Mr. Schepert admitted that his program for the year does not include any permanent improvements for Hicksville. "However, I plan to continue the regrading of streets in Hicksville and vicinity. This will be done to improve drainage. We are now working over in the vicinity of Division avenue and Second and Third streets. We lauded the work of the Kiwanis club, including its program of providing volunteer life guards at local beaches during the summer months. "Synchronized Progress" was the topic of a second guest speaker, Dr. D. A. Williams of Ohio, the guest of George Loucks. He declared that better understanding, such as is provided by adult education and classes, is necessary to save the present civilization of the world. In keeping with the season he stressed the importance of thought along the lines of eliminating the things in civilization that are unwanted, rather than just the expression on Christmas of the things desired. Dr. Williams has addressed services and luncheon clubs from coast to coast. It was revealed by Mr. Loucks. Dr. Walter F. Stillger, vice president of the club, reported on a Kiwanis education session held Saturday at the Hempstead Golf clubhouse. He attended the meeting in the company of Leon J. Galloway, club secretary, to represent the Hicksville unit.

Select Meeting Place
The club voted to adopt the Hickville Inn at Broadway and John street as the permanent meeting place of the group. The members also voted to continue the Tuesday night bowling program. John Starry won the weekly attendance prize. Singers at the session included Henry W. Howes, William DeFania, Morris Hochman, and Jay Schwartz. Guests at the meeting included Henry Schepert of Hicksville, Dr. Williams of Ohio, Joseph W. Knipping of Riverhead and Daniel K. Miller. A. David Mueller, member of the Morrisstown, N. J. Kiwanis club, also attended. Club members present included: Dr. Stillger, Fred J. Noeth, Arthur Gerdes, Harold J. Holder, Henry F. Stoltz, George Loucks, J. J. Smith, Leon J. Galloway, Leland A. Rider, Henry C. Bregel, Dr. Arthur O. Swick, D. B. Faria, Mae Spiro, Henry W. Howes, William DeFania, Anthony Mussie, Morris Hochman and Jay Schwartz.

Aside from 13,000 ponds, not counting "the pond" between America and Europe that you must cross to get there, Switzerland has 1,484 lakes, and yet it is only about half the size of the state of South Carolina, and is usually thought to be full of mountains.

The Long Island Lighting Company declared quarterly dividend of $7.5 cents a share on its 7 per cent cumulative preferred, and 75 cents on its 6 per cent cumulative preferred stock. Went out a-hunting in Jack Park for new charities last night. Not much luck, but smile, we picked the wrong spot - Syosset is a bit droopy after 9:30 and twice we'd offer 11:00 when we dance rounds. It has the best pick up about 6:30 in the vicinity of the depot. Jack would have work about. Wonder if this pasture cuts in on his boating?

The other eve an alcoholic blotter startled himself most sober upon his discovery that it wasn't raining out side. Yet he was getting drenched at an excited flow of chatter followed to which the bartender grumbled. "Well wadda you want, an umbrella?" which would stop most any one but a gay young blade on the sidelines decided that all was not well above and dashed up to the apartments above; all steamed, excitement and a few Scotch and sodas our hero dashed into the place without the customary knock knock, nudged out the door that led to the bath room and barged in as if he had a right to. All of which means little to you out then you weren't the guy in the bath but the water run out the tub was so. So saying, he reached over pulled out the stopper, pocketed same and returned the plate at the bar. Well that ended the bath and also this year, I would be fun giving you the names of the above parties but on the other hand life is

REV. MINER HARWOOD

The letter:
The boy and girl of Junior high school age has many duties during the day. These duties involve work at home, selling papers, "jobs," church work of various kinds, school work, music lessons, and a number of other responsibilities.

HAROLD P. HERMAN
Chairman of the State Legislative Commission for the study of the negro situation who may be called upon to investigate and bring about an improvement in Oyster Bay.

I, personally, realize the importance of religious instruction and church responsibilities for the young people. However, would it not be possible for us to arrange hours that would work more conveniently for the children?

Recently, I was informed that it was the general consensus of opinion that the afternoon session of the Junior high school closes at 3:10. Such technically is not true. The afternoon session closes at 4 o'clock. However, those pupils who have their work completed and need no help, or have no other responsibilities, such as chorus, band, orchestra, committee meetings, special work to do, and so forth, may leave at 3:10.

