

Veterans Monument's Progress

The Hicksville Veterans Monument Fund is progressing at a even pace. Thanks to people like Dick Evers, the service organizations, and the local newspapers the monuments will be a reality on November 11. I cannot leave out the generosity of the Hicksville community.

But, we have a way to go to honor our Korean and Vietnam veterans. I know you are proud of our men and women who served our great country, but now let's have a lasting remembrance for what they did. By protecting our nation, they preserved our freedom and ideas.

If you would like to donate you can send it to the Hicksville Veterans Monument Fund, P.O. Box 412, Hicksville, N.Y. 11802. For further information you can call chairman Conrad Steers at 822-5938.

Let us honor our brave men and women of the armed forces.

Wells cited as dangerous in north-west Hicksville have been capped and have not pumped water for two years according to a spokesman for the Hicksville Water District.

The Board of Water Commissioners are in the process of framing a statement explaining the steps taken for the care in providing safe drinking waters in Hicksville.

Hicksville, N.Y. 11801

Dear Sirs:

I would greatly appreciate it if you could get the following information out to the public for the Hicksville Fire Department.

As you know, we are presently having our Annual Fund Drive and the Department relies on its support from the Hicksville community. This year, however, we are having problems with a solicitor, the Nassau County Volunteer Firemen's Drill Association. Specifically this solicitor asks for ads for his journal. This solicitor has nothing to do with the Hicksville Fire Department and the funds which he receives do not benefit the Hicksville Fire Department members.

Would you please contribute to the Hicksville Fire Department members who clearly identify themselves as members of our department. Hicksville Fire Department members have I.D. cards which identify them.

William Schuckmann, Chief
Hicksville Fire Department

1986 Election Policy

In 1986, as in previous years, the news space allocated to all contestants for a specific position will be equal in length and prominence. This policy has been followed during the tenure of the present publisher since we believe that the constituency should know as much as possible about the candidates who are soliciting their votes. This policy in no way subordinates our rights to make endorsements should we desire.

In order to allow all candidates the ability to address their thoughts and ideas to our readership, we have established a very attractive rate schedule for political advertising in all of the nine issues starting with September 4 and through October 30. We suggest that candidates interested contact our Mr. Mike Skahill at 747-8282 early.

So much for our part—the important part of the coming election is for the voters to take any election, large or small, seriously. Voting is more than a privilege—it is the obligation of every citizen.

Purcell Urges Motorists To Drive Carefully As Schools Open

With summer coming to an end and schools ready to re-open next month, Nassau County Executive Francis T. Purcell today urged motorists to be extra cautious and doubly alert near schools and school buses.

Purcell reminded drivers that New York State law requires them to stop when approaching a stopped school bus from either direction when the bus' red lights are flashing.

"During every school year thousands of children are killed or injured while playing, walking and riding bicycles," Purcell said. "We must all take steps to save their lives and prevent needless injuries."

Purcell said that the police department has developed several safety tips for parents, children and drivers:

1. Motorists should exercise extreme caution when driving near schools and school buses. Children attending school for the first time, as well as older children excited about returning to school, sometimes do not observe safety precautions when crossing streets.
 2. Parents should teach their children the meaning of traffic lights and signs and warn them to cross only at intersections.
 3. Children should be taught the importance of obeying school crossing guards.
 4. Parents should show their children the safest route to and from school.
 5. Children should wear light colored reflective clothing at night, and bicycles should be properly equipped with reflectors on all sides.
 6. When driving down residential streets be prepared for a child chasing a ball or a child walking out behind a parked car. Always check behind your car before backing out of a driveway.
- "Together we can work to prevent the tragedy of an injured child," Purcell added. "I hope that you will drive carefully and take time to instruct your children on roadway safety. It may save their lives."

Letters From Our Readers

Dear Editor:

Did you think I wouldn't notice
 As I read from front to rear,
 Then perused the photos
 of my neighbors near and dear
 But—Where's Marmaduke?
 Gloria Deutsch, Hicksville

Dear Mr. Finnegan:

I wish to comment on the front-page article "Hasty Retreat by Hicksville Cheerleaders" 8-7-86.

