William Donlon, Jr., Fire Commissioner, Dies

William F. Donlon, Jr., a Hicksville fire commissioner, died last Thursday at Central General Hospital in Plainville of cancer. He was 49.

A lifelong resident of Hicksville, Bill took an active part in his community, having joined the Hicksville Fire Department in May of 1967. Bill started his way up through the ranks of the department in 1972 as Second Lieutenant of Vol. Hose Co. #4, serving continuously to the rank of Chief of the department in 1982 and 1983. In 1984, the people of the community elected Bill to the office of Fire Commissioner for a five year term.

Current Chief of the department, Gerard O'Brien, said that Bill's progressive thinking and leadership helped to bring the Hicksville Fire Department to the forefront of firefighting, hazardous materials and pre-plan tactics currently used as standards within the firefighting community.

During Bill's 20 plus years of service, he served on numerous department and company committees. Bill was Chairman of the Labor Day Parade and Drill in 1985, Department Training and Public Relations, just to name a few.

Bill was presently serving as Secretary-Treasurer of the 9th Battalion Fire Dist. He was a member of the 9th Battalion Chiefs, Nassau County Fire Chiefs Council, New York State Fire Chiefs Association, Eastern Association of Fire Chiefs and the International Association of Fire Chiefs.

While serving as Fire Commissioner, Bill was a member of the Nassau County Fire District Association, and New York State Fire District Association. Bill also served as a member of the U.S. Navy. He was instrumental in the formation of the U.S. Naval Honor Guard and Drill Team.

Bill is survived by his wife of 30 years, Martha; four sons, William III, Douglas and Glenn, all of Hicksville and Matthew of Plainville; two daughters, Jennifer Berg of Norfolk, Va. and Heather of Hicksville; his mother, Edna of Hicksville; his brother Gerard of Bethpage; his sister Blanche Baldwin of Hicksville; his daughter-in-law Virginia and Laura; his son-in-law Keith Berg; and he was the grandfather of Taylor James and the late Matthew, Jr.

Agency Rejects Sites for Local Group Home

By Rita Langdon

A local counseling center has rejected alternate sites given by local residents for a community residence for 10 mentally disabled adults at 499 Jerusalem Ave.

According to Ken Moskowitz, project director of the residence program at Central Nassau Guidance and Counseling Services, Inc., Hicksville, the agency reviewed the sites for the proposed home and found that they were "not acceptable."

Mr. Moskowitz said that two of the sites, which are on West Marie Street, are not for sale, and the other site on West Nicholas Street, is for sale as a business, not as a community residence. The other site at 17 Maple Place, a church, was also rejected as the costs for renovations would be $100,000 more than the proposed Jerusalem Avenue residence. He noted that 17 Maple Place also did not meet certain code requirements and that it was not accessible to a supermarket as is the proposed residence. Mr. Moskowitz said at a recent community meeting that the reason Central Nassau is looking for a residential area near shopping facilities is so the residents can learn day-to-day activities such as cooking.

School Board Transfers $900,000 in Surplus to Asbestos Management, Oil Tanks & Workers' Comp. Reserve Funds

The Hicksville School Board transferred $900,000 in past budgets' surplus to three separate reserve funds: Asbestos Management, Replacement of Oil Tanks, and Workers' Compensation, at the Sept. 28 meeting.

The surplus came from the 1986-87 and 1987-88 budgets for $100,000 (86-87) and $800,000 (87-88).

An Asbestos Management Plan must be implemented in all New York State schools by July 9, 1989. In this regard, the District has hired an outside consultant to assist in the inspection and management planning program, which is now being conducted. William Hall, Assistant Superintendent for Business Services, recommended that the board establish a Reserve for Asbestos Management and transfer $400,000 in unexpended funds to that Reserve in order to protect other programs from the possibility of losing financing due to emergency expenditures needed to abate asbestos-related material problems and to show an effort toward implementing the A.H.E.R.A. regulations.

School board trustee William Bennett expressed his views on depleting the surplus. Traditionally, Mr. Bennett said, Hicksville has held 2% of the budget in reserve. He asked "why can't we transfer [the money] at the time of need?" Citing the large sums of money which might be needed to abate asbestos, Mr. Bennett mentioned the possibility of floating a bond.

Other school board trustees spoke in favor of creating the Asbestos Reserve. Daniel Arena spoke of the fund as a "safety net" to cushion the impact of any needed asbestos abatement. Carole Wolf also felt that the creation of a Reserve would be a more conservative position, and would protect educational programs. Although Mr. Bennett again expressed his concerns, he joined the board in voting unanimously to create the Asbestos Management Reserve. After the motion passed, Mr. Bennett said he had voted to create the Reserve because the money could be returned to the General Fund if not expended.

The District must also meet Nassau County deadlines and complete testing and/or replacement of underground oil tanks. Mr. Hall stated that the majority of Hicksville's tanks are almost 30 years old and that a number of them might need to be replaced. In order to protect programs if large emergency expenditures become needed, the board authorized a Reserve for the Replacement of Underground Oil Tanks and transferred $100,000 in 1986-87 funds and $100,000 in unexpended 1987-88 funds to that Reserve.

A District employee has filed a claim for a suspected case of asbestosis. Hicksville's Workers' Compensation insurance policy includes a deductible of $500,000 in liability. School board trustee Patricia Rooney asked Mr. Hall whether the deductible was unusually large. He replied that it was not because most settlements are under $3,000. The board voted unanimously to transfer at least $300,000 into the Workers' Compensation Reserve as a partial funding for deductibles. A resident later inquired as to where the employee had worked. Although this information could not be given due to confidentiality, Mr. Hall did say he was a current employee and that asbestosis takes 15 to 30 years to show up, and that the district's responsibility has not been determined.

In other action, the board approved the ratification of the memorandum of agreement between the School District and the Council of Administrators. The board also accepted reports submitted by the District's Independent Auditing Consultants, Danziger, Newborn, Popkin, Turpowsky & Company. The Annual Financial Report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1988 was also accepted.

Excellence in Teaching

New York State provides Aid for the Excellence in Teaching (E.I.T.) program. Hicksville has applied for, and received, these funds the past two years. Board President Jo Ann Miltenberg recommended that the school board apply for such funds for 1988-89. According to Mr. Bennett, there is $256,678 "in the kitty that we don't know what to do with" because the school board and the teachers' union are at an impasse in determining how to distribute the E.I.T. money. However, Mr. Bennett said he felt if the State is giving you money, you should apply for it because a meeting of the minds may occur. Mr. Arena, in voting "no" on the motion, said that he thought it was time to stop applying for the money and letting it sit. The motion to apply for the approximately $256,678 was approved, 6-1.

School Board Committees

Reports were given by each of the board committees, which met on Sept. 14. Patricia Rooney, Chair of the Curriculum Committee, reported that staff members are working together to analyze the poor results in all academic areas on June's Regents. A particular plan of action will be devised and reported.

Mr. Bennett reported that the Policy and Legislation Committee held discussions on a policy to prohibit electioneering in school buildings which had been drawn up by legal counsel at his request. However, some attendees at the Committee meeting had expressed dissatisfaction with the proposed policy. Mr. Bennett stated that he remains "steadfast" in his desire to have a policy prohibiting electioneering. He said that "if a school is neutral ground for prayer or a moment of silence, then so is politics." The discussion will continue at the November 16 Policy Committee meeting. Please note, the October Policy meeting has been cancelled.

Mrs. Wolf reported that the Facilities Committee discussions centered on the removal of equipment from the cafeterias and that some larger items had been removed for safety and/or health reasons. Some larger sinks have been replaced with smaller water conserving units. It was also announced that a 26 minute film on understanding and identifying asbestos is available for community groups.

Superintendent's Report

Hicksville School's superintendent, Dr. Catherine Fenton, reported that as part of the Board's Goal to Improve Mathematics, she and a committee of teachers and administrators will be visiting the High School, Middle School and Lee Avenue Elementary School, to look at the mathematics materials being used and to sit in on math classes. The information gathered will be reported to the Curriculum Committee in November.

A Curriculum Outline for grades K-3 has been distributed to parents at the various Open Houses. Outlines for grades 4-6 are currently being developed and will be distributed as soon as possible. Dr. Fenton expressed an interest in input from parents regarding these trial booklets. Feedback will be used to produce a final document next year.

Mr. Hall reported on new State regulations established in August which would allow for a reimbursement, through State aid, for costs incurred related to inspection, testing and development of the required Asbestos Management Plan. Reimbursement would equal 6 cents (40%) maximum per sq. ft. of covered spaces, subject to the apportionment of adequate funds. Other expenses could also be covered by regular State Building Aid (about 25%).

General Public

At the last board meeting, parents approached the board regarding class sizes. Resident Janet Von Borgen, representing a group of parents from Old Country Road School, spoke of their concerns regarding a Kindergarten class of 23 children, including four E.S.L. (English as a second language) students. Citing Kindergarten class sizes in neighboring districts and in the other seven Hicksville elementary schools, Mrs. Von Borgen asked that the board re-evaluate its policy on splitting Kindergarten classes at 28. A resident of Fork Lane also asked that consideration be given to splitting a class of 30 in the 5th grade there. Mrs. Miltenberg explained that all class sizes in the district are monitored and that a decision on any class splits will be made by Oct. 15. Mrs. Von Borgen asked that the board make its decisions as soon as possible in order to make any changes as least disruptive to the children as possible.

Regarding the Reorganization Committee which met from June 1986-February 1987, Mrs. Von Borgen, who served on that Committee, asked what had become of the Committee's recommendation to redistrict. Mrs. Miltenberg said the board was waiting for the Asbestos Management Plan since the possibility exists that students might have to be moved during asbestos abatement procedures.

Resident Dan Devine, who had approached the board in August asking why a fence near the High School ballfields had been moved, stated that he had received the board's letter explaining that the police department could now handle any problems or disturbances caused by beer drinking loiterers in this area. Mr. Devine continued that the new fence has created a new problem. Residents wishing to use the tennis courts, etc. must now park on the shoulder of Newbridge Road at great personal risk. He read a statement regarding today's youth and the lack of facilities available in Hicksville to teenagers for the purposes of socializing. At the end of his comments, members of the board and the public applauded and Mrs. Miltenberg commented that his concerns were a problem, not just to Hicksville but to other communities as well.

Personnel

The board approved the appointment of Raymond McDonough as Administrative Assistant at the High School. The retirement of Math Chairman Dr. Haggerty as of October 31 was announced. The appointment of Jane Conigliaro as an Academic Enrichment Consultant was approved.

School calendars were available at the meeting and have been mailed to residents.

The next board of education meeting will be on October 26 at 8:15 p.m. in the Administration Building.

budgeting money and using public transportation.

The Town of Oyster Bay, which acts as a liaison for the residents and Central Nassau, has 15 days to respond, if they choose to, with new alternate sites. "We have yet to hear from them," Mr. Moskowitz said Monday.

Hicksville Man Said to Be Shot by His Brother

By A. Anthony Miller

An argument between two brothers over money left one of them, a 23-year-old Hicksville man, in the hospital with a bullet wound to the head and the other, an Oyster Bay resident, in police custody and accused of the shooting.

The incident occurred at 9:45 p.m. September 29 at the home of the victim, Vincent Nuzzi, 23. Details of the quarrel were not given, but Nassau Police Det. Anthony Letteri, of the Eighth Squad, said that Fred Nuzzi, 35, a serviceman for a Hicksville air-conditioning company, who lives in Oyster Bay, left his brother's house, returned a short time later with a gun and shot his brother in the head.

The victim's cries for help were heard by patrons in a nearby pizzeria and police took the wounded man to Glen Cove Community Hospital, where he was reported Monday to be in satisfactory condition in the intensive care unit.

Police called Fred Nuzzi, who surrendered at 6 p.m. September 30 at the police station, and was charged with first-degree assault, a felony. The gun, which may have been a pellet gun, according to a source close to the investigation, has not been recovered.

Man Dies in Bar

In an unrelated incident, a Huntington man died in a Hicksville bar after a piece of food apparently lodged in his throat at 10:40 p.m. October 2. Henry Powles, 35, fell ill after eating pizza in the Railbird Lounge on Newbridge Street, according to Nassau Police, went into the men's room and vomited. In so doing, he apparently aspirated and died. He was pronounced dead at the scene and his body has been taken to the county morgue in East Meadow for an autopsy to determine the exact cause of death.

John Goldsmith, Referee And Teacher, Remembered

Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta presented a County of Nassau Citation to Carolyn Goldsmith in commemoration of her late husband, John S. Goldsmith, who was an outstanding football, soccer and lacrosse referee and elementary school teacher for the Hicksville School District. Mrs. Goldsmith, a resident of Hicksville, is vice president of the Suburban Art League.

Frances and Neil McCormack celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 17 at a party at the Linden Tree given to them by their four children. Fran and Neil renewed their vows at a 12 p.m. Mass at Holy Family Church with Neil's cousin, Reverend Raymond Morgan officiating. About 40 people attended.

Fran taught 3rd grade for 17 years in the Holy Family School. Neil, a 38 year resident, was on the Hicksville School Board for 21 years, was a swimming coach for the Levittown pool district, a basketball coach for Holy Family School and was instrumental in the building of St. Mary's Family and Children's Services in Syosset. He was also president of the Holy Name Society, and president of the Hicksville Senior Club.

They are very proud of their four children. Cornelia Catera taught math in the high school, worked for Grumman in the engineering department, and is now head of Holy Family's math department. Helen Margaret Grumo is a kindergarten teacher at Burns Avenue School. Stephen McCormack has a master's degree in math and is a teacher in the Merrick School District. Marian Augustine was a special education teacher in the middle school for seven years.

