Celebrating Victory And Homecoming

Thousands Turn Out For County Welcome Home Parade/Party

By Nancy Fischetti

After leading their nation to victory in the Persian Gulf, Desert Storm service people led a gala parade and celebration at the Nassau Coliseum Sunday afternoon.

An estimated 25,000 Nassau County residents turned out to formally welcome the troops home in the largest celebration of its kind. The military personnel, together with their families and friends, led more than 4,000 marchers along Charles Lindbergh Boulevard in Uniondale while supporters cheered their efforts and safe return.

Following the parade, a USO show, featuring the Nassau Symphony Orchestra and the Long Island Philharmonic Chorus, continued the celebration.

The Coliseum was bedecked in patriotic colors, with a balloon arch over the stage and tables with red, white and blue cloths and yellow centerpieces on the floor where the families sat and enjoyed the show.

"This is the greatest thing that has happened in our whole life," said one woman, whose son had just returned from Saudi Arabia Saturday.

Among the highlights of the afternoon was a heartwarming tribute to First Sgt. Joe Murphy, the only Nassau County resident to die during the crisis in the Gulf. Murphy's family said that the support from area residents has helped them to cope with their loss.

The thousands who attended the Coliseum joined in on spirited renditions of patriotic medleys and many were moved by Lisa Nicole Molina, an Oyster Bay resident, and her rendition of You Are The Wind Beneath My Wings.

The spirit of the day was captured in many ways, as marchers sported Desert Storm T-shirts and American flags waved nearly everywhere. A keepsake program, distributed free to parade-watchers and showgoers by its publisher Anton Publications, was a well-received souvenir. One father of a serviceman was thrilled to see his son's name in the program's centerspread "Operation Desert Storm Honor Roll," especially since it had not appeared in other publications.

The entire event was funded by private contributions, including the free use of the Coliseum. County officials said that donations are still being accepted to offset costs and to establish a scholarship fund for the children of Nassau's service people. Anyone interested in contributing should send donations to Nassau Welcome Home Committee, 99 Quentin Roosevelt Boulevard, Garden City, NY 11530.

Board Adopts $49.8 M Budget

By Peggy Theis

After meticulously studying portions of the proposed 1991-92 budget for months, the Hicksville School Board unanimously adopted a budget figure of $49,814,000 at its April 24 Public Budget Hearing.

This amount is $58,182 less than the austerity figure adopted by the Board in September. The community will have the opportunity to vote on this budget—referred to as Proposition 1—and two additional propositions on May 22. Voter registration takes place on May 8 from 3-8 p.m. at local polling sites.

In preparing for the 1991-92 budget review, a majority of the Board had favored a line-by-line approach with input from the Citizens Budget Advisory Committee (CBAC), which was formed in October. This difficult and extremely slow perusal of the Budget Codes left the Board with little time to complete Code 2000 (Instructional Ser-VICES). The board eventually voted to approve Superintendent Dr. Catherine Fenton's recommendations on Code 2000 without line-by-line discussion.

While trustee William Bennett initially motioned to have the budget reduced by an additional $214,000 which he felt could be made up by salary savings as teachers retired, Trustee Arlene Rudin indicated a desire to go almost a million dollars lower. She wanted Fenton to make the necessary decreases in the budget without cutting from programs. However, Fenton said both Bennett and Rudin's proposed cuts would affect programs and questioned why she was being asked to make cuts without Board input. She said cutting $214,000 would cause her to make changes affecting programs: elimination of drivers education which she said was inefficient, possibly two teaching positions, and the reduction of computer equipment purchases.

Trustee James Martillo said while he was in favor of reducing the Budget, he was concerned with the elimination of drivers education which he said was an "integral part of education" that teaches students how to drive safely. High School Richard Hogan said that dropping this program would cause a "real hardship" for some students and that similar courses offered by private schools in the area would not be able to absorb Hicksville's students.

After Bennett's motion to set the budget at $49,600,000 was defeated, 4-1, he proposed the $49,814,000 figure, which was the amount calculated by Assistant Superintendent William Hall as the bottom line after making Fenton's recommended cuts. The board then unanimously adopted that figure prompting Board President Carole Wolf to say "Let's hope this budget passes". If not, she said "we'll have to look at things like driver's ed."

Ronnie said she is looking forward to seeing them again.

My—I must be getting old. I remember Ralph as a kid attending Burns Avenue Elementary School.

Guess How Many Jellybeans?

Have you every tried that game where you have to guess how many jellybeans are in the jar? Everytime I guess, I'm usually off by a couple of hundred. Old Country School held such a contest and the big winner was Athena Mihalatos. She really came close to guessing the correct number. Athena guessed 765; there were 776 beans in the jar. She was awarded a $15 gift certificate. Wow!

Athena Mihalatos with Old Country Road principal Mrs. Silver. Athena came the closest to the number of jelly beans in a jar.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cupolo

Wedding Announcement

When Cyndi met Joe it was "way back when" at Holy Trinity High School.

But on February 23, an equally historic event occurred: Cynthia Van Nostrand and Joseph Cupolo were married at an evening ceremony in Port Washington.

The theme was, appropriately, "Miracles Happen!" Happily sharing in the event were the bride's parents, Millie and Joe, who came up from Florida, and a host of family and friends—from Hicksville—who shared in the couple's special day.

John has three brothers, George, Kris and Scott who also greeted him upon his arrival in April. Equally ecstatic was his cousin, Matt Greco, 11, who wrote John at least one letter a day since Oct. 1. (Matt is the son of Rosemary (Powers) Greco, a 1969 Hicksville graduate).

"Welcome home John. We love you and are so proud of you and all the other troops who helped to keep America the Beautiful!"

Spring Clean-Up For Willet Avenue Area

Midland Civic Association is planning its annual clean-up and flower planting on Saturday, May 18 and is asking the community for help.

The spruce-up will take place at 10 a.m. on the corner of Willet Avenue and Bethpage Road—a street divider shaped as a triangle. Rain date is June 1. Come with plastic bags, rakes or brooms and pick-up sticks. If you plan to attend, call Gert Paul, beautification committee member, at 931-1740. Leave a message.