As one of the cheerleaders who chose to stay, I feel the article did not tell the whole story. True, initially we all felt the camp was different from what we had expected, but I must say that when the camp director and his staff saw our reaction they did everything possible to make us feel welcomed and comfortable. Having attended other camps, I found the accommodations..... quite satisfactory. In fact, I was pleasantly surprised to find a bathroom with shower in each cabin! At first I found the style of cheering to be quite different, but after working with the staff members and other squads, I really enjoyed doing something I had never done before. I was proud and excited to come back with some new ideas.

I feel the article printed in your paper stressed only the negative reactions and none of the positive. If we were asked to vote again, I would not hesitate to stay another week.....

Eileen Sharkey, Hicksville

(Editors Note: In the article referred to, the vote of the Hicksville girls was not based on cheerleading techniques but, as they claimed, the status of accommodations. The vote to return within the first 24 hours was 12-2.

Again attendance at the camp was an individual matter. It was not sanctioned, authorized or arranged with the knowledge of the Hicksville School District.)

Broadway Weed Growth Disgraceful Sign of Political Indifference

Joining the designation of Hicksville as the biggest public parking lot in America is the new term—Weedsville, U.S.A.

While continuing to take tax producing property off the rolls to pander to the votes of Jericho and Woodbury residents with commuter parking spaces, the Republican Town Board ignores the disgraceful conditions pictured.

Hicksville is caught in the old shuffle of... it's the town, county or state.

Wherever the responsibility lies—singular or combined—it demonstrates the lack of political clout and representation Hicksville has.

Not one elected official takes a stand to clean up the Broadway blight.

Twenty years of exercising passive control over Hicksville—which gave the Republicans the third highest voter toll in 1980 elections—has allowed total neglect of Hicksville.

While elected officials have obtained millions of funds to upgrade Glen Cove, Oyster Bay hamlet and Hempstead—nothing is done for Hicksville from the local district, town, assembly, state senate or congress.

Artfully carved into four assembly districts, Hicksville is getting scant support. The assemblymen come from Levittown, Glen Cove, Seaford and Westbury, each with an untended piece jutting into Hicksville.

All Home Values Suffer

The evaluation of Hicksville is disdained by the hundreds of thousands who pass Broadway each year.

The overgrown lots and seedy growth on the dividers hurt home values in all sections. It reflects on all the fine homes and neighborhoods of the community.

The division caused by the drawn political lines are the ace-in-the-hole for attitudes of benign neglect by elected officials.

Exercising passive control for twenty years over the civic organizations of Hicksville has been a keystone to the demise of Hicksville's reputation.

Distracting from the Hicksville problem has been headlines concerning improvement of Southern State Parkway on the front page of a local newspaper. That was a "canned" press release from Hicksville's Seaford Assemblyman.

The record is clear. So passive were Hicksville taxpayers that no one blinked an eye when Broadway was resurfaced some fifteen years back.

The Town failed to provide street lights... the road and dividers had to be dug at tremendous taxpayer cost... and lamp poles installed in the dividers.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity.

We receive many very fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Ramirez Leads Chamber Revitalization; Holiday Lights to Return

President Marcos Ramirez presiding, the Executive Board of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce held its first meeting of the new fiscal year at the Historical Room of the Hicksville Public Library on Tuesday, August 19. Thirteen members were present, including several new committee chairmen.

Mr. Ramirez appointed the following chairpeople to head the various working committees of the Chamber for 1986/87:

Membership	Harry Smith (Lou Cesta Assisting)
Programme	Joseph Gentile (Henry Brengel Assisting)
Flag Program	Larry McCaffrey and Paul Martin
Community Improvement	Constance Clarke (Father Dominic Ciannella Asst.)
Holiday Decorations	William Ramsey and Constance Clarke
Special Fund Raising	Judith Lombardi
Publicity	Effie Krogmann (Sheila Noeth assisting)
Parliamentary Procedure	William Ramsey and Constance Clarke
Nominating Committee	Effie C. Krogmann
Installation Dinner Dance	Constance Clarke and August Cassella

The Board approved the suggestion to initiate the office of a chaplain for the Chamber of Commerce, and this is under consideration, as to who would undertake these duties. Ivan Czipott, the newly elected Vice President has been asked to make a study of ways in which the Chamber of Commerce can help the business community and the area in general, so that this viable organization can consolidate their efforts to bring about improvements that are sorely needed in Hicksville.

