

Hicksville Residents To Fight Tax Cuts

On March 17, a group of concerned citizens will join forces with representatives from 57 Nassau County school districts in Albany.

The purpose of this trip is to meet with state legislators to air their concerns regarding the recent proposed cuts of state aid to education.

The Hicksville community stands to lose over $416,000 in aid.

The group feels that they cannot stand by and let Hicksville taxpayers absorb this tax cut!

It is vital to the success of their lobbying efforts that they have the support of parents, teachers, school district administrators, senior citizens and local businessmen. State Senator Norman Levy has stated, "Only through combined efforts can we ensure the quality of education that we have fought so hard to obtain in Nassau County and the ability of Long Island taxpayers to pay for this education."

The group asks concerned residents to join with representatives from the local PTA units and school district personnel on March 17. They will leave from Hicksville at 7:00 a.m. and return the same day. The cost is $15.00 per person.

For more information and bus reservations call: Norma Goerke, 681-3769 or Peggy Gill, 433-8607.

Anyone who is unable to join in the trip to Albany, is urged to write to the following people stating their concerns.

Water Commissioners To Hold Water Cap Meeting March 5

The Board of Water Commissioners, Hicksville Water District, has accepted an invitation from the Hicksville Community Council to discuss the recently imposed water caps and to answer other questions relating to the water supply in Hicksville. The meeting will be held on March 5, in the basement room of the Hicksville Library, at 8:00 p.m.

The Commissioners will also present the results of the survey to date of the recently conducted program to ascertain the feeling and the direction in which we as a community should go in order to develop a conservation program. The survey certainly shows that the consumers of Hicksville do well understand that the nature of all this recent dialogue makes it extremely evident that they understand there is a compelling reason to conserve this most valuable resource.

As of this issue, all subscribers to the Mid-Island Herald/Hicksville Edition will be receiving the Hicksville Illustrated News in its place. The Plainview-Old Bethpage Edition of the Herald will be published as a separate paper for that area.

Constitutionality Is Key Issue In Proposed Ward System Laws

By D.F. KARPP

The Nassau Neighborhood Network challenged the constitutionality of two proposed laws the Town Board has drafted to regulate beginning the councilmanic/ward system of government in Nassau County at the February 24 hearing in Town Hall, Oyster Bay.

The first law sets the rules for the petitions. It states that registered voters should be signed up during a period of 350 days. It states that if a petition is filed in an odd year, the question will go on as general election ballot. (Councilmen are elected in odd number years.) If the petition is filed in an even year, there will be a date set within 120 to 180 days of filing.

The second law involves the process of changing from the existing election at-large system of voting for six councilman to a district system where voters vote for one councilman.

Michael De Martino of the NNN said that "the proposed plan to change the at-large system to a ward system with a transitional period 'represents a challenge.' He said that it is 'unconstitutional for voters to wait four years after a referendum has been approved.'"

How to act in a constitutional manner towards elected officials who have their job status altered is the main thrust of the proposed law that is before the Town Board, according to Town Spokesperson Marlene Kastleman. The second law involves the way the length of office of councilmen would be changed to ease into the ward/councilmanic system, should it be requested by the voters of Nassau.

All three towns in Nassau held public hearings on the proposed law on February 24.

On January 14, 1987, Town Attorney Robert Schmidt suggested to the Town Board, that in light of the action taken by the case of Jacobs, et al v. Ocker et al, October 23, 1986, that legislation was called for by the Councilmen.

He wrote "...the recent litigation concerning the establishment of a ward system in the Town brought to light many ambiguities regarding applicable law and procedure. It is incumbent upon the Town to enact legislation which, clearly and concisely, establishes procedures and provides guidelines by which such change may be effected. These procedures and guidelines should be similar, if not identical, to those found in the Election Law."

In case the ward system does succeed in being brought in front of the public to vote on, and does win, the method proposed by the Town Board is as follows.

The Town Board will divide the Town of Oyster Bay into six wards. They will set the boundaries of the wards.

No election district will contain parts of two or more wards. Therefore no election districts will be split up.

In the Town of Oyster Bay, there are 231 Election Districts. The Town of Hempstead has 573, West Hempstead has 10 Election Districts. Each voting machine is capable of Bright with its new paint and window renovation job is the Old Hicksville Courthouse at Heitz Place. For 17 years the home of the Gregory Museum: Long Island Earth Science Center, the scene of so many old-time village meetings, local district elections and town and county civil court dramas, the 1895 building has the distinction of being listed in the Federal Register of Historic Buildings. The Town of Oyster Bay Intergovernmental Affairs Department has just about completed an extensive Community Development Project which renovated, strengthened, and preserved the landmark.

registering 999 votes. Therefore each district has under 1,000 people in it.

The wards will hold about an equal number of people. The numbers will be fixed according to the current census figures available. They will be adjusted as new figures (every 10 years) appear.

When the boundaries are set, a map will be prepared and filed with the Town Clerk, the County Clerk and the Board of Elections.

The procedure for the change from at-large to councilmanic voting will require that in the next (after the voting) election (always in odd years) the next three seats that come up for election-at-large will be for two years and not the usual four years. At the next election (in two more years) the seats in the odd number of wards, will go for two years. The seats in the even number wards will be for the four year term of office.

Vincent Cioci, executive director of the NNN said the Town Board is "blocking residents from access to concerned citizens from taking action on issues of paramount importance to them."

Mr. Cioci said that the constitution is designed so that "the people are protected, not the elected official."

Social Notes and Personalities

Promoted to Sergeant

Jim Holohan, a former Hicksville resident and a '77 Hicksville High School graduate was promoted to rank of Sergeant with the New York City Police Department Feb. 3. After graduating from Hicksville High, he attended St. John's University, where he majored in criminal justice. He joined the New York City Police Department in 1981 and was promoted to detective in October, 1986. Jim and Maureen (Hauck), also a graduate of Hicksville High School, were married in 1982. Jim's proud parents are Ed and Lee Holohan of Hicksville. Congratulations Jim!

They've Learned To Say "G'd'Day"

Rita (Allen) and Tom Organ really enjoyed the holidays. Their son, Tom and his wife Julie, and their two children Katelin (3) and Jennifer (1) visited with them from Thanksgiving until Jan. 6th. Ten years ago when Tom graduated Southern Connecticut College he was offered a job in Australia. He accepted the job and is now Director of Physical Education for Physically Handicapped Children in Seaforth (a suburb of Sydney, Australia). While there he met and married Julie and they are now expecting their third child. While here Tom visited many of his friends and of course, his brother Pat, who lives in Massapequa. Pat is Operations Manager at Marine Midland Bank. Pat decided to go and see the wonders down under and visited his brother in Australia this past October. He said he fell in love with the country. He's thinking about relocating to Australia as there are tremendous opportunities there. Tom's other brother lives in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, where he is Program Director for Boys Club of America. As soon as Tom and his family left Rita and Tom flew down to Florida to visit with him. Rita is a nurse and Tom has been with the Nassau County Police for many years. They have visited Australia a few times and I'm sure they'll be going for another visit in the near future. Rita always says she has to see her christening outfit on the new babies.

