"Dumpsville, U.S.A."

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE for the mini-landfill at the South Oyster Bay Road and South Broadway entrance to Hicksville? (It is on the curve where the two roads intersect). The Hicksville Illustrated News campaign to clean up Hicksville is supported by its 10,000 residential reader households. All are not interested in the "It's not mine excuse." If no governmental body is responsible, then stiff heavy penalty laws should be enacted to get private owners to act. In the background (separated by a private parking lot—owner not known) is the Long Island Trust Co. office. Beyond that is the elegant Linden Tree restaurant. The junk and debris do not enhance either reputable establishment. Grumman Aerospace buildings are on the other side of the road.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...I call them the "doctors' dragons" and I suppose the doctors really need to have them...but have you noticed how your very nice, informal, friendly, smiling doctor is guarded at the "gate" by a fire-eating dragon of a nurse whose main function seems to be to scare you into going away and not bothering "doctor"—which is what she calls him, in a most precious way...Now I know you are going to write back to me and tell me how insulted you are because you are a darling, kindly, lovely doctor's nurse and you never scare children or even grown ups...and, of course, there are lots of your kind, I'm sure...but the others do exist...The doctor tells you, "Now take this prescription medicine for three days and then call me because I want to know how you are reacting to it". That sounds fine...After three days, you call back and the "dragon" answers... "Doctor" is very busy and can't come to the phone...Now, that's to be expected, so you say, "Just tell him I called and ask him to call me when he's free"...does that sound simple—guess again!...The "dragon" will insist that you leave the message with her, because "doctor" will be too busy for the next four days to call you back, and don't insist that he told you to call, because she thinks you made that up...Now, to be fair, the doctors are harassed and tired and they probably need a "dragon" to protect them from the nagging patients—and it does take the pressure off them because we can go on thinking "doctor" is wonderful and it's just the "dragon" who is keeping him from helping us and answering our questions...I think I must apologize in advance to all doctors "dragons"—and urge them to give a thought—"Was I a 'dragon' today?"

Yours, Lulabelle

A SPECIAL CAREER Day highlighting the Medical and Health related programs was presented on the campus of Nassau Community College recently and it attracted several hundred community residents—ranging from high students to senior citizens. To inform the public of the event, Long Island radio station WGBB presented a three-hour broadcast from the plaza in front of the Library hosted by radio personality Lisa Saggese, an NCC graduate in the class of '82. Among her "in-person" listeners were, from left, surgical technology students Nancy Gajkowski of East Meadow, Anthony Genovese of Brooklyn, Valerie Hill of Hicksville, and Eleanor Cappazola of Bethpage.

Social Notes and Personalities

The Sarluccos

Marge and Mike Sarlucco are certainly kept busy with their family. On Dec. 19 their daughter Linda and Jimmy Perini became the happy parents of a boy, John Michael. He's a big boy weighing in at 8 lbs. 6 oz. Linda is a graduate of H.H.S. and Jimmy is a stockbroker in New York with his firm Perini and Morley. His proud parents are John and Mamie Perini of Glen Rock, New Jersey.

Then on Dec. 23 the Sarluccos celebrated with their daughter Margaret and Buddy Hannigan at a birthday party for their one year old son, Christopher. Christopher's other happy grandparents, Hicksvillites Jen and John Hannigan, also celebrated the big event with them. Congratulations to all! ... and the other day their grandson, 19 month old Michael Sarlucco thought he was Tarzan. He swung from a hutch at Aunt Linda's house and broke his arm. He's now wearing a little cast.

Welcome Home

A big welcome home to Marie Hoosack on her return home after her hospital stay. Her family and friends all wish her a speedy recovery. Our best wishes to you Marie.

Condolences

Our condolences to Willie Johnson, Mrs. Johnson and Ebba McGunnigle on the death of Willie's son, Bill Jr. Many of you old timers will remember the Johnson family when they lived on Barclay Street. Willie and his mom are living in Florida and Ebba is living in Old Bethpage. If any of their old friends would like to send their condolences, Willie's address is: William Johnson, 22-23 Kendis St., Ft. Charlotte 33948.

