Memorial Day Parade

The annual Hicksville Memorial Day Parade will start at 9 a.m. on Monday, May 29 at Sears on Broadway and will conclude at the Middle School. A ceremony will then take place with Bernard Saul, retired U.S. Air Force General, as principal speaker.

This year's parade is sponsored by the Gleir Levitt Post 655, Jewish War Veterans of the USA.

Grand Marshal will be Anthony Seilini, past commander of Henry Biel Post 46, Masonic War Veterans of New York.

Honorary Grand Marshals are Joan Rizos, president of the American Legion Auxiliary Charles Wagner Post 421, and Ester Palladino of the V.F.W. Auxiliary, William M. Gouse Jr. Post 3211.

Assembly at Sears for those participating in the march will be at 8:30 a.m.

Parade Route

The parade will kick-off at 9 a.m. sharp. The route of the parade will then follow south on Broadway, then west on Old Country Road and south on Jerusalem Avenue to the Hicksville Middle School, where the massing of color and memorial services will take place.

Two Kittens Rescued

Trees are not the only places kittens have to be rescued from these days, as two Hicksville firemen discovered recently.

Two kittens were found trapped between two sheet rock walls by an employee at Hemlock Painting and Decorating on Old Country Road.

After calling numerous agencies and getting no help, the employee, Peggy Paige, called upon the service of Hicksville's bravest.

Firefighters Al Merck and Mike Sheehan arrived and rescued the kittens from their precarious position. The kittens were then taken to a local veterinarian and later to an animal shelter in Lindenhurst.

Said Ms. Paige, "The Hicksville Department came through within minutes of my call. After listening to the cries of these two poor kittens, my nerves were jangled." She added, "Knowing that the animals were no longer trapped and were out safe and alive, I could finally rest easy."

2,000 Affected Thursday By LILCO Power Outage

Many Hicksville people were in the dark Thursday night when 2,000 LILCO customers lost their electricity for more than 50 minutes.

The power went off at about 8:15 p.m. due to a malfunction with a circuit breaker in LILCO's New South Road substation, according to Long Island Lighting Company spokeswoman Maureen Flanagan.

Main roads such as Broadway, Newbridge and Old Country Roads as well as Hicksville High and Holy Trinity Schools were without power. One thousand two hundred customers' electricity was out for 50 minutes and another 800 customers' lights were out for 67 minutes.

Parts of Westbury and Levittown were also affected.

School Zone Warning is Next Step For Safety at Our Lady of Mercy

By Catherine Tokar

South Oyster Bay Road drivers will now be warned that there are children in the area as the county prepares to paint "SCHOOL" on the north and southbound lanes before Our Lady of Mercy School.

This suggestion, made by area residents, was presented to town and county officials last week at the second public meeting regarding the safety of pedestrians on South Oyster Bay Road. The first meeting, in January, was prompted by two deaths in front of Our Lady of Mercy Church and School.

After one and a half hours of residents' pleas for more safety measures, Paul Strep, traffic engineer for Nassau County, agreed to the suggestion.

Frank Mercland, senior deputy commissioner for the county's department of public works, said that to increase safety, the following changes have been implemented on the road:

- *The speed limit on South Oyster Bay Road, from Hicksville Road to Jericho Turnpike, was lowered from 45 mph to 40 mph;
- *To help pedestrians cross South Oyster

Bay Road near the church, pedestrian crossing time has been increased at Columbia and Froehlich Farm Roads. He emphasized that pedestrians must push the pedestrian button in order to cross;

- *Traffic signal faces have been enlarged for greater visibility;

- *Higher visibility cross walks have been painted and larger signs installed indicating crosswalks;

- *Traffic signals at either end of church property have been changed to function cooperatively; when one light is red, the other is also red;

*Police coverage has been expanded for Saturday night religious services and a police officer controls the lights to move traffic and pedestrians efficiently;

*Traffic enforcement has been increased;

*The intensity of street lighting has been increased;

*No turn on red at Columbia Road;

*Center medians have been altered for safer turning;

*A permanent school crossing guard has been hired;

*For pedestrian safety, the county is proposing a guard rail in front of the school so people cross at the light rather than from the middle of the block.

"I'm not guaranteeing safety 100 percent," said Mr. Strep, "but we've got about as much out here as I can possibly think of doing."

Police Activity

Nicholas Holden, deputy inspector and commanding officer of the second precinct, said police have issued 302 moving violations, 117 of which have been for speeding, in the area of Our Lady of Mercy from January 1 to May 15. This area is a two-to-three block range.

"Adjusting the speed limit down has helped a bit," said Mr. Holden. "It has given the officers a little more latitude in enforcing speed violations, making people a little more cautious."

He added that at this time, violations are "dropping off," indicating that the "message is getting through" to speeders in the area.

Resident Comments

One resident said that during Mass the parking lot is "horrendous" because it is "backed up like you wouldn't believe." He added that something should be done to improve traffic flow out of the parking lot.

Mr. Strep said that the county is proposing installing a tripper in the church's middle driveway, which would regulate the traffic lights at Columbia and Rochinich Farm Roads, so that drivers can leave the parking lots more efficiently and safely. Most of the 130 residents attending the meeting applauded to this proposal.

Another resident said that while traffic has slowed on South Oyster Bay Road in general, it has not in front of the school, and police should "give a lot more tickets than they are."

Also, the resident suggested installing "rumble strips," which are deep cuts in the pavement designed to slow traffic, but Mr. Holden said the noise and vibrations would greatly disturb nearby residents.

The one suggestion that was agreed upon by residents and engineers was the painting of "SCHOOL" on the north and south bound lanes before the school zone.

This sign at the southern-most exit of Our Lady of Mercy School was posted to increase traffic and pedestrian safety on South Oyster Bay Road.

Students Get a Lesson in Business

Hicksville High School, continuing the successful school/business partnership with Multiwire Corp., recently invited the corporation to address mathematics students planning careers in technology.

Leslie Mann, mathematics department chairperson called the event "an opportunity to hear about careers from people who are actually in them."

Evelyn Hnatov, director of human resources at Multiwire, addressed the students and then introduced five young employees to share their career experiences and recent college background. Speaking with the students were Jerry Nardiello, mechanical design engineer and Hicksville Alumni; Tom Weiss, software engineer; Ubi Cheung, development engineer; Mark Hnatov, development engineer manager; and Robin Schwartz application engineer.

The Multiwire employees each described their specialized areas of engineering and answered such questions as necessary college degrees and starting salaries in that particular field.

Memorial Day

Memorial means . . . memories of those who gave their lives during the wars. So many people are in military cemeteries for the most part, and they should be honored like that.

Men and women—but I think usually we think about the men—many dead before their time. At home sits the young bride, her eyes filled with tears. She holds a medal and looks at his picture. It is little consolation now, but she thinks "I must be strong now—our little baby, a symbol of our love, lies in the crib asleep, unaware that he or she will never know a father."

This child will see the photograph of a smiling young man who will never grow old, nor hold them close. The stories will be told about dad, the flags will wave, and a parade will soon start.

The Grapevine

By Gary Ryder

What will the 1988 vintage be like? Weather is the key variable, and the reports were mixed.

New York winemakers said the drought was ideal to produce exceptional grapes, though quantities were down. A summer hailstorm devastated 1,000 acres of vineyards upstate.

California had weather — all kinds. Growers reported the seasons wet then dry, cold then hot, then cold and hot again. Some of the wines are exceptional, but yield is down sharply. Prices may be up.

From France, the word is "good, if not great." Bordeaux celebrated its fourth good year in a row, and Burgundy predicts big, high-quality wines worth cellaring. Champagne yield is down but quality is high.

Italy reports exceptional wines, perhaps rivaling those of 1982. Quantities are down sharply, though. In Germany, both quality and quantity of harvest are up, and an exceptional vintage is expected. Spain had problems with mildew in the Rivera del Douro area.

The key to rum is sugar. It is distilled only from the fermented juice of sugar cane, cane syrup, cane molasses or other sugar cane products and, even when not sweet, has a distinctive flavor. Come on in for Memorial Day Party supplies. We also have ice for 99¢ a large 8lb. Bag!

