Blanket Sunday At Trinity Lutheran

Trinity Lutheran Church, 40 W. Nicholas Street, Hicksville, will collect new and used (clean and in good condition) blankets on Sunday, October 18. The blankets will be forwarded to Lutheran World Relief to be distributed to needy people around the world.

"Blankets can be used in many ways. They can be a head protection from the wind and cold, a garment for a man, woman, boy or girl, or protection for a baby," said Peg Ruhs, publicity chairman of the church. "Blankets can be used on a bed for warmth and comfort or be used as a sleeping pad, even as a mat for a crawling baby. Sometimes blankets are used as tents, partitions for privacy, for drapery, or perhaps as a door," she added. Ms. Ruhs also said that a blanket is a most useful item.

"There is a need for them in Africa, Latin America, East Asia, Europe, Southern Asia, the Middle East, and in the United States."

"If you would like to share in the joy of donating blankets, we would be most happy to accept them," Ms. Ruhs said. Donations can be made any time between 8 AM-12:30 PM or by special arrangement (931-2225).

A serious disease of newborn foals

Q. Our newborn foal seemed to be very healthy at birth and nursed almost immediately, but died within a few hours.

Our veterinarian thought the foal died because of anemia. What caused this anemia and how can we prevent it in the future?

A. The foal most likely died of a condition called neonatal isoerythrolysis, a very serious disease of newborn foals. A severe anemia develops in the foal because of an incompatibility between the foal's red blood cells and the antibodies obtained from the mare's colostrum during early nursing.

Foals suffering neonatal isoerythrolysis are usually healthy when born, nurse the mare normally and are active for a short period of time. Twelve to 36 hours following birth, they become dull, sluggish, weak, quit nursing, and may be unable to stand. The membranes turn white or yellow. This yellowishness usually is not apparent until 24 to 48 hours following birth and becomes progressively worse during the next few days.

The course of the disease is variable. Foals may die of anemia in 12 to 36 hours. Most foals die on the third or fourth day.

Diagnosis of neonatal isoerythrolysis is based on the clinical signs seen in the foal and on testing the reactions between the mare's blood or colostrum and the foal's blood. Severely affected foals often require blood transfusions to survive.

The treatment of foals with neonatal isoerythrolysis involves removing the foal from the mare or muzzling it so that it cannot nurse for 48 hours. During this period the foal should be fed from another source, an artificial milk replacer or another mare's milk that is compatible with the foal's red blood cells.

Mares with foals with neonatal isoerythrolysis should be hand-milked every two to three hours. The foal can be allowed to nurse its mother after it is approximately 48 hours old because by then the ability to absorb the offending antibodies from the milk is lost.

Neonatal isoerythrolysis is usually not observed until the mare's third or fourth foaling. Mares with a history of having a foal with this disease should be watched closely near foaling time so that the foal can be removed or muzzled until its blood can be tested for compatibility with the mare's colostrum.

Foals can be raised from sensitized mares if managed carefully during the first 48 hours of life.

Ankylosing Spondylitis - A Cause Of Low Back Pain

Ankylosing spondylitis, is a type of arthritis which derives its name from the Greek, meaning "crooked vertebra". This disorder, once considered rare and only affecting men, is now known to affect people of all ages and either sex. This type of arthritis has been known for centuries and has been found in mummies of ancient Egypt.

The cause of this arthritis is not known. Recently, scientific evidence has demonstrated a strong genetic link to the development of this disorder. Additionally, a family history of chronic back pain may exist. This arthritis may be related to other forms of arthritis, such as psoriatic arthritis or Reiter's syndrome.

This arthritis, which often occurs in men, is manifested by chronic lower back pain. This pain is usually worse in the morning and improves throughout the day. The arthritis may also travel to several joints. The joints of the lower extremities, such as the knees and feet, are often involved.

This disease affects not only the joints but also other organs of the body. Both the eyes and the valves of the heart may be involved.

The disorder is often diagnosed and treated by rheumatologists (arthritis specialists). The diagnosis is made on the basis of a careful medical history and physical examination. X-rays of the spine are very helpful in confirming the diagnosis.

The symptoms can be successfully treated with anti-inflammatory arthritis medications. Additionally, specific exercises are often used to help prevent limitation of spinal movement.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach - An Arthritis Overview."

Legionnaires' Log

By GREG BENNETT

Charles Wagner Post #421, Hicksville

Every Legionnaire and American should know the importance of the upcoming POW/MIA Recognition Week. We should do more than remember our POW/MIA's. We should work to seek their return and accounting for. On Thursday, September 17, there is the Nassau County POW/MIA vigil at Eisenhower Park at 7:30 p.m. On Friday, which is POW/MIA Recognition Day, there will be a ceremony at the New York City Vietnam Veterans Memorial at 55 Water Street in Manhattan at 11 a.m. Let's write our legislators and the Vietnamese about these brave Americans.

POW/MIA NEWS: The American Defense Institute, headed by former Rep. Bill Hendon (R-NC), states that the Defense Department released two intelligence reports to retired Air Force Col. Bud Donahue that proves his son Lt. Morgan Donahue was seen in captivity in Laos earlier this year. One report was from an Laotian refugee who stated the Laotian resistance sent him a letter that states Donahue and another American were begin held at Phoubaytong. The informant even knew Donahue's home zip code. National Security Council member Richard Childress, in Laos earlier this month to visit crash sites, states there is no evidence of living POW's. More than 500 Americans were lost over Laos during the Vietnam War. Laos said it would return POW's if a truce was signed, but none was arranged. This article was originally reported on September 7 in the "Stars and Stripes," U.S. Edition.

Our dinner at the Cloud Casino at Roosevelt was a great time for those who attended. The view could not have been better as we were seated in the lower portion of the casino. The raceway program featured a race named after our post. Our thanks to PC Wes Tietjen for arranging this great outing.

Our installation of Tuesday, September 8, was a success with our own Dick Hochbrueckner, current County Commander, proudly swearing in Charles Wagner post officers for the current Legion year. Commander Christo takes the helm as commander for the second consecutive year, PC Artie Rutz, PC Lou Braun and PC John Rizos were honored for their past Service as Post Commander. Cynthia Hochbrueckner, was introduced as 10th District Auxiliary President. Herb Granberg of the County Staff assisted County Commander Hochbrueckner. The installation was attended by members of our post auxiliary. Best wishes for a successful year for our post officers.

I take my hat off to VA Police at Manhattan VA who issued a summons to a medical doctor for threatening a patient.

On Thursday, October 22, a Starting and Operating a Small Business seminar will be given at Brooklyn VA Medical Center starting at 8:30 a.m. This informative conference is free. Call (212) 264-9487 for details. It is sponsored by area vets organizations including The American Legion 40/8.

An article in "Leatherneck" magazine states that Dan Daley won his two Congressional Medals of Honor at the Boxer Rebellion and in World War One. A listing of medal winners published by the Medal of Honor Society shows Daley won the Medals in Haiti and Peking. I wonder how a Marine Corps journalist could be wrong about one of the greatest heroes in our Nations' history.

Our next post meeting will be on Tuesday, September 21, at the VFW. Remember we welcome new members. Meeting time is 8 p.m.

This column honors Major Jay, R. Vargas and Capt. James E. Livingston of the U.S. Marine Corps, both Medal of Honor winners at Dai Do, Vietnam, where they commanded rifle companies. Today they are both colonels.

Most of all we honor our POW/MIA's during POW/MIA Recognition Week.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

PRESIDENT JOE GIORDANO'S MESSAGE: "A man is not old until regrets take the place of dreams."

The Galileo Lodge has added another affair to its already expanding list of events to be presented soon. The Halloween dance is scheduled for Saturday, October 31, for the pleasure and enjoyment of its members, friends and patrons. Tickets will sell at $14. per person, and in the offering will be a delicious hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake and music for your dancing and listening pleasure. The Galileo Lodge will naturally be dressed in a fall decor which will capture the imagination of Halloween, and I should mention here that Halloween costumes would be very appropriate and that prizes for various categories of costumes will be awarded that night. This has been the custom of every Halloween Dance that the Galileo Lodge ever held. A committee will be chosen for this occasion and the names will be announced in future columns. Why not attend this special dance and let yourselves be in for a treat.

