Court Rules Library Purchase Of Land Illegal

By Edward J. Van Allen

Mineola Supreme Court Justice Joseph A. Suozzi has upheld ten Hicksville taxpayers who attacked the legality last year of the purchase of a house and lot by the Hicksville Library Board without getting voter approval of the purchase.

The house and lot adjacent to the library on Jerusalem Ave. was bought for $24,000 from John E. and Anna B. Christ, also named defendants in the action, along with the Hicksville School Board.

While the judge held that the Library Board could buy a piece of property with "moneys other than those received by taxes," he said it could not pledge the credit of the district without voter approval. "To the extent that the property was purchased by moneys raised by taxes," Judge Suozzi said, "the purchase was unauthorized."

Noting that $6,000 of the $7,000 down payment on the $24,000 purchase came from fines and fees and the balance from budgetary funds, the justice ruled: "The bond which was executed with the purchase money mortgage was unauthorized and invalid."

Judge Suozzi added that ordinarily the plaintiffs would be entitled to summary judgment ordering the Library Board to return the property to the former owners. But he deferred granting summary judgments if the defendants Library Board and Christ meet the following conditions: "(1) Defendants Christ return so much of the down payment as came from tax moneys, to wit, $1,000, and that portion of the fines and fees, if any, which were offset in the budget in computing and tax levy for that year.

(2) defendants Christ accept a mortgage, not containing a covenant to pay, without a bond, for the full purchase price less that portion of the down payment which need not be refunded in accordance with this decision; and (3) defendants Christ and the Library fix the periodic mortgage payments at a level that will permit the rental income from the property to satisfy the mortgage obligation."

If the defendants don't comply with the court order within 30 days, Judge Suozzi said he will order the return of the property to the Christs. On the other hand, if there is compliance, the justice said he will then dismiss the complaint.

The questionable legality of the Library Board's purchase of the house and lot was bared last year by this reporter in the MID-ISLAND TIMES before a $300,000 library addition referendum which in effect called for a ratification of the "invalid" $24,000 house and lot purchase was put to the voters last December 12. The electorate rejected the entire proposition at that time. The School Board okayed the holding of the December 12 vote.

Kendrick C. Smith appeared for the defendant Library Board in lieu of the Board's regular attorney, Phillip F. Robinson. Joseph Catalano represented the School Board, while Harry M. Goebel represented the plaintiff homeowners, who are: George M. and Arlene R. Martin, Harry M. and Rosemary G. Wagner, Howard F. and Philomena Van Allen, Edward J. and Theresa A. Schellens, and Bernard A. and Dorothy A. Weber.

Letters

To the Editor:

Can you print this letter and help us build an organization that can give these thousands of children "A Home Away From Home"? If any added information is needed please feel free to call.

Five years ago a group of Long Island mothers and friends of retarded children banded together to help a state institution called Willbrook on Staten Island. 'How can we help the state provide a home away from home for these children', they asked. A New York group similarly dedicated had been trying to do this for ten years, and so we became an auxiliary. There is no area of benefit to our children which is overlooked from sunshine to research. For the forlorn and desperate parent we provide an every day contact with the school.

Today we ask for more as we always shall for our children. All parents that have felt this heart break and friends who have been close to this problem to join us and help where help is needed so desperately.

There will be a membership meeting Thursday, June 20, at 8:30 p.m. with films, speaker and refreshments at the Hicksville Methodist Church on Old Country Road between Newbridge

Thinking It Over

by Robert L. Morgar

Our issue this week is devoted to the high school graduates of this year in the area. Each year as the roster grows longer we note that more and more students plan to go on to college, or to some type of training school. For this reason the lofty name Commencement which is given to what used to always be known as graduation takes on a meaning. Years ago it sounded a bit pretentious and the regular graduation orators always explained that Commencement meant that it was the beginning of a new life for the students etc., etc. It is appropriate in this issue to write some sort of editorial honoring the graduates, but we don't want to be hum drum about it so we will just say Congratulations everyone. We hope we didn't leave your name out.

New Officers

The newly elected officers of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Elohim were installed at ceremonies in the Temple on Sunday, June 2nd.

