Date Change for Hearing

Northwest Civic Association members opposed to the development of a two-story industrial building have asked the Oyster Bay Town Board to change the applicant's morning public hearing to nighttime. The request was granted last week after the civic association had close to 400 people sign a petition asking for the hearing date change. One hundred signatures are required by the town for such a change to take place.

The building's owner, Peter DeJana, is seeking a special use permit to construct the building and allow the outdoor storage and repair of vehicles in connection with municipal services such as street sweeping, catch basin cleaning, leaf collection and snow removal.

The property is located in an "H" industrial district on the north side of West John Street approximately 100.72 feet west of the intersection of West John Street and Kuhl Avenue.

A Northwest Civic Association spokesperson said that members are opposed to the building because it will cause more noise, traffic and pollution—similar traits of nearby Twin County Recycling which residents have been fighting to close down for years.

The daytime hearing was originally scheduled for this past Tuesday, March 27. A town spokesperson said that May 8 was the earliest date the night hearing could be scheduled. The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the hearing room of Town Hall East, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

Traffic Light Needed

Local officials and merchants rallying for a traffic light in front of the new Motor Vehicle office will have to wait until the end of March before any decision is made by the Department of Transportation.

A traffic study was to be completed by February, but according to DOT spokesperson Charles Ruk more studies have to be done. Ruk could give no specific time frame when a light could be installed, if approved. But in a letter to Senator Ralph J. Marino, Oyster Bay Town Supervisor Angelo Delligatti said several constituents informed him that if the signal was approved, DOT officials would not install it until 1992 or possibly 1993. "I believe waiting this long will only prolong an unsafe condition," Delligatti said in the letter.

Government officials, including Delligatti, Marino, and Assemblyman Fred Parola have been asking for a traffic light since last year.

"It's a crazy corner," said Tony Citrolo, owner of the Carvel on South Broadway on the corner of Ludy Street. "We've seen an accident a week here."

Area merchants said that a traffic light is needed on Ludy Street at South Broadway. The motor vehicle office is located on that corner.

According to merchants, it is most hazardous when drivers traveling south on Broadway make a U-turn to proceed north on Broadway to enter the motor vehicle office. At the same time, drivers are making a right from Ludy Street to go north on Broadway. Drivers traveling about 50 to 60 miles per hour in the 40 mph zone add to the hazardous condition, according to Citrolo.

"It's an intersection where death is waiting to happen," said John S. Guinta, CPA, whose office faces the area. "Is that what it will take... to spur on the DOT?"

Area Fires Reported

The Hicksville Fire Department responded to the following alarms:

- On Feb. 21 at 6:30 p.m., firefighters responded to Terry Street for a car fire in

. . . and Out Like a Lamb

It's always been said that March comes in like a Lion and out like a Lamb, and this seems to be ringing true this year. Our photographer has been capturing Hicksville neighbors conforming to the readings of this crazy barometer.

The weather earlier last week brought us ice and snow, while this past weekend saw the temperature in the 50s and 60s.

For this week, Hicksville residents can expect clear and sometimes cloudy skies with temperatures in the 70s.

Casey Marie Smyth

She's A Grandmother

Mrs. Clare Smyth, of Hicksville, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene DeStefano of Valley Stream, announce the arrival of their new granddaughter, Casey Marie, on Feb. 10.

The proud parents are Sue and Tom Smyth, of Levittown. Casey weighed in at 7 lbs. 1 oz. and both mom and dad are doing fine. Tom is a graduate of Hicksville High School. Sue is a graduate of Lawrence High and Oneonta College.

New Bank In Town

I was speaking with Jim Fyfe the other day and was informed that the North Fork Bank and Trust will be coming to Hicksville some time in May. It's going to be located across the street from St. Ignatius Loyola Church in that lovely little shopping center.

Jim tells me that he is going to be the manager of that branch and that he will be looking forward to seeing old friends at the grand opening (date to be announced).

Jim is no newcomer to banking. He started working as a manager at the Hicksville Long Island National Bank 34 years ago, then manager of the Long Island Trust, and then manager of The Bank of New York. He said, "I didn't change banks—they just kept changing the name on the door."

Jim was always very active in the business community of Hicksville. He is a past president of the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club, and the Hicksville High School Alumni Association. He said, "I am looking forward to giving future customers the same kind of hometown service and personal expertise that I gave them from the beginning when I started with the Long Island National Bank."

If anyone would like to talk to Jim he can be reached at 222-9293.

Good luck, Jim, we're glad to see you'll still be in Hicksville.

What A Present

Happy birthday wishes are being sent to Kevin Kani from his older brother Keith, and mom and dad, Chris and Glenn, for his March 5 birthday. Last Friday Kevin "Jumped Rope For Heart Association" and then that night his parents gave him a pre-birthday present. They took him to the Monster Truck Show at the Nassau County Coliseum—which he really enjoyed.

Chris said, "I'm having a hard time getting used to the fact that my youngest is now in the double-digit birthdays. Boy, does time fly!"

A Future Scientist???

The Gregory Museum held a Science Fair recently —and Our Lady of Mercy's Fourth Grade class took a lot of honors.

Larissa Budinich won 1st place in the 3rd and 4th Grade category—and not only that—but she won Best In Show for grades 1 through 8. Her project was "Osmosis." She was asked, "Where did you get the idea from?" Larissa answered, "From Mr. Wizard on television." Last year she also took 1st place in the 3rd and 4th year category.

Two of Larissa's classmates followed her by taking 2nd and 3rd in the same category. Joanna Welk took second place and Andrew Cherry came in third. Their teacher, Mrs. Smith, must be a very motivated teacher. The children love science. Another 4th grader (from another class in OLM) took Honorable Mention—Rebecca Walsh.

