Hicksville Honors Three New Eagle Scouts

By Victor Caputo

Family, friends and many honored guests filled the community room of the Hicksville Public Library to honor three Hicksville residents who were named to the high honor of Eagle Scout in the Boy Scouts of America. Robert Allen, Joseph Piccolomini and Theodore Urban were the 38th, 39th and 40th Eagle Scouts in Hicksville's Troop 64's history.

"This is an important and serious matter. Your position is one of honor and responsibility. You now become an example of the Hicksville community," said John Russell, scoutmaster of Troop 64, as he started off the evenings events.

A slide presentation was used to trace the history of the three Eagle Scouts, from their early days as a scout to the point they have reached today, the highest honor in the Boy Scouts, an Eagle Scout.

Many dignitaries were on hand to honor the three young men. On hand was a representative from Congressman Norman Lent's office and Nassau County Executive Thomas Gulotta's office as well as representatives from LILCO, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3211, the Kiwanis Club and the American Legion Post 420.

Assemblyman Fred Parola and Town Councilman Thomas Clark were also present to honor the three young men.

"As I get around communities like Hicksville, I realize how blessed we are to have organizations that help the community, like the Boy Scouts. We need more people who are interested in giving of themselves, like these three men. You have proven yourselves proudly. You have done a great job," said Parola, while presenting the Eagle Scouts with a citation.

"We want to extend our congratulations to these young men. To take on a responsible goal means something. These young men took the rough and tough road and succeeded," said Clark, as he too, presented the Eagle Scouts with a citation.

"It is a pleasure to meet men who think of the community first," said the representative from LILCO. "I hold Eagle Scouts in the highest esteem," said Richard Ever, representing the American Legion.

Sieg Widder, of the Kiwanis Club, spoke highly of the three Eagle Scouts and the Boy Scouts in general, saying it is a needed institution and molds great men.

The evening was not totally a serious one. Funny stories were told and jokes were made when the slide presentation was underway, recalling past memories, good and bad, of the honorees' days as scouts.

"The citations might not seem like much now, but 15 years from now they will mean something when you look back at them," said Parola.

"I see all these badges on them and I feel naked," joked Russell as he spoke of the new Eagle Scouts. "Well, maybe not naked, but insecure," he added.

All three young men are very proud of their achievement. "The scouting influence has been a memorable one for me," said Piccolomini. "It is an achievement I am glad I got a chance to accomplish," said Allen. "It was well worth the effort," said Urban, about the many years of scouting it took to be given the honor of Eagle Scout.

"They will be, as we move into a new century, the next leaders," said a representative from Gulotta's office.

When the ceremony came to a close, cake, coffee and soft drinks were available for the guests.

Preparation for the event took a lot of hard work, which John Russell did not mind doing, to make the evening the success that it was. Parents and relatives of the three Eagle Scouts expressed how proud they were of the young men.

Superintendent Lowers Initial Tax Rate

By Victor Caputo

Residents packed the Hicksville High School auditorium to hear the School Board vote on the tax rate increase and to hear what was contained in Superintendent of Schools Salvatore Mugavero's report at the Aug. 28 board meeting.

Residents were pleased when the board voted on a tax rate increase of $1.89 per $100 of assessed valuation instead of the $2.69 per $100 of assessed valuation they had originally voted on and approved.

"I would like to commend the administration for bringing the tax rate this low," said James Black, board trustee, before voting on the figure midway through the meeting.

School Board President Carole Wolf opened the meeting by offering her sympathies to the family of Van Androusoopoulos, who was killed in a car accident earlier in the week. He would have been a senior at Hicksville High School.

She also read a report from the Commissioner of Education's office which said "The decision to close the Willet School has not been an easy one." Willet School was closed because of low enrollment throughout the district. Students from Willet have been moved to the Woodland School. This action will cause the least amount of problems because the whole student body will move from Willet to Woodland, not just pieces of it. The estimated savings to the district will be $370,000.

With that out of the way, Mugavero was handed the spotlight for his Superintendents Report, which for the first time, was done at the beginning of the meeting.

He began by congratulating James Bell, an English teacher at the middle school. Bell has been named one of 10 finalists for New York State Teacher of the Year. This brought a round of applause from residents.

It was also announced that Assistant Superintendent Bill Hall will be retiring after 30 years in January.

"We have been in the process of interviewing people for the kindergarten bus monitor positions. We expect to have monitors on the buses as soon as we get the fingerprinting complete," Mugavero said.

"Everywhere I've been, my motto has been excellence. We have to take a serious view at instructional time. We have to minimize interruptions of instructional time," he said.

He spoke of his path to excellence plan that he hopes will keep the school district running smoothly. "Once we get through the period of getting to know each other, I am sure we will all enjoy a path to excellence," he said.

The district has received $264,000 in additional grant money from the government. That brings the total amount of grant money up to $1,346,000, Mugavero said.

He requested that the board look into having a school physician attend all sporting events Hicksville students participate in. It will cost very little and it will insure that a Hicksville student will receive medical care if hurt. "I have asked Mr. Kenny, the director of athletics, to contact each district we play and ask them to have a physician at the games. If they do not want to have one then we will bring our own," he said.

When his report was finished the board opened the floor for questions from residents.

One resident asked if more time could be given, instead of the three minutes residents usually get, to speak, provided there are not a lot of people who wish to speak. He also asked what was the balance of the general fund. Mugavero said it was currently $800,000.

A gentlemen spoke about the budget com-

HOMETOWN PEOPLE

We Really Miss Them

A few weeks ago the California Street friends of Yvonne and Ray Siefert waved goodbye to them with tears in their eyes.

1953 was the year Yvonne and Ray moved into their Spiegel home. The friendly neighbors watched their three children, Stephanie, Walter and Eric grow up, get married and move away. Their home became too large for the two of them so they decided to move to Florida.

When we all moved to California Street we were newlyweds or new parents. We watched each other's children grow up. We mothers would go outside everyday and walk down to the village to the Long Island National Bank or the Bank of Hicksville to do our banking. No one had any money left from one weekly shopping trip to the next—but we enjoyed a wonderful way of life in our brand new homes. Our babies were put out in their carriages to sleep in the fresh air... and it never failed that the fire whistle on the corner of Burns Avenue would go off as soon as we had them asleep. As they grew older they played in each other's back yard or we took them to the newly built Cantiague Park. We would gather after supper and have the kids ride their bikes with Yvonne leading the way and me bringing up the rear. When we would get to the park we would sit on the bench and let the kids play to their hearts content and then we would bring them home in the dark. They loved it. Among the kids were the Siefert's, Kathy and Michael Spinna, Cheryl and Jimmy Gries, Stephen, Cheryl, Christine Gregg, Anthony Sorvillo, Joseph Scully and Ellen Riccardi.

