

Metered Parking Coming To East Marie St. Lots

Customers of East Marie Street merchants will no longer be "edged out" by commuters, as the Town of Oyster Bay plans to install parking meters.

The Hicksville Illustrated News learned through a series of interviews last month that merchants wanted the meters because commuters were parking in the area of their stores all day long.

At last week's Town of Oyster Bay board meeting, the board said that the meters will have a four-hour limit and will cost 25 cents. The meters will be in parking fields H-8, H-9 and H-12—located on East Marie Street and the municipal lots bordered by East Marie and East Nicholas Streets.

"This is good for shoppers because it makes it very difficult for commuters to park," said town spokesperson Phyllis Souther.

Use of the meters will be required from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday except holidays. The meters will apply to all stalls in the parking field and will displace all of metered and non-metered parking.

EXXON Can Modernize, But Must Comply With Town's 28 Restrictions

The Exxon gas station at Old Country Road and South Oyster Bay Road has been granted permission to modernize the existing gas station, but will have to comply with 28 restrictions.

Also, the station can not begin work until the site plan has been approved by the town, said Phyllis Souther, town spokesperson.

One of the restrictions includes no sale of food and other convenience store products without first obtaining a special use permit from the town board after a public hearing. Among other restrictions are: No facilities for overnight truck storage and no games of amusement. The entire area shall be effectively policed to eliminate paper, trash, oil cans, grease spots, etc., so as to present an overall clean and neat appearance; all exterior lights shall be located, positioned and directed so they do not interfere with or cause annoyance or inconvenience to traffic or the surrounding areas. There will be no charge for the use of air hoses or any other equipment intended for the servicing of vehicle. A new stockade fence must be erected and maintained along the western border of the property.

Hicksville Residents Concerned About Loss of Trees Caused by Road Repairs

Town of Oyster Bay Says Tree Loss Unavoidable

By Rita Langdon

Southeast Hicksville residents are concerned that trees in their area may be subject to damage caused by road improvements, but the Town of Oyster Bay maintains that some tree loss is unavoidable.

Garden Civic Association president Rosella Maggio said, "With all this work going on, a lot of trees were removed and a lot of trees have died because of the [construction]."

Mike Kwaschyn, civil engineer for the Town's Department of Public Works, said that the town tries to save the trees whenever possible. "Every tree is put on the preliminary plan [for road repair]. We check every tree to see if we can possibly save it."

Conversely, Mrs. Maggio said, "The trees make the whole street. Every time work is done, are we going to be in jeopardy of losing our trees?"

Mr. Kwaschyn said, "Yes. You can't put back a 40 year-old tree; but they'll put back a sapling, which will eventually grow."

"We check every tree to see if we can possibly save it."

CONSTRUCTION ON EDWARD Avenue (shown above) is 90 percent finished. Road repair on such streets as Jonathan Avenue (also shown above where it crosses Edward), is being planned.

ARROW NO. 1 POINTS to car splashing through a huge puddle on New South Road, right before the railroad tracks. ARROW NO. 2 points to a tremendous puddle at Commerce Place and New South Road. Garden Civic Association president Rosella Maggio said that in the winter "it's like an ice skating rink" in that area. The Town of Oyster Bay is conducting a preliminary study of New South Road, but it waiting for budget approval.

Town of Oyster Bay Councilwoman Ann Ocker said that the town is aware of the residents' concerns for the trees. This month the town formed the Town of Oyster Bay Tree Management Commission to ensure the ongoing and effective care and preservation of Oyster Bay's tree resources, said Town Supervisor Angelo Dellagatti.

Mrs. Ocker noted that maple trees raise the sidewalks and cause cracks. She said that the Town is considering replacing the maples, of which there are many in Hicksville, with pin oaks and Bradford Pear trees. "You may feel badly when you see a big tree go down, but it will be replaced," Mrs. Ocker said. "You have to go with the times. If the tree has to come down, it has to come down because it's certainly in the way of making the proper repairs."

Road Repair Plans

Town workers are marking and measuring the following streets in southeast Hicksville for future road repair construction:

Arnold St., Robert Ave., Dove St., Tudor Road, Eton Lane, Fern Court, Ridge Court, Lyon Court, Jonathan Ave.

New South Road is in the preliminary plan stage, pending funding approval from 1989 Town of Oyster Bay budget.

Walter Avenue and Edward Avenue scheduled for completion by April 1989.

Construction Plans

Town of Oyster Bay workers have marked surfaces with red, yellow, blue and green lines on some streets, such as Jonathan Avenue, Tudor Road, Arnold Street, Ridge Court and Robert Avenue. The town's Department of Public Works is continuing a major road reconstruction program which began in 1984. Under the program, the town surveys curbs, drainage and catch basins to determine how current flooding can be corrected.

Mr. Kwaschyn said at the Garden Civic meeting last week that construction in the town is based on road deterioration. "We pick the worst areas and do those first and try not to go back there for 20 years, except for minor repairs, such as to fill in pot holes."

Huge Puddles on New South Rd.

Residents have also expressed concern about the huge puddles that form at the corner of Commerce Place and New South Road, on the north side of the railroad tracks. "It floods right before the tracks, and in the winter it's an ice skating rink."

'On New South Road it floods right before the tracks, and in the winter it's an ice skating rink.'

Mr. Kwaschyn said, "We have become aware of the problem on New South Road and there is a preliminary study going on. Something definitely needs to be done."

The town is reviewing the needs for the road repair work on New South Road, however, the preliminary plan is waiting approval of the town's 1989 budget. He added that if the town approves the construction, the plan is then sent to Albany to review. He noted, "Albany might say you can't go into that much indebtedness. Albany decides [whether to implement] the plan based on taxpayer's rates."

"Our road repair work and drainage work is tremendous in the Town of Oyster Bay. It's never-ending," said Mrs. Ocker.

Rapist Caught Within an Hour of Vicious Attack

By A. Anthony Miller

A Levittown man was arrested at 6:15 a.m. Nov. 15, less than an hour after he slugged a Westbury woman and raped her on North Newbridge Road.

Charged with first degree rape and second degree assault, both felonies, was Michael Slater, who was arrested at his home by Officer William Collins of the eighth precinct.

Detectives said the case began at 5:30 a.m. when Slater accosted a 37-year-old woman who was power walking on Newbridge Road, about 200 feet north of Stewart Avenue in Hicksville. Slater, who was southbound in a 1980 Camaro, reportedly stopped the car and ordered the woman to get in. When she refused, Slater allegedly hit her on the head and threw her into the car. The victim promptly got out, and Slater then is said to have thrown her to the ground, hit her on the head and raped her.

The victim was treated and released at Nassau County Medical Center. Slater, who had driven off after the attack, was arrested at 6:15 a.m.

Free Diabetes Screening At Lions' Breakfast

Lions Club International has dedicated itself to the needs of the blind and sight-impaired for over 75 years. Since Helen Keller herself addressed the International Convention and dubbed them the "Knights of the Blind," Lions in over 150 countries have given their time and efforts to make these people feel at home as productive happy members of the community.

Since diabetes is the number one cause of blindness today, it was natural that the Lions Clubs would get involved in helping the public to be aware of this dangerous condition.

Hicksville Lions have been in the forefront of this crusade. By sponsoring Free Health Screenings and Awareness Programs, the Hicksville Lions have helped people to understand the early warnings of diabetes as well as glaucoma and high blood pressure. Many undiagnosed conditions have been discovered at these Screenings for which we are quite proud.

As in most diseases, early detection is the key. For a controlled diabetic can lead a happy, productive life without the old fear of losing limbs or their vision. The Hicksville Lions Club will be holding their free diabetes screening at their Annual Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, November 27 at Holy Trinity Episcopal Church on Jerusalem Ave. and Old Country Rd. from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. The full health screening includes a diabetes screening, high blood pressure, glaucoma and a chiropractic screening.

The diabetes test is a blood sugar test and involved a very painless finger-prick to get a drop of blood—that's all it takes. If you are interested in participating in this screening, it is important to follow the following dietary guidelines or the test will be invalid.

MEREDITH WALLIN

The Wallins Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wallin celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary with their five children, by renewing their marriage vows at the World Out Reach Church in Sayville. Mrs. Wallin is the former Beverly Braun, daughter of Marian and the late Vince Braun. Their oldest daughter Meredith sang at the service. It was a lovely day for them and their families.