Keep up the good work—we're all very proud of you.

It's A Small World

A few weeks ago I wrote an article about friends that moved to Micco, Florida after living in Hicksville for 36 years—Jean and Joe Scully. Well, I received a call from Jean last Saturday night. They had just come home from Mass and she couldn't wait to tell me what happened.

During the Mass they asked Joe to take up the collection. He did, and after Mass when they were walking to their car they heard someone calling Joe. They turned and guess who it was? Bill Cutrone and his wife, from Hicksville. Bill told Joe, "When I looked up and saw you, I nearly flipped. I had read in The Illustrated that you had moved to Florida—but I didn't realize it was in the same town that my relatives lived in. You two left town and became celebrities. We all read your story in the paper." Jean said it was so nice to meet them.

Anthony John DiFilippi

It's Their First

Congratulations to Anita and Tony Franzese on the birth of their first grandchild, Anthony John born on January 6 to their daughter, Lisa and James DiFilippi of East Meadow.

Little Anthony came as a nice present for Tony who was 63 on Jan. 7. Happy birthday, Tony.

New History Collections at Hicksville Library

Several notable collections of photographs recording the history of well known Hicksville organizations are among donations now in the Local History Room of the Hicksville Public Library. Hicksville's Robert O. Ulmer, Post 44, of the Amvets' history for the years 1947-1967, comprises two albums of photographs and newspaper clippings. The albums are the treasured collection-effort of James "Jimmy" Colley, of Bethpage, who was raised in Hicksville, served in the U.S. Army in World War II and was active in Amvets affairs for many years. Now a resident of Bethpage, Colley is well known in poetry circles for the many patriotic and sentimental poems he has written over the decades.

Another photographic "history" now preserved in the Hicksville Library's Local History Room are 10 albums of pictures and annual show programs of Hicksville's Holy Family Players. The musical productions, under the leadership of Tom and Peggy O'Connor, were the delight of many Hicksvillites over 20 years. The lovely ladies and their male companion singers were feature attractions of many Hicksville celebrations and their visits to nursing and senior homes and other social and religious agencies were legion.

Boy Scout Troop 158, in its years of active life, was a vigorous, well directed scouting group. Now disbanded, the memories of its activities, members and their scoutmasters and leaders live in 6 albums of photographs, programs presented to the library Local History Room curator Richard Evers by Past Scoutmaster Saul Meltzer.

Increasingly, the library's local history collections are a repository and community resource of much value and ready accessibility. Inquiries for community and organizational history information may be made at the Local History Room Mondays through Thursdays, 2-5 p.m. and by appointment.

Last year 1/4 million people said goodbye to their banks. Here's why.

Over the last twelve months, 250,000 New Yorkers found the best of what banks have to offer at The Bank of New York.

They found the fastest loan approval system in consumer banking. With The 60 Minute Loan,™ we do in minutes what it takes most banks days, even weeks, to do.

They found a unique new installment loan called Homeowners Edge, which not only gives you a great rate, but 100% of the interest may be tax deductible.*

New customers also found two of the most remarkable ways to save money. With Priority Savings,™ we not only offer one of the highest rates in town, we give you unlimited access to your money. Day or night. Our new Priority CD is the one CD that goes up with interest rates and doesn't go back down. It's the only CD you'll ever need.

Better yet, we offer free checking with both Priority Savings and Priority CD.™ There's more.

Over the last year we added sixty new branches, giving us the largest, most convenient suburban branch network in greater New York. Over fifty of our branches offer full service banking on Saturday and most are open Thursday or Friday evenings. Which means you can now find us in more places open more hours than ever before.

So why not visit one of our more than 240 convenient locations.

Something's happening at The Bank of New York. Maybe you ought to be in on it.

"Saturday hours simplified my life!"

"Finally, an installment loan that's tax deductible."

"My Priority CD rate can only go up!"

"I never knew I could get a rate like this on liquid savings!"

"Now I can get an answer on a loan in 60 minutes or less."

"There are so many ways to get free checking!"

We're making it hard to bank anywhere else.

*Dependent on the actual amount of the deduction. The amount of the deduction is limited to the amount of the taxpayer's adjusted taxable income. See the Bank of New York Member's Guide for more information.

BETTER DAYS

WHY PANIC!

By DR. HERBERT LANDAU Ph.D., P.C.

Many individuals, as they begin to develop a relationship with another person, also begin to develop a sense of panic and instinctively withdraw. People with this pattern frequently begin to obsess about their own and the other person's faults, thus creating a cycle of anxiety, panic and withdrawal.

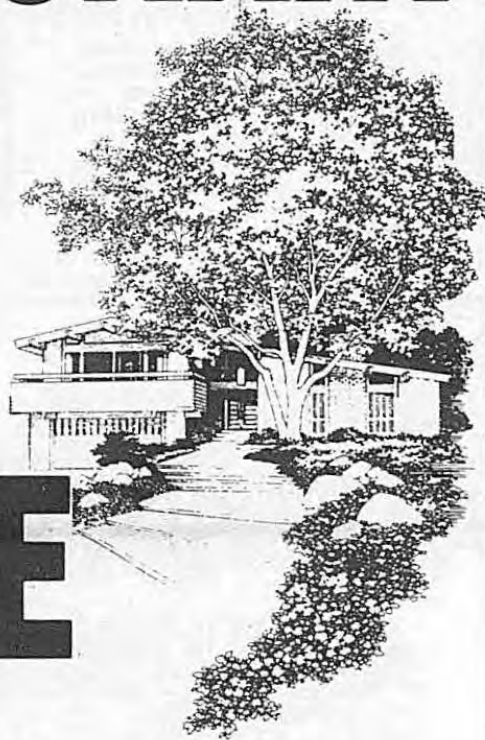

These individuals tend to have few friends, a long history of intense but short-lasting relationships, a sense of isolation, and depression. They may also have a history of short-term experiences with therapists.