"For the beautification portion of our program, there is good news," Gert Paul said. "Through the efforts of Town Councilman Leonard Kunzig, Richard Betz and Teddy Zervos, both of the Town of Oyster Bay Parks Departments, our triangles will be redone in the fall. For this season, Mr. Betz offered to roto-till the perimeter of both triangles so that we can plant annuals."

The Beautification Committee consists of Gail Gomula, Ellie Draycott, Eileen Richards, Sonia De Silva, Nimia Montanez.

"We want to plant loads of flowers for real visual impact," said Gert Paul. "Do join us in their effort!"

Extended Deadline For School Taxes

Oyster Bay Town Receiver of Taxes Gary F. Musiello reminds residents that the second half of the 1990-1991 School Tax Levy which was due on April 1, can be paid without penalty through May 10.

"By law, a taxpayer has a 40-day grace period from the date the tax is due during which payment may be made without penalty," Musiello explained. "After the 40 days, a 1 percent penalty is added for each month the tax remains unpaid, retroactive to April 1."

Residents can pay in person at the Tax Office, Oyster Bay Town Hall West, Audrey Avenue, Oyster Bay, or at Town Hall South, 977 Hicksville Rd., Massapequa. In addition, the Town Clerk's Annex located at Newbridge Road and Duffy Avenue, Hicksville, will be open to accept payments, by check only, from 9 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. on May 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10.

Payments made by mail must be postmarked no later than May 10.

When paying the bill in person, residents are reminded to bring the entire tax bill with their payment.

By Cathy Greenfield and Rita Langdon

When Lynn Lopardo went to LaGuardia Airport on April 18 she thought she was there to help celebrate the homecoming of a neighbor's boyfriend.

But in fact, she was there to celebrate the homecoming of her own son, Darren, who has been in the Persian Gulf since October.

Lynn's friend, JoAnne Renneisen, arranged for the surprise with Darren's brother, Joey. Even Darren didn't know about the arrangement and when he exited the plane he said he was surprised to see the large group of people waving flags and banners and holding welcome home signs.

Darren added, "They slayed me at the airport... and then Mom tackles me. I didn't expect the crowd!"

"He shocked the heck out of me," said Lynn. "It's a good thing I had a strong heart!"

Lynn was busy cleaning for Darren's arrival, scheduled for April 20, when she got a call from a member of the Mid Island Support Group for Desert Storm of which Lynn is a member. Lynn was lead to believe that the boyfriend of support group member Betty Ann Giardana was arriving home from the Gulf.

"I had so much cleaning to do, but I decided that it was more important to be there for support and I dropped everything and went to the airport!" She added, "I didn't even get a chance to make all my yellow bows to decorate our house... but it doesn't matter... my son's home now!"

The Lopardos held an open house for family and friends on April 21 and Darren had many stories to tell. Interviewed that afternoon at his Bridle Lane home, Darren said that while he was stationed in Saudi Arabia he tried to get in touch with John Renneisen, also of Hicksville, who has been stationed overseas for many months now. Each time he reached the location where John was supposed to be, John's unit had moved on. John's mother is also a member of the Mid Island Support Group which is based in Hicksville.

While stationed in Saudi Arabia, Darren said he received letters from Hicksville school children. He wrote a post card to every student in the second grade class at Holy Family School and plans to visit that class in person when he returns to Hicksville again on leave sometime in May.

After Darren arrived home, a youngster from the Holy Family class, Lisa Matera, brought Darren red, white and blue carnations and gave him a hug and a kiss. Darren said, "This is the first time I ever got flowers."

Other visitors at his home were his third grade teacher Mrs. Dillon of Old Country Road School and other local people—including the Knapps, McCarthys and Gunnings—whose sons recently returned from the Gulf.

Grant Sought To Help Laid Off Workers

If Grant's Approved, It Will Help Unemployed Grumman Workers

By Rita Langdon

Town of Oyster Bay Supervisor Angelo Delligatti is seeking a $5 million federal grant to aid the 1,900 Grumman Corporation employees soon to be laid off.

If the grant is approved, the Town's Department of Intergovernmental Affairs, Division of Employment and Training, will be able to assist Grumman workers in finding employment in the private sector. The U.S. Secretary of Labor Discretionary Grant funds are made available to provide training and employment services to individuals.

The town secured a $1 million grant in 1988 from the U.S. Secretary of Labor for the purpose of assisting Grumman employees who were laid off in 1989 and 1990. These funds helped the individuals in preparing for and locating demand occupations.

"We served 315 people," said town spokesperson Phyllis Barry. "People come to us and we give them vocational training, re-training, job placement and help with resumes."

The grant the town is now seeking would assist those Grumman employees expected to be laid off this year. "We knew there were going to be layoffs at Grumman, so we applied for the grant ahead of time," said Barry.

If the grant is approved, re-training courses and resume help will be available at Oyster Bay Town Hall South at 977 Hicksville Rd., Massapequa.

A TOUCH OF HICKSVILLE HISTORY

Remembering Hicksville With Fond Memories

This story was sent to the Illustrated by Eleanor (Finnegan) Cramer in response to some articles we ran in past issues by Tommy Heltz.

By Eleanor (Finnegan) Cramer

When I read the stories Tommy Heltz wrote it brought back so many memories.

My brother, Richie Finnegan, who Tommy writes about, was a wonderful kid. He never complained about anything. He was one of the little rascals . . . he always wanted to make people laugh. At the end of his life he worked for the Plainview School District and everyday he had a little joke for the people he worked with—just to make them laugh. They all loved him and I know all of them miss him as much as we do since his death from a massive heart attack in 1976 at the age of 49.

Now let me tell you how I remember Hicksville.

I remember Yacob . . . he was the town character. He never was a trouble-maker. In the winter he would wear two or three overcoats and he would wrap his legs up in newspapers. In the morning he would drop his tin pail off at the beer-garden and the bartenders would dump all the beer that customers left in their glasses into his pail. At the end of the day he would stop by to pick it up.

We used to have gatemen to put the gates up and down at all our railroad crossings. We had no blinking lights or automatic gates.

We had a patrolman walking the beat on Broadway all the time. I remember one cop by the name of Rogers. He would swing his cop's club while he walked. We really respected him.

BOB HANNIGAN, Red Schnepf, Mary Ellis Schnepf and Eleanor Finnegean Cramer.