Ray and Yvonne are having the most beautiful home built. The pictures she sent were magnificent. They're even having a built-in pool installed.

Ellie and Mrs. Kubernach, Judy Sommers, Margaret Wolf, Connie and myself miss Yvonne so very much. She was always there when you needed her. You could always count on her. She was a very, very dear friend. We wish them all the happiness in their new retirement... and we wish the newly married young couple who bought their house, Barbie and Fran Clark—as much happiness as they had in their home. See you this winter, Yvonne.

Anthony Sorvillo and Emily Schneyman Sorvillo-Schneyman Engagement

June 19 was the date Anthony Sorvillo proposed to Emily Schneyman while on a handsome cab ride through Central Park in Manhattan, just six months after the date they met.

Emily accepted and they have now made plans to be married in October, 1992 at St. Anastasia Church in Douglaston, N.Y. Their reception will be held at Franco's Waterview in Bayville.

Emily, a registered nurse at St. Francis Hospital in Roslyn, is the daughter of Doris and Arthur Schneyman. Anthony, an electrical foreman at St. Francis Hospital, is the son of the late Rose and Ed Sorvillo.

Annalise Sabrina Mutterperl

Her Grandparents Are Proud

Congratulations to Annalise Sabrina Mutterperl. She has been awarded the Parent-Teacher-Friends Association Achievement Award for the 1990-91 school year, upon her graduation from Trinity Lutheran School on June 20.

This award is presented to the graduates who through competitive examinations have received the highest scholastic ratings.

Annalise was also one of 14 graduates to receive the Presidential Academic Fitness Award presented in recognition of Outstanding Academic Achievement and meeting the standards of the Presidential Academic Fitness Awards Program, also for the school year 1990-91.

Her family, but most of all her grandparents, Violet and Lou Dettloff, are so proud of her hard work and wish her continued success as she continues her education at Long Island Lutheran High School in the fall.

Ed. Note: A few months ago Lou promised to write a story for this newspaper about his 'growing up' in Hicksville. He has some very good stories to tell—especially about the silent movie that was made here. Lou, stop playing so much golf and start writing. I'm sure our readers would really enjoy it.

Dawn and Tim MacDougall

Received the following letter from Shelly LaPonti: "It was great reading that you met my cousin, Karen Tesar in Las Vegas while on vacation but I'm not the one who got married—my daughter, Dawn LaPonti got married June 22 to Timothy MacDougall. It was a wonderful wedding and all my family from Las Vegas and Florida attended and enjoyed themselves. It was wonderful seeing all of them. Unfortunately they couldn't be here for the wedding of my son, Dean.

Dean and Beata LaPonti

"On Dec. 1, 1990, Dean LaPonti was married to Beata Guzik, whom he met in France. Beata is from Poland. They had a small, but wonderful, wedding also. Dawn and Tim are living in Bay Shore. Dean and Beata are living with me in Hicksville. I have one more to go—Danielle—but she has plenty of time. She's now attending Nassau Community College."

Ed. Note: Shelly, thanks for the photos—and to tell you the truth... the photo of you and your two daughters is wonderful... you certainly don't look like you're their mother. You have a lovely family.

About The 1944 Reunion

About a month ago I wrote asking anyone who would be interested in attending a 1944 Hicksville High School reunion to contact Teresa (Rottkamp) Schmitt at 16 Pinelawn Rd., Melville, N.Y. 11747, or 516-423-5693. I hope by this time she has received many inquiries. She also would like to hear from the class of 1943 and 1945—as it might be a good idea to incorporate the three classes since each class only had about 100 graduates.

The Rottkamp Family had a reunion on Mar. 31, 1990. Teresa planned the reunion which was held at the IBEW building in Melville. They had 700 in attendance. (Can you imagine one family having that many descendants. Isn't that wonderful?)

Teresa writes that she was "raised a farmer's daughter, married a farmer and moved to the present farm in Melville in 1952 and is still operating the farm with her two sons and one daughter. She has another married daughter who lives in Huntington Station. She also has nine grandchildren who all live within five to 10 minutes from her.

Anyone living in Hicksville who knows the whereabouts of anyone in these classes please contact her so we can get started with a reunion.

A Note From...

I received the following note from Virginia Mierzetewski from Miramar, Florida: "I would like to publicly express my deepest condolences to Dorothy Menninger on the loss of her beloved mother, Dorothy.

Betty McCaffery, who lived across the street from Dorothy and Virginia Braun and myself, all went to St. Ignatius School and Mrs. Menninger used to have all us girls over after school. We had many happy times at St. Ignatius School, including playing basketball with Monsignor Ballweg."

Happy Birthday

I'm wishing two very, very nice people a happy birthday: First, on Sept. 9th I'm wishing Ellie Kubernack the best of birthday greetings and on Sept. 21 I'm sending happy birthday wishes to her mom, Margaret Kubernack... and from all their many friends too.

Goodbye, Dear Friends

This is my last column. I am really retiring now. I hope you have all enjoyed reading this column for the last five or six years. It's been fun writing it but everything has to end sometime. Joe and I will be spending a lot of time traveling and I just won't be around to get all the good "gossipy" news that's around town.

I'll miss putting my two-cents into this column but I still want you to continue to send in all your weddings, engagements, birthdays, births, parties, vacations, and anything that you might think is a little "gossipy." Everyone loves reading about someone else. Today everyone is so busy working that we don't get enough time to visit—so if you send in your news your friends and neighbors will know what's going on.

I also want to thank all my friends for their prayers for my grandson, Clinton, these many years. He has just had another operation and has one more to go so please continue to remember him. He's what you would call a Lion—courageous and strong.

Thanks again... see you all around town... Love, Flo

Hometown People is written by Flo Gries, a lifelong Hicksville resident. She loves receiving all your wedding, engagement, birthday and family news. You can write to Flo at 135 Liberty Avenue, Mineola, N.Y. 11501, or drop off information at 9 California Street (white mailbox in driveway). All photos will be returned if you include a SASE.

Incinerator Delays

A Stay of Proceedings has been granted by the Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) on the proposed Town of Oyster Bay incinerator.

Groups had argued that the Town of Oyster Bay and American Ref-Fuel had not adequately addressed the issue of disposal sites for the roughly 250 tons of ash that would be produced by the incinerator each day.

The incinerator company had proposed two potential sites in Pennsylvania and western New York for the disposal of the ash and bypass water, but failed to produce the necessary proof and commitments that these sites would be able to accept the waste, according to the state's ruling. The ruling said that it would be wasteful and futile to adjudicate the ash disposal issue based on the present submissions by the Town of Oyster Bay and American Ref-Fuel.

McGrath Helps Fight Red Tape

By Victor Caputo

How many times have people said, "I am sick and tired of all the red tape that comes with trying to get an answer from the federal government. I just want somebody to listen to my problem and give me a straight answer."

