REPRODUCTIONS of the 1653 First Purchase Deed of Town Territories was presented to historians at Colonial Raynham Hall. (L to r.) Mrs. Irving N. Hutchinson, Oyster Bay member of the Historical Advisory Committee and the D.A.R.; Miss Dorothy Horton McGee, Locust Valley and Mrs. Eugene Taliroff, Laurel Hollow, of the Friends of Raynham Hall; Councilman Louis A. Petito Wins Out But GOP Bd. Stays

Michael Petito, Democratic candidate for the Supervisor of the Township of Oyster Bay became the first member of his party to crack the solid GOP block Tuesday as he inched out incumbent Thomas Pynchon for the position which also includes membership on the Republican dominated Nassau County Board of Supervisors.

The Petito victory somewhat resembled the County Executive race of two years ago when Eugene Nickerson beat Robert Dill to become the first Democratic County Executive of Nassau County. The resemblance was further underlined by the fact that all other Republican contenders won by fair margins.

This included the Town Board which is still completely Republican.

Petito, former Nassau welfare commissioner, defeated incumbent GOP Town Supervisor Thomas R. Pynchon by a vote of 45,960 to 43,589. A Liberal Party candidate for the office, Saverio F. D'Otton, received 1,283 votes. Pynchon trailed his ticket.

Of the town officers, Frank J. Hynes, a Republican, was reelected as town receiver of taxes with 47,759 votes over Democrat Richard J. Lang with 41,257 and Liberal John C. Dickler with 1,410. Hynes led the Republican ticket. Placing a close second as a vote-getter was Town Clerk William (Bud) O'Keeffe, a Republican, who was reelected with 47,420 votes. His Democratic opponent, Katherine M. Gianelli received 40,665 votes and Liberal Jack Hochman had 1,870. Highway Superintendent Norman T. Wolf, a Republican, was reelected with 45,771 votes over Democrat Herbert J. Simins with 43,064.

First National City's New READY-CREDIT Plan provides you with ready cash whenever (and for whatever) you want

1 First National City's Ready-Credit Plan lets you borrow money by just writing Ready-Credit checks against your own personal Ready-Credit account.

2 And now this unique way to borrow is available as a new 24-month Ready-Credit Plan...as well as the original 12-month Ready-Credit Plan. Each month you repay either 1/24 or 1/12 (depending on the plan you choose) of the amount you owe plus interest. Or you can repay as fast as you want to—within a few days, a week, a month.

3 The credit you establish with a Ready-Credit account in good standing is always available to you. The amount you borrow is yours to use exactly as you would a sum of money in an ordinary checking account. You can write a Ready-Credit check for the whole amount available or any part of it. Anywhere, any time, for anything you want.

4 Ready-Credit is continuous credit. The money you repay each month (plus any unused portion of your Ready-Credit account) is automatically yours to draw on, over and over again. Once you become a First National City Ready-Credit customer, you are spared the inconvenience of negotiating a new loan every time you need extra money. A Ready-Credit account in good standing is good indefinitely.

5 You establish the amount of money you would like to have in your Ready-Credit account—any amount from $120 to $5,000. When your application is approved, the money is always at your beck and call—but you are never charged interest on it until you actually use it. Example: You have a Ready-Credit account of $500. You see a new coat on sale and write a check for $75 to purchase it. You are then charged interest only on the $75 you actually use at the rate of 1% per month, plus twenty cents for the Ready-Credit check.

6 Ready-Credit checks look just like ordinary bank checks. When you pay with a First National City Ready-Credit check, no one need know you are using borrowed money.

7 You receive a Ready-Credit statement monthly. It credits your payments, shows you your balance, checks drawn, and the total amount available for your future use.

8 To get your Ready-Credit application started, stop by any branch of First National City or simply dial 559-3333 and say, "Ready-Credit, please."

Use this handy chart to figure your maximum Ready-Credit

Christian Mothers Discuss Reading

On October 28, the St. Ignatius Loyola Auxiliary of Christian Mothers held their regular monthly meeting in the school auditorium.

The main item of discussion was the Remedial Reading School opened with 225 pupils registered, including children from both in and outside of the parish. The Dominican Sisters teaching are from our parish and many other Dominican parishes.

