

Local Families Needed To Host Foreign Students

Hicksville High School is currently making plans to host a group of students from Curcio, Italy, from Nov. 27 through Dec. 18. Fifteen students will stay in the home of a host family, attending school with their American counterparts and taking part in family activities for a period of three weeks. It is not necessary to speak a foreign language because the students are encouraged to practice their English. Some families may enjoy hosting one of the teachers from Europe who accompany the students as chaperones.

What is important is the willingness:

- to be an ambassador at home;
- to share home and family life;
- to establish positive relationships;
- to help demonstrate the American way of life;
- to have an interest in learning about other cultures;
- to accept others for what they are.

If you are interested in sharing your home with an Italian student, or would like further information, please contact Mr. Donato Guadagnoli, Supervisor of Foreign Languages, by Oct. 31 at 937-6654.

Duffy Park Civic to Meet October 24

The Duffy Park Civic Association will hold a general meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 24, at Old Country Road School, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Present at the meeting will be Frank Goban, who is running for Town Supervisor against Angelo Delligatti.

Oyster Bay Town Attorney Robert Schmidt was asked by Supervisor Delligatti to attend because the Supervisor has a prior commitment. These gentlemen will be answering questions about issues relating to Duffy Park and Hicksville, including the Twin County and Zara asphalt plants, and the possible rezoning of Duffy Avenue.

Also, nominations for Executive Board candidates will be made in preparation for the November elections. The position of president is open and anyone interested in running for this or any other position is encouraged to do so. Duffy Park residents are urged to attend this very important meeting and all Hicksville residents are welcome.

Midland Civic Meets

The Midland Civic Association will hold a general membership meeting on Monday, Oct. 23 at 7:45 p.m., at the Willet Avenue School. The meeting will take place in the All Purpose Room.

The theme for the evening will be a Drug Awareness Program. The program is geared toward adults so that they may better understand drug abuse and be able to recognize it in its early stages and know how to deal with it properly. Experts will speak to the membership on this important topic. All members are invited to attend and to bring a neighbor to this informative meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Wolfe Tones Concert

On Saturday, Nov. 4, the Wolfe Tones will be in Concert at Holy Trinity Diocesan High School, Newbridge Road, Hicksville, at 8 p.m. in the Trinity Theatre. Tickets are $15 if purchased in advance ($17.50 at the door). For information, call 433-2000. Doors open at 7 p.m. Dancing, food and refreshments are available at intermission and at the Afterglow following the performance. The high school will benefit from the proceeds of this event.

The Search is On For The Biggest Pumpkin

We've received many calls from residents who have decorated their homes, but we are still searching for a Hicksville resident who has bought or grown the biggest pumpkin in town. Call our office at 747-8282, ext. 164, so we can come down and take a photo.

Supervisor Backs PTA In Traffic Light Effort

A petition signed by 317 Hicksville residents asking for a traffic signal at the corner of Plainview Road at East Street has won support from the Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor.

According to a letter sent to the 317 residents by supervisor Angelo Delligatti, he and Town Councilman Thomas Clark met with Nassau County Executive Thomas Gulotta and all agreed, according to Mr. Delligatti, that a traffic survey should be done "with a view of installing a traffic signal."

East Street Elementary School PTA circulated the petition because parents said that the heavy traffic and increasing number of auto accidents in the area are dangerous to

Newbridge Lot Cleaned; Frequent by Vagrants

By Rita Langdon

A lot frequented by vagrants and littered with trash on the corner of Newbridge Road at West Cherry Street has been cleaned-up by Beacon Federal Savings which plans to build a bank on the property.

Acting on complaints by area residents, police were called to the scene Friday morning to ask homeless people to move from the area, according to the Second Precinct. By the afternoon, debris was cleaned-up and a stone wall surrounding the property was demolished, said Fred J. Borrelli, Beacon Federal senior vice president of the savings office and operations.

"The place was a shambles and everything looked like a garbage dump," Mr. Borrelli said, adding that the clean-up was done as a community service.

Plans for the property include a bank with quadruple walk-ups, and an auto unit, which Mr. Borrelli said, Beacon Federal lacks in its other Hicksville branch at 169 Old Country Road. Mr. Borrelli added that plans are "on hold" for the new bank for now.

Fire Dept. Responds To Gas Leak at Mall

A contractor installing fence posts in the northeast section of Broadway Mall drilled through a LILCO natural gas line underground, a Hicksville Fire Department spokesman said.

The fire department responded at 11 a.m. last Thursday, Oct. 12, with three units, and the Haz-Mat (Hazardous Materials) team responding under the direction of Chief Terry Farrell.

It took about 20 minutes for LILCO crews to find a buried valve box. Stores surrounding the area were evacuated by firefighters. Haz-Mat team members using gas detectors monitored the area until it was all clear to return. Firefighters readied hose lines in case the gas ignited.

Fire Prevention

In other fire department matters, Fire Prevention Week was recognized this month.

The Hicksville Fire Department offers the following safety tips for residents:

- Have an escape plan—Talk to family about what they should do in case of a fire.
- Know two ways out—Discuss and diagram two ways out from every room, especially bedrooms.

LILCO crewmen attempt to shut off the gas while Hicksville Fire Department Haz-Mat Richard Russell and Brian Kohn (in rear) monitor the immediate area around the leak for pockets of natural gas which in some cases could be ignited by a flick of a light switch.

- In an apartment—Be able to unlock a dead-bolt quickly. Never take an elevator.
- In a two-story house—Make sure everyone knows how to unlock all locks and open doors and windows easily. If you are escaping from a second story, be sure you have a safe way to the ground.

- Choose a place—Have a place outdoors for everyone to meet for roll call. Make sure children walking to school. There is no traffic signal from South Oyster Bay Road to Park Avenue, which is about a mile stretch, giving drivers a good distance to speed-up, the PTA said. A crossing guard is stationed at the Plainview Road and East Street intersection.

But, PTA treasurer Dorrie Benardo said, "We need more than a crossing guard. [The guard] screams at the cars because they don't yield to her."

In addition to the traffic, the PTA noted that school buses and parents dropping off children have a difficult time turning onto East Street.

everyone knows the number of the Hicksville Fire Department.

•Get Out Fast—Exit quickly. If it's smoky, get down. Stay low. And crawl fast. Once outside, go to family meeting place.

•Do Not Go Back—If you go back, you may not come back.

•If you are trapped—Put closed doors between you and smoke. Stuff cracks and cover vents to keep smoke out. Wait at the window and signal with a flashlight or sheet.

•Test the door—By using the back of your hand. If hot, take your second way out. If not, brace your shoulder against the door and open it carefully, being ready to close it quickly if heat or smoke rush in.

•Practice your plan—Have a fire drill in your home or ask the manager to schedule one in your apartment building.

•Play it safe—Install smoke detectors.

Joseph Lamb K. of C. To Hold "Oktoberfest"

The Joseph F. Lamb Council No. 5723 Knights of Columbus, Plainview, will hold its annual "Oktoberfest" Dinner Dance on Saturday evening, October 21st, at our Lady of Mercy auditorium in Hicksville. The affair will start at 8:30 p.m. and will last until 12:30 a.m.

This gala event will feature good German food, beer, soda and fun, fun, fun. (B.Y.O.B.). Music will be by Joe Ratto. Tickets are $17.50 per person and can be obtained by contacting Chairman — Grand Knight Josef Ort at 938-3675 or Co Chairman — PG.K. Sam Repoli at 931-8116.

On a different note: K. of C. congratulates its sister organization, the "Columbiettes" on the success of their "Square Dance," which was held on September 30th. We understand it was a huge success and was very well attended. We wish them well in all their future endeavors.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Elenio

Lillian Sissons Bride of Neil Elenio

On Sunday, August 27, 1989, Lillian Sissons, daughter of Rebecca and Gordon Sissons, and Neil Elenio, son of Flavia and Anthony Elenio, were joined together in marriage. The ceremony took place at Parkway Community Church with Pastor MacDonald officiating. The couple had many friends and relatives in their wedding party. Lillian's matron of honor was her sister, Rebecca Sissons. Her bridesmaids were Rose Sissons, Monica Ely, Debbie Elenio, and Annemarie Elenio. Her godchild, Elana Sissons served as her flower girl. Neil's best man was his brother Paul Elenio. Jeff Sissons, Rick Enderle, Greg Marciano, and Peter Sissons served as ushers. The ring bearer was Anthony Sissons. The wedding reception was held at the Imperial Manor. After a lovely honeymoon in Cancun, Mexico, the happy couple took up residence in Hicksville.

Ann's Outstanding

Ann Bomberger, daughter of Mr. David Bomberger of Fox Place in Hicksville and Ms. Lois Bomberger, also of Hicksville, was honored during the Opening Convocation at Allegheny College on Sept. 8. A 1986 graduate of Hicksville High School, Ann received the Outstanding Junior Major Prize in English. She is currently a senior at Allegheny.

