No Third Budget Vote; Austerity To Remain

By Peggy Theis

Austerity will remain in effect for the 1990-91 school year as the Hicksville School Board defeated a motion on Oct. 10 to resubmit the budget for a third time. High school students and some residents continued to request a third vote, while others felt that the community had spoken through its two previous budget defeats.

The Board listened to a special bond counsel, the district's auditor and the assistant superintendent for business services before coming to its conclusive vote (1-6) that a revote would not be fiscally sound.

Trustee Arlene Rudin, who ultimately voted no on a budget revote, had proposed the third vote at the Board's September 26 meeting, but action was tabled at that time until information could be obtained on how the difference between the defeated August 29 budget ($51,584,000) and the austerity budget adopted by the Board on September 5 ($49,872,182) could be funded.

Again, on October 10 Rudin motioned to resubmit the budget at $51,584,000. Rudin said she "sympathized with the audience," and recognized that austerity would still cost residents additional taxes. She indicated that her intent was not to cost the taxpayers any more on a passed budget than would be incurred on austerity. To do this, approximately $1.7 million had to be found. If the District were to remain on austerity, Rudin said that the starting point for the 1991-92 budget would be an additional $2.00 on the tax rate assuming that all things stayed the same, including no school closings.

Because the 1990-91 tax rate had been set by the County in September as required, the District had difficult choices to make if it were to increase expenditures over the austerity figure. On September 26, legal counsel Gregory Guercio had outlined three routes the District could pursue: 1) a supplemental tax levy if approved by the County; 2) borrowing the difference; or 3) reducing expenditures.

Bond attorney Martin A. Geiger said that to his knowledge, a supplemental tax had not been levied in Nassau "in current history" and that after approaching various county authorities "no one seemed to know just how this would work." Geiger said he'd be "hard-pressed to recommend" a supplemental tax levy without knowing exactly how Nassau County would handle the situation because it made "no sense getting voter authorization for more taxes if you cannot levy and collect them."

As far as a budget note or borrowing, Geiger said this was "more in [his] area of expertise." A note, he said, would not be for the authorization of an increase in the budget, but to allow votes to approve "packages" such as transportation. Any borrowing for this purpose would have to be paid back the following year. In response to a question from Board Secretary William Bennett regarding other districts undertaking similar borrowing, Geiger replied that he was unaware of any district that had not resolved

Community Continues To Question Austerity

By Peggy Theis

Hicksville High School students have become increasingly aware of the financial aspects of austerity as they struggle to help their families pay for athletics, field trips, and social activities. Many of them attended the Board of Education meeting on October 10, to explain the situation as it affects their lives.

Lorraine Simonello said students have been forced to get jobs in order to pay for sports and other activities when they should be concentrating on learning. One student said that the timing of the August 29 budget was not good because many residents were on vacation. Students reacted negatively to a resident's suggestion that their activities be assessed to find out which ones were most important. Student Chris Bennett spoke on the high cost of a college education, and the potential for athletic scholarships. Another student spoke on the scarcity of supplies such as paper and pencils.

Senior Citizens

Edna Crews, a 40-year resident, asked why the young people of Hicksville don't care about senior citizens. She mentioned that 22 years ago the Board had decided "to take care of seniors" via the school budget. Her remarks caused a flurry of replies from students and parents, who disagreed with Crews' perception of Hicksville.

Taxpayers

Not all residents were eager to see a third budget vote. One resident asked that the budget not be resubmitted unless it was "drastically cut", especially in light of the present economy.

Joseph Van Berckelaer and Leo Brecht, who have spoken out at many Board meetings, called for the closing of schools as a way to lower future budgets. Van Berckelaer said to students that the defeat of the Budget was the fault of the Board for presenting an unacceptable budget. Brecht said that while he "felt sorry for the kids," it was time to start economizing.

Another resident reminded the Board that the adoption of the 1991-92 budget was only five or six meetings away. He expressed concern that neighbors are being pitted against neighbors in assessing blame for austerity which he believed rested with the School Board.

Parents

Parent Rose Walker commented on the hardships placed upon families by the lack of funding for extracurricular activities. She said that it was difficult to see Holy Trinity practicing at Dutch Lane fields at no charge while Hicksville students were told "if you want to play, you pay."

The Hicksville Marching Band Parents Association continues to fundraise in its effort to maintain the Marching Band's program. Their secretary, Charles Butt, told the Board that his organization was "more fortunate" than other groups in that it had almost enough funds raised over the past two years to support "our very limited Marching Band Program this year", an effort which will deplete its treasury. In planning future budgets, Butt asked that the Board continue funding for the Marching Band at the pre-austerity levels. He also invited the Board and the public to attend the All American Marching Band Show to be held at Hicksville High School on October 21, an event his organization is sponsoring.

Peggy Parsekian said that she thought austerity was supposed to affect every aspect of the District, but the only people she has seen being deprived were students. Parsekian also questioned the $10,000 stipend to the Director of Continuing Education. Board President Jo Ann Miltenberg said that this stipend has been reduced from $15,000. Although not mentioned at the Board meeting, the stipend is partially paid by tax dollars since the Director is also in charge of the Evening High School, a continuation of

HOMETOWN PEOPLE

Jennifer Linde and Brian Rockefeller

Jennifer Linde Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Les Wenner of Binghamton, New York, formerly of Hicksville, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Jennifer Linde, to Brian Rockefeller.

Jennifer is a graduate of Hicksville High School, class of '85. The couple met while Jennifer was doing her internship at the Binghamton Psychiatric Center where Brian was employed as an occupational therapist. Jennifer graduated from college in May of this year and is now a registered occupational therapist working for Broome Development Center and the Johnson City School District. Brian is an O.T.R. working for United Health Services.

The couple is planning a September 1991 wedding.

Happy Birthday Jackie

Jackie DePalma thought she was having a nice quiet birthday dinner at the Ground Round last Friday, but when she walked in with Debbie Tirado, Melissa Master and Liz Jergenson, she was greeted with a "Surprise" by more than 25 members of Hicksville's Marching Band.

A 21 Gun Salute!

Congratulations to Catherine and Chris Reimels on the birth of their 21st grandchild—John Malcolm was born on Oct. 5 at the North Shore Hospital. He weighed 9 lb. 7 oz. He is the second son of Judy and Bob Reimels of Locust Valley.

A Trip To Oberammergau

On July 16 Susan Minichello along with a loving group, hosted by Pastor John Krahn toured seven countries in Europe by bus. Said Susan, "What a lovely way to see Europe. Driving through the Alps was in one phrase, 'breathtaking.' In reality no words can describe how beautiful Bavaria is unless you actually see it in person."

"We started in Belgium and from there went to France, then to Switzerland and then to my heritage country—Italy—where we toured the 'eternal city' of Rome. We then went on to Austria and finally Germany—the focus of our trip. For this was the place where we would see and experience the Passion Play of 1990 in Oberammergau, Germany. The play was performed all in German, beginning at 9 a.m. and ending at 5:30 p.m. It is a play about the passion of Jesus Christ, done only every ten years. It was a masterpiece! They are not paid actors or actresses, but townspeople of Oberammergau who portrayed the lives of the Apostles and the Holy Family. When asked by one tourist member why there was no curtain call, it was explained that this was the passion of Jesus Christ—not Broadway."

"It would take pages to describe the feeling of seeing this historical play and also the feeling of just being in this beautiful town."

"Our trip then continued to Holland and then back to Belgium for our return flight home."

"I would like to say that this was my second overseas trip with Pastor Krahn—the first was to the Holy Lands and Egypt, which in my opinion, was one of the most peaceful and emotional experiences I've ever had."

Thanks, Susan, for sharing this experience with us. It must have been a wonderful trip.

'Brimming With Memories'

The St. Ignatius new school cafeteria was brimming with memories last weekend as Alumni from the St. Ignatius Youth Council gathered for their 25-year reunion.

Alumni arrived from all over the country and enjoyed an evening of dinner, dancing and memories on Saturday, Oct. 7. Guest of honor, the Rev. James P. Carmody (who was the founder and moderator of the group 25 years ago) was presented with a beautiful plaque and a good natured "Roast"; after which there was barely a dry-eye in the house. A photographer arrived at the end of the evening to take a group photo of all attending alumni.

On Sunday morning, Reverend Tom Murray, a Youth Council Alumni, celebrated a Folk Mass at noon, complete with alumni strumming guitars and singing the songs that were used in their Folk Masses of 25 years ago. More than 175 Youth Council members, their children and their parents attended this Folk Mass and the Continental brunch that followed.

