

Drug Awareness At Burns Ave. School

Drug Awareness Day (Oct. 23rd) at Burns Avenue School started off our Growing Healthy Program with a unified effort on the part of the children, the teachers and the PTA. Every child in the school, grades 1-6 and Special Education classes, participated in a bumper sticker contest. The idea for the bumper sticker contest was conceived by our principal, Dr. Burke, and sponsored and supported by our PTA.

Based on current societal trends and youth involvement in drugs, each child, through their thoughts, tried to influence others not to take drugs. The students were very enthusiastic and came up with remarkable slogans. One winner was picked from each class. The children were delighted to receive a gift certificate from Waldenbooks.

In conjunction, a bulletin board was put up in the lobby of the school, with pictures that the children from K-6 and Special Ed., brought in of themselves, showing things they love to do. The theme of this bulletin board is "Smiles Don't Just Happen-What Makes You Smile!" The purpose is to remind the children that smiles and happiness can be achieved while living a healthy drug free life.

Our Drug Awareness Day bumper sticker winners are:

1st Grade: Mrs. Finck: Carolyn Corrado; Mrs. Ostashever: Amanda Bartlewitz.

2nd Grade: Mrs. Oliveri: Manaj Kashy; Mrs. Blaauboer: Anthony Vernace.

3rd Grade: Mrs. Melillo: Ali Ghozati; Mrs. Hirschhorn: Atha Rizopoulos.

Police And Vamps Try To Save Suicide

Nassau County Police and Hicksville firefighters worked together to save a Westbury teen who jumped in front of a westbound train at the Hicksville railroad station. The incident occurred on Wednesday, Nov. 5 at 12:41 p.m. The efforts of the 40 firefighters and police officers were in vain. Shortly after the teen was treated and taken from the elevated tracks by tower ladder and rushed by police helicopter to the County Medical Center he was pronounced dead from multiple injuries. The teenager was an outpatient at the County Medical Center. A witness stated the youth hid under the platform and leaped in front of the train as it came through the station.

HICKSVILLE — a community that has always held the sacrifice and service of its sons and daughters in reverence and appreciation—dedicated Korean War and Vietnam War Memorials on Veterans Day.

More than three hundred persons participated in the services held in the Hicksville Junior High School and then moved out into a biting rain to view the respectful unveiling in the Community Service Personnel Memorial Garden.

Richard Evers, Charles Wagner Post #421 and Conrad Steers, Korean War Veterans, spearheaded the Community fund raising.

Kiwanis Fund Donation

The Board of Directors of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club decided to make a generous donation to the Hicksville Veterans Monument Fund Drive honoring the Korean and Vietnam veterans from Hicksville when they heard that the funds available to date might not be sufficient to completely pay for the monument.

Mr. Conrad Steers, President of the Nassau Chapter of the Vietnam Veterans of America and the Chairman of the Hicksville Veterans Monument Fund Drive, was advised of the decision (as well as the amount of the donation) and was asked to come to the October 29 meeting of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club for the official presentation of the check.

Should LILCO be allowed to use facilities in Nassau County as radioactive decontamination centers?
Should Nassau residents be exposed to health, safety and financial risks?

The Long Island Coalition for Safe-Living will address these concerns of public welfare at the Oyster Bay Town Board Meeting, Town Hall, Oyster Bay, on Tuesday, Nov. 18 at 10:00 a.m. All concerned citizens are urged to attend.

LILCO Headquarters in Hicksville is scheduled as a major center for the program.

Hicksville High football players Eric Niccolls and Ron Caputo, will play in the 52nd renewal of the traditional meeting with Farmingdale. The series renews at the Daler Field with the home team sporting a 26-24-1 edge. Hicksville is spurred by the fact Farmingdale has won the last 17 straight games.

Hicksville Remembered

a personal view

I moved to Hicksville in 1950 when the town was really beginning to grow. My parents had purchased an $8,900.00 Levitt Ranch and moved from my grandparents home in Elmont to raise their family.

The land the house was built on had once been a potato farm and for the first year or so, even though Mr. Levitt had supplied grass seed, trees and shrubs, potato plants continued to pop up all over.

I remember making my First Holy Communion as the Memorial Day Parade marched down Broadway; seeing Dwight D. Eisenhower in a motorcade on Old Country Road; shopping at a "real" farmers market off Miller Road; and the day the train came down Bay Avenue after hitting a tractor.

As the population increased schools were built and expanded. I attended six different schools while living in the same house: East Street, Lee Avenue, Nicholas Street, Fork Lane and the Junior and Senior Highs.