Get Well Wishes

The many friends of Wicker's popular bartender, Mike Gallant, are sending him speedy get well wishes. Mike is in Southside Hospital in Bay Shore. Send him a card and cheer him up.

Back From Vacation

Jerry Purick just returned from a visit with her brother Jack in Franklin, Tennessee, and her son Herbert and his family down in Florida. She was telling me that her grandson Mark is going to march with the Jupiter High School Band, in New York's Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Mark will be playing the trombone. Look for him.

And Michael Makes Four

Paula (Atchison) and Bill Giugliano became parents for the fourth time when Michael Thomas was born on July 28. Michael came home to a full house of loving arms which included eight-year-old Matthew, five-year-old Lisa, and four-year-old Lauren.

Grandparents are Agnes and Pat Giugliano of New Hyde Park and Rita and Bill Atchison of Hicksville. Rita and Bill just about had time to get a glimpse of the new baby before they left for a vacation in France.

Our Condolences

We are sending our personal condolences to our old friend, George Karman, on the recent death of his wife, Elaine. George and Elaine, both lifelong residents of Hicksville, were old school friends of ours.

Grace Is In Montana

Grace Thompson, a 1988 graduate of Hicksville High School, is a sophomore at the University of Montana in Missoula. She is having a wonderful time learning how to be an outdoor person—but her heart is still in Hicksville. She really enjoys reading the Illustrated about the goings-on in Hicksville. Ed. Note: Grace—hope you'll be reading this in beautiful Montana—and do us a favor will you! Breathe in some of that good clean air for us here in Hicksville.

40 Is The Number Of Years

Betty and Bill Minardi were married 40 years ago in St. Elizabeth's Church and had their wedding reception at the McAlpin Hotel (many of you will remember—it was on 34th Street near Penn Station). They moved to Hicksville and joined St. Ignatius Church where Betty met Agnes Flynn. It turned out that Agnes and her husband Jim were married a week after Betty and Bill and had their reception in the same room of the McAlpin Hotel. Betty and Agnes became friends and have remained friends all these years. I found out all this information at the anniversary party Betty and Bill's children gave them at the Fox Hollow Inn, in Syosset. Happy to host this party were Jim Minardi, Billy and Stephanie, JoAnn and Rick Pitino, and Mary and Don Vogt. The party was fantastic—great food, great music, and great company.

Jim and Agnes Flynn just returned from a trip to Australia to celebrate their 40 years of happiness. They went there because Jim has many relatives living there.

Jim said, "The trip over was long—but coming back we stopped in Hawaii." He continued, "Australia is a beautiful country—it's the most Irish country outside of Ireland. While there Agnes and I went to the Great Barrier Reef and stayed for five nights on Heron Island to rest up. It's one of the wonders of the world—magnificent—I couldn't compare it to anything. There was no heat, no air conditioning, no screens, no flies or bugs—and besides all that, the people are very friendly. I stood in water up to my neck and I could count my toes. Unique would be the only way I could describe it. If anyone makes a trip to Australia they should not miss the Great Barrier Reef."

Agnes and Jim have two children: Tina and Mary.

Also at the party I met Betty and Bob Quinn. Bob has retired but Betty is still working. They bought a 'patio home' on Oak Island (Myrtle Beach). They went down at the beginning of the summer... and she slipped and fell and broke her shoulder. She couldn't play golf—but she said she'll make up for it soon.

Ed. Note: While talking to Agnes, I asked her how a mutual old friend of ours was—Pat McCormick. She said that she still lives in Hicksville as does her sister Joan. I haven't seen Pat or Joan for ages—I thought they had moved away. I used to love talking to those girls—what fun they were. Agnes said that they're both still living in Hicksville. Pat and Joan—where are you??? Write me with an update on your families—we'll be happy to print it.

Received A Note From...

... Pat Rafuse, asking me to find out if Hicksville High School Class of 1945 will be having a reunion next year. She writes: "My daughter, Maryellen (Rafuse) McKee is interested in going to that get-together. She would like very much to visit with some of her old schoolmates. She is currently living in Northern California, is happily married and has five children."

Editor's Note: If any of you out there are planning a 1990 reunion please contact Peggy at 7516 W. Armerst Ave. #2, Denver, Colorado 80227, and she will give you Maryellen's address.

Received Citation

Lil Anderson just returned from visiting her son, Captain John Anderson, U.S.N., in Washington, D.C. and attended his Change of Command Service where he received a citation from President Bush and was awarded the Legion of Merit Badge.

Capt. John is the son of the late Francis Anderson. He and his wife, Marti, have two children: John II, (20), and Justin, (17).

Carol Vanderhoven Moore Married to David Conrad

Carol (Vanderhoven) Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vanderhoven, and David Conrad, son of Mrs. Anita Conrad, were united in Holy Matrimony on Saturday, September 16.

The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Richard E. Smeltzer, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Hicksville. The wedding was held in the garden of the couple's home in Jericho. Family, friends and neighbors were present for the happy occasion.

The groom's family traveled from Michigan to attend the wedding. The bride's parents have been residents of Hicksville for 39 years.

Mr. and Mrs. David Conrad

Pat's Going To Teach

Patricia Ann Izzi, of Winding Road, has completed a student teaching internship at Sixteen Acres School in Springfield, Mass.

Pat, a graduate of Hicksville High School, majored in elementary education while at Springfield College. She had been active on the gymnastic team and was chosen as team captain in her senior year. She received the most improved gymnast award when she was a sophomore. Pat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Izzi of Hicksville.

Hicksville Has Winners

The end-of-the-year Lufthansa Golf Awards Dinner was held last week and Hicksville came away with a lot of trophies. Competition was held at different courses on the Island all summer—with a World Cup Tournament held in Aarhus, Denmark in August.

Coming away with trophies for the year were Sis Weanofske, Agnes Price, and Margaret Eaton. Not to be outdone by the ladies, the men bringing home trophies were Steve Jablonski, George Thomas, Artie Petschauer, of Summit Instrument of Hicksville, and last, but not least—husband of Agnes—Joe Price. Joe announced his retirement that night... for the second time.

Much congratulated that night was Jim Murphy who received a trophy for getting a hole-in-one at the World Tournament. Jim said, "It was the 16th hole... I teed off... we watched the ball hit... and roll right into the cup. What a feeling." That evening, the hotel where they were staying, awarded Jim with a 4-liter bottle of scotch. Needless to say—everybody celebrated with him. Atta' way to go, Jim.

Birthdays This Week

Sunday, October 22 is the day that darling Jenny Grillo will become 17 years of age. She'll be celebrating at a family party at her home. The last time I saw Jenny she had her head sticking out of the sunroof of her dad's new "J" car. What a beauty... the girl and the car. Happy Birthday, Jenny.

Edith Frohnhoefer will be celebrating her big day October 24 with her husband Willie. Our best wishes are going to you too Edith.

Used Clothing Still Needed to Assist Veterans

Logan County West Virginia, also known as "Appalachia" has the largest concentration of Vietnam Veterans in the country. It is the most economically and financially distressed county in the United States. Hicksville's Vietnam Veterans are asking friends and relatives to give their used clothing for infants to adults, all seasons, to benefit these Logan County veterans. Pots, pans, kitchen utensils, dishes, canned goods, etc. are also needed.

The target date for delivery is Veterans Day, Nov. 11.

The Northwest Civic Association and Hicksville PTAs have joined forces with the Vietnam Veterans and have volunteered drop-off points in Hicksville. They are at the following locations: 124 Harding Ave., 95 Kuhl Ave., 49 Gardner Ave., 23 Byron Place, 40 Myers Ave., or Terry Moehring, Hicksville PTA Council President, at 3 Joseph Lane. If anyone has a garage or extra storage space to donate temporarily, call JoAnn Broska at 931-8340.

VFW Post 3211 Commander, Connie Steers, unloads another bag of clothing to benefit the Logan County veterans. Mr. Steer's home at 124 Harding Ave. is a drop-off point for any residents who wish to donate clothes for the needy Veterans. (Illustrated Photo)

New York State VFW Auxiliary President, Joan Chwalisz, of Hicksville, will be attending ceremonies marking the 103rd Birthday of the Statue of Liberty on Oct. 28.

Continuing their 53-year tradition, VFW members from all over the country will journey to Liberty Island for the birthday celebration commemorating the original dedication of the State that today represents freedom to the world.

The Grapevine

By Gary Ryder

FALL into Long Island Wine Country!!!

All around the country, wine lovers delight in visiting wineries to learn how wines are made and have an opportunity to taste a number of wine varieties that may be new to them. It's a nice day's outing.

First step is to contact state wine or agriculture associations for listings of wineries near your home. Some list tour schedules; in other cases it's wise to call ahead to ensure a welcome.

Time was, a wine tourist had to come equipped with a picnic lunch, but many wineries today sell food to be enjoyed with their wine. Indeed, some have created nationally famous restaurants.

Certain "wine trails" are well known, like California's Route 29 between Napa and Calistoga. In New York, there are special road signs — a white grape cluster on a green background — to show the way.

