Concert Assn. Plans Series

Committee members of the Mid-Island Concert Assoc., the non-profit organization sponsoring fine music for our community, have been busy planning for a record subscription campaign during the week of October 14. MICA subscribers have been increasing steadily each year and last season's outstanding four concert series - folk singers Archer and Gile, Jose Limon and Dance Co., Paganini Quartet & pianist Moura Lympany - brought Lincoln Center to our door and will undoubtedly give impetus to this year's membership drive. Continuation of reciprocal arrangements with our surrounding communities permitting Concert Assoc. members to attend each other's concerts at no charge, offers a wide range of notable artistry capable of satisfying virtually all preferences. All are cordially invited to join us.

Music lovers interested in helping during the subscription period are indeed most welcome. For further information, please call either of the following membership chairmen: Hicksville - Mrs. Anne Sherman WE 1-3016. Jericho - Mrs. Edith Winston, WE 8 - 7683.

Senior Citizens

The opening date has been set for October 3, at the American Legion Hall. The hours will be from 1 to 4 (Thursdays). The new Director is Mrs. Eileen McLoughlin. For further information call GE 3-4694.

American women may soon be wearing a new color in their wardrobes, appropriately called Day Pink.

Jean Louis, noted film artist, devised the new fabric for Doris Day to wear in the hilarious comedy, "Thrill Of It All," opening at the Calderone (Hempstead) and Pine Hollow (Oyster Bay) theatres, on Sept. 19th.

Woven especially in southern Spain, the material is best described as a cross between a strawberry soda and a cherry blossom. Only 50 yards of the unusual fabric has been woven.

"But it turned out to be so unusual that I plan to put it into commercial manufacture and include it in my line," Louis said. "There has never been a pink like it."

Ironically, while the new shade will be called Day Pink in honor of its first wearer, Doris Day, it will be used only for night garments, such as nightgowns, negligees and pajamas. See this unusual fabric worn by Doris Day in the full-color film "Thrill Of It All" at the Calderone or Pine Hollow theatres.

Thinking It Over

by Robert L. Morgan

A movement underway that should be given wide-spread attention is one to have escalator stairs installed at the Hicksville railroad station when the overpass is completed in the near future (it says here)

From all indications the state does not intend to install these stairs in its regular plans and no money has been allotted for the project. The buck is now being passed back and forth and presently the Hicksville Chamber of Commerce has it but still can't find the right people to pay the bill.

A very bad suggestion was made in this connection recently and that was to install turnstiles at the entrance to the escalators and let the users pay for them. Ordinarily this column favors letting those who require extra services pay their way, but this is not the same thing. The state and railroad have decided to put the station one flight up in Hicksville. The commuter did not ask for this and he should not have to tax his heart in climbing the stairs nor his pocketbook because of a condition set up by others. So the project is just a talking one yet, even though the answer is that the original plans will have to be amended and the money will have to be included in the basic project. There is no other way.

Men Evince Interest In Preventive Medicine

By C. A. Dean, M.D.

MEDITORIAL: Within the past 5 years men have become more aware of their health. Previously, women were the only ones concerned about their well-being -- taking cancer tests, undergoing routine examinations and early diagnosis. Men are now becoming interested in this phase of preventive medicine. I think the following letter will illustrate my point.

Mr. J.M., 52, writes, "Can a man get a cancer check-up? My wife is always talking about this for women but I haven't heard of this for men. Maybe you can set me straight."

Although there is no simple, direct smear test for men as there is for women, there is a lot that can be done for men seeking cancer checkups.

The first, and most important cancer check-up is an annual, routine physical examination. During this, a check of the whole body for lumps, sores and ulcerations can be made.

After the physical examination, laboratory tests such as blood counts, urine tests and X-rays can add valuable information. The chest X-ray, in particular, is useful in detecting early lung cancer, as well as tuberculosis and other lung infections. Other special X-rays (stomach, kidneys, gall bladder) may be taken if the history and examination suggest it.

I'd like to emphasize the importance of a rectal examination, which I feel is essential for all men 45 and older. This area is highly susceptible to cancers and shouldn't be ignored, even if it does cause a degree of discomfort. I find too many men balking at this examination, thereby missing an important opportunity for cancer detection.

Do you have a medical question? Write Dr. C. A. Dean in care of this newspaper.

Test Ban May Bring Greater Danger

By Russell Kirk

Will the projected treaty with Soviet Russia, prohibiting atomic tests in the atmosphere, really increase the security of these United States? Some people able to speak with authority entertain grave doubts.