I wonder how many people still remember the barbershop in Plainview where you got a shave for 10 cents and a haircut for 20 cents. The barbers were my Uncle Dan Baumeister and my brother, Fred Baumeister. Fred was a real dog man and he loved telling stories about hunting with his dogs. Many people bought their first dog from him. He just celebrated his 80th birthday and he still loves to talk about dogs. He lives in Huntington Station and I know he would love to hear from some of his old friends.

The price of movies was 10 cents on Saturday and 15 cents on Sunday. We saw beautiful movies in those days.

I lived on Harrison Avenue. I think it was the best section in town because we had plenty of playmates . . . like the Stiocco, Christiansen, Meirzejewski, Subrek, Hannigan, Brown, Schnepf, Cardella, Brigandi and Heltz families—plus all the other kids that came from other parts of the town to play.

I remember Melvin Roback. He was such a good guy. He was killed in World War II along with the Sullivan brothers.

We—that is—Red Schnepf, Mary Ellis,

Bob Hannigan and me would borrow Melvin's car while he worked in the factory—and go joy-riding. Nobody knew how to drive except me, because my brother Frank had a car with spark and gas on the steering wheel. (Do any of you remember that?) The boys would try to drive, but gave up. It was fun because if you ran into trouble you could drive into a potato field.

We all went ice skating at the Milleridge Pond, or sleigh-riding in the streets behind cars. Dangerous—but what did we know.

Another thing I remember is that we never locked our doors—not even at night. Now I keep my doors locked in the daytime while I'm home.

I'm so grateful that after all these years I still see—and communicate with—so many of these dear and great old friends.

I've always said that Florida is a nice place to visit. I usually spent the winter there—but comes April 1st, I can't wait to get back to Hicksville . . . that's my home!

Reminiscing About Yesteryear

By Richard Evers

Gregory Museum Historian

More than 50 members and guests of the Hicksville Historical Society crowded the Community Room of the Hicksville Public Library last week, for a charming reminiscence of old-time life in Jericho.

Guest speaker Phoebe Underhill Smith held her audience enthralled with an amusing, delightful recollection of her girlhood on a general farm, in those great years before the Long Island Expressway cleverleaf approach destroyed the historic old crossroads village.

Mrs. Smith, wife of the late Dr. Morley Smith, a prominent Hicksville physician, also recalled her membership in the Jericho Meeting of the Society of Friends, describing Quaker religious practices and giving the historical background of the group and the historical Jericho Meeting House.

The program was the latest in the growing Hicksville Historical Society's efforts to gather, inform and to entertain all who are interested in knowing about our long and rich community history. The Society, under the leadership of Valerie Pakaluk, meets the fourth Tuesday of the month except for June, July and August at the library.

Juniors Head For Legion Competition

Hicksville High School juniors John Butt, Timothy Glover and Colleen Bartley have been selected to attend the Boys' State and Girls' State programs, respectively, of June 23 through June 29. The programs this year will take place at Alfred University for Boys' State and Russell Sage College for Girls' State.

Boys' State and Girls' State are programs of the American Legion developed from the concept that youth should be offered a better perspective of the practical operation of government. Qualified high school juniors from across the state take part in a practical government course designed to develop a working knowledge of the structure of government.

Through this program, the American Legion strives to develop civic leadership and pride in American Citizenship and to arouse a keen interest in the detailed study of U.S. government. Students set-up and partake in their own governmental structure for the week.

John Butt is a member of the Band, Jazz Band, Orchestra, International Thespian Society, Modern Music Masters, and the National Honor Society. He enjoys classic fiction and playing the bassoon and saxophone. John plans on pursuing a career in medicine.

Timothy Glover is a member of the Student Athlete Leadership Program. Varsity Football (Quarterback), Varsity Winter Track, Varsity Lacrosse, National Honor

Teen Stabbed

A Uniondale man was charged with stabbing a Hicksville teenager in the back in front of the Stewart Avenue 7-Eleven on April 21.

Eighth Precinct Police gave this report of the incident:

Three friends, Claude Ross, 19, Roger Wallace, 19, both of Uniondale, and Ray Dinunzio of Hicksville drove, into the parking lot of the 7-Eleven store on Newbridge Road and Stewart Ave.

Ross, who is black, entered the store and upon exiting a short time later was confronted by some members of a group of 20 to 25 white males ranging in age from 15 to 18 years. Wallace, who is also black, got out of the car to help Ross and was physically restrained by some youths who police said began yelling racial slurs at him.

Ross got a knife out of the car and stabbed the Hicksville youth, Joseph Rodriguez, in the lower back. Ross and Wallace then got back into the automobile and the three men left the scene, police said. Rodriguez was taken to Nassau County Medical Center where he was listed in stable condition.

At 1:30 a.m., First Precinct Police officers who were assisting in the investigation, arrested Ross in Hempstead. He was charged with second degree assault and was arraigned in First District Court on April 21. Wallace and Dinunzio were not charged. The Eighth Squad and Deputy Inspector Ronald Olsen, bias coordinator, are investigating.

TO YOUR HEALTH

By RICHARD H. BLAU, M.D.

Bursitis As Painful As Arthritis

Bursitis is inflammation and swelling of the lubricating sacs which cushion the muscles and tendons surrounding a joint. This inflammation may occur after improper exercise warm-up or heavy activity. The pain may go away on its own in days or weeks. Occasionally, a chronic problem lasting months may result after a repeated injury. Parts of the body commonly involved include the shoulders, lower back, hips, and knees.

