What's This Blotch?

Many traditions valued and revered in this town suffered when the then sitting Board of Education jaunted to Colorado and returned to install an arrogant, raucous and destructive administration a decade ago.

It was to become known as the Rocky Mountain syndrome.

The Colorado philosophy decimated the Hicksville musical program—which was consistently a top awards winner in New York State and an elementary foreign language program that was so highly regarded it was the subject of a CBS news special.

Among the more absurd, and arrogant, actions were to redesign the School District Seal into the block mass pictured above.

It was done by an assistant superintendent long-gone from this district and long-gone from the district he went to as superintendent.

The present administration has no connection with the blotch!

The traditional school district adopted—more than seventy years ago—the official name of "Union Free School District #17, Hicksville, Town of Oyster Bay, New York."

In the center circle was three floating wings (or gulls) indicating the township.

For whatever quirk of thinking the assistant superintendent ordered the change to the present universalist planetary stars and orbits with the stark black background.

For the past six years it has been used in place of the original.

Questions arise: Did the sitting Board authorize the change? Does the present Board condone the change?

And, if this was another authorized secretive attack engineered in the 3 a.m. early hours on Hicksville traditions by the Colorado philosophy—what is planned to erase the gift of the Class of 1967?

That was a mosaic copy of the true Hicksville District Seal which is embedded in the marble floor of the Hicksville Senior High gymnasium lobby.

Is the district to rip it from the lobby with power-driven fire trip hammers?

Perhaps at 3:00 a.m. in the morning—Colorado style.

—H.J.F.

HICKSVILLE RESIDENTS hold up a banner for Concerned Citizens For Hicksville in the lobby of Town Hall. Karin Franchino and Clifford Russo, head of the newly formed group, along with Jeffrey H. Newman, (behind Mr. Russo) of the L.I. Coalition for Safe Living have brought up the proposed LILCO plan to use the Hicksville High School and their own facilities in town, to care for evacuees from a possible nuclear accident at Shoreham.

Dr. Fenton Clarifies

Denies LILCO Authorized For Evacuation Plan

Hicksville School Superintendent, Dr. Catherine Fenton, has responded to a request from this newspaper to clarify the district's position on use of the Hicksville Senior High School in an emergency.

Dr. Fenton states that "In 1985 the American Red Cross inquired of Hicksville and other Nassau School Districts if it would provide facilities in case of a NATURAL disaster. The school board advised the Red Cross that the Hicksville School Board would house people during a natural disaster.

Dr. Fenton indicated that this is a separate issue from the Long Island Lighting Company's representation to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission that Hicksville would be available to accommodate up to 2,400 persons in the event an evacuation of the Shoreham Nuclear Power Plant area were necessary.

Dr. Fenton has written the Atomic Energy Commission and unequivocally stated that the Hicksville School Board has not authorized the schools to be used in such emergency.

Since determining who had experienced radiation and who not—whether processed by LILCO or not—acceptance would "forever preclude the use of the buildings since the radiation question might in fact or suspect render them impossible to use," Dr. Fenton concluded.

Hicksville Lights Up Again

Holiday Lights, returning to Broadway after almost two decades, have already been installed and are operating. This is the first positive action by the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce in its announced campaign to rejuvenate the total Hicksville Community.

President Marcos Ramirez has pledged to cooperate, support and press public officials for the Beautification and a permanent clean-up schedule for Hicksville.

Spurred by Illustrated News series on deplorable conditions in Hicksville entitled "Weedsville U.S.A.," both Oyster Bay Town Supervisor, Joseph Colby, and State Assemblyman, Fred Parola, have already indicated plans to aid in Hicksville Beautification.

High on the Chamber's list is the elimination of week-end garbage set on Hicksville streets on Saturdays. Complaints on the unsightly debris spewing over in the downtown Hicksville business section on Sundays, awaiting Monday collection, have been registered for more than two years.

Remirez has announced a combined merger with Dr. Catherine Fenton, Hicksville Superintendent of Schools, for a Spring, Business, Educational, Cultural Hicksville Pride Festival.

The exact theme and title name will be determined by organizational committees.

Alumni Donates Billy Joel Tickets

Tickets for the Billy Joel Concert at the Nassau Coliseum have been donated to the Hicksville High School for a fundraising project.

