Special Event For Hicksville Residents

EMILY ANN GRAMAGLIA AND JENA LYNN McLOUGHLIN

Joanne and George Gramaglia and Peter and Maryann McLoughlin were born, raised and married in Hicksville. They have also become homeowners and their children will be attending the same schools that they did. They are part of our future and development in our community and our country.

Both of these families will have the honor of having their daughters become citizens of the United States at a special ceremony to be held at the Statue of Liberty on Thursday, Oct. 23. This will be a part of the official 100th anniversary celebration of the Statue of Liberty.

Emily Ann Gramaglia, who is two years old, and Jena Lynn McLoughlin, who is eighteen months, were adopted through the "Love the Children" agency and arrived from Korea in 1985.

It is a proud moment for these families and we of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce send our love and congratulations as we are sure does all of our community.

News Notes From:

Hicksville Rotary Club

President Peter Rocco opened the meeting.

Happy Dollars: Pete Rocco, Harry Smith, Mike Racicot, Joe Trevitz, Leo Sugarman, Fred Meyer, Joe Muraca, Al Levine, Bob Kunz, Irwin Solomon, Doc Gross, Augie Cassella, Milt Weinberg, Tom Howell, Harry Peltz, Elie Zambaka. Elie did not wear his badge and got a good going over from the members regarding the paying of fines for such an offense.

Football Pool: Dr. Irwin Gross won for the third consecutive week. Doc allowed the club to share the other two quarters of the Giant-Cardinal game.

Announcements: Augie Cassella received a Rotary Recognition Award from president Pete for sponsoring a member for the year 1985-87.

There was a journal meeting at Al Levine's office held Thursday night at 8:00 p.m. The results of that meeting will be discussed at the Oct. 16 regular meeting.

President Pete announced that we will be holding joint meetings with both the Bethpage and Syosset Rotary clubs. Both Syosset and Bethpage hold their meetings at the Fox Hollow Restaurant in Syosset.

This Bulletin is being published in the Hicksville Illustrated News through the efforts of Ron Platt. We are extremely grateful to the Hicksville Illustrated News which is an outstanding new publication in the area and hope to continue our relationship with them.

Board Meeting: The Board meeting was held at Jim Grossman's house in Plainview on Oct. 7. Fred Meyer did his usual outstanding job of recording the minutes.

Treasurers Report: Bill Hayday, the club's secretary, presented his report for September. It was accepted by the members. The Board did decide to move a substantial amount of money into a money market account.

Golf Outing: Fred Meyer reported on results of the golf outing which was held at Hauppauge Country Club on Sept. 30. The club net was $1,881.00, less the purchase of 144 golf visors that were distributed as prizes, at a cost of $432.00, bringing the net to $1,449.00. There are about 90 visors left, which are yellow and have Hicksville Rotary Golf Classic and the Rotary wheel printed on the peak.

Community Projects: John Hill reported on transportation for the senior citizens center on Newbridge Road. The object is to take the citizens to the King Kullen Shopping Center on Broadway for a two-hour period. The original price quoted to John has been increased to $12 for a guaranteed four-hour period. Discussion will continue concerning possible alternatives, such as cabs, subsidy for cab fare and even the purchase of a bus. John Hill and Al Levine will solicit cab companies. Al will contact Syosset Rotary which has a similar project.

Journals: 250 copies of the Hicksville Rotary Journal will be printed and distributed free to members and advertisers.

Holiday Party: The holiday party has been tentatively scheduled for Dec. 30 at the Milleridge Inn.

Scholarship: Past scholarship recipient William Ennis is applying for a Rotary Foundation Scholarship for medical school. Bill will be studying at St. George University in the British West Indies, after graduating from Villanova. The Board voted unanimously and approved his request.

A letter was read from District Governor Andy Tini regarding the name change to Hicksville/Jericho Rotary Club. We should be hearing from Andy soon.

Pete Rocco distributed a draft of a "Member Handbook" for comments. It will provide much information on the club and its members.

Meeting: Next Board of Directors meeting will be held at Pete Rocco's office on Nov. 4 at 6:15 p.m.

Guests: Madeline Howell, guest of Hubby Tom; Dom Mio, guest of Joe Trevitz.

Free Portfolio Clinics Offered For High School Artists

Submitting a collection of artwork is the way teenagers "audition" for a college-level program. To help them plan and produce a portfolio that best represents their talents, the Nassau BOCES Cultural Arts Center is sponsoring a series of free clinics. At each two-hour session, a representative from a college art program will discuss that school's requirements and expectations. In addition, each teenager's existing portfolio will be individually reviewed.

The afterschool sessions begin at 3 p.m. and ends at 4 p.m. Interested high school students may arrive anytime after 2 o'clock and stay as long as they wish.

Students in grades nine through twelve at any Nassau or Suffolk County school are invited to attend.

