

Hicksville School Board Considers Latchkey Agencies

One of three local agencies—WeeCare, YMCA and the Hicksville Youth Council—are being considered by the Hicksville School Board as sponsors of a latchkey program.

At the March 15 board meeting, the board discussed the three agencies' proposals for the latchkey program which provides supervision of students outside of school hours, either before and/or after the school day.

Board members William Bennett and Carole Wolf were in favor of the Hicksville Youth Council's proposal. The H.Y.C. proposal indicates that the program would be operated only in the afternoon from 3:30 to 6 p.m. and could be available in all elementary schools if needed (at least 15 children needed to maintain site). No transportation would be provided and the cost would be $35 per week.

Board member Daniel Arena said that he did not share the same confidence expressed by Mrs. Wolf and Mrs. Bennett in the Youth Council. Mr. Arena said, "The YMCA, to my knowledge, is much more organized and responsible." The YMCA proposal would be multi-site if needed, cost $35 per week and be operated in the a.m. (7:30 to 9 a.m.) and the p.m. (3:30 to 6:30 p.m.) The "Y" also proposes that transportation to the site be provided by the school.

Mrs. Wolf said that the board felt it was extremely important to have the program be self-sustaining. She said the proposals by the YMCA and Youth Council were the best. However, she favored the Youth Council because it was locally-based, would provide the program for students in grades 3-6. The YMCA is for grades 1-5 and is non-sectarian.

During the public session, Hicksville Congress of Teachers representative Elaine Kabakoff indicated that the HCT had been waiting for direction from the school board as to what the district would expect a latchkey program to provide. Miss Kabakoff said she would like to have the opportunity to bring this matter back to her executive committee so that the HCT may have a proposal considered by the school board.

The board could not give Dr. Catherine Fenton, superintendent of schools, direction as to how to proceed, hampered in part by the absence of two board members, Daniel MacBride and Mark Cardella.

Dutch Lane Fields

Carole Wolf reported that the Hicksville American Soccer Club, Hicksville Baseball Association and Holy Trinity High School have volunteered to provide manpower on April 1 (raindate April 8) to assist school district employees upgrade conditions at the Dutch Lane school fields. Local businesses, including Agway, will be donating such as items as grass seed.

"It was nice to feel that the community was behind the proposal that the school had made," said Mrs. Wolf. "At this point more than 100 volunteers will assist our school district ground staff."

Summer School Program

The PTA has volunteered to undertake a parent survey regarding a proposed summer school program open to all students in grades 1-6. Parents will also be asked if the program should be open to seventh and eighth graders.

School Budget Review

Dr. Fenton reviewed portions of the school budget for 1989-90, including special education, pupil personnel services, transportation and community services.

Carole Wolf also called attention to a letter received by the board from the Hicksville/Lewittown Senior Club requesting an increase in its bus allotment in next year's budget. After a brief discussion, Mrs. Wolf indicated that she would wait until the April 12 budget hearing to request that additional money be transferred into this budget code.

Other Board Matters

The annual Fire Marshal Inspection Report was presented to the school board. The consultant's report on asbestos is still being completed. All buildings have been inspected. A timeline is being compiled for any recommendations. Originally scheduled to be presented to the board in February, the report will be shown as soon as completed, according to (continued on page 2)

Delligatti Unveils Affordable Mortgage Plan

By Nancy Garry

The Town of Oyster Bay received more than 200 inquiries about its affordable mortgages plan which was introduced last week in an effort to "keep the children of Oyster Bay" in the township. In unveiling the plan Town Supervisor Angelo Delligatti said that residents could receive town-subsidized affordable mortgages.

The plan will allow interest rate breaks and offer down payment loans to qualified first-time homebuyers. The loans will be taken from a "perpetual housing trust fund," according to Mr. Delligatti, established through the sale of 65 acres of undeveloped town-owned land in Plainview.

Located on the northwest corner of the Round Swamp Road and Long Island Expressway interchange, the 65-acre of industrially-zoned property has been the subject of many inquiries, Mr. Delligatti said, and was most recently appraised at $20-25 million. At its March 14 meeting, the town board approved a resolution to bring services, primarily water and sewers, to the site. Mr. Delligatti said the expense of the hookups would be reimbursed through the profits of the property's sale.

The town chose not to try to construct an affordable housing complex, an option considered years ago and a route taken by other municipalities, because there is "very little" land available within Oyster Bay and also because the town did not want to overburden any one school district, Mr. Delligatti said.

Through the mortgage program, buyers will have greater freedom of choice, residents will be able to remain in the town and businesses will have a larger workforce to draw from, Mr. Delligatti said.

The Program

Although eligibility guidelines are not definite, Mr. Delligatti said that the program will be available to people who have resided, or whose parents have resided, in the Town of Oyster Bay for five consecutive years within the last 10 years; have a minimum family income of $47,000 or a maximum income of $71,000; and are first-time home buyers. The applicants' income will be scrutinized to see that they qualify and only those approved will be invited to participate in a public lottery.

According to the town's figures, the median family income within the Town of Oyster Bay for 1987 was $56,260, while the median house cost was $165,584. In 1982, those same figures were $44,565 and $78,000, respectively. "It has become more difficult for those people earning median incomes to purchase a home," Mr. Delligatti said.

Using an income of $59,000 and a home costing $175,000 as an example, Mr. Delligatti said the program would loan 10 percent of the total price for a downpayment ($17,500) which would be matched by the buyer, therefore purchase would require a mortgage of $140,000. With the present mortgage interest rate at 11 percent, the fund would provide money ($25,200) that would, in essence, lower the rate to the buyer to 8 percent. Monthly payments, including principal, interest and taxes, were estimated at $1,347 for the example. Without the town subsidies, those income-level families would only be able to afford a home valued at $141,000.

Both the downpayment loan and the loan required to "buy down" the interest rate would be recorded as a lien against the property and repayment, in full, would be deferred until the house is resold. Mr. Delligatti said he believed both loans would probably be interest-free.

The town estimates that between 20 and 30 such loans will be made each year from the interest of the property's sale. As homes are resold and money is returned to the trust fund, Mr. Delligatti said, more mortgages may become available.

After applicants are selected for the program and approved by the bank which will be administering the fund, and is, as yet, unknown, they will be given a specified amount of time to find a house. The price of the home may not exceed 110 percent of the median townwide price or $190,000.

Mr. Delligatti said applicants will most likely find homes in the requisite price range in areas of Hicksville, Plainview, Massapequa and Farmingdale.

The program will not begin for at least another 12 months, Mr. Delligatti said, because the town must wait to transfer the Plainview property to establish the fund. It will put the land up for bid and will be sold to "whoever comes in with the best proposal," he said, most likely office use.

AMY GROVES, KIM FRANCHINO and Bill Christofidis display their merchandise at the Hicksville High School Band tag sale on Saturday. The three students set up their table filled with items they had collected from their friends and from their rooms. At last count they had raised $70 from their table alone. The proceeds from the tag sale will benefit the band's trip to Disney World in May. (For story, see page 2). (Photo by Cathy Greenfield)

A HOME ON Myers Avenue was leveled last week after an explosion.