Would it be possible for Church responsibilities to begin at four o'clock? If this could be arranged I shall try to see that the children are excused to reach their proper places at four o'clock. I am certain that this will facilitate your work with the children and make for a more composed child when he reaches you.

This letter is being sent to each of the clergy in Hicksville. I trust that its motive will be understood. It is written entirely with a spirit of co-operation and the welfare of our boys and girls at heart.

Your personal comments will be greatly appreciated.

Very sincerely yours,
GEORGE E. GRAEF, Principal.

"War" on War

Readers Urged To Sign Petition For Congress

In today's issue of the Centre Island News and South Shore News is published a "ballot" which the readers of this newspaper are asked to sign as a personal appeal addressed to Congress—a plea to keep America out of war. With the publication of this ballot, the Centre Island News and South Shore News are cooperating with the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States in a national campaign to obtain the signatures of 25 million voters to be presented to Congress as tangible evidence of an overwhelming public demand for peace.

I hereby call upon Congress and the President of the United States, to adopt and apply policies designed to keep America out of war and supported by a national defense program adequate to preserve and protect our country and its people."

Created in 3,600 Areas
The Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States has requested 11,000 newspapers and magazines throughout the country to publish this ballot as a means of reaching individual citizens who may be denied the opportunity of signing petitions being circulated by local units of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. in 3,600 communities.

Confident that members of Congress will be guided by the sentiments of the people on the subject of war, Commanding Chief Scott P. Squires, of Oklahoma, is directing the effort in a campaign to secure the signatures of at least a majority of the legal voters in each Congressional District. These names, obtained through newspaper ballots and by petitions, will be classified by states at national headquarters of the V. F. W. in press Congress with actual proof of an organized demand that America must keep out of war.

Keep America Out of War by Ballots...NOT Bullets

This ballot is offered to the readers of the Centre Island News and South Shore News in support of a nationwide "Peace-for-America" campaign being conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The purpose of this campaign is to provide Congress with tangible proof, in the form of 25 million signatures of citizen voters, that the people of this nation want America to keep out of war.

headquarters of the V. F. W. in Kansas City, Missouri. At the close of the campaign, early in 1938, the petitions and ballots will be shipped to Washington, D. C., and presented to members of Congress in a peace demonstration on the steps of the Capitol. The "Peace-for-America" program being promoted by the V. F. W. primarily seeks to impress Congress with actual proof of an organized demand that America must keep out of war. Simultaneously, the overseas veterans who compose the membership of the V. F. W., favor a strong national defense, one that will enable the United States to protect its peaceful relations with all other powers.

UNDERSTAND THE NEWS
The Metropolitan Book Co. Operated by First National Bank, 1937, 396 pages, $1.50

As implied by its title, the book is published with the cooperation of the Metropolitan Association of New York. Edward Johnson, who is the general manager of the Metropolitan, has launched it with a broad and forward on the value of the book and the importance of the listening to music.

The book presents a series of 191 of the more famous and brief biographies of composers. It includes information about operas in the Metropolitan and other operas, such as one heard elsewhere in its own book. It is thus a valuable and rather complete book of information about the more important operas of (a) the essential facts concerning their composition; (b) the stories which form the dramatic foundation, and of interesting facts about the production, their interest in America, and their most widely interpreted on the Metropolitan stage. Additional illustrations are given of the operas which are usually made but the others are treated briefly. An interesting history of the Metropolitan Opera precedes the discussion of operas.

Mr. Pitts Sashore who is ship is not only a distinguished musician, but also a distinguished music critic. He has had time to write acceptable and interesting news items. Mr. Hill is the musical list to whom we are indebted for the principal part of the historical sketches.

An excellent source of essential facts about the important operas, their composers, and their production at the Metropolitan is interesting and valuable. For anything like a thorough discussion of the music of the one must go to the Metropolitan library, not to this subject.

Wagner's Opera, by John Gilman, New York: Rinehart, Incorporated, 268 pages, $2.50

Lovers of Wagner's opera who are interested in the life of the opera, but in the opera as great works of music will find this excellent book. It is a critical of the New York Tribune. Mr. Gilman's purpose by saying "Wagner's Opera" was to give a history of the opera, and chiefly as an aid to his matured plans.