Certain State Department consultants tell this writer that they are badly worried. The present public enthusiasm, engineered by the Kennedy administration, at the prospect of a diminishing of tensions, actually may result -- so these experts fear -- in a naive concession to the Soviets of everything Khrushchev wants, with no real guarantees to America in return.

There has just been published, too, a 600-page study written by Mr. Earl H. Voss, diplomatic correspondent for the Washington Sunday Star. His book is called "Nuclear Ambush; the Test-Ban Trap." In this sober and elaborately-documented examination, Mr. Voss points out that probably Soviet Russia will repeat her performance of two years ago, in which she resumed testing in defiance of the Geneva negotiations. Khrushchev probably has set a second trap to catch gullible and optimistic Americans.

"History may yet look back on the nuclear-test-ban idea," Mr. Voss writes, "as one of the grand delusions of the twentieth century, grander by far, for instance, than the Soviet ruse that it was building a big fleet of long-range bombers, or that the Russians had invented everything important since the wheel."

"It should be taken as a sobering warning that the Soviet Union was able, by a clever combination of propaganda manipulation and diabolical statesmanship, to have tied up the United States testing program with so shabbily camouflaged a technique."

In Moscow, Khrushchev remarked to Lord Home that the seventeen American representatives there to consider the test-ban treaty seemed to be divided among themselves. Well might they be. Our chief authority on the atomic bomb, Dr. Edward Teller, thinks we may be hoodwinked in our present pacifist mood. Dr. Stefan Possony (of the Hoover Institution's International Political Studies Program), one of our leading authorities upon the struggle for power, testified a few days ago before the House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee that the proposed test-ban would give the Soviets an advantage in big bombs, and may prevent American from carrying on tests on anti-missile missiles.

So the Kennedy administration may be counting its test-ban chickens before the Senate hatches them. Senator Goldwater, with his accustomed forthrightness, will oppose the treaty -- and his influence grows daily. Many Republicans in the Senate will follow where he leads. They may be joined by such Northern and Western Democratic senators as Jackson, Dodd, and Lausche. The Southern senators, suspicious of the treaty anyway, are angry with Mr. Kennedy because of the "civil rights" fight in the Senate.

President Kennedy's recent suggestion that the test ban might be followed by a nonaggression pact between the Soviet bloc and the NATO countries will alarm the serious anti-Communists still further. This arrangement would resign to Russia permanent mastery of her present satellites -- including, presumably, Cuba. But it is most improbable that Soviet subversion actually would be terminated in Latin America, Asia, and Africa.

Keep your mind on the road, not on your troubles. Don't worry about business, the family, or what may happen tomorrow. Keep alert to what's happening now. Good driving's a full-time job requiring an alert mind and body. If you must worry, do it in your leisure time.

WHEN YOU DRIVE...

Think now, complain later. "Mad" at someone or something? Turn it off when you turn your ignition on. Anger, no matter who or what it's directed at, can color your whole driving attitude, making you a menace to other motorists on the road.

THINK

Think wise... think cagey... think careful, cautious, cheerful, courteous driving. Good driving is the responsibility of every motorist. A cheerful attitude toward others on the road will get you to your destination more relaxed than if you find fault with every driver along the way. Think careful driving when you're behind the wheel. And, when you think of protection against the hazards of other not-so-careful drivers, think of State Farm, the careful driver's insurance company.

AN INTERESTING THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO... ROOSEVELT RACEWAY

BYE BYE BYRD

It seems odd to open Roosevelt Raceway's fall meeting with a stakes having the words "Bye Bye" in its name. "Hello again" would seem more appropriate until you consider the feat of the horse commemorated in the race — Bye Bye Byrd. Racing returns to Roosevelt next Tuesday (Sept. 24) and the $25,000 race is the evening's feature.

Aug. 28, 1958 was hot and humid and the talk at Roosevelt was about the possibility of Bye Bye Byrd approaching Hi-Lo's Forbes' world record of 1:58 3/5, which had been set here in June, 1953. Veteran observers didn't think it could be done, but Clint Hodgins, BBB's driver, had other ideas. He sent the great pacer through the quarter in 29.3 and the half in 59 seconds, even though not pressed. That clocking was two-fifths slower than the pace in the first "Miracle Mile." The three quarters clocking in 1:28.3 equalled the 1953 time. At the top of the stretch, Clint let BBB have his head and he streaked across the finish line a length and a half in front of Widower Creed in the world record for a half-mile track — 1:57 4/5. The fifth horse, Speedy Pick, had equalled Hi-Lo's Forbes' 1:58 3/5.
Tuesday's Bye Bye Byrd Pace at Roosevelt will be the second edition of the free-for-all celebrating this event.