I remember air raid drills and seeking shelter in the basement at Lee Avenue School; fire drills and running down the fire escapes at Nicholas; split sessions when the old high school on Jerusalem Avenue became the Junior High; and pep rallies and proms in a beautifully decorated gym at the Senior High.

There was always something to do. The school district had a Hicksville Recreation Department that ran summer and winter sports programs and trips for the youth of the community at all the local schools. Counselor jobs were available for high school students and I found employment, like so many of my classmates, at a local elementary school supervising arts and crafts, games, and field trips. Too bad that program ended at the ballot box—it was so worthwhile.

I remember CYO, LSA, Little League (watching my brother), and Girl Scouts. From my teen years I remember football and basketball games and the famous "Sweet Shop" where everyone went after the games for ice cream and socializing.

I have beautiful memories growing up here in Hicksville, although many things have changed. I hope my children will have beautiful memories too!

Haz-Mat Teams Assist At Propane Leak

The Fire Department Hazardous Materials Teams from Hicksville and East Meadow along with the Nassau County Police Haz-Mat Team worked with the Levittown Fire Department to shut off the flow of propane leaking at a demolition site at 2920 Hempstead Turnpike, Levittown. The emergency, on Nov. 5 at 8:40 p.m. forced the evacuation of the public library and nearby homes.

As Levittown firefighters dispersed the gas fumes with hose streams, Haz-Mat team members worked to locate the tanks. The Nassau County Fire Marshal's Office Haz-Mat Unit, provided building plans which gave the exact location of the buried tanks. Once located, the valves were shut and the emergency was terminated. Officials were to investigate why demolition was permitted before the propane was removed from the site.

Drug Awareness Program

Hicksville Junior High School participated in a state wide, day-long drug awareness program. In a combined effort among the English, Health, and Physical Education Departments, all of the students were informed about the problems associated with illegal substances. Using varied approaches and different teaching techniques, the theme of the day was: "It's OK to say No to Drugs."

The Art Department created posters, and the Drama/Theatre group did a dramatization of a drug scenario. Mr. John Pellegrino, coordinator of the project, was very pleased to report a positive school-wide response.

The Cantiague Road Harbor Distributing Corporation employees enjoyed an evening cruise around the Statue of Liberty and New York skyline on Oct. 4. They left Port Washington Marina about 6:30 p.m. and returned at 11:00. It was a beautiful warm evening and they enjoyed a delicious dinner along with dancing. They were fascinated with the sight of the New York skyline lit up at night... the South Street Seaport... all the bridges they went under... and especially the Statue of Liberty. Among the employees were a few Hicksvillites—Dorothy Milacek and Irene Zebliksy.

BILL & CHARLOTTE KRUMM

The Baldassarri Are A Fun Family

Former Hicksville residents, The Baldassarri's are now residing in Bayville. They are a family that has a lot of fun together. The mother is Sarah and their father was the late doctor Archilles—known as "Dr. Kelly". There are six children in the family and a lot of in-laws. On Halloween five of the children went to a Halloween party at Franco's On The Sound dressed as "The Tribe" complete with hair pieces, earrings, spears, sarongs, and even a stuffed lamb being roasted over a pot. Their costumes were so terrific no one recognized them. They won first prize.

Recently, Gerard celebrated his 30th birthday with a big party. Gerard is married to Elaine and has a one year old daughter, Melissa.

... and then they all celebrated the 8th birthday of Kristi Ann Baldassarri, daughter of Gayle & John at a "Betty Boop" party with all the trimmings. Kristi's mom, Gayle (Philcox) is also a graduate of Hicksville High and is the daughter of Margaret Philcox of Hicksville.

40th Anniversary

Dorothy & Henry Brengel, Jr.

The Fortieth Anniversary of the marriage of Dorothy French and Henry C. Brengel, Jr. was celebrated Saturday night, at a dinner dance in the Indian Hills Country Club, Fort Salonga.

More than 170 invited friends and relatives joined in congratulating the popular Hicksville couple.

Among those sharing in the happy occasion was Mrs. Doris French, mother of Mrs. Brengel.

Guests were enchanted by the danceable music rendered by a mellow-toned orchestra. That tone was set by the first number danced to warm applause by the happy couple to the strains of Alexander's Ragtime Band.

Mr. and Mrs. Brengel, former owners of the Empire Moving and Storage Company, founded 80 years ago by Mr. Brengel's grandfather, were recently honored for their community, school, charity and philanthropic involvement by the Hicksville Alumni Association. Three hundred people attended the Homecoming Dance honoring the Brengels.

