Fountain Rededication

Residents of Hicksville are invited to gather at Memorial Park, at the confluence of Broadway and Jerusalem Avenue, to celebrate the rejuvenation of the park and the rededication of the Kiwanis fountain. The ceremony will be Saturday, May 27 at 2 p.m.

For years the fountain and the parkland around it have deteriorated. Due to the determined efforts of the Midland Civic Association, beautification committee, other civic groups, Kiwanis, Chamber of Commerce, Town Supervisor Angelo Delligatti, Town Deputy Commissioner Leonard Kunziga and John Walker of the parks department, the rejuvenation of the park has been a success.

No Fines For Books

The Hicksville Public Library Board of Trustees have declared an amnesty period from May 24, 1989 through May 26, 1989. No fines will be charged to patrons returning overdue books during that period of time. Videocassettes are not included in the amnesty period.

Residents Reject School Budget

Fourth Consecutive Year Budget Defeated

Residents defeated the proposed 1989-90 Hicksville school budget by 340 votes last week. This is the fourth consecutive year the budget has been defeated.

Voters rejected the budget by eight percent with 1806 (46%) voting in favor, and 2146 (54%) voting against.

The $46.7 million budget presented before voters May 10 had an increase of $2,830,310 over the present year. If the budget had passed, the tax rate would have been increased from the current $26.75 per $100 of assessed valuation to $28.65.

Plans for a second vote has not yet been discussed by the board of education. The next regular school board meeting will be on May 24.

Collins Captures 61% of Vote, Defeats Wolf

By Rita Langdon

Hicksville School Board candidate William Collins captured 61 percent of residents' votes, defeating incumbent Carole Wolf at last week's board elections.

Mr. Collins received 2,222 votes to Mrs. Wolf's 1,404.

As a school board member, Mr. Collins said he will strive for more openness between the board and the community. He also said his plans for the future include establishing a new election system, whereby the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes would be elected and individuals would not vie for a specific seat. He feels this system would improve relations between candidates and prevent negative campaigning. To save money, Mr. Collins proposes sharing transportation with adjoining schools districts. He suggests that towns which about Hicksville share school buses. For example, a bus driver can pick up students for a Westbury and Hicksville school, and make two drop offs.

Mr. Collins said that the apathy among residents is "unreal," citing the number of people voting this year. He encourages greater involvement in the future and "strives for the best education money can buy."

In the other board of education race, James Martillo won with 47.5 percent of the vote. Thomas McGovern had 33 percent (1,217 votes) and Jay Schwartz had 19 percent (708) votes. The three men were vying for the seat occupied by Daniel Arena who did not seek re-election.

Only three weeks after he lost last year's election, Mr. Martillo announced he would run again and attributes this year's victory to persistence. He said he feels the voters realized he was adamant about serving on the board. "I wanted to show them I was serious,"

Martillo Wins Over McGovern, Schwartz

he said, adding "I think the people feel comfortable talking to me."

Although he is not in favor of the $46.7 million budget, Mr. Martillo voted yes "because I don't think taking this out on the children is the answer." He also feels that all of Long Island is "fed up" with high budgets and Hicksville's budget was defeated because it is the only weapon residents have to fight taxes. Mr. Martillo said that "more state aid" is needed and it should be brought to the attention of assemblymen in Albany. "Let's try to make something good out of a bad situation," he said.

Many parents are not taking an active part in their children's education, according to Mr.

William Collins

Martillo. "The majority sends their kids to school and that's all. They should be more involved ... everyone should be involved," he said. Mr. Martillo added that he will work toward improving the lines of communication between teachers, parents and administrators, which he said, has been lacking. "We have to rebuild the confidence in the school board by opening the lines of rapport."

Teachers and Students at the High School are concerned about the effects on education by the defeat of the school budget. For their reactions see page 2.

Teachers, Students React to Budget Defeat

By Jim McCrann
High School Writer

Most students and many members of the Hicksville High School faculty were outraged over the defeat of the proposed 1989-90 school budget, citing an apathetic attitude in the community as the cause for the budget's demise.

Although residents have defeated the budget on the first vote for the past four years, they have accepted it on the second ballot. However, if the community continues to reject proposals, the district may be faced with austerity.

With the possibility of austerity next year, teachers and students must prepare for something they hope doesn't happen, and that is no funding for anything considered outside the normal school day. On austerity bus transportation, new books, art supplies, new equipment, funding for athletic or any other extra-curricular activities and student-run drama productions could be eliminated. Students involved in athletics could only participate on a pay-to-play basis. Physical education and health chairman, Patrick Pizzarelli, said this could cost students more than $200 to play some sports. Supplies for school dances and other activities could not be purchased. The marching band program, including preliminary plans to hold a Tournament of Bands program at Hicksville High, would be virtually discontinued. Practical Arts classes would receive very little, if any, supplies.

According to Tina Giansante, a home economics teacher, "We might be severely limited as far as our money for food allotment."

Voting the Budget Down

It is the general consensus of teachers and students that residents are "fed up" with taxes and that by voting against the budget, they are fighting one of the few taxes they can control.

Junior Cindy Manolakes said, "People who have no children in the school district have the privilege to vote on the school budget. Yet, since they [have no] control over other political issues, they vote the budget down because that is in their control."

High School band director, James McRoy, whose program would be severely hampered by austerity said, "People are voting down the budget because they are frustrated with the tax situation and I can totally understand that because I have a hard time living on Long Island also. But, [the community] is doing the wrong thing for the right reasons."

Mr. McRoy added that austerity could give the Hicksville schools a poor reputation, thus, lowering the property values in Hicksville.

According to Mr. Pizzarelli, the tax increase the budget represents is insignificant when compared to the devastating effects that austerity can have. The community "has a say in three percent of the budget, which is a very small portion of the budget," he said. "That three percent, when you talk about increase in monies, is about 50 cents on the hundred dollar evaluation. That's not really very much when it comes to your total tax bill."