Four clinics are scheduled this fall:

Thursday, Oct. 30 - Cooper Union

Thursday, Nov. 13 - School of Visual Arts

Friday, Nov. 21 - Pratt Institute

Thursday, Dec. 4 - Art Institute of Boston

All clinics will be held at the Nassau BOCES Cultural Arts Center, now located at 230 Cold Spring Rd. in Syosset. For directions to the center or for additional information, call (516) 304-4177.

Giese Park Civics to Meet October 27th

The Giese Park Civic Association will hold its regular monthly membership meeting on Monday, Oct. 27 at 7 p.m. in the Community Room of the Hicksville Library.

Scheduled topics for discussion will include an update on the Giese Park issue and the petition to rezone a parcel of land by Robert Chevrolet. In addition, Ms. Barbara Nelson, Executive Director of the Hicksville Youth Council, is scheduled to attend and discuss the possible formation of a Neighborhood Watch Program. A spokesman for the association has stated that the implementation of such a program would certainly contribute to a more secure community. Also, the meeting will include nominations of officers for 1987 and, therefore, it is important for all members to attend.

As always, all interested parties are welcome to attend and any further information can be obtained by contacting Tom or Fran McGovern at 938-7309.

DONOVAN REPORT

Real Estate: Karen Donovan
HOME SALES UP

News Item: home sales are moving up so fast in many areas that lenders are having difficulty processing loans! Item in Hicksville, for example, the number of existing homes sold posted a 10 percent increase over last year, and sales prices were up another 24 percent over last year!

In short, homes are selling well. Lower mortgage rates are bringing out prospects who've been waiting to buy. If you have been considering selling, this is a good time.

But it's not enough to put a 'for sale' sign on your front lawn and wait for buyers to appear. It's still necessary to set the right asking price, to advertise well, to qualify prospects, and then show and sell the property effectively. It's not easy, we've been selling houses for years, and we know how demanding the job is. Even when homes are selling fast, it's smart to call in a realtor and have the job done right. Most people can't afford to have to sell all over again if the sale doesn't go through the first time. Call in the winners at:

Editorial

We at the Hicksville Illustrated News are appreciative of the interested response of Assemblyman Frederick E. Parola to our campaign to end the governmental neglect (all three divisions) of our community.

It is encouraging to note that our underscoring campaign termed "Weedsville USA" is bearing fruit.

We are not confused however on the artful carving of Hicksville into fragmentary assembly districts to reduce its total political sock.

In fairness, the shifting, slicing, rotating, expanding and contracting of parts of Hicksville in various assembly districts in the last two decades, is not a device or responsibility of Mr. Parola.

In the fading of Assembly service by Joe Margiotta to reduce Hicksville's power, the hamlet was carved into four sections. Stanley Harwood of Levittown represented the southwest section and Joe Reilly of Glen Cove had the northwest.

It would seem that the Assembly lines jump around quite often and that is what we referred to.

Submitted below are the particular limited sections of Hicksville represented by Dan Frisa.

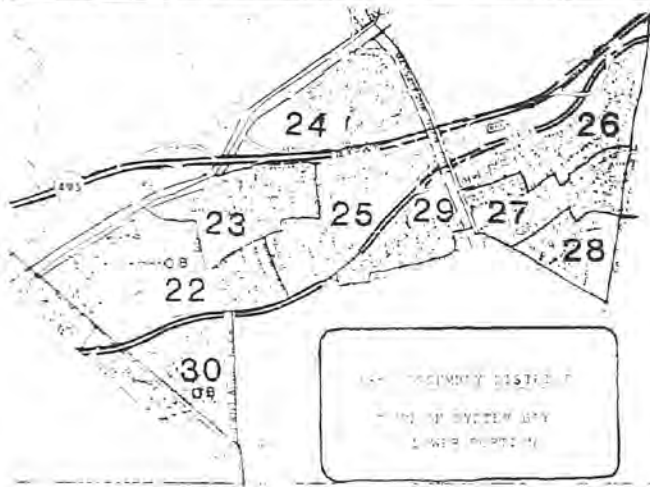

The bulk of Mr. Frisa's constituency is in Westbury and central Nassau. As a historical, geographical point, Salisbury is a development of homes whose residents wanted a distinctive name.

Salisbury is almost directly across from Holy Rood Cemetery. The area's identity has gone from Westbury, to South Westbury and now to Salisbury. Most of it is really in East Meadow. It is in the East Meadow School District.

Mr. Yevoli has a chunk of Hicksville; but the main body of his concern is Glen Cove to Old Bethpage, including the bulk of his strength in Plainview.

There is no confusion also that this campaign to rejuvenate Hicksville is gaining momentum.

We are glad and extend our cooperation to Mr. Parola.

The map depicts the part of Hicksville in the 15th Assembly District. This is a demonstration of the artful carving of part of the community. Such a jagged configuration questions the inclusion in a district which embraces Westbury, South Westbury, Mineola, Carle Place and New Castle. When added to the chunk taken from Hicksville (Woodland Ave. School area) for part of the Plainview-Glen Cove Assembly District, the claim of deliberate weakening of Hicksville political power is not minimal.