The most appropriate name for this book is "Wagner's Opera." It is a history of the opera, and chiefly as an aid to his matured plans.

Trailer Travelers and Highway Designs

Prepared for the News by Harold C. Ostering, Chairman of Joint Legislative Committee on Interstate Commerce.

THE TOURIST season began earlier than usual this year and opened with more registered vehicles on the highways than ever before. There is reason to believe that the greatest season in the history of American automobile transportation has just closed. Perhaps the highest single contribution making possible this wave of travel has been the improved state of business which has lifted employment and payrolls to the highest level of the recovery period.

Also, a vast number of workers throughout the nation have received vacations with pay this year, for the first time in a number of years. Not so long ago the worker had only one free day a week, and the short trip possible on Sundays did not make long tours feasible. Shorter working days are resulting in less fatigue and are leaving more free time for a drive in the car. New bridge and highway construction in the recent past has increased accessibility to many points of interest for tourists and the activities of travel bureaus and other agencies have stimulated travel in all parts of the country. Other influences are the construction of super-highways and the improvement of roads.

The growing use of the trailer is also likely to be an increasingly important factor increasing both the number of travelers and the length of the trips. It is estimated that the number of trailers are of the housekeeping type. This new means of travel opens up wide vacation travel to a whole new section of the population not able to meet even ordinary hotel expenses. Aids to this movement are the number of well equipped tourist camps which are appearing in all parts of the country.

New History Is Finished

To the Editor:
I AM ENCLOSING a brief article based on local history which I hope you may consider of enough interest to warrant publication. I have received a great deal of encouragement from local readers toward the publication of my new history. As it is quite an ambitious project for one of strictly local interest, I am naturally eager that people should be informed that it is at last in print.

traffic has caused the Division of State Planning to urge increased study of highway design and the planning of new highway facilities by both state and county authorities. New legislation passed at the last session of the Legislature will permit the construction of limited-access highways, being away with many hazards at highway crossings and abutting properties, as well as providing control over service stations, roadside stands and advertisements along the right-of-way.

Renewed attention should be given to the needs of trailer travelers by way of adequate campsites and sanitary accommodations for them.

LOW DOWN From Hickory Grove

ABOUT EVERY other day, when you pick up a paper, you will see where they are shootin' another dozen, or one-half dozen, over there in Russia. And pretty soon they are gonna have to do quite a little lookin' around, to find people to shoot. Like in the early days in the U. S., they had plenty of buffalo and they thought they would never run out of 'em, and they shot 'em just for a buffalo robe.

And some-day it will maybe be the same in Russia. And it is in the U. S. A., on soap boxes and other places, here and there - and you will find 'em favorin' making over our own Gov., and try out some foreign idea, or some new law or sum that has not been used, but sounds great.

But the ducks takin' up these big ideas, they would not be so hot for 'em, except they figure they maybe can be the top-servant, with a nice new job, and a new fur lined overcoat—and not the guy standin' up against the wall.
Yours, with the low down,
JO SERRA

Eddie Cantor On Playhouse Screen In Laugh Film

Eddie Cantor, comes to the Playhouse in the greatest role for a two-day run starting today. "All Baba Goes To Town," is one of the funniest musicals ever brought to a screen. Eddie takes over the Sultan's kingdom and completely changes big bad Bagdad into Hi-De-Hilarious Gadgad with his streamlined magic carpet. He issues license plates, formulates a harem reduction program, and carpet cakes placed under all sidewalk strikers. On the same program is, Dolores Del Rio in "Lancer Spy," with Peter Lorre. Lancer Spy is beyond a doubt the strangest and most exciting story of the great war era.

Twenty-four hours of throbbing life in a city strait, paved with riches and poverty, comedy and tragedy, romance and heart ache, "Dead End," the greatest take of human interest ever to reach the screen. "Dead End" opens Sunday at the Playhouse. Wednesday features Sylvia Sydney, Joel McCrea and the original Norman Bel Geddes boys. Miss Sidney has her greatest role as Drina, who valiantly fights a losing battle to keep her little brother Tommy from the gangster's fate ahead of him, and to raise them both out of the slums. McCrea is seen as Dave, the poor architect she loved who dreamed of tearing down all of the tenements in New York.

