ARTIST'S VIEW of Holy Trinity Catholic High School to be built in Hicksville. School will have enrollment of 2400 students.

Diocesan High School in Hicksville To Hold 2400

Holy Trinity Diocesan High School will be erected on a 20 acre site located in Hicksville.

Designed by George J. Dippell, architect, of Massapequa, the new school, which will accommodate 1,200 boys and 1,200 girls, will consist physically of an academic area containing separate wings for boys and girls. Those facilities used by both, such as the art room, language laboratories, science rooms and business education suite, will be centrally located in the academic classroom building.

The teaching staff will be housed in two separate residences, one at either end of the academic classroom building. On top of the classroom block, living quarters will be provided for four priests, among them, the principal of the school.

Facing one side of a landscaped courtyard just forward of the academic classroom building, the library will provide study space for 250 students and will place at their disposal 20,000 volumes.

On the opposite side of the courtyard, there will be two chapels, each seating 125 persons, to be used by both the student and the faculty.

The gymnasium, cafeteria, and auditorium complex of buildings will be served from the main lobby. The gymnasium will seat 1,200 spectators on folding bleachers and will include locker-showers rooms. Adjacent to the gymnasium, the cafeteria will serve a thousand students at one sitting and will provide a functional meeting space for various social activities for the student body and the school community in general.

With 1,250 seats and a completely equipped stage suitable for plays and musical performances, the auditorium is designed to function also as an auxiliary chapel. A music suite will be located adjacent to the stage and will include a rehearsal room for band and choir practice, music library, storage for instruments and robes, and six individual practice rooms, which will also double as dressing rooms for the stage.

Administrative offices, faculty rooms and a student guidance area are included in the plans.

REPUBLICAN RECRUITS and their upcoming generation are shown demonstrating their campaign bandwagon to Town Ticket Candidates who seek approval of the voters on November 5th. Youngest of the group is Deble Reynolds, 4, kneeling. The approving candidates are, left to right: Supervisor Thomas H. Pynohon; Town Clerk William B. O'Keefe; Councilmen Edmund A. Ocker, A. Carl Grunewald, Edward J. Poulos; Town Tax Receiver Frank J. Hynes; Jones Fund Trustee William E. Buchman; Highway Superintendent Norman T. Wolf and District Court Judge Benjamin Zipper.

GOP Pushes Voter Regis.

In an unprecedented move for Republicans in Nassau County, C. Bruce Pearsall named Michael M. D'Auria of Plainview Registration Drive Chairman, who is now engaged in organizing area chairmen across the Town for the G.O.P. effort. Pearsall, in announcing his plans, said "The registration drive is aimed at getting as many voters in addition to Republicans registered so they will be able to vote on the one critical issue in this campaign. "Every eligible voter in the Town, regardless of Party, has a vital stake in the outcome of the Nov. 5th Town elections. Developments in the past year have made the issue of this election crystal-clear. The Democrats are bent on citifying the suburbs. The pattern has been definitely established by their own statements and their concept of government. The Republicans are committed to a policy of preserving our suburbs and one-family-home atmosphere. They are resisting all Democrat schemes to turn the mid-island communities of our Town of Oyster Bay into canyons of concrete with skyscraper apartments as well as their well-concealed plot to wreck the pastoral beauty of the North Shore communities.

Bruning Named To Cemetery Group

Kenneth W. Bruning of Levittown has been appointed to the Long Island National Cemetery Committee by Thomas Judge, also of Levittown, commander of the Nassau County Council of the Disabled American Veterans.

Bruno Asks School Close On Holy Days

School Trustee William A. Bruno Jr. petitioned the School Board this week to close the public schools during the Jewish High Holy Days.

Mr. Bruno has pointed out that it is economically unfeasible for the Hicksville School District to stay open on these days when schools in surrounding districts are closed. The motion submitted to the Board is as follows: I do hereby propose, as Board policy the following: That the schools in District # 17 be closed on High Jewish Holidays. (Rosh Hashonah and Yom Kippur)

Respectfully submitted,
William A. Bruno, Jr.
Member.