Holy Trinity's Performing Arts Department is proud to present its Fall show, "Godspell". Performances will be held at 8:00 p.m. in the Trinity Theatre on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, November 6, 7, and 8. Tickets cost $4.00. For ticket information, please call the school at (516) 433-2900.

Letters From Our Readers

To The Editor:

To The Editor:

I commend you and your periodical for your efforts on behalf of the Hicksville community. However, I wish to correct a number of misstatements in your August 20th Editorial, entitled "Weedsville, U.S.A."

Hicksville is represented by three Assemblymen, not four as you indicated. My two colleagues who represent part of Hicksville are Dan Frisa from Salisbury (not Westbury) and Lewis Yevoli from Old Bethpage (not Glen Cove). There are no legislators from Levittown or Sealord representing Hicksville. Your confusion results from the fact that I live in Wantagh and my district office is in Levittown.

While this configuration might seem to "artfully" shortchange Hicksville to utilize your language, it is noteworthy that I represent roughly 90% of Hicksville and Senator Marino represents virtually 100% of the community. This is not "carving" as you indicated in your release.

I can only state that I try to represent and work for Hicksville's residents as if they were my home town neighbors. The "visual pollution" disturbs me deeply as do the state cutbacks in personnel by Albany, each of which has contributed to the problem on our roadways.

The attached letter to the Regional Director of the Department of Transportation is not my first effort to clean-up 107. I have written every year for better maintenance. Last year, we prevented the state from taking residential property on Nevada Street at Routh 108. Furthermore, the State has finally agreed to replace shrubby-greenery along Newbridge Road.

Quite obviously, much more needs to be done! I hope that you will continue to work for the community.

Having just completed my annual walk to every residence in Hicksville for the tenth time, I recognize the justified concern of my constituents and I assure you they have given me a host of problems to pursue.

Frederick E. Parola
Member of Assembly

Michael Cuddy
Regional Director
Department of Transportation
Region 10 Office
New York State Office Building
Veterans Memorial Highway
Hauppauge, NY 11787

RE: Route 107

Dear Mr. Cuddy:

The condition of Broadway-Route 107 as it winds its way through Hicksville has caused understandable anger and frustration to the residents of that community.

The dividers are filled with clumps of weeds that grow along the roadway. Litter abounds everywhere.

As you are aware, Broadway is the major thoroughfare running through Hicksville. Its condition reflects most negatively on residents of this community who truly care about their homes and town.

Please use your good offices to ensure that an improvement be made in this deteriorating situation.

Frederick E. Parola
Member of Assembly

To the Editor:

Not too long ago I was passing through Hicksville and was what you would call shocked to see how the town had changed.

Someone gave me some copies of Hicksville Illustrated News and I sat up to the early morning hours reading much of the past.

In the 18 Sept. 86 issue the picture of the Hicksville football team sitting next to Dr. Stillger is Dominic Sabatello whose family had a candy store on Nicholi Street across from the theatre and next to the Masonic Temple. Also noted #18 supporting a shiner that he received in a brawl in a game against Valley Stream. He was hit in the eye with a water bucket a few games earlier. Although I'm not in the picture it just happens that Leo Ruggiero and I were the water boys for the team. The Pony Express as they were called consisted of Dick Rennie, Harold Mayer, and Pete Dehmorg (that isn't the correct spelling) who lived in the section of town called Hollywood south of the High School now called the Junior High School.

This club was later sponsored by The Hicksville Fire Department. When the war started all clubs were disbanded. That is World War II.

Many of those pictured went to war and never returned and I made a promise to myself that I would dedicate a memorial to those who were less fortunate. The memorial trophy was given to Miss Mabel R. Farley to be awarded to the outstanding student. It didn't necessarily have to be a graduating senior and the student body elected whose name would appear. The person had to be a scholar as well as an athlete. That was in the June class of 1946. Now whatever happen to the award? This award was a tradition for a very long time and over the years lost contact with those in town.

Howard I remember when you came to live in Hicksville you carried your school books like the Statue of Liberty.

If someone wanted to subscribe to your fish wrapper nowhere in the paper does it say what it costs.

When you go back into the history of Hicksville the Professional Bldg. was the tallest building in town and was built by "Red" Hicks the contractor. He also was the contractor who put the tower or steeple on St. Ignatius Church. The school by the church was built by donation and it was fully paid for when the last stone was in place. The Allen family had the most kids in school at one time (10).

If I can refresh your memory of facts and incidents of the past would be happy to pass it on.

Joe Baker

To the Editor:

Here I sit in the middle of the country with 10 copies of the Hicksville Illustrated News to browse through. A kind and thoughtful friend packed them up and mailed them to me. She knows how much I enjoy reading about the history of Hicksville, my "Home Town." I was born there in 1926. I went to school with you, do you remember Evie Brandstetter? These old pictures are just fabulous! I'm going to cut all of them out and place them in a scrapbook along with the articles that go with them. I wish I could subscribe to your paper.

The picture of the East Street School play was such a delight to see, that class was a year or so ahead of me, but I recognize most of the names. The biggest surprise was seeing the name Gillen there, I never heard the name before, and it is my name now. I was never aware that I went to school with someone named Gillen.