Gas Leak Causes Hicksville Home to Explode

A Hicksville home was completely destroyed when a natural gas leak caused the home to explode, a fire official said.

According to Hicksville Fire Department ex-chief Owen Magee, firefighters were alerted to the blast at 2 a.m. March 16 by numerous callers.

The two occupants of the home at 51 Myers Avenue, Gerald Gottleib, 27 and Steven Gottleib, 30, told Second Precinct police that they heard a hissing sound and smelled gas. The brothers were almost out the front door when the explosion occurred, causing back injuries to both men.

Magee noted that the day before the fire, a gas appliance was installed at the home and investigators pinpointed the origin of the blast to that appliance in the basement. Eight pieces of fire apparatus, 70 firefighters, under the direction of Chief Terry Farrell, responded. House numbers 49 and 53 on each side of the number 51 were also damaged, according to Magee. Three vehicles in the driveway of the home were also damaged. "The firefighters worked quickly and at great risk among fallen live power lines to put the fires out in the neighboring homes," according to Magee. LILCO shut off the gas at 2:40 a.m. Firefighters left the scene at about 6:30 a.m.

Deli, Video Owners Interested in Broadway Building

By Rita Langdon

A delicatessen chain and video store owners expressed interest in occupying the vacant building across from St. Ignatius Church on the west side of Broadway, a real estate developer told the Oyster Bay Town Board last week.

L & K Holding Corporation applied for a special use permit to allow the building to be used for retail purpose as well as for offices.

Michael D'Auria, business manager for the corporation, said that for about six years L & K has failed to attract tenants due to G-1 zoning restrictions. In 1971, Broadway was zoned G-1, which permits 33 percent of a building for retail use, with the remainder occupied by office space.

Mr. D'Auria said that he received hundreds of phone calls for retail stores with only three asking for office space.

Most recently, he received inquiries from Fireside Caterers who expressed interest in establishing a deli. Mr. D'Auria said he has also been approached by video companies.

"We are not interested in putting pizza parlors or Chinese take-out [in the building], that's not what's needed in this area," said Mr. D'Auria.

The attorney for L & K, Eric Roeckl, said that if the town does accept L & K's application, there will be no change in the exterior of the building. However, because the building was originally set up for office purposes there may have to be some interior renovations if the application is approved.

A 48-year Hicksville resident, Robert Rennert, spoke in favor of the L & K's application citing that he liked Broadway "the way it was" before the road was widened. In a recent Illustrated survey, entitled "What the Residents Think of Our Town," results concluded that some residents wanted the west side of Broadway to have retail stores, as opposed to office buildings.

Mr. D'Auria urged the town board to accept L & K's application citing that recently there has been vandalism done to the building.

"A vacant building is not going to do Hicksville any good."

The board reserved its decision.

cording to Dr. Fenton.

The board unanimously passed a proposal to allow the president of the school board let board members attend certain community functions as official representatives of the board of education.

The next scheduled Policy Committee meeting on April 5 has been cancelled as Mr. Bennett, the chairman, will be in California attending the National School Board Association's Convention.

The board's facilities and curriculum committees will meet that evening at 8 p.m. and the finance committee will meet at 9 p.m.

The next scheduled board of education meeting will be at 8:15 p.m. on April 12. This is the annual budget hearing and it will be held in the high school.

High School Band Tag Sale Draws Large Crowd

By Marcia Gunnigle

The giant 50-family tag sale Saturday, to benefit Hicksville High School band's trip to Disney World, was a huge success.

Students filled the tables of both cafeterias at Hicksville High School with many homemade crafts and unwanted items from their neighbors and friends. Mrs. Ghyll Simoneschi and Mrs. Marcia Gunnigle, co-chairpersons, along with their husbands and students Brian Gunnigle, Tina Markey and Greg Simoneschi arrived at 7:30 a.m. to set up the tables in the cafeterias. Some student had so many items that they had to use a hand truck to bring it all in.

The sale was set to begin at 10 a.m. but customers were lining up at 9 a.m. When the doors finally opened, a steady stream of buyers walked past the tables full of old and new items.

Charisse Maisonet and her mom were up late the night before the sale putting finishing touches on their homemade gift items. Brian Gunnigle said he had spent hours washing glass items, but he was grateful he had done so as they sold very quickly.

This was the last fund-raiser for the music students' trip to Disney. Now all thoughts turn toward the trip on May 25 and playing on Disney's Main Street U.S.A.

It brings out the best in all of us.

Your outstanding participation in our S.O.R.T. program has resulted in over 15% of our waste stream being recycled during the month of January.

By taking the few extra minutes to separate your newspapers, bottles and cans from your household refuse, you have helped to save more than $120,000 which would have been the added cost to the Town of trucking these materials to out-of-state landfills.

The collective efforts of the 72,000 Oyster Bay households in our recycling program have made S.O.R.T. the most successful curbside source separation project on Long Island.

In Oyster Bay, we care about our environment - and we're proving it through S.O.R.T.!

About The Puricks

Gerry Purick just returned from a two month visit to Florida. Elks Honor Policemen

The Hicksville Elks Lodge will honor local police departments at "Appreciation Night" Monday, March 27 at the lodge on East Barclay Street.

We Honor The Firemen

At this time I would like to put in a word about our local volunteer firemen. I observed them at work at the home on Myers Avenue that blew up. From what I understand they had been at the fire at 2 a.m. that night and finished about 6:30 a.m. Some of them missed work or were late. Our public thanks go to these Hicksville Firemen who are so dedicated. Appreciate them and support them!

A Birthday—With 'Bozo'

Hicksville's Done It Again

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Diamond of Hicksville are 'popping their buttons'. Their son Brian Diamond, was recently promoted to be Director of Music Programming and Acquisitions for the 24-hour pan-European music channel. Brian has been with MTV on both sides of the Atlantic for several years, being brought over to the UK as part of the original team put together to launch MTV in Europe.

A 1976 graduate of Hicksville High School he went to Adelphi University, graduating in 1989 with a degree in communications. He started with MTV in 1981 and has had a long and successful career before this appointment.

With his overall understanding of MTV operations, and his knowledge of music, Brian is ready to take MTV Europe on to the next stage of on-air entertainment. Commenting on his new position Brian said: "MTV sparked creativity and excitement in the pop culture of the 80s. I'm proud to have been part of it and plan to continue that excitement in the decade ahead."

MTV Europe is a joint venture between Mirror Group Newspapers, Viacom International and British Telecommunications.

Brian—not only are your parents proud of you—so is Hicksville!

Ian's First Birthday

Artie and Marie Staub always have a big party on St. Patty's Day. This year they had a double celebration. It was the 1st birthday of their grandson Ian, son of Maria (Delmato) and Mikey Staub. Ian's favorite aunt Doreen and uncle John Harris, and other favorite uncle, Artie Staub, were the first ones at the party. Nine great aunts and uncles, nine cousins, and five second cousins made the party a great success—but the most important one there was Great-Grandma Pettit. To make the day just great—they had food popular with both sides of the families—corned beef and cabbage... and lasagna.

