

Zone Change is Granted For Burns Avenue School

Two acres of commercially zoned property at Burns Avenue School were changed to residential zone upon request of the Hicksville School District, the Oyster Bay Town Board announced last week.

At a December town board hearing, the Hicksville School Board attorney requested the zone change of the district-owned property, to discourage developers from buying the land.

The parcel constitutes part of the Burns Avenue Elementary School and is currently zoned "G" for business. It abuts Broadway Mall and post office properties near the school's rear baseball fields, and is the only district-owned parcel not zoned residence "D." Deico Development Corp., owners of the Broadway Mall, expressed an interest in acquiring the parcel of land at the December hearing and asked that the property remain business "G."

Town spokesperson Phyllis Souther said that the land officially became residential at the town board meeting on April 4.

Town Grants Permit to Operate Repair Shop

Scappy Auto Body Associates, Inc. and Jerry Spiegel have been granted premission to operate an automobile repair business on Duffy Avenue, but will have to comply with 15 restrictions.

The applicants were seeking a special use permit from the Oyster Bay Town Board to operate a motor vehicle body repair business in an "H" industrial district at the northwest corner on Duffy Avenue and Wantagh State Parkway, also known as 400 Duffy Avenue. Pursuant to a public hearing held on Nov. 15, 1988, the Town Board granted the permit last week, but the applicants are subject to 15 restrictive covenants.

The Board stipulated that the premises can only be used only for auto body repair; the sale or rental of vehicles of any sort and the dispensing of gas or other types of fuel is prohibited. No repair work is to be done in the open, and hours are restricted to between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and between 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday.

With regard to storage of equipment and vehicles, the board said that no auto parts or or dismantled vehicles may be stored in the open. Garbage and rubbish must be kept in suitable containers. Oil, gasoline, diesel fuel, transmission fluid and other liquid waste must also be stored in proper containers and disposed of off the premises. Appropriate safeguards must be taken to prohibit seepage of such liquids into the ground.

The property must be maintained in an orderly manner at all times. The board covenanted that the exterior of all buildings, lighting and paved areas must be kept in good repair, will all lighting located so as not to spill over onto adjacent properties or interfere with vehicular traffic. Noise, dust, dirt and fumes must be contained by the installation of proper filters and other apparatus.

No building permit or certificate of occupancy will be issued until a site plan has been submitted to, and approved by, the Town Board. The plan must show the size, location and type of lighting; the location, size and type of signs; the location and type of landscaping; the location of all parking areas; access and egress points and any other information deemed pertinent by the Department of Planning and Development.

Residents, Fire Chiefs Oppose Board's Plan To Move Hook & Ladder Truck to New Station

By Rita Langdon

Hicksville Board of Fire Commissioners' plan to move a hook and ladder truck from the Strong Street substation to the new Levittown Parkway substation, has met with opposition from northwest residents, firemen and the Hicksville fire chiefs, while some firefighters favor the move.

Hicksville Fire Department Chief Terry Farrell and his assistant chiefs expressed opposition to the plan at the Northwest Civic Association meeting April 3. Northwest residents said they feared they would not have enough fire protection with only one truck.

At the Hicksville Community Council meeting April 6, Hicksville's fire commissioner Al Bianculli said that the residents fears are unfounded. He noted that the main fire headquarters on East Marie Street is close enough to service northwest area alarm calls and that residents will not be without ladder protection because hook and ladder truck 931 is located in the main house.

"We feel that the two ladder trucks [at East Marie and Strong Street] are too close together," said Commissioner Bianculli. "The Levittown house was built so the residents and businesses in the southeast section get the protection they so rightly deserve." Another commissioner, Mike Krummenacker, added that the district has no plans, at this time, to close the Strong Street substation.

However, northwest residents maintain that numerous commercial buildings in the area—the Broadway Mall, Manufacturers Hanover, Town of Oyster Bay Parking Garage and factories off West John Street—would require two trucks in the event of a fire.

HICKSVILLE FIRE COMMISSIONERS plan to move a hook-and-ladder truck from the Strong Street substation (above) to the new Levittown Parkway substation.

Another resident said that the traffic on Broadway would lessen the response time of an East Marie Street engine responding to a Northwest section alarm.

Firefighter and first vice president of the Northwest Civic Association, Bob Dwyer, said that he thinks it is very important to have a second piece of fire apparatus at the Strong Street substation in case the first piece breaks down.

"I feel the people in the northwest section are going to get stripped of fire protection somewhere, somehow," he said. "I think that the people of the area are most concerned that for 25 years that strong street has been equipped with two pieces of fire apparatus." At the civic association meeting, Mr. Dwyer read a letter from members of the Strong Street Hook and Ladder Company No. 1.

$6.6 Million to Clean Up Asbestos in Schools

Asbestos abatement will cost Hicksville taxpayers approximately $6,572,380 over the next three years. A summary of the AHERA (Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act) inspection and management plan for all Hicksville School District buildings was presented at the April 5 Facilities Committee Meeting of the School Board.

Bruce D'Abramo, Director of Technical Services for Environmental Compliance, Inc. (ECI), the District's outside consultants, presented his firm's findings as a result of an inspection of 3,500,000 square feet of materials throughout 11 buildings.

A three-year time frame, on a priority basis, has been recommended by ECI for asbestos abatement. In order not to close schools during the abatement procedure, work would be limited to the summer months for three consecutive years. If Hicksville does not remove all asbestos prior to 1992, New York State would require another complete inspection and the District would incur additional inspection costs.

Last year, Thomas Shaw, Director of Facilities and Operations for Hicksville, described ECI's inspection as "the most thorough inspection . . . possible." ECI's services for the assessment, analysis and asbestos management plan was reported in August 1988 to be $63,200.

The Board of Education, having already established a reserve of $400,000 for asbestos management, now must decide how to fund the balance of $6.2 million. William Hall, Assistant Superintendent for Business Services, mentioned the possibility of a bond issue. He added that the District's current bond indebtedness will be paid off in two years.

ECI has recommended that items of the highest priority be scheduled for the summer of 1989. The estimated cost of such work is $910,000. The Schools affected would be:

Middle School—$303,000 for the removal of damaged, friable asbestos sprayed-on fireproofing in the boiler room, other asbestos in the boiler room and a vibration reducer on the HVAC duct. There is a high potential for asbestos fibers to be released into air handling systems via vibration reducers in several schools.

Burns Avenue, Dutch Lane, Fork Lane and Old County Road (called the "sister" schools because of their design similarity)—a total of $309,800 for the removal of thermal system insulation in air plenums and vibration reducers. The District could opt to encapsulate the insulation instead of removing it in 1989. This would lower the cost to the District, at this time, to $60,000 for the four schools. However, ECI recommends that, if the board decides to take this option, the insulation be totally removed at a later date. (Encapsulation involves the spraying of a sealant directly onto the asbestos-containing material. It is prone to deteriorate or to be damaged as a result of impact or water leakage and requires frequent inspection and probably periodic reapplication of the sealant).

East Street—$2,000 to erect a cement block wall to separate the boiler room from the rest of the building. It was noted that the boiler room's thermal system insulation is in very good condition, but a wall would protect it from random damage.

Lee Avenue—$30,000 for the removal of vibration reducers and soft troweled-on surfacing material in the foyers of the 1956 wing.

Willet Avenue—$265,600 to remove thermal system insulation and sprayed-on fireproofing in the basement. Unlike the other schools, where additional work will be needed, this is the only work scheduled for Willet Avenue.

Woodland—$200 for the removal of two square feet of damaged thermal system insulation.