Congressman Ray McGrath has been trying to do just that throughout the month of August. McGrath has gone to several different locations on different days with three of his aides to listen and help constituents in his district who are having problems finding correct answers to their questions and getting information from the federal government. His main reason for doing this, he says, is to work with residents on a more personal level instead of by mail.

"The mail can be a very impersonal way of doing business. These meetings are designed to help my constituents with problems they might be having trouble finding an answer for. It gives me an opportunity to talk face to face with these people and deal with their problems on a very personal level," said McGrath.

The latest meeting that Congressman McGrath held was in Levittown Hall, Hicksville, on August 27.

"I find that I get about 12,000 letters a month to my office and not that many of them are on issues in Congress or how they feel I should vote on a particular issue, but on problems my constituents are having when they try and find out answers from different federal government agencies," said McGrath.

Over 50 percent of the people who have taken advantage of this personal dealing with the Congressman have been senior citizens. "Even though 50 percent of the people who have come to these meetings have been senior citizens, the other 50 percent are young people who are basically concerned with the same problems the senior citizens are concerned with, medical benefits, medicaid and medicare," said McGrath.

Unemployment has also been a major concern of residents and the Congressman as well. Congress has been trying to lengthen the time for unemployment benefits in New York State in wake of the recession and job loss of many people.

He does, however, see an end to the recession soon and feels that New York State is just taking a little longer than other states to get out of it. "There is some daylight at the end of the tunnel. We just have to ride this out for a little longer, but I am sure everything will pick up soon," he said.

McGrath was very casual and friendly as he approached residents and spoke with them, trying to answer their questions the best he could. "The response to these meetings has been unbelievable," he said, satisfied that the personal touch has helped residents.

McGrath appreciates hearing from people on federal matters. He feels that elected officials must rely on a constant flow of information from his constituents in order to accurately represent their interests.

He plans on having more meetings like the one that has passed again when he is home from Washington. He is eager and willing to help residents overcome the red tape often encountered with federal government agencies such as the Social Security Office and the Internal Revenue Service.

Residents appeared satisfied after the meeting, which ran about two hours long. They felt that answers to their problems with

Fatal Car Accident In Jericho

Underage Youth Driving Sports Car Crashes

By Kathy Gerber

Police are continuing their investigation into a fatal car accident that occurred in Jericho Monday afternoon.

A Hicksville teenager was killed and another youth, also from Hicksville, was critically injured when the sports car their friend was driving crashed into a fire hydrant and a tree after colliding with another car.

Police say a 15-year-old Jericho youth was driving his father's Porsche in the left lane of the North Service Road near Country Club Drive in Jericho when it collided with a car that had turned into the left lane after leaving the Hamlet Condominiums Complex. Homicide Detective Gary Ferrucci said the driver of the Porsche swerved to the right to avoid hitting the other car when it struck the fire hydrant and a tree off the side of the road. The accident occurred on August 26 at 4:30 p.m., police said.

The other driver, a Syosset woman, was not injured.

Det. Ferrucci said police are currently compiling as much evidence as possible for the police investigation. Ferrucci said some leads were discovered as a result of a police road block Wednesday afternoon. Police stopped motorists at the scene to ask if any had witnessed the crash itself or anything that may have transpired beforehand. There were no witnesses reported at the time of the accident, he said.

Ferrucci said the driver of the Porsche was travelling at a speed of 70-75 miles per hour. He said the speed and inexperience of the driver were contributing factors in the accident.

One passenger was pronounced dead at Syosset Community Hospital. Another was taken to the Nassau County Medical Center in critical condition. The driver of the Porsche was admitted to Nassau County Medical Center for observation for a concussion.

Anyone with information about the accident is asked to call the police at 573-6253.

POLICE OFFICERS set up a road block at the site of a fatal car crash in Jericho this week to gather information from anyone who may have seen the accident. One teenager died and another was injured when a sports car driven by another youth struck a tree alongside the North Service Road.

TO YOUR HEALTH

Raynaud's Syndrome - Its Relationship To Arthritis

Raynaud's (pronounced ra-noz) is a circulatory disease and can be associated with many types of arthritis. Often, the problem causes the fingers (or toes) to turn white, blue and finally red. This abnormality usually occurs when the fingers are exposed to the cold. However, this phenomenon can also occur under emotional stress, environmental changes or drug exposure.

The cause of Raynaud's is not known. Certain evidence suggests a spasm involving the blood vessels. Once this spasm occurs, the blood supply to the fingers is impaired and they turn white. With continual lack of oxygen, the fingers turn blue. As the blood vessels expand, blood rushes in and the fingers turn red. Many patients with Raynaud's experience little more than occasional discomfort in the cold weather.

Often, people with this disorder come to the attention of the rheumatologist (arthritis specialist) because they have an associated arthritic condition. Types of arthritis associated with Raynaud's include rheumatoid arthritis, lupus, scleroderma and mixed connective tissue disease. Although many people with Raynaud's may never develop arthritis, the occurrence of Raynaud's may be a very early sign of arthritis.

The diagnosis of this disorder is usually made on the basis of a medical history and a complete physical examination. This is done to make certain that an associated arthritis is not present.

Treatment of Raynaud's is a specialty of the rheumatologist. If the symptoms are mild, little treatment may be needed. For more severe problems, medications are available and are helpful.

Arthritis strikes one out of seven people. Learn the facts. Call for your complimentary copy of "The Joint Approach - An Arthritis Overview."

THAT'S HOW IT LOOKED! The Hicksville Train Station, how it looked to residents in the early stages of the community's development.

When The Railroad Steamed Into Town

By Victor Caputo

The Long Island Rail Road has played a vital role in the development of the Hicksville community. Valentine Hicks, for whom Hicksville was named, was a successful businessman in New York City until he went into retirement in Jericho in the early 1830's.

Hicks was a visionary, dreaming of one day turning the plains below Jericho into lots of houses and farm developments. By 1834 he had formed a land association with Robert and David Seaman along with others.

At that point in time transportation improvements were becoming vital to the growing United States. Businessmen were searching for a faster route from the Manhattan port to Boston, Connecticut, with all its rivers and hills, made the construction of a railroad extremely difficult through its land.

There was a harbor on Long Island, called Greenport, where people could transfer from the train to a ferry that would take them up to Boston.

This stirred Hicks out of retirement. He went to Albany and asked for the construction of a railroad on Long Island through the plains, which was approved and in 1836 the Long Island Rail Road was built.

The railroad was only in operation a short time when the country began to experience a financial depression in 1837. The construction of the train lines were postponed until 1840 and trains did not start arriving in Greenport until 1844. Two trains ran daily, each way, from Hicksville into the city area. The trip into Brooklyn from Hicksville took about two hours.

In 1850 Hicks passed away, but his dream of setting up a community on his land was carried out by Frederick Heyne and John Heitz.

