Why Hicksville Moms Are So Special

By Rita Langdon

In honor of Mother's Day, the Hicksville Illustrated's photographer, Cathy Greenfield, visited local families to find out why Hicksville moms are so special.

Cathy discovered that scheduling appointments with our moms isn't always easy. "I had to schedule a trip in between various activities, dinner and a trip to the allergist," said Cathy about the Scheidet family.

In addition to the Scheidet clan, Cathy had some trouble getting the Mullee family together for a group photo. "I wasn't able to get all of them at home together until 9 p.m. Thursday night, after Heather (15) had finished jazzercise class at Peggie O'Connor's Dance School." Cathy also said that the Mullee family has traveled together across the country three times in a van and visited national, historical and amusement attractions throughout the United States.

The Raisig family only had 20 minutes to spare for our photographer—that's when the only amount of time that clan would be home together all at once.

"And mom, Eileen, really meant 20 minutes," said Cathy. "Only because the rain cancelled Gary's (9) baseball game, was I able to photograph them in the afternoon, other-

The Raisig Family: Mom, Eileen, children, Gary (9), Tara (5). Gary: "Mom helps me with my homework. She roots for me at baseball games and she's nice. Sunday we're going to the Mets." Tara: "She's a loving Mommy. She plays Nintendo with me [Tara usually wins]! And mom made a dollhouse for me for Christmas. Mother's Day plans: Going to grandmas for dinner and the rest of the day is Mom's choice as to what she'd like to do. Mom also gets to sleep late on that day."

Hicksville Students Send A SADD Prom Message

Twelfth grader Chris Horvath acted as the drunk driver in the mock car accident. Here, police officer Brian Dietrick asks Chris to walk a straight line. Illustrated photos

"It's not cool to drink and drive." That's the message Students Against Driving Drunk president Harry Pangas wants to send his peers as prom time approaches.

Students of the Hicksville High School chapter, the fire department and police carried out this message Friday by staging a mock accident in which two prom students were hurt.

The scene took place on the high school fields and consisted of students, portrayed by firefighters Liz Flahavan and Tim Chase, driving to the prom. They were then "hit" by a drunken driver, played by 12th grader Chris Horvath, a member of SADD.

While the firefighters worked to extricate the students from the cars, eighth precinct police officers Al Simon and Brian Dietrick performed a sobriety test to determine whether Chris was driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs. After the mock procedures, Chris was arrested and said, "It was a bad experience. I would never want to go through something like this."

Twelfth grader Marie Pina, agreed, adding, "What Chris went through, you wouldn't want to go through in real life."

SADD's advisor, Susan Galland, said that in addition to staging the mock accident, the

Hicksville Manetto Lodge Celebrates 65th Anniversary

More than 64 years ago, about seven people, under the direction of Dr. Edward G. Rave, decided to form a Masonic Lodge in Hicksville. After 20 years, the lodge was formally established in 1924 and this year celebrates its 65th anniversary.

The Manetto Lodge No. 1025, a group of religious men who are Free and Accepted Masons, today has more than 375 members. But, during the 20 years it took the lodge to be established, the organizers faced many misfortunes.

In 1895, when the idea for the lodge was conceived, the seven members met once a month for about a year in the attic of Schreiber's Barn, located at what is now a block of business buildings on Broadway, between the Long Island National Bank Building and Marie Street. Unfortunately, in 1917, their leader, Dr. Rave died, and the Masonic Lodge, was still not established. But, if a lodge was ever established in Hicksville, Dr. Rave instructed his son, Dr. Adolph G. Rave, to give certain lots which he owned on Nicholai Street as the foundation for a building of a Masonic temple on the site.

In November 1918 Dr. Rave's son, Adolf, took over the reins and the small group met at the former Odd Fellows Hall on Broadway near West John street. At this meeting, the members decided to meet regularly once a month with their goal being the institution of a lodge in Hicksville. In January 1922, due to lack of facilities to hold meetings in comfort at the Hall, the members decided to meet in the basement of the Methodist Episcopal Church on Broadway between Marie and Nicholai Streets. By 1923, there were about 24 people interested in becoming members.

On July 6, 1923, the first meeting of the Manetto Lodge (under dispensation from grand master of the State of New York) was called to order at what was then the Hicksville Opera House on Nicholai Street, just opposite the lodge's present temple. The lodge received its official charter in May 1924. And in June of that year, the deed to 18 W. Nicholai Street, where the Hicksville Masonic Temple now stands, was donated to the lodge by Mrs. Marie M. Rave, at the request of the late Dr. Edward G. Rave.

In commemoration of the 65th anniversary, the lodge held a ceremony and dinner Sunday.

chapter is asking students to sign a "Contract for Life," which is an agreement between a high school student and his or her parent or friend. The contract states that if a student is ever in a position where he or she has been drinking, or a friend or date who is driving the student has been drinking, the guardian will provide transportation, with no questions asked until a later time.

As for the mock program, SADD president Harry Pangas said that he was grateful to the Hicksville Fire Department and the eighth precinct for presenting the mock accident. "It shows that we have a community who cares about its youth!"

The Teenage Years: A Time of Growth and Change

Youth Council Offers Teen Counseling

Adolescence is the period of life in which a young person learns who he is and what he really feels. It is a time of tremendous growth and change. Often times these changes can produce a great deal of stress within the family. Teenagers want to make their own decisions and want to experience the freedom of their own actions. They no longer regard themselves as children and, therefore, demand independence. Often times, the teenager may not be quite ready to manage his own affairs and may want to rely upon the security of the family, however, may resent adult help when offered.

Conflicts between parents and teens are normal and each family struggles with how to deal with their teenagers. Conflicts that arise between teenagers and parents do not limit themselves to large issues or to differences of opinion. Families may experience constant arguments concerning matters that may seem relatively unimportant to the parent, but are very important in the mind of the adolescent. A common difficulty is that parents and their children often perceive the same problem differently. The Hicksville Youth Council offers a wide variety of services to teenagers and their families in the Hicksville community. The philosophy of the Youth Council is that the family is the most valuable community resource and, therefore, the Youth Council is dedicated to supporting and preserving healthy families. The Youth Council's Counseling program provides free counseling for teens and their families.

The Youth Council's Counseling Program is available to both individuals and families who live in the Hicksville community. Teenagers should be between the ages of 12 and 21. Counseling is provided free of charge, is confidential and there is no waiting list. For more information about the Counseling Program, please call Pat Schussler, social worker, at the Youth Council, at 822-KIDS.

The Youth Council is a non-profit organization located at 175 West Old Country Road in Hicksville. They are open Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Friday, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Local Students Arrested For Gun Possession

Two Hicksville High School students were arrested last week for having an unloaded gun in their possession at the school.

One of the youths, Victor Molina, was arrested at the Eighth Precinct stationhouse in Wantagh at 3 p.m. May 3. Police said Mr. Molina allegedly brought the gun to school and students told a teacher that they saw the gun in one of the bathrooms. Ray McDonough, an administrative assistant, was notified, took the gun from Mr. Molina's locker and called the police.

Alexander J. Fonteboa, 17, was also arrested on May 4, police said, when they determined that Mr. Fonteboa allegedly had the gun in his possession in the high school between 9:05 a.m. and 10:25 a.m. on May 2.

Both students were charged with illegal possession of a weapon, a .38 caliber Derringer, which is a Class-A-Misdemeanor. Mr. Fonteboa and Mr. Molina were released on appearance tickets returnable in First District Court, Hempstead, on May 15.