Endurance is the key. Learning to control panic requires resisting the impulse to run whenever the panic sets in. Fears of vulnerability, dependency and loneliness are inevitable, and can only be resolved through a commitment to a treatment process. Going through these stages in a therapeutic relationship can help reduce the need to create panic in one's life.

AVOID COSTLY REPAIR BILLS CAUSED BY LACK OF MAINTENANCE!

The best way of extending vehicle life and avoiding thousands of dollars in repair costs is a program of regular service and maintenance. Failure to simply check the oil is usually a matter of forgetfulness, especially since many gas stations no longer perform this service as a matter of course. CARE MATE is designed to aid auto and truck owners by reminding them of these procedures on a timely and consistent basis. That puts you in control! Now you can tell your mechanic exactly what needs to be done on each occasion!

"I FORGOT - AGAIN!"

How many times have you said that to yourself? Has it cost you a new engine yet? If it has, you know that an engine low on oil, or one that hasn't had regular filter replacements, can cost you $2500.00 or more. That little record book you keep in the glove compartment doesn't reach out and grab you by the eyes and ears to tell you it's time to replace the EGR valve.

But CARE MATE does!

It tells you exactly what needs to be done. And keeps on reminding you until the service is actually performed!

THE TIME TO ACT IS NOW!

Don't go another day without this electronic marvel. Put one in each car and truck you own. And be sure to order some for those friends and relatives who always seem to "forget" the importance of regular car care, then blame it on the car when it leaves them stranded on the side of the road on a dark winter's night. You'll make them worry-free, and they'll think you're an angel on wheels for being so considerate (and so knowledgeable!)

Remember, it works for anyone, on any car or truck. There's no complicated installation - just mount it on or near the dash with the mounting strips provided.

Trading cars? Not to worry! CARE MATE goes with you, not your old car. More good news: They're only $39.95 each, plus shipping and handling.

Charles Wagner Post #421,
Hicksville

Charles Wagner Post 421 recently donated use of our clubhouse to Vietnam Veterans of America Nassau County Chapter 82 for committee meetings during Operation Catch, which was a clothing and food drive to assist needy Americans in Logan County, West Virginia. It was our pleasure to support this great endeavor.

Charles Wagner Post 421 has donated a coffee urn and canteen books to hospitalized veterans at Northport VA Medical Center. Rehabilitation Offices VCAI Cinnotti continues to help our hospitalized vets at Northport.

He has backed a measure giving Vietnam veterans exposed to Agent Orange disability pay if they suffer from certain cancers associated with the toxic herbicide, which contains dioxin.

Happy St. Patrick's Day!

YES! The Irish love potatoes, but do not use them for distilling into whiskey. Irish Whiskey is distilled from fermenting mash of malted and unmalted barley, corn and rye. Most Irish Whiskeys are seven years old or more and have been triple distilled. It is a very smooth whiskey with a BIG flavor of malt. Although relatively expensive, Irish Whiskey is very well made and considered a very clean drink. Other delicious Irish specialties are the delicately sweet Irish Mist and the luscious Irish Creams! How about a worldwide favorite:

Irish Coffee.

At East Street

Artistic Production in Full Force

Mrs. Simon's first graders and Mrs. Mingin's fourth graders at East Street School met again to help enrich the fairy tale unit that Mrs. Simon's first grade class is involved in. Excitement, smiles, planning and artistic production were all in full force. Mrs. Mingin and Mrs. Simon will show the work from these two classes from this program at an expo in June.

School Shorts

• Hicksville High School is one of 22 area high schools selected to take part in Cablevision's "EduCable Pilot Project," a program aimed at assisting educators in using cable television programming as a curriculum enhancer in their classrooms.

• During January, two assemblies entitled "Super Puppy" were presented at Saint Ignatius Loyola School by the Town of Oyster Bay. The presentation for grades 1 and 2 dealt with having a good self-concept. The assembly for grades 3 and 4 presented information on a good self-image and also dealt with drug abuse. Both programs were presented by Harry Meyers of the Department of Community and Youth Services.

• Mrs. Mingin's fourth grade students of East Street School are learning about life cycles and humane care of animals through the study of mealworms. The children do "gentle" experiments with the worms.

First reaction was not 100 percent positive, but both the children and their teachers changed their minds after experiencing this unusual unit.

• Eighth graders at Saint Ignatius Loyola School celebrated Remembrance Day on Jan. 26. The students received their school rings at a ceremony conducted by Father Ed Tarrant. An ice cream party for the students was given by the Parents' Association after the ceremony.

Reading Is Fundamental

RIF (Reading is Fundamental) sponsored a program for the first through third grade students at Lee Avenue School on February 13. The children wore costumes of their favorite book characters. The winners were: Jennifer Andrews (1st grade), Erik Gonzalez (2nd grade) and Megan Healey (3rd grade). The winners received a gift certificate to Waldenbooks. All the children received books and many won prizes from the raffle.

Lee Avenue is grateful to their Reading Teacher, Dr. Scher, and her RIF Committee—Mrs. Puglia, Mrs. Maurer and Mrs. Alvarez for organizing the program; Mrs. Pfizenmayer and Ms. Eisen for all their help with the project; Mrs. McLaughlin, Lee's storyteller; Judges Mr. Mateer, Mrs. Dalo and Miss Nielse; and to all the parents for their cooperation.

