1989 Town Budget Sees Moderate Hikes

The 1989 preliminary budget for Town of Oyster Bay is expected to hold the general town tax rate at 87 cents per $100 of assessed valuation for the seventh consecutive year and also amount to a savings for residents in the town's solid waste disposal district. wouldowever, residents who live in unincor a portion to the link to increase in animal the surance premiums for employees. The proposed general town budget, which includes salaries and departmental budgets, totals 144,3 million, a 4,2 million increase firm the 1988 budget. The tax rate in this category for Class I homeowners is 87 cents per $100 and 81 cents for Class II.

One of the larger increases this year comes under the highway expenditures. Up slight-ly less than 13 million from 1988, Delligatti said the 117.8 million expenditure does not reflect a true increase in spending, but rather results from having less money in reserve. "Although we budgeted 9 million (in surplus) for this year, we've spent more than that," Delligatti said during an informal session following the town board meeting, "Last year, Joe (Colby, former supervisor) kept more in reserve because of the volatility of the shipping contract." Deligatti said a 20.4 cents savings in the tax rate for the solid waste disposal district was a result of a "conscientious recycling program, the expansion of the town's compositing pro-gram, increased resident participation in the program to dispose of hazardous household chemicals and the rebidding of the garbage transfer and hauling contracts." The savings does not affect homeowners outside of the solid waste disposal district.

The part-town tax, which includes plann ing, building and zoning within the town, ac-counts for $4.007 million of the budget package. Class I property owners will pay an additional eight cents per $100 for the

"I think what we probably will do is give a percentage raise to ungraded employees," Delligatti said, but acknowledged that the percentage allocated might fall short of union demands. "Each department would have to have the money available within its own (continued on page 2)

Local Travel Agency Denied Zone Change

A Hicksville travel agency's request for a change of zonewas denied by the town board last week.

last week. KPT Enterprises, Ltd. was seeking a change of zone from "E" residence district to "R-O" residence-office district for the purpose of operating a travel agency, according to town Councilman Tom Clark. The property, fron-ting on Woodbury Road and East Street, is also known as zoi Woodbury Road. In denying the application, the Board noted that a pattern of office use had not been established in the area and that a travel property and the service of the service o agency was not a permitted use in this zone. The Board also said an "R-O" would not be compatible with the surrounding residences and would unnecessarily interfere with the health, welfare, and quiet enjoyment of life. Another objection was that an "R-O" would not be in conformance and spirit with the aesthetic objectives, purposes and intent of the comprehensive zoning plan of the Town.

Clark noted that a public hearing on the matter was held on April 19, 1988 at which a number of local residents voiced their objections to the application. A petition with some So signatures was also presented in opposition to the proposal.

When contacted by telephone, Janet Fabrizi, owner of KPT, declined to comment.

Motor Vehicle Office to be Built on S. Broadway

Relief is in sight for those who think the wait in motor vehicle lines is a great inconvenience.

The Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) broke ground last Thursday for a new office on South Broadway, to replace the smaller and less accommodating office in the Broad-way Mall.

As DMV Commissioner Patricia-Adduci placed the first shovel into the ground, she said that the new office "will mark another step in our efforts to provide more conve-nient and efficient service to the people of Long Island." The new Hicksville office will be much larger than the current facility. More than 40 employees will take care of motor vehicle related processes, up to 250,000 transactions a year as compared to the Broadway Mall an-nex which handles only 100,000 currently. Commissioner Adduci listed other actions DMV has taken in the last five years for Long

Islanders: · Opened new offices in Huntington and Hempstead, and modernized offices in Riverhead, Amityville and Medford; • Increased full and part time staffing in all Long Island offices, and increased the number of computer terminals by 20 percent; • Provided evening hours at DMV offices in Hempstead, Medford and Amityville for convenience;

 Established and expanded a centralized telephone information system now serving the entire New York metropolitan area, in cluding Long Island.

DMV's future plans for Long Island include relocating its office at 1500 Privado Road in Westbury to an undetermined site in western Nassau County. This will complete the Department's plan for placing offices in eastern, western and central Nassau Coun-ty to provide "convenient service to the widest population," according to Commis-sioner Adducci. The office will begin operations in mid

Clara & Bill Bennett, Community Activists, Are Also Honored

For 16 years, the Hickaville Community Council has applauded several individuals and groups who have strived for the better-ment of the community. Last week, the coun-cil gave its community service award to what the council calls "the additional eyes and cars of the police department." The Nassiau Coun-ty Auxiliary Police, Hicksville Linit 312, which helps the Second and Eighth Precincts main-tain safety in the area was recompiled for its tain safety in the area was recognized for its many hours of volunteer service.

many nours of volunteer service. "I sleep better at night knowing the aux-iliary police is right there watching over us." said past council president Tony Previce, as he presented Thomas Schneider, chief of the auxiliary, the award. The auxiliary has provided 37 years of ser-vice to the community.

Also honored were community activists Clara and Bill Bennett, Mr. Bennett, a long-time member of the Hicksville Board of Education, and Mrs. Bennett, a trustee and president of the Hicksville Public Library for president of the Incasence to the Presi-dent's Award. After receiving the award. Mrs. Bennett said, "We love this community, we care about this community and we keep try-care about this community and we keep try-ing to help this community as best we can." The council members agree that the Ben-nett, have "given their strength and talents unstintingly to Hicksville's betterment." Another highlight of the dinner, which was at Antun's catering hall, was the installation of the president of the council. Joseph De Pompa, newly installed president, said. "We have been blessed with a string of presidents who have made things happen, and that who have made things happen, and that legacy will be my challenge in the next year." Council officers and the board of directors were also installed. The first vice president is Edwin Draycott, second vice president is Richard Evers, third vice president is Thomas Clark, secretary is Katherine Del Rosso and treasurer is Eleanor Draycott. The board of directors are John Budnick, Mary Ann Ferrado, Norma Goerke, William MacDonald, Richard Murdocco, Carole Wdlf. Sheila Noeth, Gertrude Paul, Anthony Previte, Catherine Tokar and Siegfried Widder.

A 1300,000 recycling grant, which the town board approved the application for at the Tuesday meeting, might help to offset some of the town's spending in the solid waste category. If received, Delligatti said the money probably would go toward reimbur

Public hearings on the 1989 preliminary budget will be held on October 25 at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. in the hearing room of Town Hall East in Oyster Bay.

Copies of the budget will be available for viewing at all local libraries and at the Town Clerk's offices in Ovster Bay and Massapequa approximately 7-10 days prior to the hearing. Individual books may be purchased for $5 at the Town Clerk's office.

Commissioner Breaks Ground for LIE Service Roads

State Transportation Commissioner Franklin E. White broke ground last week for a 335.4 million project to construct service toads along the Long Island Expressway from Exit 41 to Exit 43 in the Town of Oyster Bay

"This project is typical of the kinds of im-provements to the Long Island Expressway and other highways on Long Island and throughout the state that will continue under throughout the state that will continue under the 1988 Rebuild New York Transportation Bond Act-if it is approved by the voters on November 8." Commissioner White said. The Commissioner noted that the new roads will be built close to the Expressway to minimize the effect on the Village Drive and Marlene Drive communities and that a noise wall will be constructed for the benefit of those living close to the service roads. The asphalt service roads will be 38 feet wide and five bridge structures will be built as part of the project.

Commissioner White said, "The problems of traffic congestion on the LIE and elsewhere have long been a concern to all of us on and off Long Island, Now, if Proposition One is approved on Election Day, we'll be able to help far more than we have been able to before.

Commissioner White was joined at the ceremony by other State and local officials. He said that the Memorandum of Understanding on major projects to be funded by the 1988 Bond Act included the follow-ing highlights for Nassau and Suffolk Counties, which will receive 1600 million or 23 per cent of the 13 billion: A fourth lane and other major im-provements to the LIE;

· Reconstruction and widening of the Jericho Turnpike (Route 25) from four to six anes from NY 106/107 to the Seaford Oyster Bay Expressway; • Reconstruction and widening of the Northem State Parkway from the Meadowbrook State Parkway to the Wantagh State Parkway; and.

· Completion of the reconstruction and widening of NY 25 (Middle County Road) from Nicolls Road to North Ocean Avenue in the Town of Brookhaven.

"The 13 billion Transportation Bond Act is at the core of a four-year, 16 billion effort to improve safety on our highways and bridges," he said. "We must all make an effort to understand what the needs are and how the Rebuild New York '88 Bond Act can help meet those needs

Approval of the Rebuild New York '88 Bond Commissioner White said, will permit building on the success of the 1983 Rebuilding New York Initiative. The 1988 Rebuild New York Transportation Bond Act appears on the November 8th ballot as Proposition 1. With voter approval, the 13 billion Rebuild New York '88 Bond Act will be invested as

• $1.912 billion for state highway and bridge • 1831 million to increase state highway traffic capacity to relieve congestion; and $257 million to repair local bridges.

Fire Dept./McDonald's Help Launch Fire Prevention Week

The Hicksville Fire Department and McDonald's Restaurant helped launch Fire Prevention Week for Nassau County, Sunday. Fire Prevention Week is observed Oct. 9-15. A fire prevention expo, which was coor-dinated by Assistant Chief Anthony Wigdzin-ski and Captain Karl Schweitzer, was held in the parking lot of McDonald's on Broadway.

This eventful day started at fire head-quarters with the fire department hosting their annual Fire Prevention Poster Contest with winners receiving a smoke detector (donated by Sears and Roebuck), a tee shirt, certificate and trophies given out for places first through third. Attending the awards ceremonies were Town Of Oyster Bay Coun-cilman Tom Clark, Chief Gerard O'Brien with his assistants Tony Wigdzinski, Patrick Scanlon and Al Merk. Before the awards were given out, a brief discussion was held on fire safety by none other that ex-chief and Nassau County Assistant Fire Marshal John Specht. A special thanks goes to Lt. Bill Kelly and Mike "Sparky" Kretz for their help in making this contest a success.

The Hicksville firefighters then moved the festivities over to McDonald's for a fire prevention display.

The display consisted of Engine Co. #5, Lad-der Co. #1, Heavy Rescue Co. #8 and Rescue #0. The fire department displayed many tools

One of the highlights to the days events was the Nassau County Fire Education Trailer with audience participation and a special tour guide Ronald McDonald.