Among the items from the reunion weekend that are available for sale are an Alumni Directory ($5), a Memory Video which shows photos, slides and movies of Youth Council Dramatic and Musical productions as well as highlights from this Reunion Weekend ($15) and the group photo ($12).

Anyone who is interested in purchasing the items or would like additional information please contact Reunion Chairperson Diana (D'Antuono) DePalma at 931-7072.

Surprise Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Michael DelPersio have announced the engagement of their daughter, Angela, to Thomas Geraghty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Geraghty, all of Hicksville.

The romantic evening began with Thomas taking Angela to dinner at Steve's Pier 1 in Bayville. After dinner he suggested a walk on the moonlit beach. He thought of everything—even bringing the champagne. Then he proposed . . . and she accepted.

Meanwhile Angela's parents and Thomas' parents were all attending the '50's dance being held at the Elks Lodge in Hicksville. Both parents were happy that they would be able to get better acquainted with each other that evening. Tom's mom, Marianne, knew about the surprise proposal beforehand, but Angela's mom, Marianne, didn't know a thing. About midnight the happy couple walked into the Elks and made the announcement that they had just become engaged. Needless to say, everyone was delighted.

The DelPersios are having an informal engagement party Saturday at their home to celebrate this very happy occasion.

They have planned their wedding for March, 1992 with the reception to be held at the Fox Hollow Inn.

Congratulations and best of luck Angela and Thomas.

James Maccio

They Really Celebrate!

James Anthony Maccio, son of Barbara (Murphy) and James Maccio turned one year old on Oct. 5. It took two days to celebrate. On the 5th the Maccios joined in the celebration and Mommy said James seemed most excited to see his oldest uncle (Louis).

On the 6th it was the Murphys who came over to celebrate and of course James' godmother was there too.

"Happy first birthday, Love, Mommy, Daddy and Tara."

Local Students Tackle Mid East Crisis

By Rita Langdon

Saddam Hussein never had Hicksville in mind when he authorized Iraq's invasion of Kuwait last August. Nevertheless, the Iraq action was the focal point of a heated press conference last Thursday among mock ambassadors from European and Mid Eastern nations.

Paul Vetrano's 10th grade global social studies class simulated an international press conference complete with ambassadors from various countries—such as Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Kuwait, Iran, Soviet Union, France—two United States cabinet members, a moderator and an audience of reporters who fired questions at officials.

Students prepared for the conference by reading newspapers, watching news broadcasts and researching their assigned official's positions on various issues concerning the Persian Gulf crisis.

Journalists from the audience represented various media entities including CBS, CNN, NBC, the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Herald, and the Daily News. Questions and discussions centered around chemical warfare, hostages, oil, the armed forces and the United Nations. Some officials were also asked to outline their country's position and what action they would take in the event of war.

At one point, the ambassador from Kuwait—student Jackie DePalma—was asked to describe her country's situation overseas.

"Civilians are being hurt both physically and emotionally," said DePalma. "You can not believe the way human beings treat each other at a time of crisis. You'll understand what I'm saying as you turn your attention to the tape of a Kuwaiti woman testifying to the horror she witnessed."

Teacher Paul Vetrano then played a video tape of the woman's testimony which aired during a news broadcast.

The woman described how newborn children were being taken from their incubators by Iraq soliders and left on the floor to die.

After the mock conference, Jackie said that she found the video tape "devastating. I think everybody's worried about what's going on. It's terrible the way the [Kuwaitis] are being treated."

The U.S. Secretary of Defense, portrayed by Tom Kevins, referred to a world map and pointed out the areas where U.S. troops are stationed in the Persian Gulf.

The conference was conducted as realistically and professionally as possible. The moderator, Catherine Hora, introduced the officials and maintained order after a surprise outburst from an Israeli reporter—

Thomas Carolan—who shouted to an Iraq reporter—John Simonello—that Iraq's people were "killers."

To which the Iraq reporter responded, "So then we will take our revenge and drive you into the sea."

After all reporter's questions were answered, the students were taught the next possible step in a press conference. Vetrano urged the "ambassadors" and other "officials" to give summations and other comments.

The conference ended with a comment from the moderator: "I would like to thank you all for participating in today's discussion. I hope that at some future time we can convene to discuss peace instead of war."

During the days before the conference, the students were given a chance to rehearse and iron out any problems. Since the beginning of the school year, the students have been studying the Middle East which is part of their curriculum. Each day, they spend approximately 10 minutes on current events that Vetrano said can get "so heated" that he has to keep a strict time limit so other

Budget Hearings Set For Oct. 23

Small Hike Expected In Town Taxes

By Nancy Fischetti

A slowing economy and diminishing revenues, offset by decreases in solid waste disposal costs, are being identified as reasons for a minimal increase in the 1991 Oyster Bay Town budget, according to a package revealed last week.

Supervisor Angelo Delligatti's preliminary budget, which will be the subject of day and night hearings Oct. 23 at town hall, carries an overall tax increase of less than one percent. According to the town, the average homeowner, in a house assessed at $7,000 will pay approximately $7 additional for the year if the package is approved by the town board.

The solid waste disposal tax will decrease for the third consecutive year, according to Delligatti. An increase in types of recyclable materials as well as in participation has reduced the amount of waste being shipped and disposed of out of state and will result in a ten cent decrease in the tax next year.

"This success must be credited to our town's 75,000 recycling households, whose outstanding cooperation has realized the cost of benefits," Delligatti said.

For the first time in eight years, Town of Oyster Bay residents will see an increase in the general town tax. Instead of the previous 87 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, the rate will be 92 cents.

Spending increases will be seen in all categories and Delligatti said that the town's revenues will not be increasing at previously seen rates. Slowing real estate sales have decreased the amount of mortgage taxes received by the town and assessed valuation is not increasing as rapidly as before, the supervisor said due to the "town board's policies to slow down development and be conservative toward development." Usually, increases in valuation soften the tax impact of spending increases by affording a larger base from which to collect revenues.

Civil Service employees will be seeing larger paychecks, thanks to a six percent increase negotiated for 1991, the last year of a three year contract. Frank DeStefano, deputy supervisor, said that when negotiated, the contract was "in keeping with what the economy was doing." If the town were negotiating now, DeStefano said, it would "probably try to come in with a lesser figure."

Delligatti added that he is expecting contract negotiations with administrative employees to net "not more than six percent" increases.

Preliminary Oyster Bay Town Budget Synopsis

1990		1991
$45,305,389	General Fund	$45,610,884

42,666,726	Water Disposal	42,876,132
4,219,144	Public Parking	4,286,300

There will not, however, be an increase in salaries for elected officials. "In these economic times, we don't feel we should pay any increased salaries," Delligatti said. "We all agreed it was something that was appropriate."

Delligatti said he is pleased with the preliminary budget, particularly in light of lower revenue and "maintaining or increasing services."

"I am very happy with our taxes [considering] the federal, state and city government tax problems," Delligatti said. "We are in excellent shape."

The supervisor said that in addition to providing a financial blueprint for general fund, part-town and highway expenditures, the preliminary budget also includes revenues and allocations for all special districts within the town. Approximately 50 percent of the districts are accounted for, even though, he said, in many cases their tax rates are established by locally elected boards of commissioners.

Copies of the 1991 preliminary budget will be available for public review at all local libraries and at the town clerk's Massapequa and Oyster Bay offices approximately seven days prior to the budget hearing. Copies can be obtained for $5.

The budget hearings which are open to the public, will be conducted at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. Oct. 23 at Town Hall East, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay.

TO YOUR HEALTH

By RICHARD H. BLAU, M.D.

Arthritis Treatment - A Comprehensive Approach Part II - Arthritis Medications

To understand the rationale behind the use of certain arthritis medications, it is necessary to understand some basic facts concerning arthritis. The term arthritis means joint inflammation and also includes disorders which result in inflammation of the muscles and tendons. There are many causes of joint, muscle and tendon inflammation. In fact, over 100 types of disorders come under the category of inflammatory joint and muscle disease.

Inflammation is the body's natural way to fight disease. When this inflammation gets out of control and affects the joints and surrounding tissues, arthritis occurs. When this inflammation continues for long periods of time, joint damage may occur. The main goal in therapy prescribed by rheumatologists (arthritis specialists) is to reduce the inflammatory response.