President Conrad Weyer and the Alumni Board of Directors voted the direct presentation to school activities leaders. Staff members who are members of the Alumni on the Hicksville Illustrated News secured the coveted tickets for the sold-out performances.

Hicksville Lions Diabetes Awareness

Lions Clubs International has dedicated itself to the needs of the blind and sight-impaired for over 75 years. Since Helen Keller herself addressed the International Convention and dubbed them the "Knights of the Blind", Lions in over 150 countries have given their time and efforts to make these people feel at home as productive happy members of the community.

Since diabetes is the number one cause of blindness today, it was natural that the Lions Clubs would get involved in helping the public to be aware of this dangerous condition. Your Hicksville Lions have been in the forefront of this crusade. By sponsoring Free Health Screenings and Awareness Programs The Hicksville Lions have helped people to understand the early warnings of diabetes as well as glaucoma and high blood pressure. Many undiagnosed conditions have been discovered at these Screenings for which we are quite proud.

As in most diseases, early detection is the key. For a controlled diabetic can lead a happy, productive life without the old fear of losing limbs or their vision. The Hicksville Lions Club will be holding their next Free Diabetic Screening at their Annual Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, November 30 at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church on Jerusalem Ave. and Old Country Rd. from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. The full Health Screening includes a diabetes screening, high blood pressure, glaucoma and a chiropractic screening. Again the Screenings are free of charge.

The diabetes test is a blood sugar test and involves a very painless finger-prick to get a drop of blood that's all it takes. If you are interested in participating in this screening, it is important to follow the following dietary guidelines or the test will be invalid.

Instructions

For your two-hour Postprandial Blood Sugar Test

It is important to include all the following foods in the amounts listed in the sample meal plan. DO NOT drink (other than water), eat, smoke, chew gum, candy, cough drops, etc., following the meal until the blood sample is taken.

1. At two hours before the test eat the following:

Breakfast

- 1 Cup Orange Juice
- 1 Cup Cornflakes or Oatmeal
- 1 Cup Milk
- 1 Tablespoon Sugar
- 2 Slices Toast
- 1 Tablespoon Jelly
- 1 Egg (if desired)
- Coffee or Tea (without caffeine)

or Lunch (Dinner)

- 1 Cup Orange Juice
- 1 Bowl Vegetable Soup
- 4 Saltine Crackers
- 1 Slice Lunch Meat or Cheese
- 1 Slice Bread with Butter, Margarine or Mayonnaise
- 1/2 Cup Vegetable or Salad
- Coffee or Tea (without caffeine)
- 1 Slice or Scoop Ice Cream

2. Finish meal 2 hours before test.

Fast-acting Hicksville resident, Joan Merrulli, has been honored for meritorious performance in emergencies.

A Long Island Lighting Company dispatcher and a voluntary member of the Civilian Radio Motor Patrol (CRMP), was cited by Nassau County in a ceremony on November 12. Two of the six awards went to LILCO teams of field workers and their dispatchers.

The CRMP program is a neighborhood watch effort coordinated with Nassau and Suffolk County Police. Drivers of participating vehicles report crimes and accidents via their radios, and their dispatchers, in turn, call 911 to notify the police.

Ms. Meinck was the dispatcher when a LILCO gas service man radioed for help after spotting a car accident while travelling south on Middle Neck Road in Flower Hill last April. The car had rammed into a utility pole and the woman driver was bleeding and her two children were badly shaken.

The quick-thinking Meinck immediately phoned Nassau County Police with the accident details. Meanwhile, the gas service man, Thomas Simpson, aided the woman and monitored the children's vital signs until help arrived.

This incident is just one of many over the past 12 months that found LILCO people on the road when somebody required assistance in a hurry.

EAB PLAZA TREE LIGHTING

A Letter from Lulubelle...