Compiled by Flo Gries

She Heard From Many

Adeline (Brigandi) Schweitzer would like to thank all her many old—and new—friends who sent their prayers and cards after her recent surgery. We mentioned in this column that she was hospitalized and she said, "I received cards from old friends who I played with as a child and went to school with. It was just wonderful for them to take the time to show me that they cared. I thank them all. I am feeling so much better now and the doctor said that all I have to do is walk . . . walk . . . walk."

The World's Getting Smaller

I have just returned from a glorious visit to Medugorje, Yugoslavia where I met a lady who grew up in Hicksville—her maiden name: Charlotte Sanzano. She graduated from Hicksville High School and worked in the Administration Building in 1960 and '61 for Dr. Lamb and Superintendent Abt. She married Carl Kalb and was married for two years when they were in an auto accident. She said, "My husband died and I was in a coma for two weeks. When I woke up—standing by my bed was my old boyfriend, Al Nataro, who I had gone steady with for three years while in high school. He helped me gain back my health." (We had been introduced by Donald Holmes, an art teacher at H.H.S.) Charlotte had gone from 144 lbs. down to 89 pounds while in a coma. She and Al later married and adopted two "angels." Nine years later she gave birth to a little girl. "My children are Al, (21), Charlotte (18), and Nicole (15).

Charlotte's mom and dad lived on Jerusalem Avenue for more than 25 years. She has two brothers: Charles, and Michael, who just celebrated his 50th birthday. She also has a sister Margaret, who was also a student of art teacher Donald Holmes.

"I taught at Berkeley School for one year and have been a model, hostess, teacher and mortgage consultant. I use the name Charlotte St. Clair for business purposes. My husband and my son have just started a package and mail service business. My daughter Charlotte attends Beaver College in Pennsylvania and my daughter Nicole is in Ward Melville High School in Stony Brook."

She and Al have recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. This was her first time traveling outside the United States. She came to Medugorje to honor our Blessed Mother and she said, "How wonderful it is to meet someone from my hometown. I subscribe to the Illustrated to keep up with what is happening there. I feel that I have been blessed to give my hometown a peaceful hello all the way from such a holy place as Medugorje."

B. MEDARD OFENLOCH

Medard's A President

B. Medard Ofenloch longtime Hicksvilleite was elected president of the Long Island Association of Fireman's Benevolent Association. This fraternal organization consists of Exempt and Benevolent Associations from the Hamptons to the city line and it keeps each organization informed of the changes in the state laws governing such groups.

They Appreciate Her

We received the following message: "Happy Mother's Day to our mom—Marcella Miller, from her loving kids . . . Steven, Todd, Karen and Caroline. "Thanks for being a great 'ma'."

A Note From . . .

Received a note in the mail from Florida the other day from Virginia Mierzejewski wanting to thank the Hicksville Illustrated for reuniting her with an old friend of 59 years. "We were kids who lived on Heitz Place and went to St. Ignatius School. This all came about as a result of an article put in the Illustrated by Eleanor Kramer. The person I was reunited with is Tom Heltz. Now that I've heard from one old friend I would like to hear from my old girlfriend Jennie Halaburda, who I went all through Hicksville High School with.

Monsignor Lawrence Ballweg also started to write to me after 50 years. I used to play basketball with the St. Ignatius team, and was quite good, as I'm tall. I still miss 'good old' Hicksville, Heitz Place, and all the kids who used to ride bikes and have fun playing games in the streets. "Thank you again and again!" . . . Virginia Mierzejewski.

Don't Forget Saturday Night

I expect to see many of you at the Cantiague Ice Skating Rink this Saturday night. The Nassau County Department of Parks and Recreation is presenting its annual ice extravaganza—this year Fantasia '89. The young members of the club, who include many local and regional champions, will be joined by several Olympic and World Skating Champions. Wait until you see who is there! There is no charge for this lovely event. Try to get there. It should be delightful! For more information see the back page of this paper.

Sieg Widder Honored

Siegfried R. Widder, past president of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club, will be honored at the Rough Rider District of Nassau County Council, Boy Scouts of America's annual Community Service Award Dinner on May 23. It will be held at the Swan Club in Glen Head. This annual dinner is an opportunity for the Scouts to provide the support necessary to continue the vital work of the Boy Scouts of America in Nassau County.

They Have A Grandson

Mr. and Mrs. William Eichler and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred T. Hack, all of Hicksville, have something in common—their new grandson Brett William Hack. Brett was happy to come into this world on April 15th at Lawrence General Hospital, to happy parents Caroline and Bill Hack of Haverhill, Massachusetts. Bill is a 1974 graduate of Hicksville High School and Caroline is a 1975 graduate. Brett is their first child.

Happy Birthday Jan

A very special birthday celebration was held on Sunday, April 23, as Jan Roudenan shared her 65th birthday with family and friends. The luncheon was given by her children, Paul and Carol Rasmussen, and was held at Rothmann's Restaurant in East Norwich. Also attending were Jan's son-in-law, John, and her two grandsons, John Christian and Ian Paul, as well as her cousins Edward and Ellisabeth Rogers of Plainview and Alan Orski of Manhattan. Following the lunch, the party returned to Carol and John's in Hicksville for the special cake, coffee and gifts for the 'birthday girl' (Many of you will remember Jan from the Bank of New York front desk).

New Appointment

Joaquin Ezcurra of Hicksville, was recently appointed Marketing Manager of Aerolineas Argentinas/Argentine Airline. Prior to his employment at Aerolineas, Joaquin was U.S. Marketing Analysis Manager of Iberia Airlines. He earned a B.A. degree at Queens College and taught high school Spanish for two years after graduation. He is married and the father of three children.

Birthdays This Week

There weren't many birthdays this week: First we have young Sal Marcella who is so happy that he finally became 17 on May 9th . . . then comes Fran Thomas who will be double-celebrating. Her birthday this year falls on Mother's Day—May 14th . . . and we have two that will be celebrating their birthdays next Tuesday, May 16th—Michael Ciocriari and David Rock. Happy birthday to all of you.

On Saturday, March 11, 1989 Miss Roseann Atkins, kindergarten teacher at St. Ignatius School, was married to Mr. Daniel McNichol. The mass was held at 3 p.m. at St. Ignatius Loyola Roman Catholic Church, where it was shared with many friends, relatives and many of Miss Atkins' students. A reception followed at the Milleridge Cottage. The couple honeymooned for two weeks in Mexico and now reside in Deer Park.

Happy Birthday John

Happy birthday wishes are being sent to John Zulkofske of Hicksville, who is celebrating his ninth birthday on May 13, from his aunt (and godmother) Margaret. John is the great-grandson of John Zulkofske of Jericho, who owned and operated the Jericho Cider Mill and who had a farm in Hicksville many, many years ago.

Ed Note: I remember John's (I guess she was) great-grandmother. About 30 years ago I was coming home from the beach and I got a flat tire. I went into the Zulkofske home to call for help. I will never forget how wonderfully delicious Mrs. Zulkofske's kitchen smelled. She was cooking fish on a big clean-as-a-whistle black stove—and I don't think I ever smelled anything that good. I've never forgotten it. She was a lovely lady.

TO YOUR HEALTH

By RICHARD H. BLAU, M.D.

Back Pain May Have Many Causes

One of the most common medical problems referred to a rheumatologist is chronic back pain. Back pain may affect over one half of all Americans some time in their life, and is one of the leading causes of work disability in this country.

Frequently, back pain results from arthritis of the spine, spasm of the back muscles, inflammation of the joints in the back, or pressure on the spinal nerves. This pain can occur at rest, or with movement, such as walking. Additionally, emotional stress and tension can produce back pain. In fact, anything that puts pressure on the spine may result in back pain.