Reverend Leo J. Goggin delivered a message of interest and inspiration to the mothers and Sister Venard announced that a beautiful statue of the Infant of Prague will be won by some lucky person at the November 17 Cake Sale.

At the conclusion of the regular business meeting new members were received into the Confraternity and there was a general renewal of promises by all the members.

Mrs. Patrick McGee, Program Chairman, had a very entertaining evening in store. As announced, it was a "Vintage Hat Show", very ably directed and narrated by Mrs. Marie Cloud and modeled by members of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Cloud is the Eastern Public Relations manager for the Sperry and Hutchinson Company, distributor of the famous S & H Green stamps. Among other interesting facts of her background, she was one of the first five women of the world to pilot a jet aircraft. In 1959 she was named an honorary Colonel in the United States Air Force Reserve, and she is also listed in Who's Who of American Women.

We are all familiar with some of the lovely gifts which are available through the S & H Catalog, but seeing them in reality was a treat. Our lovely model, Mrs. Leonard Ruggiero wore a beige chiffon cocktail dress and a matching cardigan of cashmere with a collar of natural autumn haze mink.

In a somewhat lighter vein the show moved on to a display of hats dating from the early 1800s to the 1960s. While Mrs. Patrick Lehman and Mrs. Joseph Hecker bravely modeled everything from hats that must have been copied from the three musketeers, through the flapper era and Greta Garbo, and on up to our present Jackie Kennedy "Pillbox". Mrs. Cloud filled in the background of the times associated with each style.

In retrospect it is easy to see why men have taken a rather dim view of some of the so-called "crazy" hats worn by the distaff side.

Following this was a contest in which six members brought hats as old as they could find and much to their surprise were requested to model them. Mrs. Robert Neder won First Prize with a 1905 bridal hat. Other winners were Mrs. Robert Selaski, Mrs. Joseph Mayz, Mrs. Victor Matuzza, Mrs. Raymond Jacobs and Mrs. Joseph Hecker, who produced hats dating around World War I.

Mrs. Jacobs had a very interesting bonnet which had actually been worn when clambing here on Long Island during the early 1900's.

The background story on the hat which won first prize has a dash of local interest and color. It was the bridal hat worn by Mrs. Gottlieb Metzger back in 1900. The Metzger's still live on Newbridge Road in the very house she came to as a bride. The price of the hat was $8.00 which is no great sum today, but fifty-eight years ago it was nearly a week's salary.

The next meeting will be held as usual on the fourth Monday of the month at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. McGee has another interesting program planned at which the Very Rev. Msgr. Michael J.

McLaughlin will be the guest speaker. Msgr. McLaughlin is the Diocesan Director of Vocations and he will speak on Integration, a topic of particular interest to all of us in the light of current events.

A happy romantic comedy combination are Doris Day and James Garner, who with Arlene Francis, co-star in Universal's "The Thrill Of It All." The laugh riot in color is a Ross Hunter-Arwin Production, and starts at Hicksville Theatre Wednesday, November 6.

Thinking It Over

by Robert L. Morgan

Now that the people and Garden City resident Harry Guggenheim have spoken, the Town of Oyster Bay has a new supervisor.

We hope that it is for the best.

We can't be sure it is, however, because the campaign was not run to qualify Mr. Petito for office, but rather to disqualify Mr. Pynchon.

But since an election is final there is no use quibbling about it. Mr. Petito will take office on January 1, 1954.

We hope at that time that the assurances we have been given that the Democratic Party does not stand for more centralization of government, including zoning decisions and all other divisions of the local government, will be remembered. We thought we saw faint murmurings of centralization before the campaign which were quickly denied by the Democratic party during the campaign. And since the Dems must believe that the people want local government within reach of local homeowners or they wouldn't deny centralization during the campaign, let's remember their promises for the next two years.

In spite of the fact that this newspaper backed the Republican candidate, we hope that Mr. Petito gets a fair chance at the job and we hope that the Town Board will not indulge in the tactics now being employed in the County. This would serve no constructive purpose. Since Petito has been duly elected, let's give him a chance to be a Supervisor.

Change Of Season Ailments In Offing

By C. A. Dean, M.D.