They're Celebrating

The Duffy's will be having a very busy week this week. On May 25th Lee and Norman Duffy will be celebrating their wedding anniversary. . . . On May 27th Lee will be celebrating her birthday, and on May 31st their darlin' granddaughter Lauren Duffy will be celebrating her birthday. (Better light the oven, Lee and start baking those cakes).

Happy 25th Anniversary

It all started when Eileen Wieditz went to Hicksville High School—and met Donald Moore. Eileen graduated in 1963 and Don graduated in 1960. On April 25th, 1964 Eileen and Don became husband and wife. This year they celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at a surprise party given to them by their children Christine, Barbara Ann and Donald.

They certainly were surprised to see all their friends and family waiting for them. They would like to thank all who made the party special. The memories of the party will last forever—and Eileen and Don—here's a toast to you for never ending happiness.

Eileen and Don Moore

They're Proud

The family of Brian Lynch is so very proud to announce his graduation from the University of Dayton on April 30. Brian graduated Summa Cum Laude and received a B.S.B.A. degree with concentration in accounting. He received the Accounting Career Award as the student exhibiting great potential in the accounting profession.

As a junior, Brian was elected to membership in Beta Gamma Sigma, the national honor society for students of business and the Order of Omega, the Greek leadership honor society. He was also inducted into Beta Alpha Psi, the national accounting honor fraternity, for which he served as president.

Brian was also a member and founding father of the Iota Theta chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity. He was instrumental in obtaining the national charter and served as treasurer in his senior year.

Brian will begin his career in August with the accounting firm of Arthur Young & Co. in their New York City office.

Surprise, Surprise, Surprise

We received a very lovely note from Anne Rennert telling us that she and her husband Bob were honored at a surprise 40th wedding anniversary party given by their children Jim and Maureen Rennert of Selden and Terri and Richie Stamm of Amityville, a week before the actual May 7th date of their anniversary. She writes: "Our children did such a lovely job holding a surprise party in our home for us that I would publicly like to acknowledge their wonderful and loving gesture."

Among the guests were their grandchildren Jackie and Joey Rennert and Keith Stamm. Bob's sister Doris and her husband Ed Lynch came from Jersey; Anne's brother John Bardenhagen and his wife Marge from Hicksville, Anne and John Ormond of Levittown; former neighbors, Maureen and Joe Kusnasky, now of Huntington, as well as longtime friends and neighbors Harriet and Bill Maher, Evelyn and Tom Fico, Barbara and Frank DeStefano, Elaine and George Boyko, and Margaret Clancy were there to enjoy the festivities.

Anne says: "I still can't get over the shock and the happiness we experienced that evening. . . . we're still on 'Cloud Nine'."

Smart Seniors

John Renneisen, a Hicksville High School senior, won first place honors at the recent New York State Vocational Industrial Clubs of America Conference which attracted more than 2,250 occupational education students and featured a variety of leadership and skills competition.

John's award was for an occupational safety scrapbook, which included reports on four projects to promote safety habits in the classroom and on the job. A third year aviation student, John attends Nassau Tech's Bethpage Center.

Two other Hicksville seniors, Anthony Laurino, and Christine Critelli, also competed successfully. Anthony won a second-place as an advertising design contestant. He is a first-year student at Nassau Tech's Westbury Center, where he studies Commercial Art. Christine Critelli won a third-place trophy as a dental assisting contestant. She is a second year student also at the Westbury Center, where she studies Dental Assisting.

We're Proud Of Them

Navy Ensign Denise M. Rupp, daughter of Margaret and Robert Rupp, was graduated from the Navy Supply School in Athens, Georgia. During the 35-week course Denise was taught technical knowledge needed for duty with the Navy Supply Corps. She is a 1984 graduate of Holy Trinity High School and joined the Navy in May, 1988.

• Airman Charles Knapp Jr., son of Elizabeth and Charles Knapp of Hicksville, has graduated from Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, where he studied Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations. Charles is a 1988 graduate of Hicksville High School.

A New Baby In Hicksville

Maureen and Keith Mauldin are two of the newest parents in Hicksville. On March 20, Maureen gave birth to an 8 lb. 33 oz. son—Kyle James—born at Winthrop University Hospital in Mineola. Kyle will have two doting grandmothers watching over him: Eileen King of Hicksville and Gail Mauldin of Levittown.

Kyle James Mauldin

Named to Who's Who

Joyce Cedars, associate media director at Greenstone Rabasca Roberts, Inc. since 1987 has been named to Who's Who in the East. Joyce, a 20-year advertising veteran and a former educator, was elected for the '89 register.

A graduate of Hunter College, she is a former vice president and secretary of the Long Island Advertising Club. She's served on the club's board of directors and has been active in Women on the Job and Hicksville Against Drugs. An active member of the Hicksville Jewish Center, she was named Woman of Achievement by the Jewish Theological Seminary in 1973. Joyce lives in Hicksville with her husband, Andrew. They have two children.

Old, Old Friends

I went to an affair at St. Paul the Apostle Church in Brookville the other night and was delighted to see old, old friends. These four ladies have been friends for over 50 years—having grown up in Jericho and having "hung out" together while going to Hicksville High School, they are still friends after all these years. I'm referring to Jeanette (Briganti) Sadowski, Sophie (Sadowski) Hillston, Mimi (Wysolowski) Cuccaro, and Ruthie (Mayz) Lehman. This is the kind of closeness that was always associated with the folks growing up in Hicksville and the surrounding areas. Also with them was Jeanette's daughter Janice Pfeiffer.

He Loved His Brother!

Larry Redican coordinated a "Hoops for Hope" fund-raising basketball marathon in honor of his late brother, Liam Redican. $1300 was raised to benefit area programs of the Leukemia Society of America. This story started long ago.

Mary (Blyman) and Laurence Redican of North Massapequa, are the parents of three sons: Larry, the late Liam, and Matthew; a fifth grader, and a daughter, Mary, a freshman at Princeton University.

Laurence has been a teacher in the Hicksville school system for more than 25 years. Mary is the daughter of Clarence and Anna Blyman of Harrison Avenue, longtime Hicksville residents.

Larry is a 1987 graduate of Plainedge High School and a sophomore at SUNY Binghamton.

In September, 1987, shortly after he had started Packard Middle School, Liam was diagnosed as having acute lymphoblastic leukemia. Although he went into remission very quickly, he relapsed the following Spring. Liam was given a bone marrow transplant. The donor—his brother Larry. After a long, heroic and very painful fight (aided and eased by the many generous people from the Hicksville and Plainedge communities and schools who gave blood and platelets), Liam died July 31, 1988.

Larry, with the love of his brother still with him, donated the money to the Leukemia Society in honor of his brother.

A Note From Victoria

"Hum Lullabies of joy, Chant poems of praise, In our midst one day in May—a charming baby boy!"

Victoria writes: "Having gotten past the above 'trivia rhyme', we can now inform you that Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ranno of Hicksville are announcing the birth of our first grandson Philip James, son of Pamela and Vincent Giglio of Huntington, born on the 5th of May. We're so happy. . . ."

Former Hicksville-ite Turns 90

Joseph Subrek moved to Hicksville with his family early in 1920 (from Connecticut). His family consisted of his wife, Charlotte, his daughter Janet, and his son Bobby (who was killed in 1938). Another daughter, Mary Ann was born a few years later. Joseph lived in Hicksville for 56 years, the last 40 of them on Park Avenue (next to the store on the corner). There he raised some of the finest tomatoes—which he enjoyed sharing with his many friends.

In late 1985, he and Charlotte moved to Jarales, New Mexico to join their daughter and son-in-law, Janet and James McCue. Although ranch-style living seems to agree with him, he does miss his family, neighbors and old friends from Hicksville and the surrounding areas. Many of them still keep in touch with him.

He has his own living quarters and does some gardening, where he is now known for growing fine melons.

As evidenced by Mr. Subrek and so many others, the slow-paced atmosphere of long-ago Hicksville, must have been conducive to its many long-lived senior citizens.

Happy Birthday to you on June 6th, Mr. Subrek, from all your friends in Hicksville. May you have many, many more.