One form of therapy will usually make use of anti-inflammatory medications. These medications have been scientifically shown to reduce the inflammation of arthritis. When the inflammation is reduced, the pain and swelling so often associated with arthritis also improves. These medications can be powerful and often improve the symptoms of arthritis within a few weeks.

There are many effective medications available for the treatment of arthritis. Each medication is different, and the one that is used for you should be tailored to your type of arthritis. A correct diagnosis is necessary before any medication is prescribed.

Most arthritis medications are safe. However, some patients do experience side effects. Rheumatologists are aware of the side effects and problems encountered by most patients. Their training enables them to instruct their patients in a manner which is both safe and effective, allowing successful use of the medications.

The Beauty Of Nassau County's Nature Preserves

By Philip H. Johnson

For many years, the County of Nassau has been purchasing large tracts of land for use as parkland and nature preserves. At this point, the county has acquired 5,000 acres of land, of which, 1,100 acres are being utilized as nature preserves. The properties are protected from outside encroachment by the perpetual preservation program which ensures the land will remain forever wild.

It is gratifying to know responsible county officials have had the foresight to realize the importance and significance of providing sheltered areas in which imperiled trees and vegetation may grow, undisturbed, to maturity. Equally important are the provided sanctuaries for threatened bird life, as well as safe havens for the small wild animal populations.

The oldest of the preserves is Tackapausha Preserve, Seaford. This land was purchased by the county in 1939 and was named in honor of Chief Tackapausha of the Massapequa Indians. The preserve, which includes a portion of the Seaford Creek, has one of the few stands of White Oak on Long Island, as well as Red Maples. Over 200 species of birds, including the Osprey, visit the preserve throughout the year. The property offers snug quarters for the small wild animal life, such as squirrels, chipmunks, raccoons, woodchucks and muskrats. The preserve has, on display in its office, scenes which interpret the life sciences and show wild life in natural habitats.

The largest of the preserves is the Massapequa Preserve. Its main attraction is a large lake which is stocked by the State of New York with trout and bass. It is available to the public during the appropriate recreational fishing seasons. The Massapequa Preserve contains, as well, both marshland and sandy soil; both of which are excellent environments for underground horticultural species.

The Hempstead Plains Preserve, located in the Uniondale area, once spread eastward for some 60,000 acres. The topography of the huge grass covered plain was very similar to what one might see in a middle western state's rolling, prairie configuration. All of that which remains today of the huge tract of land is 79 acres, of which 60 acres are held by the preserve and the balance of 12 acres comprises the Nassau Community College Campus. More than 59,000 acres were bought up by real estate developers who built and sold homes which today have become part of the parcel of our sprawling suburban communities. To accommodate increased buyers' requirements, immense shopping malls were built on the little land left remaining.

There are two major salt marsh preserves on Long Island: the first of which is Garvies Point, Glen Cove, and the second Cow Meadow, Freeport. The salt marsh preserves provide nearly perfect environment for the protection of red maples, as well as rare and imperiled plant life. Over 140 species of birds can be, occasionally, seen in the woods or along a meadow's edge. Game fish rely upon the salt marshes for wetland game food and for the especially clean water.

Included in the Garvies Point Preserve is the Pine Barren Forest community. Because of its sandy soil, the Pine Barren Forest is an excellent location in which pitch pines and oaks may grow and prosper.

The Sands Point Preserve combines two important features: first the preservation of Sands Point's magnificent shoreline with its bluffs, which are so typical of the north shore and, secondly, the protection of the handsome and impressive Gold Coast mansions situated within its boundaries.

The County of Nassau acquired these vast tracts of land for primary purpose of providing endangered species of plants, birds and small wild animal life preservation and protection. At the same time, county residents are encouraged to use these facilities just as often as they might desire. The preserves are open from dawn to dusk daily. Park rangers patrol the preserves and are extremely well qualified in providing visitors with information or in answering questions.

Besides providing in season fishing, many of the preserves provide walking trails, while others have bicycle or horseback riding trails. If a visitor would prefer to picnic, he should call he preserve to find out whether or not such a facility is available. Some of the preserves charge admission and others do not. Once again, it is wise to call ahead and find out for sure. Not permitted are recreational vehicles, motorcycles or dirt bikes.

Mrs. Carole Ryder, who is headquartered at the Tackapausha Preserve, Seaford, is the Greenspace Preserve Supervisor and Curator of Life Science, Nassau County Department of Parks and Recreation. Mrs. Ryder offers a goodly amount of sound advice when she said: "The preserves are for you (the residents of Nassau County) to use and enjoy just as often as you like; but please, follow the rules and regulations, place your trash and empty containers into the woods. Stay on the trails and follow them faithfully. Don't try for shortcuts, as you may find yourself lost!"

The Nassau County Preserves is part of the Department of Parks and Recreation, of which Mr. John Kiernan is commissioner. The overall supervision of the Preserves is the responsibility of Mr. Edward Smits, director of museums.

Planning For a Disaster

Hundreds Involved In Weekend Emergency Drill

By A. Anthony Miller

An earthquake with its epicenter in Marked Tree, Arkansas, measuring 6.8 on the Richter scale, together with an aftershock measuring 6.0, claimed the lives of 2,200 on Oct. 10, and injured more than 10,000.

Because medical facilities in the area could not possibly treat so many, only the most seriously hurt were admitted to local hospitals, the majority air-lifted to other institutions all over the country for medical help.

More than 210 were brought to Long Island Oct. 13 and 14, coming in on a giant C130 transport for triage, evaluation and admission to a number of area hospitals, including in Nassau Franklin Hospital, Mid-Island Hospital, Nassau County Medical Center, Winthrop University Hospital and Hempstead General Hospital, and four more hospitals in Suffolk.

To provide transportation, more than a score of Nassau county fire departments sent volunteer personnel, ambulances and emergency ambulance technicians to the staging area, Long Island McArthur Airport in Islip, for two days.

That's the scenario set up to test the National Disaster Medical System (NDMS). The earthquake didn't really happen, and no one was actually hurt, although the 210 "victims" were skillfully made up to resemble actual victims. The C130 actually transported "victims" and made a landing at the airport.

The ambulances really did roll, and the hospitals received the "patients." It was all part of an elaborate test, involving more than 300 volunteers, to test how well NDMS works, and what could happen in the event of some catastrophic disaster, one so big that hundreds died and thousands were injured.

With the serious threat of a war in the Persian Gulf, there is always the possibility of large military casualties, more than could be treated there. This would result in as many as possible being air-lifted back to the United States for medical aid.

Because rising medical costs have made it impossible for the government to maintain a system of medical care for mass casualties, then-President Ronald Reagan in 1981 established a system was formed which led to the formation of the National Disaster Medical System (NDMS), a co-operative effort of several branches of the federal government, state and local governments, and the private sector.

The NDMS operation took over a hangar at the airport for the weekend, and scores of volunteers, including doctors, nurses, and EMTs participated in the large-scale drill. The medical director was Dr. Robert H. Leviton, director of the emergency department at the North Valley Stream-based Franklin Hospital.

The co-ordinating facility for the drill was the Northport Veterans Hospital, whose Joseph Stevens explained the two years of planning that culminated in this weekend's exercise. "Each cooperating hospital submits on a daily basis the number of beds available. In the event of a real disaster, elective admissions would be stopped and casualties could be admitted to the area hospitals."

Amateur radio operators, or "hams," located in Nassau and Suffolk counties were an integral part of the drill. Dozens responded, furnishing their own equipment, setting up both at the airport and in the participating hospitals, to provide a much-needed radio communications link that kept the airwaves busy.

Vito Reciniello, an AEMT since 1984, was one of the hundreds of personnel who participated in the drill. A plumber by trade, Vito said he puts in enough time as a volunteer to count as "a second full-time job." What does his wife, Patricia, think of this? "She's in the corps, too. She signed up several months ago," Vito said.

To evaluate the drill at first-hand was Brig. Gen. Raymond C. Bonnabeau Jr., a deputy surgeon general of the U.S. Army, who is based in St. Paul, Minnesota.

"Without the support of the community and the hospitals and the devotion of the individuals who are doing this exercise, NDMS wouldn't work," the general said. "They really bring this together."

Also on hand were Sgts. Lawrence Mahoney and Bruce Miller of the New York State Police, Chief Peter Meade of the Nassau County Fire Commission fire communications service, and a number of others who will over the next several weeks "critique" the exercise and submit reports.