To encourage visitors, many wineries run special activities ranging from jazz concerts to strawberry festivals. One regional promotion in California features dawn champagne flights of hot air balloons! There are twelve wineries right here on the forks of Long Island!

Planning a day trip to a winery? You'll get good ideas about where and what from our Free Long Island Wine Country Guide & Map. Pick up yours at WINE WAREHOUSE!

(Distillers, too, offer guided tours. In most cases it's advisable to write ahead for a tour, especially for a group.)

Hicksville Republican Club

Joseph Jablonsky
Executive Leader

Robert Kluck
President

By Marc Herbst

The Ernest F. Franke Republican Club held two of its most successful events of the year last weekend. On Friday night, the largest crowd for a general membership meeting attended "Town of Oyster Bay Night." The audience was present to see the "Delligatti Team," Town Councilmen Tom Hogan, Doug Hynes, and Len Symons and Town Clerk Carl Marcellino spoke of the upcoming election and why they believe the Republican ticket has earned the right to return to office.

President Kluck also appointed a nominating committee to be headed by John A. Walker. The nominating committee will select officers and a board of directors for the 1990 year.

Sunday afternoon was the largest attended Fall Cocktail Reception in many years. Chairman Bill Maher did a fabulous job. The three baskets of cheer were graciously donated by the party's chairman. (The "other" basket of cheer was given by John Budnick.)

The public officials attending Sunday's affair were County Executive Tom Gulotta, District Attorney Denis Dillon, Town Supervisor Angelo Delligatti, Councilmen Tom Clark and Len Symons, Hempstead Town Clerk Dan Fisher, County Attorney Ed O'Brien (candidate for Supreme Court) and Judge Marvin Segal.

The club plans to continue the tradition of having the county's largest rally night on Election Eve. Please mark your calendars for Monday, Nov. 6 between 7 and 9 p.m. The rally, including a hot covered dish buffet supplied by our members, will be held at Antun's Old Country Manor, 244 Old Country Road, Hicksville. All 1989 Republican candidates have been invited to attend.

Is something holding you back from opening a home equity credit line?

Announcing a home equity credit line with absolutely no upfront fees or closing costs.

Closing costs can really weigh you down.

Yet many banks ask you to pay them before they'll even lend you the money you need. Which means you may have to pay $1,300 or more on a $75,000 home equity credit line before you even use it.

EquityLink™ from The Bank of New York is different. It allows you to open a home equity credit line with absolutely no upfront fees or closing costs. Which means you don't have to pay for things like an appraisal fee, mortgage recording tax, title insurance or bank attorney's fees. We even refund the application fee at the closing.

It also offers you potential tax advantages later on, because the interest on home equity credit loans is virtually the only deductible loan interest left under the current Tax Reform Act.

Not surprisingly, The Bank of New York also offers you some of the lowest home equity interest rates in the New York area. If you'd like to know just how much you can save with an EquityLink credit line, why not visit one of our 250 convenient branches.

Or call Action Phone at 1-800-942-1784 (from NJ and CT, call 914-899-2182 collect).

So if you're thinking about a home equity credit line, think about The Bank of New York. And close the book on closing costs.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Correction

Due to a typesetting error, a letter to Town Supervisor Angelo Delligatti in last week's issue was incorrectly attributed. It should have been signed by Janet Von Bargen, with carbon copies sent to Thomas Gulotta, Richard Blankfein, Hicksville Illustrated News, Mid Island Times and Francis Cohen.
Mr Delligatti's response can be found on this page.

Response To Letter

This letter is being published upon request. Dear Ms. Von Bargen:

This letter is to acknowledge receipt of your correspondence dated September 22, 1989 regarding major concerns facing the Hicksville community.

First, I must share that these issues are far too important to be addressed only during an election campaign. Since taking office I have taken strenuous steps to meet the challenges that face Hicksville and other communities in the Town of Oyster Bay. I can appreciate that some residents may believe their community has been short-changed in the past. Obviously, no one can change the past. But, I believe residents, merchants and government can work together to improve Hicksville for today and the future. This is now happening.

During the last two years the tide has begun to change. After more than 25 years following the State's destruction of downtown Hicksville, we now witness the rebirth of the west side of Broadway. The decaying Mid Island Plaza is currently being transformed into a multi-million dollar modern shopping mall. Colorful plantings on traffic islands indicate a true desire for a more beautiful Hicksville. The restoration of the Hicksville Kiwanis Memorial Fountain serves as a symbol of the community's rebirth. More road rehabilitation projects than ever before have taken place or are planned for Hicksville. Community leaders are serving on a Hicksville Park District Task Force to address the recreational needs of the community. The Chamber of Commerce, the Hicksville Beautification Committee and the Town have joined in a cooperative effort which will soon bring about tree plantings in planters and decorative trash receptacles in the Hicksville Business District. These community efforts represent only the beginning as many more improvements will continue to be addressed.

Your specific inquiries regarding situations near Duffy Avenue are without question areas in need of attention. As you are aware, the Town has greatly intensified enforcement of zoning and building codes in this area. In some instances, such as the ones you mentioned with regard to abandoned vehicles, parking on residential property and lack of maintenance of commercial properties, additional Town controls and regulations were required. That is precisely why my administration has adopted a stricter abandoned vehicle ordinance, and proposed statutes that address off-street parking in residential districts and maintenance of commercial properties. As you have forwarded a copy of your letter to Commissioner Blankfein you can be assured his department is investigating these matters.

Although you wish to hold the Town of Oyster Bay responsible for enforcement of regulations concerning hazardous waste sites near Duffy Avenue, this authority lies with the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation. I, too, would like swift action to rectify the properties which have been included on the New York State List of Inactive Waste Disposal Sites. Therefore, by copy of this letter, I am respectfully requesting D.E.C. Commissioner Thomas C. Jorling to personally review this matter and contact both you and me directly with findings.

I strongly favor a change of zone for much of the area north of Duffy Avenue. The argument that this area has always been light industry does not convince me that it should remain zoned for this purpose. The vacant buildings on Duffy Avenue are a perfect example that manufacturing is no longer a prevalent industry on Long Island. Therefore, this land may be more beneficially utilized if zoned for business. Contrary to your comments, Councilman Clark has been the catalyst behind this request. This proposal is now being studied, a process which is quite extensive and time consuming. Councilman Clark and I assure you the Town has every intention of bringing this matter to fruition. I must, however, remind you that existing operations in this area will legally be permitted to continue as non-conforming uses if the zone is changed.

This brings me to the matter involving the asphalt plants. Quite honestly, with the advantage of retropect I am provided the opportunity to concur with your views regarding the original approval of the special use permits. This is one of the most frustrating situations I must deal with and I hope you understand that I indeed feel for the area residents. Nonetheless, the Town must address these issues within the legal constraints. As a public official I cannot single-handedly force the companies to cooperate with the wishes of the community unless they are in violation of the law. This is why I attempted to notify all residents in the Duffy Park and Northwest civic areas of the June public meeting with Twin County. I am sure you agree the public pressure at this meeting forced the company's "desire to be a good neighbor" position. The Town has since received many reassurances from Twin County to improve conditions, but little action. Commissioner Blankfein has scheduled an appointment with the company officials to demand the promised actions. The Town has since received many reassurances from Twin County to improve conditions, but little action. Commissioner Blankfein has scheduled an appointment with the company officials to demand the promised actions. The Town is in complete support of our residents.

I have personally visited the areas of concern along Duffy Avenue on several occasions with Commissioner Blankfein as well as my staff and I know exactly what you speak of. Since I believe it would be perceived as nothing more than a political stunt I cannot accept your challenge for a walking tour at this time. This is much too important a matter. Rather, I wish to extend to you a cordial invitation to meet with me at a mutually convenient time so that we can personally discuss these matters.

I commend you for your commitment to improve the Duffy Avenue community as well as other matters involving Hicksville. I look forward to personally meeting you. Thank you for taking the time to contact me and I hope this response demonstrates my genuine concern.

The following letter was written by Jo Ann Broska of the Northwest Civic Association regarding the importance of community involvement in the civic. It is being reprinted at the request of the Duffy Park Civic Association as they begin their new season.

Join Civic Associations

To The Editor:

Your local civic association have begun its 1989-90 season. We are looking for new members. Even though we haven't had a meeting during the summer, the association has been working to clean up and better Hicksville and our Northwest area.

But, we can only be as good as the people who stand behind us. Isn't it worth the small price you have to pay; your dues? Just think of how we all are guilty of throwing that small amount of money away on something and getting nothing out of it. If that small amount of money isn't worth trying to keep Hicksville ours, then something is wrong.

However, it is not just the money. We need all of you there, voicing your opinions. We can only be strong in numbers. Many people come up to me and ask, "What is going on?" If you want to know, then join and come to the meetings. Don't leave it up to the next person. If everyone had that attitude, there wouldn't be an association. I also hear people, the young and our seniors say, "Let the young do it" or "Let the seniors do it."