The discomfort of back pain may be only an occasional dull ache, or a severe, sharp, debilitating pain. Most back pain resolves by itself. However, if the pain is very severe, persists, or is associated with pain or numbness in the legs, you should consult your physician.

Proper treatment can only begin once the cause of the back pain is known. A comprehensive examination, including a complete medical history, and a physical examination are usually required. X-rays, as well as blood tests may be needed to aid in the exact diagnosis.

Fortunately, most back pain can be successfully treated without the use of surgery. Depending on the diagnosis, and if your symptoms do not improve, you may be referred to a rheumatologist (a specialist in arthritis and muscle disorders).

Your rheumatologist can establish an individualized medical program. This may initially involve bed rest, analgesic medication, and local heat. Special anti-inflammatory medications, specific exercises, and physical therapy may also be required if the pain is persistent. You should keep in mind that most back pain will improve with proper medical management, and needless pain could be avoided with prompt medical attention.

Fox Glass Solves Your Window 'Pains'

When homeowners have to replace a broken window, it is a minor inconvenience which can be taken care of on a Saturday morning. A trip to the hardware store will produce a pane of glass of the required size. But you would have to be a little less casual if the broken glass measured 10 feet by 15 feet, is 1/2 inch thick and weighs 1,500 pounds. Particularly if you are a professional glazier and handling insurance is not available. Fox Glass Company, at 53 Bloomingdale Rd., Hicksville, can install a 1,500 pound pane of glass in just about as much time as it would take most people to replace a regular broken window for the home.

Fox is credited with installing windows at well-known buildings, such as the airport towers at McArthur and Suffolk airports, Marriott hotel chain, Islandia and Royce Carlin hotels. Fox also services more than 200 supermarkets.

The glass company's most recent job was at a prominent Garden City office building. Nine Fox employees, 30 feet of scaffolding, one crane, one 1,500 pound, 1 1/2 inch thick piece of glass, and 60 square yards of plank-ing arrived early in the morning to repair the window.

All factors have to be considered, including the weather. A strong gust of wind or a heavy rain would make the installation impossible.

Fortunately, the weather cooperated and two hours later the scaffolding was being removed and the crane was in transit back to the Hicksville shop.

Expanding Clientele

Traditionally, spring and summer time are slow seasons for glaziers and very often it is a time of unemployment in this highly skilled trade. Several years ago, Steve Stravitz, president of Fox, decided that it was time to stop the cycle of hiring during the busy winter season and laying off workers during the summer. His strategy was to expand the base of customers so as to provide full employment all year long, and this accounts for the diversity of customers serviced by his shop.

Fox Glass has a contract with the owner of an ocean liner. The liner radios in its glazing needs before it reaches port. A crew from Fox Glass is waiting when the ship docks. Fox has also built the storefronts of major retail outlets, is the glazier for banks with combined assets of more than $500 billion.

So, if you need to fix that bedroom window or if you're looking to replace the glass in your favorite picture frame ... don't call Fox. But, if it's high, heavy, difficult and considered dangerous ... you can be sure that you'll "be safe with the Fox."

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Response to Letter

To The Editor:

I would like the opportunity to respond to Mr. Daniel MacBride's "Letter to the editor" urging the Hicksville community to vote 'No' to our 1989-90 school budget.

The Board of Education is an elected group of residents whose purpose is to represent the people of Hicksville in matters of education and to support that educational system. Like any other organization, each member brings their own experiences, opinions, and differences. It is up to these people to bring their knowledge of issues together. Through debate and compromise, decisions affecting our children's education are made. Any major differences should be discussed and settled in the board's executive sessions or monthly board meetings. To air "dirty laundry" and attack another board member in writing in a community newspaper is unprofessional and embarrassing to the Hicksville Board of Education and the people they represent.

The information Mr. MacBride offers regarding $72,350 as money allotted for board members travel and conference is actually 50 percent of the money budgeted for the school district's travel, conferences, workshops and asbestos training for administrators and teachers. Why am I, a resident, aware of this while a member of the board is not? This misinformation is misleading to the public and would jeopardize the 1989-90 budget vote.

The proposal made by Mr. MacBride and school board trustee Mr. Cardella to cut this travel and conference allowance, was defeated by a vote of 5-2. Mrs. Wolf was not the only board member to vote against this proposal. Why then was she the only board member to be criticized by Mr. MacBride? It has been my experience since I began attending the monthly board meetings two years ago that Carole Wolf is a conscientious, dedicated individual. She is a well prepared and concerned member of the board who always does her homework. Mr. MacBride does her a great injustice by questioning her motives.

I feel his inability to support our school budget and publicly urge residents to vote for austerity presents a serious conflict of interest.

Missing Trees

To The Editor:

Today was Arbor Day at my school, Willet Avenue Elementary. When we went outside to see the newly planted tree, four trees were missing. Stealing the missing trees was probably a foolish prank.

Planting a tree in honor of a person who died is a tradition. Now we are missing four years of tradition.

Little Guys Can Win

To The Editor:

Two years ago this past January, we began an intensive effort to re-activate the Northwest Civic Association. We don't think anyone worked any harder to achieve this and try to give our community back to the people than the original five members of the executive board.

Our rallying point was the proposed sale of the Burns Avenue School to the Delco Corporation. It was proven beyond a shadow of a doubt to the School Board, Delco Corp., and Town of Oyster Bay officials that the residents of the Northwest sector of Hicksville were not content with a passive role.

It was unanimous that we not only did not want our school sold, we wanted the two parcels of land that were zoned G business, re-zoned to D residential, thereby preserving this property for school and residential use for the foreseeable future.

A petition was drawn up and tediously, our block captains collected signatures, which were presented to the school board and all other interested parties.

The school board petitioned the town board, and a public hearing was held for the re-zoning on December 12, 1988. A decision was reached on April 4, 1989. The Town Board had found in our favor and all of the school property is now Zoned D, residential.

It took all of us working together to achieve this, but we made it happen. Sometimes we tend to get discouraged and feel we don't have a chance to beat the system. Then, something like this happens and we're taught all over again, that once in awhile, against all odds, the little guy can win. We believe congratulations are in order for one and all.

Problems with Town

This letter is being published upon request:

Supervisor Delligatti
Honorable Town Board
Town Hall
Oyster Bay
N.Y. 11771

Dear Supervisor and Honorable Town Board:

This is in response to your letter dated 3/14/89. It is my understanding that the Hicksville Parks Task Force was organized to aid in the coordination and uses of existing Hicksville Park property. In my letter to you, dated 3/7/89, the Duffy Park Civic Association requested that certain properties north of Duffy Avenue be condemned specifically with the hope of making them into a Town of Oyster Bay park/sports complex/community center, supported by the general town tax fund. This was proposed to you in response to previous meetings with you, when we discussed the rezoning of Duffy Avenue industrial property and to Commissioner Blankfein's request that we submit our ideas for possible uses of the property. This places our request on your shoulders and has absolutely nothing to do with the Hicksville Parks Task Force.

You and the Honorable Town Board must weigh the cost of eliminating any further danger to our community that will continue to exist as long as the zoning allows for light industry with the ever present cloud of special use permits. Some of these companies have already demonstrated their blatant disregard for the community by polluting our ground water, soil and air. The plight continues to this day for residents who live in close proximity to Twin County Asphalt. Blessed with sunny days and clear skies, their children must come inside to play because the smoke is so bad. The TOBAY claims their hands are tied. Why weren't your handstied when you signed the special use permit that allowed them to operate and gives them a never ending loophole of the thirty day merry-go-round?