These evaluations will assist in refining the exercise and making sure that time spent by and facilities of the 24 Nassau and 48 Suffolk ambulance corps are used properly.

"There will be further drills," said Dr. Leviton, "possibly on an annual basis."

VOLUNTEER emergency workers from throughout the county participate in mock triage exercises held recently.

Pain Relief

One of the most feared aspects of illness is pain.

Having to wait for a number of hours before the next dose of pain killer is available is often frightening and debilitating.

Now, patients suffering severe pain because of surgery or an accident...or some chronic disease such as cancer, can get instant relief by pushing a button on a small computerized pump. The pain reliever is administered through the patient's intravenous line.

No uncomfortable injections are necessary.

Patients cannot overdose because of the controls on the pump.

In fact, the majority of patients use far less pain medication when they administer to themselves in small doses on the basis of need.

The new pain service is just one of the many programs being introduced at your community medical center - North Shore University Hospital at Glen Cove.

ed its budget situation by the time tax levies were required to be paid (the first installment was due October 1st). Geiger agreed with Bennett that most districts do not generally undertake an additional budget vote after tax rates have been established.

Teacher Retirement

Debate continued to center around the use of Teacher Retirement System (TRS) money as a possible means of partially funding the $1.7 million in question. The State has offered school districts the opportunity to delay payments to TRS, which would have to be paid at 8 percent interest over 15 years. The Board had voted 6-1 (Rudin voting no) in July to pay the TRS money due the State as soon as possible in order not to incur interest charges, which would approximate over $2 million, according to Assistant Superintendent for Business William Hall.

A reserve had been established in 1989-90 of $1.1 million for TRS. In reply to a question from Trustee Carole Wolf, Hall indicated that this money was still available if the Board chose to transfer it out of the reserve and increase the budget by that amount, which would require a third budget vote.

Other Comments

Wolf said that the District was saving approximately $90,000 a month by the reduction in transportation. If the District were to transfer the $1.1 million TRS reserve, and take into account two months of transportation savings, Wolf said an additional $420,000 would be needed to get the District off austerity.

In reply to Wolf's question, Hall said he had no suggestion as to where the money could be found. He added that the Board had established a line item of $2.3 million in August for TRS, where some money could be transferred to other accounts if the Board so desired. In concluding, Wolf said it was not her intent to cut any programs as they now exist. "I don't think it's right . . . if we are talking about cutting anything, it's for the 1991-92 budget including the possibility of closing schools."

Bennett Comments

Bennett said that the District's books closed on June 30 showing receipt of only $7 million in state aid when it had expected to receive $9.7 million. Bennett referred to the State's "shell game" which allowed school districts to utilize TRS funds to replace state aid shortages while requiring them to pay this money back with interest.

According to Bennett, Hicksville operates under "save harmless", which means it can't receive less state aid than the previous year. He asked if the State could "tell us . . . what figure we're talking about (for save harmless) the $7 million or the $9.7 million? What's the scheme for next year as far as our state aid is concerned?" He said he is concerned that the 1990-91 austerity budget utilizes the $9.7 million state aid figure as a revenue item.

Hall said he hoped the Board and the public are aware of this situation.

Also, according to Bennett, both the Empire Plan and HMO (medical benefits) are expected to rise 20 percent, which Hall estimates at a total increase of over $600,000.

Bennett said that the Hicksville School District is "fiscally sound" in part because of the reserve funds for such items as TRS, liability insurance, etc. Bennett said, "Once we start hitting those reserves that we're going to find ourselves in the same situation that municipalities find themselves in when they've got notes and bonds, where their financial stability is in question . . . We're trying to solve '90-'91 on the backs of the students of '91-'92; I feel that's unsound economically and educationally."

The Vote

Board President Jo Ann Miltenberg asked the District's auditor, Robert Abrams if it would be a "fiscally responsible act" for the Board to resubmit the budget. Saying the District didn't have too many options, he replied that the District would have to take a "hard look" at revenue sources and possible areas to be cut. Questioning where money was to come from because taxes were already levied, he said borrowing would add to next year's budget. He too spoke of the utilization of TRS monies as a "gimmick" foisted on districts as a means for the State to help balance its budget and under which Hicksville lost $2,200,000 in State Aid, which he said came "right from the folks in Albany", the use of which could double the District's cost. He concluded by saying that the District was fiscally sound at present.

The vote was then taken with all Board members voting no with the exception of trustee William Collins.

TRS Payment

Prior to the vote on resubmission of the budget, Hall indicated, in response to a question from Rudin, that the District would not be paying off the TRS debt as soon as possible but would instead pay it off over a three or four year period. Rudin asked why Hall was not proceeding as directed by the Board in July to pay the entire amount this year. Hall explained that the reduction of the Budget by $1.5 million in August had changed the payment schedule. Rudin countered that the State had lowered future TRS rates from 11.5 percent to 6.87 percent and that the resultant savings of approximately $1 million was what the Board reduced the budget by at that time. Hall said he had presented a different financial plan in August which extended the payment schedule. Wolf agreed with Rudin's statements, saying she was never told of Hall's intent to extend the time frame for payment of the TRS debt. Hall replied that his "intent was to follow whatever the Board of Education has adopted as a line item." Discussion then moved to other areas.

However, in an unusual move, the Board took action after the second public session to specifically outline how the TRS money would be paid on October 15. Wolf motioned that $2,558,833 be paid utilizing the $1.1 million reserve, a state credit of $616,000 and the balance from the 1990-91 budget. Additional payments would be due in November and December, also to come from the austerity budget.

Other Action

The Board unanimously approved the appointment of Carole Wolf as delegate to the School Boards Association Convention to be held in Rochester.

Next Meeting

The Board's regular meeting for the month is scheduled for October 24 at 8:15 in the Administration Building.

H.S. Marching Band Takes First Place

By Marcia Gunnigle

The Hicksville Marching Comets were among 14 bands to participate in the CMBC (Cadet Marching Band Co-Operative competition) sponsored by the Cadets of Bergen County, New Jersey. The event was held Oct. 6 at Hofstra University.

This event was unique for the Hicksville band because it is the first time that they competed in this type of event. During the CMBC competition, additional rules are observed: 1) The judges are selected from all over the United States rather than exclusively from the tri-state region. 2) There are more than four size categories. 3) The criteria for judging the bands' performance is much stricter and usually results in lower scores. But, the Hicksville band triumphed in the Group IV category. When the scores were tallied, Hicksville band marched away with the awards for High Music High Visual effect, Best Drum Major, Highest overall effect and the highest overall score, winning the first place trophy with 74.3 out of a possible topics can be discussed.

The students said they learned a great deal from the class this year and cited the current events section and broadcasts of national news as helpful teaching tools.

"We're learning more of the details," said Adam Firester referring to using the press conference as an aid to learning about national events.

"Everything is made clearer," said Jennifer Brennan. "We're becoming more involved and more aware," said another student.

In the beginning of the school year the class wrote letters to service people overseas and included "thank you notes." The students told the soldiers about the prices of oil here, sports and other interesting news.

Class members requested that the soldiers explain the situation and culture overseas.

"I thought it would be interesting to send a letter to them...and getting their impressions of what the Middle East is like," said Vetrano.

He stressed that it was important for the students to extend a "thank you" to the soldiers. The class is still awaiting a reply, he added.

Vetrano said that the press conference was another approach to teaching the global social studies course. "This course can get heavily laden with facts. It's a killer," said Vetrano. "This is the modern age...and we're trying different approaches to the subject matter."

This year, the class appointed a "creative approaches" committee in which six students invent 15 ways to teach the subject matter.

They are given incentives to participate in class discussions by receiving a "green card" every time they verbally take part in discussion. The more cards the students collect the higher their participation grade.

"There's a running dialogue," said Vetrano. "They are an involved group of kids and they have to be given constructive outlets to express themselves."

THE SCHOOL NOTEBOOK

Birthday Celebration At Burns Avenue

The second graders of Burns Avenue School celebrated Johnny Applesseed's birthday. The theme of their program was "Apples, Apples, Apples!"

The children shared their reports, poems and stories about apples with each other. Then a tasting party took place to find the "apple of their eye"! They sampled Macoun, Cortland, Empire and McIntosh apples. As an added treat the class mothers baked "mini" apple muffins and apple cake for all the children to enjoy. Of course, apple juice was served. The favorite of all the children was McIntosh.

Mr. Steve Furrey, Principal of Burns Avenue, joined the second graders and this delicious experience was enjoyed by all. The children are in Mrs. Oliveri's and Mrs. Blaauboer's classes.