The Hicksville Fire Department and. McDonald's received proclamations from the Town of Oyster Bay, Town of Hempstead and Nassau County for their caring efforts in spreading the word on fire safety during Fire evention Month. Chief O'Brien would like to thank all the contestants in the poster con-test as well as all those who showed up at McDonald's. Chief O'Brien has expressed the need for fire prevention. He said that fire prevention begins in the home and is per-formed 365 days a year. Extra special thanks to the following people: Assistant Tony Wigdzinski, captain Karl Schweitzer, fire-fighter Mike Kretz, Lt. Bill Kelly, Ladies Aux-liary Sue Wigdzinski, Edie Nolan, McDonald's representatives Jose Medina, John McChael, Commercial Chaeddin John McCook, the mangers of McDonald:s, Sears, Nassau County VEEB, and the officers and members of the Hicksville Fire Department.

Appointment With Death-PG

This is a little story about murder commit ted in the name of greed. It takes place mostly in the Middle East, a place of mystery and intrigue that's just perfect for an Agatha Christie story, Mrs. Boynton, (Lauren Bacall) a wealthy and obnoxious woman, has illegally taken her stepchildren's inheritance by destroying her dead husband's will. The children, her lawyer, and everyone who has been in contact with Mrs. Boynton are suspected by private eye Hercule Poirot (Peter Ustinov—who else?) when the lady is murdered. Naturally Poirot has no problem solving still another murder. I wouldn't say that this was the most exciting mystery I've ever seen, but it's fine if you're a big Agatha Christie fan

Broadcast News-R

You know all those gorgeous looking guys who anchor the TV news broadcasts in this country? Well this is a movie about one of the most adorable anchors to hit the screen. But this man (William Hurt) is not satisfied with just looking good and reading the news. He'd like to prove he has something between his ears besides those beautiful blue eyes. He wants to become a real journalist, but he soon realizes that his talent is in reading the news, not in writing it. He then leaves the detail work to his vibrant producer. Jane (Holly Hunter), and the writing to the network's brilliant reporter, Aaron (Albert Brooks). These three become an intriguing love triangle. Well done and well acted.

Sjogren's Syndrome - Its Relationship To Arthritis

Sjogren's (pronounced show-grins) is an inflammatory disorder of the glands and can be associated with many types of arthritis. Often, the problem causes dry eyes and a dry mouth. This abnormality can produce a feeling of grittiness in the eye, or a feeling of constant thirst.

The cause of Sjogren's is not known. Certain evidence suggests a defect involving the body's immune system. Once this inflammation occurs, the production of tears or saliva is impaired. With the continual lack of these lubricating fluids, the eyes and the mouth become very dry. Many patients with Siggren's experience such pronounced thirst that they carry a glass of water with them. These patients are prone to develop recurrent eye infections or dental cavities.

Often, people with this disorder come to the attention of the rheumatologist (arthritis specialist) because they have an associated arthritic condition. Types of arthritis associated with Sjogren's include rheumatoid arthritis, lupus, mixed connective tissue disease, and sarcoidosis. Although many people with Sjogreo's may never develop arthritis, the occurrence of Sjogren's may be a very early sign of arthritis.

The diagnosis of this disorder is usually made on the basis of a medical history and a complete physical examination. This is done to make certain that an associated arthritis is not present. A simple tear secretion test, called a Shirmer's Tear test, can often confirm the diagnosis.

Treatment of the arthritis associated with Sjogren's is a specialty of the rheumatologist. If the symptoms are mild, little treatment may be needed. For more severe problems, medications are available and are helpful.

IF GETTING A LOT OF CHECKING SERVICES INSTEAD OF A LOT OF CHECKING CHARGES SOUNDS GOOD TO YOU ...

CHECK WITH CHASE.

Most banks that offer a lot of services with their checking accounts also offer something else—a lot of individual fees. But at Chase, you don't have to pay for individual uces. And that makes things very easy.

Chase's Unlimited Checking Services. Instead of charging you 25¢ for this and 50¢ for that, Chase checking gives you unlimited check writing, standard personalized checks, stop payments and certified checks. All for a single $10 monthly fee. If you maintain at least a $2,000 average monthly checking balance, there will be no monthly fee.

V Unlimited ATM Usage. Included with every Chase checking account, you get unlimited usage of Chase 24-Hour Bank, NYCE, and Plus System* locations.

And unlimited checking services is only the beginning of the advantages you get with your Chase checking account.

Chase Cash Reserve. This line of credit, attached to your Chase checking account, helps prevent you from bouncing checks. But, unlike other banks' overdraft protection, Chase Cash Reserve automatically gets puid back each time you make a checking deposit, which can save you money by reducing your interest payments.

Chase Cash Back. Now you can withdraw funds instantly—up to $100—when you deposit a check at an ATM! And, unlike other banks, Chase doesn't require you to have momey in other accounts to cover the amount you wish to withdraw.

CHECK WITH CHASE FREE FOR SIX MONTHS.

Check us out—free of charge for six months. Just come into any Chase branch before December 16, 1988. And begin to experience the advantages you'll get only at Chase. While you're there, check out our great CD rates, too.)

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possi-ble, we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity.

We receive many the letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only. We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

The 1938 Hurricane Revisited

-By Someone Who Experienced It-

After reading about the havoc caused by the 1038 Hurricane in a recent issue of the Illustrated, 1 would like to share my experience of that day:

Industrated, I would like to share my experience of that day: My girlfriend and I were returning home from Atlantic City—we had spent a week's vacation there, in the days of the Diving Horse. We were on a Greyhound bus, headed back to New York City—the terminal on 8th Avenue, between 3ard and 34th Streets. It was a dull, overcast, slightly drizzling day as we boarded the bus. As we traveled along, the weather worsened and the day darkened. We had seats behind the driver. We wanted to see where we were going. Remember, in those days there wasn't any radio in the bus or other kind of communication ..., so who knew about a hurricane? The rain not only came down steadily but in time it was coming down in cherts of who knew about a hurricane? The rain not only came down steadily but in time it was coming down in sheets of water and wind and the wipers couldn't keep up with it. My friend and I started to sing all the popular songs—we were Bing Crosby fans. People sitting in the back of the bus seemed to be asleep. Anyway, we were progressing steadily, but slowly, because the driver couldn't see the road ahead. After a while we became silent—just watching where we were going. We saw a light up ahead and the driver was using it as a sort of guide. Suddenly the weather lifted for a few minutes. We gasped —instead there was a ravine and that's where we were headed. We both started road—instead there was a ravine and that's where we were headed. We both started to come and the driversid. "Cirk please keep on singing, you will below to keep alert

Toda — instead there was a favine and that's where we were wated. We have a farth and the driver said. "Gris, please keep on singing, you will help me to keep alert and awake, we still have a long way to go." We sang the 'Oldies, and the Golden Oldies. When we pulled into the Greyhound terminal, we sure were glad to get off. The driver spoke to us, to thank us for helping hm. We shook hands and headed for home.

To The Editor:

When the citizens in our community fail to act with unity of purpose, the result is a general weakening of our collective power for self-determination. This was made completely evident recently, when New York State proposed conversion of the property at a population of the property of the property of the property of the procession and the procession of the procession o tions, this group set about finding sites in other areas of Hicksville to propose to the state as alternative locations for the facility. We think that the only purpose of this action was to defer the matter to another neighborhood. Does Hicksville need such a facility at all?

And, if it does, what is the best location for it in terms of the needs of the entire community and the mental patients? To arrive at meaningful answers to these questions, input from all concerned citizens must be obtained. To act without having first considered this kind of information is both irresponsible and short sighted. It is irresponsible because it does not resolve the real questions and merely shifts the burden of doing so to others in the community. It is short sighted because lack of unity diminishes our collective powe to influence the conditions under which all of us must live.

Fortunately, the state has not yet made a final disposition regarding the facility's loca-tion. There is still time, albeit much less than before, to consider the matter and make responsible proposals on behalf of the town as a whole. We should be thankful for this and utilize the time wisely. We should also note carefully what has transpired and resolve not to act in this way again.

organizations and residents. Last week, the Council honored the Auxiliary Police, Hicksville Unit 312, and community activists Bill and Clara Bennett. While this organization and this husband and wife team deserve recognition, the Hicksville Community Council also deserves a round of applause. The president and board of directors of the Council were united 18 years ago for one purpose-the betterment of Hicksville. On the first Thursday of every month, members and guests meet to discuss and try to solve problems in the community. They have a forum where residents can state their problems and the Council can try to direct them. 'We are not here to take a stand but to help people to take their own stands," said the Council's founder, Sheila Noeth. The Council also tries to have a town official at each meeting who may know answers to some of the problems residents pose. "If they can't solve the problem, the town official will take their number and try to get back to them," said Mrs. Noeth. "Our object is to help and improve Hicksville as much as we can."

The Hicksville Community Council truly is "the eyes, the ears and the voice of Hicksville" and should be commended for its dedication to the community. Thank You, Fire Department

A special thanks to Hicksville Fire Chief, Jerry O'Brien and his staff for the wonderful job they did Sunday at the start of fire prevention week. Our fire department should be commended for the excellent job they do watching over us as well as the many additional tasks they handle, such as their effort to educate us about fire safety.

Our Town, Hicksville USA-

Want to know what our town is all about? What our beginnings were? Both newcomers and those who have been around awhile will be interested in visiting the Local History Room at the Hicksville Public Library. It is full of Hicksville memorabilia; old pictures. newspapers, posters (some old campaign ones), booklets, and organizations and school programs. Local historian, Richard Evers is here from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays to answer your questions and help you find what you are interested in.

Few towns can boast about a four-volume history of their own. Hicksville can. Volume is just off the press. 304 pages devoted to the area's history from 1648 through 1960. The book is available for loan at the library. You

We all owe a thank you to Richard and Anne Evers for giving their time and effort and sustaining enough interests to put in print 'Our History"

Yours, Lulubelle

A Letter from Lulubelle ...

...Engagement rings are probably the most exciting jewelry ever...Do you remember exactly where you were when you received yours?...Were you surprised?-or had you decided together and gone to the jewelers to choose?...and how special was the feeling when you first wore it and how sure you were that everyone was looking at your left hand...and just to be sure, how often you patted your hair or your cheek so that no one could miss your sparkler!!...And even if your diamond was miniscule, no later ring ever had the enchantment of that so-special ring...And do you, as I do, still wear it and look at it with great love and joy and remember all that it represents?.....And do you also remember that your Mother was so positive that HE could never support you???...But, you married him anyway and years later, your Mother denied that she had ever harbored such negative thoughts!!...In fact, to hear her tell, it would seem she had engineered the whole engagement herself!...And, in my sorority, it was the custom that the newly engag ed girl should treat the group to a five-pound box of chocolates and I can still remember the squealing when I arrived from Thanksgiving vacation bearing my five pounds of Fanny Farmer chocolates!!...So many things change, but that special glow of an engagement ring lingers on....when one of our girls comes in grinning and holds out her left hand, the air is still rosy and we all get so excited.