From the Hicksville Water District: Food and Water Standards

Pesticides have attracted media attention over recent weeks. The Natural Resources Defense Council, based in Washington, D.C., has upset the applecart, so to speak, via its charges that pesticides used to protect crops actually pose a serious cancer threat. Allowable levels of pesticides in apples are set at 1 part per million, which equals 1,000 parts per billion (ppb). According to Richard A. Humann, chairman of the Hicksville Water District Board of Commissioners, the standards set for apples, and for all food, for that matter, are far more lenient than those set for drinking water. In the Annual Water Supply Statement that will be mailed at the end of the month, each consumer of the Hicksville Water District will see that the drinking water standards for pesticides are set as low as 1 part per billion. Further, detection limits are as low as 3/100 of 1 part per billion. Testing performed on Hicksville's water revealed that none were detected in the District's distribution system.

"Clearly, this is another example of drinking water standards being far more stringent in most cases, than those set for food," Commissioner Humann points out.

Nicholas J. Brigandi, another Hicksville Water District Commissioner, further points out that lead in drinking water is set at only 5 parts per billion under the proposed standard, as opposed to 1,000 parts per billion, the allowable amount for grapefruit. The amount of temik allowable in the drinking water in which you would boil a potato is limited to 7 parts per billion. Yet, 1000 parts per billion of temik are permitted in the potato itself.

Even in light of the already stringent standards in place of drinking water, utilities are required, according to Hicksville Water District Commissioner Gilbert E. Cusick, to inform the public if on one day they exceed a standard by even one percent.

"It doesn't seem appropriate that people can eat apples, grapefruit and potatoes every day of their lives without any health official warning them to limit their consumption to one or two a week," he said.

The Board of Commissioners for the Hicksville Water District unanimously contend that the disparity between food and drinking water standards is unreasonable. Furthermore, they believe that the Health Department should be required to inform consumers on the dangers of some of the constituents found in food and set new, more stringent standards for food and identify its levels of consumption.

Tasty Easter Treats at the Sweet Shop

The Hicksville Sweet Shop, a landmark since its establishment in 1925, is offering "Easter candy galore" during the season which is now upon us. For 15 years, co-owner Eva Zouros has made unique Easter baskets, custom-made out of 100 percent chocolate, or wicker, and filled with chocolate eggs, bunnies, marshmallow chicks and more.

"I only use the best pure chocolate in my baskets," Eva said of her creations. "Everything is hand made from the 90-cent pieces to the 125 pieces."

Eva fills the baskets with dozens of tasty treats. This year, she is particularly proud of her chocolate Easter bunnies which range in height from three inches to three feet. Eva is asking all residents to "come in and see things you've never seen before." At the Sweet Shop on Broadway, each visit is always a trip to candy heaven.

EVA ZOUROS PUTS the finishing touches on the outside of a giant homemade chocolate Easter egg and prepares to fill it with tasty treats.

A LOT OF MYTHS ARE POLLUTING LONG ISLAND'S WATER.

There's been a lot said about our water lately. Including that it is unsafe to drink and that we're running out of it. Well, these statements are just not true. And when myths begin to pollute the reality of the Long Island water issue — it's time to let the facts speak for themselves.

Yes, here on Long Island. Our water is among the most highly monitored, tested and regulated in the nation. For many years, New York State has overseen our water supply. Both the New York Department of Environmental Conservation and the Nassau and Suffolk County Health Departments oversee our local water districts to insure that you get safe, clean and clear water everytime you turn on your tap.

Tap Water — Safe, Clean and Clear.

The filtering systems and purification technology used for Long Island's water supply today are as sophisticated as they are thorough. Their resulting effectiveness is also being constantly measured. For instance, while New York State standards for volatile organic materials is 5 parts per billion, the technology in use today is able to reduce these organics to less than detectable levels. Using proven water filtration and purification technology is one reason why Long Island's drinking water remains safe, clean and clear.

What's Needed, What's Not.

Despite the calls of some, what Long Island's communities do not need is a super bureaucracy to oversee our water supply. Another agency would merely duplicate existing controls and add unnecessary expense for taxpayers. Responsive local authority, combined with existing state and county authorities, is the best insurance we have that water quality and safety in each of Long Island's cities, towns and villages is maintained. The job of your local water supplier is to ensure the safety and quality of the water they, their families and their neighbors consume.

Conserving and Protecting Our Water.

Conserving and protecting our water is everyone's shared responsibility — in the home, the office, or the factory. We have an ample supply of clean, safe water, protected by tough federal, state and county standards as well as by highly responsive local officials. But even with these safeguards, each of us must share in the work of preserving our most common but most important natural resource ... Long Island's water.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Suggestions for Park Land

This letter is being published upon request:
To The Editor:

Dear Commissioner Blankfein
As a resident of Hicksville and a member of the Duffy Park Civic Association Executive Board, I am writing to you with my concerns for a park and pool facility for the residents of the Town of Oyster Bay, located in Hicksville. It seems unfortunate and unfair that while other towns in the Town of Oyster Bay have their own parks and pools, Hicksville has the industries, businesses and overdevelopment. The fact that $11.2 million of our tax dollars was used to construct the golf course in Syosset is a great injustice to the people of this community and all people in the Town of Oyster Bay who must how absorb the cost of this project.

The Town of Oyster Bay now has the opportunity to do something positive for the residents of Hicksville. The Parks Task Force was formed because the town recognizes the need for soccer and baseball fields for our children. However, I feel a few fields are not enough. In a town as large and fragmented as Hicksville we need a park for all the residents—a park with sports fields, playgrounds, an ice rink and indoor/outdoor pool facility. Cantigue Park is not the answer as it is a County Park that is often crowded with summer camps and other organized groups.

I strongly suggest the town investigate the properties located on the northside of Duffy Avenue. There are two properties for sale, one vacant and the possibility of another company moving out. If the town were to acquire these parcels of land, they would have more than adequate acreage to build a town wide park/pool complex. It would be an excellent location as Duffy Avenue is easily accessible and can absorb any traffic this facility would create. It would improve the quality of life and appearance of an area so desperately in need of renovation. The Town of Oyster Bay may never again have the opportunity to obtain (and use) these properties for other than industry/business purposes.

As a resident of this area, I would welcome a Town of Oyster Bay recreational complex. The people of this community want a more beautiful Hicksville. We have paid our share of tax dollars to the Town of Oyster Bay, now it is our turn to get something we can be proud of in return.

Janet M. VonBargen

Welcomes a Caldor

To The Editor:

In your March 9 edition, there was an article about the renovation of the Broadway Mall. In the article, "resident Norma Gierke suggested that the owners of the mall not consider a Caldor for an anchor store" because many residents don't want that.

I live in the Northwest section of Hicksville, not far from the Broadway Mall. I don't remember anyone questioning the area residents as to what particular store or type of store they wanted as an anchor store.

I don't feel that any resident should speak for a group of residents unless they have been authorized to do so by the group. They must first have some kind of evaluation form on which to base their statements. This could be accomplished by a questionnaire. If the owners of the Broadway Mall wish to know the feelings of the residents, then they should send out a questionnaire to ALL Hicksville residents.

If for one would welcome a Caldor into the Broadway Mall, I find that Caldor has quality merchandise at a reasonable price. In my eyes, Caldor would certainly add to the mall.