Both are graduates of Hicksville High School.

Adult Education Trip

Oct 10-13: Trip to Middlebury, Vt., and Montreal, Canada (through Hicksville High School Continuing Adult Education Program). Left Hicksville H.S. 6:00 p.m. arrived Middlebury, Vt. approximately 12:30 a.m. Received a very warm welcome from the staff of Middlebury inn and a delicious midnight meal of clam chowder, meats, cheeses, salads, fruit, coffee, and then a good night's sleep in a delightful New England inn, built in 1827, and thankfully, retaining its early colonial-type atmosphere.

Next day was a relaxing trip to Montreal, enjoying the Vermont foliage on the way and a delightful tour of the beautiful city of Montreal, including St. Joseph's Oratory. Return to Middlebury approximately 10:30 p.m. with a second warm welcome of tea, coffee, cookies and plenty of smiles.

Next day was services at the church of our choice, a walking tour of Middlebury—and after a delicious lunch, including "hot" apple cider, a tour of the various craft shops around the Middlebury and neighboring areas. Naturally, shopping was done at the craft shops. That evening a wonderful candlelight dinner was enjoyed by all of us followed by entertainment. A surprise awaited all of us at the end of the evening, including the two main participants—Bill and Charlotte Krumm. They had celebrated their wedding anniversary on Friday (the day we left Hicksville) and the Inn had arranged for coffee and cake late that evening.

On Saturday and Sunday we enjoyed beautiful sunny weather, but on Monday morning we awoke to rain for our return journey, but that did not dampen our spirits. Returning via a different route than going up, we passed the inn that is seen on the Bob "Newhart" TV show. We stopped in Woodstock, Vermont, for lunch and then straight on to home. Dorothy Milacek, Irene Zebliksy, Elaine Karman, Nettie Kapsol, Pat Flahavan, Bob and Emily Tschan and about 30 other Hicksvillites enjoyed a wonderful weekend.

A Letter from Lulubelle...

...the Girl Scouts are seventy-five years old...and they've come a long way...and it's just great for the girls who are smart enough to be Scouts and to stay in for the whole time through high school...but do you remember how it was to be a Scout long ago? I don't remember the very beginning when Juliette Lowe started the whole thing, but in the thirties it was very different from now...First of all, we called the leader "Captain" and it was quite military. We wore our uniforms - green of course, and we had those funny hats with a narrow brim and you could wear them inside out and they looked rather like a Fu Manchu hat - not that we ever did at meetings because we had inspection and our uniforms were carefully checked as well as our fingernails...We worked for badges even as today but we wore them on our sleeves, not on a badge sash...I still have mine...and there were ranks in each troop - we started as a Tenderfoot and worked up through Second Class and then First Class, and some even reached the impossibly difficult Golden Eagle...each rank had a special series of tests that must be passed in swimming, signaling (that was Morse code which we did with two flags - right hand for dots, left for dashes) nature studies, service - so many more requirements that I can't even remember them all...I do remember that I never progressed beyond second class because I didn't swim well...we also did things like learning trail signs, and identifying all kinds of trees from their leaves, and making beds with real hospital corners...I loved it so much that I became a leader when I grew up, and the best part of that was the wonderful people I met who were in Scouting - it always seems to attract a very special kind of person - both kids and adults...and even though we don't salute our "captains" any more, it's still great!

Yours, Lulubelle

Leggins. Every now and again, I like to tell you about something "by way of good measure," which, according to Webster's, is the sort of small gift a legginsse is. If you're in the mood for fried chicken and ribs, try Pudgie's 382 Broadway, Elmhurst. After I wrote about their chicken a few months back, I got letters from new folks who said things like, "Hey, what about Pudgie's?" They were right. The juicy chicken has the kind of crisp, thin breading I like, splendidly seasoned. The meaty spareribs have a mosty hot sauce, just a tinge sweet. There are other deep-fried foods, including seafood, and salads to go with the main events. BY JERRY COPE

Letters From Our Readers

To The Editor:

Congratulations for the printing of a great newspaper. Thanks for bringing attention to the powers that be about "Weedsville, U.S.A." (Editorial page 2 - Nov. 6 issue).

I would hope to take credit for informing Mr. Fred Parola about your article. Prior to Election Day he did his walk through. He asked me the usual and asked if there were any problems. I asked him to help his constituents correct the defective traffic light at Spindle Road and Jerusalem Avenue, clean and repair the sidewalks along Jerusalem Avenue and clean out the drywells along Jerusalem Avenue. Mr. Parola's words were: "Write to the County—I'm State."