What Our Politicians Are Saying:

STATE SENATOR MICHAEL J. TULLY JR. (R-Roslyn Heights), Chairman of the Senate Veterans Committee, has announced a new bill that would create a special New York State license plate for recipients of the Purple Heart Medal. The plates, bearing the words "Purple Heart" would be issued only after proof that the applicant had in fact received the Purple Heart Medal. There would be an additional service charge of 15 dollars, annually, if this bill is passed.

NASSAU COUNTY EXECUTIVE THOMAS S. GULOTTA is encouraging all senior residents to register for free flu inoculations, which will be available at various sites throughout the county. The Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs in cooperation with the Nassau County Department of Health, is again sponsoring the program for those age 60 and over. Although people who get the flu are ill for a few days, high-risk people may develop complications. The Federal Government has designated as "high-risk" those individuals who are elderly or are suffering from a chronic disease involving heart, lungs or endocrine system. For information concerning sites and registration, call 564-6920.

JUDGE RALPH P. FRANCO, candidate for return to the District Court has announced his opposition to any legislation which would permit the dispensing of drugs and drug paraphernalia to drug addicts. He feels the solution lies in holding drug abusers in high bail and the placement of more emphasis on the "Say No to Drugs" program.

ROBERT R. MCMILLAN, the Republican and Conservative candidate for the United States Senate, has pledged to press for federal legislation that will give America's 28 million senior citizens greater choices in financing long-term health care and relieve some of the financial load that many middle income Americans must bear to care for their elderly parents. His proposals include: Federal legislation to provide a tax credit of $2,500 per year for families of Medicare recipients for long-term care needs, changes in the tax code to allow the families of dependent parents to deduct up to $10,000 per year per parent for the cost of a nursing home or at-home health care, and lastly, legislation revising eligibility requirements for Medicaid so that the elderly do not have to be destitute to qualify for aid.

ASSEMBLYMAN LEWIS J. YEVOLI (Dem. 13th A.D.), Chairman of the Assembly on Commerce, Industry and Economic Development has noted that a recently passed law will ensure greater safety for school children on Long Island. The new regulation requires that a school bus must remain stopped with warning lights flashing until all discharged passengers are at least 15 feet from the bus and either off the roadway or on a sidewalk.

BLAME THE ROCKEFELLERS

Within the last month the farmers in the Midwest asked Dukakis how he would solve the problem of the glut of wheat and other grains on the world market that has driven down the price of grains. This has made it hard for the farmers to make a profit. It has hurt the small farmers the most because they are the least cost efficient. He replied that they should grow some high demand, high priced products instead of wheat. This is an answer that would make sense to any business person in the same situation. Give the customer what they want,

make sense to any business person in the same situation. Give the customer what they want, especially at a good price. Unfortunately for Dukakis, one of the alternate products he mentioned was Belgian en-dive. Now many people like endive in their salad. With farmers it seems that it is a namby-pamby product. The Duke should have said that the surplus is all the Rockefellers' lault. The problem of world hunger has been a concernsince the days of Mairbus. He predicted more than 200 years ago that the population increase would cause massive starvation. He has not been proven correct. Fortunately, we have found ways to increase the supply of food faster or equal to the population increases. Farmers have been the most efficient sec-tor of the world's economy, bar none. You may remember that in 1900 it took 52 percent of our population to feed the other 48 percent. Today it takes just 2 percent to feed the 98 percent with a large surplus to export. The latest increases started during the late 50's when the Rockerfellers funded research

The latest increases started during the late 50's when the Rockerfellers funded research on increasing the yield of grain by cross-breeding. This and other research led to what is called the "green revolution", an explosion of grain production all over the world. In the fifties, only a few countries were exporters of grains. The United States and C anada were the two largest exporters. Since that time many countries have developed an export and is in several to be a superstant and the data the production of the data to the production of the data to the production of the data to the superstant of the data to the superstant of the data to the production of the data to the superstant of the data to the production of the data to the superstant of the data to the data to the superstant of the data to the data to the superstant of the data were the two largest exporters. Since that time many countries have developed an export surplus, India is a good example. Who does not remember the horror stories of Indian star-vation. What has happened? The Green Revolution. With the new types of seeds, proper fertilizer, enough water, and improved farming tools and methods any nation can increase its grain productivity dramatically. The amount of rice grown in India is four times more than 30 years ago. In spite of an increase of is million people each year, India produces a surplus. Now it competes on world markets against U.S. rice. Starvation in that country is no longer widespread. It is not a basket case. This same thing has occurred all over the world. Production increases and the farmers suffer without subsidies

My advice to the farmers is to heed the words of Dukakis. Give the consumer what he needs or wants at a good price. My advice to Dukakis is to blame it all on the staunch republican Rockefeller brothers next time. After all, they started it.

counted only his losers, he would note three in spades and (assuming he saw West's cards) five trump tricks as well. This would amount to a 1,400-point setback. But the fact is that South need not lose eight tricks. As a matter of fact, if he exercises no more than a reason able degree of care, he can hold his losses to only three tricks and make the contract despite West's formidable array of trumps! He wins the diamond lead with the ace and embarks on a campaign to score as many of his low trumps as he can. He returns a diamond to the king and ruffs a diamond, then cashes the A-K of clubs and ruffs another diamond

THE BANK OF NEW YORK

We're about to give you another reason to do all your banking with us.

Unfortunately, your banking needs don't always automatically end at the end of your workweek. Which is why The Bank of New York has just recently extended its own workweek.

In fact, we have more branches open on Saturday than any other bank on Long Island.

Full-service banking on Saturdays.

But what makes Saturday banking at The Bank of New York even better is the fact that, unlike many other banks, we're offering all of our services during these extended hours. Giving anyone who works Monday through Friday more time to take care of the things that take a little more time—like opening a checking account or taking out a loan.

tions The Bank of New York Member FDIs. An Equal Housing Lender @

More hours in which to get a 60 minute loan."

Of course, when it comes right down to it, you won't need to set aside much time at all for a personal, auto, boat or home improvement loan. Because, with our new 60 Minute Loan," in most cases you'll get an answer in 60 minutes or less.

Just visit The 60 Minute Loan Center<sup>w</sup> at any one of our convenient branches. Or call Action Phone at 1-800-942-1784 for more information or to apply for a loan.

More branches, more hours and more services. They add up to some very good reasons to talk toThe Bank of New York. No matter what day you do your banking.

Then, on December 31, the Galileo Lodge tops off the holiday season with a very lively and fun-filled New Year's party and dance. There will be a dinner, refreshments, noisemakers, a continental breakfast and many extras. There will be more on this activity in later columns.

The Galileo Lodge will sponsor its Hallo-ween Dance on Saturday, October 20, Price of admission is 16 per person which includes dimner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music.

Rocco Lombardo will 'chair' this dance, aided by co-chairman Armand del Cioppo. I must mention that costumes are optional and that those wearing the best costumes in various categories will receive prizes. So why not head for the Galileo Lodge on the night mentioned here and enjoy the mystique of Halloween.

The freedom that driving brings and the eagemess to obtain a license are on the minds of just about every teenager-and thanks to a Driver's Education course that is being given in the high school, these dreams will soon be a reality.

The Driver's Education program began last week at the high school under the supervision Mr. Louis Plochochi. Through this program, seniors will learn the necessary steps to safe and legal driving and will also be qualified for a driver's license test at the end of the course. The class itself consists of two basic parts; Lecture which includes classroom instruction and films, and lab which is instruction in a car and practice driving. These two sections alter-nate on a daily basis. Students may take this one semester course in the morning beginning at 6:55 for four days a week or they may take it in the afternoon after school for two days a week. The criteria for passing includes mandatory 100% attendance, all missed classes must be made up immediately or the students will be dropped from the course. A Learner's Per-mit from the Department of Motor Vehicles is also required.

Over the past couple of weeks you may have noticed some enterprising students attempting to sell you decals at your home. These students are musicians in Hicksville High School who are selling concert tour decals as part of a fundraiser for their trip to Walt Disney World this May. The money that they solicit goes directly to defraying the cost of the trip. They are asking for the generous support of the Hicksville community in this and subsequent fundraisers so that they can proudly represent Hicksville at Disney World this spring.

Though it is still the beginning of the year, it is not too early to begin contemplating Regents Examinations. For this reason the Comet shop (across from the cafeteria in the high school) is selling Regents review books. The subjects include English Comprehension, Global Studies and American Studies as well as other materials which will be of great assistance to you during the upcoming year. Many of these books will not be available at local book stores so it is best to buy them early in the year from the school.

On October 14 and 15 a performance of, Don't Drink The Water will be held in the Midde School auditorium. The October 7 performance was cancelled but those tickets are still valid for the two upcoming performances. Some high school students are involved in this production and they ask for your support.

Though you may not want to drink the water you can certainly drink juice along with your doughnuts each school morning thanks to the National Honor Society. Monday through Friday beginning at 7:30 in the morning, the Honor Society will be selling doughnuts and suice as part of a fundraiser in the cafeteria. Members are needed to assist with the sale; please see Mrs. Caldwell for details.

A trial is one of the most basic rights to citizens of this nation. It can also be an interesting and exciting experience. If you have never been in a trial but are interested in learning more about one you now have an opportunity. Mock Trial gives students the opportunity to become lawyers or witnesses during a trial competition. If you have any interst in this unique part of our judicial system meet with Dr. Lemmey in room 204.

The Hicksville High Girls' Varsity Swim Team continues to triumph over their competition. Jeanine Sirey and Kristen Mundled the team to a 90-52 victory over Freeport with some help from Tara Hooper and Cynthia Gaylor who achieved personal bests. Both Jeanine and Kristen are moving toward their third consecutive undefeated season. From there, it is on to the New York State Championships in Albany.

The class gathered after the perfunctory appearance in the old Jerusalem Avenue High School, at the then swanky 'Casa Seville' in Franklin Square.

