

Broadway Mall Bus Terminal May Relocate

By RITA LANGDON

Commuters to and from the Broadway Mall bus terminal may have to acquire their transportation at a different part of the shopping complex if a proposal to relocate the depot is implemented, a Delco Development official said.

According to Kevin Shaughnessy, Broadway mall manager, Delco is currently looking to move the bus stop to either the south side of the mall on the east side of Stern's, or on the north side of the mall, just north of U.S. General.

"These are the two locations we have," Mr. Shaughnessy said at the Northwest Civic Association meeting last week. "We might leave it [the terminal] where it is or we might do something else."

The mall, formerly Mid Island Plaza, began renovations in November 1987.

Resident's Comments

Residents fear that the depot may be moved to the rear end of the mall which is close to Burns Avenue Elementary School.

"We get very concerned when we hear things such as the potential siting of the bus terminal at the back end of the mall where it would encourage extra traffic in this particular area," Andrew Jachniewicz, an officer of the civic association, said. "The idea of relocating the bus depot to the end of Delco's property was discussed at one time or another," Mr. Shaughnessy said. "A number of things we discussed and dropped," he added. "Everything Delco is doing is within the boundaries of their property," he said. "The area we are looking at is no closer to the homes than [the bus stop] is now."

Hicksville resident Helen Lafferty said that if the buses were located at the back end of the mall, the bus fumes might jeopardize the health of the school children. "We don't want this to become a main thoroughfare for buses," she said. "If anything has an impact on our children's welfare or their safety, in any way, Delco is going to have a large group of people to contend with," she added.

Mr. Shaughnessy said "We do consider our surroundings. We are hoping to be good neighbors."

Plans for Burns Avenue School

For almost a year, residents have expressed concern over Delco's proposal to buy Burns Avenue School.

Mr. Shaughnessy said that Delco "backed off" when they discovered that the school was not for sale. However, he said, the company would probably "pursue" such a purchase if the school is put up for sale in the future.

According to Mr. Shaughnessy, one of the principals of the company was approached by a real estate broker who provided information that possibly some school "surplus" property was going up for sale. Mr. Shaughnessy explained that the broker asked the principal if Delco would be interested. "When we were informed that the property was not for sale, all offers were withdrawn," Mr. Shaughnessy said. Residents also inquired as to what Delco would do if the company

Gunman Robs Two Area Stores in 5 Minutes

By A. ANTHONY MILLER

A man robbed two Hicksville stores at gunpoint within five minutes last Friday and escaped with about $400, Nassau Police said.

The suspect struck first at a Carvel stand at 447 South Broadway at 8:25 p.m., demanding money from employees Daniel Massiello, 16, and Pamela D'Ambrosio, 17. He got $100 and ran across South Broadway.

Five minutes later, the gunman entered Volpe's Deli, 341 Jerusalem Avenue, and robbed owner Cosimo Volpe, 32, of between two and three hundred dollars before driving away in a Chevrolet, dark blue or black, northbound on Jerusalem Avenue.

No injuries were reported at either scene.

Reorganization Committee Recommends That School Board Not Close School

By CATHERINE TOKAR

No school within the Hicksville district will close and classes will not be paired, according to a recent vote by the Reorganization Study

Advisory Committee.

The committee, which was formed because of the declining enrollment within the district, voted to recommend to the board

Cost of Lighting Could Increase, Rather than Decrease, If the State's Plan to Buy LILCO Is Successful

By ROBERT R. McMILLAN

LILCO and LIPA—two sets of initials, and they are truly worlds apart. The dispute between the Long Island Lighting Company and the State created Long Island Power Authority has primarily focused on Shoreham. But, Shoreham is not the main issue today. The bottom line issue is whether Long Islanders are ready to abandon free enterprise for a totally politicized system of electric power generation and distribution.

Let's take a look at the facts. LIPA's board consists of nine people—all fine citizens, but not one member of the board has any operating electric utility experience and relatively little business experience in running a company the size of LILCO. All, with the exception of one bank CEO, are political appointees in the truest meaning of that term. And, if that isn't bad enough, by 1992, and if there is a takeover of LILCO, there will be twenty-one board members—all elected by the public in separate districts across Nassau, Suffolk and a part of Queens. Can you imagine what "electric politics" in twenty-one separate contests affecting the power needs of Long Island will be like? I don't even like to think about it.

Literature by LIPA promises lower rates, protection for LILCO retirees and guarantees to current employees. They argue that LIPA has hired top talent to help make the hard decisions about taking over LILCO. But, they have held most of their meaningful meetings behind closed doors and in secrecy.

Let's now turn back for a moment and take a look at the stated reasons for creating LIPA. The legislature cited, "... constantly escalating and excessive costs of electricity..." as the reason. Does that mean LIPA will immediately guarantee lower prices? How can we be sure that LIPA will keep future prices any lower than LILCO would? We cannot, and that is at the heart of my concern. If the takeover goes forward, we will be trading free enterprise for a politically run power system on Long Island.

LILCO and Shoreham were and still are a "hot potato" and the simplest way for the Legislature to deal with the issue was to create another state agency—LIPA. Every Long Islander should carefully examine the events of the next several months as the takeover rhetoric heats up.

This is not to say that LILCO management is without flaws. The company should have been more sensitive to the public. But, the sins of LILCO do not warrant having state socialism take over electric power generation and distribution on Long Island. We certainly did not bargain for that as a substitute for Shoreham.

I, for one, do not want to see sound business judgement on multi-million dollar contracts and the hiring of thousands of employees replaced by a system where twenty-one politically elected board members vie to influence those decisions. If a compromise is not reached, we should all be concerned that the "P" in LIPA will stand for politics and not electric power for Long Island.

of education to consider redistricting school boundaries, as well as eliminating the temporary classrooms at Burns Avenue and Dutch Lane Schools. In addition, these recommendations will also be brought before the board: not to house the sixth grade classes in the Middle School and not to move the seventh and eighth grades to the high school as secondary enrollments decline. Carol R. Wolf, chairperson, reminded the committee that they are voting on "generic ideas or concepts" and not a specific plan of action.

Comments on Closing a School

Robert Zaleski reminded the committee about Governor Cuomo's proposal for full day kindergarten or pre-K in public schools. Janet VonBargen said that the problem of declining enrollment is not unique to Hicksville, but all school districts on Long Island. "I don't think we should feel that threatened because we are all in the same boat," she said.

The committee voted 13 to 11 against recommending to the board of education that they consider closing an elementary school. Under the same option, the committee voted 10 to 4 with one abstention against the closing of two elementary schools.

Vote Against Pairing

Before the votes were tallied, committee member Caroline Kelly said she would vote against pairing schools, although at first she favored the idea because it would even class size. "I changed my mind because I favor moving the sixth grade to the Middle School, not breaking up an elementary school."

Philip Provost said he disavows the idea because of William Hall's report that pairing schools increases transportation costs. (Mr. Hall is the assistant superintendent for business services.) Helen Lafferty agreed that while she initially considered pairing schools a good idea, she now disavows the idea. "The main reason for pairing is to balance class sizes," she said, "but the cost of transportation every year really does not make this a sound solution to our problem."

The committee voted 23 to 1 against recommending that the board of education consider the pairing of elementary schools.

The Redistricting Decision

James Black said that redistricting is the easiest way to balance class sizes, but to "relocate and dislocate" may be unfavorable for the students.

Mr. Provost said that redistricting complies with the district's five year plan, which states that an ideal grade has two classes. Schools can benefit in redrawing a few lines because the present ones are outdated, he said. He noted that redistricting has educational advantages, such as two classes per grade in each school, as well as two special education rooms.

Susan Sullivan said that in addition to the educational questions, economic questions must be considered in redistricting. Mr. Zaleski said that he favors the plan, as it allows neighborhood schools to stay open and have equalized classes.

The committee voted 18 to 6 to recommend to the board of education that they consider redistricting or redrawing elementary school boundaries to balance elementary did buy the school property, Mr. Shaughnessy said "It would be set aside for further development." He did not elaborate.

The civic association members get "angry and concerned" when they hear any attempts to purchase the school, Mr.

Jachniewicz explained. "The school is probably the primary incentive for people buying properties in this area," he said. "This school serves as a real hub of the community" as the school also provides a community center and a playground for children.

COMMUTERS TO AND from the Broadway mall, formerly Mid-Island Plaza, may have to acquire their transportation from either the south side of the mall on the east side of Stern's or on the north side of the mall, near U.S. General, according to a new proposal. Pictured is the present bus stop located in front of the mall.

The Princeton Review Case No. 1384

SAT Score Improvement: 130 points

Name: Karen Kirschenbaum

School: Schreiber H.S.

Dilemma: Karen applied for early admission to Cornell. She was in the top two percent of her class and had impressive extracurricular activities, but her combined PSAT score was 1190. Cornell reviewed her application and informed her that no one was accepted early admission with a combined SAT score lower than 1250. She had only a few months to change her score.

Advice: Intensive math and verbal skills training using Princeton Review's advanced test-taking techniques.

Consequence: 1320 combined on the November 7th SAT and an early admission to Cornell.

Comments: "My biggest problems with the SAT were timing and vocabulary. The Princeton Review taught me both. In addition, they gave me the experience of taking four diagnostic tests under test conditions, so when I took the SAT in November I was totally organized and prepared. I knew what to skip and my timing was perfect. If you're prepared to do the work, and study all the Princeton Review techniques—it's really worth it. They really can help you improve your score."

Attend a free seminar and find out for yourself why, when it comes to preparing for the SAT, The Princeton Review really has no competitors.

level class sizes as evenly as possible throughout the school district.

Eliminating Temporaries

Mrs. Kelly said she favors reorganizing because sixth, seventh and eighth grades are "turbulent and unstable" for children and putting students into a school for less than three years is further destabilizing. She also said that sixth graders are more the peers of seventh and eighth graders than K through five and that in the Middle School, guidance counselors, science labs and chorus are all at their disposal. Mutually advantageous would be starting a pre-K program in the elementary schools, she said.

Conversely, Mrs. Lafferty said that in instances where the sixth grade moved into a middle school, "they grew up tremendously." She said it is good for the sixth grade ego to be the "big man on campus" in the elementary school. "Once they move out of their home school, they are subjected to many other influences and I think they are much better off being kept down on the farm and in their own school as long as possible."

Lawrence Weintraub said there is no reason for reorganizing, other than the fact that the junior high school is under-utilized. While Patricia Rooney agreed, Mr. Provost said he is against the idea because when the ninth grade moved into the high school, a secondary study committee analyzed, in depth, the pros and cons of the situation. In this case, however, "this committee does not have enough information needed to make a determination if that would be a good move" or a bad one.

Ms. VonBargen said that since the sixth grade would be separate from the seventh and eighth grades in the Middle School, the "self-contained" classrooms of the sixth graders would have no advantage. She added if educational advantages are worth the posing the students to drugs and alcohol and making them grow up too soon.

The committee voted 21 to 2 with one abstention to recommend that the board of education consider housing sixth grade classes in the Middle School. Under this same option, the committee voted 18 to 6 in favor of recommending that the board of education consider moving grades seven and eight to the high school building as secondary enrollments decline.

The recommendations will be presented to the board of education, who will make the final decisions.

Mr. Philly Restaurant Announces Personnel

Angel Freitas has been named manager of the new Mr. Philly restaurant at 27 Woodbury Road in Hicksville, according to Joseph DePietro, the owner of Mr. Philly. Mr. Philly is a new national chain of company-owned and franchised restaurants and will open early February 1988.

Mr. Freitas comes to the new restaurant after many years of experience with the Roy Rogers chain and will be responsible for daily operation of the unit including supervision of 30 local Hicksville employees.

The Mr. Philly crew will showcase its food and service to selected groups prior to the opening. Formal grand opening ceremonies will be conducted within the next few weeks. "Besides Mr. Philly's quality product and warm and inviting facilities, the most important investment of Mr. Philly is people," said Mr. DePietro.

"They are the most critical factor in our success to date. The Hicksville residents we've hired here, led by Mr. Freitas, will represent both the company and community exceptionally well."

Apart from creating jobs, Mr. Philly will be a positive economic and social influence in Hicksville for many years to come.

For additional information, contact Mr. Joseph DePietro at 997-2730.

First Child, Grandchild And Great-Grandchild Christened

Melissa Jean Payne born on Oct. 11, 1987, had a private christening ceremony at the Immaculate Conception Church in Quogue, N.Y. on Jan. 24th. Melissa Jean is the daughter of Linda Jean (Majorino) Payne, formerly of Hicksville and a '77 graduate of Hicksville High. Melissa's proud dad is John Charles Payne of Quogue and a '75 graduate of Westhampton Beach High. The couple met seven years ago while working together for Create-A-Van, Inc. and were married July 10, 1983.

Melissa had a beautiful warm and sunny January day for her christening. She wore her mom's 28-year-old christening outfit which made mom feel proud. Thank God for Grandma Majorino who saved it all these years. Melissa's grandparents are Jeanne and John Majorino of Hicksville, Robert Payne of Quogue and Doris LeBlau of Lakeland, Florida—who sent her well wishes via AT&T. Along with Melissa's great-grandparents Stella and Edward Fritz of Hicksville were 35 guests of family and friends including Uncle David of Binghamton who came down to help celebrate Melissa's Open House party held at her home in Manorville. Melissa's godparents (aunt and uncle as well) were Lori Ann (Majorino) Lamm, a 1979 graduate of H.H.S. and Howard David Lamm of Syosset. Lori and Howie were wed on July 12, 1987 and reside in East Meadow. Uncle Johnny Majorino, along with buddies Joe Mangiello and Paul, graduates of H.H.S. class of '86 and Aunt Leah Majorino, a hairdresser at Rage, and a graduate of H.H.S. class of '87 also attended the christening party. Melissa behaved like an angel during the ceremony. Father Holland, her parents, godparents, grandparents, and great-grandparents were all very proud of her. What a very special child!