Fran and Neil have five grandchildren. Noting all the activities Neil is involved in, we asked Neil what Fran was doing all this time. Neil said, "Raising four beautiful, outstanding children!"

Proud Of Their Son

We received a note from Mr. and Mrs. Ron Burdewick telling us a little about their son whom they are so proud of—and we don't blame them. They write: "Our son, John (1986 Hicksville H.S. graduate) has been stationed on the USS Midway CV-41 homeported in Japan for the past ten months. Right now the Midway is with the Nimitz battle group off Korea, helping to support the Olympics.

"John is an Aviation Boatswains Mate who works on the flight deck, with the catapults and arresting gear. John's job is considered one of the most dangerous jobs in the world. His primary job is 'Arresting Gear' which handles the cable that catches the F-14 Tomcats and the F-18 Hornets when they come in for a landing. When he's not on flight ops, he's a mechanic, in charge of Engine room No. 2.

If that's not enough, he goes to welding school, where he's learning arc, mig, tig and silver soldering.

"We're sure that for all these reasons and more, he was chosen as 'Sailor of the Month,' Air Dept.

"We just think he's great! . . . P.S. (And look at his photo. . . . he must enjoy what he's doing—he looks so happy!)"

(which are just magnificent), and saw the smoke from Yellowstone National Park. We only had a sprinkle of rain in the 15 days we were away. Our United States is just BEAUTIFUL!"

"We visited with Renata and Keith Widder and their four-year old daughter Jessica in Durango, Colorado. We ended up in Las Vegas—where we left our money but had a grand time."

"When Hank was alive we toured the United States in a van and enjoyed it tremendously. He would have loved this trip."

TO YOUR HEALTH

Ankylosing Spondylitis - A Cause Of Low Back Pain

Ankylosing spondylitis, is a type of arthritis which derives its name from the Greek, meaning "crooked vertebra". This disorder, once considered rare and only affecting men, is now known to affect people of all ages and either sex. This type of arthritis has been known for centuries and has been found in mummies of ancient Egypt.

The cause of this arthritis is not known. Recently, scientific evidence has demonstrated a strong genetic link to the development of this disorder. Additionally, a family history of chronic back pain may exist. This arthritis may be related to other forms of arthritis, such as psoriatic arthritis or Reiter's syndrome.

This arthritis, which often occurs in men, is manifested by chronic lower back pain. This pain is usually worse in the morning and improves throughout the day. The arthritis may also travel to several joints. The joints of the lower extremities, such as the knees and feet, are often involved.

This disease affects not only the joints but also other organs of the body. Both the eyes and the valves of the heart may also be involved.

The disorder is often diagnosed and treated by rheumatologists (arthritis specialists). The diagnosis is made on the basis of a careful medical history and physical examination. X-rays of the spine are very helpful in confirming the diagnosis.

The symptoms can be successfully treated with anti-inflammatory arthritis medications. Additionally, specific exercises are often used to help prevent limitation of spinal movement.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach - An Arthritis Overview."

DRUGS: Our Government Must Be The First To "Just Say No"

While the Reagan/Bush administration has been waging a campaign of hype against drugs and has added the slogan "Just Say No" to the lexicon, drug supplies and drug addiction—particularly crack addiction—have increased alarmingly. It now appears that the inability to "Just Say No" on the part of the users was compounded by the refusal of the U.S. government to say "No" as well.

A combination of legal depositions, congressional investigations and investigative reporting has built a record indicating the Central Intelligence Agency, State Department employees, members of the National Security Council and some of the highest officials of government actively supported the trading of drugs as a way of implementing our foreign policy.

One of the prime movers in uncovering the depth of this scandal has been the Christic Institute, an interfaith, nonprofit law firm. Six months before the Iran/Contra scandal broke nationwide, the Christic Institute uncovered drug dealing by the White House's secret Contra supply network. Their charges have never been given a full hearing. This scandal cannot be swept under the rug forever.

We now lend our names in public support of the Christic Institute's efforts to expose the deadly connection between our foreign policy and the drug crisis here at home. We also pledge ourselves to being informed members of the electorate and will ask hard questions of all federal candidates, whatever their party affiliation, as to what they intend to do to fully investigate this scandal.

"If those in Washington...did know about those drug shipments, why didn't they 'just say no?'...How was it that in three years a network Washington set up to run arms to contras wound up running cocaine into this country for the most vicious drug cartel in the world—at the same time we were supposed to be fighting a war against drugs?"

Richard Threlkeld, ABC News, April 7, 1988

"I smuggled my share of illegal substance, but I also smuggled my share of weapons (to the contras) in exchange, with the full knowledge and assistance of the DEA (Drug Enforcement Agency) and the CIA."

Gary Betzner, Newsweek, January 26, 1987

Join us to hear Sara Nelson, Executive Director of the Institute, discuss the political reasons why the conspiracy case vs. Oliver North, Richard Secord, et al was thrown out of court.

View "Coverup," a documentary that starts where the Contragate hearings left off. This powerful film is an examination of the charges that the Reagan campaign promised a deal to the Iranian government in 1980 if the Iranians did not release the American hostages before the election. The film examines the "Shadow Government" and the role of the CIA in drug running. Once you've seen this film, you can answer the question, "WHERE WAS GEORGE?" Sunday, October 16/New Community Cinema, Huntington (one block south of Northern Boulevard)/6:30 Coffee/7:00 Program/8:00 Film/$10 Donation.

We're about to give you another good reason to do all your banking with us. Saturday.

Unfortunately, your banking needs don't always automatically end at the end of your workweek. Which is why The Bank of New York has just recently extended its own workweek.

In fact, we have more branches open on Saturday than any other bank on Long Island.

Full-service banking on Saturdays.

But what makes Saturday banking at The Bank of New York even better is the fact that, unlike many other banks, we're offering all of our services during these extended hours. Giving anyone who works Monday through Friday more time to take care of the things that take a little more time—like opening a checking account or taking out a loan.

More hours in which to get a 60 minute loan.<sup>SM</sup>

Of course, when it comes right down to it, you won't need to set aside much time at all for a personal, auto, boat or home improvement loan. Because, with our new 60 Minute Loan,<sup>SM</sup> in most cases you'll get an answer in 60 minutes or less.

Just visit The 60 Minute Loan Center<sup>SM</sup> at any one of our convenient branches. Or call Action Phone at 1-800-942-1784, for more information or to apply for a loan.

More branches, more hours, and more services. They add up to some very good reasons to talk to The Bank of New York. No matter what day you do your banking.

Hugs Bunny Spreads the Word About Drugs

The Hicksville Elks Lodge's Drug Awareness committee booth at the recent Bellmore Street Fair featured the Elk's drug program mascot Hugs Bunny, graphically illustrating the program theme "Hugs are Better than Drugs." Hundreds of bumper stickers with the same slogan were also distributed free of charge. A table display provided free literature on many aspects of addiction and many copies of the hand out How Can I Tell if My Child is Using Drugs? were personally distributed by the brothers attending to work with the committee.

Small children lined up continuously to get a real hug from the Hugs, some with the comment "He's wet" to mommy afterwards as a reflection of the sauna-like atmosphere inside the costume.

In response to a notice at the booth for teachers to inquire about the program, the committee will provide for on-school awareness education. Several brochures on the program were also requested. For information on this program, call 694-7238.

THE HICKSVILLE ELKS Lodge's Hugs Bunny made an appearance at Grand Avenue Junior High in Bellmore last week. The Elk's Drug Awareness Program reaches many towns throughout Long Island and New York with the message that "Hugs are Better than Drugs." Pictured with Hugs Bunny are (L to R) Tom, Seth, 4, Andrew, 6, and Rachel, 4.

50 Local Homes Without Electricity

About 50 homes on the Hicksville/Levittown line near Spindle Road were without electricity last week while LILCO replaced existing wires with larger ones, a spokesman said.

According to Long Island Lighting Company spokesman Will Thoretz, seven to 10 houses at a time lost power for about an hour Sept. 29 while LILCO crews worked throughout the day.

"We wanted to upgrade the area and improve service," said Mr. Thoretz. Because residents have expanded their homes and have added appliances, the smaller wires were not sufficient, he added.

Mr. Thoretz said that the power outages were done intentionally, but "we don't anticipate anymore outages" while they continue work in the area.

Time Changes for Elementary Enrichment Program

The After School Elementary Enrichment Program, sponsored by the Hicksville School District, reported the wrong hours from some of its courses. The Piano Lab, Aerobics, Fun in the Kitchen and the Guitar Lab will begin at 3:50 p.m. and end at 4:50 p.m., (not ending at 4:30 p.m. as it appeared in last week's issue of the Illustrated). The hours for the computer lab remain the same (eight 1-hour 15 minute sessions).

Registration for the program which is open to (grades 4-5-6) will be Tuesday, Oct. 5 from 10 a.m. to noon in the School Administration Building (Room A-239 Conference Room). Registration is also by mail. For further information call Mr. Kenney at 933-6585.

Hicksville High Happenings...

By Jim McCrann

Because motivation is the key to success when it comes to competitive activities, it is important to those competing that they know that they're well-supported. Support and enthusiasm from their peers will help motivate the competitors to do even better. It is for this reason that Hicksville High held its annual Pep Rally on Friday, September 30. It was an opportunity for the entire student body to show their school spirit as well as lift the school spirit of those who represent Hicksville High School.

Among the participants in the Pep Rally were cheerleaders, the soccer, volleyball and football teams, swimmers, runners, tennis players, the marching band and the Long Island champion Hicksville High Starlet Kickline. Student body president Harry Pangas kicked off the event with an exuberant speech that incited the already boisterous crowd. Following him were the introductions to all of the various teams. The kickline took the field next and once again exhibited their talents in synchronized dance while showing the dazzled audience what made them the champions. The cheerleaders, with their routine, elicited hearty approval from the already excited audience. Following the introduction of the football team came the Marching Comets who put on an impressive performance which topped off the Pep Rally. The only other hope for the teams and groups that will represent Hicksville High is that the support that they received at the rally is only a sample of what they will eventually get.

*****

George Bush and Michael Dukakis were not the only ones with political aspirations this fall. Student government representatives were recently elected at the high school. Besides the various class representatives that were elected there was also a new student body president elected. Harry Pangas assumed those duties; he will be assisted by the vice-president Chris Horvath, Doreen Barile who was elected secretary and Tammy Marshall the new treasurer. What does Harry have in store for the students during his term in office? "We plan to have a 'Battle of the Sexes,' this year, a dance, and memorial for Mr. Pitrelli." He also will attempt to set up a "Big Brothers/Big Sisters" organization at the high school. Through this he hopes to reach out to underprivileged children. Harry is eager to work for the students in order to make this a productive school year.

Hicksville High's Comets Marching Band began their competition season on good note. While competing at Lindenhurst High School the band placed fourth in their division and third overall out of 11 other bands. Though the results were not that astounding, it was a big step for the Comets as they achieved the same score that they received at the end of last season. Band director James McRoy and his assistant Phil Grusenmeyer seemed pleased at the results as they are continuing their rebuilding of the band program. The band's color-guard placed fourth overall; it was a tremendous improvement over where they were last year. Hicksville's respectable start may just be a sample of better things to come.

For seniors who are planning to go to college, the high school guidance department will be assisting you through a series of meetings that will be held next week. The meetings will be held during lunch periods. For more information and registration for these meetings you may go down to the counseling center.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Town Accepts Anonymous Reports On Zoning Violations

Residents who want to report a neighbor for having a zoning violation but fear reprisal from the neighbor, no longer have to hesitate to do so.

Residents at local civic meetings commonly complain to Town of Oyster Bay officials that they want to report their neighbors who maintain illegal multiple dwelling houses, which causes excessive parking on the street. Most residents are reluctant to report because their neighbors may retaliate.

The Planning and Development Department of the town accepts anonymous letters and telephone calls for reporting such violations. Previously, when someone called with an alleged violation, he or she was told to sign a complaint form. The document was considered private information and was only needed in case the violator had to be taken to trial. Still, people were reluctant to get involved.

"Back in early 1987, I changed the policy. It didn't get publicized enough," Richard Blankfein, commissioner of planning and development, said.

Hicksville residents should be glad that the town has taken this stand. The resident need not wait any longer if his or her neighbor is in violation of a law. We want to have justice; yet, we shouldn't fear that we will be hurt for helping to enforce the law.

If you have a complaint about a violation, you can call 922-8606 or write: Department of Planning and Development, Town Hall, 74 Audrey Ave., Oyster Bay, New York 11771-1592. Attn: Code Compliance Bureau.

Postal News: Whose Mailbox is it Anyway?

Hicksville residents may remember the day when they walked into a store and paid money for a mailbox to be erected at their home. And, like the rest of the property around the house, thought the mailbox belonged to them.

"However," Roger Nienaber, General Manager/Postmaster of the Long Island Division said, "what postal customers may not realize is that every letterbox or other receptacle intended or used for the receipt or delivery of mail is designated an authorized depository for mail under federal law."

This means that, legally, your mailbox must be used exclusively for matter which bears postage, according to the postmaster.

No part of a mail receptacle may be used to deliver any matter not bearing postage. This applies to items or matter placed upon, supported by, attached to, hung from, or inserted into, a mail receptacle. (Newspaper receptacles attached to the same post don't apply.)

What kinds of illegal articles are found in mailboxes?