I think one of the saddest things that ever happened to neighborliness is the decline of the front porch...Do you remember those long lovely summer evenings sitting on the front porch and rocking—there were always rockers!—and the neighbors strolled along stopping at a house here and there or calling from one porch to another...it was so friendly...Almost every house had a porch—some open and some screened...and they all were furnished with those rockers and several pieces of wicker—(isn't it funny how the decorators are paying huge sums for that old wicker that we didn't appreciate at all!)—and there was often a glider...and all of the cushions were recovered each spring with a flowered cretonne...now whatever happened to cretonne? I haven't heard that word in years...Do you remember how those screen doors banged—there's something about the banging of a screen door which is the very essence of lovely summer evenings...and the grownups yelled at the kids about letting in the mosquitoes—there were lots more mosquitoes in those days...and porches had a very special purpose for young girls who wanted to watch the boys go by without looking too obvious—after all, sitting on the porch wasn't chasing boys, was it?...and the boys would ride their bikes up and down the sidewalk and stop, sitting on the seat with one leg holding them upright, and talk to the girls—and that wasn't chasing girls, was it?...Now that the neighborhood has gone in for privacy and everyone has a back yard terrace or patio, it's very lonesome—I really miss the front porch and it's tough on young people.

Yours, Lulubelle

The first workshop is Saturday, December 6, 1986, 11:00 a.m., the second Saturday, December 13, 1986, 11:00 a.m. Make a piece of jewelry, a ring, pendant or earrings at this program. The library in cooperation with the Hicksville Gregory Museum is conducting this two part workshop for interested young people, seventh grade and over. Instructions will be provided by the Lapidary Group of the Nassau Mineral Club. There is a materials fee of $1.00 to be paid at registration. If there is room, adults are welcome to register.

HICKSVILLE'S NATIONAL HISTORIC LANDMARK building, the Old Hicksville Courthouse at Heitz Place, has a nice new color scheme. The well-known home of the Gregory Museum has been the object of a Town of Oyster Bay Community Development project since the summer. Here, painting crews brighten up the well-preserved 1895 building. (Photo by Edward Bady, Gregory Museum)

Walk the path of purity with Aveda.

It is Aveda's concept and philosophy that Health and Beauty are reflected in how we nourish our bodies with pure foods and pure products... avoiding artificial ingredients, artificial color, scent and flavorings. Purity becomes the key point. Whatever goes in and onto the body is evident in our outward appearance.

An Open Letter To Hicksville

Dear Hicksville Community,

On behalf of the committee I would like to thank you for making the Korean War Monument and the Vietnam War Monument a reality by the generous donations by the Hicksville citizens. The servicemen and women of both wars will be remembered for years to come.

On November 11, I was really proud of the Hicksville residents who turned out in a pouring rain to honor our veterans of all wars, and to the rest of the community. I am very proud of the way they responded by contributing over $11,000 for the lasting tribute to our men and women who served in our armed forces.

I would like to say that Hicksville is the finest community to live in because the residents are very sincere and giving - to remember our veterans who gave of themselves for our freedom and ideals. I will always be proud of Hicksville and commend everyone for opening their hearts for Hicksville veterans.

Again I thank you for knowing that I live in a fine community and will always be proud of everyone who lives in Hicksville.

Chairman, Monument Fund

Joint Pool Hearing
Opens Old Scar

Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Joseph Colby announced that the Towns of Oyster Bay and Hempstead will conduct joint public hearings on December 9 to consider two proposals. One will increase the established maximum amount which can be spent on improvements to the joint Community Hall and Swimming Pool District in Hicksville, and the second will take under consideration improvements to the water supply and water distribution facilities within the joint Water Districts.

Colby said, "Within the joint pool district there are nine swimming pools, two of which are located in the Hicksville area."

The hearing on water improvements is at the request of the Board of Commissioners.

The Water District is requesting permission to install a 600-foot well on property located at Plainview Road and Old Country Road, (Triangle Park) in Hicksville.

"The Town recently signed an agreement to lease a portion of Triangle Park to the Water District," Colby said. "The funds from the agreement will be used to improve the park with benches, play equipment and land scaping."

The hearings will be held at Levittown Hall, Levittown Parkway, Hicksville, beginning at 9 a.m.

The Levittown Pool in Hicksville, supported by a Joint Tax District with the town of Hempstead, is for use by those who live in Levittown houses only.

It is the one scar still visible which was inflamed when the Oyster Bay town Board both 10 years ago refused a pool for other Hicksville residents.

Community (not County) pools were subsequently built in Syosset, Plainview, Bethpage and Massapequa along with lighted ball fields and parks none were ever built in Hicksville.

NOTICE

Effective November 8, 1986 the Board of Commissioners, Hicksville Water District, made public their decision regarding the processing of applications for water service within the district.