Selected Polaroid Program

The art teachers in the Hicksville Schools are participating in two workshops given by consultant Philip Seymour on the use of Polaroid camera products in the classroom. According to William L. Gagnon, Supervisor of Fine Arts, the program is offered to select schools by Polaroid and as a result the Hicksville Schools are the recipient of more than $3,000 worth of cameras and processing equipment. The products range from self-focusing cameras to equipment which develops and prints the new Polaroid 35mm color film. In addition to instant developing of 35mm film, the process allows for immediate printing of slides, prints, film strips and overhead transparencies.

Teacher Chosen As Panelist

Hicksville High School Art Teacher Cynthia Appold will be a panelist on a seminar entitled "Issues in Computer Graphic Education: The Dream Curriculum . . . And the Realities," March 30 in New York City. The seminar is being sponsored by NYC ACM/Siggraph (Association for Computing Machinery/Special Interest Group in Graphics) education division. Panelists include chairpersons of national Siggraph's Education Committee, four local colleges (Pratt, FIT, The School of Visual Arts, and William Patterson College) and two local high schools. Ms. Appold was selected due to the exemplary program she has developed within the Fine Arts Department at Hicksville High School.

Student Wins Ads-By-Kids Contest

Kathy Tomolonis, a seventh grade student at the Hicksville Middle School, was a winner in the Newsday "Ads-By-Kids" competition. Kathy's was one of 16 winning ads submitted by youngsters in the metropolitan area.

As part of an annual school-business partnership, more than 2,400 students designed ads for 16 firms in the sixth annual Newsday/New York Newsday Ads-By-Kids contest. Kathy's advertisement for Ponderosa Steak House appeared in a special section of the March 7 Newsday. Winning students are invited to a May 2 luncheon at Newsday that includes a tour of the newspaper with a special visit to the advertising art department.

Mentorship for Kathy in this competition was provided by Joseph Scalis during an Academic Enrichment workshop in January.

Family Math Day

Families from all parts of Nassau County, including Hicksville, are expected to attend the second Family Math Day Conference at Oceanside Middle School, on March 24 from 8:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

Adults and children will have a rare opportunity to investigate and discover a wide variety of new and exciting mathematical topics. About 50 workshops will be offered. For more information call Les Mann at Hicksville Schools, 933-6502.

Meteorologist Visits Burns Ave.

Norm Dvoskin, the meteorologist from Channel 12 News, visited Burns Avenue School on Jan. 26. He gave a very informative talk to all the second graders and gladly answered the many questions the children asked. This was a wonderful culminating activity to their Science Unit on Weather. Second grade teachers Mrs. Blaaboer, Mrs. Mele and Mrs. Oliveri also enjoyed Mr. Dvoskin's presentation. Each child was presented with a small gift as a remembrance of his visit.

Water Resource Education

In cooperation with the Cornell Cooperative Extension, 4-H Education Center, many elementary school children in the Hicksville School district now know about water conservation and the preservation of the drinking water supply on Long Island.

The presentation, "Water Resource Education," taught by visiting instructor Ann Boehl, is designed to help elementary school children become aware of the water cycle and the need for conservation. To appeal to that age group, the program included visual games and was experiment-oriented. The children enjoyed the program as it captivated their imaginations to the many uses of water, and to all the ways that water is obtained.

Ann Boehl leads the water conservation demonstration for Evelyn Grib's third grade class at Fork Lane School.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity.

We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Response to Letter

To The Editor:

Unfortunately, neither Mr. nor Mrs. Kelly understood my letter to the Editor regarding school closings.

Given the fact that the School Board and the Administration have not acted for over two years to examine the recommendation of the Reorganization Committee, I could not understand the almost circus-like atmosphere of recent school Board Meetings, where we saw School Board members rushing to bid one school against another, or raising the ante from one school to two or three schools as the night went on, in an attempt to "make an informed educational decision."

If the School Board and the Administration sat on their hands for over two years, what prompted them to act NOW? Clearly, the empty classroom Mr. and Mrs. Kelly cite did not mysteriously appear overnight. They've been here for years.

Yet, due to economic consideration, they are now the reason for closing schools.

Just why, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, are singleton classes on a grade level so undesirable? Is their undesirability educational or is it economic?

Yes, I did suggest redistricting (as did the Reorganization Committee) as an alternative to school closings. Hopefully, redistricting would still permit students to attend their neighborhood elementary school for at least part of their elementary years.

Now that moving the 6th grade to the Middle School has been eliminated, the only educational reason given for closing schools is the need to level class sizes. And this is something that can be accomplished without closing school(s).

Nothing I wrote would hurt any children. No one cares more for the children of Hicksville than I and my fellow teachers. We truly have the best interests of students at heart.

Maybe you didn't hear the mother who cried out that her daughter was losing her hair for fear that her school was going to close.

Maybe you didn't hear the men and women who said that saving $50, a year in taxes isn't worth the turmoil of closing two schools.

Maybe you didn't read the 70+ letters the School Board received with 97 percent calling for schools to remain open.

Maybe you didn't hear these comments and read these letters, but we did; or maybe you heard these comments and read those letters and chose to ignore them.

Bob Zaleski, President
Hicksville Congress of Teachers

Taxpayers Have To Survive Too

To The Editor:

In response to Mr. Zaleski's recent letters, he would have us believe that the Hicksville Congress of Teachers union is innocent of being one of the main reasons why the school budget has escalated to such an extent that drastic measures are being considered to keep our taxes from overwhelming us.

Mr. Zaleski states that the teachers' salary increase will cost the taxpayers only $2.2 million (10.4 percent) this year. What he neglected to state was that there will be another 10.7 percent increase on top of that next year and another 10.55 percent on top of that in 1992 for a total increase of over 30 percent, or more than $6 million in three years.