Not Enough Trees

To The Editor:

As a resident of Hicksville since 1953, and an auto commuter to my job, I have a chance to observe the development of Route 107.

One thing stands out—Not Enough Trees to be exact. None—This seems like a mundane item with such building and traffic problems that Hicksville has but with the environment becoming a very serious situation, and quoting a Mr. Lester Brown of the Worldwide Institute as seen on the Today Program on March 12, "Trees affect the carbon going into the atmosphere," (especially on Route 107).

I know that the powers that be usually say that trees eventually lift walks and roads. Not the "Green Ash"—the roots go straight down—not out. It seems to me that trees are a simple and beautiful solution to a very bad atmosphere and visual problem for Route 107.

EDITORIAL AND OPINION

A Letter from Lulubelle...

...I've decided that all of the department stores must make more money on cosmetics than on anything else, since all have devoted large areas on the main floor to cosmetic counters.... And each of these counters comes with a stunningly lovely lady, who is just waiting to offer a free makeup (should I say "makeover?") to every female passerby.... And sometimes in the (vain?) hope of improving our appearance, we all succumb and soon find ourselves seated on a high stool (in embarrassingly plain view of all the passing shoppers) being studied and polished by the glorious creature employed by the cosmetics company.... She gets right down to basics by completely creaming away any makeup we may have applied at home and then she starts to build...undercoat, overcoat, eye shadow, eye liner—I forgot eye cream—eyebrow pencil, mascara, a brush to shape and separate the lashes, dark foundation to hollow the cheeks, blusher to highlight what should be lovely bones, a lip pencil to outline and a brush and lipstick to fill in—no, one does not use the lipstick on the lips in these sessions!!—then there's loose powder dusted all over and then carefully brushed down with a lovely soft brush—next, of course, a spray of the house perfume—and you look in the mirror and, as the old lady in the nursery rhyme said, "Golly me, can this be it?!".... Then, your beautifier starts her "sell" and before you know it, out comes the credit card and you soon find yourself walking out the door clutching a small, shiny bag laden with twenty-two small tubes and bottles—and you have just charged your account for $97!!!... Your explanation at home!... Everything went blank, dear, and besides, you always said my face is worth a million!!

Yours, Lulubelle

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity.

Town's Words Just Words

To The Editor:

I must applaud the paragraph in Rand Burgner's letter to the editor which appeared in the March 2 issue of the Record Pilot in which he states that "Only through an integrated solid waste management strategy consisting of reduction, recycling, resource recovery and landfilling will we be able to handle our garbage problem into the 1990s and beyond." Truly and concisely put.

Why then do I have the feeling that these are only words, designed to dull the sensibility of the people to the need to balance all these efforts to solve a problem that will not go away unless we do more than argue about it.

The balance of Mr. Burgner's letter, and the full page spread on page 54, in which the town fathers seem more interested in poking fun at recycling as one of the things we can do, than to really implementing our efforts, say much more about their real feelings.

They say that there is no time to develop recycling to the maximum before the landfill law takes effect. Surely a country that can put men on the moon or build a bomb capable of destroying an entire city has the technology to develop a working waste program. There are already firms willing to take the chance on recycling more things as long as we can give them the material and the markets.

Many of our politicians sound like a man looking at a new car and saying that the horse and buggy are more reliable because they've been around longer.

The Coalition to Save Hempstead Harbor has brought out a 231 page book outlining the very total waste handling plant that the town of North Hempstead claims to have in mind. Maybe instead of fighting the reality and necessity of the coalitions plan, the town should get together with them and negotiate matters. Unless Mr. Burgner's letter and North Hempstead's claims really are just so many words.

Charter Revision Commission Needed

To The Editor:

The answer to tax relief for the people of Nassau County is not in the appointment of a tax study panel but rather the appointment of a bipartisan Charter Revision Commission to examine the present system of local government in our county and to eliminate the very costly duplication and triplication of services. Such power is contained in Section 1-7.0 of the Nassau County Charter.

One would have hoped that County Executive Gulotta would have stayed with the facts when outlining the seriousness of the oppressive tax burden shouldered by our neighbors. In his attempt to shift the blame for the tax burden to our local school districts, he ignored the fact that in addition to our paying $489 million real property taxes to the county during the coming year, the county will also receive $491 million in sales tax revenues.

How can we believe the sincerity of the county executive when he budgeted an increase of $103 million for the current year? He states that he is cutting costs, but if he is, then he is using a new math form.

In his State of the County Message, Mr. Gulotta talks about the "accomplishments" of his administration — and then cites a number of the problems confronting our county and his actions to deal with the specific problems. In most instances they have gone no further than the contents of a press release.

Ask yourself a series of questions: Is our quality of life here in Nassau County better than two years ago? Has the quality and quantity of our potable water been increased? Are we containing the cost of garbage removal and conducting a viable program of source separation? Have traffic conditions improved? Is more affordable housing available? Do we have less crime and has the drug problem been contained? An honest response must be "NO" to each and every one of the preceding questions.

We can no longer afford to do business as usual. We need Charter Revision and a change in the way things have been done in the past. We need citizen input and action. Words alone will not suffice!

Direct Line

The rejection of John Tower as Secretary of Defense served the purpose of highlighting a triple double standard in Washington, D.C. There is no doubt about John Tower's professional competence. He has the background and knowledge to be Secretary of Defense. Important personal issues, whether accurate or not, coupled with questions relating to his role with defense contractors, caused his downfall. But, we are left with three Washington inner circle double standards which are clearly on the table and not being addressed.

The first double standard flows from the constantly referred to "revolving door" — government job holders and members of Congress leaving and finding lucrative positions in the private sector. Some of the complaints against John Tower stated that he had used insider information, both from his role as an arms negotiator and service in the Senate, to obtain consulting contracts with defense contractors. There is no debate about his role with defense contractors. There is no debate about his role with the contractors. The double standard was created when Senator Nunn set conflict criteria after the act. The Congress has been loath to legislate standards of ethical conduct for its own members when they leave office. In the Congress, there is not even a revolving door. The door is wide open with no protocols whatsoever. If John Tower's actions were wrong, then, why not say so by passing a law to prevent such conduct in the future. There are laws covering the Executive Branch. It is about time the Congress acted to set standards for its own former members.

The failure to act on ethical standards is compounded by conflicts of interest embodied in lucrative speaking fees dished out to members of the Senate by the very special interests impacted by Congressional votes — not to speak of campaign contributions and their potential for conflict.

The second double standard applies to Senators who failed Tower because of drinking and womanizing. Some of those same Senators could not pass the test which they imposed on John Tower. This is not to condone any of John Tower's conduct. It is, however, to condemn the double standard applied to membership in the United States Senate and service as Secretary of Defense. Many Senators opposed to Senator Tower could not themselves command a missile silo.

The third double standard deals directly with the media. Newspapers, radio and television have indulged, with glee, in reciting every story possible about John Tower — even those later proved to be totally untrue. Yet, except for the passing reference, no one in the media has taken the time to go into the same level of detail about an incumbent member of the United States Senate. Even in the House, it took Fanny Fox and a late evening reflecting pool escapade with Congressman Wilbur Mills to force the media to focus on his excesses.