The District's oldest buildings face the highest removal costs: Middle School estimated at $1,233,780 and East Street estimated at $1,268,400. Both of these buildings have asbestos containing plasters of a cementitious nature that ECI recommends leaving to the third year for removal "in the hope that technological advancement will catch up with federal regulations." The remaining total estimates are: Senior High $338,400; Burns $448,300; Dutch $580,700; Fork $530,700; Lee $650,000; OCR $566,000; Willet $265,000; Woodland $640,100; Administration Building $48,700; Main Garage $15,100. All the District's sheds have been certified asbestos free.

The existence of asbestos-containing thermal insulation in the temporaries at Burns Avenue and Dutch Lane has held up the removal of these structures. ECI is designing a plan for the removal of this insulation, which must be removed before demolition can begin.

In response to a question from the community regarding the possible disruption of summer school programs, Dr. Catherine Fenton, Superintendent of Schools, replied that these programs would not be affected but they might be moved to other buildings.

It was also noted that "all removed asbestos materials remain the property and responsibility of the district even if stored elsewhere." Materials must be transported to and stored at another site. The cost of such disposal is included in the estimated costs.

The Hicksville School Board will receive ECI's report at its April 12 meeting. This meeting is also the District's Annual Budget Hearing and will take place at 8:15 p.m. in the Cafeteria of the Senior High School. Mr. Shaw will be conducting informational meetings for key people (principals, PTA and HCT representatives, etc.) at the individual buildings later in April. In addition, Dr. Fenton announced a public meeting devoted to asbestos will be held on April 26 to thoroughly discuss this issue.

Child Care

The Board's Facilities Committee also heard presentations by four groups desiring to offer child care programs (latch-key) before and after school hours. Proposals were given by the Hicksville Congress of Teachers, the Hicksville Youth Council, Wee Care, and the YMCA.

Assistant Superintendent William Hall asked each group to answer a set of questions in order to develop a report for the board of education. Questions were asked regarding registration fees and weekly fees to be charged, sibling adjustments, transportation, staff/pupil ratio, number of sites, insurance, medical assistance and district's role in preparing a survey, handling monies, etc.

The Hicksville Council of Teachers is offering Hicksville teachers as its rationale for board selection. "We are a known quantity" stated its president, Robert Zaleski.

The Hicksville Youth Council was incorporated in 1972 to provide counseling, crime prevention and employment. Barbara Dale, its executive director, stated their intent to hire qualified adults, preferably teachers or teachers' aides, if chosen to provide the latch-key program.

The YMCA is currently running six latch-key programs on Long Island. It suggests beginning the program in one or two sites in order to determine the need for such a program and mentioned a scholarship program for needy families.

Leslie Weible, Educational Director of Wee Care, a small chain of licensed child care centers, also called The Five-To-Twelve Club, described her program as being designed to meet the varying emotional and developmental needs of our children. Wee Care currently runs a day care center in Levittown and according to Ms. Weible will be opening a new site in Hicksville on Rave Street. In response to question from resident Tom McGovern, Ms. Weible said that a special use permit is being applied for in order to operate a day care center on Rave Street.

The Board has been looking at the possibility of assisting working parents with a latch-key program utilizing its buildings. At its March Board meeting, Trustee Carole Wolf stated that the board felt it was extremely important to have the program be self-sustaining.

The board's agenda for its April 12 meeting indicates that Superintendent Dr. Fenton will be recommending that the Board select the YMCA as the organization for providing a Latch Key Program for 1989-90.

TO YOUR HEALTH

By RICHARD H. BLAU, M.D.

Gout is a Type of Arthritis

My patients are always surprised to learn that gout is a form of arthritis. Arthritis means joint inflammation, and one cause of inflammation is gout. This type of arthritis results from a build-up of body substances called uric acid. High blood levels of uric acid may not only affect the joints, but other organs in the body, including the kidneys. When uric acid levels become very high, they become deposited in the joints as crystals. These crystals produce the pain of a gouty attack.

Gout, commonly thought of as an aristocrat's disease, can affect anyone. Although men are affected more than women, an estimated one million Americans suffer from this disorder.

Attacks often begin at night, and may only affect one joint, such as the big toe. The involved joint usually turns red, becomes hot, swollen, and very painful. A common error is to take aspirin for the pain. Aspirin in small doses may actually make a gout attack worse.

Since there are over 100 forms of arthritis, a correct diagnosis is very important. Rheumatologists, arthritis experts, will usually remove fluid from the joint and examine it for gout crystals. Once the diagnosis has been confirmed, treatment can be started. Treatment for gout is very simple and effective. Unfortunately, many people with gout suffer unnecessary and painful attacks. Medications can often stop an attack within an hour, and will often prevent future attacks.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach - An Arthritis Overview."

All throughout Joe Ferguson's life he has loved only two girls: First—his wife, Anita, and second—his daughter, Roseanne. Joe has now added a new love to his life—his two-week old granddaughter, Alyssa. Alyssa, who was born on Sunday, April 2 at Winthrop University Hospital, has two very special parents: Roseanne and Jimmy Poggio. Alyssa weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz. and was 19 1/2 inches tall at birth.

Roseanne is a 1976 graduate of Hicksville High School. Jimmy graduated from Bethpage High School in the same year. Alyssa's other happy grandparents are Jenny and Aldo Poggio of Bethpage. Grandma Anita, who was out helping Roseanne take care of the baby, said, "I don't know how I'm ever going to go home and leave this little doll." (I'll bet she won't have too much trouble talking Joe into going out to Holtsville often to see this new bundle of joy). Congratulations!

Hicksville's Church of Christ 39th Anniversary

Varieties of Religious Experience: Hicksville's Church and Temple History came alive on April 2 for Hicksville's Church of Christ congregation. Helping celebrate the Broadway church's 39th year in Hicksville at the invitation of Pastor Thomas Goodlet was Richard Evers, historian of the Gregory Museum, who presented a slide lecture recalling Hicksville's long and colorful religious heritage.

The congregation was pleased to see numerous slide photos of the familiar little white building in the heart of the village, the oldest site of a house of worship in Hicksville. The Union Chapel was erected here in 1853 and served a number of forming Protestant congregations until 1900: Evangelical Lutheran, Reform, Episcopal, and Methodist. The present Church of Christ building was erected in 1900 by the Hicksville Methodists and served the congregation until 1950, at which time the Go Ye Chapel Evangelical organization under the direction of Elmer C. Kile established the Hicksville Church of Christ.

Among the program participants was the Rev. C. E. Faust, who served the church as pastor from 1953 to 1963, and who recalled those exciting post-World War II years when Hicksville was growing and changing so rapidly.

Varieties of Religious Experience: Hicksville's Church and Temple History is just one of the slide history programs of the Gregory Museum Historical Committee. Historian Richard Evers is scheduled to present the same program at the Hicksville Public Library on Thursday, April 13, at 8 p.m.

Hicksville Kiwanian Takes 3-Month Expedition

Kiwanis member Geoffrey Godfrey took an exciting 3-month expedition to six continents and presented a brief lecture and slide presentation of his voyage to Hicksville Kiwanis Club members.

The expedition, which he took in 1987, was part of "Operation Raleigh 1984-88, Youthful endeavor in support of science and community."

Operation Raleigh, created to commemorate the voyages of Elizabethan explorer Sir Walter Raleigh, was a four-year round-the-world expedition devoted to exciting scientific, conservation and community service projects conducted by young volunteers aged 17-24 years. Of the 4,000 venturers who were selected over the Operation's four years, 1,500 came from the United Kingdom, 1,500 from the United States and 1,000 from the rest of the world. The expedition was divided into 16 phases, each about 3 months long. Each young venturer selected participated in one phase. The expedition covered six continents and involved more than 40 nations worldwide. It inspired young venturers to develop their own leadership potential and taught them to be more self-aware and conscious of the needs of others.