He also neglected to mention the benefits package for the teachers, which costs us approximately 30 percent to 40 percent additional on each teacher's salary per year. This includes 100 percent paid medical for teachers and their families including some dental, both of which are increasing each year, a very generous retirement plan with small pension contributions by teachers and generous stipends and fees for any extra time spent working with clubs, sports, etc. For example: $32.00 an hour for teaching driver education, $33.00 an hour for after school enrichment program, class or club advisor $1,300 a year, Drama club adviser $2,600, sports coaching as high as $3,200, etc.

All this and a total of 182 actual working days a year—9 months of work!! And in two years a number of our teachers will be receiving base salaries of over $60,000 under the new contract. Teachers most definitely should be paid adequate salaries and benefits, but there is no question in my mind that the latest contract has helped to precipitate the current budget crisis.

Yes, there are other areas where we can tighten up. A hard look at Administrative staffing, salaries and costs would be appropriate. The entire asbestos matter should be reevaluated to do only what the law requires. If the parents and homeowners truly want to keep all the elementary schools open as they have indicated, then they should also be willing to try redistricting and give up some special programs. If we redistrict, every principal should be required to justify, in detail, the cost of running his school, justify every staff member and maximize their services.

Teaching positions should be excessed wherever possible. Teacher aides should be eliminated except where mandated and aides used instead of teachers for classroom reinforcement, as in English as a Second

In response to Hicksville residents desire to clean up the community, C.W. [unclear] sent in these photos to demonstrate the deterioration in the area.

A boarded-up building at the northwest corner of North Broadway and Barclay Street, formerly Henry TV Store. An Oyster Bay Town spokesperson said that they have received complaints that the building is not safe and garbage has been illegally dumped on the sidewalk. The Planning and Development Department will look into the matter, the spokesperson said.

The old Bagel House at the northwest end of the Broadway Mall

This gas station on North Broadway at James Street, near the mall, has been abandoned for years. In Nov. 1989 the owner of the gas station requested a permit from the Oyster Bay Town Board to convert the building into a self-serve station and convenience store. A town spokesperson said Friday that the town board is continuing to review the application which includes an environmental review. This is a typical review process for any application before the town board decides whether to approve or disapprove the permit.

Language classes. Other areas should also be explored.

If the neighborhood school concept is to survive in Hicksville, then the district must be run lean and mean. Concessions must be made by teachers, parents and administrators. All absolutely unnecessary and resume enhancing programs must be eliminated. Our school board trustees should have the personal courage to make the hard decisions needed to bring sanity to this current madness and not "cop out" when the going gets tough.

Serious questions have been raised regarding the propriety and validity of last year's teacher contract negotiations, resulting in the unconscionable salary increase. These questions have not as yet been fully explored. Perhaps the time has come for everyone to sit down and renegotiate that contract so that it will be fair and equitable to both teachers and taxpayers, and perhaps offer some incentive for our high salaried teachers to retire.

As I stated at a recent board meeting—the HCT union got the teachers the golden egg in their last contract, but in the process they killed the goose. Teachers aren't the only ones who have to live, Mr. Zaleski—taxpayers have to live also.

A Letter from Lubelle...

...Last week I was, by chance, in the town where I went to college, and I drove around the streets between the sorority house and the college academic buildings—streets I had always walked since so few had cars in those long-ago days...and I parked in front of the sorority house which was looking rather neglected (the sorority moved long ago)...and I looked at the long front porch which was so delightfully dark when we came home with our dates...and I looked at the window I sometimes left unlocked for my best friend sorority sister who had such a hard time getting home by curfew time...and that's when I started to chuckle—"curfew time"—how the young today would scorn such an idea...11 o'clock on weeknights and 1 a.m. on weekends—and if you were a senior, one extra hour each month to add to the allowed ones...and who do you suppose enforced these rules?...we did it ourselves...we took turns being "on duty" and we signed in and out, and we were honor-bound to report those who overstayed...and they were sent to a residence council disciplinary board where "punishment" was meted out—usually no privileges at night for a period of time...and no men were ever allowed above the first floor—perish forbid!!!...It all seems so archaic when we look at open dorms today—but I'm not so sure it was so terrible—we didn't know any better so we didn't mind...and it did give a sense of rules...it was such a good excuse if we wanted to be rid of a date...and above the first floor we could look as awful as we wanted without worry that "he" would see!!!...Would I like to have been born later?? I really don't know...it's so very much harder to be young today.

Yours, Lubelle

Tax Time Again

In January 1989, this column had four articles on taxes. We discussed the odds of being audited, the procedure when you get audited and how to get audited. If any of you want a copy of the series, write to this newspaper with a stamped ($0.45), addressed, #10 envelope. They will come quickly. This year, it seems appropriate to discuss the errors that will draw the attention of the IRS auditors. We will provide helpful hints on how to protect yourself. They are mostly common sense, but often overlooked. Most suggestions come from many years of being audited.

First, make sure you have adequate records. If you are audited, you get killed without good records. A daily diary is essential. Mark your diary every time you buy anything business related, including your newspaper. Many of these are miscellaneous deductions, so you might not meet the minimum to overcome the 2% taxable income threshold. These can add up. Did you know that you can deduct your donations to the Salvation Army street people with adequate diary notes? Memory is not an acceptable verification. Many people underdeduct charitable contributions.

Second, do not do your own taxes. I used to do my own taxes until 3 years ago. No longer. The tax laws have gotten so incredibly complex that it no longer pays. Now a well-trained accountant does it. I still have to get the data together. The accountant prepares my return in the most advantageous manner for me.