How can we afford not to care? Our seniors who do come to the meeting have every right to be angry with the younger people. I have yet to see more than a handful show up at our meetings. You, the young, have so much to lose. For instance, you have high mortgages. If you let Hicksville turn into an undesirable place to live by losing our residential land to industry, it will create an unhealthy environment and an unsafe place to live. It will also lower our property values.

What about the safety of your children? The seniors should not say, "We did our part, now it's up to the young people." Remember, the association had been inactive for over 20 years. It was in that time that Hicksville got out of the hands of the people. I hear many of our seniors say, "Where are we going to go!" It would seem to me that united we stand, divided we fall. Come to the meetings and help fight to get Hicksville back.

If you care at all about your family, hometown or our environment, you will join us in keeping Hicksville a proud place to live and tell our officials we're tired of hearing, "Put it in Hicksville." Show them we're not going to take it anymore. We hope to see you at our meetings.

We strongly encourage participation from our single people. Remember, decisions made today affect your future too.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...What color are your walls...That is, if they are painted...It's amazing how styles come around...I remember when we built our little house right after the war—you know the war I mean—it was the style—at least all the House magazines I read said it was the style—to have dark walls...and I chose dark green for our bedroom...Since I really don't like green that much, I'm not quite sure why I chose it, but it may be that I fell in love with a wallpaper that had green vines and I decided it would be quite the thing to have one wall papered—and the green matched...Now, of course, since we had just built the house, we couldn't afford any furniture, so I put an ad in the local weekly asking for old dressers free—and, would you believe, I received many answers and ended up with seven dressers of assorted vintage—none real antique!...I painted three for our bedroom, white with green drawers and white pulls—I did things like that in those days—and I thought the whole effect was great...My Mother thought that any wall which wasn't a "nice, soft buff" wasn't proper, so you can imagine how she liked my dark green walls...Now, I see a lot of peach in model rooms and it is a lovely color to work around...but one of my friends, who is currently trying to sell her entirely peach house, was told by a looker that she "couldn't possibly live in a peach house!"...So, as the old saying goes, it's all in the eye of the beholder—or something like that...What color do you like?

gressmen are running for cover because the senior citizens of this country are up in arms about having to pay for additional medicare coverage. Who can forget that Rep. Rostenkowski, one FORMER friend of the older generation, running for cover as irate senior citizens threatened him. Or who can forget that the representative of the AAPI, the principal spokes organization for seniors in the US of A, being booed as he testified in Congress IN FAVOR of the bill. I BELIEVE THAT THE SENIOR CITIZENS OF THIS COUNTRY HAVE SHOT THEMSELVES

IN THE FOOT. We will live long enough to regret our action. And now Congress will not care.

As the result of this action by the senior citizens, their day as one of the greatest receivers of government largess is over. Future benefits flowing from Congress will be limited in the extreme. What people did not realize is that the surtax would have been zero for 19 million of the 33 million elderly beneficiaries this year. Also, of the balance of 14 million, only 6 million would have paid more than $200. Sure, I know that the fee is going to go up, but the benefits to this whole group of people far outweigh the additional cost. That is the basic reason that the AAPI and myself were in favor of the law.

Congress seems to have taken the attitude that this segment of our society does not appreciate what they have been given. The goodies will not be cut off completely, nor will there be any cutbacks in the future that will amount to anything. What will happen is that Congress will opt to maintain the status quo. Keep what you have, but expect nothing more, is going to be the Washington watchword.

Any consistent reader of this column knows that I WAS, AND STILL AM, strongly in favor of this law as originally proposed. It went a long way toward solving what is sure to become a major problem in this country; The aging of America. As we get older and older and as the medical doctors dream up new ways to keep us alive, even at the expense of the quality of our lives, we will decline in health and become more of a candidate for the terrible expense of a nursing home.

While the whole segment of the senior citizen community seemed to be in opposition to the law, all are going to lose. The poor, who would have paid nothing, will still get all of their benefits. The people who could afford to pay and who do not have alternative lifetime insurance programs from their employers, are going to see their assets erode if they get sick. I think that is a shame. We work our whole lives to provide for our old age, so we can live a life of dignity and comfort. We also want to leave something for our families. If it is possible, the super-rich will be able to do this quite nicely, the rest of us will be frustrated. If we become seriously ill, or if our mate does. The need is greater than ever. The need for you to come to the two seminars is also greater than ever. At these seminars we will discuss more than the Catastrophic Law.

We will discuss ways to plan your estate to avoid some of the severe beating your wealth will take if you get sick, and the odds favor that as we get older. We will discuss PROTECTION. We will also have a question and answer period about almost any topic that you are interested in asking me about your finances and investments.

The first seminar is TONIGHT at the Strathmore-Vanderbilt Country Club in Manhasset at 7:30. The cost is zero, nothing. Up to now you have had to have a ticket to attend. The paper says OK to come without an admission pass to either this one tonight, Thursday, October 19 or next week, Thursday, October 26 at the Garden City Casino, same time, right next to the Garden City train station. Come one, come all. We hope to have enough room. So I hope to see you there.

Some say that many of our schools are not working, and others—particularly those directly involved—know it! There are many reasons why. Drugs are one major factor. And, the drug problem has reached enormous proportions. One New York City school is so overrun that crack vials crunch as students walk to the front door. So much crack is being sold that crack vials litter sidewalks and school maintenance personnel cannot sweep fast enough to keep the path to the front door clear. Couple drugs with physical threats and abuse of teachers, and it is not a pretty sight. But of even more importance is the failure of some school districts to educate effectively. Reading scores are down. Teachers cannot cope and give up. Athletes graduate from college and can hardly read. High school students cannot fill out employment forms. Drastic action must be taken, or we are dooming some of our most vulnerable young people to absolute failure. Money alone does not make the difference. Our nation spends more money per capita on education than any other, and our results do not measure up.

While we tax and spend, hostile values are overrunning some schools making education all but impossible. These negative forces are in the final stages of an attempted "hostile takeover." The schools cannot long survive. The only solution, using a business analogy, may be to find a "white knight" to come forward and prevent the takeover. In the corporate world, when an unfriendly adversary cannot be shaken, the way out is often through the mechanism of a friendly takeover or the bringing in of a "white knight." That is exactly what some school districts desperately need. They need to be over run by the forces of good in our society.

I believe the "white knight" could very well be an IBM, Xerox, or other company with strong roots in education. Why not try a free enterprise approach? Here is the way it could work. A school district, in trouble, enters a contract with a major company and turns the responsibility for operation of that district to the "IBM" selected. The profit paid to the company would be based on results. Standards for dropout levels, reading scores, discipline, and other criteria would be set. And the "white knight" would have to perform, because the standards would be real and audited. Businesses are accustomed to managing by objectives. Turning loose the energy and creativity of free enterprise could be startling in the classrooms of our defeated schools. Teachers would not have to be concerned. This program would enhance their ability to teach.

The "friendly takeover" would benefit teachers. They would be paid, not just for showing up, but for how well they deliver on changing the bankrupt classrooms where they currently preside. If their teaching tools are not adequate, new tools would be provided. Principals and school business managers would also be judged on performance as well. Tenure is an archaic system of another era. The paralysis of our current system would be set aside in favor of results.

The beneficiaries would be the children who are now not being educated. This approach has not really been tried. Why not give it a chance in our most desperate schools? Billions have been poured into some of these schools with no real change in the results. Everything else has failed. A business takeover, even as an experiment, should be tried.

With a weakened family structure in many of these disadvantaged districts, a free enterprise approach to education, which also focuses on social issues, could make a real difference. The education establishment will probably have a knee jerk negative response to this approach—as they generally oppose anything new without evaluating the merits. But, since that establishment has failed in our most desperate school districts, how about giving someone else a chance?

Legionnaire's Log

By GREG BENNETT

Charles Wagner Post #421, Hicksville

On Sunday, Oct. 15, members of Charles A. Wagner Post 421 attended the Annual Nassau County American Legion Legislative Breakfast. Once again Legionnaires expressed deep concern about laws that protect our children, about medical and nursing care of veterans and about law and order. Commander Arlene Howard, PC Artie Rutz, PC Ray Gamble, VC Al Cinotti, VC Al Egan, PCC Dick Hockbrueckner and Greg Bennett attended and supported such issues as having the Veterans Administration take over three floors at the Nassau County Medical Center for medical care of our vets, and the long overdue Korean and Vietnam Veteran bonuses that a cigarette tax was collected for and the funds were placed in the state general fund. Please write your federal and state legislature supporting these concerns.

On Nov. 5, members of Charles Wagner Post will be visiting veterans at Kings Park State Psychiatric Center where Legionnaires distribute gifts to veterans. The Nassau County American Legion has a continuous visitation program at Kings Park. Gifts will be packed at Archie McChord Post in Bethpage on Friday, Nov. 3. There is also a United Veterans Organization Veterans Day Service at 10:30 a.m. at Eisenhower Park and a 2 p.m. ceremony at Pinelawn National Cemetery.