MEDITORIAL: The onset of cool weather brings relief from warm weather miseries. It also brings increased respiratory and viral ailments. I commented yesterday on the probability of an increase in flu. Today I wish to speak about some other diseases common at this time of year.

First and foremost are the respiratory ailments known by various names — colds, la grippe, upper respiratory disease and "the virus." The symptoms are pretty much the same for all; runny eyes, runny nose, sneezing, cough, sore throat, fatigue, chills and fever. All or only some of these symptoms will be present in a given case, which runs a course of a few days to a week or so. Home remedies of aspirin and the like, bed rest and forced fluids usually control most patients. No specific antibiotic or vaccine is presently available for this group of diseases. Second are the childhood diseases, most of which are caused by a virus. These illnesses are almost synonymous with school opening. Measles, German measles, mumps and chicken pox all will increase as we get into winter. Of them all, measles is the worse because it produces sicker children and more complications. For this reason intensive research into a measles vaccine has been going on and, finally, an effective, safe one has been found. Studies so far have shown the new measles vaccine to be useful for all children but especially for the very young. It is a welcome addition to preventive medicine.

As for the other common childhood diseases, no effective preventative is now available. However, their relative mildness makes the need for one small.

Do you have a medical question? Write Dr. C. A. Dean in care of this newspaper.

Bethpage Legion News Notes

Veterans Day — Nov. 11 is a day to honor the veterans of America; to remember their sacrifices in war and to pay tribute to their contributions in peace.

Formerly known as Armistice Day, the designation of the holiday was changed to Veterans Day by an Act of Congress signed by the President on June 1, 1954. The law is titled "An act to honor veterans on the eleventh day of November of each year... a day dedicated to world peace."

World peace — peace with honor and dignity for the individual. Is it possible aspire to a loftier achievement? In the United States of America today, there are more than 22 million men and women who have passed the greatest test of their citizenship — honorable military service in defense of their country in time of war.

And throughout the world in neatly landscaped cemeteries and unmarked ocean graves — there are those millions of gallant Americans who made the supreme sacrifice to preserve the great American ideals of Justice, Freedom and Democracy.

Veterans Day is a time to remember our war dead and recognize also the men and women who have demonstrated their devotion and allegiance by putting their own lives in jeopardy and knowingly facing the hazards of combat to preserve this nation built on individual freedom. America has grown into the great and powerful nation it is today because every generation of Americans has contributed men and women who set the cause of liberty above life itself.

But, Veterans Day should be more than an occasion to honor those who have defended their country in time of war. This should also be a great day of re-dedication to American ideals by all citizens, young or old, veterans or non-veterans. This should be a day for each American to firmly resolve to put love of God and Country first and foremost in his daily living.

This great Nation lives today, thanks to the patriotic men and women of every generation who responded to the challenge confronting their liberty and met it with sacrificial spirit.

The members of Arctic McCord Post #86 of The American Legion, urge the citizens of Bethpage to add their participation to make this a meaningful occasion for all. By joining in the ceremonies to be held at the War Memorials, located on Broadway, south of the Junior High School at 11 A.M. on the 11th, and request that the Flag of Our Country be flown or displayed in the appropriate manner.

Legion Plans

Vets Day

Citizens of Plainview today were invited to participate in the annual observance of Veterans Day Monday, November 11, sponsored by the Plainview Post No. 1812 of the American Legion with the cooperation and support of the Veterans of Foreign War, Plainview Post of the V.F.W., and the Plainview Fire Department.

Post Commander Jack Friedman, in issuing the invitation, announced that a community committee had been appointed to organize this year's observance of this patriotic holiday. By its participation in this patriotic holiday, Plainview American Legion Post 1812 will be joining with the more than 16,000 local Legion organizations throughout the nation and overseas in the observance of Veterans Day.

Kids Cook At Nursery School

Pupils at Parkway Nursery, 19 Prairie Lane, Levittown, recently turned their talents to culinary arts. After picking their own apples, they cooked and ate their own homemade apple sauce. All pupils are reported in fine health.