Third, when you prepare your information, do it with the understanding that you may be audited. That way you will not be sloppy and careless. You will be organized. When I was audited, I could prepare for the audit in about 1/2 hour. It takes time on the front end, but the peace of mind is worth it.

I wrote two articles on being organized as the result of my audit experiences. Ask for them.

As an example of my preparation: every deposit entry in a checkbook has a notation of the source of the deposit. This beats trying to remember two years later.

Fourth, file early or on time. TO NOT WAIT UNTIL THE DEADLINE to start accumulating your data. This causes all sorts of omissions and errors. It increases your chances of an audit or an overpayment of taxes.

Fifth, this is part of the diary section. Do not over-deduct business expenses. Have very good records and reasons.

Sixth, be sure that all of your 1099 forms are attached and noted on the form. These are 100% machine scrutinized. They trigger audits. The IRS is more concerned with this than deductions. They are 100% subject to taxes. Deductions only partially lower the tax bill.

Seventh, do not file late. You have to pay an estimated tax when you file the extension. If you are and you do not pay at least 90% of the tax when you file, you are subject to penalties. Do not be late in filing the extensions. The penalties and interest mount up: 5% per month, up to 25% of the unpaid tax as interest and maybe another 5% per month, up to 25%, as penalties.

Eighth, if you have good documentation and are well prepared, you can represent yourself at an audit. Most taxpayers are advised to let the tax preparer do it for them. Experience counts. Years ago, a client was charged with fraud. By the time the tax lawyer was finished, the client paid nothing. It was all legitimate with no hanky-panky. Experience counts.

Ninth, tell the truth. The auditors are not stupid hacks. They are highly trained and experienced. Most are good and most are fair. TELL THE WHOLE TRUTH, but only answer what they ask and NO MORE. The fastest way to get into trouble is to relax your guard and make mouth noises.

Tenth, you may get an agent that tries to browbeat you. Too many taxpayers are passive at audits. They are scared and they take whatever the agent says. The agent's decision is not final. When the IRS requests an audit, they send along information about your rights. You can request another agent. You can ask to see the supervisor. You can request to go up to the appeals section. I have done this more than once. If you lose, you pay the extra interest. You can pay up front and get a refund, plus interest if you win. Payment does not prejudice the appeal.

I hope that you never get audited. If you are, be properly prepared. Do not worry unless you took too many liberties.

ROBERT R. McMILLAN'S Direct Line

Every time we turn a page, there is some new alarm out of Albany relating to vanishing state income. Is the shortfall just one billion dollars, or is it a lot more? Who knows? Right now, in an election year, there is a great deal of finger pointing. Everyone is ducking for cover as though a flight of pigeons were overhead. The Governor blames the Legislature and legislators throw the problem back to the Governor's budget process.

The latest warning about the state's financial problems comes from both Standard & Poor's and Moody's. As two of the nation's most significant credit rating organizations, any questions from them about state finances may end up costing you and me dollars due to higher interest payments on the state's debt. New York's neighbors, Connecticut and New Jersey, have a higher standing with the credit rating organizations. Therefore, the issue is not regional.

New York is now on a "credit watch," and the financial community will be keeping a close eye on how the Governor and Legislature handle the latest chapter in New York's fiscal votes. No one wants to mention the so-called "T" word. And, no one wants to cut your program or mine.

In the damage control efforts, the Governor has stated he will seek a suspension of the previously scheduled tax reduction. Some movement has also been made to cut certain portions of the budget. But the efforts appear to be hundreds of millions of dollars short by anyone's accounting. And, that is before school aid is negotiated. There is also talk that the next fiscal year could even be worse. The Governor says the credit rating of the state is up to the Legislature. In reality, both branches have a responsibility. During an election year, we can expect both parties to try to avoid taking the blame for new taxes or deep budget cuts. No one wants new taxes and many New Yorkers do not want program cuts either.

Perhaps there are some lessons from Long Island which might help — not solve the problem — but help. As taxes at the local level on Long Island spiraled out of sight, the Governor was quick to support Congressman Tom Downey's suggestion for a commission to explore ways to reduce spending by counties, towns and villages. His support even meant two hundred and fifty thousand state dollars to provide some funds for the commission. Overlapping layers of government provide real opportunities for tax reduction. That Long Island commission, fully supported by both major political parties, is about to begin operations. It may very well do some good work.

The Governor should consider a similar approach at the state level. Commissions may be a way for politicians to duck controversial issues, or they can provide direction for government leaders on complex issues. The state's budget is complex and a commission of leading New Yorkers could provide some intermediate term solutions. One thing is clear. New taxes could make New York even less competitive. New Jersey and Connecticut are already havens for many people who work in New York and chose to live elsewhere because of one factor — New York income taxes.

In addition to a "commission" to examine ways to control expenses, the Governor would be well advised to bring in business experts to look at the efficiency of state agencies. Perhaps a total restructuring of state government is in order. Businesses regularly restructure to get creative juices flowing and to tighten up on expenditures. A good starting point would be take a close look at budget cuts suggested by the New York State Business Council. It has provided an excellent starting point, and some suggestions are worthy of implementation.

The state's credit rating should not be left to partisan politics. As taxpayers, we should demand closer scrutiny of how the state operates. If we don't, "business as usual" will mean picking our pockets. Questions and opinions may be addressed to Mr. McMILLAN, Anton Community Newspapers, 132 East Second Street, Mineola, NY 11501.

A Tough Decision

To The Editor:

At the Board of Education meeting on February 7, 1990, regarding school closings, Board members were asked to recommend schools for which further data be generated. This was something which made Board members and community members feel very uncomfortable.