Thanks, Hicksville Fire Dept.

The family of Fran Thomas would like to publicly thank the Hicksville Fire Dept. Rescue Squad for their quick response to their call on Dec. 28th. Their expert professional and kind attention helped to save her life. We should all remember when the Fire Department is having their drive to give all we can to these wonderful volunteers. Without them many would have lost their lives. They give up so much of their free time to help and they are not on salary. Remember—support your fire department.

A Mr. Ruppert called The Illustrated to say that the photograph that was in the Feb. 12 issue of the parade on Broadway was taken in 1941—not 1939. He states that in the far left corner of the photo there is a 1941 Ford—with yellow and black license plates.

Fire Safety Program At the Junior High

Chief Doug Wood of the Nassau County Fire Service Academy brought a fire safety program to Junior High students in late January in a presentation sponsored by the school's Health Education Department and the Academy. This was Chief Wood's second year of participation with the seventh and ninth grade students to promote fire safety in Hicksville, and he gave the youngsters a checklist of activities the family can do together to be prepared in the event of fire break out at home.

1. Count all means of exit from the home in addition to the front and back doors and be sure that each family member knows where these exits are.
2. Each home or apartment should have a smoke detector on every floor level.
3. Check each bedroom and be sure that the person who sleeps in the room can close the door and open one window easily. All children of school age should practice opening the window.
4. Family members should be shown how to get out of the windows at ground level. If there is a garage or porch roof under second story windows, family members should practice climbing out of the window onto the roof.
5. Everyone should sleep with the bedroom door closed. If the smoke detector sounds or if a fire alert is given, occupants should get up and feel the door. If it is hot, Do Not Open It. Use windows as a means of exit.
6. Children should be cautioned to climb out a ground floor window. If they are on the second floor and there is nothing available to climb onto, they should stand by the open window. The closed door will keep the smoke out and they can be reached from the outside of the house and the window might be reached by standing on the roof of the car. A picnic table might substitute for a ladder.
7. Arrange a family meeting place outside the house so that adults can be sure that everyone is out.

Heat, smoke, and gases travel very fast, and normal means of exit might be blocked in case of fire, so practicing alternate ways of escape is vital. If you need help developing a family fire safety plan, the Fire Marshall's Office (603-5835) or the Nassau County Fire Service Academy (292-9292) can help you.

Fire safety is an important issue of everyone, and the Junior High School is indebted to Chief Wood for his help in teaching youngsters about practices that might save a life.

"You Can Help Save Long Island's Water"

This is the topic of a symposium which will be held on March 20 and 21. This seminar is being sponsored by Old Westbury Gardens, Cooperative Extension Association of Nassau County and Planting Fields Arboretum in cooperation with the Long Island State Park and Recreation Commission. The programs will be held in the Haybarn at Planting Fields Arboretum located in Oyster Bay.

Water Conservation will be the issue during both programs. Long Island will face a serious water shortage in the near future unless residents begin to save the ground water that is left. The Friday, March 20, session will be held from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. for administrators and policy makers involved in water decisions. The Saturday, March 21 session will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. for homeowners and professionals. After an overview of the water situation on Long Island and what is being done to help remedy the situation, brief presentations will take place on actual water saving methods and devices that can be utilized in the home and garden. Topics to be addressed include swimming pools, irrigation systems, gardening concepts, grey water usage, water filters and indoor plumbing fixtures.

A trade show and resource fair will be available during the entire March 21 program. The registration cost of $12.00 ($10.00 for members of Old Westbury Gardens, Planting Fields or Cooperative Extension) will include lunch (Saturday only) and refreshments. For a brochure detailing the symposium, please call 333-0048 or write Old Westbury Gardens, P.O. Box 430, Old Westbury, 11568.

Letters From Our Readers

To The Editor:

In the Thursday February 12, 1987 edition of the "Hicksville News" is a photo on page 4. It shows Broadway in Hicksville, a Boy Scout Parade and an array of old automobiles. The caption denotes a Labor Day Parade of 1930. However, I say it is 1949.

Look to the extreme left at the new shiny Ford convertible. This is a 1941 Ford Deluxe. Next, the license plates of 1941 were yellow with black letters such as they are in the photo. It wouldn't be 1949 because black plates were issued that year. And, in 1939, the license plates had "New York World's Fair 1939" across the top. These don't.

Nevertheless, this is one very interesting picture. The lamentation of this part now being the desolate west side can be analogized to other towns such as Hempstead too. The disappearance of the small town atmosphere has been a devastating loss all over.

Computer Lab Opens At Willet Avenue

In January, at Willet Avenue School's computer laboratory became operational. All children in grades one through six spend one forty minute session each week learning new skills on the computer. Programs dealing with Keyboarding, Math, Language, Social Studies, and Science are utilized by classroom teachers during the computer period. The teachers of Fifth Grade have also recently begun teaching the children the rudiments of word processing to prepare them for the State Writing test in May.

The lab is also utilized by the editors of the Willet Avenue Newspaper to compose and edit pieces for the paper. During lunchtime recess, the lab is also open to students so that they can use the various programs in the school. Mr. Dunn, the Principal, hopes to expand the number of programs during the year.

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you that my family and I completely enjoy the Hicksville Illustrated News. It is so full of pictures and news about the people from Hicksville (both old and new) that we can hardly wait for each edition to arrive. Keep up the good work! You are making many people very happy.

As Americans living in a free nation we often take freedom for granted. Younger people, whose lives have been untouched by wars or conflicts, are particularly less aware of the true differences between a free society and forms of government.

This past week the mini-series "Amerika" reminded many of us that you can never guard your freedom too jealously. Apathy, the lack of feeling or concern, at any level of government can result in the demise of that government.

The remembrance of the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington and the ideals for which these national leaders stood stand in sharp contrast with the images on the television screen last week.

George Washington's vision, fortitude and integrity shaped the destiny of our nation. His leadership and sensitivity to the importance of the precedents his actions would create were the major factors in the success of a fledgling American republic, just as his endurance and tenacious military genius led to our victory in the Revolution.

Abraham Lincoln, degraded in the television production by the placement of this picture along side that of Lenin, and continues to be a role model for successive Presidents, including Theodore Roosevelt. Roosevelt said of Lincoln that he was a statesman of greatness who was single-hearted in his devotion to the weal of his people...a man who was resolute in seeking to achieve the just end but who tempered that resolve with understanding, even-handedness and endless patience...a man who listened and learned from the great and the small.

The principals fought for in the Revolution, and alter affirmed in our Constitution, hold a special meaning as we approach the 200th anniversary of the ratification of the Constitution on September 17, 1987. These values have withstood the test of time and remain the basis for meeting the challenges and problems of today and the future.

The Town of Oyster Bay is presently formulating events to commemorate the Constitutional Bicentennial under the very able chairmanship of Town Historian Dorothy Horton McGee. More specific information will be announced as it becomes available.