I would like to comment on a recent article in Newsday about the golf course in Syosset. The TOBAY boasts 2,400 members. That's not much, compared to the 400,000 people living in the TOBAY. It's not much, compared to the almost 50,000 people living in Hicksville. I could not understand how or why the people of Hicksville would have sanctioned the spending of over 17 million of their tax dollars for the purchase and construction of this 18 hole facility. This includes acquisition cost. (Not being the most affluent community in the Town of Oyster Bay, our residents meticulously keep watchdog over things, like the school budget, library budget, etc. Then I found out from a town attorney that there had been no permissive referendum (one not being required) and that this was a decision made by the town board and a dream come true for former Town Supervisor Joe Colby. Two councilmen tried to tell me on separate occasions that the Bruce Estate had been donated. Shows you what they know! It is alleged that when the town board wants something...they vote on it. When they don't, they put it forth for referendum or appoint some kind of task force.

Duffy Park is asking for something that would benefit a greater cross section of the population. What we want for the Duffy Avenue properties would be far more diverse than one activity. It could augment existing, but limited programs for our youth and our seniors and people in between. We appeal to you to make an unselfish decision that a majority might benefit from. Quite honestly, I wouldn't be surprised if many of the people in Hicksville didn't even know that their tax dollars were paying for the Syosset Golf Course. Twice, if you count membership fees, I'd like to know how many of the 2,400 members are actually $125,00 members and how many payed just the $2,50 resident fee. Supervisor Delligatti's response to my letter dated 3/7/89 cited, "Private golf courses have rapidly been replaced with housing and other commercial development. This has created a demand for additional golf courses." If this is true, then I'd like you to name the ones that have been shut down. When was there ever a public outcry for more golf courses in the community? Affordable housing, yes. Lowered taxes, yes, but golf courses? The letter dated 3/14/89 went on to say, "The town believed the construction of a golf course on its land at the Bruce Estate would provide a desired recreational activity and allow the property to remain in an environmentally pleasing state." I hope this means you won't be using any chemicals that will be detrimental to the ground water and acquifer in your effort to keep the greens green and weed free. How do you explain the tremendous water use that is required when we must water our lawns on only specified days. It would have truly been a shame if the residents of Hicksville had known about or sanctioned this deal. The truth is, that it was quietly voted on behind closed doors. I mean if TWO of your councilmen even thought the property was donated, then how were residents supposed to know and just who was behind the closed door? In reality, we weren't afforded the choice. Only NOW, that Duffy Park has asked TOBAY for a facility in Hicksville in an effort to remediate a decayed part of town), is the question going to be posed to Hicksville residents as to whether or not they want a Town of Oyster Bay Park in Hicksville or a Hicksville park in Hicksville OR even more important and less to the point, do you want an increase in taxes. The town will very cleverly get off the hook for doing anything for us by 1. Pose the questions and watch as we scrimp and save for the next mortgage payment or dental bill and vote no to spending another nickel on ourselves. Or the ever present ace in the hole, 2. They will pose the question to the other 350,000 residents in the TOBAY, asking if they would like an increase in their taxes for a park or sports complex in Hicksville. NO NO NO to park....YES YES YES TO PARKING LOT.

"HELD HOSTAGE"

Last week our own Senator D'Amato and many other of his colleagues had some very harsh things to say about the USA/JAPAN deal for the Japanese to produce jointly an FSX fighter. Sen. D'Amato demanded to know if we were "held hostage" in this deal. I believe we were.

Dr. Joseph P. Frey

The deal seems to be that about 40 percent of the plane will be made in the USA and 100 percent of the engines will be made here. In addition we will give Japan technology so they can make their 60 percent. The cost to Japan will be $480 million for the knowledge that cost us about $5 billion. We are assured that the technology is known to the aircraft industry and is 10 or more years old.

There are several ways to look at this program. First, the planes are for Japanese defense; we do not have to use our own planes. So it is a good deal from that view point. Second, we get to make part of a Japanese plane, so it is good from that view point. Third, we get some pay for old technology, so much to the good. Those are the good points as I see them.

The negatives have to be found in the much longer run. Why is Japan going to do this deal. WHY DO THEY WANT IT SO PERSISTENTLY? What advantage is it to them? For this answer, we have to look at a little history. We have to remember how Japan became such a dominant world economic power. After WW II, we had the Japanese make our TV's and radios and a lot of other products. They did not have the technology to make or even develop them on their own. They also did not have the resources to develop such products. We all know the story — we do not have an electronics manufacturing capability in the consumer area anymore.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...All of us who are homemakers take great delight in making our homes as pretty, comfy—yes, "homey" as we possibly can...And that's why we all love to go into model homes and designer-decorated mansions that are open for charities...To see how the designers have used what is already existing—enhanced by their talent, of course—but how lovely it all looks when they add their magic touch—it's an inspiration...And have you noticed these ideas (which you can appropriate for your own) are so often seen in these models and mansions—often lots of patterns are mixed together—most of us are still from the old school—pattern in the rug or pattern in the wallpaper or pattern in the fabric—but NEVER!! pattern in all three—yet the designers do it and it's great—(could be a disaster if you're not careful)...and then there're the family photos, all in lovely frames—and lots of knickknacks—really a very large number—(no fair saying—"look at all that stuff to dust!")...and there are small rugs on top of the carpet—and lots of green plants—and it's become very popular to use lots of fringe and ornamentation on furniture upholstery and curtains and drapes...and lace is definitely in...if you have some old curtains or tablecloths in your attic, get them out, wash carefully and drape them over tables, beds, whatever...and, if you happen to have a large living room, how about this idea—two couches, back to back—makes lots of seating and looks smashing—and then there's what the designers call trompe l'oeil (from the French tromper—to deceive—and oeil—eye)—careful painting which isn't what it looks like—maybe a vine, which seems to be climbing up the wall and is really only painted on—or a bookcase, which isn't really there, or a cat sitting on a kitchen counter—but really painted on the wall behind the counter—all of these wonderful things I have seen just recently in the designer mansions and model homes—and it is certainly inspiration to go home and work on what now looks to my bedazzled eye as my "woeful digs"...Be sure to go to the designer mansions and model houses—it'll be so good for your homemaker soul!

Yours, Lulabelle

The Japanese do not now have the technology to build decent modern airplanes. The cost to get it would be tremendous. Even though the technology is old, it is still used and usable. Japan will be getting very valuable information and manufacturing experience.

The Japanese are superb copiers of other people's ideas. They have over the last 20 or so years emerged as innovators. They have shown that they are able to build on what they know and expand its uses and technology. It is reasonable to assume that they will do this with the airplane technology that we are in the process of transferring to them.

The airplane industry is a tremendous one for the USA. It is our largest single source of trade export. It does not take a genius to figure out what is going to happen about 20 years down the trade road. Japan will probably be threatening our world dominance of the aircraft market. Since they are famous for taking very long range views, just as we are for the short range, I believe that THIS IS WHY THEY WANT THE DEAL SO MUCH.

The next logical question to ask is; WHY ARE WE DOING IT? The answer, as I see it, is that we have no choice. That sounds strange does it not? We, the strongest nation in the world held hostage. It is our own fault. It is the fault of our Senators, D'Amato included, and our Congressmen.

Today, we are absolutely dependent upon foreigners to pay for our budget deficits. Japan, in particular, because they are purchasing about 40 percent of our US Government paper. If they refuse to buy our debt, and if no other country takes up the slack, our economy will become a shambles overnight.