THERE GOES MY RAISE.

If you're looking to pay less taxes next April, look into Citibank's 5 tax-advantaged solutions today.

Just what I needed, higher taxes. Another bite out of my paycheck. My money's gone faster than I can earn it. At Citibank we know how you feel about rising taxes. That's why we offer you 5 tax-advantaged solutions.

Save now on next April's taxes with investments. To find out more about investments like Landmark Tax Free Money Market Funds and tax-deferred Landmark Annuities, you can stop by a Citibank branch and talk to a Landmark Account Executive. Annuities are sold only by licensed insurance agents. That's why we at Citibank have arranged for Landmark Financial Services of New York, an independent insurance agency, to offer annuities to our customers at selected Citibank branches. Or you can talk to a Landmark Account Executive about tax-free Unit Investment Trusts, which can be fixed portfolios of tax-exempt bonds.

You can also ask about our Preferred Loan or Home Equity Loan with interest that may still be tax-deductible for house, condo, and co-op owners. So stop by any Citibank branch or call us at 1-800-321-CITI, ext. 9936, Mon.-Fri., 9-9 and Sat., 10-2. The Landmark Funds are sponsored and distributed by the Landmark Funds Broker-Dealer Service, Inc., which is not a Citibank company. Mutual funds, annuities, and ULAs are not obligations of Citibank and are not FDIC-insured. The Preferred Loan is available for 1-4 family houses and co-ops in New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut and for co-ops in New York State. # Police Report

The Second Precinct has reported the following:

Update: After an investigation, two more people were arrested for arson for a fire that took place on Jan. 17, 1990 at 12:37 a.m. at a home on Hewitt Street in Hicksville.

Arrested and charged with three counts of attempted murder in the second degree and one count of arson in the second degree were Michael Camilleri, 21, of Freeport and Richard Prokasky, 23, of Freeport. Arrested last month on one count of arson in the second degree was Robert Scott Funari, 19 of Freeport and Christos Mammias, 18 of Hicksville. All four have been arraigned for the charges.

These arrests came after a four month investigation by Fire Marshal Gregory Caronia and Detective Charles Millar of the Arson Squad with cooperation from the Freeport Police Department.

At the time of the January fire, the owners of the home and their 18-year-old daughter were home at the time. They were not injured. A son, 21, was not home at the time of the incident. The fire started as a result of a blunt object being thrown through the son's bedroom window, followed by a plastic jug that contained an unknown flammable substance, police said.

The Eighth Precinct has reported the following:

September 25—A home on Berry Lane was broken into through a rear door. Jewelry and a CD player were stolen.

September 25—A Bloomingdale Road home was broken into through a side door. Cash and jewelry were stolen.

September 30—Hicksville Pizza on Newbridge Road was broken into through the front door. Cash was included in the loss.

October 6—A 1986 Buick Regal was stolen from Townsend Lane.

October 8—A home on Eighth Avenue was broken into and ransacked. Mode of entry was through a rear door.

October 17—A Holy Trinity High School student was hurt as she was crossing the Newbridge Road at about 3:30 p.m. A driver told police that he swerved to avoid hitting the girl who apparently became frightened, tripped and fell.

The Hicksville Fire Department has reported the following:
October 11—A Hicksville fire ambulance responded to Hicksville High School at about 1:15 p.m. to transport a student to the Nassau County Medical Center. The student was injured when he was hit against a door.

Ebbets Field Cafe Flag Football

The Ebbets Field Cafe Flag Football team of Hicksville beat first place Cousins of Woodmere 18-13 in the "A" Division of the Long Island Flag Football League.

The score was 13-12 with Cousins leading when Ebbets Field regained possession on their own 26 yard line with 3:50 remaining in the game. Ebbets Field then orchestrated a brilliant final drive to give them a come from behind victory in the final minutes of the game. The score came when Randy Alvaeri connected with Kenny Basil for a 22 yard touchdown strike with 42 seconds remaining. Randy Alvaeri went 16 of 19 for 140 yards and three touchdowns.

The offensive line, anchored by Frank Camidge and Dennis Sheehan provided flawless protection throughout the game.

One Of America's Best Run Companies Gives 95% Of Its Money To Charity.

CARE was recently named the best run, best managed charity in America. We aren't surprised. 95% of every dollar we receive goes to help impoverished people. Only 5% goes to run our organization.

Letters From Our Readers

Letters to the editor are welcomed by the editors and publishers of the Anton Community Newspapers. However, they must follow certain guidelines in order for us to print them: they should be as short as possible; we reserve the right to edit in the interest of space; they MUST be signed (a typed name at the bottom will not suffice); they must include an address and telephone number so that we can verify their authenticity.

We receive many fine letters which we would like to share with our readers, but we are unable to use them because they are unsigned or have a typewritten name only.

We cannot publish every letter we receive because of space limitations, but we try to present both sides of all issues. Personal attacks and letters considered to be in poor taste will not be printed.

Twin County Troubles

This letter is being published upon request.

Town Councilman Tom Clark
Oyster Bay Town Board
Audrey Avenue
Oyster Bay, N.Y. 11771

Dear Councilman Clark:

Enclosed is a copy of the Special Use Permit (Resolution No. 896-82) that was granted by the Oyster Bay Town Board to Twin County Recycling Corp. on October 19, 1982.

This document has come to symbolize the daily struggle between two groups of people whose goals are not very different. One group is residents—my neighbors—good, decent, middle-class folks who have worked hard to realize the American dream: a home in a nice community, clean air, good schools, safe streets.

The other group is a corporation. A man or group of men who, in all likelihood also strive for the good life. The corporation stood before the Town Board eight years ago this week and requested permission to operate the business which would bring them the same kinds of rewards that men, women, children, and families everywhere seek.

On October 19, 1982, the Oyster Bay Town Board simultaneously answered the prayers of the corporation and destroyed the dreams of the residents by granting permission to operate an asphalt plant dead smack in the middle of two densely populated residential areas!

Our American dream was turned into a nightmare by this thoughtless, ill-advised, and irresponsible decision.

The purpose of this letter is to announce the "Twin County Countdown", a systematic ticking down of the two years that remain on Twin County's ten year permit.

Late in 1992, the owners of this firm must ask for permission to continue operating the equipment and grounds that have given Hicksville a scar that may never heal.

Two years. Twenty four months. 730 days. A long way off, you say? Not when you consider the hell we have had to endure for eight years. Not when you realize it has taken eight years for the Town of Oyster Bay to take any form of aggressive action against this menace.

Not surprisingly, the company's attorneys have already gotten three adjournments in court. It must be easier to adjourn than it is to stand up to the possible consequences.

It is not too early to start thinking about how you and your colleagues on the Town Board will vote on the request for renewal of the permit. You need only examine Town records and see the complaints, violations, summonses, and fines to get a picture of how Twin County has not only demonstrated total disregard for the community they do business in but has desecrated the community.

The people of the Duffy Park and Northwest sections of Hicksville want Twin County's permit denied and the company itself gone. We want another unanimous vote by the Town Board, only this time it will be unanimous for denial. We want you and the other Board members to remember where your first responsibility lies—with the people you represent, the residents of Hicksville and the rest of Oyster Bay Town.

Two years. It is not often that an elected official gets a chance to atone for a grievous error that their predecessor made ten years earlier. In two years you will be given this chance. For our sake, make the most of it.

David M. Staton

President

Duffy Park Civic Association.

'Eye Pollution'

To The Editor:

Has anyone else noticed how Hicksville and other parts of the Town of Oyster Bay are fast becoming to look like the Bronx or any other part of the dirty city? This is particularly true of advertising. Everywhere you look your eyes are assaulted with Eye Pollution, much of it illegal.

Eventually every phone and light pole will be sprouting hand made billboards selling services or buying junk cars. Along with this the MTA has to cover every railroad trestle with advertisements, all to make a few paltry bucks. Then there are the illegal signs along the expressway. Highways built with Federal money with the stipulation that no billboards be put up closer than 600 feet of the highway.

The only one that is legitimate is the MTA signs and the legislators in Albany should take that privilege away from them.

We have enough Pollution without adding Eye Pollution to the list. Let's get our Political Hacks on the ball to start cleaning up the area and enforcing the Laws that they have passed.

Le Roy Sluder Jr.

Community Park

To The Editor:

The Town of Oyster Bay is looking for a parcel of land to construct a community park for the Town of Hicksville, which is the only major town in the Town of Oyster Bay that does not have a community park.

