Local Plant Operations Cause Uproar

By RITA LANGDON

In an effort to be "good neighbors," representatives from Twin County Recycling and American Medical Waste Systems spoke about their plant's operations and future plans in response to residents' complaints about their facilities, at the July 21 meeting of the Duffy Park Civic Association.

Local civic groups have been battling for almost two months now, the American Medical Wastes Systems, 344 Duffy Ave., Hicksville, which deals in the transporting of potentially infectious hospital waste products. Residents are concerned about "airborne viruses" that may pose a threat to nearby schools (Old Country Road and Bums Avenue), Cantiague Park, as well as surrounding area homes. Residents are also concerned with Twin County Recycling Corporation, 449 W. John St., which is an asphalt plant as well as a recycler of construction material. According to residents' complaints, because of the plant, a "foul, asphalt smell" is often in the area of West John Street and its surrounding vicinities.

Twin County Recycling

"This company," according to Kathy Del Rosso, president of the Duffy Park Civic Association, "is responsible for the noise, dust, piles of debris and odors of asphalt that often pervade our neighborhood." The Northwest Civic Association also shares the same concern as Duffy Park, because Northwest Civic is located in the area behind Stern's, North Broadway, which is near West John Street, the location of Twin County, said Garry Hansen, vice president of Duffy Park. "They have the same problem we do and they support us in working with each other on it," he added. A Hicksville Garden's Civic Association representative announced at the meeting, in reference to the civic association's fight, "We will be supportive in anything you have to do. We are not going to take it anymore."

The Duffy Park Civic group and the Northwest Civic leaders met with the general manager of Twin County and they told him what their concerns were, Mr. Hansen announced at the meeting. "We feel they understand our problem," said Mr. Hansen, "they have a permit which will allow them to operate until 1992. We would rather they operate as a 'good neighbor' and not emit fumes, dust, dirt and noise." He also mentioned that the civic groups would not like to wait until 1992 to shut them down as they are more interested in solving the problem today.

Richard Petrarca, quality control engineer at Twin County, spoke at the meeting about the plant's operations and goals.

Mr. Petrarca said his plant accepts construction material that is ripped up from present roadway projects; curbs, sidewalks and pavements. It is then brought to the site and crushed and the outcome of the compressed material can be used again for roadways. "I would estimate that the Town of Oyster Bay, within the last seven or eight years, has an equivalent of about 270 miles of road that has been produced with this material at a substantial savings to the community and to the taxpayers." He also mentioned that his company has a second part to its operations, its asphalt plant which opened sometime in TWIN COUNTY RECYCLING, Corp., located on West John Street, has local civic associations in an uproar over the "foul, asphalt smell" that pervades the areas surrounding the plant.

Willet Ave. Instructor Is Teacher of the Year

Renee Fisher, second grade teacher at Willet Avenue School who retired from the Hicksville Public Schools in June, was selected Teacher of the Year by the Red Lobster Restaurant in Hicksville.

Nominated by the district in recognition of her many years of excellent service and dedication to the children of Hicksville, Mrs. Fisher was welcomed to the restaurant by

General Manager Robert Calabrese, who presented her with a check and a certificate commemorating her selection for this year's honor. Superintendent of Schools Dr. Catherine J. Fenton was also on hand to congratulate Mrs. Fisher and to express the district's thanks for her outstanding contribution to education in Hicksville.

Man Injured Jumping Out Of Moving Jeep

An 18-year-old man was seriously injured after he jumped out of a moving vehicle on Old Country Road to purchase burritos at a Hicksville Taco Bell at approximately 1 p.m. on July 18, according to the Eighth Precinct.

Miklos Petervary, 18, of Mill Neck, was operating his 1987 Jeep when his passenger, Kenneth Kudrena, 18, of Levittown, unbuckled his seat belt and told Miklos to slow down because he was going to jump out of the vehicle to get burritos at Taco Bell, while Miklos drove to Plainview to pickup a friend.

As the Jeep slowed down, Kudrena jumped out and landed on his left shoulder and head and rolled into the roadway. He was taken to Nassau County Medical Center, East Meadow, where he was admitted in critical condition. He was later transferred to the Intensive Care Unit in stable, but serious condition with head and shoulder injuries.

No charges have been filed.

1982. Mr. Petrarca said "in both instances, we have been conscious of the potential problems, especially with the asphalt plant." Twin County has been trying to eliminate the hydrocarbons that get into the atmosphere from the asphalt products, according to Mr. Petrarca. They have spent a considerable amount of money on a pollution control device, he added. "As far as the dust situation," Mr. Petrarca continued, "we have installed sprinklers at every point in the plant," as well as "on paved road areas."

"We have made a diligent effort to try to be a 'good neighbor.' We have spent a lot of money to make sure that our system is run properly. We want to be cooperative," Mr. Petrarca concluded.

American Medical Waste Systems

American Medical Waste Systems, according to Mrs. Del Rosso, has been transporting and temporarily storing such things as red plastic bags containing intravenous containers and tubes and other related material. She also claims that potential infectious wastes are being handled in an unsafe manner as employees are not using protective gear.

Jim Alessandria, president of American Transfer, Inc., a separate entity of AMWS, but also located at 344 Duffy Avenue, addressed the Duffy Park Civic Association on his concerns about the residents' complaints. "My main concern, as a business man, is to remain viable. I have my dollars and my life sunk in to the Hicksville facility," Mr. Alessandria said. He also mentioned that he was looking for the community's support in "making Hicksville a better Hicksville, together." Due to the complaints of the local civic organizations, in a letter to Mrs. Del Rosso, written by Larry Lawrence, general manager of AMWS, said that "on or about Nov. 1, 1987, all business relating to the handling of infectious wastes will be removed from premises" of 344 Duffy Ave. In response to the letter, Mr. Alessandria said, "We did make a solid gesture in removal of the medical waste business. I realize it's an emotional problem. The decision wasn't easy to reach but I felt that something had to be done."

In regard to Mr. Alessandria's proposal of removing the wastes from the Duffy Avenue site sometime in November, one member of the audience said they "couldn't go on empty promises." Mr. Alessandria then asked the residents to give him a "fair arena" to work in because he does not have a "15-year track" record under his belt.

Oyster Bay Town Councilman Thomas Clark also spoke at the meeting. He explained that AMWS is located in the wrong zone. They are currently operating in an area zoned for what is termed "light industry" when it should be in an area zoned for "heavy industry."

"They really don't belong there," Councilman Clark said. "No one wants them there. I don't know anyone in town hall who supports them. As far as I'm concerned they should be out tomorrow."

Mrs. Del Rosso said that the Department of Environmental Conservation, the Town of Oyster Bay and various officials are aware of the problems relating to both Twin County and AMWS. "Things are being done to clean it up. This is not just Hicksville's problem. With all the communication I have had with the DEC and the Nassau County Board of Health Department, I feel encouraged. I feel positive that things are being done."

MEMBERS OF THE Duffy Park Civic Association last month held a demonstration outside of the District Court in Hicksville against American Medical Waste Systems.

Hicksville Civic Associations Form Coalition

By ELLIE DRAYCOTT

Representatives from the existing and newly reactivated civic associations met on July 20 at the Hicksville Public Library to unite in their interests and to set up a line of communication with each other.

