One incumbent, four former school board trustees and two other residents will be seeking seats on the Hicksville Board of Education May 23 at its annual election.

Running on Row 'A' on the ballot is John Ayres, Arlene Rudin and Stephen Pendergast. Running on Row 'B' is Jo Ann Miltenberg, Jay Schwartz and Carole Wolf.

Running on Row 'C' is Charles Strugatz. Incumbent Miltenberg is running for her own seat and is being challenged by Pendergast. Arlene Rudin, Jay Schwartz and Charles Strugatz are vying for Daniel Mac-Bride's seat. MacBride is not seeking reelection. Carole Wolf and John Ayres are running for Mark Cardella's seat, Cardella is also not seeking reelection.

In addition to electing trustees, residents will be asked to vote on a 153,084,000 proposed budget. Voting is from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. at all the elementary schools, except Willet Avenue.

Jo Ann Miltenberg

An active member of the community and a current trustee of the Hicksville School Board, Jo Ann Miltenberg says two of her main goals for the district include acheiving a "high school of excellence" and better communication with the community.

In addition, she would like to see uniform education on the elementary level. "We have eight elementary schools offering a very varied education." Miltenberg explained. With uniform education "all Hicksville students would enter the Middle School with the same background." A solution to this problem, according to Miltenberg, would be to form a district committee—eight elementary teachers, a principal and the director of the area—to review books to be used district

Miltenberg said that although she is not satisfied with the proposed 153 million budget, she does support the budget every year. "All we save on austerity is 3 percent of services to our children and our community," she said.

Miltenberg said that a large portion of the more than 20 percent increase in the budget

Kathleen Lee and Brian Rice Exchange Vows

Miss Kathleen Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Lee of Hicksville, became the bride of Brian Rice, son of Leo (Sonny) Rice of Stony Brook, New York and the late Frances Rice of Hicksville.

The ceremony, officiated by Father Mike Ade of Holy Trinity High School, took place at Holy Family Roman Catholic Church, Hicksville on Sunday, November 13, 1989.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Barbara Ann, also of Hicksville. Bridesmaids were Joyce Rice, Jacqueline Kennedy Spehr, Jo Anne Polk, Suzanne Gambella, Diane Guido and Cheryl Cassmer.

Jessica and Cynthia, daughters of Barbara and Danny Lamberti were flower girls. Steven Lee, cousin of the bride, was the altar boy.

Best man for Brian was his brother, Peter Rice, formerly of Hicksville, now residing in Canada. Ushers were Danny Lamberti, Richard Saladino, Bruce Nadleman, Karl Krycznski, Kevin Lee and Kenneth Lee.

Kathleen, a graduate of Hicksville High School, class of 1979, is presently employed in nursing at Winthrop University Hospital. Brian, also a graduate of Hicksville High School, class of 1977, is manager of Rice-Mohawk Corstruction, Inc., a family-owned business.

A reception at the Crest Hollow Country Club in Woodbury immediately followed the

The happy couple are presently residing in Bayside, but plan to take up permanent residence in Hicksville in the very near future.

Rosary's Spaghetti Dinner

Approximately 500 people neighbors and friends attended Holy Family Rosary Society's family spaghetti supper last

From the onset, the dinner received broad support from the community as well as the local merchants who donated most the food and paper products needed for the evening. Even the Levittown Fire Department helped out with donations of ice, when the school's icemaker broke

The parish youth were very much involved in serving the dinner and well as providing entertainment.

The Holy Family (Boys and Girls) Scouts and the parish confirmation candidates helped with serving the food and clean up. Under the direction of Peg and Tom O'Connor, the Holy Family School Chorus composed of fourth, fifth and sixth graders performed. The "Amazing Chris Rodgers," an eighth grade boy scout, amazed all with his magical feats and "Her-bie" the clown (Herb Grimmer) brought smiles and laughter to the faces of both young and old

The grand finale for the evening was a sneak preview of the Holy Family seventh and eighth grade drama club's production of "Bye Bye Birdie" which could be seen in its entirety on May 3, May 5 and 6 in the school auditorium.

Although the supper was a fundraiser, it was primarily successful because it brought both the young and old families of the parish and community together.

Jamie Won The Contest

Good Shepherd Lutheran School of Plainview has announced that kindergarten student Jamie Sherbo has received special recognition by the Dental Society of the state of New York. She was selected as a winner in the 1990 Children's Dental Health Month Coloring and Essay Contest.

Our Prayers Are With Her

We're sending our prayers and best wishes to four-year-old Laura Krummenacker, daughter of Larry and Marybeth (Murphy) Krummenacker. Laura and her dad will be heading to the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Maryland, on May 16. Laura was diagnosed in September with Renial Fanconi's Syndrome and Cystinosis disease. Laura must go to the NIH three times a year for re-evaluation and follow-up study in their program.

God bless you on your journey. We hope you hear some good news.

The Candles Are Burning

There will be candles burning this week for Michael Ciorciari who will be celebrating his birthday May 16 . . . and for David Rock who will be celebrating his birthday on the same day . . . Anne Pollock will be celebrating her birthday on Sunday, May 20.

Happy birthday to all of you.

From Evelyn

Grandma Evelyn Merk of Hicksville wishes her granddaughter, Christine, a happy birthday. Christine will be five years old on May 18

Also, she's sending the following message: "A Happy 50th wedding anniversary to her good friends, Catherine and Chris Reimels, who special anniversary day is May 18.

Owen Won $100

We heard over the radio that Owen Magee of Hicksville, who works for the Hicksville Fire Department, won $100 from K-JOY 98.7, last week.

Didn't think we'd find out and write about it in the newspaper, did ya', Owen?

We also heard on Radio Station Z-100 that Hicksville High School has been nominated for the School Spirit Contest in which the winner receives a free concert by heavy metal rock band, Motley Crew.

As of last week, we heard that Hicksville High had the most votes so far. Anyone can vote for our high school by calling the toll-free number: 1-800-992-8683, or by sending votes in in bunches of 100 to: Z-100, 767 Third Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017. Good luck!

Open Letter To Marie Hoosack

"Dear Mom: We want to publicly wish you a happy birthday—which will be happening on May 21. We also want to wish you a belated happy Mother's Day-cause we want everyone to know that you have been the best mother in the whole world. We want you fo know that we're all with you at this time and that we love you very much. Thanks for everything. Love, Barbara Sarluco and Karen Lulenski"

School Board Candidates Discuss the Issues

By Rita Langdon

This story is the last part of a two part series on the Hicksville School Board candidates' race. The following story contains the responses to questions asked of the candidates at recent community forums,

Two main candidates' forums were conducted by the Hicksville Council of PTAs and the Hicksville Community Coencil.

Candidates in the race include Carole Wolf and John Ayres vying for the seat of Mark Cardella who is not seeking another threeyear term. Arlene Rudin, Jay Schwartz and Charles R. Strugatz are running for Daniel MacBride's seat. Incumbent Jo Ann Miltenberg is being challenged by Stephen Pendergast Personal profiles of the candidates begin on page 1.

Residents can vote for the candidates and the school budget next Wednesday, May 23 from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. at all elementary schools except Willet Avenue.

Would you be willing to give full disclosure of all your campaign expeditures before the election and state publicly that you do not want any PAC committee, firm associations, corporations, or persons placing advertising, spending money or working actively on your campaign without your knowledge?

Strugatz-Willing to disclose.

Schwartz-Yes, I would not want anyone spending money, without my knowledge for my campaign.

Rudin—Yes, I will disclose. As far as PAC money, I would be opposed to that happen-ing, because we as candidates would be responsible for recording that money even though we had no say in how. . . that money is spent on our campaign.

Ayres—I'll be more than happy to list all my campaign expeditures. I'd even be willing to turn over my last seven years' income tax Miltenberg-I think that full disclosure is not only legal but ethical.

Wolf-I've always filed disclosure statements. I would not like anybody putting anything in the paper or any type of expenses without my knowledge.

Pendergast—I would not appreciate anyone running any kind of ad without my

If you were voting on a new teachers' contract, would you even consider a more than 30 percent increase for a three year contract?

Ayres-In negotiations all things are considered. I think it's an impossible question at this time

Miltenberg-No.

Wolf-No

Pendergast-I'd have to look into it.

Strugatz—You have to pay teachers enough to attract good teachers. You have to consider what you paid them in the past. Obviously,

Schwartz-I would not. Rudin-No.

Do you favor re-districting?

Ayres-Whatever the reorganization committee did is no longer valid. They did not convince the community that they had done their homework. I think that you have to do the whole process over. I don't think you can say at this point you're in favor of redistricting or school closings. You have to look at all the facts.

Miltenberg—I'm not in favor of redistrict-ing which will move the district lines. The board researched that extensively. It showed that approximately 200 families would be moved at no savings to the community. It doesn't help anyone to take one child out of fifth grade class because he falls on the redistricting line and send him to another school. It makes more sense that that child go with the school to another school and not be taken away from his friends and his classmates. I am for looking into school closings.

Wolf-I don't really believe that it would be cost effective. It would not benefit anyone, Pendergast-I believe that anything can be worked out if the community is involved. If you explain to people exactly why things are being done, you shouldn't have a problem. I'm in favor of redistricting.

Strugatz-Close one to two schools. Redistricting will not accomplish anything other than picking some poor little kid up and separating him from every friend he'd ever Schwartz—I felt closing schools would have a negative impact on the town, but I said I would look into redistricting and pairing of schools. I haven't seen all the data that the current board has received, but I'm open to look at that and make changes.

What specific plans do you have regarding fiscal problems and control of expenses?

Miltenberg-There are programs that have failed that need to be looked at. She cited the Growing Healthy Program in the Middle

she had no control over because she is a member of the board minority.

As for the level of academic achievement in the school district, Miltenberg said that she thinks "we are heading in the right direction by eliminating the standard level and making the regents level what we expect from our children." She added that the Regents Review classes has helped significantly.

The lack of state aid is of great concern to Miltenberg. "Now we are receiving 17.2 per-cent in state aid and it should be over 50 per-cent." She added, "It is not fair to the homeowner to have to pay the increase every year the state reduces aid.

In response to the recent controversy of school closings she said that the decision to do so should not be based solely on financial reasons, but also on educational ones. Also, she would like to see a report on program impact.

Miltenberg said that one of the main reasons she is running for the board is to protect and provide her three children and the district's students with the best education possible. In addition, she said she has voted 'no' on any action that would be fiscally irresponsible.