"Americka" was the product of a fertile imagination, but we must remember that our democratic system works and survives only because we are continually mindful. The responsibility for keeping what we truly value belongs to each of us.

Post Office Sponsors School Stamp Clubs

Stamp collecting is one of the world's most popular hobbies. Millions of people enjoy the satisfaction of saving the tiny pieces of paper which commemorate much of our world's history, art and beauty.

The Postal Service sponsors the Benjamin Franklin Stamp Club Program for children in grades 3 through 6. Teachers or stamp club leaders (interested parents or community members) are provided with free stamp films, a Leader Guide book, and students are given stamp albums and Introduction to Stamp Collecting booklets.

Roger Nienaber, Hicksville general manager/postmaster, reports that the Postal Service is happy to send a Postal Stamp Club representative to schools or community groups to explain the Benjamin Franklin Stamp Club Program. The presentation is approximately 30-45 minutes in length. Anyone interested in more information about the Stamp Club Program can contact the U.S. Postal Service Communication Department at 249-6410.

The Ice Rink Dispute

By STEPHANIE DELAPORTE

At the moment, 26 high school hockey teams and numerous other skaters are enjoying what could be their last skating season. In 1980, a deserted hangar on the grounds of Nassau Community College was converted into an ice rink by the Nassau High School Hockey League. The rink has been utilized by high school, college and club hockey teams and skaters from the Metropolitan Figure Skating Assn. It is used almost entirely by kids under organized adult supervision. There is a strong possibility that the rink will close.

In 1980, a contract was signed between the Nassau High School Hockey League and Nassau Community College that allowed the League to lease and renovate hangar 6. Slowly, the hangar was turned into a rink. Electricity was brought in, the pipes for the ice were laid and high school players painted the walls. Six years later, it still lacks many amenities, but the hangar has the necessary ice.

The ice was available for use in late 1980. The Nassau High School Hockey League season opened with gusto, using the rink on weekends and some evenings. The figure skaters found early mornings hours to be the best for them. Nassau Community College students used the ice for 6 1/2 hours each weekday.

In 1983, Nassau County entered into litigation with the Nassau High School Hockey League over the validity of the 1980 contract. Thousands of taxpayer dollars have been spent on the law suit. The main casualty of the suit to date has been the Nassau Community College skating programs which have been eliminated from the College curriculum. Thus, 6 1/2 hours of ice time set aside for College use each weekday sits idle. The 32 1/2 hours a week of ice time has been allotted to the College at no cost to them. (Ice rental charge at Nassau County's Cantigue Park is $100 per hour.)

Should the Nassau High School Hockey League lose, the League will vacate the building. The ice, the ice making equipment, boards, bleachers, etc. will be removed. Nassau Community College will have returned to it an empty hangar. Like the adjacent hangar, there are no plans for utilization of the building.

Why the County is pursuing the action, no one seems to understand. County Executive Gulotta has said that no matter what happens, the kids will have a place to skate. The next questions is where? The only other indoor facility is Cantigue Park, and that is utilized by public sessions, county teams and programs and the New York Islanders. There is no room there for over 500 displaced skaters and their programs.

It would be great if the dispute could be settled quickly and rationally. Bickering adults, and the need to prove a point has already deprived the students of Nassau Community College from using the ice that has been allotted to them. Making hundreds of other kids abandon skating on Long Island seems ridiculous. However, it appears that when adult ego and principle are involved, kids are not very important.

Letters From Our Readers

To The Editor:

"Newsday" Sunday, Feb. 15, 1987 beginning on page 7 had an article by Catherine Woodard and Celeste Hadrick entitled, "How Much Is Too Much At Top?" and another article entitled, "Lucrative Level For Public Jobs" by Robert Fresco. I hope everyone has saved these articles...

For years, I have been criticizing Nassau County administrative salaries. I began my campaign many years ago when they were $10,000 lower. I could not academically excuse them then, and I cannot tolerate them now. Who am I? The most conservative resident in Nassau County if not on Long Island. There is not a day (Saturdays and Sundays included) that I do not spend at least 5 hours a day working to preserve rural Long Island. I have done everything I could for the Island. I have spent the last seven years spending such time on our precious Island. I have never accepted a nickel for my work, and there are others like me!

Robert Fresco reveals that Nassau's Dr. Donald Eisenberg M.D., Executive Director of Nassau County's Medical Center has a County salary of $125,490 while Joe Ivey Bouford, President, New York City Health and Hospital Corp's salary is $105,000. Both salaries are high but a $20,000 difference is unbelievable. Few Americans make $20,000. The President of the United States' salary was $125,000 a few years ago. No, I am not out of touch with salaries in industries, Wall Street and even among oil nations. The chairman of World Airlines salary was $50,000...

Keep in mind one salary. Some think the most influential man in the United States other than the President is Paul Volker, Chairman of the Federal Reserve. His salary is $85,000.

Can Dr. Eisenberg say to himself and before his Maker that his service to the county is worth $140,000 more than Paul Volker's service to our Nation and the world? What many sincerely believe is that Medical Center executive position should be perhaps 1/2 the salary of a U.S. Senator, who is paid $89,500 as of only February 1.

Dr. Eisenberg is the highest paid public servant in Nassau County. He is paid more than his political boss, County Executive Thomas Gulotta, who is paid $90,000 or more than the Director of the FBI, more than Donald Regan, the White House Chief of Staff, more than any United States Senator, more than the Governor of Connecticut, etc., etc., etc.

The Nassau public office-holders with these jobs are not elected (i.e., the present County Executive and Supervisor of Town of Hempstead have yet to be elected to their present offices)

Samuel Rozzi, Nassau County Police Commissioner gets $87,595 ($8,000 more than the Director of the FBI). Why?

Joseph Mondello, Chairman, Nassau Board of Supervisors gets $90,500—if a $12,000 pay hike is included (it's subject to a legal challenge). This $90,500 includes his Town of Hempstead Supervisor job as well but not his compensation as chairman of the County's Republican party. He literally appointed himself Town Supervisor. He too is paid more than a U.S. Senator and paid more than $17,000 more than New York State's Senate Majority Leader and Assembly Speaker.

Joseph Reilly, head of the Republican party in Glen Cove is Nassau County's Commissioner of General Services. He makes $89,457 equal to what the Nation pays a man elected to the United States Senate, and as Senator works on the most important business in the world.

Then there is Owen Smith as Deputy Nassau County Executive also making over $89,000. $89,000 seems like a favorite figure. Just $500 or so under their boss.