In a time when nightclubs, or even late sup-per establishments, were very few, the Casa ranked as the supreme spot for very special occasions. Choices were limited. Anselmi's in Bethage and Wheatley Hills in Westbury were the nearest to Hicksville, but they lacked the glamour. San Su San in Mineola was a bit saucy and did not enjoy parental approval-Also failing to attract the young set was the hospitable Freeport Elks Club. However, it did conjure up the atmosphere of that special nocturnal feeling required for that night of youthful nights.

Dog Obedience School At Bide-A-Wee Home

What makes a pet a good family member? The family member who takes the time and has the patience to train a pet properly. For those family members who could use a little friendly advice, Bide-A-Wee Home in Wantagh has just the program to turn your unruly canine into a perfect pooch. Professional dog trainer loseph Knapp is offering a seven-week, once a week training course that covers everything from on-leash obedience training to solutions to various canine behavorial problems, such as house-breaking, jumping, chewing and non-stop barking.

Classes are limited in size to allow for maximum personalized attention at a very affor-dable fee.

Bide-A-Wee not only offers dog-training courses, but also a wide range of other ser-vices available to the public. Some of these include humane education, pet-memorial parks, pet loss grief counseling and animal-facilitated therapy in health related facilities.

For additional information, or to register for the next dog obedience course, call Joseph Knapp at 433-1960.

Witches and Goblins and Ghosts, Oh My!

Witches, goblins, ghosts and the family pet are invited to attend Bide-A-Wee's Halloween Party scheduled for Saturday, October 20th, from noon to 3 p.m. at the Westhampton shelter. There will be two separate costume contests for children 12 years and younger, and for pets which can be accompanied by either an adult or a child. An entry fee of 11 will be charged for each child or pet who registers for a contest. Admission is free to all others. The only guidelines to be follow-ed are — pets must be either on a leash, harness or in an appropriate carrier, and costumes for both children and pets must be safe and non-toxic. Exciting prizes will be awarded to the win-ners of the best in children's costumes and the best in pets' costumes. Some of the fabulous prizes have been donated by the Smithaven Mall in Lake Grove, Child's Play of Port Jefferson, Lillywhite, Harry and Son and Kid's Stuff of Southampton. Pets' prizes are courtesy of the Bide A-Wee pet boutique. There will also be games, activities and Halloween refreshments.

Whether you have two or four legs, Join the ghosdy fun at the Westhampton Bide-A-Wee. Any child or pet who enters the con-test will receive a bag filled with Thick or Treat goodies that would delight even Frankenstein and Dracula!

For more information, call Bide-A-Wee Home located at 118 Old Country Road in Westhampton, at 516-325-0200.

This was some of the information brought to the Hicksville Kiwanis Club by Ralph Marto the Hicksville Kiwanis Club by Kalph Mar-chese of the Human Resources Center in Albertson, N.Y. when he was the guest speaker at the September 28 luncheon meeting of the club. Mr. Marchese spoke about the U.S. Dis-abled Sports Team which is composed of 500 top athletes and their coaches and represents wide access of object of the splittles. Some top athletes and their coaches and represents a wide range of physical disabilities. Some team members are either amputees, blind, have cerebral palsy, or are dwarfs. Regardless of their disability, the men and women on the team all share one thing in common: the strong competitive spirit that creates winners. The athletes qualify through national trials and are entered into competition by one of the four national disabled sports organization, namely: The National Wheelchair Athletic Association, The U.S. Amputee Athletic Association, The U.S. Association of Blind Athletes, and The U.S. Cerebral Palsy Athletic Association. They are Group E members of the U.S. Olympic Committee and are recognized by the international disabled orts governing body. Athletes are classified according to the

Dear Edith: Iam still puzzled about this "over-55" Iax break when selling one's principal residence, up to $125,000 tax-free pro-fit. You keep saying (and I keep reading) "if you buy a more expensive residence within two years." What if we don't buy another home when we sell our home of "I wan but the more account one at the second 17 years but move to an apartment? Will you please straighten this out once and for all? —Mr. R.A.

A. You are confusing two different tax treatments for those who sell their own homes. The first allows sellers of any age to postpone tax on their profit if a more expen-sive replacement residence is bought within two years.

That's a postponement, not the "over-55" tax exclusion you're asking about. The other different tax break is the chance for up to $125,000 profit, free of any federal income tax ever. You use this only once, and you choose when you want to use it, anytime after you're 55. You can use it whether you're buying another home or moving to an apartment after the sale. (It has nothing to do with the other "replacement residence" regulation, except that it can stretch to include that postponed-tax profit on earlier residences).

Difficulty Paying The Mortgage Dear Edith: We bought our home about three years ago. After making several repairs, we started having difficulty making payments on the mortgage. The making payments on the mortgage. The mortgage company says we have six months to a year to come up with the payments. We have checked with a lawyer. Heis saying sell the house or go bankrupt. We would like to keep our house. Are there any other alter-natives?—Mrs. T.C.

A. Come up with the payments. When you don't pay exactly as promised, the lender has the right to force a prompt sale. Youy're lucky they're offering you breathing space; they don't have to. Consumer Credit Counseling can be a great help. The non-profit agency may have a different name in your city; if you're in a small town, try the city phone book. If there's any way to get straightened out, they'll help with the process. Beware, though, of rip-off "agencies" that

I've always enjoyed working with people. There is a wonderful family feeling, a feeling of shared effort for a common goal that makes of shared entor a common goal that makes things work well. When you can depend on the people who work for and with you, it is super. Looking for ways to make a team perform better is always of interest to me and I hope to you.

Recently Kodak has been sponsoring a con-test between the pit crews at the Camel GT auto racing events. Here is what Kodak has to say about the interaction between the pit crews and the Kodak crews. It's my kind of

The Paper Sensitizing Division in Kodak Park at Eastman Kodak Company is respon-sible for coating black and white and color black and white and color photographic papers. Keeping the produc-tion equipment running and in good shape is the joint responsibility of the Production Division and the Manufacturing Engineering and Maintenance Organization (MEMO).

Applying some positive thinking, Al Weber, Department Manager, MEMO, and Paul Walrath, Production Department Manager, brought a team of operators and mechanics together to address the issues of reducing downtime.

This team had an idea: "Let's equate our problem to what auto racing pit crews face. Their goals and objectives are very similar to our own," the team concluded.

Similar Goals

They want to get their cars back on the

track to win and keep them safe, and they must do it in the quickest possible time with smooth teamwork. Weber's and Walrath's team simulated the

"downtime" situation at Kodak Park with downtime situation at kodak Park with displays likening the situation to a racing car and pit crew and by posting progress reports. The end result was soo hours less of normal-ly scheduled downtown. To celebrate, breakfasts were held for all operators, methodics and memory and the complete mechanics and management. To carry the analogy even further, the team invited an analogy even influer, the team invited an outstanding auto racing pit crew chief, Lawton Langston "Lanky" Foushee to speak. Foushee's experience proved to be an ex-cellent parallel for the MEMO group. As pit crew chief of Group 44 Inc. of Winchester, 20 Section 2 VA, Foushee's Jaguar team had set the record in the Kodak Copier Pit Crew competition in 1987. His team also had won the Kodak Copier Pit Crew titles two years in a row. Formerly with the US Air Force for 25 years, he was part of the mechanical team that maintained the Presidential plane, Air Force I, in the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration.

Where You Win or Lose

"Auto races are won on the race track, but they can be lost in the pit stops," Fousher said, "And that can be true of industry, too. The race track and manufacturing have many parallels, but mainly it's teamwork, people, user working together for the best possible result. Like industry, 'downtime' in the pit affects our productivity. You can't with be ditting in our productivity. You can't win by sitting in offer to straighten you out for large fees). Your lawyer is right. If it turns out you can't get current, you're better off selling the place promptly. Otherwise, you'll only get further in debr, and the legal costs of foreclosure will pile up. As for bankruptcy—follow your at-torney's guidance torney's guidance.

Selling And Buying Dear-Edith: My husband and I have two different opinions. He says we must sell our home and then buy the next one. I say you buy a home and then sell yours. Our home is free and clear, and buying another home would be cash.—Mrs. T.E.

A. Because your next purchase won't de-pend on a new mortgage, it's best to start by putting your present house on the market first. While you won't require a loan, your buyer might, and that could take three months or so. But as soon as your house is listed for sale, no harm in starting your house-hunting. Real estate brokers are used to handling situations like yours. An agent—and your lawyer—can arrange contracts and dates so the two transactions dovetail. It's done all the time.

No Key To the Apartment Dear Edith: My tenant has violated her lease several times. Also I do not have a key for the apartment. How do I go

the pit." Foushee' five-man pit crew had a clear, well-defined objective in the Kodak Copier Well-defined objective in the Konak Copier Pit Crew contest. The team had to change four tires, clean the windshield, refuel and change drivers. They did so in about 17 seconds. After the first to seconds into the pit stop, Foushee started yelling the time on a bullhorn to emphasize the need for speedum speed-up.

Good Tools Foushee noted that tool design is also important in both manufacturing and pit stops. "For example," Foushee said, "sockets remov-For example, Founde said, sockets remov-ing nuts from tires during a race are made so that the nutsrays in them. If a nutshould fall out of the socket, it could cost valuable seconds to set the nut by hand." To accomplish perfection, Foushee's crew practices constantly.

Enthusiasm

Enthusiaam "What we look at as much as the ability of crew members is their enthusiaam," Foushe said. We want five people enthusiastically working together to make a winning and safe car. Yes, they may be performing at times what appears to be mundane tasks, and often they don't get the recognition they deserve. But good teamwork is swiftly rewarded. "Each pit person must be able to say he did his dead level best with the materials he had. That's the way I see it in industry, too. You have I nat's the way I see it in industry, too. You have to believe in yourself and your company and in the direction you're going. "I known I'm impressed with what I see of the Kodak operation." Foushee mentioned that some of the best suggestions for pit stop speed-up and other arrangement. As for how to get the key, and how to get the tenant to live up to her lease—that's a matter of personalities. Perhaps you weren't meant to be a landlord. Tenant selection is a skill; so is asserting your rights. You don't say what the violations of lease were. If you or neighbors are disturbed by loud noises, for example, ask the police to handle it. If the problem is late rent payments and you want to reclaim the apartment, have a lauver seen in a lawyer step in.

improvements come from the pit crew members themselves.