Following that meeting many letters were sent to Board members, parents and community members. When I asked for back-information on certain schools I felt obliged to give reasons for my decisions. The community members were not aware of the reports that the Board had for back-up material dating back to 1983 up to and including information generated for that night. It appeared to the community that schools were being chosen for no apparent reason. It disturbs me when I hear a statement of mine such as "East Street has 1.2 million dollars worth of asbestos removal" be misinterpreted and sent home to parents as "Millenbergs looks at East Street as a heap of asbestos". Then those parents arrive at the February 27 meeting believing that I actually made that statement.

Three years ago, I came to the Board with 500 other "Burns Avenue" people to fight a referendum to sell our school. At that time it was determined that a closing may not be predicated upon the availability of a particular tenant.

I was surprised at the last Board meeting to hear that the groups of three schools for which board members had expressed additional back-up information had become two combinations: East-Fork and East-Dutch. Given my history with Burns Avenue, I began to relate to the East Street parents who were saying "if we are going to close a school—why not look at all the options?" It's impossible to gain the trust of those parents when they haven't had the same opportunity that we have had to look at the information.

Under normal circumstances the Superintendent would be able to contact the Board President, who in turn would contact the Board (by phone or memo) to determine what back-up material should be generated. For example: I not only want the information on transportation and facilities, but I would like to hear or see reports from Directors, Supervisors and other school district personnel on the impact to programs. The Superintendent does not have the impact to programs. The Superintendent does not have the authority to contact individual Board members for direction, nor does the individual Board member have the authority to give the Superintendent the Board's direction.

Closing a school is one of the hardest decisions that a Board and community has to face. With this essential part of the Board—Superintendent relationship missing, it is impossible for the community to give its trust to this School Board.

For this reason, among others, I feel that the Board should generate the back-up material for all eight elementary buildings and distribute the material to all the community groups: Civic Associations, Parent-Teacher Associations, Community Council, etc. Given the time frame that the Board of Education is now facing I feel that we should concentrate our energies on the 1990-1991 budget and schedule school closing hearings in the fall.

Irish Americans

To The Editor:

As Saint Patrick's Day nears, I am writing to express deep gratitude to Irish Americans who have helped make our community and nation a great democracy. Nearly 40 million Americans claim Irish descent. Irish Americans serve as role models to all immigrants as the Irish faced extreme British oppression in Ireland and prejudice during early immigration to America. The Irish experience in America is a success story from the agonies of crossing the Atlantic in steerage during the 1800's to the elections of presidents John F. Kennedy and Ronald Reagan. Our federal government now restricts the immigration of Irish to the shores of the United States. How soon we forget our past and the accomplishments of Irish immigrants.

Please support House Joint Resolution 482 to declare March, Irish-American Heritage Month.

March 17 is a Great Day for the Irish.

Define Your Space With Borders...

Even with a limited budget, a little imagination combined with a sense of style can make a little decorating go a long way.

The use of wallcovering borders is a good example. They are inexpensive, according to the Wallcovering Information Bureau, yet they can perform miracles in transforming an ordinary room into a fashionable one.

Available in a range of patterns, designs, and colors, and in widths ranging from two to 20 inches, borders are easy to apply to plain walls to give a room a decorative accent. Or, they can be combined with coordinated wallcoverings for added detail and visual interest.

Applied at chair rail height, for example, they can be used to separate one wallcovering pattern from another. Borders can also be used to accent doors or windows. A border near the ceiling featuring a trompe l'oeil pattern will add architectural interest to a plain room.

If planning a do-it-yourself decorating project to make the budget go further, consider borders that have already been pasted and trimmed. All you need to do is dip them in water and smooth them onto the wall. Be sure the walls are clean and dry and that all picture hooks are removed and any cracks or holes filled and sanded.

Borders are designed for years of sturdy service. Yet accidents do happen on occasion. Should an edge work loose or a small tear appear, apply paste to the wall as well as the back of the loose or torn piece of border. Press it in place, roll it smooth with a seam roller and wipe off any excess paste.

In the case of nicks or small holes, paste a larger piece of border over the damaged spot. Be sure to match the pattern exactly. Let the patch set for an hour. Then, use a razor knife to cut through both layers. Clear the area and repaste the top piece. Wait 15 minutes before rolling the fitted edges smooth.

Like other wall coverings, borders are available in paint and wallpaper stores, specialty shops and decorating and home centers. Additional information on borders and the entire range of wallcoverings can be obtained in "Work Wonders With Wallcoverings." To get a copy, send 50 cents to WIB, Dept. HP, P.O. Birthday Wishes

"Happy 18th birthday, Michelle Stanganelli, from Mom, Dad, James and Gizmo. We wish you the best—we love you Sweet Pea."

• A very happy 60th birthday on March 15 to Dotty Kacprzycki. Best wishes are coming from your husband, Stanley, children Stas, Jo Ann, and Ronnie, and grandchildren, Chris, Brian and Brittny Ann. All your family and friends wish you many more birthdays in good health. They all think you are quite special.

Dotty, Stanley and Stas have just returned from a five day stay in Las Vegas where they stayed at the Flamingo Hilton. While there, they gambled a little, saw several shows and went sightseeing. They were met there by Dotty's longtime friend, Kathleen Johnson (formerly of Hicksville), her son Gary and daughter-in-law, Kathy. All had a ball.

Michelle Stanganelli

Congratulations

Happy anniversary wishes are going to Kathryn and Charlie Becker who will be celebrating theirs on March 18 . . . A Happy 15th anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. John Lyons who will celebrate their anniversary March 22 . . . and a very happy birthday to Katie Shurley who will be seven years old on March 23.