The phase Mr. Godfrey was part of took place in Japan. His group was given the assignment of hiking from Osaka to Mount Fuji, and to do a prescribed variety of projects on the way. Since Japan is physically about 70% mountains, the hike and projects en route took them more than two months (the Japanese Bullet Train takes 2½ hours). The projects and experiments, educational and cultural experiences, community service projects in remote villages along the way, made for an unforgettable period in the lives of the participants.

Some of the things done by this phase of Operation Raleigh consisted of such experience of: Ascetic Religious Training in Ohmine; hanging off the edge of the cliff in a mountain range (called Shugendo); study of Shingon Buddhism in Koyasan (the center for this sect in Japan); conservation work in a National Park; river conservation; learning Ikebana (flower arranging); enjoying a Tea Ceremony; spending a day working in an old person's home; teaching English at Nagoya University; visiting Nippon Densu factory/plant; a stay in a Zen Temple; home stays with Japanese families; harvesting tea bushes; camping, hiking, camping, hiking; renovating a school building; caving; sailing; ice-caving and building bird nest boxes. The final month was spent in the base camp at Mount Fuji, and included an ascent of Fuji, followed by three days in Tokyo.

The combination of beautiful pictures from slides, combined with Mr. Godfrey's descriptions, made for a fascinating program.

GEOFFREY GODFREY, attired in a Japanese "Happy Coat", is shown pointing to Japan on the "Operation Raleigh" map/brochure he brought along, at the Kiwanis Club meeting.

Our Homeowners Edge<sup>SM</sup> loan pays off now. And pays off later.

Introducing a 60 minute loan with no upfront costs.

The intelligent shopper is always on the lookout for a great deal. But when it comes to homeowners' loans, the truly intelligent shopper knows that there's more to a great loan than a great rate.

That's why we created Homeowners Edge.<sup>SM</sup> The loan that combines the advantages of a home equity loan with the simplicity of an installment loan. And with no upfront fees or closing costs.

Homeowners Edge lets you borrow from $7,500 to $25,000 while allowing you to use the money as you see fit. We offer a choice of low rates, flexible terms and a set payment schedule. And in most cases, we'll give you a decision on your application in 60 minutes or less.

Plus potential tax advantages on April 15th.

Like a home equity loan, Homeowners Edge is secured by a mortgage on your house, condo or co-op. So chances are, interest on a Homeowners Edge loan will probably qualify for a full interest deduction. Which isn't always the case with other types of loans. (There are some exceptions to deductibility. Please consult your tax advisor before applying.)

Just visit The 60 Minute Loan Center<sup>SM</sup> at any of our 190 convenient branches. Or call 1-800-942-1784 (from NJ and CT, call 914-899-2182 collect) any weekday between 8:30 am and 3:00 pm, or Saturday from 9:00 am until noon, and get an answer in 60 minutes or less.

Or you can call until 9:00 pm Monday through Friday or 3:00 pm on Saturday for an answer the very next business day.

With the Homeowners Edge loan, you can tell everyone what an intelligent shopper you are. And every April 15th, your accountant will prove it.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Running for School Board

To The Editor:

I would like to take this opportunity to announce that I am seeking a position on the Hicksville Board of Education which will become vacant on June 30, 1989 upon the expiration of the term of Daniel E. Arena.

The main reason I am seeking this position is that I have three children enrolled in the school system and I want to take a more active involvement in their educational growth. I feel I can do this by being a part of a board of education dedicated to developing and maintaining an educational program that we can all be proud of, and which is supported by a sound fiscal budget that is both reasonable and representative of the Hicksville community.

Over the past few years I have been active in the community in a number of ways. Currently, I am president of the Giese Park Civic Association, co-chair the Hicksville Coalition of Civic Associations, and I am a member of the Hicksville Park District Task Force. In the past I served as vice-president of the Hicksville Community Council, of which I am still actively involved. I was a member of the School District Re-Organization Committee and a baseball coach with the St. Ignatius CYO. These experiences have afforded me the opportunity to meet and interact with a variety of individuals and organizations.

If elected, I feel that my greatest asset to the board would be my community involvement whereby I could bring to the board the ideas of a vast cross-section of the community and be truly representative of each.

In closing, I would like to urge everyone to make an effort to vote on Wednesday, May 10, between 10 a.m. and 10 p.m. on the school budget and for your choice of members on the school board. Remember, no matter how you vote, it will be your opportunity to help form the educational system of Hicksville.

Open Letter to Residents/Commuters

To The Editor:

There are residents of Hicksville who oppose the continued expansion of commuter parking in Hicksville. They feel central Hicksville is nothing but a large parking lot. We presently have over 3,000 parking spaces for commuters and the overflow is killing our residential areas, where commuters illegally park.

The commuter parking problem belongs to the Metropolitan Transportation Authority because they increased the number of trains stopping at Hicksville when they electrified the rail lines and provided NO additional parking.

The residents within a 1/2 mile radius of the railroad station are constantly complaining that commuters are parking on the streets blocking driveways, dropping garbage and emptying their ash trays. Not all commuters can be blamed for this "I don't give a darn" attitude. However, the immediate resident and businessman absolutely oppose the inundation of commuters and what they leave behind.

We are making an all-out effort to help develop the west side of Broadway by adding stores and thriving businesses. If this development is successful, some parking lots that have been taken over by the commuters will also be restricted to the general business area. For example, the parking lot next to Holy Trinity Church and the parking lot behind Dalton's Funeral Home will be converted back to short term parking.

Since I have been on the town board, we have acquired two lots on Barclay Street for the commuter, in addition to the two lots on Jerusalem Avenue mentioned above that were converted to assist the commuter. In other words, we've added over 1,500 parking spaces. Most residents of Hicksville do not want Hicksville to become another Jamaica. They do not want the commuter who comes and goes and contributes nothing to Hicksville. They feel that they are being imposed upon with no benefit in return.

What we probably need is another railroad station with a parking lot large enough to provide parking for the number of commuters involved. I received requests from both sides, the commuter and the businessman, asking for more parking space. I am working with the supervisor and the town board to see what can be provided to meet the needs of all the parties concerned.

In closing, let me say that if and when a reasonable solution is arrived at, the commuter, the Chamber of Commerce, the businessman, etc., will all be notified of a hearing so this can be discussed at length and an equitable decision made.

I can tell you right now that most people will say, "Not in my backyard. Put it in Hicksville." And most people in Hicksville will say, "We have had enough!"

Councilman

State Aid

This letter is being published upon request:
Dear State Legislator:

The Hicksville School District is very typical of those in Nassau County, and we all need your immediate help in increasing state aid to our districts and lowering the presently intolerable property tax burden of our citizens.

According to the Governor's present budget proposals, the claim appears to be that the state will maintain the tax level of state residents, even allowing the planned tax deduction to come into effect for next year. In fact, the proposal simply shifts the burden of payment for services away from Albany and onto the local districts. For example, the Governor's proposal to shift the payment for mandated summer special education programs from the state budget results in much higher costs for every local district, and many of us in Nassau already receive very little reimbursement for the extensive amounts we provide for these programs.

We ask that the legislature consider the impact of such budgetary shifting and consider that the actual problem is not too much spending but too little revenue. Postpone the planned tax decrease and pass new taxes needed to erase the state deficit.

Over the past several years, the state has decreased its share of the funding of local school districts from 49% to just under 38% in many areas. This has happened at the same time as a host of new regulations and health and safety requirements added their own demands for funding to the inflationary forces already reducing our local buying power. Now we receive only a third of the money we pay in state taxes, and yet we must maintain all programs at the same high levels as in the past, while also replacing oil tanks and spending millions in every district to remove asbestos from the environment. We are doing all these things because they are good and right for the education, health and safety of our children, but we simply cannot keep spending at these very high levels to meet mandated regulations without more state aid.

