Marriages On The Rise According To Local Count

The old fashioned tradition of June brides outnumbering any other month is still in vogue in this Town of ultra-modern industries such as moon probes and other space electronics.

Town Clerk William B. O'Keefe reports that of the 278 marriage licenses recorded in the first six months of 1963, 81 were in June; in all of 1962 out of 484, 61 were in August and in 1961 out of 481, 64 were filed in June.

Mr. O'Keefe said that the next popular month in 1963 was April with 63. In 1962, June was second best with 58, and in 1961, September was second best with 51.

During the first half of each year, licenses issued included 212 in 1961; 218 in 1962 and 278 in 1963. "Looks like a good year for 1963," said O'Keefe.

Husbands Feted By Jr. Women

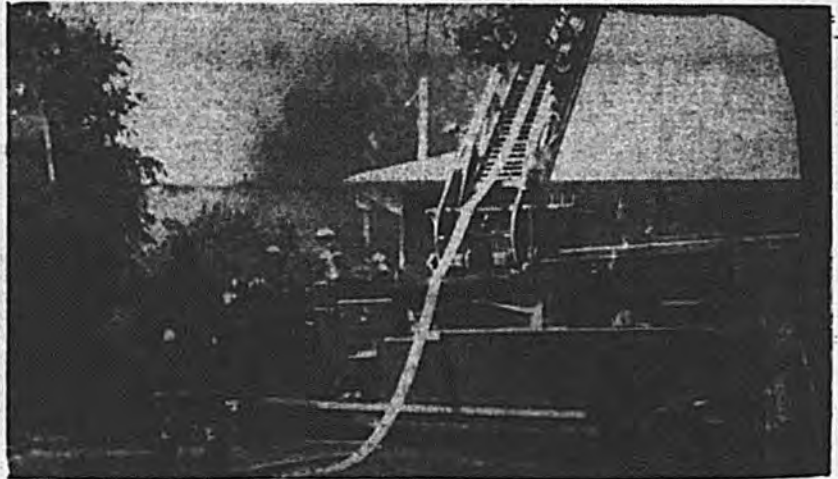

Members of the Junior Woman's Club of Bethpage will fete their husbands at a pool-a-cue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gustavo Hackbell, on Sat. August 10. The Pool-a-cue is this year's variation of the usual summer barbecue, as announced by the entertainment chairman, Mrs. Robert Nitschke. While the keynote of the affair is sociability, members of the group, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Women's Clubs, will almost certainly discuss plans for the coming year's fund raising activities for the benefit of local and national charitable causes.

Library Board

The regular monthly meeting of the Hicksville Public Library Board of Trustees will be held on Wednesday evening, Aug. 14 at 8 p.m.

Off For Camp

24 Boys from Boy Scout Troop 291, Trinity Lutheran Church, Hicksville, will be leaving from Plainview Shopping Center, S.W. corner, Woodbury Road and So. Oyster Bay Road at 6:15 a.m.

A MYSTERIOUS FIRE broke out Friday afternoon in a storage room of the Newbridge Lumber Market at 197 Old Country Rd., causing an estimated $40,000 damage. About 120 volunteer firemen from Hicksville and Westbury brought the smokey blaze under control in 35 minutes and finished extinguishing smoldering piles of lumber three hours later. There were no injuries. Photo by Harvey J. Landress.

Saturday, August 10, to August 24, for Camp Oteora, Livingston Manor, New York

MRS. MARGARET MAC STOKER, secretary to the Board of Elections at Mineola accepts nomination petitions from three Republican insurgents from Oyster Bay, l to r Phillip F. Robinson, executive committeeman from Hicksville and the candidates William J. Musso, Arthur C. Levy and George E. Bailey Jr. They seek councilman seats on the Oyster Bay Town Board. They will oppose three incumbent GOP councilmen in the Sept. 5 primary.

"We are in this all the way. We are out to rid our community of political hacks and bosses and return the town government to the people," Levy said. Two hundred fifty names were needed on the petitions. Over 600 names were gathered in a short petition drive, Mr. Levy said.