Miltenberg, who is being challenged by Stephen Pendergast, has been a member of the board since July 1987.

Currently, she is a member of the Hicksville Community Council, Burns Avenue PTA, Hicksville Republican Club, Northwest Civic Association, Hicksville Park District Task Force, a daisy and brownie leader and the board of education's liason to the PTA Council,

She has been a Hicksville resident for 10 years. She also holds a bachelor's degree in mathematics and a master's degree in secondary education.

Charles R. Strugatz

Charles R. Strugatz cites his knowledge and experience in law, insurance and education as an important asset to being a school board member

Self-described as a "qualified independent who will always think of the children first," Strugatz said he can advance educational and safety needs of the district's children while eliminating wasteful spending. He proposes cuting central administration by 5 to 10 percent and replacing teacher/nurses to save 1320,000, "unless [the] union provides consessions.

Strugatz' goals for the district include pro-moting academic programs for every level of achievement at all grades and having transportation companies provide continuing training to drivers to safeguard children from bus disembarking and street crossing accidents.

Also of concern to Strugatz is the highly publicized cases of student sex abuse within the school district. He said that he was the only person to ask the school board for a policy to confirm with Albany the validity of teachers' licenses before placing them in classrooms. "I was [also] the first person to call for more crossing guards before closing any schools," Strugatz said.

When asked what Strugatz, an attorney, could offer the district that perhaps another candidate can not, he said, "I can ask meaningful questions of the school district's attorney to fashion strategy to compel insurance companies, not taxpayers, to pay potential child abuse litigation judgments"

Strugatz said that he is willing to close one or two schools provided that the building(s) selected is "a fair-picked school(s), in worst condition, and close to other schools." He added that a school should not be sold, but leased to a party acceptable to the community.

Strugatz said he is not satisfied with the proposed $53 million budget but "since 97 percent will be spent even if the budget is defeated, placing hardships on athletic and transportation programs, I reluctantly support the budget.'

Community activities Strugatz has par-ticipated in include Hicksville Baseball Association and Hicksville Americans Soccer Club. He also provides free legal services to Little League and the Soccer Club.

The 10-year Hicksville resident who is running for Daniel MacBride's seat is being challenged by Arlene Rudin and Jay Schwartz.

John P. Ayres

A member of the Hicksville School Board from 1975 to 1984 and a high school guidance counselor, John P. Ayressays he can bring ex-perience with budgers and how to reduce

One of the main reasons Ayres said he is running for the board is because "I am concerned with the lack of leadership and the manner that recent boards conducted Hicksville's business." Ayres said he has helped prepare 10 annual budgets during his tenure on the board. "In 1982, we actually had a 22 cent decrease in the tax rate," Ayres said. "A first and only in Hicksville history."

Ayres said he can reduce the budget by cutting what he calls top-heavy administrative staffing and addressing the school closing issues. Yet, at the same time, maintaining quality programs and increasing academic performance.

Although Avres is not satisfied with the proposed 153 million budget, he said he encourages everyone to vote yes "because the difference between a passed budget and austerity is only 4 percent and impacts directly on student activities, transportation and community services.

As for the issue of school closings, Ayres said that the school board "failed miserably because it did not do its preparations." He added, "Forty-five empty elementary classrooms and a Middle School operating at a half capacity is certainly an indication that we need a workable plan!

Areas of education Ayres thinks the board should focus more on include putting emphasis on programs for the average at "at risk" students. "They must be better prepared to compete in college or the career of their choice," he said

Also of great concern to this 23-year resident is the poor student tests results in English, math, science, SAT's and Regents exams which he said are below neighboring district. "We must raise the expectation levels of students, provide extra help pro-grams, increase attendance levels and provide optimal college/career counseling," Ayres

Ayres has an accounting degree from Hofstra University and a master's degree in counselor education from St. John's University.

He is being challenged by Carole Wolf.

Arlene Rudin

Reducing the tax rate, slimming down the budget and soliciting full community input on school closings are the goals Arlene Rudin hopes to reach if elected to the Hicksville School Board.

In addition, she would like to establish job performance measurements for the superintendent of schools and re-establish the school board's legislative committee.

A 18-year resident of Hicksville, Rudin has been a member of the Hicksville School Board from 1983 to 1986. She has also participated in a number of school and community activities some which include serving as parliamentarian of the Hicksville Council of PTAs, a SEPTA member, past president of Dutch I are PTA, former council delegate for the Junior High and Senior High PTSA, past vice-president and treasurer of the Sisterhood of Community Reform Temple. When her children were younger, she was a camp fire girl leader and assistant coach for the

Homeowners Say 'No' to More Fumes and Noise

By Rita Langdon
For many years, residents in Hicksville's northwest section have been fighting the air pollution emanating from factories on West

Constant complaints and pleas to the companies' owners to control the dust, smoke and noise, have been futile.

Now the residents are asking the Oyster Bay Town Board to put a stop to further commercialization before it completely destroys the area. And, according to the residents, the board can begin the effort by not granting another developer a special use permit to store and repair heavy machinery on West John Street.

At a public hearing at Oyster Bay Town Hall last week, all the residents who spoke said they adamantly oppose DeJana Industries, Inc's proposal to construct a two-story office building for the storage and repair of equipment such as street sweepers, garbage trucks, catch basin cleaners and snow removal vehicles

While many residents said that they are not faulting Peter DeJana, the company's owner, for trying to make money by developing his property located on West John, 100 feet from Kuhl Avenue, they feel that Hicksville is oversaturated with factories. In addition, DeJana's property abuts residential homes and noise and diesel fumes coming from the trucks has neighbors concerned.

"My next door neighbor starts his car up in the morning and I hear him start it," said 30-year resident Glen Coburn of Gardner Avenue. He added, "Can you imagine what would happen if some diesel trucks, say 15 or 20, go out at the same time? You won't even hear your telephone ring."

The residents also do not want any heavy industry on the north side of West John Street where small neighborhood shops, homes and a restaurant are located. The south side of the street includes most of the factories and other businesses-Zara Brothers Contracting, Twin County Recycling asphalt plant, Federal Express, Agway and the post office-all of which generate heavy traffic, the residents

Because the north side of West John Street is the only side that has a continuous paved sidewalk, residents said that trucks entering and exiting will create a hazardous situation for adults and children who must use that sidewalk to get to the main entrance of Cantiague Park.

God forbid that one child or one adult should be killed by this heavy equipment ... walking to Cantiague Park," said Indiana Street homeowner Helen Lafferty. She added, "We are constantly fighting to keep industry from encroaching on our residential neighborhood."

Residents also said they were tired of "empty promises" and they do not want to run the risk that the operation would generate noise, smoke and fumes once the permit is granted.

"I hear all these promises that there...won't be any pollution," said George Sahaidachny of Myers Avenue. "A lot of promises were made by Twin County and Zara that they're going to be a good neighbor; that's a lot of bull. Once those guys get in there, they'll rape the area."

Area residents also said they were concerned that diesel fuel might spill into the ground and leak into the Nassau County Recharge Basin which is located next to the property. But, DeJana's attorney, Robert Lee Aitken, said there will be proper waste removal and that the operation will comply with all guidelines set down by state, county, and town governments.

Councilman Thomas Clark questioned why Hicksville was being targeted when Delana's customers-Pan Am, IBM, Village of Stewart Manor, Port Authority of New York and New Jersey-are located nowhere near Aitken said, "We would like to relocate [DeJana's] corporate headquarters to a more central area on Long Island." He added, "I would also like to think that he would like an opportunity to expand his market and perhaps by coming to Hicksville, the Town of Oyster Bay, that expansion will take place."

According to Aitken, the vast majority of DeJana's business comes through public bidding or contracts, therefore it is unlikely that any customers will be visiting the site. The equipment will be kept on the Hicksville property when it is not being rented or leases Minor repairs such as changing a flat the or a broken headlight will be conducted oundthe building. Major repairs will be handled inside the building. Also, according to plane a portion of the building is devoted to office

"I hear all these promises that there won't be any pollution. Once those guys get in there, they'll rape the area."

-Resident George Sahaidachny on

further West John Street development

Aitken said that the site can store up to 75 vehicles and another 25 cars for personnel. However, only about 15 work vehicles will be leaving the site on any given day, said Aitken, except for personnel who arrive in the morning and leave at night. Operation hours will be from 7 a.m. to 4:30-5 p.m.

Also of concern to the residents are the fumes and noise from the trucks starting up in the morning. Delana said that the trucks are plugged into a heater overnight so they do not have to idle in the morning.

The Town Board reserved its decision on the permit and residents will have the opportunity to respond to the application by sending correspondence to the town clerk before May 22.

Learning Made Fun at the Gregory Museum

By Deborah F. Weintraub

Lawrence Welk must have had a smile on his face because on Saturday, April 28 the Gregory Museum held its first Bubble Workshop.

Using simple household items, Don Curran, the Museum's Curator, showed children aed 6-12 not only how to make bubbles but why bubbles form the way they do.

After some practice and with assistance from Gail Hofer, the children were blowing bubbles within bubbles. This phenomenon is due to surface energy, which was explained by Mr. Curran as a force tht causes the surface of liquids to behave in certain ways. It was also explained that because of surface energy, drops of liquid take a spherical shape such as when raindrops fall.

The day ended outside on the Museum grounds as everyone made giant bubbles using the different solutions. It was indeed Learning Made Fun at the Gregory Museum.

On the museum grounds, from left: Rachel Weintraub, Kurt Koegel, Prachi Mane, wat ching Matthew Dresman make his giant bubble.

School Board

School and High School, which pays 151,000 a year for a person in a Student Teacher Aide (Peggy) (SNT) position, and they give you no services that an RN can't at 120,000 a year—that's a failed program. Instead of compiling new ones, we have to access the ones that aren't working anymore.

Wolf—Let's look at BOCES and see if it's cost effective, and the transfer report which happens when one piece of the budget has a lot of money in it and another piece doesn't have enough and that money can be transferred from the larger portion. Let's see why that portion has a lot of money in it.

portion has a lot of money in it.

Pendergast—You have to go through every section of the budget line by line. Budget is a ceiling of what you can spend, not what you have to spend.

Strugatz—Cut central administration 5 to 10 percent. Close one or two schools. Make insurance groups pay child abuse judgments that are going to be coming. Elect board members who are not responsible to special interest groups. I'm not anti-union, but the teachers' union crosses the line when it has people on both sides of the negotiating table. Rudin—Cut top heavy administration. They're spending a million dollars there. We have one administrator for every 11 teachers. We have 400 teachers in the district, 4,300 students. . . one teacher to every 11 students. However, there's a vast difference to have one in 11 teachers to students, as some have special needs, as opposed to another administrator administering to an adult.