Evelyn Merk Snowmobiling???

Evelyn Merk just returned from a snowmobile trip up in Old Forge, N.Y. Her daughter Karen and son-in-law Doug Heron of Jericho treated mom to the trip. This was her first time snowmobiling—and she loved it. [Don't think there are too many 65-year-olds that go snowmobiling for the first time, do you?] She said "everyone should try it—it's wonderful." She also said: . . . "up on one of the mountains—at 5 o'clock every evening—all the skiers disappear, they turn off all music. . . and wait for the deer to come out of the woods to get the food that is left for them. Everyone is so quiet and it's just the most beautiful sight to watch those beautiful animals eat." She can't wait until she can go again. . . .

Timmy Johnson Is Five

On February 15th, Timothy Johnson will be celebrating his 5th birthday. Other February birthdays in the Johnson family are Timmy's dad, Robert on the 11th; Aunt Nancy (Johnson) Moody, on the 14th; Uncle Stuart Cummings on the 15th; Uncle Dennis Duran on the 12th and cousin JoAnn Horn on the 25th. The only one that isn't having a birthday seems to be Hildy. We all hope you all have very happy birthdays.

TO YOUR HEALTH

By RICHARD H. BLAU, M.D.

Raynaud's Syndrome - Its Relationship To Arthritis

Raynaud's (pronounced ra-naz) is a circulatory disease and can be associated with many types of arthritis. Often, the problem causes the fingers (or toes) to turn white, blue and finally red. This abnormality usually occurs when the fingers are exposed to the cold. However, this phenomenon can also occur under emotional stress, environmental changes or drug exposure.

The cause of Raynaud's is not known. Certain evidence suggests a spasm involving the blood vessels. Once this spasm occurs, the blood supply to the fingers is impaired and they turn white. With continual lack of oxygen, the fingers turn blue. As the blood vessels expand, blood rushes in and the fingers turn red. Many patients with Raynaud's experience little more than occasional discomfort in the cold weather.

Often, people with this disorder come to the attention of the rheumatologist (arthritis specialist) because they have an associated arthritic condition. Types of arthritis associated with Raynaud's include rheumatoid arthritis, lupus, scleroderma and mixed connective tissue disease. Although many people with Raynaud's may never develop arthritis, the occurrence of Raynaud's may be a very early sign of arthritis.

The diagnosis of this disorder is usually made on the basis of a medical history and a complete physical examination. This is done to make certain that an associated arthritis is not present.

Treatment of Raynaud's is a specialty of the rheumatologist. If the symptoms are mild, little treatment may be needed. For more severe problems, medications are available and are helpful.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach - An Arthritis Overview."

If somebody's auto loan rate seems too good to be true, trust your instincts.

The only way to get an unbelievably low loan rate is to have unrealistically high payments.

Behind all the low rates available these days is a very short term loan. And short term loans can mean painfully high monthly payments.

With a new, low variable rate auto loan from The Bank of New York, you can spread your payments over as many as five years. And since our rate is currently the lowest among all the major banks, that means monthly payments you can live with.

And importantly, your regular monthly payments will never go up. If interest rates rise or fall during the term of the loan we'll simply make the adjustment at the end of your loan term.

To take advantage of our variable rate auto loan just visit one of our 190 convenient branches. Or for an even faster response, call Action Phone at 1-800-942-1784 (out-of-state, call 914-684-5514 collect). Call by 2:30 P.M. on any business day and in most cases you'll have an answer by 5:00 P.M.

So the next time somebody touts their rock-bottom loan rates, take a moment to step back and trust your instincts. They may be telling you to call us.

'Safechild' Comes to East Street School

A neighborhood watch program will be organized for a 75 block residential section near East Street School as a result of suspicious incidents by a man in a gray car. An unidentified man has allegedly been soliciting children since October 1987 to get them in to his car and as a result the children program was started.

Nassau County Police Department representatives addressed nearly 170 residents at the Hicksville Public Library last Tuesday regarding the neighborhood watch program and to listen to residents' concerns, according to Lola Myron, coordinator of the event. Mrs. Myron also said that residents asked the police to speak to Hicksville superintendent of schools Dr. Catherine J. Fenton about repeating a child safety program at East Street School. Dr. Fenton said that every year, the elementary schools review with the students safety measures; example, what to do when a stranger approaches. "East Street has already seen this program, but will see it again as result of the parents' requests," she said.

Lt. Robert Reed, of the Nassau County Community Projects Bureau, explained that "Safe Child" was presented to East Street School this past. Through the police department's special program, two uniformed police officers spoke to students on how to resist a stranger's advances as well as saying "no" to strangers. These are safety tips to teach basic, simple techniques he said. "We want the students to be aware of their surroundings and the situation." "Safe Child" has been taught in Nassau County's public schools for many years, Hank McCann, police spokesman, said.

Hicksville Woman Killed By Train at Crossing

By A. ANTHONY MILLER

A 42-year-old Hicksville woman was killed instantly when she ignored a railroad crossing February 3 and walked into the path of an eastbound Long Island Railroad train, Nassau police said.

Lenore Cox, said to be a mother of four children ranging in age 11 to 22 and recently separated from her husband, was struck by a train which had just left the Hicksville station and was en route to Ronkonkoma. The accident happened at 5:40 p.m. Det. Hank Walker of the 8th precinct, who headed the investigation, said that an eyewitness told him that Ms. Cox had seemingly ignored the gates which barred traffic at the crossing at New South Road, and started across the tracks. The witness, Charles Dziomba of Roslyn Heights, reported that he was parked waiting for the gates to go up, and saw Mrs. Cox start across the tracks. As she crossed, the train, operated by engineer G.S. L'Hommiedieu, blew its whistle and Mrs. Cox suddenly realized her peril. The witness said she then tried to run the rest of the way, and was within a pace of being clear when the train struck her.

Det. Walker could not indicate the speed of the train at the time of the mishap. His investigation indicated that the lights and bells which warn traffic at the crossing were all in proper order.

Water District Says Asbestos Pipes are Out

Responding to recent press coverage that water quality studies have revealed minute levels of asbestos in certain areas, the Hicksville Water District has announced that there are no asbestos cement pipes in the district.

According to the water district, the levels of asbestos in certain areas has been attributed to the presence of asbestos cement pipe within the water system. Although Hicksville has a relatively small quantity of asbestos-cement pipe in its system (about 1,200 feet confined to one small area) the board of water commissioners replaced all the piping. There are currently no asbestos-cement pipes in service in the Hicksville Water district, officials said, adding, "This is one thing we will not have to cope with again."

"To Your Good Health!"

What better way to toast your health and happiness...every day of the year, than with sparklingly clear Berkshire Mountain Spring Water.

Bottled water has become one of America's prime sources of drinking water, favored by one in 10 people, and gaining in popularity as our public water supplies continue to decrease in purity.

This pure mountain spring water has been available to the public since 1970, and is found deep below the earth's surface. It flows naturally down through the earth, filtered naturally, drop by drop, until it collects in deep natural reservoirs where it remains totally pure, crystal clear, free from natural or man-made contaminant.

Berkshire Mountain Spring Water, bottled at the 1-mile deep spring in Southfield, Mass., is tested weekly for purity—after many years these tests continue to prove the water 100% bacteria free—every time.

Certified analysis will be provided immediately upon request.

You may visit the spring if you wish, just call to set up an appointment.

The water flows into Berkshire's gleaming, stainless steel bottling plant, where it is instantly bottled and capped in sterile, chemically inert, non-porous Lexan containers, then delivered to the customers' homes.

Call Berkshire Mountain Spring Water, (328-7918). You'll receive a free 5-gallon container with your first 2-container order.

Midland Civic Meeting News

By GERT PAUL

The Midland Civic Association held its meeting on January 27 at the Willet Avenue School. Despite the single-digit temperature, the auditorium was filled with concerned citizens who responded with warmth and interest to an address by guest speaker, Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor, Angelo A. Delligatti, on civic concerns. Many of the problems outlined by president Ellie Draycott were addressed by our new supervisor, as well as his goals for Hicksville and the Town of Oyster Bay. Some of these were water use, traffic control, road repairs, noise pollution, beautification of Hicksville and park projects. He announced that the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce would be permitted to put out garbage cans on Broadway and that the Town would pick up the trash. This has been one of our goals for several years. When they are put out, please use them for light hand-carried trash such as coffee containers, papers or beer-soda cans. It will help make our town so much cleaner.

Mr. Larry Weintraub gave a detailed report on the works of the school re-organization program. A great deal of thought has been given by the members of the committee and, hopefully, their consensus will aid the administration in reaching a decision that will be beneficial to our students and to our taxpayers.

Presidents of other civics were also present and asked some challenging questions.

THESE LEE AVENUE students performed on the xylophones at the school's winter concert.

Winter Concert at Lee Avenue School

By K. GORMAN

January 12 was a special night at Lee Avenue School. The all purpose room was filled with family and friends waiting to hear the elementary school children sing.

The third grade chorus program consisted of Whistle While You Work, I Want to Be Happy and Johnny One Note.

The fourth grade chorus performed I'm Gonna Sing, A Little Song for Sharing and The Happy Wanderer. Performing on the xylophones: Marianne DiBenedetto, Kelly Haddad, Daniel Lasurdo, Stella Lippert, John Mazzara and Roy Truelove. Performing on the snare drum was Gregory Parmiter.

The fifth and sixth grade chorus entertained with the songs Chase Your Blues Away, Let it Snow! Let it Snow! and Mister Sandman.

Special thanks are extended to chorus director Joanne Haban.

PTA Chooses Founders Day Honored Guest

On February 25, the PTA celebrates its 91st anniversary. And in light of the traditions of the nation's largest child advocacy association, the Hicksville Council of PTAs has chosen Mrs. Carol Marks as its Founders Day District Honored Guest.

Throughout Carol's 12-year involvement with PTA, she has been an active worker on behalf of child-oriented legislative issues, and at the present time she is the senior high school PTSA president.

Carol became active in PTA when her son, David, entered the pre-school program at Burns Avenue School. Carol majored in Elementary Education at State University at New Paltz and had a desire to become more involved with children. She became co-chair of the pre-school program and conducted amblyopia screening for the youngsters. In 1977 she stepped up to the presidency of the Burns Avenue PTA.

"If you want to make a change for all children, you must go to the top." This is Carol's way of dealing with the issues which mean the most to the children, and reflect the philosophy behind the PTA organization.

Carol attributes her success in PTA to the fact that she has "learned to listen—because in listening one gains the knowledge necessary to take a stand and make an impact." Carol says she has also "learned to grow with the children—because only through personal growth can one possibly deal with the youngsters in their progression to adulthood." PTA is proud to honor Carol as its Distinguished Guest, for Carol has given her time and energy so unselfishly on behalf of all the children of Hicksville.

The Council's 35th annual dinner will be held at the Woodbury Country Club. Please note that dinner tickets are $27 per person this year, and are available through each school's PTA Founders Day Chairperson or Peggy Gill at 433-8607.

Hicksville High Happenings...

By ARLEN STRONGIN

Boys' Varsity Winter Track

The Hicksville boys' Varsity winter track team had a highly successful outing in the divisional playoffs on February 7 at Farmingdale. Dave Laspaluto, Jude McFeely, Straughn Zimmerman and Arlen Strongin took fourth place in the 4 x 800 relay. Straughn Zimmerman also won a medal for the shot put, coming in sixth place. Arlen Strongin also came in sixth place, winning a medal for the 3200 (2-mile). More than 30 teams competed at the meet. Also exhibiting solid athletic performances for Hicksville were Brian Robey, Anthony Ambrosio, Bill Corrigan and James O'Hara.

FBLA County Competition

The FBLA County Competition is to be held on Friday, February 12, in Dix Hills. The Hicksville chapter of future business leaders will compete against other schools in the hope of making it to the state championship at Niagara Falls later this year.

Valentine's Day Flower Sale

The Volunteer Club has arranged to have flowers sent to various Hicksville High students and faculty by way of "homeroom delivery" on February 12. On February 15, admirers bought carnations for one dollar each to have them sent to friends.

Spring Sports

Sign-ups for spring sports ended February 1st. The season will begin in mid-March. Eager athletes will be playing baseball, track, softball, lacrosse and golf, among other sports. Fred Amaya, Rob Schantz and Mike Roth are looking forward to a successful lacrosse season; Brian Robey is psyched for his upcoming baseball season; Tom Reilly is getting his clubs ready for golf; and track stars Chris Jaros, Karen Cimino, Bill Corrigan and Jean Harkins are also ready for action. The atmosphere of spring will be in the air soon.

Basketball Game to be Televised

This Friday night, February 12, the Hicksville boys' Varsity basketball game against East Meadow will be televised in the boys' gym at Hicksville High School. Starting at 7:45 p.m. the game will be videotaped by Cablevision and shown at a later date. Everyone should come out and support our team.

FORK LANE'S WINNING students show their "Reflections" to their teacher Mrs. Ruisi and principal Mrs. Benton.

Fork Lane 'Reflections'

Congratulations to Scott Adams, Jason Berg and Jossy Thomas, who had their winning entries brought to the state PTA convention in Rochester, N.Y. to compete with other children's entries in the state-wide competition "Reflections" project. Fork Lane extends pride in all children who participated in the project. "Reflections" is a contest sponsored by the New York State Congress of Parents and Teachers and is designed to encourage creativity from children through the arts—visual, music, literary and photographic.