The argument that there should be a different standard for Secretary of Defense does not wash with me. Both members of Congress and Cabinet officials are in the public eye and should be role models. We cannot, as a society, wink at indiscretion on Capitol Hill and be indignant over crack sales and the drug culture. Values are at issue. It is about time that we had a great deal more consistency from all public officials.

PTA MEMBERS SUSANNE Klein and Kathy Watkins accept their plaques from PTA president MaryAnn Grippi at the Founder's Day dinner.

Dutch Lane Honors Faculty, PTA at Dinner

Dutch Lane School honored principal Nancy Burke, first grade teacher Sandy Saul and PTA members Kathy Watkins and Susanne Klein at Hicksville Council of PTA's 1989 annual Founder's Day dinner. The dinner was held in February at the Crest Hollow Country Club. More than 400 people attended.

Nancy Burke taught elementary school for 11 years in the Three Village School District. She became an educational administrator in the New York City Schools where she helped design and implement a city-wide computerized data base for the Office of Student Information Services.

For the past six years, Mrs. Burke has been the principal of Dutch Lane School.

She received her master's degree from S.U.N.Y. Cortland, and a professional diploma in administration from New York University.

Sandy Saul started teaching at the age of 19 in New York City Public School system at P.S. 97 on the lower east side. Mrs. Saul came to Hicksville in 1970 and became acquainted with all the elementary schools, spending some years working in many, until she settled in Dutch Lane several years ago.

Susanne Klein and her husband, Bob, have lived in Hicksville for 16 years. Her involvement with PTA began many years ago as Club Scouts liaison at Dutch Lane. She has been treasurer and secretary and has served on many committees including membership, Ways and Means, Class Mother, hot dog seller and children's activities.

In 1985 she received the PTA Service Award and in 1988 was awarded Honorary Life.

Kathy Watkins and her husband, Marty, are life long residents of Hicksville and both graduates of the Hicksville Public Schools. Mrs. Watkins has been involved with PTA since her eldest daughter started at Dutch Lane in 1975. For years, Mrs. Watkins has run Dutch Lane's ice cream and juice program during the lunch hour.

Mrs. Watkins, who is presently Dutch Lane's corresponding secretary, received a PTA service award in 1985.

Real Estate Firm Recognized for Outstanding Service

U.S.1 Bishop Real Estate in Hicksville has been cited for providing outstanding service in home sales to relocating individuals and families, primarily corporate transferees in this area.

Al Ungania, the manager, and a resident of Hicksville, received a plaque honoring the real estate firm for its achievement. The award recognizes the company as a member of the "RELO (14,000,000) Referral Sales Club."

As a RELO member, U.S. 1 Bishop helped many transferring individuals and their families find new homes in Hicksville and surrounding areas last year. "It's all part of the no-cost, no-obligation RELO service provided by the RELO service network, the nation's largest network of independent real estate brokers," Mr. Ungania said.

U.S.1 Bishop has eight other offices and has served Hicksville for 33 years. The firm's Hicksville office is at 154 Old Country Road.

Tom Laffy, president of U.S. 1 Realty presents Al Ungania, manager of U.S. 1 Bishop Hicksville office, with a RELO plaque.

Hicksville Kiwanis Sponsors Spiritual Aims Program

Hicksville Kiwanis Club chairman of the Spiritual Aims Committee, Effie Krogmann, has initiated a new program which should prove to be of considerable interest to the membership. She has planned to invite members of the local clergy to be guest speakers at one meeting a month, to address a Kiwanis meeting and briefly explain and discuss what their denomination believes and how they function.

The first clergyman to be invited to speak was Rabbi Philip Bentley from Temple Or Elohim in Jericho. The interest he created was evident through the many questions the members asked him.

New Member

Another new member was added to the roster of the Hicksville Kiwanis club at a recent club meeting.

Kiwanis president Tony Citrola announced to the club that Huriye Altan, the assistant vice president of Lincoln Savings Bank, Plainview, had submitted her application to join Kiwanis. Kiwanis past president Sig Widder officiated at the induction ceremony by reminding the members present that Ms. Altan had attended the required number of meetings as a guest, and had an opportunity to see how a Kiwanis Club functioned and what Kiwanis stood for. He then read the "Objects of Kiwanis International" to Ms. Altan and asked her if she was in agreement with them. Upon affirmation response, Mr. Widder congratulated her and welcomed her into Kiwanis.

GUEST SPEAKER RABBI Philip Bentley answers questions asked by Kiwanis members.

College and Career Planning Program

Hicksville Event April 4

Central Federal Savings is expanding its series of free College and Career Planning Programs for high school students and their parents, as part of the bank's commitment to the communities in which it does business. Each of the programs beginning April 4 in Hicksville, is a comprehensive step-by-step guide explaining the complicated, often exhausting college admissions process. Programs will also be given in Central Federal branches in Huntington (April 7), Ronkonkoma (April 9), and Long Beach (May 16).

Presented by Professional Education Services, a consulting firm offering a complete range of services for academic enrichment, the program is divided into two sections: one in the spring, addressing early college planning and one in the fall, covering later admissions activities. The spring program includes:

- * An overview of "the admissions years," Spring '89 to Spring '90.
- * Choosing and targeting potential colleges based on your skills, needs, and goals.
- * Seven valuable handouts, including: College Board brochures and copies of "College Bound" books as door prizes.

* The Meyers-Briggs Profile, which will help choose a career by identifying personality type, work habits, learning style, etc.

"Central Federal Savings cares about Long Island youth," said Chairman and CEO, J. Alan Ornstein. "In addition to the college planning sessions, we are launching another valuable educational program -- a comprehensive in-school banking curriculum, developed by United States Banker, a leading financial publication. It will be offered to all Long Island high schools, and begins in the fall."

The youth-oriented community service programs are only one element of a broad-based Long Island public service campaign recently initiated by the Bank.

ANXIOUS

We need not be worried or anxious about anything, when we have JESUS in our life. He has promised to take care of us as He does the fowls of the air and the lilies of the field.

THE BIBLE SAYS

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving present your requests to God."

THE RESULT IS

"The peace of God, which transcends all understanding will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

PHILIPPIANS 4:6, 7.

"The Centre Island News"
August 16, 1951

The following is being reprinted from a column called Murray Go-Round: "Howard W. Darling of Hicksville was a contributor this week to the philosophical Chinese sayings of 'Ching Chow,' syndicated cartoon character in the Daily News. . . maybe Mr. Darling should change his name to 'Dar Ling' and go into business for himself. . . Almanac says weather should be good for Hicksville Night at Ebbs Field next week. . . Town Beaches all kept their health department ratings this month—Bayville, on North Shore, is 'Good' as is 'Tobay,' on South Shore, though not rated by County. Incidentally, not one beach in county has 'Excellent' rating, though we know a number of spots that would make it if they had beach facilities required by Health Department. . . We hear that the new wings on the East Street Elementary School should be ready about November, which is certainly good news for Hicksville students, teachers and parents, not to mention the harried school board whose members have one of the toughest jobs of any board in Nassau County, what with new pupils arriving every time a new group of homes goes up. The Lee Avenue Elementary School also seems to be making fine progress."