Ayres—We need the community's input on school closings. It's a critical issue. We have 45 cmpty elementary classrooms and half of the Middle School empty. It's up to the board to be a watchdog on every expediture.

Schwartz—Although the teachers' salaries have gone up, most of the number of positions in central administration has gone down. Don't have chairpersons for both the Middle School and High School covering the same subject. This certainly does remove one personnel item from the budget. The board did not do its job. We need some belt tightening.

What is your financial background to deal with a 50 million plus budget?

Wolf—My background is finance. I work for a bank. My knowledge should help in bringing the budget down.

Pendergast—I run jobs in Manhattan on construction sites. There is big money involved.

Strugatz—Referring to Pendergast, Rudin and Ayres who are running together as a team, Strugatz said, "You people have to decide whether a gentlemen who is a skilled-trade construction union worker and two people who run credit unions and get their deposits from unions are going to help make up another board majority the next time the contracts come due. Wake up. I am the most qualified candidate."

Rudin disputed this statement by saying: "My credit union is not affiliated with any union. We are open chartered to take people from all over. It is not a company credit union."

Rudin—The financial problems began when contracts were negotiated under Miltenberg, Bill Bennett and Carol Wolf. The registered nurses received a 16,3 percent increase in 1988-89, in 1989-90 received a 18,9 percent increase, and in 1990-91 received an 11,3 percent increase; secretaries received an 11,3 percent increase in 1989-90, 1990-91, 10,9 percent and in 1991-92 a 9,1 percent increase. This is where it snowballed.

Miltenberg later disputed Rudin's remarks saying, "Those increases [for the secretaries] make up less than one percent of the teachers' salaries. I thinkit's overexaggerated." Ayres—Reexamine all educational programs. Really, the only place to save money is through the programs.

Miltenberg—People come to our meetings and they tell us about the problems, and we know the problems. When [a resident] comes up with a recommendation, we go through the budget line by line, and we do act on them. I spend at least four hours every Sunday doing the budget.

Correction: In Part I of this story which ran last week, candidate Stephen Pendergast's response to a question was written incorrectly. The question was: Do you believe someone can only be eligible to the board if they have children in the school district.

Mr. Pendergast's response should have read: "I don't think parochial school is an issue if the person is a resident of Hicksville."

Candidates'

Hicksville American Soccer Club

When asked what Rudin could offer the district that perhaps another candidate could not, she said that she has a long proven record for demanding educational excellence.

Hicksville Illustrated News - Hicksville, New Pork - Chursday, May 17, 1990 Page-10

"I have a track record of creative problem solving" she said. "At Dutch Lane I instituted an evening recreational center because our kids needed a safe place to go at night. When our math scores were at their worst, I opened a school store at Dutch Lane, run by the children to implement and help teach math

One of the major problems Rudin sees in the district is the growing budget. If elected, Rudin plans to justify every line item in the budget. "My teammates, John [Ayres] and Steve [Pendergast], and I have spent the weekend of May 5th studying the budget, and we believe we can reduce it by at least 12 million dollars," Rudin said,

While she is not satisfied with the proposed 153 million budget, she said she will support it because "the only ones hurt by not having a budget are the children who are in summer recreational programs, the senior citizens whose activities and trips are eliminated, and the sports teams and band programs which meet in the summer."

Rudin believes that for economic reasons schools will have to be closed. However, she added, closing schools has to be done in close partnership with the entire community. She also said that there is a need for senior citizen housing and a community center. "A closed school would be an excellent beginning and a cost saver," she said.

Rudin says she doesn't believe that the board has focused on educational issues since switching from two board meetings to one board meeting a month. "How can they? If the board meets for three hours in public, where educational items are supposed to be discussed, and in that time they must address community concerns, financial issues and legal issues, how much time can they spend discussing educational issues?" Rudin suggests that the board go back to holding two meetings a month, with one devoted to educational issues.

Rudin is being challenged by Jay Schwartz and Charles R. Strugatz

Stephen Pendergast

Better communication with the community, restoring student morale and working toward a reasonable school tax without sacrificing children and senior citizens services, are the goals candidate Stephen Pendergast feels will make him an effective board member.

"Times are too tough to be divided among ourselves on issues which can be harmful to all in the town of Hicksville," Pendergast said. I am a man who believes in his town, All I ask is that the community do what is in Hicksville's best interest."

Current problems Pendergast cites in the district include lack of trust, communication, and morale "both among the board and ourselves," He added, "I would like to work to unify the new board and the community."

Pendergast said that if the residents believed that their opinions counted, there would be more pride in the schools and com-

Pendergast said that although he is not satisfied with the proposed budget, he will support it "because we only seem to vote on such a small part of it." He added, "A budget should be a ceiling on spending, not what you have to spend."

Asked what his position is on school closings, Pendergast said he sees it as a "last resort; but [school closings] are possible if the student population continues to dwindle." He added, "Excellence in our schools would draw people to our town."

Pendergast would like to see more computer courses offered in the upper grades. We need to evaluate the working world's future needs and groom our children to meet

A resident for more than 30 years and a 1067 graduate of Hicksville High School, Pendergast has been a coach and manager for the Police Athletic League. He is being challenged by incumbent Jo Ann Miltenberg.

Carole Wolf

An active member of the community for more than two decades and a previous school board member, Carole Wolf said that her financial background can add value to the

"And with my managements and leadership skills, I can bring community pride back to the board," she said.

Wolf said that one of the main problems the district faces is the lack of board leadership, a teachers' contract permitting a more than 10 percent raise each year for three years. plus benefits, and the 153 million budger. These problems can be addressed by elected board members who examine all alternatives before making a decision, she added.

Wolf said she is not satisfied with the level of academic achievement in the district. 'Care and concern are some of the most powerful motivational tools that can be used in the classroom and I would encourage their use by word and example," she said, adding, "I would also question the motivational tools of teachers who constantly allow twothirds of their class to fail."

Wolf, the only candidate not to support the budget, says a 153 million budget is too high. She said the board must re-examine the budget with an "analytical eye", cut $500,000 from asbestos, examine the transfer report for "transfer from" codes, monitor spending through fiscal year end "so that we can cut approximately $1,000,000 from the current budget and re-submit it to the voters," she said. She added, "I do not believe that the sports, music programs, clubs and children who take buses should be punished, but we must analyze the budget with an eye toward

Wolf said she does not think closing schools is the solution to the district's fiscal problems. "I believe in neighborhood schools."

Wolf, who was a school board member from 1986 to 1989, is a 23-year resident of Hicksville and has six children. She has an M.B.A. in international finance and a B.B.A. in accounting and is employed as an audit officer and corporate teacher. She is a member of the Hicksville Baseball Association, Hicksville Community Council, a U.S. Figure Skating Association judge, secretary for HAD (Help, Aid, Direction) in Hicksville.

She is running against John Ayres.

Jay Schwartz

"I want to raise our expectations so that more children seek higher education." That's one of the goals Jay Schwartz is hoping to achieve if elected to the school board.

In addition, Schwartz, a former school board member and currently an assistant principal in a New York City school, wants to bring excellence to the high school.

Hicksville Republican Club

By Marc Herbst

Joseph Jablonsky Executive Leader

President

New York State Assemblyman Frederick E. Parola was the guest speaker at the Hicksville Republican Club's May General Membership Meeting Friday evening. Republicans Jo Ann Miltenberg, Jay Schwartz and Carole Wolf also discussed their candidacies for seats on the Hicksville Board of Education on Wednesday, May 23.

Assemiolyman Parola discussed the current delay in the formulation of the New York State budget. He assured the audience that the lawmakers on the Republican side of the aisle are fighting to protect the interests of the suburban residents. Parola complimented our Senate representative, Senator Ralph Marino, who serves as the Senate majority leader, for his efforts in the budget negotiations. He predicted that a resolution would be reached shortly. Parola, in his leadership position as Assembly Minority Leader, also plays a major role in representing the middle class taxpayers in these negotiations.

Parola also held a lengthy discussion on group homes. He was pleased that many residents surrounding 2 Lehigh Lane, the latest site for a proposed group home in our community, took the time to attend the meeting and share their views. The Assemblyman was unable to attend a previously scheduled community meeting on the subject due to the unsettled budget. The club meeting provided Parola the opportunity to respond to the residents regarding their concerns. He answered the many questions posed to him on the group home situation as well as other State matters, such as lottery funding for education.

The members of the Hicksville Republican Club who are running for seats on the Hicksville Board of Education were also provided the opportunity to address their fellow club members. (The club policy permits any of its members to address the membership but does not offer any endorsements.) Can-didates Jo Ann Miltenberg, Carole Wolf and Jay Schwartz discussed their credentials for holding positions on the Board of Education and the school district's current financial crises. The May 23 ballot will list the club members on Row "B."

Is something holding you back from opening a home equity credit line?

Announcing a home equity credit line with absolutely no upfront fees or closing costs.

Closing costs can really weigh you down.

Yet many banks ask you to pay them before they'll even lend you the money you need. Which means you may have to pay $1,300 or more on a $75,000 home equity credit line before you even use it.

EquityLink's from The Bank of New York is different. It allows you to open a home equity credit line with absolutely no upfront fees or closing costs. Which means you don't have to pay for things like an appraisal fee, mortgage recording tax, title insurance or bank attorney's fees. We even refund the application fee at the

It also offers you potential tax advantages later on, because the interest on home equity credit loans is virtually the only deductible loan interest left under the current Tax Reform Act.

Not surprisingly, The Bank of New York also offers you some of the lowest home equity interest rates in the New York area. If you'd like to know just how much you can save with an EquityLink credit line, visit one of our more than 240 convenient branches.

Or call us at 1-800-942-1784 (from NJ and CT, call 914-899-2182 collect).

So if you're thinking about a home equity credit line, think about The Bank of New York. And close the book on closing costs.

We're making it hard to bank anywhere else.

One of the main problems Schwartz sees in the district is overdue contracts which he said must be started on time. Another is what he called diminishing numbers of students in the same number of schools. Although he said he is not in favor of closing schools at this time, "we know we have a problem. Let's not rush into a quick solution and regret it." One of the main reasons that Schwartz is running for the board is because he said it lacks leaderships, decision-making skills, financial expertise and long-range planning ideas. "I understand teaching's and ad-ministration's perspectives better." He add-ed, "I have been a skillful negotiator for years. .. and I am currently involved in educational monitoring and planning.