Sixth Grandchild For Louise

Louise Gargiulo has proudly announced the birth of her sixth great grandchild Tyler Sky Carson the first child of Ellen and Daniel Carson. He weighed 8 lbs. 7 oz. at birth.

Louise has two great grandchildren living in Tillson, New York: Lindsey and Lee Wagner, 3 year old twin girls; and three in Massachusetts: Steve (5), Nicole (3), and Derek (7 months), children of Mr. and Mrs. LeLoren, granddaughter of a former Hicksville resident.

Ciastko-Favo Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ciastko announce the engagement of their daughter, Allison to Mr. Christopher Favo.

Allison graduated from Hicksville High School in 1980. She received an Associates Degree from Farmingdale University and Bachelor of Science Degree from St. John's University.

Chris' hometown is in Oakmont, Pa. He completed his undergraduate work at Notre Dame University and received a Law Degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. The couple plans a Dec. 5, 1987 wedding. They will make their home in New Jersey. Congratulations!

Proud Grandparents

Congratulations to Pete and Eileen Kelly and Ed and Eileen Byrnes of Hicksville, all proud grandparents of Christopher Michael, born Jan. 21—from all your friends and neighbors.

Enjoys Florida Trip

Ray and Yvonne Siefert and their son Eric and his wife, Theresa, have returned from a two week trip to Florida. They drove down the day after Christmas and stayed on Singer Island (off West Palm Beach Shores) for ten days. While there they golfed and visited local attractions, walked on the beach and just relaxed. They said that the island is just beautiful.

Hosts Australian Visitors

When Margaret (Peg) Wolf visited her daughter Jean, and her family in Australia in 1985 she met some lovely people. Two of these were Polly and George Waters, who lived next door in a town called Upwey, a suburb of Melbourne. Polly and George have been visiting her daughter's family (The James Beattys of Miller Place) for a month. Peg entertained them on Christmas Day and had a luncheon for them the following week. They were amazed at the extent to which the Americans go to decorate for the holiday season. Jean and Jim have been busy taking them around the city to points of interest; and, of course, Radio City and the Christmas show; to the show, "Cats;" to Washington, D.C. for a weekend; to the end of the island and many other places of interest. They have been enjoying their visit extremely, as they have enjoyed having them. Peg's three grandchildren adore them: Chris, (15), Aron, (12), and Jeanine (8).

Nurse Klarin Retires

Congratulations to Dot Klarin, on her retirement from Winthrop University Hospital. She celebrated her retirement by visiting her two sons and grandchildren in California. Bob has a boy and a girl and Paul has a new baby daughter. Her daughter, Lynn and husband live in Long Beach. Dot also fulfilled a long held dream of visiting San Francisco. Her hobby is gardening and her vegetables are the envy of her neighbors. Now that she can devote her full time to gardening I guess "We ain't seen nothing yet."

Marrone-Ackley Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Marrone have announced the engagement of their daughter, Laura Jo to Senior Airman John Ackley of Syosset.

Laura is a 1982 graduate of Hicksville High School and is a senior nursing student at Molloy College—in the final months of study.

Senior Airman Ackley is a 1981 graduate of Holy Trinity High School and is presently stationed at Bolling Air Force Base, Washington, D.C.

A November, 1987 wedding is planned.

Twins Celebrate Birthdays

Peggy (DeBartolo) Corso and Linda (DeBartolo) Uhlch celebrated their birthdays Jan. 22 at a joint party (only 'cause they're twins). Elsie and Mike DeBartolo are the proud parents of these girls. Also joining in the festivities was Peggy's husband John, and their daughter Kimberly (2); Linda's husband Kenny and their son Adam who will be 2 in March; their sister Terry (DeBartolo) and Michael Brodie and their two daughters, Sarah (4) and Emily (1).