The current programmes being addressed immediately are plans for Holiday Lighting in the downtown area — (the first since 1963), and the placement of waste receptacles to eliminate litter in the streets. In the meantime, the American Flags continue to fly on our main thoroughfare for every holiday. While all the service organizations cooperate in this effort, it is under the direction of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce.

The first meeting of the season for the Chamber is actually the annual Installation Dinner Dance, which will be held at Anton's on September 16. Tickets are available through any member of the Chamber. The regular meetings, commencing in October, are held on the third Tuesday of every month — at 12:30, in the Quaker Room of Milleridge Inn in Jericho. All are invited and welcome.

DONOVAN REPORT

REAL ESTATE
KAREN DONOVAN

READY TO SELL?

Is your house ready to show to prospective buyers? Does it look neat and clean and well cared for?

The casual prospect isn't likely to get down on hands and knees to look under the hot water heater. He extrapolates from what he sees: if a home seems to be in good repair, he'll assume it is; if anything looks broken or shabby, the buyer will suspect poor upkeep.

It isn't necessary or even advisable to undertake major renovations, but a small investment in cosmetic improvements will really pay off. It doesn't cost a lot to paint a room or two, refinish the floors, plant flowers around the yard, hang fresh curtains in the kitchen. Be sure that minor repairs are attended to. Dripping faucets, cracked window panes, burned-out bulbs are danger signals to a prospect.

Call us in for a look-see. We'll help you get the place ready to sell when you list at:

Men Who Forged The Character Of The Hicksville Community

Life, Deeds, Accomplishments...

Hon. Judge Augustin

Aug. 10, 1838-Feb. 2, 1896

(Ed. Note: This obituary was taken from "The Hicksville Press" dated Saturday, Feb. 8, 1896.)

It is our painful duty to announce the death of our friend and one of our most respected citizens and neighbors Justice Julius Augustin, who departed this life for a better one on Sunday last at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at his late residence in this village, cause of death being Bright's disease of the kidneys.

Judge Julius Augustin was born in the pretty village of Menslaga, which is a part of the city of Hanover, Germany, August 10, 1838. After receiving a good school education he became a clerk, at the early age of fourteen years, in a large mercantile house in Holland where he remained five years. His next position was clerk in a large mercantile establishment in Hamburg where, in a short time, his employers discovered his great business tact and quickly promoted him to the high and responsible position of Superintendent. He remained as such for a period of five years, during which time he saved his earnings which amounted to a neat little sum and in the month of November 1863 he set sail for America. On landing in New York he at once opened a grocery store in partnership with his brother William in Greenwich Street. They conducted a flourishing business till the year 1867 when William died and the deceased Judge continued the business alone till 1872, when he disposed of his business in August, and came to Hicksville. He then founded a German weekly newspaper called the Central Zeitung which he sold a year later to Mr. Openheimer of College Point where the paper is still published. On November 4, 1874, he again embarked in the mercantile business by opening a store in this village which event was hailed with joy by all within a radius of several miles from Hicksville, because it was well known that he would break up the monopoly held by a very few, who were in the same business and had manipulated so, that they exacted and obtained extortionate prices for their wares.

Mr. Augustin succeeded so well, that new methods of business were established, and reasonable prices were the rule thereafter.

He married the daughter of the late William Freytag, who subsequently died, leaving her daughter surviving who is now the widow of the late Dr. F. N. Taliaferro. His second wife, now his widow, his two daughters and a son survive him.

He retired from his general store business, which is now owned by Mr. H. F. Huettner, about five years ago and erected a large and handsome residence upon the spacious and beautiful grounds on Broadway, which he occupied until his death. He embarked in the coal and lumber business simply that he might remain in harness and keep his mind occupied, not for the sake of any profits that might be made out of it because he had accumulated a fortune long ago.

The deceased was nominated for Justice of the Peace by the Democrats in 1892 and was elected to that office, which he held at the time of his death. He was considered one of the best Justices in the town, and as a member of the Town Board distinguished himself for his aptitude in discovering and disclosing attempts at imposition and corruption.