On Wednesday, the beautiful Kay, played by Wraymory, who had found a way out of slums and into penthouse luxury. Humphrey Bogart plays Baby Face Martin, drawn from his gangland haunts to the place he was spawped by an irresistible yearning to see his mother and his beloved sweetheart, Frances. He faced the steel of the G-man's bullets all to find that his mother hated the very sight of him and that Frances had taken his life in the easiest way. Clair Trevor plays Frances and Allan Jenkins plays "Hunk" Baby Face's benchman. On Wednesday, December 15, "One Mile From Heaven" plays for a single day. Featured in this great drama are Claire Trevor and Sally Egan, taking the roles in the strangest story ever told. This is the story of two mothers fighting for the custody of a child. The child, Joan Carroll, supposed to have died in a car accident, was abandoned by her mother as dead and nursed back to health by the other woman, Sally Blane. Claire Trevor plays the part of a reporter assigned to the most important news story of the year and brings the climax to the story by refusing to print a story so important.

"Bride Wore Red" At Loew's Theatre For Full Week

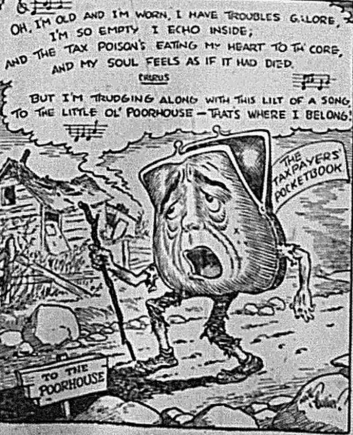

Join Crawford's latest starring vehicle, "The Bride Wore Red," comes to the Loew's Valencia Theatre, started yesterday for a week's engagement. Franchot Tone and Robert Young are her leading men in the new picture.

New York's famous night club sector that has become known as the Montmartre of America, provides the inspiration for the intimate film musical "22nd Street" which is the associate feature.

The interesting angle to this new Walter Wagner production is that it reproduces the Manhattan night club strip between Fifth and Sixth Avenues on 22nd Street with the top personalities from the niteries themselves to inject the gay spirit and mood atmosphere of this night life belt into the picture.

The night club entertainers who appear for the first time on the screen in "22nd Street" are Jack White, Rocco & Sautter, George Tappa, Cook and Brown, Jerry Colonna, Al Norman and the 32nd Street Girls.

THE POCKETBOOK'S LAMENT

the plight of street women victimized by the police and exploited by vice lords. The sheer brutality of his writing evoked furious controversies, press, and puppet pamphlets him, various powerful agencies attempted to suppress his work. But Zola was unquenchable, a foe to whatever he conceived to be injustice and sham.

'Life of Emile Zola' Starts on Sunday At the Huntington

"The Life of Emile Zola" will be shown at the Huntington Theatre for four days starting on Sunday, December 12, and continuing through Wednesday.

Emile Zola's genius was more than illumination for the Intelligent life of his time. His bitterly realistic novels not only slashed through the hypocrisies of current French literature and founded a new school of realistic fiction, but worked profound changes in the Republic as well.

His written attacks brought reprisals to down-trodden miners, help of stamp out low bistros where the quality of liquor sold was little better than poison; revealed

'Barchester Towers' Good Comedy

When Guthrie McClintic sets his hand to producing a play for sophisticated playgoers to chatter about, you may be sure that he is not one to let things stand in his way. The most recent proof of this may be found at the Martin Beck Theatre where "Barchester Towers" stands high in the esteem of the current playgoing crowd.

Not only has the producer chosen the clever adaptation of Anthony Trollope's distinguished novel but he has placed Miss Ina Claire in the leading role and surrounded her with sets designed by that scenic master Jo Meitzner. Miss Claire, as any one with half an eye on the drama can tell you, is a comedienne extraordinary, and can do tricks with the merest comedy. Playing the lead in such a snappy piece of playwrighting as "Barchester Towers" the star gives added stature and significance to the work. She throws a moonray wrench into the quiet, little town of the nineteenth century described in the play and proceeds to spray gayety and vivacity across the footlights, enlivening her audience with an undeniable feeling that they are watching a star actress at her best.