The Stiehlers Celebrate

Nadene and Conrad (Connie) Stiehler celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with their son Robert (Bob) by taking a ten-day cruise on the Mississippi Queen down the Mississippi River from St. Louis to New Orleans. From New Orleans they drove to Coral Springs, Florida to visit their granddaughter before returning to Hicksville.

Nadene and Connie were married November 28, 1928 at 8 p.m. at St. Stephen's Lutheran Church in Hicksville with Pastor Robert E. Peterman officiating. They then took a ten day honeymoon to Washington, D.C. and Florida on a train called the Atlantic Coast Linc.

Nadene and Connie had two sons, Kenneth, now deceased, and Robert, who is now living in Wayne, Maine. They have four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Connie came to Plainview on April 16, 1916 where his father had bought a farm, now Route 135, Oyster Bay Expressway, north of Old Country Road.

Nadene came to Hicksville in 1926 from Indianapolis, Indiana, where she was born. They now reside on Meadow Lane in Hicksville.

Connie could write a whole page on his memories of Hicksville and Plainview—where he is a Charter Member of the Plainview Fire Department, and was Chief from 1938-39. He can also write many memories of Hicksville: such as knowing the old timers—the streets—business stores—gold-leaf beating, etc.—which he promises he will do sometime.

We wish this lovely couple many more years of happily married life. Congratulations Nadene and Connie.

A Message To Ralph Diana:

Did you remember that your 20th Wedding Anniversary will be next Wednesday, November 30th? Are you going to surprise Gina—or will your children Lenny and Roseann surprise both of you? Happy Anniversary.

News From Tommy Heltz

He writes: "I'm enclosing a clipping from a newspaper 43 years ago this month about the ships that pulled into California with three Hicksville service men on them. Aboard the Chicago was George Karman and Ralph Santo. The Chicago participated in the demilitarization of Yokosuka and Oshima. I was aboard the Dayton. Our ship attained distinction by being the first Allied warship to bombard Tokyo Bay area July 15th. I thought some 'old servicemen' might like to remember the feeling we got as we pulled into dock.

"I would also like to tell you that my wife Lou and I became grandparents again for the seventh time Nov. 9th. We now have six granddaughters and one grandson. Our newest arrival is Katelin Grace Heltz daughter of James and Grace Heltz from Richmond, Vermont."

Did You Know????

TO YOUR HEALTH

By RICHARD H. BLAU, M.D.

Infectious Arthritis -- A Medical Emergency

Bacterial infection of the joint space is a medical emergency and requires prompt attention. When bacteria enters the joint and grows, substances are produced which can destroy the joint within days. Rapid medical treatment can often cure this form of arthritis.

The most frequent route bacteria use to enter the joint is through the bloodstream. This usually occurs when there is an infection elsewhere in the body. The most common sources of these infections are the lungs and the kidneys. Additionally, bacteria can be introduced into the joint by direct injury. Joints damaged through prior injury or arthritis are very susceptible to bacterial infection.

The symptoms of an infected joint can develop very rapidly. The joint usually becomes hot, red, and painful. Any joint may be involved, but the knee is most commonly affected.

Since many forms of non-infectious arthritis have similar symptoms, a correct diagnosis is important. Joint specialists (rheumatologists) will remove fluid from the joint. This will help confirm the diagnosis. Additionally, this fluid can be examined to rule out other causes of the joint inflammation.

Once a timely diagnosis of infectious arthritis is confirmed, appropriate antibiotics can be commenced, and the arthritis cured.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach: An Arthritis Overview."

The Winthrop Experience

Don't let your diabetes keep you from a full, fruitful life.

More than 11 million Americans — one in every 20 — are diagnosed as having diabetes. So if you're one of them, you're certainly not alone.

That's the grim news. The good news is that, even so, you can still lead a rich, satisfying life. But you must follow a proven regimen. And it helps to acquire a positive attitude.

At Winthrop-University Hospital, we're prepared to help you with both.

Our deep interest in diabetes goes back to 1979 when we pioneered a Diabetes Education Center, one of the first in the metropolitan area. Today that facility has grown to be one of the leaders in its field.

More importantly, the diabetes education program that has resulted is the first such program in New York State to receive official recognition from the American Diabetes Association as meeting the national standards for diabetic patient education.

It's Up to You

What this means to you is very clear: We are uniquely prepared to teach you how to get over the hurdles that diabetes puts in your path. What it requires on your part is a simple decision that this is the direction you want your life to go.

Classes are conducted by both a Registered Nurse and a Registered Dietitian, both Certified Diabetes Educators. A holistic approach is followed: Diet, medication, exercise — indeed your entire lifestyle — are all taken into consideration for the role each plays in keeping your diabetes under control. You will be kept abreast on subjects as diverse as blood glucose monitoring, stress management, current nutritional research and behavioral strategies for weight control.

Individual Attention

Classes are limited to 16 people. This assures that there is ample time during each session to address individual concerns. It also allows for class members to share their experiences and feelings so that others may gain support from this kind of open exchange.

The wide range of subject matter has

Children's Diabetes Club

Because children have special needs to help them cope with their illness, a Children's Diabetes Club has been organized in conjunction with the American Diabetes Association. It meets at the hospital one Saturday morning a month and is designed for those under the age of 12, together with their parents and siblings. It has already proven to be an important support group for hundreds of families. Admission is free.

been developed into a 20-hour, four-day program. Every effort has been taken to make the program convenient to all those who may wish to attend. It is offered both during the daytime (Monday through Thursday) and in the evening (starting at 6 p.m.) on two nights for two weeks.

The cost of tuition will, in many cases, be covered by your insurance but this will vary by the policy and the carrier. The program is also eligible for reimbursement under Medicare. We stand ready to help as much as possible in processing all insurance claims.

The fact is, if you have diabetes, nothing should keep you from enrolling in this program. Because there is no reason why, with proper awareness and appropriate self-discipline, you cannot learn to live as well-rounded a life as anyone else.

Just give us the chance to show you how.

If you'd like to know more, we have two pamphlets available: "Diabetes Education Center" and "The Children's Diabetes Club." Please indicate which you Write to Dept. A929 Office of Community Affairs.

The War on Drugs Has Reached Nassau County

By A. Anthony Miller

The War on Drugs has reached Nassau County, and must involve every man, woman and child.

That's the word from John Poklemba, the New York State Director of Criminal Justice Services, who addressed a "Citizens for Drug Free Communities" meeting in Mineola Oct. 27, and informed them that no one in Nassau County should consider themselves immune from the peril of illicit drugs.

"If men, armed, trained and fit for battle," are being killed, Poklemba said, a reference to seven officers who have died thus far this year, "none of us are safe." He went on to say that "drugs are everywhere — in every corner of the fabric of society."

As Criminal Justice Director, Poklemba, who has held the office just under one year, coordinates activities of numerous state agencies, including the state police, youth, parole, probation, and crime victims' boards.

"We can no longer afford to be silent,"

There is no single, magic formula for controlling the drug trade.

Poklemba urged, as he explained what the state has been doing, what has been left to us, and the role that each Nassau resident must play in the on-going war, a battle that he contends we are not winning.

"Drugs are the top agenda items at every level of government," Poklemba added, reporting that within the past five years, there has been a 138% increase in drug activity in the state's suburbs, including Nassau. "The drug trade has pulled out of the inner cities," said Poklemba, "and we are finding drug factories in suburbia."

There is no single magic formula for controlling the drug trade, he warned, noting a three-pronged effort being made by the state: a step-up in domestic law enforcement, including task forces which concentrate on areas where drug trafficking is highest; community involvement to undercut the demand for drugs; and the necessity to break the cycle of drug addiction, including increased treatment for abusers.

Poklemba explained that those illegally involved in drugs are well-equipped, spend freely to match and surpass law enforcement resources, and in many instances, have better technology than the police. To combat this, he said, New York will need "more cops, judges, and more prisons." Felony drug indictments, Poklemba claims, rose by 20% between 1983 and 1987, and convictions tripled during that time frame. He said that more legislation would be needed, primarily a stiff increase in fines. He especially noted the need to target drug dealers who involved children — as young as nine years old — in the sale of illicit substances, echoing a discovery made last summer by Nassau District Attorney assignment, and his mother, Mineola resident Geraldine Solosky and her family, realized that he might have been the officer selected at random for execution by the violent crack dealers of South Jamaica.