Youth Council Seeks Volunteer Tutors

The Hicksville Youth Council is a non-profit organization dedicated to working with teenagers in all aspects of their life. The Youth Council has been finding out that there are many teens who are having some difficulty in school and need extra help with their classwork. In response to this problem, the Hicksville Youth Council is planning a Peer Tutoring Program...and they need your help in order to insure a successful program.

The Youth Council needs volunteers to tutor students in a variety of subjects. All of the tutoring is done after school at the Youth Council and tutors are asked to volunteer at least one hour per week. Tutoring is scheduled at mutually convenient times as the Youth Council is open Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Youth Council is aware that the residents of Hicksville are busy with work, jobs, friends, family, etc. High school volunteers will receive a letter from the Youth Council stating that they have performed community service work. This letter is important as colleges and prospective employers look for this type of reference from applicants. Involvement in the tutoring program can also provide personal satisfaction as volunteers will be helping others in their own community.

In addition to the tutoring program, the Hicksville Youth Council offers recreation programs, employment programs, individual family-group counseling, crime prevention programs and more. The Youth Council is located at 181 Old Country Road, Hicksville. All services are provided free and are open to Hicksville teenagers and their families.

For more information on how to get involved in the Hicksville Youth Council's new Peer Tutoring Program, or for information on any of the Youth Council's programs, call Pat Schussler at 822-KIDS.

Hicksville Republican Club

By Joseph Jablonsky
Executive Leader

William Lee
President

By Marc Herbst

As our nation celebrates the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, the country's first Republican president, the Hicksville Ernest F. Franke Republican Club will install its new president. On Friday, February 12, Robert Kluck, of Suggs Lane, and other club officers and board of directors will be inaugurated at the club's general membership meeting. The ceremonies will take place at the Hicksville William M. Gouse, Jr. VFW Hall, 320 South Broadway, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Bob Kluck, a native of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, and his wife, Jo, have lived in Hicksville since 1950. While residing in Hicksville, they have raised three sons, Bob, Steve and Tom.

Bob has an extensive record in local politics. For more than twenty years, Bob has been an elected public official of both the Nassau County Republican Committee and the Town of Oyster Bay Republican Committee. Also, during that period, he has served on the Hicksville Republican Committee's Council, where he is currently fulfilling the position of treasurer. Bob has held numerous positions in the Ernest F. Franke Republican Club, presently first vice president. With such experience, Mr. Kluck has earned the opportunity to succeed Bill Lee as the club's president.

Mr. Kluck, an avid golfer, has been involved with various community organizations. Bob volunteers his time to the St. Ignatius Loyola Parish, where he serves as an usher. He is an active member of the Joseph Barry Council of the Knights of Columbus. Bob has held the position of district treasurer for the Rotary Club, District No. 725. He is also a member of the Duffy Park Civic Association.

The Hicksville Republican Club's next president has begun planning the agenda for his term. Bob's goals include consolidating club activities, maximizing fundraising efforts and minimizing costs.

New York State Assemblyman Fred Parola has graciously accepted Bob's invitation to serve as the installing officer for Friday evening's ceremony. All members of the community who wish to attend are welcome. Free desserts, coffee, soda and beer will be served.

MANY PEOPLE GATHERED at Our Lady of Mercy's "Winter Wonderland," a fundraiser and social evening in the school auditorium.

Mercy's Sixties Dance Is a Huge Success

By NANCY SCHMIDTMANN

More than 300 parents and friends of Our Lady of Mercy School crowded into the school auditorium on Saturday evening, January 23 to rock and roll to the lively music of Tommy Mulvihill and his band. The hall had been lavishly decorated by the dance committee which included many men of the Holy Name Society. The blue and white theme celebrated Winter Wonderland, and featured a revolving mirrored ball that transformed the gym into a festive setting for this school fundraiser, chaired by Sister Elizabeth Slattery. The Vint family won a large fifty-fifty raffle.

As important as the fundraising aspect of the event was, the opportunity for friends and neighbors to get together for an informal evening of fun and music was even more so. Many groups brought in giant heroes and other specialties which they shared freely with other tables. Monsignor Boesel, Sister Joanne and the entire school community are grateful to all those who participated in this fun-filled evening.

Local Sales Associate Is Honored

Tom Brennan was honored as the top Sales Associate of the year for Century 21 Jannace of Hicksville.

Tom, a resident of Westbury, has been in the real estate business just under 2 years. Some of his accomplishments in 1987 were being the New York State Marketing Presentation Winner for Century 21 of the Northeast. He was one of Century 21's top sales associates in the Northeast competing with over 8,000 other sales associates. In addition, Tom was a Centurian Award Winner, being one of the top 2 percent Sales Associates in the nation out of over 90,000 Sales Associates of Century 21.

Tom closed over 3 million dollars worth of volume in 1987. He credits his accounting background and the training he received from both Century 21 and in particular Century 21 Jannace's in house training program.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity.

We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

To The Editor:

It has long been a concern of mine about the fact that presently there are no Hicksville post cards in the stores. I have lived here for 27 years, and it is not just pride in my town or love of it, but the fact that we have especially beautiful churches that others should be able to see whether they are foreign or American. As a person who writes to many pen pals, I am asked, "What is your town like?" and "What is there?" Whether I'd write to Americans or foreigners, seeing our post cards might be an incentive to come and see what I see with my own eyes - a beautiful and lovely town that is here for many years saying "welcome" and "come on in."

Scene Around Town

SEEN ABANDONED ON Plainview Road is this car. According to town spokesperson Phyllis Souther, in the case of an abandoned vehicle, the police are notified. The police then attempt to track down the last owner of the auto. If no owner can be found the car is declared "abandoned" and it is then towed by the town. Owners who desert their auto can be fined a minimum of $250 and a maximum of $1,000, Ms. Souther said. However, if the vehicle is reported stolen, and the car is abandoned by the thief, the fine does not have to be paid. Once the police are notified the rest of the process is lengthy, she added.

Legionnaires' Log

By GREG BENNETT
Charles Wagner Post #421, Hicksville

Our post meeting of Monday, February 1 was a busy one with many topics being discussed. A committee was formed to evaluate a post scholarship fund. PC Artie Rutz and VC Greg Bennett will represent our post at the UVO of Hicksville Memorial Day Parade Committee meeting at the Masonic Lodge, February 11 at 8 p.m. The Masonic War Veterans will be hosting this year's parade and services. PC Artie Rutz reminds me that our March 26, Awards and Ceremonies Night is the birthday of the American Legion which celebrates 69 years of service from 1919 to 1988. The National American Legion Press Association announces that February is Americanism Month. Our own Americanism Chairman Dick Evers was a judge for Nassau County American Legion Oratorical Contest. On Monday, February 8, Dick will attend a Nassau County American Legion Americanism meeting at the Malverne post. Our post will also purchase 10 tickets for the Charles Wagner Auxiliary 300 Club.

Charles Wagner PC and present County Commander Dick Hockbrockner and Past County Commanders John Cooke, Jack Bland and Al Sarro were among 50 top veteran representatives who presented 50,000 signatures to VA officials in Washington on February 4 along with Nassau County Advisor Ken Cynar and Veteran's Service Agency Officer Dennis Dunne to support bringing a VA facility to Nassau County Medical Center. This was initiated by County Executive Gulotta according to Dunne.

Saturday, February 20 will be a Night At The Races for Special Olympics at the Edwin Welch Jr. Post in Seaford. Admission is $7, with a roast beef dinner at 6 p.m. and free hot dogs during the races.

The 70th Annual Department of New York State American Legion Convention will be on July 13-16 at Niagara Falls. Don't forget the Department Commanders Dinner honoring Frank D'Amico and the Twenty Seventh Annual Military Ball on Saturday, March 19 at 8 p.m. at the Plattduetsche Park Restaurant in Franklin Square.

On May 1 the American Legion Department of New York will hold a "Rally For Our POW/MIA" at the United Nations and the Vietnamese Mission. PC Gene Clark of the Rockville Center Post and VC Greg Bennett attended a POW/MIA Rally on January 24 at the Vietnamese UN Mission hosted by VVA, Veterans of the Vietnam War Inc., and the Forget Me Not Association. Veterans marched down First Avenue to the battle cry, "We want our POW's Home Now" and "Good Morning Vietnam." A representative of the Former Prisoner of War Association stated his generation of World War Two vets let their fellow POW's down because recent newspaper reports state that the Soviets never returned 15,000 Allied POW's liberated by the Soviets from Nazi POW camps. I strongly disagree—the foot soldier, the airman, the sailor and the Marine never let their comrades down—it was our own government and our Soviet allies who kept this disgrace secret for 40 plus years. It's time for all Americans to become active to let the truth be known that Communist countries keep those who are willing to fight for freedom prisoners.

Our next post meeting is Monday, February 15. If you want to support the Battle of Normandy Memorial Museum which will be erected on 37 acres near Caen, France to commemorate D-Day write The U.S. Committee for the Battle of Normandy Museum, 1730 M. Street NW, Washington, DC 20036. General John W. Vessey states the motto of the museum is: "Suffering broke me. Brotherhood raised me. From my wounds spring a fountain of liberty." This motto is also true for our POW's.

The Check's in the Mail But is the Address Right?

No one likes to have a letter returned or misdelivered. While the postal service does make mistakes, there are often problems with insufficient or improper addressing which cause mail to be delayed, misdirected, or returned. Of the 515 million pieces of mail handled each business day by the Postal Service, nearly 15 percent contain address deficiencies that could delay or prevent delivery. Roger Nienaber, General Manager/Postmaster of the Hicksville Division, offers these suggestions which will help ensure that your letters are properly addressed for quick delivery.

The destination address should appear on the middle of the envelope with the recipient's name on the top line. The line directly beneath should contain the recipient's street address, post office box number, or rural route number and box number. If mail is for a multi-unit complex or apartment building, place the room or apartment number to the right of the street address. The bottom line must show the recipient's city and state, and should include the zip code.

If you wish to include a community, building, or subdivision name, please use the second line. This "attention line" is reserved for "non-mailing" names which you may wish to use.

A return address should be included on every envelope. This will ensure that if there is a problem with the delivery, it will be returned to you. Once again, be sure to include any apartment or room number for multi-unit buildings. Place the return address on the front upper left corner of the envelope or on the back flap. The return address format should be the same as the addressee sequence.

When both a post office box number and a street address are used, make sure the place where you want the mail delivered appears on the line immediately above the city, state, and ZIP code line.

Use of the ZIP code as well as the expanded ZIP code called ZIP + 4 code, is voluntary. However, using the ZIP code helps the Postal Service direct mail efficiently and accurately.

Keep these guidelines in mind and you will get the best possible service:

- Capitalize everything in the address and print clearly.
- Use common abbreviations such as ST., RD., CIR., BLVD.
- Use the 3-letter state abbreviations, found in our Consumer's Directory of Postal Services and Products, available free to the public in postal lobbies.
- Use ZIP codes.

HICKSVILLE FIRE DEPARTMENT Ex-Captain Johnson (left) and Commissioner Donlon are being presented with "K" paperweights by Kiwanian Beth Dalton in appreciation for the informative program.

Fire Officials Present Slide Show for Kiwanis

Hicksville Fire District Commissioner William Donlon and Hicksville Fire Department Ex-Captain Robert Johnson presented a special slide show to the Kiwanis Club recently. The program shown by Ex-Captain Johnson highlighted the fire department's personnel in action. Commissioner Donlon narrated the feature.

The commissioner noted that the Hicksville Fire District, with elected commissioners, is responsible for handling funds and purchasing necessary equipment for the Hicksville Fire Department. The department currently consists of eight companies with four chiefs, eight captains, 16 lieutenants and 213 fire persons, one of whom is the only female member of the department at this time. The commissioner also said the department is welcoming new volunteers.

Hicksville Business Adds Port Bay To Client List

The marketing and public relations firm of Howard Blankman Incorporated (HBI) has been selected to represent Port Bay Associates, an Ithaca, N.Y.-based shopping mall and real estate development company, according to an announcement by HBI President Howard Blankman. HBI, headquartered at 76 Broadway, Hicksville, has been serving the public relations and marketing needs of the Long Island business community since 1968. HBI will develop and administer marketing and public relations programs for all Long Island projects directed by Port Bay Associates.

"We are extremely excited about our new relationship and look forward to assisting Port Bay Associates in establishing a strong presence in the Long Island marketplace," commented Mr. Blankman.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

President Joe Giordano's Message: February is one of the winter's coldest months; nasty as well as blustery. Uniquely enough, it also features one of the warmest symbols—the heart. It is quite prevalent during this time of the year because it is used extensively as a romantic symbol for St. Valentine's Day.

Well, the heart gains quite a bit of popularity at the Galileo Lodge, and proof of this is the fact that the Galileo Lodge has run a St. Valentine's Day Dance every year since its inception, and that was more than 17 years ago. The date for this dance is this Saturday, February 6.

After the St. Valentine's Day Dance, the Galileo Lodge has another event waiting in the wings. Yes, it's the St. Joseph's Dance, another popular yearly event at the Galileo Lodge. Tickets for this dance will sell at $16 per person and in the offering will be the usual hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music from a leading Long Island disc jockey for your pleasure. Please note also that this dance features a 'bring-your-own-liquor' policy. At this dance, as is customary with St. Joseph's Day, that tasty delicacy known as 'zeppoli' will be a part of the meal. So, if you couldn't make the above dance, why not atone for your error in judgment and attend this one. Make March the month where and when you decide to rid yourselves of those winter doldrums.

