

Will Resume Diagonal Parking Plan On Both Sides of Broadway

Things, Thoughts and Theories

By Martin W. Littleton
Former District Attorney of Nassau County

THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE BREED of horses (horse racing to you!) has been vigorously renewed this season in the metropolitan area. Thousands of the flock to Jamaica, Belmont Park, Empire and Aqueduct to watch the improving process in operation. Over 90 per cent of them have never been nearer to a horse than a horse's neck... (the kind in a glass, with a long, long lemon peel).

If they are of the same avowed state of mind as the chairman of the New York State Racing Commission, their rest in "improving the breed" of horses is a patriotic dedication to the defense of the nation. ("Patriotic" is spelled p-a-y-ot-ri-ot.)

JUST ABOUT A YEAR AGO THIS TIME, Herbert Wagner, Chairman of the New York State Racing Commission, urged upon Governor Herbert Lehman that horse racing was "the sport of kings" and was necessary "to give the breed of horses" for use in time of war!

Maybe my idea of modern war is all wrong, but I don't see any room in it for a horse, not even a well-bred horse! With 80-mile-an-hour armor tanks shelling and bursting from smoldering nostrils; with 300-mile-an-hour bombers laying out Easter eggs full of dynamite, T. N. T. and nitro-glycerine, and all the other mechanical units of destruction and disaster, I don't seem able to picture a horse in the general mess of things.

EVEN IF WE DO HAVE TO USE horses in war, why have they to be so well-bred? I don't remember asking me what my ancestry was when I enlisted twenty years ago. All they were interested in was that I had flat feet, and would my heart stand that.

None of the other fellows who stood in line with me were asked about their pedigrees either. We had not been bred or trained for war, but they took us just the same. But maybe it's different with a horse!

I admit that it would be a very smart sight to see War, War, War Biscuit, Battleship, Shark, Rollin Home and aside all hooked up to the same gun, limber dashing through shot and shell and machine gun fire of the enemy. It would not last long, but it would be a titillating sight.

None of the horses were so well-bred that if they could they would not speak to their owners.

I saw many people there who had pedigrees—but they were on file with the Police Department. There were, who I felt sure, if they looked back into their family trees would have found their ancestors hanging to limbs by their tails, throwing coconuts at each other.

IN VERY LOW TONES, LEST IT DISTURB the purpose and principles of the enterprise, let me say that I saw a lot of "well-bred" horses with money bags and their necks, who were lacking their judgment of breed. It is a subject we don't like to mention in connection with the noble "sport of kings" because of its grading influence and also because our Constitution prohibits it. But it is permitted to flourish because it seems to be the best means of inducing various opinions as to which of several horses is the best, and all of this is very important in "improving the breed of horses."

It is all about fifty million dollars worth of different views expressed at these proving grounds. (And that is what they say makes horse racing!)

THIS IS ALL SOUR GRAPES, SAYS YOU. "No, it isn't," says I. I just happen to hate hypocrisy and discrimination. I personally don't care about races of any kind and never let on that, they all leave me cold.

But if all this gambling business were put under supervision and control, we would all be better off. One thing, the State would derive a very substantial income through taxation, which it needs, and which it now lacks.

I suppose, though, we must continue to be hypocrites; so the church carnivals, fraternal fairs and penny games will continue to be ridiculed and prosecuted. The right next door "the boys" carry on the p-a-y-ot-ri-ot important industry of "improving the breed of horses."

Change Plans On Parking Officials Make Broadway Study

Special to the News
Repainting of parking spaces for cars on Broadway is ready to start today following a survey of the business district by town, police and WPA officials this week. The most important change to be made is the resumption of diagonal parking on both sides of the street from the railroad tracks, south to Old Country road.

A study of the parking situation was made on the street by Councilman John R. Brandt, Supervisor Harry Tappen, Patrolman Charles Jago of the second precinct police and Oscar Larkin of the WPA.

Farmers Study Potatoes Here

Nassau county potato growers had today concluded their tour of four farm plots set aside for potato demonstrations under arrangement of the Nassau County Farm Bureau.

More than a score of potato farmers were shown two Hicksville plots Tuesday night under the direction of County Agricultural Agent H. H. Campbell. On the farm of Fred McGinnis just off of South Oyster Bay road, 19 seed sources were shown, including 15 cobbler and three Chippewa.