On Veterans Day, there will be a Salute to Veterans Parade in Westbury on Old Country Road to Merrick Avenue ending at Eisenhower Park. Starting time is 2 p.m. Please support this event after attending the Local Veterans Day Service in your local community.

Suffolk County has passed a law protecting our flag and hopefully Nassau County will follow suit. Remember to fly the flag and remember it stands for our cherished freedoms that Americans have given their lives to protect.

Veterans, if you want information about the American Legion call 708-9484. Remember our POW/MIA and work for their return. Remember to use the New York State Veterans Information Hotline 1-800-615-0414.

Date Change for PTSA

The date of the Hicksville Senior High School PTSA Open House has been changed from Thursday, Oct. 19 to Thursday, Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m.

Food Drive to Benefit Hicksville INN

Dr. Steven J. Tremaroli, a Hicksville, chiropractor, is conducting a food drive in cooperation with the Interfaith Nutrition Network (INN). On Tuesday, Nov. 7, between 2 and 8 p.m. Dr. Tremaroli will be accepting canned and dry foods at 302 South Oyster Bay Road in Hicksville. All donations will then be distributed to needy local families by the INN through their soup kitchen at Redeemer Lutheran Church.

Anyone who donates food at Dr. Tremaroli's office will be entitled, if they chose, to a complimentary consultant and spinal examination. If x-rays are required, they too will be provided at no charge on November 7, 1989.

"I feel very strongly about the obligation we have to the hungry on Long Island," said Dr. Tremaroli. "We live in one of the most affluent areas of the United States and yet there are people who go to bed hungry. That is a disgrace and I want to do my share to help."

Dr. Tremaroli requests that you call his office at 935-1030 for further information on this project and to schedule an appointment if you would like a complimentary consultation and spinal examination.

A Little Bad Luck Adds Up on the 13th

By Catherine Tokar

Did you have any bad luck on Friday the 13th? For one, I have never had a stroke of bad luck on that day no matter how many times it surfaced in a year. This year I expected the same. I'd worry all day that something bad would happen to me, and at the end of the day think of the worst thing that happened and labeled it my "Bad Luck" for Friday the 13th.

Well, I had no trouble finding a bunch of little bad lucks this year, which rolled into one big bad luck day for me. It started, of course, as soon as I rolled out of bed. Or, more accurately, the night before when I forgot to set my alarm for the morning of the 13th.

I woke up at 8:30 on Friday. It was a shock to roll over to see how much longer I had to sleep and find out I only had 27 minutes to get to work. I dealt with that though, with a quick phone call to work saying I had some errands to run in Hicksville before coming in. No problem.

I sprang out of bed haphazardly planning a rushed morning routine. What am I going to wear today? No time to decide. I'll think about it in the shower. No, I didn't slip in the tub. In fact, everything went smoothly until I dried my hair. Since this was the first time I washed it since my perm, I expected a little challenge but not a frizz. Big time kinky curly frizz head. This on the head of the girl who spends 35 minutes with two curling irons and a can of hair spray before she even gets an ounce of volume in her straight-as-a-pin hair.

But, as an self-appointed hair expert, I could handle the frizzes with a little help from my friend LA Looks Styling Gel and Stuff Stuff

"Super Duper" Hold Hair Spray.

I finally got my act together and was greeted by muddy paw prints across the roof and hood of my newly-washed car. My neighbor's dam cat again, and he's black too! Oh well, the paws were kind of cute. I thought, trying to convince myself that the day really wasn't that bad. I then headed to Hicksville to take some pre-Halloween photos.

Luckily, I spotted some bats hanging in a tree on Dean Street, but as I got out of the car to take a picture, I caught my stocking on a fallen tree branch, tearing a small hole in my stocking and a run half way up my shin. Still in control, I enlisted the help of my clear nail polish to patch up the problem.

Off I went to Triangle Park between Old Country and Plainview Roads for some interviews with local residents about the "Bad Luck" day. Nobody had any bad luck though, except for a lady who was expecting her baby that day. It would be just my luck for her to go into labor right then and there; but luckily she held out long enough to tell me she didn't even realize it was Friday the 13th, and maybe it was her bad luck that "this kid isn't coming out yet."

I trucked back to my car, with, you guessed it, a load of sand in my shoes. More runs in my stockings. No gas in the car. No paycheck in hand yet. No money for lunch.

I decided to try one more place: Hicksville High School. I spoke to a ninth grader who said he hadn't had any bad luck lately, but if I "had" to write something I could say that he was sick earlier in the week. I told him that didn't count because it had to happen on Friday the 13th. So I scratched him off my list and moved on to my next victim, a school official, who smiled as he said, "I haven't had any bad luck today either."

With that comment, I decided that this assignment was the pits and I was really going to have it out with my editor.

"All I got out of this assignment was sand in my shoes and runs in my stockings," I yelled. "I hope you're satisfied."

"I will be," my editor replied, "when you give me this story in 15 minutes. It's deadline, you know."

I did get the story in by deadline with no major problems and I spent a wonderful weekend in the mountains glad that this Friday the 13th had come and gone. But did it?

My "Bad Luck" day lingered on into Monday when I got the photos of my Halloween bats developed and they were too blurry for print.

Seniors Elected to Clubs of America

Four Hicksville High School seniors recently ran for office and were elected to that position in the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America: Christine DeFazio, Vice President; Diane Iardi, Treasurer; Kelly Kinsella, Recorder; and Cheryl Ann Stremel, Parliamentarian.

Survival Skills Program

As part of Ms. Louthan's Survival Skills Program in summer school, the class went on many trips into the community. One of the trips was to Roosevelt Field Mall where the class used money they had earned to make purchases.

The class also visited the Hicksville Public Library and several students participated in the Young Adult Reading Club. Robin Samuels, Artie LaBua, Nuno Lima, Karen Linkins and Kimberly Peters received "Read Out The '80's" certificates forewarding three books and writing a report on each.

"HOME"

There's no place like it.

Ask any of the hundred members of Moshav Ya'ad. The industrial cooperative they call home is set in the unparalleled beauty of Israel's Galilee. A man-made diamond surrounded by emeralds as sweet-smelling as grass.

Only fifteen years old, Ya'ad is today nearly self-sufficient economically. The computer industry is humming healthily, the architectural firm is thriving. A lot of hard work, and a lot of support by the Jewish Agency and UJA-Federation, have made this achievement possible.

But to Doron Rohatyn, a brilliant young architect, Ya'ad stands for more than economic progress. "What we are building here is tomorrow. What we are building is our grandchildren's future," he says passionately.

But when the health center Doron designed for the moshav is praised, he is suddenly reticent.

"My parents' generation accomplished great wonders. What I'm doing is small by comparison."

That's debatable — though not with Doron.

What's not debatable is the resurgence in Doron of the pioneer spirit which first brought the land to life. Even as he takes pleasure in Ya'ad's success, Doron's eyes glint with intensity. "Other moshavs, many farms and villages, still live with severe hardship," he says. "There is so much to be done yet."

With dedication like his, and that of other young pioneers like him, what needs to be done will be.

That's why our money is on Doron — and on the other four million people whom UJA-Federation helps in Israel, on Long Island, in New York, and in thirty-three countries worldwide.

An Illustrated Interview

Are You Superstitious?

"I'm not superstitious," said resident Susan Grella. "but I guess I'm jinxed because I was supposed to have a baby today."

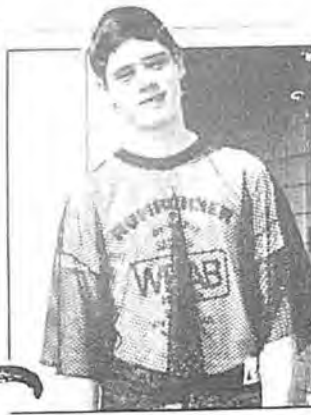

"The only thing that would frighten me [on Friday the 13th] was if a student appeared in a hockey mask," said Ray McDonough referring to the mask that Jason wears in the movies Friday the 13th. Mr. McDonough is the assistant to the principal at Hicksville High School.

In light of Friday the 13th, we decided to ask Hicksville residents if they were superstitious. Here's what they had to say:

Ninth grader Mike Hutzler said of Friday the 13th: "The less you think about it the better off you are."

Dentistry for Children, Adolescents and Concerned Parents

By Douglas Pollack, D.D.S.

Hopefully, the good news of "No Cavities" following your child's back-to-school dental check-up will continue all year long. Here are some tips that may help:

Nutritious Snacking

The mother of two sons from Roslyn asks: "I'm a working mom and need some suggestions for tasty, quick, healthy snacks that won't cause decay."

Dr. Pollack — This is actually a difficult issue. Some children seem to consume massive quantities of chocolate chip cookies, gummy bears, bubble gum and potato chips every day and never have tooth decay. Nevertheless, here are some nutritionally sound selections unlikely to promote decay:

- | | |
|------------------|---------------------|
| popcorn | Jarlsberg cheese |
| carrot sticks | melon slices |
| cubes of cheddar | slices of turkey or |
| celery sticks | roast beef |
| nuts | fresh peaches |

Preventing Decay

An expectant mother from Port Washington with a six-year-old girl asks: How can I give my children the fluoride protection not found in Long Island's water or in spring water?