These German investors laid out the streets and most likely advertised lots for sale. Gradually, city-dwellers came to the area to find a different way of life for their families.

The community was established when the railroad reached the place where the old Newbridge Road linked with Broadway, which used to be called Jericho Road.

The information for this brief piece of history was obtained from "The Story Of Hicksville, Yesterday And Today" and from "300 Years Of History." Both are available in the Hicksville Public Library.

HELEN HART stands between Dr. Aaron Balasny (left) and Dr. Tracy E. Strevey Jr., (right) as she holds her plaque after being named employee of the month.

Resident Is Employee Of The Month

"The best advice I ever got was when my daughter told me to get a job at the Nassau County Medical Center," said Helen Hart, a Hicksville resident, who has been selected as the medical center's employee of the month for August.

At the awards ceremony, Executive Director Dr. Tracy E. Strevey Jr. praised Hart and presented her with a handsome bronze plaque commemorating the honor. She also received $100 in cash, two tickets to the Long Island Stage Theatre and a reserved parking space for the month.

When she is not at her 8-4 job at the medical center, she can be found walking, swimming, cooking and watching TV. She and her husband, William, have five children and 10 grandchildren and have lived in Hicksville for 26 years.

AMERICA'S CHICKEN kicks off their month long fundraiser for the Muscular Dystrophy Association with America's girls Virginia Kane and Julie Bledsoe greeting the MDA poster children Cory and Eric Ryan.

America's Chicken And Jerry Lewis

America's Chicken, of Hicksville, has teamed up with Jerry Lewis' Labor Day Telethon to help fight muscular dystrophy.

Until the end of September, every time a customer buys a Santa Fe Fiesta (eight pieces of flame-grilled Santa Fe Chicken and two pieces of fresh baked cornbread), America's Chicken will donate $1 to the Muscular Dystrophy Association. The Santa Fe Fiesta can be purchased for $6.98 until Sept. 30.

Coin banks will also be available at each of America's Chicken's three Long Island locations for anyone who wishes to make an additional donation. "America's Chicken has always stood for good health and supporting Jerry's Kids is a great way to show it. The people of Long Island have really supported us and we are hoping that they will rally to help Jerry's Kids in a big way," said America's Chicken President Jack Freedman.

America's Chicken has three locations with one being in the Delaco Plaza in Hicksville.

Adult Education In Hicksville Schools

Education is an experience and a process that continues throughout one's life. The Board of Education and the administrators of the Hicksville Public Schools believe that the citizens of the community should have a broad range of opportunities for advancement and fulfillment.

The Continuing Education Program is designed to meet the needs and interests of Hicksville adults. The district-sponsored program is regulated by the New York State Department of Education and a comprehensive brochure listing course offerings and tuition fees is mailed to residents twice each year.

All adults and resident high school students are eligible to register. Mail registration ends on September 13 and classes begin on September 23.

Further information on Adult and Continuing Education can be obtained by calling 933-6671, Monday through Thursday, 6:30 p.m.-9 p.m.

Free Lunch Aid For Hicksville Students

The Hicksville Union Free School District has announced a free price meal policy (free milk and lunch) for East Street Elementary School, Fork Lane Elementary School, Old Country Road Elementary School, Woodland Avenue Elementary School, Hicksville Middle School and Hicksville Senior High School children.

There are income eligibility guidelines for the free milk and lunch program. For a family size of one, the eligibility requirement is an income of $8,606 or less per year and for a family of three, it is $14,482 annual maximum salary.

The Hicksville Public Schools would be more than happy to go over the regulations with residents who need assistance.

Families are urged by the school district to take advantage of this program if they are eligible for it. All families need to do is fill out the application forms sent to the homes with a letter to the parents. Additional applications can be picked up at the principal's office of each school.

Households which currently include children who receive food stamps or benefits under "Aid To Families with Dependent Children" or "Aid To Dependent Children" only have to list the child's name and food stamp or AFDC or ADC case number, print their name and address and sign the application. Separate applications are required for children in the same household with different case numbers.

Applications for the program may be submitted any time during the school year to the principal of the school. If a family member becomes unemployed or if family size decreases, or if the family income increases by more than $50 per month, a new application must be filled out.

The school district does have the right to verify at any time during the school year the information on the application. If a parent does not give the school the information, the child may be dropped from the program.

All questions on the application must be filled out. Foster children may also be able to receive the lunch programs.

A complete copy of the policy is on file at each one of the principal's offices in the schools and in the office of the School Food Authority District Administrator where it can be reviewed by any interested person.

Art Exhibit At The Bank Of New York

The Nassau County Department of Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities will sponsor its third annual art exhibit in cooperation with the Bank of New York.

The third annual "Art Expressions" exhibit will display the creative talents of persons participating in rehabilitation programs supported by the Department of Mental Health. The exhibit will run from September 23-28 at the Bank of New York, 11 Broadway at the corner of West John Street, Hicksville.

"Art Expressions" is a program designed to promote the talents of persons diagnosed with a psychiatric illness or developmental disabilities and to sensitize the community towards the disabled and their ability to use their creative talents. The exhibit will feature original paintings, drawings and photography created by persons involved in the County's mental health and mental retardation service network.

The exhibit will be open free of charge for all residents. For specific time schedules, please contact the Nassau County Department of Mental Health at 535-3355 during regular business hours.

Art Exhibit By Resident At Library

The Hicksville Public Library will be hosting an art exhibit for the entire month of Sept. by Jim DeNicola. DeNicola has been a Hicksville resident for 34 years and all of his six children graduated from Hicksville High School.

A self-proclaimed printmaker, his accomplishments have not gone unnoticed. He has been the recipient of numerous awards as an exhibiting artist. He is best known for his early work in woodcuts, cardboard-embossments and calligraphy.

While he continues to experiment with color prints from the press, he is also developing a series of multicolor papercuts. This medium is unique. The colors and images are revealed in overlapping layers of precisely cut large sheets of colored paper.

He is currently a part-time teacher at Adelphi University.

A FINE SAMPLE of the work of Jim DeNicola, whose work will be displayed at the library throughout Sept.

We're putting our money where our mouth is to preserve Long Island's water supply.

Long Island's water supply is the finest in the nation. At Slomin's we're taking positive steps to help preserve it. Specifically, we've established a special financial assistance program to help subsidize the cost of complying with the new regulations regarding buried fuel oil tanks.

Under this program, you will be able to purchase our environmentally safe, 280-gallon fiberglass tank for a price that is truly below our cost.* There are also economical options available for above ground storage tanks, starting as low as $100 installed. We realize that even with our subsidy, replacing your tank may be a financial burden, so we're offering low monthly payments with no interest or finance charges.

As a leader in the fuel oil industry, we feel a responsibility to invest in our community... to put our money where our mouth is, so to speak. We're proud to be working with our Long Island neighbors to preserve our fragile environment.