I've kept in touch with a few old friends through the years. There is one girl I wish I hadn't lost touch with, I wonder if someone would know her whereabouts? We went from kindergarten at East Street School all through high school graduating in 1944. Then we commuted to N.Y.C. via the L.I.R.R. to our jobs. Her name was Ruthie Hoffman. She lived on Woodbury Road. She had a brother named Allen. How I would love to hear from her.

THE SKATE SHOP

SKATING
EQUIPMENT
By Jesse Halpern

99 Cutter Mill Road
Great Neck
HU7-6978

THERE never was a question as to what type of skate to use for speed skating. Neither was there ever a question as to the best type of skate for playing hockey. But as far as the novice skater, interested in mild exercise and a form of relaxation, is concerned, the type of skates is often a problem. Also, how and where to buy them are problems. The unfortunate truth is that most people are poorly advised and consequently buy the wrong skate.

The skates generally bought in sporting goods stores and department stores are toys or little more than toys and could not hold the ankle of either the novice or the expert erectly. The exceptions to the generality are very rare indeed. The place to buy skates is only in the specialty skate shop.

Professional skaters, both performers and instructors, advise figure skates as the best type of skates for many sound reasons. The figure boot is a higher boot and distributes the necessary snugness over a larger area than any of the other boots. The skate itself is lower and consequently easier to balance oneself with. The blades on a correct pair of skates are screw attached on both heels and soles to the average weight center.

If the ankle bends it means that the weight center of the foot is a little to one side or the other of the average weight center, and the bending is immediately corrected with the moving of the blade toward the skater's weight center. The figure skate is the most maneuverable skate. The low weight center, the high boot, the movable blade, all help make the figure skate the easiest skate to skate on.

To have full control over the blade, the boot must be snug enough to make the foot and the blade feel as though the two were one, and the blade must be in the weight center of each in the foot.

Correct fitting can be done only by the expert who has enough boots of different lasts and widths to work with. The boot should be just as tight as the skater can stand. The foot does not move around within the boot. It should be almost impossible to budge the heel from the floor of the shoe and it should be possible to flex the toes a bit. The adult or the advanced child skater should be fitted with very light socks.

For children, the skate expert advises the same as for adults, except that children can be fitted with heavy socks and wear the same boots the second year with light socks. The largest possible blades should be attached to the boots so that the blades can be used on the next pair of boots. Over the long period, correct skates for children cost less per year than the toys ill-advised parents often buy.

Rental skates can't possibly give much satisfaction because every one who wears them stretches them in another place and after a while the shoes have no more support than a paper bag. The same can be said about second hand skates. Leather stretches and shoes take on the shape of the feet when there is only one wearer. It is more important to have a good, well-fitted boot than an expensive blade. At the Jesse Halpern Skate Shops we don't hesitate to recommend an expensive boot with the least expensive blade. The boot is that much more important. There is advantage in better blades, but it is small as compared with the advantage of better boots.

HOURS: Mon.-Sat. 10:00-6:00, Thurs. Eve till 8 P.M.; Closed Sundays

Opening lead — queen of clubs

Consider this deal where South must make a good guess to make the contract. Let's say he wins the club lead with the ace, plays the A-K-Q of trumps, discarding two diamonds from dummy, leads a club to the king and ruffs a club.

Declarer now plays a spade to dummy's jack. East takes the king and returns a diamond. West wins with the jack and continues with the ace. South ruffs and leads another spade. When West follows low, declarer must guess whether to play the queen or the nine from dummy.

If he thinks West has the ten, South plays the nine; if he thinks West has the ace, South plays the queen. Many players think that the card which declarer should play from dummy in this situation is an out-and-out guess. However, this is not correct.

Without going into the mathematical details of why the right play is the queen, the fact is that in a long series of cases where declarer's play matters — assuming there are no clues to indicate otherwise — the queen plays is successful approximately twice as often as the nine play.

These odds presuppose that West is a first-rate defender who would not go up with the ace if he originally held A-x-x, A-x-x-x, or A-x-x-x-x of spades. He would follow low to give declarer a chance to go wrong. He would also follow low each time if his spades were headed by the king instead of the ace.

Actually, the only pertinent cases are those where East holds the A-10, K-10, or A-K of spades. The first two cases together occur twice as often as the last case, and that is why the odds are 2-to-1 in favor of playing the queen on the second round of the suit.

A Letter from Lulubelle...