On Nov. 6, I wrote a letter to the county executive's office. Why must a taxpayer have to "write" a letter? I think very highly of Mr. Parola. (My deceased mother worked for him when he first ran for office.) I just feel they have all lost touch with us when they tell us to contact someone else. In time most of us give up in frustration and apathy. I guess this letter will give me the title, "Troublemaker or Gadfly."

Gregory M. Vazquez, Hicksville

Dear Howard:

Who is Lulubelle—or is that a closely guarded secret? I have her (or his) articles—it brings back many memories of "the way it was."

I am now receiving your newspaper every week. Thanks a lot! One of the things I like about it is the fact that people's names are printed in darker ink. I can spot a friend's name that much easier.

After a beautiful summer and fall, winter is on the way. The surrounding mountains are snowcapped and even the mountain behind town has some snow on it. Bill and Jeffrey are already waxing their skis in anticipation.

Some news about Hicksvilleites... Claire Wawryck, the National Display Products Training Manager for SONY was here for a visit in early October. Other Wawryck news... Hank is the owner of Glenview Farms, Glen Head, and buys, sells and trains horses. Paula and her husband, William Norton, own Tri-Cor in Port Washington; they do custom framing and install mirrors and plate glass.

That's my news for today.

Marianne Kutner,

Mrs. Gloria Heffernan's third class made hats, posters, and gave a big birthday party for Miss Liberty.

Miss Liberty Birthday Party

Mrs. Grib's third grade class is off to a new and exciting year. Carlos Rodriguez, Kristen Burns, Craig Kemmlin, Jennifer Traxler, Jennifer Rose, Donna Lando, Laura Fitzsimmons and Ryo Nagashima all designed their own stamps and entered "The National Post Office Art Contest".

The children also did a learning unit on "The Statue of Liberty" and celebrated her 100th birthday on Tuesday, October 28. They made hats, birthday cards and posters. It was a great learning experience for all.

Mrs. Heffernan's third grade class has just completed an interdisciplinary unit revolving around the centennial celebration of "The Statue of Liberty". The class discussed immigration and had fun tracing the immigration routes of their great-grandparents. Social studies, geography, math, creative writing, spelling and art were all involved in the study of the statue.

After weeks of hard work and fun, the class culminated the unit with a big birthday party for Miss Liberty on October 28. The occasion was celebrated with homemade hats, balloons, refreshments and, of course, tributes to our famous Lady.

Thanksgiving—Thank God!

By CATHY BARRINGTON

I sit rocking—rocking—rocking. Don is at work, and the children have left for school. I should be busy planning for Thanksgiving, but I sit, rocking. I glance out the window at the bleak November day. Not a leaf on any tree; a heavy, dark sky, with clouds bunched up like dirty cotton balls. It's so cold I'm sure we're going to have a bad winter. And the black depression that engulfs me sinks deep into my bones.

People say I have it all. A wonderful husband (definitely), two darling children (I agree), nice looking (well, if you say so), and a beautiful home (that, too). But it's my first Thanksgiving without my mother. I used to cut through The Flats on my way to the highway, but I don't anymore. I used to feel sorry for the people there. Garbage in the streets, crumbling homes, squalling babies. Now I think, "They have mothers." I used to go to the shopping malls, but the sight of any woman with coal black hair swept back into a bun would make my heart pound and my throat go dry. So I sit home and rock. It gets chilly just sitting. I should turn up the thermostat.

When my mother came to stay with us we turned up the thermostat. She lay in the hospital bed we set up in the guest room and as the cancer ate away at her once strong body she grew colder and colder. One day I built a fire in the living room fireplace. I bundled her up in a bathrobe and slowly we inched down the stairs. I could never be a child again and lean on her. Her frailty frightened me. She rested on the sofa and smiled, spreading her hands toward the warmth, "How good it feels!"

I took out my bone china and the sterling silver and we had tea. The children came home from school and seeing her in the living room, danced around, "Nannie's better, Nannie's better!"

But I had to wait until Don came home from work to help her back up the stairs. I wrap my sweater around me and think back to that day when she was really warm. It was our last tea party together.

The children were so young. I told them Nannie had gone to Heaven to live with God. But when Douglas asked, plaintively, "Could we take a train and go visit Nannie, just for a little while?" my throat constricted and I could not answer. It was then I knew I would have to concentrate on today or I would not make it to tomorrow. So I buried my grief. But now Thanksgiving is approaching and I don't have a plan for survival. Thanksgiving. Thank God. For what? Didn't you know God, what she meant to me?