For more information, call Slomin's in Nassau at 932-7000, in Suffolk, call 242-4888.

mittee and if there is to be one next time, he argued that an administrator, on the school payroll, should not be on the committee. That will be taken under consideration by the board and administration.

"When will you (the board) start talking about the closing of a second school," asked a resident. "In the fall," responded Wolf.

Open house for the schools might be revised so that two schools are not holding it on the same day. "Parents should be able to go to all the schools, we will look into changing the open house," said Mugavero.

A citizen wanted to know how the bids are awarded, if by line or as a whole package. He felt it would be more beneficial to bid for a whole package, saying that companies would have to reduce their prices because the bidding would be for all or nothing. "You hurt yourself when you do it by all or nothing. It is better to have people bid head to head on different items," said Mugavero.

One resident asked if any additional programs were cut because she "did not want any surprises for her kids in September." Mugavero assured her and the crowd that no surprises will be forthcoming before the start of school.

For the first time the tables where the board sits were set up on the floor instead of the stage. The agenda sheet was condensed, but residents complained about that so it might return to its usual form that it used to be.

Throughout the evening the guest speakers praised the parents for their dedication, and the time and energy they gave to their sons in order for them to achieve the Eagle Scout honor.

The Eagle Scout award is not given to that many scouts. A scout must work long and hard and complete many things, such as a community project, in order to be named an Eagle Scout. To achieve the honor, many long, and not often easy, hours were given.

The Boy Scouts have been a viable organization since the early 1900s. "I hope the young scouts that I see here tonight will continue with the organization so that one day they might be honored with Eagle Scout," said Dr. Leo Kawawada, a teacher and the 18th Eagle Scout from Troop 64. As the three nailed their name pins onto the Troop 64 Eagle Scout Plaque, they know that they will not be the last Eagle Scouts to come from Troop 64, and they all expressed the same feeling early in the evening, "It is a tremendous honor and I am glad I was able to do the work to get it!"

You May Be Missing Discounts On Your Auto Insurance Policy

By Robert Abrams
Attorney General
State of New York

For those of you who think one citizen can't make a difference, this column is for you.

Last spring, an auto mechanic named Burch Craig came to my office with a complaint. The mechanic purchased a car that came equipped with an airbag, but he failed to receive a discount on his automobile insurance from the company that issued his policy—even though the company had advertised rebates for safety and anti-theft devices.

My office began an investigation with the State Insurance Department, and what we found was a multi-million dollar failure by insurance companies to give required—and advertised—discounts to consumers who equipped their cars with airbags, anti-lock brakes, automatic seat belts or car security devices.

The result may be hundreds of millions of dollars in rebates to consumers nationwide and as much as $30 million in New York alone, all because of the observations of one mechanic. And perhaps you might be able to cash in, thanks to this single complaint and our subsequent investigation.

I lobbied for the passage of a state law in 1986 that encouraged car owners to install safety and anti-theft devices for reasons of safety, as well as a way to save the insurance industry unnecessary payments. Everyone is better off if car owners take the proper precautions, and the fewer the claims, the lower the premiums.

Except that it hasn't worked out that way. It is shocking that many of the largest insurance companies in the nation have neglected to fulfill their obligations under the state's law and reduce the cost of premiums to most car owners.

My office has contacted the insurance companies that do the most business in New York. Sadly, we have discovered that although these companies encourage consumers to own cars with safety or anti-theft devices, they have neglected to issue rebates to motorists. Moreover, many of these firms even advertised the discounts—which are mandated by state law and made part of their rate filings with the Insurance Department—as a way to lure customers to sign with their company.

Passive restraints, such as airbags and automatic seat belts, are safety features that do not require any action by the driver or passenger. Federal law now requires auto manufacturers to install passive restraints in all cars made after 1990 as standard equipment; this requirement was phased in over a four-year period, beginning in 1986.

So why haven't the auto insurance companies given consumers back the promised rebates? And why have consumers had to fight with these companies in order to get their premiums reduced, as so many motorists have told me in recent weeks? To supply the rebate is not such a difficult thing to do, especially since information about cars built with passive restraints are encoded in the car's Vehicle Identification Number. Therefore, insurance companies should easily know which consumers are entitled to discounts, and those people should automatically receive rebates.

The refunds are more than just spare change for tolls. Long Island car owners could receive an average of $50 for cars that have anti-theft devices per year since 1986, and an average of $25 for vehicles with passive restraints. Some of the refunds being sought for New York consumers will stretch back for years, so drivers might receive a substantial refund in the mail.

As a result of our investigation, one of the largest insurance companies in the nation, State Farm, has agreed to change its computer programs to ensure that consumers automatically receive discounts. Customers will be contacted in upcoming weeks about rebates, and I anticipate that many other major auto insurers will follow suit.

The Superintendent of Insurance and I are working together to ensure that all customers who are entitled to refunds will be fully reimbursed. Thanks to that one mechanic and our subsequent investigation, millions of car owners will not only be safer, but will be receiving additional money for their families' pressing needs.

A Letter from Lulubelle...

...Did you move around when you were a little kid?...Or did you live most of the time in one house?...I did, and that house still has a mysterious attraction for me...Every time I go to the neighboring town where it is located, I drive past the house (and note that it is in better condition than when I lived there in those poor depression days!!!!) and I park and wander in my mind from room to room...The front steps are brick and as I go up, I look to the right where the supports for the small roof make a "V" with the wall and, instinctively, I put up my hand to find the key that was always there in those pre-burglar days...The door opens into a room that is half panelled with dark wood and then there are French doors to the living room...As I imagine that living room, I realize that it was a dreadful room to decorate—no wall space...my Mother solved that by putting furniture in front of the stairs, the windows, whatever...Our furniture was quite decrepit and there was even cotton peeking out from some tears in the upholstery, but we never even thought about that, because everyone was welcome in this house and there were so many people sitting on the furniture that we couldn't see the tears!!...The dining room, of course, had a "set" of furniture—table, chairs, sideboard, china closet, and, in the corner was the Morris chair—remember them?...an early convertible which had a metal bar across the back which adjusted the slope of the back of the chair...The china closet was filled with cut glass, and, on top, were many bowls filled with the fruit we all loved...In the kitchen was the gas stove, one side higher than the other...That high oven was really quite a good idea—you could see the cake or roast much more easily...and the ice box was in the back hall before you went down to the cellar with the coal and the wash tubs and wringers...Upstairs, we had three bedrooms—no stairs to the attic which became, in my mind, a fascinating place...I slept in an old brass bed which I hated and which I wish I had today...the sewing machine was in my room—a Singer with the pedals and all the little drawers on the right and left...the center of the top was higher than the sides, so, in order to make it into a dressing table, it was necessary to put blocks on the low parts to level the top, and then to gather a skirt around the sides, and, voila, a dressing table...My little brother slept on what I remember as almost a cot bed, and that must have been interesting because Ginger, our large dog, always slept with him...All the lights were in the ceiling and had shades covered with fabric and fringe...I wonder if I were to go into my house today, what would it look like?...Do you take memory walks through your old house, too?