Single dwelling homes that have been issued valid building permits by the Towns of Oyster Bay and Hempstead, will have their requests for service approved upon the submission of a proper application for such service. Builders of developments (three units, houses or commercial buildings) where a certificate of availability for water service is required will not have their applications for service approved at this time.

Letters From Our Readers

To The Editor:

The senior and junior high PTSA units would like to thank you for assisting us with our orange and grapefruit sale. By putting our notice, plus our order form in your paper, you enabled us to reach many people who would not have otherwise been aware of our sale. The order form made it easy for them to just fill out their order and send it off to us. This is our main fund raiser and we are truly grateful for your help and efforts on our behalf.

Again, many thanks.

Terry Mochringer,
Corresponding Secretary

To The Editor:

Unveiling the Hicksville Vietnam War Memorial was the proudest moment of my life. To walk in the shadow of George Lang, Medal of Honor recipient, and the other Vietnam warriors during the unveiling was a personal honor.

During the unveiling I thought of the Hicksville men and women who served in Vietnam: our Army Special Forces and Navy UDT, of our always faithful Marines and Coast Guard, our brave aviators and nurses of all services, our infantry grunts, our tunnel rats, our patrol dog handlers.

I reflected on the suffering of our Disabled Veterans, our Gold Star Mothers and our POW/MIA remaining in Southeast Asia. In solemn dignity, I honored those Hicksville residents who made the supreme sacrifice for our nation.

The Hicksville community has always supported our armed forces. We must see that military leaders use prudent tactics. We should never shed our blood to take a hilltop that will be evacuated the next day. May the Korean and Vietnam Memorials stand in everlasting peace in our community and nation.

On behalf of the commander and members of Charles Wagner American Legion Post 421, I wish to thank Connie Steers, Dick Evers and Sheila Noeth for their hard work in making a dream a reality for our Korean and Vietnam Veterans.

God Bless America and our POW/MIA.

To The Editor:

On behalf of the Hicksville Lions Club, I would like to thank you for your interest in our service to the community we live in. We wish you continued good luck with your publication.

Dr. Paul Webber

Dear Editor:

At the end of this school year a dynasty comes to an end. The 9th grade class will graduate and it will be the last one for the Junior High. For many years Mr. William Owens has been the 9th grade advisor, father confessor, mom, nurse and mainly—someone to talk to. I got to know Bill through my children. They all were taken under Bill's wing, as so many are. I felt very secure knowing someone cared. Bill doesn't care if you are at the head of the class or the bottom—he listens to everyone, during school hours or after school. If he looks into your eyes and he senses a problem, he will help you work it out. If you need a friend, banker, or bus driver—he is there. At the end of last year's 9th grade dance I sensed a great pride, love and devotion toward this gentleman by the entire 9th grade class. By the end of the evening there were not too many dry eyes. The year ended and a good friend was going to be left behind.

I'd like to say thanks Mr. "O" for being there, thanks for helping our students grow up, thanks for teaching them respect for themselves and others, and most of all—thanks for teaching them that whatever you want is possible with effort and work.

Many may forget how it was to have a 9th grade at Hicksville Junior High, but few will forget your guidance and love.

Thanks, Bill Owens, for a job well done!

From Santa Claus,

Don't look surprised! Without your help, a lot of toys won't get to a lot of deserving children this holiday season.

With the Christmas and holiday season fast approaching, it's again time to unwrap our Toys for Tots Program and begin what we are confident will be the most successful campaign ever in the Tri-State area.

Last year's effort was truly historic. For the second year in a row, Marine Reserve units fulfilled each of the more than 900 written requests from agencies that help underprivileged children. More than 600,000 new toys were collected and distributed to nearly 500,000 children.

Toys are shipped outside the area in which they were collected until every request from that area has been filled. The Toys for Tots Program continues to remain a local grass roots effort wherever Marine Reserves are stationed across the nation.

LILCO's Proposed Plan Is Challenged

Citizen activists are gathering together on Long Island to combat the LILCO proposal to use its own facilities in Hicksville, Roslyn and Bellmore as part of an evacuation plan for Shoreham, in case of a nuclear accident. Two of them appeared in front of Town Hall November 18. Clifford Russo is the head of a group called Concerned Citizens of Hicksville. He is involved in forming a networking group called ALINED which is contacting other areas interested in stopping the LILCO plan.