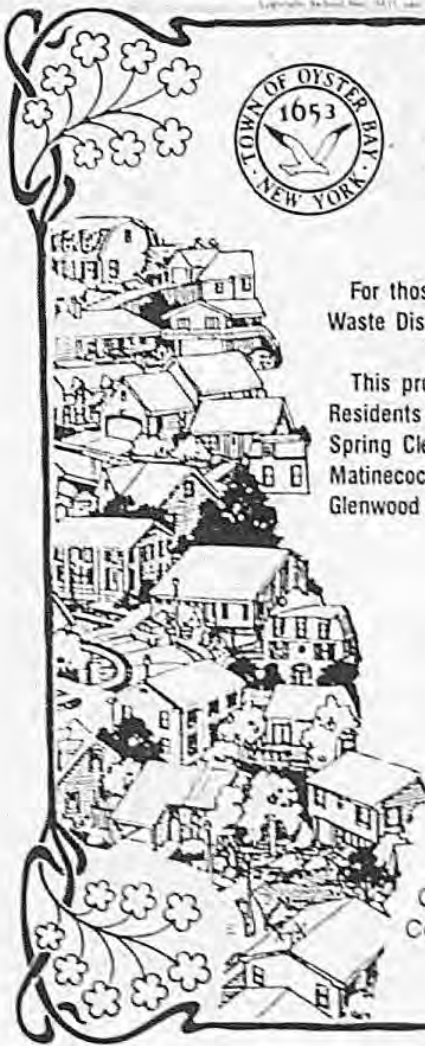

Most people have severe pain. This discomfort may be so intense that it is often confused with arthritis. Unlike arthritis, which usually affects many joints, bursitis usually affects one joint. Occasionally, the area is so painful that movement is difficult.

Since many disorders can result in pain, a proper diagnosis is important. The diagnosis should be made by a qualified physician who will perform a complete medical history and physical examination. The treatment program outlined should be designed to meet the needs of the individual patient. Rest to the injured area is very important, as are gentle exercises. Both ice and heat may also be recommended. Medications which reduce pain and inflammation are also very helpful. If the pain persists, your physician may refer you to a rheumatologist (specialist in joint and muscle disease), who will be able to inject the painful area with medication to reduce the inflammation. This usually cures the problem.

We're putting our money where our mouth is to preserve Long Island's water supply.

Long Island's water supply is the finest in the nation. At Slomin's we're taking positive steps to help preserve it. Specifically, we've established a special financial assistance program to help subsidize the cost of complying with the new regulations regarding buried fuel oil tanks.

Under this program, you will be able to purchase our environmentally safe, 280-gallon fiberglass tank for a price that is truly below our cost.* There are also economical options available for above ground storage tanks, starting as low as $100 installed. We realize that even with our subsidy, replacing your tank may be a financial burden, so we're offering low monthly payments with no interest or finance charges.

As a leader in the fuel oil industry, we feel a responsibility to invest in our community... to put our money where our mouth is, so to speak. We're proud to be working with our Long Island neighbors to preserve our fragile environment.

Adopts Budget

A large contingent of private school parents attended the meeting to ascertain the Board's position on public transportation for their children. While Wolf said she had asked for administrative input on that possibility for some private high school students, the Board had taken NO action to make any changes this year and had already approved the transportation portion of the budget providing for school bus transportation to private schools. Students, both public and private, are entitled by State law to transportation to schools located at least two miles (three miles for grades 9-12) and no more than 15 miles from their home. This funding is included in Proposition 1.

However, the Board approved Proposition 3 (transportation) at its April 10 meeting, which calls for the expenditure of almost $1,000,000 for the purpose of restoring bus transportation to the 1989-90 pre-austerity levels: K-3 - 1/2 mile; 4-6 - 1/4 mile, 7-8 - 1 1/2 miles, 9-12 - 2 miles. Voters must pass both proposition 1 (budget) and 3 (transportation) in order to transport those students living less than 2 miles (3 miles Grades 9-12) to and from public and private schools. Passage of both propositions would also restore late buses where at least eight students are involved. Pat Love expressed disappointment that the Board did not choose to go along with Fenton's recommendation to lower transportation mileage for grades 9-12 to 1 1/2 miles when not on austerity. Love said the voters should have had the right to vote on the extra expenditure for lowering the mileage.

Proposition 2, which also depends on the passage of Proposition 1, would give $30,000 to the Gregory Museum. Until austerity, the district had been providing funding to the

The Investor's Corner

By Dr. Joseph P. Frey

Municipals II

Last week we discussed the risks in municipal bonds. We ran out of space to complete the task. This week we complete the job.

To summarize last week's article: It is a huge market which issues tax free bonds to provide tax free income. Thousands of small and large government agencies, cities, states and school and water districts issue tens of thousands of bonds.

There are the usual fixed income risks from interest rate fluctuations. They are relatively safe, especially if they are general obligation (direct taxes pay them) bonds. Municipalities can go bankrupt, but the risk is small and usually short-lived.

The bonds of any entity can be downgraded by the rating agencies. It happens when the economy goes bad nationally or locally. But in general you are assured of getting your money back with all of the interest. Those are the bad things. There are risks that one takes no matter what investment one makes. Each investment has risks. They are accepted for the benefits that come back to the holder of a security.

The greatest benefit that you get is the fact that the income derived from tax free securities is virtually tax free. People love not paying taxes. It is with pride that we boast that we pay little or no tax. It is a status thing. There is nothing wrong with it, it is quite legal.

We wrote about the problems because people wrongly feel that they can put these securities away and forget about them. Nothing can be further from the truth. Like any investment portfolio you must be on your guard. You may not lose your money but you may lose some of that precious income. One major problem is the fact that many municipal securities can be called. That means that at some period in time (it is stated in what is known as the debenture section of the bond—all that small print) the bond can be called in for redemption. If you do not send it in, your interest stops.

I remember a case about thirty years ago. A man did not need the income. So he put his bond in the safe deposit box after deciding that he would collect it all when the maturity date came around in 30 years. Was he stupid? Of course. Anyway the bond was called. He turned it in at maturity, but he lost 15 years of interest. The moral of the story is that you cannot fall asleep with any investment.

If you put your bonds in the safe deposit box, be sure that you clip those coupons, if they are bearer bonds. If not you are better off letting your broker keep them in your account so they can handle them. If you do not think this is an important and immediate problem, here is a little information which should curl your hair. About 25 percent of all of the municipal bonds in the U.S.A. will be called for redemption within the next year. Yes, 25 percent. Since this is more than a trillion dollar business, there is going to be hundreds of billions of dollars to be reinvested after recall.

So you were enjoying that 11 percent, 12 percent and even 13 percent that you have been receiving for these last 10 years. Soon to be no more. Municipalities are not stupid. They can call your bond and refinance it with lower interest rate securities. Now the rates are in the neighborhood of 6 1/2 to 7 1/2 percent. If you need the income, this may hurt.