WORDS TO LIVE BY: "This the true joy in living, the being used for a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one..." - George Bernard Shaw in Man and Superman...What happiness is, no person can say for another. But no one, I am convinced, can be happy who lives only for him or herself. The joy of living comes from immersion into something that we know to be bigger, better, more enduring and worthier than we are. People, ideas, causes - these offer the one possible escape not merely from selfishness but from the hungers of solitude and the sorrows of aimlessness. No person is as uninteresting as a person without interests. The most pitiful people are those who through life have elected to be spectators rather than participants; the tragic ones are those sight-seers who turn their backs deliberately on the procession. The true happiness comes from squandering ourselves for a good purpose. (That's our lesson for this week kids. Now get busy.)...Husband, lounging on hammock, to wife: "I'll think about spading the garden in a little while. Right now I'm thinking about painting the screens."...A meek little man approached a Hicksville policeman on the street corner, "excuse me, officer, he said, "but I've been waiting here for my wife for over an hour. Would you be kind enough to order me to move on?"...It was Bernard Baruch who said: "To me - old age is always 15 years older than I am."...Sure Cure: The wife of a lawyer tells us that her husband often refuses to accompany her to parties because so many people spoil his evening by asking him for advice. I asked another medic if this ever happened to him. "All the time!" he said.

Adding: "I have a wonderful remedy, when someone at a party begins telling me his, or her ailments, I stop them with one word, 'Undress!'....Reporting the facts: Reporting to Nassau police the loss of $20, she said the money was concealed in her stocking, and the loss was discovered soon after the departure of a vacuum-cleaner salesman who had been demonstrating his line...In the clubhouse: "What golfawful weather!"...When asked for references, a maid replied, "I didn't bring them with me - like my pictures, they never do me justice." (She got the job)...Bride to friend: "It's nice to be married and not have to worry where your next man is coming from."...At Country Club Restaurant, Lakeville road, top pianist Bob Eschmann tells us his idea of a convincing talker is the fellow who can keep his hands in his pockets while describing that big fish, that got away...It's a sure sign of summer if the chair gets up when you do. Would you say that England's Christine Keeler is the type of girl who rides back from a walk?...When asked why she rejected long skirts, the Duchess of Windsor replied, "my legs at least, are still seeworthy." (And they are)....If you Please, Madame...

Open House

Temple Beth Elohim, the Mid-Island Reform Congregation which serves Plainview, Hicksville and Bethpage, is inviting families interested in affiliating or obtaining further information about Reform Judaism to attend an Open House on Sunday, August 18, at 8:30 p.m., at the Temple located at 926 Round Swamp Road, Old Bethpage.

There will be a discussion on Reform and Liberal Judaism conducted by Rabbi Louis Stein which will be followed by a question and answer period. The previous Open House in June provided a very stimulating evening for all who attended, and no doubt, the forthcoming one should prove equally interesting. There are many facets of Reform Judaism which are not generally well known, and Rabbi Stein will explore the subject so that those present will get a clearer picture of what is meant by Reform Judaism.

School Failure Rates Are Scandalous

The complaint of the Queensboro Federation of Parent Clubs about the "disparity" between Regents examinations and the New York City public school curriculum suggests some interesting questions.

To begin with, is liaison between Albany and local school systems so poor that local systems don't know in advance the kind of test questions pupils are expected to be able to answer when they take Regents examinations?

I, for one, am not ready to swallow the completely unconvincing and apparently fabricated excuse, advanced here on Long Island, that some of the tests have been "too difficult" for students. That's a ready alibi calculated to explain away failure to impart to students sufficient knowledge to enable them to pass even so-called "difficult" tests.

Besides, no test can be too difficult if the average and brighter-than-average student is properly prepared for it.

Weak-kneed excuses can't possibly convince people like me who have been "through the mill."

Years ago in a New York City high school I had a biology teacher who was clearly in his dotage. He was so senile that one and all of us had a grand time all term long. But the day of reckoning came: Most of us failed the Regents examination for which we were totally unprepared.

Rumblings of discontent over the high failure rate in the Hicksville School District (almost 30 per cent in high school math in one year) were heard during the last campaign. Trustee Neil McCormack, just before the elections, sought to alibi away the high failure rate by saying that it's below the state average.

Bum education reflected in a high number of student failures is till bum education, whether it is higher than, lower than, or on a par with any state average. And who is to say the state average is anything to bray about?

All parents, especially here on Long Island, should take a more active interest in the kind of curriculum in vogue in each particular school district.