Joseph Subrek holding a puppy

Mary Hastings and Patrick Sullivan

Mary Hastings Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hastings are very pleased to announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Patrick Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sullivan of Williston Park, New York.

Mary is studying special education and is currently employed by BOCES in Plainview. Pat will be entering law school in the fall. He is presently with the New York City Transit Police.

Special Recognition

Ann McAllister of Hicksville received special recognition and a pin commemorating her five years of dedicated service to Literacy Volunteers of America-Nassau County, Inc. during the organization's 10th Annual Recognition Night April 12. Ann has tutored three adults during her five years with the program. She is currently tutoring a Basic Reading student on a one-to-one basis. She has received great satisfaction from working in this worthwhile program and said, "If you would like to experience such gratifying rewards call 486-2789."

TO YOUR HEALTH

By RICHARD H. BLAU, M.D.

Polymyalgia Rheumatica - A Disease Which Mimics Arthritis

Polymyalgia rheumatica, (PMR), is an illness which causes severe muscle pain, aching, and stiffness. This disorder usually affects women over the age of 50 years. Although the cause of PMR is not known, some rheumatologists (specialists in disorders of the muscles and joints) think that the illness may be inherited.

Patients with PMR suffer severe pain in the muscles of the neck, shoulders, arms, lower back, hips and thighs. Occasionally swelling of the joints may occur, mimicking certain forms of arthritis. The pain is worse in the morning and often makes getting out of bed a very difficult task.

By the time I see a patient with PMR, they are usually very depressed from being in so much pain for a long period of time. These patients may have led very active lives prior to their illness, and often feel frustrated at not being able to accomplish previously simple tasks.

The diagnosis of PMR requires a complete history and physical examination.

Often, several blood tests are required to aid in the diagnosis. One test, called the erythrocyte sedimentation rate, can be very helpful in confirming the diagnosis.

Closely associated with PMR is a disorder called Temporal Arteritis. This illness, which affects a percentage of patients with PMR, results from inflamed blood vessels. This inflammation may produce headaches or even visual problems.

Treatment for polymyalgia rheumatica centers around the use of medications which are able to reduce inflammation, and often begin to give significant relief within 24 to 48 hours.

Should you suspect that you have any of the above symptoms, you should consult your physician or rheumatologist.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach: An Arthritis Overview."

Gas Leak Causes Car Fire at Intersection

A gasline leak resulted in a car fire in front of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church at the intersection of Jerusalem Avenue and Old Country Road on Friday. A passing fire chief from Levittown spotted the fire and contacted Hicksville Fire Department. The black LeCar, occupied by two people who were not injured, was completely destroyed. One of the occupants, a graphics designer, managed to save her designs and a "Garfield" stuffed animal. Twenty-five Hicksville firefighters under the direction of Captain Robert Johnson I, and two engines responded to the fire about 11:50 a.m.

Graffiti Vandals Arrested

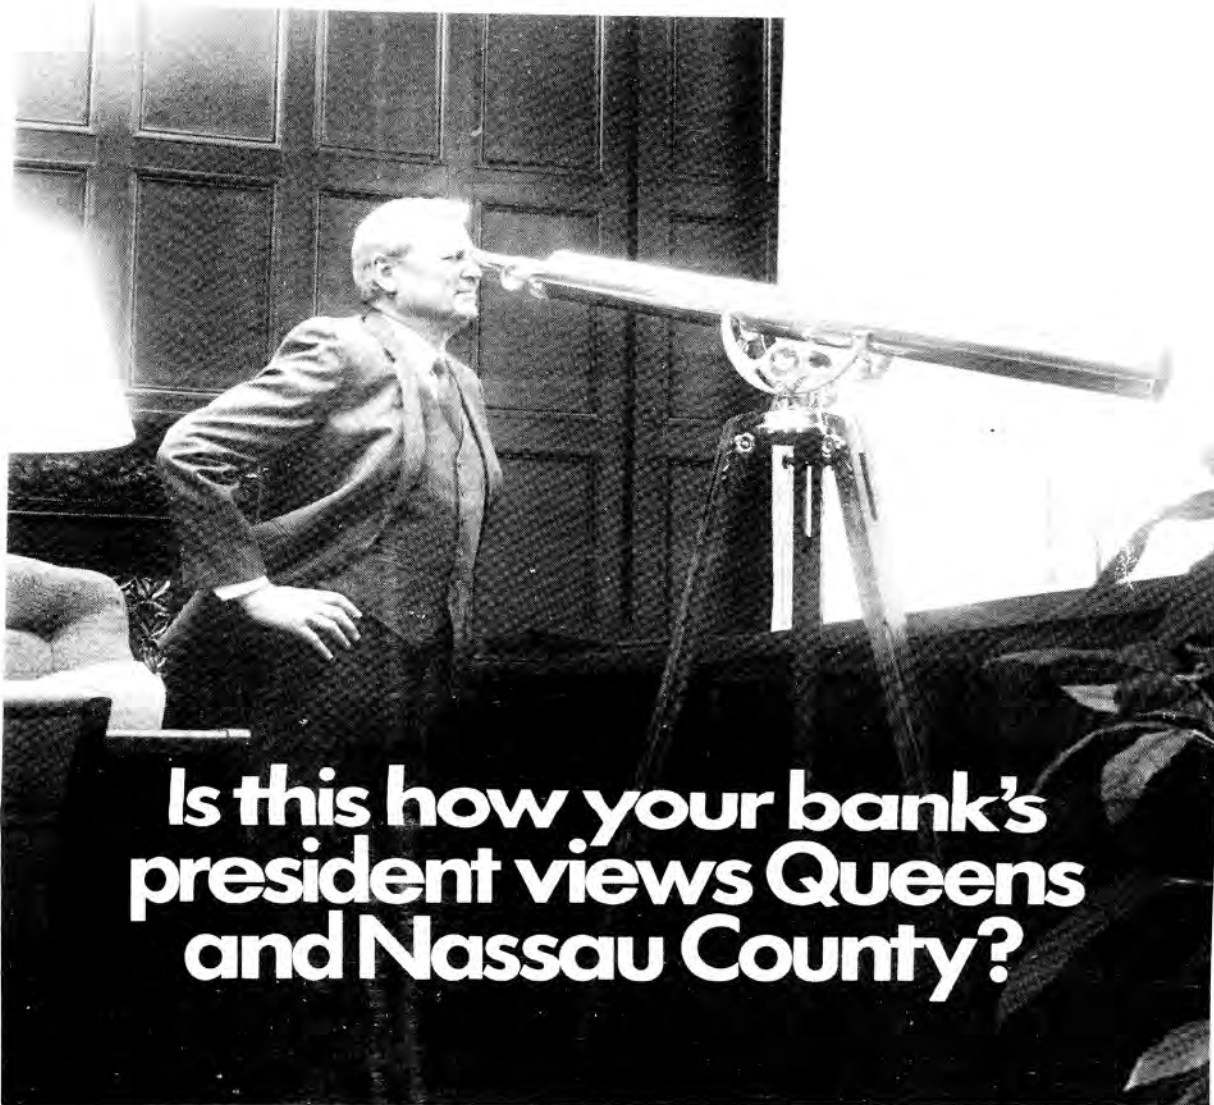

Five people arrested in Bellmore on May 8 for graffiti writing have been identified as the same group of youths who have been defacing the walls of schools and businesses in Hicksville, according to the school district.

Fourteen store fronts and at least four trucks along Sunrise Highway, between Newbridge Road and Thomas Place in Bellmore were spray painted with graffiti, causing about $1,500 in damage, said Seventh Precinct police. The five youths arrested for allegedly causing the damage were J. Hincley, Kenneth Coumou, Peter Savlas, Neil Goldfarb and Deborah Warshawsky.

The Hicksville School District had these same youths under surveillance for their possible involvement in the same activity in Hicksville. Comparisons of the graffiti committed in Bellmore with those found throughout Hicksville reveal that the same parties are responsible.

Officials at the school district have reported that they will press charges against the five youths to recover the amount of damage done through graffiti to the school buildings.

Is this how your bank's president views Queens and Nassau County?

While many banks have abandoned community banking, one bank has put the clout back into it.

