be determined by National and World figure skating judges.

The rink is the perfect place to escape the heat and be entertained, too! The facility boasts many interior and exterior renovations completed for participation in the United States Figure Skating Championships broadcast by ABC-Television in February. Competitors from across the country praised both the facility and the ice at Cantiague as among the best they had ever seen.

Admission is free, and there is ample parking.

Courtyard Concerts

The first two Saturday evenings in August will find Friends of the Arts' Summer Festival moving into the courtyards of Planting Fields Arboretum in Oyster Bay. The arboretum, known for its vast lawns and stately gardens, also has enchanting courtyards—just perfect for music on a summer's eve. (In case of inclement weather, the concerts will be moved into the air-conditioned Hay Barn.)

Saturday, Aug. 2, at 8:00 p.m., the Manhattan Marimba Quartet will perform works ranging from Bach's Air of the Fugue and a string quartet by Mendelssohn to John Green's "Body and Soul" and Gershwin's "Lady Be Good." Pianist Earl Wild said, "An amazing sound, thunderous one minute and exquisitely delicate the next." Saturday, Aug. 9, at 8:00 p.m., Festival Brass will perform. Described as "A group of musicians that brings music appreciation to life," this brass quintet plays the music of Bach, Mozart and Handel with the same beauty and joy they bring to Ellington, Lennon and McCartney.

Friends of the Arts' Courtyard Concerts will have unreserved seats. The gates will open at 6:30 for picnicking before the 8:00 p.m. concerts. Tickets are $7.50 and can be obtained by calling Friends of the Arts at (516) 922-0001.

Dear Fergie:

Do you know what a tremendous responsibility you have taken upon yourself since telling the press that you do not have a weight problem... "A woman should have a trim waist," you said, "a good 'up top' and enough down the bottom, but not too big — a good womanly figure." With those few words, you catapulted yourself from a Princess to a Goddess in the eyes of those of us who have never been able to squeeze into anything less than a size 12. You elevated us into the position we held long ago when Peter Paul Rubens immortalized our figures in his paintings; and therefore, my dear Fergie, the size 12's and ups of the world salute you and say: "Do not take this responsibility lightly (no pun intended) for it is within your power to change the old adage, 'a woman can never be too thin nor too rich,' to, 'a woman can be whatever she darn well wants to be.'" And if what she wants to be is a size 22½, it's her own business.

Stop and think about it, Fergie, you could be the one to bring back the Rubenesque figure. It would be a dream come true for you and me — and millions like us. Why, if I close my eyes this very minute, I can picture myself at the Louvre in Paris. I am standing in front of Giorgione's, "The Concert". Suddenly I feel a hand on my shoulder and a voice whispers into my ear, "Is that you playing the flute?" I shake my head. And then a hand points to the figure sitting on the grass (with hips measuring about 44½) and the voice whispers once again, "but there is such a strong resemblance — that is, from the neck down." And instead of turning and hitting him with my parasol, I smile and say, "Why, thank you, sir. Would you care to accompany me to the cafeteria where we can enjoy a double-nut, chocolate fudge, whipped cream sundae with peanut butter topping?"

Think about it, Fergie. Think about it long and hard. And when the media again begins to carp about your weight, don't rush off to a far farm. Don't ask Diana for a copy of her diet. Just remember what you said to the press, "A woman should have a trim waist, a good 'up top' and enough down the bottom, but not too big — a good womanly figure."

P.S. Would you be a luv and tell Diana to throw away the hat she wore to your wedding. She looked like General Washington crossing the Delaware.

P.P.S. Your mum-in-law is a prince of a queen, but please, Fergie, don't go shopping with her. Especially for hats... And finally, Sarah Ferguson, Your Royal Highness the Princess Andrew, Duchess of York, Countess of Inverness, and Baroness Killyleagh, I think you're wonderful. Simply wonderful.