In April there is quite a bit of stirring at the Galileo Lodge. There's also anticipation, anxiety, and in plain words, there's just plenty of waiting. For what? you might ask. Oh, it's the main event for this month, and we call it the 'Fifties-Sixties' Dance. Why? Well, because it's the dance where we feature the music of these two exciting periods of time. Needless to mention that these periods touched our lives as well as our dreams, so everyone knows that this dance is forthcoming. Needless to say that the last two dances we had of this nature 'jam-packed' the Galileo Lodge to the rafters—and the entertainment that was part of the proceedings had much to do with this. This year, as I understand it, it will even surpass the last two. The chairpeople for this dance will be John Cannizzara and Vito Grippi, the same personnel that ran it so successfully the other years. As I understand it, this dance will have everything that ensures its success: food, music, entertainment and atmosphere, also. In next week's column, I will have more particulars for you, so keep tuned into this column. This dance has to be on your 'must-attend' list.

With a little thought, I should have said that some of the stirring at the Galileo Lodge is also caused by the fact that in March the new officers of the Galileo Lodge will be installed in a ceremony that is quite solemn but not to the point that one cannot enjoy it. It's a warm and pleasant sight to see the old and new officers take their respective positions, and it's equally as pleasant to hear their virtues extolled. It's an old saying that officers help to make an organization, so the calibre of the officers chosen and elected plays a very important role in the progress of an organization, which, in this case, is the Galileo Lodge. But it's certainly true also that the membership as well helps to form and shape an organization; in this case, it's the Galileo Lodge, also.

A Message to New Members: A good way to become a good member is to immerse yourself in activities. Become active, join committees, and attend meetings. Do not be a 'laid-back' member; be an active one.

'Anything Goes' at the Hicksville High School

Hicksville High School's next production will be the hilarious musical comedy Anything Goes. Recently revived on Broadway, this Cole Porter musical is great fun for the whole family.

The entire action takes place on board the transatlantic liner, S.S. American, where disguises, gangsters, and cases of mistaken identity add to the confusion and the fun.

Directed and choreographed by Judith Paseltiner and under the musical direction of Thomas Buttice and the vocal direction of Charles Arnold, the production will involve nearly 100 students working in the cast, crew and pit orchestra. Featured in the cast are Jane McQuade, David Danowski, Dawn Trenka, Tony Walker, Jessica Garnett, Jennifer Jackson, Jennifer Tower, Jennifer Kremer, Shawn Kraemer, Tara Shropper, and Robert Allen.

Performances will be on March 4 and 5 at 8 p.m. with a special free performance for senior citizens on March 3 at 6:30 p.m. All tickets are $4 and may be purchased at the high school.

The gas boiler it pays to buy.

The Weil-McLain HE high-efficiency gas boiler can pay for itself in a few short years with the money it saves by using less fuel. The HE operates at 82% efficiency, compared to only 60% efficiency for the average gas boiler. That means it uses less fuel to produce the same amount of heat. And the HE gas boiler will provide uniform comfort, wall to wall, floor to ceiling, regardless of outside temperature.

News Notes From:

Hicksville-Jericho Rotary Club

By PETE ROCCO

The January 28 meeting was opened by our president, Al Levine, with the Pledge of Allegiance and a moment of silence.

We had two guests: Joe Barbaccia who was a guest of Al Levine, and Louis Rodriguez who is with the New York Power Authority and was a guest of Jim Grossman. Mr. Rodriguez was also our guest speaker at the meeting.

It was great to see so many happy faces. If you missed the meeting, you missed seeing Russ Marciano, Fred Stanwise, Tom McConnon, Art Pettolino, Sam Carr, Fred Meyer, Al Levine, Augie Cassella, Pete Rocco, Irwin Gross, Paul Martin, Joe Muraca, Jan Manaskie, Ellen Bruwer, Gayle Bernstein, Jim Grossman, Catherine Fenton, Harry Peltz, Walter Hutt, Bob Kunz, and Joe DePaola.

Happy dollars were supplied by Al Levine who is always happy to be presiding as president at the meetings. Fred Meyer for the Superbowl, and to see Fred Stanwise back with a tan from a two-week cruise. Pete Rocco because his wife, Irene, will be in Calgary for a week and he'll be playing Mr. Mom. Harry Peltz was glad to see Irwin Gross. Fred Stanwise was happy to be back and for the nice cruise he and Carol were on. Catherine Fenton was happy to be back. Russ Marciano gave a long distance happy dollar for Harry Smith who is down in Florida and sends his regards. Doc Gross said that, after all the phone calls he received, he decided to return to the club and buy back his practice. Tom McConnon was glad to be back as was Walter Hutt.

Our guest speaker was Mr. Louis Rodriguez of the New York Power Authority. Mr. Rodriguez gave a very informative talk about the N.Y.P.A. The N.Y.P.A. is the state's largest producer and supplier of power. It produces 40% of our state's energy needs. 80% of the energy is produced from hydroelectric plants in Niagara and the St. Lawrence Seaway. Mr. Rodriguez also informed us that the N.Y.P.A. is going to build an underground and submarine cable to Long Island that will supply an additional 600 megawatts to our area. This is equivalent to having an additional power plant on Long Island. This work will be completed in 1991. Mr. Rodriguez also presented a film about the N.Y.P.A. After the film, he answered some very good questions posed by our members. President Al Levine thanked Mr. Rodriguez for his fine presentation and presented him with a service above self award.

Gift of Life: Gayle Bernstein informed us that all raffle tickets need to be turned in. The Gift of Life Dinner-Dance will be Saturday, March 5, in the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf Astoria. The Guest of Honor is Ms. Sally Struthers. Tickets are $25 per person.

Seats Still Available for Library Bus Trip

There are seats available on the February 27 "Shop and Nosh" bus trip to Orchard Street in Manhattan. Register at the Hicksville Public Library.

Cost of the trip is $26 which includes transportation, lunch and escort Lou Singer who will entertain with his knowledge of the Lower East Side.

Gulotta's Mobile Office To Visit Hicksville

Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta's Mobile Office will be located at the Hicksville Public Library, 169 Jerusalem Avenue, on Thursday, February 25, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Mobile Office was created by the County Executive to provide residents with information about County government and expand the County's outreach program.

Library Holiday Hours

In Observance of the Presidents' Birthdays, The Hicksville Public Library will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Lincoln's birthday, Friday, February 12.

The library will be closed Monday, February 15 in Observance of Washington's birthday.

The team consists of: Elaine Borja, with three medals finishing twelfth all-around; tenth on vault, and ninth on uneven parallel bar; Kathy Knauer; Tami Lombardi, who received the ninth place medal on vault;

Laurie Pease, with four medals finishing fourth all-around, seventh on vault, fourth on uneven parallel bar and second on floor exercise; Nicole Romano; Michelle Schaefer with the eighth place medal on balance beam; and state champ Nancy Spina, who swept away five medals. She finished first on all-around, fourth on vault, third on uneven parallel bar, first on balance beam, and sixth on floor exercise.

St. Ignatius Loyola CYO News

By BARBARA LEWIS
CHEERLEADING

The response to our new program has really been wonderful. Gary held his first meeting this past week with Linda Mirro and Vicki Passaro who will be running this new program. The two women came up with some wonderful ideas and they are very excited. Any girls who are still interested in joining this program please contact Gary at 681-6947. This program will start in April to get the girls ready to march in the Memorial Day Parade. For the girls who already have signed up they will be notified by mail when the program starts.

A little tidbit on our New Year's Eve Dance, all the food that was left over that night was donated to Sister Kathleen who is in charge of Catholic Charities. It gives us all at CYO a very rewarding feeling to see that nothing was wasted.

Basketball Highlights

On Saturday, January 30 Joe Basso called in his team's winning score.

Lions 12 vs. Cubs 8

Great playing by Marcus Moncayo 8 pts., Jason Basso 4 pts. Outstanding playing by Jody Durkin, and Brian Kaplan.

On February 2 another win for the Lions. Lions 15 vs. Tigers 4

This team is going for the gold, Patrick Walker 10 pts., Andrew Colton 5 pts., and excellent defense by Jason Basso, Brian Kaplan and Marcus Moncayo. Keep up the good work.

Any coaches who are interested in calling in their team's wins please call Barbara Lewis at 681-6947.

Registration Update

On March 20 in St. Ignatius Old School we will be holding our final registration between the hours 9 a.m. and noon. Anyone who is unable to make this registration please feel free to call Gary Lewis, and we will be more than happy to send you any information.

EDITORIAL AND OPINION

What the Politicians are Saying...

A resolution demanding that a tax lien sale scheduled for Feb. 16 be canceled by the Nassau County government has been passed unanimously by the Policy Committee and the Executive Committee of the Nassau County Democratic Committee, according to JOHN W. MATTHEWS, COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN. The sale is now scheduled to be held at the Police Auditorium in Mineola. Mr. Matthews said, "A system that allows homeowners to lose their homes to real estate speculators for a pittance because they have fallen behind in their payment of taxes can no longer be tolerated in this county."

ASSEMBLYMAN GREGORY R. BECKER (R-C, Lynbrook) has applauded the dedication of new facilities on Long Island that will serve the needs of Long Island veterans: a 350-bed Long Island Veterans' Nursing Home in Stony Brook and a 275-bed homeless veterans' shelter in Queens. Approximately 2 million New York State residents are veterans of military service and more than half of these are 65 years of age or older.

NASSAU COUNTY EXECUTIVE THOMAS S. GILLOTTA has announced the selection of Shea and Gould as the new state and federal lobbyist for Nassau County. The firm will provide the county and its residents with important representation as federal and state governments address issues of major importance to the county.

Just who Nassau Democrats favor among the seven announced Democratic presidential contenders may be discovered early this year as a result of a "Straw Poll Party" to be held at 7:30 p.m. on Feb. 25 at Democratic Headquarters, 27 Bond Street, Westbury. Tickets to the Straw Poll Party will be $10 each and will not only give the holder the right to vote for the Democratic Presidential candidate of his choice but will also afford entertainment and refreshments. Democrats from throughout the county are invited. The announced Democratic Presidential candidates are: SENATOR BRUCE BABBIT, ARIZONA; GOV. MICHAEL DUKAKIS, MASS; REP. HEMPSTEAD TOWN PRESIDING SUPERVISOR JOSEPH N. MONDELLO has unveiled the details of a cooperative effort by the town and the New York Secretary of State to discourage real estate brokers from knowingly advertising and showing illegal apartments. Under the agreement, the town will provide the Secretary with a listing of real estate brokers who have been found guilty in District Court of aiding in the rental of illegal apartments which could lead to a fine or license suspension.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

The other day I had the most dreadful fright... I was putting on my pantyhose—the same brand and size that I have worn for years—and they stopped halfway up to my waist—How appalling!!! I knew that the holiday treats had been toooooo much, but how could I have gained that much??? ... Jumping on the scale, I was relieved to learn that the horrible weight was still just as horrible but not more so—and what could be happening with the pantyhose, a famous brand that gentlemen have always preferred... Then I noticed that the label which was always in the back was no longer there—now it's a fight to tell front from rear... and it's quite obvious that something is different in the manufacture... Is it the yarn? ... it doesn't stretch as much? ... or are they using 20% less yarn? ... Has some new young MBA vice president told them that they can save millions by these shortcuts? ... I raced to the hosiery store and there learned that she is inundated with complaints about this brand of pantyhose which no longer fits... What a relief—now I know that it isn't I... And now I wonder what I can do—After all these years of devotion to one brand, must I change to another? ... Should I write to the manufacturer and tell him what he's done? ... Will he care??? ... But I will write—I believe that he will check into this problem and give me an answer—I believe in writing letters—I want to be a squeaky wheel that gets results... As a matter of fact, I do believe in writing to manufacturers with both good and bad reports—if they don't hear, how will they know why their sales are up or down??? ... Now, isn't there something you would like to say to some manufacturer? ... Do it right now while I'm reminding you... You may be surprised by how much satisfaction you will get.

Yours, Lulabelle

In the December 28, 1987, issue of his newspaper, Long Island Business News, Paul Townsend's "Townsend's Letter" asked many important questions for Long Island. We hope all our readers will read the list carefully and join in ways to solve these problems.

Can We Find Answers in 1988?

As a weekly commentator on the LI scene, there are questions about our lack of action in our Island's self interest that deeply troubles me.

WHY, with the highest paid law enforcement in the world, does LI permit violent and organized crime to flourish???

WHY, with the most expensive education in the world, does LI encourage a majority of high school graduates to go to off-island colleges with most not returning to meet our need for a trained workforce???

WHY, with the richest community in the world, does LI permit hunger and homelessness???

WHY, with the highest property taxes in the world, does LI subsidize use of cabanas, marinas, and golf courses???

WHY, with ash disposal a growing problem, does LI not turn ash into a building material as in Europe???

WHY, with the shortage of 50,000 housing units, does LI inflate building costs with archaic building codes, snarled red tape, and irrational exclusionary zoning???

WHY, with a threatened water shortage, does LI pipe treated waste water into the ocean and permit 130 separate uncoordinated water suppliers???

WHY, with garbage a traditional town patronage mill but now a regional crisis, does LI continue wasteful experimentation in township disposal???

WHY, with jammed parkways and LIE, does LI permit the state to keep rebuilding dividers, shoulders, and curbs and now add sound buffers, instead of increasing capacity by completing service roads and adding lanes???

WHY, with our great shortage of special housing and jails, does LI permit destruction of unused state hospital buildings at Central Islip, Edgewood, and Pilgrimage State???

WHY, with roadways jammed, does LI not move aggressively to expand relieving airline and ferry services and to widen local roads near shopping and industrial centers???

WHY, with Brookhaven's nuclear scientists the world's tops and high threat of blackouts, does LI keep the safest nuclear plant in the world from opening???