The mere threat of a boycott by any country that is a large purchaser of our debt and we are in trouble. Yes, we are held hostage. This FSX deal is our payment of ransom. It is a position that I do not like, nor should you.

If Congress would quit playing accounting games and really get at deficit reduction, maybe the future ransom demands will subside.

ROBERT R. McMILLAN'S

Direct Line

"String them up," said one young man. "That's too good for them," said another. The topic in the delicatessen was the ruthless rape and beating of a young woman in Central Park a few weeks ago by several black youths. The next morning in the elevator on the way to my office, there was another comment. "If she was black, no one would care." All of that talk and even "stringing them up," will not get to the root of the problem—even though a stronger judiciary and longer jail sentences would certainly be a deterrent.

Terrorism does not follow racial lines. For example, how about the slaughter of California elementary school children a few months ago? That act of terrorism was by a white man. Why did he do it? Why did they do it? Why is there all this senseless violence on our streets, in some schools, in parks, and even at home? It is easy to chalk these events up to drugs and walk away. It appears, however, that the young men involved in the Central Park terror were not apparently into drugs and most had no arrest records.

Our society has grown ugly in many respects. People are frustrated about drugs. The "war" is not working. While drugs have undoubtedly contributed to the terror, drugs are not the whole story. Lack of family structure and literacy are also factors. We have lost our way as a society and are paying for it. Why should the cable and television industries allow "R" rated movies to be seen on a Saturday afternoon—not to speak of prime time high levels of horror and sex on regularly scheduled shows?

The violence and pornography seen on television, I am convinced, is a part of the growth in terror. But, there definitely is a backlash building. Ordinary citizens are starting to make a difference with protests. Advertisers have withdrawn support from certain programs deemed offensive. Some cry "foul" and "censorship." That is nonsense. It is an example of the free market working. Customers have a right to select which soda pop they buy. They also have a right to tell companies that they object to the sponsorship of certain television shows. We have an absolute right to speak out against what we do not like. And, in my opinion, we do not object loud enough and often enough!

To compound the matter, just watch MTV for a few moments. I cannot believe how sad musical presentations have become. They are a far cry from the Wizard of Oz and Sound of Music. Yet, they represent just how seriously values have eroded in the last several decades.

How do we get society back to a better sense of values? First, business leaders had better rethink their path to success. I believe the backlash on values is just about to take off. The resentment runs deep, and the business person who does not tune into the demands for programming with a more positive statement of values will soon be turned out. Families are struggling to instill values, and some schools are timid about reinforcing those traditional values. Churches and the family cannot overcome the power of the tube. In those homes with no family structure, the television set is even more dominant and becomes the messenger and the message.

Society cannot and should not retreat to the past. We can, though, make sure that those interested in appealing to the worst in us are tuned out by those who care.

If we truly are a product of our environment, the television and music industries have a great responsibility. I hope they soon begin to listen to that silent majority which, I believe, is becoming even more restless.

Why Hicksville Moms Are So Special

The Scheidet Family: Mom, Marguerite, children, Jimmy (11), Athena (10) and Chiara (8). Jimmy: "Mom takes care of me when I am sick and she is always there when I need her. She helps me a lot and is good to me on holidays." Athena: "If I have nightmares, Mom sings me a song. She brings us places and gives us a home and clothes. Also I love her because I love her." Chiara: "I love Mom because she likes to be with me and dances with me and plays with me." Mother's Day plans: Having family over for dinner to celebrate.

The Behr Family: Mom, Jayne, children, Michael (6), Carolyn (4). Both Michael and Carolyn agree that their mom makes the best garlic bread and pancakes. She also takes them to rent a lot of movies.

The Roestenberg Family: Mom, Hedy, children, Justin (7) and Jesse (5). Both Justin and Jesse agree that "Mom is very special because she gives us toys and Nintendo tapes. She also gets us the ice-cream man and takes Justin to baseball practice." The children's plans for Mother's Day: "We will buy Mom stuff and take her out to dinner."

The Mullee Family: Mom, Jan, children, Heather (15), Dawn (14), Tommy (12), Kelly (9). Heather: "Mom takes me shopping." Dawn: "Mom drives us around and washes my softball uniform late at night so it will be clean for the next day." Tommy: "Mom sits on my bed at night and listens to me talk. She keeps the house clean, babysits for a whole bunch of kids and still had time to drive us around." Kelly: "Mom always tries to be at my softball games. On Sunday nights, she lets me stay up until 9:30 to watch a favorite TV show." All the children said mom is good at keeping secrets. Plans for Mother's Day: Get together at their house for dinner with the two grandmothers.

wise it would have been late evening before they were all finished with the day's events."

Cathy found it a bit easier obtaining an appointment to photograph the Hudson family. She also learned that on Mother's Day, mom, Marie, is going golfing with some girlfriends, while dad, Gregory, is staying home with the kids, Matthew (4) and Heather (5). Heather and Matthew are very lucky because dad is building them a very modern playhouse, with four windows and a skylight.

When Cathy stopped by the Roestenberg house, she found out that mom, Hedy, has a very special talent. According to Justin (7) and Jesse (5), their mom is special because she flags down the ice-cream man. "While I was at their house," Cathy said, "the ice-cream man came. Jesse bought one ice-cream pop, while Justin stocked up for the evening."

In addition to being an expert in capturing the ice-cream man, Hedy has two other jobs. She teaches pre-school and sells pizza in the lunchroom. Cathy said it was a bit difficult to schedule an appointment because the Roestenberg family had to find time in between baseball practice and homework.

Cathy also learned from visiting the Behr family, that mom, Jayne, makes the best garlic bread and pancakes in Hicksville, according to her children, Michael (6) and Carolyn (4). Jayne will be working on Mother's Day, but the whole gang will find time to celebrate with a family trip to Montauk.

What Cathy enjoyed most about her assignment was seeing that many of the family members were very affectionate toward each other. She said, "This experience was a real pleasure. Hicksville is very lucky to have such wonderful moms."

Note: Thanks to Ann Frey Eisen for introducing me to several of these lovely families—Cathy Greenfield.

The Grapevine

Wine words: what do wine experts mean when they talk about:

- acidity — the tang that balances sweetness and fruit. Too much acid is harsh but without it a wine can be dull.
- tannin, on the other hand, is what causes your mouth to pucker.

- body is the feel of the wine in your mouth—is it thin, or rich and heavy? Glycerin in the wine may make it feel thicker.
- bouquet is just an elegant way to refer to the smell of the wine.
- flowery is a scent word, too; some wines are reminiscent of favorite flowers.
- fruity is a taste word; certain wines carry the flavor of familiar fruits such as cherry, raspberry or peach.

- complexity is a compliment; it means the wine has many facets—usually pleasurable—of flavor, body, balance and bouquet.
- finesse is related to complexity. It describes the qualities of an elegant wine, not too rich but not light, either.

You are thinking of the aforementioned every time you enhance a lunch, dinner or relaxing with wine. Think of MOM for MOTHER'S DAY and give her a special wine or cordial she normally wouldn't spend the money on for her special self.

THE SCHOOL NOTEBOOK

From St. Ignatius

Rollerskating Party

St. Ignatius Parents Association recently sponsored a rollerskating party at the United Skates of America. The evening proved to be a great success. Half of the fun was trying to stay upright on the skates! By the end of the evening, many novices seemed to be pros and the adults felt like kids again.