Realizing that many of the concerns and problems facing the residents of Hicksville relate to the entire community, not just a single area, a coalition of the civic groups has been formed. Each civic association has its specific goals and its own character of problems. The logistics of our town created, by the Long Island Rail Road, Old Country Road and Broadway tend to separate Hicksville into little communities within one large one. Awareness of the issues facing one area is often not realized by residents in other area of town. The coalition is an effort to unite the community; to work together in conjunction with our elected officials, to resolve our problems in an open and constructive way.

The first meeting of the Council of Civic Associations of Hicksville was attended by Kathy Del Rosso and Gary Hansen of Duffy Park, Rose Maggio of Hicksville Gardens, Maryann Ferrado, Bob Dwyer and Mike Regan of Northwest, Margaret Kelly and Cathy Greenfield of West Green, Glenn Sutker and Joe De Pompa of Northeast, Tom and Fran McGovern of Giese Park, Eileen Richards and Ellie Draycott of Midland.

Anyone interested in forming a civic association or reactivating a dormant civic association in the areas not yet represented may contact Tom McGovern, 938-7309, or Ellie Draycott, 935-5793 for assistance.

Ocker and Receiver of Taxes Gary F. Mustello.

Residents may also pay in person at the Receiver of Taxes Office, Oyster Bay Town Hall West, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay and at Town Hall South, 977 Hicksville Road, Massapequa, during the hours of 9 AM to 4:45 PM, weekdays.

Suggs Lane 3rd Annual Block Party

On July 11th the 3rd Annual Suggs Lane Block started out with one of the most beautiful days we've had this summer. All the families brought their barbecues and picnic tables out into the street and everyone cooked and ate all day long. Games were played by children and grownups alike. The children played some of the old fashioned games like trying to eat a donut hanging on a string from a tree—without touching it; hula hoop contests, peanut races, etc. The grownups played even sillier games—much to the delight of the youngsters.

There was a dessert table which everyone contributed to... and enjoyed. Great music, over loudspeakers, was supplied all day and the families would like to publicly thank Jerry Schreiber for his playing the part of a Deejay and supplying the music.

Among the families attending were: Linda and Mike Hack; Kay and John Harrington and their nephew Paul Matthews who is here visiting from Brazil with his children Jason and David. Also at their table were very good friends of Kay and John—Helen and Pete who came to join in the fun.

Also Trudy Kraemer, and her family who are hosting Trudy's mother, Anna Blumberg, who is visiting from Wuppertal, West Germany. Mrs. Blumberg is 93 years old and enjoyed the party tremendously.

And then there was Art and Betty Larson and family; Dot and Bill Rogoza and their family and Margaret Clancy, Eileen and her son Timmy.

The Goldthwaites were on vacation in Pennsylvania but the neighbors took advantage and used their garbage can. The Goldthwaites were sorry that they missed it. But the Chuck's were there and so was Karen, Mark, Ryan and Matthew Thomas and their guests Patti and Ricky and their children.

Everyone agreed it was a great day—and they're all looking forward to next year's party.

TO YOUR HEALTH

By RICHARD H. BLAU, M.D.

Raynaud's Syndrome - Its Relationship To Arthritis

Raynaud's (pronounced ra-noz) is a circulatory disease and can be associated with many types of arthritis. Often, the problem causes the fingers (or toes) to turn white, blue and finally red. This abnormality usually occurs when the fingers are exposed to the cold. However, this phenomenon can also occur under emotional stress, environmental changes or drug exposure.

The cause of Raynaud's is not known. Certain evidence suggests a spasm involving the blood vessels. Once this spasm occurs, the blood supply to the fingers is impaired and they turn white. With continual lack of oxygen, the fingers turn blue. As the blood vessels expand, blood rushes in and the fingers turn red. Many patients with Raynaud's experience little more than occasional discomfort in the cold weather.

Often, people with this disorder come to the attention of the rheumatologist (arthritis specialist) because they have an associated arthritic condition. Types of arthritis associated with Raynaud's include rheumatoid arthritis, lupus, scleroderma and mixed connective tissue disease. Although many people with Raynaud's may never develop arthritis, the occurrence of Raynaud's may be a very early sign of arthritis.

The diagnosis of this disorder is usually made on the basis of a medical history and a complete physical examination. This is done to make certain that an associated arthritis is not present.

Treatment of Raynaud's is a specialty of the rheumatologist. If the symptoms are mild, little treatment may be needed. For more severe problems, medications are available and are helpful.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach - An Arthritis Overview."

Last Week's 'Memories' Column

Milt Levitt writes to Leo and George in reference to last week's column... that the shoemaker on the corner of East Barclay Street and Broadway was Mr. Berahon... and the Chinese laundry was Tom Lee's - not Lum's... also the first TV in Hicksville was at Spiro's not Unverhau's. Spiro's was next to the only liquor store - Al Maglin's.

Milt - George was saying that his grandchildren always ask him: "How did you know you were poor when you were growing up?"... and he always answers: "When the elastic on your underwear stretched out so much that it fell to your knees... and when your shoes became musical... the sole would break away from the shoe - and it would squeak and flap when you walked. He said it was not a crime to be poor - a lot of people were - but they still enjoyed their lives... ask anybody who lived through the depression and they'll agree. Anyone out there have any stories they want to tell about the depression days???... write in about them.

Charles Wagner Post #421, Hicksville

POW/MIA Recognition Week, September 13-19; a ceremony starts at 8 p.m. on September 18 at the Veterans Memorial in Eisenhower Park. It includes a candlelight vigil for our POW/MIA. Bring your family and spread the word. A united America can display determination to account for our fighting forces. "Leatherneck" magazine states 78,000 men are unaccounted for from World War II.

On Friday, July 24, Commander Christo presented County Commander Hochbrueckner with a personalized gavel on behalf of our post membership. Harry Christo and Wes Tietjen served as the Color Guard for the county meeting last Friday at Williston Post. Commander Hochbrueckner states the region will consider helping veterans at Pilgrim State Mental Hospital. He called these vets-forgotten vets.

Installation Dinner: is scheduled for Tuesday, September 8 at Hicksville VFW. Please attend to support your past officers.

Roosevelt Raceway: Wes Tietjen, PC, has planned a dinner and evening at the race tracks' Cloud Casino on Friday, September 11. The cost is $20 per person. Wes guarantees a grand time for all.

The County will soon be having a Back to God ceremony and a Past Commanders Dinner. Dates and times will be in the next column.

This column honors Medal of Honor winner John William Finn, who as a US Navy Lieutenant during the first attack on Pearl Harbor manned a completely exposed .50 caliber machine gun at Kanoe Bay Air Station. He returned fire although wounded many times. After first aid he supervised the rearming of planes although he was in great pain.

Did you see the movie, "The Hanoi Hilton?" chances are you didn't because it vanished very quickly from local theaters. The movie was based on interviews with 300 former POW's. Public response our release this film. Write: Joyce Wagoner, Cannon Films, 640 S. San Vicente Blvd., Los Angeles, Ca. 90048.

Carry on until next meeting. Sign up a member today. Bring stamps for vets. Remember our POW/MIA.

William Hayday Speaks at Rotary Meeting

Rotarian William Hayday, president and CEO of the Bowe Systems and Machinery Corp., Hicksville, was the featured speaker at a recent meeting of the Hicksville-Jericho Rotary Club.

Mr. Hayday, secretary of the club, gave to members and guests an exciting account of the annual sailboat race he competed in recently from Marion, Massachusetts to Bermuda. The 630 mile race was made in a 42 foot sailboat "SONG" with a crew of eight and they completed the run in three days and 15 hours. Only the barest of navigational aids of the type used in a bygone era including a sextant and a compass were allowed. Mr.