In a letter they are asking citizens to sign and send to Supervisor Colby to encourage his protesting the LILCO action it states:

Dear Mr. Colby:

We request that you, as supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay, exercise your authority and responsibility to your constituents by refusing to permit the Hicksville LILCO facility to be used as a decontamination site in the event of a nuclear disaster at Shoreham.

"The original zoning for this property permits only light industrial use and administrative functions. How can we disregard local law and allow LILCO to use this facility to decontaminate 70,000 to 100,000 radioactive people and approximately 35,000 cars, buses, and trucks. It is absurd since there is no such thing as decontamination only dissemination of radioactivity into the community we live in and the ground water we drink.

We charge you with the moral responsibility of protecting us from personal, environmental, and financial risks LILCO proposes to place upon us. Liability from traffic accidents and personal injury will ultimately find the County, the Township and the Village fully responsible.

Finally, we call on the town board to conduct an Environmental Impact Study and to hold Public Hearings on the use of this facility as a nuclear decontamination center which is in violation of existing zoning laws.

Sincerely yours,

A member of both the Long Island Coalition For Safe Living and the Concerned Citizens of Hicksville, Karin Franchino spoke about the Shoreham issue. She said, "Hicksville will be the issues. If Hicksville is in the plan, then Shoreham will open. If Hicksville is out, that will mean the end of Shoreham." She has been involved in fighting Shoreham for the past ten years.

The Hicksville High School is planned to be used as part of the plan. Ms. Franchino brought out the problems we are already having with school insurance liability increases in the past year. She quoted Island Trees, Plainview and Locust Valley as doubling their premiums. She related this to the use of the Hicksville High School in the proposed plan. The schools will become radioactive, LILCO will be bankrupt. The taxpayers will have to pay.

Bonnie Feuerstein, president of SPINS came to represent the physically handicapped population: those people dependent on medical treatment on a daily basis and those who need help for mobility. She called the LILCO plan "an exercise in fantasy." She said the plan calls for one LILCO employee to go through Suffolk alerting the deaf to the emergency.

Mrs. Feuerstein said "what frightens me is we testified before the Nuclear Regulatory Commission judges and now there are new judges." She explained that the public hearings about Shoreham are over. The new judges must now refer to court records to learn of the public's statements about Shoreham.

Sharon Siegel of the National Council of Jewish Women urged the Board to follow the lead of Thomas J. Gulotta, Presiding Supervisor of the Town of Hempstead. He has contacted the NRC with a letter objecting to the planned use of the LILCO Bellmore facility.

In response Councilman Delligatti said, "It is easy to say you can't use it, not easy to enforce it."

Councilman Venditto said, "Don't mistake our caution as a position of deferral—the plan—simply stated is a joke."

Another point brought up in the discussion was the assumption on the part of LILCO that people in Nassau wouldn't panic and be on the roads themselves.

Supervisor Colby has contacted the NRC requesting that they send him a copy of the LILCO proposed evacuation plan. He said that as a municipality they should have been sent a copy.

THE GASTRIC BUBBLE - A Device That Makes Dieters Feel Full

WHILE IT IS UNCLEAR EXACTLY HOW THE BUBBLE REDUCES HUNGER IN ITS RECIPIENTS, some researchers think the polyurethane sac—which inflates to the size of a small juice can—stimulates receptors that line the stomach, thereby causing a sensation of satiety.

1. Deflated Bubble is inserted into the stomach via a plastic tube

2. The Bubble is inflated and the tube is removed.

3. The now free-floating Bubble helps to satisfy the feeling of hunger.

4. After four months, the Bubble is deflated and removed, using a tube with a viewing scope.

By promoting a sense of fullness and by limiting food intake, the gastric bubble can help improve eating habits. It allows the adoption of an effective dietary program that provides appropriate caloric restriction and adequate nutritional intake. A proper weight reduction program with the Garren-Edwards Gastric Bubble requires nutritional counseling and psychological support to deal with the issues that promote overeating and obesity. It is recommended that the gastric bubble be placed in individuals whose problems with obesity pose a potential medical threat. The National Institutes of Health have determined that obesity in excess of 20% of an individual's ideal body weight increases the risk of high blood pressure, heart disease, diabetes and stroke. Substantial medical data indicates that weight loss can reduce the risk of these conditions.