Catholic Schools' Week

In celebration of Catholic Schools' Week, all classes at Saint Ignatius Loyola School worked on the theme of "Catholic Schools — Communities with Memories." Kindergarten and first grade displayed photographs of their special experiences in school. Students in grades two through eight wrote about their own memories.

The children also participated in a bumper sticker contest and a Name the Teacher contest. For the sticker contest, the students had to design a bumper sticker promoting the school. The winners of the contest were Megan Rorech, Casey Rorech and Elizabeth Smith. For the Name the Teacher contest, each teacher was asked to bring a picture of herself as a child. Students were given a ballot and asked to match the teachers' name to the pictures. The winners were Brian Apostolo, Elizabeth Collins and Christopher Thayer.

The week concluded with Grandparents' Day on Feb. 3. Grandparents and other relatives joined grades 1 through 8 for nine o'clock mass in the church. After mass, grandparents visited the classrooms and enjoyed refreshments in the cafeteria.

Mrs. Reedy's fourth grade class at St. Ignatius School participated in the many activities accompanying Catholic Schools Week.

STAR Reading Program

Last month, St. Ignatius Loyola School began a special reading program entitled STAR - Silent Time for All to Read. STAR is a 10 minute period each Tuesday when all students, faculty members, staff and visitors, stop what they are doing and read. Children in pre-school and kindergarten programs have a story read to them by their teachers or an aide. The STAR program, which encourages children to read, was begun in observance of the Library of Congress designation of 1989 as "The Year of the Young Readers."

Brian Apostolo and Chris Thayer, students at St. Ignatius School, were winners in the Name the Teacher contest.

From Holy Family

Busy Month for Students

April was a very busy month for the students at Holy Family School. World Health Day was celebrated by all grades and posters, reports and projects were displayed outside each classroom.

National Library Week made the children more aware of the many books available to them to read for knowledge as well as enjoyment.

Congratulations to the participants in the Zone Spelling and Math Bees. Oliver was the crowning success of the seventh and eighth graders. They deserved a "big hand" for all the time, energy and talent they put into the play.

Students performing in Holy Family School's play, Oliver, were Dante Mancini, Jennifer Reilly, Jamie Gsell, Christopher Lentz, Andrew McLoughlin and Gabriel Gomez-Nieto.

From Our Lady of Mercy

Diocesan Music Festival

Last month, many Our Lady of Mercy students participated in the Diocesan Music Festival held at St. Anthony High School.

Dr. Hugh Carroll, PhD., superintendent of schools, welcomed the students and guests for an afternoon of musical enchantment.

Sister Mary Beth, Sister Mary Winifred and Miss Maria Pardini worked hard to prepare the chorus for its musical selections.

The following girls were chosen to represent OLM: Linda Chappetto, Michelle Iavarone, Laura Keuling, Susan Malinauskas, Tracy Maniuszko, Marie Saccardi, Gloria Unverzagt and Camille Veneziano.

The band, under the direction of Paul Effman had many hard working members participate in the festival. OLM's band members included: Jennifer Allocca, Harry Brady, Christina Cervino, Richard Faccio, Dymphna Giannone, Carrie Holowecki, Michael Keilty, Patricia Kim, Julie Mantovi, Karen Musial, Carolyn Parkans, Charles Schmidtman, Jessica Scorsese, Kimberly Smith, Brad Stalzer, Anetta Szumowski, Dale Thomas, Michael Trimarco, Jennifer Ubriaco, Michael Vassallo and Jude Walsh.

Zone E Math Bee Winner

Again, this year, Our Lady of Mercy School hosted the annual Zone E Math Bee. Each of the nine schools in OLM's zone send three of their best mathematicians to participate. Of the 27 contestants, only two would emerge as winners from the intermediate grades.

Our Lady of Mercy was represented by Marie Sacardi (grade 6), Gibi George (grade 6) and Kathleen Brolly (grade 5).

After 16 laborious rounds of increasingly difficult equations, Kathy Brolly captured first place, while Michael Tu of St. Martin of Tours in Bethpage was a close runner-up. Both Zone E Math Bee winners will go on to compete in the Diocesan Math Bee on May 18 at St. Joseph's School in Babylon.

Kathy Brolly, first place winner in Our Lady of Mercy's Zone E Math Bee, will represent OLM on May 18 at the Diocesan Math Bee. OLM would like to thank Sr. Jeannine and Miss Twohig for working so hard with Kathy.

From Charles Campagne

Civil War Recreated

Hicksville students who attend Charles Campagne Elementary School, Bethpage, experienced an actual recreated civil war encampment. The encampment was the fourth in a series of programs presented by the Campagne PTA. From left: students Billy Razenson, Dennis Vecchiarello, Tracy Schmidt, Anthony Iiasi. Soldiers: Ed Specht, Joe Billadello and Bob Angelo.

From Fork Lane

Class Adopts Whales

In conjunction with the science units of ecology and The Voyage of the Mimi, the boys and girls in room 141, Mr. Maiorino's class at Fork Lane, adopted two humpback whales from the Whale Adoption Project in Falmouth, Massachusetts.

The adoption of the whales enables the experts to expand their knowledge of the habits and travels of Humpback Whales. The donations will also help to fight the continuing battle to protect the Whales and all marine mammals from human attacks.

Mr. Maiorino's class decided to sponsor one girl and one boy Humpback Whale.

After reading the short biographies of the 50 whales tagged and sited near Stellwagen Bank, off the coast of Cape May, the class chose Pegasus and Half Moon.

The donation of $15 for each of the whales was raised by students collecting and recycling soda bottles or soda cans and using the money from the deposits to send to the Whale Adoption Project.

The class is anxiously awaiting the adoption certificate for Pegasus and Half Moon, naming them as official protectors. A whale watch newsletter, a calendar, and map of the whale migration routes will also be sent to the students.

From East Street

Builds a Bridge

Jon Spielman of East Street School shows off the bridge he created in conjunction with the program on water that his class was learning. It was a job well done, and his teacher, Mrs. Mingin, is very proud of him.

"Music Moves Me" was the title of the K-4 musical presented recently at Trinity Lutheran School. Pictured are students waiting to begin the dress rehearsal before the evening performance. Students in grades 5-8 are presently preparing their musical entitled, "Hurricane Smith" to be presented on May 19-20.

McDONALD'S HICKSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT FOR OUTSTANDING ATHLETES OF THE MONTH

JACK FABRIZIO

Jack has been a four year Varsity Soccer player for the Hicksville Comets. His individual accomplishments include 41 goals and 19 assists during that span. These numbers place him high on the list of Hicksville's Outstanding Players. For three years, Jack played in the Nassau County Class A Championship games. He was selected to the All-County team two years in a row by a panel of opposing coaches. In addition, Jack was chosen as a member of the Long Island Scholastic Empire State Soccer Team for the 1988 Games. This selection established him as a premier player on Long Island. As a result of his play this year, he was selected to play in the Exceptional Career Game where he performed admirably. A final plateau in recognition of his illustrious High School Career was his selection as a first team All-State Player in New York State. Jack plans to continue playing at the college level. At the present time he has not made a decision as to what school he will attend.

JENNIFER LIVINGSTON

One of Long Island's finest High School runners, Jennifer recently completed another outstanding year in Cross Country. She was the Nassau County Class A Champion for two years in a row, 1987 and 1988. As a result, she qualified for the New York State Championship, this year in Lake Placid. She most recently finished in the Top Twenty in the New York Federation meet, which is a gathering of "the elite" runners in the state. Jen is a true runner, who is involved all year long. She currently holds the school record in all the running events from 800 yds. to 5,000 yds. Her participation in Winter and Spring Track have produced too many championships to list. She has been a State Qualifier in each of her seasons for the past three years. In addition to her High School accomplishments, Jennifer has qualified for the last three Empire State Games as a Scholastic runner. She was most recently awarded All-County Status by the Nassau County Cross Country Coaches Association. Jen plans to continue her career in college, but as yet, has not made a selection.