"Most anything," Nienaber said. "We find wedding invitations, birthday party invitations, business advertisements and solicitations for charities appearing in mailboxes—all without benefit of postage."

When such mailable matter is found in mailboxes, the carrier is required to remove it and take it back to the post office. The person or firm responsible for placing the matter is then asked to pay postage due on each piece illegally placed in mailboxes.

"This procedure often causes bad feelings on the part of people who say they didn't know the practice was illegal," he explained. "Nevertheless, the law which prohibits the placing of unstamped matter in mailboxes is the same law which keeps mailboxes free of extraneous material and assures room for legitimate mail delivery by the carrier."

"Today's Postal Service is committed to providing the best possible mail delivery," said Nienaber. "Adequate mailboxes, reserved exclusively for mail, help us reach that goal."

EDITORIAL AND OPINION

What the Politicians are Saying . . .

COUNTY EXECUTIVE THOMAS S. GILOTTA has noted that during the summer of 1988 unemployment in Nassau County reached a record low of 2.5 percent. The number of unemployed residents was virtually half the total of just five years ago, and is another practical demonstration of the strength within the local economy of the County. This places Nassau in the forefront as one of the most desired areas in the entire country in which to live, work and raise a family. Economic experts consider such a low rate as full employment.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHARLES J. O'SHEA (R-C, Baldwin) has announced that the legislation he supported to provide transportation of handicapped children to non-public schools recently became a law. This legislation extends all the rights for transportation services to handicapped children who have been designated as handicapped by the local committee on special education but whose parents choose a non-public school for their own reasons. The intent of this measure is to provide an education to all handicapped children in New York State.

CONGRESSMAN RAYMOND J. MCGRATH (R-Valley Stream) was honored by the Sierra Club for his efforts to pass a new Clean Air Bill. He was presented with a "Clean Air Champion" award. In the seven years since the Clean Air Act technically expired it has been difficult to keep up with the increasing numbers of pollution sources. House members have noted that the key problems are acid rain, ozone depletion and the greenhouse effect, airborne toxics and carbon monoxide pollution. Approximately 50,000 Americans die prematurely each year from inhaling the elements of acid rain. Current clear air laws will help to put a handle on this problem.

SENATOR RALPH J. MARINO (R, Oyster Bay) chairman of the Senate on Committee on Banks has issued a reminder to Nassau County residents that every year millions of dollars from abandoned bank accounts, uncollected stock dividends, forgotten checks, unredeemed bonds and utility security deposits are turned over to the State Comptroller. If you have located an outdated and uncashed check, an old bank book for an account you may not have closed, or if you merely want to have your name checked against the state's records or unclaimed funds, you should call the Unclaimed Funds "Hotline" at 1-800-221-9321. This number is in operation weekdays between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...We were talking the other night to a young engaged couple and they were complaining about the high cost of furnishing their first home and how it was going to be quite empty for some time—and one of the men said, "Well, we furnished our first home with orange crates"... Now you all remember orange crates—although the young people did not... Orange crates were the boxes that oranges did come in to the stores. They were made of a kind of splintery wood slats with solid ends and a solid divider in the middle... They were about thirty inches long and maybe fourteen by fourteen... Because of the middle divider, they had many uses... You could stack them up and you had many cubby holes rather like some of those plastic stackables you buy today... and then you could put them on the side and have two places to put magazines or whatever... and then—you could take out one end leaving the other end and the middle divider in place and you had an instant chair—really quite sturdy unless you were too chubby to fit in... The ends of these orange crates were always decorated with very fancy full-color labels from the various orchards and these labels are today a sought-after collectors' item... If you were a kid, the uses of the orange crate were unending—you could put the wheels from some old pair of skates on the bottom and make a wagon... you could use two together for a four-room doll house—oh, the list goes on... They were always available from the fruit store... the fruit man was happy to be rid of them... and they had the best attribute of all—they were free!!

Yours, Lulabelle

NAPOLEON'S DREAM

In the early 1800's Emperor Napoleon had a dream of conquest and unification. His idea was to form what today we would call common market. This common market would be strong. France would be its heart and soul. No one or no country could challenge its mastery.

Of course the glory, honor and riches would be France's (read that Napoleon!). England, his arch-rival, would be left to molder and die on the vine without the rich and lucrative European markets.

This dream came crashing down as Napoleon stubbed his toes on the Steppes of Russia.

Today the dream of Napoleon comes ever closer to reality. For many years Europe has been slowly and tortuously making European unity a fact. By 1992 the European Economic Community (EEC) will have achieved an almost complete unity. Only the last step will be needed, true political union. That step is the hardest and most difficult because nations do not give up sovereignty easily. Each nation covets its own independence too much.

Yet, what the EEC will have will pose a great potential economic threat to the United States. Why? Because the EEC will have a greater economic base, more land and more people with a greater basic resource base than the United States. It will be a true common market. Common markets create a synergistic effect (the whole is greater than the sum of the parts) that will rival our economic power.

If you think about it, the United States owes much, if not most, of its economic power to the fact that we are one gigantic common market. We have a common body of laws, one money, one government, one set of customs, no tariff barriers between our countries (states), and a common language. People are free to move anywhere. By 1992 the EEC will have most of this. Each country will be a national entity, but there will be no tariffs, probably one money for the settlement of debts, and a free flow of goods, people, brains, talents and money across the national borders. This market will be greater than the United States market. Napoleon's dream will be realized, except that the dominate country in Europe will be Germany.

There are profound implications in all of this. As yet another economic superpower rises on the world stage. At the present time, there are three ECONOMIC superpowers, the United States, Russia and Japan. China is going to emerge and Western Europe will arrive in a big hurry in the 1990's.

This will present enormous opportunities for our companies. It will be easier to penetrate their markets. Our problem is that US companies are not too good at doing business overseas. We never have been because we have not needed foreign markets. Ours is so huge.

These developments will give European companies great opportunity. The growth that will take place in Europe will create even larger, richer companies that will be able to compete on any business battlefield, especially ours.

This new and revitalized competition will not descend upon us like locusts for at least 10 years. We have time to prepare, to learn how to compete. We know from experience what happens when we forget to compete, when we let others take our markets, when we allow another economic area to dominate many of our markets. Japan in the United States is the perfect example. Unless we are careful, many companies may meet their Waterloo. Just hope it is not yours.

Fire Prevention Week Begins October 9

If they had had fire prevention week back in 1871, Mrs. O'Leary's cow might have known better than to kick over the lantern which started the great Chicago Fire, killing 250 people and destroying 17,430 buildings that fateful October 9.

Fortunately today, the Hicksville Fire Department sponsors annual Fire Prevention Week. October 9-15 marks the anniversary of that Chicago fire, after which many fire prevention codes were instituted.

The Hicksville Fire Department stresses fire safety and prevention all year to help residents protect themselves from fire; in addition, those concerns are highlighted during Fire Prevention Week with special programs for school children.

This year, McDonald's restaurants have teamed up with the Hicksville Fire Department to launch a major fire safety program aimed at arousing public awareness. As part of the program, the Hicksville Fire Department will be hosting its annual fire prevention poster contest at fire headquarters, located at 20 East Marie St. This contest is open to all Hicksville school children in grades K-6. (Schools have details on contest).

This year's winners will be greeted by Smokey the Bear and Spotty the Dog. Each winner will receive awards from the fire department showing its gratitude to the children for their help in preventing fires.

The second part of the program will have Hicksville firefighters on hand at McDonald's, 280 North Broadway, Hicksville, from 3-6 p.m. Oct. 9 in the rear parking lot. Members and equipment will be on display to demonstrate safety techniques, answer questions, and distribute literature. Nassau County Vocational Education and Extension Board will be on hand with their fire prevention education trailer (simulated house), equipped with bedroom and kitchen furnishings, smoke detectors, and artificial smoke to create conditions of a home fire. A special guest educator will talk to the children. This year, the guest educator will be Ronald McDonald himself.

McDonald's restaurants in the Tri-State area will distribute more than three million Plan to get out alive brochures featuring fire safety tips and a planning grid to help families map out escape routes in the event of fire.

In conjunction with the McDonald's campaign, Dr. Frank Field CBS/TV Health and Science Editor, once again will present a major series on fire safety in the home, with features airing nightly on the Channel 12 evening news during Fire Prevention Week.

The public is invited and encouraged to attend this program, as well as participate in the demonstrations on fire safety.

Statistics Show U.S. Has Highest Fire Deaths

The statistics listed below were gathered by the National Fire Protection Agency for the year of 1986. These figures let residents know the importance of practicing fire safety in the home.

* The United States has one of the highest fire death rates in the industrialized world.

* Approximately 32 percent of all fire-related deaths occur in the home. Of those fatalities, over half of the deaths are children 13 years old or younger.

* No disease kills and injures more children than home fires.

* The total number of reported and unreported fires in the United States over a one year period is estimated at 32.5 million.

* In the United States, twenty times more deaths are caused by fire each year than floods, hurricanes, and earthquakes combined.

* There are more than 300 different ways fire can start in homes.

* According to the National Safety Council, of accidents that cause death or injury, fire is the third largest in the United States.

* In 1986, there were approximately 623,000 residential fires in the United States, which resulted in residential property losses of $3,440,000,000. That means fire occurs in a home 1 in every 45 seconds.

Vamps Warn: Get Out And Stay Out

In case of fire, knowing what to do can save lives. Thousands of Americans die in home fires every year. Fire officials say nearly half could be saved if families plan ahead and know how to react in fire related emergencies.

The Hicksville Fire Department and McDonald's, which are offering a free "Plan to Get Out Alive" brochure during Fire Prevention Week (October 9-15), recommend several fire safety tips to help families get out of their homes during a fire:

* Draw a floor plan of your entire home. Show all possible exits from each room. Know two ways out of every room.

* Practice home fire drills with your family monthly.

* Install and maintain smoke detectors on every level of your home, keep batteries in good working order, and test your detector on a weekly basis.

* To escape fire, roll out of bed to the floor. Get down on your hands and knees, crawl to the door and feel with back side of hand to see if door is hot, if hot use your alternative exit.

* If your door is cool, open slowly and proceed low to the floor to the nearest exit.

* Once outside, STAY OUT. Gather at your predetermined meeting place outside your home, far enough away from the home and take a head count.

* After all family members have met, send someone to a neighbor's house to call the fire department. Meet the oncoming firefighters and tell them whether everyone is out of the home or not.

* Remember, when calling the fire department, remain calm and speak clearly, giving the right address, nearest intersection, the number from which you are calling and leave your name.

* Additional tips and a planning grid to help map home escape routes are in the "Plan to Get Out Alive" pamphlet and can be obtained at your local fire station. If assistance is needed in developing the layout or if you have questions, call the fire department, they will be glad to assist. The number is 933-6444.

It brings out the best in all of us.

Galileo Lodge News

By Joe Lorenzo

Like a well-dressed man who starts to change and selects this wardrobe to conform to the Fall and Winter season, so does the Galileo Lodge as it readies its activities and events for these periods. One activity such as our Halloween looms large on the entertainment horizon. The Galileo Lodge never misses the opportunity to present a Halloween Dance because it seems to be the harbinger of fall and winter. This dance is set for Saturday, October 29 with price of admission being only $10 per person. Offered will be a delicious hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-up and music for your listening and dancing pleasure. Costumes are optional, with prizes being awarded to those wearing the most original costumes in various categories. I cannot think of a more pleasurable and enjoyable way to celebrate Halloween and enjoy its mystique.

The holiday season at the Galileo Lodge is also something very special, so special that very little is spared in order to enhance and embellish this beautiful time of the year. On December 3, the Galileo Lodge will present its Christmas Dance for its members, patrons and friends. Price of admission is $10 per person, and in the offering here will be a delicious hot dinner with all the trimmings, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music for your listening and dancing pleasure. The Galileo Lodge will also be garbed in its Christmas finery, and those who will attend will further engross themselves in Christmas cheer and spirit. Again I say that there is no better way to start the Yuletide season than attending this delightful affair.

Then, later in the month, on Sunday, December 11 the Galileo Lodge will present two of its most heart-warming and moving events—the two Christmas parties, one for the handicapped children of Long Island in the morning and the other one for the children of the membership in the afternoon. Plenty of food, refreshments, candy, ice cream, cookies and so many varieties of cake will be on hand to bring that beautiful spirit of Christmas to these children. This is the art of giving...without asking for anything in return. Then, as the holiday season starts to wane, the Galileo Lodge presents its ever-popular New Years Eve party and dance on December 31, a Saturday. If you like to usher in the new year in good old-fashioned style, then the Galileo Lodge is the place for you to be on this night.

The Ladies Auxiliary now announces that it will hold a Fashion Show on Friday, November 18. There will be food and refreshments, but at the present time that is all the information I have on hand other than Marie Prudenti will be in charge. More details concerning this activity will be coming soon.

Jewish Center Membership Lunch

Midway Jewish Center has announced that it will sponsor a Chinese Buffet at the Teahouse of the October Sun. This is a fall membership reunion with a $10 couvert and will take place on October 17 at 12 p.m.

Midway Jewish Center is located on South Oyster Bay Road in Syosset.

Singalong with Miss Jane

Miss Jane will provide children in the early elementary years and younger with a chance to hear a variety of music at the Hicksville Public Library on October 15 at 2 p.m. Familiar and less familiar songs will be performed and the children will be asked to join in the fun. Children under five must be accompanied by an adult. Miss Jane is a local music teacher and graduate of the Orff Method. Admission is free and children within the Hicksville School District and in third grade or under are invited.