The recent Wall St. crash and Suffolk political upset, following economic growth slowdown and company exodus, are shaking the Island's complacency. Realization is growing that our economic boom is fragile and that soon we may not have the financial resources to make necessary changes.

Will 1988 be the year that business and labor organizations get their acts together to support the public officials with the courage to stand up for ACTION PROJECTS so that LI's brainpower, wealth, location, and entrepreneurial spirit can provide SENSIBLE SOLUTIONS???

My name is PAUL TOWNSEND...any answers anyone???

ROBERT R. McMILLAN'S

Direct Line

The English language is probably the single most unifying element in our country. Think of what America would be like today if each new wave of immigrants insisted on preserving its native language as a national language? This is not to argue against preservation of cultural and national identities. Those traditions are important to all of us. They are the roots for each of our families. This is also not to argue against being multilingual. In today's worldwide economy, knowing the language of our customers overseas can be a competitive advantage. It is, however, to state flatly that English should be preserved as our national language.

Robert R. McMillan

Let's step back a moment from the emotion of language and national identity. The practical side is that the common language in this country has contributed to economic growth and has enabled us to put aside our many differences for the common good. Today, there are those who are vigorously lobbying for English to be taught as a second language rather than encouraging the use of English. Some would even have us adopt the approach of our French-speaking neighbors in Quebec and require business across the country to be totally bilingual. But, bilingual in which language? What a waste of money. The approach is entirely wrong!

Our forefathers—whether they be Polish, German, Greek, Dutch, English, Spanish, Scandinavian, Italian, French, Chinese or Japanese—came here to the New World for opportunity. They knew that the quickest way to success was to work hard and learn the language. By doing so, they joined the main stream—even though that stream has meandered over the years as new influences have changed its direction. They clung to their cultural differences, and those differences are being constantly woven into the social fabric that is America.

Some would argue that forcing someone who comes here as a volunteer to learn our language is discrimination. I submit that just the opposite is true. By encouraging new immigrants to learn English, we are hastening the day when they participate fully in the miracle of our economic system. In the interim, we must all remember that for the most part Americans are of immigrant stock. Those arriving today on our shores are deserving of our support and patience. We must do more to help them in the development of their language skills and the skills of their children. We should urge them to have their children be fully bilingual—not to have a multi-language base in the United States, but to permit this second language skill to be utilized in the further development of our nation as we relate to business partners overseas.

It is important that this issue not be left to "catch word" politics. The subject is of too great a concern—particularly to those just entering our country. In their interest, English as the "first language" should be the concern. Those politicians who advocate a two language America do a disservice to the country and to our new immigrants.

Getting An Early Start

Running for the United States Senate is a costly and long-term project. This is especially true in a large state like New York which has an expensive media market. In his 1986 reelection campaign, for example, Senator D'Amato spent over eight million dollars. More and more, campaigns for the senate tend to be fought on our television screens.

Although he does not have an opponent nor has he formally announced his own candidacy, Senator Moynihan kicked off his 1988 reelection campaign last week with a series of television commercials. The punch line of these commercials is "New York's Moynihan." Moynihan wants to assure New York voters that he has not "gone Washington" and that he remains sensitive to their needs and concerns. Being the astute politician that he is, Moynihan knows the truth of the old political adage that "all politics is local." It is easy to accuse an individual with Moynihan's intellect and diplomatic background as being more interested in national or international issues than matters of strictly local concern.

U.S. Attorney Rudolph Giuliani will probably be the one to challenge Senator Moynihan. Many people feel that Giuliani would be an effective candidate; he is young, comes across well on television and would appeal to both yuppies and the Italian and Irish vote in the suburbs.

At the present moment, Giuliani is engaged in a feud with Senator D'Amato over who D'Amato will recommend to President Reagan to replace him as U.S. Attorney. A recommendation by a senator to the president is provided they are, of course, from the same political party tantamount to appointment. As you might expect, Giuliani would like D'Amato to recommend one of his top aides while D'Amato would prefer to make his own choice.

The relations between the two are apparently strained. In all probability, D'Amato may be worried about what affect Giuliani could have on his place in the Republican spotlight. D'Amato has indicated that he might be interested in running for governor in 1990. Does he feel that Giuliani might be a potential rival for this post?

In 1982, Moynihan faced a real challenge in the nature of Florence Sullivan, a conservative upstate assemblywoman. Sullivan won the Republican nomination after former Congressman Bruce Caputo, who many viewed as being an especially attractive candidate, dropped out of the race. Caputo withdrew from the race after charges were raised that he had misrepresented his military background. Moynihan defeated Sullivan handily with 68 percent of the vote as he carried all but 10 of the state's counties.

One of the most effective political tactics is to bluff or intimidate a potential opponent out of the race either by picking up a large number of endorsements or by raising a substantial amount of money very early in the campaign. In a sense, the most effective political campaign is a preemptive one.

Senator Moynihan's early use of television in his 1988 reelection campaign is designed to make Giuliani think twice about running for the senate. Perhaps after seeing Moynihan's early use of television and examining his own ability to raise funds, Giuliani may decide to wait until 1990 and run for governor. This prospect may be especially inviting if you believe that by then Governor Cuomo will be in the White House, and you will be running against former Lt. Governor Stan Lundine. Although Lundine was an excellent congressman and is an effective lt. governor, many political analysts contend that he is on the bland side.

It is interesting to note that in his last reelection campaign that Moynihan did not go on television until May, while in his first campaign he waited until three weeks before the election. New York's senior senator is not only a considerable statesman, he is also a most effective politician.

penalized for speaking out and demonstrating against what they felt to be a threat to the character of their neighborhood and their suburban way of life. They acted in the belief that the United States Constitution protected their rights of free speech and assembly. They did not expect to be subjected to harassment and intimidation.

The Wantagh Woods Civic members were invited by Town of Hempstead officials to a meeting at Town Hall, supposedly for discussions with William Cohen, attorney representing Terra Homes, Inc. They attended in good faith with no idea that their presence would result in a law suit. They complied in good faith with a request to sign a sheet of paper. These names and addresses were then furnished to Terra Homes, Inc. and were used to identify those to be named in the suit.

The Coalition to Save Our Suburbs believes that town officials, wittingly or otherwise, bear some responsibility for the plight of these Hempstead residents. Civic associations should be entitled to some protection when they attend a town sanction-

ASK OUR MAN IN WASHINGTON

Question: I just watched President Reagan's state of the union address on television. How many presidents have given state of the union addresses? Is a president required by law to give a state of the union address?

Answer: All presidents with the exception of William Henry Harrison and Zachary Taylor have delivered at least one state of the union address. Both Harrison and Garfield died before they could address congress.

Harrison died a month after his inauguration from pneumonia. In an attempt to show that despite his age (68) he was a vigorous individual, Harrison rode to his inauguration at the capitol in driving rainstorm without a hat or coat. A week after this, Harrison took to bed with a chill that soon turned into pneumonia. President Garfield died from an assassin's bullet less than six months after he took office. It is interesting to note that most historians believe that Garfield died not as much from the wounds inflicted on him by the assassin, as from the medical treatment he received. Garfield was one of the last of our presidents born in a log cabin.

The president is required by the Constitution to provide the congress with a state of the union address. In article II, section 3, the Constitution says that the president "shall from time to time give to the Congress Information of the State of the Union, and recommend to them such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient."

Telephone Service For Children

If your child comes home after school feeling depressed and lonely, or is worried because the electricity has gone out, and you can't be reached at work, when can he/she turn?

An after-school telephone Hopline, especially designed for children to make kindergarten through sixth is a new community service offered by the Nassau County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Trained Red Cross volunteers will be answering the children's Helping Hopline from 2:30 to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday each day school is open to listen to talk, and on occasion to take appropriate action.

For information or to receive a brochure explaining the program, call the Red Cross at 747-3500, ext. 223.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity.

We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

To The Editor:

Editor's Note: The following letter is being printed upon request. We feel the issue is countywide.

Mr. Joseph Mondello
Presiding Supervisor
Town of Hempstead
Town Hall Plaza
Hempstead, New York 11550

Dear Mr. Mondello,

The Coalition to Save Our Suburbs is presently comprised of twenty-four independent civic associations. We have joined together in an attempt to deal with some of the major problems facing our communities in the Town of Hempstead.

The Coalition wishes to express its support for the six members of the Wantagh Woods Civic Association who are defendants in a suit brought by Terra Homes, Inc. These residents were involved in protesting the destruction of stately old trees which were destroyed during the demolition of an existing house in order to make way for property subdivisions.

Civic association members are being ed meeting. As a coalition, we protest the law suit and the role played by our elected officials in its development.

We request that the Town of Hempstead follow the lead of other municipalities, including the Suffolk County Legislature, in adopting a legal defense fund for citizens. Such a law was adopted in Suffolk County in January of 1986. (See copy enclosed). Members of the Coalition would like to see the Supervisors of the Town of Hempstead sponsor legislation at the Town and County level that would establish a legal defense fund for citizens and members of civic organizations. Our town should join with citizen groups to ensure that residents can speak up without risk of intimidation and the necessity to defend themselves against costly legal action.

We would like the Town Board to notify the Coalition of its intentions regarding this matter as soon as possible.

Violinist, 17, Wins Young Artist Competition

Bethany Bergman, a 17-year-old violinist from East Meadow, won the second annual Long Island Philharmonic Young Artists Competition on January 20 at the Tilles Center for the Performing Arts.

In addition to the $1,000 Christopher Keene Scholarship for first prize, Miss Bergman will perform as guest soloist in three of the six Young People's Concerts in March. She will play the first movement of the Violin Concerto by Barber, the work she performed in the final round of the competition.

For taking second place, Cellist Claudio Santos, 16, of Brentwood was awarded the $500 Vincent S. Rossitto Award, and will also perform in three of the Young People's Concerts. He will play the first two movements of Herbert's Cello Concerto, which he played in the competition's final round. His award is provided by a fund established last year from a gift by Mr. Rossitto that will support scholarships in perpetuity.

Though the honor of performing in the concerts is ordinarily reserved for the first prize winner, Music Director Christopher Keene explained that "it was very close and we wanted them both to have the opportunity to play." There will be two concerts each at the Tilles Center (March 23), Hauppauge High School (March 23) and Half Hollow Hills High School (March 24). The audiences will be comprised of fourth, fifth and sixth graders from schools throughout Long Island.

For third place, 13-year-old Jason A. Crosby Gugg of Glen Cove received a Certificate of Merit for his performance on violin. Last year, he was a competition finalist as a pianist.

Bethany Bergman is a senior at East Meadow High School and comes from a family of violinists. Claudio Santos, who attends Brentwood High School, is also from a musical family, and came to this country from Chile in 1986 to study cello.

The 1988 competition was open to violinists and cellists, and the repertoire was limited to works by 20th-century American composers. The judges were Maestro Keene, Gerald Tarack, concertmaster of the Philharmonic; Jerome Carrington, the orchestra's principal cello; and Dale Struckenbruck, professor in the Music Department at Long Island University's C.W. Post campus.

With A Little Help

By SUZANNE LUNT
Ole Man Winter

A recent cartoon showed a grandmother saying, "They didn't have teenagers when I was a girl." Same with the wind chill factor. When I was growing up, we didn't have a wind chill factor (because nobody'd thought of it yet) and we were all a lot warmer. Thirty degrees and windy is one thing. Wind chill of twelve below is another: it sounds like Russian aristocrats tossing lefty-off sleighs-to-the-wolves weather.

Or maybe it's just that this winter is colder. Whatever it is, it's hard to feel snug as a bug in a rug this year no matter how bundled-up you are.

Unless you go for Gortex. "First year my feet and hands have ever been warm," declares a glamorous Gortex-gloved and booted blond editorial assistant.

"I wear my Gortex boots all day in my office," says my husband.

Yet the ads say Gortex, a new lightweight fabric, has climbed Everest. How can this be? How can acrylic-fleece-lined boots keep toes toasty warm at 30,000 feet yet not make them sweat in a New York office at 75°?

Because Gortex breathes. It has pores, just like skin, that allow it to adjust to any temperature. It's also waterproof—100%—and you can test this. The next time a man offers to spread his coat over a puddle for you, ala Sir Walter Raleigh, refuse him and plough through the puddle yourself. Gortex will land you dryshod.

Gloves and jackets of this magic stuff are sold in posher sporting-gear shops and the boots that have kept us all frostbite-free in our family this winter come in four styles (elasticized, Velcro, tie or zipper) and four colors (silver, white, black and khaki) in sizes 4-14 for men and women—$82.50 postpaid from Bed'n Back, 209 Middle Neck Rd., Great Neck, NY 11021 (466-8222).

Ice is the other problem posed by clear air in winter—especially bad if you're on a cane or crutches. But Hygeia Medical (582 West 41st Ave., Carle Place, NY 11514—907-8130) sells "Ice Cane Tips" to slip over, then screw on to, any cane or crutch tip. The single (soft) tip is $10.85 postpaid and the 5-pronged one is $11.35. Kick either of these and they'll pop up out of the way. There's also a 3-pronged one for $15.35. But this one has hard-to-retractable prongs and has to be manually readjusted, rather than just kicked, for non-ice use. If in doubt about which one is safest for you to use, consult your doctor or therapist.

Where Does the Power Come From?

Part 3 in Our Series on Long Island's Need for Adequate Electricity

By EILEEN BRENNAN
Executive Editor
Anton Newspapers

Nothing is as simple as it used to be. Just as we can no longer toss away our cans and bottles, but must return or recycle them; just as we can no longer assume that we have all the water in the world and can water our lawns to make them as green as the gardens of England, so we can no longer assume that there is all the electricity we need, much less all we want.