William Hayday

Hayday and the crew placed a respectable 28th place among 158 craft participating. Following the presentation a question and answer period ensued and a Certificate of Appreciation was awarded to Mr. Hayday by acting rotay president Frederick Meyer.

Carrier Alert Celebrates 5th Anniversary

Five summers ago, the Postal Service, the National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) and the National Rural Carrier Association organized "Carrier Alert". Last June president Ronald Reagan presented the NALC with a Volunteer Action Award for its participation in Carrier Alert.

Carrier Alert is a volunteer community service provided by the Postal Service. Letter carriers watch participating customer's mailboxes for unusual accumulations of mail that might be a sign of illness or injury. The Postal Service then reports the situation to a sponsoring social service agency, through locally developed procedures, for follow-up. Over 30 post offices have registered over 1,000 Hicksville Division postal customers for Carrier Alert. In the past five years carriers throughout the Hicksville Division have been commended for saving lives of elderly customers whose mail was building up.

"Carrier Alert shows how much we care about our customers, not just their business," says Roger Nienaber, general manager/postmaster of the Hicksville division. "The Postal Service is a good neighbor in every community in the country. We walk the sidewalks and drive the roads throughout Long Island and around the nation everyday. And Carrier Alert shows how we watch out for the people in our community while we deliver the mail."

COLBY COMMENTS

Every evening in the Town of Oyster Bay residents are tapping their toes and snapping their fingers.

The expanded "Music Under the Stars" program is drawing hundreds and, for many programs, thousands of people to our parks and beaches.

With four full weeks left of musical entertainment you still have an opportunity to spend many wonderful evenings under the stars, at no cost.

Here are just a few of the outstanding upcoming programs you can enjoy. There's the American Concert Band directed by Kirby Jolly on Sunday, August 2nd, at the Plainview-Old Bethpage Community Park. On Wednesday, August 5th, The Belmonts/Shirley Alton Reeves and The Shirelles will take center stage at the Syosset-Woodbury Community Park and Earl Wrightson and Lois Hunt entertain with "Music of the American Theater" at Ellsworth Allen Town Park in Farmingdale on Monday, August 17th.

Two Broadway productions are scheduled. "The King and I", directed by Kevin Harrington, is a fully staged play at the Syosset-Woodbury Community Park on August 12th, and "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat", also produced by Kevin Harrington, will be presented at the Bethpage Community Park on August 13th.

For those who enjoy moving to the music, there are still "Dancing Under the Stars" evenings for you. On Friday, July 31st, music will be provided by The Big Band Association at Tappen Beach in Glenwood Landing. Dom Musicaro's Orchestra entertains on Saturday, August 1st, at Syosset-Woodbury Community Park and on August 8th, The Phil Costa Orchestra plays at Marjorie R. Post Community Park in Massapequa. The final evening of dancing is provided by Sonny Land's Long Island All Star Band on Saturday, August 22nd, at Marjorie R. Post Community Park.

Ending the summer season with a flourish, Dean Karahalls will conduct two Labor Day weekend concerts. With a superb group of musicians under his baton, Dean will perform on Friday evening, September 4th, at John Burns Park, Massapequa and on Saturday evening, September 5th, at Tappen Beach.

All evening programs, including those on the Labor Day weekend, begin at 8:15 p.m. In the event of rain there are alternate indoor locations.

Schedules for the free "Music Under the Stars" program are still available at all Town parks and beaches or you can call CAPA at 795-5943 and have one sent to your home.

Once you attend one of our free concerts I know you'll be back for more.

Seminar On Supreme Court Rulings On Land Use

The Association for a Better Long Island, in conjunction with the Center for Business Research of Long Island University, has announced the co-sponsoring of a comprehensive seminar which will focus on the recent Supreme Court decisions that legal observers say significantly strengthens the positions of landowners and developers and may very well alter the future economic growth of Long Island.

The seminar will be held in the Library at the CW Post Campus of LIU in Brookville on Wednesday, August 5, and is open to members of the press and experts in the field of government, law and regional planning.

"These decisions by the high court, as it relates to property rights, will have a profound impact on Long Island's future growth and direction. Members of the Association for a Better Long Island, along with the leadership of Long Island University believe an open discussion of this issue is appropriate and very much needed," explained Roger Tilles, co-chairman of the Association.

Last month the Supreme Court limited the power of government regulators to grant public access to private property and published reports indicate the ruling may curtail governmental authority to impose other restrictions and obligations for property owners. This ruling comes on the heels of an earlier Supreme Court decision that requires compensation to be paid to landowners where they have been deprived of all use of their property, even temporarily, by government action.

Leading experts in the field of planning and law are expected to be panelists with seminar attendees coming from local and state governments, private industry, the law and professional planning groups.

Speakers will offer advice on the court ruling, discuss the legal theory behind the ruling, the practical impact of the court's decision on Long Island, inverse condemnation, as well as offer insight as to the future course of the region in the wake of the court decisions.

"I am Ruth Randazzo from Hicksville.

I came to Brush Hollow Arms eight years ago as my family had their own children and I found myself in the middle of family discussions. I discovered Brush Hollow Arms and started a new life. I am at liberty to travel, visit, remain independent yet have my medications monitored, diet evaluated and find a multitude of activities in which to participate with my great friends here at Brush Hollow. If you are a senior citizen needing some independence yet monitoring - you can't find a better place to live. You'll love it - Come see us. RUTH. Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed, (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only. We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Hicksville Aviation Clubhouse

The historic Hicksville Aviation Club has been the subject of previous articles in the Hicksville Illustrated News.

The reports recorded that the main clubhouse had been broken in parts and converted into several houses in Hicksville. Pictured is one on Field Avenue which had been moved to its present location in 1950. The structure was used by club members including Colonel Charles and Mrs. Lindberg who were members of the Aviation Club. The field and clubhouse were originally located on the plain south of Jerusalem Avenue, beyond Alexander Avenue.

When the clubhouse section was first moved to the Field Avenue site the asking price unimproved was $32,000 in 1958.

'State Of The Art Robotics'

"Hello," my brand new 'State of the Art' answering machine says, "this is Jan Marino. I can't come to the telephone right now but if you'll leave your name and telephone number I'll be happy to call you back as soon as I can."

"Who cares what her answering machine says," I can hear somebody out there saying?

Well, I know nobody cares, but it's important for you to know I have one because of what I am about to tell you.

Last week when I checked my machine for messages a strange voice said: "Hello. My name is John K. Smith and I'm with The Bobbsey Investment Company (names changed to protect the guilty) and I'd like to ask you a few questions. Is that all right with you?"

A short pause. "Well," the voice went on, "that's just great."

Another short pause. "At the tone, would you be good enough to give me your name? Would you spell it for me, please?"

Yet another pause and another tone. "Thanks a lot. Now may I have your address and would you verify your 'phone number?"

Pause again, tone again. "Whoops," the voice said, "almost forgot the most important part of this conversation: Would you rather I call back in the day or the evening?"

Pause. Tone. "Thanks a lot for your time. A Bobbsey representative will be in touch with you soon. Goodbye for now," the Bobbsey Investment Company's 'State of the Art' machine said to my machine.

"Is that not the ultimate?" I said to my husband. But before he could answer another message came on: "Hi, there. I'm Debbie from Debbie's Aerobic Exercise Studio (names have not been changed to protect the guilty) and I'd like to tell you about our studio. Is that all right with you?"

A short pause. "Well," Debbie went on, "that's just great, because we have a terrific program designed especially for your full-figured woman..."