The deceased was a member of Primrose Lodge, No. 569, I.O.O.F., and an associate member of the three Fire Companies. The funeral took place Thursday afternoon, in charge of the I.O.O.F., at 1:30 p.m. from the house to the German Lutheran Trinity Church, where Rev. P.G.L. Matschar delivered a touching sermon. Interment was made in Heitz's Cemetery where the Odd Fellows performed the last rites of the order. All the societies and the Fire Department had all arrangements completed for a large turnout in a body to pay their respects to the dead but owing to the terrific storm only a small delegation from each attended the funeral.

Many residents of this neighborhood not only regret his loss, but will feel it sorely, because of his great liberality and his readiness at all times to help and assist the needy and unfortunate, not only by his counsel and advice, but in more substantial ways.

"We have lost one of the best and brightest among us, one who had the welfare of the community at heart and who was a model citizen, a warm friend, a just official, a good husband and father, and the noblest work of God" an honest man.

We mourn our loss.

pleased to honor Frank Mockler, who through his careful attention to customer needs and quality of food and service plus his broad involvement in charitable fund raising, has made an invaluable contribution to both the Long Island dining scene and his community."

Mockler has been credited with introducing Irish Coffee to Long Island, first at the 1964 World's Fair and later at his Patrick's Pub, opened in 1965. While maintaining different menus at each of the Mockler family restaurants, quality ingredients, careful preparation, efficient service and friendly, comfortable atmosphere are common to all three operations.

In addition, Mockler operates the Shop, near Patrick's Pub with his daughter as manager, featuring giftware and clothing imported from Ireland.

Frank Mockler, Pub Owner Named Restaurateur Of The Year By LIRCA

The Long Island Restaurant and Caterers Association has named Frank Mockler, proprietor of three Long Island restaurants, as its Restaurateur of the Year for 1986/87. Mockler, owner of Patrick's Pub in Little Neck, the Harp and Mandolin in Bayside and Kenny's Pub in Bethpage, will be honored at LIRCA's 23rd Annual Banquet set for October 27 at the Crest Hollow Country Club.

Said Karl Rueck, President of LIRCA, "We are

A Letter from Lulubelle...

...Do you know that my grandchildren do not know what a skate key is...Can you imagine?!!... Do you remember those metal things that we always wore on a string around our necks and we used them to turn the front "grippers" of our roller skates tight against our shoes?...It was always impossible if we happened to be wearing sneakers since the key turned the front grippers of the skates right into your feet—and it hurt!!...and then, if you happened to be a poor depression-time kid and you wore cheap shoes, it was really ruinous since the grippers would tear the sole right off the shoes—and your Mother would yell!!...Skating was such great fun—we tried it on the concrete—many different kinds of concrete-layers provided many different surfaces—and the tarred roads were very bad!!...I never saw anyone with shoe skates—the kind the kids all seem to have now—and it's just as well since the shoes would have been outgrown and we could never have afforded new ones every year—those old skates with the grippers were also adjustable and you could make them from quite small to very large, indeed...some kids on our block had two-wheel skates but that was very unusual—we all had the regular four-wheel kind with the grippers and the leather straps to hold the back on...we were never allowed to skate to school because the skates were much too "clanky" going into the building...We had to be very quiet in the halls in those days—it was before anyone found out that he was "cramping our creativity"...and do you remember breezing along on those roller skates feeling so free, and do you remember the bump in the sidewalk, and do you remember those large scabs on both your knees, — and do you remember mercurochrome???

Yours, Lulubelle

METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE CO. donated a check for $500 to the Leukemia Society in the name of Gary Carter. Gary was selected the "Met Life Met of the Month" for the month of April. The presentation was made by Mr. Edward Garger, Regional Sales Manager for Metropolitan Life. Ms. Laurie Newberg represents the Long Island Leukemia Society located at 20 Jerusalem Ave., Hicksville.

Doug Grant Gaming College

Douglas R. Grant, a casino pit boss who later became a professional gambler, is the proud founder of a school in Hicksville that teaches the long and short of blackjack.