Then there is Greg Wynne, Special Assis-

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...It's a strange thing about men and the masculine thought processes, especially when they get behind the wheel. Have you noticed how they always have to "make time", even if they are very early and have nothing to do when they get "there". You and your husband are riding along a winding road and you see coming up a delightful antique shop - but can you get him to stop? ... Zoom, zoom and you are well past, and then he says, "Did you really want to stop there? There'll be a better one along the way"... and the strange thing is that the "better one" never materializes... I have spoken to dozens of women and all have the same story... men do not stop along the way. It seems to be contrary to their natures... and another thing, have you noticed how they hate to ask directions?... You know absolutely that he is as completely confused and lost as you are, but will he pull into a gas station or stop a passerby-perish forbid!!... He insists that he is not lost, knows exactly where he is and where he's going to end up - and probably the most exasperating part of the whole story is that, usually, his luck is superhuman and he comes out just where he said he would. That is really maddening - the luck of the male... With a female driver stopping is very different - we once took fourteen hours on Route 7 in Connecticut... what absolutely "essential" stuff and junk we picked up that day!!

Yours, Lulabelle

What the Politicians are saying...

Hempstead Town Presiding Supervisor Joseph N. Mondello has announced that the Department of Services for the Aging is looking to recruit additional companion aides for participation in the acclaimed HATSON program - Home Aids to Seniors of Nassau. Pay rates for HATSON aides are determined by the aide and the senior to whom assigned. Next training class begins March 17. Call 485-8100 for information.

From Congressman Tom Downey: In 1982 there were 311 "near midairs," the term used to describe close calls in the sky. Last year there were more than 800.

Recently, the Federal Aviation Administration instituted a new East Coast flight plan which will increase air traffic in our area. This plan was instituted despite concern expressed by many air controllers that, due to a depleted work force, they were unable to handle the increased flights. I have joined with the rest of the Long Island Congressional delegation in asking for delayed implementation of this new plan.

Assemblyman Daniel Frisa (R-Westbury) has discussed measures to provide legal redress for small businesses in New York State, noting that they are often hampered by the lack of, or delays in, payment by customers or suppliers. Mr. Frisa called for the enactment of a bill that would establish a Business Claims Court, similar to Small Claims Court, to allow businesses to file claims for a nominal fee.

Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan has urged the adoption of a national allocation for mela for drug treatment funds that would distribute approximately $105 million to New York - 45% of the funds allocated by Congress should be distributed based on population and 55% to those states with the greatest need. The need criteria is important to New York State which has the greatest need for treatment services. An estimated 860,000 heavy substance abusers live in New York.

tant to the Nassau County Executive with "only" an $85,000 paycheck!

Think of it. They are all paid more than the Governor of Connecticut! Six paid more than the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who not only has world-wide responsibility to over 238 million people but must see to it that his work outsmarts Russia, all Communist and foreign enemies of America and all crime in America.

The salaries of these public servants and others in Nassau County add up to well over $2,000,000 annually of our taxes, and does one realize there are Nassau County School Supervisors also making over $85,000!

One of these appointed men says he does not think he has to justify what he earns and states he is worth it. Why?

Could any of these men retain these salaries in business?

Could any of them retain these salaries if it were not for the Nassau County Republican Party system that has existed for more than half a century?

The most amazing thing of all, however, is that the resident does nothing about it!!!

These men raise their own salary—as a group.

The worst characteristic about this "self-appointment-and-raising-ones-own-salary" is that it has been done in other places (Congress: The House voted for theirs by letting the deadline elapse and ironically attached it to the Homeless Bill). But two wrongs do not make a right.

What group in Nassau is going to establish a "Congress," a legislative form of government to replace the Board of Supervisors?

In a community of millions, is there not anyone to sustain the two-party system in Nassau?

I write because I have lived in the County from the time there were almost 1,000 large farms, when this abuse all began.

I write because I believe such words, such thought, such resistance, such outcry can constructively help the way nice people want things done in our County.

Not many attend more municipal meetings than I do, I have seen it from inside and out.

I write because I do not know of a better way to help Nassau than to propose a 10% pay decrease every year for three years in all salaries that are currently over $38,000 in Nassau.

Unfortunately, my work will be more difficult because of such a letter, but I will not be harassed by indecent salaries that are an insult to one's intelligence... nor do I want to pay for these salaries as we are all doing.

One of these office-holders is reported to have said, "Well, Nassau is the country's richest county". What has that got to do with his job except to only make it easier. Nassau County has the highest taxes in the Nation. Is that good? Do we brag about that? I think it sad, a disgrace. Who needs it?

Hundreds would do these jobs at 1/4 of these salaries—and do them better.

"The Owl & The Pussy Cat" At Hicksville Public Library

The play "The Owl & The Pussy Cat" by Bill Manhoff will be performed by The Other Vic Theatre Company at the Hicksville Public Library on Sunday, March 8, 1987 at 3 PM.

The play is about a stuffy author and a prostitute. In a San Francisco loft lives the stuffy author with binoculars destined eventually to get him into trouble. Sure enough... having focused on a prostitute playing her trade... and having complained to the landlord, he now finds he has a tiger by the tail. In fact she's pounding away with vengeance on his door right now. Disposed, she figures he owes her a place to sleep for the night. In the days to come these two are at each other in hilarious fashion; she, being practically illiterate, learns something about the language, only it troubles her that having learned to pronounce "impeccable," she can't find any sentence to fit it into; he, for his part, finds himself melting a bit and coming to a kinder understanding of human nature. The net result is that they find themselves falling in love, and this could lead only to two things: either suicide, which they try with clumsy abandon, or turning square, he as a clerk in a bookstore, and she as a bonafide receptionist.

This is an adult comedy.

Hicksville Kiwanis News

The Reverend Dr. John H. Krahn, Pastor of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Hicksville, came to the February 11 luncheon meeting of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club to thank them for their donation of $500.00 towards the Keith Gaynor Fund.

Keith Gaynor, a ten year old member of Trinity Lutheran Church, is confined to a wheelchair because of Muscular Dystrophy. When it became obvious that because of the illness, it would be necessary for Keith to have a specially equipped Van to transport him in his wheel chair to school, medical treatment, etc., Trinity Lutheran began a campaign to try to raise the necessary funds towards such a vehicle.

The Hicksville Kiwanis Club heard about this situation and decided at a Board of Directors meeting to make a donation to this worthy cause for a Hicksville resident as part of their special grants during their 50th Anniversary Year.

THE SKATE SHOP

SKATING EQUIPMENT
 By Jesse Halpern

99 Cutter Mill Road
 Great Neck
 HU7-6978

There never was a question as to what type of skate to use for speed skating. Neither was there ever a question as to the best type of skate for playing hockey. But as far as the novice skater, interested in mild exercise and a form of relaxation, is concerned, the type of skates is often a problem. Also, how and where to buy them are problems. The unfortunate truth is that most people are poorly advised and consequently buy the wrong skate.

The skates generally bought in sporting goods stores and department stores are toys or little more than toys and could not hold the ankle of either the novice or the expert. The exceptions to the generally are very rare indeed. The place to buy skates is only in the specialty skate shop.

Professional skaters, both performers and instructors, advise figure skates as the best type of skates for many sound reasons. The figure boot is a higher boot and distributes the necessary snugness over a larger area than any of the other boots. The skate itself is lower and consequently easier to balance oneself with. The blades on a correct pair of skates are screw attached on both heels and soles to the average weight center.