Pizza Party

Happy 3rd Birthday to Ricky Budinich. He celebrated with his little friends at a pizza and cake party. Among those were his sister: Larissa, Matthew and Ryan Thomas, Michael, Steven and Christopher Verde, Vanessa Stanley, and Gregg Magic.

Donating To Muscular Dystrophy

Shear Shed Haircutters, located at 2 West Village Green, Hicksville, are donating 2% of its profits from Jan. 1st to St. Patrick's Day to Muscular Dystrophy. What a wonderful idea! Maybe others will follow suit and donate to their favorite charity.

GREAT JOB 5TH GRADERS AND MRS. PASETSKY—Mrs. Pasetsky's fifth grade class at Burns Avenue School had a Cake Sale on Dec. 10 to raise money for the "Adopt-A-Family" through "Newsday." During lunch time the other students in the school purchased slices of cake, or cupcakes. The fifth grade class raised $104.50, which was sent to a needy family. Everyone enjoyed doing this and hoped that the family enjoyed the holiday.

Woodlock Pines Vacation

Joan and George Kellner have just returned from a snowy week at beautiful Woodlock Pines in the Poconos. Accompanying them were their daughters, Dorothea and Marianne and her boyfriend, Dennis Normile who burned up the snowmobile trails and the toboggan run. Their married son, Tom and his wife Linda and their children Matthew, Abby and Kenny also enjoyed a wonderful time with the family. Second place trophies were won by George and Tom in the bocci and bowling tournaments and Linda went for the gold, winning a first place trophy for an unprecedented spectacular hole-in-one in the golf tournament.

The Kellners also enjoyed the company of their good friends, Jean and Jack Mulholland of Hicksville, and their daughter and son-in-law, Theresa and Jim Poplowski and their adorable 5 month old daughter, Kiera. ## Kiwanis Club Of Hicksville

For the January 7 meeting of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club, Program Chairman Mr. John Fitzpatrick had invited Mr. John Sarcona, a representative of the Long Island Association For AIDS Care to address the membership.

Mr. Sarcona spoke at length about the background of this tragic and fatal disease, and mentioned such things as how fast the disease is spreading and what attempts are being made to stop it; what currently seems to be the best information as to what is fact and/or fiction about the spread of AIDS; some guidelines as to preventative measures suggested with regard to avoiding the disease; as well as the best estimate as to the extent of this scourge.

Mr. Sarcona said that the Long Island Association For AIDS Care is located in Huntington; is funded by New York State and other sources; is one of the seven such facilities in the state; and, is there to help people who have AIDS, or know someone who has it and could use help; or, to answer any and all questions, they have a Hot Line number, 386-AIDS. He emphasized that they want to help.

The prototype of a new dream Corvette by Chevrolet, and seen at the 1986 New York Automotive Dealers' Show at the Coliseum.

The Greater New York Automobile Dealers Show is coming up soon in February. I haven't gotten my press tickets in the mail yet, but I'm looking forward to them. Last year I photographed the Corvette they envision as the dream car of the future. This week I received a picture of the Peugeot of the future. They have a lot in common on the look of it. A 21st-century look.

They are different and yet similar. They look as if they were kept in the wind tunnel a little too long.

Both cars have an oval shaped top that is all glass. They both have a low windswept look. They both have a depression in the side to delineate the door as opposed to the older look of the fenders sticking out.

Jean Derampe, a senior engineer at the automaker's LaGenette research center in France, explains the idea behind the Proxima: "We call it 'Peugeototechnology.' Instead of a wild dream, the Proxima is a synthesis of systems that are already being proven in our laboratories."

Here is Peugeot's vision, a fully functional prototype unveiled in Los Angeles:

The roof is a glass bubble, with ventilation of the four-passenger cockpit provided by solar-cell power. The electronic pilot and navigation system includes five color video display units, managed by two central computers with 40 megabytes of memory.