...whenever I think of studying history in the lower grades of kindergarten, first, and second grade, I think of Indians. Indians were very important to us and we really spent time learning about their lives. As early as the kindergarten, in the classroom sand-box, we made Indian villages. I can remember making teepees from a half circle of construction paper—we covered the paper with what we understood to be Indian representations of lighting (jagged lines), the sun (a circle with rays), and rivers (several wavy lines). We fastened them with glue and had small sticks protruding from the tops. We made rivers, and many canoes, and whole forests for our one-dimensionally drawn Indians to hunt in. Of course they had bows made from sticks and arrows from toothpicks. And every kid in the class had an Indian war bonnet—a headband sprouting feathers of paper carefully crayoned in many colors. In our class, we were all chiefs and had a full war bonnet of feathers. We read books about Indians and drew many pictures. And we made Indian pots of clay which we dried on the classroom windows in the sun, and then we painted them in real "Indian" fashion. We read stories about Indians and we were all properly astounded at their ability to track animals—and people—and we even learned to make Indian jewelry from tiny beads and thin wire—I still remember how to do it! We probably had a rosily painted picture of life among Indians because I remember when I read Mackinlay Kantor's "Spirit Lake" as an adult, I was still rather astonished to read that the Indians were often dirty and smelly and cruel to prisoners. I had remembered only that they were brave and fierce—and badly treated by the white man. I still love Indian stories and Indian art—and I still collect Indian beaded articles.

Yours, Lulubelle

FALL IN HICKSVILLE...MANY YEARS AGO

Fall in Hicksville particularly in the '30s and '40s was a very special time to grow up in Hicksville. The tree-lined streets, the railroad criss-crossing the town on the ground...with steam engines no less...but it was also a signal that summer was over, no more Jones Beach, no more Laurel Hollow...but the start of school again and of course Hicksville High football...well, the memories are still there and never forgotten and as I was thinking about the up-and-coming Homecoming Day, I couldn't help remembering an incident that happened in the fall of 1970...it was a crisp day and I was working at my shop when I decided I would like a cup of coffee...with Empire Diner's in sight of my shop, I walked over for a container...as I walked in I couldn't help but notice four rather nice grey-haired ladies sitting in a booth near the window...upon closer observation I realized that I knew these people...Miss (Ruby) Burt...Miss (Helen) Underhill...Miss (Mae) Byarley and Miss Mabel Farley...they all drove in from Pennsylvania for the annual Homecoming Day festivities...well if anyone reading this knows me, I'm not one of the less gregarious people from Hicksville...well, I approached the table hoping to have a little fun and I greeted each and everyone of the ladies as if I was still in Hicksville High...they in turned smiled politely, somehow knowing I was a former student but who? And I didn't lead on...at that time the waitress called me over to say my order was ready and as I was preparing to leave I bid a good day to the ladies and a safe trip home at which time Miss Farley said quite out loud "By the way Milton (she always called me by my full name) please send my regards to your brothers Eugene and Samuel"...I just about fell over and on the way back to my shop I was saying to myself...all who knew her would say "What an amazing lady"...my name is Milt (Milton) Levitt, Hicksville High class of 1949.

THE GASTRIC BUBBLE - A Device That Makes Dieters Feel Full

WHILE IT IS UNCLEAR EXACTLY HOW THE BUBBLE REDUCES HUNGER in its recipients, some researchers think the polyurethane sac—which inflates to the size of a small juice can—stimulates receptors that line the stomach, thereby causing a sensation of satiety.

1. Deflated Bubble is inserted into the stomach via a plastic tube.

2. The Bubble is inflated and the tube is removed.

3. The now free-floating Bubble helps to satisfy the feeling of hunger.

4. After four months, the Bubble is deflated and removed, using a tube with a viewing scope.

By promoting a sense of fullness and by limiting food intake, the gastric bubble can help improve eating habits. It allows the adoption of an effective dietary program that provides appropriate caloric restriction and adequate nutritional intake.
A proper weight reduction program with the Gastric-Bubble Gastric Bubble requires nutritional counseling and psychological support to deal with the issues that promote overeating and obesity.
It is recommended that the gastric bubble be placed in individuals whose problems with obesity pose a potential medical threat.
The National Institutes of Health have determined that obesity in excess of 30% of an individual's ideal body weight increases the risk of high blood pressure, heart disease, diabetes and stroke.
Substantial medical data indicates that weight loss can reduce the risk of these conditions.

Adelphi's Cabaret Workshops

The Department of Performing Arts at Adelphi University will present the second Cabaret Workshop of the season. "Kenneth, What is the Frequency?" or "Every Cloud Has a Silver Lining." This spoofing revue will take a cynical glance at the American culture of the later half of the 1980's with comical sketches, music and dance numbers. "Kenneth, What is the Frequency?" will be performed at the University Center of Adelphi's Garden City campus at 8:00 and 10:00 p.m. Friday and Saturday evenings October 31 and November 1. The performances are free and open to the public, but reservations are suggested.

Written and directed by Nick Petron, who is a faculty member in Adelphi's B.F.A. program in acting, "Kenneth, What is the Frequency?" will feature performances by the students in Adelphi's professional acting program. Petron, who has written in the past for "Saturday Night Live," recently returned from Hollywood where he was directing several projects for Steven Spielberg. In the Spring he will mount "Come Back to the 5 & Dime Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean" for Adelphi's Olmsted Theatre. He has produced the Cabaret Workshops at Adelphi for the past ten years, supervising all of the productions and writing or directing many of them.