Dr. Pollack — Studies show that soccer, basketball and hockey players are also very susceptible to mouth injuries. The most satisfactory protection by far is the custom-made mouth protector. This should be made as soon as the athlete begins participating in contact sports.

Dr. Pollack — When used properly, fluoride in gels, rinses and tooth paste has been proven to contribute to the overall reduction of dental caries in children. Many factors must be considered for your family from infancy into adulthood. Consult your pediatric dentist for appropriate guidance.

A concerned mother from Sea Cliff would like to know: "What are sealants? What is a preventive resin restoration (PRR)? I have three children, isn't this the place to cut back?"

Dr. Pollack — Probably not. Although a small percentage of children would be periodically observed for decay, these two procedures are cost effective ways to protect the chewing surfaces of molars and some other teeth. Sealants and PRR's may accomplish what fluorides alone cannot.

Preventing Injury

A father from Glen Cove asks: "My fifteen-year-old son is about to have his braces removed, and has already joined his school's football team, 'Big Red.' I can't convince him to switch to ping-pong. How can I protect my considerable investment in his teeth?"

Your Baby's Teeth

A woman from Great Neck is curious: "When should my child have his first visit to the dentist?"

Dr. Pollack — This is an excellent question, and the answer may surprise you. Until recent years, tradition in pediatric dentistry has recommended that a child's first visit occur at three years of age. This was related to the child's ability to cooperate in the dental setting.

Although the prevalence of dental disease in children is decreasing, infants and toddlers do still experience dental disease. Therefore, many pediatric dentists recommend that a child's first visit to the dentist should occur no later than 12 months of age. The dentist can then evaluate the infant's oral health, prevent potential problems such as nursing caries and educate parents in the prevention of dental disease in their child.

Thumb Sucking Habit

A harried mother from Huntington asks: "My daughter is about to enter kindergarten and still sucks her thumb. Any hints?"

Dr. Pollack — Finger or pacifier habits produce dental changes, and are less socially acceptable as a child becomes older. Efforts to discourage the habit may be as simple as a conversation between dentist and child, or may involve more complex appliance therapy. It is important to keep in mind that we are most successful with gentle reminders, praise for effort and with a child's desire to discontinue the habit.

Preventive Philosophy

The parent of two children in Brookville would like to know: "Why do our children need back-to-school checkups?"

Dr. Pollack — The goal of most dentists is to provide and maintain a healthy, attractive mouth with a full complement of teeth and proper occlusion for their patients. It is through a daily preventive program and professional care on a regularly scheduled basis that we may best achieve this goal for your children.

Dr. Douglas Pollack is the Pediatric Dentist at the Sea Cliff Health Center Located At: 216 Sea Cliff Avenue, Sea Cliff, N.Y., 11579, (516) 676-8148. He will be glad to examine your child and answer your family's dental questions.

Myths and FACTS

by Alexander J. Ricci, M.D.
FLASHES AND FLOATERS

Flashes and floaters are common symptoms, especially in people over the age of 40. Often they are not a sign of trouble. However, if you have flashes and floaters, it is important to be examined by an ophthalmologist to be sure that treatment is not necessary.

What are flashes and floaters?

Flashes are monetary streaks of light which appear like lightning seen from a distance. Floaters are black spots which move as you move your eye. They may take any shape, but are often round circles or lines. A person can have one floater or many floaters. They are much more easily seen against light background, such as pale blue sky while at the beach.

What causes flashes and floaters?

The portion of the eye behind the lens is filled with a clear jelly-like material called the vitreous. As a person gets older, the vitreous jelly, which has a "jello-like" consistency when we are young, becomes partly liquid. When this happens the jelly of the vitreous separates from the surface of the retina. This is called a posterior vitreous detachment or separation. If the vitreous separates cleanly from the retina, there is usually no problem. The patient may be aware of momentary flashes of light caused by the vitreous stimulating the retina as it separates. They may also see new floaters. Most floaters are normal tissue moving in the vitreous. If the vitreous is stuck to the retina in any place, it can tear the retina as it separates from it. This usually causes more obvious flashes to the patient, and they may not go away. If the tear in the retina is near a tiny blood vessel, this may tear with the retina causing a vitreous hemorrhage or blood in the vitreous. This will be visible to the patient as many tiny black spots, or even a black cloud if there is a lot of bleeding. Bleeding is an almost sure sign of a tear in the retina. Posterior vitreous detachment, vitreous hemorrhage, and retinal tears are all painless conditions. If a person did not notice flashes and floaters, he would have no way of knowing that anything had happened in his eye. It is important to have your retina examined if any of these symptoms occur to be sure that the retina did not tear. Retinal tears are more common in very near-sighted people. What is the treatment of posterior vitreous detachment?

Posterior vitreous detachment is a natural part of getting older and normally poses no danger to the eye. There is no treatment for this condition. The floaters usually, but not always, become less apparent and less annoying as time goes on. Even if they persist, this does not cause loss of vision or predispose one to any further trouble. Floaters usually cannot be removed.

Why is it important to know if I have a tear in the retina?

If a person has a tear in the retina with flashes and floaters, there is a very high risk that he will develop a retinal detachment. In this condition the retina peels off the back of the eye like peeling wallpaper. This is caused by the liquid part of the vitreous entering the tear in the retina and getting underneath the retina where it does not get its normal supply of oxygen and nutrients and is damaged. Retina, which is detached, does not function normally, and a person will notice a change in his vision or a curtain or shadow where the retina is detached. A retinal detachment is an emergency which almost always must be treated by a major operation.

Can retinal detachment be prevented?

If a retinal tear is found before the retina detaches, it is usually possible to seal the tear and prevent the retina from detaching. Our method of sealing the tear is by using the laser. Laser is a form of light which makes tiny burns on the retina. These burns act like "welds" to seal the tear in the retina and prevent the retina from detaching. If the tears are too large, in the wrong place, or have caused too much bleeding for laser to be possible, then cryopexy can be done. This is a procedure that freezes the retina into place.

In conclusion, flashes and floaters can be a sign of trouble in the eye. If you have these symptoms it is important to have a retina examination to be sure that treatment is not necessary.

Do You Suffer From Hypertension?

by Michael K. Jason
M.D., F.A.C.P., F.A.C.C.

Hypertension is clinically defined as an elevation of systemic arterial blood pressure. The diagnostic criteria for hypertension is based on an elevation of "diastolic blood pressure" (the lower blood pressure number) greater than or equal to 90-95 mm of mercury (Hg) and/or an elevation of "systolic blood pressure" (the upper blood pressure number) greater than or equal to 160 mm Hg.

Hypertension is classified into three categories based on the elevation of diastolic blood pressure (DBP). "Mild hypertension" is defined as a diastolic DBP > 90-95 mm Hg and < 104 mm Hg. "Moderate hypertension" is defined as DBP > 105 mm Hg and < 114 mm Hg. "Severe hypertension" is defined as a DBP > 115 mm Hg.

Hypertension is present in approximately 10 to 20% of the adult population based on the latest epidemiologic studies. The majority of patients with hypertension are in the mild to moderate hypertension category. Risk factors associated with the development of hypertension include a family history of hypertension, obesity, hyperlipidemia, excessive salt ingestion and smoking.

The clinical evaluation of hypertension is initiated by taking a direct measurement of blood pressure with a "blood pressure cuff" called a "sphygmomanometer".

The proper method for blood pressure measurement is to take a "baseline" blood pressure recording in a quiet room, when an individual is completely at rest. If the blood pressure is elevated, the measurement should be repeated at least 3 times on different occasions to verify the presence of elevated blood pressure or "hypertension".

Evaluation of an individual's blood pressure variability in stressful circumstances (such as in the office or with physical exertion or at work) or when an individual is relaxed (at home or during sleep) is a valuable adjunct to the overall evaluation of a patient with baseline of fixed hypertension.

Knowledge of the average 24 hour blood pressure provides a more in-depth understanding of the overall hemodynamic load that blood pressure elevation places on the heart. This clinical information can be easily obtained with the "Ambulatory 24 Hour Blood Pressure Monitor".

During medically supervised "exercise stress", peak blood pressure can also be obtained with an "exercise tolerance test" (ETT). Knowledge of an individual's exercise stress "peak" blood pressure, plus assessment of associated coronary artery disease are valuable clinical data utilized by the physician in the management of the patient with hypertension.

Evaluation of the heart's anatomic and functional response to the hemodynamic load of hypertension can be measured with a modern non-invasive cardiovascular diagnostic technique called the Echocardiogram (Echo).

In cases of hypertension, over 90% of the patients have so-called "essential hypertension", in which there is no definite or isolated cause of blood pressure identified.