Schwartz said he is not satisfied with the level of academic achievement in the district and he said that more achievement could be encouraged if the board focuses on programs and outcomes regularly. "The district needs to draw its attention to more highly skilled occupations and teach them," he said.

Schwartz said he is not satisfied with the budget, "but I support it for the children's sake." He added, "The board did not do its job on cutting expenses. They did not care:

He said that he is running with Carole Wolf and Jo Ann Miltenberg because "I feel that we represent open and honest decisionmaking. We are not a special interest group."

A resident for 11 years, he is coach for a Hicksville soccer club. Also, he was a member of the board of education from 1981 to 1987. Schwartz holds a bachelor's degree in English. a master's degree in guidance and counseling. He also holds other New York State school certificates. He is being challenged by Charles R. The sixth grade at Holy Family School concluded a 9-week program called PRIDE (Peer Resistance Instruction and Education). Nassau County Police Officer Kevin Maloney presented the program to the students in the sixth grade. It concentrated on self-esteem right choices and resistance techniques. Students were rewarded with marvelous tools for self-control and Islander ice hockey cards and posters.

The Kindergarten children celebrated a Vegetable Tasting Party after they prepared all the vegtables...carrots, string beans, broc-coli, cauliflower, celery and mushrooms. Many parents came to join the children in tasting all these vegetables and a special visit was made by principal, Sister Eileen, who looks forward each year to this special celebration.

The Pre-K through the third grade children were delightfully entertained by a visit from Dr. Essner, a dentist from the area. The children were entranced by the puppets and songs and learned the easy way of how to take care of their teeth and what foods are good for their teeth.

On April 9 the Eighth Grade students had the opportunity to attend an educational retreat before receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. The retreat was held at St. Francis Retreat House in Oyster Bay, and was conducted by a young group called Youth Focus. This outing was a most memorable day for the graduating class of 1990.

Before Easter, the Third Grade celebrated a symbolic Pascal Meal to help them to understand the connection between the Old and New Testaments. The children all participated in the preparation. The Prayer Service and meal were enjoyed by all.

After winning first place in the Nassau County competition, the Hicksville Middle School Science Team, put on an outstanding display of strength in several areas at the recent New York State competi-

Of course placing sixth is a team effort. Other participants included Mark Franchino, Susan Gaylord, Mark Haddad, Bill Harvey, Lisa Latzo, Daniel Moy, Jen-nifer Murphy, Chetan Trika, Jonathan Yee, Jennifer Yost and Connie Young. The team was composed of seventh, eighth and ninth graders.

Making this trip possible were coaches Mr. Hal Buck, Mr. Dave Bouton and Ms. Terry Leahy. Many reported back that thanks to all participants, Hicksville was not only "put on the map," but is a future force

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Commi wever, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity. We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Response to Letter

To The Editor:

I am writing to respond to Mr. Zaleski's response to my first letter, a response in which he made some tacit, veiled accusations and forwarded some erroneous assumptions.

You have a leak within your organization, Mr. Zaleski, a leak I suggest you plug. You see, I know that the Hicksville Illustrated News wanted to drop the subject and refused to print your response to me and Mrs. Von Bargen. I also know that you, in some imagined way, felt that the news was being censored and demanded publication. This is a letters to the editor column, not a news column, and the editors have the right to print or not print, to edit or not edit as they see fit. It is too bad that they relented and gave in to you because it only serves to keep the kettle boiling. I have to commend the Illustrated News however, for seeing through you and not printing your reference to an innocent third party who happens to be an employee of the district, thereby implying guilt by association. I can assure you, Sir, that there are very few people in this world that I feel inferior to, as you inferred I might, and you most certainly are not one of them.

Nowhere have I seen or heard any of your teachers being "tarred and feathered", as you put it, only their sweet-heart contract. You sure have a gift for antics with semantics. And to go 2 little further. I am not anti-teacher. as I gather you think I am. Quite the contrary, I am pro-teacher, deeply admire them and sympathize with them for what they must put up with in the classroom with disruptive trouble-makers whom they can't even remove for fear of a lawsuit. Changes in the laws are required to protect them. But that doesn't entitle them to special salary considerations, we all have our different problems on the job. As I said before, the teachers have not been a target of anything; their contract has.

Then you get into how much it costs to become a teacher. We all know that teachers are college graduates, we all know how much college costs, and we all know that if one wants to better oneself, one will have to continue one's education, and that applies no matter what field of endeavor one chooses, so that's just so much idle rhetoric on your part. My daughter graduated fifth in her class from Hicksville High, but since we are neither destitute nor a minority, she was entitled to little more than a token grant, and it cost us in the area of $40,000 to put her through engineering school, and she went to a local school and lived at home, otherwise we would have had to pay room and board, too. Don't talk to me about what it costs to become a teacher. I feel for them but they are not alone.

You went on to make sure that you mentioned that Mrs. Lafferty was my next-door neighbor, thereby tacitly indicting me of guilt by association. We both know how you found out, don't we? Since it seems to be important that everyone know that Mrs. Lafferty is my next-door neighbor, then it must be equally important for them to know that Mr. Collins, school board member, is my other next-door neighbor. What do you gather from that, Mr. Zaleski? We all have been next-door neighbors for over thirty years, and both of them were and still are dear friends of mine.

I am not denying any employee who both lives and works in the district the right to politicize, but those who work in the district, but do not live in it, should limit their activities to the bargaining table and that's it. They are not paying the taxes that will result from their efforts. That's my opinion and I am entitled to it, because as you say, this is

Finally, you conclude by saying that the budget will not pass, and I agree. Then you 'think of the children'. That's exactly what we are doing. We all know that in order to meet the demands of this contract, the children are going to suffer the loss of transportation and other services, and that's what we are so angry about. You, on the other hand, are only thinking of yourself. Jeremiah J. McCarthy

Clarifies Statements

To The Editor:

As time progresses and we draw closer to the election, there are some written and verbal comments that must be clarified.

 Please inform Mr. Avres that I have NOT been a member of the school board since June of 1989. Ask him to remove my name when he chants Cardella and MacBride. I was not

. Mr. Ayres stated: "... I don't think a person who takes that option (six children and none of them went to public schools) should come to the school board seeking election." He does not understand that it is a family tradition. Should that disqualify me? I have made many commitments to Hicksville in my 23 years as resident, homeowner and Please remind Mr. Ayres that I have serv-ed on the School Board from 1986 to 1989 and ask whether any of my notes were "tainted because my children attended parochial schools in Hicksville. However, he would have to ask others, because HE WAS NOT THERE.

. Mr. Ayres says that a total increase of 1137,000 less medical give-backs to 38 secretaries is excessive. Have him explain why.

 He accuses Mrs. Miltenberg and myself of a "cover-up on the bus driver case." Does he realize that statement is grounds for a lawsuit? He is a Willet parent himself, but did not care enough to attend a meeting.

• I have done my homework and have sat in the school auditorium as over 500 parents demanded that their neighborhood school remain open. I listened.

. My statement to vote "NO" on the budget does not mean that I wish to see students walk or to discontinue our sports and music programs. It does mean that I am dissatisfied with the 153,000,000 budget and cuts should be made. And I will vote yes for

I can work with Jo Ann Miltenberg and Jay Schwartz. Even though we do not agree on every issue, we respect each other's opinions. Both are extremely intelligent people who have values and who truly care about children.

Vote for the B team. We will listen. Carole Wolf

Upcoming Elections

To The Editor:

Once again the residents of Hicksville are faced with School Board Elections. I find myself compelled to write this letter in reference to the upcoming elections.

I hold the office of president of the St. Ignatius C.Y.O. I would like it made known to Hicksville residents and the members of the St. Ignatius C.Y.O. that I will not, as president, give any backing under the C.Y.O. organization.

The candidates for whom I support in the upcoming elections are of my own choice:. I strongly feel that it is an individuals own choice for whom they support. For this reason, I will not and never will give backing to any candidate running in any election under the St. Ignatius C.Y.O. name.

Gary R. Lewis President, St. Ignatius C.Y.O.

Stop Using Our Children

To The Editor:

I too feel that I must respond to remarks made by Mr. Strugatz on several occasions.

I feel it is totally inappropriate for Mr. Strugatz to speak of the abuse that went on in this district. He has absolutely no knowledge of anything having to do with our children and as parents of these children, we resent his using these horrible events to his advantage in this election. I consider this "dirty pool"

As stated in a previous letter, all lawsuits will be settled through the insurance company, the taxpayers need not worry. Mr. Strugatz had nothing at all to do with this and in response to some people who say these parents are money-hungry they too are wrong. The parents will not get or be able to touch any of the money awarded to the children. The money will be set aside and used for counseling that unfortunately will be needed for a lifetime.

We as parents are trying so hard to nor-malize life for our children and ourselves. On the most part, our school board has been cooperative. In response to Mr. Martillo's remarks about where were the rest of the board members at the July meeting? Maybe they weren't all there for several reasons. I recall they were advised by Mr. Cardella not to go to the meeting and if I recall correctly, Dr. Fenton was in Ireland. In all fairness, it's tough to run home from Ireland for a meeting, that in our states of mind that night, she probably would have been executed at and yes tempers did run high at that meeting. We were a very angry, hysterical mob because we were frightened and confused and our first reaction was to lash out at Dr. Fenton and the school board. I think we have calmed down considerably since that night back in July. We are still angry, but we're trying to be constructive with our anger. We're trying to make Hicksville a good and safe place to live.

I am backing the row B candidates because they will look after our children's interests, not be owned by Mr. Zaleski and the union or use our children for their own personal gain.

Name withheld upon request.

Vote Row B

To The Editor:

As you are all aware the school board and the community are in a crisis stage both financially and on a board leadership level. On May 23rd, you the people in the community, will be a position to correct this. I am in full support of the B team that is running for the school board for I feel that they have the knowledge and the commitment to put this district back on its feet.

Jo Ann Miltenberg, the incumbent, and past president of the Board of Education, comes well equipped to handle this challenge. She had placed herself in a very difficult position when she went to the community to expose the collusion that took place between the majority of the board and the teachers' union. For this courageous act she has earned her place on the board for the next three years. Jo Ann Miltenberg is truly committed to not only the children of our district, but has shown her loyalty to you taxpayers as well.