Another affair that will be held soon is the Anniversary-Scholarship Dance, set for Saturday, September 19. Tickets sell at $35. per person, and in the offering will be a delicious cocktail hour, an eye-filling hot dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, unlimited liquor and some of the nicest dance music your ears have heard in a long time. Ex-President Pete Massiello will be honored that night and the Louise E. Massiello Memorial Scholarship Awards will also be distributed. An Ad Journal will be featured and some of the members prominent in the machinations of this dance are Skip Monteforte, Rocco Lombardo, Armand Del Cioppo and Jim Posillico. This dance, obviously, is very important to the Galileo Lodge and some of the details listed here prove that, therefore all members of the Galileo Lodge and the Ladies Auxiliary are asked to attend with a show of strength. Another fall activity and its announcement, which have caused quite a stir is the Galileo Lodge's Italian Festival, set for Friday, October 9. Yes, the Italian Festival is ethnic, which is obvious, and although a special group of musicians and dancers are coming over from Naples, Italy, to embellish the proceedings of the night, it is held for everyone's edification as a disc jockey will also play American dance music. Tickets will sell at $14. per person, and in the offering will be a sit-down dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake. This activity also features a "bring-your-own liquor" policy. Time is from 9 to 11 a.m. and the committee members are Skip Monteforte, Armand Del Cioppo, Rocco Lombardo, Fred Ausiello and Jim Posillico.

Very sorry to hear that Jim Posillico's mother has been ill for quite some time and we all here at the Galileo Lodge wish her a speedy recovery...A new member of our lodge is Salvatore Scammacca and we welcome him aboard and wish him good fortune...Mr. and Mrs. Joe and Ann Morace celebrated 41 years of wedded bliss on September 15 and hearty congratulations to this nice couple of the Galileo Lodge and Ladies Auxiliary...Pat Gatto is now home recuperating nicely after a stay in a Long Island hospital, and here's hoping that he returns to our Lodge real soon...Help is still needed for our bingo sessions, so a little time and a little effort from each member would certainly help the lodge meet its responsibilities to everyone, community included.

BIG PLANS

Planning to build a tennis court in your backyard? Depending on whether you're going to put in grass, fast-dry synthetic clay, or a hard all-weather court, it could cost you between $20,000 and $40,000 for the court alone - plus fencing, maintenance, and an increase in your property assessment.

Is the investment worthwhile? Yes, if you and your family love to play. No, if your prime motive is to recover the cost when you sell; you may not find a tennis buff willing to buy at a premium.

The key to smart home improvement is to keep the value of your property in line with others in the area. If every house on the block has a pool and a tennis court, you most probably should build. But don't over-improve past what buyers are willing to pay for in your neighborhood.

Call us in for a no-obligation review of your plans. We'll help you decide if the project you're planning will pay off.

NEW YORK'S LOTTERY

1976-EARNING NEARLY EIGHT TIMES MORE-1987 EACH DAY

FY 1976-77 (ON AVERAGE)
$260,000 A DAY

FY 1987-88 (ON AVERAGE)
$1.9 MILLION A DAY

The mission of The New York State Lottery is to earn revenue to help support Education in New York State

Eleven years ago, on September 8, 1976, New York's Lottery returned to the marketplace. Across the State, newspapers heralded its return with these headlines: "NEW LOTTERY; RUNAWAY SALES" "LOTTERY MANIA SWEEPS CITY". That first fiscal year, the Lottery earned $94.8 million for New York State, or an average of $260,000 a day. So far in this fiscal year New York's Lottery is earning almost eight times that amount—on average $1.9 million a day. For September, 1976, through September, 1987, New York's Lottery is able to report:

- $7.662 billion in sales.
- $3.5 billion earned for New York State.
- Prizes valued at $4.1 billion awarded.
- 547 winners of prizes of a million dollars or more.
- $460 million in commissions to ticket sellers.

On average, over the 11 years between September, 1976, and September, 1987, the Lottery has earned for New York State:

- $320 million a year.
- $26.6 million a month.
- $6.1 million a week.
- $880,000 a day.

Sales and revenues for 1976 to 1987 are shown below:

$4.1 BILLION IN PRIZES

Since the New York State Lottery started in September 1976, it has awarded prizes valued at $4.1 billion to 269 million winners. Along the way to this milestone, New York's Lottery set new records for individual prizes. The $41 million LOTTO 48 jackpot it offered in its August 21, 1985 drawing was the largest Lottery prize ever offered on the North American continent. Three persons shared that prize, including the "Lucky 21", a group of Mount Vernon factory workers, most of whom were immigrants. The $30 million LOTTO 48 Prize won by Pasquale Consalvo, a Staten Island mason, on January 18, 1986, was the largest prize ever won by an individual in the New York State Lottery. 547 persons had won prizes of a million dollars or more by September, 1987.

HOW WE HELP

Lottery earnings help pay the State's share of the cost of our elementary and secondary schools. At the same time, Lottery operations provide economic benefits by making it possible for businesses across the State, many of them small mom and pop stores, to be economically successful through commissions earned by selling Lottery products. The Lottery also infuses many millions of dollars more into the private sector and, as a result, creates jobs.

THANKS, NEW YORK STATE

The success of the New York State Lottery over the years has to be credited to the people of New York State, who have expressed their confidence and trust by purchasing Lottery tickets in ever increasing numbers. With your support, the past eleven years have been good for us at the Lottery, good for the schools who benefit from Lottery earnings and good for the State. Thank you for eleven great years.

Sincerely,

John D. Quinn

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS OFTEN ASKED ABOUT NEW YORK'S LOTTERY

- Q. Why different LOTTO Games?
A. The Lottery constantly tries to provide Lottery players with the games and prize levels they like best. Sales data, information from our customers and agents tell us that the two most preferred LOTTO features are bigger jackpots and more money allocated to the lower level prizes. LOTTO 48 is the best able to offer big jackpots along with the potential for even bigger jackpots. CASH 40 responds to those players who want a greater share of the prize money pool allocated to second and third prizes and also want to receive their prize in a single, cash payment.
- Q. Where does the Lottery money go?
A. By law, Lottery proceeds must go to help fund the State's financial assistance to local school districts. Since 1976 there have been two exceptions to this: The first was in 1976/77 when legislation directed that the Lottery proceeds ($90.7 million) be used to help balance the State budget. And, from 1978-80, legislation directed that about $4 million of the proceeds from the Olympic Lottery be distributed to the Winter Olympic Trust Fund for the benefit of winter sports education in New York. All the rest of the revenue earned to date has gone, or will go, to local school districts in New York as part of the State aid they receive each year.
- Q. How much goes to the State from each game?
A. Not less than 45 percent of the revenue from the Lotto 48, Cash 40, Win-10 and Instant games must go to the State for education. From the Daily Numbers and Win-4 games, not less than 35 percent.
- Q. If the Lottery is earning so much money for education, and it's really going there, how come my taxes keep going up?
A. Lottery revenues indeed help education in New York State. Lottery revenues help fund the State's financial assistance to local school districts. But keep in mind that Lottery aid is not in addition to, but rather, part of the State money used to help local school districts. It has risen from about three cents of every State aid dollar to about ten cents of every State aid dollar to local schools.
- Q. How much goes to prizes?
A. Prizes in instant games, Win-10, Lotto 48 and Cash 40 are limited to not more than 40 percent and not more than 50 percent in Daily Numbers and Win-4.
- Q. Why are big prizes paid over 20 years?
A. The law gives the Lottery Director the authority to determine how prizes are paid. We have chosen to pay them over several years (usually 20) because:
 - Lottery prizes are taxed at both state and federal level. If large prizes were paid out in a lump sum, a lot of the money (under current federal and state law) would immediately be lost in taxes.
 - It enables the Lottery to pay large prizes. Part of the money received over a 20-year period by a winner represents interest earned on that investment as well as the original principal available for the prize. For example, on January 17, 1987, a New Yorker won $3 million. The winner received an initial payment of $142,800 less Federal withholding and will receive 20 annual payments of $142,860 over the next 20 years. Without the interest earnings, the prize would have been $1,800,000.
 - Most winners of large Lottery prizes have not handled sums of money like one million dollars or more. By paying over time, they have an opportunity to plan and use the money more effectively.
- Q. If I win big, can I collect a lump sum?
A. Only in the Cash 40 game and Win-10 game.
- Q. If I die before the 20 years are up, who gets the money?
A. In such cases, payment is made to the estate of the winner. The State does not get the unpaid balance.
- Q. Does Lottery prize money earn interest pending payment of the prizes to the winners?
A. Yes. There are several categories of accounts for prize funds (Numbers Reserve Fund, Lotto Reserve Fund, Annuity Guarantee Reserve Fund, Special Prize Fund) and all are interest-bearing accounts. Interest received on prize payment funds is ultimately used by the Lottery for payment of additional prizes.
- Q. What about unclaimed prizes?
A. By law, winners have one year to claim their prizes. After one year any unclaimed prize money reverts to the State. From September 1976 to March 1987 that has amounted to over $63.8 million. The Lottery has supported and will continue to support legislation to return unclaimed prize money to players in the form of more prizes. So far we have not been successful.
- Q. Why are Lottery prizes taxed?
A. Because federal and state laws require it. The Lottery has tried to have the State and Federal taxation on prizes removed, but thus far we have been unsuccessful.
- Q. If I win $1 million, how much will I have to pay in taxes?
A. A lot. Lottery winnings are subject to income taxes, along with whatever other income you may have. Liability depends on total income as well as number and type of exemptions authorized, current local, state and federal tax laws, city and county of residence, number of dependents, how returns are filed, etc. Because of these variables, it is not possible to give a precise percentage.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity.