Suddenly I hear the back door open and I am startled. I look at the clock and the digital numbers mock me. 11:45. I have been sitting and rocking all morning and now Amy is home from school.

"Hi, Mommy. We made Thanksgiving pictures!"

She climbs up on my lap to show me her art work and I marvel over it. The uneven table, four stick figures, all out of proportion, and a brown lump that must be a turkey. What looks like an angel hovers over the table, but I don't want to hurt her feelings by asking what it is.

"Tell me about it."

"Here we are having turkey dinner." She points to the figure at the top of the picture. "And here's my Nannie all safe and warm in Heaven."

"I love you," I murmur, burying my face in her clean, sweet smelling hair, and holding her tightly.

"Then why are you crying?"

"Because I miss Nannie."

"I do, too." She wraps her little arms around me, and together we rock, not saying a word.

Finally, I speak, "Let's make a pumpkin pie and freeze it for Thanksgiving. While it's baking we can get out the good dishes..."

Smiling, Amy finishes my sentence, "and we can have a tea party together!"

I rock faster and faster, counting "one, two, three!" On the last number we jump out of the chair, and holding hands, head for the kitchen.

Thanksgiving. Thank God!

DMV Eases Car Renewals

A pilot "drop box" project at motor vehicle offices in Manhattan, Queens, Brooklyn, Bayshore, Hicksville, Westbury and Syracuse will help reduce lines and waiting times, according to Motor Vehicles Commissioner Patricia B. Adduci.

"Floor aides in these offices are now checking with people waiting in line to ensure that they have the necessary materials to do their transactions," Commissioner Adduci said. "Customers waiting to renew their vehicle registrations will be directed to a drop box in the office where they can leave the renewal paperwork and avoid waiting in line."

Registrants must have their renewal notices and pay by check or money order in order to use the drop boxes. Those renewing within two weeks of the expiration date of the registration will receive a 25-day registration extension sticker, which must be placed on the windshield next to the expiring sticker. A permanent sticker will be mailed to the registrant, replacing both the expired and temporary stickers.

Card and Paper Sale

Just in time for the holidays, St. Ignatius Loyola Parents Association is sponsoring a Christmas Card and Paper Sale. The dates for this event are Saturday and Sunday, November 22 and 23, and Saturday and Sunday, December 6 and 7. On the Saturday dates, these items will be on sale after the 5:00 p.m. mass, and before our Saturday evening Bingo game in the School Auditorium. On the Sunday dates, these items will be on sale after all the masses. This year, we will be selling Christmas cards, gift wrap, bows, tags, tissue paper and ribbon.

Collection Schedule

The Town of Oyster Bay sanitation collection schedule will be modified in observance of the Thursday, November 27, Thanksgiving holiday, according to Town Councilman John Venditto.

"Residents who normally have collection on Thursday will receive a special pickup on Friday, November 28," Venditto stated. "Friday collections will be made on Saturday, November 29."

Venditto noted that all Town offices will be closed on Thanksgiving, but that all park facilities, except ice skating rinks, will be open.

Ballet America Honors HRC Volunteers

The Human Resources Center Volunteer Auxiliary is sponsoring an "Information Day" for persons interested in becoming volunteers. This introduction to the center will be held on November 17 at the Albertson-based campus on the corner of I.U. Willets and Searingtown Roads. Tours of the center will be held at 10:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Visitors are invited to attend a 2:30 p.m. performance of the Ballet American Concert Dancers (an affiliate of the American Ballet Center/Joffrey Ballet School), and a reception for current and prospective volunteers at 4:00 p.m. to honor the 25-year HRC Volunteer Program.

Halloween At Woodland Ave.

With the sound of horror music piped through the school's P.A. system, Halloween festivities at Woodland School began. Students marched through the halls to screeches and screams which set an appropriate atmosphere for their original, colorful and sometimes frightening costumes. The parade continued around the school grounds where parents viewed the witches, clowns, ghosts, goblins and scores of other terrific costumes.

Following the parade, children returned to their classrooms where they continued the fun with Halloween goodies and games.

THE GASTRIC BUBBLE - A Device That Makes Dieters Feel Full

WHILE IT IS UNCLEAR EXACTLY HOW THE BUBBLE REDUCES HUNGER IN ITS RECIPIENTS, some researchers think the polyurethane sac—which inflates to the size of a small juice can—stimulates receptors that line the stomach, thereby causing a sensation of satiety.