Women Voters Member Drive

With the hope of attracting new members to its growing membership list,

The League of Women Voters of the Town of Oyster Bay will hold an open membership meeting on Monday, September 23 at 8:30 p.m. in the Hicksville Public Library.

The evening is planned to give general information on the League and with the League's aim in mind of keeping the public informed on important issues, a highlight of the evening will be a talk on civil rights. Mrs. Lilla Long, Executive Director of the New York City Commission to the United Nations and a member of the New York City Club of the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women will speak on President Kennedy's civil rights program. There will be a discussion period following this.

Mrs. Arthur Lenowitz, membership chairman, urges all women to attend -- to listen, to talk and perhaps to meet a neighbor over a cup of coffee. Quoting Mrs. Lenowitz, "The only prerequisite to membership aside from being twenty-one and a citizen of the United States is the wish to meet talk to, and study with other women, the various areas of our Government.

The League encourages women of different abilities and interests to become members. Join a study group, work on a committee, or if your free time is limited, attend meetings when you are able and share with us the knowledge that an interest in good government is the first and most important step to informed and active participation.

If transportation to this first meeting on the 23rd is a problem or you have any further questions, call Mrs. Charles Arnold of Hicksville -- GE 3-2069.

Plans and specifications may be seen at or procured from the office of the Town Clerk, Town Hall, Town of Oyster Bay, New York, 9:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M., Monday through Friday.

Each proposal must be accompanied by either a certified check on a solvent Bank or Trust Company, or Bid Bond from a Surety Company acceptable to the Town, in an amount equal to not less than five (5%) percent of the amount bid, made payable to the Town of Oyster Bay as assurance that the contract will be executed if awarded to such Bidder. The Contractor will be required to comply with all the provisions of the Labor Laws of the State of New York.

IT'S DODGE'S 50th ANNIVERSARY

Oh boy, it's D-day... the '64 Dependables are on display

SEE '64 DODGE, the low-price car that doesn't look or feel like one. Handsome exterior, roomy interior, and a husky performance. Yet priced with Ford and Chevy. The low-price field will never be the same, now that the '64 Dodge is here. And as with every '64 car built by Dodge, you get the extra bonus of a 5-year/50,000-mile warranty.*

*THE DEPENDABLE 5-YEAR/50,000-MILE WARRANTY—Chrysler Corporation warrants, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, against defects in materials and workmanship and will replace or repair at a Chrysler Motor Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business, the engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings of its 1964 automobiles, provided the owner has the engine oil changed every 3 months or 5,000 miles, whichever comes first, the oil filter replaced every second oil change and the carburetor or filter cleaned every 6 months and replaced every 2 years, and every 6 months furnishes to such a dealer evidence of performance of the required service, and requests the dealer to certify (1) receipt of such evidence and (2) the car's then current mileage.

TRY '64 COMPACT DODGE DART, the compact in the large economy size. Family-sized, family-priced. Few compacts cost less than Dart. Not one gives so much for the money.

DRIVE BIG DODGE 880 FOR '64, the quiet, thoughtful step above the low-price field. Big room. Big ride. Big luxury. Big power. Dodge 880 is big in everything... but price.

Girl Scout Area News

Mark your calendars now! The date to be circled is Saturday, October 5th -- and you'll not want to forget it, for that is the day for the big Girl Scout Program launching Parade in Bethpage-Plainedge Neighborhood VI. The time - 2 p.m.

Five Clusters: South - Central, North Bethpage, East-Plain, Northedge, and Southedge which make up the Neighborhood will all be participating, so you'll certainly want to come out and see your local girls. Show them you are behind their efforts, for a lot of long, hard planning has gone on since the Spring in order to have this parade.

Support your girls and their leaders by turning out along the parade route. John H. West School -- Boundary Ave., along Stewart Ave. across Hempstead Turnpike and continuing on Stewart Ave. to the Central Blvd. School where it will disband.

Flags displayed along the way and in town will be greatly appreciated by the paraders.

The Mid-Island Council Girl Scout Camp Edey, at Bayport, was the scene of many happy hours for girls this summer.

Over 1,449 Girl Scouts lived in tents and outdoor shelters, cooked and prepared their own meals and learned to love the great out-of-doors.

A growing appreciation of nature and the beauties it has to offer was combined with a creative Arts and Crafts program. Most of the Scouts brought home functional as well as beautiful objects that were made with material picked up in the woods or on the beaches.