We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Editor's Note

Now that school is underway the Hicksville Illustrated News urges all drivers to proceed with caution.

Drivers should never pass a stopped school bus with flashing red lights as children are getting on or off the bus. Obey all school signs and crossing guards and be on the look out for small children. Parents should advise children who are riding their bikes to school not to wear earphones plugged into a radio or tape deck while traveling as well as to obey all traffic signs and signals. It is important that bicyclists ride close to the right hand edge or curb of the road and drive with the flow of traffic.

The Illustrated wishes the teachers and students a happy and rewarding school year.

To The Editor:

Recently, representatives of the Duffy Park Civic Association took a walking tour of the roads which form the border of the Duffy Park section of Hicksville: Duffy Avenue (to the Wantagh Parkway), Charlotte Avenue, Old Country Road and Newbridge Road/Route 106.

The purpose of the tour was to identify ways in which the businesses situated in Duffy Park can take steps to clean up their buildings grounds, and overall appearance. We were also looking for ways in which the Town of Oyster Bay and Nassau County can improve the area (i.e. curbs, sidewalks, road repairs, etc.).

Generally, the business properties in Duffy Park are well-kept, but there are some glaring exceptions. Some properties are so strewn with litter and debris and overgrown with weeds that they almost appear abandoned. But business is being conducted in these buildings by people whose total lack of concern for the appearance of their grounds and the beauty of Hicksville is sickening. These businesses are drawing on the resources of a nice community—its people, roads, stores and water—and are giving absolutely nothing back in return.

This letter is an open appeal to the owners and proprietors of the businesses in Duffy Park: if you are working hard to maintain your property in nice condition, thank you and please keep it going. If your property is an eyesore, PLEASE CLEAN IT UP! You owe it to the community that is supporting you to clean up your weeds, pick up your litter, sweep your sidewalks, paint over the graffiti, get those abandoned cars towed away and keep after it on an on-going basis. Spending a few hours and a few dollars each week on routine maintenance should not be too much to expect for the overall betterment of the community in which you do business.

We will be writing to each and every business with our recommendations for improvements to each property. Companies with well-maintained grounds will be thanked for their efforts. Companies with poorly-maintained facilities will receive a list of suggested improvements and will be strongly urged to make the improvements immediately and keep after them for as long as they remain in Duffy Park.

The residents of Duffy Park extend our thanks to the Hicksville Illustrated News for your concern and help in bringing the issues that affect our community out into the open.

Duffy Park Civic Association

Memories

. . . . of Marion and Bill Combe

We now reside in Palm Harbor, Florida, located in the Tampa Bay area. We took up residence here after retiring and leaving Hicksville after twenty-nine years on Cottage Boulevard.

We do so miss the season changes—as well as our wonderful neighbors. Our greatest recollection of Hicksville is how wonderful it once was. . . . the railroad was on the ground. . . . and Broadway was the hub of activity with each merchant knowing you personally. It was so friendly.

With the widening of Broadway and the opening of the Mid-Island Plaza and Sears, progress changed everything. Still Hicksville will ever be "Our Town".

Our children started in Lee Avenue School. . . . spent time in Nicholai Street School. . . . then Junior High. . . . and all graduated from Hicksville High School. Today we are the proud grandparents of a girl and boy born since we left Hicksville just three short years ago.

We shall ever cherish our years in Hicksville for we were happy there and forever be thankful to say Hicksville is "Our Home Town". . . . may it forever thrive.

Flashback: 37 Years Ago

Hicksville Schools Filled To Capacity

*Elementary public schools in Hicksville went on double-time schedules this week as hundreds of new pupils reported, exceeding the normal capacity of the school system. There were 1,917 pupils present for the first day of school in 1950, as compared to only 1,361 a year ago. This is almost a 100 percent increase, school authorities disclosed. By the end of the first week of classes, enrollment totalled 2,403.

During the hectic first week of the new term, school administrators, teachers, parents and school trustees were confronted with probably the biggest headaches in the history of the community, as initial estimates of enrollment multiplied and multiplied again.

Overnight changes in plans and schedules had to be made during the week in a valiant effort to solve the complex problems of finding room in school buildings to accommodate all new and old pupils.

All classes in Nicholai and East Street schools are now on double sessions, which means that some pupils attend school from 8:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. and the balance from 12:30 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. First week registrations illustrate what happened.

East Street School	1949	1950
Nicholai Street School	298	650

Town Awards Hicksville Meter Contract

*The town board has awarded a contract to American La France for parking meters to be installed in Hicksville, it was learned today. The board went along with the recommendations of the Citizens Advisory Committee on parking in awarding the contract for automatic type meters of the same manufacturer as those used in Westbury, Freeport, and Glen Cove. A representative of the company is expected in Hicksville this week to begin marking out the curb spaces.

Fire Board Boosts Strength of Companies Lifts Age Limit

*The board of fire commissioners this week took action to comply with the recommendations of Civilian Defense authorities of the county and state and directed that the five fire companies of the department increase their memberships.

Purpose of the new policy, aimed to bring the total department membership up to 200 men, is to provide a fully-manned organization as men are called into the armed services or become unavailable due to increased defense work.

"We are increasing the department size to eliminate the necessity for an auxiliary fire unit such as was created in World War II," a spokesman for the fire commissioners said.

A new limit for membership has been set at 40 men, compared with the previous limit of 35. At the same time, companies will be permitted to enroll as members not more than five men who are 35 to 45 years of age. The previous limitation on age was 35 years for all applicants.

Jaworski's Comets Hopeful

*Coach Chet Jaworski's first statements to the press concerning the chances of his 1950 Hicksville High football team leave the impression that his club will acquit itself very well during the coming campaign. That Hicksville High has ten lettermen returning this season has been played up and gives the impression that the squad will be loaded.

Quarterback Elias Stetz heads the list of returning vets, and much will depend on how he can carry a big load. Richard Scott will be another strong point in the backfield, while Ernie Evaschuck, Harry O'Mack and Phil Millevoite will also figure largely in the Comets running and passing attack.

Ends Ray Guckenberger and Ted Schwarting, each standing over six feet, will anchor the line. At the tackle positions Jaworski will have Gordon Thompson and Arthur Baumack. Thompson tips the scales in the vicinity of 210 pounds, while Baumack weighs in at 180.

Guard positions will have Richard Patwell, Barney Ruggiero and Richard Botto as consistent operators and Cyril Rumens, a converted backfield man has plugged a big gap at center.

There is a good chance that all these players may mold into a commendable unit. They will have little to fall back upon, though, as Jaworski's reserves are a most pressing problem and will offer him little comfort when the going gets rough.

Around Town It's Business As Usual

*Pro-Mar Motors at Broadway and Old Country Road, Hicksville, expects to be showing the 1951 model Hudson in about a month. . . . Eddie's Tonsorial Parlor has been going day and night since it moved next door to Town and Country. With completely new and modern equipment on hand, even Eddie hasn't had time to shave himself lately. . . . Farther south on Broadway, just below Pete Breen's, workmen are busily digging the excavation where Stop 'n' Shop Supermarket, a luncheonette, and several other stores will establish business, probably around the first of the year. . . . It was expected that the new group of stores at Broadway and West Carl Street would be occupied around October 1.

As a result of the visit of Pope John Paul II to the United States, I am reminded of a personal and inspirational meeting with him just a few years ago in Rome - right after the Polish government so ruthlessly suppressed the Solidarity movement. His words, at that time, forever etched in my mind the Pontiff's role in setting the tone for one of the values we cherish so greatly in Western civilization. It was the winter of 1984, and I was privileged to join a group of some eight members of Congress for a private audience with the Pope. The delegation was lead by Congressman Peter Rodino, Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee. The audience was held at a time when Solidarity movement and the lack of personal freedom in Poland were on everyone's mind.

As we started out from our hotel for the audience, there was great anticipation about what the Pontiff would have to say to us. Our delegation consisted of Protestants, Catholics, and Jews. The purpose of the audience was not a religiously oriented meeting. It was to pay respects to a world leader and exchange views on subjects of mutual concern.

Our cars soon passed through the Vatican gates, and we parked in an inner courtyard. A member of the Pontiff's staff greeted us. We soon were passing Vatican guards lining the entrance way to the private corridors leading to the conference room where our audience was to take place. As we took our seats, additional representatives from the Pope's staff entered the room so that there were now approximately fifteen people in the room. In just a few minutes, the door to his private office opened and Pope John Paul II trode smilingly to a large chair in front of the room. He quickly put us at ease and informed us in perfect English that he would like to give us some of his views on freedom so appropriate for the timing of our visit.