The state must make a commitment to increase its share of local budget revenue back to the 50% level as rapidly as possible to help us offset the devastating impact of these regulations and of inflation on our budgets.

Enclosed are sample tax bills from a number of our residents. I have also enclosed photographs of the typical homes of our community to illustrate that we are not talking about an affluent suburb of mini-estates, but rather the simple and modest homes of middle America on 60 x 100 plots. These two things, tax bills and photos, illustrate in the most compelling way our major problem in funding our schools. Our residents are the most highly taxed homeowners in the country. They are not people of great affluence, but rather are middle class families holding two jobs and a high mortgage in order to make a life for their children. They cannot continue to give over so much of their hard-earned income to property taxes. In addition to these families, Hicksville has an increasing number of older citizens, who have no children in the schools. They are very supportive of public education and have always been willing to do their share for the district, but with their fixed retirement incomes their financial plight is even more severe. They cannot, simply cannot, continue to pay the annually increasing property taxes we require to offset the loss of necessary state revenues.

Please consider these facts in your deliberations and vote to increase state aid to the local districts on a gradually ascending scale until the state again assumes its 50% share of the cost of public education. We thank you sincerely for your attention and your action.

Karen Garbus, President
PTA Council
JoAnn Miltenberg, President
Board of Education
Catherine J. Fenton
Superintendent of Schools

Announces Candidacy

To The Editor:

I would like to take this time to pass on to your readers my intention to run for Mr. Daniel Arena's seat on the Hicksville School Board.

As a trustee I would be able to ensure that my children, as well as all children of Hicksville, are entitled to the best education that we can afford to give them.

It's time for the burden to be lifted from the taxpayers, and new ideas in controlling an ever-rising budget be looked into. When preparing a budget we must not only look at the following year, but 5 and 10 years from now.

Our governor is chipping away at the state aid we so desperately need. It's time to take the reins and be as self-sufficient as possible in managing our ever-rising costs.

Hicksville's senior citizens have always shown a deep interest when voting at budget time. I would like to say to them, someday I'll be a senior citizen with all of my children out of the school system and I will still have my taxes to deal with. Only with a futuristic outlook can we develop new ideas that will eventually save money.

With the state setting guidelines for the encapsulation and removal of asbestos materials in our schools, I applaud our district for having the future in mind and certifying some maintenance employees in removing asbestos. The equipment used for such tasks is at their disposal. This is a futuristic outlook and will save us money in years to come.

As a community, we have to remember that all people have different ideas, when we can respect other ideas and opinions, then our community will be a united one with everyone working toward the same goal, education.

Times change, people don't, we still have what our ancestors had, strength, courage, knowledge, and love for our children. With all these attributes, how could we possibly not accomplish great things.

All that is left to say is please vote May 10, it costs a few thousand dollars to have a vote, so why not get it right the first time.

James A. Martillo

Thanks Auxiliary Police

To The Editor:

The annual Hicksville Lions' "Run for Sight" on April 12 was once again successful. The funds raised are used by charitable organizations and individuals in the community.

The Auxiliary Police of Hicksville are to be praised and thanked for a job well done. All of the runners were well protected from any moving vehicles. The response of the Hicksville Auxiliary Police to all community efforts is to be commended. The men and women of this force should be recognized for their dedication.

Thank You From Neighbors In Need

To The Editor:
I wanted to bring you up-to-date on the results of your wonderful "Neighbors in Need" campaign for Make-A-Wish. First of all, we used the money donated by your readers to fulfill the wish of Danielle, the little girl with AIDS who wanted a special party. It was such a magical day for her. Her relatives and friends were there to share in her special day and there was music, a clown, and of course, Danielle's favorite foods: pizza and ice cream! The wish experience brought a great deal of joy to Danielle and her family and created happy memories that they will treasure forever.

There have been so many other positive results of your holiday campaign that you haven't seen, but have meant so much as we go about our mission of granting special wishes to children with life-threatening illnesses.

One reader offered to sponsor an entire wish. Several others have donated services that are used by the Foundation in making wishes come true: limousine rides, dinners at area restaurants and celebrity contacts.

All of this speaks to the impact of the Anton Community Newspapers in the community. We appreciate all of your help in creating a greater awareness of the Make-A-

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...I hear people say all the time, "I'm not fussy—I like everything"...and then that person will, unwittingly, complain that the roast beef is cut too thick—the eggs are cooked too hard—the ketchup isn't Heinz—they hate instant coffee—they like only pan gravy, not "that thick, gooey kind"...and so it goes....Now, I know that I am fussy—quite the fussiest person I know in the food department....I never learned to eat everything on my plate....My Mother was no advocate of "the clean-plate-club"...she spoiled us—there's no other word for it....On Friday nights, she actually prepared four dinners—shrimp for my Father, fried fish for herself, canned spaghetti for my little brother and hard boiled eggs for me!!!!....Can you imagine?....Truth to tell, few people are as peculiar as I, but most do have ways of choosing or eating many things....For example, you....How do you eat Oreo cookies?...It's a well-known fact that the aficionados always open the two chocolate cookies and lick the white icing first....And how about spaghetti?...Do you believe it's a great sin to cut spaghetti and so you wind it around your fork and let the sauce run down your chin?...And, tell me honestly, do you dunk?...Many people have never tasted a dry doughnut!!!!....And how do you eat your ice cream cones?...I know (don't I?) that you never bite the bottom off the cone!!!!....And consider chocolate eclairs....It's really proper, I suppose, to use your fork and carefully break off small bits....but, how much better it tastes if you just break it in half and eat it in your fingers....And speaking of eating with your fingers, you know that there was never any bologna in the world that tasted as good as the slice the butcher gave you when you were in the store with your Mother....Do you cut the crusts off the bread for your sandwiches—or eat them, man-size?...Do you like the way restaurants are now cooking vegetables al dente or did you prefer them nice and mushy and well-cooked?...See, I knew it all along—you're fussy too.

Yours, Lulabelle

ROBERT R. McMILLAN'S

Direct Line

Drug war murders are the most visible and shocking part of the insidious infection which has threatened to destroy portions of our cities and has been eating away at the suburbs as well. We see the bodies and the flashing police car lights almost nightly on television. And, we see the broken lives when television focuses on the impact of drugs. We rarely see the more than twenty thousand babies abandoned each year by drug addicted parents—babies and children left on the street, on door steps, or just never picked up after school.

It seems that every time we turn around, there is another negative theme flowing from the drug culture. Now it is abandoned children. Several drug related abandonments take place in New York City each week. What is probably of equal terror is the fact that many babies and children live out their young lives in an environment full of crack and heroin—for practical purposes, they also have been abandoned. Their values and lives are fully shaped by the drug culture surrounding them.

To deal with the plague, "war" is being declared on drugs daily by everyone from the President to members of Congress and state and local officials. But the solution will take a great deal more than press releases declaring "war" on drugs. In a real "war" it takes a concerted, well coordinated effort to win. Dealing with the drug problem is not like ordering from a Chinese restaurant menu. There really is no choice. The producer, seller and consumer all have to be dealt with at the same time. To bring it all together, here is the action program I would like to see from federal, state, and local government officials:

1. All normal trade between the United States and countries allowing the growing, manufacture and export of drugs should be terminated.
2. An all out United States military effort to interdict drugs shipped here by sea or air should be implemented.
3. All sources of drug manufacture and production in this country should be stamped out.
4. New York law should be immediately amended to permit the seizure of all assets of those involved in drugs.
5. Those who deal in drugs should go to jail, without exception, on the first conviction.
6. The federal government should make army barracks available to augment overcrowded local and state jail cells.
7. New York law should be amended to provide the death penalty for anyone guilty of a drug related murder.
8. Federal funding, to help beef up local police, should be made available in critical areas of the country.
9. Every person found guilty of possession of a drug should receive mandatory drug counseling—just as in the case of a driving while intoxicated conviction.
10. The children must be reached. Additional funds must be provided. Education, including an orientation to traditional values, is essential.
11. Treatment must be available on demand for those addicted.
12. When all else has failed in a community, local government should have the option to call for federal troops to sweep a neighborhood clean of drug dealers.