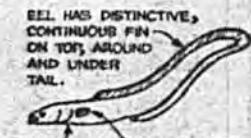

Even if your child does not aspire to be a chef, he may enjoy other activities at Parkway. The school is a New York State registered Nursery which offers a varied world of plants and animals, study toys, paints and blocks for the youngsters to explore in small classes. Each class is supervised by two qualified teachers and one parent. The school is non-profit, non-sectarian, cooperative (that means tuition is moderate).

There are a limited number of openings in the three year old group. If you are interested, hurry and call the Registrar for further information: Mrs. Daniel Schwartz, PE 1-6479.

AN INTERESTING THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO... ROOSEVELT RACEWAY

DEXTER CUP

Gen. Ulysses S. Grant was a great harness racing fan. One of his favorite horses was Dexter, a world champion trotter whom the Civil War hero liked to drive. Dexter was a son of Hambletonian, progenitor of many famous horses, and his deeds stirred sport fans in the years following the War Between the States.

In honor of Grant's favorite trotter Roosevelt Raceway initiated the Dexter Trot in 1960, a race for three-year-olds. It is contested over a distance of a mile and a sixteenth.

Quick Song won the race in 1960, setting a record of 2:10 2/5 for three-year-old trotters. Matatstar covered the distance in 2:10 in winning in 1961. The 1962 winner was Lord Gordon, who came on in the stretch to win in 2:11.

When the 1963 renewal of the Dexter Trot is held Friday, November 8, at Roosevelt Raceway, the best three-year-old trotters in the land will again face the starting gate in this classic.

NEXT WEEK — SPEEDY CLOTHES HORSES

TWIN DOUBLE NIGHTLY

Keep your mind on the road, not on your troubles. Don't worry about business, the family, or what may happen tomorrow. Keep alert toward what's happening now. Good driving's a full-time job requiring an alert mind and body, if you must worry do it in your leisure time.

WHEN YOU DRIVE...

Think now, complain later. "Mad" at someone or something? Turn it off when you turn your ignition on. Anger, no matter who or what it's directed at, can color your whole driving attitude, making you a menace to other motorists on the road.

THINK

Think wise... think cagey... think careful, cautious, cheerful, courteous driving. Good driving is the responsibility of every motorist. A cheerful attitude toward others on the road will get you to your destination more relaxed than if you find fault with every driver along the way. Think careful driving when you're behind the wheel. And, when you think of protection against the hazards of other not-so-careful drivers, think of State Farm, the careful driver's insurance company.

Hicksville Legion Gives Invitation

An invitation by First Vice Commander Arthur Rutz has been issued to all Hicksville War Veterans and their wives to inspect the facilities of the new Charles Wagner Post #421 American Legion Clubhouse on Sunday, November 10, between 4 and 7 PM. This will climax the Early Membership Drive for 1964 and will be preceded by an early afternoon door to door campaign for new members. The newly expanded, redecorated and refurbished American Legion Building is located at 24 E. Nichols Street, Hicksville, and is the largest Veterans' group headquarters in Hicksville and surrounding area.

The Charles Wagner Post #421 was founded on September 5, 1919, when a group of World War I Veterans petitioned The American Legion for a Charter. On June 5, 1923, a permanent Charter was issued by the national organization.

The Post is named after a World War I Hicksville man who lost his life in combat. Charles Wagner was a member of the 32nd Division, First Army Corps. As a member of the 107th Ammunition Train, he saw active service on the Alsace Front, Chateau Thierry and the Verdun Sector. He lost both legs in battle and died on October 2, 1918 and was buried in a military cemetery at Contrexeville, France. Following the close of World War I, his remains were brought to Long Island and laid to rest in the Holy Cross Cemetery at Westbury.

The American Legion, the world's largest Veterans' organization, is open to membership by Honorable Discharged Veterans of World War I, World War II and the Korean Conflict. Many are the reasons for its almost 3,000,000 membership but the major reasons being: Comradeship, interest in National Security, Americanism, Child Welfare and Junior Education, Legislation, Insurance Protection and Rehabilitation.

The Charles Wagner Post holds meetings on the first and third Monday evenings of each month, with every Friday evening being devoted to socializing, recreation and relaxation.

Back To School Night Nov. 12

Tuesday, November 12, the Bethpage Jr. High School will have back to school night at 7:45 p.m.