After his brief remarks, the Pontiff stood and asked to greet each one of us personally. He then spent about one-half an hour informally chatting with us about the United States and the role of our country as a beacon of hope for all desiring freedom. Soon, he was being urged to leave by his staff. It was then that one of the memorable experiences in my life took place. To this day, a chill of inspiration comes over me when I think back to that moment.

As the Pope walked to the door, our delegation broke into spontaneous applause. The Pope stopped. He turned towards us with his hands clasped, penetrating eyes piercing each of us at the same time and said clearly and softly, "God Bless America. I really mean it - God Bless America." The Pope turned again and in an instant was one through the open door. There was not a dry eye in the room. The Pope had said it all. What was of equal importance, is what he did not say. This Pope - from communist dominated country - has without a doubt, a special feeling for the role of the United States. Our nation must continue to be the guiding light for freedom in the world. Much of humanity truly counts on us.

Shopping Without Dropping

When you're dropping from too much shopping and so are your packages, is there ever a seat in sight? You know the answer to that one. And when you're ready to go down on all fours, are you willing to bet that no pack mule on a wagon train; no elephant crossing the Alps was ever as tired as you are? Probably.

Unless you happen to have the folding director's chair called "The Gadabout" (mentioned in last column) slung over your shoulder. If you do, you can snap it open, sink right down into it and let the other pack mules plod on without you.

The Gadabout has a beautiful royal-blue-and-white striped nylon sling seat and back on a sturdy four-legged aluminum frame. Folded, you can use it as a cane. Open, it will comfortably seat a person up to 200 lbs. It's easy to carry because it's only 3 1/2 lbs. and has shoulder straps which turn into chair-arms.

At home in museums or malls, on tour or at the track, in the wilds or at The White House, it'll cause constant comment wherever it goes. People can't resist it. Even the most reticent may want to fight you for it.

Fend off its fans either with a churlish growl or with details about it, which are: $38.00 postpaid from Bed 'N' Back, 209 Middleneck Rd., Great Neck, NY 11021. Phone 466-8222. Another way to keep from keeling over while marathon-shopping is to tackle managers of large local stores that provide no place to sit down. Tell them their aisles that never end often make you want to yell for stretcher bearers and say that if a bench or chair were put here or there, you'd shop more often and stay later. Any manager endowed with the entrepreneurial spirit that makes this country tick should see the sense in this and try to accommodate you.

If it's not your legs but arms that give out while shopping, how about a shopping bag with wheels? This is a bag that, folded, looks like a beige canvas (with red and green center stripe) shoulder bag or handbag except for its rigid, larger-than-usual handle.

Unfold it and out pops two wheels; it expands to 34" high and 13" x 8" and converts to a wheeled cart with a weatherproof top - all ready to roll proudly into posh shops where wire carts would fear to tread.

Short of summoning a slave of the lamp to lug your stuff home, this bag-cart is your best bet. Order it for $23.95 postpaid from Ways & Means, 28001 Citrin Dr., Romulus, MICH 48174 (800) 654-2345.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity.

We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Editor's Note

Now that school is underway the Hicksville Illustrated News urges all drivers to proceed with caution.

Drivers should never pass a stopped school bus with flashing red lights as children are getting on or off the bus. Obey all school signs and crossing guards and be on the look out for small children. Parents should advise children who are riding their bikes to school not to wear earphones plugged into a radio or tapedeck while traveling as well as to obey all traffic signs and signals. It is important that bicyclists ride as close to the right hand edge or curb of the road and drive with the flow of traffic.

The Illustrated wishes the teachers and students a happy and rewarding school year.

To The Editor:

Recently, representatives of the Duffy Park Civic Association took a walking tour of the roads which form the border of the Duffy Park section of Hicksville: Duffy Avenue (to the Wantagh Parkway), Charlotte Avenue, Old Country Road and Newbridge Road/Route 106.

The purpose of the tour was to identify ways in which the businesses situated in Duffy Park can take steps to clean up their buildings grounds, and overall appearance. We were also looking for ways in which the Town of Oyster Bay and Nassau County can improve the area (i.e. curbs, sidewalks, road repairs, etc.).

Generally, the business properties in Duffy Park are well-kept, but there are some glaring exceptions. Some properties are so strewn with litter and debris and overgrown with weeds that they almost appear abandoned. But business is being conducted in these buildings by people whose total lack of concern for the appearance of their grounds and the beauty of Hicksville is sickening. These businesses are drawing on the resources of a nice community—its people, roads, stores and water—and are giving absolutely nothing back in return.

This letter is an open appeal to the owners and proprietors of the businesses in Duffy Park: if you are working hard to maintain your property in nice condition, thank you and please keep it going. If your property is an eyesore, PLEASE CLEAN IT UP! You owe it to the community that is supporting you to clean up your weeds, pick up your litter, sweep your sidewalks, paint over the graffiti, get those abandoned cars towed away and keep after it on an on-going basis. Spending a few hours and a few dollars each week on routine maintenance should not be too much to expect for the overall betterment of the community in which you do business.

We will be writing to each and every business with our recommendations for improvements to each property. Companies with well-maintained grounds will be thanked for their efforts. Companies with poorly-maintained facilities will receive a list of suggested improvements and will be strongly urged to make the improvements immediately and keep after them for as long as they remain in Duffy Park.

The residents of Duffy Park extend our thanks to the Hicksville Illustrated News for your concern and help in bringing the issues that affect our community out into the open.

Memories

. . . . of Marion and Bill Combe

We now reside in Palm Harbor, Florida, located in the Tampa Bay area. We took up residence here after retiring and leaving Hicksville after twenty-nine years on Cottage Boulevard.

We do so miss the season changes—as well as our wonderful neighbors. Our greatest recollection of Hicksville is how wonderful it once was . . . the railroad was on the ground . . . and Broadway was the hub of activity with each merchant knowing you personally. It was so friendly.

With the widening of Broadway and the opening of the Mid-Island Plaza and Sears, progress changed everything. Still Hicksville will ever be "Our Town".

Our children started in Lee Avenue School . . . spent time in Nicholai Street School . . . then Junior High . . . and all graduated from Hicksville High School. Today we are the proud grandparents of a girl and boy born since we left Hicksville just three short years ago.

We shall ever cherish our years in Hicksville for we were happy there and forever be thankful to say Hicksville is "Our Home Town" . . . may it forever thrive.

Hicksville Schools Filled To Capacity

*Elementary public schools in Hicksville went on double-time schedules this week as hundreds of new pupils reported, exceeding the normal capacity of the school system. There were 1,917 pupils present for the first day of school in 1950, as compared to only 1,361 a year ago. This is almost a 100 percent increase, school authorities disclosed. LI Employers See Moderate Job Opportunities

Employment prospects on Long Island will be fair for the final months of 1987, according to the latest Employment Outlook Survey released recently by Manpower Inc., the world's largest temporary help service.

Robert S. Kennedy, manager of Manpower's New York area operations, reported, "Our fourth quarter survey shows that 27% of the area employers polled intend to increase staff during October, November and December, and 13% expect cutbacks. Another 60% anticipate no change in staff levels."

In a similar survey conducted last year at this time, 36% indicated plans to add staff while 4% intended to reduce their workforce. Three months ago, 22% predicted increases and 11% foresaw declining employment ranks.

On Long Island, employment prospects are reported by durable goods manufacturers and the construction industry. Mixed readings come from wholesale/retail merchants, the services sector, and the finance/insurance/real estate sector. Staff reductions are forecast for public administration. Other industries should remain stable.

As is customary in the fourth quarter, certain seasonal trends are in evidence. Wholesale and retail firms will be adding help for the holiday season and construction companies show hiring decreases in cold-weather areas. Manufacturing companies, both of durable and non-durable goods, are unusually optimistic for a year-end period. Durable goods manufacturers, in fact, are concluding an exceptionally strong year, as are services employers.

Although the fall job market is always complicated by the loss of students and teachers leaving summer work to return to classrooms, a record number of housewives and mothers are expected to be needing work after their children return to school.

Manpower Inc. conducts the Employment Outlook Survey on a quarterly basis. It is a measurement of employer intentions to increase or decrease the permanent workforce, and during its eleven-year history has been a significant indicator of employment trends.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...This is a letter about dopey weathermen...that's the only word I can find to explain how I feel about these characters who seem to think that they have to bring the zaniness of the comedian to the scientific reporting of the weather and the forecast...First they have to make what they consider funny remarks to the rest of the news panel...then they fool around being "cute" and finally they come to showing expensively prepared weather maps and satellite photos of all kinds of cloud cover—but do they then tell you what the weather is now and what you can expect in your area tomorrow and the next day??...Far from it—they seem to be greatly enamored of the Rocky mountains—and I do realize that our weather moves from the west and that may have something to do with their predictions—we go all over the west—maybe the south—what's happening in Palm Beach?—and just when you know there's nothing left for them to do but give you the local word—ah, ha and oh no—we will be back after sixteen commercials to tell you what's up in the galeses department for tomorrow...all of this, of course, interspersed with "clever" little asides...Maybe you all love this and I'm becoming a grouch—could be—but I love those darling men and women of the weather department—such as appear on cable news—who show the maps, tell the story, smile, and say good night...Here's hoping for clear skies and rain enough in the nights to keep our lawns green.