Table Prayer Vote Petition Of July 1962

*The Hicksville Board of Education received a petition of over 500 signatures at its regular meeting, Friday night, from Howard F. Van Allen of 9 Layton Ave., Hicksville, calling for a referendum as soon as possible to get public approval or disapproval of the adoption of a portion of The Star Spangled Banner, which may be said as a prayer in public schools.

The petition reads: "[Please] permit the people of Hicksville to ratify or vote against your recent action in adopting a portion of The Star Spangled Banner for voluntary classroom recitation instead of the U.S. Supreme Court-outlawed Regents Prayer. . . . The singing or reciting of the National Anthem should be part of the citizenship education program in public schools.

"We vigorously oppose any move to have The Star Spangled Banner, or any portion of it, banned as the Regents Prayer has been banned, . . . especially since God has been 'expelled' from the public schools by the U.S. Supreme Court."

After months of vigorous deliberation in Hicksville as well as Albany, and a petition to have William A. Bruno Jr. removed from his office on the Board of Education, the State Education Commissioner, James All, ruled that The Star Spangled Banner may be hummed, sung, or recited in public schools, but cannot be labeled 'a prayer.' Allen did not object to a provision of silent meditation.

'HS Denison' Makes First Flight July 1962

*'HS (for Hydrofoil Ship) Denison' made headlines in newspapers and magazines across the country with its spectacular first flight. Upon successful completion of tests, the ship will be turned over to the Maritime Administration, which plans to charter it to Grace Lines for passenger service between Florida and the Bahamas.

Mail Obscenity Arrests Increase August, 1962

*The post office department established new record highs in mail obscenity investigations, arrests and conviction during fiscal year 1962, according to Acting Postmaster Irene L. Murphy. Arrests were up 35 percent over the previous year due to the implementing of a strict obscenity law enforcement program.

Two Youngsters Raise $6 For Orphans July 1962

*Two 10 year olds, Kathleen Reinhardt and Patricia Smith, of Berkland Avenue, Hicksville decided to hold a Penny Auction Sale of their used toys and games on the Reinhardt patio. The theme being "Pennies for Orphans," the girls made $6 which they forwarded to a remote orphanage in far away Italy.

Sense In The Sun

Now that summer is here, the American Cancer Society recommends being careful while engaging in sports, leisure activities, or outdoor work under the sun. For your best protection:

- *Stay out of the sun when its rays are strongest.
- *Cover up with clothing.
- *Do a self-exam of your skin regularly to note any changes in moles, blemishes, or birthmarks.
- *Use a sunblock or sunscreen with a high

SPF rating.

- *Watch out for reflected rays.
- *Don't use indoor sunlamps, tanning salons, or tanning pills.
- *Most of all, avoid unnecessary exposure to the sun.

Sun, the source of most of our pleasures, can be harmful in the long run. So remember, enjoy your summer and adopt sensible sun habits! For more information on sun protection, call the American Cancer Society at 385-9100.

COMMUTER SURVEY - Assemblyman Fred Parola (R-C, Wantagh) greets an early morning commuter during his 10th annual survey of commuter service on the Long Island Railroad. Parola said that while most commuters agree that on-time performance has improved, parking, cleanliness and air conditioning continue to be problem areas. In a letter to LIRR management, Parola urged the railroad to make serving the commuter its No. 1 priority.

EDITORIAL AND OPINION

What The Politicians Are Saying

The U.S House of Representatives has approved legislation containing a ban on smoking on Long Island Rail Road trains, according to an announcement by Robert J. Mirazek (D-Centerport). Unless the ban is imposed, this bill would withhold federal spending totaling about $400 million from the LIRR's parent Metropolitan Transport Authority.

Secretary Of State Gail M. Shaffer has announced a revised charities law now in effect as of July 1 of this year which includes definitions of "professional fund raiser" and "commercial co-venturer"; increased disclosure requirements for both charities and fund raisers; added protection for charities in dealing with professional fund raisers; and making it more prominent in the literature that the annual report is available. Copies of the law can be obtained by writing to: New York State Department of State, Office of Charities Registration; 162 Washington Avenue, Albany, N.Y. 12231.

The savings of upwards of $4 million are possible in the Town of Hempstead, according to Edward A. Grause, Democratic candidate for presiding supervisor; and Vicki DeJong, supervisor candidate. (They) urged the consolidation of the office of Receiver of Taxes, Data Processing, Alcohol Addiction, and the Civil Service Commission into the County Government.

Assemblyman Tom DiNapoli (D-Great Neck) had his first piece of legislation signed into law by the governor recently. The bill amends the domestic relations law to allow city, town, and village justices the right to perform marriage ceremonies anywhere within the state. This new law will enhance the availability of justices to solemnize marriages and in some cases will enable a greater number of couples to have a more meaningful ceremony.

Enrollment for the state's new Elderly Pharmaceutical Insurance Coverage Program (EPIC) which is aimed at helping offset costs of prescription drug purchases for lower and moderate income senior citizens began July 1, according to an announcement by Assemblyman Gregory R. Becker (R-C. Lynbrook) Information and instructions are available by calling toll free 1-800-332-EPIC.

Senators Daniel Patrick Moynihan and Alphonse D'Amato have joined other senators in requesting a Bicentennial Lighthouse Fund appropriation of $25 million over 3 years. The fund would assist local groups in the creation of historic lighthouse parks along the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Locally, eligible projects would include Montauk and Lloyd's Harbor.

Charles J. O'Shea (R-C Baldwin) has urged the veto of co-called Paternity Legislation. He said, "Blood testing is only one piece of evidence which should be considered when a judge determines affiliation between the alleged father and the child...More research is needed on this vital matter before the legislation should become law."

By ASSEMBLYMAN JOHN C. COCHRANE

It takes a special kind of caring to meet the unique needs of the terminally ill. Despite all of our medical advances, the fact remains that people are not immortal and many individuals are stricken by fatal diseases, such as cancer, that follow an extremely painful and prolonged course of death.

Hospice care is designed to treat dying patients and prepare them for a death with dignity. The services offered by hospices are unique in that they treat not just the patient, but the family unit as well. Hospices attend to the patient's spiritual, psychological and physical need and help the family members in the acceptance and mourning process.

Hospice care is delivered by an interdisciplinary team, including medical staff, clergy, social workers and psychologists. Services are available 24 hours a day and encompass both home and inpatient care.

In seeking hospice services, both the patient and family members must determine they no longer desire a treatment plan focused on attempting to cure the illness. Most hospices require a diagnosis that a person is suffering from a fatal disease and has a life expectancy of six months or less before they will admit a patient to the program.

The goal of hospice care is to enable each patient to live as fully and as comfortably as possible during the time of illness. The patient is treated for pain and the symptoms accompanying the illness are controlled, but no heroic cures are sought.

Hospices are increasingly recognized as the preferred method of caring for the terminally ill and their families. In addition to offering patients specialized treatment, the hospices have proven to be a cost-effective approach to caring for the terminally ill. There are currently 16 hospices throughout New York State.

The hospice movement, begun nearly 10 years ago, has received national attention. Both Medicare and Medicaid programs provide some reimbursement for hospice services and several employers and labor organizations, including General Electric company, Westinghouse and the United Auto Workers, include hospice coverage in their employee health insurance plans.

The State Blue Cross Plan also has added hospice services as a benefit for all state, school district and municipal employees and their families.

Hospice care is patient responsive—it enables families to keep the family member at home for as long as possible and provides the necessary support to help everyone involved cope with the trauma and stress of terminal illness.