The parents organized the Citizens group, pledging to "exert their influence in the public arena in the critical war on drugs." After organizing a 15-member board, and striving to increase their membership and activities, they try to help by encouraging public Denis Dillon, after major drug arrests in New Cassel and Hempstead several months ago focused on this problem.

There are 55 prisons in New York at present, according to Poklemba, and the state is finding space for more. In response to one question, he said that the former prison at Brentwood would not reopen, as the state does not wish to put prisons where local population groups oppose them.

serious commitment to treatment," he concluded, noting that those addicted to drugs will need help to overcome their problem. "The drug situation poses a problem for all of us," was his theme, as he urged the more than 150 in attendance to continue the efforts begun by the Citizens group.

The "Citizens for Drug Free Communities" was formed earlier this year by the parents of a policeman who served in the 103rd Precinct with Police Officer Edward Byrne of Massapequa, who was murdered last Feb. 26 while guarding the home of a man who gave authorities information on illicit drug sales.

Kenneth Solosky not only served with Officer Byrne, but at one time had the same officials, from Gov. Cuomo down, to make what they term "necessary changes" in administrative, legislative and judicial systems, to promote awareness of the pervasiveness assistant district attorney in the Bronx, former law assistant in the state supreme court appellate division, and former deputy counsel in the Office of Court Administration.

Many of those who listen to Poklemba then posed questions, some calling on the governor's representative to urge reinstatement of the death penalty. Gov. Cuomo has gone on record as opposing the death penalty, as did his predecessor, former Gov. Hugh Carey.

Poklemba alluded to new federal legislation which provides for greater commitment to drug treatment and calls for a death penalty for certain drug-related offenses. This law may be applied in New York State, but has not yet been tested in court. The congressional enactment has been called a "halfway decent drug bill," but both sponsors and critics have noted that more, much more, will be needed before the war against drugs can be called successful.

Within the past five years, there has been a 138% increase in the drug activity in the state's suburbs, including Nassau.

He explained the success of illegal drugs: "The cash drug market is very attractive," especially for the young and previously disadvantaged. Poklemba admitted, and to combat this, police and the schools "must provide positive role models." There must be, he insisted, "the knowledge of a swift and certain punishment and effective drug education in the chemistry, biology and psychology of drug dependency."

"No one policy can succeed without a of the drug problem at all levels of society, to foster educational plans to assist youngsters in avoiding drugs, and to advocate mutual cooperation between various law enforcement agencies charged with the enforcement of drug-related cases.

As part of this plan, the Citizens invited Poklemba and Thomas DeJesu, Gov. Cuomo's regional representative, to a meeting held at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Jericho Turnpike. Poklemba, 41, is an attorney, a former

M&M Players Bring 'Circus' from Pool to Stage

While most folks are waiting for Santa to come to town, the Our Lady of Mercy Rosary Altar Society of Hicksville is looking forward to the circus coming to town as it prepares for the holiday show "Come Join the Circus."

Each year, the M & M Players, made up of Society members, supply the entertainment for the annual Christmas party. Under the direction of Marge Carr and Mary Heinz, this troupe has been together more than 10 years. Summer months are spent planning the theme of the show, picking out music and forming the cast. Mary has an in-ground swimming pool, and entire meetings have been spent in the water. Marge and Mary supply delightful coffee, cake and goodies which make it an enjoyable social event as well.

Come September, the cast gets down to serious rehearsals. Members range in age from 20 to 80. Two ladies in their eighties are Mary Kilkenny and Kay Freilingsdorf. Kay also makes most of the beautiful costumes that are worn in the shows. Two and three nights a week are spent learning and perfecting dance routines. Choreography is directed by Pat Joseph, Carol Kokol, Marge Lorenz and Nancy Thomas. Numbers include tap and jazz. (Personal Note: At fifty-five years of age, Barbara Dircks got her first pair of tap shoes and had a ball - who says life begins at forty?) folk dance, pantomime, etc. Singers go over the music; comedy acts try out new material, and before you know it, the show takes shape. With all the family celebrations at Thanksgiving, the M & M Players still make time for rehearsal the night before the holiday. The first dress rehearsal is usually a disaster, but that's what dress rehearsals are for, to find out what still has to be done.

The Our Lady of Mercy Rosary Altar Society Annual Christmas party is held on the first Monday in December. For the M & M players, it is opening night. Show people have an expression, "break a leg" which means, good luck. Thank goodness no one ever broke a leg, but one of the directors, Mary Heinz, performed with a cast on her broken arm and Pat Quinn performed with a 102 degree fever; however, the show must go on!

After the Christmas party and a public performance, the show is taken "on the road" to the various nursing homes, Central Island Nursing Home, Woodbury Nursing Home and the United Presbyterian Nursing Home. No matter how great the response is at the Christmas Party and at the public performance, there is no greater joy than to see someone in the nursing home tapping his or her foot to a lively dance routine or singing along with a familiar melody. For an hour or so they are young again, age and cares put aside to fully enjoy the time spent with the M & M Players. Lots of hugging, hand holding and a few tears are shared.

This year's show features a ringmaster who heads up a parade of clowns, a dancing "elephant", jazz and tap circus routines, monkey puppets, songs from the circus world and much more. Here is an invitation to come follow the circus band; this is a show the whole family will enjoy.

A public performance will be held on December 10 at the Our Lady of Mercy school auditorium, South Oyster Bay Road, Hicksville. Time of the show is 8:30 p.m. Donation: $4 adult, $1 child/12 and under. For ticket information - call:

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only. We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

To The Editor:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank my neighbors who reside in the 14th Assembly District for their overwhelming support in my 1988 re-election effort.

I believe that public service is the highest calling and I promise to do all in my power to justify the confidence placed in me.

I am especially proud because my vote was the highest for any assembly candidate in the state and the percentage (nearly 80%) the highest of any contested race outside New York City.

I want to thank you for your excellent coverage of the issues and for your constant commitment and involvement in our communities.

We in New York State have many challenges confronting us including a large budgetary deficit, the LILCO-Shoreham dilemma and the crisis in school aid funding. In addition, I am especially concerned with the problems of water and air quality, crime, education and our regressive tax system.

My door is always open to be of assistance on any matter or to discuss new ideas.

Again, I am most appreciative for the trust and support. Thank you.

Frederick E. Parola
Member of Assembly
14th District

To The Editor,

I sincerely hope you can publish this enclosed letter.

In today's world of drugs, drink and crime, I feel that it would be refreshing for your readers to hear of a group of clean-cut hard working young adults. They richly deserve to have the community be aware of them.

Sincerely,

Doris R. Webster

This is an open letter to the Hicksville High School Marching Band and Color Guard.
Dear Band Members,

Almost four years ago, my daughter, Michele, was invited to join the Marching Cornets Band. At the same time, I became a Band Parent.

Since that first competition where 18 musicians and a kick-line of 36 were fielded, I have witnessed many changes. Now, you march almost 100 strong plus a color guard of 12 to 14. Your drill is crisp and your music pretty awesome. But, the biggest change is in you, yourselves!

On November 7, 1988, at the Championships in Mineola, every parent cheering you on had ample cause to cheer. We watched you march toward the grandstands - immaculate, proud, instruments gleaming and held high, color guard flags fluttering in the wind. You were a unit, not individuals. That cold and windy evening, you looked and sounded so professional that we watched and cheered through lumps in our throats and tears in our eyes. We were so proud of every one of you! The band placed second with the highest score you've ever attained. In our hearts, you were first!

Last night, at the family dinner, you gave me flowers and said "thank you" for my help. I thanked you then. Now I am saying it publicly so that your entire community knows what a hard-working impressive group of young adults they have representing them!

Thank you to all of you!

Doris (Mom) Webster

P.S. This does not mean you can rest on your laurels. After Jon's graduation in two years, I hope to have "Hicksville - first place with a score of 90" ringing in my ears.

To The Editor:

A thank you is extended to the Hicksville Illustrated News for the coverage of all youth organization news. Children (and parents too!) like to see their names in print and your newspaper is always willing to find space to assist.

Recently my son Brian and two of his friends, Erin Bartley and Mary Brzozowski, found a used hypodermic needle on Jerusalem Avenue (Hicksville). These teenagers had the presence of mind of call Nassau County Police and the needle was disposed of. What this did was reinforce my commitment to help the youth organizations my children are involved in.

Volunteers are always needed for our youth organizations. If you have some extra time and want to help the youth of Hicksville, please contact your organization and volunteer.