Yours, Lulabelle

If You're Thinking Of Going To Las Vegas . . .

Now that the children are back at school, thoughts may be turning to an adult vacation . . . and what better place than Las Vegas, often referred to as the adult Disneyland.

This writer's favorite hotel is the Tropicana known as the Island of Las Vegas. The newest feature in the line of visual pleasure is a nightly outdoor laser show. The presentation, called "Lasemania - the Ultimate Island Fantasy" is free to guests and features beam bursts and flashing graphics projected onto the 22 story island tower, to the accompaniment of exotic tinkling wind chimes and steel band music.

The Tropicana is one of the few Las Vegas Casinos that still has dinner shows, and the show is the Folies Bergere, introduced to Paris in 1859, updated and brought to the Tropicana in 1959. It is world acclaimed as the prototype of all great production shows.

Gaming at the Tropicana is very comfortable with facilities for everything, including the newly-opened Sports Book and exciting slot tournaments from time to time...and where else can you play black jack while sitting in the pool enjoying a tropical drink.

Your enjoyment in Las Vegas is always increased if you know someone to help with show reservations and the like. My Las Vegas friend of many years is Lou Lavitt, a casino executive at the Tropicana. The direct line for room reservations is 800-634-4000. We advise you to call in advance as room reservations at this popular resort are often in short supply.

AARP Announces Expanded Travel Service

More European winter holiday options than ever before are now being offered for the 1987-1988 season to the 25 million members of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP).

The AARP Travel Service's new winter brochure features a choice of 17 destinations. Included are the favorite stops of London and the Costa del Sol, as well as new combination programs like Paris and Nice or Cannes on the Riviera. Whatever the trip, the agenda is formulated with the interests of the over-50 traveler in mind.

"We know that the well-known stereotype has vacationing mature Americans being herded quickly from city to city in tightly packaged tours," said Hal Norvell, Manager of AARP's Travel Service office. Research indicates, however, that many older travelers would rather spend holidays abroad by setting up housekeeping in just one or two places for a more leisurely length of time."

Mr. Norvell said that is why the 5-year-old Winter Europe Hosted Holiday Program is among the most popular offered by the AARP Travel Service. Participating members live in destinations like Paris, Rome, Vienna, Majorca, Tenerife and the Costa del Sol, with a first-class hotel or apartment as a base and an experienced local AARP Host on hand to lend help and provide information.

"There is no preset itinerary. The vacationer's time is entirely his or her own," added Norvell.

A brochure listing full information about the 1987-1988 Winter Europe Hosted Holiday program is available from the AARP Travel Service. Contact the Travel Service at P.O. Box 92964, Los Angeles, California 90009.

President Al Levine opened the meeting. We were very happy to see a lot of visiting Rotarians and guests.

The club did their favorite thing. They serenaded Jan Manaskie's birthday.

Augie Cassella read the Board minutes from the meeting held on 9/2/87. The club voted $1000. to the Gift of Life. They voted to take out a full page ad in the "Hicksville Community Council Book"; also, to sponsor a baseball team in the Hicksville Little League. We received letters of thanks from the "Soup Kitchen" and the Hicksville Senior Citizens.

President Al proposed a barn dance for this autumn, and a picnic for the spring and summer of 1988.

The club inducted Gail Bernstein as the newest member. Harry Peitz introduced Gail and praised her very highly. Gail said that she is very interested in "service". Gail is a member of the "Daughters of the American Revolution" and a past president of the P.T.A. She further gave thanks to Rotary for Tina and sending her daughter, Laurie, to Japan. The members gave Gail a warm welcome to the club.

Golf Classic: The golf tournament is a month away. It is time to get your foursomes together and let Harry know who will be attending. Posters on the tournament will be given out.

Fred Meyer read a letter from Nancy Nolan, a scholarship winner, who is attending Pennsylvania University. Nancy thanked us for our generosity, and is beginning her senior year. She is treasurer of her sorority and a member of the University credit union. Fred read another letter from the Oswego Rotary Club requesting inexpensive housing for a student who will be studying osteopathic medicine at Old Westbury.

Any members wishing to attend the Rotary International Convention in Philadelphia next May can contact Fred Meyer.

Raffle: Won by Al Levine who donated it back to the club. Elie Zambaka then won the bid for $35.

The fall season is here and this signals the start of the storytime program at the Hicksville Public Library. On Thursday, October 1 the first storytime of the new school year will be held at 10:30 a.m. or 1:30 p.m. Thereafter, each Thursday at the same time picture book stories, fables, fairy tales, and flannel board stories, films, and games are in store for all 3½ to 5 year old Hicksville children. Registration is required and will be held in the children's room through September. All children who wish to register must be 3½ years old by October 1 and present a birth certificate at the time of registration. Each storytime is approximately 30 minutes in length.

For those youngsters who are too young to attend the library's storytime, a special "Tiny Tot" storytime will be held every Wednesday in November (except November 11 and the first Wednesday in December) at 10:30 or 11:15 a.m. All Hicksville children between the ages of 2½ to 3½ years old are invited to come and listen to favorite stories. Registration is the week of October 5 and a birth certificate must be shown at the time of registration.

The regular movie time for preschoolers will again be held this fall. Starting in October all 2½ to 5 year children are invited to come and see short films at 1:30 p.m. on the first Monday of every month. The film program lasts approximately one half hour and no registration is required.

Highlights from Holy Trinity Greek Church Festival

Photos by Catherine J. Tokar of the Hicksville Illustrated News

FRONT VIEW OF Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church on Field Avenue, Hicksville. Inside, marble floors, candles and stained glass depict Greek design and culture.

ONE OF THE festival highlights was the performance of the Hellenic Dancers. Dressed in classic Greek attire, these teens display many dances which are still a part of Greek custom.

THESE YOUTHS TAKE the plunge as they race down the giant slide.

A LARGE CROWD cheered and clapped as the Hellenic Dancers displayed their talents.

MEMBERS OF THE Hellenic Dancers of Hicksville: Chris Kouroupakis, Terry Stavropoulos and Nick Kalyvas demonstrated the art of Greek dance, inherent in this fine culture.

AMONG THE MANY prizes to be raffled off on November 28, 1987 is this 1987 Cadillac Coup de Ville.

THE FESTIVAL LASTED until 11 p.m. and was crowded with people. Young and old enjoyed the dance, food and history that Greek culture offers.

PEOPLE LINED UP for the many famous Greek foods. Souvlaki and gyros are the most popular, but these dishes were also tantalizing: Greek salad, Moussaka and Spanakopita, or spinach pie.

Caring For Those Baubles, Bangles and Bright Shiny Beads...

Many of today's fashions have heightened beauty and eye appeal by the addition of decorative trimming and ornamentation. While many of the materials used are serviceable, there are an increasing number that are not. The following information is to alert you to the possible problems to avoid.

Sequins

Sequins are usually circular, colored shiny discs applied to garments to increase the appeal and attractiveness of the garment. Unfortunately there are many potential problems with sequins, depending on the material used in their construction and the method of application to the fabric.

Many of the colored coatings used on sequins are only applied to the surface of the sequins and are held by an adhesive. Drycleaning solvent dissolves the adhesive, removing the color. The dye may transfer to other parts of the garment. Water soluble dyes are the same as above except the adhesive is soluble in water.

The sequin is made from a plastic substance that dissolves in drycleaning solvent. May be affected by hair sprays.

The sequin is made from a gelatinous material that is affected by heat in pressing or sunlight which causes the sequins to cloud, melt and curl.

Sequins that are applied to the fabric with a chain stitch will unravel if there is a break in the stitch.

Instead of sewing it to the fabric the sequin is applied to the surface with a glue. The sequins may detach from the fabric from friction in normal wear or the glue may be soluble in drycleaning solvent resulting in a loss of sequins.

Beads

Beads are usually small colored balls or oblongs with holes through them so they can be strung or sewn to a garment for its decorative effect. Most beads are made of glass but other materials are being used (plastic) which may present problems.

Glitter

Glitter or "cracked ice" are small, randomly cut, colored pieces of metal, glass, or plastic, that add brilliance and iridescence to the fabric.

Because of random shape and small pieces, glitter is usually glued to the surface of the fabric. The glitter may detach from its fabric in normal wear or the adhesive that holds it may dissolve in drycleaning solvent releasing the glitter.

Randomly cut pieces of clear plastic that have a silver coating which will attract light like a mirror. Great for the disco scene.

The adhesive that holds the silver coating dissolves in drycleaning solvent, resulting in the loss of the mirror affect. In many cases the coating will not be affected by water.