Yours, Lulubelle

Back From Vacation

It is a practice of ours to write a financial update after we come back from vacation. Most of us have taken them by the end of August.

Much has happened since we wrote the last article in July before leaving. If you missed any of the articles please send a stamped envelope. The papers are very tight for space these days, which is good. Sometimes, one or two have to drop the article for lack of space.

STOCK MARKETS. The political scene affected the stock markets. The Russia problems had an immediate and sharp negative impact. As the "Keystone Kops" coup managers did their pratfall, the market rebounded sharply.

This is a very strange stock market. If you look at the figures of about one year ago, the Dow is only about 1 1/2 percent ahead of where it was last year. So, you thought it was really high because of all the noise about new Dow highs.

If you look at the over-the-counter stocks, you find where all of the real action has been. Up sharply from last year. Why? This market, like all markets, is never the same, only similar. Today, the large blue chips are having problems. They are counted on by the public to lead the way. That was the way it was about 1985-86. They did lead the way. Then was the time to buy GM, not now. They are floundering. As a result, the Dow is trading water; operating in a flat "trading range". The Dow stocks are "fully valued" with high market prices to the earnings of the companies. The time to have owned them was in 1985. You would have had great growth and good dividends. Today, you get good dividends from most of them.

Many over-the-counter stocks are growing rapidly. Many have low market prices in relation to the earnings. These stocks, moribund for years, are the winners. My newsletter has concentrated on small and medium stocks. At the end of July, our stock portfolio was up 30 percent for the year. The small companies will lead us out of the economic doldrums we are in. The stocks will follow with the large "blue chips" tagging along, bringing up the rear.

The tables have turned, so have the leaders. The future is in small companies which concentrate on health, technology, computers, biological engineering, pollution control and garbage. To some extent, fertilizer will get a big play. The banking area will be a big winner.

BANKS. For those of you who invested in small regional banks, you are well ahead. The eight banks in our newsletter are up an average of 40 percent through July; the best, +115 percent, the worst, -19 percent. This area is going to continue to do well. The traditional structure of the system is changing. Twenty years ago we had about 15,000 banks, 10 years ago about 14,000, 5 years ago about 13,000. Today we have about 11,000 and falling. The pace of mergers, bankruptcies, acquisitions and liquidations is accelerating. This spells opportunity. By 2,000 we will probably have 5,000 banks; very large ones and small ones. Those in the middle will struggle. The writer believes the stock profits will come from very well run small banks. Some larger regional banks will do well. Our advice: stay away from the large money center banks. There is the risk.

RUSSIA. It would not surprise me to see a closed end mutual fund concentrated on Russia. When it comes and it will sooner rather than later, be careful. We wrote an ar-

American Business Women's Day Sept. 14

The New York, Nassau and Suffolk county chapters of the American Business Women's Association will observe Sept. 14 as American Business Women's Day by sponsoring a joint chapter day at the Uniondale Marriott.

The day will begin at 11 a.m. with a seminar, First Impressions, presented by Esther Bogin. A luncheon and fashion show will follow. Leslie Smith, associate director of the National Association of Female Executives, is the keynote speaker.

The observance, also the anniversary of ABWA's founding in 1949, provides a special occasion to recognize the many contributions the more than 57 million working women in the United States have made to the private and public working sectors.

The concept for American Business Women's Day grew out of a belief that the United States needed a national day to recognize the achievements of not only ABWA's 250,000 members, but all employed women.

A U.S. Senate and House Joint Resolution recognizing Sept. 22 as American Business Women's Day was passed in 1983 and 1986, followed by proclamations by former President Ronald Reagan.

A national, nonpartisan, educational association, ABWA is dedicated to bring together businesswomen of diverse backgrounds and providing opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support and national recognition. The association has more than 100,000 members and 2,000 chapters throughout the United States and Puerto Rico.

There are more than 12,000 residential units priced in the $150,000 range and less currently on the market in Long Island and Queens. This campaign's goal is to educate prospective homebuyers and share the opportunities available to them for purchasing a home.

Public officials representing the counties will be attending the kick-off and participating in this campaign.

Contract Bridge By Steve Becker

Bidding Quiz

You are South and the bidding has gone:

North	East	South	West
1♥	Pass	2♥	Pass
3♣	Pass	?

What would you bid now with each of the following five hands?

- ♠ Q84 ♥ K942 ♦ K75 ♣ 963
- ♠ 963 ♥ K942 ♦ K75 ♣ Q84
- ♠ 62 ♥ K942 ♦ 862 ♣ KQ96
- ♠ 743 ♥ K942 ♦ A3 ♣ Q974
- ♠ Q105 ♥ KQ8 ♦ QJ74 ♣ 872

1. Three hearts. Let's first consider the meaning of North's three club bid. He presumably is trying to get to a game (possibly a slam), has some length in clubs, and wants to know whether you have a minimum or maximum two heart bid. The normal range for the heart raise is six to 10 points, and it's now up to you to indicate more precisely how good or bad your raise was.

Here, with eight high-card points but no distributional values, you are in the middle of the range. The deciding factor is that you have no help for partner in clubs, so you sign off by retreating to three hearts.

2. Four hearts. The difference between this case and the preceding one is that here you have the queen of clubs instead of the queen of spades. The club queen is almost certain to be useful to partner, which is more than can be said about the spade queen. You might lose a game if you bid only three hearts and partner passed.

3. Four clubs. You have the values for a jump to four hearts, but it is better to pinpoint your actual values by raising clubs. This might enable North to bid a slam with a hand such as:

♠ 5♥ AQ10753 ♦ AK ♣ AJ84.
4. Three diamonds. All three of your high cards are "working," so your hand is worth far more than the nine points you assigned to it before the bidding started.

As before, the queen of clubs has grown from a card of indeterminate value to a card that's worth three or four points, so you can now count your hand as being worth about 12 points. Since your partner couldn't know this if you jumped directly to four hearts, you stop along the way, before bidding game, to cuebid diamonds. You hope this will help North get to a slam if he is so inclined.

5. Three notrump. Here you accept partner's invitation by bidding three notrump, indicating a balanced maximum with only three-card trump support and scattered values. Partner can, of course, retreat to four hearts if he prefers a suit contract, but at the same time your bid suggests the possibility that notrump might work out best.

ticle "Euphoria in Europe" (2/1/90) which discussed the recovery problems of the eastern Europe nations. The article was prophetic. In Russia there has never been any kind of freedom, EVER. In the other eastern nations they had SOME idea, some cultural bias, some old people alive with a remembrance of freedom. In Russia there is something, no idea of what to do or how to do it. The problems are going to be monumental, etc. A whole generation has to learn all of the things we take for granted. Russia is a nation with incredible wealth. It will be tapped eventually, but the transition will be traumatic.