"Kenneth, What is the Frequency?" will be the second Cabaret Workshop of the season at Adelphi. Cabaret Workshops have limited seating and are very popular with students and subscribers, but are open to the public and new spectators are encouraged to attend. For further information or to make reservations, please call the Olmsted Theatre at (516) 741-2324 or (516) 204-8700 Extension 7637.

Entertaining In The White House

Two veterans of Washington journalism — Liz Carpenter and Marie Schwartz — will give a lecture on "Entertaining in the White House, and Great Hostesses of Washington," Oct. 24 at the C.W. Post Campus of Long Island University.

The Friday lecture begins at 8 p.m. in the campus's B. Davis Schwartz Memorial Library. It is open to the public free of charge.

Mrs. Schwartz was a staff writer for the Washington Post from 1954 to 1970, and was the Post's White House correspondent during the Administrations of Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon.

She has written several books, including "Entertaining in the White House," "The President's Lady: An Intimate Biography of Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson," and "White House Brides." Mrs. Schwartz continues to lecture throughout the country on "What goes on in the White House" and "The Challenge of Women Today."

Liz Carpenter is a 32-year veteran of Washington journalism whose career has spanned seven presidents from Franklin Roosevelt to Jimmy Carter. She has covered Congress and the White House, both as a member of the working press and as a high-level government spokesperson.

Under the presidency of Lyndon B. Johnson, Mrs. Carpenter served as press secretary and staff director to Mrs. Johnson. Following the Johnson years, she wrote the best-seller, "Ruffles and Flourishes," about her experiences in the White House. She is a past president of the Women's National Press Club, co-founder of the National Political Women's Caucus and former assistant secretary of public affairs for the U.S. Department of Education.

Iain MacKintosh In Concert

On Friday, October 24, at 7:30 p.m., in Vannevar-Bush Hall, Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory, Cold Spring Harbor, New York, the Folk Music Society of Huntington will present Iain MacKintosh, in concert. This will be his third appearance before the FMSH.

A former Glasgow goldsmith, Iain MacKintosh decided in 1970 to make his nighttime hobby a fulltime career after attending a Pete Seeger concert and realizing the potential for communication offered by folk music. Says Iain, "Most folk songs have strong messages. If I find something that should be sung I'll sing it. If I can't find a song, I'll write my own."

Iain MacKintosh made his first solo European tour in 1973, and since then has regularly toured Europe and the United States. His rapport with audiences is instant, and is aided by a dry and often devastating Glasgow humor. His eclectic material comes from Scottish, Irish and German folk songs, jazz, old ballads, country music, and contemporary writers such as Harry Chapin. Numerous radio and television appearances are among his many credits along with eight record albums. He accompanies himself on long-necked banjo and English concertina.

General admission is $5.00; Senior Citizens, $2.00; Children under 12, $1.00; Adult Members, $2.00. Children of members will be admitted free. All are welcome to participate in the song swap which precedes the concert.

Yiddish "Mikado" in Queens

Can the popular operetta, "Mikado," based on Japanese culture, be performed professionally in, of all languages, Yiddish? The Gilbert and Sullivan Light Opera Company of Long Island says it can and will present its "Yiddish Mikado," sponsored by the Northeast Queens Jewish Community Council, on Saturday evening, November 15, 1986 at 8:00 p.m. The performance will be held at Louis Pasteur Junior High School 67 on Marathon Parkway. The witty lyrics, clever dialogue and joyous music of the original Gilbert and Sullivan classic are preserved in the Yiddish version. Although the songs in the operetta are all in Yiddish, the narration is in English for the benefit of those not versed in Yiddish.

Tickets will be sold through member organizations of the Northeast Queens Jewish Community Council at a cost of $30.00 per ticket. Sponsors will have a reserved seat in front of the auditorium for an $18.00 donation.

International Craft Fair

Handicrafts from all over the world will be offered for sale at the Haybarn at Planting Fields Arboretum, Oyster Bay on Friday and Saturday, November 7 and 8, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. With prices ranging from 2 dollars to over one hundred dollars, there will be an exciting variety of handmade goods from Central America, Africa, Asia, and the United States. Rush-seated doll chairs made in Appalachia, brightly enameled wall plaques from Ecuador, scarves embroidered in Thailand, and olive wood carved in Israel will be among the wide assortment of items that would make ideal gifts for the holidays.

The craft fair is sponsored by the newly-formed Long Island Chapter of Save the Children. All proceeds will be used in vital projects in the United States and overseas, "helping people to help themselves."

Planting Fields Arboretum is located off Exit 39 North of the L.I.E.

Mozartian Players

The Mozartian Players will open Friends of the Arts' series "Concerts at the Hay Barn" on Sunday, Nov. 16, at 3 p.m. in Planting Fields Arboretum, Oyster Bay, Long Island.