The Workers Make Suggestions Larry Cass, a MEMO unit manager, echoed that observation, saying. "The involvement of people is very crucial to our success. When you get people involved, good things happen. Many of our problems are solved by the employees. And I've noticed we're getting very good at that, particularly in the last few vears." vears.

Good Use of Down Time "MEMO is much like a pit operation. When a machine stops at our pit, we must When a machine stops at our pit, we must be ready with our windows of opportunity and have maintenance planned to cut the 'downtime' period. Any time a machine is in our 'pit' we try to do something a little extra in repair that helps cut the total of 'downtime' over an extended period of time. In addition to the main repair problem, we look for other things we can improve things we can improve.

things we can improve. "We've been seeing increased use of the pit crew concept throughout Rodak Park, Pignataro says, "and have shared the idea with some Rodak plants overseas. If we are going to minimize equipment 'downtime', we must be innovative in ways of putting machines back on the track." As a way of rewarding team members, so employees in Paper Sensitzing and their families were guests of the company at the Camel GT auto racing event at Wachins Glen International track over the Fourth of July

Compiled by Flo Gries Celebrating 47th

The Commander of the Hicksville Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3211 Vincent Ferrara would like to publicly wish his-lovely wife Frances, a very happy birthday which she will celebrate on Friday, October 14th—and he is also sending congratulations to her as they will be celebrating their 47th wedding anniversary October 18th. Frances is Chaplain of the Ladies Auxiliary of Post 3211 . . . . and I'm sure if she knew Vinny was sending her congratulations through the Illustrated that she would also like to publicly congratulate him. Our best wishes also go to this happy couple.

Chaplain Frances and Commander Vincent Ferrara, VFW Post 3211, Hicksville

Our get well wishes are being extended to Frank "Spuds" McKenzie, (as he is known to his friends), Frank recently had an eye 'njury and is healing nicely.

Нарру, Нарру, Нарру

Our happiest anniversary wishes are being sent to Maria and Joe Matz of Arch Lane as they celebrate 20 years of married life.

 .....and a very happy anniversary to two former Hicksvillites who are now retired and living in Florida: Alice and Eddie Grether.... from all your Hicksville friends.

Hen-Pecked

Henrietta and Fudge, two chickens—took First and Second place at the Long Island Fair at Old Bethpage Village Restoration last weekend. These hens are pets of Larissa and Ricky Budinich. They have taken care of them since they were given them at Easter. Every day Larissa and Ricky gather about 5 eggs. Ricky gives them a ride almost every day in his little electric jeep. They've come to love them the same as they would a cat or a dog. They decided to enter them in the fair and were just estactic over the fact that they need were just estactic over the fact that they took first and second place. Atta' way to go, kids.

Enjoyed Vacation

Fran and Joe Kenyon and Tom and Rhea Reilly just returned from a very enjoyable cruise to Bermuda.

Rita and Don Buckley took a jaunt up to Killington Vermont and Hanover, Maine, to visit friends and to see the fall foliage. Rita said that they went up to the top of the moun-tain on the gondola in Killington where they could see six glorious mountains ablaze with reds, oranges, browns and rust, While there, they stayed at their son Tom's condo. Tom, a H.H.S. graduate, has recently moved to Huntington. He and his family (wife, Susar, daughter Erin (6), and son Patrick (4), spend as much time as they can up there skiing,

Hicksville. Donna and Richard are bolh 1982 graduates of Hicksville High School. Donna is a graduate of St. John's School of Pharmacy and is now a pharmacist and a research scientist for Pfizer Pharmaceutical Company

Richard is a graduate of Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn and is an electrical engineer for General Dynamics.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Swan Club in Glen Head.

After a honeymoon in Bermuda, Donna and Richard are now living in Groton, Connecticut.

TO YOUR HEALTH By RICHARD H. BLAU, M.D.

Sjogren's Syndrome - Its Relationship To Arthritis

Sjogren's (pronounced show-grins) is an inflammatory disorder of the glands and can be associated with many types of arthritis. Often, the problem causes dry eyes and a dry mouth. This abnormality can produce a feeling of grittiness in the eye, or a feeling of constant thirst. The cause of Sjogren's is not known.

Certain evidence suggests a defect involving the body's immune system. Once this inflammation occurs, the production of tears or saliva is impaired. With the continual lack of these lubricating fluids, the eyes and the mouth become very dry. Many patients with Sjogren's experience such pronounced thirst that they carry a glass of water with them. These patients are prone to develop recurrent eye infections or dental cavities

Often, people with this disorder come to the attention of the rheumatologist (arthritis specialist) because they have an associated arthritic condition. Types of arthritis associated with Sjogren's include

rheumatoid arthritis, lupus, mixed connective tissue disease, and sarcoidosis. Although many people with Sjogren's may never develop arthritis, the occurrence of Sjogren's may be a very early sign of arthritis.

The diagnosis of this disorder is usually made on the basis of a medical history and a complete physical examination. This is done to make certain that an associated arthritis is not present. A simple tear secretion test, called a Shirmer's Tear test, can often confirm the diagnosis.

Treatment of the arthritis associated with Sjogren's is a specialty of the rheumatologist. If the symptoms are mild, little treatment may be needed. For more severe problems, medications are available and are helpful.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach An Arthritis Overview.

CHECK WITH CHASE.

Most banks that offer a lot of services with their checking accounts also offer something else—a lot of individual fees. But at Chase, you don't have to pay for individual services. And that makes things very easy.

Chase's Unlimited Checking Services. Instead of charging you 25e for this and 50e for that, Chase checking gives you unlimited check writing, standard personalized checks, stop payments and certified checks. All for a single $10 monthly fee. If you maintain at least a $2,000 average monthly checking balance, there will be no monthly fee.

Unlimited ATM Usage. Included with every Chase checking account, you get unlimited usage of Chase 24-Hour Bank, NYCE, and Plus System* locations.

And unlimited checking services is only the beginning of the advantages you get with your Chase checking account.

Chase Cash Reserve. This line of credit, attached to your Chase checking account, helps prevent you from bouncing checks. But, unlike other banks overdraft pro-tection, Chase Cash Reserve automatically gets paid back each time you make a checking deposit, which can save you money by reducing your interest payments.

Chase Cash Back. Now you can withdraw funds instantly—up to $100—when you deposit a check at an ATM! And, unlike other banks, Chase doesn't require you to have money in other accounts to cover the amount you wish to withdraw.

CHECK WITH CHASE FREE FOR SIX MONTHS.

Check us out—free of charge for six months. Just come into any Chase branch before December 16, 1988. And begin to experience the advantages you'll get only at Chase. (While you're there, check out our great CD rates, too.)

To The Editor

When the citizens in our community fail to act with unity of purpose, the result is a general weakening of our collective power for self-determination. This was made completely evident recently, when New York State proposed conversion of the property at 499 Jerusalem Avenue to a facility for the and their professional staff. A alled civic group was formed and, without discussing the matter with other town civic organiza-tions, this group set about finding sites in other areas of Hicksville to propose to the state as alternative locations for the facility. We think that the only purpose of this action was to defer the matter to another neighborhood.

Does Hicksville need such a facility at all? And, if it does, what is the best location for it in terms of the needs of the entire com-munity and the mental patients? To arrive at meaningful answers to these questions, in-put from all concerned citizens must be obtained. To act without having first considered this kind of information is both irresponsible and short sighted. It is irresponsible because it does not resolve the real questions and merely shifts the burden of doing so to others in the community. It is short sighted because lack of unity diminishes our collective power to influence the conditions under which all of us must live.

Fortunately, the state has not yet made a final disposition regarding the facility's loca-tion. There is still time, albeit much less than before, to consider the matter and make responsible proposals on behalf of the town as a whole. We should be thankful for this and utilize the time wisely. We should also note carefully what has transpired and resolve not to act in this way again. Mary Ann Ferrado

-By Someone Who Experienced It-

After reading about the havoc caused by the 1038 Hurricane in a recent issue of the illustrated, I would like to share my experience of that day: My girlfriend and I were returning home from Atlantic City-we had spent a week's vacation there, in the days of the Diving Horse. We were on a Greyhound bus, headed back to New York City—the terminal on 8th Avenue, between 33rd and 34th Streets.

It was a duil, overcast, slightly drizzling day as we boarded the bus. As we traveled along, the weather worsened and the day darkened.

We had seats behind the driver. We wanted to see where we were going. Remember, in those days there wasn't any radio in the bus or other kind of communication.....so

In those days there wasn't any radio in the bus or other kind of communication ......so who knew about a hurricane? The rain not only came down steadily but in time it was coming down in sheets of water and wind and the wipers couldn't keep up with it. My friend and I started to sing all the popular songs—we were Bing Crosby fans.

all the popular songs—we were Bing Crosby tans. People sitting in the back of the bus seemed to be asleep. Anyway, we were progressing steadily, bur slowly, because the driver couldn't see the road ahead. After a while we became silent—just watching where we were going. We saw a light up ahead and the driver was using it as a sort of guide. Suddenly the weather lifted for a few minutes. We gasped... the driver with us.... the light was a warning on the side of what we thought was the road—instead there was a ravine and that's where we were headed. We both started to pray, and the driver said, "Girls, please keep on singing, you will help me to keep alert and awake, we still have a long way to go?' We sang the 'Oldies, and the Golden Oldies.' and the Golden, Golden Oldies.

When we pulled into the Greyhound terminal, we sure were glad to get off. The driver spoke to us, to thank us for helping him, We shook hands and headed for home. What an experience!

ANOTHER UNSIGHTLY ABANDONED car sits on the corner of Ludy Street and South Broadway. Lately, residents have been complaining to the town and the police about abandoned cars, which appear to be on the rise in our town.

Editorial

For the last 16 years, the Hicksville Community Council has honored local organizations and residents. Last week, the Council honored the Auxiliary Police, Hicksville Unit 312, and community activists Bill and Clara Bennett. While this organization and this husband-and-wife team deserve recognition, the Hicksville Community Council also deserves a round of applause. The president and board of directors of the Council were united 18 years ago for one purpose-the betterment of Hicksville. On the first Thursday of every month, members and guests meet to discuss and try to solve problems in the community. They have a forum where residents can state their problems and the Council can try to direct them. We are not here to take a stand but to help people to take their own stands," said the Council's founder, Sheila Noeth. The Council also tries to have a town official at each meeting who may know answers to some of the problems residents pose. "If they can't solve the problem, the town official will take their number and try to get back to them," said Mrs. Noeth. "Our object is to help and improve Hicksville as much as we can."