Investor's Corner:

municipality just calls it without a lottery. This has been happening so far this year; about $160 billion so far.

The major problem is that no one really follows this market. Once the issue is sold, the sellers basically forget it. You will most likely be notified on a lottery recall by your broker. The odds are that you will not be notified on a pre-refunding recall. With the exception of 1 or 2 brokerage houses, you are left to your own devices. My advice is to find a good brokerage house that has a few specialists or an organized program to monitor your municipalities. The rewards can be great.

If you do not know if your brokerage house has a good service, call them up and if you need the income, you should not be in munis.

There are two different types of recalls. Municipalities use the lottery system. If your bond number comes up, it is called. The other type is call pre-refunding. The ask about what they do for you AFTER you buy the bond. Be sure to ask about the pre-refunding program they have in place. LISTEN VERY CAREFULLY TO THE ANSWERS. Most do not have the programs in place to give good or even adequate warnings. If you do not like the answers, call another brokerage house until you find one that has a program.

My other advice is to look through the financial pages of your local weekly or daily newspaper. Look for seminars on this situation. There are sure to be some because this is a major problem of immediate proportions.

If you have high yield municipals, you may be lucky and not get caught in the lottery or the pre-refunding. We hope so. But do not count on it. A little diligence now can save you a bundle.

Letter Guidelines At Election Time

Over the past few weeks, we have received inquiries as to the Hicksville Illustrated's letters to the editor policy prior to school board elections.

Our policy is as follows: If the letter challenges a candidate's or his or her campaign, we must allow that person the opportunity to rebut. Therefore, those letters will only be printed up to and including our Thursday, May 9 issue, which gives the candidate the May 16 issue to respond.

Endorsements, however, will be accepted for both the May 9 and May 16 issues. The school board candidate vote is Wednesday, May 23.

We would also like to remind our readers that all letters to the editor must be hand signed. Keep letters as brief and to the point as possible. We cannot publish every letter we receive due to space limitations.

Many students in grades 4, 5 and 6 at St. Ignatius participated in the Read to Succeed 600 Minute Reading Club this winter. Each student had to read a minimum of 600 minutes or 10 hours of reading for recreation during a designated five-week period.

Each student who completed the 600 Minutes of Reading will receive a free ticket to Great Adventure in New Jersey. All students who participated in the Reading Club will receive a certificate of achievement at an assembly this spring.

The Read to Succeed 600 Minute Reading Club is sponsored by Six Flags Corporation and Pearle Vision Center.

Correction

A story in the April 18 issue about a fire on Fox Place contained incorrect information. The occupants of the home had not tried to reenter the burning home as previously reported by the Hicksville Fire Department.

Child Health Care Program Begins In Nassau County

A program that will give health insurance benefits to children under 13 years of age and who are not eligible for Medicaid has been implemented in Nassau County.

The Department of Health has begun the Child Care Health Insurance Program (CHIP) which covers primary and preventative services such as: child care visits, diagnosis and treatment of illnesses and injury, outpatient visits for alcoholism and substance abuse, prescription drugs, emergency medical care, laboratory tests and therapeutic services as well as optional coverage of dental, vision, speech and hearing services.

Income eligibility requirements for the program include a gross household income of 222 percent or less of the non-farm federal income poverty level. For those families in which the gross income is above 222 percent of the federal poverty level, CHIP coverage is available on a per child cost basis.

Tax Protest Period Begins

Nassau County property owners who wish to challenge their tentative assessments may file formal protests through Tuesday, May 21.

In Nassau County, taxpayers file protests with the Board of Assessors which forwards them to the independent Board of Assessment Review for determination. Besides filing the written grievance forms, property owners may request a hearing before this board in which the taxpayer may present the facts that form the basis of their protest.

Applicants dissatisfied with the board's findings may go further and take their protest to court, but they must file the appropriate court papers within 30 days of the publication of the final assessment roll on August 1.

From May 1 to May 21, copies of the tentative Nassau County Assessment rolls are available for inspection and protests may be filed at the following locations: for properties in the Town of Hempstead—Board of Assessors Office, 240 Old Country Road, Mineola (535-2311); for properties in the Town of Oyster Bay—Cantiague Park, West John Street, Hicksville (935-3501); for properties in the Town of North Hempstead—Town Hall, 220 Plandome Rd., Manhasset (627-0590); and for properties in the City of Glen Cove—City Hall, Bridge Street (676-2000).

All offices will be staffed by representatives of the Board of Assessment for 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday during the grievance period. They will also be opened Wednesday evenings on May 1, 8, and 15 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and Tuesday, May 21, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

For additional information, call 535-2311 for one, two and three family homes and condominiums or 535-2047 for commercial and industrial property, apartment buildings, cooperatives and vacant land.

Governor of New York has reduced our revenue by $6-million dollars. Collins and Martillo Board had given the teachers the greatest salary increase in the entire State of New York. The current Board went back on their word and refused to close two schools, thus adding to the crisis that besets Hicksville.

The crisis grows each day. The Community needs experienced and competent Board Trustees to stem this crisis. We need Helen Laferty, Rich Pfaender and Jim Black.

Mrs. Helen Laferty has attended our School Board Meetings over the years and has fought for your rights as tax payers and property owners of Hicksville, and she was in the forefront in protesting the high salary increases that Collins and Martillo negotiated. Mrs. Laferty is an ideal choice to run for my seat on the Board - she has earned the right to run by her involvement in the issues before the Board and her constant and steadfast roles as a protector of the rights of the Community against special interest groups that have attempted to control the candidates of the School Board over the past decade.

Rich Pfaender and Jim Black both possess the qualities that we expect of a Board Trustee, integrity, respectability and intelligence. Those qualities have been lacking during the past four years, now is the time for the Community to make up for lost time and elect those fine community people, Laferty, Pfaender and Black on Row "A" - Don't be fooled again; with flashy ads and empty letters, be wise, and study the candidates closely.

I have put my heart and soul in this School District for over a decade and I want to see fresh minds and dedicated people to come up with the decisions that are intelligently arrived at, and in the best interests of the Community and not to cave in to special interest groups - I urge you to support and vote for Mrs. Helen Laferty, Mr. Richard Pfaender and Mr. Jim Black. "They have integrity".