The volunteer and professional staffs are providing an invaluable service to our community and we commend all those who are involved with providing these hospice services.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...Do you remember "my best friend"—do you hear yourself saying "my best friend" when you introduced her to others?...I am saying "her" because I think it was only girls who used the "best friend" phrase...Boys, as I recall said, "My pal", "my buddy" or, being boys, probably nothing...But the "best friend" is a very special designation...It means so many things—the person who never told your secrets—especially about what boy you were secretly mad about...who read your diary and allowed you to read hers...who helped you with your homework in the subjects she could do better than you...who walked to and from school with you and stood, endlessly, on the street corner of your block hoping that "he" would ride by on his bike...who went home and immediately called and talked for more hours about terribly important things—boys and clothes and, in those depression days, where we were going to get the money to go to the Saturday movie...and, of course, she "slept over"...I can still hear my Mother calling, "Will you two stop talking and go to sleep!"...And if by some chance, you are one of the very lucky ones, and your "best friend" from seventh grade is still your "best friend", oh my, are you fortunate—for there is nothing like having someone who knows your foolish high school vocabulary, like "shon gongle" (that was a kind of Betty Book curl on the cheek that we found stylish for a while) and who remembers marching behind the band to the football games wearing our school's red and white colors, and who remembers that your Mother was certain that guy you finally married would never be able to support you...and who was the maid of honor at your wedding, and you at hers...and who remembers that her highly successful younger son liked to scream very loudly when you took him into stores to shop...It has often been said that if you have one really trustworthy, reliable "best friend", you will never need a psychoanalyst...and I believe it...How I wish that all of you had a "best friend".

Yours, Lulabelle

Installed recently as the first female members of the Hicksville-Jericho Rotary Club were Jan Manaskie (L) and Ellen Bruwer.

Rotary Club Installs First Female Members

The installation of new members into Rotary International is always a memorable experience and such was the occasion at a recent special luncheon when Jan Manaskie, associate editor, Hicksville Illustrated News and Ellen Bruwer, Montana Realty, became members. What makes this noteworthy is that Rotarians Manaskie and Bruwer became the first female members in the 36 year history of the previously all-male club. The installation was conducted by Rotary District 75 Governor Al Sorrentino who pinned on the new members the Rotary pin emblematic of membership. They both briefly addressed the club members on their background and goals in membership. Prior to the ceremony they were indoctrinated and given background brochures on Rotary International by past president Arthur Pettorino.

News Notes From Hicksville-Jericho Rotary Club

The July 16 meeting was opened at 12:15 by vice president Fred Meyer who is standing in for president Al Levine. As most of us know, Al is out of the hospital recuperating from surgery. He looks great and is getting stronger every day. Everyone at the club sends their warmest regards to Al and wishes him a "Sir Speedy" recovery.

Today's Sgt. at Arms was the very capable Vince Masciana.

Guests and Visiting Rotarians: At the meeting we welcomed Jan Manaskie and Ellen Bruwer who were guests for the last time since they were inducted as our two newest members. Jan Manaskie was sponsored by Dr. Ron Platt and Ellen Bruwer was sponsored by Dr. Peter Rocco. We were also fortunate to welcome our district governor Al Sorrentino; Jordan Koplan, president of the West Hempstead Rotary; Charles Montana, Sr., guest of Ellen Bruwer and a member of the Hicksville Kiwanis; John Spiezo, guest of Harry Smith and member of the Hicksville Kiwanis; and Gayle Bernstein, guest of Harry Peltz.

Happy Dollars: Lots of happy dollars were given at this meeting for a variety of reasons. We were happy to induct two new members, Ellen and Jan, for Al Levine's health, for the pleasure of having our district governor at today's meeting, and for all the guests at the meeting. Contributors were Fred Meyer, Pete Rocco, Ron Platt, Art Pettorino, John Hill, Ellen Bruwer, Charlie Montana and John Spiezo, Jan Manaskie, Vince Masciana, and Al Sorrentino.

Scholarships: This year's scholarship luncheon will be held Thursday, July 23. Committee chairman Bill Hayday has arranged for past scholarship winners to attend as well. This year two students were selected for scholarships. One is from Hicksville High School and one is from Jericho High School. We expect a very good turnout from the membership to honor these fine students.

The Hicksville-Jericho Fall Gold Outing

Classic will be held Thursday, October 8, 1987 at the Bethpage State Park. The fee is $75, which includes greens fees, carts, use of lockers and showers, breakfast and dinner with cocktail hour. If you have ever attended our golf outings you know what a tremendous day it is. On the committee are Harry Peltz, Harry Smith, and Mike Racioc. President-elect Fred Meyer asked all members to get involved and make this outing the most successful event to date.

New Members Inducted: History was made at the meeting as the Hicksville-Jericho Rotary inducted women as members for the first time in its 36 year history. Past president Arthur Pettorino indoctrinated our two newest members, Ellen Bruwer and Jan Manaskie, before today's meeting.

President-elect Fred Meyer called Jan Manaskie and Ellen Bruwer up to the dais and called upon our district governor Al Sorrentino to do the official induction. Governor Sorrentino gave a speech describing the benefits and responsibilities of being a Rotarian. He then swore in Ellen and Jan as the newest members of the Hicksville-Jericho Rotary Club and presented each with a folder of literature about Rotary and their new Rotary pins.

Ellen Bruwer is an insurance broker for the Montana Agency. She has been in the insurance field for 28 years. Ellen is on the board of the Hicksville Alumni Association and one of her goals has been to join a service organization such as Rotary.

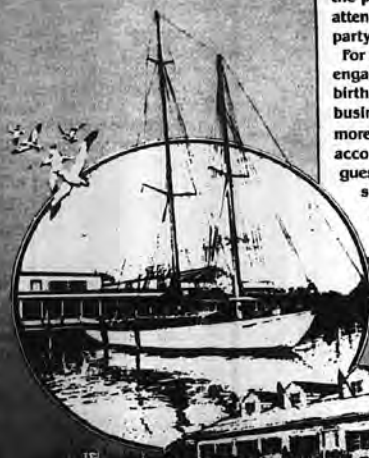

Jan Manaskie has lived in Hicksville for 36 years. She is an associate editor for Anton Community Newspapers, which publishes 21 community newspapers including the Hicksville Illustrated News. She has three daughters, is a member of the P.T.A. and is also on the board of the Hicksville Alumni Association. Her husband, Tom, is a Nassau County Police Officer.

Successful selling is a piece of cake!

True
 False

Of course the answer is FALSE! Successful selling in the highly competitive business world today is a tough, demanding profession that requires hard work, dedication and skill.

That's why so many men and women in selling take the Dale Carnegie Sales Course. It gives them a better understanding of the psychology of modern, motivational selling. It brings them up-to-date with the newest and most effective methods and techniques of their profession.

It is a highly organized sales training process from beginning to end, from prospecting to getting the order. It shows salespeople how to get the information they need before making the first call. They learn how to better organize their time so they can come face-to-face with more qualified prospects during a selling day. They develop more information, more convincing sales presentations based on the true wants and needs of the prospect.

The Dale Carnegie Sales Course doesn't change anyone's basic personality. It is designed to help salespeople maintain their own personality and approach. It expands and develops, it reinforces and refines those existing qualities to a higher, more effective degree by incorporating the proven ideas and techniques of the course.

Most of the graduates of this sales training program report that tangible results come quickly in the form of measurable increases in sales, even before the course is finished.