IF GETTING A LOT OF CHECKING SERVICES INSTEAD OF A LOT OF CHECKING CHARGES SOUNDS GOOD TO YOU...

CHECK WITH CHASE.

Most banks that offer a lot of services with their checking accounts also offer something else—a lot of individual fees.

But at Chase, you don't have to pay for individual services. And that makes things very easy.

✓ Chase's Unlimited Checking Services. Instead of charging you 25¢ for this and 50¢ for that, Chase checking gives you unlimited check writing, standard personalized checks, stop payments and certified checks. All for a single $10 monthly fee. If you maintain at least a $2,000 average monthly checking balance, there will be no monthly fee.

And unlimited checking services is only the beginning of the advantages you get with your Chase checking account.

✓ Chase Cash Reserve. This line of credit,* attached to your Chase checking account, helps prevent you from bouncing checks. But, unlike other banks' overdraft protection, Chase Cash Reserve automatically gets paid back each time you make a checking deposit, which can save you money by reducing your interest payments.

✓ Chase Cash Back. Now you can withdraw funds instantly—up to $100—when you deposit a check at an ATM! And, unlike other banks, Chase doesn't require you to have money in other accounts to cover the amount you wish to withdraw.

CHECK WITH CHASE FREE FOR SIX MONTHS.

Check us out—free of charge for six months. Just come into any Chase branch before December 16, 1988. And begin to experience the advantages you'll get only at Chase. (While you're there, check out our great CD rates, too.)

*If you qualify, you can get a line of credit of $500 to $25,000.

The Winthrop Experience

You look at a hospital differently when the patient is your child.

Nobody is ever thrilled with the prospect of becoming a hospital patient. Nobody.

And the feeling is even worse when the patient-to-be is not you, but your child.

That's why we go to such great lengths at Winthrop-University Hospital to prepare young patients — and their parents — for the experience. Our belief is that the more you know about what to expect, the less reason you'll have to be apprehensive about a hospital stay.

To this end, we sponsor an ongoing program of educational tours for children — school classes, Scout groups and the like. "Look. There's nothing to be afraid of," is the message we want to communicate.

Once they watch how a cast is applied or see how X-Rays help doctors make people healthy again, a hospital starts to look less mysterious and more, well, hospitable.

Pre-Admission Visit

For those whose hospital trip is more imminent, we offer a pre-admission "teaching session." A nurse will put the patient-to-be, and the parents, at ease by familiarizing them with the facilities and introducing some of the people who will soon be a part of the getting-well process.

Then a videotape featuring Mr. Rogers gently reassures the child about what happens in a hospital. The result is less anxiety, which can lead to a speedier recovery.

Any questions? We'll do our best to explain anything that's on your mind.

Every effort is made on our part to avoid the necessity for remaining in the hospital overnight. Many of the procedures that once required several days recovery can now be completed in the morning with the patient well enough to go home by evening.

Parents May Remain

When this is not possible, arrangements can be made for parents to sleep in the room with the child during the recovery period. We recognize that this can help a child to relax and often satisfies a parent's peace of mind as well.

However, our paramount obligation is to make certain that every patient receives absolutely superior-quality medical care. Here our reputation is among the highest in the country. Every aspect of our pediatric care is overseen by a senior specialist of extraordinary ability and wide professional renown. Our teaching affiliation with SUNY Stony Brook further assures a consistently high level of treatment. And in backup is a full complement of state-of-the-art technological equipment that enhances all these personal and professional skills.

Every effort is made to help parents feel confident about the care and concern that Winthrop offers their child.

In other words, you're in superb hands at Winthrop and this is what matters most. Hospitalizing a child is never easy but when it becomes necessary, you want to — you must — feel totally confident in any decision you make.

As you see, everything we do for our young patients and their parents is done with this in mind.

If you'd like to know more, we'll be glad to send you information on our hospital tours and pediatric pre-admissions briefings. We'll also include the names of physicians of our pediatrics staff. Write to Dept. A1006, Office of Community Affairs.

60th Anniversary for Hicksville Fire Dept. Co. 5

Emergency Company Five of the Hicksville Fire Department celebrated their 60th anniversary at the Wheatley Hills Tavern in Westbury last month.

Emergency Company Five was organized September 18, 1928 under Chief Henry Gebhardt. The company had placed the following members into officership: Captain Valentine Kerbs, 1st Lt. Charles Van Winkler, and Lt. Harry Borley, Treasurer William Cisler, and Secretary Oscar B. Berry.

This company has been served by 42 captains and more than 190 members to date. They have given the Hicksville Fire department six chiefs: V. Kerbs, H. Borley, G. Kunz, G. Engel, S. Weiss, and W. Werthessen, and also gave five fire commissioners: J. Werthessen Sr., C. VanWickler, G. Engel, S. Weiss, and R. Dwyer.

Company Five has serviced the Hicksville Northwest residents with the following pieces of apparatus: 1925 Larabee, a 1948 Seagrave, a 1962 Mack C-95, and a 1983 Sutphen Pumper, which is a vital engine to the community's well-being.

Emergency Company Five responds from the Strong Street Fire Station, Station Three since March of 1956. The members of Emergency Company Five, as they did 60 years ago, stand ready to defend and protect the residents of Hicksville. Now, as then, the members of Company Five continue to dedicate and devote much of their valuable time to fire protection, which can only be known to the Fire Service.

This Then Is The Heritage of Emergency Company Five.

Long Island's largest street fest, the Fifth Annual Oyster Festival, will be held in the village of Oyster Bay, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 15-16. Sponsored by the Oyster Bay Chamber of Commerce, admission to the event featuring oysters and seafood, will be free.

In addition to all the oysters and a wide variety of homemade foods, the Oyster Festival activities include a sidewalk arts and crafts exhibit with a juried art show, family entertainment, including the Long Island Mimmers Band and the Gloria Parker Revue, a world class bicycle race and competitions in oyster eating and oyster shucking.

The Oyster Bay Chamber of Commerce will be supported by numerous corporate sponsors including Marine Midland Bank, AT&T, Carlsberg Beer and Palmer Wines. Participating sponsors include WALK Radio, National Westminster Bank, Acclaim Entertainment, LILCO, Norstar Bank, and Mill Max Manufacturing Corp.

While oysters in various forms, on the half shell, fried and in chowder will be featured in the food fest area, other seafood and traditional festival foods will be available. All foods will be served by various Oyster Bay civic and fraternal organizations and are prepared in local kitchens by volunteers using the freshest ingredients.

The art show will range from painting to photography. Five stained glass artisans join the show along with toymakers, country art craftspeople, plexi-art creators, and wood sculptors.

Among the entertainment are the Hal Hoffman Band, Gloria Parker Revue, Sweet Rose Review and the Banjo Rascals. In addition there will be clowns, roving mimes and singers.

The Fifth Annual Marine Midland Oyster Festival Cycling Classic will be the feature event on Sunday, Oct. 16, and will again highlight top professional and Olympic caliber men and women cyclists who will be competing in Long Island's most prestigious criterium bicycle race.

Parking for the Oyster Festival is free and there will be complimentary AT&T shuttle bus service to and from the Festival's designated parking sites.

The Festival will be held rain or shine. Saturday hours are from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Sunday from 11 to 6. For information call 364-8082.

VIDEO VIEWS

BY PAT WEIDNER

Promised Land R

I really enjoyed the introduction to this movie. It shows a high school basketball game played to the accompaniment of church choir music. Such inspiring sounds might indicate a promise of a great future for the senior class of 1985, only I'm not sure the kids at this basketball game can hear the music.

Things just aren't the same when senior year is over. It's time to grow up, but no one seems to want to do it in the United States of the eighties. That's probably because there is a lot of unpleasant stuff in the real world of the Promised Land. I liked this movie. The latest generation of "Brat-Packers" did a very credible job of acting. They are Jason Gedrick, Kiefer Sutherland, Meg Ryan and Tracey Pollan.

Frantic R

What does your middle-aged, American physician do when his wife disappears from their hotel room in the Grand Hotel in Paris. He gets FRANTIC, that's what! Getting no help from the Parisian Police Department, he starts running around chasing drug dealers and generally taking things into his own hands. He does this in the company of a very beautiful French girl. This is not too hard to take, as you will soon see if you rent this movie. Not as fast-paced as I like for this type of film, but exciting; especially the ending.

The Last Emperor PG-13

This movie is the true story of Pu Yi, the last Emperor to sit on the Imperial Dragon Throne in the Forbidden City in China. Bernardo Bertolucci uses a wonderful counterpoint technique to show the contrast between the luxury of Pu Yi's life as Emperor and the harsh reality of his life in the Communist Republic. The film traces his life from 1908 to 1967, during which time he becomes an Emperor, a playboy, a prisoner and finally, a humble gardener. The pageantry in this movie is truly a feast for the eyes. It won nine Academy Awards and was the best picture of 1987. See it!

THOUGHT FOR TODAY: IT'S NOT ALWAYS WHO YOU KNOW... IT'S HOW YOU ARE KNOWN BY THOSE WHO KNOW YOU!

FROM THE DESK OF:

SUPERVISOR
DELLIGATTI

Head injuries account for the number one cause of death and disabling injury for bicycle riders, according to a recent publication of the Long Island Region of The New York State Head Injury Association. Being aware of this fact, and recognizing ways of preventing this type of injury, are especially timely as increasing numbers of fitness minded people are taking up bike riding as an invigorating outdoor exercise.

For cyclists, a good helmet offers a critical safeguard against head injuries. To be effective a helmet should provide as much protection for the head as possible, but not impair the cyclist's hearing, vision, movement or weight distribution.

There are four primary components in a well designed and manufactured cycling helmet: the outer shell and energy-absorbing liner, a layer of soft foam and fabric, and some type of retention system or chinstrap.

Both the American National Standards Institute (ANSI) and the Snell Memorial Foundation have identified several criteria for cycling helmets. To be assured that a helmet meets the high performance standards established by these organizations, a cyclist should look for a Snell and/or ANSI decal on the helmet. An inadequate helmet can give a dangerously false sense of being protected, when in reality it leaves the cyclist as vulnerable to head injury as if no helmet were worn at all.

Like seat belts in automobiles, however, cycling helmets can offer protection only if they are used during all trips, no matter how short the distance being traveled. To paraphrase the United States Cycling Foundation, if you ride a bicycle and value your head, you should invest in a proper helmet and use it.

On a final note of caution to bicyclists, please remember to observe the rules of the road — for your own safety as well as others. Ride with the flow of traffic, obey all traffic control devices, and signal your turns properly. For the sake of the motorists who share the roads with you, try not to veer too far into traffic lanes.

Autumn offers near perfect weather for bicycle riding. While your senses are enjoying the vibrant fall foliage and crisp, clear air, make certain that you are protected — wear a helmet and ride safely.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
Pass	Pass	1♥	Dble
2♥	Dble	3♦ (!)	Dble
Pass	Pass	4♥	4♣

Opening lead — four of diamonds.

Good bidding often finds its reward during the play. Here is an unusual case where East-West cooperated perfectly in both the bidding and play to defeat four spades.

East opened with one heart. South doubled and West bid two hearts, which North doubled. North's double in this sequence was not intended for penalties; he and his partner were playing "responsive doubles" and North was asking his partner to choose a suit.

East thereupon made the key bid of three diamonds. He realized — both from the strong bidding by North-South and from West's two heart bid denoting a relatively weak hand — that his opponents had the balance of power. East therefore bid three diamonds in an effort to pave the way to the best defense.

One round later four spades became the final contract. West led a diamond, the suit his partner had bid, and this proved to be the only way to score four tricks. East ruffed the diamond and, mindful of his partner's raise in hearts, underled his A-K-Q in order to put West back on lead again. West won the heart return with the jack and played a second diamond for East to ruff. It was the third trick for the defense.

East returned the queen of clubs, which did declarer no harm, but South still had to lose a diamond trick. As a result of this inspired defense, four spades went down one. It was a bitter pill for North-South to swallow, and it was made all the more so by the knowledge that five diamonds was cold against any method of defense.

However, what's bad for one side is usually good for the other, and East-West had every right to congratulate themselves on a first-rate performance.

of being in first place and wanting to win the game," was what really the only thing he was thinking of.

What did the Comets really think about this very formidable opponent from Baldwin? Mr. Moeller said that they were very good. He added that the reason why Hicksville won was "because they made a couple of mistakes that we capitalized on." Mike Luongo echoed these thoughts, "We came up lucky, we caught their fullbacks off and we were lucky to capitalize." Left halfback Bob Ladinir said, "They were a solid team, they really didn't have anybody special out there, but when they played as a unit they played a really good game." The Comets also played well as a unit and that is why they are sitting in first place atop the American League A Division.

House Calls

By Edith Lank

Reverse Mortgages Again
Dear Edith: My brother is 76 years old, recently lost his wife, and is trying to make ends meet on one Social Security check. Somewhere I have read about a plan whereby a retired person can somehow reverse-mortgage his home, retain possession and receive a stipulated amount of money each month. Nothing has to be paid back until the house is eventually sold. Where can I obtain information? —Mrs. M.S.

Reverse mortgages are a great idea, but they are not widely available, and may not be used in the area where your brother lives.

However, hope is on the horizon. Both the FHA and the American Association of Retired Persons are considering sponsoring reverse mortgage plans, and we may see progress within a year.

Should She Sell
Dear Edith: I am being transferred out of town. I've just been made an offer on my house of $90,000 to $100,000. The prospective buyer wants to assume my existing mortgage of $57,416, take out a second mortgage of $30,000 (if he can get it) and pay me the balance in monthly installments at an interest rate slightly below current lending institutions.