Mr. Pizzarelli also said that austerity is hurting those who do the most for the Hicksville community. "I'm not so sure the community realizes that, basically, the people who are being affected are the good kids, the kids who are involved in extra-curricular activities. They get Hicksville's name in the paper for the positive things that are done around here, and now they're told that in order for them to continue doing these things, they have to pay." Mr. Pizzarelli added that the austerity may lead to more youths just "hanging out" on the streets.

Other Reactions

"It's not good," said student Brian Garnets about the budget's defeat. "People in this community should re-vote and get [the budget] passed."

When asked if he would participate if a pay-to-play program was instituted with athletics, Doug Danowski said, "I would be able to play, but some people I know would not be able to or they wouldn't want to." He added that austerity would debate the school because the programs that would be affected are "part of the spirit of the school. You've got to have them."

Although the senior class is least affected by the failure of the budget, seniors still expressed concern. Student body president Harry Pangas called the voting down of the budget a "tragic mistake." Another senior, Chris Horvath, said, "It's a shame. They really should have more consideration for the kids in this school."

The board of education is considering what course of action to take. It can represent the same package, revise the budget and submit it for a re-vote, or they can adopt an austerity program. High school coordinator of student activities, Nancy DeSorbo, said that she hopes a re-vote will be taken and residents will put the budget through "for the sake of the students."

But the ball is now in the school board's court, and according to assistant principal Lawrence Olvany, "The school board must decide what its priorities are. It's in the hands of the board."

The main topics covered were propane leaks and chlorine. Summer is almost here and these products are always a problem for homeowners and firefighters. The Hicksville Fire Department Hazardous Materials Team cautions homeowners working with these products. Read the instructions carefully. If any problems occur, notify the fire department immediately. In a problem situation, any delay could result in a serious accident.

Four persons were injured, one seriously, Sunday in an accident involving three vehicles at the intersection of Fulton Avenue and Adams Street. The Hicksville Fire Department responded to the 2:54 p.m. alarm with five units, under chief Terry Farrell.

The fire department used its two ambulances and one from Jericho Fire Department and the police. "Many intersections in the northeast section have no stop signs at all and are often the sites of vehicle accidents," according to Owen Magee, an ex-chief with the Hicksville Fire Department.

The most serious of the injured sustained neck and shoulder injuries. All were transported to area hospitals.

A vacant house at 40 East Old Country Road was completely destroyed after a fire on May 6 at 1:29 a.m. A neighboring house also received some damage. The cause of the fire is being investigated. No one was hurt.

Wicks, Sr., a lifelong resident of Hicksville, will give the history of the the lodge.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only. We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Thanks Fire Dept.

To The Editor:
I would like to thank the Hicksville Fire Department Rescue Squad for their quick response and care my husband received on Friday night, April 28.

I have had the occasion to call the rescue squad three times in the past few years due to my husband's illness. I felt it was time to thank them in writing for their expertise and dedication in handling emergencies considering sometimes they are the unsung heroes.

Support Police

To The Editor:
I am writing to show my appreciation to the Nassau County Police as May 14-20 is National Police Week. The devotion of our police keeps our county a safe place to live. We can be proud of the motor patrol officer, the detective and narcotics units, the canine and mounted police, the helicopter unit, the marine police, and our school crossing guards.

We should also remember those law enforcement officers who have sacrificed their lives to protect us. As our police officers face a dangerous job, our county should provide them with the finest equipment and technology. I am among those Americans who call for the death penalty for those who kill police officers and those who are heads of drug rings. The very survival of our nation depends on our justice system and education system overcoming the horror of illegal drugs. The first step is to support our Nassau County Police in the fine job they do.

To the Voters

To The Editor:
I thank you all for the support you gave me in this election. Your 708 votes were gratifying since other candidates spent several thousands of dollars on advertisements. Why would some group spend so much?

The public has spoken and we must listen to their voices. The budget is high and defeated again and we are now in austerity. We should worry that after four straight years of defeats we will be labeled as an anti-education town. This is not a reputation which makes it easy for us to retell homes.

Best of luck to the newcomers on the board of education. I know that they will work very hard to cut the budget. Can they make the independent decisions? We shall see soon enough!

I will continue to be a board watcher. I hope to see you there too. Again, thanks for your help and warm regards.

Consultation Center

To The Editor:
I have been pleased to see the regular coverage of the relocation of the Ecumenical Consultation Center provided by our local newspaper. I am sure this publicity has aided what has been a difficult task—the recruitment of funds, supplies and volunteers for renovation of the center's new building. The community response to this project has been truly gratifying.

I do take exception though to an impression left by the front-page ECC article of May 4. Calling the move "a race against time," it stated the center "at any time was about to receive notice to vacate premises." Those (now former) premises are a house on Grand Avenue owned by my congregation, the Lutheran Church of St. Stephen. This congregation at no time planned to evict the Ecumenical Consultation Center without every effort being made to bend our scheduled sale of the property to their relocation schedule. It has been important to us as well that the important counseling services provided by the ECC be uninterrupted!

It has been the privilege of the Church of St. Stephen to have hosted (in a rent-free arrangement) the Ecumenical Consultation Center for its first 15 years of existence. Its respected place in our community reflects the vision of its co-founders, Pastor Ted Grant and the late Pastor Roland Perez (my predecessor at St. Stephen's). My congregation and I rejoice that its ministry will continue in the new space (better space!) provided by St. Ignatius Church and now readied by its generous supporters.

(The Rev.) Frank L. Nelson
Pastor, Church of St. Stephen

Thanks from Kiwanis

To The Editor:
The members of the Hicksville Kiwanis Club wish to express their most sincere thanks to all the residents and businesses in the Hicksville area for the generous support they gave to our second annual spaghetti dinner on April 14.