Manufacturers Hanover L.I. Corporate Challenge

It has been said that the only exercise a person in the business world gets is punching time clocks, pushing paper, running meetings, jumping to conclusions and rolling with the punches. However, on August 4, New York Islanders Defenseman Ken Morrow, will be on hand to fire the starting pistol of the 2nd annual Manufacturers Hanover Long Island Corporate Challenge. Morrow, a member of the 1980 Olympic Gold Medal hockey team, who went on to help win four Stanley Cups, will start an expected 1,000 runners from Nassau and Suffolk County businesses and corporations.

The 3.5 mile road race will take place in Eisenhower Park on Tuesday, Aug. 4, at 7 p.m. Proceeds from the race will go to the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club.

For employees of Long Island businesses, competition has become a way of life. But ordinarily competition assumes the character of companies battling for market share or waging price wars. Once a year, however, Nassau and Suffolk County employees have the opportunity to compete against their fellow workers and rivals, while enjoying some exercise and sharing a good time.

Scoring is done on a team basis. Because there are no pre-set teams, each company can take advantage of combining the best times of its individual runners. Teams consist of five men, three women and two men and two women (co-ed). Awards are given to the top five teams in each of the three divisions. Additionally, special awards will be presented to the top finisher among the Chief Executive Officers and to the company that has the greatest number of participants.

Norstar Bancorp Reports Six Months' Earnings

Norstar Bancorp (NYSE:NOR) earned 151.4 million, or 11.43 per share fully diluted, in the six months ended June 30, 1987, up from 150.2 million, equal to 11.37 per share, in the first half last year. Net income for the second quarter was 124.7 million, a 3 percent decrease from the corresponding quarter a year earlier. Net income per share, on a fully diluted basis, was 1.65 compared with 1.60 a year ago. The 1987 per share numbers reflect the sale of 2.3 million shares of common stock in May 1987.

Peter D. Kiernan, chairman and chief executive officer, commented, "Despite essentially flat second quarter results, Norstar's net income and earnings per share for the first six months were at record levels. The slight decline in second quarter net income, while disappointing, reflected unique circumstances, not weakness in our core business."

Kiernan said that a steep and rapid decline in bond prices in late March and early April significantly eroded the market value of Norstar's municipal securities firm's bond inventory and the mortgage company's pool of loans closed but not yet sold on the secondary market.

"We believe the principal effects of the price changes have been identified and are fully reflected in second quarter earnings, and we expect increased profitability for the balance of the year," he stated.

Earnings Up For The First Of Long Island

J. William Johnson, Chairman of The First of Long Island Corporation, has reported earnings per share of 12.21 in 1987 as compared to 12.08 in 1986. The Corporation's total net income for the first six months of 1987 is 11,963,502, a gain of 6 percent over the prior year.

The First of Long Island also announced the declaration of a 3 for 2 stock split, paid by means of a 50 percent stock dividend to shareholders of record July 15, 1987. Distribution of these shares will take place on September 17, 1987, coinciding with the celebration of the 60th Anniversary of The First of Long Island. This is the second stock split to take place in the past two years. In November of 1985 a 100 percent or 2 for 1 split was declared.

The First of Long Island Corporation has as its sole subsidiary The First National Bank of Long Island, established as The First National Bank of Glen Head on October 1, 1927. Currently there are eight offices in Nassau and Suffolk counties. The First of Long Island expects to open its ninth office in Hicksville in the latter part of 1987. This office will be the Bank's second commercial banking unit, the other located at 3000 Marcus Avenue in Lake Success.

Addition To Loan Loss Allowance

The Bank of New York Company, Inc. recorded a 134.9 million net loss for the second quarter of 1987 compared with net income of 137.8 million for the same period last year. For the quarter, the loss per common share amounted to 11.10. Fully diluted earnings per share of 11.10 were earned in 1987's second quarter. The loss for the quarter reflects a special addition of 1135 million to the allowance for loan losses, in recognition of recent developments with respect to the international debt environment. Without this special addition, net income for the second quarter of 1987 would have increased 14.8% to 143.4 million. The quarter's results also includes a pre-tax gain of 149 million from the sale of RMI Holdings, most of which was added to the provision for loan losses.

The Investor's Corner

By JOSEPH P. FREY, Ph.D.

January 22, 1987 Revisited

The most asked for reprint of past articles is the column that I wrote entitled "WHAT GOES UP COMES DOWN—EVENTUALLY." It is also the most misunderstood article that I ever wrote.

To refresh your memory, I wrote that most of us know how to buy stock or some other financial instrument; few know when to sell. I explained how a stop order works. I explained that it is a costless device that can save tons of money when the market, any market, goes against you. I do not intend to rewrite that article. My purpose for this article is to clear up the misunderstandings. I will send you a reprint if you ask.

The following comment is pretty typical. "If I have a mutual fund whose high point for the week was 110.00, you recommend a stop point of 5% below (9.50). If the mutual fund falls to 9.51, you set another order for 5% below (9.01). Again, that week it drops to 9.02, and again I do not sell. This could go on till all of the principal is gone." WHAT THIS MAN SAYS IS TRUE, YOU WOULD BE WIPED OUT. That is where the article failed to convey the correct information.

First of all, when a sell point is set, IT IS NEVER LOWERED. You only raise sell points. (I now call them sell points because the correct term, stop loss or stop points, conveys the wrong connotation for our readers.)

Second, I raise the sell point if the stock goes up. We keep a rough percentage of the top weekly price. The lower the price, the greater the percentage because the stock should be more volatile.

Third, at some point in time the stock price will turn and come down. Like it or not, nothing is forever. Not GM, not GE, not IBM, not Anaconda (1907—the fifth largest company in the U.S., now a subsidiary of Arco). What goes up will come down—eventually.

Fourth, what goes down, sometimes rebounds and goes up. Only sometimes. The best example is the Chrysler Corporation. It has been up and down many times. Ford Motors is another good example.

Fifth, the sell points are different for different instruments. I recommend the following percentages: Stocks—10 to 15% below. Bonds—10% below. Mutual funds—8 to 10% below. Commodities and futures? Since I do not trade or recommend these, except in very rare circumstances for protection purposes, you must establish your own point.

Sixth, the percentages are rough. For myself and my clients, I am constantly refining the process. For instance, I do not have the same percentage for all mutual funds. A bond fund, a gold fund, a growth or an income fund are all different. The sell point which I assign to each fund is different. The circumstances and the market indicate what to do. For instance, as I write this I have no sell points established for the gold mutual funds that I have been advocating since October, 1986. That is how convinced I am that the price of these funds is going to continue its rise.

Seventh, this is most important regarding mutual funds and sell points. When a mutual fund makes a distribution of dividends and/or capital gains, the net asset value will drop because the funds flow out of the fund. If you have a reinvestment program, you will receive more shares for the distribution and your total value will remain unchanged. If you have a sell point based up on net asset value, as I do, you will get a shock. Do not sell. Sometimes, most times, the sell point will be triggered by the distribution. Obviously, to sell would be an error because of a bookkeeping entry. So watch and remember this point.

Eight, you can only set stop loss, sell points, or whatever you want to call them, on financial instruments that are listed on exchanges. There is no place to call to set a sell point for over the counter stocks or mutual funds. The mechanism does not exist. You make your own and you track your own and you sell your own. You must do everything. No specialist is there to protect you or trigger your sell order.