The acclaimed and popular Mozartian Players are specialists in "original instruments" of the period of Mozart and Beethoven. Playing the fortepiano and "classical" strings and clarinet, their playing was described by Raymond Ericson in The New York Times as, "perfectly balanced, with utmost clarity, both mellow and bright...the results were irresistible." On Nov. 16, the program will consist of Beethoven's Opus 11 "Clarinet Trio," Mozart's Trio in E-flat, K. 498 and Brahms' Trio in a minor, Opus 114.

The concerts to follow on the Hay Barn series are the Composers String Quartet (January 25, 1987), the Muir String Quartet (March 20, 1987), and the Beaux Arts Trio (May 3, 1987). Single tickets are $15 for each concert and the series for four concerts is $45. For further information, or to charge your tickets, call Friends of the Arts at 516-922-0061.

House Calls

By EDITH LANK

Quit-Claim Deed

Dear Edith: My wife's parents sold us a house with a quit-claim deed and we never understood just what it means. It all seemed too easy, considering we were actually buying a house. We would feel ungrateful questioning them in any way on this, but I have looked up quit-claim deeds in legal reference books at the library and all seem to advise against buying with them.

Do my in-laws get an advantage from selling us the house this way? If we got a divorce, or one of us died, would it make for a problem? Could her parents re-claim the house, or interfere? These questions have bothered us for quite some time.—Mr. A.A.

A quit-claim deed transfers to you whatever ownership your in-laws had. If they were clear owners of the property, you now are yourselves. They didn't retain any claim to ownership, now or in the future.

It's customary for transfers between family members to use a quit-claim deed. The process is simple and uncomplicated, and there's no reason to suspect anything out of the ordinary.

Buying from strangers, you'd want a different deed, containing all sorts of promises and guarantees about the seller's complete ownership of the property.

Brothers Selling Homestead

Dear Edith: I recently sold my condominium and plan to take advantage of the one-time tax exemption. I am over 55 and owned the place the required number of years.

My brother and I inherited a house several years ago, which he resides in.

When we sell that house, will he be allowed to take that over-55 exemption on his half of the profit? I know a spouse can lose the exemption even if they never used it; does this apply to relatives also?—Mr. D.E.

No, it doesn't.

Spouses sign joint tax returns, you and your brother don't. The fact that you used the one-time tax exemption won't affect your brother's right to it.

The IRS will treat the sale of that homestead as if it were two separate transactions. You'll owe tax on your share of the profit. On his half, your brother can use the senior citizen's special home-seller's tax exclusion.

At the Library

The Hicksville Public Library is happy to present Cecilia Gniwew-Brauer in a concert on Sunday, October 26, at 3 p.m.

Cecilia Gniwew-Brauer began her studies at the age of nine. At fourteen she won a scholarship to study with Isabelle Vengerova at the Curtis Institute of Music. Later teachers included Muriel Kerr and Edwin Hughes.

A young adult jewelry making workshop, "Minerals To Gems To Jewelry" will be held at the Hicksville Public Library. Registration starts November 1 for the two part workshop. It will be held Saturday, December 6, at 11:00 a.m. and Saturday, December 13 at 11:00 a.m. Make a piece of jewelry, a ring, pendant or earrings at this young adult program. The library in cooperation with the Hicksville Gregory Museum is conducting a two part workshop for interested young people, seventh grade and over. Instructions will be provided by the Lapidary Group of the Nassau Mineral Club. There is a materials fee of $1.00 to be paid at registration.

The Hicksville Public Library will present "Celebrations Brass" in concert on November 2 at 3 p.m.

The program will include music of Joplin, Verdi and Handel. This program is co-sponsored by the Hicksville Public Library and the Town of Oyster Bay Department of Community Services Cultural and Performing Arts Division.

Parola Announces Replanting

Assemblyman Fred Parola (R-C) today announced that an agreement has been reached with the state department of transportation to replant trees along Newbridge Road's median south of Old Country Road.

As a result of the county sewer project, many of the lovely trees on Newbridge Road were removed in August 1982. At that time, Assemblyman Parola, joining with civic leaders of Hicksville and Phyllis Garvin of Levittown, was able to cease the destruction and save six of the trees which remain to this day.

The impasse to the restoration of greenery has been the state regulation that trees may no longer be planted on medians due to the fact that as they mature, any vehicle striking them will receive maximum destruction since trees on impact do not "give".

Under the agreement, the state will spend $5,000 for large tree-like bushes consisting of California Privet, Weigela, Red Stem Dogwood and Viburnum. They will be planted at locations which will not interfere with visibility but will restore "greenery" to our endangered suburban environment.

The work will commence in the planting season next year and be completed by the Fall.

Assemblyman Parola expressed his appreciation to DOT Regional Director Michael Cuddy for both his willingness to listen and his concern for the safety of our residents. Parola expressed his thanks to Senator Marino, Assemblyman Frisa and Yevoli who worked with him to resolve this problem.

New Concept In Auto Aftermarket

Precision Tune of Hicksville has opened its doors to the public at 235 South Broadway. This high tech Auto Tune Up operation is one of over 325 franchised businesses nationwide. The proprietress, Bonnie Jacobson, advises that an auto repair and inspection center need not be a place for women of our community to feel intimidated. Bonnie's friendly and warming attitude toward her customers is reflected in the manner in which her receptionists and technicians greet the public.