When You've Had Enough, Join MADD Mothers Against Drunk Driving

Hicksville, NY, November 13, 1980, 10 p.m.: Janice Robin Strow, age 22, is killed by a drunk driver! Charged with DWI and manslaughter, the driver was allowed to plead to a lesser charge (his breathalyzer reading was "only" .14), was sentenced to a one-year jail term, released after serving two weeks in jail through a work-release program.

In April 1982, the Strows started Long Island MADD. The organization, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, chartered nationally in 1982, has grown to have 395 chapters in 48 states and Canada. It has been responsible for the enactment of 400 legal measures to deter drunk driving; has helped bring the terrible significance of DWI into national focus, and changed the interpretation of alcohol related automobile crashes from mere "accidents," into crimes of violence.

Through media appearances, publications, youth and community education; speakers bureaus, special events, activist workshops and cooperation with other national organizations, MADD promotes awareness about teenage drinking and driving.

MADD provides victim assistance; assists DWI prosecutors and helps formulate legislation. It evaluates the effectiveness of police, prosecutors, local, state and federal agencies, our courts and legislation in DWI cases; it informs the public and helps develop more effective avenues to prevent and reduce the incidence of DWI related accidents, while strengthening DWI laws and regulations.

"If we dream it, it can be done."

Students Against Driving Drunk (SADD) was established in 1981 to improve young people's knowledge and attitudes about alcohol and drugs to help save their lives and the lives of others. The program has three major components:

First, it provides a series of lesson plans to present the facts about drinking and driving, permitting high school students to make informed decisions.

Second, it mobilizes students to help one another through peer pressure to face up to the potential dangers of mixing driving with alcohol and drugs.

And third, it promotes a frank dialogue between teenagers and their parents through the SADD "Contract." Under this agreement, both students and their parents pledge to contact each other should they ever find themselves in a potential DWI situation.

SADD was founded by Robert Anastas at Wayland, Massachusetts in 1981. Since 1981, Mr. Anastas has visited virtually every state in the union as well as several foreign countries. He brought the SADD message to millions of students, parents and community leaders, helping them to achieve a significant reduction in DWI incidents.

There are now 4,000 SADD chapters. In Nassau, there are 76 high school chapters, 11 JR. high school and 7 college chapters. Since 1981, DWI fatalities in 15-19 year olds have decreased by 2/3...the largest decrease among all age groups! You can make a difference!

The Contract For Life

S.A.D.D. starts with the premise "we must believe in our children and we want to keep our kids alive."

To get to the point where our children can trust us enough to get home alive, and where we can trust them enough to let them admit their mistakes, we need to make a public declaration of our good will. That's where the Contract For Life comes in.

This contract is a way for us to say, out loud, to each other: I care and I will help you, because my love for you and your love for me is strong enough to overcome any obstacle that makes you challenge death.

The Contract For Life is a formal written agreement signed by a high school student and his or her parents. It acknowledges potential problems and the family's desire to face and manage them. The Contract For Life functions in four ways:

1. It helps your children to stay out of life-threatening situations when they may feel pressure to be a passenger in a car with someone (adult or peer who has been drinking).
2. It helps your children avoid being in a life-threatening situation when they may have had something to drink and are the ones who are driving.
3. It offers your children the assurance that you, too, will avoid placing yourself in a drunk-driving situation.
4. It offers your children the assurance that you will not be a passenger in a car when the driver has been drinking.

The Contract offers the children the chance to trust us with their problems, and it asks us to acknowledge that we have problems too. We can't ask our children to be responsible people and not be equally responsible ourselves.

In families with good parent-child communications the discussion and signing of the Contract is a chance to affirm your commitment to each other. In families with difficult parent-child communication, it is a strong first step to opening the channels of concern. In all families, it offers parents a forum for their concerns and a chance to express their authority and ideas about discipline. The Contract lets the children express their fears, explain their world and appreciate that their parents' authority comes from love and understanding.

Warriors Outplay Albertson in 4-0 Soccer Triumph

By A. Blicker

The Hicksville Warriors 1974 travelling soccer team put on its best show of the season, thoroughly outplaying the Albertson Falcons for a 4-0 win at Triangle Park on April 30, bringing their L.I. Junior Soccer League record to 3 wins, 1 loss.

The Warriors had the best of the Falcons from the start, putting constant offensive pressure on the Albertson's defense. At the 10 minute mark the Warriors lost striker Chris Doyle for the game, due to an altercation between a Falcon fullback and Doyle. Thus, both teams played with 10 on the field for the balance of the game. David Lovato, who replaced Doyle at striker, scored at the 25 minute mark, on a sensational play, started by a long Eric Blicker lead. Three Falcon defenders attempted to strip Lovato of the ball, but he recaptured it each time, finally putting it in. Despite numerous Warrior opportunities, the first half ended in Hicksville's favor 1-0.

As has been the pattern all season, the Warriors came on like gangbusters in the second half. At the 55 minute mark center half Dom Perillo fed left outside half Junior Tomlinson, who carried the ball across the middle, hooking one in from the right side, as he went past the goal. At the 68 minute mark, Dom Perillo took a perfect corner kick, which was controlled by center half Jason Kingsley, who fed Lovato, setting up his second goal of the game. Two minutes later, Kingsley led Perillo, as he streaked down the right side. Perillo went around three defenders and put the goal in, making it 4-0. The score might have been even higher but Albertson's goaltender repelled numerous shots that came his way. The Warriors then toyed with the Falcons for the game's final 10 minutes, controlling the game, although halfbacks ended up playing every defensive position.

Joe Flanagan had a fine game in goal, but the great play of his defense thoroughly eliminated the opposition's offensive pressure. Brian Harkins, at sweeper, controlled the middle and gave his halfbacks many beautiful leads. Chuck Oliver, at right full, had his best game of the season, including some terrific offensive charges. Kristian Friedrich, a left full, put in 40 minutes of productive, aggressive soccer. Matt Pordum, at stopper, played a fine two-way game, continually keeping the ball moving forward. Eric Blicker, who started at left outside half, was the game's defensive stalwart, both from left full and stopper. He seemed glued to the ball, never letting up on forward movement while also taking most of the goal kicks, indirects, and direct.

Jason Kingsley, at center half, was all over the field, never allowing a Falcon past him while also supplying great offensive pressure, which freed him to assist on two goals. Dom Perillo, also at center half, was equally effective, both offensively and defensively, while chipping in with some terrific corner kicks. Junior Tomlinson, at both right and left outside half, led numerous offensive charges, while also playing a strong defensive game. David Lovato, besides his two goals, applied constant offensive pressure from the striker position, narrowly missing on a number of opportunities. Karl Rice, Kareen Holman, Terry Alyward, and Mike Heyer, all took turns at halfback, with effective two way soccer contributions. Holman and Tomlinson showed that they could also play fullback, finishing the game at that position.

Congratulations to the Warriors, Coach Pat McHugh and Assistant Coach Pat Harkins, Jr., for putting on a great soccer exhibition while bringing their spring record, including Cup games, to 5 wins, 2 losses.

I inherited my ability from both parents; my mother's ability for spending money; and my father's ability for not earning it.