If I were to guess, I would think the immediate (within two years) future will see a moderate dictator in what is left after some of the smaller states have left the union. That is only a guess, but it is one based on a knowledge of history. The economic problems will overwhelm them. The people will want to eat, they will look for a savior.

AUGUST. Each year CNN shines. We turn them on all day for the "August crisis". In 1989, it was the breakup in Europe. 1990 gave us "Desert Shield". In 1991, the Russian coup was our entertainment. It beat the reruns hands down.

High Blood Pressure And Your Health

Q. What is high blood pressure?

A. Blood pressure is the normal force exerted on the walls of your blood vessels when your heart pumps blood to your vital organs and muscles. A usual or normal blood pressure for most people is around 120 over 80. Some people have lower pressure and that is seldom a problem. But researchers have carefully documented that even a "mild" increase of your average pressure can, over a period of years, damage your heart and other vital organs. The higher the average pressure, the greater the possible damage.

Any blood pressure measurement above 140/90—"140 over 90"—is referred to as high blood pressure. The higher or top number (140) is your systolic pressure—the peak blood pressure when the heart is pumping blood out, while the lower, bottom number (90) is your diastolic pressure, the blood pressure when your heart is relaxed and filling again.

Q. How do you know if you have high blood pressure?

A. High blood pressure usually has no symptoms and no early warning signs. Unlike other illnesses, you don't ordinarily feel any pain or notice other body changes. You often don't know you have it until it damages your heart, brain, kidneys or other organs. This is why high blood pressure is often called "the silent killer." The only sure way to know if you have high blood pressure is to have your blood pressure measured regularly. This should be done, at the very least, every two years, and more often if you have reason to be concerned.

Q. How serious is high blood pressure?

A. High blood pressure is one of the most serious diseases in the United States. As many as 62 million Americans have high blood pressure or "hypertension"—the medical name for this disease. Each year, high blood pressure is a significant contributor in 900,000 deaths. It is the leading cause of stroke, which kills 150,000 people each year. It is also one of the major causes of heart disease—our nation's number one health threat. If left untreated, high blood pressure can also damage kidneys and other vital organs.

Q. Who has high blood pressure?

A. Adult Men are the largest single group of Americans who have high blood pressure. High blood pressure is also more common and more severe in blacks. One out of every three black Americans has it. For reasons unknown, blacks tend to get the disease at earlier ages. Pregnancy and birth control pills may cause high blood pressure in a small number of women. A woman's chances of developing high blood pressure are also greater after menopause. Less than three percent of American children have high blood pressure, but over 40 percent of Americans over age sixty have high blood pressure.

Q. What contributes to high blood pressure?

A. Being overweight, having a family history of the disease, excessive amounts of sodium (salt) in your diet are some of the major factors which may contribute to high blood pressure. Cigarette smoking and high alcoholic consumption can also raise your blood pressure and interfere with your medicine. It is also important to note that conditions like diabetes, high cholesterol and a previous heart attack, when combined with high blood pressure, will greatly increase your risk for heart disease.

Q. How is high blood pressure treated?

A. Treatment for high blood pressure usually includes diet change—less calories, less fat, less salt—exercise and medicine. Today's advanced in high blood pressure treatment make it possible for your doctor to help you arrive at a simple plan that will allow you to manage your blood pressure comfortably with acceptable changes in lifestyle.

If your blood pressure is only slightly higher than normal, your doctor may recommend less stress, changes in diet, and more exercise to return your blood pressure to normal. If your blood pressure does not reach the level your doctor has set after a few months, you may be given medicine. When your blood pressure goal is achieved, you may only have to see your doctor every four to six months, to have your blood pressure measured and for any needed adjustments in your medicine. Whatever your treatment plan, it is important that you follow it faithfully, every day to keep your blood pressure under control for the rest of your life.

Free Cholesterol Seminar Sept. 9

The Great Neck Cardiovascular and Hypertension Center will present a free cholesterol seminar Sept. 9. The seminar which begins at 7 p.m. will provide information on the latest clinical research in the field.

"Cholesterol slowly chokes off the flow of blood to the heart and other vital organs. Too much cholesterol in the blood works treacherously and over decades deposits plaque which narrows the arteries. Blood flow is slowed and this condition can end in a heart attack which could be fatal," said a spokesperson at the center.

"Education as well as lifestyle changes are the keys to improved cardiovascular health. One out of two adults have high cholesterol. Other risk factors for coronary heart diseases (CHD) are cigarette smoking, obesity, and family history.

The Great Neck Cardiovascular and Hypertension Center is located at 833 Northern Blvd. Seating for the free cholesterol seminar is limited. Reservations are necessary. Call the center now to reserve your seat for the seminar at 487-0077.

Little Shop Of Actors At Old Bethpage

By William Gravert

Some L.I.ers are convinced Manhattan has a monopoly on quality theatre. But then, some people still think the Earth is flat.

B'way is still the epicenter of the American stage, no doubt, but L.I. is home to a thriving theatre scene, particularly musical comedy and dramatic revivals.

One of the houses leading the way is Plaza Playhouse in Old Bethpage. Under the direction of Kevin and Phyllis Harrington, Plaza productions recruit show-biz pros as well as moonlighters (those with 'day-gigs') and wanna-bes, resulting in a regional theatre several notches above the local level. Call it 'semi-pro' theatre.

By any name, it's entertaining. And with tix starting at $15, you don't have to take a second mortgage on the house to enjoy a night at the theatre.

The intimate yet airy 250 seat house hosts Little Shop of Horrors, the happy tale of a mutant Venus Fly-Trap growing to titanic proportions nosing on humans — to the tune of 1950's and 60's doo-wop rock.

Director/Choreographer Fran Harmon has molded a compact, breezy production utilizing Plaza's in-your-lap coziness, often with suggestion rather than ostentation. A soft-shoe here, a piece of 'stage-business' there, where complex blocking or bulky staging would have resulted in overkill. Effective was the down-on-his-luck homeless man panhandling the crowd as they filed in (complete with ushers trying to eject him!).

As the loveable geek who contrives and nurtures the man-eating plant, Eddie Smith (Seymour) is suitably fumbling yet charming. His supple tenor croons sweetly on "Suddenly Seymour," and belts amply on the pleading "Grow For Me."

In her push-up bra and sequined mini-skirts, Lisa Ann Goldsmith (Audrey) sparkles as the dead-end shop girl "with a past." Authentically spicing her dialogue with "Brooklynese," she pines for "Somewhere That's Green" with a lusty chest-voice peppered with an endearing nasal twang.