Buttons

The use of buttons as a decorative trim is a very common and popular way of adding color, brilliance and design to a garment. Most buttons present little or no problems but there are some you should be aware of and avoid. Although buttons can be removed and re sewn by the drycleaner, the cost of the service must be passed on to the consumer while the manufacturer should be held responsible.

Despite the fact that there are buttons that are solvent resistant, manufacturers continue to use plastic (polystyrene) buttons that dissolve in routine drycleaning procedures.

Button substances, like textiles have specific affinities for certain dyes. When the improper dye is used the button does not absorb or accept it. When moisture contacts the button, the dye bleeds on to the fabric. This can occur in normal wear or when the garment is subject to heat and moisture used in routine pressing procedures. Frequently, these types of stains are permanent and cannot be removed by the drycleaner.

The brilliance of buttons can be increased by inserting multi-facet diamond-shaped glass into the buttons. The glass inserts are held by a glue that may not be permanent. The glass inserts can be lost in the course of normal wear. If the glue is solvent soluble the inserts can be removed from the buttons.

Leather & Suede Trim

Raincoats are frequently trimmed with real leather, or leather-covered buttons or buckles that lose dye and break in the course of normal wear and routine drycleaning. The problem occurs because the manufacturer used an inferior leather covering. The leather can break apart and lose dye from just friction and rubbing in normal wear. The cleaning process may accentuate the condition.

This is a popular fashion trend used by manufacturers to enhance the look of many garments including jackets, sweaters and dresses. Usually manufacturers are careful to use trimmings (suede or leather) that do not bleed, crack or lose color.

Shoulder Pads

Shoulder pads create fashion because the look, appearance, and drape of a garment is altered. The recent change to large shoulder pads as a fashion trend has created problems for consumers and drycleaners. Shoulder pads are an integral part of the garment. Improperly manufactured shoulder pads may break up, distort and shrink. Cleaners are aware of the problems and may offer the consumer the option of having the shoulder pads removed and re sewn or made removable by inserting snaps or velcro strips. This, however, involves an additional cost to the consumer.

Helpful Hints For Garment Care

It pays to give your wardrobe the care it deserves and needs. Follow these suggestions:

DO... DO... DO...

- save the hang tags that come with garments you buy. Show them to your drycleaner for his guidance—and take note of instructions that have to do with home care.
- brush your clothes regularly and thoroughly.
- dry rain-soaked or damp garments thoroughly in a cool, well ventilated place before hanging in the closet.
- have garments drycleaned regularly; even nominal accumulation of perspiration, grease, grit and dust particles impair the attractiveness and longevity of any apparel. Garments cleaned regularly last longer.
- send stained garments to the drycleaner immediately. Exposure to air, heat and light sets stains and can make their removal impossible.
- when a garment has been stained, tell your drycleaner about the staining substance; it is important for successful stain removal.

DON'T... DON'T... DON'T...

- press a garment if it's stained. The heat of pressing will set the stain and likely make its removal impossible.
- use untested home stain removers or club soda. They can aggravate the condition, or may create permanent damage. Take the - garment to your drycleaner.

- use an underarm deodorant without using a shield to protect the garment from the deodorant. Allow deodorant to dry before dressing.
- wear decorative pins—especially on knit garments. If the garment has a snag, use a crochet hook to pull the loop through the underside to avoid further damage.
- wear a garment that you value when using a coldwave solution or getting a permanent. Cold-wave solutions cause fabric discoloration.
- store garments at home without having them cleaned and mothproofed before storage. Be sure that the storage bags, boxes or cedar chests used are kept in a dry place.
- use nail-polish remover to remove nail-polish stains. You may damage the garment's dye, or if the fabric is an acetate type, nail-polish remover can create a hole.
- hang knitted garments. Hanging pulls them out of shape and causes a sagging neckline. Knits are best stored in a drawer, or folded over the padded rod of a hanger.

Chin Up-Best Face Forward...It's Fall!

Change of season means a whole new look in cosmetics, colors, hair and skin care. We go from the summer's natural golden glow to the crisp, rosey-cheeked wind blown look of autumn. Skin and hair need special care against chapping and drying, and the deeper tones of fall and winter clothes demand a new spectrum of makeup colors.

Pantene's new Style-n-Hold collection of hair care products, from sculpturing gel and styling mousse, to extra-firm-hold, non-aerosol hair spray, will keep you looking great on the blowiest day. You'll be able to create any look you like and still have hair that feels like hair. Every product in the line contains Pantene's pro-vitamin complex as well as sunscreens (yes, even in the fall!). This is "serious" hair care for sensuous, healthy hair.

Prescriptives uses a color palette to create a healthy fall glow for cheeks, lips and eyes. Their "modernism" is an architectural fantasy from the yellow-orange family (Construction), which highlights eyes with gun metal pencil and jet and copper shadow; lips that are demi-matte orange, glossed with "meteor;" and cheeks blushed with warm earthy tones.

There's "Jazz City" (the blue/reds); "Green Dream (Reds)", "Metropolis" (red/oranges). All the "city stops" are sophisticated, flexible, surprising and modern. Prescriptives offers a full line of non-allergenic, nutritive face products that will carry you right through to spring...with zing!

Mezzotints from Estee Lauder, are new "makeup minimalists" in three color groups: Tailleir—the warm basics: brown, ivory and navy for eyes, raspberry wine/pink illusion for cheeks; red flame for lips. Then there's Sepia Tints which range from russet to raisin—warm and almost nude, with earthy highlights and honey tones. And, finally, there are Pressed Flowers: violets and pinks, golden palm and raspberry, with tones of clay on lips.

THE WORLD OF LITTLE PEOPLE

IT'S GETTING BETTER AND BETTER

ONCE UPON A TIME, NOT SO VERY LONG AGO, CHILDREN WERE ONLY EXPECTED TO DO ONE SINGLE THING: BECOME EXEMPLARY GROWN-UPS AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE. SO, FOR THE SAKE OF CONVENIENCE, THEY WERE PACKED IN UNCOMFORTABLE MINI-SUITS. LATER ON, PEOPLE'S IDEAS CHANGED; CHILDREN SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO BE YOUNG FOR A LONG TIME AND HAVE A HAPPY CHILDHOOD. THEY ARE SUPPOSED TO BECOME BETTER GROWN-UPS THAT WAY. AND NOW SOME PEOPLE EVEN SUGGEST THAT CHILDREN WOULD BECOME IDEAL GROWN-UPS IF THEY ARE ALLOWED TO REMAIN WHO THEY ARE.

BUSINESS AND FINANCE

The Investor's Corner

By JOSEPH P. FREY, Ph.D.

MARKET SHORTS

In a long ago article I promised to write about the use of shorts to play the market. The time is now ripe because the short position is very high on Wall Street. The average investor may say "so what" to all of this because the average investor does not go short a stock. The average investor is long.

Have I used terms with which you may not be familiar? Well, let's just correct that situation. To be long means that you have bought the stock, the mutual fund, the bond, or whatever. You own the security. To be short means exactly the opposite; it means that you owe someone stock. Why would you owe it? Simply because you borrowed the stock from someone through your broker, and you sold it. You are short the stock.

Now, of course, the logical question is why would anyone borrow stock so they can sell it? The answer to that is amazingly simple. The person who sells the borrowed stock believes that the price of the stock is going to go down. If, and when, it does the short goes out and buys the stock and replaces what was borrowed. In effect they want to sell at 50 (for example) and buy at 35 or less. They gain the difference between 50 and 35, or $15 per share. Did you follow that? You borrow stock from the broker and sell it at 50. When the stock price falls, you buy it at 35 and replace the stock that you borrowed. You keep the difference.

Sounds simple, and it is. Of course, there are a million problems with this approach to making money in stocks. First, the risk can be tremendous. When Bernard Baruch was a young man and not rich, he went broke 3 times before he made a big score. It is risky because the stock price is not guaranteed to go down. Sometimes it goes up. No matter what happens, you must replace the stock, win or lose. As the stock goes up in price, you keep putting in more money or your broker (who has guaranteed the replacement) will sell you out.

You also may think that it is a wonderful racket because you can use other people's money. When you sell the shorted stock you get paid for them, the broker keeps the money and you have put up nothing. Right? No, wrong! It does not work that way. When you sell short you still have to put up the money (or have it in your margin account) as if you were buying the stock. In addition, the broker does not let you have the money from the short sale; that is kept to protect the broker. You get your money only when you have evened up the account.

Remember, if the price goes up after you short a stock you lose. If it goes down, you win. Now does all of this have any significance to the average investor? Absolutely. The short position in a particular stock or in a stock market is a very good indicator of the way the market will probably go in the short term.

Remember, people short when they think the market or a stock is going to go down. Also, remember that the stock must be replaced by being purchased. So there is a built-in demand for a stock because the shorts are required to replace it. So the short position provides a cushion for a stock or a market when the position is high, when people are pessimistic. So in a perverse way, the pessimistic shorts are a bullish (good) indicator of the market. The more bears (those who think a market is going down) the better; the more shorts the better for the average stock buyer. Only because they have to buy.