Mrs. Carole Wolf was targeted for defeat last year by special interest groups and was replaced by Bill Collins on the Board of Educa tion. Mrs. Wolf, while a member of the Board of Eduction, had established herself during her three year tenure. She has a deep knowledge of the finances of the district and the dedication and drive to really develop a common ground between the community and the school district. Mrs. Wolf is an energizer and she gives her time and efforts full-time in meeting the responsibilities of boardmanship. She should be returned to the board especially during this financial crisis we find ourselves in.

Mr. Jay Schwartz, a former six-year veteran of the Board of Education, was also targeted, for defeat by the same special interest group that is supporting the Row A candidates. Jay Schwartz being an educator himself knows all the ins and outs of our educational curriculum, our administrative levels of responsibility, and is an expert in the development of board and district policies. He is the anchor that we need on the board. He is a man of great integrity and intelligence.

It was said that I was too negative in evaluating the personalities involved in this school board election. That is because we had a very negative year and we must now rebuild the trust and confidence of the community. We have wonderful people work ing in the Hicksville School District. They are hard workers and they are committed to their tasks. We cannot have a new group come in and dismantle this based on hate and misconceptions. After this year's debacle we need relief fast and the Row B people have the experience, knowledge, and leadership to the job. Please do your part on Wednesday, May 23rd.

Bill Bennett Board Trustee

'The Big Lie'

To The Editor:

In Nazi Germany Adolf Hitler used THE BIG LIE to get the people to believe him. In Hicksville, Bill Bennett does the same

That's right. Hicksville's own demagogue is using the best Nazi Propaganda techniques to scapegoat the teachers by blaming them for the current budgetary problems in the district.

The truth be known, however, it is Mr. Bennett and his cohorts that are to blame.

Over the past 4 years, for instance, Mr. Bennett has bullied the Board of Education into lowering the tax rate that had been approved by the voters due to increased tax revenues that were a windfall for the district. By arguing that the authorized tax rate be lowered by the School Board, Mr. Bennett shaved 12.57 off the current tax rate; but threw away the revenue that $6.07 in accumulated taxes could have netted the

That's right Hicksville, if the tax increase voted in by the taxpayers had been put into effect, enough revenues would have been generated by a tax rate only $2.57 higher than you are currently paying, but the net effect of that would have been the generation of more than enough revenue to cover our current financial crisis.

Yes, Mr. Bennett is to blame for the budgetary problems we face.

Mr. Bennett conveniently "forgets" to tell people that the teachers got a 7.75 percent salary increase (The Nassau County Average was 7.75 percent). The cost for the remainder of the salary package was PAID FOR BY THE TEACHERS THEMSELVES WHO GAVE THE DISTRICT APPROXIMATELY 1600,000 in E.I.T. STATE MONIES for the past three years and the upcoming three years.

That's right, The teachers USED THEIR OWN MONIES earmarked by the State to pay for their OWN SALARY SETTLEMENT. But Mr. Bennett "forgets" to tell the people that fact. Instead, Mr. Bennett continues to use THE BIG LIE to further his own political agenda.

He does not care about the climate of HATRED and BIGOTRY that he has spread throughout Hicksville. But we shouldn't be surprised. After all, it was Mr. Bennett who told everyone at a School Board meeting that his idol, while he was growing up, was Senator Joe McCarthy.

Well, we all know what ultimately happened to that demagogue—but not until he ruined countless lives.

Let's hope and pray that Hicksville's own demagogue, the self-righteous Mr. Bennett, goes the same route as his idol.

Bob Zaleski, President Hicksville Congress of Teachers Editor's Note: Contacted last week, Mr. Bennett said that he did make the statment about Joe McCarthy at a board meeting

Endorsement

To The Editor:

After carefully evaluating the qualifications of the various school board candidates, Lurge all Hicksville taxpayers to VOTE LINE B for JO ANN MILTENBERG, CAROLE WOLF AND JAY SCHWARTZ.

Mr. Bennet told you last week, "Our law." Does the policy above reflect what you thought you were getting? Do you believe that silent prayer or meditation is going on in our classrooms? If silent prayer was being

Mr. Bennett implies that the teachers'

Correct the Errors

To The Editor:

I'd like to correct the errors in Mr. Bennett's letter to you last week. I will refrain from comment on his abusive tone except to say that what Mr. Bennett lacks in factual accuracy he more than compensates for with accusations. In a sense I'm flattered that Mr. Bennett finds the need to use smoke screens rather than facts. If I am such a poor choice for school board trustee why isn't Mr. Bennett pointing to my three year record? In fact, he fails to mention that he asked me to serve as his vice-president when we served on the board together. Was that poor judgment on his part or had he seen that I was a hard working board member who was never afraid to ask questions, and never afraid to put the needs of children ahead of special interests.

He blames me for bringing the community the current board majority. How could he forget his efforts? He brought his protege, Mr. MacBride to the board, and after observing Mr. MacBride for the first three years, wrote him a glowing letter of support for three more years. He neglects to point the finger at Mrs. Miltenberg who ran as "teammates" with Mr. Cardella and Mr. MacBride because this year he is supporting her candidacy. He also neglects to tell you that he had scathing things to say about Mrs. Rooney and Mrs. Miltenberg when they ran for the board.

The outstanding issue of this campaign, Mr. Bennett, is the 20.3 percent increase in the tax rate. Are you trying to divert our attention away from this unhappy fact? The past three years have been a 26 percent budget increase. You have had a board majority from 1984 to 1989. Do you, Mr. MacBride, Mr. Schwartz, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. Miltenberg, accept any responsibility for these increases?

I've been around the board room for 18 years. I have worked in the campaigns of many people in this community such as Tom Nagle, Bob Pirrung, Dan Arena, Neil McCormick, Jay Schwartz, Charlene Anci, Iris Wolfson, Pat Rooney, Mark Cardella, Jim Martillo and John Ayres. Working on their campaigns did not give me a crystal ball showing me how effective they would be as board members. Some have met my expectations, some have not. However, the option was always mine to question their actions at public board meetings and then to support or not support them for re-election. For example, I was Charlene Anci's publicity person when she ran. It did not stop me from running against her in 1983 to add a new voice to the board. If I believed that Mr. Cardella, Mr. MacBride and Mrs. Miltenberg had been effective board members I would not be running with Mr. Ayres and Mr. Pendergast on Row A to bring about board change. After all I didn't know until all petitions were in whether or not Mr. Cardella would be running again. He had picked up petitions and

In 1984, Mr. Bennett led a crusade for a change in policy "requiring" a moment of silence be observed in every classroom. Mr. Schwartz and Mr. Nagle supported him. Mr. Ayres, Mrs. Singer, Mr. Wolfson and I voted to abide by the state law which says that a teacher may observe a moment of silence. Ultimately, this crusade wrenched our community, and in the heat of the "big lie" the community supported Mr. Bennett's position. They believed that they would be getting a policy that mandated a moment of silence. They elected Mr. Macbride and Mr. Moor. With a five vote (Bennett, Schwarz, Nagle, Moor and MacBride) majority they instituted a policy no different from the one I had lobbied for which reads as follows.

"... In each public school classroom the teacher in charge may at the opening of school each day, conduct a brief period of silent meditation with the participation of all the students therein assembled. The silent meditation will not be conducted as a religious service or exercise, but may be construed as an opportunity for silent meditation of a religious theme by those who are so disposed, or a moment of silent reflection on the anticipated activities of the day. Participation will be construed to permit seated participation and not to require any student or stand..."

educational programs). We will work tirelessly to correct it.

I hope that Row "A" can have your support on May 23rd.

Row A-No Way

To The Editor

I have lived in Hicksville for 12 years and, by now, I know what I like and what I don't like in a School Board. I was raised in a passionately pro-union family and have close relatives who are educators, as well. However, the week-in, week-out diatribes by Mr. Zaleski, and the manner in which the contract was settled, are an embarassment. Coincidentally, Mr. Bennett, who I once vehemently opposed on every stand, and sometimes still do, emerges smelling like a rose—at least to me. Though he is not running this year, I find it curious to tead letters attacking him as if he were.

During this election time, we must really do an in-depth study to ensure that what we are promised is what we receive. I don't feel that just "living" here is much of a qualification. I don't want to vote for a "puppet" of any special interest group. I've observed that the mudslinging and carping, characteristic of this past Board, still exist... they just change direction a bit. As usual, the true issues are lost in the shuffle and confuse the voters. Congratulations to your paper forterific coverage of this crucial election. As for me, at this point, I tend to feel Row A—NO

Vote 'Yes' on Budget

To The Editor:

The Executive Board of the Lee Avenue PTA has voted to support this year's school budget. Even though we astaxpayers are not happy with such a big increase, we feel our children would be the biggest losers if this budget is not passed.

On an austerity budget, the savings would only be $1.55. Some of the things lost to our children for this $1.55 savings would be transportation, intramural sports, all extra music programs (concerts on all grade levels), supplies/materials, field trips, the Gregory Museum and building usage by school clubs/activities, scouting, CYO and PAL.

We as adults would not be able to have senior citizen activities, adult education and use of the building for the various organizations to which we belong.

In spite of the fact that we feel our children would be the biggest losers, we all end up losing something ing something.

Please take those few minutes on May 23 and vote "Yes" for the school budget.

It's Your Choice

To The Editor:

I am writing in response to Mr. Bennett's letter that appeared in last week's edition of your paper.

In my opinion Mr. Bennett's letter is not only unjust to Mrs. Rudin, Mr. Ayres and Mr. Pendergast, but also to the B Team, which, it would appear, he was attempting to endorse.

Mr. Bennett's letter is a 650 word slam dunk letter about three community members that are willing to give of themselves and their families for a better Hicksville.

Read the letter again and notice there is not one good word about Mr. Schwartz, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. Miltenberg or Mr. Strugatz, who feel they also can bring something to the Hicksville community.

Mr. Bennett has continued to accuse board members and union leadership of wrongful doing. To clarify this point: As president of the Hicksville Teacher Aides Union (CSEA), I have openly endorsed Mrs. Miltenberg, Mr. MacBride, Mr. Cardella, Mrs. Rooney, Mr. Collins and Mr. Martillo. The teacher aides' contract expired two years ago. As of this writing we do not have a contract in place. So much for unions buying candidates.

Unions have the right to endorse candidates. Special interest groups within the community have the right to endorse candidates. And, yes, Mr. Bennett has a right to endorse candidates. However, ultimately it is up to you, the people of Hicksville, to make the final decision as to how you will vote. No one stands in the voting booth with you.