Within the last fourteen years, Doug Grant, whose name is an alias for protection from casinos, feels that his blackjack technique has netted him approximately $4 million.

Mr. Grant teaches his course in office buildings on South Oyster Bay Road in Hicksville and another in Union, N.J. He also offers classes in southern New Jersey, Philadelphia and Las Vegas.

His graduates have included teachers, doctors, lawyers and even several police officers who had come to check out the operation, but found it was legitimate and actually stayed with the program.

All students are taught basic playing strategy and card counting methods. Grant's theory is that a close watching of the cards can give a player an idea of when favorable and unfavorable hands are about to be dealt. He has created a technique where it is possible for a player to determine when to place large and small wagers while keeping under cover.

As a graduate of the gaming school, one receives a gothic-lettered diploma stating that he is now a "Master Blackjack Player".

Mr. Grant feels that he can teach a method of blackjack that plays a winning technique, but also one the casinos can't detect. The telephone number of the school is 933-1650.

The Lupski's

This spring was a busy season at the home of Helen and John Lupski of Hicksville.

On April 10 their daughter, Donna, became the bride of Eric Swanek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swanek of Wayne, New Jersey. The ceremony was performed by Father Frederick J. Harter at St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Hicksville.

The bride was attended by her sister, Diane Lupski, the maid of honor, Doreen and Debbie Lupski and Mrs. Michele Shor. Denise Lupski, niece of the bride, was the flower girl.

The groom's best man was Jonathan Bob. Ushers were the groom's brothers, Mark, Scott, and Douglas Swanek.

A reception was held at the Huntington Town House. Their honeymoon was spent in London, touring the English countryside and in Paris.

Mr. Swanek is in the motion picture industry working as a free lance assistant cameraman.

On June 5th, Donna graduated from New York University of Medicine. Her brother, James, a graduate of the Medical School and a member of the school faculty at the time, was given the honor of presenting his sister with her medical degree. It was quite a thrill for their parents, grandparents (Mrs. Ada Murray and Mr. and Mrs. John Lupski of Hicksville) and other family members who attended the ceremony. A party to celebrate the occasion was held at the family home on Eighth Street on June 7th.

Donna is now doing her residency in Pediatrics at Overlook Hospital in Summit, New Jersey, where she and her husband reside.

On June 14th, James Lupski, M.D., Ph.D., married Gabriella Gerardi, R.N., daughter of Flora Gerardi and the late Enzo Gerardi of Huntington Station. The ceremony was performed by Father Robert Clerkin at St. Hugh of Lincoln Church, Huntington Station.

The bride's matron of honor was Colleen DeGeatano, bridesmaids, Bernadette Daly, Annemarie Palmieri and Elizabeth Schrum. Flower girl was Alicia Hernandez.

The groom's best man was his friend, Dr. Frans De Bruijn, (from Germany) and ushers were his former roommate, R. Jeffrey Cohen, Timothy Lupski and Dr. Douglas Zieger, (NYU).

After a reception at Tung Ting Restaurant in Centerport, the couple left for a honeymoon on Harbor Island in the Bahamas. The couple now reside in Houston, Texas, where Jim is doing a Pediatric residency at Texas Children's Hospital. This will be followed by a Fellowship in Human Genetics at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

The bride is a nurse at St. Luke's Hospital, also in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lupski are also pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Doreen, to Mr. William Benzie of Piscataway, New Jersey. A spring, 1987 wedding is planned.

DR. DONNA LUPSKI AND DR. JAMES LUPSKI at Donna's graduation from New York University of Medicine.

Donna and Eric's Wedding Cake

The following was written by Gay and Jim Lupski to be part of the prayer booklet at their wedding. We thought you might like to read it:

To our Families and Friends:

Without you a day like today would be impossible. Our ability to love one another didn't begin the day we fell in love. It was a slow steady process that taught us what love was and what loving another human being meant. It began in our fun-loving homes with our parents, brothers and sisters and continued with laughter and tears with our relatives and friends.

Separately, we were loved so perfectly by each of you, that when we finally met, we knew we had to share that love with each other.

You are more than guests at our wedding... you are a part of us.

Thank you for loving us. We love you too!