Big Golf Event Nears

The date of the big event will soon be divulged as well as the scene and the sand and divots will be flying in the big golf battle between the Robert L. Bacon Republican club of Hicksville and the Oyster Bay Republican club. From the great secrecy maintained by both clubs, critics draw the conclusion that they are both afraid of each other.

When Ernest Franke, president of the local club, read in the Centre Island News that Oyster Bay intends to put in some of their women members, his confidence rose several points.

"So the Oyster Bay club has gone feminine," said Mr. Franke. "Shades of former President Roosevelt, (the founder of the club!) Did you ever hear of him sending women out when he had a man job to do?"

One prominent local club member was even more sarcastic. "Evidently they concede the match to us already," he said. "They have their skirts all prepared in advance. After they take their kicking they will be able to blame it on the women."

The New County Re-Assessment

Q: Will the uniform increase of 15 per cent assessed valuation cause an increase in my taxes?

A: Absolutely not!

Q: Why?

A: Because when your assessed valuation goes up, your tax rate must come down.

A: By comparing the sales with the assessments and determining for each of the townships a percentage of assessed value.

A: Equalizations establish equalized valuations?

B: Yes, bringing both up to level of Hempstead—75 per cent—and resulting in a complete drop in tax rates for both Hempstead and Oyster Bay.

Q: But why this 15 per cent now?

A: This same result was always accomplished in the past, 1957 the Town of North Hempstead was 78 per cent, North Hempstead 65 per cent and Oyster Bay 67 per cent. Then instead of level of the Hempstead rate.

Q: What am I to gain by "new" assessment plan?

A: Freedom from payment

Q: Why did the Board of Equalization do it?

A. The tax rolls of the three towns were made by three different Board of Assessors; the State demanded elimination of all per hundred; in North Hempstead $1.26 per hundred and in Oyster Bay $1.27 per hundred.

Well, a medical child had his carapped over a stool in one of many more popular eateries a chap named Bob Ripley of the ether with his harvest of wizzards line of chat—indeed, that feller Ripley, the floor and what's sold it for the full program of wizzards right in the street. He finished the town's child had nary a word to alone topping any of the that had just been heard and is the truth. "Believe it," personally I still can't it and I was there.

Failure as Cause

Wexler Death—Failure was today believed cause of death of Frank Wexler, 74, of Kay street, Hicksville, who was found dead on the steps of his home Monday night passing neighbor.

Wexler, police report, lived in the same street passed on the way to the village at 6:15 p. m. she told detective and saw Mr. Wexler seated at front stoop reading a newspaper.

Minutes later she returned and saw her neighbor lying on the ground near the chair. Dr. Wexler was called and pronounced the man dead. Dr. Lewis, assistant medical examiner, gave permission to remove body to William Buss and Funeral home, Glendale.

At the scene witness James Farrell of the precinct squad; Detective Jones of homicide squad; Patrolman William Back.

Weekly Lunch—A hundred percent attendance members of the Hicksville club was reported at the anniversary meeting and night program of the group was announced Wednesday at the club's session in the little inn. This was the first time all members attended.

Walter F. Stiller, president, presided over the meeting. Continued the series of biographical sketches to allow members to become acquainted. Past president Leland A. Rider and Smith spoke.

John was present as the guest of Percy Maud and Henry Maud was the guest of Percy Maud.

Services Held

Halubowicz—Funeral Mass was said at St. Ann's Roman Catholic church, Hicksville, yesterday for Stephen Halubowicz, a resident of Hicksville 12 years who came to this country from Russia 21 years ago. He died at the Nassau County Hospital in Farmingdale. He was survived by his wife, Catherine, three children. Burial was in Trinity cemetery, Amityville. The direction of Henry J. and sons.

were behind the wheel and just how much fun it would have been if it was Hauke and Bill Tucker in that last heat. Well, sir, it all looks very promising. From what we gather it will not be long before Hauke will be driving his own car in the savior and will take his share of prizes and ribbon with Getty and Tucker.

MY MY SUCH HARD PAYMENTS!

Here's one for the book girls and boys—The other eye at one of the local taverns the trend of conversation was directed to the activities (?) of the WPA. One of the boys proposed a handful of men—a hundred or more—be sent to all the back roads—(lovers' lanes) and clear off patches of the underbrush so no one could pull a car off the road in concealment without gouging all the paint off and run the chances of tearing the wheels off trying to get back on the road. This may strike the old folks as all too ridiculous but after careful study and thought I rather think the had had something there—and I wasn't thinking of insanity either.