The Hicksville Community Council truly is "the eyes, the ears and the voice of Hicksville" and should be commended for its dedication to the community. Thank You, Fire Department

A special thanks to Hicksville Fire Chief, Jerry O'Brien and his staff for the wonderful job they did Sunday at the start of fire prevention week. Our fire department should be commended for the excellent job they do watching over us as well as the many additional tasks they handle, such as their effort to educate us about fire safety.

Our Town, Hicksville USA-

Want to know what our town is all about? What our beginnings were? Both newcomers and those who have been around awhile will be interested in visiting the Local History Room at the Hicksville Public Library. It is full of Hicksville memorabilia; old pictures, newspapers, posters (some old campaign ones), booklets, and organizations and school programs. Local historian, Richard Evers is here from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays to answer your questions and help you find what you are interested in.

Few towns can boast about a four-volume history of their own. Hicksville can. Volume i is just off the press. 394 pages devoted to the area's history from 1648 through 1960. The book is available for loan at the library. You are welcome to come in and borrow a copy for 28 days. Browse through its pages that are crammed with old photos.

We all owe a thank you to Richard and Anne Evers for giving their time and effort and sustaining enough interests to put in print Our History

Yours, Lulubelle

A Letter from Lulubelle ...

...Engagement rings are probably the most exciting jewelry ever...Do you remember exactly where you were when you received yours?...Were you surprised?-or had you decided together and gone to the jewelers to choose?.. and how special was the feeling when you first wore it and how sure you were that everyone was looking at your left hand ... and just to be sure, how often you patted your hair or your cheek so that no one could miss your sparkler!!...And even if your dia mond was miniscule, no later ring ever had the enchantment of that so-special ring...And do you, as I do, still wear it and look at it with great love and joy and remember all that it represents?.....And do you also remember that your Mother was so positive that HE could never support you???...But, you married him anyway and years later, your Mother denied that she had ever harbored such negative thoughts!!...In fact, to hear her tell, it would seem she had engineered the whole engagement herself!....And, in my sorority, it was the custom that the newly engag-ed girl should treat the group to a five-pound box of chocolates and I can still remember the squealing when I arrived from Thanksgiving vacation bearing my five pounds of Fanny Famer chocolates!!...So many things change, but that special glow of an engagement ring lingers on .... when one of our girls comes in grinning and holds out her left hand, the air is still rosy and we all get so excited.

What Our Politicians Are Saying:

STATE SENATOR MICHAEL J. TULLY JR. (R-Roslyn Heights), Chairman of the Senate Veterans Committee, has announced a new bill that would create a special New York State license plate for recipients of the Purple Heart Medal. The plates, bearing the words "Purple Heart" would be issued only after proof that the applicant had in fact received the Purple Heart Medal. There would be an additional service charge of 15 dollars, annually, if this bill is passed.

NASSAU COUNTY EXECUTIVE THOMAS S. GULOTTA is encouraging all senior residents to register for free flu inoculations, which will be available at various sites throughout the county. The Nassau County Department of Senior Citizen Affairs in cooperation with the Nassau County Department of Health, is again sponsoring the program for those age 60 and over. Although people who get the flu are ill for a few days, high-risk people may develop complications. The Federal Government has designated as "high-risk" those individuals who are elderly or are suffering from a chronic disease involving heart, lungs or endocrine system. For information concerning sites and registration, call 564-6920.

JUDGE RALPH P. FRANCO, candidate for return to the District Court has announced his opposition to any legislation which would permit the dispensing of drugs and drug paraphernalia to drug addicts. He feels the solution lies in holding drug abusers in high bail and the placement of more emphasiston the "Say No to Drugs" program. ********

ROBERT R. MCMILLAN, the Republican and Conservative candidate for the United States Senate, has pledged to press for federal legislation that will give America's 28 million senior citizens greater choices in financing long-term health care and relieve some of the financial load that many middle income Americans must bear to care for their elderly parents. His proposals include: Federal legislation to provide a tax credit of $2,500 per year for families of Medicare recipients for long-term care needs, changes in the tax code to allow the families of dependent parents to deduct up to $10,000 per year per parent for the cost of a nursing home or at-home health care, and lastly, legislation revising eligibility requirements for Medicaid so that the elderly do not have to be destitute to qualify for aid.

ASSEMBLYMAN LEWIS J. YEVOLI (Dem. 13th A.D.), Chairman of the Assembly on Commerce, Industry and Economic Development has noted that a recently passed law will ensure greater safety for school children on Long Island. The new regula-lation requires that a school bus must remain stopped with warning lights flashing until all discharged passengers are at least 15 feet from the bus and either off the roadway or on a sidewalk.

BLAME THE ROCKEFELLERS

Within the last month the farmers in the Midwest asked Dukakis how he would solve the problem of the glut of wheat and other grains on the world market that has driven down the price of grains. This has made it hard for the farmers to make a profit. It has hurt the small farmers the most because they are the least cost efficient. He replied that they should grow some high demand, high priced products instead of wheat. This is an answer that would make sense to any business person in the same situation. Give the customer what they want, especially at a good price.

make sense to any business person in the same situation. Give the customer what they want, especially at a good price. Unfortunately for Dukakis, one of the alternate products he mentioned was Belgian en-dive. Now many people like endive in their salad. With farmers it seems that it is a namby-pamby product. The Duka should have said that the surplus is all the Rockefellers' fault. The problem of world hunger has been a concern since the days of Malthus. He predicted more than 200 years ago that the population increase would cause massive starvation. He has not been proven correct. Fortunately, we have found ways to increase the supply of food faster or equal to the population increases. Farmers have been the most efficient sec-tor of the world's economy, bar none. You may remember that in 1900 it took 52 percent of our population to feed the other 48 percent. Today it takes just 2 percent to feed the 08 percent with a large surplus to export. The latest increases started during the late 50's when the Rockerfellers funded research on increasing the yield of grain by closs of edges in this and other research when the world. In the fifties, only a few countries were exporters of grains. The United States and Canada were the two largest exporters. Since that time many countries have developed an export surplus. India is a good example. Who does not remember the horror stories of Indian stat-vation, What has happened? The Green Revolution.

With the new types of seeds, proper fertilizer, enough water, and improved farming rools and methods any nation can increase its grain productivity dramatically. The amount of and methods any nation can increase its grain productivity dramatically. The antohn of rice grown in India is four times more than 30 years ago. In spite of an increase of 15 million people each year, India produces a surplus. Now it competes on world markets against U.S. rice. Starvation in that country is no longer widespread. It is not a basket case. This same thing has occurred all over the world. Production increases and the farmers suffer without whether the suffer suffer without the suffer suffer without the suffer suffer without whether the suffer suffer suffer suffer without the suffer suffer suffer without the suffer suffer without the suffer subsidies

My advice to the farmers is to heed the words of Dukakis. Give the consumer what he needs or wants at a good price. My advice to Dukakis is to blame it all on the staunch republican Rockefeller brothers next time. After all, they started it.

The meeting date of the Hicksville Public Library Board of Trustees has been changed from October 19 to October 20.

Worried about your children's future? Help them discover a positive kind of peer pressure. Send them where they learn not only about Shakespeare and calculus; they learn about self-discipline and values. Send them to Long Island Lutheran Jr./Sr. High School.

95% of our graduates go on to college—some to America's top schools. Others go straight into business careers. We helped them get there. We offer computer classes, advanced science labs, an honors program that makes colleges take notice, driver education, and the sports and activities that make school exciting.

Our average class size is 17. Most of our teachers hold advanced degrees. They choose our school because they want to teach in a Christian atmosphere. They want to teach students who really want to learn.

You don't have to be Lutheran to attend. We have members of almost every faith.

If you want to take the first step, give us a call at 626-1700. Information will be sent regarding open houses, entrance exams, financial aid, and scholarships.

Declarer generally makes a survey of his winners or losers when he starts to play a hand. If he is in a suit contract, he counts his losers; in notrump, he counts his winners.

However, this approach has its exceptions, especially in suit play where there are ruffs available in one hand or the other. In such cases declarer may find it more convenient to count only winners in estimating

s prospects. Thus, in the present case, if South counted only his losers, he would note three in spades and (assuming he saw West's cards) five trump tricks as well. This would amount to a 1.400-point setback.

But the fact is that South need not lose eight tricks. As a matter of fact, if he exercises no more than a reasonable degree of care, he can hold his losses to only three tricks and make the contract despite West's formid-able array of trumps!

He wins the diamond lead with the ace and embarks on a campaign to score as many of his low trumps as he can. He returns a diamond to the king and ruffs a diamond, then cashes the A-K of clubs and ruffs another diamond diamond. South has now won six tricks — two diamonds, two clubs and two diamond ruffs — and still has the J.7-6 of spades and A.Q-10-8 of hearts. West has the seven trumps he started with. Declarer leads a spade, forcing

West to ruff and return a trump to hand South his seventh trick. Declarer plays another spade, forcing West to ruff and lead another trump, west to run and lead another trump, handing South his eighth trick. Finally, when declarer plays his last spade, West must ruff once more and return a trump to South's A-Q to hand declarer his ninth and tenth tricks. All together, West is endplayed three times in trumps!

Dunaj, supervisor of contracts and administration for the New York region, was recognized for her extra effort and total dedication to her assigned responsibilities. Dunaj resides in Carle Place.

Deegan and Dunaj each received a plaque and 25 shares of Company stock in a special presentation ceremony in the Mineola office. Galileo Lodge News By Joe Lorenzo

The holiday season makes a great impact on members, friends and patrons of the Lodge. On Saturday, Dec. 3 the Galileo Lodge presents its Christmas Dance. Admission is $16 per person, and offered will be a delicious hot dinner with beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music for your listening and dan-cing pleasure. Rocco Lombardo will 'chair' this activity, assisted by co-chairman Armad Del activity, assisted by co-chairman Armau Der Cloppo. A grab bag will also be available with gifts costing no more than 13. There is so much more of Christmas to be displayed at the Galileo Lodge this year. I am referring to the two Christmas parties presented by the Galileo Lodge, one for the handicapped children of Long Island, in the morning, and the other for the children of the members, held during the afternoon. The date is Sunday, December 11. There will be plenty of food, refreshment, ice cream, cookies, fruit, etc., and plenty of music.