I've never run in to this kind of a proposal before. Is it a wise move on my part, or am I letting myself in for trouble.

—Ms. D.W.

Trouble.
How is the buyer going to carry three mortgage payments at once? How good is his credit? What other debts does he have? What is his income? And if it's high enough to make those payments, how come he doesn't have cash for a respectable down payment.

Stay away from this one.

Auto Dealership Offers Video on Safety Belts

A videotape featuring top race car drivers demonstrating the value of safety belts is now available for free loan to schools and civic groups from Mitchell Oldsmobile.

A member of the Dealers Safety and Mobility Council of the Highway Users Federation, Mitchell Oldsmobile will loan a 13-minute half-inch videotape cassette titled The Ride of Your Life as a public service throughout the 1988-89 school year.

Narrated on-camera by Roger Penske, who has owned the most winning cars in Indianapolis 500 history, The Ride of Your Life features Indy winners Rick Mears and Danny Sullivan, as well as Lyn St. James, the nation's top woman race car driver who is shown walking away from a fiery crash because she was wearing a safety belt.

These professional drivers show why they buckle up in their personal cars and explode myths about safety belts not working or not being necessary.

In the film, racing team owner Roger Penske says, "A recent survey found that 80 percent of Americans consider themselves better than average drivers. Even with all these good drivers on the roads, someone is injured in a car crash every 10 seconds. And every 10 minutes, someone else is killed. And just because you're a good driver doesn't mean that a bad driver can't hit you."

To borrow the video, call Bob Tutino at 421-3000. Mitchell Oldsmobile, located in Huntington Station, is one of 4,000 dealers who are making The Ride of Your Life available to schools and civic groups across the country in an effort to increase seat belt use by all motorists.

Wicker's Softball Team Places First in Division

Wicker's affable Mike Gallant, of Hicksville, (bottom left), has managed and pitched for various local softball teams. But this season, his 1988 contingent was Wicker's Restaurant, which won their division in the Oyster Bay Night League, but succumbed to Ebbets Field Cafe in the face-off between the two divisions.

This season did not unfold to Gallant's measure of success as the team finished the season with a 21-10 record.

Karl Wendtz, (bottom right), was available only on a part time basis as he played for County Sports. County teams perform up and down the east coast on a regular schedule, and this was a very high honor for Karl. He was a premier athlete at Locust Valley High as well as St. John's University.

Other Wicker's players have high credentials as well. Bill Huber and Tom Hornowsky,

Wicker's John Cucci sponsored the team and suited up when vacations or illness thinned the ranks. Congratulations to all players.

Pioneers Rule Over Merrick Blast 9-0

By Jay M. Schwartz

The Hicksville American Soccer Club's 1977 Pioneers easily defeated the Merrick Blast on last Saturday. They shut out the Blast and showed them how to score goals as the Pioneers won 9-0. Leading 2-0 at the half, the Pioneers scored seven goals as they ran away with the game.

The scoring started by Tommy Coffey's high shot from a short pass by Phillip Caputo. Joseph Florio had sent the ball to him after a run from the right side. Ricky Ladimir scored the next goal after Tommy Coffey passed him a grounder. Greg Latini was in goal and made a few easy saves first half. The forward line was a rotation of six players: Richard Werchenski, Danny Wolchok, and Peter Titone, with subs Phillip Caputo, Ricky Ladimir, and Tommy Coffey.

In the second half Jonathan Schwartz left the midfield and took over as goalkeeper. The backfield was strong this half and the keeper failed to see any action for the entire period. On the other hand, the Merrick keeper made seven saves but allowed seven goals.

Peter Titone scored the third goal on a switchback play as he took off leading the runners downfield after Robert Ilsley popped one over the middle of the field. Joseph Florio passed a nice ball to Joseph Matz, who crossed a shot in front of the box. Peter Titone was there and put in number 4. Goal five came from a popped up pass by Timmy Dalton, which was trapped, shot and scored by Ricky Ladimir.

Joseph Matz popped a pass to Peter Titone and he shot one in the net. Joey Matz then scored one as Ricky Ladimir crossed one in front of the box. The goalie made a play for it but it was just over his head. Robert Ilsley scored one from a corner by Ricky Ladimir as he pushed the ball in. Finally, Robert Ilsley scored again as he was in position for a loose ball and swatted in the last goal of the game.

The players all worked hard. Russell Broussau, David Nelson, and Sean Flanagan were splendid as they supported the team's efforts on the field.

Hoosiers Capture Second Straight Championship

The Hoosiers Basketball Team recently won their second straight championship at the Syosset Sports Arena.

The squad played teams from all over Long Island. The members consist of players from Bethpage, Hicksville and Jericho from the high school graduation years of 1975 through 1983. The team is now trying to win its third championship in a row, which has never been accomplished in the history of the league.

Leading the attack for the Hoosiers was Eric Hartmann and Scotty Gobos with their all-around clutch play. Tom Ryan and Chip Perry were manning the boards, while Joey Fanara, Joe Gobos, Dave and Pat Madigan were providing a well-balanced mixture of scoring and assist work. The team hopes for success in the quest for their third straight title and sends special thanks to Bob Curran for taking the time to coach the team to victory.

Varsity Football Team Defeated by Oceanside

By Jim McCrann

It was simply a case of too little, too late. That's the best way to describe the heart-breaking defeat the Hicksville High varsity football team suffered at the hands of Oceanside on Saturday, October 1. The late game comeback by Hicksville just fell short as quarterback Joe Luparello was stopped just short of the goal line while attempting a two point conversion to tie the score with 18 seconds left in the game. As a result of the loss, the Comet's record dropped to 0 wins and two losses.

Oceanside won the toss and elected to receive. The Comet's defense played strong early in the first quarter stopping Oceanside on their first two drives. After the second drive of Oceanside was impeded the Comet's offense took over at their own 45 yard line. Running back George Filippone picked up a big gain with a 20 yard run. Later on Joe Luparello and split end Rich Hutchinson connected on a 20 yard pass play. Hicksville then called a timeout.

Whatever strategy the coach Ron Quattrini used during that timeout seemed to be effective; right after the timeout George Filippone caught a Joe Luparello pass for a 35 yard touchdown reception to give Hicksville the lead 6-0. The Comet's held on to that lead until late into the second quarter. Oceanside, who had lost a fumble on the Comet's 25 yard line during their last drive, began a new one from their 47 yard line. Oceanside's quarterback Jay Fiedler threw a completion all the way down to the Comet's 23 yard line. He advanced Oceanside to the 10 yard line with a quarterback sneak. On third down with three yards to go, Fiedler ran to the 11 yard line for a first down. He subsequently hooked up with Rich Mastanduno for an 11 yard touchdown pass to tie the score at 6. Oceanside failed to convert a two point play following the touchdown leaving the game tied at halftime.

Hicksville received the kick-off at the start of the second half. The offense could not put anything together and was forced to punt from their own endzone, which gave Oceanside great field position at Hicksville's 33 yard line. Once again Jay Fiedler led the way; he ran the ball down to the 21 yard line. After the offense picked up a few more yards, Fiedler once again found his favorite receiver, Rich Mastanduno, for first and goal at the 8 yard line. Oceanside took over the lead when Mastanduno took a Fiedler pass and ran into the far right corner of the endzone. The same tandem connected on a two point conversion to give Oceanside a 14-6 lead well into the third quarter. From that point on the game was dominated by defense.

In the fourth quarter the Comet's started a drive which ended in a fumble at Oceanside's 46 yard line. Quickly Oceanside moved the ball up field deep into the Comet's territory, but when they failed to get a first down on fourth down with 5 yards to go, Hicksville got the ball back on their own 16 yard line. With time running out, less than 4 minutes to play, the Comet's offense tried vainly to get back on track, but they couldn't. Luparello was sacked once for a loss of 8 yards and a second time at the 3 yard line. They were now forced to punt which resulted in Oceanside taking over possession at the Hicksville 41 yard line with about 2 minutes remaining. The defense came up strong; they were able to sack the quarterback and later stop Oceanside on a fourth down and two situation. This play proved to be a pivotal play. With less than a minute remaining, Joe Luparello spotted a hole in the Oceanside defense; there he saw Chris Hogan wide open up the middle. He threw a perfect pass to Hogan who caught the ball and vigorously ran toward the endzone where he completed a 62 yard touchdown reception.

Though they were down by two, the newly rejuvenated Comet's had hope for an unprecedented comeback. In an attempt to tie this game, the Comet's went for a two point conversion. It was a "do or die" situation, being that there were only 18 seconds left. Joe Luparello received the snap and carried the ball toward the left side of the endzone; there he was stopped just before the goal line. It was so close that people in the stands began to cheer thinking that he had made it in, but it was only wishful thinking. Though he didn't make it in, not all hope was lost. The Comet's attempted an onside kick, but were unable to recover the ball, which is almost impossible to do anyhow. The final score was Oceanside 14, Hicksville 12.

The Comet's had a little trouble accepting this loss. Bill Millis seemed annoyed at the debacle, "We could have beat them, we should have beat them." He also blamed the loss on a lot of wrong formations and misplays. Many of the players also said that they lost because they let up. But no matter what the reasons were for the loss, it certainly was difficult to accept. "Bad," was how Rich Hutchinson described the loss. "Because we could have played a lot better than we did." Even though the players were down about losing, their coach was not totally disappointed with their effort. "The kids didn't give up, I was very proud of them coming from 18 seconds left scoring a touchdown, going for the extra point and still almost getting the onside kick. I'm proud of them, they played a good ball game."

Mr. Quattrini also called Oceanside quarterback Jay Fiedler, "An exceptional quarterback." He also complimented the play of his first year quarterback Joe Luparello who did a fine job filling in for the injured Joe Passo. If there is any consolation for the Comet's it is the fact that they still have time to come together and have a good year.

Soccer Team Wins 3 Consecutive Games

By Jim McCrann

As the season reaches its midpoint, the Hicksville High varsity soccer team continues to impress their fans. By winning their last three games, the team is now undisputedly in first place. They are also one of the most highly touted teams in Nassau County. They have achieved this recognition by winning games that were either very close or complete runaways. No matter what the scores have been in the games, most people agree that the Comet's are a very exciting team to watch.

On Monday, September 26, the Comet's traveled to Plainville; there they won by a score of 3-2. In the game Jack Fabrizio, Jason Kilmetis and Mike Luongo each scored one goal to lead the team to victory. On Thursday, September 29, the Comet's trounced East Meadow by a score of 7-2. Striker Mike Luongo inflicted most of the damage with four goals on route to East Meadow's debacle. One Friday, September 30, Hicksville returned home to play a league game against Baldwin. To say that this game was important would be a great understatement as first place was on the line for Hicksville. The level of intensity at which the players played in this game certainly proved this to be a correct statement.

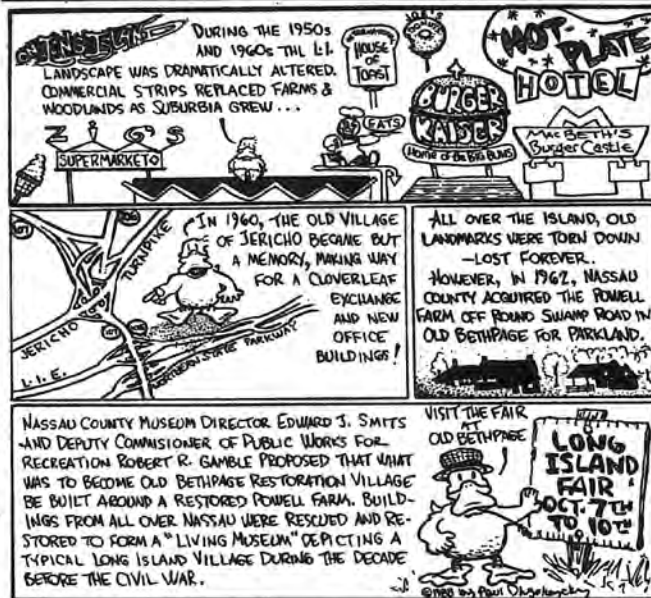

The game was pretty evenly played by both teams throughout the period, but Hicksville came out on top 3-2. The first half began with few opportunities for either team; but when the Comet's left the door open for Baldwin early in the first half, goaltender Kevin Morrisroe emphatically closed it by making a brilliant kick save on a close in shot to preserve the tie. But moments later after Baldwin twice failed to convert on a penalty shot, Hicksville found itself behind by a goal after they failed to clear a corner kick. But the Comet's subsequently put Baldwin back on the defensive and when Jason Kilmetis tipped in a pass by Tim Doyle and scored was tied at one. As the first half came to a close, the Comet's coach Ed Moeller reminded the team that Baldwin was going to keep coming at them; they weren't going to let up. Mr. Moeller's strategy for the second half was to, "Not play the ball down the middle and stay to the outside." He noted that Baldwin's susceptibility was down the wings. The second half began with opportunities by both teams that were not converted. But when Tim Doyle got hold of the ball and took it up field with some beautiful ball handling, there was Mike Luongo awaiting the pass which he promptly deposited into the net for a 2-1 Hicksville lead. Yet the game was still far from over. Later on in the second half, Baldwin launched a fierce attack on the Comet's goal. Kevin Morrisroe stood his ground firmly; He made a dazzling save on a breakaway only to have the rebound go far to his left and eventually right to a Baldwin player who sailed one high into the net to tie the score at two. The last part of the second half was some of the most exciting soccer that can be seen. The Comet's nearly broke the tie when Jack Fabrizio broke in and headed a penalty shot just above the crossbar. But the tie was finally broken late in the second half. Mike Luongo stole the ball deep into Baldwin territory; the defender fouled Luongo much to the dismay of the Baldwin coach. Steve Gourlay took a shot that landed high in the upper left corner of the net just out of the reach of the goaltender and put the Comet's on top by one. Still the game was not over. With less than a minute remaining in regulation time, Baldwin put out a valiant effort to tie the score; they could not come much closer to scoring. Once again, Kevin Morrisroe saved the game. As a Baldwin player broke in along on the goal, Morrisroe tipped the ball wide with a sensational kick save. Seconds later, he made another sprawling save from close in to preserve the lead. One could only imagine what was going through his mind during this very tense period but he said, "Just the fact

What the Politicians are Saying . . .