Nassau Sports Review

By JACK WHITE

Will Long Island be a future site for the Empire State Games? That is a question which may be decided in the coming months as officials consider the merits of various areas throughout the state.

According to Michael Shaw, publicity director for the Games, 176,085 people attended the five days of Olympic-style competition in 27 sports staged recently in Buffalo. Despite rain the crowds exceeded the previous year's total of 172,800 although local sponsors had hoped for a turnout of 200,000.

Through the nine year history of the event only Syracuse and Buffalo have served as hosts. The Games are scheduled to return to Syracuse next year (July 29-August 2). Michael Abernathy, the event's executive director, noted however, that it is still undecided where the Games will be staged in 1988 and said he will discuss possible selection processes with other officials and the sponsoring agency, the Department of Parks, Recreation and Historical Preservation.

"I don't want to go into detail about the future except to say we have a commitment to Syracuse in 1987," said Abernathy, adding that four other areas have expressed an interest in hosting the Empire State Games. Those areas are Rochester, Ithaca, Metropolitan New York and Albany, he said.

"The Games belong to the State of New York," he said, reiterating his desire to see them rotate among those cities capable of handling the athletes and fans.

Almost 7,000 athletes competed in this year's competition which featured individual and team events on both the open and scholastic level. The event has grown tremendously over the years and can have a significant economic impact on an area. According to Buffalo officials, between five and six million dollars in revenue were brought to that city.

A total of 49,100 spectators attended the final day's closing events, including 5,500 for men's basketball, 2,200 for softball and 1,500 for women's basketball.

"The bulk of the people benefitting are hotels, restaurants, concessionaires, service stations and some local tourists attractions," according to Michael Shaw. It was estimated that about 3,000 families visited Buffalo for the Games.

Long Island would certainly have a strong case as a potential host. First, it is a summer resort ideal for visitors in July and August. The nearby beaches and the proximity of New York City would make the experience especially rewarding for upstate families. The recent boom in hotel and motel construction would guarantee adequate housing and the dorms of Hofstra might serve well for some of the athletes.

A perfect site would be the Hempstead-Uniondale-Garden City-East Meadow area which includes the facilities of Hofstra University (8,000 seat stadium, 4,000 seat gymnasium), Nassau Community College (3,000 seat arena, swimming complex), Mitchell Park (track, baseball, softball fields), the Nassau Coliseum (16,000 seats) and Eisenhower Park. These areas would seem to provide everything needed and they are all within walking distance of each other.

Spotting Quality in Sport Socks

To the eye, sport socks of any particular style look much alike. Some sell for about $1.50, others, closer to $5. How can you spot the brand that is tops in quality and genuinely worth its higher price?

Here are few pointers from Puma, the sock people who made an intensive study of socks before producing them to complement their top-of-the-line sport and casual shoes.

They advise looking for a beefy, thick foot that says, "80 percent High Bulk Creslan acrylic/20 percent nylon" on the bottom of the sock. This gives the cushiony feeling, absorbing shock and perspiration while providing smooth comfort.

Ribbing on the leg should be in even, tight rows with the stripes, brand name or logo smoothly knitted in rich, clear colors like Puma's red, navy or black.

The sole should also read, "Made in U.S.A." The American Sockwear label on the packaging underscores the fact that the socks are American made and is your assurance of a high standard of quality backed by American Cyanamid's full, one-year warranty.

Available for about $5, these state-of-the-art sport socks are engineered to complement the quality of Puma shoes.

Beacon Savings Reports Growth

Beacon Federal Savings Bank recently reported a 30.2% growth in net worth for the first six months of 1986. Beacon has branches in Hicksville and Garden City.

The Bank, which maintains 14 branches, reported that net worth increased from $17.3 million to $22.2 million, the result of the lower cost of money and the profitable sale of loans and securities. As of June 30, net worth was 5.18% of savings. Beacon Federal also reported that during the same period, total assets grew $31.2 million to $464.7 million, or 7.2%, and that total loans, cash and securities increased $32.1 million, or 8.7% to $402.0 million.

During the first half of the year, savings and borrowing liabilities increased $20.9 million, or 5.1% to $426.3 million, with a positive interest spread achieved by matching increased borrowing with an offsetting investment.