Some of the measures may seem extreme. Yet, if we are truly to have a "war on drugs," drastic measures are in order. If we don't, it will mean a further deterioration of our society, with even more dependence on the second addiction—welfare.

Board's Plan

6 who said they were opposed to the commissioners' plan because "active members will have to cross several intersections which will slow response time, and placereponding members in jeopardy."

Asked whether he thinks that the Strong Street substation will provide sufficient fire protection in the northwest section with only one truck, Chief Farrell said, "I can get you back up from other houses, but initially no. It's [the truck] been there for 25 years. I can't see any reason to move it."

Ladder Truck Needed

Commissioner Bianculli said that the ladder truck is greatly needed at the Levittown Parkway substation to service such schools as Holy Trinity and Hicksville high schools and Dutch Lane and Old Country elementary schools, as well as office buildings, including 550 Old Country Road and some buildings on Stewart Avenue. The move would take place when the Levittown Parkway substation is completed.

Commissioner Krummenacker agreed that the truck is needed at Levittown Parkway because there are many firemen who reside in that area.

"When there is an alarm, they go to their respective stations, whether it be Strong Street or headquarters," he said. "What we are doing is moving apparatus closer to them so they don't have to drive half way across town."

Commissioner Krummenacker added that the fire district's primary concern is to serve the residents, and, with the additional truck at the Levittown Parkway facility, the department will provide a quicker response time. The commissioners wish to move the truck rather than purchase a new one, because there is no money in the budget, Krummenacker said.

Commissioner Krummenacker added that the Levittown Parkway substation will most likely be equipped with two pumps (water and hoses) and a hook and ladder from the Strong Street substation. At Strong Street, there will be a pump, and headquarters will provide ladder truck, heavy duty rescue and Hazmat, a stand by engine and ambulance to service the Northwest section, Krummenacker said.

Commissioner Bianculli noted that a member of the fire department does not have to ride on the truck of a particular company. When they get enough men to ride on a truck, they leave. He explained that each fireman is trained to use all equipment involved in fire safety including manning the trucks. Hicksville Fire Department has eight companies.

Commissioner Experience

"The fire commissioners have a total of 141 years of fire experience," said Commissioner Bianculli, who was elected to his five-year term by the residents. "Wouldn't you think that with all those years of fire fighting service that the board would have the knowledge and be qualified to know where to place the fire apparatus to best suit the people of Hicksville?"

One resident questioned why the chiefs have a difference of opinion with the commissioners about the plan. Krummenacker said, "The fire department is made up of over 220 members, so you're going to have very varied opinions."

Commissioner William Schuckmann said that the officers, chiefs and commissioners will work together to try and solve the problem. "Just to let the people in the community know, as a member of the fire department, when that horn goes there will be no problem with the fire protection from the Hicksville Fire Department," he said.

Joseph Boslet, Nassau County Fire Marshal, said that no one can overrule the commissioners' decisions, but he does suggest that residents attend the district's meetings, which are open to the public.

"I respect the decision of the commissioners," he said. "Their decisions are made in the best interest of the public."

Hicksville High Happenings...

By Jim McCrann

Celebrity Night

With the aura of excitement and anticipation that accompanies any kind of major awards ceremony, Hicksville High seniors held their own "Senior Celebrity Night" on March 30. This is an annual event in which members of the senior class vote for their classmates for various awards that best describes each winner's talents, personalities and other features. There were 20 separate categories in which a guy and a girl were selected as winners. Though, for the most part, it was a ceremony just for fun, it was an honor to even be nominated, let alone win an award.

Maria Paradiso, who was the winner of three awards - "Most Popular," "Most Likely to Succeed," and "Best Athlete" - said, "It was really exciting. I was very nervous and I had a lot of fun."

Stacie Berger, the "Best Female Musician," had mixed feelings about her award. Though she has been playing the violin since she was five, she felt others should have won her award. "It was an honor to win 'Best Musician,' but I feel other people were more deserving."

Class Trip

The sophomore class will be taking a class trip to the Great Adventure amusement park on Saturday, April 29. The cost of this trip is $30. More information may be obtained from Ms. Korzeniorfer.

Prom Time

The coming of spring serves as a reminder that the Prom cannot be too far away. And now is the time to start making plans as both the junior and senior classes await this special occasion. Tickets for the Junior Prom are on sale through May 12. The cost is $55 per couple and they may be purchased from Ms. Pilkington in room 228.

The Senior Prom will be held on June 9 at the Crest Hollow Country Club. Tickets cost $100 per couple and can be purchased in room 146 beginning on April 17.

Opening lead — ten of clubs.

The opportunity to win a trick does not create an obligation to do so. There are times when a player — whether declarer or defender — is best advised to reject the opportunity to win a trick.

Consider this deal where West started off on the right foot by leading the ten of clubs. After everyone followed low, West continued with the nine, overtaken by East with the jack. East then played the king of clubs and declarer was faced with the problem of which card to ruff with.

Declarer studied the situation a while and finally ruffed with the ten. West overruffed with the jack and shifted to a diamond. South won in his hand with the king and led the queen of trumps. It did not matter whether West covered or not; either way, his king was trapped and South would make the contract.

West foundered badly when he overruffed declarer's ten of trumps with the jack at trick three. All he had to do to guarantee defeat of the contract was to simply discard on the trick. Once the ten was gone, West's K-J-8 of trumps represented two sure trump winners regardless of what declarer had.

There is no magic rule that answers the question of when a player should take or refuse to take a particular trick. It depends on the circumstances. If it is advantageous to win the trick, you do so; if there is something to be gained by refusing to win the trick, you don't win it. More often than not you win a trick when the occasion arises, but the decisive factor in every case is good judgment.

Through Rose Colored Glass... Stained Glass Goes Hi-Tech at SGO...

Today's homeowners can have the beauty of stained glass throughout their homes with Designer Glass by Stained Glass Overlay.

The process allows intricate designs in limitless color combinations, giving immediate visual and decorative beauty to any room and adding dramatic decorative value to the home.

Designer glass can be used to coordinate a total design theme, can be made to match window decor with fabrics, wallpaper or floor covering patterns. Designs can duplicate a special photograph, a treasured piece of art, a monogram or a family crest.

Beveled or multicolor, SGO complements any decorative style—contemporary, traditional or Art Deco, and seamless construction of Overlay allows builders and homeowners to use decorative glass in places never before considered without the worry of water damage or the loss of cooled or heated air.

Overlay meets or exceeds safety and security requirements set by increasingly stringent building codes and is especially appropriate for exterior windows, doors and skylights. Colorful designs are applied directly to tempered, safety or dual-paned glass to dress up front entries, sidelights, shower doors, patio doors and room dividers.

Beveled Glass by SGO uses clear 3/4-inch plate glass, cut to the specified pattern and then hand-beveled and polished to shimmering beauty. The fully-leaded, beveled glass panels are available in 27 sizes and over 30 beautiful designs—to fit standard door and window frames—and can be delivered from stock. Or, if desired, SGO's designers will create custom designs to homeowners' specifications. Both multicolored and beveled glass provide a degree of privacy or allow the homeowner to artfully camouflage an unsightly view without blocking out natural light.

Homeowners who are interested in adding designer glass to their homes can call Designer Stained Glass Overlay, Inc. at 334-3550 for a free brochure, or visit the studio at 797 Old Country Road, Westbury.