Parents are urged to attend. They follow their own children's program for the 8 periods.

Each period is for 15 minutes and parents can actually be in each and every class that their children are in during the day.

BOBWHITE TIPS

Bobwhite Quail feed largely upon grain, corn, peas, weed seeds, et cetera, the year around, and add tiny scorching to this list during winter. Hunt such fields, clearings, early morning and late afternoon when birds are feeding. Best areas are bordered with thickets that provide refuge when birds are alarmed during the middle of the day. Bobwhite quit feeding and retreat to thickets to rest and dust themselves. If you flush a bird in the open, it flies into thickets. Station yourself accordingly.

Mothers Group Sponsors Concert

The mothers group of Boy Scout Troop #378, Fork Lane School, is sponsoring a concert by the Labriola Music Studio, at Levittown Hall, November 10, at 2:30 PM, to raise funds in order to purchase scouting equipment.

Mr. Anthony Labriola is a prominent, professional entertainer. He was the "Oswald" of the Ken Murray shows on TV, and is also discussed in Mr. Murray's book, Life On A Pogo Stick. He has appeared in Broadway Shows, and is the "Oh Yeah" man himself.

Those who have seen the reruns of movies on TV, will remember him in the picture "You're a Sweetheart" with Alice Faye.

One of the top Accordionists in the business, Tony, as he is known to many, is a master teacher at his trade, and will show his talents as such to his audience at Levittown Hall.

Those wishing to attend, can purchase tickets at the door for $1.00. For further information call Mrs. L. Grunor at PY 6-8266.

Dr. Lawson At Women's Club

Dr. James D. Lawson Asst. Superintendent of Schools for the Bethpage School District will be the guest speaker at the next regular meeting of the Jr. Woman's Club of Bethpage. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Palm, club president, on Monday evening, November 11th at 8:15 p.m. Mrs. Roy Fink will be co-hostess for the evenings festivities.

The business portion of the meeting will concern itself with the completion of the clubs Thanksgiving philanthropic project, the gathering of foods for a bountiful Thanksgiving feast for a needy family.

LWV Making Fund Appeal

"Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid" ... as the League of Women Voters of Oyster Bay holds its yearly finance drive. From November 11 to the 23 League members will be writing letters and calling individuals and businesses for contributions. Quoting Mrs. Estelle Auerbach from Hicksville - "We have two reasons for conducting our finance drive this way - to collect money and to talk to the people in the community about the League, what it does and how it is organized. We are a non-partisan group and to many people this means that we function only at election time. Although we do hold candidates' meetings, distribute voting literature (this year over 150,000 facts for voters and voters' guides were distributed), and are available to the voters for information on voting procedures we do not close our notebooks the day after election."

The Oyster Bay League has published a comprehensive book, now in its 3rd printing, on our town. Included in its 36 pages is information on the local government, county government, courts, community life, education and recreation. Also available to the residents is a short leaflet giving specific information on our elected representatives and election districts. From its Speaker's Bureau the League sends members to talk to Chambers of Commerce, groups of students, religious organizations and clubs on a variety of subjects. Included are talks on Local Government, United Nations, International Trade, Financing Education and Foreign Aid. There is no charge for these speaking engagements. Throughout the Country Leagues have won praise from judicial, business, religious and legislative sources for the fair and objective way issues have been approached.

With its members meeting usually in "workshop groups" from Old Brookville to Massapequa, from Hicksville to Syosset, the League works toward being informed and informing the public on issues important to all of us. Money is needed to finance various parts of the League programs - for "Get out the Vote" campaigns, candidates meetings, fact finding studies and distribution of materials and publications. For more information on the League, call GE 3-2069. And if you would like to make a contribution, send it to League of Women Voters, P.O. Box 34, Jericho, N.Y.

December 5th.

Mr. Pellerin, the band's director, is extremely pleased with this invitation. "This is the highest honor the State Music Association can bestow on a school band. That we are in a position to accept is due in large measure to the fine training received in the lower grades," said Mr. Pellerin.

The High School Concert Band was selected from other bands in the state by a taped audition. The judging committee included State College professors and professional musicians.

Charles F. Gouse is Hicksville's instrumental music supervisor.