The best bank is still the bank that knows its customers best.

Obviously you can't do that from a distance.

Which is why The Bank of New York has appointed a Divisional President for each county it serves. From now on, decisions involving your account will be made right here in Queens and Nassau counties, not in some remote headquarters. And for local businesses, that means top attention to your loan requests.

Our Nassau/Queens Division will also have its own Divisional Board, made up of community leaders who can counsel the President on the unique banking needs of the people who live and work here.

And our Divisional President has been given more resources to serve local businesses than any other bank in the county. For example, he's backed up by experienced commercial lenders and specialists in import/export financing and cash management.

The Bank of New York is committed to Queens and Nassau counties. The fact that we've made more bank eligible loans to local municipalities overall than any other bank in the greater New York area is evidence of that commitment. So is the fact that we have 46 branches in Queens and Nassau counties combined to serve your personal financial needs.

We even have a local full service trust office right here in Nassau county. So if you live, work, or own a business in Queens or Nassau counties, there's a bank that's ideally suited to your needs.

And you won't need a telescope to find it.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only. We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

From James Martillo

To The Editor:
I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of my workers and supporters in this year's election. You have shown that the spirit in Hicksville is still alive and ready to work for a better district.

During this election I noticed what a beautiful area Hicksville truly is. A community of sculptured lawns, nice houses and a very caring neighborhood. I'm proud to represent the Hicksville residents.

This election proved something. It showed us that the people are unhappy, the senior citizens are unhappy, our board of education is unhappy and now our children will be unhappy due to the defeated budget. I know you can't please everyone, but you can make an effort to reach out to the community and remember that you are representing their voice, and that's what I intend to do. So please contact me with your complaints and I will work my hardest for answers and resolutions to your problems.

We are in a time of community unrest. We are faced with educational problems, the safety and welfare of the children before and after school is a problem, the asbestos removal program will surely hurt us, so we need to look at areas where we can save money in years to come.

I had a group of volunteers who gave me their time and energy and now it's my turn to work hard for them. We have a lot of work ahead of us, but I know if we can be a united group, we can get through the hard times. If the community sees that we are willing to save money on the budget then maybe they will support the budget. Many districts are changing over to their own buses, this is an area I know that we can definitely save money in years to come. No area should be omitted from scrutiny. If we can cut and still give the children a good education then we should seriously look into these areas.

I urge all of you, please come to board meetings, there is much that will interest you. Your letters and phone calls will be gladly welcomed.

James Martillo

School Sportswear

To The Editor:

I recently tried to purchase a jacket with the Hicksville colors from two local sport stores in Hicksville. It was then that I was informed that there was not enough interest in this area for the stores to stock such items. One store said they did not want to compete with the other store. They thought this other store stocked Hicksville items. I would think that if there is a competing store in the area, the managers would know what is being stocked.

I think it is a disgrace that school teams and interested parties would have to go to outside sources for these items because merchants in this area will not supply our colors.

I challenge these stores and all merchants of Hicksville to stock our school colors and have them available for the consumer to purchase. I would also urge other members of the community to become aware of this situation and let the local merchants know we are not happy with this arrangement.

Mrs. Timothy Glover

Civic Association Dues

To The Editor:

The time has come again for Northwest Civic Association members to pay their annual dues for the 1989-90 calendar year. We will be looking forward to seeing you and hope you will bring in new members. As you know your dues pay for mailing, printing expenses and our liability insurance.

It is vital that we are strong in community affairs and have our voices heard. It is an opportunity that we have as citizens, to express our feelings and viewpoints. We will only be heard and taken seriously in numbers. Don't throw that right away!

After a long hard fight we finally received the re-zoning of our school on Burns Avenue.

We have another serious fight facing us. Our Fire Commissioners plan to remove Co. 6 from our firehouse. The Commissioners say they do not plan to close our fire house, "at this particular time." If we do not voice our opposition in numbers, they will know the feelings of only a few. We do have a number of other problems facing us and a few that we have to finish dealing with.

The Northwest Civic Organization feels that there is only one way to reach our goal for a safe, healthy and proud community to live in: That is to stay involved as a community. To feel your voice is not important or fighting would be fruitless is wrong. Our meetings are only one night a month. Please join us.

Jo-Ann Broska, Officer
Northwest Civic Association

Thanks For the Votes

To The Editor:

I wish to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you who either voted for, or supported, me for election to the Hicksville School Board. Unfortunately, my desire to serve the community as a member of the school board was denied at the voting booth. However, I am still fortunate to be able to serve the Hicksville community in my current activities.

The new board will be faced with many difficult decisions. I wish them well in their deliberations and hope that their decisions will be made with the utmost concern for our community.

Thomas J. McGovern

To Preparers of Budget

To The Editor:

Fifty-four percent of the Hicksville residents have voiced their opinion on the School Budget and they say enough is enough.

I take exception to James Martillo's comment that those who voted NO are "...taking this out on the children..." This is just not true!!

Residents truly can no longer bear the burden of high teacher and administrative salaries and fringe benefits. Take a good look at the analysis of the proposed budget published a few weeks ago. The largest increases are in these areas.

How can you possibly justify a $2,800,000 increase when enrollment is declining?

Come on...trim some of the fat off the budget, shop around for a less costly fringe benefit plan, search for less costly equipment suppliers and cut down on some of the frills without hurting the kids.

Asking the students—who spend so much money at the Mall on jewelry, designer clothes, fast food, records, cosmetics—to contribute a few dollars towards their dances, sports equipment is not unreasonable.

What is unreasonable is asking senior citizens some of whom are barely eating and paying their bills, to pay for these frills.

Stop blaming the "No" voters and get the budget in line. It CAN be done with careful cost analysis.

Linda Higgins

School Board Elections

To The Editor:

On May 18 Bill Bennett wrote to you about the recent school board elections. After reading his letter, I have one question: Is WEDTEC coming to Hicksville? The HCT, CSEA and the Teachers Aide Unit (WEDTEC) contributed to the election of James Martillo and William Collins (MARIO BIAGGI) for "future considerations" (ie: TEACHERS' CONTRACTS). Is there a difference?

I am strongly opposed to any organization which stands to directly gain from a school board member who they support either monetarily or otherwise. We must prevent this type of cancer from spreading in our system. The ultimate victims are the children of Hicksville. The unions win - the children lose. Don't let this happen. Speak out silent majority.

Bob Kiernan

Elective Process

To The Editor:

The letter by Mr. Bennett, school board trustees, on May 18 regarding contributions by the Hicksville Congress of Teachers and the Teachers Aide Unit toward the election of school board candidates raises some very important questions about our elective process to the Hicksville School Board.

First of all, I question the legality of what are, in effect, unions contributing to the election of a candidate.

Secondly, as a member of a union I am well aware of the need for what many unions call a Political Action Committee. The purpose of this committee is to seek out and endorse a candidate who they feel has, or will, vote favorably on issues affecting that union. However, when a union, or Congress, Aide Unit, or Association, contributes either money or manpower toward the election of a candidate, I feel that the representative organization has "bought" a seat for that office and I question the ethics of the people accepting the contribution.

The Hicksville Congress of Teachers and the Teacher Aide Unit have been active participants in prior years elections and I think that they have overstepped their limits, both legally and ethically, by their involvement in the elective process of our school board members. Candidates for the school board should arise from, and represent, our community and not be "bought" by a special interest group which stands to gain by the decisions of those who they support. I hope that someone looks into the legality of this issue so as to restore trust in our governmental process and our representatives.

Quick Fact
This is the most commonly written word in English.