Ten percent of hypertensive patients have "secondary hypertension" due to an identifiable, pathophysiologic cause such as: kidney disease and/or narrowing of a renal artery (reno-vascular hypertension); an endocrine abnormality such as thyroid gland dysfunction (hyperthyroidism, or hypothyroidism); adrenal gland hyperfunction (Cushing syndrome, Pheochromocytoma, Primary aldosteronism) parathyroid gland hyperfunction (hyperparathyroidism), and/or hypercalcemia.

The mechanism of "essential hypertension" (which affects the majority (90%) of the hypertensive patient population) is still not fully understood. Major determinants of blood pressure elevation, however, appear to be salt and water retention (volume expansion), and/or blood vessel constriction (vasoconstriction), and/or increased central nervous system adrenergic activity.

Chronic and/or extreme elevation of blood pressure has deleterious long term effects on select target organs such as the brain, heart, kidneys, and blood vessels.

With elevated blood pressure, there is an increase incidence of cerebrovascular disease (stroke, brain hemorrhage); coronary artery disease (in the form of angina pectoris and heart attack); congestive heart failure, kidney failure, and vascular compromise including peripheral vascular disease (hardening of the arteries) and vascular aneurysm (blood vessel distention and/or rupture).

The M Mode and Two Dimensional Echocardiogram provides the most sensitive and specific measurements of heart muscle thickness (called "hypertrophy"), and cardiac enlargement (called "cardiomegaly"). In addition, assessment of the heart's ability to pump (called "ventricular function") can also be assessed with great accuracy utilizing these sophisticated non-invasive diagnostic cardiovascular techniques.

Hypertension is treated to reduce elevated blood pressure to low or normal levels. With adequate control of blood pressure on effective anti-hypertensive therapy, there is a significant reduction of risk for future adverse cardiovascular events and other target organ problems.

In the setting of borderline or labile hypertension, NO medical therapy is very often the treatment of choice.

If fixed, essential hypertension of the mild, moderate or severe type is diagnosed, the specific type of anti-hypertensive therapy prescribed is often based on the specific pathophysiologic determinants of blood pressure elevation found in an individual, as mentioned above.

THE HEART ATTACK PREVENTION PROGRAM

A state-of-the-art facility devoted to helping you lower your risk of heart attack with proven effective, medically supervised coronary risk reduction programs.

PROGRAM 1: Cholesterol Reduction Treatment Program

Qualifying Diagnosis: Hypercholesterolemia/Hypertriglyceridemia
Total cholesterol levels of over 240 mg/dl, LDL cholesterol of over 130; High blood cholesterol is a major heart disease risk factor. People with over 240 mg/dl are 4 times more likely to have a heart attack than those with 200 or lower.

Prognosis: Excellent
Almost 80% of people with high blood cholesterol can lower it without drugs by as much as 30% with simple changes in their behavior.

A 30% reduction in blood cholesterol levels results in a 60% reduction in the likelihood of having a heart attack.

Note: People with cholesterol levels of 160 or lower do not have heart attacks Prescribed Rx: Physicians' Step-One* Cholesterol Reduction Program. Participation in a self-administered, medically-supervised program of information and education.

Time Required: Less than 10 minutes a day (at home) and one office visit a month.

Program Credentials: Endorsed by leading lipid experts in the country and currently a key element in Harvard Medical School's Lipid Treatment Program.

Survey reveals migraine is more than a headache

The severity of migraine pain causes sufferers to miss an average of nine work days each year, and sometimes as many as 30 days. All told, sufferers lose more than 64 million workdays, costing industry an estimated 50 billion dollars due to absenteeism and medical expenses.

The effect of migraine on business is just one of the findings of a recent nationwide survey conducted by the National Headache Foundation, through a grant from Wyeth-Ayerst Laboratories. The 30-question written survey was completed by more than 3,000 migraine sufferers across the country.

Dr. Seymour Diamond, executive director of the National Headache Foundation, and director of the Diamond Headache Clinic in Chicago commented, "Migraine, the most debilitating form of headache, affects approximately 18 million Americans.

"The results of the survey will help us gain deeper insight into the individuals afflicted by the condition, enable us to analyze how the pain destroys lives, and apply the findings into our constant search of improving diagnosis and treatment procedures."

Treatment of symptoms

The most common migraine symptom is throbbing pain (86 percent), followed by light sensitivity (78 percent), nausea (76 percent), sound sensitivity (62 percent), vomiting (47 percent) and dizziness (32 percent).

According to Dr. Diamond, "Migraine is often referred to as a sick headache because of the tormenting symptoms a migraine sufferer experiences. To someone who doesn't get bad headaches, it is difficult to explain, but to the migraine sufferer the pain is not only real it is debilitating."

Adjectives can only begin to describe the pain a migraine sufferer experiences following the onset of an attack. The respondents cited adjectives such as "excruciating" (49 percent), "pounding" (34 percent), "piercing" (26 percent), "torturing" (20 percent) and "drilling" (nine percent).

The pain of migraine is so agonizing that an overwhelming 99 percent of the respondents have consulted a physician about their headaches, and 81 percent continue to be under a physician's care. Most (72 percent) seek the help of neurologists, while others go to family physicians (60 percent) or internists (47 percent) for treatment.

In the past, migraine sufferers sought treatment after the occurrence of the pain. Today, medical technology has made it possible to help prevent migraine through effective prescription medications such as the beta blocker propranolol.

The survey showed that 20 percent take it regularly, with 85 percent of sufferers stating that they would be willing to try it to help prevent the migraine attacks.

"By treating patients in a preventive manner, the quality of life for countless numbers of migraine sufferers can be improved. At the Diamond Headache Clinic, we use the beta blocker propranolol in the long-acting form, Inderal LA, to treat patients who experience frequent and severe migraine attacks.

"The medication is easy to use, since it only needs to be taken once a day to provide protection against migraine over a 24-hour period," Dr. Diamond stated.

Other findings

Most migraine sufferers have a good idea of what triggers their migraine attacks. Dr. Diamond believes that identifying these triggers is vitally important to the treatment of migraines.

Sixty-eight percent of the respondents noted stress was a major precipitating factor. Other responses included food such as chocolate, the food preservative MSG, cheese and citrus fruit (57 percent), alcohol (55 percent), bright lights (37 percent) and smoking (32 percent).

After the pain

When a migraine attack passes, some sufferers say they "jump for joy" (four percent), others "have a good meal" (three percent) and some simply rest (27 percent). But the majority of sufferers (33 percent), happy to be rid of the pain, simply resume their normal activities.

 Opening lead — queen of clubs

Most hands played by declarer fall into a pattern he has encountered many times before. Because of this, most declarers tend to treat similar situations in similar fashion. However, this is not always the healthiest approach to the play of a hand.

Consider this deal. West played the jack and West shifted to the nine of spades. Declarer followed low from dummy, losing to the king, and East returned a low trump.

 At this point South put on his thinking cap. Had he guessed, which seems to be the natural thing to do, he would have gone down one. But South was not a player who relied solely on past experience.

He realized that finessing the heart return would be proper in most hands, but he also realized that it would be the wrong play in this hand. Accordingly, he went up with the ace, spearing the king, played the ace and another diamond, and wound up making ten tricks after ruffing two of dummy's diamonds in his hand.

There is no denying that South was lucky to find West with the singleton king of hearts. But good luck is frequently a concomitant of good dummy play, and South was entitled to his moment of glory in nabbing the singleton king.

Declarer realized at trick three, after East had shown up with the jack of clubs and king of spades, that East could not also have the king of hearts. Had East held all of these cards, he surely would have responded to his partner's opening bid. So, after concluding that West had to have the king of hearts, South went up with the ace. Because he recognized that his only chance was to find the king unguarded.

 VETERANS of FOREIGN WARS of the UNITED STATES
 Hicksville, N.Y.

By P.P.C. Carmine A. Somma

Every year our Post and its Ladies Auxiliary sponsor the annual Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program for all the schools in the Hicksville School District. For more information call the chairman, Jr. Vice Comdr. Al Vitello and Past President Carmela at 935-3560. This Voice of Democracy program is open to all the high school students in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades, both public and private schools in the Hicksville area.

From October to January we are the only V.F.W. organization in the Hicksville area that will be soliciting ads for our Souvenir Journal by letters. No phone calls will be made. Our members have I.D. cards to verify they belong to the Wm. M. Gouse Jr. Post 3211 V.F.W. If they cannot produce the proper I.D. call the V.F.W. Hall at 931-7843 or the Commander, Anthony Ferrara, at 798-3359.

Our comrades from the Vietnam Veterans of America Nassau County Chapter #82 are asking the public and friends of the V.F.W. Post 3211 for used clothing for the Viet Nam Veterans in Logan County, West Virginia, also known as "Appalachia." It also is the most economically and financially distressed county in the United States. They are asking for used clothing from infants to adults—for all seasons. Ask your friends and relatives to "clean out the closets" of what they no longer need. The target date for delivery is Veteran's Day, Nov. 11. We want to fill a tractor trailer of goods. Please call one of the following to arrange for either pick-up or drop-off:

Ron Young 535-2905 (Project Chairman); Barry Heimbender 794-3950 (East Meadow area); Connie Steers 822-5938 (Hicksville area); Mike Aubel 325-8619 (Franklin Square area); Bob Lohrer 483-1509 (West Hempstead area); Paul Masi 433-4935 (Plainview-Bethpage area); Susan Glasbrenner 535-2899 (Mineola area); or contact the Vietnam Veterans of America at 483-3113.