Each year, the Kiwanis Club awards several scholarships to worthy high school graduates on their way to college. The funds raised by the businesses taking advertising space on the placemats, and from the tickets purchased for the dinner, which everyone said was very tasty, provided a portion of our scholarship money.

We would also like to thank Father Domenic Ciannella and the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church parishioners for allowing us to use their hall and kitchen to serve this dinner.

It was indeed another example of how the Hicksville community reaches out a hand to help others, and we thank you for that.

Center Sends Thanks

To The Editor:
On October 20, 1988, you published an article about the Ecumenical Consultation Center in Hicksville. You told the story of how our agency had been serving our community for the past 15 years and was now in need of help because it had to move from its present location to a new home provided by St. Ignatius R.C. Church.

After six months, the new home was completely renovated and on May 1, the center began operating out of its new facility, without any interruption of service.

The significance of this project is far greater than the relocation of a small agency striving to survive. Its meaning is to be found in the way a community responded. In the midst of all the horror stories we read telling us about the crime, corruption, brutality and the callousness and indifference of people, here is a story of goodness, generosity and compassion. Although it is a story that has been told a million times in our country, it needs to be told again. We need to know the miracle of the American Dream—it is still alive and well. The goodness, self sacrifice, concern and willingness of a community to become involved inspires and renews hope. It lets us know the basic values of our country are still there.

Fifteen years ago, the religious community raised the concern that Hicksville did not have the mental health resources to meet our needs. This became recognized as a legitimate need and a solution was sought. St. Stephen's Lutheran Church had a house that was vacant and offered it rent-free for a counseling center. Volunteers offered to renovate this structure and develop a service. The board of directors made the decision not to apply for government subsidies and not to compete with other agencies, but to endeavor to fill the needed services not already provided. Under this basic philosophy, the agency functioned and grew for 15 years.

Last year, because of the growth and need for expansion by St. Stephen's, the property was put up for sale and the center had to look for a new home.

This marked the beginning of an inspiring miracle. Without any resources or funding, there did not seem to be much hope for the future of the agency. It would be possible to rent office space, but that would mean increasing fees and defeating the original purpose of the agency.

Father Harrer, of St. Ignatius, offered a house that they were no longer using and which had been vacant for several years. The church was thinking of tearing it down because it was in need of such extensive repairs. Even with this generous offer, things did not seem more hopeful. It was estimated that it would cost about $150,000 dollars to renovate it.

The Hicksville Illustrated News heard of our plight and Rita Langdon, editor, in the honored tradition of news reporting, researched the story and wrote an article making our needs known. Once the community was aware of the problem, it responded. First Pastor Nelson of St. Stephen's gave me the assurance that they would not put us out, and that we would have the time required to fix the new offices.

Then money began to come in. Former clients, staff and over 200 individuals sent in donations. The Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary, American Legion, the Community Council, and more than 40 businesses, as well as the religious community, sent in contributions.

Glenn Carlson, a contractor, and Bob Neeb, a supervisor for the New York City Traffic Department, drew up plans. The Diamond Roofing Company put on a new roof. Volunteers came and the whole inside of the building was gutted. Firemen, policemen, accountants, psychoterapists, building tradesmen, government workers, teachers, clergy, nurses, stockbrokers and funeral directors worked side by side under the supervision of Glenn Carlson to reconstruct the building. Ed Henn, a contractor, sent his men to install the insulation and windows provided by Dryolin Corp., and to hang the 21 doors. Marc Ramirez of Mr. Electric installed all new electrical wiring, fixtures and service. His brother, Danny Ramirez, installed central air conditioning. Joe Gentile supervised the installation of a new boiler and heating system given by Reliance Oil Co. Bill Kearns from H.E.L.P. Plumbing installed a new plumbing system, with all materials provided by Ted Swedalla of Liberty Plumbing. Jerry from Chroma Paint provided the advice and direction for use of the paint from that business. Manfred Rose and his son installed the bathroom tile. Joe Active connected us to the sewers and Fallacara Paving installed new asphalt walks. The last touch came with the installation of carpeting throughout the whole building by Father and Son Carpeting. The very final aspect of this miracle was a grant from the Rauch Foundation which enabled us to completely furnish and complete the renovation.

Behind the scenes in every project is always an individual who gives advice, puts things into perspective and has the expertise to make things happen. The Rev. Dr. John Krahn was the man behind the scenes in this project, who gave me personally the insight, support and expertise to make it happen.

It is difficult to express the deep feeling of gratitude and appreciation I have to all who made this miracle possible. Often in life we work and struggle to accomplish something we believe in and sometimes get discouraged and wonder "Does it really matter or does anyone really care?" Then a miracle like this happens and you know it was worth it all.

On May 21, we will dedicate this new facility to the Glory of Almighty God and in loving memory of the Rev. Dr. Roland J. Perez, Pastor Perez, the former pastor of St. Stephen's, who worked hard for the founding and development of this service to our community.

Rev. Dr. Theodore S. Grant, Director
Ecumenical Consultation Center

Response to Letter

To The Editor:
Janet M. Von Bargen's letter, May 11 edition, does not deserve the courtesy of a reply, but I commend School Board Trustee Daniel C. MacBride for his great courage to advise taxpayers to vote No on the school budget. His outspokenness is welcomingly refreshing.

Evidently Ms. Von Bargen must be living in a vacuum if she thinks that the Board Members, elected by all residents, must have the same opinions in all their decisions.

Undoubtedly, Mr. MacBride must be hearing what I hear from the people I encounter on the continuous school budget increases. No one can understand why the increases when the pupil enrollment decreases.

Taxpayers are no longer resigned to accept and pay any and all taxes. Like most residents, my budget is based on my income. In no way can expenses exceed income. Where necessary, cuts must occur.

Similarly cuts must be made in the school budget. I totally agree not only on cutting the Travel and Conference allowance but the time has come to also eliminate the Driver-Ed program. It should be self-sustaining with prospective drivers paying their own way.