Last summer, LILCO began a program appealing to customers to reduce electricity usage on critical days. It was strange to be driving in the car on a 90 degree July day and hear that there was a possibility of a "brownout" if not a "blackout", but it happened. People did begin to conserve. Our electric company had its personnel telephone its largest commercial and industrial customers asking them voluntarily to curtail their load. The company also sent a written appeal to 500 of its largest customers with the same request. People have cooperated, preferring to use a little less power than to lose it altogether, but conservation can only do so much.

For the past three years, Con Edison has been selling power to LILCO—80mw in 1985, 150 mw in 1986 and 250mw in 1987. This arrangement is expected to continue, but it is limited by the availability of Con Ed's power and transmission lines. Power has also been purchased from the three Long Island municipalities that generate their own power, from the New York Power Authority's Fitzpatrick nuclear plant and from other resources. This is not a bottomless well, however, since these municipalities and companies have their own constituencies to consider first and can only sell after their customers have been satisfied.

In order to deliver New England power to Long Island, the transmission capacity of the Northport plant must be increased. This is in the works and will involve the installation of a new cable between Northport and New England. New England internal transmission limitations will prevent additional power from reaching Long Island until 1991 when internal New England transmission reinforcements are expected to be completed.

There are enough statistics available to keep an engineering class busy for whole semesters, but they mean very little to most lay people. All we know is that we need adequate electricity and that our supply is threatened. We are willing to conserve, but there is only so far that will take us. In his State of the Town speech last week, North Hempstead Town Supervisor John B. Kiernan quoted: "We can't recycle our way out of this crisis." Similarly, we can't conserve ourselves out of an energy crisis. It is a good thing that we have learned that we can not squander our resources as we have in the past, but we can not, nor do we want to, turn back the clock to the days before we had all the appliances and conveniences that make our lives safe and pleasant today. More power is needed and on Long Island it is needed soon. This is a fact, no matter who is in the business of supplying that power. On page 1 of this paper, Robert R. McMillan discusses the question of who will supply that power. One thing is certain, our need for that power is great and is growing, while our supply of that power is diminishing.

Raynaud's Syndrome - Its Relationship To Arthritis

Raynaud's (pronounced ra-noz) is a circulatory disease and can be associated with many types of arthritis. Often, the problem causes the fingers (or toes) to turn white, blue and finally red. This abnormality usually occurs when the fingers are exposed to the cold. However, this phenomenon can also occur under emotional stress, environmental changes or drug exposure.

The cause of Raynaud's is not known. Certain evidence suggests a spasm involving the blood vessels. Once this spasm occurs, the blood supply to the fingers is impaired and they turn white. With continual lack of oxygen, the fingers turn blue. As the blood vessels expand, blood rushes in and the fingers turn red. Many patients with Raynaud's experience little more than occasional discomfort in the cold weather.

Often, people with this disorder come to the attention of the rheumatologist (arthritis specialist) because they have an associated arthritic condition. Types of arthritis associated with Raynaud's include rheumatoid arthritis, lupus, scleroderma and mixed connective tissue disease. Although many people with Raynaud's may never develop arthritis, the occurrence of Raynaud's may be a very early sign of arthritis.

The diagnosis of this disorder is usually made on the basis of a medical history and a complete physical examination. This is done to make certain that an associated arthritis is not present.

Treatment of Raynaud's is a specialty of the rheumatologist. If the symptoms are mild, little treatment may be needed. For more severe problems, medications are available and are helpful.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach - An Arthritis Overview."

L.I. Artists Exhibit Work at Adelphi

The diverse work of three award-winning Long Island artists will be on exhibit in the Swirlbul Library Gallery at Adelphi University through Feb. 26.

The exhibit, which is free and open to the public, is sponsored by the Adelphi Art and Art History Alumni Association. It features the works of Adelphi alumnae Muriel Casper, Janet Moller and Mary Nagin.

Muriel Casper's abstract prints recently won rave reviews at the East End Arts and Human Council in Riverhead. The recipient of numerous awards, she has exhibited widely in museums, universities and galleries.

Currently the president of the Nassau County chapter of the Long Island Art Teachers Association, Janet Moller recently received an East Arts Council Award for her photography. Her work, which has been exhibited throughout Long Island, has received several awards of excellence.

Mary Nagin, a romantic realist, reflects her long-term interest in the academic tradition through her drawings and pastels. Her work, which has met with critical acclaim, has been exhibited in several prestigious galleries throughout the area.

The Swirlbul Library Gallery is located on Adelphi's campus. Exhibit hours are: Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sunday, 1 p.m. - 6 p.m. For more information call 294-8700.

For additional information, call the show manager, Mr. DePasquale, at 730-0905.

Hot Lunches at Senior Citizen Centers

By HARRY SCHATZ

How does this sound for a good, hot nutritious lunch—meat loaf, mashed potatoes with gravy, French string beans with toasted almonds, bread, stewed or fresh fruit for dessert and hot tea to finish the meal with a radiant feeling of satisfaction? That was a recent lunch at the Great Neck Senior Citizen's Center at 80 Grace Avenue in Great Neck. I joined about 100 people to enjoy this tasty and well balanced meal.

Curious to know more about this special service to senior citizens, I talked to Barbara Reiss, Director of the Great Neck Senior Center, who explained how it works.

For a voluntary financial contribution, people over sixty can receive a hot nutritious lunch five days a week at the Great Neck Senior Citizen Center and at nineteen other senior community centers in Nassau County. There is a different menu each day. For those people who have limited financial resources, a contribution is not necessary; they are welcome and indeed urged to come and enjoy a nourishing meal. Transportation for the frail elderly is provided by many of the centers. The Great Neck Senior Citizen Center has two mini buses available for this special service. Other community programs have their own arrangements for transportation.

The nutrition program for senior citizens is funded under the Federal Government's Older Americans Act and the New York State Community Services for the Elderly. It is administered by the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizens Affairs which maintains strict control over the quality and nutritional value of the food. For the most part, the food is prepared under contract with a variety of agencies that serve the districts in which the senior citizen centers are located. In each case however, the meals must be approved by the county nutritionist to make certain that they are well balanced and provide the proper nutritive content.

There are additional benefits that senior citizens derive from the nutrition programs. Eating and enjoying a meal with their peers in a friendly and congenial atmosphere provides social contacts so essential to older and lonely people. At my visit to the Great Neck Senior center, lunch was a time for animated conversation on a variety of subjects and friendly exchange of ideas and personal reminiscences. It was obvious to me that, to most of the people there, it was more than a meal, it was an occasion.

Older people are urged to take advantage of the hot lunch program. A list of the locations of the twenty centers in Nassau County providing this program follows.

FARMINGDALE (Catholic Charities), St. Luke's Lutheran Church, 145 Prospect Street, 094-3521; FRANKLIN SQUARE (Catholic Charities), Wesley United Methodist Church, 610 Fenworth Boulevard, 481-3322; FREEPORT (Salvation Army), Salvation Army Center, 66 Church Street, 623-2008; GLEN COVE (City of Glen Cove), Senior Center, 130 Glen Street, 676-6182; GREAT NECK (Great Neck Sr. Center Inc.), Senior Center, 80 Grace Avenue, 487-0025; HEMPSTEAD (Hempstead Public Schools), Jackson Memorial Church, 60 Peninsula Boulevard, 483-2724; HERRICKS (Herricks Public Schools), Herricks Community Center, 900 Herricks Road, 741-7800; INWOOD, Five Towns Community Center, Inc., 270 Lawrence Avenue, 239-6244; ISLAND PARK (Catholic Charities), American Legion Hall, 25 Nassau Lane, 432-1388; LEVITTOWN, Yours, Ours, Mine Community Center, Inc., Center Lane Village Green, 796-6701; LONG BEACH (JASA), Temple Beth-El, 570 West Walnut Street, 432-5555; WANTAGH (Catholic Charities), United Community Church, 1060 Jones Avenue, 879-8373; NEW CASSEL, New Cassell United Community Center, Inc., Grand Street School, 333-4102; OCEANSIDE (Catholic Charities), St. Anthony's School, 80 Anchor Avenue, 764-0702; OYSTER BAY, Doubleday Babcock Senior Center, Inc., Christ Church, 61 East Main Street, 922-1770; PORT WASHINGTON, (Port Washington Schools), Flower Hill School, Campus Drive, 223-8395; SYOSSET, Syosset Senior Day Care, Inc., Community Church, 36 Church Street, 921-2730; ROSLYN (Roslyn Senior Citizens, Inc.), Lillian M. Pierce Center, 1489 Old Northern Boulevard, 621-7788; ROOSEVELT (Salvation Army), Bethel AME Church, 420 North Main Street, 221-8395; UNIONDALE, Department of Social Services, A. Holly Paterson Home, 875 Jerusalem Avenue, 566-5769. For information about these programs call the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs at 535-5907.

Home Delivered Meals

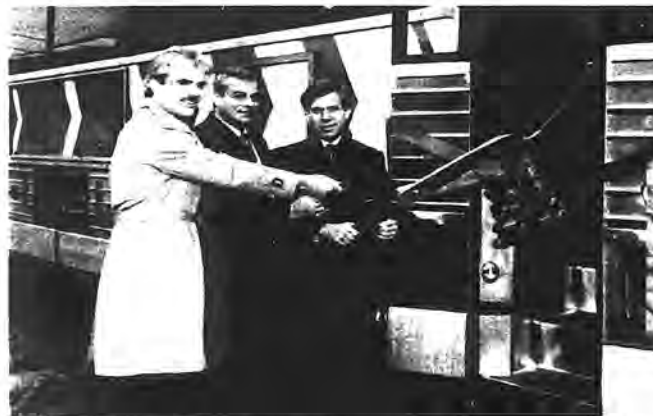

For those seniors unable to venture out to a senior center, the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs will arrange to have meals delivered. Meals are delivered to certified homebound people 60 years of age or over, who live alone and are unable to prepare meals for themselves. Therapeutic diets such as low sodium, and diabetic, as well as kosher and regular meals, are available.

In most areas served, two meals are delivered, a hot lunch and a cold supper. Participants are given the opportunity to make a voluntary contribution toward the cost of the meals. The program is funded through the Federal Older Americans Act and operated by local community agencies and organizations under contract with the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs.

For information on eligibility and specific communities contact one of these agencies: Visiting Home Health Services of Nassau, Inc., 225 Community Drive, Lake Success, New York 11021, 820-4510; Catholic Charities, 277 Merrick Road, Lynbrook, New York 11561, 590-5133; Jewish Association for Services for the Aged, 570 West Walnut St., Long Beach, New York 11501, 432-5555.

A limited number of home delivered meals are also available from certain Senior Community Service Centers. For information call the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs at 535-5801.

NASSAU COUNTY EXECUTIVE Thomas S. Gulotta (center) joined Peter Price, President of Carey Airport Express (right), and Suffolk County Executive Patrick Halpin (left) to cut the ribbon at the opening ceremonies for "Carey Airport Express" bus service on Long Island. Carey Airport Express is a bus service that provides transportation for commuters from the LIRR's Jamaica terminal to LaGuardia or Kennedy Airports. Buses will run every half hour, from 6 a.m. until 11:30 p.m., for a fee of $4.00 per trip. Carey Airport Express has projected that approximately 750,000 LIRR passengers will utilize the service each year.

The Investor's Corner

What's wrong with a weak dollar? - part 2

In last week's article we looked at all of the positive aspects of a weak dollar. While we said that there were many advantages to having a dollar decline in value, there are also many disadvantages. The purpose of this article is to discuss those disadvantages.

The first and most fundamental disadvantage is that a weak dollar raises the cost of imports. As the dollar declines, a foreign manufacturer receives fewer dollars for each item that that exporter ships to the United States. Obviously, that means that their profits decline or vanish. To forestall a complete disaster, the exporter must raise prices. This price rise causes the prices in the United States to be increased. That causes the rate of inflation to rise.

Not only does the price of the imports rise, so do domestic prices. As the prices of foreign goods go up, our manufacturers raise their prices. That way they increase their profits. As our manufacturers take the short term profit, they lose the opportunity to take back part of the markets they lost to the foreign manufacturers. A poor short term strategy, but the way we do business. Too bad that as they have relearned how to produce quality from the Japanese, they have not learned how to take a long term view as the Japanese do.

Of course you can say that that is good for the United States economy, and it is true up to a point. That point, is, when the dollar was strong, many of our manufacturers could not compete in the international markets. They went overseas to purchase the cheap goods. This caused whole industries or large segments of industries to cease production here. We no longer make many goods. A large part of the clothing industry does not exist anymore in the United States. Basic steel is another item where we have little capacity. All of the TV's, VCR's and most electronic items are no longer manufactured in the United States.

If you wish to do away with buying clothes, or electronic gadgets or any of the other thousands of items no longer manufactured here, then there is no problem. If you do not wish to stop buying imported items, then you will pay more. This is highly inflationary. It is and will continue to cause prices to rise.

A second major drawback is that it puts the United States up for sale. The cheap dollar makes ANY company in this country a bargain basement item. Today, America is for sale—even the largest corporation in this country. Foreigners can purchase our assets cheaply when they compare the values in their economies. The discounts are huge. Look at the fight for Federated Department stores by the foreign company called Campeau, a large foreign retail conglomerate. No company, no matter what the size, is immune from this pressure. Smaller companies are easy pickings. It is no accident that the foreign offers for our companies have increased as the dollar has fallen.

Next week we will finish this topic in part 3.

Apple Opens New Corporate Banking Center

More than 200 prominent business and community leaders were hosted by Apple Bank for Savings at a recent reception marking the opening of its new corporate banking center in Plainview. Nassau County Executive Thomas Gullotta was among the dignitaries present.