Mrs. Joel Malino has been elected President of the Sisterhood. Serving with her will be Mrs. Marvin Gordon, Administrative Vice President; Mrs. Leonard Green, Program Vice President; Mrs. Irwin Rich, Membership Vice President; Mrs. Aaron Eldridge, Ways and Means Vice President; Mrs. Barry Hurwich, Treasurer; Mrs. Hy Klein, Corresponding Secretary; and Mrs. Gerald Cohn, Financial Secretary.

The new "Leatherneck" will spend 10 weeks at Parris Island prior to reporting to Camp Lejeune, North Carolina for four weeks of advanced combat training.

After twenty days leave, they will report to the Aviation School under the Marine Corps "Aviation School Guaranteed" program.

A Cradle Roll Graduation Party was conducted by the Sisterhood of the Temple Beth Elohim on Sunday, June 2nd at the Temple.

The committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Mike Hammer, served lunch, played games, sang songs and distributed diplomas to the four year old graduates.

This is the fourth consecutive year that every Hicksville School has been represented in the Memorial Day Parade.

Local ZIP Codes Explained

Local ZIP Code numbers to be used by all Post Office patrons were announced this week by Acting Postmaster Irene L. Murphy. The Hicksville - Plainview - Old Bethpage area will be numbered as follows:
11801 Hicksville
11802 Hicks, Boxholders
11803 Plainview
11804 Old Bethpage

Local ZIP Directories will be distributed to all patrons in the near future. The ZIP Code goes into effect July 1st nationwide and all patrons are encouraged to use the ZIP code numbers of their correspondents as well as their own Code number in return addresses. The Zip Code number should be placed after the name of the State in the address.

The Hicksville Post Office, which is already a transfer point or sectional center for eleven nearby offices, will serve a larger number of offices in the future. The Hicksville Sectional center number will be 117 and each of the offices served by it will be numbered 117 plus its own final two digit number. Thus Amityville, served by the Hicksville Sectional Center, will bear the number 11701. Numbers of other nearby Sectional Centers are as follows: White Plains 105; Suffern 109; Long Island City 110; Mineola 115; Riverhead 119; Monticello 127; Poughkeepsie 125.

The ZIP Code serves to speed the flow of mail by shortening the time involved in distributing mail and by reducing errors caused by improper addresses. It is contemplated that the use of the ZIP Code by large mailers will promote the use of electronic sorting equipment and other devices to cut down on mail handling time.

Hails Off Track Betting Plans

Approval by the Nassau-Suffolk Schools Boards Association of a public referendum on legalized off-track betting was hailed today by Nassau Democratic Chairman John F. English as a "tremendous step forward" in the solution of Long Island's critical school finance problem.

"If last night's vote doesn't compel Governor Rockefeller and Assembly Speaker Carlino to reverse their obstinate refusal to permit the people of the state to make up their own minds on so important an issue," English said. "I Don't know what will."

"If nothing else, the favorable vote should lay to rest once and for all Republican arguments that support for off-track betting is just a Democratic political stunt. In the face of widespread approval from newspapers and radio stations plus the endorsement of responsible educators, that claim is so much nonsense."

The School Boards Association voted 26 to 18 Thursday night (June 6) to urge the governor and Legislature to put the question on a statewide ballot.

"From all reports," English noted, "the vote in favor of asking for a referendum would have been even greater if some Association members had not questioned the practicality of specifically earmarking betting receipts for education. They did not oppose it in principle."

English, who has been a consistent advocate of either legalized betting or a lottery, said he hoped the State School Boards Association would also approve when it takes up the question in Syracuse in October.