Town Board Faces Difficult Defining Of Moratorium

By DAGMAR FORS KARPPI

Alerting the public to the need for water conservation and getting their support as well as encouraging creative thinking about water use, may be the real outcome of the present moratorium against changes of zone or the issuance of special use permits for building. The issues addressed are only requests for changes that increase the current water use or increase existing traffic.

(Even the question of public transportation may become part of the solutions business will use to solve the problems facing the building industry.)

Supervisor Joseph Colby gave an example of how one high consumer of water can address the problem. He suggested that a car wash request, (one that would receive a refusal) could turn around and choose "to dig their own well into the non-potable water for their use." It would mean that they would not be dipping into the deeper endangered aquifers and would therefore become free of the moratorium.

The moratorium hearing at Town Hall on Tuesday, November 18 gave several groups a chance to dialogue with the Town Board on the merits of the resolution.

John Klein, former county executive of Suffolk and a member of Suozzi, English & Klein of Mineola came representing the Association for a Better Long Island Inc. (a group composed of 21 of the largest commercial builders and developers on the island). His position was that there are "100's of millions of dollars and thousands of jobs at stake" with the acceptance of the moratorium.

Supervisor Joseph Colby explained that not all new building is involved in the moratorium. He advised the builders wanting changes to keep applying since the process itself takes about one year.

He gave for an example the case of Robert's Chevrolet in Hicksville. The dealership wants to convert a vacant piece of land in a residential area into a parking lot. He said they are entitled to a hearing. Basically the lot would not create a greater water use. The lot had been a one-family home parcel.

The Supervisor did not say they would automatically get their change of zoning as there is a citizen group opposing it, he only said they would be eligible for a hearing.

Councilman Diamond addressed Mr. Klein and brought up the traffic section of the problem. He said that we are already in a crisis situation with our roads. He stated that people "are pushing for a fourth lane on the LIE" to help relieve traffic. The moratorium is to give us a year for looking at a two-fold problem, water and traffic. It's the way to go.

Councilman Diamond also mentioned that many areas of building will not be affected by the moratorium: Mother/Daughters, swimming pools, alterations and for use of property as currently zoned.

Supervisor Colby said the problems occur when "instead of one house, you want seven condos."

He said the intent of the moratorium was not to say "now that I'm here, I'm going to lock the doors". It is time to take a deep breath and see what we are doing. This is the era of the environment. The economic severity won't be as great as you think. The answer will be in conservation.

William S. Cohen said: "I have a Japanese Corporation seeking to locate in town. Obviously they will generate traffic." He criticized the moratorium as "unnecessary overkill. The Board has all the powers it needs."

His comment allowed Supervisor Colby to further clarify the need as seen by the Board. He said, "We don't have to give a reason to deny a zoning question but for a special use permit denial, we must write an answer which lawyers can then come up to challenge. They take us to court on an Article 78. The decisions are then often overruled by the court... Give us a year and we can work on the problem."

The Board hopes to create guidelines of existing statistical information that will enable it to clarify objections on bed rock information.

Ron DiMonda, spokesperson for the Town of Oyster Bay said "an Article 78 is a court action taken by someone challenging a ruling by the town."

Walter R. McCollum of Oak Park, Illinois came representing Bruce Melish who is involved in developing a local branch of a national company. Mr. McCollum was objecting to the amount of money that can be spent in a request for zoning change. He estimated the cost as being about $50,000. He requested that Oyster Bay use a process other municipalities do country-wide.

He said other communities in the United States give a preliminary opinion to save dollars of fees to architects and lawyers.

Supervisor Colby suggested that the normal procedure should still work for the request. Part of the process calls for an environmental review. There is also a hearing where the public can express discontent to a plan and cause changes to be made. An affirmative decision on an application is still no guarantee that it will pass without changes and extra fees to both lawyers and architects.

Edward Robinson, the attorney for the Oyster Bay-East Norwich School District and the president of the Nassau County Bar Association presented another variation on the challenges of the new document.

As the lawyer representing the Board of Education in its attempt to down zone property for the sale of the Birmingham School, Mr. Robinson brought up two interesting points: what is current water use and existing traffic with a school property that is now being left fallow.

At one time about 400 children used the water based facilities in the school. Thirty to forty school buses trafficked the area. Although the property is now a school, it had been previously zoned for one-family houses. Against which criterion will the case be judged?