If the ankle bands it means that the weight center of the foot is a little to one side or the other of the average weight center, and the bending is immediately corrected with the moving of the blade toward the skater's weight center. The figure skate is the most maneuverable skate. The blade - all help make the figure skate the easiest skate to skate on.

To have full control over the blade, the boot must be snug enough to make the foot and the blade feel as though the two were one, and the blade must be in the weight center of each in individual feet.

Correct fitting can be done only by the expert who has enough boots of different lasts and widths to work with. The boot should be just as tight as the skater can stand. The foot does not move around within the boot. It should be almost impossible to budge the heel from the floor of the shoe and it should be possible to flex the toes a bit. The adult or the advanced child skater should be fitted with very light socks.

For children, the skate expert advises the same as for adults, except that children can be fitted with heavy socks and wear the same boots the second year with light socks. The largest possible blades should be attached to the boots so that the blades can be used on the next pair of boots. Over the long period, correct skates for children cost less per year than the toys ill advised parents often buy.

Rental skates can't possibly give much satisfaction because every one who wears them stretches them in another place and after a while the shoes have no more support than a paper bag. The same can be said about second hand skates. Leather stretches and shoes take on the shape of the feet when there is only one wear.

It is more important to have a good, well-fitted boot than an expensive blade. At the Jesse Halpern Skate Shops we don't hesitate to recommend an expensive boot with the least expensive blade. The boot is that much more important. There is advantage in better blades, but it is small as compared with the advantage of better boots.

46 Long Island Trust Offices Now Open as Bank of New York Branches on Long Island

The Bank of New York Company, Inc. has completed the acquisition of North American Bancorp, Inc., whose principal subsidiary is Long Island Trust Company, from Banca Commerciale Italiana. Long Island Trust, with $1.8 billion in assets and 46 branches, has been merged into The Bank of New York, and all of its offices will have been converted to Bank of New York branches by the opening of business tomorrow morning.

The acquisition, announced last September and approved by regulatory authorities in January, increases the total number of Bank of New York branches from 143 to 189, and gives the Bank the third largest suburban branch system in the greater New York metropolitan area. In addition to being the market leader in Westchester and other counties just north of New York City, The Bank of New York will now be the third largest bank on Long Island. The acquisition increases the size of the Bank's Long Island Division from 34 to 79 branches.

Long Island Trust's Manhattan branch, at Third Avenue and 58th Street, becomes The Bank of New York's 10th office in that borough, where the Bank emphasizes Custom Banking services.

In addition to Long Island Trust's well-positioned branch system, The Bank of New York is acquiring a large base of commercial business with midsize companies on Long Island, which complements a major effort under way by the Bank to become a leading middle-market lender in the tri-state region around New York City.

As a result of the acquisition, the headquarters of The Bank of New York's Long Island Division will relocate to Garden City from Valley Stream. Managing the expanded Long Island operations will be Paul J. Leyden, senior vice president and head of the Long Island Division; Dennis Hodne, vice president in charge of branch administration; and James B. Joyce, vice president in charge of commercial banking.

"We are very pleased to welcome the Long Island Trust organization to The Bank of New York," said J. Carter Bacot, chairman and chief executive officer. "By combining our respective strengths, we will be in an excellent position to achieve substantial growth and profitability in one of the most attractive retail banking markets in the United States."

The Bank of New York Company is a domestic money-center bank holding company with more than $2 billion in assets. Through The Bank of New York and other subsidiaries, it is a major lender to corporations, one of the country's largest securities processors, a leading retail bank in the greater New York City suburban area, and a widely recognized trust and investment manager.

Fidelity Ranked Top Nationally In Financial Strength

Fidelity New York Savings and Banking has once again been ranked as one of the strongest banks in the United States. During the recent year, Fidelity increased its overall profitability and growth both in retail and commercial deposits as well as lending activity. The $1.6 billion bank had significant financial growth with a 25.5% increase in reserves and net worth.

Currently ranked by the U.S. League of Savings Institutions as a high performance institution in New York State and among the strongest nationally, Fidelity's net worth and reserves are over 101,000,000. This represents 7.73% of savings deposits and is regarded among the best in the banking industry.

Thomas Dixon Lovely, Fidelity's chairman and chief executive officer, in reporting these gains also stated, "Additionally, Fidelity continues to pay our depositors high earnings. We are owned by our depositors; thus do not have to pay shareholders first. As a depositor-owned bank, we paid our customer/owners $82.5 million dividends in interest during this past year." Mr. Lovely added that, "Fidelity's success centers on taking exceptional care of our over 250,000 depositors through superior service that is both accurate and delivered in a friendly manner." Also, Mr. Lovely feels "Fidelity demonstrates continuing awareness of our customer's needs and an ability to develop new products and services."

With added customer convenience in mind, Fidelity is instituting 24-hour banking through the installation of Automated Teller Machines. This will also give customers the convenience and free access to over 2,500 NYCE (New York Cash Exchange) Cash Machines.

Fidelity New York is Long Island's oldest federally-chartered thrift with assets of $1.6 billion. It serves customers through 18 full-service banking offices on Long Island, in addition to 2 offices in Manhattan.

JACK J. BRITVAN HAS BEEN appointed executive vice president in charge of commercial leasing for Sholom & Zuckerbrot's office in Jericho. Mr. Britvan, 32, joins Sholom & Zuckerbrot from Sutton & Edwards, where he served as senior vice president and director of leasing in the Lake Success, N.Y. office. His ten-year career in real estate includes being named the firm's Man of the Year in 1984, when he negotiated $70 million in transactions.

The Investor's Corner

By JOSEPH P. FREY, Ph.D.

This is an article I would prefer not to write. This stock market gives me mixed feeling as my last four articles demonstrated. On the one hand, everything seems to be going down except the stock market. The figures are poor, yet we are still in our fifth year of steady growth; new orders are strong for factory goods; the number of people holding jobs is still at an all time high. So why am I so cautious?

The reason is that we are seeing similarities to previous economics that ended in major corrections (depressions). These similarities are scary. If we look at past upswings before historical economic peaks, we find striking similarities to the present. Consider these similarities between the 1920's and the 1980's!

1) tax reduction then, same now; 2) Debt: Latin American and European then; Third World now; 3) Violent currency fluctuations, then and now; 4) Rise in protectionism, then and now; 5) 20-21 severe recession and 12% unemployment, 80-81, same; 6) Default, 1933 Latin America and Europe, now ?; 7) Farm depression then and now; 8) Fla land boom then, Sunbelt now; 9) booming stock market, then and now; 10) then high personal and corporate debt, same now plus high government debt; 11) Cult of the rich and famous (Great Gatsby), now Dallas, Dynasty; 12) then Alcohol prohibition, now cocaine; 13) then fascination with crime (Capone era), now Miami Vice.