An anti-collision radar continuously scans the road ahead. The radar image is displayed on a screen together with the stopping distance at the speed of travel and current road conditions. Television cameras replace rearview mirrors.

Other safety features include electronic monitoring of tire pressures. If the pressure of one tire drops, the central computer will indicate the maximum speed not to be exceeded.

The disk brakes are made of carbon fiber for powerful braking and high temperature stability. The anti-skid braking system prevents wheel lock.

The four-wheel drive transmission is engaged only as needed. Rear-wheel drive is used until the Proxima's computer senses that wheelspin is about to occur.

The 600-horsepower V6 Peugeot engine is a high tech masterpiece. It has four valves per cylinder and two turbochargers. Each spark plug has its own ignition coil. Frictional losses are minimized through the use of ceramic linings on bearings and shafts. Engine management systems are computerized, including fuel injection, ignition and turbocharger boost pressure.

The Proxima is named after the star in the Centaurus constellation that is the closest to our sun, 4.27 light years away. The car is a lot closer than that.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed, (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many very fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only. We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Opening lead — king of hearts.

No bidding is given with this hand because the deal itself is a mythical one where it is imagined that the final contract is seven notrump, which would certainly be a bad contract if ever there was one.

Having dreamt up the hand, which is given to demonstrate one of the rarest plays in bridge, and in order to preserve whatever chance there is to make all thirteen tricks, it behooves us to win the opening lead with the ace of hearts and then start worrying about how to make each and every trick when there are only eleven tricks in view.

Not only are there only eleven tricks, but there does not even appear

Nevertheless, we can proceed to make them all, and strange to say, it is not even a difficult proposition. All that has to be done is to keep right on playing and the thirteen tricks fall right into your lap.

The first thing to do is to cash all five diamond tricks. There is no trouble discarding from dummy, but if you can imagine putting yourself in West's shoes you will find a situation that no aspirin in the world can cure.

That character can discard two of his hearts on the third and fourth diamonds led, but what does he do for a discard on the fifth diamond? He will have to release a spade, a heart or a club, and as soon as he parts with any one of them you have suddenly moved into the twelve-trick bracket.

Not only that, but whichever suit he unguards, you then continue the relentless squeeze by cashing the trick he has just established for you. This, in turn, then compels him to unguard one of his two remaining suits, and as soon as he does that you gain another trick — number thirteen.

This could go on and on forever if there were more suits in the deck for West to guard, but let's not be sadistic about the whole matter. West has already reached the end of the trail.

"The Divine Drama" At Trinity Lutheran

Are you puzzled about the Christian faith? Do you have questions like: "What is the Bible all about?" "What happens after death?" "Why give money to the church?" "What's the best way to serve God?" "How can an ordinary person read the bible and understand it?"

Often, Christianity looks like one big jigsaw puzzle! Where can you go for answers? Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 W. Nicholas St., Hicksville, invites you to enroll in "The Divine Drama." This 30-week study will begin on Wednesday, Jan. 28, at 8 p.m. It is a complete overview of the Bible. The course will be led by the Rev. Dr. John H. Krahn.

"The Divine Drama" is designed to show you how to read the bible. You will discover that there is nothing to fear from the bible's message... You do not have to have a string of college degrees to understand it. Its message will help you greatly and excite you tremendously!

There will be a nominal fee for the course materials. If you are interested in learning more about the study, or would like to register, please call the church office (931-2225). Experience the joy of discovery!

*The night is clear and windy cold,
 The stars like jewels gleam,
 The leafless branches in rhythm sway

 How great the power from above,
 How small we mortals be.*

Rapid Weight Reduction

THE GASTRIC BUBBLE - A Device That Makes Dieters Feel Full

WHILE IT IS UNCLEAR EXACTLY HOW THE BUBBLE REDUCES HUNGER IN ITS RECIPIENTS, some researchers think the polyurethane sac—which inflates to the size of a small juice can—stimulates receptors that line the stomach, thereby causing a sensation of satiety.