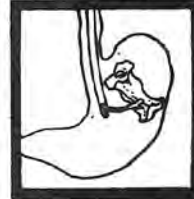

1. Deflated Bubble is inserted into the stomach via a plastic tube.

2. The Bubble is inflated and the tube is removed.

3. The now free-floating Bubble helps to satisfy the feeling of hunger.

4. After four months, the Bubble is deflated and removed, using a tube with a viewing scope.

By promoting a sense of fullness and by limiting food intake, the gastric bubble can help improve eating habits. It allows the adoption of an effective dietary program that provides appropriate caloric restriction and adequate nutritional intake.
A proper weight reduction program with the Garret-Edwards Gastric Bubble requires nutritional counseling and psychological support to deal with the issues that promote overeating and obesity.
It is recommended that the gastric bubble be placed in individuals whose problems with obesity pose a potential medical threat. The National Institutes of Health have determined that obesity in excess of 20% of an individual's ideal body weight increases the risk of high blood pressure, heart disease, diabetes and stroke.
Substantial medical data indicates that weight loss can reduce the risk of these conditions.

contract is demonstrated in the play of today's hand. South is in three notrump and West leads a club. East takes the king and returns a club to the ace. West now continues with a club which South wins, East discarding a spade. How should declarer proceed?

It is true that many players would enter dummy at this point with a heart or a spade in order to lead the queen of diamonds and finesse. If they did this, they would go down in the actual hand, because West would take the king and cash his clubs to defeat the contract one trick.

However, this line of play is wrong. It is all right to go to dummy and lead the queen of diamonds, but it is wrong to finesse. Instead, declarer should go up with the ace.

As it happens, the ace catches the king and South winds up making five notrump, but the fact that this occurs does not prove the play is right. There is a far better reason than hindsight for making the play.

If East has the king, declarer still makes four notrump by continuing with diamonds, and all it costs him to refuse the finesse is a 30-point trick.

But if West has the king, the finesse always loses the contract, while the ace play wins it whenever West's king is a singleton. This latter possibility is something that declarer is duty-bound to protect against.

Declarer's first aim is to make the contract. In attempting to meet this goal, he brushes aside hands the opponents may have that would render the contract unmakeable and concentrates instead on hands that permit the contract to be made.

Furthermore, in planning the play, he pays little attention to the accumulation of overtricks, since the value of a game or slam, or even a part score, far exceeds the value of an overtrick.

This principle of ignoring overtricks and concentrating on the

Making Extra Payments

Dear Edith: My mortgage payment is $208.85. If I add another $25 or $50 just how big of a help will it be on our interest rate? If it isn't, would you please tell me the best way to bring our interest rate down? We own seven more years on our mortgage.—R. E. W.

Extra payments won't have any effect on your monthly payment or interest rate. What they do is reduce the remaining debt and shorten the length of time remaining for you to pay.

If you want to make extra payments, check first to make sure you can do so without any penalty. As for reducing your interest rate, there isn't any way. You promised many years ago to pay at a given rate, and that's that.

Another Resort Lot

Dear Edith: In the early 1970's we purchased a lot in a resort community in Pennsylvania. After several years we realized we would never use it and tried to sell it, lowering the price to $1,000 last year without success. We presently owe about $500 in property owners' fees and recreation fees. We want to give the property back to the developer for back fees. How can we legally do this?—Mrs. P. L.

I don't usually print letters when the only advice I have to offer is "see a lawyer," but I'm including yours to emphasize, once again, that it can be foolish to buy a resort lot "as an investment" unless you know what you intend to do with the land in the near future.

It's likely that you owe the money not to the developer, but to a property owners' association. In that case, the swap you propose wouldn't work.

See a lawyer in Pennsylvania.

Florida License Requirements

Dear Edith: I will soon move to Florida and am looking forward to getting into real estate. Do you know what the schooling requirements are there? Do they differ in different states?—Ms. P. A.

Each state sets its own licensing regulations. Florida requires 63 classroom hours of study before licensing.

Hud Doesn't Answer

Dear Edith: About six months ago, we paid off an old FHA mortgage and were told we had approximately $1,000 coming to us from FHA, return of unused insurance premiums.

After waiting about three months, we called the manager of our mortgage company. She called HUD in Washington and was told they never received the proper forms. She then sent them a second copy and after waiting another month was told they still didn't receive the forms.

She then forwarded a third copy of the forms, checking to make sure she was using the correct address.

Well, we still haven't received our money, so we called Washington ourselves. After being called "Sport" and "Buddy" we were told they weren't sure they had the forms, that they'd call us back, which of course they didn't. We are at our wit's end and don't know what to do. Our mortgage company has done about as much as they can. Can you give us any suggestions?—C. and M. N.