Several Roads To Be Widened By County

A plan unearthed by Oyster Bay Supervisor Tom Pynchon shows that the Nassau County Dept. of Public Works has plans to widen the following local streets: In Hicksville, John Street from Cantiague Road to Broadway; and Woodbury Road from Broadway to South Oyster Bay Road continuing through Plainview. In Bethpage, Stewart Avenue from South Oyster Bay Road to Central Avenue; in Plainview, Old Country Road from South Oyster Bay Road to Manetto Hill Road.

Pynchon scored the County for keeping these plans secret but county leaders have said that they withheld them because the plans were not complete.

Thinking It Over

by Robert L. Morgan

In the past few weeks we have heard stories about a big investigation of branch banking in Long Island. The idea being advanced by some banking interests is that there are too many branch banks on Long Island and competition must be cut down.

This may not be the case in Hicksville, however. Because of a government ruling Hicksville has not been favored with branch banks. The ruling excludes Hicksville from the competition because it is the headquarters of the Long Island National Bank and cannot be considered for the establishment of branches. This leaves Hicksville with only two banks. A good sized branch of the progressive Meadowbrook Bank which gained access to Hicksville by buying the Bank of Hicksville some years ago, and the Meadowbrook has in turn built one of the outstanding office buildings in Hicksville and has helped greatly with the progress of Hicksville. We cannot help but think that a few more branches from banks of this caliber would help Hicksville.

We do not presume to know how many banks Hicksville can support, but we know that any area needs adequate banking in order to grow. We have seen Hicksville bi-passed while other areas get more banks than they need. It would seem that the Controller of the Currency should in addition to turning an ear to the banking institutions, listen to the general public. Under free enterprise we are committed to competition in all spheres of business.

Cold Feet Need More Circulation

By C. A. Dean, M.D.

(Q) "My husband's feet stay icy cold all the time. Wool socks, hot applications don't help. What causes this?" Mrs. L.R.

(A) This is most likely due to poor arterial circulation to his legs. A complete examination, possibly including an arteriogram (a special X-ray of the blood vessels to his legs), is advised. Medicines or an operation may help, depending upon what is found wrong.

MEDITORIAL: Curvature of the spine is a very general term and does not pertain to just one type of deformity. The three main varieties are scoliosis (side to side curvature), kyphosis (round back) and lordosis (sway back).

There are several causes for scoliosis but in most cases no causative agent can be found. Occasionally scoliosis is seen in cases where one leg is shorter than the other and in others where a person has been deaf in one ear or has had some trouble with his eyes. At other times some patients have just had poor posture and will stand in an odd sort of way with one hip or shoulder hiked up.

Some of the worst cases of scoliosis result from a certain disease such as polio, rickets, draining chronic lung infection (empyema), tuberculosis of the spine and from congenital deformities of the back. Poliomyelitis and muscular dystrophy lead to scoliosis because they destroy the normal balance of the muscles that hold the spine straight.

When the curvature is very small there are usually no complaints. Since the deformity progresses very slowly, it may reach considerable proportions before its presence is noted. Sometimes the child, when first seen by the doctor, will have a high hip or shoulder or a projecting shoulder blade. Sometimes the child will complain of being tired or will have a backache before it is noticed.

Tomorrow I will continue this discussion of curvature of the spine, including treatment.

Do you have a medical question? Write Dr. C. A. Dean in care of this newspaper.

What's Wrong With College Students?

By Russell Kirk

At least half of the students who enter our colleges do not complete their studies and do not take degrees. As I have suggested in an earlier column, a large part of the student body seems aimless and bored while enrolled. How many undergraduates are genuinely interested in something for the mind? And what is the trouble with those who aren't?

A modest inquiry into these problems has been made by Mr. K.S. Hogg, Jr., of the Saginaw Kiwanis Joint Committee for Public Education. He sent questionnaires to the several state universities of Michigan, asking university officials about the motives of freshmen. (Bear in mind that these are responses from important officers of the universities, who naturally are inclined to speak well of their own students.) On the average, the survey revealed, some 15 per cent of freshmen are "highly motivated students devoted to scholarship and...working very close to their maximum capacities," in the opinion of university officials.

About 30 per cent of the freshmen could do better work, but still are reasonably serious students; about 35 per cent are working well below their natural abilities, though they may obtain marks good enough to squeeze by; and about 19 per cent do next to nothing.