If serious cuts are not made, there will be no taxpayers here to fund the school budget.
Mary R. Cardella

Thanks for Voting

To The Editor:
I would like to thank the 1,400 people who left their homes on a stormy day to vote for me in the Hicksville School Board election.

Even though I had lost the election, it was very nice to know that so many people had enough confidence in my abilities and believe that I could do a good job.

The last three years of my life have been dedicated to the education of Hicksville's children. Besides the board meetings, the committee meetings and the re-organization meetings, I attended the All-Elementary School Concerts, open schools, National Honor Society Inductions, Graduations, Foreign Language Awards, Concerts and Scholarship Dinners.

The most difficult thing for me to do when my term expires, is to leave the children.

Thank you for these wonderful years on the board of education.

MITCHEL FIELD

WILLIAM L. MITCHELL IS TODAY REMEMBERED AS THE AVIATION PIONEER WHO WAS UNABLE TO CONVINCE THE MILITARY LEADERSHIP OF THE 1920s THE FUTURE IMPORTANCE OF AIR POWER. BUT, AS IT IS SOMETIMES MISTAKENLY THOUGHT—MITCHEL FIELD WAS NOT NAMED FOR HIM! INSTEAD, IN JULY OF 1918, AVIATION FIELD No. 2 WAS RENAMED MITCHEL FIELD TO HONOR FORMER MAYOR OF N.Y.C. JOHN P. MITCHEL! HE HAD DIED WHILE TRAINING TO BE A FLYER. MEANWHILE, ALSO IN JULY OF 1918, THEODORE ROOSEVELT'S SON QUENTIN LOST HIS LIFE IN AIR BATTLE OVER GERMAN LINES. AND SO HAZELHORST FIELD BECAME ROOSEVELT FIELD. MITCHEL FIELD WAS QUITE ACTIVE UNTIL 1949, AND ROOSEVELT UP TO 1951.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

Today I want to talk about a time earlier than mine—about when my Mother was a young girl in a tiny Long Island town. She left school after graduating from the eighth grade in a school with four rooms, two grades to a room—(when I was explaining to her about one of the recent educational theories about the open classroom and kids moving from one subject to another as they could, she said, "Oh, that's just how it was in my school—I always did the reading with the grade ahead.")—and then she went to work as a bookbinder in a local publishing company. She rode to work on a trolley and one of the big concerns was, would the trolley drop them off in front of the publishing company for their nickel fare, or would they have to get out a block earlier, which was the end of the nickel zone. . . After what sounds like an early "sit-in," the trolley decided to extend the zone to the front of the publishing company. . . But what I remember most from my Mother's stories is the importance of dancing in the social life of these little town young people. . . Apparently there was dancing in some hall a couple of times a week and the fee was 2¢ which included the coffee and cake. . . and there seems to have been some sort of live music most of the time—usually by talented members of the community. . . Everyone came, not just the young, and babies were put to sleep on chairs around the dance floor—dancing was not just for the unmarried either. . . Many people have told me that my five foot tall ninety-eight pound Mother was the best dancer in the village, and it sounds as if she was very popular as a partner and teacher of some of the farm boys from the nearby potato farms. . . When they went to dances in towns which were several miles away, they always walked home because the last trolley stopped much too early and they were unafraid. . . My Mother and Father actually met at one of these little village dances. . . There was a marathon dance and my Father and the girl he was dancing with won first prize and my Mother and her fellow won second prize, and the judges suggested that they change partners. . . and they danced away and right on to the altar. . . so you can see how important dancing was in those days!!

Yours, Lulabelle

On Education

The original title of this piece was going to be "gutless"; I cannot say that Gov. Cuomo is gutless because he has shown that he can take the heat.

Maybe it has do do with my fundamental beliefs about education of our citizens in general.

The reason for education in the United States is that the government, at all levels, should provide an education to make the people better and more informed citizens, so that we can preserve our freedom. It is to help the people be informed citizen voters. That is why we have free education, not to turn our youth into good workers or wage earners or for monetary reasons. That it helps people become more productive is a great additional benefit.

It is also not written anywhere that I know of that every citizen is entitled to a college education. In fact, many people who go to college would be better off if they did not go. They would make a better living and make a more solid contribution in a trade. But, that is another story. I do believe that each person is entitled to a shot at college. No one should be entitled to a free ride.

Why? Let me explain. It has been shown in study after study that a college degree and further graduate study increases a student's earning power. The more education, the more money in the workplace. It seems to me that if you are going to get great benefits, there should be no free lunch forever.

I also know from first hand experience that much of the education money that we give our young is wasted. It is not appreciated. I remember being at Manhattan Community College in N.Y.C. on the last payday for the students who were paid to go to college under the plans they have for the disadvantaged. The place was a bedlam. I was on a recruiting drive for Marymount Manhattan College. I asked the professor why all of the noise and racket. His response shocked me. He told me that the next day was the big day for withdrawals from class. When the students withdrew, they still maintained their eligibility to attend school the next session. Of course they would still receive their money for attendance. Many were in a two year community college under this system for more than four years.

Does it happen outside of New York City? I do not know. I do know that this is not education, it is warehousing a body to get it off the streets. It is not education, nor is it value for the education buck.

If a student is required to pay the money back, it will be an appreciated and not abused privilege. Where will the money come from? From all of the extra money the students will be earning because they went to college. So what do I propose?

That any American youth who has the will to go to college and who can gain admittance, be allowed to go. That the government lend them the money. That they be required to repay, no ifs, ands or buts. If it is beneficial to them, they will stay the course. If it is not, no student is going to heap more debts upon himself if it must be repaid.

The final link is that I and my counterparts do our job and tighten our requirements and increase our demands, so that a college degree is again a very valued possession.