1. Deflated Bubble is inserted into the stomach via a plastic tube.

2. The Bubble is inflated and the tube is removed.

3. The now free-floating Bubble helps to satisfy the feeling of hunger.

4. After four months, the Bubble is deflated and removed, using a tube with a viewing scope.

By promoting a sense of fullness and by limiting food intake, the gastric bubble can help improve eating habits. It allows the adoption of an effective dietary program that provides appropriate caloric restriction and adequate nutritional intake. A proper weight reduction program with the Garro-Edwards Gastric Bubble requires nutritional counseling and psychological support to deal with the issues that promote overeating and obesity. It is recommended that the gastric bubble be placed in individuals whose problems with obesity pose a potential medical threat. The National Institutes of Health have determined that obesity in excess of 20% of an individual's ideal body weight increases the risk of high blood pressure, heart disease, diabetes and stroke. Substantial medical data indicates that weight loss can reduce the risk of these conditions.

Walk the path of purity with Aveda.

It is Aveda's concept and philosophy that Health and Beauty are reflected in how we nourish our bodies with pure foods and pure products, avoiding artificial ingredients (artificial color, scent and flavoring). Purity becomes the key point. Whatever goes in and onto the body is evident in our outward appearance.

HOUSE CALLS

By Edith Lank

FHA Loan For Investors

Dear Edith: Can you legally purchase a duplex that will not be your home with the intention of having the duplex produce income (i.e. it would be a rental property) using an FHA loan? Not an assumption, this would be a new, first mortgage.—Mr. P.R.

Are FHA loans available for non-owner-occupied investment real estate? Yes, they are, for buildings containing up to four units. Minimum down payment is 15 percent, higher than for the purchase of owner-occupied property.

Sorry She Used Exclusion

Dear Edith: We sold our home in August of 1985. We built a new one in January, 1986. We used that one-time exclusion from income tax on our profit on the old home. We paid just under $125,000 for our new place.

Would we have been wiser to have paid the tax on our old home and saved that over $5, one-time exclusion of a later date? Just in case we decided to move or if something happens to one of us and the other decides to move to a smaller place? Is it too late to do anything about it now?—Mrs. R.

It's not too late to amend your 1985 income tax return and change your minds about using that one-time exclusion. You won't owe tax now on the profit from your first home, if the one you built cost more. Tax on your profit is postponed, rolled over into the cost basis of the new home.

Then, after you've been in the new home at least three years, you could sell it and apply the exemption to untaxed profits on both houses.

She Gave Down Payment

Dear Edith: Some years ago I sold my home and used the money for a down payment on a duplex for my daughter who was expecting her first child. I moved in to one side and did lots of babysitting, etc. Now they have three children and had to refinance the house to raise money. My son-in-law, who has emotional problems, said if I didn't move away, he would. So my son helped me move to a little apartment.

My son has his own family to support and can't help me. I don't see how I can make it on social security alone. I have no other income and my name is not on that duplex. Should I see a lawyer and sue my son-in-law?

Of course you should have had your name on the duplex as part owner, or else you should have received a mortgage in return for the down payment you furnished. Many problems can be avoided if family matters are handled in a business-like manner. But it's too late for that now.

I don't know whether you could succeed in a lawsuit. Perhaps your son-in-law will claim the down payment was a gift. Perhaps even if you can obtain a judgement against him it won't do much good, if he doesn't have the money to pay.

By all means, though, take the question to a lawyer for at least an initial interview.

Interest Rate Won't Drop

Dear Edith: I read the letter you printed from R.S.W. about how to drop the interest rate on a fixed-rate mortgage. I paid my mortgage company $3 for a loan amortization schedule. I pay the monthly amount plus an extra exact principal amount. Any number of extra principal payments are acceptable and it is rewarding to watch the interest drop.—K.R.