In reading Mr. Bennett's letter, it has become clear to me that herein lies the problem in Hicksville, "Negativism." Pitting person against person and group against group. To what gain? Certainly not to benefit the children of our community.

In closing I would suggest that the people of this community take the time to talk to all of the candidates.

Vote for the candidate of "your" choice on May 23.

Linda L. Hild, President Hicksville, Teacher Aides Assoc, Homeowner and Taxpayer

Vote C3

To The Editor:

Initially, I opposed the closing of any elementary schools. After attending Board meetings and listening to the concerns of community members, I realized that we should close one or two elementary schools. I did not change my mind because I want to save money. I changed my mind to advance sound educational goals.

By closing some schools we will: a) eliminate schools with one class in a grade; b) reduce unfair differences in elementary class sizes, presently ranging from 15-30 students per class, to a goal of 22-24 students per class; and c) reduce the number of empty classrooms.

Unfortunately, closing one or two elementary schools will eliminate some teachers' jobs, never a cause of celebration. However, the past negotiating success of the teachers' union will shift limited resources away from purchasing computers, science labs, and tex-tbooks as a prolonged austerity budget appears inevitable. I remember being taught in law school that over-negotiating eventually harms the party that gained the initial advantage. Unfortunately, the children are sure to Obtaining more County funded school crossing guards will be essential to protect children crossing additional, major streets if any schools are to be closed. Leasing property temporarily not needed as schools, subject to community acceptance of tenants, ap-pears preferable to any sale of property. Preserving the fields used by our community's youth during the last 20 years is essential. Selection of schools to close, based upon their distance from other schools, how many major capital improvements will be needed to preserve the property and other factors based on reason, not favoritism, will be required to obtain community support.

One of my opponents, Mr. Schwartz, opposes the closing of any schools. He promises financial savings, but has not expressed even one specific idea on how he intends to reduce the budget. Mrs. Rudin, another one of my opponents, is prepared to close schools, and favors developing senior citizen housing. This would require sale of property, and would deprive the school district of a valuable asset that might be needed as a school in the future.

I am interested in other issues besides school closings. I will seek to promote the safety of our children by requiring the administrators to closely monitor the bus companies. Our goal should be to have trained bus drivers who will avoid disembarkation accidents so that no child will be killed or injured. Our goal should be to avoid repetitions of past tragedies, such as that involving Izzo.

I am also interested in making sure the insurance companies, not the taxpayers, pay potential child abuse judgements. The school district's attorney stated during a school board meeting that our insurance companies are providing lawyers, but might not pay potential judgments. As an attorney who regularly represents many L.I. schools districts, I would make sure the school district's attorney has a plan. Most businesses with a 50 million dollar budget have an attorney on staff to evaluate the work on nonemployee attorneys. I submit I could help provide the function of our community.

Promote the safety of our children, sound educational goals, and eliminate wasteful spending, Elect a quantum candidate. Vote C3 on May 23. Charles Strugatz spending, Elect a qualified and independent

Budget Too High

To The Editor:

It's ridiculous the way the Hicksville Board of Education is proposing the school budget. Why should Hicksville's budget be raised over 20 percent?

In a Newsday, a chart showing other schools, raising is only from 1 percent to 5 percent. Mostly all are around 2 to 3 percent.

My income is from Social Security and some investments, no pension. I paid for 1989-90 school tax of $2,979.25 plus the town

From the Editor's Desk 🖫

Over the past fews weeks and up until this issue, the Hicksville Illustrated News has tried to give as much coverage as possible to the school board candidate election.

In light of recent controversy over the last few elections, this year we have given much background on the candidates and their views on current issues so Hicksville's residents can decide who is the most qualified. We were also happy to see that the Hicksville PTA's candidates forum received a good show this year as did the forum sponsored by the Hicksville Community Council.

In previous editorials we have warned that it is imperative that residents know exactly who they are voting for and what the people stand for. While we do not wish to belabor the point, we do want to stress that May 23 has arrived and this is with the betable the point, and the time that residents must vote wisely.

And the most important thing to remember when you step into that polling booth is that the candidate(s) you choose are, in essence, being authorized by you to control your pursestrings. Therefore, we don't think that the community can afford to pull the wrong levers this year.

As for the budget, we urge residents to vote "yes" on May 23, While we are faced with an enormous increase this year—a large portion due to contracted salaries defeating the budget will not make those salary increases go away. Remember, con-tractual items are paid regardless of a budget defeat.

Our children lose out when a budget isn't passed and the district goes on austeri-ty. Many students lose their transportation privileges and athletic equipment, and they have to pay for their classroom supplies. In addition, the senior citizens lose out as there is no funding for their trips. Funding for the Gregory Museum is also lost.

What would the savings be to the homeowner on austerity? According to the district, the homeowner will only save an estimated $1.55 per $100 assessed valuation. In addition, putting up a re-vote is an expense in itself-a $7,100 expense. That includes election clerks, voting machine rentals, printed materials and advertisements, according to the districts.

All of this considered, we urge a "yes" vote.

tax of 13,323.18. Should my school tax be raised the 20 plus percent, I will be paying an increase of 1598. Where does the board of education think all the money is coming from? 1 have lived in Plainview from 1916 to 1948 and in Hicksville since 1948 and love living

I don't intend to move, but I am going to vote NO on the budget May 23, 1990 and I pray all residents of Hicksville will do likewise.

I am not ashamed to sign my name.

Teacher's Salaries

To The Editor:

Bill Bennett has stated that the large increase in the school budget is due to the teacher salary increase. I have made a com-parison of the Hicksville school budget to that of Commack L.I. which is shown below:

	Hicksville	Commack
Enrollment	4,300	5,600
Median Teachers Salary Pupil/Teacher	146,933*	151,919*
Ratio	13 to 1*	14 to 1*
Budget (in millions) Cost Per Pupil	f53 f12,326	16.4 111.429

*Data obtained from "The State of Learning Report to the Governor and the Legislature on the Educational Status of the State's Schools" dated January 1, 1990.

The data shows that Commack teachers receive a higher salary while having a lower cost per pupil. Why?

Supports Rudin

This letter is being published upon request: Dear Arlene Rudin:

It's been a long time! We have been reading with great interest the Board minutes and letters to the newspapers. We were delighted today to read of your decision to run for School Board. In our hearts we know you will bring stability, intelligence, and com-passion to the Board. We both know that children in our community must be our first consideration.

On a personal note, Scott is attending Clarkson University and Rex will be attending Potsdam this coming fall. Both boys will/have graduated with honors and received scholar-ships from the Town of Webb. Rex just received a Regents Scholarship also. Danielle is graduating from sixth grade, and the baby, Sven, (no longer a baby), is in kindergarten.

We will always be grateful to our (former) community for the education our three children received in Hicksville. The foundation they received in all aspects of their educational life allows them to pursue their goals today. Our wish for today's children of Hicksville is, let them experience the same quality of education, and help them to accomplish their goals in life, We miss our friends in Hicksville, but our life in the Adirondack Park is great. One of our few regrets is that we will not be able to cast our votes foryou, Arlene Rudin, and your team. In lieu, please accept our donation for your campaign.

We know it is a difficult job, but always remember the words of a man we both respected and loved, John Maher. "Education and fiscal honesty can be a partnership, and always treat every person in Hicksville as a member of the Hicksville family, and every student as an individual,"

We have great faith in the voters of Hicksville, so in advance we offer our congratulations to you, take care.

Blackmailed

To The Editor:

Why is our community being blackmailed by the specter of an austerity budget.

The campaign rhetoric indicates that the new board will be a significant break with the current nonsense and crisis mentality. Some of the candidates bring significant job or board experience that WILL make a difference.

I urge a NO vote. Make the candidates fulfill their promises starting May 23. Submit a new budget before September. Let's not be held hostage by the shadow of the current board. Vote with your brain for three can-didates who will make a difference. Vote with your pocket against the budget.

Do not succumb to the 21 cent argument. In April, LILCO's electric fuel adjustment for the average customer was 26 cents per day. Heating oil was up 18 percent last season ($175 for the 11,000 gallon customer). Gasoline is up. Food, clothing, health insurance, deduc tibles and interest rates are up. The library tax went up. Profitable businesses are not giving 10 percent salary increases. Tell the new board, loudly and clearly, do a BETTER job on the budget! Try zero balance budgeting in a few codes, give Doctor Fenton an ax to cut big dollars and big percents of FAT in other codes. Do not hide behind 'mandates" by the state. Focus on education. Money will not cure or improve our shortcomings. Allocation of assets. focusing an our goals will.

Carte-blanche on this budget will haunt us for years. Stop it now,

Local Officials Urge FAA Move To Nassau

Nassau County Executive Thomas S. Gulotta and Hempstead Town Presiding Supervisor Joseph Mondello joined forces with the Association for a Better Long Island (ABLI) last week in seeking to attract the administrative offices of the regional division of the Federal Aviation Administration to Nassau County. According to Gulotta, the FAA is looking to move out of their overcrowded facilities at Kennedy Airport, and relocated as many as 600 highly skilled employees to new quarters.

"Their first choice should be Nassau County, the home of the existing TRACON faqcility that controls much of the air traffic in the northeast region" said Gulotta.

According to representatives of the business/government group, the opportunity is unique, in that it enables Long Island to bring sophisticated office workers in, and to reinforce the high-tech economy of the region. "The economic ripple impact alone from these new jobs will be substantial" said Gulotta.

Because of the TRACON facility, said Mondello, it makes sense for the FAA to move close by. "To this end, I have written to the FAA and to Congressmen Norman Lent and Raymond McGrath to assert the town of Hempstead's interest in providing a home for the FAA and its staff" said Mondello.

According to published reports, the FAA is looking for 200,000 square feet of commercial office space.

The move to attract FAA offices has created some friction between Nassau and Queens Boroug, according to a represen-tative of the ABLI. According to reports, Borough President Claire Shulman has told reporters she wants the FAA in Jamaica. ABLI officials argue, however, that Nassau County has the most active overland run-

The fall in the price of oil will help in the short run. However, you can count on OPEC getting its house back in order. The fall will be temporary. INFLATION

We have to, at some point, pay for the ex-cesses of our budget deficits. I do not know how you define inflation. I define it as paying more for less and less. I believe that inflation is much worse than the official statistics

Many readers are goldbugs, they are fascinated by it. Most people love it. I see no short range future in owning gold. The Federal Reseve will not let inflation get out of control. Inflation is good for gold prices. I believe that the only way to own gold now is in the form of U.S. numismatic coins of investment grade. It is as close to a guaranteed investment as one can get. It makes the transfer of wealth easy. Just be sure that the seller is reputable.