This Kiwanis committee also inquired whether there is a noticeable lack of ability to read adequately in the lower two groups; the answer from the university officials was a clear "yes." They emphasized, however, that programs in "speed reading" do not succeed in remedying this deficiency. And they felt that even more serious than reading troubles are other factors — among them, the attitudes of family and community toward the goals — if any — of education; the aimlessness in general of many students; the lack of sound personal goals. Much of the difficulty, it seemed, came from the families of the students.

The university officers agreed that better instruction in reading in primary and secondary schools would help these students greatly in college, nevertheless.

Having visited colleges in nearly every state of the Union, I fancy that Michigan is sufficiently typical of America generally, so far as motive and performance of students is concerned.

In the words of Mr. Hogg, "I have a strong conviction that education, to any level, should be available to any citizen who can profit by it and is willing to put a reasonable amount of effort into his studies. On the other hand, if tax money is going to be used to increase the number of kids who go to college for social, athletic, and similar reasons, not connected with scholastic achievement, I believe this should be clearly spelled out, so that the citizens can make the decision with full knowledge of what it means."

The university and college empire-builders want to double the capacity of American colleges within a decade. But what good will it do to lure in twice as many bored and aimless students — indeed, to increase the proportion thereof? There is no genuine education except self-education. Learning cannot be poured into an empty human vessel, as milk into a bottle.

Get Recognition At University

Carol Helmeyer, 10 Mozart Lane, and Linda Silver, 54 Butehorn St., Bethpage, have qualified for scholastic recognition at Indiana University's Founders' Day program next May by being named to the Dean's Honors Lists this past semester.

Students in the Junior (Freshman) Division are so honored by earning a "B" grade average; sophomores and upperclassmen must earn an average of nearly "B" plus, or 3.3 out of a possible 4 point average.

Also to be recognized at Founders' Day, when the University marks its birthday with tribute to scholastic excellence, will be a similar group of students winning the honor the first semester of 1963-64.

Keep your mind on the road, not on your troubles. Don't worry about business, the family, or what may happen tomorrow. Keep alert to what's happening now. Good driving's a full-time job requiring an alert mind and body. If you must worry, do it in your leisure time.

WHEN YOU DRIVE...

Think now, complain later. "Med" at someone or something? Turn it off when you turn your ignition on. Anger, no matter who or what it's directed at, can color your whole driving attitude, making you a menace to other motorists on the road.

THINK

Think wise... think cagey... think careful, cautious, cheerful, courteous driving. Good driving is the responsibility of every motorist. A cheerful attitude toward others on the road will get you to your destination more relaxed than if you find fault with every driver along the way. Think careful driving when you're behind the wheel. And, when you think of protection against the hazards of other not-so-careful drivers, think of State Farm, the careful driver's insurance company.

My Opinion

By Hicksville School Trustee William A. Bruno, Jr. (Opinions expressed in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily represent the opinions of this newspaper.)

A school district trustee has broad supervisory responsibility over the expenditure of school district moneys. Likewise, a school board member is directly responsible for the efficiency of the public school system he helps supervise.

It follows that unless a school district trustee is supplied with full information relative to the whole operation, he cannot acquit his duties to the people of the district.

Since I have been continually hamstrung in my efforts to carry out the duties of my office by Superintendent of Schools Donald F. Abt, who in the past has been backed up by the six-man Board majority, I have this week sent a formal complaint to State Commissioner of Education Allen.

As my letter of complaint speaks for itself, I here quote it in full:

Hon. James E. Allen, Jr.
Commissioner of Education
State Education Department
Albany, New York

Dear Dr. Allen:
Enclosed are copies of letters dated September 13, 16, 17, and 18, 1963, which I, as a duly elected member of the Hicksville School Board, sent to Hicksville Superintendent of Schools Donald F. Abt. To date, in accordance with his usual policy of refusing to give me information about school district affairs, Mr. Abt has answered none of these letters.

Mr. Abt has repeatedly, over the last several months, refused to supply me with information concerning the economic and administrative affairs of the Hicksville School District. And on one very important occasion the six-man School Board majority ruled that Abt need not supply me with information. Then, again just recently Board President George A. Jackson, in a "presidential directive", told the administration not to give me copies of school district bills.

I therefore, call upon you, as the chief executive officer of the public school system of this state, to order Superintendent Abt and the six-man Hicksville School Board majority to forthrightly and promptly supply me with records or information concerning Hicksville School District affairs whenever I request such data.