In The Shadow Of a Veteran

Four thousand runners will rally outside the Mitchell Field Athletic Complex on Sunday, September 7 at 9:30 a.m. in the (Vietnam Memorial) 5 Mile Race, in which each runner will symbolize a Long Island veteran killed in action during the Vietnam War. The proceeds will help fund the Vietnam Veterans Resource Center in Hicksville, Long Island.

The race has been classified as a historical first, taking place on Long Island at the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum. Dennis McCoy, Race Coorinator has limited the field of runners to 4,000, which represents the number of Long Island veterans who were killed during Vietnam, according to Pentagon sources. The memorial service will commence at 7:30 a.m. on Sunday, September 7.

The service includes a fly-over by the 107 Tactical Fighter Wing, Michigan Air National Guard, and a religious service for our MIA's (Missing in Action) and KIA's (Killed in Action), led by various religious faiths throughout Long Island, and a 21 gun salute. A color guard representing 24 active veterans associations on Long Island will escort the runners to the starting line. 4,000 balloons, representing the veterans killed in action will be released prior to the start of the race by Chris Moeller, Jr., son of Chris Moeller. Opening remarks at the memorial service will be made by Francis T. Purcell, Nassau County Executive.

A fund raising dinner will be held the evening of the race at the luxurious main ballroom of the Marriott Hotel in Uniondale, Long Island. Corporate sponsors and contributors will pay $150 per plate in which the proceeds will help fund the Vietnam Veterans Resource Center. The West Point Glee Club will perform at the dinner and the Postal Service will pay tribute to our veterans with a multi-image slide presentation "America".

HENRY J. WEICKMANN.

Our Hicksville forefathers, who came to this country many years before a Statue of Liberty existed to ease some initial fears and uncertainty, settled in this village with gold beating the basic art industry.

The Henry J. Weickmann Company was housed in the building shown. The sign on the left, by the door, proclaims its available services in gold leaf and silver leaf services.

It is believed to be the only framework left in all of Hicksville's historical heritage. Everything else has been buzzed-sawed to death by the wrecking crews of the State of New York (under Governor Rockefeller) and the Republican Town Boards of Oyster Bay.

It is still located on the same piece of property as the original structure — two buildings north of West John Street and the new addition to Newbridge Road (reputed to be progress).

The following poem was printed in the Saturday, February 8, 1896 issue of the Hicksville Press:

Locked in by Love

Is the night cold?

Blows the northeast across the naked moon?

I have a warm, warm room: Come in—

Come in! and Love shall lock the door

Is the night dark?

Drift the dull clouds down dropping winter damp?

I have a secret room: Come in—

Come in! and Love shall light the lamp

Is the night dumb?

Save for the hoarse wind's cry of death and wrong?

I have a music room: Come in—

Come in! and Love shall make you song

Give me your hands!

Ah! now I hold you, sweet, you shall not

Quick, love, and lock us in—and then—

Swear that you've lost the wisest key

—Fall Mall Gazette

Opening lead — two of spades.

Even a well-oiled partnership is bound to wind up occasionally in a contract they haven't got a chance to make.

However, these impossible contracts can sometimes be salvaged by giving the opponents the opportunity to make a mistake, and such tactics may well succeed if the setting is right. Here's a case where declarer made five diamonds, even though, looking at all four hands, you might wonder how this took place.

Of course, West could have defeated the contract by leading the ace and another heart, in which case

South would have to lose a club trick eventually and go down one.

But West, not having X-ray eyes, made the normal lead of a spade and South saw he had no hope of making the hand by regular means. So to give the defense a chance to go wrong, he played a low spade from dummy and, when East put on the queen, he let him win it!

East found it difficult at this point to lead a heart away from the king, which was the only play he could now make to defeat the contract. Instead, he returned the queen of clubs.

Given a life, South won the club with the ace, drew two rounds of trumps, and then cashed the king of spades and king of clubs. After entering dummy with a trump, he discarded a club on the ace of spades and ruffed a club.