SPORTS

by HOWARD FINNEGAN

Hicksville High tuned up for the big football game of the year by taking Plainview, 25-0, in the rain and mud, Saturday.

The Orange and Black weren't hampered by the adverse weather conditions as Larry Welsko set the pace with over 200 yards rushing. Bruce Damm even found Bruce Cerone in the rain drops for a passing TD.

Best play of the year was turned in by end Vince Hoosack who ran back for a short thrown aerial. He grabbed it on the losers 48, made a full circle to elude the defenders, and ran in with a 67-scoring play.

The Comets visit to Plainview this Saturday could wrap the Section Championship in a three way tie. Plainview is undefeated and has taken Clarke 13-12. Clarke of course upended Hicksville 14-13.

For ourselves, we like the more historic football schools in Nassau such as Mineola, Glen Cove, Garden City, Great Neck and Westbury. Games with them create more interest and attendance. However, for many reasons including the big one that many will not risk playing the O & B, the strict leagues schedule does assure Hicksville a football slate each year.

We have in the past, been rankled by those who point a finger of inferiority at the Hicksville schedule. And it has been pointed out more than once by the Mid Island Times that the league would mature and provide representative competition.

Since it started the game, there is no better football school in Nassau than Clarke. It now appears that the others are moving up. Syosset owns a 6-0 verdict over highly regarded Garden City which lost the Section two title to the Mineola power house.

The Island Trees Rally against Hicksville, which fell short, 27-20, was no fluke. Undefeated Bethpage, with a crackerjack team, lost to the Trees 20-14 Saturday and Joe Martone's boys are headed for the Section Three championship.

If it were not for the emphatic wins of Freeport, Plainview would be in the running for the Rutgers Cup, emblematic of the Nassau Championship. Plainview has not lost and has displayed an impressive ground game and strong defense, allowing just one touchdown this campaign.

A resounding victory over Hicksville could seriously dispute the Freeport claim. There is no doubt that this Hicksville team has extraordinary talent. Coach Jim Grantham has provided a workable and attractive offense. The defense against the running game has stiffened and has been brought along for this big test.

Pete Sullivan who spurred Hicksville High to the North Shore Cross Country championship while becoming the individual winner himself ran fifth in the Class A Varsity County meet, Election Day. His 13:23 was 14 seconds off the winners pace and was good enough for an Orange and Black team finish of second place. The meet was run over the Salisbury park course.

Old Wives' Tale: "If a mother is disquieted, wrote Robert Burton in 'The Anatomy of Melancholy' in 1621, 'or if by any casualty she is affrighted by some fearful object she endangers her coming child. One Thomas Nickell went reeling and staggering all the days of his life because his mother, being great with child, saw a drunken man reeling in the street.' Well, in his new book 'Ourselves Unborn' George Washington Corner, Director of Embryology at the Carnegie Institution, laughed off Robert Burton's (1621) opinion with one of his own: 'As an honest man of science, I have to admit that I myself know of a remarkable case. A woman of my acquaintance had a craving to read "David Copperfield" while she was expecting and, upon my word, a couple of years after her son was born he was full of the "Dickens"....I'm a bit late in reporting a Montauk rodeo this summer advertised, "Rodeo-See Live Steaks in Action."....Leave it to our friends Doo and Fran Arresta to host a very successful cocktail-buffet dance for the Association for the Help of Retarded Children at the A.H.R.C. Center in Brookville, Sunday afternoon, November 17th. When our favorite druggist Doo, and his frau Fran, host any party, you can bet it'll be a tremendous success aiding a great A.H.R.C. cause....The only way to write, is to write. That's how I've always advised would-be authors. 'The best rejection slip I ever heard of was a magazine editor's note attached to a heavy manuscript. It read: "I'm returning this paper --because someone wrote on it..."...Note to Dot, and her delightful dashes: 'You're right. That Chic Farmer just reads my mind, but sometimes I think he's a little out of focus, often reminds me of Amy Babcock's line: "What many of us need most is a good vigorous kick in the can'ts!"...A nice little white house near Hicksville has this sign out front: "This House Is Not For Sale or For Rent."...A magazine article by Gretta Palmer, about divorce, includes, "Seventy-one percent of all childless marriages end in divorce, to only eight percent of marriages in which there are children. BEAUTY SECRETS

By Victor of Vilu

This Thing Called Business Ethics (Part I)

In this day of expanding shopping centers and larger and even larger super-markets, nothing has been said of the small business man who still manages to survive despite the engulfing tide. What is he like?