RE: The Seminar, May 10, 1989, I will touch on this next week.

Dr. Frey is a professor of investments and finance at LIU/CW Post campus on Long Island.

New Hours for Social Security Offices

Starting June 5, Social Security offices on Long Island will close at 3:30 p.m. as part of an experiment to improve public service. Although the offices will close earlier, the toll free number 1-800-234-5554, is available 24 hours a day, 365 days per year. Most Social Security business can be completed by phone.

ROBERT R. McMILLAN'S Direct Line

One hundred days or two hundred days are not as important as four years in any Presidency—not just George Bush's. But, there are some clear indicators emerging in how George Bush is handling the job. We are seeing a kinder and gentler nation through his leadership. The tone of the Presidency is upbeat and at the same time relaxed. Grandchildren, puppies and horseshoes at the White House are "in", just as they are at the homes of so many American families.

The true test of George Bush's years in office will not be read until years after he leaves the White House—just as it has been with so many Presidents. Lyndon Johnson's legacy has been felt for years. We are still adjusting to the Vietnam experience. Richard Nixon's opening to China was the forerunner of a more democratic People's Republic. Watergate plagues our memories. Appointments to the Supreme Court have an impact for decades.

The broader view notwithstanding, there have been real achievements in the first one hundred plus days of George Bush's Presidency. Exercising the Inaugural spirit, he has reached out to Congress. A compromise was reached in forging a unified Central American policy. Budget harmony was also worked out early in the session—a miracle based on the predictions made at the end of last year. Proposals have also been advanced to deal with the banking crisis, education, child care, and acid rain. George Bush has accomplished this in a few months—all without hammering the Congress.

A strong ethics code for White House employees has also been put in place, and the President will make sure everyone adheres to it. George Bush will not compromise on personal standards. It would be great to see the Congress follow his lead and adopt similar standards for members of the House and Senate.

George Bush has a steady hand on the throttle. Some critics have agreed with the tone—but not the "boldness." I feel those critics are wrong. Americans are tired of confrontational politics. George Bush is someone who will lead, will react to important issues as they rise, and has the experience to know when it is time to lunge ahead. So far the Congress has met him half way on most issues. There have been differences over the minimum wage and John Tower. They were skirmishes which have not deflected the President's overall approach of conciliation. The nation's interest is served by a less confrontational style of government. Our friends and enemies overseas are also observant of George Bush's style and substance, and his relations with the Congress are not lost on them.

The polls affirm George Bush's success. He rides very high in every public opinion rating—higher than Ronald Reagan at the same time in his Presidency. Americans do know where George Bush is. And, they are confident to know that Barbara Bush is there, too. George Bush will not be a President who tries to implement an idea a minute—nor will he conduct a Presidency by photo opportunity. George Bush is a real person with real life experiences. America will be better for his Presidency—not just after one hundred days but after history has judged his leadership role as well.

School Board Election

To The Editor:
I am writing this letter because I am deeply concerned about the involvement of the Hicksville Congress of Teachers and the Teacher Aide Unit, in the May 10 School Board Election. I want your readers and the community to be aware that we will be negotiating with the HCT & CSEA bargaining units in the coming months, and I have reason to believe that they have funneled from eight to ten thousand dollars in the form of advertising ads, mass mailings, telephone banks, sound trucks, etc. And by doing this they have placed tremendous pressure on the newly elected board members, who they supported, for the upcoming negotiations.

If the best interests of education and the tax-payers are to be served, support should come from the community of Hicksville, and not from "special interest" groups, particularly those involved in negotiations with the very same people they helped elect.

Let us hope that the interests of Hicksville come first.

Bill Bennett

Editor's Note: Mr. Bennett is trustee of the Hicksville Board of Education.

Designers' Showcase 1989 at Broadhollow

by Keni Woodruff

Broadhollow...a legacy of architectural purity, a tradition of Gold Coast aristocracy, a rebirth of stately elegance set in a blend of today's high tech functionality and the romantic reminiscence of yesterday.

Built in 1926, the red brick mansion was designed, in classic American Georgian style, by architect William Truman Aldrich for his brother Winthrop Aldrich, a prominent New York City lawyer.

Broadhollow's interior took on a more eclectic flavor, reminiscent of the French Beaux Arts period. The original estate comprised 108 acres in the village of Old Brookville, and included the mansion, a 20 car garage ("with ample apartment quarters above"), two cottages, a greenhouse, a chicken house, pool pavilion and tennis court.

"...it keeps these extraordinary mansions alive..."

Today, the symmetrical manor stands majestically on eight acres. Visitors approach on a winding drive, entering through wide iron gates into an exquisitely landscaped circular forecourt. Ireland Gannon has restored the landscaping, creating an exquisitely balanced garden abloom with spring plantings, circled by hedges and cobbled borders which lead the guests to Broadhollow's handsome doorway. Above the door, a broken pediment, embellished urn and fruit swags, Ionic pilasters and fretted glass...a dramatic welcome to a unique visit into Long Island's golden past.

Coordinated by Arlene Travis and Carole Aromsen, Mansions & Millionaires, whose annual Designers' Showcase has captured the Spring is in the Air . . .

Spring, summer, fall or winter, a good night's sleep gets you ready to face the day. Quality sleep demands a quality mattress, and Spring Air Mattress Co. has lots to say about inner springs and sleep.

According to sleep researchers, good mental health depends on deep REM phase sleep. Most people sleep eight hours a night (one-third of their lives), and the ergonomics of your sleep surface can assure the quality of that sleep.

"It's in the coils," says Spring Air's V.P. Paul Bagoon, "and the total design of the mattress. There are three types of coils," he says. "The Bonnell (invented in 1899), is hourglass shaped, with ringed knots top and bottom. Its firmness is not very yielding, the knots tend to shift, loosen and squeak over time.