Please note that in my letter of September 17 I ask Mr. Abt to explain why several children in the third grade of the Woodland Avenue school are reportedly without textbooks. I think that I, as a duly elected member of the Hicksville School Board, am not only entitled to an answer to this question, but to an immediate answer to the question.

It is my contention that no school superintendent or school board can lawfully refuse to supply information concerning school district affairs to any district taxpayer, not to say a school board member. The only exception to that rule of law would be data or records specifically restricted by statute.

It is my further contention that the questions I pose in the enclosed series of letters as to matters peculiarly within Mr. Abt's knowledge, and that he should therefore answer them without the slightest equivocation.

I fully realize that there is a deplorable tendency among educationists in general and the Hicksville school administration and Board majority in particular to hew to the law of this state only when it can be construed to read in their favor.

In that connection, I am sure you will agree that any school district official who deliberately flouts the law sets a poor example indeed for the school children of the district. This attitude upon the part of many grownups may help explain a growing phenomenon of our times: the contempt and utter disrespect many youngsters, some of them of college age, evince for the forces of law and order.

I would appreciate it if you would favor me with a speedy reply.

In the event you shall deem it necessary to afford to Mr. Abt, and or the Board of Education of Hicksville School District an opportunity to respond to the charges made in this letter, you may consider this letter a formal charge against him and the Board of Education and respectful petition on my behalf to you for a review of my charges against them.

I am forwarding copies of this letter to Mr. Abt, Board President A. Jackson, and members of the Board of Education.

I am verifying this letter as a petitioner so as to conform with any possible requirement that the same be in the form of a verified petition. Your early action upon this request and petition and the issuance of such directives as you may deem proper under all circumstances would be sincerely appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

William A. Bruno, Jr.

Sworn to before me, the 25th day of September, 1963 SS (State of New York) (County of Nassau)

William A. Bruno, Jr. being duly sworn deposes and says that I am the above named petitioner; that I have read the foregoing charges and petition and knowledge the content thereof; that the same is true to my own knowledge except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief, and that as to those matters I believe to be true.

As a result of my persistent inquiries, Mr. Abt has finally admitted that there is no need to buy a strip of land adjacent to the high school, which was to be part of the $1.8 million building referendum in November.

Because I took the time to investigate the need for this strip, which Mr. Abt has now found to be unnecessary, I estimate that local taxpayers have been saved approximately $30,000.

This development points a finger of suspicion at the need for condemning a piece of land next to the Willet Ave. school property. That piece, also slated for a November vote, would cost the taxpayers $70,000 plus $46,200 in interest over a 30-year period, or a total of $116,200.

If this property, like the high school property, is not needed, the spending of $116,200 for it would be a gross waste of taxpayers' money.

Is it any wonder that the superintendent of schools has repeatedly denied me information about the fiscal affairs of the district? Remember the School Board meets tonight (Thursday). Typical of the Board majority public relations - NO public announcements. (To be continued)

Horse Show Big Success

The Mid-Island Council 11th Annual Girl Scout Equestrienne Horse Show was held on Saturday, September 14, at the Bethpage Riding and Polo Academy. Girl Scouts, 280 in number, from every town in the Council, participated in the show. These budding horsewomen rode their mounts, in their own particular event, hoping to qualify and be judged a winner of Trophy or Ribbon, by Mrs. James Fallon.

Spectators and girls, watched and cheered for their favorites as a new crop of riders joined the long-time practitioners of the sport. Under a grey sky, in the crisp air, high spirited steeds and riders performed to perfection.

Riding into the "Winner's Circle" as Grand Champion to receive the Walter Scanlon Memorial Trophy, presented by Mrs. Walter Scanlon, was #54, Jane Pepper of Westbury. She was followed by Peggy Gloseff of Wantagh, Reserve Champion who received the Frieda Burnett Grand Championship Challenge Trophy for the second year. The Dorothy Fallon Challenge Trophy was also awarded to #55, Peggy Gloseff.

In the Beginner & Junior Open, the winner was #217, Marsha Goldman of Hicksville. The Intermediate Horsemanship Open Award went to #247, Debbie Miles from Farmingdale. Winner of the Advanced Horsemanship Open was #250, Pamela Weldeman of Westbury. The Parent and Child Class was awarded to #179, The Russell's, also from Farmingdale.