You can buy a man's time; you can buy his physical presence at a given place; you can even buy a measured number of his skilled muscular motions per hour. But you can not buy enthusiasm. . . you can not buy loyalty. . . you can not buy the devotion of hearts, minds, or souls. You must earn these.

Adolescent Self-Esteem... More Than Meets The Adult Eye

The rites of adolescence: that time of endless primping, when a "ZIT" holds more significance than an earthquake, and peer pressure takes precedence over parental guidance...

A study by Bucknell University psychologists shows that how attractive others perceive them is a major influence on the healthy self-image crucial to a teen's life-long well-being. A two year research project with interviews of 1153 young people between 11 and 19, found participants had a consistently healthy self images (averaging four on a scale of five points). Perceived attractiveness had a strong influence on self image during early and late adolescence...except among black males.

The factors with least impact on self-esteem throughout adolescence were academic excellence and physical/sexual development. According to Joel Wade, Assistant Professor of Psychology at Bucknell, "The most important factors in early self-concept seem* to be how teens are perceived by others and social acceptance by their peers.

"It's a hard time for adolescents," he noted. "They're going through so many changes...physical growth, increased social activity...we thought sexual activity would take an important place in their self imaging, but the only place it had significance was among black males, and those variables had a strong negative influence on self esteem in late adolescence."

Of strong importance to this group was social support...close friends for males, close mother/daughter relationships for females.

Early self-esteem was a significant contributor to overall image during late adolescence, it was found. Both black and white participants internalized events. But white youngsters were more likely to take credit for their successes, while blacks felt they were responsible for both success and failure.

"Learning which aspects of their lives they can personally control and which they cannot, seemed to be one factor which impacted self esteem," the researchers found.

Make Your Home a Safe Place to Live... March 19-25 is Poison Prevention Week

by Keni Woodruff

What shall we eat today? Not grapes, say the headlines. Nor apples! Beware of Salmonella in chicken and eggs! Beware salt, cholesterol, fat, sugar, artificial colors, additives. Our beef, "they" say is filled with hormones! Our water, "they" say, is impure...

With all the commotion about our food supply, the scares about tampering in over-the-counter pharmaceuticals and packaged edibles, we tend to overlook the potential for accidental poisoning in our own homes... the medicines and remedies we keep in our bathroom cabinets, the household cleaners we store under the sink, the harsher products we store in basements and garages.

According to the U.S. Consumer Products Safety Commission, and the National Institute on Aging (FDA), accidental poisoning in children and misuse of drugs by older adults continue to cause fatalities which are preventable.

It is estimated that 135,000 children under five years old will accidentally ingest a dangerous product in and around the home in 1989... These accidents can be prevented," says the Poison Prevention Week Council.

"March 19-25 is National Poison Prevention Week, and the Council has prepared educational programs, brochures and information kits to help families child-proof their homes, to help senior citizens understand and regulate their own intake of prescribed medicines, and, ultimately, to eliminate the decreasing, but ever-present number of fatalities that occur each year."

Since the introduction of child-safe caps in 1972, fatalities in children under five have dropped 74%, from 216 to 56 (in 1985), and the figures for mortality due to aspirin related products declined 100% in that period. Continuing education, strong legislation and concern by the producers of pharmaceuticals and chemicals has led to this decline. But, accidents still happen, and PPWC and FDA offer advice and tips to keep your family safe:

Keep all household products in their original containers, and never use cups, soft drink bottles or other, food-associated containers to store paint thinner, turpentine, gasoline, etc.

Keep household chemicals and medicines OUT OF CHILDREN'S REACH and out of sight of youngsters and locked up when not in use. When in use, NEVER let them out of sight. Don't leave medications on kitchen or bathroom counters.

Store all medicines away from household products, and keep all chemical products away from food.

Don't take medicines in front of children, and refer to them as medicine, not "candy." KEEP ITEMS IN ORIGINAL CONTAINERS, leave original labels ON, and read directions every time you use a product. Use safety packaging properly, close all containers securely, and discard unneeded medicines as soon as they are no longer necessary. Clean out your medicine cabinet periodically.

Place your Poison Control Center, Emergency department and physician's numbers on your phone, and if you think a member of your family has ingested a harmful product, follow the first aid instructions on the product package, then call for medical advice.

The FDA notes that while people over 65 make up 11% of the population, they take 35% of all prescription drugs sold in the U.S. Drug use in older adults may have greater risks, especially when several are taken at one time.

In general, says the National Institute on Aging, some medications act differently in older people... "probably because of normal body changes that occur as we age." The percent of water and lean tissue decreases, while fatty tissue increases. These changes affect the length of time a drug remains in the body and the amount absorbed into body tissue.

It is vital for older adults to take EXACTLY the amount of drug prescribed and follow the dosage schedule closely. Even though symptoms may be the same, one SHOULD NEVER TAKE MEDICATIONS PRESCRIBED FOR A FRIEND OR RELATIVE!

Older adults should keep a daily record of drugs taken, especially if the schedule is complex or more than one drug is taken. If child-proof containers are difficult, ask for easy-open containers BUT KEEP THEM OUT OF REACH OF GRANDCHILDREN.

A tip filled brochure, "Emergency First Aid for Children," published by St. Joseph's is available, free, from The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, 6 World Trade Center, Vesey St., New York, NY 10048. Another worthwhile pamphlet from USCPSC is their "list of materials - 1989."

OPTIFAST AT CENTRAL GENERAL HOSPITAL

No one ever lost weight permanently through willpower alone. No one!

If willpower were all it took to lose weight, your first diet would have been your last. But, with few exceptions, even the most determined dieters regain the weight they lost.

Now, you can lose weight and keep it off with The OPTIFAST Program. The OPTIFAST Program is a hospital-based supervised fasting program that combines a nutritionally complete diet supplement, diet counseling, behavior modification and group support.

Most important of all, The OPTIFAST Program involves the close, on-going attention of physicians, nurses and other medical professionals. 200,000 people have participated in The OPTIFAST Program of weight loss. Studies have shown that up to 80% of OPTIFAST treated patients may lose more than this amount; the average loss is 85 pounds.

But even more encouraging is the fact that in some people, long-term weight maintenance—the most important part of obesity treatment, is accomplished in The OPTIFAST Program.

If you're more than 30% or 50 pounds overweight, please call 932-6250 and receive complete details about The OPTIFAST Program. You supply the willpower you've always had. We supply the medical support you've always missed.

Contemporary Health Care Issues

You Can Help Yourself Fight Osteoporosis

Although both men and women lose bone mass as part of the body's normal aging process, one out of every four women will develop osteoporosis, a thinning of the bone structure that results in fractures. After menopause, women experience more bone loss, for it's believed that estrogen, the female hormone produced by the ovaries, has a protective effect on bone. Yet, with knowledge and a commitment to their own good health, women can take some simple, positive steps to reduce the risk of osteoporosis.

Be as active as possible. Walking, jogging, bicycling, and tennis are good activities to enjoy, for weight bearing exercises slow down bone loss.

Make sure you get enough calcium and vitamin D. Your body needs more calcium when it goes through menopause, at least 1,400 milligrams each day. Good food sources include milk, cheese, red salmon, sardines, nuts, broccoli, and green leafy vegetables.