Get in touch with your congressman or congressperson, I guess I mean. When you've come to a dead end in dealings with a federal agency, your representative's office can cut through red tape. They're usually interested and helpful, and their phone calls get returned.

Dear Edith: My husband is going to retire next April and we will sell our house. Could you give us advice on how to approach a lending agency to get a loan commitment? Of course, we would expect to pay an appraisal fee and fees for paper work — Mrs. P.O.

Lenders won't commit to a mortgage until they've OK'd the people they're going to lend money to. Usually it's the buyers who apply and who pay those application costs.

Dear Edith: My father is 82 and in good health. I have the means to buy his condo. Are there any legal restrictions to selling, then his renting back, within the family? — Ms. G.R.

You and your father may do whatever you wish.

The IRS likes to see the sale and subsequent rental at fair market value — the same purchase price your father would receive from a stranger, and the same rent you'd charge any other tenant.

No law says you have to do it that way, however. If you want some other arrangement, a lawyer and/or an accountant can explain the income tax consequences to you.

Tax reform hasn't changed the special tax breaks if you sell your own home at any age, and over 55. For a copy of House Call's letter on the subject, send $1 and a stamped return envelope to TAX TIPS, 240 Hemmingway Drive, Rochester, NY 14620. Edith will also answer any letter with a return envelope.

Impressive Athletes

As a result of a long-standing cooperative venture, three graduate student interns from Adelphi University are in residence at St. Paul's School this year to assist with St. Paul's large and varied physical education program. The internship is coordinated by Dr. Gary Barrett of Adelphi, who will be a visiting lecturer at St. Paul's in Physical Education and Health, and Mr. Barry Schmerler, the Director of Athletics at St. Paul's School.

Mr. Jeffrey Larue, a native of New York, attended Ithaca College and graduated from the University of Maryland with a major in Sports Administration. Mr. Larue was Captain of the University of Maryland's Soccer Team and, after college, was a member of the Virginia Spartans Soccer Team, winning the National Men's Soccer Championship. He also taught soccer at a number of camps and clinics throughout the United States. At St. Paul's, Mr. Larue will be coaching soccer and lacrosse. Mr. Larue was an All American in lacrosse during his high school career.

Other interests include boating, water skiing, snow mobiling, and music. He is an accomplished guitarist.

Mr. Stephen Solomon graduated with honors from C.W. Post College where he majored in Health with a minor in Business. He was a member of the Varsity Boxing Team and was a quarter finalist in the Heavyweight Division of the New York Golden Gloves Boxing Tournament. At St. Paul's Mr. Solomon will be assisting with football and basketball. In addition, he is also Program Director and Boxing Coordinator of the Police Boys' Club in Hempstead.

Mr. Christopher Polhemus graduated Cum Laude from Adelphi University with a major in Physical Education. He will be coaching wrestling and lacrosse at St. Paul's.

In his graduate studies, Mr. Polhemus is concentrating on Special Physical Education and working with handicapped children, an area he believes to be particularly "challenging and rewarding". He is also assisting in such a program at the Little Village School.

L.I. Volleyball Classic

When the Penn State men's volleyball team battles the top-ranked University of Southern California Trojans at the First Annual Long Island Volleyball Classic at Nassau Community College on November 16, the Nittany Lion's success depends greatly upon a sophomore sensation. He is the sport's tallest player 6'10", 245 lb. All-American Middle Blocker, Chris Chase. Though only 19 years old, he is quickly emerging as the sport's new superstar.

An amazing vertical jump of 31" and extremely long arms gives Chase an unbelievable spike reach (the point in the air where his fist makes contact with the ball) of 11'10", highest in the country. It is higher than that of any member of the USA National Volleyball Team.

After an early season injury, Chase rebounded with a truly outstanding Freshman year, carrying Penn State to the Final Four and earning him an invitation to try out and train with the USA Men's National Team this summer. The fact that he has only been playing volleyball for four years makes his achievement to this point even more astonishing.

Chris Chase will match his 100 mile per hour spikes against the formidable blocking of USC on November 16 at 1:00 p.m. at Nassau Community College in Garden City (Exit 4 off Meadowbrook Parkway).

Tickets for the Long Island Volleyball Classic are $8.50 and can be purchased at the door. For information call (914) 592-1162.

Bud Daredevils at St. John's University

The Bud Light Daredevils, one of the most unique slam dunk acts in the country, will perform during halftime at St. John's basketball game against a team from Australia on Saturday, Nov. 22 at Alumni Hall.

Tip-off time is 8 p.m.