And when scandalous numbers of children fail subjects, the parents should say to the educators: "You're being paid to educate our children. Why aren't you doing a proper and competent job?"

Oddments and Endments

FOR ONCE, Oyster Bay Town officials are playing it smart. They have elected to cooperate in the grand jury investigation of alleged delivery shortages to the Town, uncovered by County investigator Milton Lipson.

Heretofore some officials have poo-pooed Lipson's findings, only to turn an embarrassed red when Lipson was proved right after all.

The turnabout by Town officials serves to show that with an election coming up, some politicians who play upon the credulity of the people most of the time know full well that they can't do it all of the time, for the people, despite their almost unbounded gullibility, are not quite so stupid as many politicians would make them out...

JOHN H. DANIELS, the attorney who won the precedent setting East Meadow school records case, is again running for District Court Judge in Hempstead Town.

Daniels, a Democrat, settled several other school record cases out of court when school officials saw the error of their ways and produced priority withheld records.

The Baldwin lawyer also got a Suffolk County child branded as "retarded" by school officials back into a regular class when he proved the child is not retarded at all.

According to another attorney, the action of the Suffolk County school district in keeping the child out of regular classes for two and a half years, despite protests from her parents, is "actionable" at law. The parents, however, apparently do not want to sue the school district for money damages because of the attendant notoriety which they think may harm the child more than she has been harmed already.

So it is that school districts often get off the legal hook, even though some school officials are adept beyond adeptness at destroying the reputation of mere children.

The Notebook

by Robert L. Morgan

Back at school election time last year there was quite a controversy brewing with people who are for the budget and those against it. As the voters would have it the budget passed in Hicksville although a good many voters thought that it was too high. At the time there seemed to be two camps; those who are regularly against all budgets and those who are curiously for all school budgets. Those who are always against all school budgets know better and finally come around when they think that it has been held to its lowest point. But the people -- and they have the backing of large groups, such as the PTA's who as a matter of policy are in favor of all school budgets and the bigger the better create a great danger to the school system. In surrounding districts, Plainview and Plainedge the school budgets were rejected by the voters. And what happened? Well in Plainedge after threatening about an austerity budget and all types of dire consequences, the school board got together with the administration and found that it could shave a goodly sum off of the budget and reduce the tax rate and not even remotely affect education. They are postponing some building remodeling. In Plainview after similar threats of austerity and three votes the budget also went through in a trimmed down version. The result is that voters will get a lower tax rate. In Hicksville there were the same warning calls of austerity and our phones were being tied up by teachers who thought we were against the public school system by saying the Hicksville budget could be trimmed --- but we still think it could have been.

Exercises Work Against Shortness Of Breath

By C. A. Dean, M. D.

Yesterday I wrote about emphysema and some of its effects. Today I wish to explain some of the treatment, especially the breathing exercises.

Emphysematous patients must first be aware of the nature of their illness. If not, treatment fails. Once the patient does understand, encouraging results can be expected.

Since the lungs are not involved uniformly, some portions ventilate better than others. The purpose of breathing exercises is to help the patient get the greatest ventilation from all parts of the lungs and to strengthen respiratory muscles.

The first breathing exercise is for the diaphragm. After clearing the lungs as completely as possible of sputum, the patient, sitting erect, inhales deeply while holding a small pillow or book as firmly as possible against the abdomen. This should be repeated 10 times, morning and night. By thus forcing the diaphragm up, aeration of the lower lungs is encouraged.

The second exercise is for the abdominal muscles. Lying flat on a hard surface, each leg is raised alternately, slowly, while exhaling. This is done 10 times for each leg, daily. If the patient is debilitated, raising the head and shoulders from the bed while exhaling and slowly lowering them while inhaling, 5 times twice a day, is a good substitute.

A third exercise is done while lying flat in bed with a small book on the abdomen. The patient then breathes in, puffing out the abdomen so as to raise the book as far as possible. Exhaling slowly, he empties the lungs as much as possible, pulling the abdomen in so that the book is brought as close to the back as possible. This is repeated 10 times, morning and night. In conjunction with these exercises, drugs to dilate the small air passages are used. These can be taken through an inhaler, directly into the lungs.