SEVEN REASONS WHY GAS HEAT IS YOUR BEST BUY

-  CLEANLINESS: Gas burns completely with a clean flame. Ordinary fuels throw off tiny particles of waste that form a thin film of grime on walls, ceilings, furniture. Because this can't happen with gas heat, you save on painting and cleaning bills.
-  BUILT-IN FUEL SUPPLY: Gas is piped directly into your home after you use it. There are no delivery problems. You will never be "caught short" when you need fuel most.
-  DEPENDABILITY: A gas heating unit has fewer moving parts than an ordinary unit. There are fewer chances of breakdowns and costly repair bills.
-  EASY INSTALLATION: You can switch to clean gas heat at your 9:00 to 5:00 job. And it can be done at surprisingly low cost!
-  AUTOMATIC OPERATION: With gas heat, you set it and forget it. Dependable gas heat keeps your whole house comfortable day and night.
-  LILCO FREE SERVICE POLICY: LILCO will inspect, adjust and clean your gas heating unit whenever it becomes necessary. And without charge!
-  MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE: When you convert to gas heat your heating costs are estimated in advance, based on a normal heating season. If your actual heating bill exceeds the estimate by more than 10 per cent, all payments you have made on your equipment will be refunded!

For the sixth consecutive year students outstanding in musicianship at the Hicksville Junior High School have been awarded scholarships at the Summer Music Camp at the University of Vermont, for a period of time beginning July 7th and ending August 3. Proceeds from the annual Fine Arts Week are used to supply these scholarships, each of which is worth $185. The winners this year are: James Kleiner, Larry Wurtzel, Janet Kapsol, Robert deJongh, Cary Chalmers and Loretta Heilman. This brings the total number of students sent since 1958 to 29. An excellent opportunity will be provided for these students to study under outstanding conductors from various parts of the United States and to be exposed to other cultural activities.

ROOSEVELT RACEWAY

THE COMMODORE

For a railroad and shipping tycoon whose name would some day become among the best known in high society, Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt had an unusual hobby. It was one that brought him into contact and competition with persons of less exalted rank. He owned and drove harness horses, wagered on them and mixed with gamblers and other sporting folk. This was during the mid-1800's when New Yorkers of all stations used to gather to watch harness races at Old Harlem Lane in the "green" country around 168th St. and St. Nicholas Ave. Vanderbilt frequently drove his fine horses, Mountain Boy, Post Boy and Mountain Maid, in these races. He was a true devotee of the sport. Roosevelt Raceway will pay tribute to him this year when it inaugurates a new event for three-year-old pacers, the $25,000-added Commodore, on Saturday, June 14. It promises to be one of the outstanding events of the harness racing season.

To the Editor:

More and more editorials and articles in the newspaper and magazines are increasing their clamoring for the reduction of unnecessary government spending and cutting taxes; isn't it unusually strange and odd that along with the criticism nothing appears about the Liberty Amendment? It is the only specific plan making the rounds of the States for ratification which will do just what they are clamoring for. It is a very short amendment, as follows - "Section 1. The Government of the United States shall no engage in any business, professional, commercial, financial or industrial enterprise except as specified in the Constitution. Section 2. The Constitution or laws of any State, or the laws of the United States shall not be subject to the terms of any foreign or domestic agreement which would abrogate this amendment. Section 3. The activities of the United States Government which violate the intent and purposes of this amendment shall within a period of three years from the date of the ratification of this amendment, be liquidated and the properties and facilities affected shall be sold. Section 4. Three years after the ratification of the amendment the sixteenth article of amendments to the Constitution of the United States shall stand repealed and thereafter Congress shall not levy taxes on personal income, estates, and/or gifts."

In one sentence, this amendment proposes to take the government out of the approximately 750 businesses in which it is now unconstitutionally involved and then on account of the savings by this action to cancel the 16th amendment - federal personal income tax law.

Perhaps this Liberty Amendment, isn't perfect, but in the absence of any other specific plan to reduce unnecessary government spending and then cut taxes why not publicize it and let the taxpayers decide whether they like it or not. In a free and open discussion it is also possible that another, better plan may emerge.

It is a sad, tragic thing to watch this wonderful country heading towards financial ruin by the same method in which it came into being, namely - excessive taxation.

With the mailing of this last group of letters, I've now written to every newspaper editor in the country and to the editors of certain national magazines; I don't believe there is a better manner in which to try to reach the taxpayers concerning this ever - increasing problem of our federal personal income tax system; after reading and studying this Liberty Amendment perhaps the taxpayers who do not agree with it may use it as a basis for another, better plan.

Sincerely,
/s/ Gerald Q. Malloy