WINGER AND REDFORD

LEGAL EAGLES

A refreshing and engaging comedy mystery which successfully draws on the yuppie outlook of the '80s. Robert Redford and Debra Winger are superbly paired as New York City lawyers pursuing an art fraud and murder caper. They generate the sort of wonderful chemistry that sparked the romantic comedies of William Powell and Myrna Loy or Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy. This sophisticated thriller moves briskly with ample fun, sizzling suspense and sparkling romance. (PG)

Buying or Selling - Call Vigilant

FOR THOSE WHO REMEMBER the grandeur and the opulence of going to a movie palace, with a big screen, we show the standard orchestra of showplace of the early 1900s.

All the old expansive houses like the Rivoli in Hempstead, the Cove in Glen Cove, Huntington, Mineola, Port Washington, Manhasset, Hicksville, Westbury—and even the rickety, but cozy, Lyric in Oyster Bay, are gone.

And ah...

...those rare—but fabulous—trips to New York to be enveloped in the luxurious spaciousness of the Roxy, Capitol, Paramount, Strand or the Radio City Music Hall....

Today movie goers are crammed into a shoebox. The screen is narrow, bending like an exhausted frankfurter. The air reeks of stale hot butter.

No wonder video cassettes are one of America's exploding industries!

Depicted—courtesy of the Huntington Historical Society—is the standard of the day: silent movies with sub-titles were accompanied by a plinking piano rendition paced to the action of the screen.

Hicksville had a similar opera house. It still stands—recently experiencing an outside sprucing up—on Nicholai Street. It is almost directly across (south-side) from the Masonic Temple and Trinity Lutheran Church.

The building has had a varied life. When other modern houses siphoned off movies and stage productions, it was converted into Hicksville's first bowling alley in 1930. After World War II it became one of the sewing factories that dotted the hamlet.

In the past two decades it has housed numerous commercial ventures.

We pride ourselves on being the only full service funeral home in Hicksville. Our professional staff can provide prearranged funerals, extended payment plans, post funeral counseling, a lending library and floral arrangements. For all your funeral service needs, turn to Vernon C. Wagner Funeral Home.

4 ♠ 4 ♦ 5 ♣ 5 ♦
6 ♠ Dble

Opening lead—king of diamonds.

Most squeezes come ready-made, but in some hands declarer must construct the position he requires to make the squeeze effect. ...

Here is a typical case. West leads the king of diamonds and shifts to the king of spades, won by South with the ace. At a quick glance, it seems that declarer must sooner or later lose a heart trick to go down one. But actually, on the bidding, he is a strong favorite to make the slam.

West almost surely has five spades for his bids and all that declarer requires in addition is for West to have the king of hearts. In that case, properly played, a squeeze is sure to develop nine tricks later and render West helpless.

Proceeding on that basis, declarer enters dummy with a trump to the eight, ruffs a spade, then plays a trump to the nine and ruffs another spade. The purpose of the ruffs is to extract East's spades and so place the burden of guarding against dummy's nine solely on West.

When declarer now plays four more rounds of trumps, this becomes the position:

	North
	♥ A8
West		East
♠ Q		♥ J109
♥ K6
	South
	♥ Q7

South leads his last trump and West is in bad shape. If he discards a spade, declarer discards a heart from dummy; if West discards a heart, declarer discards a spade from dummy. Either way, South scores the last three tricks and makes the slam.

House Calls

By EDITH LANK

Fee To Buyer's Broker

Dear Edith: Since other houses in this area have sold quickly I am considering trying to sell my house without a broker. This would save quite a bit of money which I could split with the buyer. What are possible problems I should look out for?

I realize that by not using a broker my house would not be in the Multiple Listing Service. If the buyer has been using a broker, would I have to pay a fee to that buyer's broker? I assume that if I am unable to sell the house I can always use a broker later. — Mrs. F. S.

Yes some sellers do manage without a broker. Lenders estimate the figure at perhaps eight percent of sales. Judging from your question, though, you could use some study of real estate law and custom before starting the project. Try the library.

Even though the buyer may have been working with a broker, if you make no use of a broker's services, you won't owe any fee.