Send Us Your Holiday Memories

Do you have a favorite holiday memory that you would like to share with our readers? It can be anything from buying the Christmas tree to opening that toy you wished for. Or did a special relative pay a visit during the season? Or maybe you remember the first time you spun a dreidel? How about when you watched mom light the Menorah candles for the first time? Send us a brief story, no more than 200 words (or one type-written page.) Our address is Hicksville Illustrated News, 132 East Second Street, Mineola, New York 11501, attention Rita Langdon. Stories will be published in one of our December issues.

Holiday 'Wish List'

To help our readers get in the spirit, we're putting together a Holiday Wish List. Those with more idealistic desires may ask for world peace, an end to hunger, unilateral disarmament or a cure for cancer. So do we, and we're sure those "wishes" will top the list. Others may request simpler things such as the winning lottery numbers, a fully-loaded Corvette or a "cottage" in Amagansett. Or, even simpler, a Cabbage Patch Kid, the latest CD or a new sweater. Again, so do we. In the next few weeks, we expect to be bombarded with "wishes" from all of our readers, young and old, sincere and whimsical. We've included a nice form to make your participation in this effort that much easier. If you have more than one wish or need more space than is provided, feel free to be as eloquent and greedy as you wish. The form is suggested, not required, because whatever way the "wishes" come in, we'd love to hear from you. Happy wishing!

Thanksgiving

When I think about Thanksgiving, I think about many things. Past memories, whether happy or sad, makes us grow as people.

We don't like the painful memories; such as illness, death in the family, end of friendships, or financial problems; for instance—losing your job, or as in World War II, when we had to use ration stamps and coins.

They told us the Pilgrims had turkey on the First Thanksgiving. In my childhood we only had turkey on Thanksgiving Day itself. We found Mom's sausage dressing worth waiting for.

Whether family is near or far, you still have a close bond with family. You are thankful for life, food, clothing, shelter, and special people to share your life and memories with.

Happy Thanksgiving
—Deanne F. Purcell

EDITORIAL AND OPINION

A Letter from Lulubelle...

...I think of myself as being very up-to-date and forward looking, but sometimes, I am astonished to learn how long it takes me to catch up with some of the good new things that make life so easy...For example, we recently bought our first garage door opener...Now, all these years we thought it wasn't so difficult to get out of the car on a stormy night, unlock the door, pull it up against its will, go back to the car and drive in and then pull that recalcitrant cord to lower the door—but, my goodness, what emancipation to have a door opener—one little push on that magic button and in you drive, without wetting your little footsies in the rain—and one more push and down comes the door, while you stroll into your house, safe from the elements...I haven't decided if the remote control button for the television is such a boon—it seems to have a disastrous effect on the masculine species...For some reason, just when you are lost in a show, he starts pushing buttons wildly and there you are, looking at snippets of two dozen shows, none of which pleases him...And if you protest, he says, "Oh, I didn't know you liked that boring show"...This does not seem to be a feminine compulsion—only men feel compelled to examine every channel on their push button control...Smoke alarms we all applaud and wish everyone would get them...And then there are things that must have been there all along, but not in my awareness...like these wonderful little red potatoes—Where did they come from?...Suddenly, they are in many restaurants and we are all using them and they taste so good and "potato-ey"...And just recently, one of my friends said, "Do you remember when we used to blot our lipstick?...Oh, my, I didn't know we had stopped and I steered her away from my powder room, where she would have seen all those red kisses on the kleenex in the waste basket and she would have known that I was—once again—not come il faut or a la mode...And please don't let anyone know that we still have rotary telephones in our house!!

Yours, Lulubelle

What the Politicians are Saying...

From ASSEMBLYMAN CHARLES J. O'SHEA: The Displaced Homemaker Program, celebrating its 10th anniversary, provides counseling and job placement assistance to women who are recently widowed, separated, or divorced; or whose spouse's disability prevents him or her from working. Clients entering the program are matched with a variety of jobs which range from secretarial and management trainee positions to construction and health care jobs. It is estimated that there are 1 million displaced homemakers in New York State. Residents of Nassau County who wish information may call the Displaced Homemakers' Service Center at 481-2103, or write: Displaced Homemakers' Service Center, Christ's First Presbyterian Church, Washington Street and Fulton Avenue, Hempstead, NY, 11550.

DEPUTY SENATE MAJORITY LEADER JOHN R. DUNNE (R-Nassau) has announced that a new Senate Brochure entitled "Help for Going to College" is now available. It will help parents and students understand the various resources available from the State and Federal Governments for defraying college expenses. For the brochure, call 222-0068 or write to Senator Dunne at 550 Stewart Avenue, Garden City, NY, 11530.

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development has presented an $11,371,000 Development Block Grant to the Nassau County Office of Housing and Intergovernmental Affairs, according to NASSAU COUNTY EXECUTIVE THOMAS S. GULOTTA. The grant will assist the county in providing funds for upgrading communities, and funding to aid the disabled senior citizens. Designated areas include the Town of Hempstead, North Hempstead, cities of Glen Cove and Long Beach, and the villages of Hempstead, Freeport, and Rockville Centre. In addition, funds will be allocated for the planning and administration of programs to assist the elderly and disabled.

In response to mounting concerns about the handling and disposal of household chemicals and other toxic materials, SENATOR RALPH J. MARINO (R-Oyster Bay) has announced remedial legislation and the release of a report on the subject: The Marino bill would establish a state-assisted program for periodic collection and disposal of household hazardous waste to assist communities in creating a local separation and collection program. The report points out the controversy brewing in the scientific community as to whether hazardous household products can be safely disposed of with other solid waste in the new, state-of-the-art facilities, or whether they need to be handled separately. The legislation would further prohibit the use of non-biodegradable plastic shopping bags, styrofoam food containers, and plastic straws and eating utensils.

Thanksgiving Wishes from Tom Gulotta

Turkeys are being prepared; stuffing ingredients are ready; college students are home. Thanksgiving is here. Throughout Nassau County, we are already witnessing the signs of this most exciting time of year. Store-front windows and street decorations all serve to remind us that the holiday season has begun. Betsy and I extend to each of you and your families a warm and sincere greeting for a happy and healthy holiday season.

While we all face daily struggles with our hectic pace of life, we can be thankful for the blessings we share.

Enjoy time together with family and friends. We must remember that, while the world outside may not be perfect, we can be thankful for all the benefits which this country provides. It is the greatest nation in the world, and we have been endowed with numerous rights and privileges that residents in many other countries do not enjoy!

Take a welcome break for the Thanksgiving Holiday and let us all give thanks that we are, both as a country and individually, able to enjoy the freedom and privileges which our predecessors have fought so hard to preserve over the years!

From the Gulotta family to yours, Happy Thanksgiving.

With A Little Help

By Suzanne Lunt

Don't Mess With Me

If a couple of innocents fresh off the farm were whisked onto a busy suburban street, would they soon be singing, How You Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm after They've Seen Parade? Well, maybe; maybe not. Depends on the street.

On a street without sidewalks, it's not walk and jog; it's flinch and dodge. You dodge dog-walkers and flinch as they swoop to scoop. You dodge bikes, buses, bulldozers, skateboards, vans, trucks, jeeps, motorcycles, cars and construction crews while you flinch from fellow bipeds whose Sonys and adrenalin highs have transformed them into collision-course zombies.

So do you long for the days when people promenaded at stately gaits past leisurely horse-drawn carriages; nobody scooped and skirts swept the sidewalks?

No! Well, I do. And I also long to discourage moving objects bent on mowing me down. I also wonder what I'd do if faced with a mugger.

Three gadgets say to muggers and mowers down, "Don't mess with me!"

The Loud-Stik looking like a swagger stick, emits light through its shafts, has a built-in airhorn supposedly audible up to a mile away and comes in four forms—a 14" Mini, 10 oz when fitted with 2 C-batteries, having a clamp for bikes, strollers, etc., and costing $29.95; the 20" Standard, 1 lb. 2 oz., $39.95; the Maxi which is an illuminated cane—also $39.95—and a marine one that floats. Contact Loud-Stik Corp., Box 2248, Kensington, MD (800-THE STIK). Another option is:

Alarm-a-Lite: has a piercing 85-decibel alarm (the same alarm used in burglar-alarm systems everywhere) plus a powerful, magnified light to illuminate doorways and sidewalks. It comes as a 8-oz. hand unit with wrist-strap (about $35) or as a push-button adjustable cane (about $50). Both the cane's or the handgrip and its overall design center your weight in line with the cane's shaft for stability. Contact your surgical supplier or Lumex (800) 424-2458.