Then, on December 31, the Galileo Lodge ops off the holiday season with a very lively and fun-filled New Year's party and dance. There will be a dinner, refreshments, noisemakers, a continental breakfast and many extras. There will be more on this activity in later columns.

The Galileo Lodge will sponsor its Hallo-ween Dance on Saturday, October 29. Price of admission is 16 per person which includes dinner, beer, soda, coffee and cake, set-ups and music.

Rocco Lombardo will 'chair' this dance, aided by co-chairman Armand del Cioppo. I must mention that costumes are optional and that those wearing the best costumes in various categories will receive prizes. So why not head for the Galileo Lodge on the night mentioned here and enjoy the mystique of Halloween.

Gregory Museum Open House

The Hicksville Gregory Museum is ready to begin another season by welcoming visitors and tour groups and conducting adult classes and children's workshops. On Sunday, October 16, from 1 to 5 p.m., old and new friends are invited to an open house, to see for themselves the exhibits and special programs available. There will be free admission, door prizes, refreshments, and gifts for children accompanied by an adult. Highlighting the new exhibits are a Hicksville History display in the jail area, and a spectacular new fluorescent minerals showcase.

Teachers and group leaders will receive special attention. The museum staff will be present to answer questions about the various guided tours and special programs available for school classes, scouts, and other groups, including senior citizens. Reservation forms will be available.

Information about Saturday workshops for children will also be ready. Those who par-ticipated in recent programs may find their photos on display in the upstairs classroom. Beginning on Tuesday, October 25, from 4 to 6 p.m., curator Donald Curran will conduct a 10-session course for teachers and other interested adults in Mineralogy for Beginners. Fee $65.

On Wednesday, October 26, Dr. Charles Rockwell will begin a 10-session course: In-troduction to Topographic and Geologic Maps. Fee: 365. Time: 3:45-5:15 p.m. The museum is located in the old Heitz Place Courthouse, near the junction of E. Barclay Street/Woodbury Road and Bay Avenue (the street back of Sears). Hours are Tuesday to Friday, 9 to 4:30; weekends from 1 to 5 p.m.

pathy to the families of two of our classmates who passed away recently: Mrs. Catherine (Braja) Chesloch and Mrs. Gloria (Parmigani)

Caroline Ofenloch from Milford, Pa. brought us a copy of the original graduation program. Copies were made and distributed to all the classmates. And much to our surprise, we are looking for nine more male classmates, they are, Stephen Sokol, Em-manuel Ediasias, Harold Engelsen, George Wrynn, Rosario Marculaso, Marcus McCafferty, Joseph Pietrosh, Robert Rhodes, and Francis Savino.

Anyone knowing the whereabouts of any of the above, please notify Tony Schumacher or Frank DeGaidano.

I believe everyone enjoyed themselves to the very last minute. It is wonderful to be able to see and talk with classmates after 53 years. To me it seems that each year we meet, we get to know each other better. If the good Lord willing, we hope to make next year's reunion the biggest and best one ever.

I realize I missed taking pictures of everyone there, and I am very sorry and want to apologize to those people who I missed. I am far from being a photographer, I am the only person who could cut the top of your head off, and not end up in jail. I hope everyone enjoyed themselves half as much as I did. See you all next September.

Your Hometown

Just when you thought that there were enough drivers on the road and enough traffic lams, a new generation of drivers are about to hit the road. The freedom that driving brings and the easerness to obtain a license are on the minds of just about every teenager-and thanks to a Driver's Education course that is being given in the high school, these dreams will soon be a reality.

The Driver's Education program began last week at the high school under the supervision Mr. Louis Plochocht. Through this program, seniors will learn the necessary steps to safe and legal driving and will also be qualified for a driver's license test at the end of the course. The class itself consists of two basic parts; Lecture which includes classroom instruction and films, and lab which is instruction in a car and practice driving. These two sections alternate on a daily basis. Students may take this one semester course in the morning beginning at 6:55 for four days a week or they may take it in the afternoon after school for two days a week. The criteria for passing includes mandatory 100% attendance, all missed classes must be made up immediately or the students will be dropped from the course. A Learner's Permit from the Department of Motor Vehicles is also required.

Over the past couple of weeks you may have noticed some enterprising students attempting to sell you decals at your home. These students are musicians in Hicksville High School who are selling concert tour decals as part of a fundraiser for their trip to Walt Disney World this May. The money that they solicit goes directly to defraying the cost of the trip. They are asking for the generous support of the Hicksville community in this and subsequent fundraisers so that they can proudly represent Hicksville at Disney World this spring.

Though it is still the beginning of the year, it is not too early to begin contemplating Regents Examinations. For this reason the Comet shop (across from the cafeteria in the high school) is selling Regents review books. The subjects include English Comprehension, Global Studies and American Studies as well as other materials which will be of great assistance to you dur-ing the upcoming year. Many of these books will not be available at local book stores so it is best to buy them early in the year from the school.

On October 14 and 15 a performance of, Don't Drink The Water will be held in the Middle School auditorium. The October 7 performance was cancelled but those tickets are still valid for the two upcoming performances. Some high school students are involved in this production and they ask for your support.

Though you may not want to drink the water you can certainly drink juice along with your doughnuts each school morning thanks to the National Honor Society. Monday through Friday beginning at 7:30 in the morning, the Honor Society will be selling doughnuts and juice as part of a fundraiser in the cafeteria. Members are needed to assist with the sale; please see Mrs. Caldwell for details.

If you have any interst in this unique part of our judicial system meet with Dr. Lemmey in room 204.

The Hicksville High Girls' Varsity Swim Team continues to triumph over their competition. Jeanine Sirey and Kristen Mundled the team to a 99-52 victory over Freeport with some help from Tara Hooper and Cynthia Gaylor who achieved personal bests. Both Jeanine and Kristen are moving toward their third consecutive undefeated season. From there, it is on to the New York State Championships in Albany.

In a time when nightclubs, or even late supper establishments, were very few, the Casa ranked as the supreme spot for very special occasions. Choices were limited. Anselmi's in Bethage and Wheatley Hills in Westbury were the nearest to Hicksville, but they lacked the glamour. San Su San in Mineola was a bit aucy and did not enjoy parental approval: Also failing to attract the young set was the hospitable Freeport Elks Club. However, it did conjure up the atmosphere of that special nocturnal feeling required for that night of youthful nights.

The Manhasset Friends Meeting House

Quaker Fair October 22

The annual Fair of the Manhasset Society of Friends (Quakers) will be held on Saturday, October 22 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., rain or shine, at the Meeting House at Northern Blvd and Shelter Rock Road. The ever popular Country Kitchen will have home made jams and jellies, various pickles, herb-vinegars and dried herbs. The Bakery Shop offers cookies, cakes and breads for the many who have not the time for home baking. For the children, used toys and books will be for sale. There will also be games outside for them to play. The White Elephant table offers many choice items at rock bottom prices which have come out of hiding in attics and basements, and at the Boutique one may find choice old linens and collectibles donated by members of Manhasset Meeting. Book lovers are sure to find books and records to suit their taste, bargains in both hard cover and paperback. There will also be a table of handcrafted pottery.

Lace, more in style than ever, will be sell-ing in narrow to broad widths, suitable for stoles, blouses, table cloths and pillows. There will also be a limited selection of fabrics and notions

Dried flower arrangements in gay baskets, wreaths and related gift items add to the holiday atmosphere of the Fair. For lanch not only will there be sandwiches, cof-fee and tea, but delicious home made soup. Out under the oak tree, hamburgers and hot dogs will be plentiful. On the porch there will be fresh farm vegetables and fruits as well as cider by the cun or up well as cider by the cup or jug.

Fair goers are invited to inspect the 150 year old Meeting House, recently designated as a historical landmark.

Jewish Center, Jerusalem Avenue and Maglie Drive.

Dog Obedience School At Bide-A-Wee Home

What makes a pet a good family member? The family member who takes the time and has the patience to train a pet properly. For those family members who could use a little friendly advice, Bide-A-Wee Home in Wantagh has just the program to turn your unru-ly canine into a perfect pooch. Professional dog trainer Joseph Knapp is offering a sevenweek, once a week training course that covers everything from on-leash obedience training to solutions to various canine behavorial problems, such as house-breaking, jumping, chewing and non-stop barking. Classes are limited in size to allow for maximum personalized attention at a very affordable fee.

Bide A-Wee not only offers dog-training courses, but also a wide range of other ser-vices available to the public. Some of these include humane education, pet-memorial parks, pet loss grief counseling and animal facilitated therapy in health related facilities.

For additional information, or to register for the next dog obedience course, call Joseph Knapp at 433-1060.

Witches and Goblins and Ghosts, Oh My!

Witches, goblins, ghosts and the family pet are invited to attend Bide A-Wee's Halloween Party scheduled for Saturday, October 20th, from noon to 3 p.m. at the Westhampton shelter. There will be two separate costume contests for children 12 years and younger, and for pets which can be accompanied by either an adult or a child. An entry fee of f1 will be charged for each child or pet who registers for a contest. Admission is free to all others. The only guidelines to be follow-ed are — pets must be either on a leash, harness or in an appropriate carrier, and costumes for both children and pets must be safe and non-toxic. Exciting prizes will be awarded to the win-ners of the best in children's costumes and the best in pets' costumes. Some of the fabulous prizes have been donated by the Smithaven Mall in Lake Grove, Child's Play of Port Jefferson, Lillywhite, Harry and Son and Kid's Stuff of Southampton. Pets' prizes are courtesy of the Bide-A-Wee pet boutique. There will also be games, activities and Halloween refreshments.

Whether you have two or four legs, join the ghostly fun at the Westhampton Bide-A-Wee. Any child or pet who enters the con-test will receive a bag filled with Titck or Treat goodies that would delight even Frankenstein and Dracula!

For more information, call Bide-A-Wee Home located at 118 Old Country Road in Westhampton, at 516-325-0200.

Episcopal Congregation Marks its 90th Year

"Glimpses of Hicksville's Past" highlighted the opening service for Holy Trinity Episcopal Church's goth Anniversary year observances, last week. Invited by Pastor Dominick Cian-nella as guest-homilist for the historic occanella as guest-homilist for the historic occa-sion was Richard Evers, Historian for the Hicksvile Gregory Museum. Expressing his "sense of honor and joy" at being able to share in Trinity's "commendable service to God and man", the historian spoke of the years at the turn-of-the century in Hicksville when the church congregation was organized in 1800 organized in 1899. Mr. Evers, a member of St. Ignatius Loyola

Parish, was present for the third time as a guest homilist, whose previous messages concerned the earliest church history of this region." This has become my church away from church," he said.