If you smoke, quit. Three quarters of women who develop osteoporosis are cigarette smokers.

Avoid excessive alcohol intake. Moderate consumption has not been implicated in the development of this disease.

Discuss appropriate medical intervention with your doctor. You may be a candidate for hormonal replacement therapy.

Osteoporosis can be a serious disease, but following some simple rules of healthy living may help prevent or retard its progression. Your physician can provide substantial help in diminishing its threat.

Opening lead — nine of spades.

It is sometimes said that it's more profitable to think clearly than to play quickly. After all, there's no reward for speed in bridge.

As a case in point, consider this deal where North-South attempted a difficult four heart contract. West led the spade nine to his partner's king and East returned the three of diamonds, the king losing to the ace.

West then returned the diamond six to East's ten, taken with the queen. Declarer now led a club to the king, finessed the ten of hearts, repeated the finesse, and cashed the ace of trumps. Unfortunately, he still had to lose a spade and a diamond, so the end result was that he went down one.

There is no doubt that most other declarers would also have failed. But if South had given the play more thought, he would have made four hearts. True, he did what came naturally, but as a result he finished behind the well-known eight ball.

Let's now back up to trick two — when East returned a low diamond — and apply the rule set forth so often in this column, namely, that declarer's primary obligation is to try to make the contract.

He should start by assuming that East must have the king of hearts if the contract is to succeed. Once South makes this assumption, the next step is for him to realize that East cannot also hold the ace of diamonds, since East would hardly have passed originally holding the A-K of spades, king of hearts and ace of diamonds.

Declarer's only legitimate shot, therefore, is to hope East was dealt the J-10 of diamonds. Granted that this is not a promising possibility, it nevertheless offers the only genuine prospect of making the contract.

In line with these thoughts, South should therefore play low on East's low diamond return at trick two. As it happens, this draws West's ace, and when the heart finesse later succeeds, declarer has something to talk about to his grandchildren.

The Investor's Corner

By Dr. Joseph P. Frey

Taxfree Now?

As you know the interest rate environment is unsettled. I believe that interest rates will continue upward. This imposes a risk to principal for any long term instrument in the bond area.

Dr. Joseph P. Frey

After last week's article, it occurred to me that it might be a good idea to look into the desirability of seeing whether a person in the absolute top New York State tax bracket should or should not buy taxfree or taxable instruments in today's environment. The maximum tax bracket is achieved when a person or couple reaches the following levels of taxable income. An unmarried Head of the Household reaches the maximum when the taxable income exceeds $123,790; Single or married persons filing separate returns, over $49,500; and married persons filing a joint return, over $149,250. All carry the maximum combined tax rate of 36.38 percent in New York State.

To know what is your level and which to look for on your return, take a look at the box on Page 1 of your return and on the tax computation page (page 2) for taxable income.

I checked out T-bill and T-note rates. These are taxable on the Federal level, but tax-free on the local level, State and City. After tax yield on the 2-year note right now is 6.98 percent. There is a note sale coming up on March 22 for the 2-year note and on March 23 for a 4-year note.

I checked out a mayor no-load mutual fund for NY intermediate tax free bonds. The after tax yield was 6.01 percent, all tax free. The average maturity of the portfolio was 7-10 years. Another fund was about the same. The longer maturity subjects these funds to losses of principal because of interest rate changes.

Flea Market to Aid Polycystic Kidney Research

The Long Island Friends of the Polycystic Kidney Research Foundation will sponsor a flea market at the Massapequa Park Railroad Station from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on April 9. The proceeds from this flea market will help promote the work of the Foundation. For information, call Joyce at 349-1061.

If you need this money, the rising interest rates could reduce your principal.

I checked out a non-NY State Tax-free mutual fund. The yield was 6.63 percent, with only 6.5 percent of the income exempt from NYS and NYC tax.

I checked out Corporate bonds. A typical corporate bond will yield 9.6 percent before tax or 6.9 percent after tax. The bond matures in 12 years.

I checked out NYC instruments. The interest is triple tax free. Here the yield is better.

NYC water	7.93 %	maturity 2016
NYC MTA	7.99 %	maturity 2018
NYC MAC	7.60 %	maturity 2008

All tax free

This is the best rate of all by almost 1 full percentage point. The problem is the maturity. I do not expect the City to go bankrupt, so that is not a case here. The maturity subjects these to swings in principal value. If you can live with the maturity dates and if you are not going to sell in the near to intermediate future, this is your best bet by far. Remember the proviso: a good yield, but with fluctuations of principal downward, if interest rates rise.

For most people who have a few bucks, I believe that the best course of action to get the maximum safety and a competitive after-tax yield is to buy the US Government 2 year notes. In addition, you should start a rolling investment plan. That is, invest some this month and some each month thereafter. This will require a little work on your part because to get the maximum break you should buy DIRECTLY from the Federal Reserve in NYC. TREASURY notes have 2 to 10 year maturities. Two-year notes can be bought directly from the Fed for $5,000 minimum, no maximum.

Four-year and longer term notes are generally available in $1,000 amounts. All long term bonds are available in $1,000 amounts. The transaction cost is zero. You can get the INFORMATION ON HOW TO ESTABLISH AN ACCOUNT by calling the Fed at 212-720-6619. It is not hard. You can use a broker who will charge you a transaction fee. You pay for the convenience. Ask your broker for the charges.

This plan will allow you to take advantage of any rising interest rates, give you security of principal and peace of mind.

Doctor Frey is a professor of investments and finance at LIU/C.W. Post campus on Long Island.

Golf Tournament

On May 15, New York Institute of Technology will hold a Golf Tournament. The event, chaired by Tom Considine, a member of NYIT's Board of Overseers, will be held at the Brookline Country Club.

George Washington- the Myth and the Man

By Martin Burns

George Washington was remembered on his birthday in the city which bears his name. Many thousands of people made the trip to Washington's home at Mt. Vernon on his official birthday. On his actual birthday, his Farewell Address is read in the Senate.

This city is filled with memorials to Washington, including numerous statues and the famous obelisk. Nevertheless, I think that through the years we have lost George Washington, the man. Instead, we remember George Washington the myth—the boy who couldn't tell a lie. This is really a shame because Washington, the man, is far greater than Washington, the myth.

There are, throughout history, men and women who have made a critical difference to the course of events. Although they all played important roles, almost none of them would be called indispensable. This is not the case with Washington. As one of his biographers pointed out, Washington was the "indispensable man." Without his critical leadership during the Revolutionary War and the early years of independence, our country might be a very different place today.

There are two examples of Washington's leadership during the Revolutionary War and the early years of independence which provide a good picture of Washington the man. The first occurred as General Cornwallis' army surrendered at Yorktown in 1781. Cornwallis, pleading illness, did not attend the ceremony. Instead, he sent a subordinate. The British officer offered to surrender to Count Rochambeau, the commander of the French forces. Rochambeau directed the British officer to General Washington. Washington, who knew an insult when he saw one, directed the British officer to his subordinate, General Benjamin Lincoln. Lincoln had been forced earlier in the war to surrender Charleston, South Carolina, to the British. At that time, the British had denied military honors to Lincoln and his command. If you look carefully at the painting of the event by John Trumbull, which hangs in the rotunda of the Capitol, you can detect the slightest smile on Washington's face as General Lincoln accepts the British surrender.