Emergency Alarm - a battery-powered device for wheelchair, cane or walker. When pressed, it gives off a loud sound and continues to be heard from until you shut it off. It's $24.99 from Sears and when calling, tell Sears it's from their Health Care catalog '88/89, page 31, item #8AH 16569, weighing 10 oz.

Brandishing any of the above will rout not only muggers and mowers down, but also coons from the cornfield, cats from the bird-feeder, salesmen from the door and suitors from your daughter.

ROBERT R. McMILLAN'S

Direct Line

Just a few years back a sailor was beaten to death by the terrorist hijackers of a TWA plane. Middle East terrorists with PLO ties beat him; stomped him; and shot him. They then pushed his almost lifeless body out of the plane and onto the runway of a Beirut airport.

Other terrorists, related to the PLO, shot and killed an American tourist and pushed his body into the Mediterranean. Bombing and mid-air explosions were the order of the day. After strikes at the terrorists in Libya, their actions lessened. Some say that terrorism is no longer a threat. However, make no mistake about it, terrorism still exists and it has moved to the West Bank. There, day after day, PLO instigated riots and work stoppages take place.

It is clear that conditions on the West Bank threaten Israeli security and make it imperative that American policy in the Mid-East results in a peaceful, permanent resolution of differences between the antagonists. But we must also recognize that Israel cannot accept peace at any price.

Because Israel is our best friend, in an island surrounded by sharks bent on entirely devouring her, it is important that Americans work to strengthen the special relationship that exists with Israel. We must continue to broaden the strategic, economic and cultural ties between our two great democracies.

America has a moral obligation to Israel. America and Israel have the same long-term interests, and here are just a few of the areas which America must resolve.

It is important that Israel remain militarily superior to her adversaries. Only from such a position of strength should Israel then sit down and engage in direct negotiations with her responsible Arab neighbors regarding the status of the West Bank and Gaza. The only acceptable participants in such discussions are nations who recognize Israel's sovereignty and independence under U.N. Resolutions 242 and 338. Let us hope the PLO follows through on its recently stated intentions. Israel must not negotiate with organizations such as the PLO unless those organizations renounce terrorism and recognize Israel's right to exist.

Our government must continue to oppose any provisional Palestinian state and should ban all arms sales to Arab nations bent on Israel's destruction.

There must also be regional economic cooperation in the Mid-East. The United States must focus its economic development effort in the region on critical resource issues such as the water crisis facing Israel, Egypt and Jordan.

We must never waver in our support of the Helsinki Accords and the right of Soviet and Ethiopian Jews to emigrate to Israel. Our nation must continue to work for the repeal of U.N. General Assembly Resolution 3379, which equated Zionism with racism. The sponsorship and passage of that resolution in 1975 was, and continues to be, a moral outrage.

We must, as Americans, keep a focus on those bent on the destruction of Israel. They are not our friends. They are aligned with the interests of the Soviet Union. The Middle East is as much about U.S.-Soviet power relations as it is about Israeli relations with its neighbors. The role of the United States in the Middle East must be constant and consistent with the security interests of Israel.

Capitol Hill Journal

By Martin Burns

Contrary to what you may think, there are still a few more political contests scheduled before the 101st Congress convenes in January. The most important of these is for the majority leader of the Senate. As the Democrats maintained control of the Senate, they will select one of their own for the post.

The three candidates for the majority leader position are Bennett Johnston, of Louisiana, Daniel Inouye, of Hawaii, and George Mitchell, of Maine. At the moment, many perceive Sen. Johnston as the front-runner. In 1986, Johnston briefly challenged Sen. Robert Byrd, of West Virginia, for the majority leader post. Johnston quickly pulled out of the race when it was apparent that Byrd had more votes than he needed.

Johnston may pick up support from those senators who feel that following their party's failure to capture the White House, now is the time to move to political center. The fact that Johnston is from the south may feel to his advantage.

Although at this point he is certainly an underdog, Sen. Mitchell should definitely not be counted out. Mitchell is very popular and well respected by his colleagues.

It was he, as the chairman of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, who engineered the Democrats' recapture of the Senate in 1986. Mitchell also performed very well in the Iran-Contra Hearings. In addition, in this age of video politics, Mitchell is regarded as more telegenic than Johnston.

It is almost certain that the Republicans in the Senate will continue to be led by Sen. Robert Dole, of Kansas. Dole was George Bush's principal opponent for the Republican presidential nomination. Following Dole's victory in the Iowa caucuses, many predicted that he would be his party's nominee.

In the last few days, there has been some friction between Dole and Bush. During the final phase of Bush's presidential campaign, Dole met with James Baker, the chairman of the Bush campaign, in an effort to persuade Bush to do more for Republican senatorial candidates. Dole has made some public statements which indicate that he feels that Bush did not do enough to help the Republicans capture the Senate.

As the leader of the Senate Republicans, Dole will have to be "the point man" for the Bush legislative agenda on Capitol Hill. Bush's advisers are probably urging him to meet personally with Dole to smooth out their differences.

With Sen. Quayle's elevation to the vice presidency, speculation on Capitol Hill has turned to the topic of who Indiana Governor Robert Orr will appoint to fill the vacancy.

The favorite candidate to replace Quayle to the Senate is Rep. Dan Coats. He represents the same district as Quayle did when he served in the House of Representatives. In addition, Coats served as Quayle's district representative for three years, when Quayle was a congressman.

Election Day 1988 - the View From Washington

Election day dawned quietly here in Washington. As you might expect, Capitol Hill was deserted as representatives and senators were back in their home districts and states. The scene at the White House was almost as still. President Reagan had returned late from campaign appearances in California and was expected to spend the day in "residence" (the residence is the part of the White House where the president and first lady actually live). There had been a rumor that President Reagan might make an appearance at some time this evening when the results were clear. Reliable sources indicated that this would not happen. If George Bush were victorious, Ronald Reagan, with his actor's sense of timing, would let him have center stage.

My first stop on election night was a reception hosted by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee and the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee. The mood of the crowd was jovial and upbeat. However, the first returns from the presidential race were anything but encouraging. One partisan Democrat said that he was trying to find a TV channel where "we are ahead." So far he had been up to channel 79 without any luck.

At approximately 8:00 P.M. E.S.T., George Bush was declared the winner in Michigan. The crowd realized that Dukakis could still win the election. However, it would take an unadulterated miracle. In a few minutes, it is announced that Frank Lautenberg has defeated Pete Dawkins' challenge in New Jersey. This means that the Democrats will retain control of the Senate. The assembled faithful took some joy in this fact, however, they still wished for some good news about Dukakis.

I next traveled to the Sheraton Grand Hotel where the members and friends of the Democratic National Committee were assembled to cheer for their party. The mood here was not one of sadness, but rather of "here we go again." It was now 9:00 P.M. E.S.T. and a Bush victory was inevitable. It was my intention to be at

Bush/Quayle headquarters when the Vice President went over the top, but my plans were overtaken by events. At 9:17 P.M. E.S.T. CBS is the first network to announce that Missouri will go for Bush. This gives the Vice President more than the 270 electoral votes he needs. It is now certain: George Bush will be the next president of the United States. The event passes almost without notice here. In many respects it is a blow that has been long expected, so it comes not with a sharp twinge but a dull ache. On television, I can see the joy at the Bush/Quayle headquarters.

When I arrived at Bush/Quayle headquarters, the scene is one of sheer pandemonium as crowds of Republican faithful stream into the crowded grand ballroom of the Washington Hilton. Like any winner's headquarters it is hot, smoky, crowded and the band is not very good. None of this seems to matter. When victory is within your grasp, you never seem to notice these more mundane things.

The center of the room was a map of the United States with all the states which had voted for Bush emblazoned in bright red. Those states which were either too close to call or had gone for Dukakis were left in pale white.

After Dukakis had given his concession speech, the crowd eagerly awaited Bush's victory statement. People began to congregate around the projection TV sets located throughout the ballroom. The tone of Bush's speech was conciliatory.

With the Vice President's speech completed, the crowd began to concentrate in front of the podium as they awaited Senator Quayle's appearance. At 12:14 A.M. E.S.T., Quayle appeared before the enthusiastic crowd. Quayle thanked everyone. He got the biggest ovation when he thanked President Reagan for his help.