There are some things that are dissimilar. After the Florida land bust, the dollars went to the only game in town: the stock market. In the 1920's we had a peak of religious fervor: the Scopes monkey trial; the KKK at its peak. Today we have the religious media preachers, the Muslim extremists, Khomeini. Politics and religion moved to the right, just as now. We glorified the rich and the poor increased.

However, all is not gloom. We have a world economy today, more than at any time in the past. The Federal Reserve has much more experience, so any decline may be moderate. In 1933, we had the Gauley which demanded that the war debt be repaid, putting the debtor nations into default. Today, our Federal Reserve and Treasury department accommodate the debtor nations to prevent default. But these are only a handful of dissimilarities in a basketful of similarities.

Our system is built on faith, and the world system is built on ours. As long as we have faith, we will be OK. However, history tells us that at some time, sentiment will change. If past patterns repeat, we will have a large correction soon, probably before 1989. The correction will be signaled by a sharp fall in the stock market.

I would guess this pattern: the stock market will probably advance to more new 1987 highs. Sometime in late 1987 or early 88, the market will fall followed by the economy. The consumer who has been driving the economy will stop spending just as our farmers have already done. Corporate profits will collapse; corporate and personal bankruptcy will increase; the economy will worsen. A major obstacle to recovery will be the enormous government debt. It will hamper government's efforts to spend our way out of a recession.

So the question is-how do you protect yourself? First, you stop or dramatically slow your spending. Get out of personal debt-have only mortgage debt that you can afford. Second, if you are in the stock market, use stop orders to take you out of the market when the downturn comes. Third, remember that in upswings, borrowers do well; in downswings, lenders do well, so start to buy US government securities of 3-5 year maturity (T notes). Fourth, gold and silver belong in every baby's portfolio. You should be buying gold and silver coin.

If I am wrong, or if history does not repeat, you will have sold out of the market with a substantial profit. In addition, you will be positioned to take advantage of another upswing. If I am right, you will have protected yourself from ultimate disaster.

Tax Forms In Sequence Saves Processing Time/Speeds Refund

Taxpayers and tax practitioners should be sure to assemble their tax return submissions using the sequence number printed on each form, according to the IRS.

Attachments to the Form 1040 (both schedules and additional forms), have a sequence number printed directly under the year. Using these numbers, the forms should be arranged sequentially before sending the return to the IRS. Assembling the attachments in order saves processing time, increasing the speed at which a return is processed and refund issued. If the attachments are not in order, the entire return must be pulled apart and assembled correctly before any other processing can occur.

IRS Uses OCR Equipment To Scan Forms 1040EZ

Automated Optical Character Recognition (OCR) equipment will be used again to process Form 1040EZ Federal tax returns this year. The OCR system, designed to "read" tax information directly from Form 1040EZ, will speed the processing rate, the Internal Revenue Service says.

In order for a Form 1040EZ tax return to be processed using this automated equipment, the pre-printed name and address label must be used on the return, the numbers should be clearly printed as in the sample on the form, there must be no correspondence attached, and the return must be an original. The scanner is unable to process photocopies.

The one-page Form 1040EZ is used by single taxpayers with no dependents who have taxable income of less than $5,000 per year. This income must be only from wages, salaries and tips, and interest income of $400 or less.

Further instructions can be obtained from the Form 1040EZ and Form 1040A tax package.

North Shore Pops To Perform

As far as Long Island-based musical organizations go, The North Shore Pops is a fairly new concert band, but for a number of good reasons, this group has already distinguished itself. Albert Greene, musical director, presented his first concert with the Pops, which specializes in classical, modern and show music, during the summer of 1986.

"Our goal was to raise money for an organization that helps retarded children," says Greene, who is also an experienced percussionist. "We donated everything we made from ticket sales to a group based in Glen Cove."

"We're playing at Glen Cove High School on March 8 to help raise money for the Long Island family that has three children dying from an unknown disease," explains Greene. "Then we're playing the following Sunday at C.W. Post to gather funds to allow us to buy music and pay our operating expenses, so that we can continue our charitable work."

JUDD NELSON

FROM THE HIP

Disorder in the court is the focal point of this energetic comedy about lawyers that even takes a serious turn without losing its satire and momentum. Judd Nelson portrays an overly eager young lawyer of a prestigious Boston firm who resorts to outrageous antics to win his cases and generate laughs. His brashness also pays off when he takes on a seemingly unwinnable murder case. John Hurt practically steals the movie as an arrogant English professor accused of killing a prostitute. (PG)

DEAD OF WINTER

An eerie, isolated, Gothic mansion, a raging snowstorm and a disappearing corpse set the stage for this atmospheric thriller that will send chills to your toes and then some. Mary Steenburgen is convincing as an unsuspecting young actress lured into this nightmarish trap. She then turns to her own acting skills to escape the horror. Roddy McDowall and Jan Rubes are deliciously diabolic as nasty blackmailers in control of this sinister scheme that evolves with hair-raising surprises and suspense. (R)

LONG AND MIDLER

OUTRAGEOUS FORTUNE

A brassy Bette Midler and a snooty Shelley Long trade one-liners and spout raunchy dialogue in this female buddy, action comedy. They are aspiring actresses who discover they share the same lover (Peter Coyote) and chase him across the country in a fitful tangle of slapstick routines. The girls are as good a comic pair as Hope and Crosby. But, the frantic romp bogs down in a swamp of silly cliches, car chases and predictable shenanigans involving the CIA and KGB. (R)

ALLAN QUATERMAIN AND THE LOST CITY OF GOLD

Bargain basement clone of Steven Spielberg's "Indiana Jones" filled to the brim with traps, snakes and spear-throwing natives. The plot is as familiar and shabby as the special effects. Our stalwart hero (Richard Chamberlain) and his entourage crash through the jungle to find his missing brother and stumble over the dumb dialogue en route to the legendary city. A filmed tour of Disneyland would have been more interesting. Also with Sharon Stone and James Earl Jones. (PG)

Peter Smith Director
Hilton Big Splash

Peter Smith, a native of Hicksville and a graduate of Holy Trinity High School has been named director of house services for the University of Houston's 1987 Gourmet Night, a 350-person dinner given annually by the students of the Conrad N. Hilton College of Hotel and Restaurant Management. Peter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Smith of Hicksville, and a major in hotel and restaurant management at the university.

He will help oversee arrangements for the seven-course dinner and reception to be served to a by-invitation-only group including prominent hoteliers, restaurant owners and chefs.

The theme for the 1987 Gourmet Night, to be held March 28, will be "Hats Off to Hilton," a salute to the 100th anniversary of Conrad Hilton's birth. The menu will feature many of the dishes made famous by Hilton hotels' chefs.

The college will break ground early this spring for a $19 million dollar addition to the college, made possible by a 1983 gift to the college from the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation.

Woodland Avenue School principal, Dr. Clancy, presented National Spelling Bee certificates to the winners, Amy Entel, school champion, and Karen Zeller, school runner-up. Both students are fifth graders. The contest sponsored by Newsday was conducted by teacher, Harry Mandel. Woodland Avenue School Spelling Bee winners and their teachers, Mrs. Starnes, Amy Entel, Mr. Mandel and Karen Zeller.

