Grimmerstein - Schuenemann Wedding Held Sunday

Miss Betty Grimmerstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Grimmerstein of Bay avenue, Hicksville, became the bride of Otto Schuenemann of Brooklyn on Sunday. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents with Pastor William Rusch of the Trinity Lutheran church officiating. Only the immediate families were present.

The bride was dressed in light blue velvet and wore a hat with a shoulder length veil. She carried pink roses.

Mrs. Raymond Rusch, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of Wally Blue satin with a hat and small veil. She carried American Beauty roses.

Walter Kadala of Brooklyn acted as best man. Music during the ceremony was furnished by Alvin Kaule and Mr. Perry.

After a reception held at Langens Inn in Syosset, Mr. and Mrs. Schuenemann left for a brief honeymoon trip, destination unknown to friends. Upon their return, they expect to take up their residence in Jackson Heights.

Announcement has been made of the coming marriage of Miss Marion Gebhardt to Vincent Braun.

Regular monthly meeting of the Charles Wagner Unit No. 421 was held in the Legion clubhouse on Friday evening, Nov. 9. Mrs. Henry Bergold reported that three new members had been accepted. The membership, namely Miss Mattilda Suter, Mrs. Frank Sheridan and Mrs. D. B. Pariah. Mrs. Thomas Doran gave an interesting, well-received address on the fact of the annual visit to Kings Park State Hospital on Sunday, November 21, requesting the cooperation of all members as there are 1100 patients to be taken care of.

Mrs. Estelle Jeffs, a speaker of the Red Cross addressed the members of the Charles Wagner Unit and the roll call workers of Hicksville after the meeting of the Unit on Friday evening. She stressed the increased demands made this year upon the Red Cross and asked for an increased membership, explaining that the National Red Cross only received 50c of each enrollment, and that the remainder is retained for Nassau Chapter expenses and relief. Mrs. Jeffs also explained the other branches of the Red Cross work, such as Service to Veterans, Public Health Nursing, Home Hygiene and care of the sick, First Aid and Life Saving. She finished her address by urging all present to join the Red Cross when their Roll Call Workers called, and asked for enrollment under the "Partnership under the Emblem of the Red Cross."

Miss Rose Lühring and Mrs. Henry Starke of the Charles Wagner Unit attended the Second District Conference held at Tromper's in Brooklyn on Saturday afternoon. A very inspiring address was made by the Department President, Mrs. Laura Stegman.

Police Drive On Bike Riders

Profound Police Enforce Bicycle Regulations Under New Vehicle Law Section

In an effort to cut the number of bicycle accidents within the township, Captain Gordon Hurley of the second precinct of the county police at Syosset, today announced that his police officers have been ordered to strictly enforce the new section of the traffic and motor vehicle law pertaining to bicycles.

"The statistics clearly show a great loss of lives and countless injuries due to accidents on the highways where auto cycles and bicycles were involved," Captain Hurley declared. He pointed to recent accidents in the Township of Oyster Bay which have been fatal to bicycle riders.

Robert J. North, 9-year-old Hicksville boy, was killed in a fatal accident on Plainview road, Plainville, a few months ago.

According to the state regulations now in effect, all bicycles must be provided with a suitable and adequate horn or bell, a front and rear reflector. Every bicycle which is operated at night must be equipped with a lighted lamp on the front.

Two Cars Collide At Traffic Signal

No one was injured as two cars collided at Newbridge road and Old Country road, Hicksville, Sunday night while the one car waited for the traffic light to change.

Patrolman James Linden assisted at the scene.

Drivers of the cars were Sebastian Fodere, 46, of 118 Hermit street, Brooklyn, and William Stewart, 67, of 56 Campbell avenue, East Williston.

celebrate Book Week by attending the New York Times National Book Fair at Rockefeller Center.

Young visitors who came to the 1936 Fair were delighted with it. The crowds last November were so large that the Times this year has arranged for a special section in the International Building in order to provide for more spacious exhibit rooms and wider traffic aisles.

The Fair will open at noon on November 25th and will be open daily thereafter from ten to ten, closing Sunday, November 27, there will be an admission fee of 35 cents for adults, 25 cents for children under 12.

Subscriptions for the following magazines have been renewed for the coming year: American, American Girl, American Home, Asta, Better Homes and Gardens, Boy's Life, Child Life, Collins, Cosmopolitan, Fiction, Parade, Good Housekeeping, Hygeia, Ladies Home Journal, National Parent Teacher, National Geographic, Popular Mechanics, Readers Digest, Saint Nicholas, Scientific American, Schiblers.

In addition to those listed above, the following will make their first appearance in the library this month: Life, Journal of Living, National Humane Review, Stage, stamps, Time.

Current magazines are not circulated but issues of previous months may be borrowed for seven days.

With the coming of the winter months the circulation has greatly increased. The largest daily circulation for the month of October was 164. With the addition of many new books to the shelves, it is hoped that the 200 mark will be reached this month.

HOW DOES HE DO IT?

A LONG ISLAND INSTITUTION THAT'S ACCLAIMED THROUGHOUT AMERICA!

When KING KULLEN brought the Super-Market idea to Long Island, he did more than change the buying habits of a community — he changed the SAVING habits of Millions! He taught America that Food should and CAN be sold to the people on a smaller margin of profit than any other commodity. He developed a self-service system that is acknowledged the most convenient and the most economical ever devised. He proved that people would rather save money than enjoy the expensive luxuries of salesmen, deliveries and charge accounts. He proved that Advertised products of known quality ONLY can be depended on to build confidence and good will. And finally, he proved that right here in Long Island there lives and prospers the smartest and thriftiest bunch of people on the face of the earth!