COUNTY EXECUTIVE THOMAS S. GULOTTA has noted that during the summer of 1988 unemployment in Nassau County reached a record low of 2.5 percent. The number of unemployed residents was virtually half the total of just five years ago, and is another practical demonstration of the strength within the local economy of the County. This places Nassau in the forefront as one of the most desired areas in the entire country in which to live, work and raise a family. Economic experts consider such a low rate as full employment.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHARLES J. O'SHEA (R-C, Baldwin) has announced that the legislation he supported to provide transportation of handicapped children to non-public schools recently became a law. This legislation extends all the rights for transportation services to handicapped children who have been designated as handicapped by the local committee on special education but whose parents choose a non-public school for their own reasons. The intent of this measure is to provide an education to all handicapped children in New York State.

CONGRESSMAN RAYMOND J. MCGRATH (R-Valley Stream) was honored by the Sierra Club for his efforts to pass a new Clean Air Bill. He was presented with a "Clean Air Champion" award. In the seven years since the Clean Air Act technically expired it has been difficult to keep up with the increasing numbers of pollution sources. House members have noted that the key problems are acid rain, ozone depletion and the greenhouse effect, airborne toxics and carbon monoxide pollution. Approximately 50,000 Americans die prematurely each year from inhaling the elements of acid rain. Current clear air laws will help to put a handle on this problem.

SENATOR RALPH J. MARINO (R, Oyster Bay) chairman of the Senate on Committee on Banks has issued a reminder to Nassau County residents that every year millions of dollars from abandoned bank accounts, uncollected stock dividends, forgotten checks, unredeemed bonds and utility security deposits are turned over to the State Comptroller. If you have located an outdated and uncashed check, an old bank book for an account you may not have closed, or if you merely want to have your name checked against the state's records or unclaimed funds, you should call the Unclaimed Funds "Hotline" at 1-800-221-9311. This number is in operation weekdays between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...We were talking the other night to a young engaged couple and they were complaining about the high cost of furnishing their first home and how it was going to be quite empty for some time—and one of the men said, "Well, we furnished our first home with orange crates"... Now you all remember orange crates—although the young people did not... Orange crates were the boxes that oranges did come in to the stores. They were made of a kind of splintery wood slats with solid ends and a solid divider in the middle... They were about thirty inches long and maybe fourteen by fourteen... Because of the middle divider, they had many uses... You could stack them up and you had many cubby holes rather like some of those plastic stackables you buy today... and then you could put them on the side and have two places to put magazines or whatever... and then you could take out one end leaving the other end and the middle divider in place and you had an instant chair—really quite sturdy unless you were too chubby to fit in... The ends of these orange crates were always decorated with very fancy full-color labels from the various orchards and these labels are today a sought-after collectors' item... If you were a kid, the uses of the orange crate were unending—you could put the wheels from some old pair of skates on the bottom and make a wagon... you could use two together for a four-room doll house—oh, the list goes on... They were always available from the fruit store... the fruit man was happy to be rid of them... and they had the best attribute of all—they were free!!!

NAPOLEON'S DREAM

In the early 1800's Emperor Napoleon had a dream of conquest and unification. His idea was to form what today we would call common market. This common market would be strong. France would be its heart and soul. No one or no country could challenge its mastery.

Of course the glory, honor and riches would be France's (read that Napoleon), England, his arch-rival, would be left to molder and die on the vine without the rich and lucrative European markets.

This dream came crashing down as Napoleon stubbed his toes on the Steppes of Russia.

Today the dream of Napoleon comes ever closer to reality. For many years Europe has been slowly and tortuously making European unity a fact. By 1992 the European Economic Community (EEC) will have achieved an almost complete unity. Only the last step will be needed, true political union. That step is the hardest and most difficult because nations do not give up sovereignty easily. Each nation covets its own independence too much.

Yet, what the EEC will have will pose a great potential economic threat to the United States. Why? Because the EEC will have a greater economic base, more land and more people with a greater basic resource base than the United States. It will be a true common market. Common markets create a synergistic effect (the whole is greater than the sum of the parts) that will rival our economic power.

If you think about it, the United States owes much, if not most, of its economic power to the fact that we are one gigantic common market. We have a common body of laws, one money, one government, one set of customs, no tariff barriers between our countries (states), and a common language. People are free to move anywhere. By 1992 the EEC will have most of this. Each country will be a national entity, but there will be no tariffs, probably one money for the settlement of debts, and a free flow of goods, people, brains, talents and money across the national borders. This market will be greater than the United States market. Napoleon's dream will be realized, except that the dominate country in Europe will be Germany.

There are profound implications in all of this. As yet another economic superpower rises on the world stage. At the present time, there are three ECONOMIC superpowers, the United States, Russia and Japan. China is going to emerge and Western Europe will arrive in a big hurry in the 1990's.

This will present enormous opportunities for our companies. It will be easier to penetrate their markets. Our problem is that US companies are not too good at doing business overseas. We never have been because we have not needed foreign markets. Ours is so huge.

These developments will give European companies great opportunity. The growth that will take place in Europe will create even larger, richer companies that will be able to compete on any business battlefield, especially ours.

This new and revitalized competition will not descend upon us like locusts for at least 10 years. We have time to prepare, to learn how to compete. We know from experience what happens when we forget to compete, when we let others take our markets, when we allow another economic area to dominate many of our markets. Japan in the United States is the perfect example. Unless we are careful, many companies may meet their Waterloo. Just hope it is not yours.

Direct Line

By the year 2000 most industrial parks and large companies will probably have day care centers available for the use of employees, or they will provide other benefits to give employees clear options. With more single parents and married women who want a career and family, this is inevitable. From the business point of view, it makes sense. The business operation with first rate day care availability is going to attract the highest quality employee and will find it easier to retain good employees. The morale and productivity of employees will also be much higher with day care options. The employee who knows that his or her child is well cared for is going to feel more comfortable about the work place.

In order to make sure that there are day care choices and that the option is there for middle income families, I have several ideas worth considering.

First, there should be laws for more flexible and tax free benefits. Some members of Congress and certain people within the Internal Revenue Service are actually advocating the taxation of all medical benefits and other fringes provided by the employer. In my opinion, that is counter productive. Let us give the working couple or single parent a greater choice in benefits, and make sure they are tax free.

Current Legislative Proposals to Fix the Notch

In an earlier article, we examined the factors which created the so called Social Security "notch." In this article, we will look at some of the legislative proposals pending in the Congress which would alter this situation.

One of the most comprehensive bills to deal with the notch situation was introduced by Sen. Terry Sanford (D-NC) in October of last year. According to its supporters, this piece of legislation, S. 1830 would restore the original intent of Congress as it would restore "a stable level of benefits equal to those who retired in the early 1970's." This level of benefits would be less than those individuals who retired in the late 1970's and early 1980's (mainly those individuals who were born from 1912 to 1916).

Supporters of S. 1830 contend that it would increase benefits for the average "notch baby" by approximately $600 per year. The actual amount an individual might receive would be determined by his or her date of birth, work history and age at retirement.

The annual cost of S. 1830 is according to its advocates, $5.5 billion annually (this does not include retroactive payments) through the years 1987-91. Rep. Harold Ford (D-TN) has introduced a companion bill to S. 1830, H.R. 3788 in the House of Representatives.

Rep. Edward Roybal (D-CA), the Chairman of the House Select Committee on Aging, has introduced a legislative proposal, H.R. 1917 deals with the notch issue. Roybal's proposal would reduce the compilation of Social Security benefits by 3 percent for each year of birth beginning in 1916 to 1926. In other words, Roybal's bill would compute Social Security benefits under a new transitional formula which would protect beneficiaries from abrupt changes in the level of benefits. The cost of H.R. 1917 over a ten year period would be $86 billion dollars (this does not include retroactive payments).

According to Rep. Roybal, the goal of his legislation is to provide a responsible solution to the notch problem which will "restore faith in the system and provide maximum protection to current and future beneficiaries without undoing the reforms of 1977."

Rep. Hal Daub (R-NEB) has also introduced a bill, H.R. 1721, to fix the notch. According to Daub's proposal, Social Security benefits would be increased by the percentage of the difference between the old and new formula. H.R. 1721 would not pay any retroactive benefits. According to its proponents, the average annual cost of H.R. 1721 would be $2 billion. Sen. John Heinz (R-PA) has introduced a companion measure in the Senate, S. 1917. (Please note that H. 1917 and S. 1917 are not the same piece of legislation.)

New York Senator Alphonse D'Amato's (R) solution to the notch problem is S. 225. This bill would charge the benefits formula by using the old law compilation with limits placed on the years and earnings that could be counted. The average annual cost of S. 225 is according to its supporters $20 billion (not including retroactive payments).

In the next article in our series on the notch, we will examine the progress that notch legislation has made in the 100th Congress.

White House Impressions

By Martin Burns

Earlier this year, I had filled out the appropriate forms and applied for Secret Service clearance to cover the White House. Well, the other day my White House press credentials were approved. The day of my first visit to the White House was a slow news day. This was fine with me, I wanted some time to see the "lay of the land."

It was a short walk down Vermont Avenue and across Lafayette Park to the White House from the metro stop. I explained to the guard at the northern gate of the White House who I was and handed her my press credentials. She closely examined my press credentials, looked closely at me and typed some numbers into a computer terminal. I waited for a few moments. Finally, she handed me back my press credentials and "buzzed" me through.

I had been to the White House as a tourist several times before. This however, was different. I was here as a working journalist to cover activities of the President of the United States, the most powerful man in the world. Walking to the west wing of the White House, I started to think of all the history that had gone on here before me.

I thought of George Washington first surveying the site of where the White House would stand a few years later; of John Quincy Adams walking out of the White House for one of his early morning swims in the Potomac; of Lincoln coming out of the White House after General Robert E. Lee had surrendered, reminding us that we were one nation by telling the crowd that "I have always thought 'Dixie' one of the best tunes I have ever heard," as he instructed the band to play a new tune and I thought of John Kennedy's flag draped coffin being carried out of the White House as "Hail to the Chief" was played as a dirge.

My first impression of the White House press facilities were their size — so many people crowded into such a small space. The briefing room has approximately 50 seats, each with a little golden plaque indicating which news organizations have seats in the first row.

Members of the press have working space in little cubicles in a room adjacent to the main briefing area. There is some more space allocated to the press on the floor below the briefing room, but all in all, there is hardly room to move. Then again, it is an honored precept in Washington that office space in the White House is precious.

I was very much struck by how close to the center of power I was. The White House press room is literally just down the hall from the oval office.

Presidential spokesman Marlin Fitzwater seems to be a jovial individual with a sense of humor. Fitzwater unassumingly walks through the press room with his jacket off to answer reporters' questions. Incidentally, Fitzwater carries attached to his belt the largest "beeper" that I have ever seen.

The only real news to come out of the White House this day was some minor executive appointments and the release of the presidents for an up-coming trip. Nevertheless, it had been an eventful day for me.

In the weeks ahead, I will be bringing you more reports from the White House. As always, I invite your suggestions and comments.

never realizing until later what we were involved in.

The center-fold map of your supplement is especially good! We are using it now to track the course of "Helene"...the longitude/latitude grid is particularly useful.

Once again, our appreciation...and keep up the good quality of your newspaper.

Reading: The Same But Different

What's even tougher than turning back the tide with a teaspoon? Cancelling a book club subscription. In fact, it can't be done. The years may come; the years may go; no matter how firm you are, the book-flood will flow. No entreaties, protestations, tears, threats or even bribes will dam it back. Your final recourse will be to move, preferably to the Far East and even there, just to make sure you'd better alert the post office to mark any packages that arrive to you. "Deceased. Return to Sender."

Having warned about book clubs, I'll now tell you about a book club. Not recommending it, just saying it exists — and before joining, do check your library's supply of large-print books (ours has enough to last me six years).

This book club offers — you guessed it — large-print bestsellers by the likes of L'Amour, le Carre, Cosby, Clancy and Bombeck "mostly priced from $10.95 to $17.95 plus shipping (and, of course, handling — whatever that is — are the pages pre-thumbed!) and after a free book plus 2 more for $3, you can take "as long as you like" to buy four more, after which you may "cancel anytime".

It's the Doubleday Large Print Library, Garden City, NY 11535-2005 (204-4000). Join at Talking Books have been around forever, but did you know that they're not just for the blind but also for those who are learning-disabled due to a physical problem — and for anyone whose long-term physical disability makes it hard to read or hold a book?

Apply for Talking Books at your library or the one below nearest you:

Nassau: Talking Books, 900 Jerusalem Ave., Uniondale, NY 11553 (202-8927)

Suffolk: Talking Books, 627 No. Sunrise Svce. Rd., Bellport, NY 11713 (286-1600)

Manhattan: Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, NY Public Library, 166 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10013 (212) 925-1011.