Your local merchant usually lives in the community in which he owns his store. He is deeply concerned, of course, with making a living, but more often than not, he still manages to find the time to work for the betterment of his local community by playing an active role in civil affairs.

The Vilu Beauty Salon is a typical case in point. By today's standards, I am a small business man. But the women who come into my shop get the same high quality of work, and enjoy the benefit of the same advanced beauty techniques that you will find in the finest salon on Fifth Avenue. During the 10 years I have served the women of Long Island, I have been fortunate in building up a large following of regular clients who depend upon Vilu for their beauty care. We worked hard and still do, to warrant this fine reputation in the community.

And this brings me to a very sore point, a question of business ethics that hits the beauty parlors harder than any other business establishment. This is the question of pirating of personnel, a distasteful practise that is indulged in by some unethical operators who try to cash in on the success of others who worked hard to attain it. When you see a sign reading "Mr. X, formerly of the XYZ Beauty Salon..." you can be certain that such pirating has taken place in the hopes of luring clients from other shops.

Vilu has never subscribed to this means of hiring its operators. We train our girls and treat them well. We provide our specialists with customers and their job is to give them the best of their training. These customers belong to the shop and not to the operators. We respect the rights of others and expect that same respect from other business people.

As a customer we hope that you will not patronize a shop that has stooped to this unethical business method. Pirating in any form, shape or manner is indecent. Do not encourage it by your patronage!

and Liberal Henry Comack with 1,453.

The three Republican town councilmen won reelection to two-year terms without difficulty. A Carl Grunewald piled up 46,755 votes to defeat Democrat Bernard Chetkoff with 40,325 and Liberal Milton Kaufman with 1,770. Councilman Edmund A. Ocker was reelected with 46,555 votes over Democrat Henry A. Kalinowsky with 41,098 and Liberal Frank J. Rizzo with 1,794. Councilman Edward J. Poulos was reelected with 45,029 over Democrat Fred J. Sutter with 40,877 and Liberal Joseph Kirschner with 1,803.

Each councilman has one vote, as has the supervisor who also acts as the town administrator and prepares the town budget for presentation to the board.

Each of the Republicans running for reelection to the Jones Fund overwhelmingly defeated Democratic and Liberal opposition.

The Nassau Chapter of "Parents Without Partners" will meet on Friday, November 8 at the Sunrise Masonic Temple, 286 West Merrick Road, Freeport. A special orientation program presenting the aims and purpose of "Parents Without Partners" to new members and guests, will begin promptly at 8:30 p.m.

"Parents Without Partners", a national, non-profit, non-sectarian educational organization dedicated to meeting the needs of single parents and their children, acts to help parents adjust to their single status and help them raise their children to happy, normal maturity. In addition to the many supporting activities, a regular meeting is held the second Friday of each month, at which specialists from various professions discuss problems of the single parent family.

Speaker for the Nov. 8 meeting will be Mr. Milton Handler, school psychologist, who will discuss the "Psychological Needs of a Parent Without a Partner."

American Legion Aux. News

Rehabilitation is a very important part of our program. There are a terrific number of Veterans, both men and women, at the Kings Park and Northport Hospitals that the Auxiliary aid. Hope, Courage, Security and new opportunities for those who gallantly served their country should be provided by us. And we need your help.

You are only being asked to add the "Woman's Touch" to the rehabilitation of our men who fought for us and were disabled, to keep the Oppressor from our doorstep.

Join and attend our meetings if you are eligible - we need you. If not eligible, you can still do your part. If you have articles of clothing (clean) that you are not using, contact an auxiliary member near you or call me: Margaret Strong, OV 1-0748, and I will try to see that they are picked up.

Interest in activities to brighten the day for Veterans has been most rewarding. Ours is the reward of seeing the pleasure and the light of happiness that we have brought with cheery, comforting assistance.