When it turned out that the clubs were divided 3-3, he was home. He crossed to dummy with a trump and was able to get rid of a heart on dummy's eight of clubs. The only tricks he lost were a spade and a heart.

It is interesting to note that South's opening play had everything to gain and nothing to lose. Even if the defense had cashed two heart tricks after the spade lead, his play would not have cost him a thing. His club loser could be discarded on the ace of spades.

Quaker Past And Present Interface Over Homestead

By DAGMAR FORS KARPPI

The Town of Oyster Bay will be appealing the decision of Justice Stanley Harwood of the State Supreme Court. He has ruled that Friends Academy has won the right to dismantle the Jackson House in Jericho.

Not yet, says Town spokesperson Marlene Kastleman. The Town Landmark Commission will appeal the decision on two counts. First, said Ms. Kastleman, "we don't want the Town to lose control over changes that may be made to the house that will cause it to lose its Landmark status." Second, she said, "we feel that the Judge's decision as to the time frame to receive a 'complete application' is incorrect."

It all happened in the early 1960s, when Jericho Turnpike was lifted to go over Rte. 106. Houses and stores were demolished.

History was sent packing. That loss is what is behind the desire of the people of Jericho to keep the Jackson House where it is. Perched on top of a hill overlooking a gas station and peering at a large modern shopping mall, it hides from the road behind a mass of shrubbery. The house in its way is as lovely as the modern office building is in its way.

When Miriam Jackson, owner of the house, died in 1982, she left the house to Friends Academy. The Friends would like to move the house to the Friends Academy property on Duck Pond Road. They would like to use it as a Quaker Museum. If they are able to move the house, they will sell the property to developer Jerry Spiegel for over $650,000.

Mortgage Commitment First

Dear Edith: My husband is going to retire next April and we will sell our house. Could you give us advice on how to approach a lending agency to get a loan commitment? Of course, we would expect to pay an appraisal fee and fees for paper work — Mrs. P.O.

Lenders won't commit to a mortgage until they've OK'd the people they're going to lend money to. Usually it's the buyers who apply and who pay those application costs.

Great Competitors Recalled

Scoring title of Nassau Amateur Basketball League was of prime community interest in days gone by.

Hundreds of townspeople flocked to their local gyms to watch the games and the scoring races attracted large crowds as the season wound down. If the point totals were not high it is to be remembered that it was the day of the center jump after each basket. The man for man press was not envisioned and the zone defense was rigorously adhered to.

Interesting sidelight to the 1937 scoring race is that although Hicksville Club had the top and third leading scorer it finished dead last.

Stay On Courts, Not Bench

By GLENN SHIEBLER

Even if you don't aspire to play tennis like John McEnroe or Chris Evert Lloyd, the difference between being a winner or a loser on the courts might very well be the time you take to warm up before the first serve.

Dr. Ellen Ellis, sports medicine physician at the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine of New York Institute of Technology, in Old Westbury, L.I., gives that advice to tennis players of all levels to insure that they are on the court more than on the sidelines. She recommends a five-minute aerobic or calisthenic warmup, followed by five or ten minutes of stretching before beginning play.

"Too many people go onto the court 'cold' and end up either injured or very sore," says Dr. Ellis.

She tells older people that they, especially, need 15 to 20 minutes of warmup and stretching because they tend to lose some of their flexibility with age.

Even athletes in good shape from other sports can suffer tennis injuries, Dr. Ellis warns, if they do not stretch the muscles needed for tennis. "Though a person may be in excellent shape for skiing, for example, he may not be ready to play an hour of rigorous tennis," she says.

John Braun, a registered physical therapist at the college, says: "It is necessary to stretch the calf muscles, hamstrings and quadriceps in the legs as well as the upper part of the body prior to even picking up a racquet."