Did you know that the busiest emergency fire box in Hicksville is at the intersection of Old Country Road and Jerusalem Avenue. If you are ever in trouble and are near that intersection, simply pull the lever on the bright red box, which has two white strips, and the Hicksville Fire Department will come to your rescue. A fire department spokesman said that the intersection is very hazardous and a lot of accidents do happen there. Proceed with caution.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...I recently heard a priceless story about one of the outrageous things that kids will do—and this is a very old-time story...Years ago, and maybe even today, boys loved to make slingshots—and, as everyone knows—one makes a slingshot with a forked piece of wood, some rubber—maybe a slice of an old tire—and a piece of leather for the middle of the rubber to hold the stone or other ammunition and to speed it on its way—Well, this young man had all the ingredients, except the leather...Searching around he came upon his mother's shoes—Do you remember when mothers wore high shoes with laces and those little hooks that the laces went around as you wound them up to tie the bow at the top—and under the laces there was a piece of leather to back up the laces and make a nice neat appearance?...This piece of leather was called a tongue...Have you guessed?...My young man with the slingshot cut the tongues from his mother's shoes and had wonderful leather to finish off his weapon...And can you imagine the consternation of the mother when she laced up her shoes only to find unsightly gaps between each lace...And the young man—was he contrite?...Not at all—all he could say was that he couldn't see the slightest need for those tongues anyway!!!

Yours, Lulabelle

NO COMMISSION INVESTING

Many of us lose a grand opportunity to invest without commissions. How? Easy, very easy. You buy it from the company.

Dr. Joseph P. Frey

Years ago I accumulated a list of over 250 companies that allowed their shareholders to buy stock directly from the company. Companies that do this, and they include most of the larger companies, will send you a form at least once a year asking if you want to invest in additional shares. Some companies do it more often.

If you own 1 share or more, this privilege is open to you. All you have to do is send them a check for any amount of money up to their maximum. The maximum is not an inconsiderable amount. Most of the stocks that I own allow me to invest up to $35,000 a year without commissions. Some charge a very small fee of about $5.00. They invest only on one day for each quarter. The records are carried by the company; the dividends are reinvested; and you can own fractional shares.

If you want or need money, they will send you cash or shares. Each firm has different procedures, but you have complete command of your stock. If you want to make a gift to someone, you follow the procedure that they have and they will effect the transfer free of charge. If you want to be more dramatic and give the shares in certificate form, they will send them to you and you can convey them to anyone you want. You can leave all of your stock with each company or you can take the certificates.

Having the shares in a brokerage house is a little easier, but it is not complicated. It is much less expensive. Why would a firm do this? Why would they go to this expense for you? There are several reasons. First, all firms have a need for additional cash to finance their growth. Getting it from their stockholders is an excellent source. Second, they do not have to pay the investment banker to raise the money they get directly from you, so it saves them money. Third, in this day of corporate mergers and takeovers, it is a good way to have satisfied stockholders who will vote for management. So it is a good deal for everyone. Look at your mail next time you get it from a company that you own part of. You may save yourself some commission dollars.

THE SEMINAR - May 10, 1989

More than 125 people signed up for the seminar. If you will remember, May 10 was a miserable night, cold and heavy rain with considerable road flooding. Only 54 people showed up. We started five minutes late for some latecomers (7:35). We did not finish until 11:30. At that time there were still 25 people in the audience.

As advertised we discussed the taxpayers IRS Bill of Rights and the Medicare Act of 1988.

This law does not give us complete coverage for catastrophic coverage. Because of this, I asked an insurance agency owner friend to discuss how to close the gap. The solution: I was surprised that he said that there is not an insurance policy sold in the state of New York that adequately does this. Why? The present policies use the Social Security language for nursing care and, therefore, they do not have to pay for most coverage. To use his expression, most HAVE been "ripoffs." There is help on the way, however. By the end of the summer there will be policies by most companies to close the gap. They just have not yet been approved by the State. After the IRS and the insurance broker had finished, I discussed INVESTING TODAY. I made some remarks about the trends in the stockmarkets, up and down, but a trend up. I fearlessly said that a DOW of 3000 and 4000 was more than likely, but I did not know when. I went into dollar-cost averaging as the way to invest smartly. After that, it was questions about gold, real estate, mutual funds, taxes, etc., through to the end. We discussed some individual stocks I made some suggestions about some of the better no-load mutual funds for the audience to invest in for the future. All in all, it was a fun night for me and a beneficial night for the brave souls who came despite the miserable weather. I thank one and all for coming. Want another? ROBERT R. McMILLAN'S

Direct Line

Each day, we produce about one hundred and twenty million pounds of garbage in the metropolitan area—about six pounds per person. That translates into twenty two million tons a year! As a nation, we produce more waste per capita than any other country in the world. Because of our affluence, we think very little about sending our garbage off to exotic "retirement" locations such as Canada and South Carolina. Waste is also shipped to Ohio and Pennsylvania. A little while ago, we even packed some on a barge, and it went on an all-expense-paid round trip to the sunny Caribbean.

A great deal of our waste is incinerated. And there are now efforts to recycle much of it. Recycling is "in".

While there is little doubt that our waste could be better handled, it would be difficult for everyone to build a compost pile in his backyard. On the other hand, it is an easy exercise to separate out metal cans, glass, and newspapers. Even with a bottle deposit law, many soda and beer cans are placed in with other waste. Because of our affluence, it is simpler to toss the can in the garbage than to return it.

I am sympathetic to those who urge us to recycle more. With more education and the proper facilities, we can recycle most of our newspapers, metal cans, and glass. Even if there is no ready market for some of these materials, the economics are close to tipping in favor of recycling because of the ability to downsize incinerators.

Now, incinerators are another whole subject. I understand why some people don't want them in their backyard. They should always be built in the other person's backyard. The problem is that we are running out of "backyards." Other states and Canada do not want our garbage. Hospitals and other health care facilities have another whole set of challenges. It is very difficult to recycle an amputated arm or red bag waste.

There are some sensible things we can do. First, we should soon try to eliminate as much landfilling as possible. Instead of landfilling, let's concentrate on more waste to energy facilities and more recycling. The technology is here now. Why not create a New York State Waste Disposal and Resource Recovery Authority to deal with these issues on a regionalized basis? There is no reason why every city and town should have to reinvent the wheel on building such facilities.

Let's also take a look at changing the tax structure to encourage businesses to use more recycling materials. Right now, the tax laws encourage the use of new raw materials in the manufacturing process. There is no reason why a tax incentive should not be enacted to provide credits for those industries using recycled materials. The result would be a greater demand for recyclable materials and a reduction in the size of future incinerators. A tax credit for the use of recycled materials seems so obvious; I cannot imagine why it has not been given attention in Albany and Washington.

Americans tend to be procrastinators. We often put our heads in the sand and hope a problem goes away. Waste disposal is one problem which is not about to go away, and we should deal with it before we are buried.

Students Attend Human Rights Conference

Terri Glynn and Bob Allen attended a Human Rights Conference at Hofstra University.

Hicksville High School students Robert Allen and Terri Glynn (both 11th graders) and Nancy DeSorbo, Director of Student Activities, attended a conference dealing with Human Rights at Hofstra University, on March 10. The theme of the conference was "Your Rights Are My Responsibility."

Many guest speakers lectured at the conference, including James Henke, the managing editor of Rolling Stone Magazine. Guest speakers discussed racial tensions in the local high schools.

Afternoon sessions were broken into separate workshops where participants further discussed racial problems and came up with possible solutions. To foster better communications between students, staff and community, the idea of promoting human relations assemblies and human relations days was suggested.

Legionnaires' Log

By Greg Bennett
Charles Wagner, Pos. 421, Hicksville

We owe a great debt to every American fighting man and woman who have given their life in defense of our nation. In 1959, then Charles Wagner Auxiliary President Ethel Habenicht penned the following poem as Memorial Day approached:

May is the month of memories
Of poppies and flags in the breezes
For those who have crossed the great border
To rest after their victories
There is many a tear unshed
When the sun dips its color at evening
Like the poppy, its color is red.

We know as each day draws its curtain
When Old Glory is lowered and blessed
Some Mother's heart holds the answer

She knows you have done your best.

Yes, May is the month of memories
Of years that have flown by,
but our heavenly father remembers
each year, each heart and each sigh.

He remembers the boy you cared for,
How he prayed "Dear God" as he died,
For you Dear Mom he is waiting
On that shore on the other side.

Yes, May is the month of memories,
Of poppies and flags in the breezes
For Moms and families and sweethearts
For the pug-nosed kid and a tease.
He rests in a spot not forsaken.
For there poppies bloom day by day
He rests knowing your thoughts are with him
On this day—the 30th of May.

—Ethel Habenicht

A Message From the Hicksville Fire Dept.