Bob Schmidt, Town Attorney had told Supervisor Colby that "giving you the precise language is a problem." The Supervisor explained that it was worded to give the intent of the law.

Another interesting nuance was brought up by Kevin O'Brian of Murphy & Bartol. He was representing EXXON Corp., in a case involving six applications for zoning changes. The company is planning to refurbish 30 year old stations. They were built when the requirements for a station were an "F" zone. Now it is for a "G" zone with a special use permit.

Becoming involved in new work on the sites has necessitated that the irregularities be corrected. This was the case that brought out the suggestion from Supervisor Colby that they "dig a shallow well" i.e. think creatively.

The Board will vote on the resolution at the December 9 meeting in Town Hall.

Parola Calls for Tax Cuts

Assemblyman Fred Parola (R-C, Wantagh) today called for the December special session agenda to include a new state tax cut program which would return all windfall revenues from federal tax reform.

In addition, Parola urged that the agenda include a prescription drug program for senior citizens, cost of living (COLAs) increases for public employee pensions and a "buy back" credit for public employees who served in the Armed Forces.

The lawmaker also backed an increase in pension and retirement benefits (COLAs) for retired public employees to reflect the ever increasing cost of living on Long Island.

Finally, Parola called for the enactment of legislation that would provide a pension credit, commonly referred to as "buy-back" legislation, to public employees who served in the Armed Forces.

Opening lead — king of clubs.

It is not easy to make five diamonds, even when you look at all four hands. Of course, the task is still more difficult if you see only the North-South hands. But, despite this, the actual South who played the hand made the contract and there was nothing the defense could do to stop him.

West led a club. Declarer saw that he had to lose a heart and that the fate of the hand therefore depended upon whether he lost one spade trick or two.

Losing only one spade would have been easy if West had had both missing spade honors, but South managed to hold himself to one spade loser even though the honors were divided. He was able to accomplish this when he executed a guard squeeze which eventually saved him a spade trick.

He won the club lead with the ace and played the ace and another heart. West took the heart with the queen and led the queen of clubs, which South ruffed. After trumping a heart in dummy and a club in his own hand, declarer ruffed his last heart and drew two rounds of trumps. With four tricks still to go, this was the position:

North	West	East
♠ A 106
♣ 9	♠ K 87	♠ Q 953
	♣ J

South
♠ J 42
♦ J

When South now led the jack of diamonds, West had to discard a spade, whereupon South discarded the club from dummy. He then led a low spade, covering the eight with the ten. East took the queen and was forced to return a spade. South followed low and then took the last two tricks with the A-J of spades.

House Calls

By EDITH LANK
No Change on $125,000

Dear Edith: Recently I read an article that distresses me. According to the article, buried in the proposed tax bill is the elimination of the once-in-a-lifetime tax break on the sale of your home if you are over age 55 and the price is $125,000 or less. Mrs. A.P.

You are mixed up on the details of that special $125,000 exemption, and I'm happy to report that the article you read was probably mixed up too. As far as I know, there is no plan to change either of the two homeowners' tax breaks.

The first special tax treatment allows a homeowner of any age to roll over profits into another home within two years, postponing federal income tax indefinitely into the future. The other one, to which you refer, allows a senior citizen's sale of a long-time home with up to $125,000 profit (not sale price) completely free from federal tax ever.

Differing Opinion

Dear Edith: After reading your answer to Ma. F.S., I wanted you to know I believe any intelligent person who does his/her homework can sell their house with a real estate broker not in the picture-P.M.S.

In the item your refer to, I had pointed out possible pitfalls because that's what F.S. had asked about. I did say that some home sellers do manage on their own—but they're usually financially and legally sophisticated persons who are willing, as you say, to put in some work.

Rent With Option

Dear Edith: Three years ago I placed my house for rent with a real estate management company. It rented immediately to a fellow who I suspect was told he had a lease with an option to buy. I have repeatedly told him I wanted to move back but all along he has wanted to buy from me.

Now I want to sell. Do I have to go through the real estate company and pay them a commission?—Mr. W.O.

Offhand, I don't think you'd owe a sales commission if you sold to your tenant, but there's always a chance you signed something to that effect. Do you have a copy of any contract you signed with the real estate firm?

You'll want a lawyer when you sell, so this matter might be a good first question for your attorney.