The guest-homilist endeavored to recreate The guest-homiss endeavored to recreate the natural scene, the economy and social and political life of Hicksville, weaving this environmental information into an assort-ment of stories of bygone churchmen, con-gregational problems and church and tem-blocurodings. Hole Their poisconal Churche ple foundings. Holy Trinity Episcopal Church's place in Hicksville religious chronicles were recalled, with affectionate references to to-day's loving, caring community, to its beautiful church and colorful ceremonical life and its congenial pastor and congregation.

Weight-Loss Program At Central General

A leading medical weight-loss treatment, The Optifast Program, will be affiliated with Central General Hospital in Plainview, begin-ning October 4. The program promotes ma-jor weight loss while reducing risks of heart disease, diabetes, and high blood pressure. Central General Hospital's Optifast Program is the first of its kind in Plainview. The advects program is designed for in-

The 26-week program is designed for individuals who are more than 50 pounds, or 30 percent above ideal weight. Its three part approach combines a physican-supervised fast, behavior modification, and exercise.

"For twelve of the 26 weeks, patients are on a modified fast, which means that instead of eating food, they consume the Optifast for mulation to ensure proper nutrition. The powered formulation, which contains 100% of the recommended daily allowances of pro-tein, vitamins, and minerals can be mixed with any non-caloric drink," explains Jac-queline Smith, M.S., R.D. Program Director at The Omiting Research and a Control at The Optifast Program located at Central

General Hopital. Individuals who wish to enter the program must undergo complete physical, nutritional and psychological assessments. Participants are treated on an outpatient basis and must return at least once a week for a series of medical tests and an examination. Changing Habits Essential In addition to fasting, patients participate in group sessions to learn new behaviors and ways of coping with the stresses of weight loss. The seminars are conducted by a behaviorist trained in obesity treatment. Pa-tients also attend education sessions to learn the nutritional value of food and how to shop and prepare food. and prepare food.

and prepare food. Exercise is another crucial component of the program, Patients work with exercise physiologists to learn about exercise techni-ques and increasing activity levels. For more information on The Opitfast Pro-gram located at Central General Hospital, call Jacqueline Smith at 032-0250.

Hicksville's Sharpshooter Explains the 'Games'

The 24th Olympiad was completed in Seoul, Korea. The Eighth Paralympics will also take place in Seoul, Korea and will use many of the same facilities.

International athletes in top physical con-International athletes in top physical con-dition completed in the Olympics. Interna-tional athletes with physical disabilities will also compete in the Paralympics. This was some of the information brought to the Hicksville Kiwanis Club by Ralph Marchese of the Human Resources Center in Albertson, N.Y. when he was the guest speaker at the September 28 luncheon meeting of the club.

Mr. Marchese spoke about the U.S. Dis-abled Sports Team which is composed of 500 top athletes and their coaches and represents a wide range of physical disabilities. Some a wide range of physical obsolutes, blind, have cerebral palsy, or are dwarfs. Regardless of their disability, the men and women on the team all share one thing in common: the strong competitive spirit that creates winners. The athletes qualify through national trials and are entered into competition by one of the four national disabled sports organization, namely: The National Wheelchair Athletic namely: The National Wheelchair Athletic Association, The U.S. Amputee Athletic Association, The U.S. Association of Blind Athletes, and The U.S. Cerebral Palsy Athletic Association. They are Group E members of the U.S. Olympic Committee and are recognized by the international disabled sports governing body. Dear Edith: Iam still puzzled about this "over-55" tax break when selling one's principal residence, up to $125,000 tax-free pro-fit. You keep asying (and I keep reading) "if you buy a more expensive residence within two years." What if we don't buy another home when we sell our home of 17 years but move to an apartment? Will you please straighten this out once and for all? —Mr. R.A.

A. You are confusing two different tax treatments for those who sell their own homes. The first allows sellers of any age to postpone tax on their profit if a more expen-sive replacement residence is bought within two years. That's a postponement, not the "over-55"

The other different tax break is the chance for up to 1125,000 profit, free of any federal income tax ever. You use this only once, and you choose when you want to use it, anytime after you're 55. You can use it whether you're buying another home or moving to an apartment after the sale. (It has nothing to do with the other "replacement residence" regulation, except that it can stretch to include that postponed-tax profit on earlier residences).

Difficulty Paying The Mortgage Dear Edith: We bought our home about three years ago. After making several repairs, we started having difficulty making payments on the mortgage. The mortgage company says we have six months to a year to come up with the payments. We have checked with a lawyer. He is saying sell the house or go bankrupt. We would like to keep our house. Are there any other alterhouse. Are there any other alter-natives?--Mrs. T.C.

A. Come up with the payments. When you don't pay exactly as promised, You're lucky they re offering you breathing space; they don't have to. Consumer Credit Counseling can be a great help. The non-profit agency may have a different name in your city; if you're in a small town, try the city phone book. If there's any way to get straightened out, they'll help with the process with the process. Beware, though, of rip-off "agencies" that

offer to straighten you out for large fees). Your lawyer is right. If it turns out you can't get current, you're better off selling the place promptly. Otherwise, you'll only get further in debt, and the legal costs of foreclosure will pile up. As for bankruptcy—follow your at### torney's guidance. Selling And Buying Dear Edith: My husband and I have two different opinions. He says we must sell our home and then buy the next one. I say you buy a home and then sell yours. Our home is free and clear, and buying another home would be cash.—Mrs. T.E.

A. Because your next purchase won't depend on a new mortgage, it's best to start by putting your present house on the market first. While you won't require a loan, your buyer might, and that could take three months or so. But as soon as your house is listed for sale, no harm in starting your

By Dagmar Fors Karppi

I've always enjoyed working with people. There is a wonderful family feeling, a feeling of shared effort for a common goal that makes of shared chort for a continuou goal due to allow things work well. When you can depend on the people who work for and with you, it is super. Looking for ways to make a team perform better is always of interest to me and I hope to you. Recently Kodak has been sponsoring a con-test between the pit crews at the Camel GT auto racing events. Here is what Kodak has to say about the interaction between the pit crews and the Kodak crews. It's my kind of

Crews and the Notak Crews. It's my kind or story. The Paper Sensitizing Division in Kodak Park at Eastman Kodak Company is respon-sible for coating black and white and color photographic papers. Keeping the produc-tion equipment running and in good shape is the joint responsibility of the Production Division and the Manufacturing Engineering and Maintenance Organization (MEMO). Applying some positive thinking, Al

Applying some positive thinking, Al Weber, Department Manager, MEMO, and Paul Walrath, Production Department Manager, brought a team of operators and mechanics together to address the issues of reducing downtime. This team had an idea: "Let's equate our

Their goals and objectives are very similar to our own," the team concluded.

Similar Goals

They want to get their cars back on the

track to win and keep them safe, and they must do it in the quickest possible time with smooth teamwork.

Weber's and Walrath's team simulated the "downtime" situation at Kodak Park with displays likening the situation at Kooak Park with displays likening the situation to a racing car and pit crew and by posting progress reports. The end result was too hours less of normal-ly scheduled downtown. To celebrate, breakfasts were held for all operators, mechanics and management. To carry the analogy even further, the team invited an analogy even further, the team invited an outstanding auto racing pit crew chief, Lawton Langston "Lanky" Foushee to speak. Foushee's experience proved to be an ex-cellent parallel for the MEMO group. As pit crew chief of Group 44 Inc. of Winchester, VA, Foushee's Jaguar team had set the record in the Kodak Copier Pit Crew com-petition in 1987. His team also had won the Kodak Copier Pit Crew tildes two years in a row Formely with the US Alt Fource for as row. Formerly with the US Air Force for 25 years, he was part of the mechanical team that maintained the Presidential plane, Air Force I, in the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration.

Where You Win or Lose

"Auto races are won on the race track, but they can be lost in the pit stops," Foushee said, "And that can be true of industry, too. The race track and manufacturing have many parallels, but mainly it's teamwork, people, working together for the best possible result. Like industry, 'downtime' in the pit affects our productivity. You can't win by sitting in the pit." Foushee' five-man pit crew had a clear, well-defined objective in the Kodak Copier Pit Crew contest. The team had to change four tires, clean the windshield, refuel and change drivers. They did so in about 17 seconds. After the first 10 seconds into the pit stop, Foushee started yelling the time on a bullhorn to emphasize the need for speed-up.

Good Tools Foushee noted that tool design is also im-portant in both manufacturing and pit stops. "For example," Foushee said, "sockets remov-ing nuts from thes during a race are made so that the nut stays in them. If a nut should fall out of the socket, it could cost valuable seconds to set the nut by hand."

To accomplish perfection, Foushee's crew practices constantly.

Enthusiasm

"What we look at as much as the ability of crew members is their enthusiasm," Foushe said. We want five people enthusiastically working together to make a winning and safe car. Yes, they may be performing at times what appears to be mundane tasks, and often they don't get the recognition they deserve.

But good teamwork is swiftly rewarded. "Each pit person must be able to say he did his dead level best with the materials he had. That's the way I see it in industry, too. You have In a sine way is seen in mously, too, boundare to believe in yourself and your company and, in the direction you're going. "I known I'm impressed with what I see of the Kodak operation." Foushee mentioned that some of the best arrangement. As for how to get the key, and how to get the tenant to live up to her lease—that's a matter of personalities. Perhaps you weren't meant to be a landlord. Tenant selection is a skill; so it asserting your rights. You don't say what the violations of lease were. If you or neighbors are disorbed by loud noises, for example, ask the police to handle it. improvements come from the pit crew members themselves.

The Workers Make Suggestions Larry Cass, a MEMO unit manager, echoed that observation, saying. "The involvement of people is very crucial to our success. When you get people involved, good things happen." Many of our problems are solved by the employees. And I've noticed we're getting very good at that, particularly in the last few years."

Good Use of Down Time "MEMO Is much like a pit operation. When a machine stops at our pit, we must be ready with our windows of opportunity and have maintenance planned to cut the downtime' period. Any time amachine is in our pit' we try to do something a little extra in repair that helps cut the total of 'downtime' over an extended period of time. In addition to the main repair problem, we look for other times we can improve. "We've been seeing increased use of the