'Adult' Movies

By Russell Kirk

The naked ladies are taking over Hollywood, having prospered already in French and Italian films. "Adult movies for people with the Peeping Tom mentality make the marquees and posters of half the moving picture theaters in America look like the entrances to bordellos.

And disagreeable nudity is not the worst of it. Emphasis on torture, beatings, terrible physical injuries and meaningless violence appeals to human appetites lower than that of the window peeper. Adventure, suspense, mystery, the ghostly and the portrayal of the violence element that cannot be extirpated from the world are legitimate enough. But horror for the sake of horror is decadent.

The paradox about these so-called adult films is that they pander to the immature mentality, the arrested adolescent -- who, his imagination inflamed, later may get himself literally arrested.

Some years ago, a wise old clergyman told me, "Sin always is childish." He knew a great deal of the world, this old gentleman, and I have concluded that he was quite right. The adult who likes to identify himself with debased criminals on the screen, or who derives a gloating satisfaction from staring at some Hollywood trollop's undies -- or no undies -- simply hasn't grown up intellectually or spiritually. He remains a rather nasty little boy.

It is possible gradually to debauch the imagination -- and even the conduct -- of a whole generation by tasteless and false exhibitions. If man is presented in moving pictures as a ruthless brute, and woman as a smirking trull, presently the rising generation will begin to believe in that portrait of human nature -- and perhaps act accordingly. Everything goes, when the standards of popular taste are deliberately befouled. Thus the whole level of public morality and artistic sense may become infantile -- but not babyish in innocence.

Yet, I don't think the American public will stand this nastiness forever. If the film makers won't improve their own standards, and if intelligent and reasonable state and local censorships are denied, then we are going to get, sooner or later, a Federal censorship of movies. I should be sorry to see a general censorship come. So I hope that if the Hollywood people forget about conscience, voluntary organizations -- and, if need be, tolerant but principled state and local censors -- will remind the movie makers that we don't enjoy being fed mud pies when we are men and women.

Local Theatre Presents Movie 'Longest Day'

Many of the 42 stars in Darryl F. Zanuck's $10,000,000 production "The Longest Day" which opens at the Hicksville Theatre on August 7, not only met their real-life counterparts, but also were coached by them right on the set. In this respect this dramatization of Cornelius Ryan's account of the D-Day invasion was unique in the annals of motion picture making.

The most dramatic encounter took place at the Orne River bridge near Caen in Normandy. Zanuck used the actual bridge, which was captured by a glider-borne force under Major John Howard early on D-Day morning. Howard held the bridge for 13 hours until Lord Lovat and his commandos arrived.

In "The Longest Day" Peter Lawford plays the courageous Lovat.

Richard Todd has the role of Howard. Both Lovat and Howard were onlookers as the scenes were being photographed and both briefed the actors on the authenticity of movement and action.

On the American side, Paul Anka, Tommy Sands, Fabian and Robert Wagner had ample opportunity - at the Pointe du Hoc location - to get briefed by real U. S. Rangers who had been on hand on D-Day. Ranger Sgt. Joseph T. Lowe recalled the day vividly.

"You can't go wrong as long as you remember one thing," he told Sands. "When you start climbing that cliff just remember, that on D-Day there were a lot of guys lying dead on the beach and the Germans were shooting at us with everything they had."

Large Art Gallery Opening

The largest air conditioned art gallery on Long Island is ready for a grand opening soon. The Sirena Art Gallery is located on 1724 Hempstead Turnpike East Meadow, and is showing the works of many famous artists, among them John Terkin, sculptor, whose work "Benjamin Franklin" and a bust of Senator Speno are on display in Salisbury Park. George Gach, another internationally known painter and sculptor, who escaped from Hungary to America after losing all of his early masterpieces. He is now doing some of his finest work. Pat Sowecke, a well known portrait artist who has painted many famous people. Alys Colvin, a very versatile artist who has had her work exhibited in the Metropolitan Museum of art twenty five years ago and who is specializing in paintings on velvet for decorative groupings. Dorothy Stewart, portraitist, Dorothy Bedell, Dorothy Brvan and Olga Hoebel

Art Gallery Holds Exhibit

Art Forms Unlimited is mighty please to announce the first outdoor art exhibit of their students' work done during the summer workshops held at the gallery.