Also needed are pots, pans, kitchen utensils, dishes, toys, and canned goods.

On Sept. 3 our Ritual Team Capt. Mike Tisdell and his boys marched in the Fire Department's Labor Day Parade. On Sept. 4, Labor Day, members of the post put out the flags along Broadway.

On Sept. 13, the D.A.V. #143 honored the doctor and nurse with a luncheon for the good work they do at the V.A. Satellite Clinic. Members of the post attended as did Dennis Day who was representing Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta. Every Wednesday and Friday, comrades and sisters of the Post served coffee and doughnuts to vets who come for medical help.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Department of New York, had their fall conference on Sept. 20 through Oct. 1 at the Royce Carlin in Melville. Auxiliary member Joan Chwalisz of Hicksville, State President, presided at the meeting.

On Sept. 30, the Dept. of New York honored Joan Chwalisz with a testimonial dinner dance to be held in the ballroom at the Royce Carlin Hotel.

On Oct. 28 at the V.F.W. Hall, the National President of the Ladies Auxiliary and the V.F.W. State Commander will be honoring Joan Chwalisz as State President of the Ladies Auxiliary at the Wm. M. Gouse Jr. Post #3211 V.F.W. Hall.

On Sunday, Nov. 5, the United Veterans Organization of Nassau County will hold Veteran's Day Services at Eisenhower Park at 10 a.m. All are welcome.

The Glen Levitt Post 655 of the Jewish War Veterans, the host post, and the Hicksville Combined Veterans Organization and the Ladies Auxiliary will hold its traditional Veteran's Day Services on Nov. 11 at Hicksville Middle School at 10 a.m. All are welcome.

On Dec. 7, the V.F.W. G & E Linder Post 8031 New Hyde Park designated to host the Pearl Harbor Memorial Day Services aboard the USS Intrepid anchored at Pier 86 at 40th Street and West Side Highway in New York City.

The Wm. M. Gouse Jr. Post 3211 V.F.W. will host the Hicksville Memorial Day Parade Commemorative Services in May 1990. Any organization wishing to participate in the parade should contact the chairman Connie Steers at 822-5938 or the V.F.W. Hall at 931-7843 for additional information.

We of the V.F.W., along with the help of our Ladies Auxiliaries, can indeed put a light on the continuing plight of our POW/MIAs in South Asia.

Flying our country's flag at half staff for seven days, will definitely make the citizens of our communities curious enough to question why we are doing so. And when asked, that is the time to inform them of our POW/MIAs and the fact that we are not flying our flag at half staff in memory of our men, but in remembrance of our POW/MIAs.

Our Chaplain, Mike Cialdella, reports the comrades and sisters and their families who have been hospitalized or homebound during the past month: Past President of the Ladies Auxiliary Louise Normandy.

Our sincerest condolences to the following families: Elaine Karman, wife of comrade George Karman, passed away; also to the families of Comrade Rune Yberg.

The Post welcomes new comrades who have joined our Post: Comrade Robert Dorsch, U.S. Army. He was in Vietnam. Also Michael Bercase, U.S. Army and Frank Rienzic, U.S. Navy WWII.

Congratulations goes to Josie and Joe Salvaggi on the birth of their new granddaughter and Frieda and Tony Ferrara also have a new granddaughter. Congratulations to Rose and Joe Adesso on their 40th wedding anniversary and Evelyn and Eddie Martin on their 42nd wedding anniversary.

Hurricanes Win in Triple-H Tournament

By Jay Schwartz

The 1980 Hicksville Hurricanes, the Hicksville American Soccer Club tournament team, took first place trophies in the Triple H outdoor tournament, held on Oct. 8, 1989.

Triple H, for Hauppauge Helping Hands, is a charity tournament used to raise money for kids. The Hurricanes played in a division against Bay Shore, Hauppauge and Sachem, and won 1-0, 5-0, and 5-0. The goalkeeping of Matthew Schwartz and Mark Alexander was flawless as they held their opponents attack after attack.

The eleven goals were scored by eight different players as they tested their skills in various positions. Top rated goal scorers were Gary Wisniewski with three and Matthew Schwartz with two. The other goals were scored by Tommy Werchenski, Nicholas Holman, Frankie Dugan, Mike Tanella, Martell Levy, and John Andronikides.

In game 1, the players were fighting to a bitter 0-0 tie until the last ten minutes. The two teams played tough end to end soccer and many shots were deflected by the defensive players. Finally a loose ball in front of the Bay Shore net was tapped in by Werchenski.

The second and third victories of 5-0 each were easier wins and showed the better team was on the field. The Hurricanes were more confident and passed the ball well. The effort was there and it was very exciting for Hicksville parents. The team showed some of the techniques they had practiced and began to communicate on the field as they planned their attacks.

The fantastic players were Mark Alexander, John Andronikides, George Koutsoumbis, Martell Levy, Mike Sloboda, Scott Sica, Jeffrey Brousseau, Mike Schnipper, Mike Tanella, Joey Rini, Matthew Schwartz, Gary Wisniewski, Nicholas Holman, Frankie Dugan, Anthony Pesce and Tommy Werchenski.

The team's record is third place at Brentwood, second place at Smithtown, and first place at Hauppauge.

(Coaches note: Congratulations to the players! A special thank you goes to all you parents for always being there with the team.

The coaching staff, Jay Schwartz and Jim Wisniewski, is very proud of the team and the way they played that day.)

Comets Lose to Uniondale, 54-0; Remain Winless

Joseph Fenneisen's fourth-quarter dropped pass in the end zone was the closest Hicksville came to scoring in their 54-0 loss to Uniondale. The loss put the Comets' record at 0-4 for the season. Hicksville will have a better chance this Saturday when they play East Meadow at McCormack Field at 1:30 p.m.

Minutemen Place Third in Soccer Tournament

by A. T. Icki

The Hicksville Minutemen, the 1977 B travelling soccer team, captured third place in their division at the Brentwood Columbus Weekend Soccer Tournament with a record of three wins and two losses.

The first game was a 2-0 victory over Oyster Bay on goals by Brian Rigert (assist by Andres Turcios) and Danny dePinho (assist by Declan Healy). The second game was a 4-0 loss to Levittown. The third game was a 1-0 victory over Copiague on a Brian Rigert goal set up by Jorge daSilva. The fourth game was a heart-breaking 3-2 loss to Patchogue-Medford, as the Minutemen came back from 1-0 and 2-1 deficits to tie the game on goals by Tracy Koetter (assist by Kenny D'Introno) and Anthony Noya (assist by Tracy Koetter). Monday's game, a 4-0 victory over Deer Park, was a game of total domination, with goals scored by Jorge daSilva (2), Danny dePinho and Greg Walunas, who put it in from midfield.

The players, in addition to the ones mentioned above, were Robin Blicher, Bobby Braun, Jason Brown, Timothy Dalton, Bobby Wagner and Mike Whitman, all of whom contributed over the weekend. Special mention has to be made of Tracy Koetter's play in goal, which was sensational and included three shutouts.

Coach's Note: I wish to thank the players for a great tournament. Assistant Coach Tony dePinho, who coached the team on Monday, and Assistant Coach Pete Whitman. Sponsor Seaman & Eisemann supplied the conflict shirts and travelling bags, which were put to extensive use during the tournament.

Soccer Club Briefs

The Hicksville Soccer Club is looking for boys or girls to referee our intramural games. The pay is excellent and is a good opportunity to earn some extra dollars. If you're interested, call Al at 694-4654.

The Club will be holding elections on December 1 at the Middle School (8-10:30 p.m.). If you are interested in serving as treasurer, secretary, vice-president or president for the coming term, please attend our meeting. Naturally, all members are welcome at this time as well.

The Club extends its congratulations to the 1980 tournament team for winning 1st Place in their division at the Hauppauge Columbus Weekend Tournament. The team won three games, scored 11 goals and gave up none. Nice work, guys.

Basketball Update

Our fall registrations have come to a close. Our Senior League still has openings. Our coaches have been meeting to get their teams and schedules. Our teams will be grouped as follows: K-2, 3rd and 4th, 5th and 6th, 7th and 8th, and our 9th to 12th grade Senior League. We are very pleased also this year that we have a 6th grade Travel Team, coached by Mr. Don Cleary.

Our Cheerleading will be K-3rd grade and 4th grade up. We are happy to announce a new coach for our younger girls, Patti Shaul. Again this year we are very fortunate to have Mrs. Vicki Passaro coaching our older girls. We have arranged all our fall programs around the religious education classes at St. Ignatius Church.