Bill Bennett

Editor's Note: Mr. Bennett is a trustee on the school board. He is not running for re-election.

Running For School Board

To The Editor:
I would like to announce my candidacy for the seat on the Board of Education being vacated by William Bennett who has served this community with distinction for many years. I have decided to run because as taxpayers we are in the midst of a financial crisis that directly affects all of us. For the past several years, the Board majority has not made the necessary difficult decisions to preserve academic excellence and fiscal stability in our community.

I have been a resident of Hicksville for over 30 years. My sons attended public schools and I was active in PTA and community organizations. I am a past-President of Burns Avenue School PTA and a PTA Honorary Life Member. I am a member of St. Paul the Apostle Church Parish Council and a Eucharistic Minister serving the elderly and home-bound sick. In recent years I have been active in the Northwest Civic Association working to curb industries encroaching on residential areas of our town.

I have more than 30 years of business experience and am a licensed real estate broker.

I believe in educational excellence for our children not in keeping open half empty schools. I would rather see fewer schools with first rate academic and fine arts programs than have many schools with mediocre programs. I am opposed to public transportation for private and parochial school children. Child safety is a priority.

If elected, I will do my best to be objective, will listen with respect to everyone speaking before the Board and base my decision on what is best for the students and what taxpayers can afford to pay. I will treat my opponents with respect and strive for a harmonious and productive relationship with present Board members.

I will work very hard to negotiate a new teacher's contract that reflects the realities of the economy and our ability to pay.

My candidacy is being sponsored by the Concerned Citizens of Hicksville and my running mates are Richard Pfaender and James Black. I urge you to vote Row A-Lafferty, Pfaender, Black. We will bring intelligence, honesty and integrity to the School Board. I truly believe I can make a positive contribution to our community and ask for your support.

Helen M. Lafferty

Mary Carton, Board Candidate

To The Editor:
I, Mary E. Carton have filed to be a candidate for election to our school board. As a member of the silent majority, I can no longer be silent. I need help to put forth the thoughts and concerns of you, the Silent Majority of Hicksville. The help I need is your "vote".

My platform is simple:

To provide the students of Hicksville with the meaningful education program where all children will be provided with the opportunity to learn to the best of their ability.

To provide this academic opportunity in the most cost effective manner.

To provide for reasonable extra curricular activities that will contribute to the enrichment of the education program.

To provide the Private/Parochial student of the Hicksville School District, the necessary transportation, books, and other tools to assist in their learning, as we have done in the past. Parents of these children are taxpayers, and should receive respect and encouragement.

To provide our teachers with a climate that is based upon respect, so that working in Hicksville will be done willingly. This type of atmosphere will retain some of the best teachers on Long Island, and attract the best in the years to come.

My motto is "establish academic excellence through fiscal responsibility."

Mary E. Carton

Fire Officials Issue Warning

The Hicksville Fire Department has issued a warning regarding the storage of compressed air/and or gas cylinders in automobiles. Third Assistant Chief Karl M. Schweitzer has reported the following:

In a recent car fire behind the professional building located at 35 Broadway in Hicksville found firefighters battling a fully involved mini van fire. The van had a series of minor explosions which were caused by the storage of a compressed air cylinder kept in the vehicle for use in case of emergencies. The cylinders exploded causing one of the cylinders to be propelled upward into the roof of the van and the second cylinder to be propelled out of the rear of the van. Firefighters were unaware of the storage of any type of compressed cylinders when extinguishing the fire.

The Hicksville Fire Department recommends that automobile owners do not store or carry any compressed gas/or air cylinders in their auto. If you should continue to store such cylinders in your automobiles please notify the firefighters when they arrive at your call for emergency.

 Museum. In response to resident Peggy Parsekian's question as to why this was so, museum board trustees Rosemary Barrow and Richard Evers explained the history of the Gregory Museum and the services it has provided residents including free admission, in-service teacher training and programs for Hicksville students.

Several residents addressed the state aid situation and the potential cost to taxpayers. Wolf said the district has eliminated 35 positions and is presenting a no-increase expenditure budget in order to lower any tax increases.

In speaking to Bob Arnesen—who identified himself as a member of Tax Pact—Wolf said conservatively the estimates of actual state aid loss are 50-60% of the Governor's $5.8 million proposal. He replied that until the actual loss is known "you're voting for a blank check."

In response to a member of the Willet Avenue Leasing Committee's question, Wolf indicated that the Board was in the "final stages of negotiations," but said the Board could not release further information while in negotiations. Board Attorney Gregory Guercio told resident Joan Kani that while there was no law that prevented this disclosure, the Board had the right to make this the subject of executive session until such time as negotiations are concluded, at which time the Board must take action in public. Wolf said she would not "hinder negotiations" by declaring the parties involved. Resident Helen Lafferty persisted that the community had the right to know causing Martillo to ask for a brief executive session to discuss the matter. Within minutes, the Board returned and Wolf announced that negotiations were underway with North Shore University Hospital and Solomon Schecter Day School. Carolyn Gee expressed strong concern that access to the playing fields at Willet be available to residents and that access to the Willet tenant be via Andrews Road.

Tom Farrell, Chairman of the CBAC, read recommendations and a letter from his committee asking that it become a standing committee reporting to the Board for 1991-92 with the same membership (replacements as needed). Wolf thanked the members for their hard work, saying some of their recommendations had become realities. However, she said the new Board in July would have to decide on the committee's status.

One resident questioned the Board's reversal of its decision to close East Street School and asked if there was money allocated in the budget for renovations at that school particularly for asbestos. Wolf said that an additional $300,000 was in the 1991-92 budget, which coupled with $1,000,000 from the 1989-90 budget, would enable the district to remove asbestos from all remaining buildings, which include Burns, Dutch, East, the Middle School and the Administration Building. Wolf said there were no major structural repairs needed at East. She said that closing additional schools "might be a topic for discussion next September."

After Bennett commented that taxpayers could have saved money if East had been closed, heated remarks flew from Board members and the audience. Rudin said she would be "happy to look at closing schools" but that she wouldn't agree with Bennett on the school to be closed. Martillo said he was "damn sick and tired of hearing [Bennett] spout figures" and the audience threatened to momentarily deteriorate into a raucous mob. Just as quickly as it started, however, the dispute died down.