Adults Volunteers

The Hicksville Library welcomes volunteer readers from the junior of Senior High School to give their opinions of new books which we secure from the Nassau Library System for the purpose writing book reviews. The reviews will then be published in the Young Adult book review order listing. Register now with the Young Adult Librarian to reserve a book to review.

The bidding

West	North	East	South
3♣	Dble	Pass	5♦
Pass	Pass	Dble

Opening lead — queen of hearts

To be a good bridge player you must not only make as few mistakes as possible, but also bid or play in such a way as to induce the enemy to make as many mistakes as possible.

Neither goal is easy to attain, but one of the most effective ways of putting pressure on the opponents, and causing them to err, is by the frequent use of preemptive bids.

For example, take this hand played in a world championship match between Italy and the United States. At one table, where the Italians held the North-South cards, the bidding went as shown. The American West opened with four clubs, which North doubled.

South now had a difficult problem to solve. To pass was out of the question, the only real problem being to choose between responding either four or five diamonds.

South elected to bid five diamonds, which turned out badly. East doubled, and the outcome was that the Italian declarer went down 700. West led the queen of hearts, which held, and shifted to the king of clubs. East ruffed dummy's ace and played the A-K and another heart. Declarer ruffed high, but East still had to get two spade tricks for down four.

At the second table, with an American pair North-South, the bidding went:

West	North	East	South
3♣	Dble	Pass	4♦
Pass	Pass	Pass

At this table, West opened three clubs, not four, and there was much less reason for a jump response. When South responded three diamonds, North had no real alternative but to pass. South went down two for a loss of 100 points.

The Italian West probably should have followed the general rule that if you decide to make a preemptive bid, you should preempt as high as possible. Had he opened with four clubs, the result at the first table might have been duplicated.

If you want to make a special announcement... make it with classified!

Nassau County Playoff Rankings

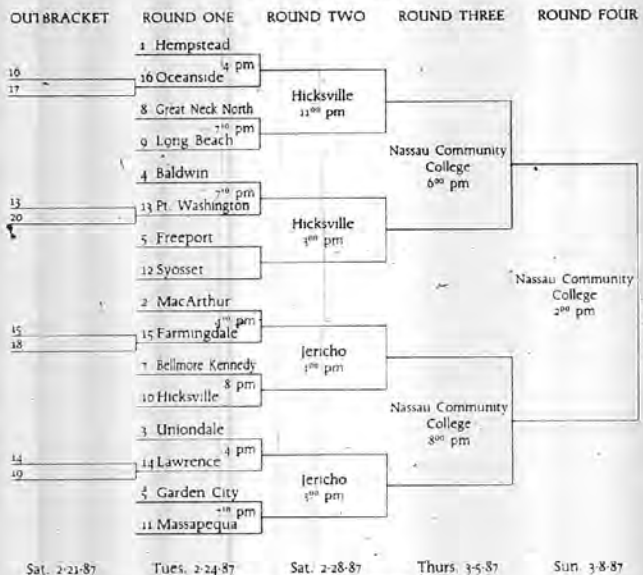

The Nassau County basketball playoffs begin this week, with 38 team participating in the yearly festivities. The classifications (A, B or C) are based on school enrollments.

The semi-finals and finals will be held this year at the Nassau Community College physical-education center in Garden City The C finals will be held Saturday, March 7 at 2 p.m., and the A and B finals start the following afternoon at 4 and 7 respectively. Old Westbury College had been the tournament site for the previous five years.

Following are the enrollments and the seedings and pairings as of press time:

"A" CLASSIFICATION

"B" CLASSIFICATION

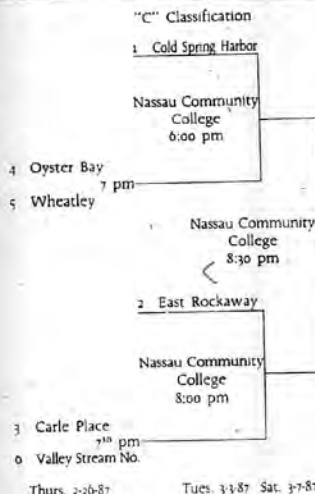

Ice Hockey at SUNY Stony Brook

The State University of New York at Stony Brook is currently in second place of the Empire Division of the Metropolitan Collegiate Hockey Conference with a record of 9 wins and 6 losses. Since the semester break the Patriots have compiled a 5 and a record defeating C.W. Post College and Columbia University twice each and the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy once.

The Patriot offense is leading the division with an average of 7.33 goals scored per game. Co-captains Chris Panatier (Dix Hills) and Gerry Bonfiglio (N. Massapequa) are 1-2 in team scoring with 15G 21A 36 points and 16G 15A 31 points respectively.

The Patriot power play has tied a team record by scoring 26 goals so far this year. The power play unit is led by Senior Andy Kinnier (Brentwood) who has 5 ppg out of the 15 he has totaled this season and by Leo Imperial (Seldon) who has tallied 4 goals with the extra man.

The Patriots who have been competing in the met conference for the past 13 seasons, are looking for high school juniors and seniors who are considering attending a four year college and who would be interested in playing inter-collegiate ice hockey. Interested players, parents or coaches may call head coach George M. Lasher, at 368-2284.

Nassau Sports Review

By JACK WHITE
Item from the "Miami Herald:"

"Football Coach Calls Timeout For Studies"

The three R's will take priority over X's and O's next football season at Boyd Anderson High in Lauderdale Lakes. In a move believed to be unprecedented in the state, Coach Ray Buscemi has decided to replace practice on Thursday afternoons with a three-hour study hall for the school's 100-plus varsity and junior varsity players.

"If we still win, it will look great," said Buscemi, whose Cobras were 8-2 last season. "If we go 5-5 people will say I'm crazy. But we'll make a commitment to it. It has to take away from our execution on the field, but I would rather have them execute in the classroom."

Buscemi's academically minded game plan is designed to deal with Proposition 48, the National Collegiate Athletic Association's education reform, and the growing number of academic requirements for high school athletes. Proposition 48 required college athletic hopefuls to have a 2.0 grade-point average in 11 core-curriculum classes and earn minimum scores of 700 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) college entrance exam.

While the coach has good intentions and more than a bit of courage, it seems to this observer that he and others are operating from a false assumption: that playing sports in high school hurts academic performance.

In fact, despite the negative publicity surrounding a small number of college players who were admitted with dubious academic credentials, the overwhelming evidence indicates that participation in extra-curricular activities enhances a student's grades. Most student-athletes learn to organize their time. They learn to balance practice with study and in many cases what is lost is wasted time. Idle hours are replaced by productive ones.