The Hicksville Volunteer Fire Department once again requests your support in its annual fund drive. In the past, the residents have been most generous and we look forward to your support in 1989.

Your firefighters give freely of themselves in all ways and risk their lives in the performance of their duties for which they receive no compensation nor is any expected. These neighbors stand ready each day and night of the year to guard you and your loved ones against the ravages of fire and disaster. In the past year, the Fire Department responded to 1,284 appeals for aid. Fires accounted for 734 of these calls, while Rescue and Emergency calls totaled 550. There were 99 Malicious False Alarms last year.

Your contribution will be used for our Welfare Fund and other necessary expenses not covered by your tax money. For these activities, we depend solely upon your generosity.

As our mailing to your homes are in progress we appreciate any donation you can afford. Please make your contribution today. With your help, we will continue to provide the protection that the community of Hicksville needs and deserves.

Please Note: We do not authorize any outside organization to solicit donations to the Hicksville Fire Department. All Fire Department members are equipped with proper identification, and at your request they will produce their I.D.

Hicksville Elks Add A Special Touch to Youths' Lives

The Hicksville Elks have again made local youths feel special. This month the Elks hosted a youth night party and a Teenager of the Month contest.

The party featured a magician and some great soccer ball tricks by the Long Island Soccer League. Guests included sports teams the Elks sponsor, and the children and grandchildren of Elks members.

The Teenager of the Month recognition luncheon honored high school students from Bethpage, Farmingdale, Hicksville, Holy Trinity, Island Trees and Jericho.

For Hicksville High School, the following students were winners. For the month of October: Karen Kratochvil who was also a runner-up for the Teenager of the Year award; For month of November: Lisa Grillo, January: John Fabrizio, February: Sean Nguyen, March: Ronald Arienza, April: Nauman Shah, and for the month of May, Paul Aversano.

Boardman, for January: Lorraine Marney, for February: James Mundy, who was also a runner-up for the Teenager of the Year award, for the month of March: Elizabeth Ortiz, and for April: Joseph S. Rogale.

Each student received a citation from Oyster Bay Town Supervisor, Angelo Dellagatti. The citations were presented on behalf of Mr. Dellagatti by John Budnick, special council to the Nassau County Board of Supervisors. The Elks awards were presented to the students by Bob Stenson, Teenager of the Month coordinator. The youth activities chairman, Arthur H. Senior, Assemblyman Joe L. Parola, and two representatives from the Hicksville Youth Council, executive director Barbara Dale and Pat Schussler, social worker.

Marco Berrios Receives Honors in Competition

Marco Berrios, a student in Mrs. Linda Wienfeld's Spanish I class at the Hicksville Middle School, has received honors in the National Spanish Examination Competition, an event sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese.

Berrios competed against students in Spanish Level I classes from other schools on Long Island in order to come away with this honor.

Several other students in Mrs. Wienfeld's class also competed: Jennifer Hisgen, Sarah Guerrero, Adam Firester, Amy Entel, Lori De Riso, Mark Sethna, Wendy Fusco, Ed Russo, Chris Kemmlin, Shabana Master, Michelle Leavitt, Sarah Barnard, Danielle Hagan, Vikram Habbu, Walter Gaylor, Melissa Watkins, Patricia Cuci and Sajesh Paratheth.

The competition consisted of an 80 question examination, part of which was listening to a tape recording of Spanish descriptions spoken by both Native and American speakers and choosing answers to questions based on information given on the tapes to be matched to multiple choice pictures, as well as reading comprehension passages, grammatical structures and listening to situations which had to be interpreted correctly.

The awards were presented on Thursday, May 18, at Jericho High School.

Local Families Attend Math Conference

Nassau County Mathematics Teachers Association and Nassau County Association of Mathematics Supervisors recently co-sponsored a Family Math Day Conference at the South Woods Middle School in Syosset. This event received much support from the East Rockaway, Oceanside and Syosset School Districts. More than 400 people from all parts of Nassau County attended this interesting conference, including 42 parents and children from the Hicksville School District.

Leslie Mann, chairperson of the math department at Hicksville, is a member of the committee responsible for organizing this event. Mr. Mann is also a member of the Nassau County Mathematics Teachers Association and the Nassau County Association of Math Supervisors.

Parents and children had a rare opportunity to investigate and enjoy a wide variety of new and exciting mathematics topics. The goals of promoting parent and child interest in math education, encouraging greater interaction between children and their parents in mathematics, providing materials for ongoing home involvement in math activities, and presenting the "delights of discovery" inherent in math were achieved in all of the workshops. Leading Long Island educators and Fred Paul, chief of the Math Bureau of the State Education Department, presented about 30 workshops.

Our Lady of Mercy Teachers Honored for Service

Six teachers from Our Lady of Mercy who have given to Catholic education for more than 25 years were honored by the Diocesan School Office.

These dedicated teachers assert that Catholic education involved personal contracts and commitments which stimulate the students to pull together by the use of intelligence.

The school congratulates its teachers and wishes them the very best for giving of themselves to the children and parish: Sister Mary Albert, Sister Elizabeth Slattery, Sister Patricia O'Connell, Sister Joan Doody, Sister Mary Joanne and Sister Mary Jeannine.

The OLM family also recognizes Monsignor James Boesel. Monsignor helped shape the lives of many parishioners and students.

Memorial Day

The drums begin their Rhythmic beat.
The parade begins to proceed,
Down the street.
It's Memorial Day, a day
To reflect.
As the soldiers march by, there are
Cheers of respect.
Some young,
Some old,
So many stories
Untold.
These brave soldiers, march
Proudly by.
Why do so many of Them cry?
The memories come back of the Pain they've endured,
The losses they've suffered, for Freedom insured.
There are many missing, where
Can they be?
They unselfishly gave of their lives,
For you and for me.
This year while you stand by the edge
Of the street,
And the marchers, march by to
The rhythmic beat.
Enjoy the parade, have fun,
Give a cheer.
Just remember for one moment,
The men and women that are
No longer here.

The Great Pyramids of East Street School

By Brad Jaworski

East Street Elementary School recently completed its tumbling unit under the direction of physical education teachers Brad Jaworski and Rory Lawlor.

For three weeks, the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grade children learned various individual free exercise stunts along with balancing and team stunts.

The unit culminates, with the much enjoyed building of the great pyramids. The children must use strength, balance and planning in a coordinated effort to build these pyramids.

Science Projects

Miss Saxon's fourth grade class at East Street School held a science fair recently. Inventive and creative applications of basic battery circuit facts helped make the fair challenging and interesting. Many of the students enjoyed the hands-on experience.

The 'Jump for Heart' fund-raiser gave the children of Lee Avenue School the opportunity to have an afternoon of fun jumping rope while raising money for the American Heart Association.

The students asked for donations from their families and friends and then jumped to some of their favorite music while exercising their cardio-vascular system. John Constantine led his team to victory with $115 in donations. Other members of the winning team were: Rod Carolan, David Wiercinski, Robert Morace, Ken Binick and Robert Haddad. A total of 10 teams jumped, raising $1,385. The PTA supplied the oranges to keep the kids' energy levels up while jumping. Miss Feuerstein would like to thank the PTA plus the faculty volunteers—Mrs. Dalo, Ms. Eisen, Mrs. Nicolich, Mr. Magrane and Mr. Skupinsky—for an outstanding job in making this a very successful afternoon.

Champion Swimmer

Weekends are usually days in which everyone takes a break and relaxes a little, but for Gregory Quinlan, a third grader in Mrs. Simon's class at Lee Avenue, one weekend a few weeks ago was a very rewarding one for the 8-year-old swimmer.

Gregory competed in the New York State Swimming Championships held at SUNY Cortland and placed first in both the 50 yard and 25 yard freestyle. He also won a fourth place medal in the intermediate medley.

Gregory not only does well in swimming, but enjoys other sports and is now participating in the new lacrosse league in Hicksville.

Everyone at Lee is proud of Gregory's outstanding achievement.