"The Marshall Coil, developed in 1900, is shaped like a barrel and each is sewn into a fabric pocket. While these coils are less rigid," Bagoon says, "they tend to depress equally under body weight, and under long use, frequently pop and turn.

"The Karr Spring, shaped like a tapered hourglass, has unknotted ends," he said. "In a mattress, these springs are used in varying sizes, joined by long, spring-like wires (helicals), allowing firm support and surface flexibility.

"The Karr Spring conforms to the many sleep positions, affording comfort and support no matter how the sleeper shifts."

What kind of spring in a Spring Air? Karr, of course.

Some design tips from architect Michael Macaluso to help celebrate Better Sleep Month (May) . . .

"Avoid sharp edges, harsh angles, deep (not dark) shades within the color family you've selected. The bedroom should evoke feelings of serenity and peace.

"Find a temperature that's particularly comfortable to you, and keep your bedroom thermostat set there. Sound should be minimal, constant . . . if you live in an urban or noisy area try ocean or "white" sound tapes to block street sounds.

"Color, light and furniture placement are equally important to creating a tranquil comfortable environment."

THE PLAYROOM

Sugar 'n Spice, everything nice... that's Anne Gozo's "Playroom." This miniature hideaway is every little girl's dream come true, a scaled down space that's perfect for a tea party, a doll house fairy tale, or a quiet moment to let her imagination ream. This pink and white confection, filled with child-sized furniture and favorite things: By No. Four Westgate Interiors of Plandome, is the reflection of a happy childhood brought to life for a real live princess.

Mayo-DeLucci Interiors designed this "Great Kitchen" with great style, great attention to functionality, and great humor. Smallbone cabinets, exquisitely crafted and detailed, provide the focus for the buttercup, lilac and jade tinted kitchen. Bentwood chairs add counter seating, picking up the springlike color scheme.

The Mayo-DeLucci "Great Kitchen" features hand-painted ceramic tiles by Christine Belfor, bringing the whimsical charm of a Louis XVI country setting. Her monkeys and hares add a touch of humor and connect the charm of yesterday to the hi-tech sleekness of 1989. This balance of old and new, past and present, utility and frivolity carries lightly through the showcase, and is nowhere better displayed than in this delightfully efficient kitchen.

Wood Mouldings Add Finishing Touch

Ornamental mouldings of fine hardwoods add a finishing touch to all your decorative themes.

National Moulding and Ornament, Ltd., manufactures and stocks a wide variety of decorative architectural woodwork, ornaments and mantels.

Founded in 1907, the company has been located at 94 Glen Head Rd., Glen Head, for 6 years. Eli Copa, president of the company, welcomes the general public to the showroom, where they may choose from hundreds of styles—plain, embossed and carved.

"We have one of the largest selections of traditional and contemporary designs in the N.Y. area," Copa says. "Wood mouldings and trim add beauty and elegance to your home and office, combining the richness and depth of natural wood for a harmoniously finished look."

"This is a family business, we pride ourselves on our European craftsmanship and high quality service. We've combined this old world experience with American production techniques," Copa commented, "enabling us to continue to grow and increase our already extensive line."

National Moulding manufactures more than 35 different fireplace mantel designs in a variety of fine, aged hardwoods, and will customize a mantel to your own specific design.

Custom mouldings, embossed or plain, can be supplied to quantity users, and most of the designs can be created in any wood specie.

The showroom is open Mon.-Fri. 8-4:30, Sat. 9-3. Installation and finishing of all National Moulding products is available on order. Call 676-2132 or 676-2133.

"...Wood mouldings and trim add beauty and elegance."

HIDEAWAY UTILITIES

Behind closed doors, you'll find George Rallis' functional laundry and party planning room. Neo classic cabinets disguise the latest hideaway utilities: washer-dryer, pop-out ironing board. You can plan a party, pay your bills, write a thank you note while the last load tumbles dry. The clutter disappears into neatly stacked drawers and cabinets...behind closed doors.

Legionnaires' Log

By Greg Bennett
Charles Wagner Post #421, Hicksville

As Memorial Day nears, Legionnaires are once again out in public asking Americans to make a donation in return for a poppy. Charles Wagner Post 421 is very grateful to Hicksville residents who have made donations as funds collected are used for veterans' rehabilitation. The poppies are hand made by veterans and the red poppy symbolizes the sacrifices made by our war dead and veterans. The poppy was chosen as a symbol because after World War I poppies grew wild on the battlefields and cemeteries in Europe.

New York State Speaker and Assemblyman Dick Conner, Chairman of the Veterans Committee, have announced that Assemblywoman Catherine Nolan (D-Ridgewood), was named Chairperson to the Assembly Subcommittee on Women Veterans. This subcommittee has been involved for about one year.

Director Tom Lewis of the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs, reports that the Veterans Toll-Free Number is continuing to get a good, but not an overwhelming response. The number is 1-800-635-6534. Veterans are encouraged to use the state vets hotline. If it is not used, it may be victim of a budget cut.

The International Monetary Fund is prepared to clear the way for $250 million in new "structural adjustment" lending to Vietnam in return for a token payment of $5 million against long-outstanding debts to the IMF totalling $130 million. Since the United States finances 19.14 percent of the IMF, this means American taxpayers would be obligated to reward Hanoi with $820.25 for every American killed in the Vietnam War and not to mention the POW/MIA situation. It's sad that American banks are loaning the Soviets and Soviet-bloc countries funds at 7 percent or less interest while our banks charge Americans much higher rates and our own government is cutting the VA budget. As Lenin stated, "The Capitalists will supply us materials and technology that we lack. In other words, the Capitalists will work hard to prepare their own suicide." Our banks should remember that the Soviets finance terrorist movements and numerous revolutionary guerrilla groups with funds borrowed from the West.

We wish a fast "Get Well" to PC Wes Tietjen who is in Northport VA.