The Bud Light Daredevils team includes two brothers, Ty, 26, and Guy Cobb, 23, Brandon Kisner, 21, and a fourth member, Tim Lancaster, 23. The act includes an eight-minute slam dunk and acrobatic halftime show highlighted by the "Congo Dunk" and the "Shake Down the Rafters 'til the Morning After" routines.

During the latter act, Ty springs from a mini-trampoline with a basketball in his hands. Several feet over the rim, he performs a 360-degree flip and slams the ball through the basket. The "Congo Dunk" features three of the team members performing staggered flips in front of the rim, with the fourth member actually dunking the ball.

All four members of the Bud Light Daredevils began their gymnastics training at an early age, rapidly progressing up through the ranks as high school and college cheerleaders.

In five years, the group has performed in more than 193 cities in front of one million fans nationwide. This includes appearances at 112 different schools and for every National Basketball Association team, except for Seattle. The Bud Light Daredevils have gone international with over 25 appearances in Europe and Japan, where they performed during professional basketball games.

Nassau Sports Review

By JACK WHITE

Early this fall we raved about the exceptional strength of this year's Nassau cross country talent. Our raves were vindicated in Buffalo last weekend when T.J. McArdle of Garden City won the N.Y. State Class A title and Dan Middleman of Clarke won the "B" crown. McArdle's time of 15:45.3 broke the old course record of 16:00. Middleman's time was 15:56. . . . Carle Place won the Nassau Class C Field Hockey championship for the sixth straight year by topping Cold Spring Harbor, 4-0. . . . Garden City's Suzanne Murphy scored with 1:08 left to beat Great Neck North, 2-1 for the Trojans' 5th straight Nassau "A" title. . . . North Shore beat Clarke, 1-0, on Joni Painter's 14th goal of the season in the "B" final. . . . South Side won both the boys and girls Nassau "B" soccer championships. The Cyclone boys edged Plainview Kennedy in the finals while the girls team has advanced to the state semifinals with wins over Suffolk champ Harborfields and Nanuet. . . . The Syosset team upset top-seeded Garden City, 2-1, in the "A" boys final. Brian Sheehan scored the winner with 45 seconds remaining. Syosset then beat Bay Shore on penalty kicks in the L.I. final. Coach Joel Goldberg's team had never made the final four prior to this season but the Syosset program is coming on strong. This year the Braves fielded two J.V.

teams and they were both good. . . . Pam Titus of Holy Trinity won the Nassau-Suffolk All-Around gymnastics title for the second straight year. . . . Long Beach won the Nassau girls' swimming title beating challenges by Farmingdale and Wantagh. Hicksville's Lorna Mund won the 200 freestyle and 100 backstroke. Lara Von Seelen of Garden City took the one-meter diving championship for the second year in a row. Kim Hecker of Plainview set a new county record in the 100 butterfly (59.6). . . . Massapequa won the boys' County Gymnastics Championship. Jon Greenhalgh of Massapequa won the All-Around title with a final score of 49.2. . . . Rain delayed the playing of some key football games last week but the playoff picture is beginning to clear as the regular season enters its final weekend. In Conference I Hempstead, Long Beach and Farmingdale look safe with the fourth spot up for grabs. West Hempstead, Garden City, Sewanhaka and MacArthur should be the qualifiers in Conference II. Lynbrook will win the Conference III race and it looks as if the Owls will be joined by Bethpage, New Hyde Park and Elmont. Seven Conference IV teams still were in contention for the four berths at this writing. . . . All playoff games will be played at neutral sites this year.

Junior High Mini-Marathon

1986 MINI-MARATHON TEE-SHIRT WINNERS

Under the direction of John Pellegrino, Physical Education Department Chairmen at the Junior High, a Mini-Marathon was held this September and October. After a full month of conditioning and preparation, the entire school student population, and Mr. Hank Cooney, teacher-coach ran the race.

Pushed to a maximum effort, almost 1000 participants took the test for a passing physical education grade. A continuous jog for the time limit (12 minutes for boys, 13:30 for girls) for 4 laps, entitled the student to a passing grade. When a runner does 7 laps in the allotted time, they receive a shirt in addition to a perfect grade in class for this conditioning unit.

Mr. Pellegrino stated, that the boys and girls are taught the value of aerobic exercise, how to monitor resting, exercise, recovery heart rates and how to begin a valuable lifelong activity.

Not everyone could be a shirt winner, yet everyone who participated this year profited from the Fitness and Conditioning Program.

Hicksville Junior High School is one of only a few Junior High Schools in the country to have such a fitness program. Started three years ago under the auspices of Mr. Pellegrino it has flourished since.