Rev. Ted Grant Speaks At Kiwanis Club Meeting

On Wednesday May 10, the Rev. Dr. Theodore S. Grant was the third guest clergyman to be invited to speak to the Hicksville Kiwanis Club during the program initiated by the chairman of the Spiritual Aims Committee, Effie Krogmann. The purpose of this monthly program is to invite local clergymen to address a Kiwanis meeting and briefly explain and/or discuss what their denomination believes and how they function.

Rev. Grant is the pastor of Redeemer Lutheran Church located on New South Road in Hicksville. Judging by the questions from the audience after Pastor Grant's discussion, as well as the attention during his talk, it was obvious that the Kiwanis Club members appreciated the information being presented and shared with them.

Post-Abortion Stress

By Dr. Maryann B. Schaeffer

There are few issues in our American society today which are more emotionally charged than the issue of abortion. In order to examine it objectively, we must put aside our feelings long enough to be able to understand more clearly what is involved.

Some people believe that you can have an abortion and there will be no effects on you whatsoever. Others believe that the effects are long-term and far-reaching. Still other people believe that, regardless of what they consciously avow, they have taken the life of a significant person, their own child. These people, both men and women, often acknowledge the anniversary of the abortion and the scheduled birth date. Some have even given names to their children. Although there is limited scientific data regarding this matter, there are many men and women who have experienced their abortions as traumatic and who could benefit from professional assistance.

The United States has the largest number of unplanned pregnancies of any country in the world. Here are some noteworthy statistics regarding this fact: approximately 23 million abortions have been performed since the procedure was legalized in 1973; approximately 1.6 million abortions are performed annually. The average woman having an abortion is between 15 and 24, middle-class, and childless. On the national basis 1 out of 2 teenagers who become pregnant has an abortion. On Long Island 70% of the pregnant teenagers have abortions. The Long Island rate is 20% above the national average.

Post Abortion Syndrome (PAS) consists of a series of symptoms which fall under the American Psychiatric Association's definition of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), DSM III 309.89. According to Dr. Vincent Rue, Dr. Anne Speckhard, and Dr. Arthur Shostak, amongst others, these symptoms are commonly experienced by women who have had one or more abortions and by men whose wives or girlfriends have aborted.

The common symptoms include broken primary relationships, feelings of detachment or estrangement from others, sexual dysfunction, depression and a sense of loss.

Heart Technology at St. Francis Hospital

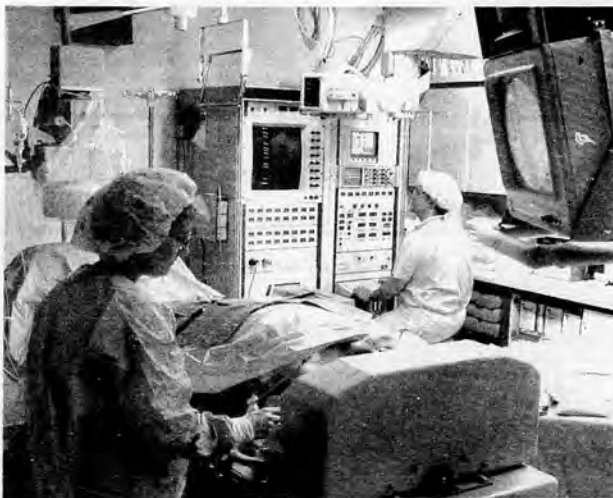

Electrophysiology is the key to heart monitoring and treatment at St. Francis' new Arrhythmia and Pacemaker Center. Doctors and cardiology technicians offer consultative services to diagnose, risk stratify and manage the entire gamut of heart beat problems, pacemaker implants, and implant diagnosis.

The controlled hospital setting will assure in- and outpatients of state-of-the-art treatment for certain dangerous arrhythmias, in this extraordinary electrophysiology laboratory.

Medical disasters caused by sudden, uncontrolled rhythm disturbances occur 600,000 times a year in the U.S. "By utilizing the latest electrophysiological tools, new medications, and the implantable defibrillator," says Dr. Joseph Levine, Director of the Center, "these incidents can often be predicted, even prevented," he commented.

"Part of our goal at the Center is to distinguish between life threatening and less risky disturbances," Dr. Levine said. "Today's highly skilled electrophysiology specialists have made dramatic impact on survival statistics. Using the right algorithm of therapies, we can reduce today's 40% recurrence factor to five and sometimes three percent."

"In the past two years," Dr. Levine noted, "there has been marked improvement in arrhythmia drugs, and the newest approved medications are available here at the Center." Services will include implantation of the new, automatic defibrillators...miniature devices which activate instantly on detection of life threatening arrhythmias.

The St. Francis facility will provide hands-on checkups and will offer telephone-telemetry for off-site monitoring, offering heart patients new hope and the latest in cardiac technology and treatment.

Elder Care Program Begins at Chase

With more than twenty-five million U.S. Citizens over 65, roles for all concerned—the aged, family members, health and social service organizations and the government—have become more fragmented than fortified. Corporate Counseling Associates (CCA) has created an Elder Care Program that not only provides counseling services, but unravels the mysteries, red tape and latest legislation that affects the elderly, their families and the corporations that share in the effects of problems-at-home.

Robert Levy, CCA co-founder with Gene Cooper, announced today that an Elder Care Program has been launched at Chase Manhattan Bank. Under the aegis of Chase's Employee Assistance Program (EAP), any Chase employee has the opportunity to call the CCA hotline number and discuss the problems of an elderly relative.

CCA's network of private care professionals is nationwide. According to Bob Levy, "Today's family members are not always located in one household, so a son in New York can now be assured that his mother in Phoenix is well taken care of, and that a viable plan of action is put into place that is comfortable and beneficial to both generations."

"A Private Care Manager assists the family develop a plan to benefit all parties," he notes. For the older person, it can provide crisis counseling and access to emergency services. A geriatric specialist assesses the medical, psychiatric, residential and financial profile of the elder. Based on the findings, referrals are then suggested which can fulfill the requirements needed for the situation. This may include professionals, organizations, community resources and state and federal agencies. And on the employee side, the major directive is to minimize, as much as possible, the impact of the trauma on his emotional well being and ability to function at work.

PCMs come from backgrounds in social work, nursing or gerontology related fields. The route to finding a PCM professional is varied with referrals from local welfare and health agencies, the social work staff of the local hospital or respected companies such as CCA. While Medicare, Medicaid and private insurance companies will not cover the cost of a PCM, an employee of a company which has a contract with a dependent care provider will most likely pick up all or at least part of the cost.

Corporate Counseling Associates also offers the Elder Care program to families who are not affiliated with Chase. A Private Care Manager, a specialist in the needs of the aging and their families, offers the family the same intensive intake procedure, the same extensive background in services for the elderly and their families, and the same well planned plan of action. There is a nominal fee for non-employees, and families can get complete details by calling CCA at 212-686-6827.

psychosomatic ailments, e.g. abdominal cramping, non-hormonally based premenstrual tension, nightmares, and a deterioration of self-image.

The process of denial permits the woman and/or the man to block the natural grieving process for the death of a significant other, one's child. Oftentimes, the symptoms themselves are not clearly connected to the cause. In many cases, one not only refrains from speaking of the abortion, but, if asked, would say that it has nothing to do with the problem at hand. Thus, anyone with a history of abortion may evidence PAS symptoms without having any awareness of its relation to the abortion.

Right or wrong, pro-life or pro-abortion is not the issue. The issue is the proper diagnosis and treatment for anyone with this history. The trauma of Post-Abortion Syndrome can be effectively addressed through psychotherapy, which provides the guidance to accept the reality and the opportunity to process the grief that has been suppressed. Through the therapeutic process the residual effects can be minimized as the trauma is recognized, accepted, and integrated in a positive manner into one's life.

Regardless of whether or not a person speaks of the abortion, a man or woman who has experienced one may be in denial and/or in pain, may be unaware of the underlying cause of the distress, and most likely is in need of psychotherapy.

Dr. Maryann B. Schaefer is a psychotherapist in private practice with offices in Manhasset and Manhattan.

OPTIFAST AT CENTRAL GENERAL HOSPITAL

No one ever lost weight permanently through willpower alone. No one!

If willpower were all it took to lose weight, your first diet would have been your last. But, with few exceptions, even the most determined dieters regain the weight they lost.