The Cutting Edge

by Elizabeth Stanwycks
for Martin Viette Nurseries

Think of the joy and beauty a bouquet of cut flowers can bring to your home and your friends. You don't have to go to a florist to have the colors and fragrances of an outdoor garden indoors. Step into your garden with a bucket of water and garden shears and return with a display that would brighten anyone's day. All it takes is a little imagination and planning.

The first thing to consider is your garden's location. Will it get enough sun for good flower production? What shape should it be? Your garden site will require a minimum of six hours of sun, a source for water and average soil supplemented with organic matter.

Whether it's a border or an island bed, it should be designed with both beauty and utility in mind. Paths should be left in an island bed and a border should be no wider than four feet for easy "harvesting". Shorter plants such as ageratum and Dianthus, should be on the edge. Medium height plants should be next, followed by the tallest.

Color will be the basis for most of your selections.

Now comes the fun part—plant selection. Annuals are perfect candidates for a cutting garden. The more you cut them, the more they flower.

Combine them with perennials and you've got quite a list. Go for color, texture and form. Include spikes, cushions and fillers, brights, pastels and whites. Try some fragrance. Some can be used both fresh and dried.

Landscape Design...Not Just Shrubs

At Atlantic Nurseries, Freeport, plantings are just one component of an award winning design-build concept.

Specialists in all phases of residential and commercial exterior design, Atlantic puts 60 years of knowledge, experience and professionalism into developing a "beautiful outdoor environment" tailored to the customers' highly individualized needs.

In 1988, Atlantic received first place in the N.Y. State Nurseryman's small residence competition, a grand award from the National Association of Landscape Contractors and Long Island Nurserymen's Association's gold medal for commercial design.

"In creating 'Sailor's Haven', the residential project, we took into consideration the owner's lifestyle, environmental factors, property size and location, to create a new feeling of privacy, versatility and beauty in their small yard in a densely populated community near the water in Merrick," said Rudi Harbauer, Atlantic's Design & Build Division Manager.

"We incorporated the owner's interest in boating, their career based need for low maintenance and their need for privacy and wind protection, to create maximum space and utility in a fairly small backyard.

"Privacy was achieved with decorative fencing of various heights at different spots on the property," Harbauer said. "We created a nautical environment, with a personal waterway and float. Here, privacy is achieved by raising the sails on their boat, docked at the float.

"Cedar decking on two levels and bluestone paving on the ground gave special definition and reduced maintenance. Plantings added more definition, color and decorative accents. We omitted a lawn to reduce maintenance and increase usable space, and used black pilings and river stones to define areas, increase the nautical atmosphere and create continuity."

The award winning backyard provided ample area to display the couple's racing flags, club burgees, windsocks and racing memorabilia, with areas for relaxation, dining and entertaining, and access to sailing and surfing equipment.

Plantings were chosen for environmental durability, privacy and beauty. "The house is located in a windy waterfront area, where saltwater flooding is common," Harbauer said. There was a large European Linden in the center of the yard, which we integrated into the design. A large old apple tree screened one corner, and we planted a beautiful American holly for year-round privacy. New plantings were chosen for hardiness, architectural interest, color, and shade and rain protection were provided by a horizontally strung sail above the upper deck."

Atlantic, at 250 Atlantic Ave., Freeport (378-7359), will put the skill of their award winning team to work for you. Whether your property is large or small, coastal or inland, residential or commercial. Their landscape designers, planners, graphic designers and craftsmen will develop and execute plans to turn your space into a "first place" in your life.

From Cape Cod to Castle ...With a Little Help From Larsen

What to do? All three of your youngsters have decided to have slumber parties...on the same weekend! Your sister is coming to visit...with the twins! Your mother in law just spent her annual visit...in Jimmy's room (he bunked with his brother)! Your three bedroom cape feels like a sardine can!

You've looked at larger homes...but they're out of sight, and you'd have to change the kids' school, leave the neighborhood you love...Larsen Home Improvements (Hicksville) has the solution.

Nearly 30 years in the home expansion and remodeling field has established Larsen as one of the most reliable, professional experienced contractors in Nassau. They've turned thousands of ordinary capes and cottages into extraordinary "castles," adding everything from one room additions to full dormered, high-ceilinged expansions, changed standard Massapequa capes into soaring, cedar-sided excitement.

According to Michael Kocis, Sales Manager, "Most homeowners decide to remodel rather than move, and most have some idea of what they want. People are generally more aware of the new materials available, and they've talked to several contractors, even had plans drawn, before they make a final decision to begin an extension or renovation."

"When we go in to draw up preliminary plans, the homeowner will tell us broadly what they want," he commented. "It's our job to get them to think about details...what type of windows, what's best for particular exposures; how many electrical outlets and where; ceiling outlets, fans...details most people haven't really thought about."

"In the case of a major expansion, people will often have architectural plans that they've been living with for as much as a year. At this point they've talked to several contractors, looked at the showrooms to get a feel for windows, appliances, cabinets...we call it a 'learning process'."

"It can also be confusing," Mike commented. "When we come in to draw up preliminary plans, we discuss the family's living patters, how they'll use the new space, it takes about a week for this preliminary stage. We'll do sketches, an elevation, and prepare an exhaustive list of details, so that people have a better idea of what the finished work will look like. We ask them to begin thinking about furniture placement."

NEW HYDE PARK Cape goes modern. Larsen added a second story, utilized vertical and herringbone cedar siding and long, rectangular low E windows to create a contemporary home with a spacious feel. The vertical lines give added height and architectural balance.

"We give the customer a written proposal for materials that includes sizes, grades, type, etc. We have our own showroom, in our headquarters (115 Newbridge Rd., Hicksville), so that the client can come in and see a bathroom, the kitchen cabinets, windows, siding and roofing products."

"Once we get a go-ahead from the customer, our draftsman goes to the house to take detailed measurements and draw up final blueprints...it takes about 4-6 weeks between the preliminary sketch and a go-ahead," he commented. "It's three months before the start of a project, and we promise completion, in most cases, within 4-5 weeks."

"About 20% of the jobs require zoning variances, which means an elongation of start time...plans have to be presented to and approved by the town and it can take 10 to 12 months to obtain a permit. We represent the client at these zoning hearings."

Larsen has eight full crews and several supervisors. Each job is assigned a supervisor.

who visits each site daily to meet with the homeowner and coordinate the construction activities to ensure a high quality, timely production. There can be as many as 35-40 people on a job from start to finish...tile men, plumbers, electricians, finishers, roofers...it's the supervisor's job to make sure everything goes smoothly.

"If the family is in the house, we try to close off the construction area," Kocis says. In fact, we're preparing a manual geared to sensitizing the homeowner as to what to expect and how to live with a renovation.

"If we're lucky, the family can arrange to live elsewhere. If not, we'll do the top floor, then give the family a few weeks to repair and furnish before we complete the job."

Larsen is as concerned about the exterior appearance as it is about the family's comfort during the job. A 20 yard truck takes away debris as needed. "We don't leave a dumpster standing in the driveway, it adds to the client's frustration," Kocis says. "The job supervisor calls the cleanup crew as soon as it's needed...it makes our job easier, too."

What are the newest products and how does Larsen use them? "We're using vinyl siding as the exterior product of choice...it's easier to match existing siding, and it's very low maintenance. People don't have time for the regular maintenance required by wood siding or aluminum.

"Skylights are very popular these days" he notes. "They should be used on the south erly portion of the house and we only utilize high performance E-glass for maximum energy efficiency, minimum ultra-violet penetration.

"People are attracted to the new half-round windows. These are most appropriate when set in a cathedral height area. The windows below are standard height and the half-rounds rise above adding visual height to the finished look.

"At the end of a job, we send out a questionnaire to evaluate the job from start to finish," Mike says. "It helps us keep our crews at peak performance, and helps us keep our crews at peak performance, and helps our supervisors evaluate their teams."