Camp Edey, with its nine fresh water lakes and ocean site is able to stress all aquatic sports for the beginner as well as seasoned swimmers.

Some special features that were enjoyed by the girls during their two week stay at the Camp were: overnight trips to Fire Island, attendance at the Gateway Summer Theatre performance of "Carnival" and "Hamlet" and the dinners and entertainment provided by members of the International staff from Canada, Denmark, Sweden and Switzerland.

Girl Scout campers at Camp Edey came from many Nassau and Suffolk towns. From the Mid-Island Council of Nassau County, the following number of girls attended Camp: Farmingdale-169, Bethpage-74, East Meadow-13, Hicksville - 124, Jericho - 10, Levittown-148, Plainview-121, Seaford -72, Syosset - 100, Wantagh 134, Westbury 86 and Woodbury 3.

A catered tea held in Levittown Hall, Hicksville last Sunday, Sept. 8, officially launched the nation-wide all New Four Level Girl Scout Program for the members of the Mid-Island Council.

Election of the 12 delegates to the Girl Scout National Convention to be held in Miami, Florida during the week of Oct. 21-25, was the business part of the program.

Highlighting the gathering of Volunteer leaders and Service Teams representing the 12 neighborhoods making up Mid-Island Council was the presentation of the new Leader Notebooks.

The meeting also featured a Fashion Show displaying the New Look in uniforms and camp garb, modeled by girls of the four levels and leaders.

A Calendar Parade of future events was also part of the program.

Mrs. L. Katz served as M.C., introducing Council President, Mrs. E. J. Quinn who made the Welcome Address and presented the Council Staff. Mrs. James Karcher and Mrs. L. Leight also took part in the festivities. Mrs. Leight and her committee presided over the book presentations; and Tea preparations.

Senior Girl Scouts presented the Calendar Parade and served as very capable waitresses for the occasion.

A "Thank You" from your sister Scouts to all who had any part in helping to make the program a success.

Hicksville-PBC News Notes

The Hicksville P.B.C. Nautical Cadets held their first meeting on Friday, September 13. The boys got off to a wonderful start and all went well.

We have a fine group of boys this year, and with much effort, cooperation, and team work on behalf of the boys, I'm sure they will have a successful year.

The boys meet on Friday nights, at the Hicksville Jr. High School on Jerusalem Avenue, 4th St. entrance, at 7:30 P.M.

The Hicksville PBC will hold registration for bowling at the Mid Island Bowling Alley in Hicksville, on September 21, at 11:00 A.M. Boys 10 to 18 are eligible to join. Registration at the Woodbury Lanes Bowling Alley was held last Saturday. Any boys still wishing to join, please come down to the Alleys on September 21, between 11:00 and 11:30 A.M. Woodbury Lanes is situated on So. Oyster Bay Rd. in Plainview.

Tom Swift Ejaculates Again!
By Edward J. Van Allen

"Tom Swifties" have become such a rage lately that it is almost impossible not to take editorial notice of them.

In point of fact, even one of my own family has been stricken with the "malady." Day by day my far better half prances about the house spouting Swifties with an alacrity that would do Tom himself swift justice.

Not only that, she insists that I get in the game by composing a few for ready reference and handy use at social gatherings.

Tom hasn't caused me this much trouble since the day, many years ago, when the teacher caught me hiding an open volume portraying Tom's latest exploits behind a similarly open, much dryer, far less interesting grammar book.

But with the wife's urging (and what husband can gainsay his spouse?), I proceeded to mentally manufacture a few Swifties of my own and to do a little research on the craze to boot.

Among the natural, unembellished, and extremely obvious Tom Swifties my research caused me to come up with are these:

"Don't let children play with matches," the fireman yelled hotly.

"The cowboy's legs are bowed," he said parenthetically.

"I read Tom Swift books very speedily," the boys said hurriedly.

"Put the fan in the attic," he ordered fanatically.

"Edison invented the incandescent," she said lightly.

"Women never won a war," the historian observed manfully.

"I hate lightning," he bellowed thunderously.

In the Tom Swift books, the hero and his friends rarely said anything slowly and unemphatically. On the contrary, they repeatedly ejaculated. One example will serve:

"Whew!" the boy ejaculated airily. So much for simple Swifties. There are also now extant some extensions of Swifties that involve a complex play on words, while still others are so sublimely inane as to make one titter in spite of himself. Viz.:

"The ship will never reach its destination," the crafty man observed sinkingly.

"Pull the boat into the dock," the earl boomed as he peered at the pier. "The sentry's stalk was very guarded," the undertaker said cryptically.