The Hicksville School District is looking to close an elementary school and sell its property to help its budget problems. The Hicksville School District and the Town of Oyster Bay should get together and discuss the Town's possible purchase of the school and its land. The school could be used as a community building and the land as a park. Hicksville will then have what Bethpage, Syosset, Massapequa, Plainville, etc. have.

Hicksville could have a community pool, lighted sports field for baseball and even a midget football program. Once a year we could have a Hicksville day and celebrate in our park as our Bethpage neighbors do.

I'm sending a copy of this letter to Angelo Deligatti, the Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor, and Catherine Fenton, the Superintendent of schools in Hicksville.

On another note, the Lamb Council's "Knight of the Month" for October is Domenick Tantillo. Congratulations.

Dinner Dance Celebrates Joining Of Two Hospitals

A gala dinner-dance will be held at the Garden City Hotel on Saturday October 20 to celebrate the joining of the Community Hospital at Glen Cove with Manhasset's North Shore University Hospital-Cornell University Medical College. Trustee David S. Taylor, Glen Cove, who served as President of the Community Hospital; and Ralph A. Nappi, Port Washington, North Shore-Cornell's immediate past president, will be the guests of honor.

According to Rollin A. Sontag, who is chairing the dinner with his wife Joan, the event will be a "grand celebration, marking a combination that will help to improve the quality of medical care for residents of Long Island's North Shore."

Under the agreement, which was finalized last Spring, the 256-bed acute care Community Hospital becomes a member of the North Shore Regional Health Services Corporation. That corporation includes the medical college—a 705 bed tertiary care institution; the Center for Extended Care and Rehabilitation, a 250 bed skilled nursing home; and the Boas-Marks Biomedical Science Research Center.

The public is invited to attend the gala dinner-dance. Call the Development Office of North Shore University Hospital, 562-4773, for further information.

NORTH SHORE UNIVERSITY and the Community Hospital of Glen Cove will become one soon. Trustees David Taylor and Ralph Nappi (l-r) of the two hospitals will be honored at a dinner celebrating the joining of the two hospitals on October 20 at the Garden City Hotel.

The Investor's Corner

By Dr. Joseph P. Frey

It's More Than PE's—Part III

For the past two weeks we have looked at some investing numbers. This series is intended to make the individual investor more knowledgeable about individual companies and the investment in them. It is intended to give you the necessary background so that you can make intelligent investing decisions; to enable you to sleep at night.

At the same time we have looked at the economy and the budget process. We have referred to this as the dance of the politicians as they try to give us a budget that reduces the deficit without pain to anyone. It is an impossible task since all of the House and 1/3 of the Senate are up for reelection. The best they can hope for is that they all get tarnished with the same brush.

Things are not right. The economy is unraveling. They always do. Stock prices are falling. At this writing (Oct. 12) the market is up after a week of falling. It will continue an up and down (mostly down) pattern for some time. When it finishes (and before) there will be (are now) tremendous bargains for the knowledgeable investor. That's why we have been doing this series.

The next high will be much higher than the last one. This should be sometime in late 1991 or early 1992. The low which the market is going toward will be between 2000 and 2200. This is going to happen sometime in early 1991.

The recession that we are in will not be severe. The economy of the world is too robust for this to happen. Europe has too much rebuilding to do as they offset the damage of the communist regimes.

We have to be ready for the turnaround. As steady readers of this column know, my advice has been as follows: if you are a stock buyer you should be mostly in cash, money market funds or 5-7 year treasuries. If you are a dollar cost average buyer of mutual funds, continue your purchases without fear. If you have a good sound stock, one you have confidence in for the long run, buy more whether it is up or down. This is exactly what your writer has done with his own and clients' portfolios.

Just as markets go down, they turn around again. To get YOU ready for the turnaround we have to continue with some more numbers because it is more than PE's. There are only a few more to look at in our quest for a great stock.

YOU WANT A STOCK WITH A LOW UNFUNDED PENSION POSITION. The ERISA law of 1975 changed all pension systems. Before that time companies would grant pensions to their employees without putting away a dime to make sure there was money available to pay them. Some did not put away enough. It was an easy and painless way for them to give a fringe benefit. It did not hurt the present profits (pension payments are a cost of doing business). It meant that people who counted on a retirement often did not have them. The law corrected a lot of abuses.

A Letter from Lulabelle...

...Halloween is fast approaching and bringing memories of fall and spooks in the long ago days when I was little...and I see myself walking home from school, not on the sidewalk, oh, no, walking through the leaves in the gutter scuffling along and getting my feet completely black...and later, when those leaves were burned, how I remember the lovely smell and how I miss it now that we all are so environmentally conscious...and in school we were so busy with our orange and black decorations...Every window in the classroom had a "masterpiece" complete with pumpkin, witch, broomstick, bat, or what have you?...We were all convinced we were artists with our colored paper, scissors and white paste...We did not wear costumes to school on Halloween—that custom came in later when my kids were little...and I made an elephant suit, a cat, a ballerina, a clown and even a kangaroo among those better forgotten...But, for us, Halloween night was great fun—no trick or treating in my area—that was on Thanksgiving...We would fill an old stocking with flour and go around hitting each other with it...And I do remember that some older boys would take gates off the fences and hide them, but we never did any throwing of eggs—they were much too expensive to waste like that...And what fun we had all day on Halloween carving our pumpkins...Do you remember the icky gook that is inside a pumpkin?...It always seemed to me that I would never finish digging it out onto the newspaper I had spread on my front steps—My Mother wouldn't let us work inside—too many seeds!...My pump-kin's face never came out right...One eye never matched the other and he always looked quite dopey...and sometimes I made his mouth so wide that the candle inside nearly fell out—and remember how we tried to make him snaggel-toothed, but the teeth usually fell off...And then when the night came and we lit our candle and put the cover on, do you remember that burning pumpkin smell?...And then it was time to go in the house and we left the pumpkin on the steps—and in the morning it seems to me it was always broken in the street where the "big kids" had dropped it after I went to bed...Like all holidays when we are little, it was very special...and we should be sure that, although very different, holidays are made just as special for our kids and grandkids.

If a company went bankrupt, so did their pensions. ERISA changed all of that. Now companies must put the money aside in a special approved fund. The government insures the pensions. The pension plan must be registered with the government. Even in bankruptcy the pensions money must be paid.

The companies that DID NOT put away adequate funds have to make up the shortfall over a 40 year period. This is the unfunded pension liability. The amount can be into the billions of dollars. You can see it is a liability that will not go away in a short period of time. It will be a drag on earnings for a long time. Things that depress earnings keep stock prices down.

So... Let us summarize our series. You want your ideal stock to have: A LOW PE, A LOW BOOK VALUE, a good CASH POSITION, a RISING DIVIDEND, a LOW DEBT and HIGH NET CASH (net of debt), a solid EARNINGS GROWTH, a LOW UNFUNDED PENSION POSITION and a company OR a company that is in industry that is OUT OF FAVOR with the investing public.

I have such a company in my own and clients' portfolios. It is a S&L which has just raised its dividend, taken over the only building that was in default on a mortgage, has no S&L craziness on its balance sheet, has growing profitability, and stable long time management and a falling stock price.

I liked it when it was issued at 8-1/2 (I do not buy new issues). I liked it at 7 when I first purchased it, I liked it even better at 5 when I bought more. I still like it more now that it is slightly below 5. The dividend yield is about 9+ percent at its present price. It is a stock that should not lose money (it is possible, but I cannot see how). It may take some patience. Value investors are supposed to have that.

I have never done this before. I do not know if the readers want me to do it now. This will be an experiment. If anyone would like the name of this stock just drop me a post card to this newspaper with your name, address and telephone number. I, or an associate, will contact you quickly so that YOU can apply the same criteria that I use before you decide that it is a good or bad investment for you.

Cocktail Party

The Hicksville Republican Committee will hold its annual cocktail party on Sunday, Oct. 28, between 4 and 7 p.m. at Antun's, 244 Old Country Road, Hicksville. The "International Cuisine" reception will have several buffet tables featuring delicacies from other lands. This format has proved to be quite enjoyable during the last two years. Additionally, WCB5-FM Program Director Dennis Falcone will be providing the afternoon's musical entertainment.