Charles Wagner Post 421 is gearing up for the Memorial Day Parade and the Nassau County American Legion Convention Parade which will be held in Hicksville on June 2.

High School Musicians' Trip to Disney

After one year of planning, 103 student musicians from Hicksville High School will depart for a concert tour in Florida on May 25. Appearance will be made by the Hicksville High School Band as they parade down Main Street of the Walt Disney World Magic Kingdom at 3 p.m. on May 26. At 6 p.m. that same evening, the Hicksville High School Festival Chorus will perform on the stage of Walt Disney World's Lake Buena Vista Village. These two Disney World appearances will follow a three hour presentation at the Mercado Shopping Village on the evening of May 25 by the school's orchestra, concert band, jazz ensemble, chorale, chorus, madrigals, and festival chorus. These groups are under the direction of James McRoy (bands), Thomas Buttice (orchestra), and Charles Arnold (choruses). The assistant conductor is Philip Grusenmeyer.

Local audiences will be able to hear these programs at the school's annual spring concert which will take place on Tuesday, May 23 at 8 p.m. This concert is open to the public.

Following the Florida concerts and two days of enjoyment at Walt Disney World the students will return to Hicksville on Sunday evening, May 28. This is the first time the school's musical organizations have taken such an extensive trip. Announced one year ago, funds were raised through the assistance of the community, local businesses and especially by the assistance of the Hicksville High School Band Parent's Association. The major fund raising events were the sale of decals and cheese, a raffle, a dream auction and a tag sale.

Accompanying the students as chaperones on this trip will be James McRoy, Thomas Buttice, Charles Arnold, Philip Grusenmeyer, William Gagnon, Mary Jane Caldwell, Joan Gelberg, Patricia Faherty, Evelyn Korzen-dorfer, Beth Pilkington and Vicki Vrona. While in Florida they will be staying at the Orange Lake Country Club.

Are you the proud parents of a new baby? Hicksville wants to know. Write us at 132 East Second Street, Mineola, N.Y. 11501.

Opening lead — jack of diamonds.

A reader sent this deal on which he bid and made seven hearts. North's three club bid guaranteed the ace, and South therefore went directly to seven hearts.

It's not easy to see how South made the grand slam, and if you'd like to test your prowess, stop reading right here.

Declarer ruffs the diamond lead in dummy, trumps a spade, then ruffs a diamond, a spade, another diamond and another spade. He then leads three rounds of trumps, producing South leads his last trump, whereupon West finds himself squeezed. If he discards the king of spades, dummy's eight becomes a trick; if he discards a club, declarer's clubs are all good. Either way, South makes the grand slam.

It may seem excessively dramatic to trump the A-K-Q of diamonds in dummy, but if declarer neglects to do this he goes down.

The purpose of the spade ruffs is to exhaust one defender of that suit and thus place the burden of guarding against dummy's fourth spade on the other defender. Nothing can be lost by this maneuver, though it will prove to be a waste of time if the spades are divided 5-4.

In that case, South can always fall back on a favorable club division and will be no worse off for having given himself an extra chance for the contract. Two chances are better than one.

Anton Community Newspapers, L.I. MADD/SADD Celebrate The Prom of Their Lives... For the Rest of Their Lives

By Keni Woodruff

A three week special promotion in your community newspaper (The Prom of Your Life), culminated on May 11, 1989, with the presentation of two checks to the directors of Long Island MADD (Mothers Against Drunk Driving), and SADD (Students Against Driving Drunk).

At this significant time of year, when our young people are celebrating their graduation from high school and college, it is even more imperative to be aware of the tragedy of DWI related automobile accidents and how effective the work of MADD and SADD has been in reducing the numbers of young people who are injured or killed each year, directly due to drinking and driving.

Since it was founded, in 1982, MADD has been responsible for the enactment of 400 legal measures to deter drunk driving, and brought DWI into national focus. MADD has grown into a national organization, with 395 chapters in 48 states and Canada. The volunteer organization promotes public awareness through media appearances, publications, youth and community education and speakers bureaus.

SADD, a student organization which operates out of high schools, colleges and Jr. high schools, was founded in 1981 and now has 4000 chapters. Its premise: "we must believe in our children... it is the cornerstone for the SADD Contract for Life Between Parent and Teenager, and is the basis for a commitment acknowledging the teen's potential problems and the family's desire to drive responsibly, to open communication channels, to express their fears, explain their motivations, and to share their feelings.

Since these groups were formed, DWI incidents involving young people have decreased by two-thirds... WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

If you'd like to make a commitment to our children, both Mothers Against Drunk Driving and Students Against Driving Drunk agree... Volunteer your time, just a few hours a week, and you, too, can make a difference. Call L.I. MADD: Oyster Bay, 922-7800 or Farmingdale, 454-6233; SADD: 433-8484. "If we dream, it can be done..." you can be part of the dream!

We want to thank the merchants who advertised in our special Prom pages... our way of celebrating the young people of Nassau County as they graduate and enjoy... The Best Of Their Lives... The Rest Of Their Lives:

A Look at Kids-for-Kids Tournament

By Charlotte Anstey

The first year the Kids-for-Kids Tournament was started, the Hicksville Baseball Association (HBA) and the Hicksville Police Activities League (PAL) each sent a team of 12-year old all-star boys to compete against each other. When the second year's tournament was discussed, it was decided to extend the offer to St. Ignatius CYO (Catholic Youth Organization), to join this tournament. It was also decided that because of the fields being utilized at Abe Levitt Complex, 12-year old all-star girls and 13-year old all-star boys would play in this second tournament. This year (our third) we will again have the same all-star categories as last year competing against each other.

For the third consecutive year, we will donate all monies collected and money earned from the H.B.A. shed to the Association for the Help of Retarded Children (A.H.R.C.). Our first year we donated approximately $1,000. Our second year we donated almost $2,000. This year we're hoping (with the help of our neighbors and friends in the Hicksville community) to beat last year's donation.