Sure there are players who neglect their studies. But there are plenty of non-athletes who don't study either. Someone needs to compile statistics on the academic performance of students who participate in no extra-curricular activities. I've been a high school teacher and sometimes-coach for twenty years and my experience tells me that those kids tend to be, in general, the turned-off minority that under-achieves. The busiest kids tend to be the most successful.

A detailed study was done this year at Garden City High School. Of the 40 boys who played on the undefeated Conference Two champion football team, 65% were enrolled in at least one honors class. All met N.C.A.A. grade requirements. And coach Tom Flatley held practice every Thursday.

So, although the Florida coach means well, the feeling here is that he could no more to enhance education by recruiting idle kids in the hallways and suiting them up for practice, not study hall.

Jack Donohue Leads St. Mary's To A 3-0 Week

St. Mary's is one of the hottest teams in the league, winning four in a row over the past 10 days, and one of the main reasons is their senior forward Jack Donohue. Jack had an outstanding game against St. John's scoring 25 points on 9-13 field goal shooting and making the winning hoop with 13 left to give his team a 64-62 victory. As a result of his efforts in that game and the two other Gael wins this week, Jack has selected NSCHSAA "Player of the Week" for the week ending Feb. 15.

Earning honorable mention for their efforts this week are St. Anthony's junior forward Mike Casey who exploded for 17 fourth quarter points in the Friars' 82-81 loss at Holy Trinity. Chris Schneider had a big hand in the St. Mary's 76-72 upset of Holy Trinity with his 34 points giving him three consecutive 30 point games. Chris, last week's award winner, still leads the league in free throw percentage at 87%.

The story of the week has been the tremendous play of St. Mary's. After suffering through a 2-7 December and a pair of blowout losses in their first two league games, they have come back to play everyone tough. Except for the St. Agnes game, they have never trailed a single league game at home at the end of regulation, defeating Holy Trinity, Chaminade, St. Dominic's and St. John's (in OT) and losing only to St. Anthony's (in 4 OT's). Winners of their last four games, they are the hottest "B" level team in the league.

With the playoffs just around the corner, only one league game carries playoff ramifications and that is the Chaminade at St. Anthony's game. If St. Anthony's wins, they finish third and play St. Doms at 3:30 at St. Doms. Chaminade would finish fifth and get their third matchup with St. Mary's. If Chaminade defeats St. Anthony's, there would be a three way tie for 3rd place and a three-way draw would occur. The team winning that draw would play at St. Doms, the other two would play each other at 8:30 on Sunday, March 1st.

Two NSCHSAA teams will participate in the state tournament, one as the "A" representative and one as the "B" rep. The "A" champ is simply the winner of the league playoffs. The "B" representative would be the team eligible for the "B" title with the best playoff record. The teams that can be "B" reps are St. Anthony's, St. Mary's, Chaminade, St. Doms and St. John's. If two "B" teams finish 2-1 in the playoffs, there will be a playoff on March 11th on a neutral site to determine the winner.

As the 1986-87 season winds down, it might be interesting to see what the class of '88 is doing this year. So here are the top ten scorers in the class of '88 1) Matthew (SJB) 21.4, Edmead (SJB) 13.2, Masi (Doms) 11.0, Williams (Agnes) 10.8, Casey (Anthony's) 10.5, Kopp (HT) 7.9, Dormer (Anthony's) 7.5, Mathis (Agnes) 7.4, Markey (Agnes) 7.2, Shevers (HT) 7.2.

Senior Softball League Enters 10th Season

The major league baseball players will be heading south for spring training on March 1st, but here on Long Island there are some senior athletes of 60-years-and-over who are just as serious about the national pastime.

These are the players of the 11-team Long Island Senior Softball Association, a league now entering its 10th year of existence and has become one of the fastest-growing senior endeavors on Long Island. With the aid and sponsorship of the various senior citizen centers, this league has many former high school, college, sandlot and organized players from the minor leagues on their rosters, and the many spectators who follow these games will attest to the skills of these "Kids of the '30s".

From an informal beginning at Eisenhower Park in 1975 with some older players just wishing to play ball, the league has evolved into a strong organization which is now incorporated into what is now known as L.I.S.S.A., the Long Island Senior Softball Association, which plays a 40-game regular season schedule and culminates with an 8-team playoff with an overall championship playoff prior to Labor Day.

The teams play doubleheaders each Tuesday and Thursday at 10 A.M. starting in May and the regular season ends in mid-August. In addition several of the teams compete in national tournaments around the nation, and this year there are three to four teams from the league entered in such tournaments in Detroit, Cortland, N.Y., Las Vegas and Clearwater, Florida. During the month of June Nassau County is also sponsoring its first annual tournament, with teams coming in from all over the country to compete against the Long Islanders. With the spreading of these senior leagues throughout the United States more competition can be expected to open up as the various organizations learn of each other and communication from the senior citizen centers is handling this new-found athletic vista for the '30s kids.

The Long Island league came into existence in 1978 with three teams, the Nassau Indians, Brookhaven Streaks and the Freeport Seagulls, after they had played informally with each other and whoever else wished to play in those days. From 1975 to 1977 it was a choose-up sides competition, but in '78 they played a regular schedule and the Nassau Indians (now the Nassau Chase Generals) were the first official champs as they dominated the league for several years.

In 1979 the Town of Oyster Bay Tobay Tigers and Smithtown Bulls joined and since then the league has expanded into the 11-team Nassau-Suffolk senior citizen-backed league with several corporate sponsors also joining in helping the players get into action.

The additional teams since 1979 are the Valley Stream Boys and Oyster Bay Pirates in 1983; the Town of Hempstead Eagles, Nassau Chase Admirals and Brookhaven Bees in '85 and the Glen Cove Vikings in '86. Several of these teams were formed from the extra players of existing teams as the rosters expanded and thus the need for more teams from the same geographical areas.

There are still openings for more players as the league becomes well-known, and those wishing to play, please contact league president Bob Fountain at 516-825-0618 (evenings) or write him, c/o L.I.S.S.A., P.O. Box 308, Valley Stream, New York 11582.

Hicksville Police Athletic League

By CHARLETTE ANSTAY

Some of the kids in our programs were disappointed that Hicksville schools closed this week because they couldn't participate in basketball or judo. This behavior has a lot to say for the success of our programs.

There is something very special that occurs when a child comes into one of our programs not knowing what he or she is doing and at the end has a knowledge of the sport.

Because our programs stress participation and good sportsmanship, even the kids that don't do well are encouraged on by their own team, coaches and parents. Many times you will see a kid that hasn't scored a basket or hit a baseball get encouragement from both team's parents.

Police Officer Bill Toelstedt gets most of the credit for setting up the programs. Even though Bill doesn't live in our area, he feels it is important for the youth of Hicksville and surrounding areas to have programs such as we have. Bill's children participate in Hicksville PAL sports.

For the young children who join our organization it is a time to learn a sport the right way. By the time they attend the Junior or Senior High Schools, the sportsmanship and friendships they have made make it an easier adjustment.

A special thank you to all the kids, coaches, volunteers and parents who make the Hicksville PAL what it is.