Although the speeches were over, the celebrating would go on until the pre-dawn hours. After all, presidential elections come along only once every four years.

To The Editor:

This year Thanksgiving should mean much more to us than ever before. In the past, we celebrated this holiday by renewing our awareness of religion and our proud heritage. We always enjoyed a prayerful look back into history, along with our happy feeling for the present, as we gathered with our families for Thanksgiving dinner.

Let us keep our customs because Thanksgiving should be part of the past mixed with the present, plus a cognizance of what the future can bring.

America has gone through a difficult few years — almost on a day-to-day basis. With the help of God, we now face a future fashioned by new hope. Let us encourage that hope and together look forward to a hasty release of our fellow Americans held hostage for so long in a far-off land.

Brought up to live by what some call old-fashioned values, I always believed prayer to be an integral part of the Thanksgiving holiday. I fondly recall in school the paintings depicting pilgrims and friendly Indians kneeling together thanking their gods for their bounty and blessings. Our prayers today, however, are not so much for thanks as they are for mercy from violence. Once again we should bow our heads at our Thanksgiving dinner as we pray for cessation of the hatred that has gripped the world. We should also not forget a prayer for our MIAs and prisoners of war wherever they are.

As we enjoy our repast, let us not only thank the Lord but let us also pray for a lasting peace.

Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Please Help Us Find Our Dog

To The Editor:

I am writing you out of complete frustration, not knowing what else to do to find our 7 year old Yellow Labrador, Rusty, the prize of my 15 year old son who will be returning November 22nd from boarding school. While having workmen in the house the week of November 7th Rusty took off and has not returned. I must admit that I think he was picked up, and someone is enjoying a most wonderful loving animal, but if you could let whoever has Rusty, or if anyone has seen him know that a very unhappy boy will never forgive his Mother if RUSTY is not returned or found, I would be forever grateful. When Rusty took off he had a brown collar on with all necessary identification. Anyone can recognize Rusty by a scarred right paw from an old infection and he has lost some of his hair near his tail from a skin rash.

Rusty was last seen on Monday November 7th outside my Manhasset home. We are right near Northern Blvd, Long Island Expressway and the Northern State Parkway so Rusty could be almost anywhere in North Hempstead and the surrounding towns. If anyone has any information they can call 516-627-5349.

Hicksville Veterans Salute Community War Heroes

MEMBERS OF VFW Post 3211 and their Auxiliary can always be counted on for a good showing. Here, they line up to pay tribute to local residents who gave their lives in battle as well as those who made it home again.

By Vincent W. Edwards

The Masonic War Veterans Henry Biel Post 46 hosted the services at the memorials at the Hicksville Middle School. Assembled were members of The VFW, American Legion, Disabled War Veterans, Jewish War Veterans, Ladies Auxiliary, VFW, and the Ladies of The Eastern Stars. The Masonic War Veterans are to be congratulated for doing an outstanding job. As long as the community supports these groups of people, the veterans will never be forgotten. For the many veterans who gave their lives, and to those who fought valiantly for our country, this is the least we can do. At the end of the services, all were invited to the Masonic Hall for refreshments.

From Our Table to Yours, Generations of Thanksgiving Treats

In the true spirit of Thanksgiving, we have decided to share with you, our dear readers, some culinary specialties that have kept our families happily nourished throughout the years. Although we're not actually going to deliver food as the Indians brought maize and other assorted goodies to the Pilgrims' table, we're doing the next best thing—sharing our most treasured recipes.

As many of you know, it is tabu in some families to divulge the secret ingredients of Grandma's pie or Great Auntie Mabel's stuffing. As long as you promise not to snitch on us, here are the clues to some of the most delectable dishes ever discovered along with our wishes for a happy, healthy and peaceful Thanksgiving:

From Jan's Kitchen

Cheddar Apple Pie

Peel and slice seven green apples.
Mix with:
3/4 cups sugar,
1 teaspoon lemon juice,
2 teaspoons cinnamon,
2 tablespoons flour.
Place mixture in 9-inch pie plate.

Mix:
1/2 cup sugar,
1/8 teaspoon salt,
5 tablespoons butter,
1/2 cup and 3 tablespoons flour,
2 teaspoons cinnamon,
1 cup shredded cheddar cheese.
Mix until crumbly. Pat on top of apples.
Bake at 350 degrees for 40 minutes.

Janice Manaskie is the executive assistant to the publisher of Anton Community Newspapers.

From Flo's Kitchen:

Mashed Turnips

2 large turnips (peeled, cut into small cubes)
2 peeled white potatoes

Put in large pot, cover with water, add salt to taste and 2 tablespoons of white sugar. Boil for about two hours or until soft. Drain well. Mash turnips, add one stick of butter (or margarine) and black pepper. Serves 12 people.

Flo Gries is social editor of the Hicksville Illustrated. She swears her mashed turnips are "scrumptious" and freeze well.

From Maggi's Kitchen:

Candied Sweet Potatoes

4 medium-size sweet potatoes
5 cups white sugar
2 sticks butter
4-5 cups water

Boil sweet potatoes in water until done, but not mushy. Cool, peel and slice. In a large frying pan, melt butter, add water and sugar and bring to a boil. Be careful not to burn. Add sweet potatoes and continue cooking on medium heat until they reach candy consistency. Serve hot. Serves four people.

Maggi Whitely is the editor of the Nassau Illustrated News.

From Rita's Kitchen:

Pumpkin Bread

Beat together 1 cup sugar
1/2 cup dark molasses

From Nancy's Kitchen:

Pumpkin Soup

1 1/2 sticks of unsalted butter
6 slices of day-old bread cut into 1/2 inch cubes
3 small potatoes, peeled and diced
3 lbs. pumpkin, peeled, seeded and chopped (about six cups)
1 teaspoon salt
3/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 cup sour cream

2 egg yolks
7 cups water
Dash of tabasco sauce

In a skillet, melt half of the butter, add bread cubes until brown (about four minutes).

In a large pot, cook the potatoes in remaining butter over medium heat for five minutes, stirring occasionally. Add pumpkin and cook covered for 20 minutes. Stir regularly. Add the water, salt, pepper and nutmeg. Simmer for about 15 minutes. Put mixture, in batches, into food processor and puree until smooth. Return to kettle, heat mixture to a boil. Remove from heat.

Whisk together sour cream and egg yolks. Add to soup. Top with bread cubes. Season to taste with tabasco sauce. Serve hot.

The Grapevine

By Gary Ryder

Zinfandel is America's own grape, grown only in California. Oenologists have never been certain where it came from.

In the early days of California winemaking, it was widely planted, and used to make the red wines popular with Italian immigrants who were among the early vintners. Sometimes Zinfandel was made in the French style, too, as a lighter wine more like a Beaujolais.

During the white-wine revolution, it seemed as if everyone started drinking white wine, and there were the wineries with their thousands of acres of Zinfandel for making red wine. It would have taken too long to start over with Chardonnay or other white grapes. The solution: make "white" wine with Zinfandel grapes. (Not so difficult: all grape juice is white; contact with the skins is what gives it color.)

Today there's a wide choice of white (actually pink) Zinfandel wine. And there are still some wonderful red Zinfandels being made with sensational flavor.

Brandy has been made in California for nearly 200 years. Indeed, when the phylloxera louse caused a shortage of French wine and Cognac, they imported California brandy there.

Hicksville Delegates Attend PTA Convention

The Hicksville PTA units were represented at the New York State PTA Convention held at Brown's Hotel at Loch Sheldrake from November 4 to 9 by Eileen Millis, PTA Council Vice President; Cathy Corrado, Burns Avenue PTA President; Anne Chin, Burns Avenue PTA Vice President; Shirley Johnson, Burns Avenue PTA Past President; Edie Allen, East Street PTA Past President; Joanne Toich, Fork Lane PTA President; Rosalene Leal, Fork Lane PTA Vice President; Ann Freyisen, High School PTSA President, and Norma Goerke, High School PTSA School and Community Chairperson.

This year's convention was the New York State PTA's 91st Annual Convention, and was attended by more than 1,000 representatives from throughout New York State.

On Saturday, more than 20 resolutions were presented to the delegate body for their consideration. These resolutions will become the background for the PTA's platform for the coming year. PTA priorities, programing, and legislative effort all are taken from the resolutions sent to their convention by the PTA's member units.