Once accepted, the library will ask which catalog you need: Talking Book Topics or Braille Book Review, both of which come six times a year. Then they'll send you a special machine which you must use; no other machine will do because Talking Book tapes and records are recorded at slower-than-normal speeds.

Third Congressional District Candidates

By Eileen Brennan

The third congressional district comprises the western half of Smithtown Township, Commack, Huntington, Greenlawn, East Northport, Northport, Huntington Station,

Cold Spring Harbor, Dix Hills, Melville, Eaton's Neck, Lloyd Neck, Huntington Bay, the northern half of Oyster Bay Township, the Township of North Hempstead (except parts of Great Neck, Kings Point and New Cassel.)

Robert Mrazek

Robert Mrazek of Huntington has represented the third congressional district for the past six years. He says that maintaining the superb quality of life on Long Island is one of his first priorities. Specifically, he points to a suit he initiated in the federal courts to prevent garbage dumping in Long Island Sound; to his acquisition of federal funds to improve railway crossings in Nassau County and for the design of a fourth lane on the Long Island Expressway. He also led the fight to get the Port Washington landfill placed on the national superfund list.

Congressman Mrazek is critical of the Congress' lack of leadership in the area of recycling.

On the subject of welfare, the congressman is a supporter of Senator Moynihan's welfare reform bill.

Mr. Mrazek does not believe that Shoreham should be permitted to open, but he believes that a better deal could have been negotiated than the one supported by Governor Cuomo. He praised James Larocca and the Long Island Association for their position on the issue.

On the subject of affordable housing on Long Island, Mr. Mrazek says that he has co-sponsored a bill that would permit young people to create the equivalent of an I.R.A. account to enable them to save tax-free dollars for the purpose of financing a first home.

The congressman concedes that the issue of drug prevention is a complex one. He says that the Coast Guard presently receives $2 billion annually to interdict drugs, and recently approached Congress to ask for $400,000 more. With these funds, they are still only able to interdict three or four percent of the illegal drugs that enter the country. "Therefore, the answer isn't strictly interdiction," He opposes decriminalization of drugs and supports the effort to create more patient facilities on Long Island.

Mr. Mrazek opposes a line item veto for the president because he believes that it would give the executive branch of the government control over the legislative branch. He would rather see constructive discussion between the two branches, leading to compromises.

Mr. Mrazek believes that with the advent of Secretary General Gorbachev in the Soviet Union, we may see some fundamental changes coming about. He would like to see students in our schools learning more languages, specifically Russian and Japanese. If the changes in the Soviet Union are as great as he hopes they may be, the congressman says that we may be able to reduce the $125 billion we spend every year to keep 300,000 troops in Western Europe.

He is proud of his record and believes that he has been able to balance a genuine concern for the people of his district with the world view needed by a member of the House of Representatives.

Robert Previdi

The Republican candidate for the House of Representatives in the third congressional district is Robert Previdi of Manhasset. Mr. Previdi is a vice president and director of marketing communications at Citicorp and director of marketing services for Citibank's consumer services.

Mr. Previdi believes that he is more in tune with the people of the third congressional district than the incumbent, Robert Mrazek of Huntington, who Previdi describes as a "left wing liberal ideologue." The two men are clearly on different sides of most issues.

Mr. Previdi said that while Congressman Mrazek voted against the tax bill of 1982, he would have supported it. He would also like to see the president given a line item veto.

Another issue that divides the candidates is that of aid to the Contras, which Mr. Previdi enthusiastically supports.

Mr. Previdi would favor a constitutional amendment to prohibit abortion except in the cases of rape, incest or danger to the life of the mother.

All these differences stem from different perspectives on American society. Mr. Previdi believes strongly in the capitalist system and is concerned that there is a drift toward socialism in the country, giving the welfare system as an example. Citing his own background as a poor boy growing up in the Bronx, he says: "At what point should government step in to help? No one gave me anything except a good, free education. We've gone on the slippery slope to socialism. Capitalism promotes the ability for people to accomplish what they want to accomplish. Of course, we have to help the truly needy."

Although he does not believe in big government, Mr. Previdi says that drugs are one area in which the government has not done enough. He would support the establishment of more centers to help people who want to get off drugs, but he is also concerned with the reasons they take the drugs. "Why is life not fulfilling?" Mr. Previdi asks. He would encourage more attention to the liberal arts in our educational system. Somehow, he says, "We have switched from wanting to be people to wanting to be mechanics."

On specific local issues, Mr. Previdi opposes the opening of Shoreham because there is no feasible evacuation plan; he believes there is no alternative to incineration of garbage although he would encourage all possible recycling; he thinks building problems must be solved at the local level.

In general, aside from their philosophical differences, Mr. Previdi says that he has always been a creative thinker (he had a career in advertising before he joined the banking industry) and "I think I can bring more logic to problems than Mrazek."

THE NASSAU COUNTY POLICE Department has received a citation from the National Association of Uniform Manufacturers and Distributors (NAUMD) in the 1988 Best Dressed Police Department Competition. The competition was created to acknowledge departments which meet professionally-recognized standards of excellence in their overall uniform program. Entries are evaluated on the basis of image projection, ease of identification, reflection of authority and professionalism, practicality, protection from weather and physical attack, and implementation of policies ensuring appearance standards and regular inspections. Commissioner Samuel Rozzi (L) is shown in his office with committee chairman Richard Bistrong, inspecting a regular uniform worn by Officer Peter Lambert, center; and a mounted unit uniform modelled by Officer Peter Milne, as Det. ### Ankylosing Spondylitis - A Cause Of Low Back Pain

Ankylosing spondylitis, is a type of arthritis which derives its name from the Greek, meaning "crooked vertebra". This disorder, once considered rare and only affecting men, is now known to affect people of all ages and either sex. This type of arthritis has been known for centuries and has been found in mummies of ancient Egypt.

The cause of this arthritis is not known. Recently, scientific evidence has demonstrated a strong genetic link to the development of this disorder. Additionally, a family history of chronic back pain may exist. This arthritis may be related to other forms of arthritis, such as psoriatic arthritis or Reiter's syndrome.

This arthritis, which often occurs in men, is manifested by chronic lower back pain. This pain is usually worse in the morning and improves throughout the day. The arthritis may also travel to several joints. The joints of the lower extremities, such as the knees and feet, are often involved.

This disease affects not only the joints but also other organs of the body. Both the eyes and the valves of the heart may also be involved.

The disorder is often diagnosed and treated by rheumatologists (arthritis specialists). The diagnosis is made on the basis of a careful medical history and physical examination. X-rays of the spine are very helpful in confirming the diagnosis.

The symptoms can be successfully treated with anti-inflammatory arthritis medications. Additionally, specific exercises are often used to help prevent limitation of spinal movement.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach - An Arthritis Overview."

"PROFESSOR" HENRY CHARLES PATRICK CLARK demonstrates the practical art of Phrenology (reading the bumps on heads) on "Dr. William Valentine" who will entertain visitors to the Long Island Fair with his humorous portrayals of colorful 19th Century characters.

The Long Island Fair Returns

The century-and-a-half old Long Island Fair will return for its annual run during the Columbus Day weekend, Oct. 7 through 10, at Old Bethpage Village Restoration. The four day event will feature a spectacular array of farm-related exhibits, music, family entertainment, and events held under large striped tents, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

A new feature this year will be a re-creation of the famous 19th Century humorist, "Dr. William Valentine," who presented his unique brand of comedy on stages throughout the United States. His act portrayed a series of characterizations of the "folies and foibles" of a variety of "queer, quaint, quizzical, quiet, and quarrelsome people," to quote one of his own advertisements. He accomplished these portrayals by altering his voice and facial expressions for each character, and by using wigs, hats, costumes and other props. The original Dr. Valentine died in New York City in 1865. The 1988 re-creation will be portrayed by Forrest D. Sheridan of Wantagh, who will present his characterizations twice a day in the Entertainment Tent.

Other events will include brass band concerts, folksingers, puppet shows, magicians, a stiltwalker, horse and driving demonstrations, pony rides, historic photography demonstrations and a corn husking contest.

The farm-related exhibits, which are judged and awarded prizes, include the finest of Long Island's agricultural produce, horticulture, domestic arts, poultry, livestock, draft horses, and junior exhibits for those age 15 and under.

Numerous shops will feature goodies for sale such as jelly apples, cider and doughnuts, peanuts, pumpkins, apples and gifts. A cafeteria is located in the Village's Reception Center.

The Fair is a joint effort of the Nassau County Department of Recreation and Parks and the Agricultural Society of Queens, Nassau and Suffolk Counties. The admission is $5 for adults and $3 for children (5-17) and senior citizens (60 and over). The fee includes entry to the Fair and to all Village buildings and attractions. There is ample free parking with continuous free bus service to and from the perimeter parking areas.

Old Bethpage Village Restoration is located on Round Swamp Road in Old Bethpage, one mile south of the Long Island Expressway, exit 48. For further information, call (516) 420-5280.

Friends Academy to Hold Fall Fair

Friends Academy will hold its annual country Fall Fair and Homecoming on Saturday, Oct. 15 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. - rain or shine. This year's fair is under the chairmanship of Lisa Jacobs. She is being assisted by co-chairman Sabina Blohm, Jim Gallagher, Marilyn Kravitz, Dalia Monge, Lenore Perry and Nina Ronzoni.

Once again the fair will feature an array of activities and booths. Children can enjoy a day of rides and games as well as the face painting, and other booths. Adults will find bargains at the flea market, the book stall and the toy and sports equipment booth.

A vast selection of food will be available to sample. The fare of the day includes hamburgers and hot dogs, home-baked goods, candy, chicken-k-bobs, apple cider and the Friends Cafe located in the Leonhardt-Cassullo Commons.

Athletic events will be held throughout the day beginning with girls' JV soccer at 9:00 a.m. and boys' Middle School soccer at 10:00 a.m. and culminating with the varsity football game at 1:30 p.m. and the boys' varsity soccer game at 2:30 p.m.

The Alumni Tent will be by the planting fields and all former students are invited to gather and meet with old friends, faculty and students.

SBIR Winners to Be Honored by LIFT

Twenty Long Island firms will be honored for their achievements in securing Small Business Innovative Research Grants (SBIR). The firms, ten from Nassau and ten from Suffolk, will be presented with specially designed plaques on Thursday, Oct. 13, at Long Island Forum for Technology's Bi-County Executive Breakfast Meeting. The breakfast, which will begin at 8 a.m. and end at 9 a.m., will be held at the Down Under Restaurant, located at 235 Broadhollow Road in Melville. The restaurant is in the Corporate Center II building, north of the LIE on the east side of Route 110.

Under the SBIR program, eleven federal agencies with sizable research and development budgets must set aside a portion of their R&D funds exclusively for small businesses. The awards are divided into two categories: Phase I, with grants up to $50,000 and Phase

II, with payments as high as $500,000. According to LIFT President George Soos, the twenty firms being honored are only a partial list of the FY 1988 winners. Mr. Soos said, "Unfortunately, some agencies do not make their awards public until the end of October or later. Any company who is notified of an award will be recognized. However, due to the late reporting dates, some of this year's winners will be carried over until next year."

LIFT Chairman Bud Peyton praised the awardees. "The contributions of these innovative companies have further enhanced Long Island as a center for technology excellence. The agencies whose budgets make these awards possible are gaining the best available brain-power to develop technologies specific to their needs. LIFT commends the SBIR winners and encourages more small businesses to apply for the grants in the future." Speaking at the breakfast will be Senator Owen H. Johnson, 4th senatorial district. Senator Johnson is the Senior Senator from the Long Island delegation and is serving on the Commerce, Economic Development and Small Business Committee.

Those interested in attending the breakfast program should contact LIFT office at 755-4230.

The SBIR winners include: AIS Systems, Inc. of Jericho; Bergwall Educational Software, Inc. of Garden City; Flame Spray Industries, Inc. of Port Washington; Plasma Physics Corp. of Locust Valley; Prospective Computer Analysts of Roslyn; Robocom Systems of Levittown; and SCS Telecom, Inc. of Port Washington.

High School Equivalency Tests At BOCES

The New York State Education Department has again selected the BOCES Nassau Tech Center at Carle Place as an authorized testing site for the High School Equivalency Diploma Testing Program. The Center is located at 234 Glen Cove Road.

The GED (General Educational Development) test will be given monthly during the 1988-89 school year. In each case, it is scheduled for a Friday evening and Saturday morning. (The test is given in two installments—a shorter one on Friday evening and the other the following morning.)

In order to be eligible to take the test, candidates must have lived in New York State for at least one month and must not have graduated from high school. In most cases, they must also be at least 19 years old. There are two exceptions to this latter requirement:

- A 17 or 18 year old may be eligible if he or she has not been enrolled in high school for at least a year or was a member of a high school class that has already graduated.
- A 16, 17 or 18 year old may take the test if enrolled in an approved alternative high school equivalency preparation program.

The New York High School Equivalency Diploma is recognized by civil service commissions, colleges and private employers.

The testing dates for 1988-89 are as follows:

Nov. 4 and 5, Dec. 2 and 3, Jan. 6 and 7, Feb. 3 and 4, March 3 and 4, April 7 and 8, May 5 and 6, and June 2 and 3.

Free high school equivalency preparation courses are also available at Nassau Tech, for those who may not be ready to take the GED test.

Applications and further details about the GED testing may be obtained by calling 747-3665.

Your Legal Rights By BURTON D. POMERANTZ

Q: Is ignorance of a product use by a manufacturer an excuse from liability?