Bonnie informs us that the Precision Tune concept was originally conceived in 1976 in Beaumont, Texas, by an independent entrepreneur who "felt there must be a better way." After several unsuccessful bouts with local service stations and dealerships, Bill Childs, Chairman of the Board of Precision Tune decided there was a definite need to offer the public an honest, accurate and reasonably priced tune up service. In the ensuing 10 years, through the use of high tech computerized scopes and in-ground dynamometers, Mr. Childs as well as his franchisees are now offering the public this much needed service.

Over a year ago, the Jacobsons decided that they wanted to establish their service in the Hicksville community. A combination of demographics and the comfortable "feel" of the people that live in our community gave them the patience to stick with the decision to stay in Hicksville until a location was found.

In a recent decision by Precision Tune Corporate, a determination was made to have our Precision Tune of Hicksville used as a showcase for a contingent of foreign visitors. On Oct. 10, fifteen Japanese men and women were escorted through the Hicksville facility to show how a successful American franchise could be run. Until recently Japan had little or no experience with franchising. Francorp., a Chicago-based management consulting firm specializing in franchise development, brought the Japanese to the U.S. to acquaint them with this unique American form of enterprise. It is a twist of fate that in this age of Japanese import of autos, an American high tech auto "After-Market" service may be exporting Yankee ingenuity to Japan. Fred Parola, the Assemblyman for our area was present to welcome the visitors to the U.S. in general and Hicksville, Long Island, in particular.

Thursday, October 23, at 7:30 p.m. The Hicksville Public Library is presenting a "Career Networking Seminar".

Nassau Sports Review

By JACK WHITE

Sometimes statistics are revealing and sometimes they are downright misleading. In attempting to rank Nassau's football teams, offensive and defensive stats are helpful, but keep in mind that the strength of a team's schedule may be most important. If you like to play the rating game, here is some data for your home computer:

TOP OFFENSIVE TEAMS

	Pts./Game
1. Bethpage	33.3
2. Long Beach	33.0
3. New Hyde Park	29.8
4. Garden City	29.3
Freeport	29.3
6. Holy Trinity	27.6
7. St. Paul's	26.8
8. Great Neck So.	24.0
9. Hempstead	23.3
10. Oyster Bay	20.5

TOP DEFENSIVE TEAMS

	Pts./Game
1. MacArthur	1.8
2. Garden City	3.5
L.V. Friends	3.5
Lynbrook	3.5
5. East Rockaway	5.0
6. Farmingdale	5.5
7. Hempstead	6.0
8. Bethpage	6.3
Cold Spring Harbor	6.3
10. Freeport	6.5
V.S. South	6.5

There are four conferences in Nassau public school football, three divisions in the Nassau Catholic league, plus the Island Conference. The view here is that Catholic AAA is the toughest over-all, while AA has three excellent teams in Iona Prep, Mt. St. Michael and Holy Trinity. The shift of Bethpage and Plainedge to Conference III arguably makes that group the toughest in Section 8 since they join Elmont, New Hyde Park, Lynbrook and Roosevelt. Hempstead, Farmingdale, Long Beach, Massapequa and surprising Freeport would claim that bigger (Conference I) is better. And while Conference II is not as good as usual, Garden City would be good in any league.

Factor in all the statistics, add the variables, sprinkle in some emotions and for better or worse, and mostly for fun, here are Nassau's Top Ten football teams as we see them: 1. Hempstead (4-0), 2. Garden City (4-0), 3. Long Beach (4-0), 4. Holy Trinity (4-1), 5. Lynbrook (4-0), 6. Farmingdale (3-1), 7. New Hyde Park (3-1), 8. Elmont (3-1), 9. Bethpage (3-1), 10. (Tie) Freeport (4-0), West Hempstead (4-0) and Cold Spring Harbor (4-0).

Bean Bag Bulls Take League Title

The Bean Bag Bulls, led by a predominantly Hicksville Roster, took the Class B league championship of the Town of Oyster Bay with a record of 15 wins and 3 losses.

Coaches Bob Normile, Chick Rieder and Joe Grams helped lead the team to a shocking first place finish.

The Bulls, a first year team, grew to national prominence by beating some of the best teams in out-of-state tournaments. Led by the hitting of Jim Normile with an average of .578, Bill Kaiser (.508), and Jim Wheeler (.501), and the pitching of Ralph Prossimo and Bill Grams, the team was a threat to all. The power was supplied by Bobby Normile, Pete Corrigan and Ralph Bonghi. Protecting the plate were Frank Marzillo and Tony Rieder. Valuable contributions were also provided by Jr. Valez, Ken Normile, Rory Wallace, Dennis Normile, Frank Williams and Joe Morace. As always, the cheering section was an inspiration to us all with their undying enthusiasm. This was all made possible by our sponsor, Joe Shehan.

With this combination of factors, the Bulls will be in contention for the national title in 1987.