This year's resolutions dealt with such topics as stronger enforcement of the law on passing stopped school buses, sign language as a graduation credit, occupational education programs for students with handicapped conditions, substance abuse pre-service program for teachers, support of the extension of the existing special task force on state aid and PTA condemnation of acts of violence, intimidation and harassment because of racial, ethnic or religious characteristics.

November 6 was a full day of workshops presented both by leaders of the PTA and by experts in their respective field from outside the PTA. The banquet on Sunday evening concluded the convention.

New officers of the State PTA were installed. Sheila Cohen, a past District Director of Nassau PTA, was elected New York State PTA President.

Another Amazing Feat by Doctor Stuart Stern Rotary Welcomes Trabant

Responding to parents concern about children's foot development, Dr. Stuart Stern of Dr. Stern's Family Foot Care Corner of Hicksville, will present two free open forums for the public. Both 35-minute discussion groups will be held at the Hicksville Public Library, Jerusalem Avenue, on December 7. The first will begin at 10:30 a.m., the second at 1:30 p.m.

Dr. Stern's "What's Normal, What's Not?" discussion groups will focus parents on children's common foot problems. "I have developed this program because many parents ask similar questions and I felt that hosting an open forum would allow parents to learn what they need to know to see that they are not alone," Dr. Stern remarked.

Dr. Stern will answer questions from parents who attend and address the following concerns:

• Babies Feet — A guide toward healthy development

• Helping your child develop healthy and sturdy feet, and
• Your child's feet and sport activities — how to prevent injuries and infections.

Feet are one of the most complicated parts of the human body, housing 26 bones weaved with ligaments, muscles, blood vessels and nerves. Podiatrists who examined nearly 20,000 elementary school children in one U.S. city reported that more than 30 percent of the children had foot disorders requiring further observation or professional treatment.

"By learning how to help children develop healthy, sturdy feet, parents can head off most children's foot troubles," said Dr. Stern.

Parents of young children are encouraged to check their children's feet often and bring a list of questions to ask Dr. Stern at the December 7 free foot health discussion.

For further information, contact Dr. Stern at 931-5752.

Contemporary Health Care Issues

Are You Plagued by Severe Menstrual Cramps?

If you have severe pelvic pain especially while menstruating, you may have endometriosis, a disease that can now be diagnosed and treated very effectively in one procedure utilizing new laser technology.

Endometriosis is a condition in which tissue which looks and acts like endometrial tissue, the lining of the uterus, implants and grows in places where it does not belong: the ovaries, the fallopian tubes, the bowel, outer surfaces of the uterus and other pelvic structures. Responding to the hormonal cycle, these renegade deposits of tissue may break apart and cause bleeding, inflammation, and scar tissue. Women with endometriosis tend to be less fertile than other women.

With the recent advent of video laser surgery, doctors can now diagnose and treat the condition on a surgical outpatient basis that leads to a quick recovery. Using a laparoscope, a slender light transmitting telescope that is inserted through a tiny cut in the belly button area, a doctor can examine the pelvic region for endometrial implants. Then, through another small incision, he can use a laser, a high intensity light source, to vaporize any implants or scar tissue. Thus, the diagnosis and cure can all be made in one procedure.

Many women with endometriosis that has been treated continue to enjoy fulfilling and active lives. Early diagnosis and treatment relieve them of their cramps, ease the pain, and preserve or restore fertility.

This medical news is being brought to you as a community service by the Long Island Women's Health Care Group. We're a dedicated group of obstetrician-gynecologists who treat each patient as an individual. The right of choice and personal preference is afforded our residents on a daily basis.

We recognize the need of our residents to remain active, interested members of the community. Our recreational and social programs are designed to foster continued involvement and we take pride in the fact that our residents continue to remain vital contributors to our community.

Opening lead — king of spades.

There are some decisions you make at the bridge table where you can't be sure you're right. That is the nature of the game, and the best that can be done in these cases is to exercise your best judgment and hope everything comes out all right.

Let's say you're in four hearts and West cashes the K-Q of spades, on which East plays the 4-8. West shifts to the club four and you finesse the queen, losing to the king. Back comes the club deuce, which you win with the ace. The only problem that remains is to avoid a trump loser. Normally, you'd play the A-K, hoping to catch the queen on the first or second round.

Granting that that's what you usually do with nine cards of a suit, playing for the drop is something you should always think about twice. There are times when it is best to abandon the so-called percentage play in favor of the finesse, and this is one of those occasions where you should do some investigating before deciding what to do.

Accordingly, after playing a trump to the ace, you cash the A-K of diamonds and ruff a diamond, on which East's queen falls. When you now lead a second trump and East follows low, you are faced with a crucial decision.

West seems to have started with four spades, since East failed to play high-low to show a doubleton. The clubs appear to be divided 4-4, judging from West's fourth-best lead, confirmed by East's fourth-best return.

Since East seems to have started with three diamonds to the queen, it follows that his original distribution was 3-3-4-4 and that a trump finesse is therefore indicated. Maybe you shouldn't bet the old family home- stead on it, but the finesse is a big favorite to succeed.

Middle School Sponsors Jump Rope for Heart

Hicksville Middle School, Jerusalem Avenue, Hicksville, will be conducting its Jump Rope for Heart in the next few weeks.

The event is sponsored by the New York State Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance; and the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, and Dance, for the benefit of the American Heart Association.

Last year the Jump Rope for Heart raised more than $100,000 in 150 schools throughout the Nassau, Brooklyn and Queens Regions.

Jump Rope for Heart is a special event conducted by school physical education teachers and students who organize the rope-jumping competition. The six-student teams jump rope for a maximum of three hours. Jump pledges collected from sponsors of their rope-jumping efforts contribute to local Heart Association programs in research, education and community service.

By encouraging participation of young people, the project promotes the message of life-long benefits of regular physical exercise. The project also demonstrates how teamwork can be used to reach a common goal as students and teachers work together.

Citizen Service Van to

Nassau residents who have a government-related problem or who simply wish to learn more about the county services available to them, will be able to get the help they need without trudging off to an office complex far from their homes. Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta's Citizen Service Van will be located at the Hicksville Public Library, 169 Jerusalem Avenue, on Monday, December 5. The Citizen's Service Van was created by Gulotta to provide residents with information about county government and expand the county's outreach program.

Mr. Gulotta said the Citizen's Service Van will serve as an excellent management tool. It will permit residents and county employees alike to forward inquiries and/or offer their thoughts with regard to the operation of various county departments, facilities, services and programs. This will result in the implementation of greater efficiency procedures and cost cutting measures as well as a greater responsiveness to the needs of local residents.

After 90 days, most car repair guarantees run out of gas.

While most car repair guarantees last only 90 days, there is one that lasts a lifetime.

LIFETIME SERVICE GUARANTEE

It's the Lifetime

Service Guarantee.

Once you pay for a covered repair, it's guaranteed, with free parts and labor, for as long as you own your car.

But it doesn't just last longer than other guarantees, it covers more parts and labor, in more places, too.

No matter where you travel in North America, you'll be covered for as long as you own your car or light truck. It's America's best car repair guarantee. Only Ford, Lincoln and Mercury owners can get it.

Ask your participating Ford or Lincoln-Mercury dealer for a copy of this limited warranty. The Lifetime Service Guarantee. Because peace of mind is just the opposite of distress.

Holiday Gifting

Here's One Holiday Gift That Fits All

There's no place like home for the holidays. But nothing takes away that holiday glow faster than a house that needs cleaning. More and more folks are staying "merry" through the holidays with Merry Maids, the nation's number one professional home cleaning service.

In nine years, Merry Maids has grown to over 400 franchises across the country, employing over 5,000 people who clean more than 100,000 homes, apartments and condominiums in 45 states each month.

Larry Freiberg, owner of the Merry Maids franchise in Bethpage, said there are three reasons that folks turn to Merry Maids at this time of year: "They order one-time cleaning service to prepare for holiday entertaining, they purchase gift certificates—an unusual, upbeat Christmas gift for someone special—and/or they begin regular weekly or bi-weekly service, usually as a part of a New Year's resolution to create more free time for family, friends and themselves."

"Our December calendar is filling up fast," Freiberg said. "I urge people to plan ahead and call us now to line up holiday cleanings. Later in the month, we'll be swamped!"

He said customers planning parties and family dinners for Thanksgiving, Hanukkah, Christmas and New Year's would rather concentrate on preparing the feast than doing tiresome housework. "What could be worse than sitting down to a beautiful meal at your dining room table and noticing, along with your guests, cobwebs on the light fixtures?" Freiberg said with a smile.