STARTING OFF WITH A BANG

According to the Chin to Chin Publication of Betpage (just another way of camouflage gossip) Joe Donnell is fixin to take himself a partner to go double happiness down life's highway. This is all too romantic an thing, but the novel part of it is the date is to be set for July 4th. Wow! Think of all the peace and quiet he'll have to put up with on wedding anniversaries.

AND THE LADY SAID NO

Wonder who the slickers were who were trying their level best to "pick up" in pair of blondes at the Syosset RR station Sunday. Although they didn't succeed in selling the idea they really do earn the bowl of clams knuckles that has been so generously doled out by Pappy Shilling as the prize of the week for their perseverance and general saavness in their line of hokey. Nothing has been over-looked in the making of this award to be the key note in Long Island's upper circle of society; in fact, we have arranged with Mayor Ellison to deliver a special dedication speech for the occasion. These luck, lucky lads will merely identify themselves by photo and stop around at the plant any time that is convenient and final arrangements for the gala event will be made.

And that, my little chideeas, winds up our little spiel so until we are again honored with your indulgence we'll borrow Woodie's phrase that he borrowed from some one else and say—

HOSE GALLANT PIRATES—

The Field Club owes a round of thanks to the Huntington Pirates for their fine job in handling Dan Lynch's Braves in their second league defeat on last Sunday afternoon.

Summer's Field, Syosset.

The Pirates win did not change the standing in the top as Hicksville remained in third place, but now only came out of first place. The win by the Braves over Syosset was their second over the pace-setters and marked them as a tough club to beat.

Svedo's Carlson, handcuffed the Maroons until the fifth when a three run rally made the game close. Carlson, a smart pitcher and he may get the nod from Manager Jimmy Russo to whom Hicksville battles the Pirates on Sunday afternoon at Hecksher's Park.

Hicksville has downed the Huntington nine twice this year and both times in convincing fashion but Paul Valenti, preparing for plenty of trouble from the rejuvenated Maroons. Since the 6-1 defeat at the hands of Hicksville on May 22, the Pirates have won five straight and are intent on keeping their winning streak intact. John Hogan, who scored both victories over the Suffolk nine, will be the slab for the mid-islanders with Herb Small, the batting demon, behind the plate.

The Black and White sluggers opened up in the last two games, blasting out twenty hits, eleven of which were for extra bases, and if they continue hitting the ball with the same ferociousness, the Pirates won't stop them or even come close. Frank Pubins and Herb Small are doing the majority of fence-busting in the last two games, getting eleven safeties between them which have been good for a total of 19 bases.

Pubins had been in a bad slump, hitting a meager .300 when suddenly without warning, he began pasting the ball over the lot. It's a good sign. Incidentally, Frank rapidly became the finest shortstop in the county by an excellent defensive play. Before he erred in the ninth inning of the Farmingdale game, he had handled twenty-five straight chances sans an error.

While I have been shoveling it about the Hicksville-braves clash, I wonder how many of you realize just how close this NSL race has become. Four teams are bunched close together that only a game and a half separates the Braves, fourth place club, from the league-leading Syosset nine.

The Braves may find the Dalers too tough on Sunday in their last two games, but the Farmingdale nine gave signs of cracking which doesn't speak too well for an upset triumph on Sunday afternoon over the Indians.

Bethpage's improved club may supply plenty of fireworks at Bethpage on Sunday when they cross bats with the Syosset outfit. Manager Klem Joie inserted a lineup of late high school stars last Sunday and the result was highly satisfactory. The Braves were forced to come from behind to down the Pagettes in a 7-1 struggle. Young John Grose, brother of Bonny, a Farmingdale twirler, pitched good game and led 4-2 in the sixth when the Huntington finally solved his right handed slants.

IVE SOFTBALL TEAMS—

When someone mentions the Hicksville Recreation softball League, you must be mighty careful to whom you say things because the boys might not like your verbal remarks and start a fight or something.

My column of two weeks back didn't please the Scouts much, and I didn't intend that it should but for some reason, they said nothing to me although my undercovering insisted that the firework would start popping soon. That I wrote was true but that isn't what I intended to write about here, so let's get off the present trek and say that I mean.

The other day, I was watching two of the league teams in action and someone in the gallery mentioned that the league was a good five-team softball league. For the moment, I decided to get the drift until some scorekeeper, when asked the score of the game going on before our eyes, answered, "Eighty, 20, Veterans 0."

Yes, it is a good league, of five teams with the Veterans excluded from the quintet of teams. They do make the roster as team No. 6, but that only means three players on the team clubs in the league. (Each team has the Vets three times in a season.)