When your family needs space, and a move is our of the question, call Larsen

Crafts have come of age as decorative home accents and Long Islanders can see and purchase the works of some of the area's finest artisans at the "Spring Fling Crafts Festival" at the Nassau Coliseum April 28, 29, 30.

You'll find exquisite stained glass windows by Joann Pizzitola of Bay Shore. Her skill takes this turn-of-the-century art form into the 21st Century with an Eastern flavor that transcends time.

Phyllis Charles' soft sculpture cacti add a new dimension to the indoor garden and a midwestern flavor to home decor.

There will be a juried display of more than 200 crafts, with gifts for every occasion and crafts for every place in your home available for sale. Call 212-645-1630 for details.

From Portugal, To You... Porcelain To Treasure

From Portugal to you, and exclusive to Ceramix International, Estrela De Conimbriga porcelain makes perfect gifts for any occasion, wonderful additions to your own fine home.

Portugal has a long tradition of extraordinarily fine artisans, whose intricately detailed work and standards of quality have made their porcelain, ceramics, laces, woven fabrics and woodenware desirable for centuries.

Estrela De Conimbriga, one of the country's leading porcelain manufacturers, captures this tradition of artistic finesse on fine, hand-painted porcelain tableware and accessories in styles ranging from traditional to contemporary.

"We're the exclusive importers of this handpainted ware here in the East," he notes, "and it's very exciting to introduce it to the distinctive homes of Long Island. Estrela De Conimbriga have become very popular in Europe, and we're sure they will become treasured here in the U.S., too."

Pitchers, bowls, platters, candlesticks and vases are among the many exquisite pieces available at Ceramix, one of the newest and most exciting shops on the North Shore. Located at 7 Bond Street, in the heart of Great Neck, (482-6594), David Gruenreiro has chosen his merchandise with discernment and care.

"HELP"

Sometimes you just run out of steam. Even putting one foot in front of the other is an effort. Besides, what's the use when you've got nowhere to go?

That's how Denise felt, until a good friend urged her to seek help at Jewish Community Services of Long Island (JCSLI), a UJA-Federation agency.

Middle-aged and chronically ill with diabetes and obesity, she managed for years. Just. Living with her sister, she got to her job, got through the night. When her mother died, Denise lost her job. She was convinced she couldn't do anything for anyone, least of all herself.

With the help of her JCSLI social worker, Denise got counseling and nutritional advice. She was referred to a vocational guidance agency. A socialization group at JCSLI helped her to become self-confident and meet new people.

JCSLI helps people cope with severe as well as everyday living problems. A wide variety of services are available for children, newly-arrived immigrants, the elderly and the needy.

Today—only three years after she cried "help!"—Denise has a new job and her own apartment. At last, she has fulfilled her dream. Denise is truly independent.

Gifts to UJA-Federation help Long Islanders like Denise and four million people in New York, Israel and worldwide.

Spring Workshop at Hicksville Gregory Museum

On Saturday, April 15, from 1:30 to 3 p.m., Curator Donald Curran will conduct a workshop for a 8 to 12-year-olds on "How to Start Your Own Rock Collection."

Students who have already begun collecting rocks may bring in samples for identification and discussion. All those attending will receive a beginner's collection without additional charge.

Stop in at the museum, or call 822-7505 to hold a place and mail your check promptly. If your child has registered and cannot attend, please notify the museum as far in advance as possible, so someone on the waiting list can be called.

The Grapevine

By Gary Ryder

Many people don't think of kosher wines until this season, when stores display Kosher-for-Passover wines. And when they consider kosher wine, they expect syrupy-sweet wines that taste like grape juice.

There's more, lots more. Fact is, "Kosher" doesn't refer to a type of wine, but a high level of cleanliness in making it, and just about any type of wine can be vinified kosher. (Kosher-for-Passover wines, however, cannot contain corn sweetener or yeast from grain.)

How good are the new kosher wines? Some of the best have scored high in blind tastings for best-of-the-year.

These wines are being made all over the world today, and in many styles. While some people still associate kosher wines only with New York grapes, choices include Soave and Valpolicella from Italy, Bordeaux from France, and varietals from Israel and the U.S. Try the new Weinstock Kosher California White Zinfandel.

Passover is also the time of year when many opt for wine-based brandy or fruit-based shivitz.

Some of the vineyards in Israel were planted with French vines donated by the Rothschild family (known for their Lafite and Mouton wines).

SENIORS - Join our Over 60 club for discount. Mention this article when you want kosher wine and receive 10% off on entire purchase!

The Investor's Corner

By Dr. Joseph P. Frey

Last week we discussed some topics that do not rate a full article but which should be returned to, periodically, to keep the reader updated. This week's article continues the update and also makes a very important announcement at the end.

DOLLAR STABILITY: The major world powers have shown a remarkable ability to lower and stabilize the dollar. They seem to have it in an acceptable trading range that benefits the USA, and does not hurt them by much. While the dollar is up somewhat from low lows, I do not expect it to rise much more against most currencies. There is no advantage for the USA to have a lower dollar, our factories are running at close to capacity. There may be a tendency for some of the European nations to have the dollar rise which would help their economies. They are running about 10 percent unemployment rates and a stronger dollar would help them increase exports and get more people working. Germany is the nation most likely to upset the applecart because the young people are getting more militant and there has been a noticeable rise in extreme right wing disturbances and activity. By and large, the dollar is in a trading range that everyone seems to be able to handle. So I do not expect a significant rise or fall from the present trading zone.

MUTUAL FUNDS: As most of the faithful readers of this column know, I am an ardent advocate of no-load mutual funds as the preferable investment vehicle for the ordinary investor. Most of us do not have the time to adequately investigate our stock purchases. Many, probably most, do not understand the stock market. So mutual funds are a good place to be if you want a professional to handle your investment. Unfortunately, as the investors have left the market and as readers are into no-loads as quick trading vehicles, the mutual funds have been imposing loads when you buy them. Many are low loads (1-3%), some are medium loads (3-5%) and some still remain full loads (5-9%). The thinking of the fund managers is two-fold. First, they can get more brokerage houses to sell the fund if the salespeople get a commission. This increases the money under management, which increases the management money. Second, the investor will stay with them and not move the money quickly if they have paid for the purchase. Both are true. Yet, while the number of no-load funds is shrinking, there are still a good number of historical great performers that have remained no-load funds. Look for them, it is worth the effort. Do not look for last year's best performer. Look for funds that have good track records over time and which still maintain their momentum through last year. It is time to get out of some former great performers.

SEMINAR: The Antons', who own and publish these community newspapers, are going to sponsor a financial investment seminar. This seminar will be open ONLY to paid-up SUBSCRIBERS to one of their newspapers. The featured speaker is your column writer. In addition to myself, I have invited the IRS to send an agent who will be prepared to talk about your rights as a taxpayer and your relationship with the IRS. There is an announcement somewhere in this paper. The date is May 10th at the GARDEN CITY CASINO. We will start at 7:30 p.m. SHARP. Seating is limited. There will be no admittance without an admission pass issued by the paper. This will be done on a first come first served basis. If the seminar is successful, the Antons have agreed to sponsor additional seminars as long as their readers want them. All will be open only to subscribers. I hope to see you there.

'Innkeepers Ball' To Benefit Homeless

As part of the continuing campaign to raise funds for the homeless in Nassau and Suffolk counties, the Interfaith Nutrition Network is sponsoring its third annual "Innkeepers Ball" at the Royce Carlin Hotel on Saturday night, April 29.