In other action, the Board approved the expenditure of an estimated $61,251 to repair and renovate gym doors by adding lead safety edges similar to those on elevator doors, which would prevent them from closing if a person was in its path. Fenton said this would make the doors "safer."

Sixth Annual Long Island Mozart Festival Celebrates Mozart's Bicentennial

Mozart's Bicentennial will be celebrated at the sixth annual Long Island Mozart Festival during two spring weekends at the magnificent Planting Fields Arboretum in Oyster Bay—Memorial Day Weekend, May 25, 26, 27 and June 1 and 2.

The Long Island Mozart Festival, the region's foremost outdoor music festival and hailed by The New York Times as "one of Long Island's most popular musical events," is presented by the celebrated Sea Cliff Chamber Players, the area's premier chamber ensemble. An impressive roster of internationally-acclaimed artists will be heard in ten afternoon and sunset concerts, including Grammy-award pianist Ruth Laredo; Avery Fisher Award winning violinists Mark Peskanov and Ida Levin; Tchaikovsky Gold Medalist cellist Nathaniel Rosen; Naumberg First Prize winners flutist Carol Wincenc and clarinetist Charles Neidich; and other stellar artists such as flutist Eugenia Zukerman and violinist Walter Trampler.

In this special 200th Anniversary tribute to Mozart's genius, many of the composer's cherished works will be performed, including Eine Kleine Nachtmusik, the Clarinet Quintet, the last great string quartets and a wide variety of divertimenti and serenades. Also, many of Mozart's rarely heard compositions will be performed, some of them for the first time on Long Island. They include the unusual Quintet for Glass Harmonica, performed on the original instrument by noted harmonicaist Dennis James; a clarinet quintet fragment recently discovered and reconstructed by eminent musicologist Robert Levin; and a divertimento for a cavalry display for flutes, trumpets and drums. Special events including lectures, discussions and musical workshops are scheduled between concerts.

Concerts take place in the Hay Barn courtyard where choice seating is available. In addition, festival patrons may purchase tickets for informal seating on the surrounding lawns. A wide range of ticket options is available, including a discount Festival Pass.

Children under 12 are admitted free to the lawn with parents. In case of rain, concerts are held in the Hay Barn.

The Festival is more than music. Patrons may dine at the Mozart Cafe, complete with waiter service and featuring Viennese specialties, or stroll through the Food Promenade. The popular outdoor Arts and Crafts Exhibit features some of the area's finest artists and craftspeople. Garden tours are scheduled throughout the day for viewing some of the finest azalea and rhododendron collections in the East.

A combination of great music, fine food and beautiful, natural surroundings attracts large audiences from throughout the New York metropolitan area and neighboring states, with more than 15,000 persons attending annually. The Arboretum is accessible by railroad, with a combination rail and admission package available through the Long Island Railroad. Shuttle bus service is also provided from the Oyster Bay train station.

The Long Island Mozart Festival is sponsored by Marine Midland Bank. ## Understanding Your Headache: The Answer Could Be Allergies

By Michelle Pinto

For every one of you who's ever clutched your head in despair, read on, because you're not alone. As a matter of fact, it is estimated that approximately 42 million Americans will seek medical help this year for relief of headache pain. And, did you know that headache is the number one complaint for which people seek medical attention?

The Three Types of Headaches

According to Dr. Robert J. Mittman, head of the Allergy & Asthma Center, located at 8-21 Bell Blvd. in Bayside, Queens, Headaches are divided into three major groups, depending on the pain mechanism that produces them. For example, the tension headache is produced by the involuntary contraction of the muscles of the head, neck, and face. Vascular headaches are caused by widening and increased pulsation of arteries in the brain. And the third type, inflammatory headaches, include all headaches caused by organic disease of the skull, such as an infection. And many times," says Dr. Mittman, "a headache can be brought on by allergies."

It's important to know whether or not your headaches are allergy-induced, and if so, what you can do about them. So take heart, hold on to your head, and see if any of these symptoms sound familiar.

Allergy-Induced Sinusitis

According to Dr. Mittman, "Sinusitis is the inflammation of the sinuses, which are hollow air cavities. Our concern is the four groups of cavities in the skull that open into the nose. Sinuses are designed to trap foreign particles that have escaped the filtering mechanisms of the nose."

"An allergic reaction can affect the sinuses and their self-cleaning mechanism," he said. Mucus accumulates, causing bacteria to breed, and a secondary infection sets in. This infection can cause swelling — and headache.

Allergic rhinitis is a leading cause of headache-producing sinusitis, says Dr. Mittman. "Inhaled allergens of all kinds, including dust, dust mites, molds, animal dander, pollens, etc., can set off the allergic reaction that leads to sinusitis," he said.

If your headaches are seasonal, or you notice an association between changes in the weather and your headache, it is recommended that you see an allergist at once. You might need antihistamines or other forms of medication. Also, it's a good idea to keep your work and living areas dust and pollen free. And, you and your allergist might consider immunotherapy.

What Else Could It Be?

"Often," says Dr. Mittman, "alcohol, cigarettes, or certain foods could be the offending culprit when it comes to headaches." Hypersensitivity to certain foods such as milk, peanuts, shellfish — or flavor enhancers such as monosodium glutamate (MSG) have been known to affect many people adversely.

Do I Need A Doctor?

Very often, the occasional headache can be relieved with such over-the-counter pain relievers as acetaminophen, aspirin, and ibuprofen. But, when the source of the headache is allergy-induced, you should definitely make tracks to your nearest allergist. To quote Dr. Mittman, "When the headaches persist, and aspirin just isn't enough, there might be something else we can do. Better to check it out before the pain becomes too great."

Dr. Robert J. Mittman is head of the Allergy & Asthma Family Care Center located at 38-21 Bell Blvd. in Bayside, Queens.

Michelle Pinto is a free-lance writer/executive who finds that impossible deadlines often bring on severe headaches. "As of yet, there is no cure for this malady," she says.

HEALTH & FITNESS

Should You Have A Health Care Proxy?