The second incident took place in Newburgh, New York, in 1783. Although the war was over, the peace had not yet gone into effect. There were rumors that the army might be sent home without pay (many soldiers were owed three or four years back-pay). There was an air of rebellion about and many soldiers talked about how the army should take what it needed.

Washington spoke to the army. For a long time, he tried to assure his troops that they would not be forgotten by the Congress.

At the conclusion of his remarks, the army was unmoved. Washington then remembered a reassuring letter he had received from an influential congressman. He pulled it from his pocket and attempted to read it. Washington stared at the letter without speaking. The army couldn't understand what was happening. Washington then spoke as he reached into his pocket, "Gentlemen, you will permit me to put on my spectacles for I have grown not only gray, but also blind in the service of my country."

Then, it happened. Old soldiers who had faced British steel and fire at Long Island, Trenton and Yorktown, who had endured cruel winters with Washington at Morristown and Valley Forge, broke down and wept. Talk of rebellion vanished overnight. Washington, by his simple virtue, had prevented the revolution from evolving into tyranny.

Let us remember Washington, the man. He is far more important to our country's history than any myth could ever make him. February 22, 1989

Islander Fans Battle Against Hunger

They had smiles on their faces. They came in all shapes and sizes.

These were New York Islander fans and on Saturday, March 11 they proved they are champions. On that day the Islanders hosted their seventh annual Athletes Against Hunger Day and Islander fans contributed food and money to help their hungry neighbors on Long Island.

The food drive was a team effort. Islanders' wives and girl friends were key players in the success of the program. Janice Nyland, Diana Diduck, Janice Makela, Jill Capewell, Mary Beth Fontaine and Nicki Trotter were on hand at the Coliseum to collect food from fans. Tammy Gilbert, the wife of former Islander, Greg Gilbert, deserves special mention for organizing the wives' participation in this event. The wives were joined by volunteers from Long Island Cares Food Bank and Athletes Against Hunger, who set up food collection barrels at each entrance area.

Islanders' wives and the volunteers also accepted monetary donations from those fans who forgot to bring cans of food. Janice Nyland and Diana Diduck accepted the "End Hunger Cup" on behalf of the New York Islanders in an on-ice presentation prior to the game. The Cup was presented by Gerry Deutsch, the President of John Gerald Jeweler, a long time sponsor of the food drive program, and Jerry Goldman of Athletes Against Hunger, in appreciation for the Islander's ongoing efforts in the battle against hunger on Long Island.

By the time the game started the barrels were overflowing with food. More than 5000 pounds of food and 1734 were contributed by Islander fans to help hungry people on Long Island.

NOVENA TO ST. JUDE
On Holy St. Jude, Apostle and Martyr, great in virtue and rich in miracles, near kinsman of Jesus Christ, faithful and intercessor of all who invoke your special patronage in time of need, to you I have recourse from the depths of my heart and humbly beg to whom God has given such great power to come to my assistance. Help me in my present and urgent petition, in return I promise to make your name known and cause you to be invoked. St. Jude pray for us all who invoke your aid. Amen.
Say 3 Our Fathers, 3 Hail Marys, 3 Glorias. Say for 3 consecutive days. Publication must be promised. This novena has never been known to fail.
Thank you St. Jude from the bottom of my heart. V.S.A.

Hicksville PAL News

By Charlette Anstey

Injured Players List: Brian Rooney (boys' senior division - Nets) and Jason Dammes (boys' senior division - Lakers) missed their last games due to injuries. Brian suffered his injury during a ski trip and Jason's injury occurred during a basketball game. We look forward to these two outstanding athletes returning next season.

We have many families that start off volunteering their time so that their children can play sports and end up being so committed to the Hicksville PAL spirit that they become commissioners for our different leagues. John Haley, John Caliguiri, Danny Rogers, Joe and Eleanor Bentreicwicz and Roger Koopman are some examples.

Tom and Jan Mullee are one of our PAL families that have more than one coach. In addition to other commitments (Jan is PTA president at Old Country Road School), they are a dynamic couple, who volunteer their time to help the children of Hicksville. Tom and Jan were coaches for a boys' senior basketball division team this year and Tom was also the commissioner for girls' basketball. These wonderful people also are coaches during the summer for girls' softball and boys' baseball.

Tom Mullee, coach for the Knicks (boys' senior division), had the following to say about his team: The Knicks lost a high scoring game to the Nets by the score of 66-64. The Knicks were led by Brian Shor (32), Tommy Mullee (28), Carl Matson (2) and Keith Osback (2). Kevin Sieber and Doug Matson provided good hustle and defense. This well-played, fast-paced game was exciting both for the players and spectators.

In another game with the Nets, the Knicks came out the winners by the score of 39-38. High scorers were Tommy Mullee (17), Brian Shor (14), Keith Osback (6) and Carl Matson (2). Excellent defense by Doug Matson, Edward Lee and Kevin Siebert greatly helped their team.

THE FERRARO FAMILY of Malone Street, (from left) David, 14, Joseph, 12, and Ryan, 10, take time out for an after-school game of basketball.

(Illustrated Photo)

The Knicks outlasted the Lakers by the score of 48-39 in a very competitive game. The defense of Edward Lee and Doug Matson, combined with the offensive scoring of Tommy Mullee (24), Brian Shor (18), Kevin Siebert (4) and Carl Matson (2), provided the Knick with the victory.

The boys' senior division has had many high scoring, competitive games with very few blowouts - credit to commissioner Joe Bentreicwicz.

10K Championship Run To Benefit Amputees

Sponsors of the Lerner Cup Championship 10-Kilometer Run have announced that applications are now available for the 12th annual running of the race, on Saturday morning, Apr. 8, at 10 a.m.

All proceeds from the event will be donated to the Sloan Kettering/Hospital for Special Surgery Children's Prosthesis and Rehabilitation Foundation, to fund a program aimed at helping young amputees reenter the world of sports.

The program, which is called ASPIRE - A Sarcoma Patient's Intense Rehabilitation with Exercise - provides young amputees with the prosthetic devices, rehabilitation and therapy they need to participate in athletics.

More than 1,200 runners from throughout the New York metropolitan area, are expected to participate in this year's Lerner Cup run. The event is sponsored by David Lerner Associates, the Syosset-based investment firm, in conjunction with the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club.

The run, which will start and finish at the H.B. Matlin Middle School in Plainview, is sanctioned by The Athletics Congress of the United States (TAC), so personal times can be used to qualify for TAC events throughout the country.

This year's event will include drawings for a bed and breakfast weekend for two, and other prizes, as well as age-group, team and special awards. A new feature is a "fun run", open to children 12 years and younger, which will begin at 9:10 a.m.

The entry fee for the 10K Run is $10 for those who pre-register, $12 on the day of the run. The fee for the pre-race "fun run" is $4 for pre-registration, $5 on the day of the race. For an application or information, call Mike Polansky at 433-0919.