The center, located at 45 Executive Drive, will serve as headquarters for Apple's commercial lending division under the direction of George G. Brooks, senior vice president and managing director. It will also house the central region lending officers, headed by William W. Riley, senior vice president. Complementing the new headquarters will be regional offices in Garden City, Manhattan and Ronkonkoma.

CARL U. HARRIS

Carl U. Harris Named Director of Citibank's L.I. Municipal Bank

Herbert H. Myers, Director of Citibank's Long Island Retail Bank has named Carl U. Harris Director of the Municipal Bank on Long Island. The L.I. Municipal Bank serves the financial needs of counties, towns, villages, and school districts in Nassau and Suffolk.

Mr. Harris, a Vice President, has held various positions within the Retail Banking system during his 33 years with Citibank. Most recently, he was Director for nine branches in the south western area of Nassau County. Prior to that assignment, he had served consecutively as Officer-in-Charge for three Long Island branches.

A North Babylon resident, Mr. Harris is married and the father of four children. He serves on the executive board and is treasurer of the Nassau Symphony and is a member of the Long Island Association.

Central Federal Savings' Assets Top 900 Million

The annual meeting of Central Federal Savings, FSB, was held on Wednesday, Jan. 20. J. Alan Ornstein, Chairman and C.E.O., reported that the bank's assets climbed to $930,805,131, reaching the highest level in the bank's fifty-year history. In 1986, assets were $899,269,677. Central Federal also reported an increase in deposits and in net worth.

According to Mr. Ornstein, "We have experienced significant gains in our net worth from $22,967,690 in 1986 to $30,027,137 in 1987 as a result of the positive steps the bank has taken during the year.

"For example, we've introduced new advertising and sales communications programs, which are giving us a distinctive new look, helping us to bring innovative new programs to the public, and to instill excitement in our branch employees. "Improvements in all of our branches have been more than cosmetic, they have made work-stations more efficient and made every aspect of banking consumer-friendly."

cent years indicates a distinct need to full service banking to accommodate small and medium businesses as well as families," said Jerome R. McDougal, chairman and chief executive officer.

Apple also recently announced the opening of retail branches in Ronkonkoma, White Plains and Astoria. Apple's first venture into Queens. Located in the new Meridian Plaza shopping center on Veterans Highway, the Ronkonkoma branch will have teller stations and automatic teller machines, as will the other two.

The new branches bring the Apple network to 28 locations, with nine offices on Long Island. It was slightly more than a year ago that Apple had only five branches in the Nassau-Suffolk area.

Bowery Savings Bank Opens IRA Season

The Bowery Savings Bank has kicked off the 1988 IRA season by offering plan-ahead consumers a special bonus rate CD. Customers making IRA contributions by Feb. 27, will receive a 1/4 percent (25 basis points) bonus on already competitive interest rates when deposited in two-up-to-three year retirement CDs.

CDs are available from $1,000. The basic interest rate increases with higher deposits and/or longer maturity terms.

"Early contributions are an excellent way for consumers to earn additional tax-deferred interest on their yearly IRA investments, instead of always waiting until April 15," said Robert O'Connor, Assistant Vice President, Manager of Retirement Account Services at The Bowery. "Customers would be getting two or three months additional interest on 1987 contributions and over a year's worth on 1988's. On top of that, the effects of daily interest compounding have a significant impact on the total value of the account at maturity. And with the bonus rate offer, the values are even better."

For more IRA information, call The Bowery at 718-852-8240 between 9:00 am and 4:30 pm, or visit any of The Bowery's 25 branch locations.

The First of Long Island Reports Increased Earnings

The First of Long Island Corporation has announced an earnings increase of 7 percent for 1987. J. William Johnson, President and Chief Executive Officer, reported total consolidated net income for 1987 of $3,812,000, surpassing the $3,558,000 reported for the prior year. On an adjusted per share basis, earnings were $2.85 as compared to the $2.66 per share reported in 1986. Total consolidated assets at year end were $240,700,000.

Based on the Bank's continued growth, a cash dividend of 44 cents per share was paid by The First of Long Island Corporation in January of 1987. The dividend was 10 percent greater than that declared in 1986.

New Member of Law Firm Announced

The law firm of FLETCHER, DUNNE, SIBELL & MIGATZ, P.C. has announced that Lloyd K. Chanin of Cold Spring Hills has joined its firm. 'Gung Hoi Fet Toy!!'

East comes West every year about this time to celebrate Chinese New Year, the oldest and most important holiday in China. The occasion is celebrated with feasting, gift giving, firecrackers and parades.

The date of Chinese New Year changes each year because it's based on a lunar calendar. It arrives on the second new moon after the winter solstice, always between January 21 and February 19.

This year Chinese New Year is Wednesday, February 17. It will be the first day of the Year of the Dragon, the lunar year 4886.

The dragon is one of 12 animals that has given its name to a lunar calendar year. Legend has it, according to Oriental lore experts at La Choy®, that Buddha called all the animals in his kingdom together, but only 12 came: the rat, ox, tiger, hare, dragon, serpent, horse, ram, monkey, rooster, dog and boar. To honor them, Buddha named the years after the animals in the order that they arrived at his meeting.

Nowadays the celebration of the New

Year is concentrated into a few days. In days gone by, though, preparations began a month in advance when villages bustled with housecleaning activity and the festivities lasted a full month after New Year's Day.

All debts had to be paid in full before the New Year. Family feuds were to be forgiven and forgotten, and everyone bought new clothes for the holiday.

After the New Year obligations were fulfilled, houses were decorated with orange trees, to symbolize abundance, and narcissus for luck.

The final hours of New Year's Eve were devoted to family worship and remembering ancestors. Then, family members joined in some of the best eating of the year.

Fireworks and cries of "Gung Hoi Fet Toy" (Happy New Year) at midnight hail the new year. At dawn, the front door is opened and the master of the house gives a blessing of prosperity on the dwelling for the coming year.

Dear Fellow Sensualist:

Since Valentine's Day is more than just flowers and chocolates, Restaurant Zanghi will feature beguiling and provocative foods, over the ages thought to induce amorous feelings: aphrodisiacs. And since a Valentine does not exist for just one day, we will be featuring our "Cuisine D'Amour" for over two weeks.

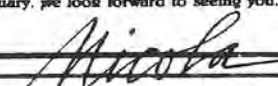

Accenting the Winter menu will be a full selection of Caviars, both Caspian and Domestic, served pure with homemade Brioche. Try a Pan Stew of Oysters and Asparagus with Asparagus Sauce or a "Meuniere" of Wild Mushrooms and Asparagus for an enticing appetizer. Truffles were thought by the Ancient Romans to be amongst the most potent of aphrodisiacs. Perhaps you might succumb to Black Umbrian Truffles Stewed with Champagne or Nicola's "Milanese" of Foie Gras and Black Perigord Truffles. Tropic Cuisines have always thought peppers and ginger enhanced amour. Taste our Jalapeno and Garlic Femucine tossed with Baby Clams (Vongoline). Desserts will be blessed by additional chocolates including Chocolate Truffle Hearts with Chilled Champagne Zabaglione Sauce.

Synonymous with Valentine's is Champagne and Sparkling Wine. Over 60 varieties from France, Italy, Australia and the US, including Cremants, Roses, Prestige Champagnes and rare Demi Secs for dessert. A selection of Champagnes will be available by the glass.

Since this is Restaurant Zanghi's 25th Valentine's Day, 26% will be taken off all Champagnes, Sparkling Wines and Caviars during this fete being held from Thursday, February 9th through Sunday, February 28th.

Those wishing to get an early start on Valentine's Day may be interested in the seven course tasting menu featuring a sampling of the "Cuisine D'Amour" dishes, complete with Champagne and wines, at a Grand Tasting Dinner held on Sunday, February 14th from 2pm to 5:30 pm. The price is $85. per person for food and wine. Reservations are extremely limited. For further information, please call.

Wishing you a very warm February, we look forward to seeing you.

Intimate...

Valentine's Day is the time of year when love is in abundance and affection is the order of the day. Make the next order one of our delectable dishes from our special Valentine's Day menu at Pastelle's. Our complete dinner includes a choice of three appetizers: Artichoke Hearts Enriched, Charcoal Broiled Duck Sausage with Lentil, or Sea Scallop in puff pastry with fresh fennel, prosciutto in light creme sauce. Follow this up with our special Field Harvest Salad with lemon vinaigrette which will lead you into the entree from which you can choose: Salmon En Papillote (seven different fresh Herbs) Lobster Ravioli with Truffles, or Saute Veal and Beef Medallions with Golden Oak Mushrooms in Plum Brandy Sauce. Top your creation off with any of our homemade desserts from our assorted dessert cart, and a fresh cup of coffee, tea or espresso. Only $32. per person.

Spend Valentine's Day at Pastelle's with your heart's delight, and delight to our heartwarming atmosphere, prominent service and lovingly prepared dishes.

Two Premieres at Arena Stage

Long Island is a long way from Broadway, but for two playwrights Long Island's Arena Players Theatre has become their "Off-Broadway."

Arena Players Repertory Company, Long Island's oldest theatre company, is host to the premieres of two original new works: Marigold, The Jig-Saw Girl, and The Sky Diver's Widow by Andrew Johns, and The Butcher of Budapest by Joseph S. King.

About the hunt for a Nazi mass murderer on Long Island, The Butcher of Budapest builds suspense as it asks the questions: Is Charles Coleman the much sought war criminal or an upstanding family man? — and will an A.C.L.U. Jewish lawyer undertake his defense?

Marigold, The Jig-Saw Girl, and The Sky Diver's Widow is a bitter-sweet look into the lives of three very different women and an examination of mother-daughter relationships.

Joseph S. King is a theatre veteran with extensive credits as actor, director, producer, playwright, and critic.

Andrew Johns is a published playwright and recipient of the 1986 National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship for Playwrights.

The Butcher of Budapest will be at the Arena Second Stage Theatre, Feb. 12 through March 20. Performances will be 3:00 p.m. Thursday, Friday, Saturday; 8:00 p.m. Sunday. Marigold, The Jig-Saw Girl, and The Sky Diver's Widow will be at the Arena Main Stage Theatre, Feb. 25 through March 20. Performances will be 8:30 Thursday, Friday, Saturday; 3:00 and 7:30 Sunday. Tickets for either show are 10 Thursday, 11 Friday and Sunday; 13 Saturday. For reservations or further information, phone 293-0674.

Auditions

Theatre Guild of Oceanside announces auditions for its next production, Brian Clark's, Whose Life Is It Anyway?

The auditions will be held at the Community Center Theater, Merle Avenue, Oceanside.

The dates of the tryouts are February 22 and 23, from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m.

The bidding:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 1 ♥ Pass
2 ♥ Pass 4 ♥ Pass

Opening lead — king of diamonds.
One of the first things a beginner discovers is that a surprising number of tricks are won by low cards. This happens most often when the small cards are trumps, but it is also very common for tricks to be taken by low cards because no one else has any more cards in that suit.
In the latter case, careful handling is frequently required in order to establish low cards as tricks. Today's hand provides an illustration of the type of foresight sometimes needed.
Declarer starts out with four losers at four hearts — two spades, a diamond and a club. Stated conversely, he has only nine winners — six hearts and three aces.

The only hope of making the contract therefore lies in developing an extra club trick. But in attempting to manufacture this trick, South must try to capitalize on the fruits of his labor when his work is done. Thus, if he wins the opening diamond and plays the ace and another club, he will find himself fighting a losing battle.

West takes the club, cashes a diamond and shifts to a spade.
Declarer wins, crosses to the heart jack and ruffs a club. When the missing clubs fail to divide 3-3, he has no chance. He can lead a heart to the king and ruff another club, but he then has no entry to cash dummy's fifth club.

South should instead adopt a method of play that also caters to a 4-2 split in clubs. This can be achieved by leading a LOW club from dummy at trick two.

As before, West wins, cashes a diamond and shifts to a spade. This time, though, South wins, leads a club to the ace and ruffs a club with the ten. The A-K of hearts are next played and a club ruffed with the queen. The jack of hearts then provides the entry to cash the fifth club, and the contract comes home.

By EDITH LANK

About that Term—Equity

Dear Edith: I am an elderly widow living in my mortgage-free home. I am constantly running across the term "equity" in advice to homeowners in regard to the value of a homestead. Will you please explain the word in terms I can understand and what I should know about it in case I wish to sell later on.—B.N.E.

A: Equity is defined as the money you'd have in your pocket if you sold the property today and paid off the debts against it. Because your place is free and clear, your equity is the present market value of your property.

Let's suppose your home is worth $100,000. That represents your equity. If you owed $20,000 on a mortgage, your equity would be $80,000.

It's important to realize that equity is figured not from your original cost, but from today's value. It's the amount of money you have invested in the property. Every day you choose to keep a place rather than selling it for $100,000, you are keeping $100,000 invested in it.

Equity represents the cash invested (down payment) plus amortization (principal paid off on a mortgage loan), plus appreciation (rise—you hope—in market value of the property).

Shared-Equity Mortgages

Dear Edith: Recently I read an article and if I understood it properly, an investor will co-sign on a mortgage note for investment purposes only. The other buyer will actually live in the house and pay the monthly note. It would be a benefit to the person who wants a home, but does not have the immediate funds.

Can you give me more information and direct me to some individual investors I could talk to?—B.K.

A: Shared equity mortgages can be helpful in certain situations, but you'd want to work closely with your own attorney. With some arrangements, for example, you might have to buy the investor out at a certain point. If you couldn't, the place would be sold.

You'd want some protection if your co-investor went bankrupt or had judgments placed against the property, so you'd research his credit and finances just as he would research yours. You'd need an agreement on responsibility for repairs, insurance and taxes. And if property dropped in value, as it has recently in the oil-dependent states, both parties could get hurt.