MONEY MARKET MUTUAL FUNDS

Usually these funds are about as safe as you can get. They are short term in muturity so that they do not decline in value as interest rates rise. Years ago one fund made the mistake of trying for higher yields. High yields attract money, raising fees. They ended up with a two year maturity average just when interest rates rose. The decline in the value cost the stockholders dearly. Today more and more money market funds are investing more into commercial paper (IOU's of very large corporations). They try to get more yield. Longer maturities and risk are the result. For instance, flex-fund MM has about 95 percent in Comm. paper, Dreyfus Worldwide about 40 percent, Merrill Lynch Letter from Lulubelle ...

...My last letter told you of "a few of my favorite things", so now I must tell you a few of my least favorite or hates... I really hate mornings—especially getting up early...I love to stay up late, but I hate to get up early-and I am really not alive at all in the morning and I cannot abide those good souls who "rise and shine"!!....Also, I hate perfume pages in magazines that leave your hands smell-ing like a poor reproduction of the scent they're trying to sell...And laugh tracks on television—oh, how I hate them!!...I also can't stand "try too hard" books...books by authors who are trying so hard to be clever and erudite and who really leave me in the dark about what they are trying to say... And then there are snooty sales ladies who work in elegant shops and couldn't possibly afford to shop there, but who look down their noses at the customers....Loud music, especially at weddings—half of the guests are cowering in the lavatories trying to escape the beat!!....People who drive too slowly in the fast lane—have you noticed that they seem to be men wearing hats??...Taped telephone sales pitches...People who don't vote and then complain Plastic covers on furniture or lamps Pictures hung too high on walls (in my opinion, of course!!)....Those who take the last cup of coffee in the lunchroom and don't bother to make a fresh pot...People who are nice to me to my face and unkind behind my back—if they don't like me, that's OK, but they should be unpleasant all the time....Those who eat garlic for dinner and thensit next to me in the movies...but, nevertheless, the "hates" are unimportant when you consider all the "loves".

CMA about 50 percent. The maturity lengths in these funds have increased. One is at 83 days. This represents an unnecessary risk to principal for funds that have liquidity as their primary objective, not yield.

Call your fund 800 number, If the commercial paper numbers are high or the maturity much more than 30 days, get out. It is not worth the risk to principal.

THE STOCK MARKET

If I were a betting man I would say that we have finally entered the bear market that has been predicted for so long by so many. The recession that has hit so many areas of the country is beginning to affect the stock market prices. The over-the-counter and the American stock exchanges have experienced the downturn for some time. The Dow Jones stocks are now experiencing it. We probably will have a general market decline for about 6 to 9 months, maybe longer. This is not a catastrophe. Look for buying opportunities

Many of the better mutual funds have increased their cash positions. If your stocks are sound, look to buy more on the price weakness. Do not cease your investments in your mutual funds. Continue your dollar cost averaging. It is about as guaranteed a successful strategy as can be devised. JUNK BONDS

It seems that everyday I see another analyst who is saying that now is the time to get back into junk bonds. Only buy good junk they say. I suggest most strongly that you ignore the advice. Now is not the time. The defaults are just beginning for firms that are overextended. The recession mentioned above is just beginning. The junk bond companies are going to be stretched to the limit because their cash flow will be affected.

There is another good reason. Junk bonds became a glut on the market about 5 years ago. To make them more saleable a provision was added that is now a time bomb. Many of them have to have their interest rates changed (adjusted) to bring them up to par, $1,000 per bond market value. This sounds great for the investor. The companies went along because they all thought that interest rates would drop. They have not done so. To get a 1600 value to 11,000 the interest rates WILL HAVE TO BE RAISED. This required increase will raise the interest payout tremendously. It will increase the bankruptcy rate of junk bond companies. Many are now having trouble meeting PRESENT cash payouts, It is going to get worse. If interest rates come down dramatically in the next few years, OK. If not, expect one of the best of the so-called "good junk" conspanies to go bankrupt. If they can go, any company can go. Do not be a fool and rush in.

Most of the professional analysts do not know this provision. If they do, they are not telling. After all, their firms have a lot of junk to get rid of - to whom, you?

Loupport Arlene Rudin for Hicksville school board candidate. In the fall of 1054, when my danghter was in first grade at East Street, we had a rapid succession of incompetent and mesponsible bus drivers. One driver left a bus full of K-schildren on the bus while she went into a supermarket. When I suggested to both the supervisor of the bus company and the man in charge of transportation in our administration that anyone could have kidnapped a child off that bus. I was laughed at and told that was "far fetched—things like that don't happen in Hicksville." After more than six weeks of this, I got in touch with Arlene Rudin. After she stepped in, I got immediate results from both the bus company and administration.

Maybe if Arlene Rudin had still been on our board last year, the letter from $t. Ignatus concerning their suspicions of the bus driver recently arrested would not have been ignored, and he would not have had the opportunity to traumatize the children of Willet Avenue.

Arlene Rudin is not interested in board power or politics. She has been outspoken about bus safety for years, and I believe that safety and education for our children will come first with her.

To the Editor:

This June it will finish the second year of a three year term on the Hicksville Board of Education. During the past two years I have worked with Jo Ann Miltenberg, this year as a fellow Trustee and last year under her leadership as Board President. I can speak Jor her diligence when it comes to the required reading, research and compilation of various data, which we receive as board members, lo Ann always does the background work required on an issue and most times goes one step Jurther by seeking additional information, which she independently seeks from community members, staff and students.

Jo Ann is intelligent, well spoken, level headed, but much more importantly, shois an independent thinker. Jo Ann a homeowner, parent, teacher and active community member is always acutely aware of the educational as well as the financial impact board decisions have on our taxbaxers.

Our school board needs to Ann, please reelect to Ann Miltenberg and vote Yes for the Budget on May 25

Response To Letter

To The Edner

In response to Mr. Martillo's letter which was published in the May noth edition I would like to say that your letter was quite brilliant. The issues that you raised were good ones, now it's my turn to set the record straight and show the public how you raised only half the truth.

First let me address the teachers' contract issue. Yes, you were correct I did say at a board meeting to forget blaming the teachers about the contract. I made that statement because I heard from a top HCT official that the morale of our teachers was at an all time low and I didn't think it was fair to blame them. If you read my last letter intelligently I certainly didn't blame our teachers or their union leader. I placed the blame where it rightfully belonged, to the four board members who voted for the contract. I was hoping that by stating that, it would lay the issue to rest. My thinking was that since the contract is a done deal and can't be changed the community can certainly change its board members. Perhaps you took this personally since you were one of the four board members who voted for it and put our community into a fiscal crisis. What were your motives? You certainly didn't think about the taxpayers at the time!

Second, you talked about a P.T.A. meeting that took place last July. Your recollection of who attended and who didn't is correct, but you eleverly lorget to inform the public that Mark Cardella (who was president at the time) advised the other board members not to attend because he didn't want the P.T.A. meeting to turn into a board meeting. You are also right when you say we parents were outraged and angry, we were. Wouldn't you be: Upon hearing about that horrible nightmare did you expect us to be anything else? It was very nice of you to sit there that meht in July, but what did you actually do to help the children of Hicksville? It was the parents who demanded from the Superinten dent certain demands about safety and security. She acted on those demands and whatever was out of her power the board seted on. It was the parents who sation curoculum and policy committees and helped to enact sater policies for our children along with Mrs. Miltenberg and Mrs. Rooney close guidance. Not Yours!

Third, you also mentioned Mrs. Miltenberg's board opening up a Pandora se Bos with large percent increases for historist and secretaines. Give me a break Mr. Martillo Let's discussibles insimpler terms. If you owned a company and seven people made 15,00 an hour and bour hundred people made 50,000 an hour would you give a 10 percent or 14 percentrases to both groups? 10 percent of 15,00 and 110 percent of 130,001s quite different. If you gave an across the board percent raise to be veryone, your business would be bankrupi.

Fourth you go on to ask why I took a 180 degree turn and what's my angle? Here is the plain truth Tentered into this school board cene over a horrible nightmare. My fellow parents and I wanted to change the policies f this district and set up new ones that would safeguard all of Hicksvilles' children. We knew nothing about politics. As we sat in front of meeting after meeting we saw how some board members could care less about safety, security and education. They impated us because their personal vendettas and hatreds were getting in the way of the real issues of education and safety for our children. Mr. Martillo let's be honest with ourselves. You obviously attacked me and in so doing tried to do two things. One to hurt my credibility and second to use the letter to discredit the candidates whom I support in the election fromcaly you did neither

Annual Scholars' Dinner

The Hicksville High School Alumni Association sponsored the Second Annual Scholars' Dinner, held at the Hicksville Elks Club on May 2, as the Hicksville PTA Council presented the awards to the top 20 percent of the graduating class. Special medals were also given to Valedictorian Ellen Young and Salutatorian Michelle Eger.

The students were honored individually and in groups according to the elementary school from which they graduated or from the Middle School or high school if they moved into the district at a later date. Principals and PTA Presidents from each school presented the award to the students along with PTA Cauncil President Terry Moehringer and Alumni Association President Conrad Weyer. In turn, each group of students honored a deserving teacher from each school. Students and teachers reminisced about the past years, particularly those teachers from the elementary schools who have not taught these students in many years.

Entertainment was provided by 10th grade student Taylor Ferranti on the plano, followed by the Madrigal Singers under the direction of Darren Lougee.

Howard Finnegan, chairman for the Scholars' Dinner, said, "We are already looking forward to our next one, the Third Annual Scholars' Dinner."

Recital for Senior Scitizens

Hicksville High School muscral and drama students, once again performed for the senior citizens at their annual recital held at Levit town Hall on May 2nd, The students put on a wonderful performance. Audience members danced to the sounds of the High School Jazz Ensemble when they played In The Mood. The Madrigal Singers, under the direction of Darren Laugee, sang beautifully and the guls looked magnificent in their new blouses, purchased with the donation from Marc Ramirez (Hicksville's "Mr. Electric").