By Howard Black, JD

Who has the legal authority to make a medical decision for you if you are incapacitated? Until Jan. 18, 1991, it may have been necessary for a judge to appoint someone to give your physician guidance and direction about your care. The cost and delay associated with legal proceedings can now be avoided by signing a Health Care Proxy (HCP).

An HCP allows you to designate a health care agent to make medical decisions on your behalf if you are incapacitated. The agent is usually a relative with whom you feel comfortable. During a period of hospitalization, your agent could be called upon to make decisions about such matters as electrical resuscitation, mechanical respiration, surgery, dialysis and administration of antibiotics.

It is best for you and your agent to discuss in advance the types of medical treatments you find acceptable and those you wish to decline. You may even want to discuss treatment alternatives with your physicians or clergyman. It is particularly important to express an opinion about whether or not you wish to artificially receive food and water. Without specific authority, your agent cannot decline your receipt of either of them.

You should be cautious about who you designate as your agent. After your incapacity, your agent has the right to review your medical record so that he or she can make intelligent decisions on your behalf. Medical records may contain very sensitive and personal information.

Health care proxy forms may be obtained without charge from the NYS Department of Health. They must be signed by the adult to whom it relates and it must be witnessed by two disinterested parties. A disabled adult may have someone sign the document for him or her if certain additional requirements are met. There is no need to notarize the HCP. Neither the agent nor the adult's attending doctor can act as a witness.

After you are satisfied with the selection of your agent, a signed health care proxy should be sent to your physician and a copy should be placed in your medical file. Your doctor and your hospital are required to honor the decisions of your agent. However, if the agent's decisions offend the "sincerely held moral convictions" of the doctor or hospital, either may decline to honor them as long as arrangements for alternate medical care are made.

The health care proxy is just one of several instruments that adults of all ages should consider having prepared for themselves. Many people who are apprehensive about the possibility of becoming incapacitated have executed a "durable" power of attorney. Like an HCP, this document authorizes an agent to act on your behalf regarding financial, legal and personal matters. However, the designation of health care agent in durable power of attorney is not valid. Since Jan. 18, 1991, the exclusive instrument in which an agent can be appointed is a health care proxy.

Fitness Is The Winner:

By Betty Rosenzweig

It was a different kind of contest, one they said could change your life. It was called the "Big Challenge." The prize, "a nutritional and fitness program medically supervised for one full year at the Health Headquarters in Great Neck; $500 toward salon services at Peter's Place on Middle Neck Rd., one full year membership at North Shore Gym and Health Club, Manhasset, and free clothing from Mondo and other well-known designers."

The first step for entrants was a letter, followed by a personal interview. Many entered, three were chosen. The next step to qualify was 12 weeks of perfect attendance at three sessions a week of exercise at North Shore Gym and one session a week at Health and Fitness of Health Headquarters, Great Neck.

"We were looking for individuals who were ready to make a commitment to change," Isabel Goldstein, the director of Health and Fitness, said.

The winners; Great Neck residents Marjorie Rosin and Harriet Seligson and Eileen Feinman of Port Washington, all lead very busy lives and wondered where they would find the time to complete the contest. Feinman, who works a full eight-hour day and has a family, explained, "you find the time. I found myself exercising at 9:30 at night, and I was surprised to find that I enjoyed it." Feinman, a vegetarian, had other doubts about the program. "They adapted the program to suit me and my lifestyle. Usually, you have to adapt to the program. I needed to lose weight and couldn't do it on my own. When I went on other diet programs, I'd gain weight." Feinman lost over 20 pounds since starting the program.

"With exercise and the right diet I find I need less sleep," Feinman said. "There have been subtle changes. Each week they would review my diet and adjust it if necessary; it was a very subtle shift. I've been on every diet program there is. I know if I need to I can come back after the year is up and they'll help me. I think it's like a car, that constantly needs fine tuning."

Rosin, who sells industrial real estate, said, "I've been on many programs. The last was Opti-Fast and I lost weight fast, very fast, and gained it back just as fast. This program was different, it was individually tailored for me, one-on-one. It's a very personal approach. They didn't make me do anything. I learned to make healthy choices and I'm getting control of my life."

Harriet Seligson who is widowed said, "I felt they were there to help me and watch over me. One day when I was walking at a nature preserve in Connecticut I found a magnet in the shape of an elephant; on it was the message: 'stuff and you'll huff.' I thought to myself, even in Connecticut they're watching me! Seligson lost weight, changed her hair color "a little" and is ready to take "risks and have new adventures." She said she has an "ultimate fantasy that a kindred spirit of the opposite sex will see the new me and realize what a terrific lady I am and want to meet me."

Peter's Place, the Health and Fitness Center of Great Neck and North Shore Gym and Health Club who sponsored this contest agreed the contest succeeded in just the way they'd hoped it would. "It changed three women's lives. They look good, feel good and feel good about themselves. We get great pleasure out of the success of our three winners."

The bidding:
North East South West
Pass Pass 1♣ Dble
2♣ 3♥ Pass 4♥
Pass Pass 4♣ Dble

Opening lead - king of diamonds.

Many plays made by declarer are based on information he obtains from either the opponents' bidding or the type of defense they adopt. To place so much credence on information volunteered by the enemy may seem odd, but it is nevertheless generally sound to proceed on the assumption that they are doing their level best at all times to achieve the best possible result.

Consider this situation where South is in four spades doubled and the defense starts with three rounds of diamonds followed by three rounds of hearts. Declarer ruffs, cashes the ace of spades, plays a club to the king, and leads a trump from dummy, East following low.

South must now resolve the question of whether to finesse or go up with the king. He is already down two - 500 points - and wants to avoid the 800 number.

In general, when missing four to the queen of a suit, one plays for the drop by cashing the A-K instead of taking a finesse. However, the mathematical advantage is so slight that one should feel free to make use of any and all clues that may indicate otherwise.

Here, there is a good reason to finesse. If you trust the opponents' bidding, you must assume that their spades are divided 3-1, not 2-2. In effect, you say to yourself that the opponents would not voluntarily have bid four hearts if they had four quick losers in spades and clubs.

Of course, it is possible that they did not bid themselves into a hopeless game. From this it follows that the spades are unlikely to be divided 2-2, and that finessing against the queen is the right thing to do.