Starting with this article, we will highlight some of the individuals who have helped make this charity tournament such a success.

Buzz Doyle is the president of the Hicksville Baseball Association (HBA). Not only is Buzz involved in HBA, but he and his wife, Cathy, are very active in all the various activities their children participate in.

Buzz had the following to say about last year's tournament. "What a heart-warming feeling it is to watch children pull together to help other children less fortunate than themselves. For the last two years I have been at the charity games where I was able to participate in this most giving event of the baseball season. Parents, siblings, A.H.R.C. members, town officials and our neighbors of Hicksville have gathered together on the Abe Levitt Complex to take part in this event.

"It was touching at the last tournament in 1988 when some members of the A.H.R.C. came over to my wife and I, giving us hugs and saying how wonderful it made them feel to just be there and have so many people caring about them.

"H.B.A. means a lot to me because children need the opportunity to participate in activities where they can learn good sportsmanship, exercise, be with other kids, gain confidence and just have some good old-fashioned fun."

Hicksville Battles, But Loses 3-2 Soccer Contest

By A. Blicher

The Hicksville Warriors 1974 travelling soccer team took on the first place Auburndale Aces at windswept Triangle Park May 7, and came out on the short end of a 3-2 tally, as the Aces scored two goals in the game's last six minutes.

Auburndale, with the wind at their backs, took advantage of a number of plus 50 yard punts to apply constant pressure on the Warrior defense, scoring at the 18 minute mark. Hicksville came right back to tie the game, at the 22 minute mark, on a perfect Dom Perillo cross, which was chested in by Karl Rice. The wind shifted at the 30 minute mark, and the Warriors took over the game, with some sensational offensive play, including a near miss on a Terry Aylward header, but could not convert.

The second half saw the wind in more of a crossing pattern, which favored neither team. Nothing but the sensational play of Auburndale's goalkeeper was between the Warriors and numerous scoring opportunities. Finally, at the 60 minute mark, Junior Tomlinson took control of the ball deep in the Hicksville defensive end and broke up the right side, on a 70 yard charge, which climaxed with a perfect pass to Chris Doyle, who put it in for a 2-1 Warrior lead. The Warriors followed with the most unusual ways not to score, including two shots off the cross bar and a save by the Auburndale goalie, while prone on the ground, facing the goal line. Again, Terry Aylward had a perfect header which the Aces goalkeeper hauled down.

However, a Hicksville victory was not to be, as Auburndale caught fire with six minutes to go, aided by Hicksville defensive breakdowns, tying the game at the 74 minute mark, then going ahead at the 76 minute mark. The Warriors then put together some strong offensive charges, but each was broken up by outstanding play on the part of Auburndale.

In addition to the aforementioned Warriors, the balance of the players were Joe Flanagan, in goal; Chuck Oliver and Kristian Friedrich at fullback; Brian Harkins at sweeper; Matt Pordum at stopper; Karen Holman, Mike Heyer and David Lovato at halfback; Eric Blicher at halfback, fullback and stopper; and Jason Kingsley at halfback and fullback. The players, as well as Coach Pat McHugh and Assistant Coach Pat Harkins, Jr., gave it their best in the face of fierce competition. The Warriors overall spring record is now six wins, three losses.

Hicksville Pioneers Upset Sachem, 3-0

By Jay Schwartz

The 1977 Hicksville American Pioneers defeated the Sachem Redskins on May 6.

The action was swift and frantic as the game began. Dave Nelsen sent a long pass up to Phil Caputo whose shot was blocked and knocked out for a corner. Jonathan Schwartz kicked the ball low for Joey Florio who struck the ball wide of the net.

On a Redskin throw-in, Ricky Ladimir moved to the ball. He crossed the ball into the box. The goalie came out too far and Caputo kicked the ball up and into the upper corner for the first score. Players Dave Nelsen, Joey Matz, Joey Florio and Peter Titone were quick to the ball for Hicksville. A close goal almost came when Jonathan Schwartz passed a sideline ball up to Ladimir. He turned and quickly sent a crossing shot up to Phil Caputo. Caputo backed the ball out to Danny Wolchok, who shot the ball right away. The ball bounced off the upper bar and the goalie grabbed it in.

In the second half the pressure was still on Sachem. Jonathan Schwartz, Richard Werschenski and Tommy Coffey put as combination play together but the alert goalie came in to break it up. Hustling on the field to watch for the attacks were Joey Croce, Sean Flanagan, and Timmy Dalton. Joey Florio took a corner shot which Flanagan scrambled for. His shot was scooped up by the goalie. Ricky Ladimir crossed a pass to Coffey and the goalie dove for the shot that was taken. The second goal was a beauty as the ball was not cleared out by Sachem. Ladimir went to it and kicked a high ball in over the goalie's head to the upper right corner, well out of reach. Minutes later Ladimir had another opportunity as Danny Wolchok crossed a ball to the far left side. Ladimir shot to the lower corner and put in goal number three.

The team worked well and had a deserved victory. The team sponsor, Westbury Federal Savings and Loan, will be proud of the team's efforts.

Hicksville's Ebbets Field Cafe Wins Opener

Hicksville's Ebbets Field Cafe Softball team won its league opener May 4 against this year's Metro Tournament Champions, the Long Island Blues. The final score in the 6 inning game was 26-19. The game was highlighted by both teams combining for 12 fence clearing home runs. Chris Walsh, of Ebbets Field, hit two home runs and drove in six runs leading his team to victory. The '89 Ebbets team is optimistic about its season. Last year, the team won both the Cantigue Park and Roosevelt Beach Championships. The team consists of many Hicksville High School alumni including John McNamara 3 for 6, Chris Walsh 3 for 5, Bill Lawson 1 for 5 and a 3 run homer, Rich Wahlen 4 for 5, and Ed Byrnes 2 for 5.