Yes, as you pay down the loan, fewer dollars are due for interest, and more of each payment can go toward reducing the principal. As I told Mr. W., though, extra principal payments simply move you more quickly down the schedule and shorten the number of years remaining to pay. This does reduce the total amount of interest you pay during the life of the loan. But he had been hoping to lower his interest rate and monthly payment, and it won't do that.

Real Estate terms from "abstract" to "zoning" are defined in House Call's glossary of 4 terms. WHAT DOES IT MEAN? Send it and a stamped self-addressed envelope to: Glossary, 240 Hemingway Dr., Rochester, NY 14602. Edith will also answer personally any letter with an envelope.

The Investor's Corner

By JOSEPH P. FREY, Ph.D.

"What Goes Up Comes Down—Eventually"

Rule #1 of "How to Get Rich" is to protect yourself from disaster. To play the stock market under this rule and to protect your profits I advocate a device called a "stop order," sometimes known as a "stop loss" order. With the market up now, we can call it a "protect profit" order.

A stop order costs nothing yet it can save you plenty. It is a powerful device to guard against losses or to let profits increase.

All of us know how to buy stock. We establish a brokerage house relationship; fill out some easy forms; buy the stock or other investment; and pay for it. When we tell the broker to buy or to sell we are placing a market order which means that we have told the brokerage house to sell the stock "at the market," the price on the exchange when our order reaches the floor.

Most of us have some system or criteria for buying—few know when to sell. Selling is the hard part because we can be wracked with indecision. We ask ourselves, is it going lower? higher? why?

The use of a stop order takes the decision out of your hands. The market decides when to sell. A stop order allows you to minimize your losses; to recognize mistakes early; and still leave you with a nest egg to invest again. It is protective, not perfect. It also protects your profits.

If it does all of these wonderful things, why do so many stockbrokers discourage its use. Maybe it is an ego thing because they are not advising you. The standard response is that sometimes you will be sold out and the stock will go up and you lose out. True!! but only true one out of twenty times.

When we invest it is essential that we understand that no one, no one, has a batting average of 1000. We will make mistakes. Even when the market advances on a broad basis there are new lows every day—some stock advances and others decline. Bernard Baruch understood this. He anticipated that he would be wrong 8 out of 10 times, yet he went from rags to riches. His strategy was to limit your losses and ride your winners. So, with a 200 batting average, how did he get rich? He practiced what he preached—you can do the same thing with stop orders.

How do they work? A stop order is an instruction given to your broker to sell a particular stock at a specific price. When and if that price is reached, your instruction becomes a market order. It will be sold at the market price. It is not a guaranteed price. You can do this with any investment—stock, bond, future, or commodity contract. If you sell "short" (another article) you buy the stock to protect yourself.

An example: you purchase a stock at $50. At the time you place a stop order to sell at 45 (always 10 to 15% below). If 45 is reached, you get sold out at or near 45. You cancel the stop order and replace it with a 55 stop order. You keep doing this, cancelling and raising until such time as the stop order gets triggered. You are saved sweat, pain and anguish.

If you have a loss, you can invest in something else to recoup. If you have a gain, you come away clean. It is simple and easy. You will have followed the principles of Bernard Baruch. All of us should be so fortunate.

"Careers"

THE second graders at Burns Avenue School learned about many different careers. They had to interview someone in their home about his or her career. They also made a hat about a certain career and were judged for the best hat. Dr. Burke was the judge and said it was a hard decision as they were all very good. There were 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes for each class. Both second grade teachers were pleased.

EXPERT ATTENTION: At Nassau Community College, Secretarial/Office Technology students such as Carmel Mariano of Hicksville receive personal attention from highly-credentialed faculty members. Here Professor E. Nancy Kehne, a past winner of the State University Chancellor's Award for Teaching Excellence, instructs Carmel in the proper use of an electronic typewriter.