Now, you can lose weight and keep it off with The OPTIFAST® Program. The OPTIFAST Program is a hospital-based supplemented fasting program that combines a nutritionally complete diet supplement, diet counseling, behavior modification and group support.

Most important of all, The OPTIFAST Program involves the close, on-going attention of physicians, nurses and other medical professionals. 200,000 people have participated in The OPTIFAST Program of weight loss. Studies have shown that up to 80% of OPTIFAST® treated patients may lose more than this amount; the average loss is 85 pounds.

But even more encouraging is the fact that in some people, long-term weight maintenance—the most important part of obesity treatment, is accomplished in The OPTIFAST Program.

If you're more than 30% or 50 pounds overweight, please call 932-6250 and receive complete details about The OPTIFAST Program. You supply the willpower you've always had. We supply the medical support you've always missed.

Surgicenter Offers Alternative To Hospital In-patient Surgery

By Keni Woodruff

Patients seeking alternatives to costly, time consuming hospital based surgical procedures can now receive state-of-the-art, multi-specialty care at a one-of-a-kind facility in Melville, L.I. Surgicenter, the first one-day, free standing ambulatory surgical center in Suffolk.

Staffed by Board qualified physicians, the center offers state-of-the-art equipment, four operating rooms, recovery and post-recovery rooms, a separate children's recovery room, and a lounge for friends and/or family members.

Under the medical direction of Dr. Ronald Perrone, L.I. Surgicenter handles a variety of surgical procedures, including breast, hernia, podiatric, orthopedic, vascular and vein surgery, arthroscopy, plastic and reconstructive surgery, endoscopic procedures, eye and dental surgery, and general surgery.

"Fees are generally 25% to 35% lower than those of a hospital," says Dr. Perrone, "and patients are released and back in the comfort of their own homes the same day. Today," he comments, "nearly half of all surgical procedures can be performed on an outpatient basis, and the concept of surgery outside the traditional hospital setting is gaining support throughout the medical community."

Technical advances, such as laser surgery, medications that speed recovery, early diagnosis, and the soaring costs of hospital care have contributed to the growth of outpatient surgery and home recovery.

L.I. Surgicenter, located at 1895 Walt Whitman Rd., Melville, is staffed by 14 full-time professionals. Only Board Certified and Board Eligible physicians received operating privileges, and the center's credentials committee conducts an extensive evaluation of each candidate prior to acceptance. For further information, call 203-9700.

The bidding:

Opening lead — six of spades.

The Rule of Eleven is a handy gadget that can be used to advantage by either side. Here is an unusual case that demonstrates the value of the rule.

West leads the six of spades, dummy following low, and the question is what East should play on this trick. If he plays the ten, which is probably what most players would do, declarer makes the contract by establishing clubs and ultimately gets his ninth trick by leading a spade to dummy's nine.

But let's suppose that East is a devout disciple of the Rule of Eleven and understands its workings perfectly. In that event, after West leads the six of spades and dummy follows suit with the three, East plays the five!

The effect of this startling play is that South goes down one. Declarer wins and attacks clubs, whereupon West takes the ace and plays another low spade. If the queen is played from dummy, East quickly defeats the contract by playing the king, followed by the ten; if the nine is played from dummy, East wins with the ten, cashes the king, and returns the queen of diamonds, leaving South with only eight tricks.

In applying the Rule of Eleven (which assumes that the lead is fourth-best), East deducts the number of the card led from eleven, which tells him that there are five cards higher than the six in the North, East and South hands.

East sees two of them in dummy and two of them in his own hand, so he knows that South has only one spade higher than the six. On the bidding, this card must be the ace (or at least the jack), and East can therefore safely play the five. His frugality is eventually rewarded when South goes down one.

Counties to State: 1990 Budget Hurts Real Property Taxpayers, Relief Needed

By A. Anthony Miller

The County Executives Association, representing heads of the 57 counties in this state, are concerned that Gov. Mario Cuomo is "balancing the budget on the backs of real property taxpayers. The executives complained that state-mandated expenses were being imposed on counties that had no say in the process.

They articulated these concerns at an emergency meeting in Nassau on May 16, when the county chiefs, including Nassau County Executive Thomas Gulotta, agreed unanimously to urge the governor and the state legislature to make additional budget adjustments to prevent reductions in services and tax increases. In addition, they want the state to fund state-mandated items in the budget and not pass these costs to homeowners.

Lucille Pattison, Dutchess County Executive and president of the County Executives Association, said that county officials are uniting to try to recover several items overlooked in the final negotiated budget passed April 18. Included in this list are payment for state prisoners, which Gulotta said is costing Nassau County alone 17,000 each day; partial restoration of revenue sharing, and the elimination of the administrative cap on social service departments.

Ms. Pattison said that "in spite of much needed help from the legislature in making several budget adjustments, counties are faced with absorbing unexpected expenses or decreases in budgeted revenues during the current year and in 1990." Gulotta said the real impact of the state budget would not be felt until next Jan. 1.

According to the association's figures, Nassau County will lose 12,728,610 in revenue sharing eliminated from the state budget. By week's end, however, legislative conference in Albany indicated that a bill, delaying until 1991 the shift in the tax burden, had good chances of being passed before the expected legislative adjournment in July.

In a related development, Gulotta and Suffolk County Executive Patrick Halpin late last week asked the state to open a Long Island regional sales tax compliance office with auditors to insure that all sales taxes in Nassau and Suffolk are properly collected. Citing New York City's office with 65 auditors that last year collected more than $44 million in sales taxes, Halpin said that "every dollar we collect in sales taxes means property tax relief for our residents."

Gulotta said that the state has only 2,800 auditors statewide to monitor 435,000 businesses obligated to collect taxes. On a regular basis, only 32 auditors are assigned to check on the 10,205 businesses in Nassau and the 8,318 firms in Suffolk, leaving each auditor responsible for compliance of 580 companies.

The county chiefs said that entry-level auditors are expected to annually return 10 times their salaries.

Raiders Continue Soccer Quest to Chase Cup

By Steve Baglieri

On May 13, the 1978 Hicksville Raiders continued their soccer quest by making it to the final four of the Chase Cup.

The Raiders were playing in Terryville, and started off determined. They seemed to actually have been a little too strong, since about four shots were just slightly high over the net. They kept possession of the ball most of the time and were able to score first on Edward Puerta's shot from the left side. At the very end of the first half, however, the ref's clock buzzed and the defense let down their guard. (The ref added some extra time for an injury.)

A Terryville player broke free, but on a great defensive effort by Jeff Reinhardt, the player was stopped; unfortunately the ball itself was missed and the player went down in the box. With time out on the clock, a well placed penalty shot was scored and we had a tie game at the end of the half.

Paul Oliva, used his speed and quick hands as goalie for the entire game and kept it within our grasp. At the beginning of the first half, the Raiders had a little bit of a letdown (after that penalty shot), and allowed one of Terryville's players in on the weak side uncovered - goal! Now came the real action. Down 2-1, everyone played the best I've seen them in a long time. Michael Tesoriero demonstrated some real needed speed at the back position. Along with Chris Allen at sweeper, Nikitas Koroneos as stopper and Kenny D'Introno as the other back, they continually built up the attack and were still able to stop what came their way.

With Michael Baglieri playing most of the game as center midfielder and David Koehn at striker, these two played beautifully off of each other. At about the 45 minute mark their movement off the middle created a space for Nikitas to come up from his stopper position and head in a ball for a 2-2 game.

Hicksville began to isolate its players by cutting down passing lanes, and Terryville now seemed to get frustrated. A grabbing penalty set up a direct kick from about 25 yards out and David took a hard shot that the goalie just could not handle. At the 55 minute mark another penalty in the box gave us the chance to seal the game. David took that shot, and again scored - final score Hicksville wins 4-2.

It's easy to mention the scoring opportunities, but it really does not reflect the way the whole team played. Everyone should be congratulated for their effort. Their faces were a joy to look at, and makes it all worthwhile.

Thanks also to Nicky Riccardi, Susan Accardo, Steve Healy and Ryan Ferraro. We now go on to a college campus to play the final four. Win or lose, this is something to be proud of for a long time.