Selling Land This Year

Dear Edith: With Social Security and retirement and interest income, we will have a total of about $16,000 a year income. We own some raw land, clear and paid for, worth maybe $45,000. If I sell, what does this do to my income tax? If I sold the land this year, do I suddenly have an income of $61,000 to declare for income tax purposes?—Mr. G.R.

No, you don't.

Let's assume you receive $45,000 cash for the land next month. You will be taxed not on the whole amount, but only on part of your profit. If the land originally cost $20,000, your taxable profit would be $25,000 (less legal expenses and real estate commission).

The next good news is that under capital gains treatment, only 40 percent of your profit, $10,000 or a bit less, would be taxed. You'd end up with a taxable income of perhaps $26,000 for the year.

The bad news is that capital gains treatment isn't likely to survive tax reform. No one knows the details of the new law yet, of course. It's possible that if you sold next year, there'd be some adjustment of your original cost for inflation over the years you owned the land. So your taxable profit would end up less than $25,000.

Points, balloons, FHA, ARM—what do they all mean? For a copy of House Call's newest leaflet, send $1 and a stamped return envelope to FINANCING YOUR HOME PURCHASE, 240 Hemingway Drive, Rochester NY 14620. Edith will also answer personally any letter with a stamped self-addressed envelope.

DRIVING DRUNK

It kills friendships. It breaks up families. It destroys happiness. It ruins lives. We can't say it any plainer than that. Get in a car with someone who's had too much to drink and you take your life in your hands. Get behind the wheel after you've had too much to drink and you not only endanger your own life, you jeopardize the lives of innocent people besides.

If you drink, don't drive.

Nassau Sports Review

By JACK WHITE

Thanksgiving weekend is here and for most of us that means traditional dinners and family reunions. It also means football, and this weekend offers plenty of local high school action as Section Eight stages its championship games.

Part of my Thanksgiving day has always been getting up early, putting on layers of clothes and going to a game. In my high school days that meant the annual Garden City-Manhasset game or maybe East Meadow-Uniondale or Carey-Sewanhaka. Then for a decade or so the Hofstra-C.W. Post game was the best show in town. Hofstra Stadium was packed for some of those.

Since the early 1970's Nassau's Football Conferences have structured their playoffs so that the season culminated about the same time the turkey did. It has been a successful formula with C.W. Post's Hickox Field and Hofstra Stadium serving as the sites. There are no crowds of 10,000 as there were for Baldwin-Freepoint games in the 1930's, but crowds of 4,000 are not uncommon and in an area where professional sports are so dominant, that's not bad.

Section Eight football coordinator Bill Piner of Cold Spring Harbor High would love to see the day when the season-ending games match Nassau and Suffolk champions. That would be a terrific step for local fans and such a system may be only a few years away, but in the meantime, there will be some fine football this weekend.

On Thanksgiving morning at Post (10 a.m.) the Hempstead Tigers, the top-ranked team in New York State, will put their 28 game (26-0-2) unbeaten streak on the line against the surprise team of 1986, the Long Beach Marines (8-1). Long Beach has Scotty Graham, the running back with more than 1,500 rushing yards and they have some defense, too. Ask Farmingdale. If you believe in miracles, this might be the game to watch.

On Friday night at Hofstra (7:30 p.m.), the Conference Two Final matches two undefeated teams who played each other to a scoreless tie a month ago. Garden City, making its sixth straight appearance in the title game, is looking for its first Rutgers Cup but needs not only to beat West Hempstead but also needs a Long Beach upset over Hempstead. The Trojans are arguably the best coached team in Nassau with defensive specialist Tom Flatley (formerly Sewanhaka head coach) and offensive genius John Meyer (formerly head coach at West Hempstead).

Saturday will keep the football fanatic busy as Conference III and IV champions will be crowned. At 1:30 at Post, Lynbrook will be out to complete its first undefeated season since the school first fielded a team in the early 1920's. Coach Jay Iaquinta's Owls (9-0) must get by a tough Walt Solfian coached Elmont team and that is never easy.

At 7:30 at Hofstra Locust Valley squares off against East Rockaway. The Falcons were 10-0 last year but have been almost completely rebuilt by coach Fred Smith and his staff. They will be challenged by the Rocks and their fine halfback Julio Tayo.

I've got my turtle neck and gloves ready and my carving knife sharpened. Bring on the turkey and the pigskin.