It is getting more and more depressing to watch the league in action these days. They don't play ball at all, they don't run, they don't field and they don't hit and they don't give a dam. There are some players on the team who can play ball and at times they do, but for a few innings of play in which their fellowmen contribute innumerable boners, they begin a slipshod performance.

The chief reason for the dismal performance of the league is because they refuse to pick up men who might strengthen their team and give the other clubs a good fight. There are plenty of fellows, playing on no league team, who would be willing to play, even on the Vets; but they are not given no opportunity to exhibit their prowess.

THE A-ENTS—Herb Small closed in on Henry Clifton in the hitting championship in the last two weeks. Herb is now hitting .438 in seven games. Fray while Clifton is hitting an even .500. John Hogan tops the Hicksville hitters in driving in runs thus far. Johnny has driven in . . . Phil Schaaf of Bethpage is one of the finest high school prospects of the year. . . Schaaf can hit with the best of them and is a fair stickler. . . Dick Schaefer, who has any connections with the Waterbury club, but doesn't care if his name is mentioned concerning the club. . . That's if they win the title only.

Mr. Schallenberg, formerly of the Nassau Collegiate, was made an honorary member of the Nassau County Library Association at a meeting of the trustees held at the Nassau Collegiate, Garden City, on Wednesday, August 14, at 8 p. m. Mrs. Anna Volpert, Mrs. Louise W. Augstin, Trustees, and Mrs. Marion E. Schneider, Librarian, Hicksville Free Public Library, attended the meeting.

Field Club Trounces Dalers; Syosset Stoppea

14 Hit Attack

Pubins, Small Pace Assault; Hogan Wins 6th Game of Year

The Hicksville Field club moved to a contending position in the Nassau-Suffolk League as they shellacked the Farmingdale Aces 12-6 on Sunday at Hicksville while the league-leading Syosset nine dropped to a 4-3 contest to the Huntington Pirates at Syosset.

The slugging mid-islanders pounded three Daler hurlers for 14 hits, six of which went for extra bases while John Hogan set the victors down easily until the final frame when a five run outburst sent him out of the box in favor of Jack Schwartzentruber who equaled the victors' tally.

The victory was Hogan's sixth of the year.

Pubins, Small Star

Frank Pubins, the big blonde player, led the batting assault with a trio of blows, two doubles and a triple. Frank drove in five runs and scored two more himself. Herb Small jumped over the 400 mark with three hits in four trips to the plate. Everyone else got at least a hit save Lou Milleville.

The Hicksville defense committed five errors but three double plays erased these potential scorers adequately.

Hicksville routed Cereoli in the fifth with a three run spurge and then chased his successor, Paulatiks in the seventh and hammered in three runs off Jerry Spilker in the last round.

Singles by McGunigle, Valenti and Al Pubins and Frank Pubins tripled sent Cereoli off the mound in the fifth frame. Four base on balls, doubles by Hogan and Frank Pubins and an infield hit by Hogan finished Pubins' and his men's night in the eighth concluded the scoring at Spilker's expense.

Patterson and Abramowski led the losers eleven hit attack with five hits between them.

Bill Tucker of Hicksville Out Gunning for Place in Event

Bill Tucker of Hicksville, veteran driver of midsize automobiles at the Freeport Municipal Stadium will be gunning for a place in the main event, Friday night.

Tucker is one of those drivers who can never quite make the top but who is consistently in the money. For the last three years, however, Bill has always been able to qualify for the feature race but never quite able to get up in the money fit that event. It is due, however, because he lacks a car that can stand up to the leaders and not because of any faulty driver.

Last Friday, driving a black 11 cylinder, owned by Joe Thomas of Massena Park, he finished fourth in the fourth qualifying heat and captured fifth place in the second semi-final. Unfortunately he developed motor trouble and was unable to compete in the 2-lap main event.

Joe Thomas, owner of the car, said that Tucker is a very fast driver and that he is sure to be in the money in the main event.

The Svedolow AC moved up into second place in the standings when they headed out Farmingdale 6-4.

Braddock to Attend Opening Game of Nighthawks

Jim Braddock, former world heavyweight boxing champion, heads a star-studded list of celebrities who will attend the opening game of Barton's Nighthawks at New Hyde Park Sunday night.

Auto Racing Alliance which guarantees a purse of half of the gate receipts with a low of $700.00. They are able to carry out this policy because we are dealing directly with a drivers' organization. We don't have to pay tribute to the big boys and high salary officials. news Brunswick.