Everyone is invited to come and enjoy the original drawings, colorful paintings, designs and other imaginative art work which will be hung on lines and fences on the strip of grassy land behind the gallery, which is located at 111 Levittown Parkway, Hicksville. Come any time between the hours of 1:00 and 5:00 p.m. on Saturday or Sunday afternoon, August 17 and 18.

Inside the gallery will be a special one-man show of Claire Shaprio's work. Claire is a Levittown resident who paints lovely impressionistic character vignettes and mood studies. Her work last year netted her a gold trophy at the AAUW Art Exhibit in Massapequa. In case of rain, the outdoor exhibit will be held downstairs in the gallery.

Keep your mind on the road, not on your troubles. Don't worry about business, the family, or what may happen tomorrow. Keep alert to what's happening now. Good driving's a full-time job requiring an alert mind and body. If you must worry, do it in your leisure time.

WHEN YOU DRIVE...

Think now, complain later. "Mad" at someone or something? Turn it off when you turn your ignition on. Anger, no matter who or what it's directed at, can color your whole driving attitude, making you a menace to other motorists on the road.

THINK

Think wise... think cagey... think careful, cautious, cheerful, courteous driving. Good driving is the responsibility of every motorist. A cheerful attitude toward others on the road will get you to your destination more relaxed than if you find fault with every driver along the way. Think careful driving when you're behind the wheel. And, when you think of protection against the hazards of other not-so-careful drivers, think of State Farm, the careful driver's insurance company.

SPORTS

by HOWARD FINNEGAN

By allowing just one run in his last four games pitcher Bob Cerone, ex-HHS star, wrapped up the first half flag in the Pioneer League for Idaho Falls. He struck out 12 and walked 2 as his club beat Pocatello.

The Idaho Falls Post Register came up the next morning with a big picture of the smiling Cerone as the city was evidently very happy with the work of the Long Island lad.

Idaho is a farm club of the New York Yankees and the slick monthly Yankee Bulletin from 161 River Avenue has mentioned Cerone's work in the last two issues.

So far this year Bob has worked 48 games and 126 innings. He has 135 total strikeouts in compiling an 11 and 4 record. His 2.79 is the second best earned run average in the league.

In the Mid West league Chris Coletta has appeared in 80 games with 295 at bats. He has 95 hits for a .322 batting average. He has knocked in 43 runs and belted 5 home runs. He is second in the batting standings to a .372 mark.

In the 1963 Football Handbook and schedules compiled and edited by United Press International Hicksville's Jim McKinstry is listed on the basic roster of the New York Jets. At 6 foot 4 inches and 220 pounds Jim was counted on by Coach Weeb Ewbank to give his building program a boost from the linebacker position.

It is now questionable if McKinstry will be in the lineup at the Polo Grounds opening since he had a bad leg injury at the start of the practice season and has been out for four weeks.

Since it was announced in this post that the Hicksville Post Office plays in the Jones Beach slow-pitch softball league many Hicksville fans have been going to the JB Stadium to support the locals.

The support has inspired even greater performance and the Hicksville PO is one game behind Republic in the second half race.

Last week the club swept a doubleheader from the Williamsburg Savings Bank 4-1 and 10-4. Dick DeLeo smacked a good home run and George Henshom had two doubles and a triple. Tommy Brown maintained his scorching .520 batting average.

Ed Rayel pitched both ends of the double and Tony DeFendis was his receiver.

The team has a doubleheader tomorrow night (Fri.) at the Beach stadium against Chase Manhattan Bank. The first game starts 6:30 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Local Contestant Wins Heat In National Race

By Ted Isaidd

Danny Viola, Bethpage's Soap Box champ won his first heat in the All-American Soap Box Derby this past Saturday in Akron, Ohio before 60,000 rain-drenched spectators.

The local champ lost to William Nemceff of Levittown, Pa. in the semi-final round.

Harold Conrad, Duluth, Minn. beat a pair of Georgians in the final heat to win a $7,500 college scholarship and the championship.

Danny, who resides at 98 Caffrey Ave., Bethpage, had a week-long rewarding experience at Derbytown. He met boys representing 239 communities, both in the U.S. and abroad. A lasting friendship was made with Calvin Kanemaru of Hawaii, one of the most likeable lads ever to enter the domain of Derbytown.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Viola and family were involved in the emotions of a derby week at Akron. They are now happy to return to the serenity of Bethpage's suburbia, and to settle down to family living with their boy again.