This event is the only fund raiser the Hicksville G.O.P. will hold during the campaign season. The proceeds will assist many of the local candidates who are seeking office in November. In fact, all candidates for the Hicksville area—including Congressman Norman Lent, Senators Ralph Marino, Mike Tully and Kemp Hannon, and Assemblyman Fred Parola and Dan Frisa—have been invited to attend. Tickets are $40 each. Please contact your area Republican committeeman or committeewoman or call 938-2848 for tickets and more information.

Candidates Night

Last Friday evening the Hicksville Republican Club held Candidates Night at the monthly general membership meeting. More than 150 members attended to listen to New York Assemblyman Fred Parola and the 1990 judicial candidates. Candidates for the State Supreme Court who attended were Justices John Burke, Sam Fiero and Marvin Goodman. Justice A. Raymond Radigan spoke of his desire to continue as Nassau County's Surrogate Judge, a position that administers adoptions and wills. Justice Marc Mogil, the youngest jurist ever selected to the District Court, announced his intentions to seek a position on the Nassau County Court. Justice Zelda Jonas discussed her bid for a seat on the Nassau County District Court.

Hicksville Blasts Merrick In Soccer Match

The Hicksville Minutemen 1977 B travelling soccer team scored an impressive 6-3 victory over the Merrick Eagles on Sunday, Oct. 4, at Cantiague Park, led by a three-goal, first half hat trick by striker, Jorge DaSilva.

The Minutemen put on the offensive pressure from the game's opening whistle, scoring three goals in the first 18 minutes. At the five minute mark, DaSilva converted a Kenny D'Introno pass. Merrick came back to tie at the 12 minute mark, but the score further ignited the Hicksville offensive effort. DaSilva hit Tommy Coffey with a perfect cross, which he carried around three defenders, converting at the 14 minute mark. DaSilva then was knocked into the goal post, as he went up for a header. When play resumed, the Minutemen had a corner kick which was perfectly placed by Anthony Noya, and headed in by DaSilva. For the next 15 minutes, there was strong, end to end soccer and at the 33 minute mark, D'Introno again set up DaSilva who put in his third, for a 4-1 halftime lead.

The Eagles poured on the offensive pressure to open the second half, but Hicksville's defense, led by goalkeeper Bobby Braun, rose to the challenge. Greg Walunas, at sweeper, hit Coffey, with a long clearing pass which he converted into a goal, from 25 yards out, on a breakaway, three minutes into the second half. Merrick came back to make it 5-2 shortly. Seventeen minutes into the second half, Coffey backed passing to the charging Jason Brown, who put the ball in the net for a 6-2 lead. Merrick came back to make it 6-3. The game's final 10 minutes saw both teams with numerous chances but the defenses held off the offense.

The balance of the Minutemen were Tim Dalton, with a superb game at left fullback; Richard Werchenski with effective play at sweeper and fullback; Andres Turcios, with a great game at halfback; Alcino Silva who hustled at wing and halfback; Bobby Wagner who showed aggressiveness from the wing position; and Danny dePinho who gave it his all from wing and sweeper. Congratulations to the team, Coach Tony dePinho, Assistant Al Blicher, and Sponsor Seaman & Eisemann, for an exciting, winning contest.

ARE YOU OVERLOOKING LONG ISLAND'S WILDEST NIGHTLIFE?

The black-crowned night heron (Nycticorax nycticorax) is a mostly nocturnal native Long Islander who is highly discriminating. You won't find him at just any watering hole. And for dinner the fish had better be fresh, the ambience unhurried.

You might say the black-crowned night heron is a hard bird to please. But The Nature Conservancy has been working hard for 38 years to provide the night heron and hundreds of other animals and plants the finest accommodations available on Long Island.

We've saved 18,000 acres of ecologically significant land on Long Island alone, from the last 19-acre remnant of the Hempstead Plains to our 2,000-acre Mashomack Sanctuary on Shelter Island. Nationwide, we've preserved nearly 4 million acres of forest, prairie, desert, island, and mountain. And our international program is fighting to save the world's rapidly vanishing rain forest. You can help The Nature Conservancy do its vitally important work. For $15, not much more than the cover charge for one of Long Island's hottest night spots, you can become a member of the Long Island Chapter. You will receive the Long Island Chapter Newsletter and

The Nature Conservancy Magazine to keep you informed of Conservancy activities. As a member of the Long Island Chapter, you can participate in hikes and education programs led by experienced naturalists, and you are welcome to volunteer to take part in Chapter operations.

If you're concerned about Long Island—not just about its native flora and fauna but also about the water we drink, the air we breathe, and the quality of life here—we urge you to give us a hand. Just call (516)367-3225. You can help protect your environment. And you can have a wild time!

Please enroll me as a member of The Nature Conservancy. My $15.00 check is enclosed.

Dramatic NY Return For Soviet Emigre

"She played as if invincible"

That's what the Washington Post said in April 1982 after a performance by Bella Davidovich. Apparently, when you're recognized as a great classical pianist, accumulating praise like that is part of the game.

In the case of Mme. Davidovich, at least, who is kicking off the New York area segment of her international recital tour at the Tilles Center in C.W. Post this week, that sort of acclaim is something approaching routine.

But considering that it's been ten years since the New York Times hailed her American recital debut as a "whirling, supercharged performance of great brilliance," and considering her years as a top performer in the Soviet art world; there's been a lot of performances along the way from which praise could be culled.

We're not talking backwater locations here, mind you. Mme. Davidovich's performances over the years have included the top halls in the world.

Throughout her career, in fact, Mme. Davidovich has performed with the world's leading conductors, including Kiril Kondrashin, Neville Marriner, Eugene Ormandy, David Oistrakh, Msitislav Rostropovich, Maxim Shostakovich, Yevgeny Svetlanov, Michael Tilson Thomas, and others.

Currently, Mme Davidovich's performance itinerary, which has carried her from Mexico and California to here, includes a special performance at Long Island University, C.W. Post Campus, October 19, 1990... followed by an October 21 performance at Carnegie Hall, and an October 24th performance at the United Nations.

Born into a family of musicians—her mother and sister were accompanists and her grandfather concertmaster at the local opera house in Baku Russia—Bella Davidovich displayed her rich musical talent at the age of three, and began formal training at the age of six. Davidovich was 18 when she entered the Moscow Conservatory, became professor of the famed Conservatory and taught there for sixteen years. In 1949 she won first prize in the Chopin Competition in Warsaw, earning her the title "Deserving Artist of the Soviet Union."

A soloist with the Leningrad Philharmonic for 28 consecutive seasons, Mme. Davidovich was carefully guarded by the Soviet authorities from exposure to the West, and was allowed to concertize only in Italy and Holland. So, when Harold Schonberg of The New York Times heard her in Moscow in 1967, he declared "(she) deserves to be heard in the capitals of the world."

Fortunately for the capitals of the world, circumstances resulted in Mme. Davidovich's departure from the Soviet regime. One of the few women to be admitted to the inner circle of Russian cultural life, she has established herself in the US as one of the few women to achieve international prominence. Her October 1979 American debut at Carnegie Hall before a standing room only crowd heralded a new chapter in a career of major importance.

During 1990/91, Mme Davidovich tours the US with the Czech Philharmonic and conductor Jiri Belohlavek, including a nationally televised concert at the UN as part of her schedule. In Europe, she will be making tours of Germany, Italy, Holland, Sweden, and Finland, in a recital and as soloist with leading orchestras.

A note on Perestroika: Mme Davidovich has done her part in all that, becoming the first Soviet emigre musician to receive an official invitation to perform in her native country. She played concertos, a recital with violinist Dmitry Sitkovetsky (her son), and chamber music with the Borodin String Quartet to sold-out halls—and also made a triumphant visit to Poland at that time.

For information on the upcoming concerts, contact the Tilles Center or Carnegie Hall representatives.

MME BELLA DAVIDOVICH, a Soviet Emigre who tours the world of classical music each season as a top performing artist, comes to the Tilles Center at C.W. Post, Carnegie Hall and the United Nations on the New York leg of her current tour.

by Ellen Burke, Food Correspondent

Gala Fall Event Will Run Throughout October At This Landmark Waterside Inn

The spectacle of a brilliant fall season is reaching new heights at Captain Bill's this year with a fabulous "Oktoberfest" which celebrates the changing of the seasons with unique cuisine from Europe as well as a unusual selection of wines and beers rarely found in the New York area.

Traditional Foods From Western Europe... And Then Some!