"A Merry Maids gift certificate is probably the best way possible to express how much you care about a person. You're saying, 'I know you love having a clean home, but I hate to see you knocking yourself out to keep it that way. You've got better things to do with your time,'" said Freiberg. Gift certificates are available in any denomination. They can be used for special occasion cleanings or regular weekly, biweekly or triweekly service.

Merry Maids home cleaning specialists work in teams of two, splitting the cleaning job between "wet" and "dry" assignments. They clean each room from ceiling to baseboards using Merry Maids' tested and proved cleaning procedures and supplies. In addition, every Merry Maids' employee is screened, trained, bonded and insured.

Costs are based on the size of the home, frequency of service, and the amount of work requested by the customer. A Merry Maids representative visits each home before the initial cleaning so that the homeowner receives a firm, custom quote for the job at hand. Minutemen and Seven Ups Divide the Honors

By A. Blicher

The Hicksville Minutemen 1977 B traveling soccer team played the game of their lives on November 12, at Lindenhurst, tying the undefeated Lindenhurst Seven-Ups 0-0, in a game that featured unbelievable play on the part of both goalies, and made the coach very proud of a group of youngsters who never stop trying.

Special praise must be given to Hicksville goalkeeper Michael Coen, who just gets better every week, and sweeper Danny dePinho, who loves to play offense but has proved a natural at sweeper, since being switched there three games ago. The two, combined with fullbacks Keith Carpenter and Mike Whitman, have given the Minutemen a defense that the opposition is finding increasingly difficult to penetrate.

In a game of non-stop, end to end play, stopper Anthony Noya played a sensational part in the Minutemen's success, with tremendous defensive plays and numerous, on target clearing passes. In one sequence, Noya placed five straight corner kicks directly on target, only to have Lindenhurst kick it out, for another try. The halfback play of Jason Brown, Bobby Braun and Brian Rigert was one of the execution, playing halfback the way it is meant to be played, with Rigert having the finest game of his 18-month soccer career, punctuated by many on target shots on goal.

Jorge deSilva, at striker, did everything that could be asked, but on this day, the ball just would not go in. He was ably assisted by wings Tracy Koetter, Greg Walunas, Robin Blicher and Mark Spinner. All four never stopped digging, but each time the Lindenhurst defense rose to the challenge to stave them off.

Coach Blicher extends his congratulations to the players for a fine game, as well as to his assistants Pete Whitman and Tony dePinho, without whose help the team's steady improvement would not be possible. A special thanks as well to sponsor Seaman & Eisemann for support.

Warriors Tie Albertson; Koetter Shines in Goal

By A. Blicher

The Hicksville Warriors 1974 travelling soccer team, brought their LI Junior Soccer League record to 4 wins, 3 losses and 2 ties via a hard-fought 1-1 tie against division leader the Albertson Falcons, at the latter's field on November 13. This game solidified their hold on second place. Special congratulations are in order for Hicksville goalkeeper Chris Koetter, who was never more brilliant in goal than in this game, with 15 plus saves. In addition, he exhibited tremendous punting, while thwarting the unrelenting pressure exerted by the Falcons.

The game began with Hicksville taking control, and at the five minute mark, came their big play, as right outside half David Lovato took charge of the ball at the Hicksville 25 yard line, feeding a perfect pass to right inside half Eric Blicher, who threaded a needle through the Falcon defense, to striker Chris Doyle, who carried it in and put it past the Falcon goalie.

For the next 60 minutes, both teams had numerous chances but the defense, led by the respective goalies, repulsed every effort.

Finally, at the 65 minute mark, Albertson struck, off a rebound of a Koetter save, which the defense could not clear, for the tying goal. The final 15 minutes featured fast-paced, end to end soccer, with Hicksville having the slight advantage, including one, very iffy, offside goal, scored by Doyle off a fantastic Lovato lead.

The defense, anchored by sweeper Chuck Oliver, ably assisted by fullbacks Kristian Friedrich and Brian Harkins, as well as stopper Matthew Pordum, all had a fine game and did everything they could to protect Koetter in goal. Lovato, Blicher, Dom Perillo, Junior Tomlinson, Kareem Holman and Karl Rice, at halfback, had a good offensive and defensive game but could not crack the Falcon defense, although they never stopped trying. Doyle, who now has eight goals in the last four games, took quite a beating at striker but never let his forward progress be stopped.

Congratulations to the Warriors for an exciting, heart stopping game, as well as to Coach Pat McHugh and Assistant Coach Pat Harkins, Jr. for instilling the "never say die" attitude in the players.

Raiders Score 2 Goals to Shut-Out Brentwood

By Steve Baglieri

The Brentwood Rangers came to Hicksville November 12, with a very physical team ready to play against the Hicksville Americans Soccer Club 1978 Raiders. So the Raiders decided the best chance they had was to play "their" game on the field. Play they did—the Raiders controlled the entire game right from the start. Midfielders Nicky Riccardi, Kerfny Dintond, Edward Puerta and Susan Accardo were patient throughout the game and never panicked. They, along with forwards Jim Powderly, Michael Baglieri, and Jeff Reinhardt with support from Matt Depalma seemed to pass the ball at will.

The backs, Ryan Ferraro, David Koehn, Brian Gallahue and Chris Allen at sweeper played as a unit superbly and supported each other all day; and with Kikitas Koroneos playing stopper, the defense was in total control. The corner kicks were handled very well and once again the first goal was started that way. David Koehn curved a long one in front of the net and with some movement was put in by Michael Baglieri.

The second goal was a total team effort started by a toss from goalie, Paul Oliva, who played the whole game for the shutout. The ball was worked from the backs to the mid-field and even to a wide open Jim Powderly on wing. He quickly beat several opponents and gave a crisp pass up front which again was deposited in net by Michael. The team earned the shutout by working very well together all day. Final Score—Hicksville 2, Brentwood 0. The proud sponsor is Giovanni's Deli. Bloomingdale Rd., Hicksville.

Hicksville PAL News

By Charlotte Anstey

Volunteers are what makes all the youth organizations work. In Hicksville, we are really lucky to have so many people who care about children. Al Ciacchio is a coach for HBA (Hicksville Baseball Association) and Hicksville PAL. In addition, each summer Al organizes the All-Star Kids-For-Kids Charity Game. Nancy and Tony Cassano's commitment to the youth involved in St. Ignatius CYO programs is to be admired. Our PAL volunteers are outstanding also: John Caliguri who volunteered to be a coach and ended up a commissioner, too; Steve Pendergast whose daughters were not even on his team this summer; Roger Koopman who was a coach for his oldest boy is now coaching the younger one and can be counted on to be an emergency umpire, etc.

Bill Dammes of the "A's" baseball team (Sub-Intermediate Division) has sent the following review in of his team:

Manager Bill Dammes would like to thank his whole team, the "Awesome A's", for a great season—10 wins, 3 losses. Manager Dammes had the following to say, "The team spirit displayed by the players and their parents contributed to a wonderful summer season. I hope everyone had as much fun as I did. A special thanks to Coaches Ed Dammes and Joe Filazola for their dynamic assistance."

Brian Anstey started us off with the first homerun of the season and continued to be a valuable player in the field, especially behind the plate.

Brian Brown—His contributions at the plate were only outdone by his fantastic fielding.

Jason Dammes—Not only can he pitch, but he can run and he always got on base and usually stole at least one or more.

Scott Dorsey—His pitching and shortstop kept the other teams frustrated. Great at bats, too.

Mike Famighietti—Played 1st base like a pro; he always got a hit, too! Our "clean-up" batter.

Scott Galdo—Our "Bunt King" played a great 2nd base as well as shortstop.

Luke Johnson—He did a good job pitching and hitting. His outstanding throws from 3rd to 1st kept the other teams off the bases.

Bryan Kist—Always played his best, a good fielder and great base runner.

Willie Koopman—A fine team player, good at bats. He made one of those "outstanding" catches in the field that will be talked about for a long time.

Robert Lynch—Another fast base runner. A good fielder and a good attitude for a team player.

Danny Paul—"Lightning Loops" ran bases so fast he couldn't be seen. Also a good catcher.

Joe Porvato—Displayed terrific team spirit at all games. He stole bases so well the other teams were always uneasy (I don't know how his Mom got his uniform clean!).

Danny Marcellano—Did a fine job catching in the very hot weather this summer.

Brian Rooney—Did a fine job in the field and at bat.