The system is good. It is proven, at least to my satisfaction. It is not foolproof. You will make mistakes, but they will be small ones. Wall Street is a place where mistakes are made. It is the nature of the beast. I hope this has cleared any misunderstandings. Good Luck.....

Nassau County Pool Guard Competition

The 1987 Nassau County Pool Guard Competition, a tournament of 10 swimming events for the lifeguards at six county-operated pools, will be held on Aug. 10 at Wantagh Park from 8 to 11 p.m.

Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta said that Seamen's Bank will be sponsoring the event. He also noted that the goal of the competition is to test the proficiency of both male and female lifeguards from various county pools.

The six competing pools are Cantiague, Christopher Morley, Nassau Beach, North Woodmere, Wantagh, and Whitney Pond. Frequent visitors to the pools are encouraged to cheer on their respective lifeguards.

There will be ten events consisting of various group and individual races. Some of the more interesting events include an inner tube relay, cross chest carry relay, and a sweat suit relay. For the sweat suit relay each swimmer is required to swim 25 meters in a sweat shirt and sweat pants. The team which amasses the most points will be awarded a plaque.

Wantagh Park is located south of Merrick Road just west of the Wantagh Parkway in Wantagh.

Opening lead — king of spades.

There is a play in bridge called the Deschappelles Coup. Its fancy name may scare the everyday player half to death, but the fear is actually groundless. The odd fact is that this comparatively rare play is relatively easy to execute.

Indeed, it's so simple that about all that's required is the courage and acumen to take a particular card out of one's hand and place it firmly face up on the table. Once this plunge is taken, nature takes care of the rest.

To illustrate how the coup operates, consider the role East played here in defending against three notrump. Perhaps South was somewhat optimistic in leaping to three notrump over two clubs, and maybe two would have been adequate. However, he was one of those untrusting souls who always felt that his partner was not as anxious as he was to score a game.

Declarer captured East's jack of spades with the ace and led a club to dummy's queen, losing the dame! to the king. East now carefully studied dummy's imposing clubs, which would produce five tricks after the jack was forced out. Furthermore, he observed that the ace of diamonds was dummy's sole entry card to cash the five club tricks as soon as they became established.

East also realized that if he made a routine spade return, dummy would eventually yield a total of six tricks for declarer — a disheartening number of tricks that would surely make three notrump impregnable.

East therefore returned the king of diamonds, a play that automatically reduced the total number of dummy's winners from six to two. Lopping off four of declarer's tricks in one fell swoop eventually proved to be more than just highly dramatic — it turned out to be the killing blow.

South struggled a while but could find no way to avoid going down two. Had East returned a spade instead of a diamond king at trick three, declarer would have made four or five. The Deschappelles Coup thus exacted a very heavy toll.

NYIT Student Built Car Competes In Bajarace

Five students from New York Institute of Technology's student chapter of the Society of Automotive Engineers recently travelled to Florida to compete in the "Mini Baja East" car competition for student-built motorized cars.

Although NYIT's entry—the "Techtanic"—finished a distant 37th, they emerged one step ahead of last year when they were forced to withdraw from the event due to mechanical difficulties.

Dedicated Highway Fund Advocated

The Nassau County Assembly Republican delegation has announced that they will actively seek the establishment of a highway rehabilitation fund to provide a stable source of money for road and bridge maintenance improvements.

Nassau County Assembly members, including Assemblymen Kemp Hannon, Minority Leader Pro Tempore (R-Garden City), Frederick E. Parola (R-C, Wantagh), Philip B. Healey (R-C, Massapequa), George H. Madison (R-C, Franklin Square), Gregory R. Becker (R-C, Lynbrook), Daniel Frisa (R-Westbury) and Charles J. O'Shea (R-C, Baldwin) wrote a letter to Gov. Mario M. Cuomo urging him to include the dedicated highway fund proposal as part of his recommendations for new finance measures.

Highway Taxes For Highway Projects

The assemblymen said that it is excusable that, although New Yorkers pay over $1 billion in highway-related use taxes and auto fees, these funds are not specifically earmarked for transportation improvements.

The entire state Assembly Republican delegation has advocated the establishment of a highway rehabilitation fund for the past four legislative sessions. Their plan, which would be phased in over five years, estimates that by the fifth year, $1.15 billion in total revenues would be supplied directly for reconstructing and rebuilding our highways and bridges. This is an increase of greater than $600 million over anticipated annual regular state capital funding outlays.

The dedicated highway fund also would assure Long Island residents that their money be returned to them in the form of properly maintained, and safe roads and bridges throughout the state. The proposal assures each county at least a 75 percent return, over the five-year period, of the revenues it produced to guarantee that funding allocations are proportionate in all areas.

The dedicated highway fund is the cornerstone that would provide a solid foundation to ensure the viability of the highway and bridge network. Their proposal (A-5477) is the best workable solution to the problem of highway and bridge maintenance and they will seek passage of this measure.

Adelphi Golf Fails to Make The Cut

Linksmen, Other Sports Slashed At University

By ANDY LEVENBERG

Adelphi University has decided to disband several of its athletic teams because of lack of participation, inadequate facilities and financial problems, according to the school's athletics director Bob Hartwell.

Swimming, men's tennis, cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, and golf, will be dropped from the university's program, leaving eight sports of intercollegiate competition, Hartwell said. All of the discontinued sports were Division II-level in the NCAA. Swimming, cross country, and track and field were coed.

"We are consolidating the program in an effort to continue full support for the major (sports)," Hartwell said. The eight major sports are men's lacrosse, women's softball, and men's and women's soccer, which compete at the Division I level, and men's baseball, women's tennis, and men's and women's basketball, which compete in Division II.

Hartwell, who took over as athletics director July 1, said the decision was his, after the administration asked for an evaluation of all the sports with a proposal for improvements. Hartwell said he consulted with previous acting athletic director Paul Doherty, who along with outside consultants had made the report the Adelphi administration had requested, before he made the decision to reduce the athletic program.

"We definitely want to maintain a strong level of commitment and competition," Hartwell said. He said it is possible that the school will reinstate some of the cancelled sports if needed improvements are made, or if interest in the sports increases.

One improvement that would be difficult to make is to the swimming program. It was discontinued because the pool at Adelphi has four lanes, two short of NCAA standards, and no diving area.

Facilities were also a problem for the track and field team, because there are no facilities for field events at the school's Garden City campus, and no track.

Hartwell said the golf team's problem was a lack of a suitable and available course to practice on that was in the area. Last year they played in Huntington, after playing on a few different courses in past years. He said there were "a lot of ramifications" in allowing the team to practice far from the school, including transportation costs and proper supervision.

Lack of participation—athletes not

Gelormino Holds A Garden Party

Flashy Levittown junior lightweight Gino Gelormino won a unanimous decision over Donnie Parker of Baltimore recently at Madison Square Garden.

The judges' scorecards revealed a virtual shutout for the popular boxer, who finished the eight-round bout unmarked while Parker bled from the nose and mouth.

Gelormino quickly took charge in the first two rounds with sharp combinations that turned Parker's bull-like rushes into deer-like prances. Twice in the second round, Parker turned his back on Gelormino only to be greeted by stiff punches as he looked over his shoulder at Gino.

In rounds three, four and five, Gelormino scored effectively with an arsenal of counter punches, and as the bout dragged on, it showing up when expected for practices or competition, or the inability to fill up an entire squad because of an apparent lack of interest—is another reason the sports were discontinued, Hartwell said. He declined to say which teams that were disbanded had had this problem.