It's usually easy to find someone who wants to buy a properly priced house; that's only a small part of real estate brokerage. You want more than simply to find a willing buyer, you want to obtain the best price with the least amount of stress. Since you ask about possible problems:

— You will be reaching a relatively small pool of buyers with your one advertisement; statistically this diminishes your chances of obtaining the best price.

— You may end up showing the house to people who are not qualified to buy it; this becomes quite a waste of time.

— You will be admitting strangers to your house without screening or identification.

— You will receive phone calls at all hours. In addition, buyers, particularly out-of-towners who are typically good prospects, may want to look at the property while you should be at work.

— You risk setting the wrong asking price; too high and nobody responds; too low and you sell promptly but cheat yourself.

— You may end up with a problem contract, tying the house up while the buyer tries in vain to obtain financing, for example. You'll have to learn to ask people about their income, assets and credit rating.

— The buyers will be forgoing a broker's services in, for example, helping to obtain a mortgage loan. So they will, as you realize, expect a price concession in return. This cuts down on the financial advantage you may realize in return for doing the work yourself.

Should you offer full price? What about the appliances? Edith gives advice in her leaflet "Negotiating Your Home Buying." Send 1/2 and a stamped return envelope to Negotiating, 240 Hemingway, Rochester NY 14620.

Don't put much money into a house that's going on the market. Should you paint? or just polish? Steps to take are detailed in House Calls' leaflet. For a copy, send 1/2 and a stamped return envelope to SHOW 'N SELL, 240 Hemingway Drive, Rochester NY 14620. Edith Lank will also answer personally any letter with an envelope.

Antique/Classic Car Show Winners

An Antique/Classic Custom Car Show was held on Sunday, August 17 at the Alva T. Stanforth Jr. High School in Elmont.

Given by the Elmont Elks Club to benefit Cerebral Palsy, a huge crowd attended.

There were two Hicksville winners: Mark Thomas from Suggs Lane, who placed first with his white '69 Chevrolet Z/28 Camaro in the Restored Stock Class and Bob Faur of Spindle Road who placed first with his blue '67 Oldsmobile 442, in the Unrestored Stock Class.

Much time and effort is put into showing a car but the time and effort is worth it to these men when they talk to visitors who once owned a car like theirs, or always wanted to own a similar car.

The next car show will be held at Heckscher Park in Huntington Sept. 14th.

Chum Pot

Fluking seemed to be on the down side this past week. Maybe due to having poor tides or perhaps bad weather. Not many were caught and those that were caught were often too small. Snapper fishing is great no matter what spot you choose. Both Jones Piers and Captree has an abundance of snappers, with the size getting longer everyday. Crabbing is picking up a little better at the local docks. Flounders are around still at the deep holes by the bridges, and the Jones Beach Coast Guard station but it seems some days are hit or miss. Blues are still doing well in and off shore, open boats still doing well; should hold up unless Hurricane Charlie chases them out.

Softball Runs Will Help Kids!

"We're pitching in to help needy youngsters," said Nassau County Department of Social Services Commissioner Joseph A. D'Elia, in announcing his Department's enthusiastic support for a fund raising benefit in Cow Meadow Park next week.

Proceeds from a benefit softball game between the Green Acres All Stars and the WNBC AM "66-ers" will be shared by the Social Service Volunteers of Nassau, Inc. and the Nassau Coalition on Child Abuse and Neglect. Game time is 7 p.m., Thursday, August 28, at Cow Meadow Park, foot of Main Street, Freeport.

Commissioner D'Elia expressed appreciation to Lawrence Ersch, Commissioner of the Green Acres Softball League, who initiated the benefit project. The League has ten teams with 200 members who are employees and friends of employees of stores in the Green Acres Shopping Center, Valley Stream.

Social Service Volunteers is a non-profit chartered organization associated with the Department to meet the special needs of public assistance recipients that cannot be covered through government programs. The Volunteers operate a monthly Boutique in the Social Services Administration Building in Mineola, selling gift and craft items, to raise funds for their programs.

Refreshments will be available at the Park the evening of the softball game, and Commissioner D'Elia invites spectators to come to the game for an evening of picnicking and comradeship. "The real winners," he said, "will be needy youngsters."