They Always Cared

There are those people who go through life just helping and caring about everyone. Kathleen and Howard Zimmermann are two of those people. Longtime residents of Hicksville, Kathy and Howie recently moved to Florida. Many will remember Howie as "UnkHowie" when he managed the St. Ignatius Girl Cadet Drum and Bugle Corps. These two people could always be counted on for their help and guidance in any situation. For all the people whose lives you touched here in New York, Kathy and Howie, may you continue to touch others in Florida with your goodness. We all miss you here in New York, but know that at any time Uncle Howie may take Aunt Kathy for a Sunday drive—right back here to Hicksville for a visit.

Get Well Wishes

We're sending our best wishes to Peggy Yberg, who is home recuperating after open heart surgery for a valve replacement six weeks ago. Peggy had a similar operation more than ten years ago. I understand that she's coming along fine. All her friends would like her to know they're rooting for her and are glad that she's up and around. Atta' way to go, Peggy.

Our Condolences

We received a note from Marianne Kutner, telling us that she received a note from Elaine (Laudan) Kilpatrick with the news that Elaine's mom, Helene Laudan, died January 12, at 88 years of age, in Florida.

Many of you will remember Mrs. Laudan—she and her husband owned a delicatessen on Bay Avenue, just south of the court house (now the Gregory Museum), many years ago.

• Our condolences to the family of Joe Giordano, who died March 6. Joe was one of the founders (in 1972) of the Galileo Lodge located on Levittown Parkway. Armand DelCiooppo, 2nd assistant to the president, said he would also like to send condolences from the Lodge to Joe's family.

He's Named After Rudolph

Rudy Anton

The following prized pet was submitted to us by Betty Anton. She writes:

This my dog Rudy. I received the dog as a present from my daughter-in-law for Christmas in 1983 after my husband died. The only name I could think of was Rudy. It reminded me of Rudolph the Reindeer. He is registered with the Kennel Club as Rudolph of Froelich Farm (The street Rudy lives on).

He loves riding in the car with me and when he wants a treat, he stands in front of me and barks, then runs into the kitchen where I keep them. He also rolls all around the floor for a special treat.

Opening lead — jack of spades.
It is clear that any kind of chance is better than no chance at all. This principle can arise in many different forms during the play of a hand, but it's not always easy to recognize and apply it.

Consider this deal where West leads a spade against four hearts. East wins with the ace and returns a spade to dummy's king. Declarer now plays a heart from dummy, East following low, and loses the queen to the ace. Eventually, declarer loses a club and another trump trick and finishes down one.

The outcome seems perfectly normal, but actually South missed his cue. Had he played his trumps differently, he would have made the contract instead of going down one. When he led the heart from dummy at trick three, South should have played the eight from his hand, not the queen! Granted that this is an unusual play to make with such a holding, the fact remains that it is the right play to make under the circumstances.

The clue to the winning play lies in the bidding. East, after showing up with the ace of spades at trick one, cannot also have the ace of hearts, bearing in mind his pass of one spade.

Therefore, when the heart is led and East follows low, it cannot be right to play the queen knowing it will lose to West's ace. This is sure to lead to the loss of a second trump trick later on, regardless of how the trumps are divided.

The play of the eight offers a legitimate chance for the contract. It rests on the hope that East was dealt the J-10-x or J-10-x-x of trumps. True, it's not much of a chance, but any kind of chance is better than no chance at all.

Our basketball season is almost over. It has been a season of excitement, learning new skills, sharpening old skills and making new friends. This sentiment is not only exhibited in our girls' basketball/boys' basketball programs but also in our girls' softball, boys baseball, judo and karate programs.

On Feb. 26, 1990 the Hicksville Girls' Basketball Purple Team continued its season with a game against the Bethpage Red Team. The game was played at the Bethpage Champaign School. The final score, in a very good defensive game played by both teams, was Hicksville 10, Bethpage 2. The Hicksville highlights are as follows:

Colleen Johnson 2 points

Danielle Caruso 2 points
Cara Lagatutta 4 points
Laurie Zeller 2 points
Kristen Anstey 4 rebounds
Barbara Hundertmark Good solid play
Karen Zeller 2 steals

In a game played at the Bethpage Kramer School on March 5, 1990, the Bethpage Orange Team handed the Hicksville Purple Team its first loss of the season by a score of 12 to 10. The Hicksville highlights are as follows:

Karen Zeller 4 points
Cara Lagatutta 4 points
Kristen Anstey 1 point
Barbara Hundertmark 2 points
Danielle Caruso Overall good playing
Laurie Zeller Good defense

Mike Kanuck Honored at Junior Soccer Convention

The Board of Directors of the Hicksville Americans Soccer Club honored Mike Kanuck for his many years of meritorious service to the club at a dinner at the Royce Carlin Hotel on March 2. At the dinner, attended by nearly 1,000 people, each participating club designates one person who has been visibly active in their organization for many years. Mike has held many positions on the board over the years, including president. Currently, he is supplies director and procures the apparatus needed to play soccer, as well as purchasing the medals, trophies, patches and uniforms, which may be given out during the season. Mike was cheered on by the following at the dinner: Phil and Mary Ann Caputo, All and Karen Blicher, Jay and Gail Schwartz, Jim and Dorothy Wisniewski, Barry

Lawson and Janet Richards, Joe and Maria Matz and Pat McHugh. Congratulations to a tireless worker and fine honoree.

Over the remaining two days, the convention rolls into high gear. Travel coaches attend seminars and pick up their packet of information for the upcoming season; children have a room to themselves to trade patches; there are various workshops for kids and adults alike to wander in and out of; booths with information on soccer camps; sports medicine, etc.; vendors selling soccer-related merchandise; college forums; sportsmanship awards given out; refreshment area; a chance to meet a soccer star or two; and an exciting, bustling time for all and a fun, informative way to spend the day.