"That Indian with the knife is only a little shaver," the onlooker remarked, his voice nevertheless betraying hair-raising fear.

Other variations of Swifties are completely ghastly. Not that quality in these:

"It is easy to learn to drive if you have a good teacher," the man said. "You're absolutely car-rect," his friend, an automobilist, answered in a rather tired voice.

"You have to make a U-turn, Lambie Pie," he told her sheepishly. "Otherwise you'll ram that other car."

"No matter how you slice it, it's still baloney," he rasped cuttingly. Then, of course, you have the hoary old joke updated to put it in the Swiftly class. Thus:

"Have you heard from Tom lately?"

Asked one feline.

"Oh, yes, I had a litter from him only yesterday," her friend replied cat-tily.

Under the far-fetched category (and I don't mean a bloody cat) is this one:

"He is very voluble about volley ball, she verbalized.

Whether Swifties are good, bad or indifferent, they have one distinct advantage. Everybody can get into the act. With a little thought -- very little -- you can make up your own list for ready reference at parties, social gatherings, every tete-a-tete, etc. Better hurry, though, for I am quick to make what Tom himself might have thought a keen observation about Swifties: They belong to a fad that's sure to be short-lived.

Oddments and Endments
"RIGHT AGAIN? --- State Supreme Court Justice Edward G. Baker has just ruled that assigning kids to school according to racial quotas is violative of the law.

Last week, in this column I called such practice unconstitutional.

It looks as though State Education Commissioner James E. Allen, Jr. will have to learn, the hard way, that he cannot pervert or subvert even one section of the U.S. Constitution by handing down undemocratic pronouncements from the heights of his hither-to largely unassailable ivory tower...

WONDERINGS -- I wonder why the business manager of the Hicksville School District suddenly up and quit a few months ago? And I wonder why the Hicksville School Board abruptly quieted then Board President Jerome Zettler when he wanted to publicly address himself to the matter at a Board meeting?

I also wonder how many other skeletons the Hicksville Board has buried in its rather roomy closet space?---

MY PROPOSED short-and-sweet code of ethics for politicians and all public officials. Each one should

1. Renounce political-plum, grabbing as a way of life.
2. Take oath to tell the public the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth at all times.
3. Renounce political payoffs and favor handouts as a way of life.

Maybe I'm a trifle cynical. But when politicians and the average public official, high or low, subscribe to that kind of code; not only Dutch Schultz will rise from the dead; John Dillinger and Lefty Louie will be right along with him.

In Service

Naval Aviation Cadet Richard J. Mato, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Mato of 12 Cable Lane, Hicksville, reported to the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. August 12, as a student at the

New Officers Baseball Auxiliary

The Women's Auxiliary of the Hicksville Baseball Assoc., Inc. will be installing their new officers for the 1964 season at their next meeting, Wednesday, September 25 at 8:30 p.m. in Levittown Hall.

This is one of the most important and colorful

Auxiliary meetings of the year. There are still a few positions not filled - this gives some of the new members of the organization an opportunity to express themselves, feel more a part of the organization and assist in helping their sons. We urge all to attend. Following the business meeting and installation of officers there will be an informal Buffet.

MOVE UP TO CHRYSLER '64

Engineered better...backed better than any car in its class

The '64 Chryslers are here: the luxurious New Yorker (above); sports-bred 300; and the surprisingly easy-to-own Newport.

Clean. Crisp. Handsome. Designed in the modern concept. Bold but not brassy. Engineered by men who have accounted for more "firsts" than any automobile maker. So well built the vital moving parts are warranted for 5 years or 50,000 miles. (Details below.)

The '64 Chryslers are full of news: there's an optional steering wheel you can adjust, up or down, to any one of seven different positions. Bucket seats are standard on 300 models (passenger's reclines).

These are the '64 Chryslers. They have no junior editions to compromise your investment. Go see them. Move up to Chrysler '64.

Best protection for a solid investment... 5-year-50,000-mile warranty. Chrysler Corporation warrants, for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, against defects in materials and workmanship and will replace or repair at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business, the engine block, head and internal parts, intake manifold, water pump, transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch), torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings of its 1964 automobiles, provided the owner has the engine oil changed every 3 months or 4,000 miles, whichever comes first, the oil filter replaced every second oil change and the carburetor air filter cleaned every 6 months and replaced every 2 years, and every 6 months furnishes to such a dealer evidence of performance of the required service, and requests the dealer to certify (1) receipt of such evidence and (2) the car's then current mileage.