It is another example for those of us who are contrarians. That means that when everyone, especially those in the so-called know, think the market is going to go up or down, the opposite usually happens.

On September 9th, when this article is being written, the short position on the New York Stock Exchange is near an all-time high. To me this means that the market fall of the past two weeks is almost over. You see I am a contrarian.

I look at what the stock players are doing and I listen to the "experts". It is one of the reasons I do not think that this bull market is over yet. There are too many short sellers and there is too much skepticism, about 45% of them believe the market has topped out. I will be really scared when about 85% of them believe the market is going to keep going up. That's when it probably will fall through the floor. As you know, I think the market is going to come down sharply some time in the future (before 1989). But not now, not yet.

NOTE: Those of you who have bond mutual funds have been hurt again by the rising interest rates. At these interest rates a 1% rise in interest means about a 10% decline in value. In the following articles we have advised the shortening of the maturity of these instruments: This and That, Aug. 6, 1987; Abandon Ship, May 21, 1987; and Government Plus is Government Negative, May 15, 1987. On February 26, 1987 I suggested buying 3 to 5 year U.S. Treasury notes. I hope you have all done that. It would have saved you from an approximate 20% loss in the market value of the securities.

DEMPSEY AND PETERSON

CAN'T BUY ME LOVE

This teen comedy packs a strong message, but its execution falls short. A high school geek (Patrick Dempsey) pays a popular cheerleader (Amanda Peterson) to be his girlfriend for a month as a key to instant popularity. However, much of the dialogue is incoherent, the characters are unappealing and the performances are uneven. Of course, our hero does shake off his nerdiness but learns that being cool is no big deal. All rather predictable. (PG)

MONSTER SQUAD

Count Dracula and friends (Frankenstein's monster, the Wolfman, et al) invade a small town to stir up evil. Only some small fry of the title group, who have studied the habits of these ghouls, can rid the community of such menace. As a youth feature in the spirit of "The Goonies," the comedy is on the drab side and the performances are merely routine. The showdown involves shootings and impalings which could disturb some youngsters. With Andre Gower, Robby Kiger and Stephen Macht. (PG-13)

COMING ATTRACTIONS

MGM's "Masquerade" will star Rob Lowe, Mel Tilly and Kim Cattrall. The contemporary thriller is a story of murder, intrigue and love set in a seaside summer playground of the idle rich.

F. Murray Abraham has been signed to star in "The Favorite." The film is about a young girl who becomes a slave in a sultan's harem.

Sylvester Stallone will portray an author/adventurer in Africa in "The Leopard Hunts in Darkness." United Artists will distribute.

Universal Pictures will release "Prince of Darkness," a film involving an effort to prevent the return of Satan. Donald Pleasance and Jameson Parker top the cast.

Inland Pictures will distribute "Black Eyes," an Italian film starring Marcello Mastroianni and Marthe Keller. The picture is inspired by various short stories of Anton Chekov.

Paramount Pictures will distribute "Crocodile Dundee II." Paul Hogan and his son have written the screenplay.

"Evil Angels," a drama set in contemporary Australia, will star Meryl Streep. Cannon Films will distribute.

Touchstone Pictures is producing the action-adventure "The Rescue." Kevin Dillon and Christina Harnos will star in the film about teenagers who rescue their fathers captured by North Koreans.

Bill Pullman and Cathy Tyson will star in Universal Pictures' "The Serpent and the Rainbow." The story involves a Haitian doctor in pre-revolutionary Haiti.

Kiwanis Club News

Hope for Youth, Inc. was represented by Mr. David Hegerty, their program development director, when he spoke to the Hicksville Kiwanis Club at a recent meeting.

Mr. Hegerty told the members of Kiwanis that Hope for Youth, Inc. was a 20-year-old child care agency which was organized after Judge Elizabeth Golding suggested that children who were neglected and/or abused by their parents should be provided with a better life than to be put into an institution. Hope for Youth, Inc. is a voluntary, licensed child care agency dedicated to establishing and operating family-like homes for abandoned, neglected and abused children.

The first such home was in North Bellmore, and they now have four homes on Long Island. They have a live-in staff 24 hours a day and house a maximum of seven children per home. The children are carefully screened for compatibility. Guidance and counselling is provided. Many graduate from high school and some go on to college on Hope For Youth scholarships.

Mr. Hegerty was pleased to report that they had rescued many children from the governmental system of institutionalizing so-called "problem kids". He also stated that help is needed in the form of donations of funds, furniture for the homes, volunteer time such as carpentry, plumbing, etc. to maintain the homes.

Further information is available at Hope For Youth, Inc., Northedge Bldg. Rm 20, Stewart Ave., Bethpage, NY 11714, or call (516) 579-6880.

Opening lead — jack of clubs.

In most deals declarer does not know at the outset how he will ultimately fare. This is because the outcome frequently depends on how the adverse cards are distributed.

There are other deals where the outcome is a foregone conclusion, because declarer sees that he is either sure to make the contract or that he cannot make it, regardless of the lie of the cards.

If declarer is sufficiently artful in the accompanying hand, he can forecast the outcome with certainty. He cannot be defeated if he plays correctly, no matter how the East-West cards are divided.

He wins the club lead with the king and sees that 12 — perhaps 13 — tricks may materialize if he attempts finesses in spades and hearts. However, he also notes that if both finesses were to fail the slam would go down one. Declarer therefore adjusts his thinking so as to overcome the possibility that West was dealt both missing kings.

He draws a round of trumps, cashes the ace of clubs, and ruffs a club. Another trump lead to dummy permits him to ruff dummy's last club.

After returning to dummy with a trump, declarer leads a heart and inserts the nine after East follows low. He certainly does not expect the nine to win, but he knows that when it loses to West the rest of the tricks are his, regardless of what West returns. West is endplayed, due to the elimination of his clubs.

Note that East cannot frustrate South's scheme by playing his ten on the heart lead from dummy. Declarer simply covers with the queen to produce the same winning position.

South does not stake the outcome on the hope or expectation that East has one of the missing kings. He carefully eliminates this threat to the slam.

SPORTS ON LONG ISLAND

Nassau Sports Review

By JACK WHITE

Here we are still a week away from the opening kickoff of Nassau's 1987 high school football season and the New York State Sportswriters Association has already issued its first rankings of the season. Their pre-season poll was remarkably accurate last year, so their predictions may be worth a look. Here are the top 12 according to the NYSSA:

1. Hempstead
2. Farmingdale
3. Garden City
4. Massapequa
5. Holy Trinity
6. Sewanhaka
7. Locust Valley
8. New Hyde Park
9. Baldwin
10. Lynbrook
11. Bethpage
12. Elmont

Hempstead, Garden City and St. Paul's all begin 1987 with winning streaks while Clarke will be out to break a long losing skein. The Tigers of Hempstead under coach Buddy Krumenacker have a 27-0-2 streak, the longest active unbeaten streak in the state (Delhi is 28-0). Garden City has a 13-0-1 record. St. Paul's of Garden City is 16-0. Clarke is 0-25 and is one short of the longest losing streak in Nassau history, shared by Woodmere High (now Hewlett) and Floral Park.

Some other points of interest for football fans: Farmingdale coach Don Snyder begins the season with 192 victories in his brilliant career which dates back to 1953. An excellent season could put him in the 200 club, a very select group, indeed. Currently, Neil Kerr a writer for the Syracuse Post Standard is trying to compile a list of New York State's winningest high school football coaches. His research so far has turned up just four 200 game winners: Johnny Barnes of Canisius (Buffalo) with 287 (retired 1973); Frank Bertino of Riverdale School 244 (retired 1983); Moe Finkelstein of Jefferson N.Y.C. 206 (retired 1986); and Harold Cobb of Union-Endicott 202 (retired 1958). Snyder is second among active coaches.

Did you see Fran Healy's interview with former President Richard Nixon after a recent Sportschannel Mets telecast? Healy talked baseball with Nixon, an avid and informed fan. Then, in typical unconventional fashion, Healey asked Nixon to name an all-president baseball team, position by position.

This sparked some interesting thoughts. Let me offer some selections. Further contributions are welcome.

Designated Hitter: Teddy Roosevelt (speaks softly, but carries a big stick). Short Reliever: Gerald Ford. Third Base: Harry Truman - (who else could play the "hot corner?"). At first George Washington (he was first at everything). How about F.D.R. in left and Ronald Reagan in right? Manager: Richard Nixon (knows all the tricks).

Defending Nassau Class 'A' boys soccer champ Syosset lost twice in the opening weekend of the season. The Braves dropped games to Plainview Kennedy and Glenn. Safest bet for this fall: Massapequa will win the girls Class 'A' soccer crown. Berner closed this year and its students merged with Massapequa. The two neighborhood schools had been finalists virtually every season. Now they are one squad. The girls state soccer finals will be played at Islip High School on November 21. The boys tournament will be at CW Post and Suffolk Community College.