Harried and conniving, shop owner Jerry Polito (Mushnik) eventually ends-up as high protein plant food after a silly-samba, "Mushnik & Son."

Multiple-threat Rich Roy-Neumar (Orin, others) plays many cliché cameo roles as well as a motorcycle-riding, sadistic dentist — a/k/a "The Leader Of The Plaque." Unconvincing as a leather-jacketed, sideburned, cycle-bum, he redeemingly giggles through "Now (It's Just the Gas)" as he succumbs to his own laughing-gas. He too, becomes plant fodder.

Playing musical peek-a-boo throughout the show, the trio of Chiffon, Crystal, and Ronnette (Lorna Simpson, Maria LaFerrera, Leslie Denise Alston), support many of the tunes with tasty doo-wop harmonies.

Animated and hungry, Barry Weil (manipulator) and John Yelaney (voice) inject the deadly plant with a ominous yet friendly personality, dominating the stage. The funky R&B "Feed Me (Git It)" merits special attention. The final incarnation of designers Wendy Myhre-Levy and Peter Levy's creature was more striking than the Off-B'way production of Little Shop. After most of the cast is eaten, they all end-up somewhere that's green...

Little Shop is presented Friday and Saturday eve thru Sept. 14. Box Office, 7 days: 516-694-3330. Plaza also offers Group Rates, Senior Packages, Audience-participation Mystery Theatre: "School For Murder" on Thurs. eve., and Weekend Childrens' Theatre.

federal government red tape were as close as the Congressman had promised.

The only thing a constituent had to do was fill out a privacy act statement that gives the Congressman and his aides permission to look into the person's files if they needed to and come up with an answer. Residents also had to bring any documents that were relevant to the problem.

McGrath plans on holding more of these personal meetings the next time he comes back from Washington for an extended time.

PAL Fall Sports Registration Underway

PAL fall basketball registration for boys, ages 7-15 and girls, ages 8-15, will start on Monday, September 23 and Wednesday, September 25 at Woodbury Lanes, South Oyster Bay Road and Woodbury Ave. It will also be held on Tuesday, September 24 and Thursday, September 26 at the Hicksville Library, Jerusalem Ave. and Second Street.

Registration times for all days is from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. The basketball programs run from November through March.

Basketball is not the only thing kids can register for on the above days and times. Judo is offered from October through April for boys and girls, age 6-18. Registration is on a first come, first serve basis, until all classes are filled.

Summer baseball and softball registration for the summer of 1992 will be held at the same time and places as the basketball registration. Boys baseball is for boys age 8-15 and girls softball is for girls age 8-15. The season runs from approximately July 4 through Labor Day.

Lacrosse, for boys in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grade, registration will be held at the same time and place as the basketball registration for the upcoming school year. Fall 1991 registration is the only one for lacrosse. There will not be another registration for lacrosse in the spring, 1992. Teams will have limited membership size.

Karate registration will take place at the same time as the basketball registration for the October through April boy's and girl's leagues for age 10-18. Registration is on a first come, first serve basis.

Bowling registration for the September 91 through April 92 season for boys and girls age 6-18 is also beginning. People can register at Woodbury Lanes any day during regular operating hours. Saturday leagues are at 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Weekday leagues are also available and the first half runs from September through January and the second half runs from January till May.

Parents must be present at registration.

Fall Soccer Registration Underway Now

Hicksville American Soccer Club intramural team registration has begun for the fall season.

The fee for the first child to sign up is $75, for the second child $50, for the third child $25 and there is no charge for a fourth child in a family who signs up to play.

Fees are paid at the time of registration. Registration fees include accidental medical insurance.

It is the parents' responsibility to determine the physical readiness of the child and parents must list any unusual medical conditions on the registration form. Further general information can be obtained by calling Terry Bruno at 735-7194 or Dean Camerinos at 931-8610. Sign-up information for children between the ages of seven and 12 can call Gary Bretton at 938-2359.

Sign-up for children between the ages of three and six years can call Rich LaPolla at 931-0739.

The league is also looking for volunteers to help in various jobs within the league.

PAL Girls Softball Junior Division

On Aug. 21, the Royals and Yanks played another exciting game. The Yanks led early in the game, 7-0, however the Royals cut the deficit to 11-8 after four innings. In the fifth inning, the Royals exploded for six runs to take the lead for the first time in the game, 14-11, then holding off a strong Yanks' rally to win 14-13.

The hitting was supplied by Christine Nolan with four hits. Jenine Camilleri, Christine Rutsky, Beth Leary and Jill Hilton had three hits each. Keri Ann Herbert and Danielle Haupt had two hits. Michelle Martorano and Jennette Maranda had three walks each.

Congratulations to the Yanks' coaching staff of Tony Notaristefano and Mary Rutar and all of the players for a fine season.

The PAL Softball League would like to congratulate all of the girls on the Royals' team for their fine season. Everyone tried hard and showed improvements, while making friends, displaying sportsmanship and team spirit and just plain having fun. It was a pleasure to have had all of the girls on the team. Good luck to Jill Hilton, Jenine Camilleri, Kristen Adams and Lorine Knippenberg, who will be moving up to the Senior Division next year. You will all fit in very well.

The coaches would also like to thank all of the parents for their support. They always brought the girls down to the games and practices on time; and they stayed to cheer on the team! Best of all, we also made friends.

Hicksville Gymnast Succeeds

Laurie Pease, a Hicksville resident, was the winner of the bronze medal on vault in gymnastics at the Empire State Games recently held in Albany.

Laurie was one of seven girls from Nassau and Suffolk County chosen to represent the Long Island Scholastic Gymnastics Team in Albany.

The Long Island Team took third place in the overall competition. Her score of 16,900 helped secure that placing. She attends Hicksville High School and was a member of the gymnastics team which was Nassau County champions for two years in a row.

Laurie has been involved with gymnastics for 10 years and trains at Mid-Island Gymnastics. Her family is very proud of what she has accomplished.

ALL SMILES! Laurie Pease was a bronze medal winner at the Empire State Games on July 14.

Kiwanis Club Charity Golf Tournament

The Kiwanis Club of Hicksville and the Ronald McDonald House have teamed up for the Second Annual Golf Outing for charity at the Middle Island Country Club on Sept. 16.

The outing will benefit the Ronald McDonald House, whose function is to aid families of terminally ill children who are being treated at nearby hospitals. It allows the family to be near in a home setting to aid in the recovery of these sick children.

The Kiwanis Foundation of Hicksville helps the many concerns of the Hicksville community. It is a source of comfort to many families in the community who find that providing some of the basic needs almost impossible in these trying economic times.

Further information can be obtained by calling Joseph Lupo at 933-6920. Registration ends soon so please hurry and call to help make a child's life a little better.