The lawyer who guided you through all this might know of a party who's looking for something like that. Otherwise, try a classified ad asking for a shared-equity investor.

Lawyer Says No Will

Dear Edith: I am 58 years old and have two children, a boy 34 and a girl 38. I own my home. Could I make out a "quick" claim deed for my house with my daughter's and son's names on it, put it in my safe deposit box and not file it and at my death my children could file it? Then the house would be in their names.

My lawyer says I do not need a will as long as I want everything to be divided between the two children. What do you say?—Ms. C.T.

Answer: Have you asked your lawyer about the quit (not quick) claim deed? I think you'll find a deed that's simply signed and put away in your safe deposit box doesn't accomplish anything now or after your death. Better check.

I'm surprised that any lawyer tells anyone a will isn't needed and I disagree. It's likely that your children wouldn't have any trouble inheriting your estate in equal portions, but leaving a will makes things simpler and possibly less expensive, for them.

Real estate terms from "abstract" to "zoning" are defined in House Call's glossary of 64 terms. WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

(How to choose when they throw words at you like convertibility, worst case, index and margin? Send $1 and a stamped, return envelope to: ARM, 240 Hemingway Drive, Rochester, N.Y. 14620 for Edith Lank's leaflet, "Understanding Adjustable Rate Mortgages.")

(Edith Lank will attempt to answer letters that include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Send your questions to House Calls, P.O. Box 18447, Rochester, N.Y. 14681.)

The names Ari Vatanen and Juha Kankkunen bring back memories of my childhood. They are Finnish names, and they always sound exotic to my ear. When you pronounce them, you say the double letters twice, with a little pause in between.

And, it was a little pause that caused Mr. Vatanen to loose the race he was in at the Paris-Dakar Rally.

DAKAR, Senegal, January 25—The Peugeot 405 Turbo 16 he was driving was not only the car to beat, but the hot car to steal during the 1988 Paris-Dakar Rally.

In Bamako, Mali, on January 18, the Peugeot 405 Turbo 16, which defending champion Ari Vatanen was driving, was stolen from a guarded compound and held for $91,000 ransom.

Witnesses told Malian authorities that they saw the Peugeot 405 crossing a bridge over the Niger River at about 6:15 a.m.

Jean Todt, director of the Peugeot Talbot Sport team, said he received a phone call in his hotel room at about 7:15 a.m. The anonymous caller demanded $91,000 in cash.

Mr. Vatanen's Peugeot 405 was found at about 11 a.m. in a vacant lot some three miles from the bivouac where the drivers had spent the night. No ransom was paid.

Two days later, an unidentified Frenchman was in police custody and charged with stealing the Peugeot 405, recently voted Europe's Car of the Year.

Ari Vatanen, who had been in first place since the rally started in Versailles on January 1, resumed at 11:35 a.m. on January 18, some two and a half hours after the other drivers had left Bamako.

Despite his late start, Mr. Vatanen finished eighth, passing at least 130 cars on the narrow, dusty course that stretched some 330 miles from Bamako to Kayes, in West Africa.

Driver Vatanen moved from first to second place in the overall standings, behind Peugeot teammate Juha Kankkunen, in a 205 Turbo 16. Mr. Vatanen held that position until the next-to-the-last day of competition, when the rally organizers ruled that he could not complete the race.

His disqualification was the result of his delayed start in Bamako. According to international rally rules, competitors must begin

Mr. Kankkunen and his co-pilot, Juha Piironen, won the 1988 Paris-Dakar Rally, defending Peugeot's championship title on January 22.

Three out of the four Peugeot teams competing in this year's rally completed the grueling 8,000-mile race, considered one of the most challenging and dangerous of all.

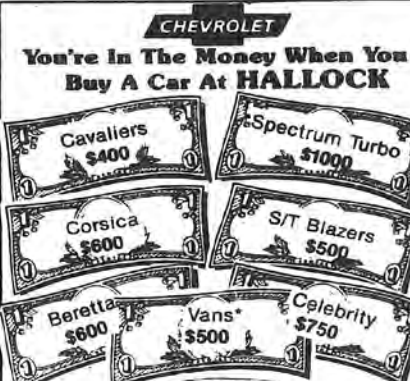

Mitsubishi came in second place, two hours, 51 minutes and 44 seconds behind Peugeot. Range Rover finished third, five hours, three minutes and 16 seconds behind the winner.

Of the more than 1,000 challengers who started the race, far less than half finished. At least the Finnish finished.

We're the only dealer on L.I. that has "Saab Master Technicians" in attendance.

Some lead and others follow. As it is in life, so it is in automobiles. There are those who immediately recognized Saab as one of the world's finest automobiles. They keenly appreciated the engineering and performance of our Saab 900s and added power of our 900 Turbos. Not to mention the ultimate grand touring luxury of the 5 passenger 9000.

But gradually the word spreads. People begin to discover not only the car, but the equally matched performance of Garden City Saab as Long Island's #1 Saab dealer.

So come to Garden City and discover the ultimate in both a dealer and an automobile. You might even see one of your neighbors.

SPORTS ON LONG ISLAND

Nassau Sports Review

By JACK WHITE

Roosevelt, which had lost a heartbreaker to Hempstead on a buzzer shot a month ago, turned the tables on the Tigers, 66-61, at Hempstead last week to break Hempstead's remarkable 102 game league winning streak. It was the Tigers' first league defeat since January 23, 1980, when Lynbrook won, 81-80. It was also Coach Ted Adams' first league loss after 57 wins.

To put in perspective how amazing Hempstead's streak was, the second longest league streak was accomplished by Malverne, which won 55-47 less than the Tigers. Hempstead enjoyed seven consecutive undefeated league campaigns.

The Nassau record for consecutive wins (including playoffs and non-league games) is 38, set by Oyster Bay from 1950-53 before the advent of the state tournament. To break that record now, a team would have to win at least one state championship.

The first round of the Nassau Dual Meet Wrestling Tournament was staged last Saturday. This tournament has become very popular and many believe it is more indicative than the Sectional Championship, which awards team points on the basis of individual performance. There has been quite a bit of sentiment to create a state dual meet championship, but thus far, a suitable schedule hasn't been worked out.

Eight groups of teams, seeded on the basis of their league records, competed at eight sites last Saturday. The eight winners advance to this week's quarter-finals.

The results:
Mephram def. Farmingdale, 45-12
Bethpage def. Oceanside, 28-25

Lerner Cup 10K Championship To Aid Amputees

Sponsors of the Lerner Cup Championship 10-Kilometer Run have announced that applications are now available for the 11th annual running of that race on Saturday morning, April 9 at 10 a.m.

All proceeds from the event will be donated to the Sloan Kettering/Hospital for Special Surgery Children's Prosthesis and Rehabilitation Foundation, to fund an innovative program aimed at helping young amputees reenter the world of sports.

The program, which is called ASPIRE - A Sarcoma Patient's Intense Rehabilitation with Exercise - provides young amputees with the prosthetic devices, rehabilitation and therapy they need to participate in athletics. The program is under the direction of Paddy Rossbach, herself a leg amputee who has overcome her handicap to become the first female amputee to successfully complete the New York City Marathon.

More than 1,200 runners from throughout the New York metropolitan area, from 12-minute miles to topflight competitors, are expected to participate in this year's race. The event is sponsored by David Lerner Associates, the Syosset-based investment

MacArthur def. Freeport, 38-21
Locust Valley def. Herricks, 30-27
Syosset def. North Shore, 34-21
Long Beach def. Lynbrook, 52-5
Massapequa def. Port Washington, 32-12
Baldwin def. Mineola, 41-19

Plainedge won the county boys' bowling title with a score of 5,098, fifty pins better than second place Mineola. High six game series was bowled by Mike Heaton, of Massapequa (1,177). The high game was recorded by Robert Perinka, of Levittown Division. Perinka's 274 was the highest since Kevin Gillette, of Massapequa, bowled the record of 280 in 1967....Wheatley and Hewlett tied for the Nassau County Fencing Championship. Billy Haynes, of Garden City, won the individual championship....In swimming, Farmingdale won the Conference I title with 321 points, while Hicksville took the Conference II championship with a record 369. Hicksville broke seven meet records along the way. The Comets were led by Scott Epstein, Mike DeFina, Robert Kratochiv, Scott Fried and Ed Marshall....Theresa McAlevey scored the 1,000th point of her scholastic career, as Holy Trinity bet St. Joseph's last week. Theresa also played for Sewanhaka and St. Mary's. Noreen Winterfeldt, of undefeated (9-0) Farmingdale, should reach the 1,000 milestone this week....New Hyde Park won its division in rifle with a perfect 10-0 mark. Can anyone beat East Meadow, which has a winning streak of about 170 meters?...Roslyn's girls beat Elmont, 54-51, last week to hand Elmont its first league loss in five years....All-Long Island football star Antoine Moore, of Hempstead, has accepted a scholarship to Georgia's Tech.

firm, in conjunction with the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club.

The run, which will start and finish at the H.B. Matlin Middle School in Plainview, is the first major race of the spring season and among the largest on Long Island. Since it is sanctioned by The Athletics Congress of the United States (TAC), personal times can be used to qualify for TAC events throughout the country.

This year's event will include drawings for two round-trip tickets to the San Francisco Marathon and a week's vacation for two at Gurney's Inn in Montauk, as well as numerous age group, team and special awards. A new feature is a "fun run" open to children 12 years and younger which will begin at 9:10 a.m. In addition, long sleeve sweatshirts will be presented to all 10K Run participants.

The entry fee for the 10K Run is $10 for those who pre-register, $12 on the day of the run. The fee for the pre-race "fun run" is $4 for pre-registration, $5 on the day of the race. For an application or information, call Mike Polansky at 433-0919.

Run for Polio Plus

Runners of all ages are invited to participate in the Westbury-Carle Place Rotary Club's first Spring Sprint on April 23 to benefit Polio Plus. The goal of Rotary International's Polio Plus Program is to raise enough money by 1990 to undertake a worldwide immunization program. Through race fees and sponsorships, the Westbury-Carle Place Club plans to meet its $10,000 commitment to the Polio Plus Campaign.

The five-mile race will start and end at Westbury High School. Come and enjoy for the first time, a run through the scenic villages of Westbury and Old Westbury. Experience for yourself the thrill of knowing you have played a major part in saving the lives of those less fortunate. Awards will be given to the top finishers in each age category, and a raffle will be held prior to the awards' ceremony. A one-mile Fun Run is also scheduled, and certificates will be awarded to all participants.

The fee to pre-register by mail is $8 and runners will receive a long-sleeved t-shirt. For youngsters ages 12 and under, the fee is $5 and they will receive a race cap. Entries must be postmarked by midnight, April 13.

Late entries will be taken on the race day from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. at Westbury High School. The fee for late registration will be $10 and there is no guarantee of receiving a t-shirt.

For more information and to receive a race application, contact Health 'N' Sports at 832-8500.

RECENTLY (MR. HOCKEY) Gordie Howe and his son Marty, visited The Bryan Trotter Skating Academy in Port Washington. Gordie is the spokesman for the National Novice Hockey Association, an adult beginner hockey league. The league has 7000 members throughout the country. Gordie spent the afternoon instructing hockey clinics for members of the league. He is scheduled to return on February 13. (Left to right) Marty Howe, Bryan Trotter, Gordie Howe.

DURING A RECENT St. Dominic's - St. Mary's Girls H. S. basketball game, Channel 12 newscaster Coleen McVay interviewed 100 point scorer from St. Mary's, Peggy Taylor of Manhasset and varsity coach Chris Schneider of Floral Park. Taylor with a 22 point effort became the 14th player in Nassau County to reach 1000 career points. St. Mary's defeated St. Dominic's 55 to 40 and is ranked ninth in the state according to the New York State Sports Writers Association.

Olympic-Style Races For Skaters

Long Islanders of all ages are invited to live the Olympic experience, just for the thrill of it, by participating in an afternoon of free Olympic-style ice skating races at the Long Beach Arena, located on West Bay Drive-off Magnolia Boulevard in Long Beach.

Races will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 15, which is federal holiday. Skating school instructor Lorene Mitchell, herself a former amateur skating champion, said that she challenges all Long Island skating schools to compete against her students and each other in the relay, obstacle, speed and egg carry racing events.

The competitions are open to skaters of all skill levels—beginners through advanced—and entrants need not be affiliated with any skating school or other organization.

Karate Students Kick for MDA

The Karate Center of World Champions located at 358 Port Washington Blvd. in Port Washington, will hold its first annual Kata-Thon to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association on Saturday, Feb. 13.

Students will get sponsored on behalf of their karate workout for that day. Prizes range from T-Shirts to satin school jackets. The top money raiser will receive an Adidas warm-up sweatshirt.

For more information, call Tokey Hill at the Karate Center of World Champions at 944-3185, or the local MDA office at 832-8001.

NEW YORK ISLANDERS Gerald Diduck (left) and Alan Kerr (center, right), along with their teammates, recently provided Long Island hockey fans with a behind-the-scenes look at their home team during the Islanders' first ever free open practice at Nassau Coliseum. The event served as a charity as well, with nearly $5,000 raised from voluntary donations and a raffle of team memorabilia going to three charities, including the Long Island Ronald McDonald House. Two grand prizes in the raffle were awarded to Nicole Russo, 8, of Massapequa (right), and Charles Cornelius, of Huntington (center). The winners will be included in the Islanders' official team photograph, to be taken in March. Ronald McDonald entertained fans throughout the day and was able to share the moment with these two big winners. The Ronald McDonald House is a home-away-from-home for families of critically ill children who are receiving treatment at nearby hospitals.