Janice August, who will greet you graciously at the door of Captain Bill's, will point you to a menu which is truly varied for this fall season. Viener Schnitzle with dumplings, Sauerkraut and Knockworst and even home-made spaetzle. These traditional German dishes are presented with a varied selection of wines and beers imported especially for the fall Oktoberfest season. Wines from the Rhine Valley, Schwartzkatz, Riesling will add just the right touch; and a complete selection of beers which are not normally available.

"Of course," Janice pointed out, "Our normal menu of great local seafood and American traditional fare won't change a bit during Oktoberfest - the Oktoberfest is above and beyond!! By the way, we will feature an "Oompah Band" several times during the Oktoberfest -- We're always going to do something special like this for every season!"

And Thanksgiving Is Coming Too!

Thanksgiving this year will be special at Captain Bill's -- Janice and the crew will continue with Holiday Decorations, and more important -- Captain Bill's will be open all day Thanksgiving day -- but reservations are a must -- imagine -- Turkey and Lobster for Thanksgiving! # Black Tie Affair Marks Toys For Tots

Take me to the ball!

For those interested in attending one of the more glamorous events of the autumn season, only days remain to purchase tickets to the Second Annual Toyland Ball, to benefit the United States Marine Corps Reserve Toys for Tots Program. Scheduled for Sunday, October 21, 1990 at 7:30 pm, the black-tie affair will kick off the Marines' 1990 toy collection campaign. To be held at the Roosevelt Field Shopping Center in Garden City, the event is expected to attract a glittering collection of some of the more prestigious and well-known business and political leaders on Long Island.

What's more, the Shopping Center will undergo a total transformation for the evening.

"Last year, guests were treated to a first class party," said Joseph P. Cilia, General Manager of Roosevelt Field. "We have gone through months and months of planning to make sure this year's Toyland Ball is equally entertaining."

The overall purpose of the event, of course, is to gather toys. Each year, they are gathered from throughout Nassau County and channeled through the Marine Corps Reserve base in Garden City, to children who would not otherwise open a package during the holiday season.

The Toys for Tots program was established in 1947 by the Marines. Last year, some twenty-five thousand toys were collected and distributed. When the counting was over, in fact, they determined that the result had been a whopping 47 percent increase from the previous year.

"It's reports like this that make all our work worth the effort," said Cilia.

Cilia acknowledges that it's hard for people to start thinking of Christmas, with Columbus Day just behind us. "But if we want this year's collection to equal that of 1989, we have to start working now," he pointed out.

Congressman Raymond J. McGrath, chairman of the 1990 Toyland Ball Committee, is enthusiastic about the turnout. "As the date gets closer and last minute details are worked out, the excitement surrounding the ball continues to mount," he said. The 1990 Toyland Ball committee is vice-chaired by Anton Publications head Karl Anton, Jr., and Women's Record publisher Jane Gitlin. Hempstead Presiding Supervisor Joseph N. Mondello serves as honorary Chairman.

THE TOYLAND BALL IS COMING to Roosevelt Field, and with it the beginning of a US Marine Corps Reserve program which can help create the magic of Christmas in the hearts of some of the neediest children on Long Island this season.

According to McGrath, the purpose of the ball is not necessarily to raise money. "The purpose is to begin this year's toy collection with an impressive number of toys and to raise the visibility of the program," he said. To do this, each guest at the Toyland Ball must bring at least one new, unwrapped toy for a child.

In return, each guest receives a complimentary entry into a special drawing which will take place during the evening's festivities.

The ultimate objective? To get a shiny new toy into the hands of a child who would otherwise have no package to open during the holiday season.

For those who are interested in helping the Marines and Roosevelt Field by attending the Toyland Ball, tickets are still available at $100 each from Roosevelt Field Mall. Call 516-742-8000.

Otherwise, watch for information on how to give a toy to the program in the following weeks. You'd be amazed at how important a small act of generosity and love can be to the little ones who are on the receiving end.

Halloween Show Benefits LI Hospital

By Dave Mock

Longtime fans of the Otto the Ghost show at Hicks Nurseries in Westbury have noticed a different twist to the storyline this Halloween season.

For the first time, the live-action children's show with moving figures will not only be an entertainer, but a fundraiser. Although admission to the Otto show is free as always, visitors are asked to contribute change to the Child Life program at Winthrop-University Hospital in Mineola.

The special show has been running since mid-September. After Halloween, the nursery will present a check to the hospital representing the total contribution from Hicks patrons, according to nursery president Fred Hicks.

The hospital's benefits are shown through the storyline. Otto and his friends are saddened that one of their playmates is sick—and decide to visit the sick friend at the hospital. The youngster is cheered by the presence of his pals and becomes well again—eventually than expected. By Halloween, he's back trick-or-treating with Otto and friends.

But that's not all. Just as Otto helped his friends recover, he tells visitors to the show how they can help—by contributing to the Child Life Program.

According to Mr. Hicks, whose family has operated the nursery since 1853, the program not only helps out the program financially, but also gives the hundreds of kids who walk through the Otto show a chance to lessen some of their fears about going to the hospital.

Winthrop-University Hospital spokesman John Broder said that the Child Life program is an integral part of the pediatric services provided by the hospital, the oldest in Nassau County. The special Otto show provides residents "to help children who may not be well enough to be out there trick-or-treating during the Halloween period," Mr. Broder said.

"The individuals thus far have been tremendously giving," he added. "We're very appreciative of that support."

If the number of people visiting the nursery to see Otto and his pals (the waiting time going into the show last Sunday was 10 minutes) is any indication, the support would be enough to make even a ghost proud.

A ROMANTIC EVENING of ballet by Glen Cove's Fedicheva Ballet Company will be performed this weekend at Queensborough Community College.

Romantic Ballet Evening

The United Dance Arts Foundation of LI presents the Fedicheva Ballet Company with its tall repertoire: "Romantic Evening," Saturday October 20th at 7:30 pm and Sunday, October 21 at 2:30 pm, at Queensborough Community College on 56th Avenue in Bayside. For those unfamiliar with that, try exit 29 on the LIE.

Three exciting ballets will be performed: Les Sylphides (Chopiniana), choreography by Fokine; Feux Follets, music by Vivaldi, choreography by Fedicheva; and Pas de Quatre, Dolin. Former prima ballerina of the Kirov Ballet in Leningrad, Kaleria Fedicheva, is staging each performance.

The Fedicheva Ballet Company, located in Glen Cove, was established in 1975, working in the purely Russian classical tradition of Agrippina Vaganova. Led by Kaleria Fedicheva, it is one of the few accredited programs in the classical field that follows, with the utmost degree of purity, the Vaganova tradition of her Kirov Ballet training.

Tickets range from $9 to $15. Call (516) 627-5159 for more information.

2 ♣	Pass	2 ♠	Pass
2 NT	Pass	3 NT	Pass
Pass	Dble

Opening lead — three of spades.

The opening lead plays a vital role in many hands. In this extraordinary case from a rubber bridge game, West was Alvin Roth, New York expert. His double of three notrump was bold as well as imaginative, but it would have failed dismally had he chosen the wrong opening lead.

For example, if he had led a diamond, as many players in his place would have done, South would have made four notrump for a score of 650 points (counting the value of a non-vulnerable game as 300 points). Similarly, had Roth led a heart or a club, South would have made three notrump for a score of 550 points.

But Roth led a spade and South was a dead duck. In desperation, he played dummy's queen, which lost to the king, and oddly enough South immediately got squeezed. He was looking at nine cold tricks, but with the opponents on lead he was in bad shape. Reluctant to part with a winner, he discarded a diamond. East thereupon returned a diamond, taken by West's jack.

Now Roth made the excellent play of the jack of spades, followed by a low spade. He wanted to be sure that East would return a diamond when he took the ace of spades. Roth was afraid that, if he led the four instead of the jack, East might suddenly get nervous and return a spade to assure defeat of the contract.

East did return a diamond, and the defense wound up scoring four spades and five diamonds to inflict a 900-point defeat. All of which can be attributed to a well-judged double, and — lest we forget — a well-judged opening lead.

When You Wish Upon A Child...

you can make a wish
come true.

■ There are hundreds of children right here in our communities who have special wishes, but perhaps a limited time in which to accomplish them.

While the foundation and agencies
looking for cures still need your dollars, all we're asking for is a wish come true
...to light up 4 year old Melissa's eyes, a leukemia victim, when you tell her she's going to Disney World this summer...or see the joy in 12 year old Ernie's eyes when we can give him plane tickets to California to see his grandma one more time.

Call today and see how you can help a dream come true.