"Use the net pole to stretch your legs by placing the heel on the top of the pole and lowering your forehead to your knee. To stretch the calf muscles, stand on the bottom step of a set of stairs and let your heels drop off the edge."

This stretch helps prevent Achilles' heel injury, another common and extremely painful tennis injury.

Mr. Braun says it is also important to stretch the elbows, wrists, neck and lower back. "The shoulder is another very vulnerable spot," says Dr. Ellis, "and must be stretched to avoid such serious injuries as rotator-cuff tears and tendonitis."

"Don't stretch an hour before you begin playing," she cautions. "Begin playing immediately after you stretch so your muscles don't get tight."

She recommends asking your tennis pro to help you establish a stretching routine.

He or she may be able to offer exercises or a weight-lifting program that, by strengthening parts of your body, can help prevent injuries.

Mr. Braun says being in good physical condition is the best defense against injury. He quotes a saying in his field that applies to not only tennis players, but all athletes: "You get in shape to play sports—you don't play sports to get in shape."

"Being properly equipped is also very important in preventing injury," Mr. Braun says. Have your racquet grip sized by someone who knows what he or she is doing and make sure the string tension is suited to your ability level and style of play.

Also, learn the proper form for the forehand, backhand, and serve. Improper form can lead to "tennis elbow" and strained muscles. "Too many people think they can pick up any racquet and go out and swat the ball back and forth without risk of injury," says Mr. Braun.

Tennis elbow is an inflammation of the area around the outside of the elbow and is usually a muscle strain. "The best way to describe tennis elbow," Mr. Braun says, "is to compare it to the result of thousands of repetitive taps with a hammer on the same spot."

A combination of variables can lead to tennis elbow, such as poor form, especially on the backhand; improper grip size; incorrect string tension, and the size of the racquet itself.

"Many people use large or oversized racquets today, and the sweet spot—the spot where the racquet's string tension is ideal—is located higher up on the racquet than on regular-sized racquets," says Mr. Braun. This can lead to tennis elbow because you may be hitting the ball on a weak part of the racquet, placing undue stress on your arm.

Once you begin to feel pain, stop playing immediately. "Otherwise you may miss a good part of the season," Dr. Ellis says.

In most cases, applying ice is the best way to treat tennis elbow and any other injury where there is inflammation. "Heat before you play and ice afterwards is the general rule," Mr. Braun says.

"Too many people feel they can play through the pain," says Dr. Ellis. "This can lead to a more severe injury because the body will send blood to the area in pain and give the player a false sense of relief."

Antun's Holds Villanova Alumni Dinner

Andy Talley, head football coach, was the guest of the club at a dinner meeting at Antun's in Hicksville in January. Coach updated the more than 100 alumni present on the state of Villanova football. The nationally televised Villanova/Georgetown game was reason for alumni to get together and celebrate at the Manhasset Inn, owned by Walter France '60. A large screen TV and refreshments were provided for this February meeting. Club president Gene Holmes '75 urges those who have not yet joined to do so as soon as possible. He can be reached at (718) 896-5000 for details and dues information.

The Chum Pot

Last week I took my fishing partner out to Captree to try one of the open boats, the Capt. Leitch. Well I guess the old timer outfished me again. When we were done we had 16 keeper flukes and 10 throw backs. It was a good day. The old timer was my Dad, I guess I taught him well. If you're thinking about going out flukeing, now is the time; fishing has been very good, especially on the flood tides. Fish from the five island inlet to the bridge and you can't miss. It does look like another body of small fish has arrived because a lot of shorts were caught. Flounder fishing surprisingly is still holding up in the deep holes, in fact the 4:30 trip out of Freeport has been doing real well. Crabbing has started at the town docks. Seaford and Freeport vicinity, they are still a little small. Snapper have started and are still small. Blue fishing has been great just about everywhere, in fact surf fishing for blues has been good at Bayville and Center Island beaches at high tide and daybreak. If you're going crabbing or flukeing, killies are still difficult to buy. I stopped at Causeway Bait and Tackle and got a pint of killies and was told they are small. Well he wasn't kidding, because I had a hard time finding their lips to put them on the hook. If you're going going crabbing, buy some uncooked chicken, it works great in the traps. Don't forget those flukes have to be 14" to keep. If you want to keep the small ones, it may cost you a $50.00 fine, so let the little ones grow up.