Golf coach—now former golf coach—Claude Ruggian said his team had no participation problems. "He (Hartwell) can't say that (there was a participation problem). He wasn't there," Ruggian said. The team was always full, with six men on the team last year and for many years before that, Ruggian claimed. "Everybody was playing everyday," he said. "There's no such thing as lack of participation."

Ruggian said he would have fielded a full team again this year, because he lost none to graduation last year. "I feel this team would have gone places," said Ruggian, who has been at Adelphi for 40 years, coaching basketball, bowling, lacrosse as well as golf during various times of his career.

He was also a physical education teacher until 1981, when he retired from teaching. Ruggian said since his retirement he has still "been associated" with the physical education department and will remain there, but the end of the golf team will end his association with the athletics department.

Ruggian said Adelphi decided to cut certain sports once before, in 1969, but golf was reinstated during the late '70s. He has been coaching the team since then.

At least two of his golfers are now planning to transfer schools because of the decision, Ruggian said. "They came (here) to play golf," he said. "I recruited them to play golf."

Hartwell said Ruggian and two other coaches lost their jobs because of the decision, but he said all three only coached part time, and therefore, will not be affected badly financially.

Finances were another reason Hartwell mentioned for the disbandment of the sports, but again, Ruggian feels golf is not the cause of financial hardships in athletics at Adelphi. He said the team cost Adelphi $2,500 yearly, which he feels is not much.

Hartwell said he has had "minimal reaction" to the decision. He also added that most of the reaction has "been one of understanding."

"The fellows were really down," Ruggian said of some of his players. "I'm very sorry to see golf go. You can play it the rest of your life."

appeared that Parker was content to survive by his reluctance to trade punches in close with Gino. Parker was almost ready to go in any of the last three rounds, as Gelormino fired swift flurries that knocked Parker off balance. Gelormino pursued Parker until the final bell, though he clearly led by a wide margin.

Gelormino improved his record to 22-1 with 15 knockouts. He was pleased with his victory, but a little frustrated by Parker's defensive tactics. "It's difficult to hit a guy solidly when he's moving so much," Gelormino remarked. "If we had gone toe-to-toe, I'm sure he would have fallen."

Gelormino is likely to fight at least once more before the summer season ends; he is 2-0 in bouts this year. Peter Calabrese

100th Anniversary Of Softball In America

In 1987, more than 40 million softball players will have something special to stand up and cheer about. This year marks the 100th anniversary of softball in the United States, and Cablevision salutes those athletes who have made the game the number one participant sport in America.

As members of the Amateur Softball Association of America, the Cablevision team has joined with the Arthritis Foundation to achieve mutual goals. The Foundation will help America's softball fans celebrate the centennial anniversary, one of their favorite past times. And as members of the Amateur Softball Association, the Cablevision team has agreed to donate funds for the fight against arthritis. Hicksville residents who are members of the Cablevision team are Nick Ragone, Bob Schmidt, Gerry Battaglia and Bob Rebenitsch.

Skate Long Island, a major local figure skating competition, will take place at the Cantiague Park Rink on West John Street in Hicksville. Co-sponsored by the Long Island and Cantiague Figure Skating Clubs, events will begin at 8 a.m. and conclude at 10 p.m. on Sunday, August 9.

Despite temperatures soaring into the 90's, only six months remain before the start of the 1988 Winter Olympics in Calgary, Alberta, Canada, and the quadriennial surge of interest in figure skating as a premier Olympic event has already begun to grow.

Approximately 100 figure skaters will vie for top placements in figure and thrilling free style events. Among those who have accepted the Skate Long Island challenge may be a future Debi Thomas, Brian Boitano, or Dorothy Hamill, who came from this area. One has been chosen as a candidate for the Junior World Figure Skating Championships. Results of some events will be determined by National- and World-class figure skating judges, including one who will be judging at the 1988 Winter Olympics.

The rink is the perfect place to escape the heat and be entertained, too. Admission is free, and there is ample parking.

Hicksville PAL Softball/Baseball News

By CHARLETTE ANSTEY

Eleanor Bentrewicz (822-1124) could still use a few more umpires. If you or someone you know would like to earn some extra money umpiring, please contact her. It doesn't matter whether you can umpire 1 or 5 games a week—Mrs. Bentrewicz will work within your schedule. Some of the young men who worked with us this week were: John & Jimmy Schneider, John & Joey Bentrewicz, Dean Laut, Ninimesh Udeshi (the newest member of our umpire group) and Ken Cleary. Not only are they earning money but they are providing a valuable service.

The Rules

I have been requested by the commissioners of our softball and baseball leagues to reiterate the following rules of our organization:

1. Alcoholic beverages (including beer and wine coolers) are not permitted on school grounds or town parks at any time (we can lose our permits).
2. Managers only are allowed on the playing field to speak with an umpire on a point of rules discussion. Other spectators/parents are not permitted on the playing field or to speak to umpires during a game.
3. No one is allowed to stand behind the backstop while a game is in progress.
4. Any parent/player or other person who becomes unruly will be asked to leave our program on a permanent basis.
5. All players must be in full uniform while on the playing field. Uniform includes PAL Hat, PAL Jersey, PAL pants. Any player not in complete uniform may not participate. Lost or misplaced uniforms (including hats) may be purchased at cost from PAL. A protective helmet may be worn in place of hat while at bat or on base lines.
6. Please clean up all cups and trash at ball fields so we may continue to use these facilities.
7. Drinks for participants are to be provided by parents—Not by coaches.

8. Summary: Our emphasis in all PAL activities is on participation Not on winning. Our goal is to provide good wholesome activities for the youth of the community. You can do your part by observing the above rules.

If anyone would like to volunteer to assist the coaches or managers of their children's teams, please notify them. Perhaps you could help coach a base, hold a practice, keep the score book, etc. Any help you can give will be greatly appreciated.

Special thanks go to Maureen Luyster (Boys Rookie Division), Peggy Quaresimo (Boy's Junior Division), Pat Rooney (Boy's Sub-Intermediate Division), Mr. & Mrs. Sal DeFazio (Intermediate Boy's Division), Mrs. Geannikis (Girl's Junior Division) and Judi Caputo (Girl's Senior Division) for their help in assembling.

Now onto the news about all the children and teenagers participating in our program.

Congratulations to Gina Abarno of the Orange Team who was not content to have just a Home Run—she had to make it a Grand Slam.

Our Senior Girl's Green Team's coach John Hickey says, "A squeaker of a game but great efforts together—only lost by one point." Christine Hickey of the Green Team had a good fly catch at second base but great fielding by the Red Team kept her from getting on base." The Gray Team's coach John Diehl said "These were good, fun games that were exciting to the end."

Coach Bud Moeller of the Yankees (Boy's Sub-Intermediate Division) said "Even though this was our first week of playing together as a team, I felt we acquitted ourselves admirably. I look forward to a good fun year with this team. Special thanks go to pitchers Pat Clinton and Mike Hawkins."

Billy Toelsted who plays for the A's (Boy's Intermediate Division) also umpired his first Boy's Junior Division game on July 10, 1987.

HICKSVILLE'S RUNNING STAR Jennifer Livingston was the first place woman winner at the L.I. Park Commission Summer Series held recently at Jones Beach State Park. Jennifer covered the five mile course in a time of 31 minutes and 10 seconds.

PEGGY GOODRICH of Hicksville High School was awarded a Nassau County Track and Cross Country Coaches Scholarship at an awards reception recently held at Antun's. She received a check from the coaches for $500. Peggy will be attending the University of Southern Connecticut.