The Queen City of the Sound, New Rochelle, had its 25th birthday celebrated with some mid-summer racing all in its honor. The Battle boys did the honors.

Remember Wild Bill Holmes who drove at Deer Park in big cars and Freeport Stadium in the mid-1920s? He's still clicking. In fact he's clicking louder. . . He set a record of five straight wins in the Southern circuit early in the year. In Texas and now in the A. A. A. in the East he set an all time record of seven straight major victories. In addition to these wins the Yorkers daredevil has established no less than fourteen new track records at Cattle Hill Stadium in the Bronx and at the New Haven and Cedarhurst speedways. Westchester State School can with pride over the annals of its race.

Ed Haspner, former national outboard racing champion from City Island is the lad who built the car that Holmes has been driving. From the Haspner workshops is coming pretty soon a boat with individual suspension on all four wheels and the grate will be powered with a new engine of their own design which will set them back $10,000. This motor in recent tests showed a power output of 112 horsepower. These lads will occupy the pilots place in the cockpit of this new creation when she's all set to go.

Bill Schindler hopes that the Newfield Park Speedway will break the jinx that has been haunting him, like it broke the jinx for Tommy Arcoles the other day. Schindler is piloting the beautiful chrome and white J. A. F. which has been involved in three races in less than a month's time. He looks to be completely ready. Arcoles' helper, looks like someone was careless with the red ink since that mess of trouble-bait. Moroney's first race at Newfield was a disaster. He had every event on the card and set four new track records.

Schindler has had lots of tough luck with that $2000 Offender. The car caught fire, broke up the motor, another occasion and has figured in quite a few crackups.

To Battle Pirates

Hicksville Field Club to Fight For Runner Up Position Sunday

Second place will be at stake on Sunday afternoon when the Hicksville Field club invades Hecksher's Park, Huntington to battle with the fast traveling Huntington Pirates in a Nassau-Suffolk League clash.

The home team dropped two games to the local nine thus far but one was a league clash. Since their last meeting, the Pirates have won four straight, including a pair of victories over the pace-setting Maroons of Syosset. The Pirates are presently situated in second place, a half game out of first and a half game in front of the Field club.

Either Svedo's Carlson or Ed Sattler, erstwhile Fordham University hurler, will check for Jimmy Fusan's boys while John Hogan will be the rubber for the victors. Hogan bested Sattler 1-0 in the last go-between the two teams.

The shuffling Farmingdale nine will attempt to sever its present losing streak when they entertain the Huntington Braves at the basketball field. The Indians notched a 4-2 victory over the Dalers in their last contest and are slight favorites to repeat.

The Bethpage nine hopes to catch the Syosset nine before they fully recover from their second losing at the hands of the Pirates and hand them their third league defeat at Bethpage. Young John Cereoli will probably do the mound chores for Bethpage while Stan Skowalski will start for the Maroons.

Shamrocks to Play Rambo Greens

The Bethpage Shamrocks will meet the Rambo Greens in a scheduled Eastern League polo game at Bethpage State Park, Sunday afternoon. The Shamrock team is one of the three teams now tied for first place in the League.

John Evans who will play number 2 for Rambo is a former member of the Bethpage club and well known among local fans. The Rambo team will return to the Bethpage field the following Sunday in another Eastern League game against the Bethpage Knaves.

The game will be conducted Monday night at 7 o'clock at the Miller road field. Larry Eisenbauer is captain of the married men team which is going around town boasting of its ability. Joe Jankovsky is captain of the single men.

Safety Object Of New Ordinance Against Fencing

At the request of police of the second precinct, stationed at Syosset, Oyster Bay township has a new ordinance today aimed at protecting persons who might be involved in automobile accidents on streets and highways of the township.

The new ordinance prohibits the erection, maintenance or use of large wire fences along all public streets of the town.

Police told town fathers a check of automobile accidents reported in the precinct revealed several instances wherein passengers in automobiles suffered severe injuries from barbed wire fences along the highways. Cars running off the highway, they said, often caused the occupants to come in contact with the sharp barbs of the fences.

A Piano in the American Tradition—the "Federal"

Like all lines of the Federal Model Musette, the FEDERAL is pleasingly low (only 34" high) and takes up less floor space than a 24" rug. Yet it has a standard-height, full 88-note keyboard, and incorporates the new principle of RESONANT CONSTRUCTION which has made these charming little Musettes famous the country over for rich tonal quality.