The Interfaith Nutrition Network, a non-profit organization, more often called the INN, operates fourteen soup kitchens and seven emergency shelters to feed and house those in need at various sites in Nassau and Suffolk counties. The INN feeds more than 1,000 people daily and houses 60 people in emergency shelters. Help by social workers, job counselors, health aides meets the varied needs of the shelter communities. Funds gained from the dinner-dance will be used toward expanding these programs.

For further information on the dinner-dance, or INN programs, call Michael Moran at 486-8506 or write to him at 148 Front St., Hempstead, New York 11550.

Coe Hall Re-Opens for Guided Tours

Coe Hall, the historic house museum at Planting Fields Arboretum, has re-opened for guided tours. The Tudor Revival country house is the former home of the W.R. Coe family and is listed on the National Register of Historic Districts.

The main floor of Coe Hall has been restored to its 1920's appearance. Escorted through the house by a knowledgeable guide, visitors will share the experience of life in a Gold Coast house, where servants were plentiful and a room existed for almost every whim.

Visitors are always surprised to see the breakfast room, with its murals of stampeding buffalo, grazing elk, Indians or horseback and soaring eagles. These murals were recently restored and a beautiful sunrise over the mesa now appears after years of being obscured by repairs.

Coe Hall is open for tours April through September, Monday through Friday, from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Admission is $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for seniors and children 6-12. Group tours are by appointment. For more information, call 922-0479.

ON SATURDAY, Jan. 14 East Woods fifth graders Kate Randolph, Jacob Held, Meg Roddy, Evin McMahon, Richard Cammarata and Sean Harrington joined Town Supervisor Angelo Delligatti in a project to help save the beaches on the south shore of Long Island. The children were accompanied by parents Mrs. Roddy, Mrs. Maloney, Mrs. Faivre, Mrs. Steinsaltz and Mr. Sadler at Tobay Beach. The students and parents placed the old Christmas trees in a diamond shape to help catch the sand and reinforce the dunes. East Woods volunteers walked along the beach and helped clear up about 200 pounds of debris. Jacob Held of Oyster Bay said "I am doing something to help my children's future."

Pioneers Defeated in Penalty Shootouts

Lose State Cup Quarterfinals

By Jay Schwartz

The Hicksville Americans' 1977 Pioneers were defeated in overtime penalty shootouts by East Fishkill at Triangle Park on April 2. After 120 minutes of play, the score was 2-2 and ended when Fishkill led in penalty shots, 3-1, after the fifth shooter. The final score was 5-3.

The game was a tough one for Hicksville, who were under the gun from the start. The Fishkill team was a new competitor and broke through the Hicksville defense quickly. One player came through and crossed a shot to the box, which landed squarely in the upper corner. Moments later, a goal kick was shot immediately back to the net, as the defense was coming back into position. The control of the ball was a toss-up then, as both teams fought for territory and chances of attack. Joey Croce put Hicksville on the scoreboard right before the half, with a direct kick from the 35 yard line, which sailed way over the goalkeeper's head.

The second half saw the Pioneers press for room. Greg Latini made an easy save in the box. The score was tied, 2-2, when Jonathan Schwartz kicked a long ball from the midfield to Joey Croce. Croce juggled the ball and passed to Ricky Ladimir. Ladimir dribbled to the left and kicked a long ball, which sailed to the far corner out of reach. Latini had a bounce-ing ball save and shortly after, a loose ball save when he ran to midfield and kick a rolling ball downfield. Peter Titone and Philip Caputo had shots from the wing positions, which were blocked. Croce took a powerful shot, which was tapped over the net by an alert goalkeeper. Finally, Latini took a line drive shot and hand saved it by banging it down to the ground.

In the first overtime, there were two chances for scores, as Joey Florio and Joey Croce each had a shot on goal. In the second overtime, Latini made important saves, as the defense was under pressure. Timmy Dalton and Danny Wolchok were strong on clearing the ball near the end of regulation time.

The shootouts began with Fishkill scoring the first goal. Jonathan Schwartz hit a solid shot for Hicksville. At the end of the round, Fishkill led 3-1 and won. Latini had made two stops, but the Pioneers had not made their goals.

This was truly an exciting game. The defensive players, Robert Isley, David Nelsen and Sean Flanagan, worked very hard throughout the game. Other players, like Russell Brouseau, Tommy Coffey and Richard Werchenski, fought for possession, as they mounted their attacks. Everyone deserves credit for a fine game played.

1977 Pioneers Defeat Plainview-Old Bethpage, 2-0

By Jay Schwartz

The under 12 Hicksville Americans' Pioneers won 2-0 to Plainview-Old Bethpage, at Triangle field on April 1. They controlled the ball well and passed sharply to one another.

The game began with two quick and easy saves by Hicksville goalkeeper Peter Titone. Afterwards there was a crossing pass in the box by POB which was also saved. Jonathan Schwartz sent along a sideline pass up to Philip Caputo, who took a shot but the goalkeeper came out to catch it. Richard Werchenski popped the ball to Ricky Ladimir who crossed it to Philip Caputo. Caputo kicked the ball but the goalkeeper fell on top of it. Moments before the half, Hicksville scored their first goal. Sean Flanagan passed to Ricky Ladimir who crossed the ball into the box. Richard Werchenski popped it up and Joey Matz volleyed it in to the far side of the goal. The end of the first half came as Peter Titone made a kick save and then a fist-punching save to retain the lead.

The second half started with good passing opportunities. Greg Latini took over as goalkeeper as Jonathan Schwartz passed to Joey Florio, who sent it in for Philip Caputo. Caputo crossed the ball to Peter Titone who shot it wide. Florio ran and passed to Caputo. Tommy Coffey received the ball and took a shot which went wide. Latini made kick saves as an attack was pressed. Joey Florio sent a long ball up to Philip Caputo. He took a run down the field and the goalkeeper came out and snuffed the shot. The ball was loose and Joey Croce sent it in to Peter Titone who missed his shot. He passed to Ricky Ladimir who touched in the ball nicely for the goal. Hicksville wins 2-0.

Timmy Dalton, Robert Isley, Danny Wolchok, Russell Brouseau, and Dave Nelsen all assisted in the victory. Congratulations to the coaching staff and the team sponsor, Westbury Federal Savings and Loan.

Hicksville PAL Summer Sports Fun

If you're looking for good wholesome entertainment for the entire family, join PAL's summer boys' baseball/girls' softball programs. Not only do the participants have a great time playing these sports, but the parents also have a lot of fun watching and cheering on the teams. This is the perfect opportunity for you and your children to alleviate the boredom of summer. Games are held two nights a week, beginning at 6 p.m. and ending at dusk.

There is very little stress in this league because there are no playoffs and every participant receives a trophy. Because participation and instruction are emphasized in this intra-mural league, first-timers (whether 7 or 15) or experienced players are always welcome.

Hicksville PAL also offers many other programs that youths can sign up for at this time. They are: Dance-Twirl, judo, karate, lacrosse, bowling and girls only/boys only, basketball.

Registration for these programs will take place in May. See upcoming issues of the Illustrated for further information.

Kids-For-Kids Annual Summer Charity Tournament

By Charlette Anstey

Kids-For-Kids Annual Summer Charity Tournament will be held August 26. There will be a meeting on April 26 between HBA (Hicksville Baseball Association), Hicksville PAL (Police Activities League) and St. Ignatius CYO (Catholic Youth Organization) to discuss the rules of this tournament. HBA will again sponsor this tournament.

Al Ciacio, as always, is the leading force behind this tournament. Three years ago, the HBA Williamsport team had completed their season and Al (who was coach of this team at that time) thought it would be nice to play one last game. Al came up with the idea of making it a charity game and invited Hicksville PAL to participate. The following year St. Ignatius CYO was also included.

The first year we raised $500. Last year we raised $2,000 for the A.H.R.C. (Association for the Help of Retarded Children). This year we are hoping the Hicksville community and merchants will help us beat last year's figure.