As I promised last issue, here is a sure fire way to keep those snappers from stealing your bait and taking the hook.

Get a long shank snapper hook without the leader, if you have some already with leader just cut off the leader. Bait shops carry the hooks without leader. Also try to get the hooks without the bend at the top by the eye. Run the top part of the hook (the eye) through the spearing bait, starting at the tail and bring the eye of hook out the mouth. This is why it helps not to have a bend at the eye, it makes passing the hook through the bait a lot easier. Next put the eye on a snap swivel, to the swivel add about 8" of mono, then attach a small torpedo sinker. Now you are ready, just tie your line and add your float at the desired height. After catching a fish take the hook off the swivel and put on a new bait and you're ready to go again. Next issue, tying those two hook flounder hooks.

REMEMBER THROW THOSE LITTLE ONES BACK

Herzlinger Shines

Jack Herzlinger, Hicksville High, keyed a 10-6 Long Island All Star Team victory over New York City Empire State Team.

The game was played under the lights at Syosset Community Park.

Herzlinger scored one goal and was credited with assists on five others. He is an attackman.

Hicksville representatives on the Nassau County team were supported by a large contingent of parents and friends.

Mid-fielder Ron Caputo and defenseman Henry Schaffer turned in excellent efforts, both playing in all four quarters.

Auto Auction

Highlights of Gurnsey's Spring automobile auction included the sale of a 1925 Bugatti 35B Grand prix for $157,500. A 1955 Maserati 300S Sports Racer sold for $139,125, a 1949 Maserati 4 CLT/48 Grand prix sold for $94,500, and a 1971 Maserati Ghibli Convertible for $29,400. A 1954 Ferrari Monza realized $115,500, and a 1981 Ferrari 512 BB sold for $40,950. The above prices confirm that these classic European racing cars continue to command high prices. Other high prices fetched included a 1947 Jaguar Drophead at $53,550 (a world record) and a 1939 BMW which brought $47,250.

Scruples Seeks Titles On Two Fronts

Sporting the regular season championship of the Sunday Morning County League, with a 15-5 record, and a burgeoning lead in the Oyster Bay Night group, Scruples of Hicksville is geared for playoff championship bids.

Now involved in the County Loop playoffs, Scruples glided in with two victories in the final regular season doubleheader.

6-3, and 2-1 verdicts were eked out of Dinne's.

Tommy Perung drove home the winning run in the 2-1 win. Tom Garga carried it home after doubling to open the sixth. Mike Wasiluk moved him up with a single.

Shortstop John McNamara speared apparent hits at the shortstop position in both halves of the two game set.

Ernie Huffer, John Huffer and Henry Charles were other key defensive stalwarts.

Oyster Bay Carnage

Bill Huber struck two home runs, Bill Lee and John Hackkar added one each in 17-2, 9-4 bettings of Yonkers Plumbing at Oyster Bay. Scruples is 15-3 in the Night League.

Both games were halted by the 15-run lead rule.

Veteran of softball wars for 14 years went 4 for 6. Richard Wals 5-7 and Joe Fuchs 3-6 paced Scruples.

Trip To Vermont

Buoyed by the success of his club, Scruples owner Bill "Honk" Havakamp has authorized an August 22, 23, 24 visit to a tournament at Bridebrook, Vermont.

It has been reported that a brother Hicksville club — Ebbets Field — will also be on hand.

Tennis Lessons

Tennis lessons are available at Canticue Park in Hicksville throughout the summer and fall. Professional instructors will give private and group lessons.