A. In an infant case, the Court held that the contention of the Defendant, who was a manufacturer, that liability could not be imposed because it was unaware how its product would be utilized was denied on the basis that a factual issue as to the reasonable safety of a zipper designed was presented. The Court denied the Motion of the Defendant for Summary Judgment.

Burton D. Pomerantz

The facts here were that Plaintiff, an infant, was severely burned when his clothing ignited by a gasoline fire.

Plaintiff charged that the zipper manufacturer incorporated the zipper into a nylon ski jacket that Plaintiff was wearing when he was injured. When the jacket ignited, the zipper jammed, trapping Plaintiff in his burning clothes.

Plaintiff maintained that the zipper manufacturer knew, or should have known, that the zippers would be used in nylon ski jackets, and when nylon ignites it melts and drips, infiltrating the zipper causing it to become inoperable.

The Plaintiff contended that the manufacturer should have designed and made the zipper in such a way so as to prevent the migration of nylon polymers into the zipper.

In support of its Motion for Summary Judgment the Defendant submitted a document affirming that it would be impossible to design a zipper to avoid the migration to the zipper without destroying the utility of the zipper as a fastener. The Defendant also contended that it was unaware of the garments in which the zippers ultimately would be incorporated.

In denying the Motion for Summary Judgment the Court said that it will be for the jury to decide whether the product was not reasonably safe in light of all the evidence presented by both the Plaintiff and the Defendant.

Hearing to Discuss Needs of Elderly

On Oct. 12, a Public Hearing will be held at the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs and its Advisory Council Commissioner Adelaide Attard has announced.

Scheduled to be held in the Department's auditorium at 222 Willis Avenue, Mineola from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., the hearing will provide an opportunity for public comments and recommendations on the Department of Senior Citizen Affairs' Annual Implementation Plan for the Older Americans Act and the New York State Community Services for the Elderly Act for Nassau County.

The Department of Senior Citizen Affairs with federal, state, and local funds contracts with non-profit agencies to operate approximately 50 programs to address the current and projected needs of Nassau County's elderly. Areas of concern planned for expansion include Home Delivered Meals, In-Home Services, In-Home Respite Service, Case Management, Adult Day Care, and others. The emphasis is on meeting the needs of a fast growing segment of Nassau's population—the frail elderly. A major goal is to serve those seniors who need supportive services in order to continue to live at home.

An abstract which outlines and highlights the proposed major actions of the Plan is available upon request to the Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs, 222 Willis Avenue, Mineola, New York 11501. Those wishing to testify may write to the Department or call 535-5902.

Luncheon to Honor Youth Board

Members, and friends of the Coalition are invited to come to honor the Nassau County Youth Board, and hear the key note speaker Ellen Levin, the Mother of Jennifer Levin, crime victim.

For more information call Audrey Randall Whiting at 542-3151.

Volunteers Needed

There are still a few openings for volunteers interested in working with the Great Neck-Manhasset Parent Child Home Program. The program is administered by BOCES for Great Neck and Manhasset school districts.

The goal of the program is to prevent educational disadvantage by supporting the parent in his or her role as the child's first teacher. Volunteers receive professional training in a three day workshop and continue to get support in weekly seminars throughout the school year. After training, the home visitor visits the homes of assigned families working with a parent and pre-schooler one or two half hours a week. Through the use of carefully selected toys and books, she models techniques that help the parent to talk to, read to, and play with his or her child at an age when language and learning explosions occur.

For further information call Doris Kertzer, Program Coordinator at 773-1709 or 1710.

KITCHEN, BATH & HOME INTERIOR IDEAS

HOW EFFICIENT IS YOUR KITCHEN?

Brought to you by Don Boico, CKD, CR

Its everyday use for meal preparation, dining, socializing, working and other activities make it one of the most important rooms in your home.

But perhaps your kitchen hasn't been designed to its full potential. And, if it hasn't been, you are not getting as much out of your kitchen as you should.

Classic Kitchen and Bath Center suggests the following checklist for good kitchen design:

- Counter space adjacent to range, oven, sink, dishwasher;
- Uninterrupted expanse of counter;
- Dishwasher close to sink;
- Dishwasher far enough away from adjacent counters, other appliances and cabinets to allow for loading and unloading;
- Plenty of leg room beneath dining areas in counters, peninsulas, bars;
- Computer and desk tops 30 inches from floor;
- Accessible storage;
- Good overall lighting and task lights at sink, range and work areas;
- Adequate ventilation;
- Microwave oven counter-level to eye-level, with adjacent countertop work area;
- Aisles wide enough for two people to pass;
- No household traffic through work triangle (the three points created by the range, refrigerator and sink);
- Islands that do not interfere with work triangle.

These points should be considered carefully if you are thinking about or are in the process of remodeling your kitchen, or building a new one from scratch.

I also suggest you enlist the help of professionals such as Certified Kitchen Designers (CKDs) whose qualifications and expertise can make the process go quickly and smoothly, allowing you to reap spectacular results.

If you would like further information, please come into our showroom and visit with our CKD.

Support Program Celebrates 10 Years

North Shore Child & Family Guidance Center's Roslyn Heights facility "Whispered Wishes" has been host to one of Long Island's most respected and most popular support groups for single parents for a number of years. This year, SPAN (Single Parent Action Network) looks back to humbler beginnings 10 years ago, and traces the changing social structure which has accounted for its growth in numbers, and its success over the years.

SPAN was established in 1979 in response to a perception that the rapidly growing number of single parents would generate a need for such a program—a support group—professionally directed, but conducted in an informal setting. Says one regular attendee "It is accessible, affordable, and very useful for single parents."

"SPAN started in a small room in a church in Great Neck with 10-15 people. Today we have about 250 members. On any given Wednesday evening, (when the group meets) we have between 60 and 100 people," says Lita Rudy, ACSW, a professional social worker who conducts the sessions.

Single parents are helped through a difficult, albeit temporary, period in their lives in a painless, even enjoyable, and often educational manner at SPAN meetings. "SPAN is unique," Lita claims, because a serious attempt is made to combine both a social, and an educational and counseling focus. "We try to keep our educational component on a fairly high level in terms of speakers and topics we address. We may have a mental health professional deliver a short lecture on child development, and follow that with a session of questions and answers and discussion, or we may focus on the unique complexities in the lives of parenting singles." Single parents face such a lot of responsibilities, alone and suddenly, that they can easily become overwhelmed. At times, SPAN sessions consider the practical, mundane problems that can loom so large when faced alone.

It is important to the leaders of SPAN that the program not become a dating club, but function to provide an environment in which single parents can share experiences and build new social networks of adults facing similar life situations. It has happened more than once, however, that regular SPAN attendees have planned trips and outings together, outside the boundaries of the SPAN meetings.

SPAN offers a number of services in addition to the open community meetings: consultation services; information, referral and crisis counseling; a planning council (a partnership between the professional staff and an active group of singles); a monthly newsletter; a library; and parent/child planned activities.

To find out more about SPAN call: 626-2716.

Red Cross Designs First Aid Kit

When someone you love is hurt, you want to help fast.

That's why a new Red Cross First Aid Kit has been designed around a simple 1-2-3 approach which tells you step-by-step what to do for severe bleeding and burns, for medium wounds and for small cuts and scrapes.

Included in the kit are a lightweight, water-proof rescue blanket which retains the body's heat when treating for shock, a triangular bandage for head wounds and blunt tipped scissors strong enough to cut through clothing yet safe enough to have around children.

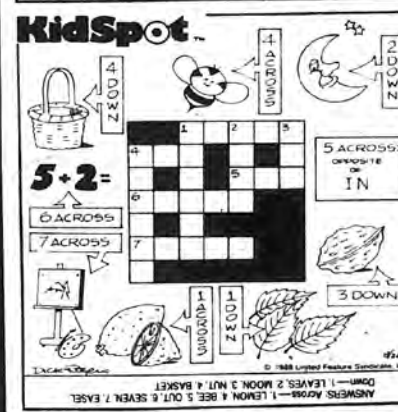

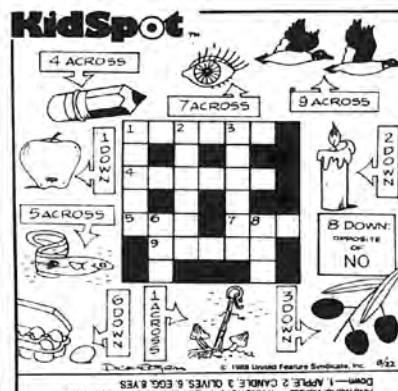

Everything comes in a 10" by 12" pillow that fits right under the front seat. It's handy when you need it.

Call the Nassau County Chapter of the American Red Cross and find out how you can get your first aid kit, for $24.95. Call 747-3500 or write to the Nassau County Chapter, 264 Old Country Road, Mineola, N.Y. 11501.

Auto Dealership Offers Video on Safety Belts

A videotape featuring top race car drivers demonstrating the value of safety belts is now available for free loan to schools and civic groups from Mitchell Oldsmobile.

A member of the Dealers Safety and Mobility Council of the Highway Users Federation, Mitchell Oldsmobile will loan a 13-minute half-inch videotape cassette titled The Ride of Your Life as a public service throughout the 1988-89 school year.

Narrated on-camera by Roger Penske, who has owned the most winning cars in Indianapolis 500 history, The Ride of Your Life features Indy winners Rick Mears and Danny Sullivan, as well as Lyn St. James, the nation's top woman race car driver who is shown walking away from a fiery crash because she was wearing a safety belt.

These professional drivers show why they buckle up in their personal cars and explode myths about safety belts not working or not being necessary.

In the film, racing team owner Roger Penske says, "A recent survey found that 80 percent of Americans consider themselves better than average drivers. Even with all these good drivers on the roads, someone is injured in a car crash every 10 seconds. And every 10 minutes, someone else is killed. And just because you're a good driver doesn't mean that a bad driver can't hit you."

To borrow the video, call Bob Tutino at 421-3000. Mitchell Oldsmobile, located in Huntington Station, is one of 4,000 dealers who are making The Ride of Your Life available to schools and civic groups across the country in an effort to increase seat belt use by all motorists.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
Pass	Pass	1 ♥	Dble
2 ♥	Dble	3 ♦ (1)	Dble
Pass	Pass	4 ♦	4 ♦

Opening lead — four of diamonds.

Good bidding often finds its reward during the play. Here is an unusual case where East-West cooperated perfectly in both the bidding and play to defeat four spades.

East opened with one heart. South doubled and West bid two hearts, which North doubled. North's double in this sequence was not intended for penalties; he and his partner were playing "responsive doubles" and North was asking his partner to choose a suit.

East thereupon made the key bid of three diamonds. He realized — both from the strong bidding by North-South and from West's two heart bid denoting a relatively weak hand — that his opponents had the balance of power. East therefore bid three diamonds in an effort to pave the way to the best defense.

One round later four spades became the final contract. West led a diamond, the suit his partner had bid, and this proved to be the only way to score four tricks. East ruffed the diamond and, mindful of his partner's raise in hearts, underled his A-K-Q in order to put West back on lead again. West won the heart return with the jack and played a second diamond for East to ruff. It was the third trick for the defense.

East returned the queen of clubs, which did declarer no harm, but South still had to lose a diamond trick. As a result of this inspired defense, four spades went down one. It was a bitter pill for North-South to swallow, and it was made all the more so by the knowledge that five diamonds was cold against any method of defense.

However, what's bad for one side is usually good for the other, and East-West had every right to congratulate themselves on a first-rate performance.

NASSAU COUNTYWIDE SPORTS

Nassau Sports Review

By Jack White

The first New York State rankings have been issued by the New York State Sports-writers Association. While they may not always be accurate, the polls certainly help build interest in high school sports and they are particularly interesting when state playoffs are held.

Here is a look at how writers and coaches around the state see the top teams early in this 1988 season:

BOYS SOCCER

Class 'A'

1. Shenendehowa..... 2
2. Vestal..... 4
3. Brentwood..... 11
4. St. John the Baptist..... 11
5. Newburgh Free..... 9
6. Farmingdale..... 8
7. Arlington..... 1
8. Greece Athena..... 5
9. Guilderland..... 2
10. Liverpool..... 3

Class 'B'

1. Pittsfield-Mendon..... 5
2. Island Trees..... 8
3. Queensbury..... 2
4. Lewiston-Porter..... 6
5. Greece Arcadia..... 5
6. Christian Bros..... 6
7. South Side..... 8
8. Gloversville..... 2
9. Jamesville-DeWitt..... 3
10. Clarke..... 8

The view here is that the Nassau teams are not ranked well. There is no way that Farmingdale should be ranked ahead of Hicksville (No. 14) or Syosset (No. 17). South Side is clearly the top Nassau 'B' team. Upstate observers apparently don't know that Nassau's best teams are in the same division (American League 'A') by design. Farmingdale and Island Trees are not playing the same tough schedule as the squads previously mentioned.

GIRLS SOCCER

Class 'A'

1. Walt Whitman..... 11
2. Union-Endicott..... 4
3. Northport..... 11
4. St. Anthony's..... 11
5. Sachem..... 11
6. Vestal..... 4

7. Shenendehowa..... 2

Class 'B'

5. Marcellus..... 3
6. Islip..... 11
7. New Hyde Park..... 8
8. Scotia..... 2
9. Chenango Forks..... 4
10. Beekmantown..... 7

Since this poll was issued Baldwin beat Massapequa by a goal. Also note that Cold Spring Harbor is ranked number one among Class C-D schools.