The number of participants taking part; along with Ribbon Winners in the Show, certainly proves that Mid-Island Council has a group of which to be proud, both for ability and sportsmanship.

The Girl Scout Horsemanship Program, headed by Mrs. Alphon Westee Jr. of Westbury, is the most popular offered by Mid-Island Council. It provides the wonderful opportunity of qualified instructions to the girls, at a nominal cost, in order for them to fully enjoy this exciting and healthful sport.

It is with the fullest cooperation of the Bethpage Academy's manager, Mrs. Walter Scanlon and instructors Mr. Robert Conroy and Mr. Michael Ryan, that the Program is carried on each year.

The right of free choice is "The American Way" and Oil permits you to exercise that right. Why be at the mercy of one fuel source when you can choose from many independent dealers?

Oil dealers are, and must stay competitive, and where competition exists the consumer benefits. Lower prices and better service are just two of these benefits...and with Oil a personal relationship between supplier and consumer is possible.

Only Oil is "Hospital Clean"... a clear odorless liquid that burns completely in its own sealed combustion chamber.

Only Oil gives Total Heating Service. Other fuels tell you to solve your own problems at your own expense.

Only Oil gives you a Personal Fuel Supply on Your Premises, to use at your convenience. Broken long distance pipe lines can't trouble you.

Bethpage Legion

Aux. News

On September 19, 1963 our first fall meeting was held at the American Legion Hall, Bethpage.

At our meeting our President, Mrs. John Sullivan, Mrs. John Mazzie and Mrs. Adele Corrigan reported on their very impressive trip to the New York State American Legion Auxiliary Convention, held in Rochester, N.Y., from July 31 to August 3. They told of the many wonderful projects which are being carried on by all the Auxiliaries throughout the State. These projects aid the many veterans and their families who fought and gave their lives for us.

Mrs. John Mazzie, Past President of our Unit, and Past Nassau County Chairman, was elected 10th District Chairman of Nassau County American Legion Auxiliary, and was presented with a bouquet of red American beauty roses from her Unit. Mrs. Mazzie has been a very conscientious and able worker.

Mrs. Sullivan was given the honor of carrying the Nassau County banner in the Color Guard at the Convention.

Postmaster Given Treasury Citation

Postmaster, Patrick J. Foley of Bethpage, N.Y., said today he had received a letter from William H. Neal, National Director of the U.S. Savings Bond

Division, commending the local post office for its successful efforts in promoting the sale of U.S. Savings Stamps, and announcing that children buying their first stamps of the school year will be given a free certificate signed by the seven Mercury Astronauts, de-ignating them as "Junior Astronauts." These certificates are now available at the Post Office.

"Just as the good service rendered by Post offices is all-important to the success of School Savings, so is the leadership of Postmasters a source of encouragement to teachers, parents, pupils, and the many volunteers who participate in this patriotic thrift program," Mr. Neal wrote. "From your past performance," he added, "I know you will wish to continue your help in stimulating the interest of all these groups, thereby encouraging more schools to participate in the program in the months ahead."

"May I thank you once again for the loyal support given this program over the past twenty-three years, and offer my wishes for future success in the thrift services provided so ably by you to your community and your nation."

In his own endorsement,

Postmaster Foley said: "Selling Savings Stamps through the schools and over the counter to the public is a part of the Post Office Department's services of which we are particularly proud. The treasury-sponsored School Savings Program not only promotes practical thrift but also acquaints our young people with their government and their duties and privileges as American citizens."

I know of no finer way to build for a better tomorrow than by training our youth of today in the sound American Heritage of thrift.

Savings Stamps in 10¢, 25¢, 50¢, $1 and $5 sizes are on sale at the post office at all times, as well as on Stamp Day in schools.

The '64s from Ford are here: The Year of the Test Drive starts today!

Ford cars have changed. Only a test drive can tell you how much. Races and rallies, economy runs, braking and acceleration tests have bred into our 1964 models the kind of total performance you just can't create on the test track alone. They are hard-muscled, fast-moving, sure-footed. Open competition helped make them that way. They offer you substantially more car than anything at their price. You don't have to take our word for it. We're willing to rest our case on our cars.