Danny represented this community's effort in soap box racing, and the sponsorship of Frog Hollow Chevrolet, Konnor's Chevrolet and Litmor Publications. Derby direction this year was headed by Ray Beers, Long Island National Bank.

Joins Marines

Robert George Evaschuk 17, son of Mrs. Dorothy Evaschuk of 94 7th St., Hicksville, departed for Parris Island, S.C. to undergo recruit training with the U.S. Marines.

The new Marine enlisted for three years. He will receive ten weeks of recruit training at Parris Island prior to reporting to Camp Lejeune, N.C. for four weeks of advanced combat training.

Robert will return home on a twenty day leave after completing his advanced combat training at Camp Lejeune.

Any young man interested in obtaining information about the Elite Marine Corps can contact Sgt. A. G. James at the Levittown recruiting booth or call PE 1-1656.

Colts Win Section Title

The Bethpage Colt League All-Stars successfully defended their Colt League Metropolitan Area Sectional Baseball Championship by defeating East Meadow 2-1 and 8-1 at Bethpage High School. Bethpage had previously eliminated Eastchester, N. Y. and Hicksville (who had defeated Forest Hills) and East Meadow had eliminated Levittown and Canarsie.

Shortstop Al Mirando's home run with the score tied 1-1 in the 5th inning was the difference in the first game in which Bethpage pitcher Ricky Leek allowed only 1 hit while striking out 9. The East Meadow lead-off man drew East Meadow's only walk of the game in the first inning and scored on an error and the lone East Meadow hit by Chuck Tamburro, after which Leek retired 19 batters in order. Jim Carolla rapped out the only other Bethpage hit in the 4th after Jeff Smith had tied the score with a walk a stolen base and 2 East Meadow errors.