Karp Volvo L.I. Racquetball Championships

The Karp Volvo Long Island Racquetball Championships, one of Long Island's most prestigious racquetball tournaments, is now accepting registrations for the Sept. 25-27, event to be held at the Sportset Fitness and Racquetball Club located at 40 Maple Avenue, Rockville Centre. The tournament is open to all residents of Nassau, Suffolk, Queens and Brooklyn.

The American Amateur Racquetball Association (AARA) sanctioned tournament requires a $30 first event fee and a $15 second event fee, which must be doubles. Men's and Women's Open Divisions, however, require a first event fee of $40. Entries are to be received no later than Sunday, Sept. 20, or a $5 late fee will be used.

AARA membership is mandatory, and registration will be available at the tournament sign-in desk. The $10 AARA one-year membership fee also insures that the players' results will be tabulated in the National Ranking System. In addition, all AARA members receive a subscription to "Racquetball in Review," a nationally renowned publication.

"This year marks the fourth time Karp Volvo, The Volvo Authority, has sponsored this tournament," noted David Karp, president of Karp Volvo. "We expect a huge turnout of racquetball players of all abilities to enter this event because of the prestige, recognition and prize money associated with it."

Men's and women's singles competition will have play in Open, A,B,C,C,C, Novice, Seniors (35+) and Juniors (18 and under). Men's play also will feature special divisions for Veterans (30+) and Masters (45+). The doubles categories consist of Open, A,B and C, for both men and women. Prize monies will be awarded for first ($300), second ($150) and third ($75) place winners for the men and women in the Open Division.

At least 300 participants are expected to enter the tournament, and Sportset plans to have some preliminary rounds played at its Syosset club. The finals will be held in Rockville Centre.

All players must be prepared to play at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 25. In consideration of Rosh Hashanah observers, Tournament Directors Nance Cottrell and Shawn Russell will try to accommodate special starting requests if indicated on entry registrations.

For information regarding tournament play and registration, call Sportset at 536-8700.

Sports Med Line

Beginning next week Anton Community Newspapers will feature a new column for our sports enthusiasts. The column, entitled "Sports Med Line" is written by Stephen Henry, M.D. and Regina White Durbin, L.P.T. of St. Anthony's Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center, Louisville, Kentucky. The following is an introduction:

The medical subspecialty of Sports Medicine has become increasingly more important over the past 5-10 years. This can be attributed to the popularization of fitness and our society's emphasis on good health. In a recent survey published by Gallup Poll the "Weekend athlete" was found to suffer three times more injuries than those individuals playing organized sports. Simple strains and sprains accounted for most of these injuries. As we find ourselves treating and advising the "Weekend athlete", we have found that with educational programs most sports related injuries can be avoided. It is our hope that this weekly column will clarify many questions and misconceptions about exercise and introduce you to a better fitness program.

The Sports Medicine Team

The daily treatment of sports medicine injuries and the rehabilitation back to the playing field often involves more than the sports medicine physician. Routinely, the physician requests assistance from the physical therapist, trainer and nutritionist to enable the athlete to return to his sports in the best possible condition. We also depend heavily on the parents and coaches who play a valuable role preventing the players premature return to a sport. All of these individuals are essential and should be recognized for their contribution to the injured athlete.

Preparticipation Physical Examination

Initially, it is safest to assume that those readers who would benefit the most from this column are not in top shape. For this reason, we recommend a pre-participation screening to diagnose any physical abnormalities or medical conditions that would place the participant at risk of injury. Flexibility should be assessed to identify any musculoskeletal imbalances or weakness. This provides the athlete with an opportunity to strengthen deficits before participation in his sport and before injury.

After a thorough examination, further investigation may be necessary to determine whether the athlete should or should not participate. Examples of such problems include cardiovascular abnormalities, pulmonary disease, and poorly controlled seizure disorders.

Pre-exercise physical examination are important in all age groups. It is in the middle age population that the most serious medical problem can be prevented. Please see your physician first before beginning a new exercise program or recreational sport.

Risk Group Population

According to some estimates released by the Department of Health Education and Welfare, nearly 50% of all adolescent males and 25% of all adolescent females participate in an organized sport. In addition, nearly 5.5 million athletes participate in varsity sports on the collegiate level and another 6 million individuals participate in intramural sports. With such large numbers of athletes and injuries, a more concerted effort is being made to identify the high risk injury groups.

In an interesting study by Garrick and Requa, high school athletic injuries were compared between sexes and sports. High school males were injured most, often playing football or wrestling followed by injuries in track and field, basketball, soccer, and baseball. Females, on the other hand, were at most risk playing softball, followed by injuries in gymnastics, track and field, cross country, and basketball. Relatively few injuries were experienced by either sex while participating in tennis, swimming, and volleyball. This study did not suggest that high risk sports be avoided, but instead encouraged pre-season conditioning and strengthening so that injuries can be prevented.

Hopefully, over the next several months, our column will discuss numerous sports medicine injuries and problems. If you have a question pertinent to sports medicine, please forward it to: Dr. Steve Henry, 1361 Tyler Park, Louisville, KY 40204. We will be happy to include your question in a future article.

Catching Tennis Fever At the Hospital

Tennis fever ran high on the pediatric floor of Manhasset's North Shore University Hospital when Tim Wilkison, a leading player in the recent Norstar Bank Hamlet Challenge Cup, paid the youngsters a cheer-up visit.

Proceeds of the games—run under the auspices of Norstar Bank and the New Leadership Division, a committee of the Board of Trustees of North Shore dedicated to supporting specific hospital programs—benefit the Department of Pediatrics' Child Life Program. "Child Life" is a program to help sick children and their families cope with psychological aspects of hospitalization.

The lefty from South Carolina may not be as well known as Lendl or Connors, but he made a lasting impression on North Shore's young patients.

Hicksville PAL Umpire News

By ELEANOR BENTREWICZ & CHARLETTE ANSTEY

Before we come to the end of our PAL baseball season, Mrs. Bentrewicz would like to give a special THANK YOU to all the young men and young women who umpired our games this season. Our age group ranged from 14 to 21 years of age and are an integral part of the Hicksville PAL.

Quite a few of these young men and young women had jobs. They rushed home from their jobs, as did the managers, coaches and parents. These umpires also cut their enjoyment at the beach and other activities to get to the ballfield. Mrs. Bentrewicz feels these young adults did an excellent job for Hicksville PAL and she is very proud of them.

There were a few times when we had more games than umpires and parents were recruited to umpire the games. Mrs. Bentrewicz would like to thank these parents too. She is happy to say we didn't have too many nights like these.

Mrs. Anstey would like to publicly thank Mrs. Eleanor Bentrewicz for the service she renders Hicksville PAL. Not only does she actively recruit umpires and referees all year long, but she is the adult who receives everyone's complaint. She is invariably pleasant and has the ability to calm down irate fans. She is a very special lady and Hicksville PAL (and the Hicksville Community) are lucky to have a volunteer like her.

Mrs. Bentrewicz would like to thank each young man and young woman for the tremendous job they have accomplished. The following are the 1987 Summer Season Umpires:

Kathy Franey of Massapequa was the winner in the women's division while Dan Brach of Hicksville took first place in the all around. Also on hand to congratulate the runners were State Assemblyman Philip B. Healey (second from right) and Al Parisi, president of the civic association.

Hicksville '77 Pioneers Triumph

By JAY SCHWARTZ

The Hicksville Pioneers easily won a rainy match with the Garden City Raiders last Saturday 3-1. After finding the way to settle things down, they led 1-0 at the end of the first half. They controlled the ball for most of the second half, scoring two more to put it away.

The first half saw Peter Titone in goal, and he made two great saves out of a handful of near shots on goal. The first score was posted by Tom Coffey, after a long pass by Jonathan Schwartz on the left sideline. Coffey's shot was pushed away by the goalie and he followed up with a second kick to the far post. No defender was in position during this fast break. Robert Ilsley, David Nelson and Richard Kerchenski all kept the ball moving forward from their defensive positions.

In the second half, Grey Latin's skills showed in the goalie's box. He made several saves as the shots on goal became sharper. Joe Croce passed a beauty to Tom Coffey for the Pioneer's second goal. The strong passing of several players — Dan Wolchok, Tracy Koetter, John Kanuck, Russell Brouseau, Joe Matz, Joe Florio, and Phil Caputo — kept the pressure on for many attempts at shots on goal. Towards the end of the half, a blast from Joe Croce outside the 18 yardline sailed past the goalie. Seconds before the final whistle, the opponents passed the ball three times and a shot went wide of Latin's, who made a dive, but couldn't knock it down.

Congratulations to Coach Richard Ilsley and assistants Phil Caputo and Steve Florio