The Percussionists, under the direction of new staff inember Lawrence Rizzo, per formed a marvelously sounding composition. Drama Club performers Terri Glynn and Joe Vance performed a scene from The Glass Menagene, as director Judi Paseltiner looked on Robert West, Fine Atts Coordinator, introduced each group, James McRoy, Band Director, thanked the audience for making it all possible

Back For A Visit

Evelyn (Karmen) Webber visited her brother, George Karmen, of Bobwhite Lane recently. Evelyn is currently moving from Palm Springs, California to Rancho On The Lake, California. Evelyn said: "We've moved 21 times across the country due to my husband's corporate work." Evelyn has a nursing degree from Adelphi University in Garden City.

While here she also was a guest of Madeline (Naso) Sheridan, of Massapequa. Evelyn and Madeline were both vivacious cheerleaders for Hicksville High School-way back when.

News From

We received a note from Lillian and Marty Solomon, stating, "We would love to have you make note of some wonderful family news. We are long-time residents of Hicksville (27 years) and we wish to congratulate our daughter Cheryl Solomon, M.D. who is graduating from Chicago Medical School on June 11.

"Cheryl is a 1970 graduate of Hicksville High School and a 1982 SUNY-Albany graduate. She will be training at Nassau County Medical Center in Obstetrics and Gynecology, We are so proud of her and wish to share this good news with all.

"Our son, Richard, is also very proud of his sister. It will be wonderful having Cheryl working at NCMC. . . . Chicago was so far away. We really missed her."

Cheryl's dad, Marty, is an insurance broker doing business under the name of M. Solomon & Co. on Jerusalem Avenue in

On April 27, the first graders at Burns Avenue School celebrated Arbor Day and Earth Day by planting two trees. The trees were purchased by the children who earned money by doing chores around their homes. During the tree planting ceremony, the children stated their hopes for the future. They will watch their trees and hopes blossom and grown throughout their years at Burns Avenue School. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the children and their guests were invited to share tree-shaped cookies.

White House Report

By Martin Burns

The First Post Cold War Summit

The White House recently announced that President Bush and Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev would meet for their first official summit meeting between May 30 and June 3. The two leaders met last year on the Mediterranean isle of Malta last year. However, this meeting was regarded, at least by the White House, as more of a chance for two leaders to get to know each other than the traditional type of meeting between the leaders of the world's two supernowers.

Although it has not been officially confirmed, it is generally accepted that the two leaders will meet here in Washington. Before the crisis in Lithuania, it seemed quite possible that Gorbachev might even visit the Bushes at their Maine home. This seems to be out of the question now.

The United States and the Soviet Union have been negotiating a major strategic arms reduction treaty (START) since the early 1980's. Manalysists had predicted that Bush and Gorbachev would be able to sign the START Treaty at the June summit. Barring any major breakthrough, it now appears that the treaty will not be ready in time for the Bush-Gorbachev summit.

Even if a treaty was ready, you have to ask whether either Gorbachev or Bush would be willing to sign it. The Lithuanian independence crisis poses just as many problems for Bush as it does for Gorbachev. George Bush has invested a sizable chunk of his presidential prestige on Gorbachev and his policies' success. If Gorbachev was to use force in Lithuania, many on Capitol Hill, both Republicans and Democrats, would blame the Bush administration saying that if only George Bush had stoood up and been firm that the Soviets would have never dared use force.

The stakes for Gorbachev are even higher. He needs international recognition and diplomatic success to bolster his reform policies at home. The enhanced diplomatic acceptance of the Soviet Union since Gorbachev came to power is one of his only real, concrete, achievements.

The upcoming summit meeting between Gorbachev and Bush will be the first one of the post Cold War era. There are no diplomatic precedents to guide either leader. Gorbachev's aim most likely will be to use diplomacy to buy time for the results of his reforms in the Soviet Union to bear fruit. If Bush supports Lithuanian independence it could force Gorbachev to placate the hard liners by cracking down, thus dealing a body blow to his restructuring of the Soviet Union.

The task for Bush is no less daunting. He must come up with a concept of what U.S.—Soviet relations should be and work towards making the theory a reality. Bush will also wrestle with a dilemma as old as that of the Republic—What role should American ideology play, support for the Lithuanians, versis geopolitical aims, the survival of Gorbachev and his reforms?

All things considered, it looks like it will be a very historic summit.

Old Westbury Gardens To Hold Auction June 3

By popular request, Old Westbury Gardens will present a competitive bidding auction Sunday, June 3. With new treasures and collectibles, such as Waterford crystal, Chinese exports, paintings, water-colors, furniture, jewelry and much more available for the bidding public at Westbury House, the event will be a repeat of the 1989 auction—a command performance.

James P. Erdman is chairman of the auction. Mrs. Sonio Coletti-Perucca is honorary chairman. Acquisitions are being handled by Henry Clay, Sr. and Mrs. Ann Copeland.

Proceeds from the auction will help maintain and preserve Old Westbury Gardens for all to enjoy.

Walk Away From Drugs At Mitchel Athletic Park

Residents from across Long Island are being asked to sign up for what organizers believe will be the largest anti-drug rally ever staged on Long Island.

"Walk Away From Drugs" is a three-mile walkathon scheduled for Sunday, May 20, at Mitchel Athletic Park in Mitchel Field, Union-dale. It is being created to raise funds to help build Outreach House II, a drug and alcohol tehabilitation facility, under construction in Brentwood, that will provide treatment for Long Island adolescents ages 11-18.

More than 30,000 people are expected to take part in the event, which has attracted widespread corporate support from companies such as Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company, Cablevision, New York Daily News, Waldbaum's, and Automated Bread Distribution Comparation

According to Mary Cassidy, coordinator of "Walk Away From Drugs," Long Islanders of all ages are being asked to participate in the program. "Our goal is to make all Long Islanders aware of our efforts to help Cutreach House II become a reality," she said. "We need everybody's support. Naturally, we need people to participate in the walkathon, but we also need sponsors who believe in what we are doing for our young people and are willing to pledge money to support us."

Individuals or groups interested in participating in "Walk Away From Drugs" can obtain additional information by visiting any Cablevision walk-incenter or by calling (516) 364-0800, ext. 450 or 364-NEWS.

The bidding: South West East North Pass Pass Pass 20 Pass 30 Pass 40

Opening lead — five of spades.

The Flannery Convention, used mostly in tournaments, was devised for those hands where the opening bidder has specifically five hearts and four spades and less than 16 points in high-cards - a hand that is difficult to describe in standard bidding methods. Those who play Flannery open such a hand with an artificial bid of two diamonds. Partner then makes an appropriate response based on his high-card values and distribution.

This deal occurred in the Blue Ribbon Pairs Championship. At most tables, North got to four hearts and made four after East led a club to partner's ace and ruffed the club

But our story concerns itself with the table where South, using Flan-nery, got to be declarer at four hearts and West led his singleton spade. South played dummy's eight, which held the trick. Then, unaware of the catastrophe about to befall him, declarer led the queen of diamonds, at which point the roof caved in on him.

East took the diamond with the ace and returned a low spade, ruffed by West. West led the ace and another club, ruffed by East. East played another spade, ruffed by South with the nine and overruffed by West with the ten.

The debacle continued when West led another club, ruffed by East, and East then returned a fourth round of spades. Declarer ruffed with the four, overruffed by West with the six, and South's agony was finally over.

It is true that declarer could have made the contract by simply drawing trumps at the start of play. In fact, he might even have made an overtrick. But instead, he went down four -400 points! Despite dummy's powerful trumps, South lost five trump tricks - all because of his seemingly innocuous queen of diamonds play at trick two!

Hicksville Runners Score in 10K Run

Lupski, running as part of the LILCO "Lightfeet" Team, crossed the finish line in 35 minutes, 49 seconds, good for 26th place overall out of nearly 1,000 runners and fourth place in the highly competitive men's 35 to 30 age group. Burden, a member of the Fast Feet Women's Racing Team, finished in 45:13, good for fourth place in the equally competitive women's 35 to 30 age group

But there were also other Hicksville people who participated.

The run was conducted by the Plainview-Old Bethpage Road Runners Club, with the entire net proceeds dedicated to ASPIRE, the special program established in conjunction with The Hospital for Special Surgery and Memorial Sloan Kettering to provide prosthetics, in-tensive physical therapy and rehabilitation for young amputees, most of whom have endured the tragedy of having a leg amputated to save their lives from bone

Resident Wins Powerlifting Competition

"Champion," reads the gold charm that hangs around Linda Jo Belsito's neck. The medallion could not be more fitting. Linda Jo Belsito has taken first place in the American Drug Free Powerlifting Association's Women's National Competition.
"For me, this title is the fulfillment of a lifelong dream," said the attractive 5'6" blonde. To win the nationals, she powerlifted more than 900 pounds during three separate lifts.

Belsito, a Hicksville resident, has been lifting since 1983, and participating in national competitions for the last five years. Four years ago she began training with a coach. She has finished in second place in the nationals four times, and once in fourth place. She credits improved concentration techniques with her first-place finish at the April 8 competition.

"This year I went in with the goal not to win, but to do the best I could for myself." she said. "I spent a lot of time learning how to relax using imagery, meditation, and other stress reduction techniques. If you're not all there mentally, you most likely can't perform the way you want to.

While mental attitude can be a crucial element in powerlifting competitions, Belsito devotes most of her training time to rigorous physical workouts. "I typically give myself 12 weeks to get ready for a meet," she explain-ed. "Training sessions involving heavy lifting usually last anywhere from 45 minutes to oneand-one-half hours. I do heavy lifting three days a week and two days a week I run or bike to keep the weight off."

Diet is also a concern. Working under the close supervision of a nutritionist and a physician, Belsito consumes a high-carbohydrate, low fat diet with a limited protein intake.

The American Drug Free Powerlifting Association is only one of several groups which sponsor competitions for women powerlifters. Others include the United States Powerlifting Federation, the International Powerlifting Federation, and the American Powerlifting Federation. "Usually, if a lifter is competing within one organization, they will stick with that one. I chose Drug Free because I don't believe in steroid use," said Belsito, who is a registered nurse at North Shore University Hospital-Cornell University Medical College.

Linda Jo Belsito, R.N., performing the dead lift, one of three events which won her the American Drug Free Powerlifting Association's Women's National Competition.

Belsito had only a few days to celebrate her accomplishment before it was time to go into training again. On June 27, she and nine other women representing the American team will travel to Paris for the World Drug Free Powerlifting Championships. The competitions are considered to be at the amateur level, and there is no prize money involved.

She and her coach are hoping to attract spon sors to help defray the cost of the trip.

"For me it has been a long five years of com peting nationally. Each year I saw others take ing first prize, and I always thought, "that's my dream," she reflected. Having seen her dream become a reality, she now has her sights set on the world title.