With A Little Help

By Suzanne Lunt

It seems a man; let's call him George, had his car stolen in the city and then got a tearful call from a woman who said she was terribly upset; she'd just discovered her son had stolen George's car. She apologized and said she was returning it that day to a nearby garage.

When George went to the garage, his car was undamaged and had a full tank of gas. As he slid into the driver's seat, he noticed an envelope lying next to him. On opening it, he found an apology and two tickets to a hit show.

George and his wife, instead of using their heads, used the tickets. When they got home after the show, their apartment had been ransacked.

This is probably a once-in-a-lifetime scam; I doubt there are many burglary rings working anything as elaborate as this. But there are groups who plan break-ins by watching newspapers for dates of weddings and funerals. And others who steal handbags or wallets, then call to say they're the police; they have your bag/wallet and make a date for you to "come to the stationhouse to pick it up." Then while you're out, they move in on the house.

All of these thefts depend on a series of circumstances that must coincide to make the crime work. But a more spontaneous scam is infusing Long Island lately. A person bumps your car with his car; then comes to tap on your window to "apologize" and "exchange information." When you roll down your window, the person grabs your money and takes off.

If you decide to jump out to inspect the damage, not only is your purse/wallet snatched, but the thief jumps into your car and drives off in it.

So, if you're bumped by another car, cool your jets, as the kids say, and look well. Forget the bumper and size up the person who bumped you. If he/she looks shifty, shift into "Drive" after making a mental note of the license number of the other car, and roar away from the scene toward the nearest policeman/station to report a possible scam. (The person doing the bumping could be innocent, of course, but it's also possible that if local police kept an eye on that car for awhile, they could snatch the driver if he/she tried it again.)

It's too bad to have to run around being suspicious of people — and I don't recommend it — I'm just warning you to be wary because these days on the streets, as somebody (Marlon Brando?) said in some movie (On the Waterfront?), "You gotta know the territory."

(Questions for Suzanne Lunt can be sent to "With a Little Help," Anton Community Newspapers, 132 E. Second St., Mineola, N.Y. 11501, for a personal reply include a self-addressed, stamped envelope.)

Opening lead — five of diamonds.
Declarer is sometimes able to disguise his overall plan of play, but on most occasions it is relatively easy for the defenders to see exactly what he is trying to do.
Let's assume you're East, defending against four spades, and your partner leads the five of diamonds. Declarer wins in dummy with the ace and promptly ruffs a diamond. Right at this point you should say to yourself that South is laying the groundwork for an endplay, since there can be no other good reason for him to trump a diamond at trick two.

South then draws two rounds of trumps and leads the jack of clubs from dummy. When you duck, your partner wins with the king and returns the four of clubs. Declarer takes your seven with the nine, cashes the ace of clubs, enters dummy with a trump, and returns a low heart.
It is not difficult to realize at this stage of the play what declarer is planning to do. He has clearly gone out of his way to eliminate all the clubs and diamonds from both his own hand and dummy, and is now obviously hoping to endplay your distinguished partner.
Ordinarily you would follow low on the heart lead from dummy, but under the given circumstances, you should play the queen of hearts, not the seven. If you do, declarer loses three heart tricks and goes down one.
But if you fail to play the queen — blindly following the general rule of second hand low — South is sure to make the contract. He will cover your seven with the nine, forcing West to return a heart or yield a ruff and discard. Either way, South will make the contract.

Athletes Achievements Recognized by McDonald's

By Cathy Greenfield

Two Hicksville High School students were honored at the McDonald's in Sears last week. They were chosen for their exceptional ability in both academics and athletics.

Jennifer Livingston, senior, excelled in cross country and winter and spring track. She maintains an excellent scholastic average and in the fall plans to attend either Wagner College or Arizona University to major in music education.

Jack Fabrizio, a senior, excelled in soccer and also maintains an excellent scholastic average. In the fall he plans to attend St. John's University majoring in athletic administration.

The two managers of McDonald's who presented the plaque to these outstanding April winners were Laurie Millington and Mike Eugene.

McDonald's plans to present this award to two deserving students each month. For that month their picture, along with an article about their achievements, will be posted in McDonald's restaurant. At the end of the

Cantiague Ice Show to Benefit Special Olympics

On Saturday May 13, at 8:30 p.m., the Cantiague Figure Skating Club, in cooperation with the Nassau County Department of Parks and Recreation, will present Fantasia 89, its annual ice extravaganza. The young members of the Club, who include many local and regional champions, will be joined by several Olympic and World Skating Champions, in the club's version of the "Ice Capades a la Long Island." A very special feature of this year's program will be performances by the two Gold Medal winners of the 1989 Winter Special Olympics recently held in Reno, Nevada.

One purpose of this year's show is to benefit the Special Olympics. Under the auspices of Eunice Kennedy Shriver, the junior members of the club have been selling raffles in their neighborhoods, while the adult participants have been soliciting corporate donations, the proceeds of which will go to this most worthy cause. The star-studded lineup of Olympians have also been lending their support.

Ice dancing champions Suzanne Semanick and Ron Kravette will not only perform their own award-winning programs, they will also take part in a Unified Dance Exhibition, a new event, with Mitzi Zander, the Special Olympics' 1989 International Senior Ladies Champion. Semanick and Kravette, who highlighted last year's show and are back by popular demand, won the Bronze Medal in the 1989 National Skating Championships held in Baltimore this February. Also performing will be Christopher Byrne, who also brought home a gold medal from the Reno Olympics, and their coach, William Schank, who is the Director of Skating for the New Jersey Special Olympics.

Another featured event of this year's show, sure to be a highlight, will be the performance by Olympic competitor Carny Kadavy. We all watched in sympathy during the last Olympic finals as she was unable to compete due to the flu. This year she was sidelined by an injury, and her Cantiague appearance represents the first time she is performing in public in quite some time.

It will be a remarkable, memorable evening for everyone involved, both audience and performers. Admission to the show is free. It will be held at the Cantiague Park Ice Rink, on West John Street in Hicksville, beginning at 8:30 p.m. For more information, call the rink at 935-3501.

Hicksville resident, Lauren Ingvaldstad will be performing in the Cantiague ice show.

Hicksville Charity Baseball Tournament Aug. 26

By Charlette Anstey

As the spring baseball season gets underway, it's time for our thoughts to turn in Hicksville's own third annual Kids-For-Kids Charity Tournament. This tournament will be played on Saturday, August 26 at 1 p.m. (raindate Sunday, August 27, 1 p.m.) and is open to 13-year-old boys and 12-year-old girls. All-Star baseball and softball teams from HBA (Hicksville Baseball Association), St. Ignatius CYO and Hicksville PAL will compete against each other.

Last year's winners were: St. Ignatius CYO Boys and Hicksville PAL Girls. This year, everyone in Hicksville will have the opportunity to come and cheer on some of Hicksville's finest baseball players.

An initial meeting was conducted on April 20, 1989 concerning this tournament. Present at this meeting were Al Ciaccio (Coordinator), Charlette Anstey, Joan Familigetti, Dave Nelson, Barbara and Gary Lewis, Jack Zeller and Audrey Andrews (HBA President Buzz Doyle could not attend this meeting due to a prior commitment).

It was decided at this meeting that the charity we will donate this money to the A.H.R.C. (Association for the Help of Retarded Children).

Last year almost $2,000 was raised by these youngsters. The HBA organization will again sponsor this tournament. HBA will have their food shack open during this tournament, and will donate all profits made during the day. Last year, HBA donated a $600 profit made from the sale of food.

As in previous years, we will have sports figures come and meet the ballplayers and guests.