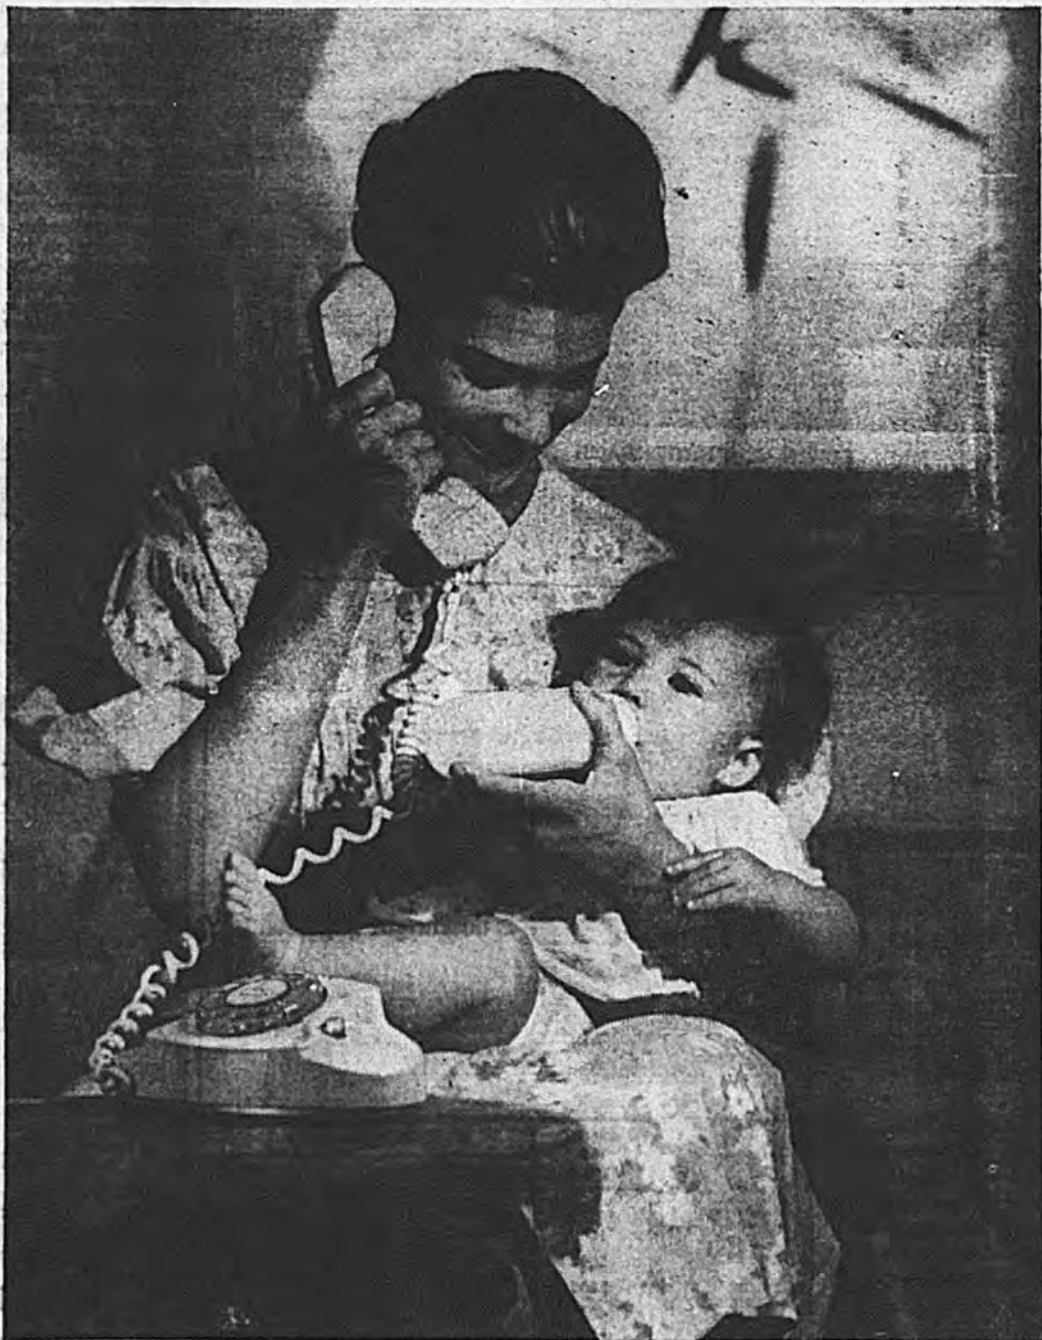

Greg Herbert won his third straight tournament game bosting East Meadow 8-1, allowing only 2 hits while striking out 13 in the second game which nailed down the Met area championship for the second straight year for Bethpage. Pete led off Bethpage with a single and scored on a home run by Ricky Leek to put Bethpage out in front by 2 runs in the first inning. EM countered with their only run in the second on a hit by Fred Braid, a stolen base and RBI by Bob Fauser. Bethpage came back with 2 runs in the 4th on a key single by Jimmie Smith, one in the fifth and 3 in the 6th to put the game on ice for Hebert who talked only two. Pete Lazarus went

2 for 2 for Bethpage while Leek had 3 hits, and 3 RBIs and scored 3 times. Next week Bethpage will face Newburgh, N.Y. at 5:15 on August 7, after the New Jersey State Champion and the Virginia, Delaware, Maryland winner square off at 3 p.m. There will be 3 games on Thursday and the finals will be Friday.

The winner enters the Eastern Division Championship and the winner of that goes to Shawnee, Oklahoma for the National Championship.

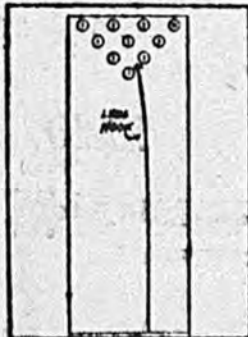

How to go out when you have to stay in

"He takes his bottle like an angel. And wait 'til you see how he's grown." A baby is the world's nicest reason for staying home. But staying home for any reason doesn't mean you have to stay out of things. A phone call will keep you in touch with family, with friends, with your favorite stores. When you're kept at home, go out by phone.

TENPIN TIPS

By FRANK CLAUSE

Avoid Chopping Pins

There is nothing you can do to avoid chopping or cherrying pins once in a while. You can cut down on frequency by positioning your self directly in back of pins you're aiming at and speeding up ball. This will cut down size of hook, and allow ball to take out both front and back pins.

MR. AND MRS. EDWIN J. FEHRENBACH have announced the engagement of their daughter Miss Diane Fehrenbach to Mr. John Goss. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilles Goss of Bethpage. The wedding is planned for September 1964.
